THE DAILY PRESS

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 1895. TWO CENTS A COPY. $5 A YEAR.

FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Monthly Bulletin of New Books Added During April, 1895, Officially Published by The Daily Press.

Abbott J S C Christopher Carson.
Alcott L M Jo's boys.
" Little men.
" Little women.
" Old-fashioned girl.
" Under the lilacs.
Almost a Duchess.
Aldrich T B Story of a bad boy.
Appleton Index to annual cyc 1876-87.
Artman W Beauties etc of the blind.
Baker Sir S W Cast up by the sea.
Barr Mrs A E Bow of orange ribbon.
Ballantyne R M Gascoyne.
" Wild man of the west.
" Young fur traders.
Barrie Ja M Little minister.
" Window in Thrums.
Bates Arlo Wheel of fire.
Bayly A E Derrick Vaughn.
" Donovan.
" Knight Errant.
Behrens B Gertrude's marriage.
Besant W Capt Cook.
Black W In silk attire.
Blackmore R D Lorna Doone.
Brooks N Boy emigrants.
Brown H D Two college girls.
Broughton R Cometh up as a flower.
Burnett Mrs F H Editha's burglar.
" Little Lord Fauntleroy.
" Sara Crewe.
Burstenbinder E Alpine Fay.
" Saint Michael.
Cable G W Dr Sevier.
Carey R N For Lilias.
Chesebro C Isa A pilgrimage.
Clemens S L Huckleberry Finn.
" Prince and pauper.
Coffin C C Winning his way.
Collins W W Man and wife.
" Woman in white.
Cousin Franck's household.
Craik Mrs D M Olive.
Craik Mrs D M Young Mrs Jardine.
Crane A M Opportunity.
Crawford F M Children of the King.
Crawford F M Dr Claudius.
Crawford F M Don Orsino.
Crawford F M Greifenstein.
Crawford F M Mr Isaacs.
Crawford F M Paul Patoff.
Crawford F M Roman Singer.
Crawford F M Three Fates.
Crawford F M Witch of Prague.
Crawford F M Zoroaster.
Custer Gen Wild Life on the Plains.
Dodge M M Hans Brinker.
Dodgson Alice's Adventures in Wonderland.
Doyle A C Adventures of Sherlock Holmes.
DuMaurier G Trilby.
Dumas A Count of Monte Cristo 2v.
Dumas A Forty-five Guardsmen.
Dumas A Three Guardsmen.
Eaton F Queer Little Princess.
Edwards Ordeal for Wives.
Emerson R W English Traits.
Fawcett E Ambitious Woman.
Galaxy bound 3 v.
Gaskell Mrs Cranford ill by Hugh Johnson.
Gaskell Mrs Sylvia's Lovers.
Green, J R Short Hist of the Eng People v 4.
Hale Mrs Distinguished Women.
Harper's Magazine 7 v.
Harris Mrs M C Richard Vandermarck.
Hector A F Her Dearest Foe.
Henshall Ja A Camping and Cruising in Florida.
Henty G A Under Drake's Flag
Howard B W Aunt Serena.
Howard B W One Summer.
Howe H. The Great West.
Hughes J Tom Brown at Oxford.
Hungerford Mrs Airy Fairy Lilian.
Jackson H H Ramona.
Jamison Mrs Lady Jane.
Jones H Laws and Principles of Whist.
Kellogg E Brought to the Front.
Kidd B Social Evolution.
King C Between the Lines.
King C Colonel's Daughter.
Kirk Mrs E O Lesson in Love.
Kirk Mrs E O Margaret Kent.
Lamb C and Mary Tales from Shakespeare.
Landor Wa S Works and Life. 8 v.
Lang A Red Fairy Book.
Lee S Dict of National Biography v 41.
Longfellow H W Complete Poetical Works.
Lothrop A Dollars and Cents.
Light and Darkness.
Lytton E B Harold.
McDonald G Princess and Goblin.
McIntosh M J Lofty and the Lowly.
McMaster J B People of U S v 3.
Mantenffel U Z v Violetta.
Martin G H Massachusetts Public School System.
Miller O T Little People of Asia.
New York Historical Society Collections 5 v.
New York Weekly.
Nordhoff C Man-of-War Life.
" Merchant Vessel.
" Whaling and Fishing.
Ossoli M F At Home and Abroad.
Poole S L Coins and Medals.
Pratt M L Australasia.
" China.
" India.
" The Great West.
Raum G E Tour around the world.
Reade C Never too late to mend.
Roe A S True to the last.
Roe E P Day of fate.
" Barriers burned away.
" Near to nature's heart.
" His sombre rivals.
" Without a home.
Rohlfe Mrs A K (G) Hand and ring.
Saintier Paul Life of St Francis of Assisi.
Scott Sir Walter Pirate
" Quentin Durward.
Scottish clans (anon).
Select novels.
Sewell A Black beauty.
Sewell Miss Cleve hall.
" Glimpse of the world.
Spencer H Education.
Stockton F R Squirrel Inn.
Stoddard W O Talking leaves.
Stowe Mrs H B Uncle Tom's cabin.
Strickland A Pilgrims of Walsingham.
Terhune Mrs M V Hidden path.
Trollope A Last chronicle of Barset, 2 v.
Trowbridge J T Three scouts.
" Fast friends.
" Chance for himself.
" Silver medal.
" Young Joe.
Traill H D Social England, v 3.
Verne Jules 20,000 leagues under the sea.
Warner S Hills of the Shatemuc.
Winsor, Justin ed Memorial hist of Boston, 4 v.
Woolsey Sa C What Katy did at school.

PUFF SLEEVES OUSTED SO.

One of the Club Women's Guests Gives Away the Reason of the Banquet Limitation.

Under the head of "Feminine News and Views", written by a prominent club woman who was in Plainfield Monday, the New York Evening Sun last night printed the following concerning the Monday Afternoon Club dinner:

"Three years ago the Monday Afternoon Club gave a similar entertainment at which 300 women were present. That was when dress sleeves were in comparatively reduced circumstances, however. The present style of sleeves made it impossible for the club to accommodate more than 250 women yesterday. After an elaborate menu had been enjoyed the company turned its attention to the toasts, ten in number. The flowers and other decorations of the luncheon were exquisite, and not least among the latter were the women's bonnets. From the balcony, indeed, the entire roomful looked like a vast and well-blooming conservatory, only it was an unusually intellectual and eloquent conservatory.

The Merchant and As You Like It.

The senior English Literature class of the High School is planning entertaining exercises to be given some time in the latter part of May. The programme will consist of a number of selections from Shakespeare's plays. "The Merchant of Venice" will be given almost entire, and there will be selections from "As You Like It." The Shakespearean exercises have been given regularly by the Senior Class for the last few years.

Lacerated His Fingers.

While engaged in working about a jointing machine in Rheume's planing mill on Watchung avenue, a day or two ago, Lewis Miller of Short Hills accidentally caught his left hand in the fast revolving machinery, with the result of badly lacerating his fingers. The injuries were dressed by Dr. Rushmore, but it will be some time before he will be able to resume work.

Crescents Full of Business.

An important meeting of the Board of Governors of the Crescent Wheelmen will be held in the Board of Trade rooms tomorrow, when matters pertaining to the Decoration Day meet will be discussed. A committee will probably be appointed to decide on the prize medals. It is expected that several of the local merchants will offer special prizes for the various events. The subordinate members of the committees of which the chairmen have already been appointed will also probably be selected by President Rogers at this meeting. A club meeting will be held next Monday evening.

The Plainfield Excursionists.

A. V. D. Honeyman writes that all but two of his Plainfield excursion party have decided to go into the Yosemite. He states as a pleasant experience of their Pasadena visit a theatre party given to the entire excursion, by Lewis A. Dunn, formerly of Plainfield. In the beautiful opera-house they saw an amateur operatic performance, the best they had ever seen for amateurs, all home talent. Though 3 hours long, it was bright from beginning to finish.

Herrmann Tonight.

Herrmann, the eminent mystifier, with his newest and best feats of magic, mirth and mystery, will appear in Music Hall tonight. Herrmann's entertainment is on a large scale of magnitude this season. It takes seventeen people to assist him to perform his feats. None of these attachees are ever seen by the public, yet ever moment engaged in assisting the magician during every instant of the performance.

HYMENEAL.

Harper-Keegan.

In St. Joseph's R. C. Church yesterday afternoon at 5 took place a very pretty marriage, when James Harper and Margaret Keegan, both of this city, were joined in wedlock. The church was filled with a large number of friends of both bride and groom, who witnessed the impressive ceremony as conducted by Rev. William Miller, assisted by Rev. Mr. Freeman of Metuchen, formerly pastor of St. Joseph's Church.

The bridal party entered the church to the music of the Lohengrin march, played by Organist James Bailey, and proceeded to the altar, which was beautifully decorated with azaleas, palms, ferns, and an arch of marechal niels. The bridemaids were Margaret Nolan and Ella Mullen, and the maid of honor was Nellie McCann. The best man was James McCann. The ushers were David Kenney and Thomas E. Lowe.

The bride was attired in a princess gown of white faille silk, with pearl trimmings; her veil was fastened with pearl ornaments, gift of the groom. The maid of honor was dressed in white d'esprit over silk, trimmed with white satin ribbon and lace. The bridemaids wore white point d'esprit over white silk, trimmed with pink ribbon and white lace.

After the ceremony the wedding party were driven to 149 Manning avenue, where a pleasant reception followed.

Later in the evening the couple left for a bridal tour to Washington. On their return they will reside in North Plainfield.

Stahl—Sweeney.

J. J. Stahl and Margaret Sweeney, both of North Plainfield, where the groom is foreman of Warren Engine Company, were quietly married at St. Joseph's rectory last night at 7:30 by Rev. William Miller. Isaac Squiers was best man and Miss Rose Getchell, of Jersey City, bridemaid. A short reception followed at the home of Mrs. Wm. Newman, the bride's sister, after which the couple went to their own home at 28 Grandview avenue, where everything was in readiness for them to commence keeping house.

ANTI-TOXINE.

Successful Use of the New Discovery in Plainfield.

The two cases of diphtheria in the home of James Patterson, 5 Grove street, are progressing towards recovery, and it is expected that the quarantine will soon be removed. Duncan, the seven-year-old boy who was taken suddenly ill a week ago last Sunday, had anti-toxine administered by Dr. J. H. Carman Monday night, and again Tuesday morning; and Thursday his throat was pronounced absolutely clear of membrane, and he is today as well as ever.

Jessie, the nine-year-old girl, who had been ill two days prior, and who did not have the disease so severely, is also nearly well. This is the first diphtherical case treated with anti-toxine successfully in this city, so far as known, and is gratifying to the physician as well as to the children's parents. The quarantine has been so strictly adhered to in the house that up to the present time the other four children have escaped contagion.

Ran Away and Lamed Himself.

While standing in front of an East Ninth street residence, yesterday afternoon, the horse attached to the delivery wagon of Woolston & Buckle, the North avenue wallpaper dealers, became frightened, and started on a terrific pace down the street. After going a short distance the animal lurched to one side and ran full force into a water hydrant. The shock of the collision threw the horse to the ground, and tangled him in the harness so that he was unable to rise till Howard Woolston and J. F. Buckle released him, when it was found that he had seriously bruised and lamed himself. The wagon was badly damaged.

Fraternal Visit.

Unity Lodge, 102, K. of P., meet in their room in the Babcock Building tonight. They will receive a fraternal visit from Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, the oldest Pythian lodge in the city. Eight candidates will have the first rank conferred on them, and the following officers from Perseverance Lodge will by request confer the work: C. C.—Jacob C. Blimm; V. C.—S. J. Higham; Prelate—L. Mohring; Master at Arms—J. Milligan, and Master of Work, L. J. Robinson, in the absence of Deputy Grand Chancellor Patterson, through sickness in his family. Past Chancellor Cadwallader Jones, one of the oldest Pythians in this State, will introduce the brethren, and a very pleasant and fraternal time is anticipated.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

LOCAL ANNEXATION.

Our Local Canada Not Likely to Wed Us.

ITS COUNTY PAPA OBJECTS.

Somerset County Has Lost All the Territory She Intends to, and the Borough People Are as a Rule Content to Remain Distinctive.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY PRESS:

—The question has occasionally appeared in the local papers of this city at different times in reference to the annexation of North Plainfield with Plainfield, and in every instance the articles emanated from persons who were decidedly in favor of the project. The subject is one the public for several years has heard agitated, and while the question has always been a remote one it has had many advocates on both sides of the brook, who cherish it as they would a fond dream.

The proper time, if there was ever any, for the consummation of joining together the two Plainfields, was some ten years ago, before the adoption of the borough form of government by the citizens of that municipality.

What the citizens of the borough of North Plainfield have to gain by uniting with the city of Plainfield, is hard to discern. That the older government would be the gainer, no one who will study the situation will deny. The borough today enjoys all the luxuries that her sister city does, with a lower rate of taxation, and the borough officials are constantly improving the public highways in a manner satisfactory to all within its borders. Of course the progress is not as rapid as in the older city, but in considering the difference in the populations it speaks very well for them and their careful methods in governing. In all articles on this question there has been left out of the debate the greater loser of all, Somerset County, whose officials by no means would let the territory slip away from them without a strong protest. And it is almost safe to say that under no circumstances would they allow their largest town in the way of population and riches to be taken from them.

Somerset County has lost all the territory that she intends to. Many years ago it contained within its borders both Princeton and Rutgers colleges, and then the county line ran as far as George street, New Brunswick, and so on, taking in Princeton. With concession to Mercer and Middlesex counties she became one of the small counties; and now to ask her citizens to yield the largest and most profitable town in her domain to a larger and richer county, seems somewhat preposterous.

In 1878, Plainfield, in a fit of generosity—with a political string to it—yielded up a tract almost as large as the borough in the southern end of the city, which contains the beautiful Hillside Cemetery and the hamlet of Alton. It certainly seems ludicrous to tell a person that Hillside Cemetery and all that dale and valley in the Short Hills belongs to Fanwood township, but that is where it belongs. It was ceded to Fanwood only as recently as 1875. That valuable territory should never have passed away from Plainfield's keeping. That it was a great mistake, everyone must admit. The city limits of Plainfield today contain many miles of streets that sooner or later must be paved, and with Netherwood, Evona and the other sections of the city that contain so much unimproved property that in a few years will be opened up, thus adding more streets to care for, it does seem that the authorities of the city must indeed use wise discrimination and forethought if they are successfully to steer the ship of state through to the satisfaction of the taxpayer and at the same time keep apace with the march of improvements that makes the town talked of more than any other in the State.

In the meantime, with a steady, constantly increasing growth, the borough will move along in its quiet way, making public improvements and history to the end of this century, and way long into the next, unless a new county is formed, with Plainfield as the county seat, and then, and only then, will North Plainfield be able to leave old Somerset, whose pride and model it is.

The growth of the borough is, and has been steadily on the increase, and in whatever light you wish to look at it the progress has been forward in all public matters excepting the opening of Watchung and Madison avenues.

Those thoroughfares must soon be opened. The public demands insist that they shall. They will be.

There is absolutely no doubt that many conscientious and well-meaning residents of the borough fancy, through illusions and sympathy, that they would be better off were they residents of a combined city. To all those, and there are among that class many well-known men, who have the interests of the borough at heart, and who think the community would profit thereby, we would say, consider well the obstacles that must be overcome, and the more that you consider them the more impossible will seem that undertaking of consolidation. A fair object lesson in connection with this subject is the unceasing and unsuccessful efforts of Newark before the Legislature for years past in its attempts to annex Harrison and Kearny to Essex County from Hudson County.

North Plainfield Township is 25 years old, and the territory consists of a stretch from a point just above Seeley's paper mill, near the Feltville road, in the rear of Scotch Plains, to Spring's mills, in the rear of Bound Brook, which is about eight miles in length, and from Greenbrook to the brow of the second mountain, which is about three miles in width. Washington Rock is in its limits. The territory was taken from Warren Township. The borough limits consist of all that tract on the west from the Rock road and Greenbrook to the brow of the first mountain, thence along said mountain to Raymond avenue in the east, about three miles in length and a trifle over a mile in width.

LOYAL CANADIAN.

CLOSE OF THE CONTEST.

Clever Athletes Awarded Prizes—Severe Accident to a Performer.

Part second and the last of the gymnastic contest given by the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium members took place last evening. The audience was much larger than on the preceding evening, and the interest and enthusiasm in consequence was increased considerably. The programme opened with an Indian club drill by the class of 14 members, and the general work was excellent, reflecting credit on their teacher, Physical Director D. A. MacPhie.

A feature was the work on the horizontal bar. Those who entered this contest had been training very hard for it. An unfortunate accident occurred while J. Burns was performing. He had about finished his feat and in landing slipped, giving his right arm a severe twist. He was taken to Dr. Prosser's house, where it was found that he had fractured the wrist. The physician treated him and bandaged the injured part. Later in the evening a subscription was taken, so that Mr. Burns would not suffer from loss of work.

The next number was the German horse. Those taking part in this did exceedingly clever work, and hearty applause greeted the contestants. Then came the running broad jump. Good work was also done by those entered for this contest, as well as in the hop, step and jump. T. E. Schaefer gave another exhibition of Indian club swinging, and his work was even better than on Monday night.

The judges then retired to render their decision, and while they were doing this several members gave an exhibition on the horizontal bar. At the conclusion President Murray appeared and before presenting the prizes made a short address along the line of athletics. He then awarded the prizes as follows:

Dumb bell drill—1st prize, gold medal, E. B. Eagan; second prize, silver medal, Horace Moore.

Vaulting bar—1st prize, gold medal, Charles Dupee; 2d, razor, offered by J. P. Laire, F. E. Woodward.

Parallel bars—1st prize, gold medal, J. N. Burns; 2d, silver medal, Clarence Thorn; 3d, bronze medal, H. P. Vosseller.

Running high jump—1st prize, silver medal, A. C. Wyckoff; 2d, $2, offered by G. A. Hallock, I. K. LaBoyteaux.

Standing broad jump—1st prize, medal, L. Fish; 2d, $2, offered by T. E. Morgans, I. L. Brady.

6—Indian club drill by class, 1st, silver medal, E Morraller; 2nd, gold cuff buttons, Edgar Sheppard.

7—Horozontal bar, 1st, gold medal, A Wagoner; 2nd, silver medal, A P Crane; 3rd, bronze medal, Wyatt Barnes.

8—German Horse, 1st, silver medal, J A Koechli; 2nd, bronze medal, H Jessup.

9—Running broad jump, 1st, medal, Harry Williams; 2nd, order for ½ dozen photographs from G W Monfort, D W Littell.

10—Hop step and jump, 1st, medal, J K LaBoyteaux; 2nd, gold cuff buttons, offered by J Hervey Drake, C Doliver.

For the best all-around work in the contests A C Wyckoff received a second medal.

—The Board of Trustees of Grace M.E. Church hold a meeting this evening.

—The Camera Club will exhibit the Rockford views next Tuesday evening, at which time it is expected the elevator will be in operation in the Babcock Building. Owing to the delay in its construction, the club has been compelled to send several sets of views away without exhibiting them.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds, Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The grocery store of Martin Brothers was closed yesterday.

—Constable Robert Mattox was in Rahway yesterday on official business.

—Noah Dove Encampment, I. O. O. F., will hold a meeting tomorrow night.

—Order Tier's celebrated ice-cream for Sunday dinners. It is delicious.

—A dance will be given in the Catholic Lyceum Hall tomorrow evening.

—Work on the sewers is still suspended owing to the nonarrival of pipe.

—The Knights of Pythias, Unity Lodge, will initiate nine candidates this evening.

—A six pound carp was caught in New Market pond a few days ago by a Plainfield fisherman.

—The Crescent Wheelmen of New York have arranged for a club run to this city some time in May.

—The W. C. T. U. will hold a meeting in their rooms on Watchung avenue tomorrow afternoon.

—Wallace V. Miller will attend the "social stag" of the Elizabeth lodge of Elks Friday evening.

—The freight traffic is very heavy at the local station, showing that Plainfield's trade is increasing steadily.

—Honan & Son commenced their sewer work on West Sixth street this morning with a large force of men.

—Belvidere avenue received a top dressing of crushed stone yesterday, which puts that thoroughfare in fine condition.

—Several young people from this city will attend a party at the home of Wm. Wyckoff in Washington Valley tonight.

—An observing man counted twenty-nine signs in front of a North avenue merchant's place of business a day or two ago.

—The Elizabeth Wheelmen hold their annual ten-mile handicap race June 1, and several Plainfield wheelmen will probably enter.

—A regular meeting of Paugh-Caugh-Naugh-Sinque Tribe of Red Men will be held this evening in their rooms in the Elkwood Building.

—The annual meeting and election of the Monday Afternoon Club takes place next Monday. The officers have already been nominated.

—The members of the German Reformed Church have decided to expend $100 on their structure in improving its sanitary condition, especially with reference to the ventilation.

—St. Joseph's Church has rented Saengerbund Hall for May 22 and 23, when a fair and entertainment will be given for the benefit of the society.

—Among those who will attend the State shoot at Elizabeth tomorrow will be the following from this city: Charles Smith, T. H. Keller, D. Terry, and Neaf Apgar.

—Herrmann has a special baggage car in which he carries the paraphernalia for his performance to be given in Music Hall this evening.

—The all-around contest between the Park and the Country clubs will take place next Tuesday evening at the Country clubhouse.

—A man living in the east end of the city has a peculiar fad for gathering all kinds of soap. He has 163 varieties, many of them being from Russia, Germany, France and Turkey.

—Rev. Hobart Clark will read a paper on Oliver Wendell Holmes in All Souls Church Friday evening. This will be the last of the series of papers read there during the season.

—If the Park Club whist four beat their Fanwood opponents tonight they will win the four men team championship of the New Jersey whist league tournament.

—Station Agent Nelson was busy this morning making out the May commutation tickets, of which 800 are sold monthly in this city, besides the yearly tickets.

—The run to Newark which the Victor Wheelmen intended to make last Sunday, but which had to be abandoned on account of the inclement weather, will probably take place next Sunday.

—A number of Plainfield women will attend the annual convention of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of New Jersey, which will be held in New Brunswick tomorrow.

—Dressemaking parlors have been opened by Miss E. R. Rockfellow at 195 North avenue. She is expert in the work, and makes a specialty of the Taylor system. Suits are made for $5 and upwards, and all orders are sure to be skilfully, speedily and satisfactorily executed.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at Randolph's drug store.

AT THE TWELFTH HOUR

Execution of Dr. Robert Buchanan Stayed.

Efforts at Washington Failed, But the Attorney General of New York Ordered the Execution Delayed. Buchanan's Lawyers Now Declare He Will Never Go to the Chair.

Sing Sing, May 1.—Dr. Robert W. Buchanan was born under a lucky star. For the second time he has been snatched from the electric chair within a few hours of the time set for his execution. Granted three days grace through the humanity of Warden Sage, of Sing Sing prison, an application, emphasized by the tears and entreaties of Mrs. Buchanan, was successful, and a respite to May 1 was granted by Governor Morton to enable him to prepare for death. This short respite was improved by his attorneys in efforts to prolong Buchanan's life, and to-day they confidently assert that the convicted wife poisoner will never be executed and that his chances are bright for restoration to freedom.

Operates as a Stay.

The announcement that the appeal filed by Buchanan's attorneys from the decision of Judge Brown, of the United States District court, refusing to grant a writ of habeas corpus would operate as a stay of execution, was received by the warden at 5.45 o'clock last evening. The papers in the case, consisting of the petition for a writ of habeas corpus, the judge's endorsement denying the same, and a notice of appeal from that decision were served upon Warden Sage Monday afternoon. Yesterday morning the papers were submitted to the attorney general's office by M. L. York, an attache of the prison, with a request from the warden for an opinion upon their sufficiency to stay the execution of the sentence.

His Dark Moment.

While this question was being considered by Deputy Attorney General Hasbrouck, Col. George W. Gibbons, one of Buchanan's lawyers, was in Washington endeavoring to file his appeal from Judge Brown's decision in the United States supreme court. The news that he had been unsuccessful was received here early in the afternoon, and it was thought then that nothing could interfere to prevent the execution of Buchanan at the appointed time.

Warden Officially Notified.

But at 5:45 o'clock the warden received from Mr. York a message by telephone stating that in the opinion of the deputy attorney general the papers submitted to him operated as a stay of execution. This message was soon confirmed by another from the department of state prisons, and at 10 o'clock last night Mr. York arrived from Albany with the official papers advising the warden not to carry out the sentence of the court until the determination of the appeal.

Had Abandoned All Hope

The warden communicated the news to Buchanan within ten minutes of its first receipt. The prisoner had been hopeful throughout his long incarceration, but when he heard the good news he informed the warden that he had been despondent all day, having abandoned hope of any further delay. While the warden was imparting the news to Buchanan, the prisoner's wife arrived at the prison to pay, as she supposed, her last visit to the condemned man.

Mrs. Buchanan Overcome.

Mrs. Buchanan had not heard the news and when it was told to her by Mrs. Sage, she gasped: "Oh! my God," and fell into a chair in a fainting condition. The long period of suspense and efforts she had made in her husband's behalf had so weakened her that she was overcome by the tidings of his deliverance. As soon as she was able to walk she was escorted to her husband's cell by an officer and remained there a long time. Then she returned to New York.

Safe for Some Months.

The attorneys in the case say that their only object is to secure delay so that new expert evidence can be presented to the courts in support of an application for a new trial. They say, however, that even if they should fail in this, they can prolong Buchanan's life indefinitely by the same means employed in the present instance. They say that the law allows them six months in which to perfect their appeal to the United States supreme court in the habeas corpus proceedings.

Must Be Resentenced.

The case will then be argued and should an adverse decision be rendered the proceedings will be remitted to the state courts. It would then be necessary to resentence Buchanan and after that they could make another application for a writ of habeas corpus on different grounds. Their contention, in fact, amounts to the proposition that by such proceedings as they have employed, the law providing for the infliction of the death penalty can be rendered inoperative.

The Lawyers in the Case.

The lawyers who have interested themselves in the carse are Col. George W. Gibbons, Daniel T. Kimball, Theodore M. Roche, Edward McGill, Dennis A. Spellissey and Charles J. Peshall. None of these was connected with the case at the time of Buchanan's trial.

A Wife's Devotion.

Mrs. Buchanan wrote a letter to Gov. Morton, a few hours before she heard the news of her husband's good luck, which was delivered to him in New York, imploring him to exercise further clemency in her husband's case. She told of her own connection with the case and blamed herself largely for the misfortunes of her husband, saying that if she had not left him he would have been spared all the troubles he has endured. In addition, she earnestly declares her belief in his innocence.

Postmasters Appointed.

Washington, May 1.—The president has appointed the following postmasters: Lawrence Dawer, at East Hampton, Mass.; Charles S. Ware, at Mount Kisco, N. Y.; George A. Richmond, at Springville, N. Y.

Concord at Tamsui, Japan.

Washington, May 1.—The gunboat Concord has arrived at Tamsui, Japan, where her crew will have their annual target practice.

M'GIFFIN IN NEW YORK.

His Rough Experience on the Chinese Ironclad Chin-Yuen.

New York, May 1.—Commander Philo N. McGiffin, who had command of the Chinese ironclad Chin-Yuen at the battle of Yalu arrived here from Liverpool and is stopping at the Astor house. The commander received a number of wounds in the fight and is still somewhat deaf. He has a tattered uniform of the Chinese navy which he wore on the Chin-Yuen during the naval battle.

Has Faith in Chinese Seamen.

He says it was a stubborn fight and was lost to the Chinese chiefly because they had no shells to use, but only iron shot. The Japanese were well supplied with shell, which did great execution. The Chinese shots passed through the enemy's ships without doing any great damage. The commander believes the Chinese seamen are brave and skillful, and would make good fighters if they could only trust their leaders.

Had Some Narrow Escapes.

The commander had some very narrow escapes during the Yalu battle. At one time he was directly in front of the mouth of a twelve inch gun on his own ship as the gunner was swinging it into a place to fire. He closed his eyes and waited for certain death. He opened them in a few seconds and rolled off the superstructure just before the gun went off. The commander carries two wounds in his left thigh and another over his abdomen, from fragments of shell Commodore Lin was supposed to be in command, but was down in his room praying to the gods to preserve him.

Reward Offered for His Head.

The commander will go to his old home at Washington, Pa., in a few days. He did not come by way of the Pacific, as the Japanese had a reward of $5,000 for him dead or alive. Mr. McGiffin has been in the Chinese naval service for twelve years. He founded the naval institute at Wei-Hai-Wei, and did considerable surveying in Corea.

EMILY HALL'S DEATH.

Home Secretary Asquith May Be Questioned in the Affair.

London, May 1.—There is a feeling of indignation among the friends of Miss Emily Hall, at Halesowen, the home of the dead girl's father, over the failure of the authorities at Detroit, Mich., to take more active measures in the case of the alleged victim of Rev. Jonathan Bell. The whereabouts of Bell is still unknown. The police are satisfied that he has not committed suicide. The police possess a portrait of the dead girl. Miss Hall's letters suggest that a woman connected with a religious movement in Leeds proposed the girl's removal to America. It is likely that Home Secretary Asquith will be questioned in the house of commons regarding the affair.

PORT ARTHUR STRENGTHENED.

Japan Receives Assurances from England and Italy.

London, May 1.—A dispatch from Tokio to the Central News says the defenses of Port Arthur have been improved and extended and are now stronger than ever before. The dispatch also says that Japan has received assurances that England and Italy will not allow the war ships of Russia, Germany or France to pass through the Suez canal if such vessels should be avowedly dispatched for the purpose of coercing Japan. The Japanese government, the dispatch says, is also assured of the benevolent neutrality of the United States.

BROOKLYN DRY DOCK.

The Contract Awarded To a Bid of $370,000.

Washington, May 1.—Secretary Herbert has awarded the contract for the construction of the New York (Brooklyn) navy yard dry dock to Thomas and Augustin Walsh, of New York, at their bid of $370,000. They contract to complete the work within nineteen months. The contract of Mr. Gillies, the original contractor, was cancelled for failure to do the work within the time agreed upon.

TO RESCUE A CORRESPONDENT.

A British War Ship Sent to the Pescadore Islands.

London, May 1.—A dispatch to the Times from Hong Kong says that a British war ship has gone to the Pescadore islands to fetch the Times correspondent and another man who were detained there by the Japanese to prevent them from sending dispatches regarding the massacre of the Chinese garrison at that place, which is said to have taken place.

CUBAN REVOLUTION.

A Noted Insurgent Leader Among the Killed at Arroyo Hondo.

Guadtanamo, May 1.—Among the insurgents killed by Capello's column in the fight at Arroyo Hondo yesterday was Pedro Arcilla Douvelger, a noted insurgent leader and a member of the party that landed on the island with Maceo.

Fell 68 Feet and Instantly Killed.

Rutland, Vt., May 1.—W. H. Sherburne, of this city, a bridge builder and prominent Odd Fellow, fell 68 feet from a new railroad trestle at East Wallingford yesterday and was instantly killed.

Is Plain Lawyer Bissell Now.

Buffalo, May 1.—Ex-postmaster general Wilson S. Bissell arrived here last evening to take up his permanent residence and resume his law practice.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Prices weaker leading to better trade. No. 2 red f. o. b. afloat quoted at 69½c.

Corn—Spot dull and weaker. Steamer mixed 53½c. afloat.

Oats—Spot quiet with moderate trade. No. 2 white, 36c.; No 2 mixed, 33½c.

Pork—Spot quiet at former figures. Extra prime nominal, $15.25a$15.50; mess $13.50a$14.00.

Lard—Contracts are dull and easier. May, $6.95.

Butter—The market remains quiet and easy. New butter, creamery, western extras, 19c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 17.

Cheese — Steady with fair inquiry. State, full cream, large colored, fancy, new, 8c.; common to prime, 6a8c.

Eggs—Strictly fine quality not in large supply and the market rules quite steady under speculative bidding for long lines. Best northwestern quoted at 13½c.

Potatoes—Old potatoes slow of sale and values barely sustained. State, white stock, per 180 lbs., $2.25 Jersey, prime, in bulk, per 180 lbs., $1.75a$2.00.

NICARAGUA WILL PAY

But England Must First Recall Her Marines.

Offers To Deliver the $75,000 Smart Money in London Within Fifteen Days Great Britain Silent—United States Anxious for John Bull To Accept the Terms.

Washington, May 1.—The Salvadorian minister to England and France, Mr. Mendina, who also acts as a friend of Nicaragua, has been notified of Nicaragua's willingness to compromise the difficulty with Great Britain, as outlined in the dispatches from Managua. He has been asked to lay the matter before Lord Kimberly with a view to securing his consent that ships be withdrawn from Corinto and the indemnity of £15,000 be paid in London within fifteen days after the departure of the war ships. Should Lord Kimberly accept the proposition instructions will be cabled to the British admiral to leave the coast temporarily.

Would Be Greatly Appreciated.

Although such a course would be contrary to Great Britain's usual policy, it is hoped that this course will be adopted, particularly as such action would be greatly appreciated by the government of the United States. While the United States has been rigidly neutral in the affair, as Minister Guzman has repeatedly informed his government they would be, both Secretary Gresham and President Cleveland are disposed to secure some modification of Great Britain's course in order to show their friendly interest in the little southern republic.

Nicaraguan Irritation Growing.

The whole matter is now in the hands of the British foreign office to reject or accept as they see fit. No one here can predict what the result will be should Great Britain insist upon a payment of the indemnity under the cover of her guns. All the dispatches from Managua state that the continued presence of British forces at Corinto is deeply irritating to the Nicaraguans and that the longer they remain the stronger the determination of the Nicaraguan people not to yield grows.

Grave Trouble Feared.

Nicaraguan dispatches say that the British consuls at the various ports in the republic are protected by the local troops, but it is feared grave troubles will follow if the present tension be not relaxed.

No Quarters, Says the Graphic.

London, May 1.—The Graphic, in an editorial on the Nicaraguan dispute, say: "Nicaragua is in no way deserving of British consideration. She has insulted and defied us and has intrigued to sow discord between Great Britain and the United States. It is impossible to enter into further parleyings. The whole moral effect of our action will be lost if we vary in the slightest degree the terms of our ultimatum."

CHIEF ARTHUR SAILS TO-DAY.

His Opinion of the Recent Chicago A. R. U. Strike.

New York, May 1.—P. M. Arthur, chief of the brotherhood of locomotive engineers, will sail for Europe to-day on the New York, to be gone six months. Speaking of the Debs case in Chicago, he said: "Debs sent a dispatch to me before starting that strike in Chicago last summer—'Will you help us?' I told him I could not come to his assistance, as it would not be lawful. I have nothing to say about his course. I see his contempt case has been appealed and the conspiracy case has been postponed. Debs hopes to get clear, but I think they are going to make a great fight to convict him."

TRIED TO "CLOCK" MONTAUK.

English Turfmen on Edge To Get a Line on Croker's Colt.

London, May 1.—The Sportsman's Newmarket correspondent says: "The American horses here continue to attract attention. Several persons yesterday tried to "clock" them. The very promising 2-year-old colt Montauk, owned by Richard Croker, was among the number." Sporting Life said: "The Americans were under the clock, but their preparation and subsequent operations were so tardy that the clock is useless to us."

AN HEIR EXPECTED.

The Russian Dynasty May Be Continued in September.

St. Petersburg, May 1.—The accouchement of the czarina is expected in September next. The czarina, formerly Princess Alix, of Hesse-Dramstadt, was married at St. Petersburg on November 26, 1894, to Czar Nicholas II.

New Danish Minister at Washington.

Copenhagen, May 1.—The official gazette to-day announces that Count von Reventlow, the Danish minister at Washington, has been appointed minister for Demark at Rome. M. C. Brun, the secretary of the Danish legation at Paris, succeeds Count von Reventlow as Danish minister at Washington.

Kioto Eleven Centuries Old.

Washington, May 1.—The Japanese are about to commemorate in a fitting manner the eleventh centennial of the founding of the City of Kioto, the Rome of the east, to which city eleven hundred years ago the Emperor Kwammu removed the capital from Nagaoka.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c. per box. For sale by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

About Nervous Prostration
By
H. C. CHAPIN,
Editor St. Paul Pioneer Press.

"After a most thorough trial and receiving the most gratifying results, I am glad to testify in favor of

BOVININE
The Original Raw Food

"By it I was brought up with remarkable rapidity from a long siege of nervous prostration."

All Physicians Endorse It.

Bovinine is an ideal food—an unequalled nutrient, is palatable to the most delicate stomach. Alone it will sustain strength for weeks. It makes new blood. It contains the largest amount of nutrition in the smallest possible bulk.

For sale at all druggists.

THE BOVININE CO., NEW YORK.

FURNITURE
MOVING
Telephone 121. Office 161 North ave.
HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS.

J. W. VAN SICKLE,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats
GAME IN SEASON.
New No. 120., North Ave., Plainfield.
Telephone 148 B. Orders called for and delivered promptly

Neuman Bro's.
Specials tomorrow in
Fresh Vegetables.
Green Peas, Green Beans, Wax Beans, Asparagus, Tomatoes, Lettuce, Cucumbers, Water Cress, Spinach, Radishes, Rhubarb, Bunch Onions, Oyster Plant, Beets, New Carrots, New Potatoes.
STRAWBERRIES.

Wm. Hand & Son,
MOVING VANS,
18 Park avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

THE Bee Hive.
"KIDS."
Ladies' 4 button kid gloves in tans and slates 65c.
Foster hook kid gloves in all the new shades, the 98c quality, 75c.
Children's kid gloves, a good glove, 69c.
Men's kid gloves, every pair warranted, $1.
MEN'S CAMBRIC SHIRTS.
Men's cambric shirts, laundried, collar and cuffs attached, 50c.
Men's laundried shirts, white body and fancy bosom, 48c.
Men's laundried shirts, white body and colored bosom and cuffs 65c.
Louis Callman,
222 West Front st.

BAR-LOCK
VISIBLE WRITING
TYPEWRITER
Writes every letter in sight of operator. Does most of the work, in writing AUTOMATICALLY, and yields in the time thus saved additional work.
It acts as if it studied the convenience of the operator at every turn, and thereby lightens his labor and renders him capable of doing more.
It has a knack of keeping well, and is always ready at critical or other times.
These are some of the reasons why it is different from all other writing machines.
The catalogue tells you more about it. FREE.
Columbia Typewriter Mfg. Co,
307 Broadway, New York.
1 5 6m

MOSLER SAFE CO.,
contractors to the United States Government
Mosler Patent Safes,
(fire and burglar-proof) in general use
All Over the World.
Lowest prices. Drop a postal to
S. W. CLARK,
General Agent,
118 West 5th st., Plainfield, N. J.
and he will call and give special attention and information.
Large assortment of second-hand safes in first-class condition at low prices.

CONFECTIONS
Fresh, and from Pure Materials,
TIER'S,
116 Park avenue. 4 11 tf

CHOICE
Lawn Seeds, Garden Seeds, and Fertilizers.
Lawn mowers repaired.
Plumbing, Tinning and Hardware.
A. M. GRIFFIN,
116 East Front St.

GEO. J. TOBIN.
187 North avenue.
Practical Plumber
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer
TELEPHONE CALL 158a. 12 15 tf

Plainfield Machine Works,
Manufacturers of
Steam Engines,
Electric Motors and Dynamos. Shafting and mill work generally. Jobbing in all its branches. Prompt attention given to repairing of steam engines, boilers, bicycles, etc. Piping in all its branches.
GIVE US A CALL.
H. C. MAGUE, Manager.
Works corner Richmond and East 3d street, Plainfield. 4 13 tf

Tel. 29B Established 1878.
ADDIS & SON,
PLUMBING AND HOT WATER HEATING.
Have your plumbing system tested with the smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.
Opp Roberts's Livery 122 North Ave

H. Eggerding,
121 PARK AVENUE.
Manufacturer of the celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars. 11 9t

Telephone 58
Ring it up when you want good coal, and talk to
Geo. O. Stevens

SPRING TERM
OF THE
Rockview Home & Day School
Opens April 15.
Kindergarten, Primary and Intermediate Departments. For terms and particulars apply to the Misses Peck, 317 East Front street.

FLORIST.
A. E. LINCOLN, 226 Park avenue,
has just received an elegant assortment of rare ferns and other plants. Also will have a fine assortment of flowering plants, azaleas, lilies, etc., for Easter. Large assortment of choice cut flowers daily. Floral design work for all occasions a specialty.

SMALLEY'S CASH MARKET.
(Estate of D. L. Smalley.)
94 Somerset, Corner Race Street.
GEO. EGBEL, Manager.
We sell only first-class goods, at low prices for cash. Orders called for and delivered. 12 19 t

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume, Agt.
60 BROADWAY, cor. 4th ST.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening
UPPER LEHIGH AND HONEYBROOK COAL
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for TURNING and SCROLL SAWING and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner at short notice. 9-13-

WALL PAPER, WALL PAPER!
Wall Paper Bargains
5c, 6c, 8c, 10c ROLL.
Also all the best papers for the fine trade. Competent men employed to hang our papers.
RUGS, WINDOW SHADES, MOULDINGS,
PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES, KALSOMINE.
TINTING COLORS,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS,
CIGARS.
LOVE,
Corner North and Watchung aves.

Prospect Hill For Sale,
26 acres, or in plots to suit,
Also trees, shrubs, hedge plants, palms, Bermuda lilies, Indian azaleas, India rubber trees, etc.
L. J. DENTON, 131 Hillside avenue.

EDUCATIONAL.
Afternoon Class for Young Ladies
Three times per week. Higher English Branches, French and Music. For terms apply MISS FAWCETT, 25 Washington ave

JAMES E. BAILY,
97 Jackson avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Trucking of All Kinds Done.
Two and four-horse vans and trucks. Particular attention given to moving furniture and pianos. Satisfaction guaranteed. 8 26 tf

Hotels and Saloons.
Madison Avenue HOTEL,
Madison Avenue and 58th St.,
NEW YORK.
$3 per day and up. American Plan.
Fireproof and first-class in every particular Two blocks from the Third and Sixth avenue elevated railroads.
The Madison and 4th Avenue and Belt Line cars pass the door.
H. M. CLARK, Prop.
Passenger elevator runs all night.

HOTEL GRENADA,
North Avenue.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.
5-13-4

CITY HOTEL.
Plainfield, N. J.
COR. PARK AVENUE AND SECOND STREET.
J. H. BEERBOWER, Proprietor.
With stables attached. 4 6 3

A. Lusardi,
No. 120 North Ave.,
Will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectionerie, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c. quart.
Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets

Skilled Workmen

are even more essential in hanging paper than they are in the doing of many other things. We employ the best and most capable men in this department and guarantee the best possible results. Do not spoil the effect of pretty paper by improper hanging.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.,
142 East Front st.

CURE THAT COUGH WITH SHILOH'S CURE

TAKE THE BEST

25cts., 50cts. and $1.00 Bottle. One cent a dose.

THIS GREAT COUGH CURE promptly cures where all others fail. Coughs, Croup, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough and Asthma. For Consumption it has no rival: has cured thousands, and will CURE YOU if taken in time. Sold by Druggists on a guarantee. For a Lame Back or Chest, use SHILOH'S BELLADONNA PLASTER. 25c.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY.

Have you Catarrh? This remedy is guaranteed to cure you. Price, 50 cts. Injector free.

Sold by all druggists.

S 14 y

ASK FOR KABO No. 353

Perfect fitting. Sure to give satisfaction.

Price only $1.00

Lederer

There is one DRESS STAY that Won't melt apart, Can't cut through the dress, Don't stay bent. It is BALL'S PEERLESS. All lengths; all colors.

Putnam & DeGraw, Seely Edsall I. Lederer.

H. Hand,

LICENSED AUCTIONEER.

15 YEARS EXPERIENCE.

esidence and postoffice address SCOTCH PLAINS, N. J.

Office in Plainfield at Terrill & Cole's livery, 200 West 2d st. 1 12 tf

W. K. McCLURE,

Counselor-at-Law.

SUPREME COURT COMMISSIONER.

First National Bank Building.

W. R. Codington's

LAW OFFICES.

Corner Park avenue and Second street. Solicitor and Master in Chancery. Notary Public.

The sign on the windows reads

Woolston & Buckle,

Paper Hangers.

We have had the door hinges and latch oiled up so that getting in is easy. So also is the getting out. Prices are so low on Wall Papers that you will buy before you go.

Fred Endress,

Dealer in all kinds of

CHOICE MEATS

Jersey pork and poultry a specialty.

203 LIBERTY STREET.

A LADY'S TOILET

Is not complete without an ideal

COMPLEXION POWDER.

POZZONI'S

Combines every element of beauty and purity. It is beautifying, soothing, healing, healthful, and harmless, and when rightly used is invisible. A most delicate and desirable protection to the face in this climate.

Insist upon having the genuine.

IT IS FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

KILLED THEM BOTH

Gov. Brown's Son and Mrs. Gordon the Victims.

A Wronged Husband's Awful Deed. The Most Sensational Tragedy Enacted in Kentucky in Many Years. All Parties Concerned of Prominent Families.

Louisville, Ky., May 1.—Archie Brown, the governor's son and secretary, paid with his life yesterday for his relations with another man's wife. The latter shared the same fate, the wronged husband shooting them to death in the room in which he had surprised them. Fulton Gordon is the name of the man who so terribly avenged his domestic dishonor.

A Most Sensational Tragedy.

The tragedy is one of the most sensational in the history of the state on account of the prominence of the persons involved and the circumstances surrounding the case. It occurred in a resort kept by a colored woman on Madison street. Brown was killed in the room and Mrs. Gordon was shot as she was fleeing from the place.

Mrs. Gordon Shot Dead.

At noon Brown, with Gordon's wife, entered the house of Lucie B. Smith and at once repaired to the up-stairs front room, which had been previously engaged. Thirty minutes later a tall, dark-haired man knocked at the door of the house and was admitted. He engaged the front lower room. He closed the doors and a few minutes later a commotion was heard above followed by a succession of pistol shots. Then there was a hurried movement down-stairs as Mrs. Gordon fled from the scene. A few more shots rang out and she fell dead on the porch in the rear yard.

Brief But Desperate Battle.

It was a brief but sanguinary battle. As soon as Gordon gained admittance a duel to the death evidently began. Brown had a 38-calibre revolver which was found empty after the tragedy. Six bullets pierced Brown's body and three that of Mrs. Gordon. The room showed evidences of a desperate battle, the walls and floor being spattered with blood. Brown's body lay on the floor. It presented a horrible appearance, being covered with blood from head to foot. There was no clothing on the body except under garments. There were three gunshot wounds in the breast, two in the head and one in the right arm.

Of a Prominent Family.

Mrs. Gordon was lying on a cellar door in the yard face downward. She was bathed in blood, her hair was loose and hanging in a tangled mass. Mrs. Gordon was Miss Nellie Bush, of this city. Her family is one of the most prominent in the state. Her mother was once state librarian and her grandfather was Judge Zacariah Wheat, chief justice of the court of appeals of Kentucky. Fulton Gordon at the time of his marriage was one of the best known men about town.

Shot with His Own Weapon.

Gordon was arrested and locked up. He is greatly excited, but declares that he is not sorry for his act. He says he drew his pistol and fired five shots at Brown, by which time the governor's son had his own pistol in play. Brown fired two shots at Gordon. Then the latter grappled with him and took his pistol away from him and shot him with his own weapon.

THE TITLE "TRILBY" IS OLD.

Written by Nodier, But It Was Altogether Different from Du Maurier's.

Washington, May 1.—The attention of Hon. A. R. Spofford, congressional libraian, was called to a Denver dispatch, stating that the original title and book of "Trilby" were first published in England in 1847, and that the book had been common property for seventy-five years. Mr. Spofford replied that forty-five years ago one Charles Nodier wrote a book with the same title. This book, Mr. Spofford said, might have given Du Maurier the suggestion of the name, but the book itself was totally different from that which Du Maurier had written.

Ex-Mayor Grant's Wedding.

Washington, May 1.—Miss Julia M. Murphy, daughter of United States Senator Murphy, was married yesterday to Hugh J. Grant, ex-mayor of New York city. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Senator and Mrs. Murphy by Archbishop Corrigan, of New York, assisted by several priests from the metropolis. A special dispensation was granted by Cardinal Gibbons for the ceremony to be conducted outside the church.

Mr. Roosevelt's New Job.

Washington, May 1.—Theodore Roosevelt, replying to enquiries from a United Press reporter, said: "Yes it is true that I have resigned as civil service commissioner. Mayor Strong has requested me to take the position of New York city police commissioner and I have accepted."

Indian Skeleton's Unearthed.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., May 1.—Workmen engaged in building the electric railroad through the Niagara gorge from this city to Lewiston, unearthed several skeletons of Indians yesterday near the Lewiston end of the road.

Pardoned by Gov. Altgeld.

Springfield Ill., May 1.—Louis A. Hilliard, who fled from Chicago in August, 1893, with $8,000 belonging to the Chicago Tribune, for which he was cashier, has been pardoned by Gov. Altgeld.

Bouzy Disaster Investigation.

Paris, May 1.—M. Leygues, minister of the interior, has declared his intention to prosecute whoever is answerable for the disaster caused by the breaking of the dike at Bouzy.

West Virginia Miners Strike.

Bluefield, W. Va., May 1.—All the miners in the Pocahontas field quit work last night excepting those of the Southwest Virginia Improvement company. Forty-five operations have closed.

Hitt Passes a Good Night.

Washington, May 1.—Representative Hitt passed a comparatively comfortable night and his physician reports him this morning as continuing to improve slowly.

EVA HAMILTON'S PARDON.

Matters Brought Out at the Voorhees Investigation.

Trenton, N. J., May 1.—The Voorhees committee yesterday afternoon probed deep into the matters surrounding the pardon granted to Eva Hamilton some years ago and several sensational features were brought out. The main points were that Eva Hamilton dismissed the two lawyers she had first engaged to work for a pardon for her and employed W. C. Heppenheimer, a lawyer, who had offices in the same building with the late Gov. Abbett; that Heppenheimer was paid $1,000 by Eva Hamilton through John H. Patterson, head keeper at the prison, who took the money to New York and gave it to Heppenheimer. Patterson testified that he was sent for by Gov. Abbett and that on his arrival at the executive mansion the governor told him to suggest to Eva Hamilton that she had better retain Heppenheimer as he did not believe she would be successful with Hoffman and Fuller. Patterson said he did not do so, however. The general trend of all the questions asked was to show that the board of pardons was bribed by the woman's lawyer, although Heppenheimer swore that the $1,000 he received was for his own services, and that he kept it all.

MRS. HAMERSLEY WED.

The Dowager Duchess of Marlboro Is Now Lady Bersford.

London, May 1.—The marriage of the dowager duchess of Marlborough, formerly Mrs. Hammersley, to Lord William Beresford took place in St. George's church, Hanover square, yesterday afternoon. A full choral service was performed. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Edgar Sheppard, the queen's chaplain-in-ordinary, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Anderson, the vicar of St. George's. The chruch was beautifully decorated with palms and orchids. Among those present were United States Ambassador Bayard and Mrs. Bayard. The Duke of Cambridge, accompanied by Major Davidson, occupied a front pew. The bride wore a dress of pearl gray satin brocade, trimmed with point Argentine lace and diamond buttons. Instead of the usual boquet, the bride carried a prayer book. As she entered the church every one present rose. The choir headed the procession, followed by the officiating clergymen. Then followed the duchess, leaning on the arm of her stepson, the Duke of Marlborough. At the foot of the chancel steps stood the bridegroom, supported by his brother, Lord Marcus, who acted as best man.

FATHER PHELAN DENOUNCED.

Christian Endeavor and Epworth League Meet at Asbury Park.

Asbury Park, N. J., May 1.—The Christian Endeavor and Epworth League societies of Asbury Park met last night in the First Baptist church and denounced Rev. Father Phelan of St. Louis for his recent remarks concerning the orders mentioned. Rev. J. P. Dawson, pastor of the Westminster church, presided and made the principal address. He said that this priest had been slandering the Protestant church for twenty years, and has the reputation of being a "perennial blatherskite." Mr. Dawson said that he believed that Mgr. Satolli, to whom a petition will be sent demanding Father Phelan's removal from the church, will recognize it and that the St. Louis priest will be ostracised. "The man brings disgrace on the church," said Mr. Dawson, "and at his death no part of him should be buried in consecrated ground. Satolli is a man of sense and brain, and this appeal from the young Christians to resent the insult will certainly receive his attention."

SHE IS A GREAT CRUISER.

Official Report of the Trial of the Minneapolis.

Washington, May 1.—The official report of the final trial of the cruiser Minneapolis has reached the navy department and shows that the vessel is practically faultless even under extreme condition of service. Her run in the tropics for forty-eight hours, part of it with natural draught, proved her the most efficient ship yet built for the navy, and as a result of her performance her contractors will be promply paid the reserve sum held by the government pending her complete acceptance.

TO CONVULSE THE WORLD.

Mark Twain Will Recoup His Fortunes by a Lecture Tour.

Paris, May 1.—Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain) has signed a contract for a lecture tour around the world. He will leave here shortly for the United States, and will proceed by way of San Francisco to Australia and India. The chief reason for his contract is that he has lost almost his entire fortune through unfortunate investments. He lost over $200,000 through the failure of one American company.

Whitelaw Reid's Travels.

New York, May 1.—The latest advices from Whitelaw Reid were dated Jerusalem, April 6. At that date he had just come up from Suez through the Sinai desert, and was about to start northward through Damascus to Beyrout, which he expected to reach on April 30.

Harrison To Summer at Pittsfield.

Pittsfield, Mass., May 1.—It is reported here on what seems excellent authority that ex-President Harrison has leased the handsome residence of Mrs. Thaddeus Clapp, on Wendell, and will occupy it this summer.

Emigrants from the States.

Vancouver, B. C., May 1.—Fifty-three emigrants from Minnesota and Dakota arrived yesterday to go to the Norwegian colony at Bellacola. Most of them are women and children, wives and families of settlers already there.

Necklace Sold for $57,500.

London, May 1.—A necklace formed of 362 pearls, which the late Duchess of Montrose bequeathed for the benefit of the poor of East London, was sold at auction yesterday and brought $57,500.

For Using Profane Language.

Pittsburg, May 1. — For using a profane epithet four times John Hoffman, a contractor, was fined $2.68—67 cents for each time—by Alderman Donovan yesterday.

Strike of Baltimore Garment Makers

Baltimore May 1.—Thirty-three hundred coat makers of this city, members of the United Garment Makers of America, opposed to the sweating system, are out on strike.

TREASURY RECEIPTS

An Unexpected Falling Off Last Month.

Indications Now That the Deficit at the End of the Fiscal Year Will Be Little Less Than $45,000,000—Considerable Revenue from the Income Tax Expected.

Washington, May 1.—The treasury receipts during the month ended yesterday have not met the expectations of the officials of the department, and the indications now are that the deficit at the end of the fiscal year will be little if any less than $45,000,000. Yesterday's receipts amounted to only $318,201, of which $166,702 was from customs, $114,341 from internal revenue and $37,158 from miscellaneous sources.

Receipts for April.

The receipts for the month of April amount to $24,247,836 and the expenditures to $32,952,690, leaving a deficit for the month of $8,704,854, cents omitted, and for the fiscal year to date, of $45,247,006. The receipts from internal revenue show a falling off for April as compared with the same month in 1894 of more than $700,000 and a falling off for the ten months of the fiscal year of about $2,000,000.

Looking to the Income Tax.

During the remaining two months of the fiscal year there will be no extraordinary expenditures. The pension payments will amount to about $22,000,000, and $1,250,000 will be paid on interest account. The net result of the year is not expected to differ very materially from to-day's figures, and yet, in making this estimate a considerable revenue from the income tax is anticipated.

VICTORY FOR M. F. DWYER.

Banquet Wins the 2,000 Guineas Trial Plate at Newmarket.

London, May 1.—The Newmarket first spring meeting opened yesterday. The 2,000 guineas trail plate of 200 sovereigns was won by M. F. Dwyer's Banquet II., Jockey Simmon up. Lord Arlington's Legal Tender was second and Esmond third. Seven horses ran. The betting was 5 to 4 against Banquet II., 10 to 1 against Legal Tender and 6 to 4 against Esmond. The Prince of Wales, the Duke of Cambridge and a large party, and Lord Rosebery, the Duke of Portland and a host of other notabilites, were present. Banquet II. is the Bauquet so well known to followers of the American turf. He was brought to England in the spring with the Croker-Dwyer string. He is now 8 years old.

HIS BODY AT THE CAPITOL.

Hon. M. B. Lemon's Remains Viewed by Many People at Harrisburg.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 1.—The body of the late Hon. M. B. Lemon of Allegheny county, who died in New York city on Monday afternoon, was conveyed from the Pennsylvania depot in this city to the rotunda of the capitol where it lay in state from 6 o'clock until 8 o'clock last evening. The body was viewed by the members of the house and senate, the governor and heads of departments and the public in general. The remains accompanied by the committee left for Pittsburg on the midnight train. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon.

COLLEGE WAITRESSES STRIKE.

Insist on Receiving Male Friends and Object to White Aprons.

Pittsburg, May 1.—About a dozen waiter girls employed in the Southwestern State Normal college at California, Pa., have gone on a strike, leaving only two girls to serve three hundred or four hundred male and female students. The cause of the trouble is owing to orders issued by the new steward that the girls could not have their male friends visit them at the college, and that they should wear white aprons and caps so they would be distinguishable from the female students.

DURRANT PALE AND WAN.

His Confinement Beginning To Tell on His Health.

San Francisco, May 1.—The evidence in the preliminary examination of Theodore Durrant for the murder of Minnie Williams is all in, and Police Judge Conlon will deliver his opinion to-morrow morning. He denied, for the time being, a motion of defendant's counsel to dismiss the case, and also refused to admit Durrant to bail. When Durrant was taken to the court room he looked pale and wan, his confinement apparently beginning to tell upon him.

LAIBACH AGAIN SHAKEN.

People Panic Stricken Leave Their Homes and Camp in the Fields.

Vienna, May 1.—The inhabitants of Laibach were again panic stricken at midnight by a severe earthquake. Hundreds of people have again left their homes and are encamped in the fields around the town.

Big Batch of Moonshiners.

Huntington, W. Va., May 1.—Over one hundred prisoners, mostly moonshiners, have been brought out of the mountains of the interior in the last few days by the federal authorities. Many of them are women. They will be tried at Charleston next week.

French Taken to Boston.

Pittsburg, May 1.—Arthur French was brought from the work house and turned over to Detective Harris, of Boston, who started with him to that city to answer nine charges of forgery.

Death of an Old Lawyer.

Lancaster, Pa., May 1.—David G. Eshlenan, one of the oldest and most prominent members of the Lancaster bar, is dead from the effects of a paralytic stroke, aged 79 years.

Pardoned by the President.

Washington, May 1.—The president has granted a pardon to Pierre Letendre, convicted in New Jersey of violating the internal revenue laws. Letendre is said to be dying in prison.

127 Ballots and No Choice.

Dover, Del., May 1.—The 127th ballot for a United States senator stood: Higgins 6, Addicks 6, Massey 6, Pennewill 1, Ridgley 7, Mustard 1, absent 2.

A NOBLE LIFE

SPENT FOR AND WITH SUFFERING WOMEN.

A Life's Work Perpetuated through a Faithful Daughter, and Records of Priceless Value.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

What a vast amount of misery and suffering has been prevented by the clear-headed foresight of one noble woman!

She had struggled, labored, and sacrificed for the welfare of her sex.

The eyes of the woman of the world were upon her.

As she recalled the past, and tried to penetrate the future, a smile of supreme satisfaction passed over her honest face as she remembered that her life's work would be perpetuated.

The room in which she sat contained hundreds of volumes of records; and, turning to her daughter, she said,—

"My daughter, this room, as you well know, contains the records of my life's work, in which for many years you have so diligently assisted me.

"By earnest application you have compassed my methods; and it is a happiness to think that when I leave, the glorious work will, through you, go on.

"The mission is a noble one. Do as I have done: never permit a woman's appeal to go unheeded.

"These records tell of every case ever submitted to me; and it is my wish that the facts they contain shall in time prove a much-needed education to the women of the world."

Thus did Lydia E. Pinkham hand over to her daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Pinkham, what may be termed the salvation of her sex; and that wonderful remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which all druggists consider as standard as flour, goes on redeeming hundreds of women from the fearful consequences of female diseases.

A full assortment of Stationery!

AT

HARPER'S,

411 Park ave.

SPRING MILLINERY DISPLAY.

Wednesday, March 27, of all the latest novelties in Hats, Bonnets, Dutch Bonnets, Napoleon and 20th Century Turbans, Flowers, Ribbons and all the accessories in Trimmings that complete the newest styles.

Mrs. L. Adams,

111 East Front st., under First National Bank.

L. A. HUMMER. L. B. MULFORD.

Hummer & Mulford,

VARIETY MARKET,

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, Etc.,

220 PARK AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Telephone call, 29 A.

Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge 9 11

Your valuables will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

LOCK BOXES

From $3.50 to $10.00 a year.

M. Powers & Son.

[Superior quality of]

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75

In the yard. A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office, 163 South Avenue. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3545, Knights of Honor.—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the First and Third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.

John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Court Pride of New Jersey, No. 8095, Ancient Order of Foresters of America, meets in K. of P. Hall, No. 108 West 2d st., first and third Tuesday evenings in each month.

Samuel J. Flynn, Chief Ranger.
Samuel H. Lunger, Fin. Sec. 9 25

Anchor Lodge, No. 188, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays in the Babcock Building.

C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Secretary.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 36, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Masonic Hall, East Front street.

D. C. Adams, W. M.
Chas. Yeager, Secretary.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum.—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the Second and Fourth Monday evenings of each month in Prompt Firemen's Hall, Coward's Building, Park avenue, at 8 p. m.

E. A. Thorne, Secretary. A. M. Rue, Regent.

A Noble Life

SPENT FOR AND WITH SUFFERING WOMEN.

A Life's Work Perpetuated through a Faithful Daughter, and Records of Priceless Value.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

What a vast amount of misery and suffering has been prevented by the clear-headed foresight of one noble woman!

She had struggled, labored, and sacrificed for the welfare of her sex.

The eyes of the woman of the world were upon her.

As she recalled the past, and tried to penetrate the future, a smile of supreme satisfaction passed over her honest face as she remembered that her life's work would be perpetuated.

The room in which she sat contained hundreds of volumes of records; and, turning to her daughter, she said,—

"My daughter, this room, as you well know, contains the records of my life's work, in which for many years you have so diligently assisted me.

"By earnest application you have compassed my methods; and it is a happiness to think that when I leave, the glorious work will, through you, go on.

"The mission is a noble one. Do as I have done: never permit a woman's appeal to go unheeded.

"These records tell of every case ever submitted to me; and it is my wish that the facts they contain shall in time prove a much-needed education to the women of the world."

Thus did Lydia E. Pinkham hand over to her daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Pinkham, what may be termed the salvation of her sex; and that wonderful remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which all druggists consider as standard as flour, goes on redeeming hundreds of women from the fearful consequences of female diseases.

Short Vacations

For busy people by the beautiful new steamships of the Old Dominion Line.

To Old Point Comfort [Hygeia Hotel]

Or Virginia Beach, Va.

[Princess Anne Hotel] may be made for

$16 Old Point Comfort, $16 Virginia Beach, $17 $17

INCLUDING EVERY EXPENSE

of meals and berths enroute, and a day and a quarter's board at the hotels.

These trips are ideal, as a considerable portion is made through the quiet waters of the famous Hampton Roads and there is little likelihood of seasickness.

Also tickets on sale, with privilege of going or returning by rail.

Write for particulars of these and other delightful trips to —

Old Dominion S. S. Co.,

Pier 26, North River, New York.
W. L. Guillaudeu, Vice Pres. and Traffic Manager. 11 26 6m

L. L. MANNING.

Marble and Granite Works

Cor. Central Ave. and Front st., opp. First Baptist Church. 1 26 6m

Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

M. M. DUNHAM,

Real Estate and Insurance.

7 East Front Street.

CUT ROSES, CARNATIONS AND VIOLETS

Flowers furnished for weddings, funerals, etc., a bunches, bouquets or design.

MILES,

Somerset st., Johnston's drive, terminus of electric railroad. 2 17 tf

Prof. A. Wehner,

TEACHER OF THE PIANOFORTE.

ALSO VOICE CULTURE.

Graduate of the Conservatory of Leipsic, Germany, desires a few more pupils in Plainfield.

References given and required.

Address letters to the office of this paper. 1 22 tf-c

E. H. HOLMES.

DEALER IN

COAL and WOOD,

YARD—No. 1208 Madison Avenue. Also Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle 145 North avenue.

J. C. POPE & CO.,

Insurance Agents,

NO. 6 EAST FRONT STREET

Plainfield, N. J.

You may have Lost many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable Pair of Collier's Glasses.

103 Park ave. Established 1859.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,

Real Estate and Insurance,

197 North ave. 10 1 tf

F. A. DUNHAM,

Civil Engineer and Surveyor, 109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas.

TOWNSEND'S

MARBLE AND GRANITE WORKS,

SOMERSET STREET.

Our Motto—Good work, good material at fair prices. 6 4 y

Jones & Co., Excavators.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

JONES & CO.

Cesspools built. 9 18 y

Joseph E. Mosher,

[Agent for

H. J. Hayden & Co.,

WAR CLAIMS ATTORNEYS, WASHINGTON, D.C

All claims put in our hands will receive prompt attention.

Call at the Crescent Cigar Store for fine cigars

Gold Dollars for Fifty Cents.

—BY—

BUT FULL VALUE.

C. B. MORSE, Painting and Paper Hanging.

37 Chatham street.

N. E. KING,

High Grade Portraits

In Crayon, Pastel and Water Colors.

483 Lexington ave., Brooklyn, N.Y.

Refers by permission to John A. Thickstun, L. B. Woolston, J. L. Blackford, L. W. Randolph, A. L. Force. Further information at the drug store of L. W. Randolph or office of The Daily Press, where specimen of work can be seen. 11 20 tf

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Publisher and Proprietor.
WALTER IRVING CLARKE, Managing Editor.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., May 1, 1895

PARTICULAR MENTION.

R. E. Rice of Allentown was in town yesterday on business.

H. W. Bowley of Arlington avenue is in Altoona on business.

H. M. Demarest of Park avenue is at Fortress Monroe, for his health.

M. Cooper has been in town for a few days visiting his old acquaintances.

Lewis Riegal of Netherwood avenue is suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

William Runyon and family have returned to their home, 316 East Front street.

Henry Giles and family have moved from East Front street to 518 West Front street.

Mr. Beebe and family have taken possession of C. T. Pond's house on Madison avenue.

Miss Minnie Wilson entertained friends at her home on Greenbrook road Monday evening.

Mrs. W. H. Cornwall, of Babylon, N. Y., is the guest of Mrs. B. Fosgate of 820 Park avenue.

John Leal of Second place will build a house on Central avenue as soon as the weather permits.

Miss Mattie Barrett has returned to her duties as cashier in Doane & Edsall's after a brief illness.

George Baskin and family, who have been residing on East Ninth street, will move to Connecticut.

Rowland Cox and family of West Seventh street will spend the Summer in England and Holland.

Miss Margaret Kirch, and Mrs. F. A Long and daughter are visiting Mrs. Long's sister in New Brunswick.

The marriage of Miss Carrie Ross of LaGrande avenue to Frank Runyon of Stelton will take place next Fall.

Mrs. A. B. Chafin, who has been visiting Mrs. C. W. Ellis of 516 Ravine road, has returned to her home in Boston.

J. H. Havens and family have removed from 316 East Front street to their Summer home at the end of Central avenue.

Wm. E. Brock and family returned today to their elegant home on Mountain avenue, after spending the Winter in Troy.

George B. Potts of New York has leased the DeRevere property on Woodland avenue, and will move there with his family this week.

The engagement is announced of Miss Norota H. Thorne, formerly of Plainfield and now of Orange, to Herman Thompson of East Orange.

Louis G. Newman, son of H. O. Newman, will be graduated from the New York Homeopathic Medical College and Hospital tomorrow.

Rev. T. Logan Murphy entertained the Sunday-school officers and teachers of Holy Cross Church at his home on Washington avenue last night.

Miss Carrie A. Heidt, who has been confined to her home the past few days on account of rheumatism, is able to be at work at Boehm's store again.

Cards are out announcing the approaching nuptials of Frank Bewley of this city and Miss Mabel J. Weaver of New York. The ceremony will take place in the West Farms, N. Y., Grace Church, May 14.

The Daily Press is in receipt of copies of the Los Angeles Herald from Mulford Estill containing an extensive and interesting account of the flower show, which was being held in that city at the time the Honeyman tourist party was there.

The following from this city visited Ulric Dalhgren Woman's Relief Corps in Elizabeth last night: W W Cortell, Charles Stephens, Sr, M C Dobbins, H S Tuetcher, H C McVoy, E P T Smith, Willard V Sutton, Charles Stephens, Jr, Mrs Andrew Cox, Mrs Charles Smith and Mrs M C Dobbins.

—Great Britain today agreed to the proposed settlement of Nicaragua.

—The Rasores Club was entertained yesterday by papers read by Miss E. R. Leonard and Mrs. Powell.

—Arnold Jeanrenaud of Dunellen has sold his Brookside cottage on Jefferson avenue to Charles H. Taylor of New York, and Mr. Taylor and family have moved into the house.

—The money found by Mr. Shotwell has been restored to its owner, Miss Wray, who spoke in the Y. M. C. A. Hall Sunday afternoon.

—The master plumbers and Board of Health had another conference on the proposed plumbing ordinance last night, and the plumbers made suggestions. Adjournment was made to May 16.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

as mercury will surely destroy the sence of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists, price 75 cts. per bottle.

EARMARKS OF TYPEWRITING.

A Practical Result from One of Conan Doyle's Detective Stories.

When Dr. Conan Doyle lectured in this country he told some amusing stories about his relations with people who were determined to believe that he was really a wonderful crime detective, such a one, indeed, as Sherlock Holmes, instead of merely a story writer. He said he found it almost impossible to convince some people that he had not personally exploited the various detective devices he wrote about. Even some of those he so far convinced would not believe that, so far as he knew, those tricks of the trade had never been used at all. But that some of them are practical methods for detecting crime, even through the invention of a story writer, has recently been proven in an interesting manner.

In Dr. Doyle's story, "A Case of Identity," Sherlock Holmes discovers the identity of the rascal he is pursuing by peculiarities in the typewriting the rascal has used, and used for his own proper correspondence, and the correspondence of a person he is pretending to be.

This story was read by a typewriter in Milwaukee, who had already been a witness in the preliminary proceedings against some contractors who had altered the specifications in a contract for a public building. In her first examination she had not testified to anything of importance to the people. She had done some work for the accused contractors—it was a question of some pages being inset—but she could not identify them. But when the principal examination was held she became a very important witness. In the interim she had read Dr. Doyle's story quoted from above. The Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin reports the interesting incident as follows:

"When the case was called the prosecution resumed the examination of Miss Northrop, who was first called yesterday. She said that on Oct. 28, 1893, a strange man came into her office and that she made six copies of page 28 of the specifications, some of the copies being ruled in red and others not ruled at all. District Attorney Brazee handed the specifications to the witness and asked her if she could find any distinguishing marks on page 28. The witness said that the ink on the page was of a slightly darker tint than that on the rest of the pages, and showed signs of having been written at a later date.

"Mr. Toohey questioned the witness for the defence. He made her refer to her memorandum book and read all entries pertaining to the almshouse matter. During July and August Christopher Paulus gave her work to do on the specifications. At one time there were some interlineations and she went to see him about them. He told her where they belonged and she made them.

"The attorney for the defence was rather nonplussed when Miss Northrop answered his question relating to her ability to identify the pages that she had written.

"'You say that you can now identify the pages?' queried Mr. Toohey sternly, 'and yet at the preliminary examination you said that you could not do so. How is that?'

"'Since then I have looked over my work and discovered distinctive marks,' answered the witness calmly.

"'In what way?' asked the attorney. 'Is your type different from any other machine?'

"'Yes,' was the answer. 'I can distinguish my work by two distinct peculiarities in the type of my machine. The capital "U" has a slight break on one end and the upper right hand corner of the capital "I" is worn away.

"There was a dead silence for a short space, and the defendants and their lawyers looked at each other.

"'How did you come to discover this after the preliminary examination?' asked the attorney in a tone of incredulity. The answer of the witness had the flavor of a novel. She said:

"'I happened to read Conan Doyle's "Sherlock Holmes," and my attention was attracted by the scene in which a stenographer furnishes valuable evidence by discovering peculiarities in the type of his machine. I immediately looked over my work and examined each letter in my typewriter and found defects in the capitals "U" and "I," as already mentioned.'"

As It Impressed Uncle Zeke.

"What's that box o' things fur?" inquired Uncle Zeke, looking down into the showcase.

"That's a manicure set," answered the shop girl.

"A what?"

"Manicure set. It's for the nails, you know."

"Nails? Is ther' a hammer goes with it?"

"No, no. It's for the finger nails."

"Finger nails?"

"Yes. Trimming them and cleaning them and keeping them in shape."

"Is that what all them tools is fur?"

"Yes."

"What might the outfit be wurth?"

"$3.75

"Ever sell any of 'em?"

"Often."

"Ain't used fur nothin' else?"

"No."

"An' you git $3.75 fur 'em?"

"Yes."

"Gosh!" exclaimed Uncle Zeke, strolling on to the next aisle in the department store, what'd some folks do fur a livin' if it wasn't for the blamed fools!"—Chicago Tribune.

Varying Rates.

"How much," asked the pale gentleman with the glasses, "will you charge me for binding these magazines?"

"Ads and all," said the bookbinder, "it will cost you $5.25. Without the ads $2.50. Without either ads or Napoleon articles 85 cents. A great many are having them done that way."—Chicago Tribune.

It Gave Him Away.

May—So you broke your engagement with the count?

Eithylle—Yes. He was entirely too suggestive.

May—In his talk?

Eithylle—Dear no. But his manner of ruffling my hair was altogether too much like a shampoo.

No Case On Record.

Fond Wife—There are some men who make good husbands.

Loving Husband—I dare say. I never heard of any woman making them.

Turn About.

Herdso—Every woman who gets a divorce wants to go on the stage.

Saidso—And every woman who goes on the stage wants to get a divorce.

Revere House Open.

George S. DeRevere has opened the Albion under his own name for the reception of guests. That the hotel will take a new lease of life under his management, is an assured fact.

Mr. De Revere's experience, ability, and large personal acquaintance, will be factors in making the Revere House a favorite resort for people of good taste all over the country.

Corporal Moore Draws a Gun.

In a midnight raid last night Corporal Chas. K. Moore, formerly of Fanwood, seized 83 trucks and vans left on the street. He had ex-pitcher George Gore as a bodyguard. There was much excitement, and to defend himself from the infuriated truckmen Moore drew his revolver and used it as a club.

Vreeland's Minstrels.

The grand spectacular military novelty, "The March of the Red Dragoons", consisting of the most difficult marches, drills and maneuvres, and concluding with the beautiful tableau "America", will be seen with Vreeland's Minstrels in Music Hall Friday evening.

Mrs. Mackay Coming to America.

London, May 1.—Mrs. John W. Mackay, who has not recovered her strength since her recent attack of influenza in Paris, has been ordered to take a sea voyage. She has started for New York but will return to England at the end of this month.

Died of Grief.

London, May 1.—The Daily News has a dispatch saying that the mayor of Domevres, France, died of grief caused by the loss of six of his relatives in the Bouzy flood.

Deaths in New York State.

Albany, May 1.—There were 11,379 deaths in this state during March, according to the bulletin of the state board of health.

The Kaiser's New Yacht.

Berlin, May 1.—Emperor William's new racing yacht Vineta was launched at Kiel yesterday.

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills Cure Sick Headache.

SICK HEADACHE is usually caused by indigestion. If you take Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills, you won't have sick headache.

Send to us for a free sample.

DR. J. A. DEANE CO. Kingston, New York.

At all druggists' 25c

See What $1.00 Will Do

AT THE

Plainfield Tea and Grocery Co.

106 E. FRONT ST.,

H. S. WILLIAMS, Manager.

All Goods Warranted as Represented.

1 lb. Special Mixed Tea,	50c.
1 lb. Coffee, -	32
Quarter lb. Pepper,	10
One Can Corn, -	10
One Can Tomatoes, -	10
One Can Pease, -	10
One Can Milk -	10
One Paper Corn Starch,	10
One Paper Cocoanut,	10

$1.52

Cut out this Coupon and bring it and $1 to our store and get all the above articles for $1 Cash!

MISS CLARIBEL JEFFERY, teacher of Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar. Best references. 822 W. Front street. Call Wednesdays. 4 25 1m

Revere House

Park Ave. 7th and 8th St.

GEORGE B. DeREVERE & CO.

Thoroughly renovated and now open for transient or permanent guests.

5 1 tf

LIST OF ADVERTISED LETTERS

Post-office, Plainfield, N. J., April 29, 1895.

[Officially furnished weekly for publication in THE DAILY PRESS.]

Anderson Mrs Hattie	King Miss
Anderson Miss Beda	Lovenklau Carl
Burk Mrs John	Mills W J
Burnett D	Miller Mrs
Coghill Howard	Poter Mrs Lizzie
Connolly John	Peet Miss Sue
Colts Maggie	Rogers Robert G
Cockert Joseph	Rowland Mrs H H 2
Clarke Musical Ag'cy	Raymond Geo S
Duderstadt Hugo	Rolke Miss Kate
Eldridge J R	Romolo Del Vesco
Greely Mrs W B	Ross D H
Hamilton Constance	Teneall Miss
Hansen Andreas E	The Christian Herald
Hare Ida C	Tator Lena
Hurlbrut Chas C	Wyckoff Mrs Mary
Husleman Miss H	Wartson Lena B
Hall Mrs Mary A	Wilson Mr and Mrs J
Hayden Patrick	Willmose Mrs Martha
Howell Jean Kirk	Whyte Mrs Emma

Buckwheat Cakes "az iz" Buckwheat Cakes are made with

Cleveland's Baking Powder

Try the recipe.

Cleveland's, the best that money can buy.

The recipe is given in our cook book. A copy mailed free on receipt of stamp and address.
Cleveland Baking Powder Co., 81 Fulton St., New York.

Struck by a Sunbeam

Was the man who thought it was winter still, and that the old suit would see him through spring.

Yesterday the sun came out bright and warm and he decided a new suit was a necessity

He is Dead

On to the fact that we are selling the best suits that are to be had for the money, and $12 rigged him out in a suit fit to appear before a King in.

Neither you nor he will buy here once. We seldom lose a customer. That's why it pays us to sell our perfect clothing at such low prices.

Everyone knows it,

But we may as well state it here that we can save you from $3 to $5 in a suit on what a similar quality will cost you in New York.

MC GREGOR & CO.,

850-852 Broad St.,

Newark, N. J.

MUSIC HALL,

Joseph Sohl, Lessee and Manager
Telephone Call 49B.

Wednesday, May 1,

"The Napoleon of Necromancers,"

HERMAN THE GREAT

In his new marvelous entertainment of magic mirth and mystery. "The Asiatic trunk mystery." "Artist's Dream," "Columbian Transportation," and a vast array of mystic novelties and assisted by Mme Herman in her spectacular dance "Creation."

Prices 35 50, 75 and $1.

Box office now open.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION.

The Civil Service Commission at Washington has ordered that an examination be held in this city on Saturday, June 1, 1895 commencing at 9 o'clock, a. m., for the grades of clerk and carrier in the city postoffice. Only citizens of the United states can be examined. The age limitations are as follows: For carrier, not under 21 nor over 40; for all other positions, not under 18 years. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed with the undersigned in complete form, on the proper blank, before the hour of closing business on May 13, 1895.

The Civil Service Commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens who may desire to enter the postal service, without regard to their political affiliations. All such citizens, whether Democrats or Republicans, or neither, are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to their political views, or to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination.

For application blanks, full instructions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, apply at the postoffice to

G. C. GODOWN,
Secretary Board of Examiners.

MY,

Look at your gloves!

Come to Peck's and get a new pair.

$10.00 Cash

purchases in our

CARPET DEPARTMENT,

secures you a handsome Moquette Rug

FREE.

We are offering many bargains in our Dry Goods Department; a few we mention below:

Best Gingham
Best Calico
Best Lining Cambric } 3 1/2c Yard.

The celebrated Mignon Kid, regular $1 25 for 75c. We allow you a cash discount of 5 per cent. from our already low prices as

WHITNEY'S,

122 East Front Street, Near City Bank.

THE CIRCLE OF

King's Daughters.

Young Daughters of the King, Washington Park Plainfield, N. J., announce the third recital of the series by

MR. CHAS. F. UNDERHILL,

At The Casino.

THURSDAY, MAY 2, at 8:15 p. m.

Sheridan's Great Comedy,

"The Rivals."

Tickets at the usual places, 75 cents.
4 25 td

Deer Park and Oakland,

On the crest of the Alleghenies.

(Main line B. & O. R. R.)

SEASON OPENS JUNE 22, 1895.

Rates $60, $75 and $90 a month, according to location. Furnished cottages, with facilities for housekeeping, if desired, $450 to $600 per season. Address

GEO. D. DeSHIELDS, Manager, Cumberland, Md.

4 26 6-c

ACTUAL VALUE.

Hardly an article advertised now-a-days but what reads 49c value 98c or 69c value $1.25. Do you believe? Guess not. Goods are only worth what they will bring and if the article sells for 49c 'tis all its worth, as the general run of merchants get all they can Don't blame them as they are all after dollars. It's only the one who offers the most and is satisfied with the quick profit that gets the business. Don't you like

OUR WAY.

HOSIERY.

Ladies fast black seamless 13c; mens fast black seamless 13c; mens fast navy seamless 10c; childrens fast black seamless 12c; childrens fast black double knee 15c; and they are worth it

MEN'S SHIRTS.

Fine summer balbriggan they are, drawers to match. We bought them last winter at a price that we named, and we named it low. The regular 75c quality yours for 33c each.

DRESS GOODS

50 pieces all kinds 39c; 45 inch imperial serges 45c; 40 inch figured brilliantine, black, 38c; 100 pieces as many patterns 39c; 30 inch swivel silk figured 43c; 30 inch swivel silk plain colors 27c; and they are worth it

LINENS.

How low we sell them—100 doz huck towels 10c each; 3/4 fine dinner napkins $1.19 doz; 60 inch cream damask 33c; 18 inch heavy brown toweling 8c; and they are worth it

WASH GOODS.

Dress ginghams 6c; dress ginghams 8c; crinkled crepons 7c; figured dimities 9c; outing flannel 7c; fine jackonets 17c; fine crepons 17c; 30 inch percales 6c; fine white dimities 12c; fine figured mulls 8c

CAPES.

Only takes a glance to tell you ours are of the latest in style and you find just what you want at a quarter and sometimes half what you expected to pay

YOU

Know we keep most everything and if you don't know our way of merchandising we want you to (as it stands the test) Must be a pretty good way as all our esteemed competitors try to follow us but we keep them a guessing

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

MUSIC HALL,

Jos. Sohl, Lessee and Manager.
Telephone 49B.

FRIDAY, MAY 3,

America's Representative Black Face Comedy Organization.

Vreeland's Minstrels!

T. D. Middaugh, Manager; A. J. Anderson, General Agent; presenting every existing feature of Ethiopian Entertainment, headed by the great and only HANK GOODMAN. A wealth of pleasing surprises. A cluster of brilliant gems. A score of startling novelties. A hundred new ideas. No relics of antiquity. EVERYTHING New! Street parade by Middaugh's Gold Band! Seats now on sale, prices 25, 50, 75 and $1.00.

MISS E. ROCKFELLOW,

DRESSMAKING PARLORS,

195 North Avenue.

Taylor System. Suits $5 and upward.

5 1 1m

FOR SALE CHEAP!

A large assortment of Geraniums, Coleus, Salvias, Roses, Casino clematis, Palms and Rubber trees. Also 3000 Privet hedge plants, and a general collection of hardy plants and shrubs, at

DENTON'S
131 Hillside Avenue.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U.S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

BY THE WAY.

—The Grocers Association meets Monday night.

—The fire companies elect officers Monday night.

—The Hibernians meet Thursday evening of next week.

—Thomas Barrett, shipping clerk at Edeall's, is riding a new Crescent wheel.

—"The Russian Honeymoon" will have a full rehearsal tomorrow night. Tickets are going fast.

—H. A. Stiles, eye specialist, will give free examinations at 107 East Front street tomorrow.

—"The Relief of Gotham", a thrilling new prize novel by Park Benjamin, begins in this issue.

—The Daughters of Liberty last night made arrangements for an entertainment to be given in Red Men's Hall May 21.

—Policeman Nicholas Meyers is having a four-foot stone wall built in front of his property on North avenue, Netherwood.

—A big dog caused excitement in Netherwood yesterday afternoon by running about in a wild manner and frothing at the mouth.

—Judge Coddington this morning gave Richard Mead the choice of leaving town or going to jail for sixty days. He promised to leave town.

—The report in another paper that Mr. Powers has rented his North Plainfield house to a gang of Italians is untrue. Contractors Honan & Son are living there.

—A street car on the Somerset street line came within a few inches of colliding with a Front street car at 10:30 this morning at the intersection of Front and Somerset street.

—A meeting of Gazelle Engine Company will be held this evening, when nominations can be made for the election next Monday. James Huntington has been nominated for recording secretary in the place of James Love, who refused to run.

—There is a possibility of John Johnson, the great bicycle rider, not racing in the Decoration Day meet of the Crescent Wheelmen, if the charges which have been preferred against him should be substantiated before the racing board of the L. A. W.

THE ALASKA MAIDEN.

Remarks About Her by a White Man Who Studied Her Characteristics.

Some of the early American settlers who went to Alaska as bachelors married native women. One of them who died several years ago left behind the following description of the Alaska maiden, which was published in the last number of the Alaska News:

"The Alaska maiden is a very queer and unnatural being. She may live with a white man, or be lawfully wedded to him, but such tender sentiments as love for her white master never enters her dusky bosom. She may dwell in a fine cottage, wear silks and fine raiment and live upon dainty food and in ease, but to be good and true to him who labors to supply her with these fine things is not according to the Hoyle of her clan, and she keeps the head of the house constantly in hot water through the intrusions of some swarthy lover upon his domestic happiness. The cottage, silks, well supplied table and liberal allowances of cash are her demands for living with him, and if financial embarrassments cause a shortage in such luxuries the frisky damsel suddenly has home affairs that demand her attention, and 'Mr. Parker' 'baches' until he makes another stake. She is a very dutiful child to her aged parents, and the persistency of her demands for cash and the depletion of her own larder for their support is only equaled by the amount that these old people seem able to consume. She is very aboriginal in her habits, and when she can escape the argus eye of her better half and make a sneak from under the roof of civilization for a time, she can always be found rolling in the sand in front of the parental hovel, munching dried salmon or cakes of seaweed and seal grease. But when she has gorged herself sufficiently on this odoriferous food and visited and gossiped to her heart's content, she returns to her cottage again, and, with silks soiled and torn and a breath flavored like the breeze from a fish drying rack, sues for that forgiveness she is always sure to receive. She is then thoroughly soapsudsed, a new gown is purchased, and the head of the house breathes a sigh of relief, knowing that it will be several days at least before his domestic happiness is again broken."

Fail to Rule the Waves.

An old song says that Britons never, never will be slaves,
And boasts about Britannia, the ruler of the waves;
But I've just crossed the stormy sea, and I regret to state
That if Britannia ruled the waves she didn't rule 'em straight.
—Hartford Courant.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Worth Co., who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Fort Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad that he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he procured a bottle of it and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

PARTICULAR MENTION

Marshall W. Hall of the Providence, R. I. Journal is a guest of his cousin Mrs. Albert A. Utter. The Press received a call from him today.

A MOCK CHINESE MARRIAGE.

A New York Girl Acts as Bride for a Chinese Bridegroom.

The Sunday school of St. Bartholomew's Chinese Guild gave an extraordinary exhibition the other day in the shape of a mock Chinese marriage ceremony, says the New York Sun. Before an audience composed of white women and Chinese laundrymen and white and Chinese half breeds, a young white woman, connected, it is said, with the Sunday school went through the marriage ceremony with a Chinaman for the bridegroom. Its object was a benefit for the Sunday school.

The reporter was met at the door by the white wife of a Chinaman. She said a good crowd was expected. The reporter asked the name of the woman who was to take the part of bride and the man who was to take the part of the bridegroom.

"They don't want their names printed in the papers," she said. "You must see this gentleman," pointing to a Chinaman.

The question was asked of him. Before he could answer it a young woman richly dressed, wearing diamond earrings, ran up to him, and, tapping him on the shoulder, exclaimed:

"No names, now, don't you dare!"

"Leave that to me," said the Chinaman, and the whole party laughed merrily.

The crowd began to arrive shortly after the reporter got there. First came two very nice looking young women escorted by two Chinamen dressed in American clothes. They took seats in the middle of the hall and chatted and laughed. Next came an elderly woman accompanied by a younger one, evidently her daughter. The young woman linked arms with a Chinaman. Then came some women unattended and some Chinese from Mott street. Then two more fashionably dressed and good looking young women with Chinese escorts. So it went for half an hour. At the end of that time the room was two-thirds full. Very many of the women had Chinese escorts, who made much of them and were made much of.

A Chinese band filed in and took seats in the front of the hall.

Four Chinaman in Chinese costumes went on the platform. There was a great deal of bowing and kneeling, and one of the men tied a red ribbon on the head of another and a red sash about the waist and shoulders. This was the tying of the nuptial knot for the bridegroom. The four men then stepped down before a Chinese altar and prayed to a Chinese god.

After that came the bridal procession. The men disappeared and four white women, dressed and painted to resemble Chinese women came out. The central one of the party was the bride. She had a heavy red veil over her head and hanging down below her waist. This party walked around and did a lot of bowing. Then the bride was led to the sedan chair which stood at the left of the platform. She entered it and the curtains were drawn.

Eight or ten men came in then. The bridegroom was one. Two Chinese lanterns held on sticks were placed in the hands of two white and Chinese half breed children. One of the men, who took the part of matchmaker, lifted the front handles of the sedan chair. Two others took the rear handles. The men and women fell in behind and the children with the lanterns lighted the way across the room, the Chinese band the while playing a wedding march.

This occupied plenty of time. The audience was greatly interested. Every Chinaman in it was busy explaining to his white companion what it all meant. When it was over the bridegroom, attended by six groomsmen, went over to the sedan chair and opened the doors. The bride, still covered with the red veil, was led out. Four bridesmaids, all white women dressed in Chinese costume, attended her.

The women all bowed to the men and the men to the women. Then the women left the room. The directors of the exhibition announced that there was a supply of Chinese wedding cake on sale at 10 cents a piece, and, while waiting for the return of the bride and her party, it would be passed around.

OLD TIME BOND SERVANTS.

Men Who Sold Their Services For a Time to Pay Their Debts.

The question which in this generation have disturbed so much employers and employes came up in a very different shape in the days of our grandfathers. Almost every one who knows now that when Benjamin Franklin came to Philadelphia he was a runaway apprentice, but very few comparatively know that he would have been subjected to very severe penalties if he had been caught.

In the days before the Revolution and for a long time afterward the practice of binding a boy as an apprentice was the almost universal method of putting him to learn a trade. The binding of a boy with a farmer until he was a certain age—usually 16 or 17 years of age—was very common. An adult person voluntarily signed indentures by which they practically sold themselves to another to work out a debt.

When imprisonment for debt was the punishment of the law, the man who was poor but honestly desirous of paying his debts could do it in no other way. Very often a man would not only thus sell himself for a term of years, but would put his children or possibly his wife out at service in the same way.

The woman or man thus securing their services had almost absolute control over his servant and could compel obedience to his commands. He was allowed to whip them in moderation, and if they ran away they were required when caught to render extra service for a longer period of time than he had been absent and also to work out the costs and expenses incident to his capture.

PADEREWSKI ON HIS ART.

The Great Pianist Writes of Popular Errors in Teaching.

Young girls who have learned to strum a little on the pianoforte, being obliged to do something for their own support, turn their attention to music teaching as the easiest and most genteel means of gaining a livelihood, without any reference whatever to their ability and qualifications.

They can tell where the notes come on the staff and also on the keyboard, and they can play a few little waltzes, schottiches, and a few trifling compositions called "pieces," to which the composer has given some fancy name, such as a "nocturne," or a "reverie," or a maiden's prayer, or some similar title, which has no real reference whatever to the nature of the work.

This comprises their musical knowledge, yet many people who ought to know better say that they can "teach beginners just as well as anybody can," and hence the musical education of many young people is confided to their tender mercies at a time of all others when, if they ever expect to become pianists or musicians of any kind, they should have the very best instructors obtainable. For first impressions are always the most lasting, and bad habits and mannerisms of playing acquired at the outset are often almost impossible to overcome. Many a promising young man or woman who would make a brilliant pianist if afforded a proper opportunity is completely ruined by having for his or her first instructor a wholly incompetent person.

Such teachers begin at the wrong end. Their one idea seems to be to teach their pupils "tunes" or "pieces." They teach them the notes on the staff and on the keyboard, and then set about drumming into them some utterly valueless "piece."

To teach or to learn to play the piano or any other instrument we must commence at the beginning. The pupil must first be taught the rudiments of music. When those have been mastered he must next be taught the technique of his instrument, and if that instrument be the piano or the violin or the harp or the violoncello, the muscles and joints of the hands, wrists and fingers must be made supple and strong by playing exercises designed to accomplish that end. At the same time, by means of similar exercises, the pupil must also be taught to read music rapidly and correctly.

When this has been accomplished he should render himself familiar with the works of the masters, not by having them drummed into him by the instructor, but by carefully studying them for himself; by seeking diligently and patiently for the composer's meaning, playing each doubtful passage over and over again in every variety of interpretation and striving most earnestly to satisfy himself which is the most nearly in harmony with the composer's ideas.

The chief aim of every teacher of the pianoforte should be to impart to his pupils a correct technique and to enable them to play any composition at sight with proficiency and correctness. But how much, or rather how little, of this kind of teaching is practiced by many so-called music teachers? Many really competent music teachers have assured me that of all the pupils who come to them from teachers of lesser reputation to be "finished," there is not one in ten who has ever been taught to play all the major and minor scales in all the various keys.

PADEREWSKI.

LIBERIA'S DEVELOPMENT.

Efforts to Further the Progress of the Black Republic.

A scientific young American is now energetically at work doing for Liberia that which he believes must be done before the Black Republic can make any great progress materially, socially or intellectually. He is at work gathering material which will enable Liberia to know herself—to know her natural resources. This work is being done by Prof. O. F. Cook, formerly connected with the Syracuse University, under the auspices of the New York State Colonization Society.

There are parts of Liberia as little known as the North Pole, says Prof. Cook. With an almost limitless country, capable of producing the finest coffee in the world, there are no roads along which plantations might be opened up and no schools to teach the youth even such knowledge of engineering as would enable them to survey and build roads. There are no horses to aid in transportation and no knowledge concerning the breeding and care of horses, although it is known that horses and cattle can be acclimatized here. Their are navigable rivers, but the men carry freight along their banks on their backs.

There is native iron ore so rich that it polishes under the feet of the carriers and in the "college" the students are not taught geology or metallurgy, but study text books on useless subjects, and even those text books were abandoned in this country seventy-five years ago.

The country has resources to make it rich and great, but the science of its resources has never received the attention of its own Government or of any other Government or society which has sought to assist in developing the republic.

A New Sprocket Wheel for Bicycles.

A Lockport man is introducing an improved sprocket wheel for bicycles. Between the teeth of the wheel a small plate, held in place by a screw, is placed. When the chain becomes lengthened, all that is necessary is to unscrew the plates and place underneath them a small piece of paper. For the first time the thickness of a postal card will be sufficient. This increases the circumference of the wheel and makes the chain fit the wheel at all times. When it does not fit the wheel runs hard; the chain will pull on one tooth only, and the friction will wear the teeth still faster. This device does not add to the weight of the wheel, and will save the rider a new chain every six months. The makers state that this device has been tried since last season with a chain that was called worn out, and was stretched two inches in fifty links. It was made to run as easily as a new chain, thus proving that as long as the chain fits the wheel there will be no increased friction or extra power to run it, thus doing away with the snapping of the chain when in motion. The filling in the adjustments also deadens the rattle of the wheel, which is a good feature. This device must be applied to the rear sprocket also, but it requires only one-half as much packing as in the large ones.—Hardware.

No Extra Charge.

Housekeeper—Half the things you wash are torn to pieces.

Washerwoman.—Yes, mum, but when a thing is torn in two or more pieces, mum, I count them as only one piece, mum.—Pittsburg Post.

THE GREAT AMERICAN DRINK---Soda Water,

is the best of all drinks when rightly served. We use many syrups—all good—but we must "brag" a little about our orange (fresh from fruit), our chocolate and coffee; none can be finer. As to cream—take your choice: Ice cream, whipped cream, plain cream.

Reynolds's Pharmacy,

Park and North avenues.

Tomorrow Night.

Mr. Underhill says there is a genuine "Mrs. Malaprop" now living in Washington, who told him the thing she most admired in a magnificent new house she had just been inspecting was "the spinal staircase". It was at one of Mrs Cleveland's receptions and a Senator who stood near remarked, "I presume she means the back stairs".

A full house will doubtless greet Mr. Underhill Thursday night in the Casino.

Shiloh's cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient consumption; it is the best cough cure, only 1c a dose; 25, 50c, $1. Sold by all druggists.

Kari's Clover Root, the great blood purifier, gives freshness and clearness to the complexion and cures constipation; 25c 50c, $1. Sold by all druggists.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "Shiloh's Vitalizer saved my life; I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used. For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels; 75c Sold by all druggists.

Fine Dairy Butter.....15c. lb
Best Dairy Butter.....18c. lb
Best Elgin Creamery Butter..20c. lb

V. L. FRAZEE,

151 West Front St.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 2 21 tf

GOOD cash meat and vegetable market for sale on account of sickness. Will be sold right. Box 305 Somerville, N. J. 5 1 3

A COMPETENT dressmaker wishes to make engagements by the day. Apply at Mrs. M. I. Cooley's, Rockview terrace, North Plainfield.

BOARDERS wanted at 926 Putnam ave., near LaGrande ave. 4 29 6

STORAGE to let in Stillman block. 4 29 6

DANISH girl wants situation as chambermaid, good references. Call at Stagaard's shoe shop, corner Front and Church streets.

WANTED to rent, for one week, baby carriage, address P. M., Press office.

FOR SALE—Shetland pony (5 years old), Bradley cart and harness. A nice smart rig. Address Richmond, Press office. 5 1 3

COACHMAN and gardener wanted. Thoroughly competent single white man. Satisfactory references required. Apply 830 Central avenue. 4 30 2

FIRST flat to let, all improvements, over Tobin's store. Apply 612 Park avenue 4 30 tf

CORNER flats to let; all improvements; steam heat. Miller 339 Park avenue. 4 30 5

WANTED—Middle aged woman as housekeeper in family of two. Address A, Press office.

LOST—On Monday last during exercises of Monday Afternoon Club, either in church or Casino, a black feather boa. Please return to Mrs. F. O. Herring, Park avenue.

WANTED—Situation as coachman or gardener. Good references. Address R. West, care Press. 4 30 3

AGENTS make $5 daily; marvelous invention; retails 25c; 2 to 6 sold in a house; sample mailed free. Forshee & McMakin, Cincinnati, O. 1 2 y-w

5 ROOM flat to let, city water, new building. C. H. Hand, 317 Watchung avenue. 4 30 2

WANTED—Situation by coachman, a Swede, has years of experience, can do plain gardening. Care of cows and lawn if required; is sober, honest and reliable; has the best of references. Address, Anderson, care Press.

STABLE to let, room for 3 horses and 3 wagons. C. H. Hand. 4 30 2

TWO young men may have a cozy room with bath; conveniences and board at extremely reasonable rates; pleasant surroundings; references. Call at 31 Fairview avenue. 4 26 5

MONEY to loan. Mulford, broker. 2 1 tf

$1,000 to $3,500 to loan, first mortgage. Mulford broker. 4 22 tf

WANTED—Table board in private family (near depot), state terms. Address Box 200 Press office.

YOUNG colored man wants work. Experienced. References. Call 524 West Second street. 5 1 tf

WANTED—A young man to assist in selling Sunday papers, and other business. Call at 159 North avenue. 5 1 2

FOR SALE—Pony phaeton. Frank Hedden's livery, 118 E. 4th. st. 3 28 tf

FOR SALE—Cheap, one Victoria carriage nearly new; one Brougham; set double carriage harness; one black saddle stallion. Inquire S. B. Wheeler, Mountain avenue, or Mrs. Edith W. McCarthy, 1038 Park ave. 4 8 tf

TO LET—House 235 East 6th st. Inquire 231 East 6th st. 3 9 tf

SIX ROOM flat to let; all improvements. 200 West 2d st. 3 4 tf

TO LET—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping; no children. Apply 103 Duer street. 3 6 tf

MONEY to loan in sums to suit. Reed & Coddington, atty's., Babcock Building. 2 26 tf

TABLE boarders wanted in private family. Apply 303 West Fourth st. 2 7 tf

New York Announcement.

"Our American Homes and How to Furnish Them"

Horner's Furniture.

Reasons why you should buy it in preference to any other.

(1). Because this firm have long enjoyed the reputation of keeping only the best Furniture that can be produced, both in medium and finest grades; (2). Because their assortments are unequalled; (3). Because their prices are the lowest at which goods of standard quality can be sold.

Latest productions in Dining Room, Bedroom, Parlor, Drawing Room, Library and Hall Furniture—Venetian Carved Furniture—Novelties in Imported Furniture—White and Gold Enameled Furniture—Enameled and Brass Bedsteads—English Brass Bedsteads (3 patterns); Maple and Bamboo Furniture—Reed and Easy Chairs and Settees—Smoking and Billiard Room Furniture—Everything for city or country homes—Eight spacious floors—All prices in plain figures.

R. J. HORNER & CO.,

Furniture Makers and Importers,

61-65 West 23d St., N. Y.

(Adjoining Eden Musee.)

Horner & Co.'s establishment is one of the sights of New York.—Newspaper Comment.

TERRILL & COLE,

Undertakers and Embalmers

200 West 2d street.

Next to Trinity Reformed Church. First-class livery attached. Telephone 153. 11 28 y

AUCTION!

H. HAND, Auctioneer, has been instructed by the undersigned to sell at public sale, at his residence, situate on Terrell road, (near Jackson School House) Fanwood township, at 12 m.,

Thursday, May 2,

2 horses. 2 cows. 30 fowls, surrey, depot carriage, builder's wagon, dump cart, 3 sets single and 1 set double harness, cart harness, riding saddle and bridle, hay and straw, 4 barrels vinegar. 6 barrels potatoes, lumber, posts and rails, cord and kindling wood, bean poles, cider press, wine press, lawn mowers and rollers, corn sheller, grindstone, wheelbarrows, incubator, hay cutters, cultivators, 6 ladders, blocks and falls, plows, harrows, blinds and doors, hot-bed sash, large quantity of builders' hardware, mechanics', garden and stable tools. About 500 preserving jars; also an assortment of household goods and other articles too numerous to mention.

Nearly all new, or equally as good.

WILLIAM BURROWS.

Sale positive; terms cash. 4 30 2

DEATHS.

WHITE—At Netherwood N. J., April 29, 1895. Lucy Dunbar, widow of Heman Lincoln White, and daughter of the late Rev Duncan Dunbar of New York.

Funeral services will be held at the residence of her son-in-law Henry P. Talmadge, Netherwood, on Thursday, May 2, at 2:30 p m. 4 30 2

TRAYNOR—In this city, Margaret Mary Traynor, died April 30, 1895, age 1 year 16 days.

Funeral from her parents residence 306 Monroe avenue corner Third street, Thursday May 2, 1895, at 2 p m.

Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend. 4 30 2

White Lights of Truth

—FROM—

Commercial Palace, EDSALL'S Babcock Building.

You can buy

A Carpet Cheap.

We will close out our entire stock of FINE BODY BRUSSELS CARPETS,

At 99c a Yard.

Regular $1.25 quality goods.

A lot of Chinese jointless matting, extra good quality, an extra special opportunity to purchase at.....9 and 12½c yd

A full line of curtain poles, good fixings, all complete.....Special at 19c

A lot of oilcloths, excellent quality and wearers, special at.....19c sq yd

All-wool ingrain carpets, an excellent variety of designs at.....49c yd

A lot of linoleum, extra heavy, double thickness and good wearers, exquisite designs, a big bargain at 32½c per sq yd; worth fully 25 per cent. above our offering

Our extra good quality of tapestry Brussels carpet, special at.....49c yd

A full line of window shades in all colors, well made, from.....19c upwards

A lot of "Oriental Sakar Rugs," reversible, 36x72, with full fringe, actual value $3, our special price.....$2.39 each

A beautiful line of childrens lawn caps prettily made, all sizes, usually sold at 20c, 29c, 35c. Special 15c, 23c, and 25c each.

Ladies' and men's Gloria Umbrellas 24 and 26 inch paragon frames natural handles, usually sold at 98c, $1.25 and $1.39. Special at 65c, 85c and $1.10 each.

Mens merino shirts and drawers, all sizes, usually sold at 39c, 50c and 75c. Special 25c, 35c and 50c.

An excellent line of mens half-hose all sizes, usually sold at 18c pair, our price 12c.

GROCERY DEP'T.

Edsall's famous baking powder at 12c pound.
Anderson's famous jams all kinds, in one pound tins at 12c can.
Pure Vermont maple sugar warranted strictly pure at 15c pound.
Auker's Bouillon Capsules, pure extract of beef recommended by leading physicians, at 29c box.
California lemon cling peaches in heavy syrup at 14c can.
Very fine pineapple sliced and sliced, Johnsons Bahama good quality 13c can.
Queen olives 32 oz bottles large size 29c bottle.

Housefurnishing Department.

SPECIAL PRICES.

Summer Goods. Summer Goods.

Window screens, hard wood frames, 19c and up.
Screen doors, wellside, 79c and up.
Lawn mowers, best make, $2.29.
Ice cream freezers, best make, $1.48.
Baby carriages, large variety, $3.98 and up.
Oil and gas stoves at bottom prices. 1, 2 and 3 burner at 59c, $1.49 and $2.39 each.
Special low prices on refrigerators. Best makes; all sizes in stock.

7c Sale, 7c Sale, 7c Sale

WOMEN'S OXFORDS

74c, 98c, $1.19, $1.48, $2, $3, $3 50, $4—black or tan, pointed, square or common sense toes.

WE USE——nothing but the genuine Nevel stock in our tan goat shoes for misses and children. It will wear as long again as the ordinary. A full assortment of this goods now ready for your inspection.

Doane & Edsall.

$1.00

At J. F. MacDonald's Uptown Grocery,

buys $1.co worth of Groceries every business day in the year. Our goods are sold at a profit so as to enable us to give weight and quality to our customers and have something left for ourselves No fictitious prices. No man is in business for his health.

J. F. MAC DONALD

Decorated 10-piece Toilet Sets $1.60

Dorflinger's Cut Glass,
Gas Fixtures Repaired,
The Welsbach Light.

Gavett's.

129 East Front st.

Grand Opening Every Day

AT A W. FULPER'S!

1 pound 50c tea, 1 can milk, 3 pounds sugar, 1 loaf bread, half dozen boxes matches

50c All for 50c 50c

Not as an introduction but an every day occurrence. The very best goods; the very lowest prices. Sugar cured ham 10c pound; best Elgin creamery butter 20c, 5 pounds for 95 cts; good creamery butter 15c; 2 pounds extra combination coffee for 25c; 2 pounds extra creamery cheese for 25c; good creamery cheese 10c pound; 3 cakes Babbitt's soap 13c; Babbitt's 1776 per package 3c; best ginger snaps 4c.

'GO TO RANDOLPH'S."

That's the order the thorough business man gives his cabman when he needs anything in DRUGS, OR MEDICINES.

He buys on business principles. Goes where he gets most value for least money.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist, 143 West Front st.

Had You Thought of the Difference?

Special sale usually means a smaller profit than usual, but an

Assignee's Sale

means something else—it means a sale below cost for cash to settle up a business. So if you want a suit of clothes come to the Schepflin & Schultz assignee sale.

J. F. MacDonald,
Assignee for Schepflin, Schultz & Co.,
318 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.

Hats, new shapes, Trunks and Bags cheap E. M. LAING,
All sizes in Packing Trunks. 105 Park avenue.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 North Avenue.

LEECH, STILES & CO.,
Eye Specialists,
441 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, formerly with Queen & Co.
H. A. Stiles will be at
No. 107 East Front Street.
Dunham's Real Estate Office
EVERY THURSDAY
From 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Persons who have headache, or whose eyes are causing discomfort, should call upon this specialist and they will receive intelligent and skillful attention. No charge to examine your eyes. Every pair of glasses ordered guaranteed to be satisfactory. 4 13 tf-n t w s

---

HALLOCK is showing choice patterns in Percale Shirts, with 2 collars and pair cuffs, and these collars and cuffs are the latest patterns—no old back numbers. G. A HALLOCK,
Hats and Furnishing Goods, 109 West Front st.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
DEALERS IN
Lumber. Coal. Mason's Material. &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

The Facts about Abraham Lincoln

The Martyred President

The Most Authentic and Interesting Account of

His Life and Personal Character

By William H. Herndon — The Law Partner of Lincoln

For 20 years Lincoln and Herndon were Partners and Confidential Friends. Their relations were intimate and no man living is better qualified than Herndon to give a just, true and intelligent

Study of Lincoln's True Character

As revealed by his Habits and his Daily Life.

NOTHING IS SUPPRESSED

Which may legitimately contribute to a true understanding of this Greatest of Americans.

We Announce With Pride

That we have secured the right to publish striking extracts from Herndon's Lincoln in

A Series of Short Copyrighted Articles

To be printed

Exclusively in This Paper

The Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Standard Railway of America

Protected throughout by the Interlocking Switch and Block Signal System.

On and after Jan 20, 1895, trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

FAST LINE leaves Philadelphia 12 20 p m daily with Pullman vestibule parlor and sleeping cars for Pittsburg, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

6.37 p. m. WESTERN EXPRESS will leave as Vestibule sleeping cars, dining car daily for Pittsburg, Chicago, Cleveland, daily except Saturday, for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

9.34 p.m.—SOUTH WESTERN EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping car, daily, to Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, and Memphis. Dining car Altoona to Richmond.

8 42 p. m.—PACIFIC EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping cars, daily, for Pittsburg, Columbus, Chicago and Toledo, daily, except Saturday for Cleveland.

For Baltimore, Washington and the West—1 41 9.06, 9.36 a. m., 1 00 p. m.

Sundays, 1, 9 15, 9 36 a. m., 9 41 p. m.

For Baltimore only 1 37 p. m., week-days.

For Newark and New York—3 22, 5 34, 6 46, 6 17, 6 45, 7 07, 7 20, 7 50, 7 57, 8 06, 8 28, 8 38, 8 47, 9 17, 9 41, 9 48, 10 20, 10 38, 10 46, 11 07, 11 38 a. m., 1 13, 1 20, 1 50, 2 24, 2 40, 3 46, 3 27, 3 47, 4 42, 5 15, 5 42, 5 46, 6 08, 6 27, 6 48, 6 58, 7 07, 7 26, 7 50, 9 17, 9 50, 10 08 11 06 and 11 38 p. m.

Sundays 3 22, 5 34, 7 34, 8 46, 9 50, 9 47, 10 19, 10 38, 10 46, 11 07 a. m., 12 38, 1 44, 2 24, 3 46, 4 42, 5 15, 5 42, 6 08, 6 27, 6 48, 7 12, 7 26, 7 50, 8 30 9 15, 10 16, 1 46 and 11 06 p. m.

For New York only, 6 10 a. m. daily.

For Philadelphia—3 22, 5 34, 7 20, 9 06, 9 36, 10 38 a. m., 12 38, 1 44, 2 24, 3 46, 4 42, 5 15, 5 42, 6 08, 6 27, 6 48, 7 12, 7 26, 7 50, 8 30 9 15, 10 16, 1 46 and 11 06 p. m.

For New York only, 6 10 a. m. daily.

For Philadelphia only 7 20 a. m. daily except Sunday.

Cape May and Sea Isle City at 8 00 a. m. Ocean City 1 37 p. m. weekdays.

For Rahway—3 22 daily ex. Monday, 5 34, 6 46, 7 10, 7 50, 8 34, 9 46, 9 50, 10 38, 11 49, a. m., 12 46, 1 11, 1 37, 2 48 5 42, 6 08, 6 27, 6 48, 6 58, 7 07, 7 26, 7 50, 8 30, 9 15, 10 16, 11 06 p. m. and 12 37 night week-days Sundays, 1, 1 46, 9 50, 10 38, 10 46 and 11 47 a. m., 12 38, 1 50, 2 47, 3 46, 4 50, 5 20, 5 46, 7 21, 7 27, 7 46, 8 14, 9 47, 9 16, 10 14, 11 and 11 55 p. m.

For New Brunswick—1 00, 6 37, 7 10, 7 50, 9 05, 9 36, 9 50, 11 49 a. m., 12 38, 1 37, 2 48, 3 50, 4 50, 5 20, 5 46, 6 12, and 7 20 8 30 p.m., 12 37 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 43, 10 38, and 11 47 a. m., 10 14 p. m.

For Perth Amboy—1 43 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 46, 10 46, 12 46 3 20, 5 42, 6 44, 8 12, 7 20 7 36 9 8and 12 37, Sundays, 1 43 10 38, 11 47 a m 10 14 p m.

For East Millstone—7 10 a. m., 12 38, 2 48 and 5 40 p. m., week-days.

For Trenton—1 06, 3 37, 7 10, 7 50, 9 05, 9 36, 11 49 A. M.; 1 06, 3 37, 5 42, 6 08, 6 27, 7 26, 7 46, 8 42, 9 39 P. M. Sundays at 1 10, 6 30, 9 05 9 36, 10 43 A. M.; 5 20, 5 37, 7 47 and 9 41 P. M.

For Lambertville, Phillipsburg and Belvidere via Trenton—7 50 A. M., 2.42 and 6.36 p.m., and 8.40 p.m. Sundays.

For Flemington—7 50 A. M. 2 42 P. M.

For Freehold—7 50, 11 49 a. m., 4 36, 5 00 p.m., via. Monmouth Junction, week-days.

For Jamesburg, via. Monmouth Junction—7 50 and 11 49 a. m., 4 36 and 5 00 p. m., week days.

For Long Branch, Ocean Grove and points on New York and Long Branch R. R.—9 46 12 46, 4 12 5 44 p. m., 12 37 night week-days. Sundays, 10 38 a. m., and 6 44 p. m.; do not stop at Asbury Park on Sundays.

For Sea Side Park, Island Heights and Toms River—12 46, p. m.

For Boston—6 46 p. m., daily.

For Brooklyn, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats to Brooklyn annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton Street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York City.

Leave New York for Elizabeth—1 00 daily except Monday, 2 6, 6 20, 7 25, 8 10, 8 20, 9, 9 10, 10 10, 11 00 a. m., 12, 12 10, 12 20, 12 40 1 00, 2 10, 3 00, 3 00, 3 50, 4 00, 4 10, 4 20, 4 40, 5 00, 5 10, 5 20, 5 30, 5 40, 5 50, 6 00, 6 10, 6 20, 6 40, 7 00, 7 30, 8 15, 9 10, 10 15, 11 00, 11 40 p. m., 12 15 night. Sundays, 1 00 6 15, 8 00, 9 00, 9 45, 10 00, 11 00 a. m., 12 00 noon, 1 00, 2 00, 2 45, 4 00, 4 20, 5 00, 6 30, 6 45, 8 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 30, 10 15, 11 00 p. m., and 12 15 night.

S. M. PREVOST, General Manager.
J. R. WOOD, Gen. Pass. Agent.

Carpenters and Builders.

UTZINGER & KLINE,
CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS.
Jobbing promptly attended to.
V. Utzinger, L. H. Kline,
75 Grandview ave. 54 Jackson ave.

JOHN P. EMMONS
—Mason and Builder.—
Washington avenue and Prospect place
NORTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to 11 14 tf

THEODORE GRAY,
MASON AND CONTRACTOR.
Estimates given, repairing promptly attended to. Residence 119 Hillside ave. 3 29

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
RESIDENCE—W. J. Pearson, No. 14 Vine St.
E. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine St.
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO 9-22-tf

GEO. W. STUDER,
CARPENTER AND BUILDER,
985 ARLINGTON AVENUE.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable. 5 5 6m

McCullough's Steam Mill,
21 Steiner Place, North Plainfield.
E. H. McCullough, Proprietor
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing Turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished. 6-11-tf

C. W. LINES & CO.,
Mason and Builders.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Residence 18 Elm Place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to 12 28

REMOVAL.
I have removed my watchmaking and jewelry business from Park ave. to
142 North Avenue
Next to Walker's bakery, and shall be pleased to have my friends call.
CALEB DICKINSON

Real Estate Insurance
VAN BUREN & TIMPSON,
163 North ave. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

L. PAOLI & CO.,
Fruits, Confectionery, Temperance Drinks, Nuts, Etc.,
128 NORTH AVENUE,
FRESH ROASTED PEANUTS EVERY DAY,
10 CENTS A QUART.
I take this method of informing my friends and the public in general that I am again in business at the old stand. I solicit your patronage. Store will close at sundown on Friday and open at sundown on Saturday.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

(Anthracite coal used exclusively insuring cleanliness and comfort.)
Station in New York foot of Liberty street.
Time Table in effect, Nov. 18, 1894.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 27, 5 38, 6 05, 6 29, 7 59 7 26, 7 30, 7 58, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 51, 8 48, 9 12, 10 04 10 27, 11 19, a m 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51 4 50, 5 54, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 57, 6 05, 8 03, 8 52, 10 08, 11 19, 11 28 a. m.; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 28, 5 36, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty Street at 4 30 6 00, 7 35, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a. m.; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, (except Saturdays) 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p. m., 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 35, 8 20, 9 15 a. m.; 12 00 m.; 1 00, 2 15, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p. m.; 12 15 night 1 00 a. m.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 58, 7 26, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 22, 10 04, 10 27, a. m.; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 6 54, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday 8 01, 8 48, 10 06, 11 28, a. m.; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 58, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 15, 7 55, 8 39, 9 08, 10 05, 11 25 a. m.; 1 15, 1 55, 2 20 (Saturdays only) 2 50, 3 38, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday 7 30, 8 45, 9 35, 11 35, a. m.; 1 10, 2 55, 4 30, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a.m. 12 46, 2 08, 2 32, 3 48, 4 26, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 23 p. m.; 12 28 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 34, a. m.; 2 08, 3 28, 5 14, 6 35, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 35, 7 48, 8 20, 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m.; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 32, 4 25, 5 22, 6 25, 8 05, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 55 a. m.; 12 08, 1 20, 5 05, 6 45, 8 05, 9 40 p.m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54, a. m.; 12 46, 2 08, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28 a. m.; 2 08, 6 35, p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 55 a. m.; 12 28, 4 00, 7 00 p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 55 a. m.; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

8 40 A. M. for High Bridge, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport and Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m. for stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 A. M. for Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 A. M. for Flemington, High Bridge branch D L & W R R, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Hazleton, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 08 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Pottsville and Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton. Buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 05 P. M., way for Easton, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge branch

7 34 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, Mauch Chunk Shamokin and Tamaqua, Buffet parlor car to Scranton.

8 19 P. M. for Flemington.

8 28 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading and Harrisburg.

9 21 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

8 45 A. M. Sundays for Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton. 8 28 p.m. Sundays for Easton, 2 08 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading and Harrisburg, 6 35 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c and at Junction for D. L. & W. R R.

For Atlantic City, 8 40 a. m. 1 18 p. m.

Long Branch, Ocean Grove, &c

Leave Plainfield 9 37, 8, 10 27, a. m 1 13, 8 51, 5 34, p. m. Sundays—except Ocean Grove 8 28, a. m., 4 50 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 9 37, 6 28, 8 10 27 a. m., 1 13, 8 51, 4 50, 5 34, 7 08 p.m. Sunday—8 28, a. m., 4 50 p. m.

For Freehold, 9 37, a. 10 27 a.m., 1 13, 8 51, 4 50, m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 45, 8 16, 9 54, 10 05, a. m., 2 08*, 5 34* 6 45 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 13 night. Sundays—5 45, 9 45, a. m., 2 08*, 5 34*, 6 45 p. m., 1 13, night.

For Trenton 5 45, 8 16, 9 54, 10 05, a. m., 12 46, 2 08*, 5 34*, 6 35*, 9 37, 1 13 night. Sunday—5 45, 9 54, a. m., 2 08*, 5 34* 6 35 p. m., 1 13 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 9 05, a. m., 2 08, 5 34* 6 45 p. m., 1 13, night. Sundays—9 45 a. m., 2 08, 5 34* 6 45 p. m., 1 13, night.

For Chattanooga, New Orleans and all points south with through vestibule sleeper, via Shenandoah Valley Route at 5 34 p m. Sundays 5 15 p m.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points west, week days at 9 54 a m., 8 28 p. m. Sundays 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rate may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN, General Sup't.
H. P. BALDWIN, Gen. Pass. Agt.

The Finderne,

FINDERNE, Somerset Co., N. J.

Open all the year as a resort of the highest order. Driving and sleighing parties will receive every attention.

HIGH-CLASS SUNDAY DINNERS.

(Table d' Hote from 1 to 3:30.) Steam heat; inclosed piazzas; everything immaculate. When out driving let us entertain you.

A. E. WHITE, Manager,
1 9 tf Finderne, N. J.

CODDINGTON'S
FURNITURE AND FREIGHT
EXPRESS.
OFFICES—36 West Front street; 28 Park avenue
Post Office Box 329.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY. Large covered trucks. Goods sent to any part of the country. Charges reasonable. Satisfaction guaranteed 11 9

PATENTS
CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS, COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a prompt answer and an honest opinion, write to MUNN & CO., who have had nearly fifty years' experience in the patent business. Communications strictly confidential. A Handbook of Information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and scientific books sent free.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the Scientific American, and thus are brought widely before the public without cost to the inventor. This splendid paper, issued weekly, elegantly illustrated, has by far the largest circulation of any scientific work in the world. $3 a year. Sample copies sent free.

Building Edition, monthly, $2.50 a year. Single copies, 25 cents. Every number contains beautiful plates, in colors, and photographs of new houses, with plans, enabling builders to show the latest designs and secure contracts. Address MUNN & CO., NEW YORK, 361 BROADWAY.

FISCHER PIANOS.
ESTABLISHED 1840.
Nearly 100,000 Now in Use.
RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARD,
WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO
EASY TERMS.—EXCHANGED.
Catalogue mailed on application.
110 FIFTH AVE., cor. 16th St., N.Y.

Amos H. VanHorn, Limited,

73 Market Street, Near Plane Street.

Note the Name Amos Before Entering the Store

COME EVERY DAY.

Whenever you come you find fresh features in Furniture and Household Wares to greet you. Just now nothing seems impossible in the line of economy in this store. Whatever you want maybe you can fill it here at a third—often half—the price you'll pay elsewhere. For instance:

PARLOR SUITS.

$20—Whoever thought to see such a splendid suit as this for such a little price? You'll wonder how the material can be bought for so small a figure and not count the making. Not many, only enough to keep the sale going this week, so you'd best be quick. Mahogany finished frame, five pieces.

MATTINGS.

15c. the yard and made in Japan. You know what that means. Quaint patterns, woven carelessly on a bright colored background. Some of the very prettiest patterns of the season. Brand new styles and the kinds that will win your approval.

DINING CHAIRS.

Fragile and delicate, stout and sturdy, and every one of them serviceable as can be. You needn't spend much time; close your eyes and choose, you can't go wrong. They are the most cheerful looking chair you ever saw, and the prices $1.25 to $3.00, with twenty-five cent go-betweens.

CARPETS.

High priced or low priced, the lining and the making and the laying free. That's what brings business to our carpet room. And you pay less here for the carpet than you're likely to pay elsewhere. Scores of fresh rolls added weekly, among them new patterns in the 65c. Tapestry Brussels and Super Ingrains.

An Unequaled Offering. Buy a bedroom suit here. You'll save the cost of spring and mattress. We give a strongly woven wire spring and mixed mattress with each bedroom set sold. A bouncing big offer, but it's away we have for making new acquaintances. Goods delivered free of charge to all parts of the State.

The Portland Range. You who have never heard about it, come to the store; you who have one, aren't you tickled?

The Storage House is making friends daily; such a well-lighted, well-ventilated place as it is, explains why. Satisfactory terms and satisfactory people to deal with. A 'phone call or postal will bring our vans to you door.

"Hello" Number 580

REAL ESTATE.

F. M. Bacon or Wallace Vail,

Babcock Building, Room 211.

Come and see us. We always keep a good line of houses to rent and for sale. Elegant flats, steam heated, city water and electric lights. Private houses with all modern improvements. Vacant lots, farms, speculative property bought, sold and exchanged.

A gem, all improvements, $25 per month, 4 or 5 minutes from station. Farm 6 acres, house, barn, good land, 2 miles from Plainfield, $1,300—a very cheap home; easy payments. House 7 rooms, 5 minutes from station, $2,100. Store and 3 rooms $12 a month. Farm 53 acres, 1.000 peach, apple and pear trees, near Flemington, $2,500.

Are You Interested

about the care of yonr teeth? If so, nothing like a personal trial will convince you that is an agreeable, refreshing and delightful dentrifice.

Leggett's Tooth Wash

Sprinkler Top Bottles 25c.

Metropolitan Livery and Boarding Stables.

Horses boarded by the day, week or month. Especial accommodations for transient trade.

OFFICE AND STABLES,

147, 149, 151 North Avenue. Opp. Railroad Depot.

A. C. BLAIR.....Proprietor. FRANK DAY.....Manager.
Telephone 152, connected with all circuits of New Jersey, New York and Brooklyn.

1 14 tf

PUTNAM & DeGRAW.

Is there anything below that will interest you?

Gents Neglige shirts	75c. $1 00	Ladies hose seamless fast color black and tan	10c
Gents and Boys sweaters	25c 40c 50c	Ladies black skirts	$1.00 $1 25 $1 90
Gents long bicycle hose	25c	Ladies shirt waists,	29c, 39c, 49c, 55c
Gents medium weight underwear	39c 50c	Children's Hose. fast black, seamless,	10c
Gents half hose	10c 3 pair for 25c	" " double knee, "	18c
Gents half hose	15c 2 pair for 25c	Children's Bicycle Hose, extra heavy	25c

Remember, that we give away money. Don't fail to ask for a money order when you purchase $1 worth.

LYNDHURST, KEATING,

EAGLE,

AND APOLLO BICYCLES

Charles C. Lister, 134 North Ave.

Repairing, Renting and Storing.

WE ARE READY

With large and beautiful line of Spring and Summer styles. Hats and Gents furnishings, men's and boys' Derby or Alpine hats, black, brown and tan, $1 00 to $3 00. Fancy neglige shirts, collars attached or detached 35c to $2 00. 1000 scarfs four-in-hand and made up from 10c to 75c, all new fresh goods. Special colored laundried shirts, 2 collars only, 35c worth 75c. No trouble to show our goods. Money refunded if you want it.

U. B. Crane, Hatter and Furnisher,

120 West Front street.

OWNED HIS PRISON.

MINERS KEPT J. M. RICKET IN A TUNNEL FOR SEVEN MONTHS.

Wanted to Steal His Property. They Gave Him the Alternative of Assigning His Claims. He Caught a Sentinel Asleep, Stunned Him and Fled.

It isn't every day that one meets a man who owns a gold mine that he dares not visit. Denver has such an individual and the story which he tells would seem incredible were it not for proofs that cannot be explained away.

He holds patents issued by the United States for two mining claims in the Black Hills. He has not seen the property for two and a half years.

"I may be over sensitive as to the danger of going back to that region," said he a short while ago in relating his thrilling experience, "but seven months' imprisonment in a gloomy tunnel in the mountains with the prospects of starvation would make anybody cautious, wouldn't it?"

Ricker is by choice a miner. Years ago he reached the Black Hills in his journey through the West and was employed as a miner in the celebrated Homestake mine. Keeping his eye open for an auspicious opportunity to invest in a promising claim he, one day, bought two patented properties of a busted prospector.

While waiting for the railroad, Ricker drifted back to his old home in New Haven, Ct., where he was employed on one of the street car lines, when a letter arrived from Deadwood telling him that several miners desired to purchase his claims, and inviting him to go at once to Deadwood to close the deal. A brief correspondence ensued, in the course of which Ricker received an offer for the two claims. He at once proceeded to Deadwood, where he met one of the prospective purchasers and journeyed to the mine for a final conference.

"I had no suspicions that anything could be wrong," said Mr. Ricker, in telling his story, "and I really thought the men meant business until they began to urge me to sign a deed before any money had been paid. They were thoroughly armed with guns and revolvers. We were in the heart of the mountains, far from human help, and the alternative was presented to me of signing a deed trasferring the property to designing villians or to be thrust into the very tunnel which I had assisted in constructing. I refused to be terrorized into an act which I knew to be wrong, and I was made a prisoner and placed in close confinement."

Ricker says that he was conducted into the tunnel in January and it was not until the following August that he felt the genial heat or the sun. When his gloomy experience began he weighed 204 pounds. After escaping and arriving at Denver he tipped the beam at 137 pounds. Two armed miners sat at the mouth of the tunnel each night as guards, and he was bound hand and foot each night so that he could not escape while his captors slept.

No violence was offered his person, but it was evident that the captors had decided upon a campaign of slow starvation.

One day when the prisoner was feigning sickness one of the guards disappeared, and Ricker found himself in charge of a careless sentinel, who had fallen asleep.

"I lost no time," said Ricker, "in removing my shoes and creeping past the sentinel. Seizing a stone, I turned and knocked him senseless. I then took possession of his brace of 45's and his Winchester, and relieved him of his heavy boots, as I expected a hard tramp before me. Luckily I had $80 in money in one of my shoes, and I succeeded in getting out of the country without begging bread. Had I coolly considered the situation I would have made a bee line for the nearest United States Marshal and called upon him for protection. My only thought was to get away, and I allowed no grass to grow under my feet until I arrived at the union station in Denver."

His long confinement had cut off all communication between himself and his friends in the East. Among the latter was a sweetheart who remained faithful through the trying odeal, believing that he would some day reappear. Her hopes was realized.

A letter from Denver gave the details of his long imprisoument. A few months later a handsome woman stepped from one of the trains and the Rev. Charles Marshall of Trinity Memorial Church, performed the happy ceremony which united two congenial spirits, ane to day it is doubtful if there is a happier couple in Denver than Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ricker.

Mr. Ricker does not attempt to say whether he killed the guard or not in escaping from the tunnel. He remembers that the man gave no signs of life when his boots were pulled off.

A CAT AND DOG TEASER.

The Scheme of an Orange County Man with a Pail of Milk and an Electric Battery.

"I've got a great scheme," said an ingenious Orange county man. "There's no patent on it either. It is just a cat and dog teaser, and it beats anything I ever saw for the purpose. I got an old stove zinc and laid it on the ground near the back door. Then I put a wooden bucket of milk on the zinc. In the kitchen I've got a battery of two gallon cells and a four inch coil with a vibrating circuit breaker. One wire is connected to the zinc plate and the other terminates in a piece of metal in the milk. You just ought to see the effect. A cat comes along, smells the milk and goes for it. She just touches the milk with her whiskers and looks puzzled when the slight, tingling shock is felt. Then she returns to the attack and touches her tongue to the surface of the milk. Her hair rises then and she emits a yowl of rage or pain as she springs away from the pail and then turns to look back at it. I have seen the same cat take two shocks within as many minutes and then act as if she wanted to try it again, but didn't dare to.

"With dogs it is different. The dog steps upon the zinc, lops his long tongue into the milk and then throws a back somersault. He wants no more after that, but tucking his tail between his legs, streaks out of the yard as quickly as possible. If you want to try it you needn't use a whole pail of milk. Just take a crockery dish and it will answer just as well. Milk is cheap up our way, you know, and I took the first thing that came handy."

In seasons of scarcity of food the coyote and other wild animals subsist upon the leaves of the cactus plant.

LOVE FOR THE BEAST.

Parental Interference Drove the Daughter to the Mountains.

"We had gone about two miles from camp when Tige and Fan struck a scent and bounded off through the dense thicket. I quickened my pace in the direction the dogs had taken and soon came upon the tracks of what I knew must be those of a huge grizzly bear. Presently, as I anticipated, the hounds brought the bear to bay a few hundred yards ahead. This was clearly evident from the altered tone of their cries. When I came up with the dogs there sure enough was a big grizzly sitting on his haunches and complacently taking in the situation.

"I poised my rifle and was about to fire, when to my utter surprise I saw a stout leather strap about the bear's chubby neck, while from the brass ring under his throat dangled a rosette and tassel made of red, white and blue ribbons. Beside, the animal's coat was as sleek and clean as if he had just come from a tub of soap and water. So long as I allowed the dogs to bark at a safe distance he sat bolt upright, perfectly still, neither sniffing nor growling, and with an air of stolid indifference.

"Was the brute an escape from some menagerie? Was he a household pet, or was I dreaming? None of these surely. We were in the heart of a mountain wilderness, more than thirty miles from the nearest border settlement, and 200 miles from the nearest town ever visited by circus or menagerie. Beside, family pets are not made of grizzly bears weighing half a ton. Morever, I was wide awake, and I had not tasted any brandy since leaving camp.

"I called off the dogs and put them in leashes. Strangely enough the huge beast plunged instanter into the thicket and shambled off up the creek, while I followed as fast as I could lead the hounds. At a point about a half a mile further up the bear forded the stream, scaled the opposite bank and was soon lost in the brush. I followed, still leading the dogs, now furiously barking and madly trying to get loose. I could hear the crackling of dry twigs under the bear's feet, and quieting the dogs in order to catch his course, I heard a human voice, the shrill, treble cry of a woman.

"'Ho, Dio! Dio! Dio-o!' it came.

"Once more I was dazed. All the fairy stories of bears and wolves I had ever heard or read came back to me, and I was beginning to mistrust the reliability of my senses when the cry came again, a good deal nearer and louder:

"'Dio! Dio! Ho, Di-o-o-o!'

"Chaining the hounds to a sapling, I plunged forward. I soon overtook the bear, which had paid no attention to me whatever, but lazily walked along as if his business were his own and nobody else's, halting now and then to munch a few berries from the bushes. As Bruin and I emerged from the thicket into a partially open space what was my amazement to suddenly meet face to face a woman—a real, live woman! The apparition was clad in buckskin frock and leggings, with high brogans buckled over her feet and her head covered with a brown slouch hat, from beneath which streamed her long hair. She was a blonde of the most perfect type. She snapped her thumb and finger and the bear walked to her side, reared up on his hind feet and licked her cheek while she stroked his shaggy coat.

"'Now, sir,' said the woman, 'will you walk home with me and see where I live with Dio and his family?'

"A twenty minutes' walk on a well beaten trail brought us to a limestone cliff a few yards from the stream. This cliff was nearly perpendicular, forty or fifty feet high, and in its face on a level with the bank of the creek there was a broad opening or cave, perhaps ten feet high and thirty or forty deep. Just within was a snugly built log cabin, its front gable end extending outside far enough to catch the sunlight and permit the escape of the smoke from a stick and clay chimney. This retreat was the home of the woman, while a family of bears occupied the further end of the cave.

"Upon our arrival Mrs. Grizzly Bruin and two half grown cubs made their appearance, all exhibiting the same docile characteristics as the great Dio. A big Newfoundland dog also bounded forth to greet us. The cabin contained three airy and well lighted rooms, a studio or parlor, a bedroom or kitchen.

"Retiring to her bedroom a few minutes, the lady reappeared attired in her 'reception suit,' as she laughingly called it. While we sat at luncheon she told me her history, and I assure you it was only the old story, with romantic variations and practical illustrations. The gist of the whole matter was a love sorrow caused by the interference of unwise parents and resulting in the abandonment of a comfortable home for the precarious life of a recluse. Only two or three trusted friends know the secret of her whereabouts and mode of living.

"Backwoodsmen built her the cabin five years ago, and about that time she bought a pair of grizzly cubs from the Indians and reared them on condensed milk. To this simple diet and the kindest treatment the philosophical lady attributes the wonderful docility of her grizzly pets. Frontiersman hired for the purpose make monthly visits to the cabin, bringing upon pack animals every comfort and many luxuries.

"The hermitess maintained that mercy between man and man and kindness to the lower animals must constitute the great panacea which is to redeem animated nature, bring back the golden age and hasten the millennium. Growing enthusiastic she cited many interesting facts in her own experience. It was a common thing every summer for humming birds to come through the open window, build their nests and rear their young in the evergreen foliage that decorated her little parlor. The parent birds would come at her call and eat honey from the palm of her hand. Large birds built their nests under the eaves of her humble cabin, while grouse nested in the neighboring trees and brought their chicks to pick up the crumbs that she threw to them from her kitchen window. A couple of well bred tabby cats share the house with their mistress and keep the storeroom free from mice. Volumes might be written upon what she has already done with the larger animals. While she does not believe in a charmed life, she declares that there is not a creature in the mountain forests round about that would harm her."

Controllable Affection.

"I cannot say that I love him wildly," admitted the Chicago young lady, "but still I think he will make a good enough husband for a year or so."—Indianapolis Journal.

The Lungs

are nearer the back than the chest. In case of sudden congestion, put an high up between the shoulder blades. It will give relief, and ward off worse results. It cures rheumatism, sprains, lame back, and all similar troubles.

Allcock's Porous Plaster

None are equal to the genuine—Do not only ask for, but see that you get "Allcock's."

Allcock's Corn Shields,
Allcock's Bunion Shields,
Have no equal as a relief and cure for corns and bunions.

Brandreth's Pills

free the system from injurious secretions. There is no remedy like them

H. DeMOTT,

With livery attached,
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER,
59 Somerset Street, Plainfield, N. J. 98 y

IT'S A FACT

that we sell Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Shirts, Underwear, Ties, etc., cheaper than any house in town. Buying from merchants who are pressed for cash, we buy our goods at our own price and sell them cheap.

Everything sold is fully recommended or money refunded. Boys' School Suits from $1.25; Boys' Long Pants Suits $2 up; Men's Serviceable Suits $3.50 to $6; Men's Suits for dress wear $5 50 and upwards; Derbys, equal to any $3 hat, at $1 50.

It is to your benefit to examine our goods before buying elsewhere.

Plainfield Bargain House.

J. Goldstein, 126 Park ave.

PIANO BARGAINS.

Vanderbeek & Sattels

desire to say that they have just received a fine lot of

New Pianos

of different makes which they will sell at prices never before offered. Among them are those wonderful

Behr Brothers Pianos

Also Behning & Sons.

They represent also the Knabe, Hazelton, Chickering and many others.

They offer an excellent

Steinway Grand, $350.

A great bargain. Call soon at

221 PARK AVENUE.

THE CZAR,

The Handsomest Wheel Ever Produced.

HIGHEST GRADE MADE.

E. FRANK VAIL, Agent,

177 North avenue.

FISH FOR BREAKFAST.

Is Your Cook Up at 5?

That's the hour of our morning delivery. Finest, Freshest Seafood.

ROGERS, 232 West 2d street.

EDWARD C. MULFORD,

(Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.)

Real Estate Broker and Fire Insurance,

Office 119 North ave., (opp. Railroad station.) Money to loan. 19 tf is a subject for thought. Haven't you some of last season's dresses that can be made useful? They may need cleaning, or perhaps dyeing—either we do perfectly, and it costs only two dollars or two dollars and a half.

A Spring Gown

Hillier & Co.

175 North ave.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 Watchung Ave.

DEALERS IN

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement

For walls and ceilings.

THE RELIEF OF GOTHAM

By PARK BENJAMIN

(Copyright, 1895, by Bacheller, Johnson & Bacheller.)

On a certain hot day in August, 18—, the time ball on the Western Union Telegraph Building, in the city of New York, dropped precisely at noon. Instantly thereafter there was a chorus of steam whistles, and then silence. The whistles attracted no particular attention; the silence did. People gradually became conscious of it. They missed something. They stopped and thought about it, and looked at one another inquiringly, and, presently, the great tide of humanity which is always moving in one way or the other on Broadway ceased its flow; little groups gathered on the street corners and invaded the roadway, just as if some procession were expected to pass.

The great thoroughfare presented an odd appearance. Vehicles there were, as usual, of all sorts—street cars and trucks and carts and coaches—but all were standing still. The drivers were unhitching their horses and leading them away. On the elevated railways, the trains had ceased running. Passengers from those which had stopped between stations were alighting and walking along the structure or clambering down from it on ladders. On the river fronts the ferryboats remained in their slips; the busy tugs were moored to their piers. Only a few sailing craft drifted lazily about the harbor.

The silence continued perhaps for half an hour. Then there came a dull roar; not the muffled din always arising from the streets, but that of escaping steam, great clouds of which could be seen rising over the city. In fact, every boiler was blowing off; for, as if by common consent, every escape valve had been lifted, and every fire had been hauled. At the gas works, the furnace doors stood open, and the retorts empty. In the telegraph offices the instruments clicked away, but no one heeded them. In the Postoffice and at the stations, and in the street boxes the letters accumulated, for the mail wagons had no drivers. The machinery in all the factories of New York stood idle. No conveyances moved, and upon every industry a sudden stroke of paralysis had fallen. And this was the cause of it:

Michael McCarthy, vender of "growing shamrock plants, bog oak ornaments, and shillelahs, in Queenstown Harbor, having engaged in too prolonged chaffering on board the Teutonic, suddenly discovered, at the close of his bargaining, that the green hills of his native land were fading in the dim distance at the rate of twenty knots per hour. He arrived in New York, on the eve of a close election, and, without knowing exactly why, he was conveyed from Ellis Island to a naturalization bureau, and there put in a fair way to aid us in settling our tariff and other questions, before the Emerald soil had left his brogans. In order to retain this valuable assistance work was found for Michael as a cobbler—a trade he had once followed in the old country—in the establishment of Mrs. Heinrich Shoeffel, in Avenue A; and there he was manfully stitching and hammering away when a visitor, entering the shop, announced himself as a "walking delegate." This information imparted to Mrs. Shoeffel, was not disagreeable, inasmuch as it suggested extensive need of shoe leather; but when she discovered that the visitor said nothing about the purchase of boots, but simply demanded the outcasting of Michael McCarthy for failure to join United Cobblers' Union No. 64, she placidly resumed her interrupted occupation of binding one of those colossal carpet slippers so dear to the east side German heart, and ignored him, until the sharp slam of the shop door brought from the depths of her capacious bosom a long-drawn sigh of "Ach——so!" Thereupon Mrs. Shoeffel was boycotted, and the ban was extended to the merchants who furnished her little supplies. And thus it worked backward to a great leather dealer in the Swamp, who, being contumacious, found himself without truckmen and handlers. And the strike ramified and spread, and finally the result which has already been noted came about, and the industries and the conveyances of the metropolis were brought to a standstill.

"WE WANT NO MISUNDERSTANDING ABOUT THIS."

Now, the most singular thing about this strike was its remarkably orderly character. There were no indignation meetings, no denunciations of "capital," no breaches of the peace, no mobs; but in place of these accompaniments of the old-fashioned struggle there was simple stagnation. Labor, as such, effaced itself. It announced the new doctrine that its natural antithesis was not "capital," but idleness. It would enforce its just demands, not by warfare on capital, but by stopping work. Society might try how it liked being made up entirely of leisure classes.

And society did not like it. Matters were, indeed, bad when the Harlem paterfamilias had to walk to his Wall street office, but when it came to sending the whole household scurrying about after milk, and meat, and ice—nay, when he himself had to play charioteer to the coal cart—things were clearly getting serious.

The city of New York confronted a great public benefactor. But the man to deal with it was at hand. And the evening of the fourth day after the general stoppage began found him calmly smoking a cigarette upon one of the benches in Bryant Square.

"I tell you, Smith," remarked the man of destiny to his companion, who was lazily staring up at the stars, "there is only one way out of this trouble. Something has got to happen in this town which will interest everybody so tremendously—which must absorb everybody's attention so absolutely—that when it happens this strike, business will be suddenly forgotten."

The person addressed yawned carelessly. In fact, he did not seem particularly impressed by the idea suggested to him for his answer was irrelevant.

"Say, Julius, what are you striking for, anyhow?"

"Me? I'm not."

"Can't you get anything to do?"

"Perhaps so—don't know."

"How did you get out of work?"

"City editor bounced me."

"What for?"

"Sent me to interview the Corean Ambassadors. Couldn't speak Corean, so I got a man to come along, who said he could interpret. Brought back two columns of first-class matter. Next day the Ambassadors sent a note to the managing editor that they would be along to dinner at 6; and before he had half got it through his head, down he came to the office in two four-horse stages, all rigged up in rainbow style. Said I had invited them; and when they found there wasn't any meal, there was a row, and diplomatic representations in Washington, and the deuce to pay I left."

"You might have practised then what you preach now," laughed Smith, "and given them something else to think about, so that the dinner would be forgotten."

"Couldn't think of anything."

"Well—it isn't so easy, of course. Still I might have helped you. There's my balloon. You might have astonished them with it somehow, dare say."

"What sort of a balloon?"

THIS THE SUPERINTENDENT OF POLICE READ AT 10 A. M.

"Big one. Kind you go up in."

"What on earth are you doing with it?"

"Sleeping on it—after having loaned a man $10 on it and foreclosed the mortgage. Come along, I'm going home."

Smith stretched himself, got upon his feet and walked on. The man called Julius sat thinking. Finally he rose and both men strolled leisurely across the inclosure.

"Where did you get it, Smith," said Julius, finally.

"What? Oh the balloon! That's quite a story. There was an old chap came to board in the house I live in, who was the wildest sort of an inventor. One thing he tried to get up was a telegraph which would send smells; another was an explosive safe, but he couldn't get any one to go into either though he spent pretty much all his own money in trying experiments. Finally, he braced up for one last great effort, and concocted a balloon which he was going to steer like a boat. Maybe he didn't work over it. Borrowed money from everybody he knew to buy silk and cords and things. But he didn't go up. In fact, he went down. They fished him out somewhere by Hell Gate. I took his traps for what he owed me."

Julius asked no further questions and the two walked on in silence, until his companion stopped near the corner of 44th street and Third avenue.

"See here," he said, "are you walking in your sleep?"

"No," said Julius, slowly, "I was just thinking. Do you know that I think I've got it?"

"Got what?"

"I think I can end this strike business, and in the way I said, if I can have your balloon,"

"If you can tell me where you live, I'll promise to take you there safely," said Smith, banteringly.

"I'm in earnest," replied the other soberly. "I should like to go with you to where that balloon is, and talk about it."

Smith looked at him, rather keenly this time—perhaps a little suspiciously—and then with a light laugh shrugged his shoulders and led the way to a shabby brick dwelling in East 44th street, the door of which he opened with his latchkey and motioned Julius to enter. The hall had that peculiar combined odor of cabbage and washing soda which characterizes a boarding house of the cheapest class, and was pitch dark. Smith led the way upstairs by the flickering light of a match until the front attic room was reached. There they lit their pipes and began talking. Daylight was streaming in at the windows, but there was nothing about the two men to show their loss of sleep. They were sitting—Smith on a trunk which he had dragged out of the closet—face to face, with both feet on the floor, as men always do when they talk of important things. The balloon had been hauled off the bed, spread out on the floor and examined. An old safe near the window had been cleared of the mass of clothes and odds and ends which covered it, and its door stood open, revealing some rusty mechanism. A huge roll of cotton-covered wire had evidently been exhumed from under the bed, and inside the safe had been found what Julius first thought were preserve jars, but which turned out to be the cells of a voltaic battery—dry as to contents but needing only to be filled with water and acid to make them give a strong current of electricity.

A floor board had been lifted in the middle of the room, just over the place where ran the gas pipe which supplied the fixture belonging to the room below.

At length, Julius arose, and said—emphasizing his words by tapping the rickety table with his finger:

"We want no misunderstanding about this, and I think so far there is none. You will surrender this room to-morrow as it is, and I will hire it. At the agreed time you will come back. I will admit you, so that no one will know of your presence here. I will then go out openly. While I am temporarily [illegible] from the house you will do as we have settled. You will then leave the house and disappear. You will not reveal the part you have taken in this, no matter what may happen. And of whatever is gained I agree to give you half."

On the early morning of the eleventh day after the great strike had begun any one passing through the uptown streets of New York might have seen groups of people at every corner, intently staring at something in the sky. Before noon, these groups had increased to crowds, and the number of the gazers were reinforced by people at windows and people on the house tops, all gazing skyward. The object of their attention was a balloon, which floated gracefully at an elevation of perhaps five hundred feet, but was held by a slender wire which led to a point somewhere in the vicinity of the Grand Central Depot. The balloon bore no sign; hence it was not intended as an advertisement. In fact it was of the dull brownish hue of the well-varnished silk used in making airships for actual aeronautic use. In the small basket which served as a car there was no one, but beneath it was suspended an object suspiciously like a large crockery water pitcher. Now, a balloon hovering over New York, even if it be only one of the miniature red globes made for children's playthings, is always sure to attract abundant attention; but here was not only a balloon, but a large one, sent aloft apparently for no other purpose than to carry a water pitcher. Nothing better calculated to arouse the always poignant curiosity of the average New Yorker could have been imagined. So the crowds grew larger and larger, until nightfall, rendering the balloon invisible, compelled them to disperse.

But next morning, the big globe being still there, the popular interest perceptibly increased, and people began to move in masses toward East 44th street, to some house in which thoroughfare it was clear that the confining wire of the balloon led; but just which house it was difficult to determine from the roadway. Numerous inquirers rang the door bells of all the houses in consecutive order, but as most of these residences were flats and the parties whose bells were rung were invariably the occupants of the basement floor, answers of an intemperate character only were elicited.

As for the house to which the wire actually led, the abode of Smith—the landlady was too well accustomed to bitter complaints concerning the performances of her former inventive lodger to pay any attention to suggestions or inquiries from her callers; and in fact, the instant she discovered that the hiring of rooms was not in question, a sudden slam of the front door constituted her sole response.

Meanwhile certain reporters, having ferreted out some little information, kept it to themselves until the following startling headlines appeared in an extra of an afternoon paper:

HORROR!!!!
DESTRUCTION AT HAND!!
New York About to Be Laid in Ashes.
A Terrible Explosive Suspended Over the City, and to be Dropped Automatically if——

There was no evidence given to support this, but supposition and suggestion was so artfully blended throughout a column of double-leaded, big type that the ordinarily careless reader would at once jump to the conclusion that all the details of the impending danger were definitely known. The crowds about East 44th street now became so dense and unruly that collisions with the police were frequent. The detectives meanwhile had followed the balloon wire into the front attic room where the all-night conversation between Julius and Smith had occurred. There the wire appeared to be wound around the outside of a large iron safe, but its end, or rather ends, for nearer inspection showed it to be double, entered a hole drilled in the safe door which was locked. On the wall above the safe was tacked the following notice:

To the Mayor:

In this safe is a voltaic battery which sends a current of electricity along these wires to the balloon. The big pitcher is large enough to hold sufficient dynamite to throw down a block of buildings. The pitcher is supported by an electro-magnetic device, so that it will not drop as long as the strength of the electrical current remains the same. But if the current is weakened or stops, or the pitcher fastening is in any wise tampered with, the pitcher will certainly fall. Clockwork in the safe will break the current in just fifty-eight hours. The slightest attempt to open the safe door will blow up a torpedo within.

August 23, 3 o'clock p. m.

This the Superintendent of Police read at just 10 a. m. on the 25th.

"Time's up at 1 o'clock to-night," he said quietly. The inmates of the house had already been placed under surveillance. He now gave orders for the arrest of all of them, and for the vacating of all houses endangered by the balloon.

(To be continued.)

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

Climax Stopper Co.,
Machine Works.
Corner of Washington and 4th streets, manufacturers of bicycle specialties. Electric and special machinery, experimental work, tools, etc. Contractors for electric light wiring, telephones, burglar alarms, etc. 4 13 3m

TRY DOBBINS'S CIGARS.
30 PARK AVE.
He Manufactures Them

THOS. MARLEY,
(Nineteen years with M. Quinn)
BLACKSMITH,
845 Richmond st., near Watchung ave
4 25 y

EDWIN B. MAYNARD
Hair Cutting and Shampooing.
Tonsorial Parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Ladies shampooing and childrens hair cutting a specialty. 10 18 1

BAMBERGER'S
"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE"
147 and 149 Market Street,
NEWARK, N. J.

BOYS' CLOTHING.

That boy of yours needs clothing that will stand the romping and jumping and running around that boys always do It's here, made in the right way—wear—resisting, perfect fitting and sewed strongly.

Four Special lots for this week!

Boys' Knee Pants
Cheviots, worsteds and cassamere's well made with strong waist bands, sizes 3 to 15. usually 89 to 98c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Blouses
Extra quality, white lawn, trimmed with colored insertion, sizes 2 to 8, usually 79c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits
All-wool, fancy trimmed, pants embroidered with bows and buckle, sizes 3 to 7, regular $2.69, at $1.73.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits
Finished in best manner, sizes 4 to 15, with long cut coats, and pants with taped seams, regular $2.89, at $1.98.

L. BAMBERGER & CO.,
147 and 149 Market st., Newark.
Free delivery everywhere. Prompt attention given to mail orders.

That represents the best that is made. If you want style, wear and comfort, wear the Hanan shoe, all shapes in Russia calf and patent leather.

ALEX. WILLETT & SON,
SHOES MADE TO ORDER. 107 PARK AVENUE.

Cleveland Bicycles,
The Great Leaders of 1895
Design, Improvements, Workmanship, Quality, Speed, Health, Pleasure, Business, Road, Track.
The Fastest, Strongest, Handsomest and Most Rigid Wheel.
The "Swell Specials" are a decided advance in bicycle construction and when quality alone is considered will always sell.
Liberty, Crescent, Waverly, Majestic
We thoroughly believe in the merits of the above wheels, and unhesitatingly recommend them.
F. L. C. Martin Cycle Co.,
333 Park Avenue
Repairs. Established 1889. Rentals.

Trouserings!
500 choice patterns which we are making to order for $5.00.
Sebring's
Park Avenue, Packer's Block.
12-6

Progressive Plainfield's
Progressive Store.
BOYS' SHIRT WAISTS.
Fancy calico plaited front, 6 to 10 years, 19c each.
Striped outing, plaited front, 6 to 10 years, 22c each.
Fancy Cambric, plaited front and back, 6 to 10 years, 25c each.
Fancy duck with pocket, 6 to 10 years, 28c each.
Fancy duck, plaited front and back 6 to 10 years, 35c each.
Fauntelroy sailor collar ruffle front and back, fancy cheviot, 48c each.
French percale, plaited front and back, 6 to 10 years, 50c each.

Van Emburgh & Son!

E. E. MARSHALL & CO.
167 NORTH AVENUE.
WALL PAPERS, PAINTING,
And Interior Decorating.
Designs submitted for free coing.

Promises! are easy made and easy broken, we promised you big bargains in dress goods this week, we intend keeping our word 75 pieces of dress goods from the receivers sale of Jaffray & Co. at a sacrifice 25 pieces all wool cashmere 38 inch 25c worth 50 10 pieces fancy mixed worsteds 36 inch 25c worth 40 15 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 50 worth 75 8 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 65 worth 90. 5 pieces silk and wool covert cloths 54 inch 95 worth $1 25 5 pieces all-wool serges light shades 65 worth $1 00

Linings
complete the dress; we have just what you need. Double faced silesia 10c plain silesias 9c, the best skirt cambrics 5c fibre chamois different shades 35c. Hair cloth from 10c to 60.

Corsets
For one week we sell the W. B. corset 5 hook for 68c.

Duck Suits
A duck suit made up in the latest style only 99c; surprising, isn't it?

CAMBRICS
Fast color cambrics 7-8 wide 6c a yard.

A CUT
on every article in our house-furnishing goods department; our 87c hall lamp is sold elsewhere for $1 10.

Millinery.
We still lead in fashionable head wear.

BOEHM'S,
113 WEST FRONT STREET

Photo Material.
PLATES AND PAPER,
Reduced Prices.
R. C. RAND,
140 West Front st.

Ladies' Shirt Waists; laundried waists, many sorts, perfectly made, nicely finished, from the 49c kind to the finest; an assortment that is sure to please the most exacting.

White dresses, splendidly made, handsomely embroidered, the best of material at $1 75; for children', 1 year to 6 years, white dresses as low as 29c.

The careful and economizing buyer can be suited in our carpet display. Everything that is newest in designs and colorings. 125 patterns of oilcloths from 25c sq yd. Mattings from 10 to 45c; window shades from 18c up. Curtain poles all complete, 19c up.

LEDERER'S

—THE—
Buying Population
in and around Plainfield are awake to the great values we are offering. We never have any trouble selling to those who have visited other stores before calling on us. We not only attract trade—we keep it. We invite comparison.

POINTERS.
Men's clay diagonal suits in Regent frock, at $10 50.
Men's all-wool suits in long sack, single or double breasted, $3 75, $7.50 and $9 50.
Running water is never stale. Our stock is like a river—always moving.
WERNER'S.
Plainfield, N. J.

THE DAILY PRESS

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1895. TWO CENTS A COPY, $5 A YEAR.

STORM DRIVEN.

A Story by "The Duchess"!

Everyone knows what that means. It means as good a story as was ever penned of the good, old-fashioned sort, dealing with the elemental human needs and ways.

Even "The Duchess" never wrote a better story than "Storm Driven", whose publication will be begun by The Daily Press next Monday, May 6.

The scene is English, the characters are human and understandable, the heroine is a suffering and overwrought woman who is released from a marriage with an unscrupulous villain by a happy chance, just as she has succeeded in rescuing from him another innocent girl upon whom he has designs. It is a tale thrilling in its incident and happy in its termination, as all stories should be.

To Be Treated Leniently.

The Cranford Chronicle says: "The Chronicle narrated last week the story of John Endress's robbery of his employer John M. Crane, the grocer, and his disappearance on Tuesday. On Wednesday the young man came to Mr. Crane and gave himself up. He said that if he were saved from arrest he would restore every penny he had taken. So Mr. Crane went with him to his home in Plainfield to see what could be done. The police told our townsman that to accept the money on Endress's terms would be compounding a felony and would expose him to imprisonment. Endress was accordingly locked up to await the action of the Grand Jury. It is believed that Endress's relatives will make Mr. Crane's loss good, and that the young culprit will be treated leniently."

Mrs. Clark's at Home.

The second "at home" of Mrs. E. B. Clark of Crescent avenue was a delightful occasion yesterday, when many enjoyed her hospitality. The rooms were filled from 4 to 6. Mrs. Clark and her two daughters, the debutantes, received the callers in the parlor, and the guests in the dining room were looked after by Misses Gertrude Haviland, May Shreve, Marion Henderson and Mary Bushnell. The table decorations in pink and white were very effective. Bands of white ribbon were pendent from the chandelier, and were held in place on the table with vases of exquisite pink roses and cherry blossoms. Mrs. King and Miss Mary Betts presided at the table.

It Was Not a Saw Horse.

A good story is told of a Liberty street grocer. A few days ago his delivery horse was engaged on the streets until after dark. Near the feed bin in the barn sat a barrel of sawdust. When the horse was unharnessed and placed in his stable the owner hurriedly threw a four-quart measure of what he thought was oats into the manger. When he went to feed the horse in the morning again he observed that he had eaten none of what he had given him the night previous. He thought this funny and on looking at the "mess" he discovered, much to his own chagrin and pity for the nearly famished animal, that it was four quarts of sawdust. He now uses a lantern after dark.

The Rivals Tonight.

Though it is considerably more than a hundred years that "The Rivals" was first produced, it is the most popular comedy on the stage today, and has lost none of its drawing power. The reason it is given so seldom is found in the fact that it requires a company of such rare excellence. Only a Jefferson and a Mrs. John Drew can do "Acres" and "Mrs. Malaprop", and since Florence died there is no "Sir Lucius". Mr. Underhill's adaptation of the play to the purposes of a monologue does full justice to all the parts. See him in the Casino tonight.

Did n't Finish Their Job.

An attempt was made a few evenings ago by burglars to break into the grocery store of Thomas Carty, corner of West Second street and Central avenue. They endeavored to secure entrance by a rear window, and had sawed away a portion of a wooden shutter, when they evidently became frightened at some noise and hurried away without finishing their job.

Minstrels Tomorrow.

To be seen only with Vreeland's minstrels: The magnificent production of the beautiful clog specialty "Sailors Pastimes" produced with elegant and appropriate costumes and executed by the greatest dancers in the profession. If you want to laugh as you never laughed before go and see Hank Goodman, with Vreeland's Minstrels in Music Hall tomorrow night.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at Randolph's drug store.

THE RUSSIAN HONEYMOON.

These Amateur Theatricals Will Be a Brilliant Production.

Plainfield is justly proud of her amateur actors and actresses and every new venture of theirs is watched for with pleasant anticipation and talked over for weeks beforehand with great interest. This is especially the case when their efforts aim at assisting a most admirable charity as well as giving a complete and artistic dramatic entertainment. The coming performance of "A Russian Honeymoon" a comedy adapted from the French of Eugene Scribe and first played in this country by amateurs is to benefit the Relief Fund, a charity too well-known to need a word of praise here.

The production promises to be the most elaborate and complete of any attempted by amateurs here. The play is the highest of legitimate comedy.

Synopsis—The rising curtain discloses the interior of the house of Ivan the Shoemaker. The samovar is lighted on the table. The lamp burns under the Virgin's picture. A wolf skin is nailed to the wall. High up above the stove, covered with sheepskins, lounges a peasant idly smoking, while others drink around the table during the hour of recreation. Outside the snow is falling in thick flakes. Wedding bells are chiming; men and maidens clad in gay peasant garments are marching in procession to the church.

Gustave, Count Woroffski, has married Poleska de Fermstein, only to find that early in the honeymoon she develops such traits of temper and pride as will render their married life insupportable, unless he can find some means to subdue her. He accordingly goes before her to an estate, lately become his by inheritance, where he enters the service of a shoemaker, Ivan, under the assumed name of Alexis Petrovitch, and awaits the coming of his wife. Upon her arrival he tells her that he is Alexis, a serf, having married her on a false pretense, and that she, being his wife, is a serf too. He sets her to sew and to spin; he tames her as Petruchio tamed Katharine. She, however, manages to send an appeal to the Count's sister, for protection, and succeeds in having Alexis arrested by his own guards. Poleska obtains from the Baroness an order of separation, and, having obtained it—but you would better come and see the rest of the story. That's the best way to benefit yourself and the Relief Fund at the same time.

Miss Grace W. Cooley, the Poleska of the present production, will make her debut in Plainfield on the 9th. She is an actress of experience and talent and her advent is awaited with great interest. The Baroness Vladimer will be played by Mrs. L. W. Serrell, Jr. She is well known as a very accomplished actress and the part will receive artistic treatment at her hands. Miss Caroline Randolph, who appeared in the Kirmess, will play the part of the daughter of Ivan the Shoemaker, and Ivan himself will be played by the universal favorite, W. R. Cock.

Gustave Count Woroffski will be impersonated by Constantine P. Ralli who made such a success of the part of John Maxwell in the Grey Mare, and Fred W. Walz as Koulikoff, the intendant, is sure to make a great success. The part of Osip, a young peasant, is filled by Howard Huntington.

In addition to these the peasants, soldiers and retainers bring the total number of people up to 40. The chorus, and an orchestra of twelve pieces from the Lyceum Theatre, New York, under the leadership of Eugene Rose, will supply the incidental music.

Tickets may be obtained at Music Hall box office on and after Friday, May 3, at 2:30 p. m. The subscription has been closed earlier than intended in compliance with the general wish of the public. Prices $1 and $1.50.

Reduced Rates to Denver, Col., via Pennsylvania Railroad.

For the accommodation of persons who desire to visit Colorado on the occasion of the meeting of the National Educational Association, at Denver, Col., July 5 to 12, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets on July 3, 4 and 5, to Denver, Colorado Springs, Manitou and Pueblo, at the extremely low rate of $50.75 from New York, $49.25 from Philadelphia, $49.50 from Baltimore and Washington, $47.25 from Harrisburg; proportionate rates from other points.

These tickets will be good for return passage from Colorado points July 12, 13, 14 and 15, with an extension until Sept. 1, if desired.

A special train of Pullman buffet sleeping cars will be run, leaving New York at 10:10 a. m., July 4, stopping at prominent intermediate points, and arriving at Denver on the afternoon of July 6.

This affords a grand opportunity for a trip to the world-renowned Rocky Mountain resorts in Colorado at a comparatively small cost.

I recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. There is no better liniment made. I have sold over 100 bottles of it this year and all were pleased who used it. J. F. Pierson, druggist, South Chicago, Ill. It is for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

NEW YORK'S TURN NOW.

But She Thinks the Park Club Was Playing Off, So as to Get a Return Game.

The bowling contest between New York and the Park Club last night on the Country Club alleys was won by the metropolitan visitors. The Parks had won the previous series, and last night their rolling seemed so out of form that the New Yorks said they were losing purposely so as to get another return game in New York. The score:

NEW YORK.				PLAINFIELD.
Laing	196	136	158	Beebe	176	171	162
Milligan, A.	160	144	128	Chapman	153	140	154
Holmes	130	155	135	Wharton	168	148	127
Brown	164	134	137	Burnett	133	178	130
Mil'g'n, A W.	134	166	190	Matthews	126	154	153
	784	738	748		756	791	726

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—A dance will be given in the Catholic Lyceum this evening.

—The weekly class of the Riding Academy meet this evening.

—The Y. M. C. A. senior bicycle club ran to Rahway this evening.

—The monthly meeting of the Saengerbund will be held this evening.

—Perseverance Lodge, K. of P., meet in regular session tomorrow evening.

—Manager Havens of the Swift Beef Company has purchased a new wheel.

—The amount of money expended for the city poor during the month of April was $303.

—Lyman & Petrie are improving the appearance of their North avenue office with a coat of white paint.

—The Jackson Hook and Ladder Company of Elizabeth have engaged Guttmann's band for their annual parade May 15.

—Music for the entertainment of the Rathbone Sisters, which is to be given May 7, will be furnished by Guttmann's orchestra.

—The final arguments in the Elliott will contests of Dunellen will be made in the Surrogate's Court at New Brunswick next Tuesday.

—There is a friendly rivalry between Policemen Saunders and Myers as to who can raise the best vegetables. They have excellent gardens.

—The styles of today are admirably displayed by Mrs. L. Adams, the East Front street milliner. Her store is under the First National Bank.

—C. Chapot & Sons, who are to build the chamois-skin finishing factory near Evons, has opened business offices on the fourth floor of the Babcock Building.

—The office and reading room of the City Hotel are undergoing extensive changes, which will make them larger and more comfortable for the guests.

—At the meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, J. O. U. A. M., this evening, State Councilor P. Hall Packer and other State officers will be present. Six members will be initiated.

—The baseball enthusiasts of the Y. M. C. A. will have a practise game on the Crescent oval grounds Saturday afternoon. None but members of the association will be admitted.

—George W. DeMeza will occupy the suite of offices formerly occupied by Judge Coddington on West Front street during the time the First National Bank Building is being remodeled.

—A valuable horse owned by Mr. Arkell of Westfield was taken suddenly sick in Quinn's blacksmith shop on East Fourth street yesterday afternoon so that it was necessary to call Dr. Pocock.

—Some careless shooter broke a pane of glass in the window of a Grove street residence while trying to shoot at something in the brook, and gave the occupants of the house quite a scare.

—The whist game for the four-men team championship of the New Jersey Whist League, which was to be played between the Park and the Fanwood clubs last night, was postponed indefinitely.

—An interesting literary and musical programme has been arranged for the meeting in Reform Hall this evening. Among those who will take part are Bertha Clum, Try Mattox and Robert Mattox.

—"The best advertisement we have is our superior workmanship, and the cheapness and superior quality of our goods"—says Edward Love, the well-known wall-paper dealer on the corner of North and Watchung avenues.

—The following from this city will attend the social stag of the Elizabeth lodge of Elks tomorrow evening: Wm. F. Trust, John Force, John Mortimer, W. H. Miller, W. V. Miller, Wm. S. Bullock, Walter Hetfield and George DeMeza.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

IN ZION'S CAUSE.

Enjoyment Afforded by a May Festival in the A. M. E. Church.

The girls in the Sunday-school of Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church on West Fourth street presented an attractive May festival and entertainment last night, in the church. Fred White presided at the organ, and rendered several choice and pleasing selections which were enjoyed.

It was 9 before the audience assembled, and the pastor, Rev. T. A. V. Henry, announced that the exercises would begin with a selection, "There is no Name so Sweet on Earth", by the chorus of girls. The accompanist was Fred White, and the singing was excellent. A recitation followed, entitled "Children's Hour", by Grace Manning. It was enjoyed, as was also that of "Arbor Day" by Sadie Doyle. "To the Work" was sung by the chorus. "Welcome" was recited in a clever manner by Rosa Phillips. A vocal duet, "Welcome", by Grace Randolph and Ella Randolph, received hearty applause.

A pleasing dialogue, "Apple Blossoms", by Etta Webster and Odell Gibson, was well given and appreciated. Ida Conover recited "An Afternoon Nap", causing hearty laughter. "Jesus is Calling" was the selection by the chorus, after which Carrie Goatsberry rendered "Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree" in a very realistic manner. Hattie Goatsberry followed with a recitation of much merit.

A pretty vocal solo, "Lazy Sheep", by Katy Dunham, was loudly applauded, and the recitation "Poor Beggar" was rendered affectingly by Sadie Phillips. "The Bee and Rose" was recited by Lizzie Hatchett, and a vocal solo "My Dolly" was given by Odell Gibson, followed by the selection "Just as I am.", by the chorus.

The recitations, "The dog broke his leg", by Georgia Phillips, "My pussy cat", by Bertie Goatsberry, and "The Marriage", by Etta Webster, all received hearty applause. A pleasing number was "Little Birdie", sung by the Misses Phillips. "Plainfield Boys" was the subject of a recitation by Sadie Phillips, and Henrietta Goatsberry gave "The Sunbeams" as a recitation. As a closing number the chorus sang "Nearer My God to Thee".

The pastor invited all to stay and help the good cause by purchasing freely from the refreshment table, which had been tastefully arranged by the young women and the pastor. The proceeds were gratifying.

SPRING CLOTHING.

Watson & Co. Compelled to Sell Out Their Entire Stock, Regardless of Cost or Value.

As all leases on the building No. 793 Broad street expire May 1, Watson & Co. intend to remove the present structure, and also No. 795, now occupied by them, and erect a modern steel frame building covering both sites, from plans now being prepared by Thos. Cressy.

During the construction of this building, Watson & Co. will be compelled to do all their business in their Market street stores, now used mostly for their custom departments. Just what to do with the immense stock of clothing on hand, the thousands of custom patterns and the endless lots of garments now making has been the subject of a great deal of thought by Watson & Co., and the conclusion has been reached to sell it.

Therefore, on Wednesday, May 1, they will begin a closing-out sale of their entire stock at prices that will certainly close out every garment.

The first lot they will offer will be their choicest Spring Suits, cut from all the new custom patterns of Havana Cheviots, Pin Check gray and brown worsteds, black diagonal Saxony worsteds, dark English gray fine worsteds and many other choice fabrics, at $12 for any suit you may select, even if you pick out the most expensive goods sold by merchant tailors for $25 and $30 a suit. As the builders are now at work on the rear of their building and will soon begin to pull down the Broad street front, quick work will have to be made of this immense stock, the largest, finest and best in the State, now shown in both their Broad and Market street windows and in front of the building No. 793 Broad street, where quick buyers will secure $15, $18 and $20 suits cut and made in Watson's perfect-fitting shape for $12 in any fashionable new cut they may desire. It would be a poor buyer who would pay regular prices for his clothing when such bargains as these are offered.—Newark Item.

Faust Again.

Lewis Morrison comes to Music Hall next Monday night, presenting his dramatic version of "Faust". Few plays give greater opportunity for scenic display than does "Faust". All the weird and uncanny features are brought out in a manner to startle and impress. The electrical and calcium light effects are particularly good. The blazing cross which appears over the door of the cathedral at a time to thwart the evil one in his designs, the blue flame that plays around the sword of Mephisto during the duel, the blazing flower garden, the electric fireflies in the Brocken scene, and the flashes of lightning, are features that will not soon be forgotten.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

A. E. Buehnell and family removed today to 515 Park avenue.

Mrs. James MacMurray is visiting friends in New York city today.

Edith VanWinkle is today slightly improved from her serious illness.

Auguste Saltzman will sail July 5 by steamship Rhineland for France.

Mrs. John H. Tier of Bank place is going today on a visit to Hoboken.

Miss Masritt of New York is the guest of Mrs. VanBuren of Central avenue.

Louis Coombs returned to Somerville last evening after a short visit in town.

Theodore Marsh, after a severe illness, is once more able to attend to business.

Alonzo T. Ayers is able to be out again, and it is thought he will soon fully recover.

Miss Jennie Gordon of Boehm's dry-goods store is confined to her home with illness.

Mrs. M. Barnes of Brooklyn visited her daughter Mrs. F. H. Wilmont, 70 Diner street, yesterday.

Horace Martin will entertain the Grace Episcopal Church choir at his home on Fairview avenue this evening.

Rev. T. A. V. Henry of the Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church will attend the annual conference in Atlantic City, which opens next Tuesday and lasts for 10 days.

William M. Buckman, foreman of The Daily Press composing room, today received the sad news of the death of his father, Joseph H. Buckman, in Brooklyn. Decedent was a native of Mt. Holly, and had lived a useful life of 83 years. He leaves a widow and five children.

Charles Noble of 315 East Fifth street is spending a few days in New York to attend the commencement of the New York Homoeopathic Medical College and the twenty-third annual exercises of the Hahnemannian Society of that college. Mr. Noble's brother is graduated from there this year.

Almost an Accident.

A rapidly driven cab containing a woman and little girl was stopped in front of Mayor Gilbert's residence on West Eighth street yesterday by an excited pedestrian who fortunately noticed a nut fall from the rear wheel and stopped the vehicle just in time. Through a mistake the nut had not been properly screwed up when the cab was washed and oiled.

The reader will make no mistake, however, in subscribing for "Plainfield Illustrated", the beautiful work of art which not only contains a picture of the Mayor's beautiful residence, but also over 300 other views, including churches and public buildings, as well as an historical sketch of our city by Rev. Dr. Lewis. Direct a postal to W. S. Bullock, 334 East Sixth street, put your address on the back, and you will be furnished with a copy—for a dollar.

Cuban Giants Downed.

The Cuban Giants and Orientals played a well contested game of baseball yesterday afternoon on the Richmond street grounds. At the end of the sixth inning the Giants were covering themselves with glory being one run ahead, but the Orientals by bunching their hits in the seventh secured a victory. The score:

Giants	0	1	2	0	1	5	2	0	—16
Orientals	2	0	4	1	7	0	6	4	—20

Batteries—Jones and Smith; Rogers and Kane. Umpire—Ed Erickson.

Progressive Women.

The April meeting of the Plainfield Branch Alliance of Unitarian and other Liberal Christian Women has been converged with the May meeting, which will be held May 28. At that time papers will be read on "Manufactories and Industries of Plainfield" and "Public School System." This will be the last meeting of the season.

Visiting Clergy.

Rev. Edward Klonka returned yesterday from the Brooklyn conference of the German Lutheran churches. Rev. O. Mincus of New Britain, Conn., Rev. W. Feutsch of Waterbury and Rev. H. Weber of Bristol, Conn., who were classmates of Rev. Mr. Klonka in Germany, returned to Plainfield with him for a short visit.

—If you want pure ice-cream go to Tier's.

—Next to the matrimonial tie nothing is sweeter than the neck ties at Peck's.

—Joseph Brothers of Newark will open a branch boot and shoe store in the Stephenson building, 243 West Front street, May 18.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds, Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

THE TROLLEY IS COMING.

Fanwood Township Terms Accepted by the Railway Company.

The Fanwood Township Committee has received from the New York and Philadelphia Traction Company notification of acceptance of the ordinance for trolley road in Fanwood, and the construction will proceed.

BY THE WAY.

—The first carload of 8-inch pipe for the new sewers arrived yesterday.

—The Hillside Tennis Club met last night and arranged tournaments for the coming season.

—The Sunday-school scholars of Bethel Chapel on East Fifth street will enjoy a sociable this evening.

—The Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church has 18 members, and a place of worship which when finished will have cost $1,500.

—The members of the German Reformed Church are contemplating the purchase of a parsonage for their pastor.

—A sociable will be given by the Epworth League of Grace M. E. Church at the home of John Valiant tomorrow evening.

—The property at the corner of Pearl and Somerset streets will soon be placed in first-class condition by Dr. Zeglio, the owner.

—The laborers employed by the city are today scraping Front street, making a great improvement in the looks of this thoroughfare.

—E. B. Maynard has received a fine photograph of Rev. J. W. Mitchell and his trained choir, amid the Easter decorations of their Canadian church.

—L. H. Bigelow will lead the Christian Endeavor meeting in the First Baptist Church tomorrow evening. The meeting will be devoted principally to prayer service.

—The steamer and hose cart in the fire department headquarters were taken to the brook under the Water street bridge last night, where the steamer was fired up and tested.

—The Y. M. C. A. bicyclists will enjoy a run to Rahway this evening, leaving at 7:30. They will be entertained at the end of their route by the Rahway Y. M. C. A. wheelmen.

—M. Powers expresses much righteous indignation over the publication in another paper of the libel that he has leased his house to Italians, and the refusal of that paper to correct its error.

—The Woman's Relief Corps, No. 10, Auxiliary to Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., meet tomorrow evening, when it is expected there will be several propositions for membership.

—Fred VanEps was in Somerville last night in attendance at a rehearsal of the musical which George Jenkins is to give May 23. Wm. W. Cook and Wm. Force of this city will also take part in the entertainment.

—At the meeting of Gazelle Engine Co., No. 1, last evening, a resolution was passed extending to Rev. C. E. Herring a hearty vote of thanks for the entertaining and instructive sermon preached to the firemen Sunday evening, March 24.

—J. R. Dungan, of Col. Hugh B. Reed Camp, No. 40, S. of V., of Somerville, was in Plainfield yesterday arranging for the campfire to be given jointly by the two camps. It was decided to hold it Tuesday evening May 14 at Somerville. An elaborate programme has been prepared and it is the intention to make it a grand affair.

—Miss Louise Sheppard, so well and favorably known, will give a Bible reading in the Y. M. C. A. hall, Tuesday afternoon, May 7, at 3, under the auspices of the Plainfield Branch of the Christian Alliance. Miss Sheppard will also sing at the missionary meeting of the Alliance in the Crescent Avenue Church in the evening.

—The N. Y. and N. J. Telephone Company, ever doing its utmost to meet the public on the matter of price, today announces telephone service for $50, $40 and $30 a year. There is good reason now for every Plainfielder to get on the trunk line. This is a rare opportunity to join the talking circuit.

Unity Growing in Membership.

The initiation of seven candidates into Unity Lodge, K. of P., was conducted last night by the following officers from Perseverance Lodge: Chancellor Commander Jacob Blimm, Vice Chancellor Higham and Prelate Louis Mohring. The work reflected great credit on the initiating officers. A large number of visitors were present from Perseverance and Goodwill lodges. Entertaining remarks were made by a number of those present, after which a collation was served.

No Foreigners Wanted There.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY PRESS:—It is a pity the City of Plainfield has not room enough for the 100 more or less Italians who come here to work on the sewer without dumping them over in our beautiful little borough.

EPHRAIM COMPTON.

North Plainfield, April 30.

DR. BUCHANAN'S CASE

At Present It Seems To Be Somewhat Muddled.

Second Stay Granted at the Suggestion of District Attorney Fellows, Who Says He Can Remove All Doubt and Make the Execution Next Week a Certainty.

Sing Sing, May 2.—Speaking of the case of Dr. Buchanan Warden Sage said this morning: "The whole thing is in such a muddled condition that it is impossible to say what will be the next move." The warden held Electrician Davis at the prison all day yesterday, or, rather, up to receipt of the respite, and had everything in readiness to electrocute Buchanan, should the attorney general have forwarded permission. He had several doctors and witnesses in waiting.

Why the Respite Was Granted.

The respite of one more week granted yesterday by Gov. Morton was done on the recommendation of District Attorney Fellows of New York city, who regarded it as the easiest, shortest and best way out of the complications which have arisen in the case. Col. Fellows assured the governor that he could within a week clear away all matters connected with the alleged appeal taken to the United States supreme court on the habeas corpus proceedings, and also avoid all the sensation, trouble and expense connected with the taking of Buchanan to New York city for resentence. If the supreme court decides against Buchanan before that time, the sentence will be executed on that day. If the case is not decided by that time, the governor may issue another respite.

On the Verge of Collapse.

Buchanan was in a highly nervous state yesterday and is very little better to-day. He could not eat the food prepared for him yesterday and was on the verge of total collapse. When Warden Sage went to Buchanan's cell to inform him of the respite the prisoner looked up anxiously. "The governor has granted a further respite of one week," said the warden. "That's strange," said Buchanan. "Can't think what it means." The warden said that it was evident from Buchanan's manner that he had expected the respite, if it came, to be one of months instead of only a single week.

Lawyer in No Hurry.

New York, May 2.—Lawyer Gibbons, who is counsel for Buchanan, said this morning that he had not yet decided exactly what course he would pursue with regard to the case of the condemned man. He was certain, however, that he would do nothing at all right away, as he had all of six months, he said, to perfect the appeal which he would make. Nothing that had happened so far, no action by any of the courts before which the case had been heard, prejudiced his chances one way or the other. On the contrary, Lawyer Gibbons was of the opinion that Judge Brown's refusal to grant a writ of habeas corpus helps Buchanan's chances rather than retards them.

New Grounds for Appeal.

The appeal in Buchanan's behalf will be made in Washington, if made at all, and to the United States supreme court. It will be made on grounds different to those upon which it was made before. The basis of appeal at that time was the condition of Juror Paradise. The later appeal will be made on the ground of the discovery of new evidence tending to show that the woman had not been poisoned, but had died from natural causes.

BIG ORDER FOR STEEL RAILS.

The Pennsylvania Company Will Purchase 20,000 Tons.

Philadelphia, May 2.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company has awarded a contract for 20,000 tons of steel rails, the price being $22 per ton. The contract was divided between three companies—the Carnegie, Pennsylvania Steel company and the Cambria Iron company. This brings the total amount of the company's orders this year up to 47,000 tons.

Japan Keeps Up War Preparations.

London, May 2.—The Central News correspondent in Tokio says: "While the Japanese government has no reason to doubt that Li Hung Chang's arrival at Chee Foo on May 8 will be followed by the ratification of the treaty, it does not relax its preparations to carry forward the war."

Mrs. Parnell's Daughter Arrives.

Bordentown, N. J., May 2.—There is no change in the condition of Mrs. Parnell. Miss Anna Parnell, daughter of the injured woman, arrived here yesterday, and went directly to her mother. Miss Parnell started from Ireland at once on learning of her mother's condition.

A Poor Tailor Rewarded.

New York, May 2.—Charles Neilson, a poor tailor, of Patchogue, L. I., has fallen heir to $5,000 and a $2,500 farm through the death of William Jackson. Jackson made a will in Neilson's favor because of the tailor nursing him through an illness three years ago.

German Anti-Socialist Bill.

Berlin, May 2.—The announcement that the free conservatives, some twenty votes strong have decided to vote against the anti-socialist bill in its present form was confirmed last evening. It looks as if the bill would be defeated.

Death of Hon. Robert Klotz.

Mauch Chunk, Pa., May 2.—Robert Klotz, who represented this district in the 46th and 47th congresses, died at his home here yesterday, aged 76 years. Mr. Klotz was prominent in democratic politics for many years.

Will Retire from Politics.

Athens, May 2.—Premier Tricoupis announces that in consequence of his defeat at the polls he will retire from politics.

May Day in Chicago.

Chicago, May 2.—The May Day parade under the auspices of the socialistic federation of Chicago was about 3,500 strong.

Herbert May Not Return.

London, May 2.—It is regarded as doubtful that Maj.-Gen. Herbert, commander of the militia, will return.

WAS "TRILBY" PIRATED?

McKee Rankin Can Produce the Play Until May 8.

Denver, May 2.—When the suit of Harper Brothers and A. M. Palmer against McKee Rankin and H. L. Widner to enjoin the production of "Trilby" at the Lyceum theater came up before Judge Hallett, in the federal court yesterday, the plaintiffs' attorneys asked for a further postponement. The defendants objected, saying the plaintiffs' purpose was to keep the case in court until one of Brady's companies could play "Trilby" in Denver, thus depriving them of the profits to be reaped from an original production. The court granted a continuance until next Wednesday, but said that in the meantime the Lyceum company could play "Trilby" and would not be required to render any accounting whatever the result of the suit.

OUR SICK STATESMEN.

Gresham, Hitt and Cogswell All Resting Easily.

Washington, May 2.—Secretary Gresham passed a quiet night, and is resting easily to-day. Mrs. Gresham, who has been out of the city, has arrived at his bedside, and her presence is expected to help him towards recovery.

Hitt Improving Slowly.

Representative Hitt still continues to be in a critical condition, but is improving slowly, and this morning is slightly better than last evening, having had another comfortable night.

Gen. Cogswell Mending Rapidly.

General Cogswell, of Massachusetts, is mending rapidly, and in a couple of weeks will doubtless be able to leave his house.

LEE JURY DISAGREE.

Differed as to the Question of Fact and Not of Law.

New Haven, Conn., May 2.—The jury in the somewhat famous Lee murder case came in at 6 o'clock last night and Foreman Perkins reported to Judge Wheeler that it was impossible to reach an agreement. He said that the jury differed as to questions of fact and not of law. Judge Wheeler thereupon dismissed the jury. Bail was fixed at $5,000 in the Schloss case and $5,000 in the Miller case. It is learned that the jury stood eight to four for acquittal throughout.

DEPOSED FROM THE MINISTRY.

The Matter of Criminal Prosecution of Newbold Not Decided.

New York, May 2.—The Rev. William A. Newbold, late general secretary of the American Church Missionary society, who was removed from his office recently because of a shortage in his accounts with the society aggregating $19,000, has been deposed from the ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church. At the office of the American Church Missionary society to-day it was said that the question of a criminal prosecution of Mr. Newbold had not yet been determined.

THEY WOULD REBELS BE.

Ambition of Two American Boys Nipped in the Bud.

Havana, May 2.—When the steamer Yumuri arrived from New York yesterday she was boarded by officials from the American consulate, who presented themselves to two young men registered as Thomas Gordon and Harmon Travers. The young men are Alexander Harmon and Gordon Thomas, of Alexandria, Va., who came here to do some fighting in the field. They will be sent home by the steamer Seneca, which will sail today, in compliance with a request and at the expense of their fathers.

INDIAN TROUBLES.

Refusal of the Attorney-General To Send Troops.

Washington, May 2.—The attorney-general has received a telegram from the United States marshal at Fargo, stating that about 200 Indians are making trouble near Langans and asking that United States troops be sent to keep them in check. The attorney-general replied that troops will not be ordered out until every other resource has been exhausted. In case the local authorities are unable to protect the lives and property of the people, the United States marshal will raise a force of deputies and co-operate with them.

No Abuses Exist.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 2.—The legislative committee to inquire into the abuses at the Wernersville asylum for the insane has made its report. The committee reported that there was no evidence of cruelty or ill-treatment on the part of the attendants and the bruises on the patients were accounted for by the officials of the institution, who claim that they were self-inflicted.

Lyman Is Reticent.

Washington, May 2.—United States civil service commissioner Charles H. Lyman flatly refuses to discuss the report that the president had requested his resignation. He says that when the time comes for an expression from him concerning the matter he will gladly make it.

Decides To Let the State Kill Him.

Lebanon, Pa., May 2.—Charles Garret, the murderer, confessed to Sheriff Steine that he intended committing suicide, and exhibited marks on his wrist where he had scratched the flesh. "My nerve failed," he said, "and now I mean to prepare for death and forgive all my enemies."

Mrs. Parnell Well Taken Care Of.

New York, May 2.—A committee appointed by the Irish independent party to visit Mrs. Delia T. S. Parnell returned, last night from Ironsides, Mrs. Parnell's home at Bordentown, N. J., and reported that Mrs. Parnell was well taken care of and not wanting for anything.

Muir 76; His Bride 20.

Newark, N. J., May 2.—James Muir, the seventy years old and wealthy truck gardener of Hawthorne avenue has fooled his objecting brothers and sisters and married pretty Theresa Fredericks, the twenty-year-old daughter of one of his farm hands.

No Change in Delaware.

Dover, Del., May 2.—The one ballot taken yesterday for United States senator resulted: Higgins 6, Addicks 6, Massey 6, Pennewill 1, Ridgely 9, Tunnell 1.

Smith and Pritchard To Meet.

London, May 2.—The money arrangements have been made for a fight between Jem Smith and Ted Pritchard to take place on the 10th.

DEATH OF GEN. NEWTON

Close of the Career of a Distinguished Engineer.

One of His Greatest Achievements Was the Blowing Up of Hell Gate. His Services During the Civil War. Promotions Were Rapid—To Be Buried Saturday.

New York, May 2.—The death of Gen. John W. Newton, which occurred yesterday at his home on West Seventy-fifth street, was due to chronic rheumatism. He had been ill only a few weeks. The funeral will take place on Saturday from St. Xavier's church.

Newton's Career.

John Newton was born in Norfolk, Va., on Aug. 24, 1823. While a boy he displayed remarkable mathematical ability, and having a strong desire for military life he procured an appointment to West Point. In that military institution he soon acquired a prominent place, and in 1842 he was graduated with the rank of No. 2 in a class of fifty-six. His high standing in the class gave him the choice of the military profession which he should pursue, and he selected engineering, for which his mathematical talents were peculiarly adapted. While still a second lieutenant he served as assistant professor of engineering at West Point.

Promoted to Major-General.

He assisted in the construction of various fortifications and national engineering works. When the war opened Newton was chief engineer of the department of Pennsylvania. From August, 1861, to March, 1862, he was assistant engineer in the construction of defenses at Washington, with the rank of brigadier general. He served under General McClellan during the Peninsula campaign and earned distinction in the battles of West Point, Gaines' Mills and Glendale. He also rendered valuable service at Antietam and led a division in the storming of Marie Heights at Fredericksburg. For his gallant conduct he was promoted to be major-general of volunteers on March 30, 1862.

Brevetted a Colonel.

He fought at Chancellorsville and Salem Heights, and upon the death of Gen. Reynolds was put in charge of the 1st army corps, which he commanded on the last two days of the battle of Gettysburg. For the gallantry and ability displayed by him at Gettysburg he was brevetted a colonel in the regular army. On December 28, 1865, Gen. Newton received his regular army promotion to be lieutenant colonel of engineers, and was ordered to this city. He has lived here since that time.

He Blew Up Hell Gate.

Upon his arrival here he began, as superintending engineer, the extensive system of improvements with which his name will always be identified. The greatest of these was the removal of the obstructions in Hell Gate. To accomplish this safely and effectually required the solution of difficult engineering problems never before grappled with. It required also the invention of new apparatus. Hallett's reef and Flood rock, under his direction, were destroyed by two explosions, the first on September 24, 1876, and the second on October 10, 1885. The feat excited the admiration of civil engineers all over the civilized world. General Newton was made a member of the National Academy of Sciences and an honorary member of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Promoted to Chief Engineer.

On June 30, 1879, he was made colonel and on March 6, 1884, he was promoted to be chief of engineers in the regular army with the rank of brigadier general. On August 27, 1886, he was placed on the retired list of the army at his own request. At the time of his death he was president of the Panama Railroad company.

CRATHIE OFFICERS NEGLIGENT.

But Her Captain Is Exonerated from Blame for the Elbe Disaster.

London, May 2.—The jury in the Elbe investigation returned a verdict that, in their opinion, the collision was due to gross negligence on the part of the mate and lookout man of the Crathie. There was sufficient proof, they believed, that the Crathie was solely to blame for the disaster. The captain of the Crathie, however, was entirely exonerated.

Declined an Offer from China.

Shanghai, May 2.—The Chinese of Formosa recently sent a delegation to the British officials to request that Great Britain prevent Japan's annexing the island. The delegates offered in return a large share of the profits from the Formosa mines. Great Britain replied that she was unable to interfere.

Yesterday's Baseball Games.

At New York—New York, 9; Philadelphia, 4. At Brooklyn—Brooklyn, 7; Baltimore, 6. At Pittsburg—Pittsburg, 4; Cincinnati, 1. At Cleveland—Cleveland, 7; St. Louis, 6. At Washington—Washington vs. Boston game postponed on account of wet grounds.

Successful Strike for More Pay.

Cleveland, O., May 2.—Five hundred molders employed in the local foundries struck for a 10 per cent. increase in wages yesterday morning. The advance asked for was granted and work was resumed this morning.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c. per box. For sale by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE IS THE BEST. FIT FOR A KING.

$5. CORDOVAN, FRENCH & ENAMELLED CALF.
$4 $3.50 FINE CALF & KANGAROO.
$3.50 POLICE, 3 SOLES.
$2.50 $2. WORKINGMEN'S. EXTRA FINE.
$2. $1.75 BOYS' SCHOOL SHOES.
LADIES.
$3. $2.50 $2. $1.75 BEST DONGOLA.
SEND FOR CATALOGUE. W. L. DOUGLAS, BROCKTON, MASS.

Over One Million People wear the W. L. Douglas $3 & $4 Shoes
All our shoes are equally satisfactory
They give the best value for the money.
They equal custom shoes in style and fit.
Their wearing qualities are unsurpassed.
The prices are uniform—stamped on sole.
From $1 to $3 saved over other makes.
If your dealer cannot supply you we can. Sold by
A. WILLETT & SON.

Revere House
Park Ave 7th and 8th St.
GEORGE B. DEREVERE & CO
Thoroughly renovated and now open for transient or permanent guests.
5 1 tf

FRANK B. CONVERSE. SOLID ARM BANJO
MISS CLARIBEL JEFFERY, teacher of Piano, Mandolin and Guitar. Best references. 122 W. Front street. Call Wednesdays. 4 25 1m

FURNITURE
MOVING
Telephone 121. Office 161 North ave.
HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS.

J. W. VAN SICKLE,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats
GAME IN SEASON.
New No. 129, North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 149 B. Orders called for and delivered promptly

Neuman Bro's.
Specials tomorrow in
Fresh Vegetables.
Green Peas, Green Beans, Wax Beans, Asparagus, Tomatoes, Lettuce, Cucumbers, Water Cress, Spinach, Radishes, Rhubarb, Bunch Onions, Oyster Plant, Beets, New Carrots, New Potatoes.
STRAWBERRIES.

Wm. Hand & Son,
MOVING VANS,
18 Park avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

THE Bee Hive.
"KIDS."
Ladies' 4 button kid gloves in tans and slates 65c.
Foster hook kid gloves in all the new shades, the 98c quality, 75c.
Children's kid gloves, a good glove, 69c.
Men's kid gloves, every pair warranted, $1.
MEN'S CAMBRIC SHIRTS.
Men's cambric shirts, laundried, collar and cuffs attached, 50c.
Men's laundried shirts, white body and fancy bosom, 48c.
Men's laundried shirts, white body and colored bosom and cuffs 65c.

Louis Callman,
222 West Front st.

BAR-LOCK VISIBLE WRITING TYPEWRITER
Writes every letter in sight of operator. Does most of the work, in writing AUTOMATICALLY, and yields in the time thus saved additional work.
It acts as if it studied the convenience of the operator at every turn, and thereby lightens his labor and renders him capable of doing more.
It has a knack of keeping well, and is always ready at critical or other times.
These are some of the reasons why it is different from all other writing machines.
The catalogue tells you more about it. FREE.
Columbia Typewriter Mfg. Co,
307 Broadway, New York.
1 5 6m

MOSLER SAFE CO.,
contractors to the United States Government
Mosler Patent Safes,
(fire and burglar-proof) in general use
All Over the World.
Lowest prices. Drop a postal to
S. W. CLARK,
General Agent,
118 West 5th st., Plainfield, N. J.
and he will call and give special attention and information.
Large assortment of second-hand safes in first-class condition at low prices.

CONFECTIONS
Fresh, and from Pure Materials,
TIER'S,
116 Park avenue. 4 11 tf

CHOICE
Lawn Seeds, Garden Seeds, and Fertilizers.
Lawn mowers repaired.
Plumbing, Tinning and Hardware.
A. M. GRIFFIN,
119 East Front St.

GEO. J. TOBIN,
127 North avenue.
Practical Plumber
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer pipes, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer
TELEPHONE CALL 158a. 12 15 tf

Plainfield Machine Works,
Manufacturers of
Steam Engines,
Electric Motors and Dynamos. Shafting and mill work generally. Jobbing in all its branches. Prompt attention given to repairing of steam engines, boilers, bicycles, etc. Piping in all its branches.
GIVE US A CALL.
N. C. MAGUE, Manager.
Works corner Richmond and East 3d street, Plainfield. 4 23 tf

Tel. 29B Established 1876.
ADDIS & SON,
PLUMBING AND HOT WATER HEATING.
Have your plumbing system tested with the smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.
Opp Roberts' Livery 132 North Ave

H. Eggerding,
121 PARK AVENUE.
Manufacturer of the celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars. 11 9t

Telephone 58
Ring it up when you want good coal, and talk to
Geo. C. Stevens

SPRING TERM —IN THE—
Rockview Home & Day School
Opens April 15.
Kindergarten, Primary and Intermediate Departments. For terms and particulars apply to the Misses Peck, 317 East Front street.

FLORIST.
A. E. LINCOLN, 226 Park avenue,
has just received an elegant assortment of rare ferns and other plants. Also will have a fine assortment of flowering plants, azaleas, lilies, etc., for Easter. Large assortment of choice cut flowers daily. Floral design work for all occasions a specialty.

SMALLEY'S CASH MARKET.
(Estab'd by L. Smalley.)
94 Somerset, Corner Race Street.
GEO. ZIGEL, Manager.
We sell only first-class goods, at low prices, for cash. Orders called for and delivered. 12 10 t

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume, Agt.
80 BROADWAY, cor. 25th ST.
Invites the public to inspect the operation his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening
UPPER LEHIGH AND HONEYBROOK COAL
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
EGG AND CHESTNUT COKE.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for TURNING and SCROLL SAWING and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and short notice.

WALL PAPER, WALL PAPER!
Wall Paper Bargains.
5c, 6c, 8c, 10c ROLL.
Also all the best papers for the fine trade. Competent men employed to hang our papers.
RUGS, WINDOW SHADES, MOULDINGS, PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES, KALSOMINE, TINTING COLORS, ARTISTS' MATERIALS, CIGARS.
LOVE,
Corner North and Watchung aves.

Fred Endress,
Dealer in all kinds of
CHOICE MEATS
Jersey pork and poultry a specialty.
203 LIBERTY STREET.

EDUCATIONAL.
Afternoon Class for Young Ladies
Three times per week. Higher English Branches, French and Music. For terms apply MISS FAWCETT, 25 Washington ave

JAMES E. BAILY,
97 Jackson avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Trucking of All Kinds Done.
Two and four-horse vans and trucks. Particular attention given to moving furniture and pianos. Satisfaction guaranteed. 5 26 tf

Hotels and Saloons.
Madison Avenue HOTEL,
Madison Avenue and 58th St.,
NEW YORK.
$3 per day and up. American Plan.
Fireproof and first-class in every particular. Two blocks from the Third and Sixth avenue elevated railroads.
The Madison and 4th Avenue and Belt Line cars pass the door.
H. M. CLARK, Prop.
Passenger elevator runs all night.

HOTEL GRENADA,
North Avenue.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.
5-13-t

CITY HOTEL.
Plainfield, N. J.
COR. PARK AVENUE AND SECOND STREET.
J. B. BEEBOWER, Proprietor.
With stables attached. 4 8 y

A. Lusardi,
No. 120 North Ave.,
Will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c. quart.
Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets.

Skilled Workmen

are even more essential in hanging paper than they are in the doing of many other things. We employ the best and most capable men in this department and guarantee the best possible results. Do not spoil the effect of pretty paper by improper hanging.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.,
141 East Front st.

An agreeable Lazative and NERVE TONIC. Sold by Druggists or sent by mail. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per package. Samples free.

KO NO The Favorite TOOTH POWDER for the Teeth and Breath, 25c.

Captain Sweeney, U.S.A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cts. Sold by Druggists.

SHILOH'S CURE.

THIS GREAT COUGH CURE promptly cures where all others fail. For Consumption it has no rival; has cured thousands, and will CURE YOU, if taken in time. Price 25 cts., 50 cts., $1.00.

Sold by all druggists.

814 y

H. Hand,

LICENSED AUCTIONEER.

15 YEARS EXPERIENCE.

esidence and postoffice address

SCOTCH PLAINS, N. J.

Office in Plainfield at Terrill & Cole's livery, 200 West 2d st. 1 12 tf

W. K. McCLURE,

Counselor-at-Law.

SUPREME COURT COMMISSIONER.

First National Bank Building.

W. R. Codington's

LAW OFFICES.

Corner Park avenue and Second street. Solicitor and Master in Chancery. Notary Public.

The sign on the windows reads

Woolston & Buckle,

Paper Hangers.

We have had the door hinges and latch oiled up so that getting in is easy. So also is the getting out.

Prices are so low on Wall Papers that you will buy before you go.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION.

The Civil Service Commission at Washington has ordered that an examination be held in this city on Saturday, June 1, 1895 commencing at 9 o'clock, a. m., for the grades of clerk and carrier in the city postoffice. Only citizens of the United States can be examined. The age limitations are as follows: For carrier, not under 21 nor over 40; for all other positions, not under 18 years. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed with the undersigned in complete form, on the proper blank, before the hour of closing business on May 13, 1895.

The Civil Service Commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens who may desire to enter the postal service, without regard to their political affiliation. All such citizens, whether Democrats or Republicans, or neither, are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to their political views, or to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination.

For application blanks, full instructions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, apply at the postoffice to

G. C. GODOWN,
Secretary Board of Examiners

See What $1.00 Will Do

AT THE

Plainfield Tea and Grocery Co.

106 E. FRONT ST.,

H. S. WILLIAMS, Manager.

All Goods Warranted as Represented.

1 lb. Special Mixed Tea,	50c
1 lb. Coffee, -	32
Quarter lb. Pepper,	10
One Can Corn, -	10
One Can Tomatoes, -	10
One Can Pease, -	10
One Can Milk -	10
One Paper Corn Starch,	10
One Paper Cocoanut,	10

☞ $1.52

Cut out this Coupon and bring it and $1 to our store and get all the above articles for $1 Cash!

LIST OF ADVERTISED LETTERS

Post-office, Plainfield, N. J., April 29, 1895.

[Officially furnished weekly for publication in THE DAILY PRESS.]

Anderson Mrs Hattie	King Miss
Anderson Miss Beda	Lovenklau Carl
Burk Mrs John	Mills W J
Burnett D	Miller Mrs
Coghill Howard	Poter Mrs Lizzie
Connolly John	Peet Miss Sue
Colts Maggie	Rogers Robert G
Cockert Joseph	Rowland Mrs H H 2
Clarke Musical Ag'cy	Raymond Geo S
Duderstadt Hugo	Rolke Miss Kate
Eldridge J R	Romolo Del Vesco
Greely Mrs W B	Ross D H
Hamilton Constance	Terneall Miss
Hansen Andreas E	The Christian Herald
Hare Ida C	Tator Lena
Hurlbrut Chas C	Wyckoff Mrs Mary
Husleman Miss H	Wartson Lena B
Hall Mrs Mary A	Wilson Mr and Mrs J
Hayden Patrick	Willmose Mrs Martha
Howell Jean Kirk	Whyte Mrs Emma

JAPS NEED WATCHING

An Alliance with China Would Be Dangerous.

The Millions of Chinese Soldiers Under Japanese Instruction Would Make First Class Fighters, Commander McGiffin Believes—He Says Japan Is Asking Too Much.

New York, May 2.—Commander Philo N. McGiffin, of the Chinese navy, who returned Tuesday on a long sick leave to visit his home in Pennsylvania, was still in the city last night. To a reporter he talked freely of oriental affairs.

Alliance Would Be Dangerous.

He thinks that if the powers permit China and Japan to form a defensive and offensive alliance, they will be permitting a dangerous thing, for Japan just now is in a very ambitious mood, and, under Japanese instruction, the millions of Chinese could be made first class fighters. He said that while the Chinese seamen are fully equal to the Japanese, if not better, the Chinese soldier is a bad specimen.

Japan Hostile to Foreigners.

He said he thought the terms of the treaty entirely too favorable to Japan. He considered that the indemnity and the concession of Formosa were sufficient and said that he did not think the powers ought to permit Japan to receive the big slice of Chinese territory granted under the treaty. Japan he characterized as a country more hostile to foreigners than China, and said that there had been several recent massacres of foreigners in Japan which the diplomats of that nation had succeeded in keeping from the knowledge of the outside world.

How Japan Will Govern Corea.

While the opening of the five new ports would be an advantage in a commercial sense, still the Japanese would have the regulation of commerce all in their own hands. Now that the Japs had the handling of Corea, they would govern it in about the same manner as England does India and would fill the governmental positions with Japanese.

He Feared for the Dynasty.

Li Hung Chang desired peace evidently because he was afraid that if Japan captured Pekin the dynasty would be broken up, and that the powers would then step in and parcel up the empire.

ENGINEER KILLED.

Desperate Fight with Train Robbers in the West.

Springfield, Ill., May 2.—It is reported here that the Chicago & Alton passenger train due here at 12.30 a. m. was boarded by robbers at Carlinville, who, at a place half a mile north of there, attacked the trainmen and ordered them to hold up their hands. The engineer and fireman refused, and a desperate fight began. Six shots were fired and Engineer Holmes was killed. One of the robbers was captured and the other two escaped. A posse was organized and started in pursuit. Engineer Holmes' body was taken to Carlinville. He was one of the oldest engineers on the road. The robbers secured nothing.

PRINCETON WINS.

Gets the Decision Against Yale in the Debate.

New Haven, May 2.—Princeton defeated Yale last evening in their first joint debate. McElroy presented the best arguments of the evening and Hall gave the wittiest speech. Yale opposed the income tax and Princeton defended it. The Yale speakers were H. E. Bartrick, H. Frank Hall and C. E. Clough. Those for Princeton were W. F. Burns, R. M. McElroy and B. L. Hirschfield.

THE SULTAN SAYS LIBEL.

London Newspapers To Be Sued for Publishing Armenian Stories.

London, May 2.—The Central News correspondent in Varna says: "The Sultan has examined the atrocity reports sent to London dailies by correspondents in Armenia. He will require that the accused officials bring suits for libel. He has instructed Ruseem Pasha, Turkish ambassador to England, to arrange forthwith for the legal proceeding."

New York City Police Bill.

Albany, May 2.—The republican senatorial caucus met last night with fourteen senators present. It was decided to make the New York city police reorganization bill a party measure. Only sixteen of the nineteen republican senators are pledged by the caucus, seventeen votes being necessary to pass the bill.

Looking for Cuban Filibusters.

Key West, Fla., May 2.—The Spanish cruiser Infanta Isabella, which figured in the Columbian celebration in New York, arrived here yesterday and an hour later put out to sea again. It was said she was looking after the sailing of a filibustering expedition expected to leave from this vicinity.

Miners' Wages Advanced.

Dubois, Pa., May 2.—The Bell, Lewis & Yates Coal Mining company, the Rochester & Pittsburg Coal & Iron company and the Helvetia Mining company have advanced the price of mining from 33 to 40 cents per ton and wages of the mine laborers in proportion.

Big Strike at St. Louis.

St. Louis, May 2.—As a result of the strike of the Hod Carriers' union, 1,000 brick yard workmen have also gone on strike. It is expected that at least 8,000 men will be idle by to-night.

Shipped to Baltimore.

Buffalo, May 2.—The Empire City stud racing string has been shipped to Baltimore. In the string are Mascot, 2.04; Whirligig, 2.10, and Stately, 2.18.

Death of Rev. Dr. Heurtley.

London, May 2.—The Rev. Dr. C. A. Heurtley died at Oxford yesterday. He was Margaret professor of divinity in Corpus Christi college, Oxford.

Li Hung Sees the Emperor.

London, May 2.—The Times correspondent in Pekin says: "The emperor has given an audience to Li Hung Chang. The court's action is secret."

TEN KNOWN TO BE DEAD.

Wreck, Ruin and Death in the Path of a Kansas Cyclone.

Hutchinson, Kas., May 2.—Wreck and ruin and loss of life were crowded into a brief space of time by a cyclone in the farming district twenty miles east of this city yesterday afternoon. Ten lives were crushed out. The storm struck about a mile from Patterson and for sixteen miles in a northwesterly direction left death and ruin in a path 100 yards to a quarter of a mile in width.

Ten Persons Killed.

Ten persons were killed as follows: Mrs. Joseph Ware, Grace Wear, 12 years old; Herman Wear, 10 years old; a babe, William Armstrong, Mrs. Chapin, John Schmidt, Dora Schmidt, Frank Schmidt and Miss Schmidt.

Many Houses Demolished.

Others were injured, but their names could not be learned. Many farm houses, barns and outbuildings were demolished or damaged, and people, horses and cattle whirled through the air. The destruction is so great that details cannot be secured during the intense excitement which prevails. Telegraph poles and fences are down and the pathway of the storm is lined with the carcasses of dead horses, cattle, hogs and other animals. The loss will be great as the district visited was settled by well-to-do farmers.

THE LOUISVILLE TRAGEDY.

Trial of Fulton Gordon To Begin on Saturday.

Louisville, May 2.—Fulton Gordon, who shot his wife and a son of Governor Brown, was in court yesterday for examination. His attorney demanded an immediate trial, which was refused. They then asked for bail, but Judge Smith said that it was not a bailable case and he refused to allow it. The case was then set for trial Saturday next at 9 o'clock. Mrs. Gordon was buried yesterday and young Brown will be buried to-day.

Gordon Released on Bail.

Louisville, May 2.—Upon the application of Fulton Gordon's attorneys Police Judge Thompson reversed the action of Special Judge Smith in refusing to release the prisoner on bail. Judge Thompson fixed the bond at $3,000 in each case which was promptly furnished and Gordon was released.

REBUKE, NOT PROMOTION.

Minister De Lome Explains the Meaning of Harra's Transfer.

Washington, May 2.—The Spanish minister, Senor Dupuy De Lome, referring to the statement that Lieutenant Harra, who commanded the Conde De Venedito, which fired upon the United States merchantman Allianca some weeks ago, had been sent to Havana, and placed on duty in the office of the marine commandant, and that this designation was intended to be a promotion, said: "Promotions in our navy go by strict seniority. To detail an officer from sea to land duty means to lose an important part of his pay. I may say in passing that, so far as this gentleman is concerned, he has received from Madrid a rebuke and not a promotion. Harra was only in temporary command of the Venedito."

WILDE JURY DISAGREEMENT.

It Has Caused Much Surprise and Comment in London.

London, May 2.—The disagreement of the jury in the Wilde case on all the charges except the one relating to Atkins, on which he was acquitted, has caused much comment and surprise in London. Several newspapers incline to the opinion that Wilde's speech, which elicited applause in the court room Tuesday may have saved him from a verdict of guilty. They quote as the most eloquent part of this effective plea the first ten or twelve sentences with which Wilde answered Mr. Gill's question as to the meaning of his affection for Lord Douglas.

DUC D'ORLEANS IN DANGER.

His Physician Says He Has Developed Symptoms of Pneumonia.

Madrid, May 1.—A dispatch from the Seville Heraldo states that the condition of the Duc d'Orleans is much worse. His temperature is slightly above 102 deg. Fahrenheit. Dr. Recamier, who is attending him, has telegraphed to friends in Paris that his patient has developed symptoms of pneumonia, and that his condition is serious, though not alarming.

Repudiates Father Phelan.

St. Paul, May 2.—Regarding the charges of Father Phelan of St. Louis against the Christian Endeavorers, the Rev. James C. Byrne, president of St. Thomas' Catholic college of this city, says: "It is high time that some one should repudiate Phelanism, and therefore I say I do not defend him or his utterances."

Action of Board of Pardons.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 2.—Action was taken by the board of pardons last night in the following cases: Charles Clark, Allegheny, criminal assault, pardon granted; Fred McDonnell, Crawford, murder, sentence commuted to imprisonment for life; John Deeney Allegheny, larceny, re-argument ordered.

A Town Wiped Out by Fire.

Lorimore, Ia., May 2.—This town was almost entirely wiped out by fire of supposed incendiary origin yesterday. Sixteen business houses and eleven residences were destroyed.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Trade on spot quiet but prices held firm. No. 2 red f. o. b. afloat quoted at 71c.

Corn—Spot firm with fair demand. Steamer mixed, 53½c. afloat.

Oats—Spot firm with fair demand. No. 2 white, 36¼c.; No. 2 mixed, 31½a32c.

Pork—Spot steady but trade quiet. Extra prime nominal, $15.25a$15.50; mess $13.50a$14.00.

Lard—Contracts are quiet and weak. May, $6.90.

Butter—Market shows a quiet appearance. New butter, creamery, western extras, 19c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 17.

Cheese — Steady with fair inquiry. State, full cream, large colored, fancy, new, 8c.; common to prime, 6a8c.

Eggs—The demand not active, but with continued strong western advices and a further decrease in the receipts, late prices are fully sustained on finest stock. Best northwestern brought 13½c.

Potatoes—Old potatoes slow of sale and values barely sustained. State, white stock, per 180 lbs., $2a2.25; Jersey, prime, in bulk, per 180 lbs., $1.75a$2.00.

THE END NOT FAR OFF

England Practically Accepts Nicaragua's Offer.

Ample Security at Hand—Guatemala and the Canal Company Offer the Cash, if Need Be—A Guarantee by the United States Not Regarded as Essential.

Washington, May 2.—The guarantee of the payment by Nicaragua of the indemnity as required by Great Britain will be made in the amplest manner possible. It will be in any one of several forms as follows: (1.) The promise of the Nicaragua government, which in view of the fact that the government has never defaulted on its obligations, is itself regarded as a guarantee. (2.) The bank of Nicaragua, a national institution, with recognized standing in London, will, if need be, give the guarantee. (3.) The republic of Guatemala, one of the richest of Central American states, stands ready to deposit £15,500 in a London bank if Nicaragua desires the favor. (4.) The Nicaragua Canal company, whose word in London would be acceptable in the highest financial circles, will give either a guarantee or the cash if need be.

No Guarantee from Us Necessary.

Besides these guarantees, any one of which is available and is regarded as ample, the Nicaraguan authorities are said to have the actual funds immediately available without calling for outside help. A guarantee by the United States is not regarded as essential under the foregoing circumstances. The affair has cost Nicaragua more than the original $77,500. It was necessary to raise 3,000 extra troops at a cost of $3,000 per day. The abandonment of Corinto as a customs port has also resulted in much loss.

England's Good Faith.

From the British standpoint, the acceptance of the compromise and the immediate evacuation of Corinto establishes the good faith of Great Britain in her declaration that there was no purpose of occupying territory. From the first the British authorities have assured Ambassador Bayard, and the latter has so advised Secretary Gresham, that there was no purpose of aggression, or of securing a foothold in Nicaragua. The only purpose, Earl Kimberley has said, was to collect a debt by such force as was necessary and then depart.

Revolution Threatened.

Colon, Colombia, May 2.—It is reported here from San Juan del Sur that there is every probability of a revolution breaking out in Nicaragua if the government of that republic yields to the demands of Great Britain. If the present government of Nicaragua falls, it is contended that it will not be possible to adjust the claims of Great Britain, and that it may probably provoke an armed conflict.

Believed To Be Settled.

London, May 2.—It is believed in official circles that the Nicaraguan affair is practically settled, and that a satisfactory guarantee, or probably the cash, will be handed over.

WILLIMANTIC BANK SCANDALS.

Another Forged Note for $10,000 and a Spurious Town Order.

New Haven, May 2.—An additional forgery of a note for $10,000 of the Citizens' Gas Light company of Willimantic, drawn by Cashier Risley, has been found, also a presumably spurious town order for $8,000. The Natchaug Silk company has transferred $90,000 worth of silk goods in stock to the suspended bank and the Second National bank of Norwich, which are large creditors of the company.

COUNTERFEITING CHARGED.

A Prominent Ohio Lawyer Held for the Federal Court.

Cleveland, O., May 2.—J. H. Michener, a prominent politician of Stark county and an attorney with a big practice, of Canton, O., has been bound over to the federal court on the charge of counterfeiting.

Disapproved of Vatican Influence.

Budapest, May 2.—Premier Baron Banffy, in answering a liberal interpellation in the lower house, said the government disapproved the conduct of the papal nuncio, who had made a tour of Hungary to denounce the ecclesiastical bills. The vatican's influence in church matters might be exercised properly only through the primate.

$500,000 Hotel for Newark.

Newark, N. J., May 2.—The board of trade committee which has charge of the erection of a first-class hotel for this city, something it does not now possess, has agreed upon a site, but will not divulge its location. Plans are being prepared for an eight-story building to contain 259 rooms and to cost about $500,000.

Beef Interests in Hartford.

New Haven, Conn., May 2.—Representatives of J. P. Squire & Co. of Boston, and of Armour & Co., have bought a site in Hartford on which buildings will be erected to be used for the wholesale beef business. The property includes the old home of Lydia H. Sigourney.

Greenhut Keeps Up the Fight.

Peoria, Ill., May 2.—J. B. Greenhut has filed information through the states attorney for a writ of quo warranto to prevent Walter M. Scheffel, of New York, from acting as director of the Distilling and Cattle Feeding company.

Oil Still Declining.

Pittsburg, May 2.—There was a further decline of 10 cents per barrel in the Standard Oil company's price yesterday. At Pittsburg and Oil City sales were made at the opening price, $1.85. The Standard's price to-day is $1.90.

A Curious Verdict.

South McAlester, I. T., May 2.—Willis Kelly, an Indian, charged with killing his wife, pleaded guilty to murder in the first degree Tuesday, and a jury returned a verdict of acquittal yesterday.

Collapse of the Paris Match Strike.

Paris, May 2.—The strike of the match workers in the government factories has collapsed and the men will return to work forthwith.

RESCUED FROM TORMENT

Every Joint in His Body Racked by Rheumatism.

Could Not Move His Arm and Was in Constant Pain—A True Story of a Remarkable Cure.

William F. Maier, 18 Park Place, Zanesville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I had to quit work on account of rheumatism. I had the disease in my hips, back and arms, in fact, in every joint in my body. The pain was intense, and I suffered the most excruciating agony. My doctor could not do anything for me, and I tried every remedy that could be suggested; none of them did me any good, and finally my joints became stiffened and sore. At times I could not move my right arm, and was in constant pain. I procured a bottle of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure, and within a short while was completely cured. I am free from stiffness and pain, and can cheerfully recommend Munyon's Remedy as the best I have ever known."

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure acts almost instantaneously, curing many obstinate cases in a few hours. It is guaranteed to cure rheumatism in any part of the body. Acute or muscular rheumatism cured in from one to five days. It never fails to cure sharp, shooting pains in the arms, legs, sides, back or breast, or soreness in any part of the body in from one to three hours. It promptly cures lameness, stiff and swollen joints, and all pains in the hips and loins, chronic rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago or pain in the back are speedily cured. It seldom fails to give relief after one or two doses, and almost invariably cures before one bottle has been used.

Munyon's Homoeopathic Home Remedy Company, of Philadelphia, put up specifics for nearly every disease, which are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25 cents a bottle.

A full assortment of Stationery!

AT

HARPER'S,

411 Park ave.

SPRING MILLINERY DISPLAY,

Wednesday, March 27, of all the latest novelties in Hats, Bonnets, Dutch Bonnets, Napoleon and 20th Century Turbans, Flowers, Ribbons, and all the accessories in Trimmings that complete the newest styles.

Mrs. L. Adams,

111 East Front st., under First National Bank

L. A. HUMMER. D. B. MULFORD.

Hummer & Mulford,

VARIETY MARKET,

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, Etc.,

220 PARK AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Telephone call, 29 L.

Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge. 9 11

Your valuables will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

LOCK BOXES

From $3.50 to $10.00 a year.

M. Powers & Son.

Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75

in the yard. A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office, 703 South Avenue. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Climax Stopper Co.,

Machine Works,

Corner of Ashington and 4th streets, manufacturers of bicycle specialties. Electric and special machinery, experimental work, tools, etc. Contractors for electric light wiring, telephones, burglar alarms, etc. 6 13 3m

TRY DOBBINS'S CIGARS.

30 PARK AVE.

He Manufactures Them

THOS. MARLEY,

(Nineteen years with M. Quinn)

BLACKSMITH,

845 Richmond st., near Watchung ave 4 25 y

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor.—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the First and Third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 213 West Front street, at 8 p. m.

John Fellows, Dictator.

R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Court Pride of New Jersey, No. 8038, Ancient Order of Foresters of America, meets in K. of P. Hall, No. 108 West 2d st., first and third Tuesday evenings in each month.

Samuel J. Tryan, Chief Ranger.

Samuel H. Lunger, Fin. Sec. 9 25 y

Anchor Lodge, No. 169, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays in the Babcock Building.

C. C. Howard, W. M.

T. A. Rogers, Secretary.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Masonic Hall, East Front street.

D. C. Adams, W. M.

Chas. Yeager, Secretary.

Plainfield Council, No. 712, Royal Arcanum.—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the Second and Fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward's Building, Park avenue, at 8 P. M.

A. M. Bee, Regent.

H. A. Thorne, Secretary.

Short Vacations

For busy people by the beautiful new steamships of the Old Dominion Line.

To Old Point Comfort

[Hygeia Hotel]

Or Virginia Beach, Va.

[Princess Anne Hotel] may be made for

$16 Old Point Comfort, $16 Virginia Beach, $17 $17

INCLUDING EVERY EXPENSE

of meals and berths enroute, and a day and a quarter's board at the hotels.

These trips are ideal, as a considerable portion is made through the quiet waters of the famous Hampton Roads and there is little likelihood of seasickness.

Also tickets on sale, with privilege of going or returning by rail.

Write for particulars of these and other delightful trips to

Old Dominion S. S. Co.,

Pier 26, North River, New York.

W. L. Guillaudeu, Vice Pres. and Traffic Manager. 11 26 6m

L. L. MANNING.

Marble and Granite Works

Cor. Central Ave. and Front st., opp. First Baptist Church.

Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

M. M. DUNHAM,

Real Estate and Insurance.

7 East Front Street.

CUT ROSES, CARNATIONS AND VIOLETS

Flowers furnished for weddings, funerals, etc., a bunches, bouquets or design.

MILES,

Somerset st., Johnston's drive, terminus of electric railroad. 9 IV M

Prof. A. Wehner,

TEACHER OF THE PIANOFORTE.

ALSO VOICE CULTURE.

Graduate of the Conservatory of Leipsic, Germany, desires a few more pupils in Plainfield.

References given and required.

Address letters to the office of this paper. 1 27 tf-c

E. H. HOLMES,

DEALER IN

COAL and WOOD,

YARD—No. 226 Madison Avenue. Also

Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North avenue.

J. C. POPE & CO.,

Insurance Agents,

NO. 6 EAST FRONT STREET

Plainfield, N. J.

You may have

Lost

many hours of comfort by not having worn

A

good reliable

Pair

of Collier's

Glasses.

103 Park ave. Established 1869.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,

Real Estate and Insurance,

197 North ave. 10 1 tf

F. A. DUNHAM,

Civil Engineer and Surveyor, 109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas.

TOWNSEND'S

MARBLE AND GRANITE WORKS,

SOMERSET STREET.

OUR MOTTO—Good work, good material at fair prices. 9 4 y

Jones & Co., Excavators.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

JONES & CO.

Cesspools built. 9 18

Joseph E. Mosher,

Agent for

H. J. Hayden & Co.,

WAR CLAIMS ATTORNEYS, WASHINGTON, D. C.

All claims put in our hands will receive prompt attention.

Call at the Crescent Cigar Store for fine cigars

Gold Dollars for Fifty Cents.

NO.

BUT FULL VALUE.

C. E. MORSE, Painting and Paper Hanging, 37 Chatham street.

N. E. KING,

High Grade Portraits

In Crayon, Pastel and Water Colors.

483 Lexington ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Refers by permission to John A. Thickstun, L. B. Woolston, T. L. Blackford, L. W. Randolph, A. L. Force. Further information at the drug store of L. W. Randolph or office of The Daily Press, where specimen of work can be seen. 11 20 tf

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Publisher and Proprietor.

WALTER IRVING CLARKE, Managing Editor.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., May 2, 1895

The serials published in The Daily Press are matchless in modern fiction. They are by the best living writers, are copyrighted, and published by The Daily Press alone in Plainfield. The great story begun yesterday, "The Belief of Gotham", by Park Benjamin, will be continued through the week, and is to be succeeded by a tale just completed by "The Duchess".

An education and a delight, will be the series of articles on Lincoln, soon to be begun in this paper. They afford a romance in real life. The history of Lincoln as portrayed by his friend, William H. Herndon, is intensely romantic and dramatic. Moreover, it is strictly true, a quality which Lincoln himself estimated to be of first importance in all history; and The Daily Press alone in Plainfield will publish it.

Two leading citizens, ex-Mayor Randolph and Samuel Milliken, Jr., have inaugurated a crusade against the elm-tree pest, and generously agree to contribute to a fund for the preservation of the trees. Action in this important matter is imperative. It is time now to begin the work. Every lover of our shade trees, every owner of Plainfield property, everyone interested in maintaining the beauty and glory of the town, should add his name to the list, and add it now. The Press office is at the service of the Tree Fund.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Voehl are the proud parents of a baby girl, born yesterday.

Mrs. Schenck, mother of Rev. Cornelius Schenck, went to New Brunswick yesterday to spend a week.

L. B. Mulford and family have returned from Asheville, N. C. Mr. Mulford is much improved in health.

A. S. Holcomb of New York is the guest for a few days of his friend, Wm. D. Thickstun of Central avenue.

Isaac, Clarence and Arthur Lines, sons of Marshal Lines, left yesterday for Florida, where they expect to purchase land and set out an orange grove.

J. H. McVey of North avenue had a visit yesterday from James W. Knapp, a prominent business man of Warwick, N. Y. He and Mr. McVey are oldtime friends, and had not seen each other for eight years.

Cured a Valuable Horse.

W. J. Arkell's valuable pacing mare which has been kept at M. Quinn's place, East Fourth street, was taken very ill yesterday, and Dr. Pocock was called. After an examination he learned that the animal was suffering with azaturea, which is a contraction of the muscles in the hind part of the body and legs, and will not permit of a horse standing. Under careful treatment by the doctor the animal is improving and was much better this morning. There is good hope of her recovery.

Fractured a Rib.

William Mosher of East Fourth street while at work in Potter Press Works accidentally fell and sustained an injury which gave him considerable pain. He went to see Dr. Jenkins about it, and the latter discovered that a rib was fractured. He is confined to his home and will be unable to work for some time.

—Rev. Father Smyth now rides a Keating wheel purchased from Lister.

—The electric light converter in front of Roberts's stables burned out yesterday.

—George W. Cole of West Second street today added a handsome new coach to his livery equipment.

—J. Kleiner has just hung a very handsome screen door at H. J. Fleischhauer's drug store, East Front street.

—A delightful time awaits those attending the Holland tea of the Christian Work Society of Trinity Church tonight.

—Walter Baldwin and wife, colored, of South Plainfield, were sentenced to jail yesterday for 30 days for assault and battery.

—John S. Huff, who said he had been left a million in California, and who was for a time a conspicuous figure in Plainfield, died in Matawan Tuesday.

—The illustration in the windows of The Daily Press office, of the wonderful Compton Electric Service System, attracts much attention, showing as it does how the great baseball games are duplicated by electricity in Madison Square Garden. George W. Squire of Plainfield is connected with the company, and is doing good work for them.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists, price 75 cts. per bottle.

BIBLE IN ENGLAND AND AMERICA.

An Explanation of the Fondness of English Statesmen for Theology.

English statesmen are much given to writing upon theology, in contrast with American statesmen, who do little if any literary work in that line.

This is probably due to the circumstance that the British statesman is reared under a government in which the Church is an established and important feature, making theological dogma a necessary division in his economical training, and the subject of his frequent and practical consideration throughout his career as a statesman? Out of this circumstance also arises the system of religious and scriptural instruction which has ever been so insistently maintained in the English schools of all classes, and which must have played no slight part in implanting that taste for theological discussion so notably displayed by scholarly Englishmen. In the English national or government pay schools—at least such was the case some ten years ago—it was not uncommon for a lad of twelve to win a parchment upon his graduation with honor from the three years' course of Scripture study. The Bible lesson is also one of the daily exercises in the public schools which, although of a later generation than the more exclusive colleges, which taught the young ideas of Disraeli and Mr. Gladstone, yet reach a greater number of possible future statesmen; and who shall say what parliamentary and diplomatic laurels await the brows of many among this present generation of youthful students of Moses and Joshua and David, of St. Paul and St. John the Divine?

How different is the case with a youth in this highly Christianized, but indifferently religious land of ours! The daily chapter at family prayer, when paterfamilias holds the Book and the boy's thoughts wander where they will, or the half dozen verses of the weekly Sabbath school lesson comprise all of his Biblical research until he arrives at the Bible reading period, which comes to most bright boys sooner or later, when with highest commendations for his virtue and piety, his mother presents him with a Bible and suffers him to read it wherever and however he please, which he usually proceeds to do with the same eager, though irreverent, appreciation he would have for any other work as full of historical and dramatic interest as is the holy Book. And that is all. If in after life he take up theological study it will be for Christ's sake, upon the awakening of religious impulse, whereafter he may become a theologian, but rarely, if ever, a statesman.

OPENING THE SEASON.

One Account of a Ball Game in Which Brooklyn Defeated New York.

Fair was the day and vast was the crowd. The score card wight cried long and loud. By bench and board the rooters soughed, yelled, yowled and yawped enormously. There Brooklyn sat, with pie in hand and watched the deeds of Foutz's band. There Freedman's shouters fiercely fanned the breeze and howled unspeakably. Then Mayor Strong with mighty feet upon the creaking planklets beat, and by him with a smile most sweet, Job Hedges looked ineffably. The air was torn, the sky was rent with twenty thousand voices blent in a wild cheer that rushed, hellbent, vociferating stentorously. Hail, Lynch, whose voice outdoes all noise! Hail, Scissors Foutz, hail, all ye boys now thump the ball tremendously!

O, field by those stark farmers plowed; O, Giant heads in soup embowed; O, Brooklyn chorting joyously! Brooklyn imbrued in Gotham's gore, and with one elemental roar, frequent remarking "seven to four!" and celebrating ruddily!—N. Y. Sun.

American Colleges Superior to Foreign.

There is far less need for a young American who seeks instruction in the classical or Oriental languages, or in philosophy or metaphysics, or in any of the sciences, or in any branch of knowledge to go to Germany or any other foreign country to obtain it than there were forty or fifty years ago, or even one generation ago.

Nearly every branch of learning is now taught, in excellent manner, by competent professors in our American universities and colleges. We have scholastic institutions of the highest character and we have renowned professors. We do not need to look abroad for them. No young American need to go over the Atlantic for his scholarship.

"Free" is the Catchword.

The word "free" in the silver question is the drop of molasses that has attracted a great many flies. Wipe that word out and the swarm about the fly trap would diminish rapidly and perceptibly. The word "free" has a mighty power to charm. It is the embodiment of the idea of getting something for nothing. The idea has always been a fatal one to people who have followed it up. The hope and desire to get valuable articles free are the life of lotteries and gambling tables. Green goods men play upon those weaknesses and find the business very profitable.—Savannah News.

A Question of the Future.

"Who is going to be the best man at your wedding?" asked Hicks of Garraway, who is shortly to marry a new woman.

"I don't know," said Garraway, sadly. "Miss Strongmind led and I have not settled yet which of us is to have that honor."—Harper's Bazar.

Professor Proctor's Daughter.

Miss Mary A. Proctor, daughter of the late Prof. Richard A. Proctor, the astronomer, is following in the footsteps of her father by popularizing science. The young woman has already won a high reputation as a writer and lecturer. She is to lecture at Chautauqua this summer.

A TALK WITH MRS. SAGE.

She Has a High Opinion of the Capabilities of Women.

Mrs. Russell Sage is an enthusiastic advocate of the higher education of women. She said a few days ago: "I believe that every woman should be trained for pursuing some business. I think that every one, no matter what her occupation or place in society, should make an effort to understand the laws of her country, especially those relating to her own sex. The Woman's Society for Legal Education and the Law Class for Women, sanctioned by Chancellor McCracken, are admirable movements. I looked into legal matters and studied them a little when I was a girl, in the days when women considered such matters very little, when a woman had scarcely any legal rights.

"There is nothing, I think, that broadens the mind more than legal study. Helen Gould used to come in here from the law class and say that she learned something new every day. 'I have found out,' she said to me one day, 'that if a woman marries a foreigner in her own country her property remains under her own control, but if she marries him in his country he can manage her affairs absolutely.' Helen Gould was always anxious to learn the technicalities of law in order that she might be able to manage her affairs judiciously. She was thrown into the company of Chancellor McCracken a good deal during her father's illness, and, knowing the responsibilities that would one day devolve upon her, she gave much attention to legal subjects. Now she has been graduated. Of course she will never practice, but her knowledge of law will be of much benefit to her in managing her property.

"Coming before the public in any way, whether as benefactor, philanthropist, or merely as an heiress, brings with it its penalties." Mrs. Sage said with a sigh, as she glanced at a table heaped with letters and packages. "All these," she said, "have come to me since March 20, when there was published an article, illustrated wholly from imagination, telling about my so called charities. Every one of these letters is a request for aid of some kind. Miss Gould and every other woman who gives of her strength and fortune to public benefits is the recipient of an avalanche of petitions.

"Here is the photograph of a woman who writes me a thirteen page letter asking for help. She requests me to return the picture. A man wrote the other day that if I did not put a certain personal in the Herald on a certain day he would kill me. Another wrote that he felt he could better accomplish certain work he had undertaken if he could take a trip around the world. He suggested that, as we had plenty of money, we should send him sufficient to make the trip. There is no end to the demands and schemes and plans for personal aid.

"I advise all to go to work, and if they can't find such work as suits them best, to take the first at hand. Every one, rich or poor, is happier for having continuous occupation. I taught school for nearly eighteen years previous to my marriage, and I taught a number of branches for which I had no training whatever. In those days they did not have special teachers for special branches; one teacher taught everything. Sometimes I would be prostrated, not being naturally strong, but I would get up and go to work again. In my opinion, and I have lived long enough to prove the truth of what I say, work is life, health, happiness."

CLEAR AS CRYSTAL.

Strides Made in Glass Manufacture Are Extraordinary.

Glass is a material whose astonishing possibilities we are only beginning to understand. Incredible progress has been made in its manufacture the last ten or twelve years. We, who saw the glass gown spun for the Princess Eulalia at the Chicago Exposition, will forget the wonder with which that dainty creation impressed us should we be lucky enough to see the Exposition in Paris in 1900, when M. Henrivaux, an enthusiastic French manufacturer, promises to show us a house made entirely of glass and with furniture and even tapestries made of the same material. This very novel mansion is to have an original scheme of being rendered always warm in winter and cool in summer. M. Henrivaux proposes to erect an iron skeleton on which will be placed slabs of glass in such a fashion as to form a double wall, in the interior of which hot air can be circulated in winter and compressed air—which will cool the walls—in summer. The roof will be of glass on a network of iron, and the partitions and staircases of the same material.—Illustrated American.

Stop that Cough!

It may lead to serious consequences. Cough remedies will not do it, because it means more than a simple cold. Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites will do it, and at the same time will build up and fortify the system against further attacks.

We are putting up a 50-cent size for just these local difficulties. For ordinary Coughs and Colds that quantity will doubtless cure. If it is deep-seated it may require more.

Don't be persuaded to accept a substitute!

Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All Druggists. 50c. and $1.

ALWAYS ON THE LOOKOUT.

Engineer Schuck Saves a Family from Suffocation.

This morning about 1, as that veteran fireman, Frank Schuck, engineer of Engine No. 2, was returning from Marshall's laundry, where he has been at work changing the machinery, he heard a pane of glass break in the house of Thomas McGann, driver of Warren Engine No. 1, 29 Emily street.

Then he saw a bright glare in the window, and, being always on the lookout, he awoke the inmates, rushed to the backyard, found a pail and barrel of water handy, dashed a few pails of water through the broken window on the seat of the fire, which was in the woodbox near the stove. The loss was slight, but the scare great. Mr. Schuck's promptness undoubtedly saved the family from suffocation in their beds. The house is owned by M. Koehler.

Fire Quickly Subdued.

A workman carelessly threw a match after lighting a pipe in Samuel Solomons's shoeshop adjoining Trade Temple early this morning. The match fired the oily matting.

The workman threw a bedquilt on the fire. A passing cyclist saw the blaze, dropped his wheel in the road, threw off his coat, and ran into the shop. Assistant-Chief Martin also ran in.

The fire was quickly beaten out, and the damage was small.

Tests of the laboratory and the kitchen show

Cleveland's Baking Powder

the best that money can buy.

It's "pure" and "sure."

Our cook book mailed free on receipt of stamp and address. Cleveland Baking Powder Co., 81 Fulton St., New York.

Struck by a Sunbeam

Was the man who thought it was winter still, and that the old suit would see him through spring.

Yesterday the sun came out bright and warm and he decided a new suit was a necessity

He is Dead

On to the fact that we are selling the best suits that are to be had for the money, and $12 rigged him out in a suit fit to appear before a King in.

Neither you nor he will buy here once. We seldom lose a customer. That's why it pays us to sell our perfect clothing at such low prices

Everyone knows it,

But we may as well state it here that we can save you from $3 to $5 in a suit on what a similar quality will cost you in New York.

MCGREGOR & CO.,

850-852 Broad St.,

Newark, N. J.

THE LOVELIEST GOODS YOU EVER SAW.

That is the verdict of the ladies regarding the

WASH GOODS AT PECK'S.

RELIEF FUND BENEFIT,

MUSIC HALL, MAY 9

TICKETS FOR

The Russian Honeymoon

are to be obtained at Music Hall ONLY after today. The management has decided to close the subscription in accordance with the general wish of the public and place all remaining seats on open sale at the Music Hall box office,

Friday, May 3,

AT 2:30 P. M.

Call promptly and make your selection, or you will be disappointed. Price $1 and $1.50.

$10.00 Cash

purchases in our

CARPET DEPARTMENT,

secures you a handsome Moquette Rug

FREE.

We are offering many bargains in our Dry Goods Department; a few we mention below:

Best Gingham
Best Calico
Best Lining Cambric } 3½c Yard.

The celebrated Mignon kid, regular $1 25 for 75c. We allow you a cash discount of 5 per cent. from our already low prices at

WHITNEY'S,

122 East Front Street, Near City Bank.

ACTUAL VALUE.

Hardly an article advertised now-a-days but what reads 49c value 9?c or 69c value $1.?? Do you believe? Guess not. Goods are only worth what they will bring and if the article sells for 49c 'tis all its worth, as the general run of merchants get all they can Don't blame them as they are all after dollars. It's only the one who offers the most and is satisfied with the quick profit that gets the business. Don't you like

OUR WAY.

HOSIERY.

Ladies fast black seamless 13c; mens fast black seamless 13c; mens fast navy seamless 10c; childrens fast black seamless 12c; childrens fast black double knee 15c; and they are worth it

MEN'S SHIRTS.

Fine Summer balbriggan they are, drawers to match. We bought them last winter at a price that we named, and we named it low. The regular 75c quality yours for 39c each

DRESS GOODS

50 pieces all kinds 39c; 45 inch imperial serges 45c; 40 inch figured brilliantine, black 38c; 100 pieces as many patterns 39c; 30 inch swivel silk figured 43c; 30 inch swivel silk plain colors 97c; and they are worth it

LINENS.

How low we sell them—100 doz huck towels 10c each; ¾ fine dinner napkins $1.19 doz; 60 inch cream damask 33c; 18 inch heavy brown toweling 8c and they are worth it

WASH GOODS.

Dress ginghams 6c; dress ginghams 8c; crinkled crepons 7c; figured dimities 9c; outing flannel 7c; fine jackonets 17c; fine crepons 17c; 30 inch percales 6c; fine white dimities 12c; fine figured mulls 8c

CAPES.

Only takes a glance to tell you ours are of the latest in style and you find just what you want at a quarter and sometimes half what you expected to pay

YOU!

Know we keep most everything and if you don't know our way of merchandising we want you to (as it stands the test) Must be a pretty good way as all our esteemed competitors try to follow us but we keep them a guessing

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

JUMPING FRENCH CANADIANS.

A Nervous Affection of Which Practical Jokers Take Advantage.

"Did you ever see a jumping Frenchman?" asked Horace Nelson, the Waterville horse breeder.

A stockily built, bronzed faced man in the garb of a woodman entered and began looking over the register. The newcomer had suggested the question:

"Watch me," said Nelson in a low tone, "and you'll see some fun."

With this parting caution he stepped up behind the man, gave him a sharp slap on the shoulder, and shouted:

"Strike!"

Instantly the Frenchman drove his right fist against the clerk's writing desk, splitting the board that formed one end of it wide open. The blow barked every knuckle on his hand, but he had hardly turned round to face his Svengali when Nelson again shouted:

"Jump!"

The effect was marvelous. Big as he was, the woodsman went up in the air as high as the counter. He seemed thoroughly mesmerized, and when Nelson ceased his commands he looked as sheepish as a bashful schoolgirl.

"They are the greatest curiosities I ever saw," said Nelson. "Take them unawares and they will do anything you tell them to. Just before the gangs went into the woods last fall we had a man here that was a corker. He staggered in with a skate on one afternoon, looked around, and, seeing no one in the billiard room, sneaked in there. The clerk was watching him. The moment he got inside he pulled a long necker from his pocket and was just tipping it up for a drink when the clerk rushed in and yelled:

"'Throw it!'"

"He banged it to the floor as if the contents had scorched him. The bottle was smashed, and he glared at the clerk like a wild beast. As a usual thing they don't get mad, but when they're drinking it's just as well to let them get a swig before yelling, 'throw' or 'drop it.'"

On the Kennebec drive last year the "rivermen" had a jumper among them who would go overboard every time any one cried "jump," but, as he was a fighter, the joke was rare, for the want of a man to give the word.

THE WAY HE WOULD FIRE IT.

A Lessons in Pistols Given to a Man From Boston by a Ranchman.

Inspired by the example of some men who were firing from the car windows, the Bostonian took from his traveling bag a pistol that must have been a gift of a doting female relative.

The ranchman beside him looked with surprise and then with grim amusement at the Boston man's shooting, and, for the first time, seemed to take an interest in what his seatmate was doing.

"Let me look at that thing, stranger," he said.

The Bostonian passed the pistol to him with an expression of satisfaction on his face, as much as to say, "This is rather a neat thing, don't you know, and I'm in the shooting as well as the others." The ranchman handled the wee weapon with an affectation of admiring awe and examined it with grave curiosity.

"It's a great firearm and no mistake," he pronounced. "If 'twas mine would you like to know how I'd fire it?"

The Bostonian looked pleased and nodded. The ranchman drew his own pistol, an immense long barreled affair which looked as if it ought to be mounted on a gun carriage. Calmly he stuck the barrel of the small pistol into its capacious muzzle, and thrusting the big weapon through the open window took a deliberate shot at the telegraph pole. The butt and barrel of the little pistol flew two ways as it struck the telegraph pole in the center, while the big bullet behind sent splinters flying as it plowed through the timber.

Upon this worse than contemptuous treatment of his property the Bostonian looked with consternation and at first was indignant. But he had some tact and a sense of humor despite his nativity, and there being nothing better to do, he soon joined in with the others in the laugh that was raised. His big neighbor passed him a peace offering in the shape of a flask approaching an army canteen in size, the Bostonian pulled manfully at it, and for the rest of the trip the two were most friendly companions.

Mid-April Days in Gotham.

Such a day suggests a procession of silent, pure eyed nuns in gray or a flock of pearly doves circling on noiseless wings, or the filmy pillar of cloud that caps a thousand steam vents in the still heavens overhanging a great city at sunset of a windless evening, or the low, monotonous, softly billowy music that comes from organ pipes when the keys are deftly touched by a master in a mood of reverie.—N. Y. Sun.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Worth Co., who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Fort Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad that he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he procured a bottle of it and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

OF BURNING INTEREST IN NEW YORK

The Small Talk of the Metropolis is Entertaining Even to Outsiders.

The following paragraphs were taken from the New York Sun, and are vouched for by the editor, who causes to be published each day at the head of his columns the declaration that "If you see it in the Sun it's so":

Hot cross buns are as popular as ever in this town.

Almost anything is sold nowadays on outdoor stands.

The bicycle is now so commonly seen in Broadway as scarcely to attract attention there.

In suburban districts it is not at all unusual to see children going to school on bicycles.

One now and then encounters a Scotchman in kilt and claymore as the sign of a tobacco shop.

Faces of Salvation Army women are seen in the showcases of photographers in many parts of the town.

In court Hetty Green was on hand with her latest lawyer, Robert D. Benedict. She wore a small bouquet of red and white carnations.

A New Yorker, who has a summer residence in Idaho, says that the present high price of beef may be due in part to the scarcity of cattle on the Idaho ranges.

A barber shop has been opened in Hester street just west of the Bowery, where one can get shaved for three cents and have his hair cut for five cents.

As one goes quickly upward in a rapid, smooth moving elevator in one of the lofty modern buildings, he passes from a region of shade up into a region of light, where sunshine streams along the halls and everything is bright and cheerful.

The coaching season was opened yesterday with the first trip of the four in hand Pioneer. Dr. W. Seward Webb looked up at Diana on the tower of the Madison Square Garden and then said to Col. De Lancey Kane: "Great weather for the trip, colonel; a northwest wind." Col. Kane smiled and answered that he couldn't ask for anything better.

The bride elect was very beautiful in a gown of pale pink satin and chiffon, which offered a delicate contrast to the white fur. When she was comfortably established on her throne the fun began. At first it was like a summer breeze, making just a little rustle, but it increased steadily until at 2 A. M. it had become a gale of mirth and nonsense. In spite of the hilarity, an atmosphere of the utmost refinement and a true club spirit prevailed.

—The Young Stars defeated the Boys' Club yesterday by the score of 22 to 19.

—Coffy & Davis of New York started for Gloversville, N. Y., last night to look after a large tract of land belonging to J. H. McVey of this city. Mr. McVey is going to improve the property and place it on the market.

—Mrs. Hooper made a complaint yesterday against her husband, David Hooper, before Justice Mosher, charging him with assault and battery. A hearing was given, but there not being sufficient evidence both were discharged.

That Plate means

Columbia

THE BEST BICYCLE

The Standard Bicycle of the World.

On the steering-head of every Columbia bicycle of this year's make that name-plate appears. It is unique, handsome, and indicates much—satisfaction and highest enjoyment to the rider.

No other bicycle has ever equalled a Columbia. No other bicycle ever shall equal a Columbia. The greatest bicycle factory in the world says so.

New Price $100

HARTFORDS, next best, $80 $60.

$50 for boys' and girls' sizes.

POPE MFG. CO. Hartford, Conn.

BOSTON, CHICAGO, NEW YORK, SAN FRANCISCO, PROVIDENCE, BUFFALO.

An Art Catalogue of these famous wheels at any Columbia Agency, or will be mailed for two 2-cent stamps.

Columbias and Hartfords are sold in Plainfield only by

The Eldridge Cycle Company,

Easy payments.
Old wheels taken in trade
Wheels to hire.
Fine repairing.

A large variety of all the Latest Styles in Hats and Bonnets can be found at the Millinery Establishment of

MRS. L. ADAMS,

111 EAST FRONT STREET.

Under First National Bank.

NO WORRIMENT IN CHINESE NATURE.

Mandarins Not a Bit Disturbed by the Victories of Japan.

China's method of conquering Japan has been to wait for something to turn up. China has gone on for 4,000 or more years—perhaps Adam was a Chinaman—maintaining her own distinct identity, moving on according to her own sweet pleasure, and is a larger and more populous empire to-day than she ever was before. Why, then, should she hasten to bend her neck to impudent, meddlesome Japan? At any stage of the war if the high mandarins of China, or even the young emperor, were asked what plan they had to drive back the Japanese they would probably reply, "We have none; wait a bit and they will let us alone." Where other people get frightened and puzzled China remains self satisfied.

The writer has been in China for the last three months, but the only Chinese he has seen excited or worried were those in Chifu, after the capture of Port Arthur, when attack on them was expected. On account of the excitement so easily aroused among the common people it is the custom to forbid the people to discuss public affairs. The officials are responsible, and they appear as calm as ever. A gentleman called on Li Hung Chang a short time after he lost all his ranks, titles, feathers and jacket, and found him as smiling, calm and undisturbed as in years gone by during his untarnished glory. Telegrams kept coming in on matters of the war, but he merely looked them over quietly, wrote out an answer or laid them aside as if unimportant. The officials in Pekin are equally composed, leaving the scare to the foreign legations and the war correspondent.

The foreigner worries his life out in thinking of the future. If he is a friend of China, he wrenches his brain in trying to devise some scheme to rescue her from certain catastrophe. He at last rejoices in a scheme, carefully thought out to the end, and proposes it to "their Excellencies the Prince and the Ministers." They thank him, and add, "We will consider the matter, but nothing is needed now."

"But your situation is perilous. What plan have you for preserving the dynasty?"

"Oh, that is unimportant. There'll be some way out."

Nervously prostrated Americans can learn much from John Chinaman. One thing is sure, that if he must die he won't die of worry. He may not be a warrior, but he has horse sense.

A NOVELTY IN TELEGRAPH WIRE.

Weighs 110 Pounds to the Mile and Will Be a Great Saving.

The Western Union Telegraph Company is having as an experiment, a special wire stretched along its poles from New York to Trenton. This special wire is of much lighter weight than the ordinary wire, weighing but 110 pounds to the mile. It has a steel core and a copper covering, and it is made by the Roebling Company of Trenton, N.J. the firm made famous through its connection with the building of the Brooklyn Bridge.

The weight of the average wire used by the Western Union Company is 280 pounds to the mile. The life of a wire barring cyclones or continuous inclement weather, is placed by experts at about twelve years, if running along a turnpike; but if placed along a railroad or through a section of a city where soft coal is largely used, its term of usefulness is much shortened and it lasts but a few years, the gases seeming to corrode it.

Should this special light wire have the necessary tensile strength and proper conductivity also it will not only mean a monetary saving, but more wires may be placed without strain on the poles. There are forty poles to the mile between Jersey City and Philadelphia, along the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and forty wires also. These poles last but a short time. They cost about $3 each, cut, trimmed and shipped. Each pole is eight inches in diameter at the top. Chestnut is the wood chiefly used.

BRITISH PARLIAMENT'S AGE.

Next Year It Will Begin on Its Seventh Century.

We are on the eve of the sixth century of the British Parliament. If it so cares it will be able in a few months to celebrate the sixth hundredth anniversary of its existence.

In 1295 Parliament assembled on the basis from which has grown the form which it now has; that is to say, special summonses were issued to the prelates and to the nobles, then consisting of seven earls and forty-one barons; while to the sheriffs of each county orders were given to cause the election of two knights for each shire, two citizens for each city, and two burgesses for each borough, who were to be endowed with full power to execute what should be ordained by common council. Great Britain is unique. Centuries will elapse before any other country will be able to celebrate its Parliament's sexcentenary.—Scottish American.

Worse Than Critical.

"They tell me that the editor is not very well," said the poet's friend.

"He is feeling quite badly," was the reply. "I called on him this morning."

"Is his condition critical?"

"Worse than that; it's abusive."—Washington Star.

Not Fireproof.

Dick—What! out of a job again? I thought you had a permanent position.

Tom—So did I. They said the building was fireproof, but I was fired in less than a fortnight.—Boston Transcript.

Wordy.

It seems like throwing good money after bad for a tailor to bring a suit to recover the suit which he had already lost.—Chicago Record.

THE GREAT AMERICAN DRINK—Soda Water,

is the best of all drinks when rightly served. We use many syrups—all good—but we must "brag" a little about our orange (fresh from fruit), our chocolate and coffee; none can be finer. As to cream—take your choice: Ice cream, whipped cream, plain cream.

Reynolds's Pharmacy,

Park and North avenues.

MUSIC HALL.

Jos. Sohl, Lessee and Manager
Telephone 49B.

FRIDAY, MAY 3,

America's Representative Black Face Comedy Organization.

Vreeland's Minstrels!

T. D. Middaugh, Manager; A. J. Anderson, General Agent; presenting every existing feature of Ethiopian Entertainment, headed by the great and only HANK GOODMAN. A wealth of pleasing surprises. A cluster of brilliant gems. A score of startling novelties. A hundred new ideas. No relics of antiquity. EVERYTHING New! Street parade by Middaugh's Gold Band! Seats now on sale, prices 35, 50, 75 and $1.00.

MUSIC HALL,

Joseph Sohl, Lessee and Manager.
Telephone call 49B.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT OF

LEWIS MORRISON,

MONDAY, MAY 6,

In his great creation of MEPHISTO. In a dramatic presentation of Goethe's immortal masterpiece

FAUST

Supported by a competent company of artists including MISS FLORENCE ROBERTS as Marguerite. Beautiful scenery, magnificent costumes, wonderful electrical effects. The great Brocken scene.

Prices, 35, 50, 75 and $1.00

WANTS AND OFFERS.

LOST—Between the Martine residence and Webster place, gold ball watch charm, stone setting. Suitable reward will be paid if returned to 313 Webster place.

A respectable girl wants care of one or two grown children, is good dressmaker. City references. Address M. E., care Press.

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 2 21 tf

DRESSMAKER would like a few more customers. Cutting and fitting a specialty. Terms, $1 a day. Address Dressmaker care Press.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. No washing or ironing. Wages $14 a month. References required. Apply 12 Rockview avenue.

GOOD cash meat and vegetable market for sale on account of sickness. Will be sold right. Box 305 Somerville, N. J. 5 1 3

BOARDERS wanted at 926 Putnam ave., near LaGrande ave. 4 29 6

FRENCH teacher desires to exchange lessons for board for Summer. Natural and Meisterschaft systems. Pure pronunciation. Also music, piano. Highest references. Address Teacher, care Miss Hadden, 59 Jefferson avenue, Elizabeth, N. J.

STORAGE to let in Stillman block. 4 29 6

FOR SALE—Shetland pony (5 years old), Bradley cart and harness. A nice smart rig. Address Richmond, Press office. 5 1 3

CORNER flats to let; all improvements; steam heat. Miller 339 Park avenue. 4 30 5

WANTED—Situation as coachman or gardener. Good references. Address R. West, care Press. 4 30 3

TWO young men may have a cozy room with bath; conveniences and board at extremely reasonable rates; pleasant surroundings; references. Call at 31 Fairview avenue. 4 26 5

PAINTERS wanted. Apply E. E. Marshall. North avenue. 5 2 tf

WANTED—For June and July, board in private family for gentleman, wife and child, vicinity of Fanwood. Address Vigilantia, P. O. Box, 402, New York.

MONEY to loan. Mulford, broker. 2 1 tf

COW for sale. Jersey and Ayrshire. Milks 18 quarts richest milk. Due May 17. Price $50. Apply 517 East Front street.

WANTED—Situation as cook or laundress. S., care Press. 5 2 3

$1,000 to $3,500 to loan, first mortgage. Mulford broker. 4 22 tf

YOUNG colored man wants work. Experienced. References. Call 524 West Second street. 5 1 tf

WANTED—A young man to assist in selling Sunday papers, and other business. Call at 159 North avenue. 5 1 2

FOR SALE—Pony phaeton. Frank Hedden's livery, 118 E. 4th st. 3 28 tf

WANTED—By a young girl place at upstairs work, apply at 513 West Sixth street. 5 2 2

WANTED—Small house about seven rooms with some improvements, rent moderate. Not over 10 minutes from depot. Address A T, care Press. 5 2 2

FOR SALE—Cheap, one Victoria carriage nearly new; one Brougham; set double carriage harness; one black saddle stallion. Inquire S. B. Wheeler, Mountain avenue, or Mrs. Edith W. McCarthy, 1038 Park ave. 4 8 tf

TO LET—House 235 East 6th st. Inquire 231 East 6th st. 3 9 tf

SIX ROOM flat to let; all improvements. 200 West 2d st. 3 4 tf

TO LET—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping; no children. Apply 103 Duer street. 3 6 tf

MONEY to loan in sums to suit. Reed & Coddington, atty's, Babcock Building. 2 26 tf

TABLE boarders wanted in private family. Apply 303 West Fourth st. 2 7 tf

TELEPHONE RATES IN PLAINFIELD.

$30, $40, $50, according to number of local messages sent and joint use of line; full long distance equipment. Private lines and speaking tube systems installed at reasonable rates. Address The New York & New Jersey Telephone Co., 175 North avenue, Plainfield.

5 3 e o d 1 m

Fine Dairy Butter.....15c. lb
Best Dairy Butter.....18c. lb
Best Elgin Creamery Butter..20c. lb

V. L. FRAZEE,

151 West Front St.

MISS E. ROCKFELLOW,

DRESSMAKING PARLORS,

195 North Avenue.

Taylor System. Suits $5 and upward.

5 1 1 m

EDWIN B. MAYNARD

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial Parlor, 206 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Ladies shampooing and childrens hair cutting a specialty 10 1y

FOR SALE CHEAP!

A large assortment of Geraniums, Coleus, Salvias, Roses, Casino clematis, Palms and Rubber trees. Also 3000 Privet hedge plants, and a general collection of hardy plants and shrubs, at

DENTON'S

121 Hillside Avenue.

THE CIRCLE OF

King's Daughters.

Young Daughters of the King, Washington Park Plainfield, N. J., announce the third recital of the series by

MR. CHAS. F. UNDERHILL,

At The Casino.

THURSDAY, MAY 2, at 8:15 p. m.

Sheridan's Great Comedy,

"The Rivals."

Tickets at the usual places. 75 cents.

4 25 td

Deer Park and Oakland,

On the crest of the Alleghenies.

(Main line B. & O. R. R.)

SEASON OPENS JUNE 22, 1895.

Rates $60, $75 and $90 a month, according to location. Furnished cottages, with facilities for housekeeping, if desired, $450 to $600 per season. Address

GEO. D. DESHIELDS,
Manager, Cumberland, Md.

4 2 6-c

TERRILL & COLE,

Undertakers and Embalmers

200 West 2d street.

Next to Trinity Reformed Church. First-class livery attached.

Telephone 153 11 26 y

White Lights of Truth

—FROM—

Commercial Palace, EDSALL'S Babcock Building.

You can buy

A Carpet Cheap.

We will close out our entire stock of FINE BODY BRUSSELS CARPETS,

At 99c a Yard.

Regular $1.25 quality goods.

A lot of Chinese jointless matting, extra good quality, an extra special opportunity to purchase at.....9 and 12½c yd

A lot of oilcloths, excellent quality and wearers, special at.....10c sq yd

A lot of linoleums, extra heavy, double thickness and good wearers, exquisite designs, a big bargain at 37½c per sq yd; worth fully 25 per cent. above our offering.

A full line of window shades in all colors, well made, from.....19c upwards

A full line of curtain poles, good fixings, all complete.....Special at 19c

All-wool ingrain carpets, an excellent variety of designs at.....49c yd

Our extra good quality of tapestry Brussels carpet, special at.....49c yd

A lot of "Oriental Sahar Rugs," reversible, 36x72, with full fringe, actual value $3, our special price.....$2.39 each

A beautiful line of childrens lawn caps prettily made, all sizes, usually sold at 20c, 29c, 35c. Special 15c, 23c, and 25c each.

Ladies' and men's Gloria Umbrellas 24 and 26 inch paragon frames natural handles, usually sold at 98c, $1.25 and $1.39. Special at 65c, 85c and $1.10 each.

Mens merino shirts and drawers, all sizes, usually sold at 39c, 50c and 75c. Special 25c, 35c and 50.

An excellent line of mens half-hose all sizes, usually sold at 18c pair, our price 12c.

GROCERY DEP'T.

Edsall's famous baking powder at 12c pound.
Anderson's famous jams all kinds, in one pound tins at 12c can.
Pure Vermont maple sugar warranted strictly pure at 15c pound.
Auker's Bouillon Capsules, pure extract of beef recommended by leading physicians, at 29c box.
California lemon cling peaches in heavy syrup at 14c can.
Very fine pineapple cored and sliced, Johnsons Bahama good quality 13c can.
Queen olives 32 oz bottles large size 29c bottle.

House Furnishing Department.

SPECIAL PRICES.

Summer Goods. Summer Goods.

Window screens, hard wood frames, 19c and up.
Screen doors, well made, 79c and up.
Lawn mowers, best make, $2.29.
Ice cream freezers, best make, $1.48.
Baby carriages, large variety, $3.98 and up.
Oil and gas stoves at bottom prices. 1, 2 and 3 burner at 59c, $1.49 and $2.39 each.
Special low prices on refrigerators. Best makes; all sizes in stock.

7c Sale, 7c Sale, 7c Sale

WOMEN'S OXFORDS

74c, 98c, $1.19, $1.48, $2, $3, $3.50, $4—black or tan, pointed, square or common sense toes.

WE USE—nothing but the genuine Nevel stock in our tan goat shoes for misses and children. It will wear as long again as the ordinary. A full assortment of tan goods now ready for your inspection.

Doane & Edsall.

$1.00

At J. F. MacDonald's Uptown Grocery,

buys $1.00 worth of Groceries every business day in the year. Our goods are sold at a profit so as to enable us to give weight and quality to our customers and have something left for ourselves No fictitious prices. No man is in business for his health.

J. F. MAC DONALD

Decorated 10-piece Toilet Sets $1.60

Dorflinger's Cut Glass,
Gas Fixtures Repaired,
The Welsbach Light.

Gavett's.

129 East Front st.

Grand Opening Every Day

AT A W. FULPER'S!

1 pound 50c tea, 1 can milk, 3 pounds sugar, 1 loaf bread, half dozen boxes matches

50c All for 50c 50c

Not as an introduction but an every day occurrence. The very best goods; the very lowest prices. Sugar cured ham 10c pound; best Elgin creamery butter 20c, 5 pounds for 95 cts; good creamery butter 15c; 2 pounds extra combination coffee for 25c; 2 pounds extra creamery cheese for 25c; good creamery cheese 10c pound; 3 cakes Babbitt's soap 13c; Babbitt's 1776 per package 3c; best ginger snaps 4c.

"GO TO RANDOLPH'S."

That's the order the thorough business man gives his cabman when he needs anything in DRUGS OR MEDICINES.

He buys on business principles. Goes where he gets most value for least money.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist, 143 West Front st.

Had You Thought of the Difference?

Special sale usually means a smaller profit than usual, but an

Assignee's Sale

means something else—it means a sale below cost for cash to settle up a business. So if you want a suit of clothes come to the Schepflin & Schultz assignee sale.

J. F. MacDonald,

Assignee for Schepflin, Schultz & Co.,

318 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.

Hats, new shapes, Trunks and Bags cheap E. M. LAING,

All sizes in Packing Trunks. 105 Park avenue.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 North Avenue.

LEECH, STILES & CO.,

Eye Specialists.

441 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, formerly with Queen & Co.

H. A. Stiles will be at

No. 107 East Front Street.

Dunham's Real Estate Office

EVERY THURSDAY:

From 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Persons who have headache, or whose eyes are causing discomfort, should call upon this specialist and they will receive intelligent and skillful attention. No charge to examine your eyes. Every pair of glasses ordered guaranteed to be satisfactory. 4 13 tf-m t w s

HALLOCK is showing choice patterns in Percale Shirts, with 2 collars and pair cuffs, and these collars and cuffs are the latest patterns—no old back numbers.

G. A HALLOCK,

Hats and Furnishing Goods, 109 West Front st.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

DEALERS IN

Lumber. Coal. Mason's Material. &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

The Facts about Abraham Lincoln

The Martyred President

The Most Authentic and Interesting Account of

His Life and Personal Character

By William H. Herndon — The Law Partner of Lincoln

For 20 years Lincoln and Herndon were Partners and Confidential Friends. Their relations were intimate and no man living is better qualified than Herndon to give a just, true and intelligent

Study of Lincoln's True Character

As revealed by his Habits and his Daily Life.

NOTHING IS SUPPRESSED

Which may legitimately contribute to a true understanding of this Greatest of Americans.

We Announce With Pride

That we have secured the right to publish striking extracts from Herndon's Lincoln in

A Series of Short Copyrighted Articles

To be printed

Exclusively in This Paper

The Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Standard Railway of America

Protected throughout by the Interlocking Switch and Block Signal System.

On and after Jan. 20, 1895, trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

FAST LINE leaves Philadelphia 12 25 p m daily with Pullman vestibule parlor and sleeping cars for Pittsburg, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

6.37 p. m. WESTERN EXPRESS, with Pullman Vestibule sleeping cars, dining car daily to Pittsburg, Chicago, Cleveland, daily except Saturday, for Toledo, Williamsport, Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

8.34 p.m.—SOUTHWESTERN EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping car, daily, to Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, and Memphis. Dining car Altoona to Richmond.

8 42 p. m.—PACIFIC EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping cars daily, for Pittsburg, Columbus, Chicago, and Toledo, daily, except Saturday for Cleveland.

For Baltimore, Washington and the South—1 0 9.08, 9.36 a. m., 9 p. m.

Sundays, 1, 9 08, 9 36 a. m., 9 41 p. m.

For Baltimore only, 3 37 p. m., week-days.

For Newark and New York—3 02, 3 34, 4 44, 6 17, 6 45, 7 07, 7 20, 7 37, 8 06, 8 28, 8 32, 8 47, 9 17, 9 41, 9 45, 10 20, 10 28, 10 49, 11 06, 11 48 a. m., 1 12, 1 20, 1 56, 2 04, 2 40, 3 05, 3 27, 3 47, 4 43, 5 15, 5 36, 6 06, 6 27, 6 48, 6 58, 7 07, 7 25, 7 39, 8 15, 9 10, 10 08, 11 03 and 11 56 p. m.

Sundays 3 02, 3 34, 7 54, 8 45, 9 30, 9 47, 10 12, 10 28, 10 49 a. m., 12 09, 1 44, 2 32, 3 45, 5 48, 6 32, 6 54, 8 48, 7 06, 7 32, 7 58, 8 30, 9 16, 10 16, 1 46 and 11 56 p. m.

For New York only, 6 10 a. m. daily.

For Philadelphia—1 00, 6 07, 7 19, 9 03, 9 36, 11 43 a. m.; 1 05, 1 37, 3 32, 5 09, 6 32, 7 46, 7 43, 9 20 p. m. Sundays at 1 00, 3 09, 9 03, 9 36, 10 41 a. m.; 5 05, 6 37, 7 47 and 9 41 p. m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY

(2 25p.m. with through Buffet parlor car) Sundays 8 50 a. m.

Cape May Sea Isle City and Ocean City 1 37 p. m. weekdays.

For Rahway—1 00, daily ex. Monday, 4 08, 6 44, 7 10, 7 50, 8 54, 9 44, 10 20, 10 50, 11 46 a. m., 12 46, 1 11, 1 37, 2 48, 3 20, 3 50, 4 38, 4 58, 5 22, 5 46, 6 07, 6 12, 6 17, 6 27, 6 48, 7 02, 8 00, 7 20, 7 46, 8 14, 8 55, 9 54, 11 02, 11 45 p. m. and 12 27 night, week-days. Sundays, 1, 1 45, 8 30, 9 45, 10 28, 10 41 and 11 47 a. m., 12 09, 2 47, 3 20, 4 00, 5 20, 5 40, 7 21, 7 27, 7 47, 9 14, 9 47, 10 14, 11 and 11 56 p. m.

For New Brunswick—1 00, 6 07, 7 19, 7 50, 9 03, 9 36, 9 50, 11 43 a. m., 12 26, 1 37, 2 48, 3 50, 4 38, 6 06, 6 48, 7 46, 9 20 and 11 02 p. m. Sundays, 1 00, 6 09, 9 03, 9 36 9 49, 10 41 a. m., 12 50, 1 50, 6 00, 7 47, 9 16, 9 41 p. m.

For Woodbridge—1 43 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 46, 10 09 a.m., 12 46, 2 30, 4 53, 6 44, 6 12, and 7 20 9 54 p.m., 12 27 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 43, 10 09 and 11 47 a. m., 10 14 p. m.

For Perth Amboy—1 43 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 46, 10 09, 12 46, 2 30, 4 53, 6 44, 6 12, 7 20 7 36 9 54 and 12 27 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 43 10 09, 11 47 a. m. 10 14 p m.

For East Millstone—7 10 a. m., 12 26, 2 48 and 5 40 p. m., week-days.

For Trenton—1 00, 6 07, 7 19, 7 50, 9 03, 9 36, 9 50, 11 43 A. M.; 1 05, 1 37, 3 32, 5 09, 6 32, 7 46, 8 43, 9 20 P. M. Sundays at 1 00, 6 09, 9 03, 9 36, 10 41 A. M.; 5 05, 6 37, 7 47 and 9 41 P. M.

For Lambertville, Flemington and Belvidere via Trenton—7 10 A. M., 2 48 and 6 36 p. m., and 5 40 p. m. Sunday.

For Flemington—7 10 A. M. 2 48 P. M.

For Freehold—7 19, 11 43 a. m., 4 53, 5 09 p.m., via Monmouth Junction, week-days.

For Jamesburg, via Monmouth Junction—7 50 and 11 43 a. m., 4 53 and 5 09 p. m., week days.

For Long Branch, Ocean Grove, and points on New York and Long Branch R. R.—9 46 12 46, 4 15 5 44 p. m., 12 27 night week-days. Sundays, 10 28 a. m., and 5 44 p. m.; do not stop at Asbury Park on Sundays.

For Sea Side Park, Island Heights and Toms River—12 46, p. m.

For Boston—8 45 p. m., daily.

For Brooklyn, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats to Brooklyn annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton Street, avoiding double ferriages and journey across New York City.

Leave New York for Elizabeth—1 00 daily except Monday, 4, 6 30, 7 20, 8 10, 8 20, 9, 9 10, 10 10, 11 00 a. m., 12, 12 10, 12 20, 12 40 1 00, 2 10, 2 20, 3 00, 3 10, 4 00, 4 10, 4 20, 4 40, 5 00, 5 10, 5 20, 5 30, 5 40, 6 00, 6 10, 6 20, 6 40, 7 00, 7 20, 8 15, 9 15, 10 15, 11 00, 11 30 p. m., 12 15 night. Sundays, 9 00, 9 15, 9 45, 10 00 11 00 a. m., 12 00 noon, 1 00, 2 00, 2 45, 4 00, 4 20, 5 00, 6 20, 6 45, 7 15, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 30, 10 15, 11 00 p. m., and 12 15 night.

E. M. BOWERS, General Manager.

J. R. WOOD, Gen. Pass. Agent.

Carpenters and Builders.

UTZINGER & KLINE.

CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS.

Jobbing promptly attended to.

V. Utzinger, 75 Grandview ave. L. C. Kline, 54 Jackson ave.

JOHN F. EMMONS

—Mason and Builder.—

Washington avenue and Prospect place

NORTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Jobbing promptly attended to 11 16 tf

THEODORE GRAY,

MASON AND CONTRACTOR.

Estimates given, repairing promptly attended to. Residence 117 Eldredge ave. 3 26 1

PEARSON & GAYLE,

Carpenters and Builders.

RESIDENCE—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine St.

E. B. Gayle, No. 13 Vine St.

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO. 7-21-tf

GEO. W. STUDER,

CARPENTER AND BUILDER,

985 ARLINGTON AVENUE.

Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given; charges reasonable. 5 3 6m

McCullough's Steam Mill,

21 Steiner Place, North Plainfield.

H. H. McCullough, Proprietor.

Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing Turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully Furnished. 6-13-tf

C. W. LINES & CO.,

Mason and Builders.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Residence, 16 Elm Place.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Jobbing promptly attended to 12 16

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

(Anthracite coal used exclusively insuring cleanliness and comfort.)

Station in New York, foot of Liberty street.

Time Table in effect, Nov. 18, 1894.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield, 2 04, 3 37, 5 38, 6 05, 6 29, *6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 7 56, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 51, 9 48, 9 52, 10 04, 10 27, 11 19, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 7 03, 8 30, 9 22, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday, 2 15, 3 37, 6 05, 8 02, 8 52, 10 08, 11 19, 11 28 a. m.; 12 32, 1 45, 3 30, 5 15, 5 30, 7 11, 8 23, 9 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty Street at 4 30 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a. m.; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, (except Saturdays) 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p. m., 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 8 30, 9 15 a. m.; 12 00 m.; 1 00, 2 15, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p. m.; 12 15 night 1 00 a. m.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 8 48, 9 52, 10 04, 10 27, a. m.; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 6 56, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 28, a. m.; 12 32, 1 45, 3 30, 5 06, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 15, 7 55, 8 20, 9 03, 10 05, 11 25 a. m.; 1 15, 1 55, 2 20 (Saturdays only) 2 50, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 30, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday 7 30, 8 45, 9 35, 11 25, a. m.; 1 10, 2 25, 4 10, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 7 10, 8 18, 9 54, 11 00 a.m. 12 46, 2 08, 2 22, 3 45, 4 34, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 24, 11 29 p. m.; 12 08 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 34, a. m.; 2 08, 3 28, 5 14, 6 38, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 35, 7 45, 8 20, 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m.; 12 50, 1 45, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 5 20, 6 25, 8 07, 8 55, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 55 a. m.; 12 08, 1 20, 5 05, 6 45, 8 05, 9 40 p.m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 18, 9 54, a. m.; 12 46, 2 08, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 6 38 a. m.; 2 08, 6 35, p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53 a. m.; 12 22, 4 00, 7 00 p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 53 a. m.; 6 40, 7 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

5 45 A. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk Williamsport and Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m. for stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 18 A. M. for Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 A. M. for Flemington, High Bridge branch D L & W R R, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Hazleton, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m. way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 08 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury and Williamsport, Wilkes-Barre and Scranton. Buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge branch

6 14 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, Mauch Chunk Shamokin and Tamaqua. Buffet parlor car to Scranton.

6 19 P. M. for Flemington.

6 38 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading and Harrisburg.

8 21 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

5 45 A. M. Sunday for Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton. 8 20 a.m. Sundays for Easton, 2 08 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading and Harrisburg, 6 38 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c. and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

For Atlantic City, 8 50 a. m. 1 12 p. m.

Long Branch, Ocean Grove, &c

Leave Plainfield 8 27, 8, 10 27, a. m 1 12, 3 51, 5 54, p. m. Sundays—except Ocean Grove 8 52, a. m., 5 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 8 27, 8 52, 8 10 27 a. m., 1 12, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 7 03 p.m. Sunday—8 52, a. m., 5 30 p. m.

For Freehold, 8 27, 8, 10 27 a.m. 1 12 5, 4 50, m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 45, 8 44 9 56, 10 45, a. m., 2 08*, 5 14* 6 38 8 21, 9 27* p. m., 1 12, night. Sundays—5 45, 9 56, a. m., 2 08*, 5 14* 6 38 p. m., 1 12, night.

For Trenton 5 45, 8 44, 9 40*, 10 45, a. m., 12 46, 2 08*, 5 14*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 27* p.m., 1 12 night. Sunday—5 45, 9 56, a. m., 2 08*, 5 14* 6 38 p. m., 1 12 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 9 56, a. m., 2 08, 5 14* 6 38 p. m., 1 12 night. Sundays—9 56 a. m., 2 08, 5 14* 6 38 p.m. 1 12, night.

For Chattanooga, New Orleans and all points south with through vestibule sleeper, via Shenandoah Valley Route at 5 14 p m. Sundays 5 14 p m.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points west, week days at 9 54 a m., 8 21 p. m. Sundays 6 38 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rate may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

A. H. OLHAUSEN, General Sup't.

H. P. BALDWIN, Gen. Pass. Agt.

The Finderne,

FINDERNE, Somerset Co., N. J.

Open all the year as a resort of the highest order. Driving and sleighing parties will receive every attention.

HIGH-CLASS SUNDAY DINNERS.

(Table d' Hote from 1 to 3:30.) Steam heat; inclosed piazzas; everything immaculate. When out driving let us entertain you.

A. E. WHITE, Manager, Finderne, N. J.

1 9 tf

CODDINGTON'S

FURNITURE AND FREIGHT

EXPRESS.

OFFICES—24 West Front street; 16 Park avenue Post Office Box 320.

PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY. Large covered trucks. Goods sent to any part of the country. Charges reasonable. Satisfaction guaranteed 11 9

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a prompt answer and an honest opinion, write to MUNN & CO., who have had nearly fifty years' experience in the patent business. Communications strictly confidential. A Handbook of Information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and scientific books sent free.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the Scientific American, and thus are brought widely before the public without cost to the inventor. This splendid paper, issued weekly, elegantly illustrated, has by far the largest circulation of any scientific work in the world. $3 a year. Sample copies sent free.

Building Edition, monthly, $2.50 a year. Single copies, 25 cents. Every number contains beautiful plates, in colors, and photographs of new houses, with plans, enabling builders to show the latest designs and secure contracts. Address MUNN & CO., NEW YORK, 361 BROADWAY.

FISCHER PIANOS.

ESTABLISHED 1840.

Nearly 100,000 Now in Use

RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARD, WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO

EASY TERMS.—EXCHANGED.

Catalogue mailed on application.

110 FIFTH AVE., cor. 16th St., N.Y.

REMOVAL.

I have removed my watchmaking and jewelry business from Park ave. to

142 North Avenue

Next to Walker's bakery, and shall be pleased to have my friends call.

CALEB DICKINSON

Real Estate Insurance

VAN BUREN & TIMPSON,

263 North ave. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

L. PAGLI & CO.,

Confectionery, Temperance Drinks, Soda Water, Ice

128 NORTH AVENUE,

FRESH ROASTED PEANUTS EVERY DAY.

10 CENTS A QUART.

I take this method of informing my friends and the public in general that I am again in business at the old stand. I solicit your patronage. Store will close at sundown on Friday and open at sundown on Saturday.

Amos H. VanHorn, Limited,

73 Market Street, Near Plane Street.

Note the Name Amos Before Entering the Store

COME EVERY DAY.

Whenever you come you find fresh features in Furniture and Household Wares to greet you. Just now nothing seems impossible in the line of economy in this store. Whatever you want maybe you can fill it here at a third—often half—the price you'll pay elsewhere. For instance:

PARLOR SUITS.

$20—Whoever thought to see such a splendid suit as this for such a little price? You'll wonder how the material can be bought for so small a figure and not count the making. Not many, only enough to keep the sale going this week, so you'd best be quick. Mahogany finished frame, five pieces.

MATTINGS.

15c. the yard and made in Japan. You know what that means. Quaint patterns, woven carelessly on a bright colored background. Some of the very prettiest patterns of the season. Brand new styles and the kinds that will win your approval.

DINING CHAIRS.

Fragile and delicate, stout and sturdy, and every one of them serviceable as can be. You needn't spend much time; close your eyes and choose, you can't go wrong. They are the most cheerful looking chair you ever saw, and the prices $1.25 to $3.00, with twenty-five cent go-betweens.

CARPETS.

High priced or low priced, the lining and the making and the laying free. That's what brings business to our carpet room. And you pay less here for the carpet than you're likely to pay elsewhere. Scores of fresh rolls added weekly, among them new patterns in the 65c. Tapestry Brussels and Super. Ingrains.

An Unequaled Offering. Buy a bedroom suit here. You'll save the cost of spring and mattress. We give a strongly woven wire spring and mixed mattress with each bedroom set sold. A bouncing big offer, but it's away we have for making new acquaintances. Goods delivered free of charge to all parts of the State.

The Portland Range. You who have never heard about it, come to the store; you who have one, aren't you tickled?

The Storage House is making friends daily; such a well-lighted, well-ventilated place as it is, explains why. Satisfactory terms and satisfactory people to deal with. A 'phone call or postal will bring our vans to you door.

"Hello" Number 580

REAL ESTATE.

F. M. Bacon or Wallace Vail,

Babcock Building, Room 211.

Come and see us. We always keep a good line of houses to rent and for sale. Elegant flats, steam heated, city water and electric lights. Private houses with all modern improvements. Vacant lots, farms, speculative property bought, sold and exchanged.

A gem, all improvements, $25 per month, 4 or 5 minutes from station. Farm 6 acres, house, barn, good land, 2 miles from Plainfield, $1,300—a very cheap home; easy payments. House 7 rooms, 5 minutes from station, $2,100. Store and 3 rooms $12 a month Farm 53 acres, 1.000 peach, apple and pear trees, near Flemington, $2,500.

Are You Interested

about the care of your teeth? If so, nothing like a personal trial will convince you that

Leggett's Tooth Wash

is an agreeable, refreshing and delightful dentrifice.

Sprinkler Top Bottles 25c.

Metropolitan Livery and Boarding Stables

Horses boarded by the day, week or month. Especial accommodations for transient trade

OFFICE AND STABLES,

147, 149, 151 North Avenue. Opp. Railroad Depot.

A. C. BLAIR.....Proprietor. FRANK DAY.....Manager

Telephone 152, connected with all circuits of New Jersey, New York and Brooklyn.

1 14 tf

PUTNAM & DeGRAW.

Is there anything below that will interest you?

Gents Neglige shirts	75c. $1 00	Ladies hose seamless fast color black and tan	10c
Gents and Boys sweaters	25c 40c 50c	Ladies black skirts	$1.00 $1 25 $1 99
Gents long bicycle hose	25c	Ladies shirt waists	29c, 39c, 49c, 55c
Gents medium weight underwear	39c 50c	Children's Hose, fast black, seamless	10c
Gents half hose	10c 3 pair for 25c	" " double knee, "	18c
Gents half hose	15c 2 pair for 25c	Children's Bicycle Hose, extra heavy	25c

☞ Remember, that we give away money. Don't fail to ask for a money order when you purchase $1 worth.

LYNDHURST, KEATING, EAGLE, AND APOLLO BICYCLES

Charles C. Lister, 134 North Ave

Repairing, Renting and Storing

WE ARE READY

With large and beautiful line of Spring and Summer styles. Hats and Gents furnishings, men's and boys' Derby or Alpine hats, black, brown and tan, $1 00 to $3 00. Fancy neglige shirts, collars attached or detached 35c to $2 00. 1000 scarfs four-in-hand and made up from 10c to 75c, all new fresh goods. Special colored laundried shirts, 2 collars only, 35c worth 75c. No trouble to show our goods. Money refunded if you want it.

U. B. Crane, Hatter and Furnisher,

120 West Front street.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN

THE ACKNOWLEDGED HEAD OF THE AMERICAN WORLD OF FINANCE.

He Finds It Easy and Profitable to Float Uncle Sam's Bonds—Born of Rich but Honest Parents, He Began Early to Make a Place for Himself.

The noteworthy success of the floating of Mr. Cleveland's latest bond issue has renewed public interest in the man to whom the greater part of it if not all of the credit is due. This interest is not confined to this country, for the lending of his name to the plan made English investors indulge in a perfect scramble to get a share of the bonds.

J. Pierpont Morgan is a signature that means a great deal, whether at the bottom of a check, on a reorganization plan, on a letter of credit, on a club list, a social invitation or a reform politics circular. J. Pierpont Morgan is a man who means what he says, and therein lies the secret of his rise to the position of foremost financier of this country of finance.

His wealth is to-day, at a conservative estimate, $40,000,000. Just what it is is one of those things no fellow can find out, for there never lived a man who talked less about himself than does Mr. Morgn.

He gives away more in charity than any man in the United States, but his right hand is an utter stranger to his left, and an invariable accompaniment of his good gifts is the proviso that his name must be kept hidden, on the penalty of no further subscriptions.

J. PIERPONT MORGAN.

He is a man of commanding physique, and his hair and mustache are grey. His face is ruddy with exercise and good living, and he should by all these signs be an extremely good natured personage. He affects, however, a brusqueness and reserve that hides all this when he is downtown, and he can freeze a bore more quickly and effectually than any other man in town.

Mr. Morgan comes by his ability as a banker naturally. His father was Junius S. Morgan, of Hartford, Conn., a prominent banker in the fifties and the founder of the London banking house of J. S. Morgan & Co. John Pierpont Morgan was born in Hartford, April 17, 1837, was graduated at Yale, and after a postgraduate course of three years at the University of Gottingen, Germany, went as clerk in the office of Duncan, Sherman & Co., of this city. He soon grasped the details of business life, and was only 22 years old when his father bought him a partnership in the firm of Dabney, Morgan & Co.

This was all plain sailing, but Mr. Morgan showed when he was not quite 32 years old that he was able to make a name for himself apart from banking. He began a fight with that hitherto invincible pair, Gould and Fisk, for the possession of the Albany and Susquehanna Road. Jay Gould wanted it as a part of the system he was organizing, and the directors retained Mr. Morgan to fight him off. Gould secured a big block of the stock, and had Fisk appointed receiver to do his biding.

Mr. Morgan secured the appointment of another receiver, and by a series of injunctions overturned the other faction, and finally, although military coercion was necessary, secured possession of the road.

Twenty-five suits followed this struggle, a majority of which were won by Mr. Morgan. These heavy expenses put the little road in a bad way, but Mr. Morgan took personal charge of it, put it in better condition than before, and made it finally a prosperous portion of the Delaware and Hudson system.

At the completion of this work the firm of Dabney, Morgan & Co. was dissolved and Mr. Morgan opened a New York branch of the Drexels of Philadelphia, under the firm name of Drexel, Morgan & Co. Connections were formed with J. S. Morgan & Co., of London, and Drexel, Harjes & Co., of Paris, and the combinaion made one of the big financial houses of the world.

What Pat Would Do With $10,000.

One day near the close of the war we sat around the camp fire thinking and talking. Our Yankee had begun to tell what he would do at the close of the war if he had $10,000. He would invest it so and so.

We all had a hack at that $10,000, investing it this way, until finally an Irishman was asked.

"Faith," said he, "if I had $10,000 I know what I'd do. I'd go out to Iowa (he was an Iowa soldier) and I'd buy me a nice little place and take Biddy out there, and we'd settle down, and I'd hire a fifer and drummer and every morning at 4 o'clock I'd have him come round to my house and beat the reveille, and he'd have to do it if I hired him. And when I heard the reveille I'd go to the windy and I'd say: 'To the divil wid yez and yer old revellay. I'm going back to bed,' and, bedad, that's what I would do."

FEMININE FRILLS.

Skirts Are So Full Now They Suggest the Crinoline.

The new skirt is decidedly tending to crinoline proportions. Thick cords, feather bone and various other devices are resorted to so as to make it stand out. The organ folds have invaded the sides, and finally attacked the front breadth, where it waves in wide and not ungraceful undulations. One and all swing from the hips—when there are hips to swing from, in the absence of which fair readers must pad their corsets. Some people may think this is wicked, but it is far better than to offend the eyes of your artistic fellow creatures and make yourself a blot on the face of humanity!

"I have no figure," you bluntly declare.

"Madame," smiles the dressmaker, "we shall make you one."

An attractive design for a gown in frieze or cloth is shown in the illustration. Another shows a tea gown made of pale salmon brocade, the net front worked with pearls and bordered with pearl embroidery. The bows are of green velvet, matching the green tone that is in the brocade. The soft sleeves hang in particularly graceful folds, and end at the elbow with a deep frill. A stylish costume, with some novel effects in its arrangement, is shown.

The cloth is of firm texture and the color is what is known as narcissus green. The bodice is braided all over in a ribbon design formed of a fine mohair braid of a walnut tint. This has a dentated outline of fine cord entwined with threads of iridescent metal. The full pouch front, folded collar and under basque are arranged in a soft shade of yellow satin, the centre plaid rosettes and buttons being of walnut velvet. The skirt has a spiral design of braiding on either side of the front, hanging down from the waist. The capote is of narcissus cloth. The square front has bows of walnut velvet. The wings are of white.

Getting Up in the World

There is no disgrace in getting up in the world, provided one gets up honestly, and sometimes provided he gets up the other way. The self-made man is at sixty the proud man. He looks back and gloats over the past. Ex-Mayor Gilroy was Harry Genet's valet; Abram S. Hewitt was a plodding tutor till he married Edward Cooper's sister; Collis P. Huntington clerked in a general store in San Francisco for his board and clothes; Robert Bonner was a typesetter; Hammerstein sold cheap cigars and invented a cigar roller, which he sold for $500,000; Cleveland was a pinochle fiend; Croker was a prize fighter; Steve Brodie was a bootblack; Corbett was a bank clerk; John Kelly was a bartender; Edison was a newsboy.

A Cynical Creature.

Mr.—What month is it in which it is unlucky to be married?

Mrs.—Great Scott! what a poor memory you have my dear. We were married in June.

A Title With a Meaning.

Charley Cumso—Why are girls called misses?

Freddy Fangle—Did you ever see 'em try to hit anything?—Judge.

BRIAR PIPE GIVEN AWAY

WITH EVERY ONE POUND bale OF

DUKES MIXTURE for 35 cents

Every pipe stamped DUKES MIXTURE or ATC

2 oz PACKAGE 5¢

H. DeMOTT,

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER,

50 Somerset Street, Plainfield, N. J.

IT'S A FACT

that we sell Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Shirts, Underwear, Ties, etc., cheaper than any house in town. Buying from merchants who are pressed for cash, we buy our goods at our own price and sell them cheap.

Everything sold is fully recommended or money refunded. Boys' School Suits from $1 25; Boys' Long Pants Suits $2 up; Men's Serviceable Suits $3.50 to $6; Men's Suits for dress wear $5 50 and upwards; Derbys, equal to any $3 hat, at $1 50.

It is to your benefit to examine our goods before buying elsewhere.

Plainfield Bargain House.

J. Goldstein, 126 Park ave.

PIANO BARGAINS.

Vanderbeek & Sattels

desire to say that they have just received a fine lot of

New Pianos

of different makes which they will sell at prices never before offered. Among them are those wonderful

Behr Brothers Pianos

Also Behning & Sons.

They represent also the Knabe, Hazelton, Chickering and many others.

They offer an excellent

Steinway Grand, $350.

A great bargain. Call soon at

221 PARK AVENUE.

THE CZAR,

The Handsomest Wheel Ever Produced.

HIGHEST GRADE MADE.

E. FRANK VAIL, Agent,

177 North avenue.

FISH FOR BREAKFAST.

Is Your Cook Up at 5?

That's the hour of our morning delivery. Finest, Freshest Seafood.

ROGERS, 232 West 2d street.

EDWARD C. MULFORD,

(Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.)

Real Estate Broker and Fire Insurance,

Office 119 North ave., (opp. Railroad station.) Money to loan. 19 tf

A Spring Gown

is a subject for thought. Haven't you some of last season's dresses that can be made useful? They may need cleaning, or perhaps dyeing—either we do perfectly, and it costs only two dollars or two dollars and a half.

Hillier & Co.

175 North ave.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 Watchung Ave.

DEALERS IN

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement

For walls and ceilings.

THE RELIEF OF GOTHAM

PARK BENJAMIN

Copyright, 1895, by Bacheller, Johnson & Bacheller.

II.

The weather was warm and sultry. Little air was stirring in the streets, but aloft there were light currents constantly varying in direction. The balloon was now to the south and west of its anchorage. The sea breeze, certain to spring up in the afternoon, would waft it probably in the opposite direction. If the wind were strong, the captive globe would tauten its wire and move around a large area; if light airs prevailed, the wire would become more nearly vertical. The safest place was obviously the house in which the wire was secured, because only in the far remote possibility of absolute calm could the balloon remain directly above the fastening point of its cable. The wire might be a couple of thousand feet long. No one just then felt like calculating how large an area of the city was menaced. That it was a large one, that it included both a densely populated section and rows of the most palatial residences in New York, was only too plain.

THE OBJECT OF THEIR ATTENTION WAS A BALLOON.

The authorities at once put the Superintendent's order into effect. The balloon being now directly over the Union League Clubhouse, squads of police invaded every residence for blocks around the menaced edifice, and forced the dwellers, not only into the streets, but out of all streets which might possibly be endangered by falling walls. The sick were carried out on their beds. All available vehicles were pressed into service to transport the children, the women and the aged. Before half of the section supposed to be immediately menaced was thus cleared, the wind shifted, and the balloon swung over the Windsor Hotel. While the police were emptying this hostelry the people previously ejected returned to their dwellings.

The news had been telegraphed downtown, and the desertion of the whole business quarter of the city followed. There was a simultaneous rush for the region of the residences—a rush of men frantic with fear and apprehension for their imperiled families. Great throngs choked the streets and avenues. The populace saw the uselessness of trying to avoid a danger which constantly shifted its probable point of attack. The opposition became violent, riotous—and finally, the police, literally overwhelmed by numbers, ceased their efforts. The hotels and boarding houses remained empty; the occupants of dwelling houses returned, and began less hurried preparations for removal from the menaced district.

The arrested lodgers had meanwhile been closely interrogated by the Superintendent, but none of them could shed the smallest light on the mystery of how or by whom that balloon had been sent aloft. The landlady told of her former inventive boarder, and thus accounted for the existence of the balloon and the safe. The fate of their owner the police already knew. Since his death, the room had been let to one Smith, who had departed several days ago, and since then it had been occupied by one Julius R. Crawford.

"Then the question is," said the Superintendent, "where is Julius R. Crawford?"

There was a slight commotion outside the room, and the young man called Julius, somewhat out of breath, made his way through the crowd of policemen and reporters.

"That is my name," he said quietly. "I heard of this inquiry and returned here as quickly as possible. I had some difficulty in getting in."

The murmur of surprise which ran around the apartment was hushed by the sharp order of the Superintendent that the room be cleared.

"You are under arrest," he said to Julius, when they were alone, saving the official stenographer.

"I suppose so."

"You are not obliged to answer questions which incriminate yourself, but anything you say may be used against you."

"The usual formula?"

"Ah, you have heard it before?"

"We'll see. You occupy this room?"

"Yes."

"Any one else room with you?"

"No."

"Any business?"

"Not now."

"The landlady says that that balloon and that safe have been here some time."

"Does she?"

The superintendent looked at the man sternly. Julius returned his gaze with entire calmness.

"You're not disposed to be communicative, I see," said the officer, finally. "Unlike the others."

"What others?"

"Oh, come now. This game is up. Your friends have told everything, and"—

Julius laughed contemptuously.

"I have nothing to conceal, no one has told anything, nor has any one anything to tell," he said, finally. "I did not send up the balloon."

"Who did?"

"I saw no one do it."

"It certainly was sent up from this house; it is anchored in this room."

"Quite so—during the night of Aug. 21, I understand."

"Where were you at the time?"

"Coney Island."

"Was that balloon here when you left?"

"Certainly. He was sewing up the holes in it."

"Who?"

"I decline to say."

"Did he tell you what he was going to do with the balloon?"

"No."

"Did you ask?"

"No—purposely."

"Why?"

"I thought I should be questioned by the police and didn't want to know."

"When did you return to the room?"

"Just now."

"That is rather a poor story, my man."

Julius shrugged his shoulders.

"I suppose," continued the superintendent "that you know nothing about that notice tacked up there."

Julius read it over quietly and smiled.

"You'll find that there isn't much to laugh about before you get through. This is a matter of murder."

"Why?" demanded Julius.

"Why! Do you suppose that a lot of dynamite can be dropped into this crowded city without terrible destruction of life?" returned the superintendent.

"No: but what is going to drop the dynamite?"

"Can't you read that notice?"

"Certainly; where does it say so?"

"It intimates as much."

"Not to my mind."

"Do you mean to say that that balloon carries an explosive or not?"

"I thought you just said that it did."

"Never mind what I said—does it?"

"I don't know."

"That will do," said the superintendent, stepping to the door. "We shall find other means of dealing with you."

The officer who entered snapped a pair of handcuffs on Julius' wrists.

"One moment," said Julius; "what am I arrested for?"

"As an accessory to sending up that balloon laden with a dangerous explosive."

"Which you do not know is there."

"Take him"——

"One moment, Mr. Superintendent." There was a ring in the man's voice which made the officer relax his hold on his arm. "You have omitted to ask one question—and the most important of all. You believe that a great peril threatens. In dealing with it, you merely follow your instinct as a detective to find the perpetrator. There is a more pressing need than that. Will finding him avert the danger—if not, how is it to be met?"

"I WILL DO SO FOR ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS."

The superintendent saw the force of the remark, and motioned the policeman to wait.

"Can you prevent it?" he demanded.

"Yes."

"Nevertheless you didn't send up the balloon, and don't know anything about it."

"Then why arrest me?"

"Very well. Prevent it, and you go free."

Julius turned away contemptuously. Then he said:

"Do you really suppose that that balloon, charged, as you say, with a deadly torpedo, was sent up simply that I might tell you how to avoid its effects in order to get clear of arrest for not having anything to do with it?"

"What do you mean?"

"Simply this. I can prevent this, and so save, as you believe, immense destruction of life and property. I will do so for $100,000."

"A blackmailing scheme, then?"

"How so?"

"To send up this balloon and threaten to murder with it, unless you are paid not to do so."

"I did not send up the balloon. Even the apprehension of its danger is not yours—not mine."

"Your game won't work."

"Very well; lock me up. But remember you are arresting me as the perpetrator of this supposed outrage—me, the very person, on your own showing, best able to apply the remedy—who is not only able, but willing. Have you read that notice? The hours are flying, and it will soon be too late. And then whose is the responsibility for the dreadful result—yours or mine? Blackmail? Is it blackmail for the physicians who fight the epidemic to claim their pay? Does the sum I ask equal in value the good I may do? When the time comes for public execration, Mr. Superintendent, the people will judge between the man who offers himself as their savior, and you, their servant, who condemned them to this calamity rather than give the just reward for their protection."

And here the conversation ended. Julius was locked up in the nearest police station. Shortly afterward the Mayor, having arrived on the scene, entered into earnest consultation with the Superintendent. The result was the posting of hand-bills all over the city, and the publication in all the newspapers of a call for suggestions of ways and means to prevent the balloon dropping its load. For any successful plan a reward of $5,000 was offered.

And meanwhile, as Julius had predicted, the great strike was forgotten.

(To be continued.)

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it," Get a free trial at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

'TIS YET SPRING.

May, the Last of the Three Great Months.

THE CLOSE OF NATURE'S YEARLY REVIVAL SEASON.

Recovery is Now the Most Rapid and Lasting.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND MAKES VIGOROUS NERVES.

It Purifies the Blood as Nothing Else Can Possibly Do.

As a spring remedy Paine's celery compound stands easily first in the careful judgment of the physicians of this country.

The remarkable discovery of Prof. Edward E Phelps. M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth college, is in fact so certainly first in the estimation of thinking men and women in every calling throughout the United States today that there can fairly be said to be no second.

For strengthening the sick, restoring the spent energies of those who have become nervously exhausted, for purifying the blood and making people well, Paine's celery compound has never yet been approached by any sarsaparilla, tonic or nervine. It is as superior to them all as strength is superior to weakness. The remarkable results from the use of this great remedy are today known at first hand in every city and village in America.

The people are today thoroughly satisfied by personal experience that Paine's celery compound makes people well.

Where the nerves have not been properly fed and neuralgia, nervousness, inability to sleep, rheumatism and such evidences of debility have entered Paine's celery compound has created a new appetite, restored lost strength, and given courage, new blood, and a strong healthy will to live and get well. Try it.

A Business View of It.

"There is one satisfaction," said the fin-de-siecle girl, "in being the recipient of attentions from a titled foreigner."

"What is that?"

"You know that when he proposes he means business."—Washington Post.

A Spring Romance.

The happy youth and maiden fair
Rode out the summer through,
For charming runs the country o'er
On a cycle built for two.

They married when the autumn came,
And now they try to run
A little house in Lonesomehurst
On an income built for one.
—Brooklyn Life.

Poverty Indeed.

Jimmy—Timmy Grogan is talkin' of gittin' him a bysickle.

Mickey—Him? He ain't got de price fer de wind wot goes in de tires.—Indianapolis Journal.

PERFECT-FITTING SPRING SUITS.

Watson & Co. Show Exact Copies of Every New Custom Style, All Ready to Put On.

Look at the elegant suits for dress now shown in all their Broad and Market Street windows at $15 and $15 50, the hundreds of new patterns in dark, light and medium shades marked $10 and $12, or the superfine novelties at $18, $20 and $25, not to be found elsewhere, at which prices you can have them made to order if you desire, in just as handsome style as they show them all ready to put on.—Newark Item.

—A business meeting will be held by the Christian Endeavor society of the First Baptist Church tomorrow evening.

"There is Danger in Delay."

Since 1861 I have been a great sufferer from catarrh. I tried Ely's Cream Balm and to all appearances am cured. Terrible headaches from which I long suffered are gone.—W. J. Hitchcock, late Major U. S. Vol., and A. A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ely Cream Balm has completely cured me of catarrh when everything else failed. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Alfred W. Stevens, Caldwell, Ohio.

Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

He Was a Terror.

Bulkets—Don't you think your sister will be awfully sorry to marry and leave a nice little boy like you?

The Pet—Gosh! yes. She said she'd 'a' got married a dozen times over if it hadn't been for me.—Smith, Gray & Co's Monthly.

DIRECTIONS for using CREAM BALM.

Apply a particle of the Balm well up into the nostrils. After a moment draw a strong breath through the nose. Use three times a day, after meals preferred, and before retiring.

ELY'S CREAM BALM opens and cleanses the nasal passages, allays pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from colds, restores the senses of taste and smell. The Balm is quickly absorbed and gives relief at once. Price 50c at drug gists or by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

CATARRH

COLD IN HEAD

BAMBERGER'S

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE

147 and 149 Market Street,
NEWARK, N. J.

BOYS' CLOTHING.

That boy of yours needs clothing that will stand the romping and jumping and running around that boys always do. It's here made in the right way—wear-resisting, perfect fitting and sewed strong.

Four Special lots for this week!

Boys' Knee Pants

Cheviots, worsteds and cassimere's well made with strong waist bands, sizes 3 to 15, usually 89 to 98c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Blouses

Extra quality, white lawn, trimmed with colored insertion, sizes 2 to 8, usually 79c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits

All-wool, fancy trimmed, pants embroidered with bows and buckle, sizes 3 to 7, regular $2 69, at $1.73.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits

Finished in best manner, sizes 4 to 15, with long cut coats, and pants with taped seams, regular $2 89, at $1.98.

L. BAMBERGER & CO.,
147 and 149 Market st., Newark.
Free delivery everywhere. Prompt attention given to mail orders.

That represents the best that is made. If you want style, wear and comfort, wear the Hanan shoe, all shapes in Russia calf and patent leather.

ALEX. WILLETT & SON,
SHOES MADE TO ORDER. 107 PARK AVENUE.

Cleveland Bicycles,

The Great Leaders of 1895.

Design, Improvements, Workmanship, Quality, Speed, Health, Pleasure, Business, Road, Track.

The Fastest, Strongest, Handsomest and Most Rigid Wheel.

The "Swell Specials" are a decided advance in bicycle construction and when quality alone is considered will always sell.

Liberty, Crescent, Waverly, Majestic

We thoroughly believe in the merits of the above wheels, and unhesitatingly recommend them.

F. L. C. Martin Cycle Co.,

333 Park Avenue.

Repairs. Established 1889. Rentals.

Trouserings!

500 choice patterns which we are making to order for $5.00.

Sebring's

Park Avenue, Packer's Block.
12-6-1

Progressive Plainfield's

Progressive Store.

BOYS' SHIRT WAISTS.

Fancy calico plaited front, 6 to 10 years, 19c each.

Striped outing, plaited front, 6 to 10 years, 22c each.

Fancy Cambric, plaited front and back, 6 to 10 years, 25c each.

Fancy duck with pocket, 6 to 10 years, 28c each.

Fancy duck, plaited front and back 6 to 10 years, 35c each.

Fauntelroy sailor collar ruffle front and back, fancy cheviot, 48c each.

French percale, plaited front and back, 6 to 10 years, 50c each.

Van Emburgh & Son!

E. E. MARSHALL & CO.

167 NORTH AVENUE.

WALL PAPERS, PAINTING,

And Interior Decorating.

Designs submitted for frescoing.

Promises!

are easy made and easy broken, we promised you big bargains in dress goods this week we intend keeping our word 75 pieces of dress goods from the receiver's sale of Jaffray & Co. at a sacrifice 25 pieces all wool cashmere 38 inch 25c worth 50. 10 pieces fancy mixed worsteds 36 inch 25c worth 40. 15 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 50c worth 75. 8 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 65 worth 90. 5 pieces silk and wool covert cloths 54 inch 95 worth $1 25 5 pieces all-wool serges light shades 65 worth $1 00 complete the dress; we have just what you need. Double faced silesia 10c plain silesias 9c, the best skirt cambrics 5c, fibre chamois different shades 35c. Hair cloth from 10c to 60.

Linings

Corsets

For one week we sell the W. B. corset 5 hook for 68c.

Duck Suits

A duck suit made up in the latest style only 99c; surprising, isn't it?

CAMBRICS

Fast color cambrics 7-8 wide 6c a yard.

A CUT

on every article in our housefurnishing goods department; our 87c hall lamp is sold elsewhere for $1 10.

Millinery.

We still lead in fashionable head wear.

BOEHM'S,

113 WEST FRONT STREET

Photo Material.

PLATES AND PAPER,

at

Reduced Prices.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front st.

Ladies' Shirt Waists; laundried waists, many sorts, perfectly made, nicely finished, from the 49c kind to the finest; an assortment that is sure to please the most exacting.

White dresses, splendidly made, handsomely embroidered, the best of material at $1 75; for children', 1 year to 6 years, white dresses as low as 29c.

The careful and economizing buyer can be suited in our carpet display. Everything that is newest in designs and colorings. 125 patterns of oilcloths from 25c sq yd. Mattings from 10 to 45c; window shades from 18c up. Curtain poles all complete, 19c up.

LEDERER'S

—THE—

Buying Population

in and around Plainfield are awake to the great values we are offering. We never have any trouble selling to those who have visited other stores before calling on us. We not only attract trade—we keep it. We invite comparison.

POINTERS.

Men's clay diagonal suits in Regent frock, at $10 50.

Men's all-wool suits in long sack, single or double breasted, $3 75, $7.50 and $9 50.

Running water is never stale. Our stock is like a river—always moving.

WERNER'S.

Plainfield, N. J.

THE DAILY PRESS

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., FRIDAY, MAY 3, 1895. TWO CENTS A COPY. $5 A YEAR.

Y. M. C. A. DIRECTORS.

They Meet and Look After the Association Affairs.

The monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. was held last night, with Vice-president Bonny in the chair in the absence of President Murray. Reports were received from the following committees: Religious Work, Educational Department, Rooms, Music, Treasurer and Salaried Officers.

The sympathy of the Board was extended to Nelson Runyon over his recent painful accident; he is a member of the Board and one of the charter members of the Association.

Thanks were extended to Miss Ellis for a picture presented to the Association, and to W. P. Humbert for four pictures. Mrs. James Clark was also thanked for the gift of an extension table.

The matter of grading the lot in the rear of the building was referred to the Athletic Committee, with the request that they report on the 16th inst.

The Rooms Committee reported that the Assembly Hall had been rented for three nights in May, and that the small hall been rented for a morning and afternoon.

Prizes for Nut Cracking.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace J. Martin entertained Grace Church choir at their beautiful home on Fairview avenue last evening. It was a delightful affair, thoroughly enjoyed.

An impromptu programme of music was rendered finely by the choir in charge of Mrs. Freeman; and instrumental music by Mrs. B. T. Barnes, and vocal selections by B. T. Barnes, helped make the evening one of real pleasure.

A very amusing and interesting game was played, called nut-cracking. The idea was to pick out the names of the different kinds of nuts, change the letters all about, and then assort them and write the name on the paper. 15 minutes was allowed in which to assort the list which was handed to each. Mrs. B. T. Barnes was particularly expert, and won first prize, a nut cracker. For second prize, Miss Daily, Arthur Freeman, Fred Pope and Thomas Smith were tied. It was then necessary for them to draw lots, which they did, and Mr. Smith was the lucky contestant.

An excellent collation was served at the conclusion of the game, after which the merry party left for their homes.

STORM DRIVEN.

A Story by "The Duchess":

Everyone knows what that means. It means as good a story as was ever penned of the good, old-fashioned sort, dealing with the elemental human needs and ways.

Even "The Duchess" never wrote a better story than "Storm Driven", whose publication will be begun by The Daily Press next Monday, May 6.

The scene is English, the characters are human and understandable, the heroine is a suffering and overwrought woman who is released from a marriage with an unscrupulous villain by a happy chance, just as she has succeeded in rescuing from him another innocent girl upon whom he has designs. It is a tale thrilling in its incident and happy in its termination, as all stories should be.

A Dinner Will Settle the Joke.

Arlington avenue was greatly disturbed a few evenings ago by a well-known householder discovering that during the absence of the family a number of changes had been made of the household furniture. After scouring the neighborhood for assistance four or five gentlemen heavily armed appeared on the scene and thoroughly searched the house. The "intruder" was not discovered until the next day, and the "joke" will be settled over a dinner party.

Increasing Interest in Reform Club.

The meeting in Reform Hall last night was attended by a large number of temperance advocates. After the routine business had been disposed of several speeches and recitations were given. Among those who made remarks were Newton Spencer, ex-president of the Reform Club, J. H. Sayers, Sylvester Scribner, W. C. Smith and Mr. Markley. Robert Mattox and Miss Bertha Clum gave recitations.

Sewer Work Being Pushed.

M. Honan & Sons received another carload of eight-inch sewer pipe this morning. A second gang of men was put at work on West Fourth street, commencing at Plainfield avenue, this morning. Among the trench diggers brought by the contractors from out of town were 50 colored men, who, it is said, make splendid workers.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

THE VILLAGE CHOIR.

Good Music Given by Plainfielders in a Frolicsome Way.

The village choir of ye olden tyme, singing in Y. M. C. A. Hall last night, was a success in providing a delightful entertainment for the large audience that assembled to hear and see. The costumes were strikingly ancient in the styles, and the manners and customs in vogue a half-century ago among the country folk were assumed with no little dramatic genius by the amateur performers.

The entertainment was arranged with just enough dramatic skill to make it run smoothly and yet relieve it from any real acting, thou the impersonations would in many cases have done credit to professional thespians.

The scene was represented to be a choir rehearsal of the village church, wherein, as is true in the small and remotely situated hamlets, the talent of the town is to be found. After the members had arrived at the place of rehearsal the choir leader, who was portrayed by Miss Marjorie Bassett, made her appearance, accompanied by Jedediah acted by the Bassett village swain, both attired in the most rural of garments. The leader comes ostensibly to instruct the choir how to sing for a coming service, but Jedediah being there and demanding her attention by his innocent but obtrusive ways the rehearsal is given over to the rendition of a programme, which is brought about by the natural and unconscious action of the participants, who were the following:

Edith Beekman, Bessie Baldwin, Reginald Chandor, E Pruden, Giles Chandor, Florence Hill, L Hunt, William Rhepburn, Miss E Howard, A Irwin, Mrs A King, E King, M Ladd, G Langdon, G Long, M Long, C Mulford, B Martin, C Martin, H Martin, Miss Mattison, B Miner, A Mumford, C Morse, E Noe, C Newell, C Nevins, L Person, J Pruden, E Radford, N Scott, E Smith, Miss Smith, Mrs Smalley, Mrs Shotwell, S Titsworth, M Woodcock, W Whiting, E VanDeventer, Mrs Brochoff, E Benton, M Batchelor, Miss Bond, George Coard, Harold Chandor, Alice Chandor, Edith Clark, Miss Case, Miss Cumming, Helen Cumming, Eva DeMitt, M Dunham, Delia Grant, Dora Grant, Miss Jomini, Eva Lewis, Miss Lewis, C Long, Ed Long, William Morgan, Miss Morse, Mrs Thomas Minford, Thomas Minford, J N Rittenhouse, William Remsen, Miss Grace Remsen, M Randolph, E Runyon, A Runyon, J F Rose, N Sampson, Edna Smith, M Smalley, Mrs W M Sampson, Clyde Slater, Mrs C Stiner, Mrs John Shotwell, Miss Stella Shotwell, May Thompson, V VanWinkle, Lizzie VanWinkle, Fred Volke, Clara Woodward, Miss Wyckoff and Miss Whiting.

The opening song by the chorus was "Auld Lang Syne", which was rendered with a precision that was only brought about by persistent and thorough instruction of Mr. and Miss Bassett.

During this Jedediah had been making funny faces and acting as the village swain is supposed to act. The leader called on him to show what he could do and he responded with a ludicrous song concerning three little pigs, and for an encore recited "Mary Had a Little Lamb", which was done in an entertaining manner. These and the other songs and recitation which Mr. Bassett gave during the evening, stamp him as a man of very versatile accomplishments in making fun out of the character which he assumes.

Miss M. G. Morse sang a dainty solo entitled "The Minuet"; Miss Grant sang a solo with Misses Thompson, DeMitt, Whiting, Wyckoff, Case, Runyon and Mrs. Steiner as a chorus. After a duet by Mr. and Miss Bassett, Thomas Minford, a young lad with a voice of clear but penetrating volume, rendered "Jolly Old Roger". It was his debut, and a success. Mrs. J. J. Shotwell sang in a well trained voice "Annie Laurie".

A burlesque recitation on the man who is chronically sick was given by Mr. Bassett that kept his hearers in constant laughter, in which a number of local "hits" were made. This was the only portion where the programme diverged from the olden time period, but it was a happy variation which pleased the audience. "Grandmother's Birthday" was the title of a pretty selection rendered in an alto voice by Miss Stella Shotwell. A trio composed of Willie Remsen, Harold Smalley and Willie Hepworth, told a juvenile story in song, and the entertainment was brought to a close by all singing in a chorus "Jingle Bells".

While the same music will be repeated this evening the entire chorus will be composed of new voices. The hall should be crowded, not only for the purpose of benefiting the W.C.T.U., for whose benefit it is given, but because the entertainment is one of merit.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at Randolph's drug store.

IN OLD DUTCH STYLE.

Much Pleasure Afforded by the Holland Tea of the Trinity Church Endeavorers.

Those who visited the Sunday-school rooms of Trinity Reformed Church last night were greeted with a pleasing and amusing sight. Encircling the room and around the pillars was a liberal display of red, white and blue, giving a bright and cheerful appearance. At the door everyone was obliged to meet the genial collector, George Saums, who gracefully accepted the 25-cents admission fee. By the style of his dress, he being clad in clothes and wooden pumps such as worn by genuine Hollanders, one could guess what he was about to say as he politely informed all that they were attending a Dutch tea, and gave them a most hearty welcome. Will Crawford, his assistant, was dressed in like manner. The enormous size of their pumps caused much mirth.

In the tea room, to the right of the main room, a pleasant picture was presented. A table was quaintly set in old-fashioned Holland style, with china plates, cups and saucers and tea pot. A clever arrangement of candles and the original Holland flower in bouquets, gave additional beauty to the scene. A sugar bowl used on the table was 115 years old, and had been used for many years in Holland.

Presiding at the table was F. E. Smith, who poured tea with the grace and dignity of an old-time Hollander, and his waitresses, Mrs. Harry W. Marshall and Mrs. Will F. Williams, served all so well that much regret at leaving was expressed by each departing guest.

The waitresses wore frocks of blue and yellow, with caps and low corsage, and one unacquainted with their features would surely have thought them originals of the type they intended to represent.

Those enjoying the tea were served with ham and cheese sandwiches, delicious coffee and a choice of several kinds of cake; nothing elaborate, but all good, and everyone was well pleased with the excellence.

In opening, E. E. Anthony, whose good humor is proverbial, introduced the Messrs. Higham, who favored the audience with choice violin and piano music, which was well received. H. S. Thatcher also pleased those present with several recitations.

A fact worthy of note was, that the candle-stick standing on the table in the large room was brought from Holland in 1710 by the late Jacob Newell's grandfather.

The whole affair was eminently successful, and no one went away dissatisfied. The committee who arranged and planned the novel event consisted of H. W. Marshall, George Saums, Will Crawford, E. E. Anthony and F. E. Smith, assisted by Mrs. H. W. Marshall, and Mrs. Will F. Williams. These represented faithfully the Christian Endeavor society of the church, which planned and conducted the affair.

The proceeds will be used in paying the Christian Endeavor society's share of expense for the new hymn-books now in use.

The smallness of the attendance was regretable, and is attributed to the home cares of the housecleaning period and the number of other attractions of the evening.

HOME FROM THE HOLY LAND.

Plainfielders Greet Their Former Pastor and His Wife.

A charming informal reception was given by Mrs. P. M. French of Somerset street to Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Mitchell last evening, in honor of their return from a four-months trip through the Holy Land.

A large number of friends of the clergyman and his wife were present to greet them.

Dr. Mitchell, much to the delight of all, gave an intensely interesting talk of his trip, describing in a realistic manner many of the wonderful scenes enjoyed. For one month he and his wife were in the saddle, having adopted that method of travel through a portion of their journey.

During the entire trip nothing happened to mar its pleasure, and they returned to America in excellent health and spirits, glad to meet their friends once more. They will remain in town a very short time, when they will return to their home in Kansas City.

Prof. Whitney of Hackettstown Institute, and Mrs. Whitney, who is the daughter of P. M. French, were among the guests last evening.

Was Not Seriously Hurt.

Chancellor Roll of Watchung avenue accidentally fell a few evenings ago, and severely bruised his face. However, he has recovered sufficiently so that he was able to leave on a visit to Morristown this morning.

—W. S. Wolfe of Homer, N. Y., was in town yesterday on business.

—V. Christhoffersen, Geo. W. Richardson and Henry W. Brower have made application for membership to the Y. M. C. A. Bicycle Club.

THE UNDERHILL RECITALS.

Successful Series Given by the King's Daughters—A Large and Happy Audience Witness "The Rivals".

A well filled house and thoroughly appreciative audience greeted Charles F. Underhill last evening in the Casino, when he gave, as a monologue, Sheridan's hundred-year-old comedy "The Rivals". Many, familiar with the text of this drama, wondered how it would be possible for one man to represent the dual character of the hero, the varied personages and amusing incidents of the play, for while there was only one of him, there were many of them. The artistic skill and rare excellence of Mr. Underhill's impersonations were never better displayed than in his rendition last evening. Sir Anthony Absolute blustered, and threatened and "kept cool" in a manner that would have done Mr. Underhill credit if he had been representing Sir Anthony alone. But in an instant Mr. Underhill took the character of Captain Jack Absolute, the wilful son, the obedient, penitent and plotting lover, as if he were the only character to be represented. As Mrs. Malaprop, he was inimitable, as Lydia Languish, "sentimental to a degree", as Lucius O'Trigger, a graceful, graceless and valorous Hibernian, and as Lucy, the maid, full of feigned simplicity.

CHARLES F. UNDERHILL.

Some of the situations were so funny that they baffle description. The sketch of the wife proposed by Sir Anthony, the writing of the challenge by Bob Acres, the rising of his valor under the stimulus of the Irishman's words, the oozing out of his courage at the sight of firearms, the fears of David and the terrors of the duel in preparation for action, were all incidents of the comedy, most mirth-provoking when acted by Mr. Underhill. That the audience enjoyed it all enthusiastically, was evident from the ripples of laughter that were almost continuous and the hearty applause that told of genuine delight.

This recital closed the series given by Mr. Underhill, but so great was the pleasure of the listeners that we are sure many will echo a paraphrase of the wish expressed by the author of John Gilpin:

"And Gilpin, long live he;
And when he next doth ride abroad,
May I be there to see!"

DEER PARK,

On the Crest of the Alleghenies.

To those contemplating a trip to the mountains in search of health and pleasure, Deer Park, on the crest of the Allegheny mountains, 3,000 feet above the sea level, offers such varied attractions as a delightful atmosphere, during both day and night, pure water, smooth, winding roads through the mountains and valleys, and the most picturesque scenery in the Allegheny range. The hotel is equipped with all adjuncts conducive to the entertainment, pleasure and comfort of its guests.

The surrounding grounds, as well as the hotel, are lighted with electricity. Six miles distant on the same mountain summit, is Oakland, the twin resort of Deer Park, and equally as well equipped for the entertainment and accommodations of its patrons. Both hotels are upon the main line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, have the advantages of its splendid Vestibuled Limited Express trains between the East and West. Season excursion tickets, good for return passage until October 31, will be placed on sale at greatly reduced rates at all principal ticket offices throughout the country.

One-way tickets, reading from St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Columbus, Chicago and any point on the B. & O. system to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia or New York, or vice versa, are good to stop off at either Deer Park, Mountain Lake Park or Oakland, and the time limit will be extended by agents at either resort upon application, to cover the period of the holder's visit. The season at these popular resorts commences June 22.

For full information as to hotel rates, rooms, etc., address George D. DeShields, Manager, Deer Park, or Oakland, Garrett County, Md. 5-3-4

I recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. There is no better liniment made. I have sold over 100 bottles of it this year and all were pleased who used it. J. F. Pierson, druggist, South Chicago, Ill. It is for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

TO IMPROVE THE OVAL.

Crescents Will Have Everything in Readiness for the Meet.

The meeting of the Board of Governors of the Crescent Wheelmen last night was attended by seven out of the eleven members. Freeman Shotwell and Victor Lorton were elected members.

The most important business considered was in reference to the improvement of the race oval which is necessary before the Decoration Day meet. The gravel with which the track was improved last Summer is breaking up and making the course very sandy, thus spoiling the oval for fast riding. After much discussion it was decided to expend $250 on the course this month, and it is thought that this amount will put it in first-class condition. It is calculated to lay the turns with a cement that will make them as hard and smooth as asphalt.

The matter of selecting the prizes to be offered for the various events was deferred until the next meeting of the Board, which will be held at the conclusion of the club meeting, for which a call was issued for next Monday night.

Prominent Christian Workers to Speak in Plainfield.

Rev. A. B. Simpson of New York, founder of the Christian Alliance, and pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle at 44th street and Eighth avenue, and Rev. Stephen Merritt, evangelist and philanthropist, also of New York, will speak on Missions, in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, Tuesday, May 7, at 8 p. m. Mr. Simpson is widely known as a powerful speaker and a talented writer. He has written a large number of works on the deeper spiritual life, and is editor of The Christian Alliance and Missionary Weekly. He has recently made a tour of the world visiting the various mission fields, and his talk cannot fail to be deeply interesting.

Miss Louise Shepard of New York will speak on the "Holy Spirit in Missions", in Y. M. C. A. hall Tuesday afternoon at 3. Miss Shepard will also sing at the evening service.

Boys Club Against Young Stars.

A game scheduled for 3:45 Wednesday afternoon, between the above clubs, was deferred, waiting for one of the Young Stars, till 4:35. For two innings the Young Stars kept well in the lead, but in the third the Boys Club closed the gap and at the end of the fourth were in the lead, shutting the Young Stars out in one, two, three order. In the fifth the Young Stars forged three runs ahead, but in the Boys Club half the Young Stars commenced a great kicking, finally refusing to finish the inning because they thought the umpire favored the Boys Club. The game stopped there with no outs for the Boys Club and two men on bases. The game was called off. It may be said in this connection that the Boys Club nine is not yet organized, being without a captain.

The Bank Robbers Found.

The bank robbers found on their first visit to Plainfield, a beautiful city, filled with palatial residences and fine business blocks, with avenues and boulevards radiating in all directions from the business centre. All this you will see in the beautiful "Plainfield Illustrated" just out, a work of art containing over 300 photogravings illustrating Plainfield's beautiful homes. A feature which greatly enhances the value of this attractive souvenir is the historical sketch by Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, which in a concise and entertaining manner relates Plainfield's story from its foundation to the present time. A postal with your address directed to W. S. Bullock, 324 East Sixth street, will secure a copy for a dollar.

Master of the Wheel.

Sid Black, a trick and fancy bicycle rider, gave an exhibition in front of the F. L. C. Martin Bicycle Company's store last night that was witnessed by several hundred people. His tricks were performed with agility and ease. He rode in every conceivable position, and with such grace that his efforts were frequently applauded. One of his most astonishing feats was standing erect with one foot on the saddle and one foot on the handle-bar, and in this position steering himself for some distance. He rode a Cleveland.

Railway Was Out of It Altogether.

The Elizabeth Journal says: "On the best of authority it is learned that if the L. A. W. had not granted a sanction to the Crescent Wheelmen of Plainfield to run a road race on Decoration Day, the sanction would have been granted to the Elizabeth Athletic Club for a meet at Waverly."

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds, Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Amos Stites of Grove street will be married Sunday.

Mrs. D. C. Green left yesterday for a visit with friends in Corning, N. Y.

Louis Waring gives a cotillon party this evening at the Bicycle Clubhouse.

The Rasores will meet next Tuesday at the residence of Dr. King on Putnam avenue.

Miss Emma Schoonmaker of Madison avenue will sail shortly for Europe to spend the Summer.

Miss Carrie Bogert of Ninth street has accepted an invitation for a dance late in the month at Flushing.

Miss Hannah Lawrence of Flushing is the guest of her niece, Mrs. Robert L. Burnett of Hillside avenue.

Mrs. J. W. Reinhart and her daughter Miss Carrie Reinhart, of Belvidere avenue, have returned from a short visit at Pittsburgh.

Miss Winifred Sprague of Putnam avenue will give a domino whist party tomorrow afternoon to a number of her young women friends.

Rev. Hobart Clark will deliver the closing free lecture on Oliver Wendell Holmes, in the Course of Humorists, in All Souls Church tonight.

Hegeman and Leonard are still ahead in the two-men bowling tournament on the Park Club alleys, with Matthews and Erickson a good second.

Miss Tuddie Foster, formerly of Netherwood, was married April 30 at Everett, Washington, to George Sampson Brown, a leading lawyer on the Pacific Coast.

Mrs. Charles Barnard, wife of the well-known author, who has been the guest of Mrs. Albert V. Nolen of Watchung avenue, has returned to her home in New York.

The engagement is announced of Miss Lizzie Goddard, sister of George M. Goddard of Ninth street, to the President of the Home Fire Insurance Company of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Chambers returned to their home in Middletown, N. Y., yesterday, after spending a pleasant visit with Mrs. Chambers's sister, Mrs. W. H. Williams of Madison avenue.

Rice's Surprise.

That grand, glorious metropolitan success "1492", will be presented in all its mammoth entirety in Music Hall Friday evening, May 10, by Rice's surprise party, an aggregation numbering sixty people, accompanied by their own orchestra of soloists, and the stage enriched with a carload of scenic, mechanical and electrical environments.

"1492" is a combination of comic opera, farce, vaudeville and burlesque. Its libretto overflows with rich humor, and its music is of the light, catchy order. Specialties, songs and dances, ballets, marches and tableaux are presented, and the beauty of Manager Rice's chorus is too well known to require comment.

Seats on the lower floor for this extraordinary engagement will be sold at the reasonable price of $1.

Pleasantly Entertained.

The Progressive Home Circle met with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Karet on West Front street last night and were very pleasantly entertained. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kaerth, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Schwed, William Strayer, George Lederer, Mike Karet, William Mendel, M. Schloss and T. Hughes.

The women indulged in a game of euchre in which Mrs. I. Schwed was the victor. An exciting game of penochle was entered into by J. A. Karet and Carl Kaerth, which was won by the former. The next meeting of the Circle will be held with Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Schwed, corner of Watchung avenue and East Fifth street.

A Big Trade Expected.

Great preparation for a big Saturday's trade have been made at Edsalls' Commercial Palace.

In addition to a large variety of seasonable articles, secured from receivers and and bankrupt sales, and offered at about one half the regular prices, a glass of delicious soda water will be served free to each purchaser from 2 p. m. till evening, to introduce this favorite drink at this house. A cup of hasty chocolate will also be served in the basement free. Go and enjoy the many good things offered.

Local Bowling Records.

The individual record of the members of the Plainfield Bowling Club in the Elizabeth Journal League was as follows:

	G.	St.	Sp.	High.	Ave.
Vail	10	26	43	172	158.9
Wilbur	10	14	24	169	155.0
VanEmburgh	10	24	37	183	154.5
VanAlstyne	12	21	33	193	152.6
Maltby	10	10	65	178	148.9
Petrie	4	9	14	157	146.8

—The Climax Gun Club will have a shoot on their grounds at Fanwood next Wednesday.

—The Boys Club nine will probably play baseball with Sutphen's nine tomorrow afternoon.

—S. P. T. Wilbur is on an angling tour to Bound Brook today. His friends will meet him with a brass band on his return.

RACING IN NEW YORK

Under Legitimate Conditions Is Assured.

The Gray Bill Will Establish Betting at the Tracks as It Has Been Conducted for Years in England—Turfmen Are Jubilant and Think All Should Be Satisfied.

Albany, May 3.—The passage of the Gray racing bill by the senate yesterday, together with the Wilds two anti-gambling bills insures legitimate racing in this state this year, within the provision of the constitution which it was supposed would put a stop to this sport since its adoption by the people last fall.

Provisions of the Bill.

The Gray racing bill legalizes racing for stakes, prizes, purses and premiums, but specifically prohibits book-making and pool-selling of all kinds. On race tracks where running races are held, and which have received a license from the state racing commission, and on all trotting tracks, the bill permits the making of a private bet or wager, provided that there shall be no passing of money directly and no interchange of record or memorandum of a bet made. This in effect establishes betting on horse races in this state as it has been conducted for many years in England.

Running Races.

Trotting races may be held by any trotting association on any kind of a track as regards size. But for running races there is a special provision that running tracks must be at least a mile in length or circumference and must be licensed by a state racing commission of three persons, to be appointed by the governor to serve for five years without compensation. Five thousand dollars is appropriated annually for the expenses of the commission, which is to be assessed pro rata on the tracks licensed by the commission.

Time Limitation.

The bill provides that not more than forty days' racing shall be held on any one track between April 15th and Nov. 1, and all racing shall be between sunrise and sunset. Racing at county fairs is not interfered with by the bill. A tax of five per cent. on the gross receipts of all classes of racing associations, except agricultural associations, is imposed by the bill, which is to be distributed among agricultural associations.

The Wilds Bills.

The two Wilds bills carry out the anti-gambling provisions of the new constitution, and prohibit pool selling and book making and all other kinds of gambling, and specifically repeals the Ives pool law. These three bills now go to the governor for his action. The supplemental Gray racing bill which passed the senate yesterday now goes to the assembly for concurrence.

Turfmen Rejoicing.

New York, May 3.—General rejoicing among the turfmen has taken the place of despondency caused by the rebuff given to the Gray bill in the senate. James R. Keene talked freely about the situation to-day. He said the bill should satisfy all reasonable people as it permits racing under wholesome conditions and abolishes the obnoxious features that degraded the sport in the past. Now in regard to the betting question the Wilds bill effectually settles the status of betting and confines the persons who are of a speculative turn of perfectly legitimate transactions between each other on the tracks.

BRITISH WARSHIP FOR CUBA.

The Tourmaline Ordered To Sail with All Possible Dispatch.

St. Johns, N. F., May 3.—The British warship Tourmaline, Captain Sir Richard Poore, leaves here to-day, having been ordered to proceed to Cuba with all possible dispatch to protect British interests there, which are believed to be endangered during the present rebellion.

Prince Bismarck's Thanks.

Berlin, May 3.—Prince Bismarck has written a letter to his favorite organ, the Hamburger Nachrichten, saying that unable to answer the multitude of congratulations he has received from all parts of Germany, from Germans abroad, and from foreigners, particularly from citizens of the United States, he begs his friends to accept his cordial and hearty thanks for their messenges of good will upon the occasion of his eightieth birthday.

Can Make Miles of Cigarettes.

Washington, May 3.—There was a contest before Commissioner Seymour yesterday as to the ownership of a patent for a cigarette making machine that is warranted to make five miles of cigarettes per day. The tobacco is spun out in an endless rope and fitted into an endless roll of paper, and is then cut into the proper lengths.

Eastern International League.

Montreal, May 3.—A meeting of delegates of the new Eastern International Baseball league was held here last night. The following places were represented: St. Albans, Vt.; Rouses Point, N. Y.; Ottawa, Ont., and the National and Shamrock clubs of Montreal. Plattsburg and Ogdensburg, N. Y., will probably be admitted.

The Search for Frank Lenz.

Constantinople, May 3.—United States Minister Terral has obtained from the Turkish government instructions for the governor of Erzerum to facilitate the mission of William A. Sachtleben, of St. Louis, who has been sent by the American Bicycling association to search for the remains of Frank G. Lenz.

Big Strike Threatened at Baltimore.

Baltimore, May 3.—Indications this morning point to a general strike of garment workers in this city which will affect directly or indirectly 20,000 persons and paralyzes the clothing business.

Nearly Wiped Out by Fire.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 3.—La Porte, formerly known as Sand Lake, a hamlet 25 miles from this city, was destroyed by fire last night. Out of 75 buildings only a dozen escaped.

Ex-Congressman Heard Ill.

Washington, May 3.—Ex-Representative Heard, of Missouri, is confined to his room by an attack of rheumatism.

STAMP WASHING IN ITALY.

A Chance for American Inventors of Cancelling Ink.

Washington, May 3.—The postoffice department has recently received a number of letters from persons who believe they have improved cancelling inks. The practice of stamp washing is so rare in the United States that it has not been deemed necessary to make any effort to stop it, and the postoffice department has no means of experimenting to determine the value of the inks offered. It is stated, however, that there is an excellent chance for such an invention abroad, especially in Italy, where stamp washing is common. Several of the European governments have been experimenting for years in the direction of color extracting inks, and have spent large sums of money for that purpose, but so far without success. It is the failure in discovering such an ink that has blocked the way of a very desirable reform in the colors of postage stamps.

THE KANSAS TORNADO.

Probability That Fifteen Persons Were Killed.

Newton, Kas., May 3.—Further particulars of Wednesday night's tornado indicate that the death list will reach fifteen or twenty. There are about as many badly injured. The citizens of the surrounding towns have gone to the assistance of the injured. The course of the storm was almost due north and missed Halstead and Mound Ridge by a few miles only. The family of M. E. Hege escaped by being in the cellar. Cattle are strewn over the prairie for miles and debris is everywhere. The storm moved with terrible velocity. It demolished ten telegraph poles in crossing the main line of the Santa Fe. The force of the storm broke north of Mound Ridge. Several persons are missing and a search for them is being made.

GERMANY'S NEW TARIFF.

The Reichstag Passes a Measure To Take Effect July 1.

Berlin, May 3.—The reichstag yesterday passed the customs tariff amendment bill. The measure includes a paragraph giving the government full powers to impose additional duties as reprisals for the hostile duties of foreign states, but providing that the discriminating duties on goods on the free list shall not exceed 20 per cent. ad valorem. The measure raises the duties on perfumes containing alcohol from 200 to 300 marks and imposes a protective duty on quebracho wood used for tanning purposes. The new tariff measure goes into effect on July 1.

BEEF COMBINE NAMED.

Morris, Armour, Swift Cudahy Said To Have Joined Hands.

St. Louis, May 3.—John H. Schofield, editor of the Butchers and Packers' magazine, says the rise in beef began in Lent, when five European countries had boycotted the American product. This was the result of manipulation of a combine including Nelson Morris, Armour, Swift and Cudahy. This combination was to double the profits out of the retailer without giving the cattle raiser a percentage, and to wreak revenge on the sugar trust for closing, as the combine claims, the markets of Europe.

PRICE IS GUILTY.

Convicted in the First Degree for the Murder of Sallie Dean.

Denton, Md., May 3.—Marshall E. Price, the young blacksmith who has been on trial for the past three days, was found guilty of murder in the first degree yesterday for causing the death at Harmony on March 26 of Sallie E. Dean, a 14-year-old school girl. Sentence will be announced to-day. The defense submitted the case without placing a witness on the stand. The verdict is approved by the people of the county.

DUKE OF ORLEANS' ILLNESS.

His Condition So Critical That His Mother Leaves for Seville.

London, May 3.—The news from the Duke of Orleans' bedside was so unfavorable last evening that his mother decided to start for Seville to-day. She will go via Paris.

Immigrant Inspection Lax.

Washington, May 3.—Commissioner General Stump has received complaint from the Plant line of steamers plying between Boston and Canadian ports that the rigidness of immigrant inspection at Boston and at points along the Canadian border touched by the Canadian Pacific railroad is not uniform. The discrepancy is so marked that immigrant traffic has been diverted from the water lines to the rail routes.

Agrarian Murder in Ireland.

Dublin, May 3.—C. L. Taylor, land agent for the Marquis of Ely, was shot and killed while standing outside the court house at New Ross by a bailiff whom Taylor had threatened to evict from his holdings. The affair has caused great excitement in the neighborhood.

"For years I had suffered from falling of the womb, inflammation of the stomach, and weakness of the female organs.

"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and found a perfect cure in it for these troubles."

MRS. LIZZIE DECLERK, 224 Grand Street, Jersey City, New Jersey.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c. per box. For sale by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

GRAND TRUNK OFFICIAL.

Insomnia No Longer a Terror of the Hard Worker While Paine's Celery Compound Exists—Mr. N. J. Grace Speaks in Praise of It.

One of the clearest complexioned, best looking men in Boston today, says the Boston Globe, is a prominent New England agent of a great railroad, who uses Paine's celery compound spring and fall, and whose wife and children take it daily during the spring months.

Mr. N. J. Grace of the Grand Trunk is a modest man, one of the best-liked gentlemen in Boston, and a thorough railroad man.

When asked about the merits of Paine's celery compound he said he believed in it thoroughly, had used it himself and in his family for two years with the most gratifying results.

"My boys are using it now," he said, "and I believe there is no better spring medicine than Paine's celery compound. A touch of rheumatism first urged me to try it, and times after that, when run down, as most every one is at intervals through the year, I found that it revived the vital spark and made me feel better. Never in all my experience among men have I heard a remedy so highly spoken of. Friends of mine have used it with splendid results for dyspepsia and liver complaint, while for insomnia a neighbor of mine tells me that it will banish it in a night."

Mr. Grace is one of the healthiest looking men to be met with in Boston today. For fully 30 years he has been with the Grand Trunk, yet in all his life he never looked better or enjoyed more freedom from pain than he does to day. He is one of the thousands in this city who have reason to believe in Paine's celery compound.

Promises!

are easy made and easy broken, we promised you big bargains in dress goods this week, we intend keeping our word. 75 pieces of dress goods from the receiver's sale of Jaffray & Co., at a sacrifice. 25 pieces all wool cashmere 38 inch 25c worth 50. 10 pieces fancy mixed worsteds 36 inch 25c worth 40. 15 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 50c worth 75. 8 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 65 worth 90. 5 pieces silk and wool covert cloths 54 inch 95 worth $1 25 5 pieces all-wool serges light shades 65 worth $1 00 complete the dress; we have just what you need. Double faced silesia 10c plain silesias 9c, the best skirt cambrics 5c, fibre chamois different shades 35c. Hair cloth from 10c to 60.

Linings

Corsets

For one week we sell the W. B. corset 5 hook for 68c.

Duck Suits

A duck suit made up in the latest style only 99c; surprising, isn't it?

CAMBRICS

Fast color cambrics 7-8 wide 6c a yard.

A CUT

on every article in our house-furnishing goods department; our 87c hall lamp is sold elsewhere for $1 10.

Millinery.

We still lead in fashionable head wear.

BOEHM'S,

113 WEST FRONT STREET

—THE—

Buying Population

in and around Plainfield are awake to the great values we are offering. We never have any trouble selling to those who have visited other stores before calling on us. We not only attract trade—we keep it. We invite comparison.

POINTERS.

Men's clay diagonal suits in Regent frock, at $10 50.

Men's all-wool suits in long sack, single or double breasted, $3.75, $7.50 and $9 50.

Running water is never stale. Our stock is like a river—always moving.

WERNER'S.

Plainfield, N. J.

EDWIN B. MAYNARD

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.
Tonsorial Parlor, 304 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Ladies shampooing and childrens hair cutting a specialty 10 16 t

H. DeMOTT,

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER,
59 Somerset Street, Plainfield, N. J. 92 y

Revere House

Park Ave, 7th and 8th St.

GEORGE B. DEREVERE & CO.

Thoroughly renovated and now open for transient or permanent guests.

5 1 tf

MISS CLARIBEL JEFFERY, teacher of Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar. Best references. 322 W. Front street. Call Wednesdays. 4 25 1m

FURNITURE

MOVING

Telephone 121. Office 161 North ave.
HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS.

J. W. VAN SICKLE,

Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats
GAME IN SEASON.
New No. 122., North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 148 B. Orders called for and delivered promptly

Neuman Bro's.

Specials tomorrow in
Fresh Vegetables.

Green Peas, Green Beans, Wax Beans, Asparagus, Tomatoes, Lettuce, Cucumbers, Water Cress, Spinach, Radishes, Rhubarb, Bunch Onions, Oyster Plant, Beets, New Carrots, New Potatoes.

STRAWBERRIES.

Wm. Hand & Son,

MOVING VANS,
18 Park avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

THE Bee Hive.

"KIDS."

Ladies' 4 button kid gloves in tans and slates 65c.

Foster hook kid gloves in all the new shades, the 98c quality, 75c.

Children's kid gloves, a good glove, 69c.

Men's kid gloves, every pair warranted, $1.

MEN'S CAMBRIC SHIRTS.

Men's cambric shirts, laundried, collar and cuffs attached, 50c.

Men's laundried shirts, white body and fancy bosom, 48c.

Men's laundried shirts, white body and colored bosom and cuffs 65c.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st.

FOR SALE CHEAP!

A large assortment of Geraniums, Coleus, Salvias, Roses, Casino clematis, Palms and Rubber trees. Also 3000 Privet hedge plants, and a general collection of hardy plants and shrubs, at

DENTON'S
131 Hillside Avenue.

Photo Material.

PLATES AND PAPER,

at

Reduced Prices.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front st.

Writes every letter in sight of operator. Does most of the work, in writing AUTOMATICALLY, and yields in the time thus saved additional work.

It acts as if it studied the convenience of the operator at every turn, and thereby lightens his labor and renders him capable of doing more.

It has a knack of keeping well, and is always ready at critical or other times.

These are some of the reasons why it is different from all other writing machines.

The catalogue tells you more about it. FREE.

Columbia Typewriter Mfg. Co,

307 Broadway, New York.
1 5 6m

MOSLER SAFE CO.,

contractors to the United States Government
Mosler Patent Safes,
(fire and burglar-proof) in general use
All Over the World.
Lowest prices. Drop a postal to
S. W. CLARK,
General Agent
118 West 5th st., Plainfield, N. J.
and he will call and give special attention and information.
Large assortment of second-hand safes in first-class condition at low prices.

CONFECTIONS

Fresh, and from Pure Materials,
TIER'S,
116 Park avenue. 4 11 tf

CHOICE
Lawn Seeds, Garden Seeds, and Fertilizers.
Lawn mowers repaired.
Plumbing, Tinning and Hardware.

A. M. GRIFFIN,
112 East Front St.

GEO. J. TOBIN,
187 North avenue.

Practical Plumber

Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer
TELEPHONE CALL 158a. 12 15 tf

Plainfield Machine Works,

Manufacturers of
Steam Engines,
Electric Motors and Dynamos. Shafting and mill work generally. Jobbing in all its branches. Prompt attention given to repairing of steam engines, boilers, bicycles, etc. Piping in all its branches.
GIVE US A CALL.
E. C. MAGUE, Manager.
Works corner Richmond and East 3d street, Plainfield. 4 13 tf

Tel. 29B Established 1878.
ADDIS & SON,
PLUMBING AND HOT WATER HEATING.
Have your plumbing system tested with the smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.
Opp Roberts' Livery 132 North Ave

H. Eggerding.

121 PARK AVENUE.
Manufacturer of the celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars. 11 9t

Telephone 58

Ring it up when you want good coal, and ask to

Geo. O. Stevens

SPRING TERM
OF THE
Rockview Home & Day School
Opens April 15.
Kindergarten, Primary and Intermediate Departments. For terms and particulars apply to the Misses Peet, 317 East Front street.

FLORIST.

A. E. LINCOLN, 226 Park avenue,
has just received an elegant assortment of rare ferns and other plants. Also will have a fine assortment of flowering plants, azaleas, lilies, etc., for Easter. Large assortment of choice cut flowers daily. Floral design work for all occasions a specialty.

SMALLEY'S CASH MARKET.

(Estab'd. L. Smalley.)
94 Somerset, Corner Race Street.
GEO. EGEL, Manager.
We sell only first-class goods, at low prices for cash. Orders called for and delivered. 12 10 t

CLEANER COAL.

L. A. Rheaume, Agt.

30 BROADWAY, cor. 24th ST.,

Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
UPPER LEHIGH AND HONEYBROOK COAL
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for TURNING and SCROLL SAWING and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner at short notice.
1 6 tf

WALL PAPER, WALL PAPER!

Wall Paper Bargains
5c, 6c, 8c, 10c ROLL.

Also all the best papers for the fine trade. Competent men employed to hang our papers.

RUGS. WINDOW SHADES,
MOULDINGS,
PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES,
KALSOMINE.
TINTING COLORS,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS,
CIGARS.

LOVE,

Corner North and Watchung aves.

Fred Endress,

Dealer in all kinds of
CHOICE MEATS
Jersey pork and poultry a specialty.
203 LIBERTY STREET.

EDUCATIONAL.

Afternoon Class for Young Ladies

Three times per week. Higher English Branches, French and Music. For terms apply MISS FAWCETT,
25 Washington ave

JAMES E. BAILY,

97 Jackson avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Trucking of All Kinds Done.
Two and four-horse vans and trucks. Particular attention given to moving furniture and pianos. Satisfaction guaranteed. 3 26 tf

Hotels and Saloons.

Madison Avenue HOTEL,

Madison Avenue and 58th St.,
NEW YORK.
$3 per day and up. American Plan.
Fireproof and first-class in every particular. Two blocks from the Third and Sixth avenue elevated railroads.
The Madison and 4th Avenue and Belt Line cars pass the door.
H. M. CLARK, Prop.
Passenger elevator runs all night.

HOTEL GRENADA,

North Avenue.

Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.
6-13-t

CITY HOTEL.

Plainfield, N. J.
COR. PARK AVENUE AND SECOND STREET.
J. E. BEEBOWER, Proprietor.
With stables attached. 467

A. Lusardi,

No. 120 North Ave.,
Will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c. quart.
Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets

Skilled Workmen

are even more essential in hanging paper than they are in the doing of many other things. We employ the best and most capable men in this department and guarantee the best possible results. Do not spoil the effect of pretty paper by improper hanging.

Marsh, Ayers & Co.,

141 East Front st.

BAMBERGER'S

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE

147 and 149 Market Street,
NEWARK, N. J.

BOYS' CLOTHING.

That boy of yours needs clothing that will stand the romping and jumping and running around that boys always do It's here, made in the right way—wear—resisting, perfect-fitting and sewed strongly.

Four Special lots for this week!

Boys' Knee Pants

Cheviots, worsteds and cassimere's well made with strong waist bands, sizes 3 to 15. usually 89 to 98c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Blouses.

Extra quality, white lawn, trimmed with colored insertion. sizes 2 to 8, usually 79c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits

All-wool, fancy trimmed, pants embroidered with bows and buckle, sizes 3 to 7, regular $2.69, at $1.73.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits

Finished in best manner, sizes 4 to 15, with long cut coats, and pants with taped seams, regular $2.89, at $1.98.

L. BAMBERGER & CO.,
147 and 149 Market st., Newark.
Free delivery everywhere. Prompt attention given to mail orders.

That represents the best that is made. If you want style, wear and comfort, wear the Hanan shoe, all shapes in Russia calf and patent leather.

ALEX. WILLETT & SON,
SHOES MADE TO ORDER. 107 PARK AVENUE.

Cleveland Bicycles,

The Great Leaders of 1895.

Design, Improvements, Workmanship, Quality, Speed, Health, Pleasure, Business, Road, Track.

The Fastest, Strongest, Handsomest and Most Rigid Wheel.

The "Swell Specials" are a decided advance in bicycle construction and when quality alone is considered will always sell.

Liberty, Crescent, Waverly, Majestic

We thoroughly believe in the merits of the above wheels, and unhesitatingly recommend them.

F. L. C. Martin Cycle Co.,
333 Park Avenue.
Repairs. Established 1889. Rentals.

Trouserings!

500 choice patterns which we are making to order for $5.00.

Sebring's
Park Avenue, Packer's Block.

Progressive Plainfield's
Progressive Store.

BOYS' SHIRT WAISTS.

Fancy calico plaited front, 6 to 10 years, 19c each.

Striped outing, plaited front, 6 to 10 years, 22c each.

Fancy Cambric, plaited front and back, 6 to 10 years, 25c each.

Fancy duck with pocket, 6 to 10 years, 28c each.

Fancy duck, plaited front and back 6 to 10 years, 35c each.

Fauntelroy sailor collar, ruffle front and back, fancy cheviot, 48c each.

French percale, plaited front and back, 6 to 10 years, 50c each.

Van Emburgh & Son!

E. E. MARSHALL & CO.
167 NORTH AVENUE.
WALL PAPERS, PAINTING,
And Interior Decorating.
Designs submitted for frescoing.

HE AVERTED A WAR

Secretary Gresham Acts as a Peacemaker.

Telegrams Regarding the Boundary Trouble Between Mexico and Guatemala Submitted to the Mexican Senate—Our Southern Neighbor Was Very Anxious To Fight.

City of Mexico, May 3.—The correspondence submitted to the Mexican senate in executive session includes several telegrams sent by Secretary Gresham to Minister Gray at Mexico, which are believed to have averted a war between Mexico and Guatemala over the boundary question.

Had Reached a Critical Stage.

The boundary trouble had reached a critical stage a few months ago, when Mexico submitted an ultimatum which, if not accepted, meant that war would be declared. Thereupon, on Jan. 21 last, Mr. Gresham telegraphed to Minister Gray at Mexico City expressing the wish that Mexico would not "have hasty recourse to arms," and hinting at arbitration.

Declined Arbitration.

The Mexican government, in acknowledging the telegram, declined to arbitrate on what it considered a question of national honor, but several meetings between Secretary Gresham and Senor Romero, Mexican minister at Washington, followed. The hope of the officials at Washington was soon after realized by the conclusion of a peace largely in accordance with the requests from Washington.

GOV. BROWN GRIEF STRICKEN.

The Fate of His Son Has Terribly Depressed Him.

Frankfort, Ky., May 3.—The state offices on the public square were all closed at 11 o'clock yesterday, and crape was suspended from the entrance doors. The desk occupied by Archie Brown is closed, and the papers and pictures of his little girl at different ages remain exactly as he left them. It is said Governor Brown will not now enter the senatorial race. He is terribly distressed over his son's tragic and shameful death. Many close friends have called and tendered their sympathy. Intimate friends of Governor Brown say that he is so heartbroken over the disgrace attached to the death of his son that in all probability he will resign the office of governor and retire to private life.

JOE JEFFERSON AT YALE.

Lectures to the Students and Denounces Their Comedy.

New Haven, Conn., May 3.—Joseph Jefferson, the actor, lectured at Yale yesterday on "Dramatic Art." He was introduced by President Dwight and a crowded and fashionable audience was present. Mr. Jefferson created something of a sensation by denouncing in unmeasured terms the practice at Yale and many colleges of giving no attention to pure dramatic art, but giving farce comedies such as "Mr. Napoleon," the play in preparation by the Yale secret societies. Mr. Jefferson looked on the practice as a sign of degeneracy.

IMPORTING NEW MEN.

West Virginia Mines Operated Under Protection of Guards.

Pittsburg, May 3.—The mines on the Wheeling division of the Baltimore & Ohio road are having more success in getting out coal. Importations of men have continued and there are 100 negro miners from West Virginia at work at the Jumbo mine and thirty at the Midway mine. The mines and the non-union men are closely guarded by deputies, but thus far no serious collisions have occurred.

Nicaraguan Resolution Killed.

Hartford, Conn., May 3.—The house yesterday afternoon killed the Nicaraguan resolutions, introduced by Senator Birge, and passed in the senate Tuesday. Gardner Greene, jr., rep., of Norwich, severely criticized the resolutions and called it childish conduct to pass them. He expressed his entire confidence in congress to take care of foreign affairs, and deprecated any "scare" because of the presence of British troops in Nicaragua.

Troops Ready for Indian Troubles.

Washington, May 3.—Gen. Merritt, commanding the department of Dakota, has been instructed to have troops in readiness to proceed against the Indians now giving trouble in the vicinity of Turtle Mountain, N. D., should they be needed. The war department does not apprehend any trouble, but takes this step as a matter of precaution.

Mrs. Mack Extradited.

Washington, May 3. — Mrs. M. T. Mack, connected with the counterfeit stamp gang discovered in Cleveland, O., has been extradited. On the arrest of her alleged confederates she fled to Hamilton, Canada. The headquarters of the gang was in Buffalo, N. Y.

Banker Rodgers Drops Dead.

Binghamton, N. Y., May 3.—Harris G. Rodgers, who had been engaged in the banking business in this city for over forty-one years, dropped dead on Court street yesterday afternoon. During the war he was paymaster ranking as major on General Slocum's staff.

Aganist Pool Selling.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 3.—The house has passed a bill to punish pool selling, receiving and transmitting bets or aiding in pool selling or betting by a vote of 155 to 6. The bill goes to the senate.

To Join the Peary Expedition.

Lawrence, Kas., May 3.—Prof. E. L. Dyche, of the Kansas university, is en route to Boston, where he will embark for the Arctic region to join the Peary expedition.

Stamford Bank Bookkeeper Dead.

Stamford, Conn., May 3.—Robert M. Crane, aged 23 years, bookkeeper of the Stamford National bank, is dead of typhoid fever.

Oscar Wilde a Bankrupt.

London, May 3.—A receiving order in bankruptcy was issued this afternoon against Oscar Wilde.

A "QUEER" MONEY DEN.

Such Lawyer Michener's Office Proved To Be.

Canton, O., May 3.—The law office of J. B. Michener, the once prominent lawyer and politician, who is under arrest for counterfeiting, was raided last night and a rich find made. The search was personally conducted by United States Marshal Haskell of Cleveland, and occupied nearly four hours. At its conclusion a big trunk was rolled into the hall, and one of the deputies said that was the fruits of the most important counterfeit capture ever made in Ohio.

Complete Counterfeiter's Outfit.

Marshal Haskell later said that he regarded the night's work a profitable one. He said that a large amount of spurious gold coin had been found. There was also a large quantity of the metal from which it is made, and a complete outfit of moulds and apparatus for gold counterfeiting. No inventory of the stuff was taken, owing to the lateness of the hour, but the amount of the "queer" was large. Everything was boxed and shipped to the marshal at Cleveland. The office is on the public square, facing the court house.

TURRET ON ROMER SHOAL.

It Will Revolve and Carry Guns Able to Sink Anything Afloat.

Washington, May 3.—The fortification board of the war department has prepared plans for a powerful steel turret to carry guns of the heaviest calibre and to be placed on Romer shoal in New York harbor. No details are allowed to escape, but creditable information makes its armament heavy enough to penetrate and sink anything which comes in range. The turret will revolve and have cable connection with the shores. It is expected that an appropriation of $5,000,000 will be asked from congress next winter to begin the work of its construction. The protective plates are designed thick enough to resist the impact of a hundredton gun, the heaviest built.

INFRINGED THE TRADE MARK.

Haverhill Agent of a New Jersey Leather Firm Accused.

Haverhill, Mass., May 3.—The property of Harold F. Blake, patent tip manufacturer and dealer in patent leathers, has been attached for $25,000 by the Henry Lang company of Newark, N. J. Blake is local agent of the firm and is charged with using the firm's trade mark on an inferior grade of leather and selling the same to the trade as genuine Lang stock. The discovery of the inferior goods was made by a local manufacturer, who notified the Newark company.

WOMAN DENTIST SKIPS.

Many of Her Patients Poisoned, at Least One of Them Fatally.

Fort Scott, Kan., May 3.—At Hiattsville, a small village near here, over half a dozen people, including the Methodist minister, have been poisoned, some of them perhaps fatally, by medicine administered by a traveling woman dentist, who disappeared from the town since the condition of her patients became known. She traveled under the name of Dr. Alberta Oberlin, and claimed to come from St. Louis. One of the victims, Miss Lizzie Liddell, is dying, and it is feared some of the others may succumb.

TRYING TO RELEASE WILDE.

Efforts of Counsel To Have Him Admitted to Bail.

London, May 3.—Counsel for Oscar Wilde will to-day make application before Baron Pollock, in the queen's bench division of the high court of justice, for the admission of Wilde to bail pending the retrial of his case. Hitherto it has been the practice to grant applications for bail in all cases of misdemeanor, but the matter rests solely upon the discretion of the court. The next session of the Old Bailey court will begin on May 20.

SHIP EVA SUNK IN PORT.

The Captain and Five of Her Crew Drowned.

Rosario, May 3.—The Swedish sailing vessel Eva, Capt. Kruhnberg, which plies between European and South American ports, sank at her anchorage yesterday with all her cargo. Some of the crew were saved. Among the six drowned was the captain.

Milheiser Returned to New York.

New York, May 3.—Frederick Milheiser, charged with the larceny of 150 barrels of sugar, valued at $2,000, from the sugar trust in July, 1894, and who was recently arrested in Galveston, Texas, and turned over to the New York authorities, arrived in this city last evening. He was held in $5,000 bail.

Germany and Japan.

London, May 3.—The Central News correspondent in Tokio says: "There is reason to believe that in consequence of the fullest and frankest exchange of views between Germany and Japan, the former is likely to change her attitude in a direction decidedly favorable to Japan."

12,000 Men To Work Full Time.

Shenandoah, Pa., May 3.—The Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron company last night issued an ordered for all its collieries to start operations on full ten hours' time at once. This order effects twenty-seven collieries and about twelve thousand men in this district.

Assassinated by the Daltons.

Perry, Okla., May 3.—Advices from Ingalls, 50 miles from here, say that Bruce Miller, of Oklahoma, was assassinated by the remaining members of the Dalton gang. Miller owned one of the largest ranches in the Greek nation.

Loss to Exempt Firemen.

Albany, May 3.—The senate yesterday defeated the bill of Senator Robertson continuing the payment of the tax on foreign fire insurance companies to the Exempt Firemen's association by a vote of yeas, 11; nays, 13.

Beef Market Not Affected.

Washington, May 3.—The raising of the restrictions against the importations of cattle from Mexico has not, according the agricultural department authorities, had much effect on the beef market of this country.

Tortured To Death.

Atlanta, Ga., May 3.—News comes from Butte county that illicit distillers have killed a negro informer named Tom Brownlee. It is reported that he was tortured to death.

RECLAIMED FROM DEATH.

The Terror of Man Thwarted.

In the Grasp of that Dread Disease, Consumption.—Life Given Back.—Almost Miraculous.

Fortunately, perhaps, the Consumptive does not realize his own condition. His is a disease of continual waste until he meets a death that is in reality one of starvation.

It is now generally conceded that this disease is incurable—that is, by any known medicine. Change of climate, or some life-infusing food that will give new flesh, blood, and strength, and induce the various organs of the body to assume their normal functions,—this is the only hope.

The only way to do this effectually is to give the patient Bovinine, that great raw food product, the greatest concentration of the life-giving elements of raw beef known to modern science. In this connection the results obtained by Dr. J. H. Head of Atlanta, Ga., in the treatment of a case of consumption are interesting.

Dr. Head relates briefly how a man about thirty-five years of age came to him for treatment. He had lost forty pounds in weight in six months; he suffered with a bad cough and experienced severe night sweats; he was unable to do any work; most of his family had died of consumption, and on examination his right lung was found to be seriously affected, and as the doctor remarked, "He was in a good way to have an early funeral."

But note what happened. He was given Bovinine. In two weeks he had gained seven pounds, his appetite had returned, he was able to do a good day's work, and most of the distressing symptoms had vanished; and at the time of writing the doctor felt sure of a complete cure.

This is but one of many similar cases. Bovinine will give new life and strength, make new blood and flesh, stop waste, ward off disease, and turn the current of life's river again into its natural channel. Give it one trial while there is yet hope.

A full assortment of Stationery!
At HARPER'S,
411 Park ave.

SPRING MILLINERY DISPLAY,

Wednesday, March 27, of all the latest novelties in Hats, Bonnets, Dutch Bonnets, Napoleon and 20th Century Turbans, Flowers, Ribbons and all the accessories in Trimmings that complete the newest styles.

Mrs. L. Adams,
111 East Front st., under First National Bank

L. A. HUMMER. L. B. MULFORD.
Hummer & Mulford,
VARIETY MARKET,
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, Etc.,
220 PARK AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Telephone call, 20 A.
Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.

Your valuables will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
LOCK BOXES
From $3.50 to $10.00 a year.

M. Powers & Son,
Superior quality of
LEHIGH COAL.
No. 2 Coal Only $3.75
In the yard. No. 1 Kindling Wood.
Yard and office, 753 South Avenue.
Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Climax Stopper Co.,
Machine Works,
Corner of Washington and 4th streets, manufacturers of bicycle specialties. Electric and special machinery, experimental work, tools, etc. Contractors for electric light wiring, telephones, burglar alarms, etc. 12 3m

TRY DOBBINS'S CIGARS.
30 PARK AVE.
He Manufactures Them

THOS. MARLEY,
(Nineteen years with M. Quinn)
BLACKSMITH,
845 Richmond st., near Watchung ave
4 25 y

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3545, Knights of Honor.—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the First and Third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Court Pride of New Jersey, No. 6084, Ancient Order of Foresters of America, meets in K. of P. Hall, No. 106 West 2d st., first and third Tuesday evenings in each month.
Samuel J. Tynan, Chief Ranger.
Samuel H. Lunger, Fin. Sec. 9 25 y

Anchor Lodge, No. 169, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays in the Babcock Building.
C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Secretary.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 86, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Masonic Hall, East Front street.
D. S. Adams, W. M.
Chas. Yeager, Secretary.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum.—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the Second and Fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward's Building, Park avenue, at 8 P. M.
A. M. Bee, Regent.
E. A. Thorne, Secretary.

Short Vacations

For busy people by the beautiful new steamships of the Old Dominion Line.

To Old Point Comfort
[Hygeia Hotel]
Or Virginia Beach, Va.
[Princess Anne Hotel] may be made for
$16 Old Point Comfort, $16 Virginia Beach, $17 $17
INCLUDING EVERY EXPENSE
of meals and berths enroute, and a day and a quarter's board at the hotels.

These trips are ideal, as a considerable portion is made through the quiet waters of the famous Hampton Roads and there is little likelihood of seasickness.

Also tickets on sale, with privilege of going or returning by rail.

Write for particulars of these and other delightful trips to

Old Dominion S. S. Co.,
Pier 26, North River, New York.
W. L. Guillaudeu, Vice Pres. and Traffic Manager. 11 26 6m

L. L. MANNING.
Marble and Granite Works
Cor. Central Ave. and Front st., opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

M. M. DUNHAM,
Real Estate and Insurance.
7 East Front Street.

CUT ROSES, CARNATIONS AND VIOLETS
Flowers furnished for weddings, funerals, etc., in bunches, bouquets or design.
MILES,
Somerset st., Johnston's drive, terminus of electric railroad. 2 17 tf

Prof. A. Wehner,
TEACHER OF THE PIANOFORTE.
ALSO VOICE CULTURE.
Graduate of the Conservatory of Leipsic, Germany, desires a few more pupils in Plainfield.
References given and required.
Address letters to the office of this paper.
1 21 tf-c

E. H. HOLMES.
DEALER IN
COAL and WOOD,
YARD—No. 1208 Madison Avenue. Also Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle 145 North avenue.

J. C. POPE & CO.,
Insurance Agents,
NO. 6 EAST FRONT STREET
Plainfield, N. J.

You may have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn
A
good reliable
Pair of Collier's
Glasses.
103 Park ave. Established 1869.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North ave. 10 1 tf

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor, 109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas.

TOWNSEND'S
MARBLE AND GRANITE WORKS,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our Motto—Good work, good material at fair prices. 9 4 y

Jones & Co., Excavators.
Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary conditions. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.
JONES & CO.
Cesspools built. 9 18

Joseph E. Mosher,
Agent for
H. J. Havden & Co.,
WAR CLAIMS ATTORNEYS, WASHINGTON, D. C.
All claims put in our hands will receive prompt attention.
Call at the Crescent Cigar Store for fine cigars.

Gold Dollars for Fifty Cents.
—NO.—
BUT FULL VALUE.
O. E. MORSE, Painting and Paper Hanging, 27 Chatham street.

N. E. KING,
High Grade Portraits
In Crayon, Pastel and Water Colors.
483 Lexington ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Refers by permission to John A. Thickstun, L. B. Woolston, J. L. Blackford, L. W. Randolph, A. L. Force. Further information at the drug store of L. W. Randolph or office of The Daily Press, where specimen of work can be seen. 11 20 tf

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Publisher and Proprietor.
WALTER IRVING CLARKE, Managing Editor.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., May 3, 1895

WILL VISIT KINGS.

President Cleveland Planning to Roam the Universe.

President Cleveland, in making his Income tax return, neglected to state in what city or State he claimed residence. The opinion in Washington is that the omission was not the result of accident, but was deliberate.

The explanation is given that President Cleveland does not intend, for at least a long time, to claim citizenship with any locality smaller than the world. No pent up Utica is to confine his greatness, mental and corporeal.

It is current information at Washington that the President has decided to roam the universe when his term shall expire on March 4, 1897. General Grant made a tour of the world, and why should not Cleveland? The wanderings of the incumbent of the White House, though, will extend over a longer period of time, and cover more territory than his illustrious predecessor's ever did.

The itinerary has not been completed, and the President, Mrs. Cleveland and Mrs. Perrine, the President's mother in law, it is reported, are pouring over maps, histories and guide books, with the view of arranging a course that will include everything worth seeing. The members of the President's official family and the Diplomatic Corps are also frequently consulted in informal conversations.

The same honors that were paid to General Grant by foreign governments and potentates, and perhaps more of them, are confidently expected by Mr. Cleveland. Mrs. Cleveland and her mother have not been abroad since their return here during the President's first term, for the wedding of Miss Frances Folsom to Grover Cleveland, her guardian.

Both ladies are ambitions of social distinction, and the President is not averse to companionship with the high and mighty. He has never been abroad.

Early in May following his retirement from office, the President, with his household and a retinue of servants, the story goes, will sail for scenes which will be new to him.

He is veay fond of the water, and the report says the party will make a large part of the tour on a palatial steam yacht, to be hired by Mr. Cleveland or placed at his disposal by some one of the millionaires with whom he has become familiar since his attainment of eminence through the election of 1884.

Mr. E. C. Benedict has been notably generous in providing steam yacht excursions to the President, and in some quarters it is thought that Cleveland may again be the recipient of more extensive favors of a similar description at the hands of the banker Croesus.

DEPEW'S GOOD HUMOR.

With Faith in Joys to Come, His Present Happiness is Here.

Chauncey Depew was recently sixty-one. His friends celebrated the anniversary, and the Doctor in the course of a felicitous speech thus described the sources of happiness.

"What is happiness anyway? While I do not discredit the future world, but on the contrary believe in it, according to the doctrines of the church which I attend, yet we do not personally know either from those who have come from the other world or from revelations received from there, precisely what is the happiness of the next world.

"Our problem is not so much to long for that as to find out happiness here. Where is it? Is it in a healthy mind, a healthy body, and even if your body is not healthy you can keep the other two in fair condition. The secrets of happiness and longevity, in my judgment, are first cherish and cultivate cheerful, hopeful and buoyant spirits.

"I have lost 25 per cent. of all that I have ever made in loaning money and indorsing notes, and have incurred generally the enmity of those I have helped because I did not keep it up. But every once in a while there was somebody who did return in such full measure the credit for the help that was rendered that faith was kept alive and the beauty and the goodness of our human nature were more evident.

"I have appointed about a thousand men to office and to employment which gave them the support and chance to climb to positions of responsibility and trust if they had the inclination and ability. About nine out of every ten of them throw stones at me because I did not do better for them and keep pushing them, and yet there are a hundred or so who, by the exercise of their own ability, their own grasp of the situation have gone on to the accomplishment of such high ambitions and successes and have appreciated in so many ways the help extended to them by helping others, that again my faith in human nature remains undimmed."

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

as mercury will surely destroy the sence of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists, price 75 cts. per bottle.

THE RELIEF OF GOTHAM

BY PARK BENJAMIN

Copyright, 1895, by Bacheller, Johnson & Bacheller.

III.

Throughout the city there was a feeling of helplessness, not unmixed with exasperation. To see that balloon up there, placidly swaying to and fro, to know that within a few hours it might release its frightful burden, to feel the uncertainty of where the inevitable explosion would occur; beyond all, to realize that every instant brought the catastrophe nearer, was maddening. Where were all the electricians and the engineers and the chemists and the inventors generally? Was it possible that the much-boasted national ingenuity had recoiled, conquered and humiliated before such a problem as this? So talked the angry people in the streets.

Meanwhile the news of the peril of the metropolis had spread over the country, and, singular to say, its principal effect upon the suburban population was a burning desire to witness the big explosion, as it could do them no harm. Consequently, the Philadelphians, and the New Havenites, and the Albanians, besides the dwellers in other nearby towns, flocked in great cohorts into New York. They came in on the morning trains with their children and their lunch baskets, and bivouacked in hordes in the uptown streets, just outside the police cordon which now inclosed the circle swept by the balloon. They pre-empted the stoops of private residences, ate their meals thereon, and rang the door bells at intervals to demand ice water or the loan of a cup of milk. One man from New Jersey brought some carpenters and tried to erect a "grand stand" in the neighborhood of Central Park, but he was mobbed by the neighborhood before he had sold enough seats to make the enterprise remunerative. Another person drove a thriving business in selling pieces of smoked glass wherewith to look at the balloon; which the farmers bought instinctively. The peripatetic telescope men fairly coined money.

This had not gone on long, when heavy rain clouds began to gather in the west, and then a new fear arose. Would the storm hasten the falling of the dynamite? Suppose the balloon should be struck by lightning!

Meanwhile the urgent appeals which had been sent out by the Mayor to all the scientific people had resulted in an imposing gathering of professors in the 44th street boarding-house. Each having answered the call under the implicit conviction that all the others had been summoned for the express purpose of hearing his particular views on the matter in hand, an air of reserved dignity and gratified condescension pervaded the company as it followed His Honor up the creaky stairs, and into the attic room where the safe was located.

"I need not say to you, gentlemen," said the Mayor, tersely, "why you are here. You perceive the danger. Can it be averted? Suggestions are in order—prompt and sharp, please."

No answer was returned, although several scientists looked disconcerted and were seen to replace in their pockets sundry bulky manuscripts.

THE MAYOR AND THE SCIENTISTS.

"I—a-h—I—would suggest," said one professor, rising ponderously and looking over his spectacles, "that we cause the safe door to be opened, and the voltage of the generator therein determined, and"—

"'The slightest attempt to open the safe door will blow up a torpedo within,'" read the Mayor from the notice over the safe.

The professor sat down abruptly.

"Mr. Mayor! Mr. Mayor!" suddenly remarked a small and somewhat jerky individual. "Let us construct another balloon, let it slide up on the cable and carry some one who will remove the dynamite."

"'If the pitcher fastening is in any wise tampered with, the pitcher will certainly fall,'" again read the Mayor in a weary sort of way. "At the same time, professor, if you will agree to go up and try"—

"No, sir; no, sir; quite impossible; life too valuable to the cause of science. No, sir."

The chorus of coughs and pooh-hs which greeted this last remark ceased when a third person rose and proposed to cut the cable, the advantages of which plan he was about to argue when it was pointed out that nothing would more certainly break the current and thus cause the dropping of the torpedo.

Then the electricians got at it in earnest. One wanted to hitch on a second battery and reverse the current, a proceeding certain to disorganize the electromagnetic mechanism in the balloon and release the pitcher. Another wanted to splice on a great length of cable, and let the balloon float over some other place to do its mischief; but this, leaving out the ethical question involved, would, of course, put in more resistance in the path of the current, and perhaps render it too weak to hold up the load. Another wanted to fire bullets at the pitcher, and cause the explosion in mid-air, but it was pointed out that they would be much more likely to hit the balloon and let the gas out.

"I did not ask your attendance, gentlemen," said the Mayor somewhat sarcastically, "to devise means for dropping that torpedo. The balloon will do that of itself (he started as he glanced at his watch)—in about five hours. Experiment is out of the question. We cannot risk failure. Can no one suggest any certain means of relief?"

The scientists breathed heavily but said nothing. They could see the balloon—now ruddy with the reflected rays of the setting sun—poised over the great cathedral. The threatened storm had passed over, leaving, however, the breeze steady. The chances were then that the torpedo would do its fearful work in the fairest portion of the metropolis. From this locality the police, now reinforced by the militia, had driven the people toward the rivers. The danger lines had been drawn at 59th street and at Madison square. It was a strange sight to see Fifth avenue, above 23d street, deserted as far as the eye could reach; the gently swaying globe being the only moving object in the long perspective. Outside the danger lines the people clustered on the housetops like bees.

The scientists, still silent, looked at the Mayor with dismayed faces. The Mayor grimly looked back at the scientists.

"And this is all?" said the Mayor.

Several of the younger scientists present moved uneasily in their seats. One of them went to the safe, passed his hands helplessly over the exterior, sighed and sat down. Another gazed fixedly at the balloon. Another became deeply interested in the surface of the twin cable.

Meanwhile there had come into the room two other men who had seated themselves beside the Mayor. The official turned to them and whispered somthing. They nodded promptly.

THE PERIPATETIC TELESCOPE MAN FAIRLY COINED MONEY.

"I will not detain you further, gentlemen," said the Mayor to the scientists. "I thank you for your assistance. I can only regret that the circumstances make it unavailing."

The philosophers solemnly walked out of the room, and maintained stillness until the street was reached. There they would have at once embarked in a heated discussion had not the police on guard insisted on their immediate repair beyond the danger lines.

One of the two men beside the Mayor appended his name to a check for one hundred thousand dollars. His signature would have been honored for five hundred times that sum. The torpedo would fall directly on his roof. The other impressed a stamp on the face of the check and dashed a quick scrawl over it. The Chemical Bank of New York had now guaranteed its payment. The Mayor put it in his pocketbook with a sigh of disappointment, and his visitors withdrew.

The man called Julius sat in the captain's room in the Thirtieth Street police station calmly smoking and reading the latest extra evening newspaper. If the populace had known where he was, he would probably have also listened—though with equal imperturbability—to the howls of a raging mob in the street outside. But that information had been carefully withheld even from the reporters, and consequently the street, being within the danger district, so far from being the scene of an incipient riot, was entirely deserted save by the policemen on guard. Since his interview with the superintendent, the police had burned with a mediaeval desire to extract from Julius the knowledge which he claimed to possess, by the prompt infliction of any reasonable variety of torture. Carried away by the enthusiasm of the moment, the police captain in whose care he was placed conceived the brilliant notion of sending him, in charge of two stalwart patrolmen, to be kept directly under the balloon as it moved around. But the designated guardians promptly rebeled when Julius pointed out to them that they would be just as liable to destruction as himself; and as he declined of his own volition to repair to the threatened localities alone, the captain reconsidered the project and locked him up until some less objectionable plan could be matured.

Julius was deep in a lurid biography of himself (where he learned, for the first time, that he was a Russian exile of Anarchistic antecedents, and that his personal appearance was truly represented by a worn-out woodcut of Mr. Chauncey Depew, duly decorated with bushy hair and a straggling beard), when the captain entered the room, snapped the nippers around his wrist, gave him his hat and told him to "come along!" The captain was not communicative, and Julius asked no questions, so the pair proceeded in silence through the deserted streets to the 44th street boarding house, and up to the attic room.

(To be concluded.)

—The first game of tennis on the Park Club courts will be played Saturday afternoon.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

Tests of the laboratory and the kitchen show

Cleveland's Baking Powder

the best that money can buy.

It's "pure" and "sure."

Our cook book mailed free on receipt of stamp and address.
Cleveland Baking Powder Co., 81 Fulton St., New York.

—Work is still at a standstill on the construction of sewers on Central avenue, owing to the lack of pipe.

—The cesspool of the Netherwood Hotel caved in on Leland avenue yesterday, and perfumed the neighborhood. The Board of Health was notified of the circumstance and abated the nuisance.

New York Announcement.

"Our American Homes and How to Furnish Them"

Can readily be ascertained by visiting

HORNER'S

Great Furniture Emporium

where everything is of the best quality, artistic excellence, and moderate in price. No such assortment of reliable goods can be seen in America.

Over two hundred and fifty distinctly different Bedroom Sets in all the various woods, Brass Bedsteads in over seventy patterns, as well as endless lines of Parlor, Drawing-Room, Library and Dining-Room Furniture.

Hundreds of Imported Novelties particularly suitable for presents, or home use and decoration.

All prices in plain figures.

R. J. HORNER & CO.,

Furniture Makers and Importers,

61-65 W. 23d St., New York,

Adjoining Eden Musee.

Horner & Co.'s establishment is one of the sights of New York.—Newspaper Comment.

Struck by a Sunbeam

Was the man who thought it was winter still, and that the old suit would see him through spring.

Yesterday the sun came out bright and warm and he decided a new suit was a necessity

He is Dead

On to the fact that we are selling the best suits that are to be had for the money, and $12 rigged him out in a suit fit to appear before a King in.

Neither you nor he will buy here once. We seldom lose a customer That's why it pays us to sell our perfect clothing at such low prices.

Everyone knows it,

But we may as well state it here that we can save you from $3 to $5 in a suit on what a similar quality will cost you in New York.

MC GREGOR & CO.,

850-852 Broad St.,

Newark, N. J.

THE LOVELIEST GOODS YOU EVER SAW.

That is the verdict of the ladies regarding the

WASH GOODS

AT PECK'S.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 2 21 tf

GOOD cash meat and vegetable market for sale on account of sickness. Will be sold right. Box 305 Somerville, N. J. 5 1 3

BOARDERS wanted at 922 Putnam ave., near La Grande ave. 4 29 6

STORAGE to let in Stillman block. 4 29 6

FOR SALE—Shetland pony (5 years old), Bradley cart and harness. A nice smart rig. Address Richmond, Press office. 5 1 3

CORNER flats to let; all improvements; steam heat. Miller 339 Park avenue. 4 30 5

PAINTERS wanted. Apply E. E. Marshall. North avenue. 5 2 tf

WANTED—Situation as cook or laundress. S., care Press. 5 2 3

$1,000 to $3,500 to loan, first mortgage. Mulford broker. 4 22 tf

YOUNG colored man wants work. Experienced. References. Call 524 West Second street. 5 1 tf

WANTED—Small house about seven rooms with some improvements, rent moderate. Not over 10 minutes from depot. Address A T, care Press. 5 2 2

GENTLEMAN, wife, child and nurse wish board; state terms. Address M. J., care Press.

LAUNDRESS wanted to do washing at her home. Address A., Box 261, Plainfield, N. J.

FOR SALE—Nearly new sidebar buggy; bargain. H. L. Weber, corner West Second and Liberty streets 5 3 6

FOR SALE—One curtain rockaway, in perfect order; one open jump-seat wagon; double and single harness; one tandem bicycle (Number make), nearly new. Call before 9 a. m. or after 6 p. m., on W. H. Hillman, 818 Sherman avenue.

FOR SALE—Bronmas and Houdons eggs for hatching. Call at 72 Summit avenue. 5 3 2*

WANTS AND OFFERS.

WANTED—By a young girl place at upstairs work, apply at 513 West Sixth street. 5 2 2

FOR SALE—Cheap, one Victoria carriage nearly new; one Brougham; set double carriage harness; one black saddle stallion. Inquire S. B. Wheeler, Mountain avenue, or Mrs. Edith W. McCarthy, 1038 Park ave. 4 8 tf

SIX ROOM flat to let; all improvements. 200 West 2d st. 3 4 tf

TO LET—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping; no children. Apply 103 Duer street. 3 6 tf

TABLE boarders wanted in private family. Apply 303 West Fourth st. 2 7 tf

FOR SALE—Pony phaeton. Frank Hedden's livery, 118 E. 4th st. 3 28 tf

COW for sale. Jersey and Ayrshire. Milks 18 quarts richest milk. Due May 17. Price $50. Apply 517 East Front street. 5 3 2

WANTED—A competent girl for chamber work and waiting. 418 East Front street.

WANTED—2 or 3 unfurnished rooms by young couple for light housekeeping, near station preferred; terms moderate. Address L., care Press. 5 3 2

COLORED man and wife want position as coachman and cook; good references. Address George Taylor, 140 Avenue E, Bayonne, N. J.

WANTED—Bright girls for saleladies. Apply at Press office.

MUSIC HALL,

Joseph Sohl, Lessee and Manager.
Telephone call 49B.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT OF

LEWIS MORRISON,

MONDAY, MAY 6,

In his great creation of MEPHISTO. In a dramatic presentation of Goethe's immortal masterpiece

FAUST

Supported by a competent company of artists including MISS FLORENCE ROBERTS as Marguerite. Beautiful scenery, magnificent costumes, wonderful electrical effects. The great Brocken scene.

Prices, 35, 50, 75 and $1.00.

ACTUAL VALUE.

Hardly an article advertised now-a days but what reads 49c value 98c or 69c value $1.25. Do you believe? Guess not. Goods are only worth what they will bring and if the article sells for 49c 'tis all its worth, as the general run of merchants get all they can Don't blame them as they are all after dollars. It's only the one who offers the most and is satisfied with the quick profit that gets the business. Don't you like

OUR WAY.

HOSIERY.

Ladies fast black seamless 13c; mens fast black seamless 13c; mens fast navy seamless 10c; childrens fast black seamless 12c; childrens fast black double knee 15c; and they are worth it

MEN'S SHIRTS.

Fine summer balbriggan they are, drawers to match We bought them last winter at a price that we named, and we named it low. The regular 75c quality yours for 39c each

DRESS GOODS

50 pieces all kinds 39c; 45 inch imperial serges 45c; 40 inch figured brilliantine, black, 98c; 100 pieces as many patterns 39c; 30 inch swivel silk figured 43c; 30 inch swivel silk plain colors 27c; and they are worth it

LINENS.

How low we sell them—100 doz huck towels 10c each; ¾ fine dinner napkins $1.19 doz; 60 inch cream damask 33c; 18 inch heavy brown toweling 8c; and they are worth it

WASH GOODS.

Dress ginghams 6c; dress ginghams 8c; crinkled crepons 7c; figured dimities 9c; outing flannel 7c; fine jackonets 17c; fine crepons 17c; 30 inch percales 6c; fine white dimities 12c; fine figured mulls 8c

CAPES.

Only takes a glance to tell you ours are of the latest in style and you find just what you want at a quarter and sometimes half what you expected to pay

YOU

Know we keep most everything and if you don't know our way of merchandising we want you to (as it stands the test) Must be a pretty good way as all our esteemed competitors try to follow us but we keep them a guessing

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 North Avenue.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

—Wm. Jones has purchased a Victor wheel.

—Eighteen bowlers made scores of over 200 on the Park Club alleys during the month of April, as against forty for the month of February.

—Fred Walton, Wm. Nicholson and David Thompson, the committee having in charge the coming entertainment of Hope Chapel, are busy picking out the dialogues and other features of which it will consist.

Shiloh's cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient consumption; it is the best cough cure, only 1c a dose; 25, 50c, $1. Sold by all druggists.

Karl's Clover Root, the great blood purifier, gives freshness and clearness to the complexion and cures constipation; 25c 50c, $1. Sold by all druggists.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "Shiloh's Vitalizer saved my life; I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used. For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels; 75c Sold by all druggists.

DEATHS.

HILLMAN—At DeLand, Florida, April 30, Samuel T. Hillman.
Funeral at First Baptist Church, West Seventy-ninth street and Boulevard, New York, Sunday, May 5, at 3 p. m.

MUSIC HALL.

Jos. Sohl, Lessee and Manager
Telephone 49B.

FRIDAY, MAY 3,

America's Representative Black Face Comedy Organization.

Vreeland's Minstrels!

T. D. Middaugh, Manager; A. J. Anderson, General Agent; presenting every existing feature of Ethiopian Entertainment, headed by the great and only HANK GOODMAN. A wealth of pleasing surprises. A cluster of brilliant gems. A score of startling novelties. A hundred new ideas. No relics of antiquity. EVERYTHING New! Street parade by Middaugh's Gold Band! Seats now on sale, prices 35, 50, 75 and $1.00.

—THE—

Rev. C. B. Mitchell, D.D.

of Kansas City, (formerly of Plainfield) who has just returned from an extensive trip to Egypt, Palestine and Syria, will deliver a lecture in the

M. E. CHURCH,

Front street, Monday Evening, MAY 6, at 8 p. m. for the benefit of the Women's Home Missionary Society.

Subject—"Was it an Accident?"

Admission Fee, - - - 25 Cents.

SANITARY CODE.

Timely Suggestions to Plainfield People.

The Board of Health directs attention to ordinances 4, 5 and 6 of the sanitary code.

Cellars, backyards and outhouses should be immediately cleaned by the removal of all ashes and rubbish.

$25 fine for dumping any refuse materials anywhere within the city limits except at the gravel pit—dump beyond Richmond street. Old cans, papers or rubbish of any kind must not be placed in the street. Occupants of stores must not sweep dust, papers or rubbish upon the sidewalk or street. All sweepings must be gathered up into barrels and sent to the dump above named. The streets must be kept in good condition.

Garbage must be kept separate from ashes and other refuse. The garbage collectors are required to call regularly for the same.

Cesspools and privy vaults should be cleaned before warm weather.

By scrupulous cleanliness, good health will be maintained, and the reputation of our city promoted.

GEORGE W. ROCKFELLOW,
President
Board of Health.

Dunellen Bowlers.

The following is the result of the games played in the two-men bowling tournament at Dunellen last night:

Young	147
Squires	153	300
Woolston	131
Wilson	152	283
Young	129
Squires	150	279
Woolston	161
Wilson	171	332
Kiely	139
Krewson	199	338
Woolston	187
Wilson	145	332
Kiely	157
Krewson	171	328
Woolston	155
Wilson	153	308
Krewson	142
Kiely	128	270
Young	128
Squires	162	290
Kiely	133
Krewson	161	294
Young	138
Squires	153	291

The tournament will probably be finished May 26.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE

—Fair weather tomorrow.

—Vreeland's Minstrels promise a great show in Music Hall tonight.

—The Borough Council hold their regular monthly meeting tonight.

—The flagging in front of the Stephenson building on West Front street is being relaid.

—Eighteen members of the Y. M. C. A. Bicycle Club enjoyed the run to Rahway last night.

—J. H. McVey is improving the exterior of his North avenue restaurant by a coat of paint.

—The Y. M. C. A. was yesterday presented with a mammoth calendar, the dates of which are twelve inches in height.

—Wm. Classean, the Liberty street tonsorial artist, has now completed the baths in his shop, and will have them in condition for use tonight.

—It speaks for itself—the big ad of the Eldridge Bicycle Co., on Page 8. The Columbia still leads, and the Eldridge Co. is right at the head of the procession.

—The Masters Plumbers Association will meet in the Elkwood Building this evening, when matters of importance will be discussed relative to their trade.

—A slight blaze in the drying room of the Chinese laundry on North avenue caused a little excitement among the celestials at 3 yesterday afternoon, though no damage was done.

—The many friends of Ramsey Blair will be glad to learn that he can hereafter be found at Crane's hat store Saturday evening, ready to serve all who will favor him with their patronage.

—A beautiful handpainted turkey platter, with mermet roses for decorations, is displayed in J. Hervey Doane's window today. It is the work of Miss Beatrice Craig of College place.

—Franklin Council, No. 41, J. O. U. A. M., did herself proud last night, when she entertained several of the State officers and brethren from visiting Councils in the vicinity. 200 Juniors were present —A meeting of the joint committee of the Camera Club and Crescent Wheelmen will probably be held next week to arrange for the entertainment which is to be given for the benefit of the two organizations.

—The first of a series of monthly dances by the Young Men's Catholic Lyceum was held in the Lyceum hall last night. Fully 200 were present, and spent a very pleasant social time. Music was furnished by Eugene O'Reilly.

—A large hanging lamp in Wm. Thickstun's real estate office on North avenue fell from its position last night, breaking the chimney and top, permitting the oil to run out. The oil ignited, but the flame was extinguished before any damage was done.

THE GREAT AMERICAN DRINK---Soda Water,

is the best of all drinks when rightly served. We use many syrups—all good—but we must "brag" a little about our orange (fresh from fruit), our chocolate and coffee; none can be finer. As to cream—take your choice: Ice cream, whipped cream, plain cream.

Reynolds's Pharmacy,

Park and North avenues.

Death of S. T. Hillman.

Samuel T. Hillman, formerly a well-known resident of this city died at Deland, Florida, Tuesday. While a resident of Plainfield he lived with his daughter, Mrs. Frank E. Kinsman, of Sherman avenue. He was early identified with the church history of the town, though a member of no one of them.

His services as a lay preacher are remembered by many of the older residents, and especially by Dr. Yerkes, who was his intimate friend. He was 72 years of age. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 in the First Baptist Church, West 79th street and Boulevard, New York.

The Saengerbund's May Walk.

At the meeting of the Saengerbund Society last night it was decided to change the date of the May walk from Sunday, May 19 to Sunday, May 12. The place of destination was not set, although it is thought it will be to Washington Rock. John Wurth and Lewis Sodoer were elected members of the organization.

The Councilmanic Fire and Water Committee will meet tonight.

Miss Josie Butscher of West Fourth street is improving from an extended illness.

—Wm. Hauptman of the Chinatown Midnight Mission will again address the Y. M. C. A. men's meeting Sunday afternoon at 4:15.

—"Was It an Accident?" will be the topic of a charming talk given by Rev. Dr. C. B. Mitchell in the M. E. Church next Monday evening.

—A watch chain and charm, lost by Israel Jones, steward of the Park Club, was returned to the owner yesterday afternoon through a Daily Press reporter.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Worth Co., who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Fort Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad that he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he procured a bottle of it and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Norman C. Magne of Hanson place is out again after a short illness.

F. M. Bacon is improving daily from the effects of the operation of three weeks ago.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe of Boston will preach Sunday morning in All Souls Church.

C. W. Smith and family have removed from the corner of Duer and Emily streets to a more palatial residence, 33 Willow avenue, Washington Park.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Demarest of Crescent avenue, returned Wednesday from Washington, D. C. They had the honor of riding on the first train that passed through the B. & O. tunnel at Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burton Groendyke, who have been spending the Winter in New York city, have returned to the home of Mrs. Groendyke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. F. Randolph, West End Park, for the Summer.

P. B. Wright of Hotel Netherlands bade his Plainfield friends goodbye today, preliminary to boarding the steamship La Bourgoyne of the French line to-morrow morning, for a three months tour of France, England, Ireland, Scotland and Germany. He will accept an invitation to spend two weeks with Mme. Lehman, great opera singers, at her home in Berlin.

—Fulper will provide a great assortment of fresh vegetables for tomorrow's trade. He is the low-price, high-grade grocer.

His Affliction.

"You seem ill," she said, solicitously.

"I am not feeling well," the youth replied. "The fact is I'm troubled with heart failure."

"Oh, how terrible!"

"Yes. I started four times to ask your father's consent to our marriage, and every time my heart failed me."—Washington Star.

Greater New York.

New York's police census shows a population of 1,888,780. If the population of Brooklyn were to be added to this the figures would reach nearly 3,000,000. Greater New York will be far on the way to overtake London.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

More Enjoyable.

Money would be more enjoyable if it took people as long to spend it as it does to earn it.—Economist.

More Than Can Readily Assimulate With Americanism is Detrimental.

If the figures be correct that 312,771 steerage passengers left this country last year for their native places in Europe, and that only 314,467 European immigrants arrived here, leaving the net gain in population from abroad but 1,696 for the year, there is no need for any American repining on that account.

Even if a great part of the aliens who left us last year under pressure of the bad times prevalent in this country should find it to their interest to stay away permanently, there would not be any sense in our suffering depression for that reason.

It is not desirable that we should have an immigration of six or seven hundred thousand foreign born persons every year. We had 789,000 one year; and we had 670,000 another year. It cannot be atvantageous to the United States that such a vast body of aliens shall be added to our population every year. It is not advantageous to the immigrants themselves.

We have already nearly 10,000,000 foreign born persons in the United States, or one-sixth of the total population. It is a larger proportion than exists in any other country, excepting Australia.

We would not be grieved if immigration were to decline to 100,000 a year. We are inclined to think that it would be a good thing for this country, and perhaps for other countries, if it never thereafter went beyond that number.

It is of importance that the ten millions of Europeans already here should be well assimilated with the American community, before we get ten millions more of them.

There ought to be a good measure of homo-geneity among the elements of the community. Some of the foreign elements now among us are pertinacious in their resistance to assimilation. They remain aliens in spirit and in speech even after they have gone through the process known as naturalization. The manifestations of this alienation from American life are far too obvious at times, even in politics.

Foreigners who come to this country to make it their home ought to seek for baptism, according to the Baptist rite, or from head to heels, in the waters of Americanism and patriotism. It is consoling that their children born among us rarely ever need any other Americanization than their birth.

The population of the United States is enlarging satisfactorily by its own increase. When the coming generation arrives at maturity, there will probably, through that increase, be 100,000,000 people in this broad and blessed country.—N.Y. Sun.

It's Their Loss; Your Gain!

There are constantly being offered in the markets Fine Goods through Receivers and Bankrupt Sales, at a Great Sacrifice to the Importer and Manufacturer.

OUR buyers who are constantly on the watch for these good things, and who, by a thorough experience in the markets, know a good bargain when they see it, are doing excellent service in that line, and our many patrons are the gainers thereby.

IF YOU will examine the articles we advertise from time to time, you will find the above statement verified.

We never buy trashy Goods for the sake of quoting a Low Price.

SATURDAY-SPECIALS FROM 2 P.M. TO CLOSING.

FREE—We will give to each purchaser of goods amounting to 15c or over a glass of our excellent soda (one glass to each customer only) to introduce our new departure.

JEWELRY.

Great bargains in silver and gold plated jewelry, comprising, studs, belt pins, belt buckles, garter clasps, stick pins and hair pins The usual asking price for these goods is about double our Saturday's price 10c.

An excellent 25c bottle of bouquet cologne with sprinkler top, very beautiful and lasting fragrance, sold everywhere at 25c Our price 10c a bottle.

Boys' shirt waists in a large variety of designs, fast colors, all sizes, nothing to equal this waist elsewhere under 50c. Our Saturda's price 25.

Children's reefers in Navy, Tan, Brown and Red, all sizes, prettily trimmed with braid, newest styles, every garment worth at the very least $1 98 and $2 25. Our Saturday's special price $1 69

Cloth capes, prettily trimmed with tinsil braids, nothing to equal this garment elsewhere at $1 25 and $1 50 Our Saturday's price 89c and $1 10.

HOUSE WRAPPERS.

We shall offer on Saturday as long as they last, some very pretty patterns of wrappers, made with generous wide skirts, large sleeves and ruffle over the shoulder, all sizes Unsurpassable value at 79c, Our Saturday's price 48c.

A 75c. box of lettuce-cream soap, warranted absolutely pure, an excellent agent for the skin and complexion, as long as they last, 10c. a box of 3 cakes.

WOMEN'S OXFORDS

74c, 98c, $1.19, $1.48, $2, $3, $3.50, $4—black or tan, pointed, square or common sense toes.

WE USE—nothing but the genuine Nevel stock in our tan goat shoes for misses and children. It will wear as long again as the ordinary. A full assortment of tan goods now ready for your inspection.

Doane & Edsall.

SOMETHING OF ESPECIAL INTEREST.

Special sale of bleached sheetings in 8-4 and 9-4 widths, usually sold at 22 cts and 25 cts a yard. Our price 13 and 15 cts a yard.

Clearance sale of short lengths of bleached muslins, 8-4 and 9-4 widths, all to go at half original prices.

An excellent line of sheer and dainty Percales, in a variety that make choice most difficult; unsurpassable value at 12½ cts. Our price 9 cts.

COUNTERPANES.

Marseilles and crotchet quilts, large size, exquisite designs, sold everywhere at 98 cts $1 25, $1 39 and 1 65. Our price 65 cts, 99 cts, $1 15 and $1 25.

CAPES.

Ladies' capes, made of silk, velvet and cloth, prettily trimmed with lace, jet and ribbons, sold elsewhere at 4 98, 5 25, $3 50 and $9. Our price $3 75. 3 99, 5.57, and $5 98.

MOREEN SKIRTS.

An excellent Moreen skirt, with full ruffle, usually sold for $4 98. Our price $3 20.

FANS

We have just opened up an exquisite line of fans, ranging in price from 10 cts to $2 50 each. The usual asking price is fully 25 per cent. more.

HOUSE WRAPPERS.

Wrappers made up of fine percales in all colors, including indigo, full skirt, cape falling from yoke over large sleeves, trimmed with very pretty contrasting braids, all sizes, at 69 cts, 89 cts, $1 10 and $1 25. Usual asking price fully 25 per cent. more.

TAFFETA SILKS.

Special bargain in black and colored all-silk taffeta, in an excellent assortment of designs, the most sought for silk of the season. Sold everywhere at 89 cts and $1 a yard. Our price 65 cts and 75 cts a yard.

25 ct paper books, by standard authors, good print, full titles. Our price 3 cts. each.

GROCERY DEPARTMENT.

TERMS CASH!

First Quality Goods, and open for inspection, if requested.

AT 5c! CAN!

Tomatoes, the pride of Sussex brand, solid packed. Sold elsewhere at 10 and 12 cents per can.

String Beans, Farrous, very tender. The regular 9c quality.

5c Cases Queen Sugar Corn. All the above for this sale only, at 5c per can. None of the above items sold to dealers.

AT 5c! CAN!

Try a Cup of Hasty Lunch Chocolate, Warranted strictly pure.

We serve it to all visitors, in our Big Basement.

Housefurnishing Department.

SPECIAL PRICES.

Summer Goods. Summer Goods.

Window screens, hard wood frames, 10c and up.
Screen doors, well made, 79c and up.
Lawn mowers, best make, $2.29.
Ice cream freezers, best make, $1.48.
Baby carriages, large variety, $3.98 and up.
Oil and gas stoves at bottom prices. 1, 2 and 3 burner at 59c, $1.49 and $2.39 each.
Special low prices on refrigerators. Best makes; all sizes in stock.

7c Sale, 7c Sale, 7c Sale

$10.00 Cash

purchases in our

CARPET DEPARTMENT,

secures you a handsome Moquette Rug

FREE.

We are offering many bargains in our Dry Goods Department; a few we mention below:

Best Gingham
Best Calico
Best Lining Cambric } 3 1/2c Yard.

The celebrated Mignon kid, regular $1 25 for 75c. We allow you a cash discount of 5 per cent. from our already low prices

WHITNEY'S,

122 East Front Street, Near City Bank.

$1.00

At J. F. MacDonald's Uptown Grocery,

buys $1.co worth of Groceries every business day in the year. Our goods are sold at a profit so as to enable us to give weight and quality to our customers and have something left for ourselves No fictitious prices. No man is in business for his health.

J. F. MAC DONALD

Decorated 10-piece Toilet Sets $1.60

Dorflinger's Cut Glass,

Gas Fixtures Repaired.

The Welsbach Light.

Gavett's.

129 East Front st.

Grand Opening Every Day

AT A W. FULPER'S!

1 pound 50c tea, 1 can milk, 3 pounds sugar, 1 loaf bread, half dozen boxes matches

50c All for 50c 50c

Not as an introduction but an every day occurrence. The very best goods; the very lowest prices. Sugar cured ham 10c pound; best Elgin creamery butter 20c, 5 pounds for 95 cts; good creamery butter 15c; 2 pounds extra combination coffee for 25c; 2 pounds extra creamery cheese for 25c; good creamery cheese 10c pound; 3 cakes Babbitt's soap 13c; Babbitt's 1776 per package 3c; best ginger snaps 4c.

"GO TO RANDOLPH'S."

That's the order the thorough business man gives his cabman when he needs anything in DRUGS, OR MEDICINES.

He buys on business principles. Goes where he gets most value for least money.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist, 143 West Front st.

Had You Thought of the Difference?

Special sale usually means a smaller profit than usual, but an

Assignee's Sale

means something else—it means a sale below cost for cash to settle up a business. So if you want a suit of clothes come to the Schepflin & Schultz assignee sale.

J. F. MacDonald,

Assignee for Schepflin, Schultz & Co.,

318 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.

Hats. new shapes, Trunks and Bags cheap E. M. LAING,

All sizes in Packing Trunks. 105 Park avenue.

HALLOCK is showing choice patterns in Percale Shirts, with 2 collars and pair cuffs, and these collars and cuffs are the latest patterns—no old back numbers G. A HALLOCK,

Hats and Furnishing Goods, 109 West Front st.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

DEALERS IN

Lumber. Coal. Mason's Material. &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

CURE THAT COUGH WITH SHILOH'S CURE

TAKE THE BEST

25cts., 50cts. and $1.00 Bottle. One cent a dose.

THIS GREAT COUGH CURE promptly cures where all others fail, Coughs, Croup, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough and Asthma. For Consumption it has no rival: has cured thousands, and will CURE YOU if taken in time. Sold by Druggists on a guarantee. For a Lame Back or Chest, use SHILOH'S BELLADONNA PLASTER. 25c.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY.

Have you Catarrh? This remedy is guaranteed to cure you. Price, 50 cts. Injector free.

Sold by all druggists.

6 14 y

H. Hand,

LICENSED AUCTIONEER.

15 YEARS EXPERIENCE.

esidence and postoffice address

SCOTCH PLAINS, N. J.

Office in Plainfield at Terrill & Cole's Livery, 200 West 2d st. 1 12 tf

---

W. K. McCLURE,

Counselor-at-Law.

SUPREME COURT COMMISSIONER.

First National Bank Building.

W. R. Codington's

LAW OFFICES.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.
Solicitor and Master in Chancery.
Notary Public.

The sign on the windows reads

Woolston & Buckle,

Paper Hangers.

We have had the door hinges and latch oiled up so that getting in is easy. So also is the getting out.
Prices are so low on Wall Papers that you will buy before you go.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION.

The Civil Service Commission at Washington has ordered that an examination be held in this city on Saturday, June 1, 1895 commencing at 9 o'clock, a. m., for the grades of clerk and carrier in the city postoffice. Only citizens of the United States can be examined. The age limitations are as follows: For carrier, not under 21 nor over 40; for all other positions, not under 18 years. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed with the undersigned in complete form, on the proper blank, before the hour of closing business on May 13, 1895.

The Civil Service Commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens who may desire to enter the postal service, without regard to their political affiliation. All such citizens, whether Democrats or Republicans, or neither, are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to their political views, or to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination.

For application blanks, full instructions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, apply at the postoffice to

G. C. GODOWN,
Secretary Board of Examiners.

See What $1.00 Will Do

AT THE

Plainfield Tea and Grocery Co.

106 E. FRONT ST.,

H. S. WILLIAMS, Manager.]

All Goods Warranted as Represented.

1 lb. Special Mixed Tea,	50c.
1 lb. Coffee, -	32
Quarter lb. Pepper,	10
One Can Corn, -	10
One Can Tomatoes, -	10
One Can Pease, -	10
One Can Milk -	10
One Paper Corn Starch,	10
One Paper Cocoanut,	10

☞ $1.52

Cut out this Coupon and bring it and $1 to our store and get all the above articles for $1 Cash!

LIST OF ADVERTISED LETTERS

Post-office, Plainfield, N. J., April 29, 1895.

[Officially furnished weekly for publication in THE DAILY PRESS.]

Anderson Mrs Hattie	King Miss
Anderson Miss Beda	Lovenklau Carl
Burk Mrs John	Mills W J
Burnett D	Miller Mrs
Coghill Howard	Poter Mrs Lizzie
Connolly John	Peet Miss Sue
Colts Maggie	Rogers Robert G
Cockert Joseph	Rowland Mrs H H 2
Clarke Musical Ag'cy	Raymond Geo S
Duderstadt Hugo	Rolke Miss Kate
Eldridge J R	Romolo Del Vesco
Greely Mrs W B	Ross D H
Hamilton Constance	Terneall Miss
Hansen Andreas E	The Christian Herald
Hare Ida C	Tator Lena
Hurlbrut Chas C	Wyckoff Mrs Mary
Husleman Miss H	Wartson Lena B
Hall Mrs Mary A	Wilson Mr and Mrs J
Hayden Patrick	Willmose Mrs Martha
Howell Jean Kirk	Whyte Mrs Emma

VICTORY FOR CUBANS

The First Real Battle of the War.

Revolutionists Said To Have Defeated 3,500 Spanish Troops—The Latter's Loss Over 400 Killed and 200 Captured—Republic Formed at Palenque.

Jacksonville, Fla. May 3.—A cablegram from Key West, Fla., says: Private advices to this city by the steamship Olivette last night state that Havana, where one month ago matters had an every day appearance, is to-day in a fever of excitement. Steamships leaving that port for Key West, Tampa, New York, New Orleans and Mexico are crowded with passengers.

Many Joining the Rebels.

Many young men of the best families are joing the insurgents, and students are leaving college for the same purpose. Jose Maceo, reported by a Spanish newspaper to have committed suicide, has taken the field at the head of 700 men. In a battle at Arrajo Hondo, in the province of Guantanamo, Maceo defeated Colonel Bosch, commanding 400 Spanish troops with heavy loss.

Captured by the Insurgents.

It is reported in Havana that Colonel Santocildes, a distinguished officer of the Spanish army, has been captured by General Maco and held prisoner. Maximo Gomez, accompanied by 1,000 men, is reported moving towards Camaguay, in Puerto Principe. The Spanish capitalists, knowing the true situation in Cuba, are shipping money out of the country for safety. Business, in consequence of the spreading enthusiasm in favor of the Cubans, is becoming more depressed every day.

First Real Battle.

One of the passengers said that Gen. Maximo Gomez, with the forces of Pique Perez and Gen. Maceo, numbering 2,500 infantry and 300 cavalry, attempted to invade the province of Camaguay. While on their march Gen. Salcedo hastened with 3,500 troops to intercept and prevent the Cuban invasion. They met at Jaragueta, the Cubans surprising the Spanish forces. The Cubans surrounded their enemy and seven times charged them with their machetes. The Spaniards finally intrenched themselves and made a stubborn resistance. During the conflict 200 Cubans were killed and wounded, while the Spanish loss was between 400 and 500. Two hundred Spaniards were captured. The Cubans then proceeded on their march to Camaguay. This occurred on April 23. This was the first real battle of the war.

Say a Republic Was Formed.

The passengers positively assert that the Cuban republic was formed at Palenque about a week ago. Thomas Estrada is said to have been named as president, Jose Marti as foreign minister and secretary and Maximo Gomez as general in command of the entire army. Palma is now in New York. He was the last president of the Cuban republic.

Cuban Correspondent Arrested.

Santiago De Cuba, May 3.—A Cuban named Fuentes, who has been reporting the war for a New York daily, was arrested at Guantanamo yesterday. He is suspected of complicity with the insurgents.

MRS. PARNELL'S CONDITION.

Still Unable To Tell of the Assault of Two Weeks Ago.

Bordentown N. J., May 3.—Although it was two weeks ago last night since Mrs. Delia T. Parnell was assaulted and robbed while on her way home, there have been no arrests in the case that are considered important. Mrs. Parnell's condition remains about the same. She does not seem to improve and is unable to make any statement regarding the attack on her. The board of freeholders of Burlington county have approved of the action of Prosecutor Budd in offering a reward of $250 for the arrest of the person or persons who attacked Mrs. Parnell and robbed her.

Passenger Train Wrecked.

Marshalltown, Ia., May 3.—A tie placed on the track of the Chicago & Western railroad between Green Mountain and Glad Brook wrecked the north bound passenger train. The engine and three coaches were thrown down an embankment, where they are lying now. The baggageman and brakeman were slightly hurt, and all the passengers escaped. The track was cleared this morning.

Nice Men With Nice Names Killed.

Wichita, Kan., May 3.—"Slaughter Kid" and "Bitter Creek," two notorious outlaws, who participated in the recent train robbery near Dover, were surprised while eating breakfast in the Pottowatomie country yesterday by Deputy Marshal Sam Shafer, of Guthrie, and a posse of four. The officers opened fire, killing him instantly.

Yesterday's Baseball Games.

At Philadelphia—Philadelphia, 4; New York, 9. At Brooklyn—Brooklyn, 8; Baltimore, 6. At Boston—Boston, 9; Washington, 7. At Pittsburg—Pittsburg, 8; Cincinnati, 9. At Cleveland—Cleveland, 9; St. Louis, 4. At Chicago—Chicago, 4; Louisville, 5.

To Wind Up Old Affairs.

Boston, May 3.—The action of Judge Wallace in granting an order for the sale of the New York & New England property by auction is simply a move on the part of the committee on reorganization to wind up the affairs of the old company.

An Old Woman Killed.

Utica, N. Y., May 3.—Mrs. Anna Quigley, of Frankfort, 67 years old, walked into the cellar-way instead of her own room Wednesday night. Her body was found at the foot of the stairs with the neck broken yesterday.

Paris Strike Leaders Sentenced.

Paris, May 3.—Proust and Deville, the leaders of the recent omnibus strike, were sentenced yesterday to six months' imprisonment each for inciting the men to disorder and violence.

Hitt's Condition Unchanged.

Washington, May 3.—There is no change in the condition of Representative Hitt, of Illinois. Though seriously ill no immediate danger is apprehended.

The Pennsylvania Railroad.

The "Standard Railway of America"

Protected throughout by the Interlocking Switch and Block Signal System.

On and after Jan. 20, 1895, trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

FAST LINE leaves Philadelphia 12 25 p m daily with Pullman Vestibule parlor and sleeping cars for Pittsburg, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

6.37 P. M. WESTERN EXPRESS, with Pullman Vestibule sleeping cars, dining car daily for Pittsburg, Chicago, Cleveland, daily except Saturday, for Toledo. Williamsport, Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

8.54 p.m.—SOUTH WESTERN EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping car, daily, to Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, and Memphis. Dining car Altoona to Richmond.

8 45 p. m.—PACIFIC EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping cars, daily, for Pittsburg, Columbus, Chicago, and Toledo, daily, except Saturday for Cleveland.

For Baltimore, Washington and the South—1 06 9.06, 9.36 a. m., 2.20 p. m.

Sundays, 1, 9 06, 9.36 a. m., 9 41 p. m.

For Baltimore only 1 27 p. m., week-days.

For Newark and New York—3 02, 5 54, 6 46, 8 17, 8 45, 9 07, 9 20, 9 37, 9 56, 10 08, 10 28, 10 47, 11 07, 11 25 a. m., 12 15, 1 25, 1 55, 2 24, 3 40, 3 48, 3 57, 4 47, 5 02, 5 15, 5 26, 5 40, 6 08, 6 27, 6 53, 7 07, 7 25, 7 39, 8 17, 9 06, 10 03, 11 03 and 11 56 p. m.

Sundays 3 02, 3 54, 7 54, 8 46, 9 20, 9 47, 10 12, 10 32, 10 49 a. m., 12 32, 1 45, 3 32, 5 05, 5 45, 6 26, 6 54, 7 56, 7 12, 7 25, 7 56, 8 20, 9 15, 10 16, 1 46 and 11 56 p. m.

For New York only, 6 10 a. m. daily.

For Philadelphia—1 00, 6 37, 7 12, 9 03, 9 26, 11 42 a. m., 1 37, 3 26, 5 04, 6 25, 7 45, 8 42, 9 50 p. m. Sundays at 1 00, 6 37, 9 03, 9 26, 10 41 a. m., 1 37, 6 37, 7 47 and 9 41 p. m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY

(2 25p.m. with through Buffet parlor car) Sundays 6 50 a. m.

Cape May, Sea Isle City and Ocean City 1 37 p. m. weekdays.

For Rahway—7 42 daily ex. Monday, 4 08, 6 44, 7 10, 7 50, 9 54, 10 50, 11 50, 12 45, a. m., 12 45, 1 11, 1 37, 2 45 3 20, 3 50, 4 20, 4 55, 5 22, 6 06, 6 06 6 13, 6 17, 6 27, 7 05, 8 02, 8 59, 9 55, 10 45 and 11 45 p. m. and 12 37 night week-days Sundays, 1, 45, 4 20, 8 45, 9 40, 10 25 10 41 and 11 47 a. m., 12 50, 1 50, 3 47, 5 25, 6 00, 6 20, 6 40, 7 21, 7 37, 7 47, 8 34, 8 47, 9 36, 10 14, 11 and 11 55 p. m.

For New Brunswick—1 00, 6 37, 7 10, 7 50, 9 05 9 26, 9 50, 11 42 a. m., 12 26, 1 37, 2 45, 3 50, 4 25, 5 05, 5 40, 6 25, 6 45, 7 45, 9 39 and 11 03 p. m. Sundays, 1 00, 6 37, 9 05, 9 26 9 40, 10 41 a. m., 12 50, 1 50, 5 40, 7 47, 9 15, 9 41 p. m.

For Woodbridge—1 42 a. m. daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 26, 10 50 a. m., 12 26, 3 20, 4 55, 5 44, 6 12, and 7 20 8 54 p. m., 12 27 night, week-days, Sundays, 1 42, 12 26, and 11 47 a. m., 10 14 p. m.

For Perth Amboy—1 42 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 26, 10 50 a. m., 12 26, 3 20, 4 55, 5 44, 6 12, and 7 20 8 54 p. m., 12 27 night, week-days, Sundays, 1 42, 12 26, and 11 47 a. m., 10 14 p. m.

For East Millstone—7 20 a. m., 12 26, 2 45 and 5 40 p. m., week-days.

For Trenton—1 00, 5 37, 7 10, 7 50, 9 05, 9 26, 11 42 A. M.; 1 05, 2 37, 3 26, 5 05, 6 25, 7 45, 8 42, 9 39 P. M. Sundays at 1 00, 6 37, 9 05 9 26, 10 41 A. M.; 5 05, 5 37, 7 47 and 9 41 P. M.

For Lambertville, Phillipsburg and Belvidere via Trenton—7 20 a. m., 2.45 and 8.39 p. m., and 5.40 p. m. Sundays.

For Flemington—7 20 A. M.; 2 45 P. M.

For Freehold—7 26, 11 42 a. m., 4 55, 8 08 p.m., via. Monmouth Junction, week-days.

For Jamesburg, via. Monmouth Junction—7 20 and 11 42 a. m., 4 55 and 8 08 p. m., week days.

For Long Branch, Ocean Grove, and points on New York and Long Branch R. R.—9 42 12 46, 4 13 5 44 p.m. 12 27 night week-days. Sundays, 10 25 a. m. and 5 44 p. m.; do not stop at Asbury Park on Sundays.

For Sea Side Park, Island Heights and Toms River—12 46, p. m.

For Boston—5 05 p. m., daily.

For Brooklyn, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats to Brooklyn annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York City.

Leave New York for Elizabeth—1 00 daily except Monday, 6, 6 30, 7, 8, 8 30, 9, 9 30, 10 10, 11 00 a. m., 12, 12 30, 12 56, 12 46 1 00, 2 10, 2 30, 3 00, 3 30, 4 00, 4 10, 4 30, 4 46, 5 00, 5 30, 5 50, 6 00, 6 30, 6 50, 6 56, 7 10, 7 30, 7 56, 8 15, 9 15, 10 15, 11 00, 11 30 p. m., 12 01 night. Sundays, 1 00, 5 15, 6, 9 00, 9 45, 10 00 11 00 a. m., 12 00 noon, 1 00, 2 00, 2 45, 3 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 30, 6 45, 7 00, 8 00, 9 30, 10 15, 11 00 p. m. and 12 15 night.

E. M. PREVOST, General Manager.
J. R. WOOD, Gen. Pass. Agent.

Carpenters and Builders.

UTZINGER & KLINE.

CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS.

Jobbing promptly attended to.

V. Utzinger, 75 Grandview ave. L. C. Kline, 84 Jackson ave.

JOHN P. EMMONS

—Mason and Builder.—

Washington avenue and Prospect place

NORTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Jobbing promptly attended to 11 14 tf

THEODORE CRAY,

MASON AND CONTRACTOR.

Estimates given. Repairing promptly attended to. Residence 111 Hillside ave. 5 28 y

---

PEARSON & GAYLE,

Carpenters and Builders.

RESIDENCE—W. J. Pearson, No. 13 Vine St.
E. B. Gayle, No. 13 Vine St.

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO 9-21-tf

GEO. W. STUDER.

CARPENTER AND BUILDER,

985 ARLINGTON AVENUE.

Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given; charges reasonable. 5 3 6m

---

McCullough's Steam Mill,

21 Steiner Place, North Plainfield.

H. H. McCULLOUGH, Proprietor.

Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing Turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished. 6-13-tf

---

C. W. LINES & CO.,

Mason and Builders.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Residence 18 Elm Place.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Jobbing promptly attended to 12 6

REMOVAL.

I have removed my watchmaking and jewelry business from Park ave. to

142 North Avenue

Next to Walker's bakery, and shall be pleased to have my friends call.

CALEB DICKINSON

Real Estate Insurance

VAN BUREN & TIMPSON.

163 North ave. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

L. PAOLI & CO.,

Fruits, Confectionery, Temperance Drinks, Cigars, Etc.,

128 NORTH AVENUE,

FRESH ROASTED PEANUTS EVERY DAY.

10 CENTS A QUART.

I take this method of informing my friends and the public in general that I am again in business at the old stand. I solicit your patronage. Store will open at sundown on Friday and open at sunrise on Saturday.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

(Anthracite coal used exclusively insuring cleanliness and comfort.)

Station in New York foot of Liberty street.

Time Table in effect, Nov. 18, 1894.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 28, 6 05, 6 29, 6 59 7 26, 7 30, 7 58, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 22, 10 04 10 27, 11 19, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 50, 3 12, 3 51 4 50, 5 54, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 05, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 19, 11 28 a. m.; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 28, 5 36, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave New York foot Liberty Street at 4 30 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a. m.; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, (except Saturdays) 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p. m., 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 8 00, 9 15 a. m.; 12 00 m.; 1 00, 2 15, 4 00, 5 30, 7 40, 9 00, 10 00, p. m.; 12 15 night 1 00 a. m.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 22, 10 04, 10 27, a. m.; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 50, 3 12, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 28, a. m.; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 08, 10 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 15, 1 35, 2 20 (Saturdays only) 2 50, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 08, 5 34, 5 50, 6 29, 7 15, 7 55, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday 7 30, 8 45, 9 35, 11 35, a. m.; 1 10, 2 35, 4 10, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a.m. 12 46, 2 08, 2 32, 3 45, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 15, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 25, 11 23 p. m.; 12 58 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 36, a. m.; 2 08, 3 28, 5 14, 6 25, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 20, 7 00, 7 25, 7 35, 7 45, 8 20, 9 05, 9 45, 11 40 a. m.; 12 50, 1 45, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 5 22, 6 25, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 55 a. m.; 12 08, 1 20, 5 05, 6 45, 8 05, 8 05, 9 40 p.m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54, a. m.; 12 46, 2 08, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28 a. m.; 2 08, 6 38, p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 52 a. m.; 12 22, 4 00, 7 00 p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 52 a. m.; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

8 45 A. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Manch Chunk Williamsport and Tamaqua.

9 10 a. m. for stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

9 16 A. M. for Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Manch Chunk.

9 54 A. M. for Flemington, High Bridge branch D L & W R R, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Manch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Hazleton, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m. way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 08 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Manch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury and Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton. Buffet parlor car to Manch Chunk.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge branch

5 14 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, Manch Chunk Shamokin and Tamaqua, Buffet parlor car to Scranton.

6 29 P. M. for Flemington.

6 38 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Manch Chunk, Reading and Harrisburg.

8 21 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

8 45 A. M. Sunday for Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Manch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton. 9 54 a.m. Sundays for Easton, 2 08 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Allentown, Manch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading and Harrisburg, 6 38 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Manch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c. and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

For Atlantic City, 9 27 a. m. 1 12 p. m.

Long Branch, Ocean Grove, &c

Leave Plainfield 9 27, a. m 10 27, a. m 1 12, 5 51, p. m. Sundays—(except Ocean Grove 5 51, a. m., 5 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 9 27, 5 30, 8 10 27 a. m., 1 12, 5 51, 4 50, 5 34, 7 05 p.m. Sunday—9 27, a. m., 5 30 p. m.

For Freehold, 9 27, 5 30 27 a.m., 1 12, 5 51, 4 50, m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 9 45, 9 46 9 46, 10 46, p. m., 2 09, 5 10, 5 45 8 21, 9 27 p. m., 1 12, night, Sundays—9 45, 9 46, a. m., 2 09, 5 10, 5 45, 8 21, 9 27 p.m., 1 12 night, Sunday—9 46, a. m., 12 46, 2 09, 4 34, 5 34, 7 05 p.m., 1 12 night.

For Trenton 9 45, 9 46, 9 46, 10 46, a. m., 12 46, 2 09, 4 34, 5 34, 8 21, 9 27 p.m., 1 12 night, Sunday—9 46, 9 54, a. m., 5 30 p. m.

For Baltimore and Washington at 9 46, a. m., 2 09, 5 34, 5 45 p. m., 1 12, night. Sundays—9 46 a. m., 2 09, 5 10, 5 45 p.m., 1 12, night.

For Chattanooga, New Orleans and all points south with through vestibule sleeper, via Shenandoah Valley Route at 5 34 p m. Sundays 5 10 p m.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points west, week days at 9 54 a. m., 2 09 p. m. Sundays 6 38 p. m. Plainfield passengers by trains marked change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rate may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

H. OLHAUSEN, General Sup't.
H. P. BALDWIN, Gen. Pass. Agt.

The Finderne,

FINDERNE, Somerset Co., N. J.

Open all the year as a resort of the highest order. Driving and sleighing parties will receive every attention.

HIGH-CLASS SUNDAY DINNERS.

(Table d' Hote from 1 to 3:30.) Steam heat; inclosed piazzas; everything immaculate. When out driving let us entertain you.

A. S. WHITE, Manager,
Finderne, N. J.

1 9 tf

CODDINGTON'S

FURNITURE AND FREIGHT

EXPRESS.

OFFICES—24 West Front street; 32 Park avenue Post Office Box 228.

PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY. Large covered trucks. Goods sent to any part of the country. Charges reasonable. Satisfaction guaranteed 11 9

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a prompt answer and an honest opinion, write to MUNN & CO., who have had nearly fifty years' experience in the patent business. Communications strictly confidential. A Handbook of Information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and scientific books sent free.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the Scientific American, and thus are brought widely before the public without cost to the inventor. This splendid paper, issued weekly, elegantly illustrated, has by far the largest circulation of any scientific work in the world. $3 a year. Sample copies sent free.

Building Edition, monthly, $2.50 a year. Single copies, 25 cents. Every number contains beautiful plates, in colors, and photographs of new houses, with plans, enabling builders to show the latest designs and secure contracts. Address MUNN & CO., NEW YORK, 361 BROADWAY.

FISCHER PIANOS.

ESTABLISHED 1840.

Nearly 100,000 Now In Use.

RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARD, WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO

EASY TERMS.—EXCHANGED.

Catalogue mailed on application.

110 FIFTH AVE., cor. 16th St., N. Y.

Amos H. VanHorn, Limited,

73 Market Street, Near Plane Street.

Note the Name Amos Before Entering the Store.

COME EVERY DAY.

Whenever you come you find fresh features in Furniture and Household Wares to greet you. Just now nothing seems impossible in the line of economy in this store. Whatever you want maybe you can fill it here at a third—often half—the price you'll pay elsewhere. For instance:

PARLOR SUITS.

$20—Whoever thought to see such a splendid suit as this for such a little price? You'll wonder how the material can be bought for so small a figure and not count the making. Not many, only enough to keep the sale going this week, so you'd best be quick. Mahogany finished frame, five pieces.

MATTINGS.

15c. the yard and made in Japan. You know what that means. Quaint patterns, woven carelessly on a bright colored background. Some of the very prettiest patterns of the season. Brand new styles and the kinds that will win your approval.

DINING CHAIRS.

Fragile and delicate, stout and sturdy, and every one of them serviceable as can be. You needn't spend much time; close your eyes and choose, you can't go wrong. They are the most cheerful looking chair you ever saw, and the prices $1.25 to $3.00; with twenty-five cent go-betweens

CARPETS.

High priced or low priced, the lining and the making and the laying free. That's what brings business to our carpet room. And you pay less here for the carpet than you're likely to pay elsewhere. Scores of fresh rolls added weekly, among them new patterns in the 65c Tapestry Brussels and Super Ingrains.

An Unequaled Offering. Buy a bedroom suit here. You'll save the cost of spring and mattress. We give a strongly woven wire spring and mixed mattress with each bedroom set sold. A bouncing big offer, but it's away we have for making new acquaintances. Goods delivered free of charge to all parts of the State.

The Portland Range. You who have never heard about it, come to the store; you who have one, aren't you tickled?

The Storage House is making friends daily; such a well-lighted, well-ventilated place as it is, explains why. Satisfactory terms and satisfactory people to deal with. A phone call or postal will bring our vans to you door.

"Hello" Number 580

REAL ESTATE.

F. M. Bacon or Wallace Vail,

Babcock Building, Room 211.

Come and see us. We always keep a good line of houses to rent and for sale. Elegant flats, steam heated, city water and electric lights Private houses with all modern improvements. Vacant lots, farms, speculative property bought, sold and exchanged.

A gem, all improvements, $25 per month, 4 or 5 minutes from station. Farm 6 acres, house, barn, good land, 2 miles from Plainfield, $1,300—a very cheap home; easy payments. House 7 rooms, 5 minutes from station, $2,100. Store and 3 rooms $12 a month. Farm 53 acres, 1,000 peach, apple and pear trees, near Flemington, $2,500.

Are You Interested

about the care of your teeth? If so, nothing like a personal trial will convince you that

Leggett's Tooth Wash

is an agreeable, refreshing and delightful dentrifice.

Sprinkler Top Bottles 25c.

Metropolitan Livery and Boarding Stables

Horses boarded by the day, week or month. Especial accommodations for transient trade.

OFFICE AND STABLES,

147, 149, 151 North Avenue. Opp. Railroad Depot.

A. C. BLAIR.....Proprietor. FRANK DAY.....Manager.
Telephone 152, connected with all circuits of New Jersey, New York and Brooklyn.

1 14 tf

PUTNAM & DeGRAW,

Is there anything below that will interest you?

Gents Negligе shirts.....75c, $1 00	Ladies hose seamless fast color black and tan.....10c
Gents and Boys sweaters.....25c 40c 50c	Ladies black skirts.....$1.00 $1 25 $1 90
Gents long bicycle hose.....25c	Ladies shirt waists.....20c, 39c, 49c, 55c
Gents medium weight underwear....39c 50c	Children's Hose. fast black, seamless,..10c
Gents half hose.....10c 3 pair for 25c	" " double knee, " ..18c
Gents half hose.....15c 2 pair for 25c	Children's Bicycle Hose, extra heavy...25c

☞ Remember, that we give away money. Don't fail to ask for a money order when you purchase $1 worth.

LYNDHURST, KEATING,

EAGLE,

AND APOLLO BICYCLES.

Charles C. Lister, 134 North Ave

Repairing, Renting and Storing.

WE ARE READY!

With large and beautiful line of Spring and Summer styles. Hats and Gents furnishings, men's and boys' Derby or Alpine hats, black, brown and tan, $1 00 to $3 00. Fancy negligе shirts, collars attached or detached 35c to $2 00. 1000 scarfs four-in-hand and made up from 10c to 75c, all new fresh goods. Special colored laundried shirts, 2 collars only, 35c worth 75c. No trouble to show our goods. Money refunded if you want it.

U. B. Crane, Hatter and Furnisher,

120 West Front street.

A Lame

man is scarcely more than half a man either in comfort or effective work.

Allcock's Porous Plaster

cures all sorts of lameness of the back or limbs resulting from strain or taking cold; also congestion of the chest; everything that an external remedy can reach.

Beware of Imitations. Do not be deceived. Insist upon having "ALLCOCK'S."

Allcock's Corn Shields.
Allcock's Bunion Shields,
Have no equal as a relief and cure for corns and bunions.

Brandreth's Pills

remove indigestion, constipation, liver and kidney complaint.

MISS E. ROCKFELLOW,

DRESSMAKING PARLORS,

195 North Avenue.

Taylor System. Suits $5 and upward.

5 11 1m

Even Sandow

cannot break a Ball's Corset.
It is as supple as the skin, and is guaranteed.

I. Lederer

There is one DRESS STAY that
Won't melt apart,
Can't cut through the dress,
Don't stay bent.
It is
BALL'S PEERLESS.
All lengths; all colors.

Putnam & DeGraw, Seely Edsall, I. Lederer.

A large variety of all the Latest Styles in Hats and Bonnets can be found at the Millinery Establishment of

MRS. L. ADAMS,

111 EAST FRONT STREET.

Under First National Bank.

A LADY'S TOILET

Is not complete without an ideal

COMPLEXION POWDER.

POZZONI'S

Combines every element of beauty and purity. It is beautifying, soothing, healing, healthful, and harmless, and when rightly used is invisible. A most delicate and desirable protection to the face in this climate.

Insist upon having the genuine.

IT IS FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

DIRECTIONS for using CREAM BALM.

Apply a particle of the Balm well up into the nostrils. After a moment draw a strong breath through the nose. Use three times a day, after meals preferred, and before retiring.

ELY'S CREAM BALM opens and cleanses the nasal passages, allays pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from colds, restores the senses of taste and smell. The Balm is quickly absorbed and gives relief at once. Price 50c at druggists or by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren street, New York.

CATARRH

COLD IN HEAD

Deer Park and Oakland,

On the crest of the Alleghenies.

(Main line B. & O. R. R.)

SEASON OPENS JUNE 22, 1895.

Rates $60, $75 and $90 a month, according to location. Furnished cottages, with facilities for housekeeping, if desired, $450 to $600 per season. Address

GEO. D. DESHIELDS,
Manager, Cumberland, Md.

4 26 6-c

Fine Dairy Butter.....15c. lb
Best Dairy Butter.....18c. lb
Best Elgin Creamery Butter..20c. lb

V. L. FRAZEE,

151 West Front St.

BRITISH WILL LEAVE

Nicaragua To Pay the Indemnity in London.

The Guarantee Made by San Salvador, Said To Have Been Accepted. The Subject Discussed in the House of Commons—United States Did Not Offer Its Good Offices.

Washington, May 3.—The department of state has received a cable message from Ambassador Bayard stating that Great Britain had accepted the guarantee made by San Salvador for the payment of the indemnity by Nicaragua in London within two weeks, and as soon as Nicaragua confirms and so informs the British admiral, the latter is instructed to leave Corinto.

England Makes Concessions.

London, May 3.—The Central News says that Lord Kimberly, in response to inquiries at the foreign office this morning in regard to the status of the Nicaragua dispute, declined to discuss the purport of the communications received from Nicaragua or from other sources concerning the matter, but it is learned that the affair has been settled, England making some slight concessions.

The Subject in the Commons.

Mr. William Byles, liberal member of parliament, for the Shipley division of Yorkshire, West Riding, gave notice that in the house of commons he would ask the government whether Nicaragua had offered to refer all questions relating to indemnity for alleged injuries to British subjects, including the expulsion of British Agent Hatch, to an arbitration commission, and if so, why the government had declined to accept the proposal. He said he would also ask whether the United States government had tendered its good offices or suggested the terms of an amicable settlement of the dispute, and whether there was a prospect of such terms being accepted.

The United States Held Aloof.

When the matter came up in the house Sir Edward Grey, under foreign secretary, in reply said that Nicaragua on April 11 sent to the British government a proposal that the trouble be settled by arbitration. He believed, he added, that when the papers in the case should be laid upon the table it would be seen that the matter was not a proper subject for arbitration. The United States government had not tendered its good offices for the settlement of the dispute. Her majesty's government, Sir Edward further said, had reason to believe that the difficulty would be arranged shortly.

Not a Case for Arbitration.

In reply to a further interrogation on the subject by Mr. Morton, liberal member for Peterborough, Sir Edward Grey said it was not a proper case for arbitration.

GOLD CURE FOR DRUNKENNESS.

Dr. Keeley To Be Compelled on the Witness Stand To Tell What It Is.

Leavenworth, Kans., May 3.—Judge Myers, of the district court, has made an important order affecting the rights of Dr. Leslie E. Keeley. W. F. Johnson, of Topeka, sued Dr. Keely for $100,000 damages, the petition reciting that the plaintiff has been made a physical wreck because of the gold cure. Judge Myers, in granting the petitioner's request, rules that Dr. Kelley must make known the ingredients of his so-called bichloride of gold compound. The court holds that the cure is not a property right or trade secret, is unprotected by a patient, has been in use more than two years, and that there is nothing to prevent Dr. Keeley being called to testify, and that he must tell what it is.

Protest Against a Hospital.

New Haven, Conn., May 3.—Property owners in the neighborhood of the Yale infirmary have signed a protest against annexing to it a hospital for students with contagious diseases. They say that such a hospital, for which New York ladies and others have raised about half of the required fund of $10,000, should be put in the outskirts of New Haven, and not, as reported, in one of the best quarters of the city. The matter may possibly get into the courts.

Tennessee Bimetallists.

Memphis, Tenn., May 3.—The Central Bimetallic league of Tennessee was perfected yesterday afternoon and a movement set on foot to call a free silver convention to meet in Memphis June 11 and 12. An address has been prepared and will be circulated throughout the southern, western and Pacific coast states from which it is desired that delegates shall come.

To Work on Full Time.

Pottsville, Pa., May 3.—An order has been issued from the office of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron company's office instructing the superintendents to work all of the collieries full time for ten hours a day. For many months the mines have been on three-quarter's time.

Col. Gibbons a Candidate.

Saratoga, N. Y., May 3.—Col. James R. Gibbs, of James B. McKeon Post, No. 498, G. A. R., of Saratoga Springs, announces that he will be a candidate for senior vice commander of the state department of the organization, which meets her May 14 and 15.

Protest from the G. A. R.

Boston, May 3.—Department commander Joseph A. Thayer has issued a special letter to the army protesting against the dedication of a monument to the Confederate dead at Chicago Memorial day.

Erie Earnings.

New York, May 3.—The Erie receivers report for the month of March: Gross earnings, $2,199,378, an increase of $169,-3-8 as compared with the previous year, and net earnings, $1,885,873, a decrease of $348,691.

To Restrict Anthracite Output.

New York, May 3.—The anthracite coal sales agents have practically agreed to restrict production in May to three days a week.

Secretary Gresham's Illness.

Washington, May 3.—Secretary Gresham passed a fairly comfortable night, and was resting easily this morning.

Ladies' Shirt Waists; laundried waists, many sorts, perfectly made, nicely finished, from the 25c kind to the finest; an assortment that is sure to please the most exacting.

White dresses, splendidly made, handsomely embroidered, the best of material at $1 75; for children', 1 year to 6 years; white dresses as low as 29c.

The careful and economizing buyer can be suited in our carpet display. Everything that is newest in designs and colorings. 125 patterns of oilcloths from 25c sq yd. Mattings from 10 to 45c; window shades from 18c up. Curtain poles all complete, 19c up.

LEDERER'S

IT'S A FACT

that we sell Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Shirts, Underwear, Ties etc., cheaper than any house in town. Buying from merchants who are pressed for cash, we buy our goods at our own price and sell them cheap.

Everything sold is fully recommended or money refunded. Boys' School Suits from $1.25; Boys' Long Pants Suits $2 up; Men's Serviceable Suits $3.50 to $6; Men's Suits for dress wear $5.50 and upwards; Derbys, equal to any $3 hat, at $1 50.

It is to your benefit to examine our goods before buying elsewhere.

Plainfield Bargain House.

J. Goldstein, 126 Park ave.

PIANO BARGAINS.

Vanderbeek & Sattels

desire to say that they have just received a fine lot of

New Pianos

of different makes which they will sell at prices never before offered. Among them are those wonderful

Behr Brothers Pianos

Also Behning & Sons.

They represent also the Knabe, Haselton, Chickering and many others.

They offer an excellent

Steinway Grand, $350.

A great bargain. Call soon at

221 PARK AVENUE.

THE CZAR,

The Handsomest Wheel Ever Produced.

HIGHEST GRADE MADE.

E. FRANK VAIL, Agent,

177 North avenue.

FISH FOR BREAKFAST.

Is Your Cook Up at 5?

That's the hour of our morning delivery. Finest, Freshest Seafood.

ROGERS, 232 West 2d street.

EDWARD C. MULFORD,

(Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.)

Real Estate Broker and Fire Insurance,

Office 119 North ave., (opp. Railroad station.) Money to loan. 19 tf

A Spring Gown

is a subject for thought. Haven't you some of last season's dresses that can be made useful? They may need cleaning, or perhaps dyeing—either we do perfectly, and it costs only two dollars or two dollars and a half.

Hillier & Co.

175 North ave.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 Watchung Ave.

DEALERS IN

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement

For walls and ceilings.

COLUMBIAS

AT THE OLD

STAND!

THE ELDRIDGE BICYCLE CO.,

Sole Agents for Columbias and Hartfords

HAVE REMOVED TO CORNER OF

PARK AVENUE AND FOURTH STREET.

HAVE you noticed that the 1895 COLUMBIA will outcoast anything you meet on the road?

This is the MODEL 40 Road Wheel that holds the world's competitive records for one and two miles

This is the MODEL 41 Road Wheel that holds the world's competitive records for one and two miles

14.000--1895

COLUMBIA BICYCLES

ARE NOW ON THE ROAD.

and since our friends "the enemy" commenced circulating that beautiful assortment of stories, of which you have listened to various samples, everybody has been trying to smash a Columbia.

"At present writing, 13.999 Columbias have been returned to the factory; all of the cranks have been unsound, and the damage suits against the Pope Manufacturing Co., as a result of people having been killed and maimed by riding down hill on Columbias, now aggregate $642,978 55."

You people who have been scared off of Columbias by having some disgruntled agent fill you with such rot as the above;

ARE YOU NOT KICKING YOURSELVES,

JUST A LITTLE BIT?

Columbia Bicycles

YOU SEE THEM EVERYWHERE

The Standard for the World

THIS shows the COLUMBIA CRANK SHAFT. The most advanced modern idea in Bicycle construction of the age.

Neatness, Simplicity and Strength

OF course the other dealers grand-mother's uncle's first cousin by marriage had an intimate friend who once knew of a man who had a Columbia crank come loose, likewise a broken 1895 frame, but did you ever see the man yourself? WE GUESS NOT. To come right down to a plain statement of facts, we wish to say positively and absolutely that NOT ONE 1895 Columbia Bicycle has been returned to the factory on account of any defects or weakness, that nobody has been killed, and that the roads are covered with delighted riders of 1895 Columbias.

We do not wish to hurt any one's feelings, but we can only compare folks who have been foolish enough to take any stock in the 'Columbia yarns" which have been circulated, with the man who spent $125 for a 1895 Bicycle, valued by experts at $90 net cash.

There's... Satisfaction

In having a bicycle better than your neighbor's. None at all in having his better than yours. Only one way to be sure of having the better of such a controversy—by....

Riding a Columbia Costs but $100

Get a Catalogue. Free if you call.

THE STANDARD BICYCLE OF THE WORLD

Best machines of lower price.. are....

Hartfords

$50

$40

$30

The $50 kind for boys and girls.

In other and larger Cities an attempt to spring a "Columbia Crank Bracket" fairy tale, is only met by the ridicule that its author deserves. Riders elsewhere got over the scare two months ago.

----WAKE UP PLAINFIELD!----

REMEMBER THIS!

The price of best Bicycles for 1895 is $100. Why? It is the Columbia Price. And the slickest and speediest combination of improvement, speed qualities, strength and up-to-dateness is the

1895 COLUMBIA,

AND YOU KNOW IT.

EASY PAYMENTS.

BRAND NEW WHEELS TO HIRE.

ROCK BOTTOM PRICES

On Lamps, Bells and Sundries. A 1 REPAIRING,

And the best place in town to do business.

The Eldridge Bicycle Co.,

341 PARK AVENUE.

We Sell Columbias and Hartfords

At { NEWARK, E. ORANGE, PATERSON, PLAINFIELD and Suburbs.

THE DAILY PRESS

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N J., SATURDAY, MAY 4, 1895. TWO CENTS A COPY. $5 A YEAR.

LAST LEAF OF THE FIVE.

O. W. HOLMES A MEDICINE MAN OF MERRY HEART.

Graceful Tribute by a Plainfield Pastor to the Wise and Lovable Poet-Doctor Whose Gentle Wit and Kindly Philosophy Have Brightened American Homes.

A cultured audience of those interested in literature gathered in All Souls Church last night to hear the last of the series of papers on five great humorists. It was read by Rev. Hobart Clark, pastor of All Souls, who had Oliver Wendell Holmes for his subject. Mr. Clark said in substance:

Although a great humorist, Oliver Wendell Holmes was a humorist incidentally, also because he could not help it, sometimes no doubt with a healthy moral purpose, but mainly for fun and not for revenue. He has told us in one of his well remembered poems of a remarkable imaginary experience which taught him the danger of being too funny, and since then he says "I dare not write as funny as I can".

In 1836 he published his first volume of poems, and the same year began the practice of medicine in the town of Boston, but calls came for him very slowly, and it was at this time that he threatened to put out a signboard with the notice "Small fevers gratefully received". His first poem was simply entitled "To the insect".

He seems to have gained recognition as a writer much more rapidly than as a physician, but he slowly built up a good practice. He was peculiarly fitted by his scientific training and his natural instinct, combined with his healthy temperament, to deal with the subjects which he undertook, and they would have been dangerous to a less healthy-minded man, but he was able to make us laugh as we ought to do, where Hawthorne could only make us shudder. That stage of New England life in the country district which he depicts, is now almost as entirely a thing of the past as the New England life of Hawthorne's romances, but these stories will always have a charm and fascination for those children of New England who have seen many examples of that self-respecting village life which he describes. He was one of the most quiet and genial, as also one of the most skilful of satirists, who ever lived and wrote. His companions at the famous breakfast table whom he seemed to create as the occasion required them, are perhaps more real to the average reader than those in the novels, and if the author finds them useful and brings them into conversation a second or third time we seem to become as well acquainted with them as the Autocrat himself; but we never expect any of them to get the best of him, and they never do, yet we come to know them all very well.

Whatever he had to say was original, and to the point. If his power of pathos had been equal to his humor, he would have been not only a great writer but also a great orator, which he was not, though bright and always scholarly.

He died at a ripe old age, as peacefully as he had lived. He was the last of a group of five men—Emerson, Lowell, Longfellow, Whittier and Holmes—all typically American.

STORM DRIVEN.

A Story by "The Duchess"!

Everyone knows what that means. It means as good a story as was ever penned of the good, old-fashioned sort, dealing with the elemental human needs and ways.

Even "The Duchess" never wrote a better story than "Storm Driven", whose publication will be begun by The Daily Press next Monday, May 6.

The scene is English, the characters are human and understandable, the heroine is a suffering and overwrought woman who is released from a marriage with an unscrupulous villain by a happy chance, just as she has succeeded in rescuing from him another innocent girl upon whom he has designs. It is a tale thrilling in its incident and happy in its termination, as all stories should be.

—Huyler's pure and delicious confections are to be found fresh at Leggett's.

—Two palefaces were adopted into Miantonomoh Tribe of Red Men last night. Arrangements were made for the celebration of Tammany Day, May 12.

—The Eldridge Bicycle Company received a shipment of new Crawford wheels this morning for rental purposes. Their Park avenue place is now open and ready for business, as told in the big ad on Page 8.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

JACOB T. ADAMS DEAD.

Stricken With Apoplexy at 6:30, He Died at 9:30 This Morning.

Jacob T. Adams, a well-known and respected citizen of North Plainfield, died very suddenly this morning at 9:30 from a stroke of appoplexy which he suffered three hours previous just after arising from bed.

Mr. Adams returned from his work—that of a mason—last night apparently in the best of health. After suffering the stroke he was assisted back to the bed where he remained in an unconscious condition until death ensued, though Drs. Jenkins and Keeney were called.

He was 78 years of age, and had lived where he died, corner of Duer street and Linden avenue, for ten years. He was a member of the First Baptist Church. He leaves a wife and three children, Charles R., Alexander N., and Mrs. Wilbur Randolph.

If he had lived until next Fall Mr. and Mrs. Adams would have celebrated their golden wedding.

The funeral will be held from his late residence Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. The interment will be in the Methodist Cemetery.

To Save Local Vegetation.

"Nicotiana Tobacum", a preparation which is sure death to caterpillars, currant worms, and all insects that injure or destroy vegetation, is now in season. It will prevent or destroy any and all kinds of pests on plants, peach or fruit trees; and is also excellent for moths in carpets, and for packing Winter clothing, etc. Now is the time to use it. It will not injure the most delicate plant, and is guaranteed to do as represented or money is refunded. Its price is low, and it can be procured at Mosher's cigar store, North avenue, or of T. H. Timbo, agent.

"Was It An Accident?"

It was a very happy thought of the women of the Home Missionary Society, to take advantage of Dr. Mitchell's temporary sojourn in Plainfield, to secure him for a lecture to aid them in their work, which he will deliver Monday evening at 8, in the First Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell are returning to their western home after a trip of four months abroad, during which they have visited Egypt, Syria and Palestine; and their numerous friends in Plainfield will be glad of the opportunity to hear his lecture.

Spare Your Child.

All things are not necessary that seem so: a child may be cross-eyed and yet not need an operation to cure the defect. This result will often be attained by a pair of properly adjusted glasses, which adjustment can only be made by a skilled optician. Such an expert is always to be seen at Collier's, 103 Park avenue, who will make free examination of your child's eyes, and probably save them from the suffering of an operation.

Should Be Sent to the County Jail.

Those detestable scalawags, flower thieves, are again at their miserable business robbing flower beds of blooming plants.

Thursday night the yard of O. W. Dunham, 325 East Fifth street, was robbed of all the pansies that day set out.

If they are apprehended it is sincerely hoped City Judge Coddington will give them all the law allows for their offence.

Got Tired of Standing.

A horse owned by Michael Powers broke loose from the post where he was tied on lower West Seventh street last night at 5:30 and ran into the yard of D. W. Littell, where he attempted to go through the partially opened barn doors. The result was the destruction of the doors and some damage to the vehicle he was attached to.

To Improve the Church.

The Ladies Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed Church have contracted with Edward Love for the painting and papering of the lecture room of the church.

The work will be done during the month of August, when the church is closed for cleaning and repairs.

Crescents First Run.

The Crescent Wheelmen will have their first club run of the season Tuesday evening, when they will leave the Board of Trade building at 7:30 and go to Scotch Plains, Locust Grove, Westfield, and return.

—L. H. Bigelow led the Christian Endeavor meeting in the First Baptist Church last night; it was mainly devoted to prayer service.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at Randolph's drug store.

TWO YEARS OF HAPPINESS.

Mr. and Mrs. Cutter Observe Their Second Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Cutter of Richmond street celebrated the second anniversary of their marriage last night by a progressive whist party given to the members and friends of the Entra Nous Whist Club of which they are members.

After congratulations and best wishes had been extended to the host and hostess four tables of players started to win the very pretty presents which had been secured to promote greater interest.

At 11 when the playing ceased it was learned that the first prizes had been captured by Mrs. W. A. Coddington and Will F. Williams, while Mrs. Scribner and Armstrong Mulford consoled each other on their bad run of cards.

In honor of the occasion Mr. and Mrs. Cutter were presented with a handsome cut-glass water set and a set of individual salt cellers to match by the members of the club. After a collation had been served the party broke up with many regrets at having to leave such a delightful entertainment. Among those present were Mrs. Scribner of Oil City, Pa., L. Cutter of New York, Judge and Mrs. W. A. Coddington, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong Mulford, Mr. and Mrs. Will F. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. McClintock, Mr. and Mrs. Waldorf, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ryder, Miss Mulford, John Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Cutter.

FOR A NEW CHURCH.

Redeemer Parishioners to Have a Home of Their Own.

The Church of the Redeemer Building Society was organized last night with the following officers: President — Rev Jocelyn Johnstone; secretary — G T Rhoads; treasurer—Mrs S L Platt; executive committee—G T Rhoads, Rev Jocelyn Johnstone, Mrs S L Platt, Mrs Charles Matthews, and Mrs Charles Brown. The purpose of the organization is to provide ways and means for acquiring church property.

DEER PARK,

On the Crest of the Alleghenies.

To those contemplating a trip to the mountains in search of health and pleasure, Deer Park, on the crest of the Allegheny mountains, 3,000 feet above the sea level, offers such varied attractions as a delightful atmosphere during both day and night, pure water, smooth, winding roads through the mountains and valleys, and the most picturesque scenery in the Allegheny range The hotel is equipped with all adjuncts conducive to the entertainment, pleasure and comfort of its guests.

The surrounding grounds, as well as the hotel, are lighted with electricity. Six miles distant on the same mountain summit, is Oakland, the twin resort of Deer Park, and equally as well equipped for the entertainment and accommodations of its patrons. Both hotels are upon the main line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, have the advantages of its splendid Vestibuled Limited Express trains between the East and West. Season excursion tickets, good for return passage until October 31, will be placed on sale at greatly reduced rates at all principal ticket offices throughout the country.

One-way tickets, reading from St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Columbus, Chicago and any point on the B. & O. system to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia or New York, or vice versa, are good to stop off at either Deer Park, Mountain Lake Park or Oakland, and the time limit will be extended by agents at either resort upon application, to cover the period of the holder's visit. The season at these popular resorts commences June 22.

For full information as to hotel rates, rooms, etc., address George D. DeShields, Manager, Deer Park, or Oakland, Garrett County, Md. 5-3-4

Spring, Beautiful Spring.

The year rolls round and Springtime is here. Spring, beautiful Spring, yes; yet there is a but in it. The Spring cleaning brings a world of work and worry. Carpets to be cleaned and changed, and the painter and paper-hanger adds to the discomfort.

It is a great relief to be able to go to a nice store and see a beautiful selection of suitable papers at a price within one's means. They can be found at Love's, corner of North and Watchung avenues. There you can select from 30,000 pieces of well-chosen wall-papers. Love, the wall-paper designer, knows who makes the best goods and what are the prevailing styles. Love is making a great reduction sale for May and has put some fine goods on the bargain counter at 5, 6 and 8 cents a roll, with some fine embossed styles at 10 cents.

I recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. There is no better liniment made. I have sold over 100 bottles of it this year and all were pleased who used it. J. F. Pierson, druggist, South Chicago, Ill. It is for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

NO FUN IN THE SERVICE

Councilman Lounsbury Ready to Step Down.

SAYS HE'S BOUND TO NOBODY.

Lively Remarks in Public Meeting Indicative of Independent Personality—G. A. R. Appropriation Refused—Salaries Fixed—Fire Department Improvements—Other Borough Business.

It was 8:30 when Mayor Hegeman called the North Plainfield Council to order last night. Councilmen Howell, Peck, Schutt, Smith, Valiant, and Lounsbury, answered to the roll-call of Clerk Arnold. The minutes of the two April meetings were read and approved. Borough Collector Spencer offered the following report for the month: Taxes collected for '94 since last report: Borough, $4.95; lights, $23.76; roads, $16.83; fire department, $13.86; total, $59.40. Previously reported, $11,116.57; total, 11,175.97. Clerk Arnold's report was as follows: Borough deficit, $77.25; fire department deficit, $228.17; total, $305.42. Light account balance, $850.92; road account balance, $628.30; total, $1,479.22. Net balance, $1,173.80. He also reported $108 received from fines and licenses. These reports were received and filed.

The Council received and accepted with thanks an invitation from the G. A. R. posts to attend the exercises in Music Hall Memorial Day at 2:30 p. m. The Clerk was instructed to send acknowledgment.

H. R. Munger asked the Council for $6.25 as damages for five chickens that he claimed were killed by dogs, and which damages were appraised by John Emmons and H. N. Spencer. This was referred to the Committee on Laws, Ordinances and Elections.

David R. Weaver and others petitioned for a crosswalk on Warren street at its intersection with Race street. The matter was referred to the Committee on Streets.

Residents of Harrison street asked that the street be macadamized from Stone street to Mountain avenue. The Committee on Streets was given charge of the matter.

The report of the Street Committee for the past month showed an expenditure of $365.40 on the borough streets, and that $32.30 was realized from the sale of earth etc. The report was received and filed.

Bills for salaries, claims, etc., were presented, audited and ordered paid.

Mr. Peck stated that the fire-alarm had been placed in charge of Dr. Cooley, who had remedied all difficulties, and it was now in good working order. He also stated that there were under consideration several improvements in the fire department service.

Mr. Lounsbury reported that two uniforms and two helmets had been purchased, and that clubs would be secured, for the special marshals. He had purchased also the license numbers for cartmen and hackmen.

Mr. Smith said that work was progressing on the streets, and that Rockview avenue would be filled in a few days.

Mr. Smith reported that A. S. Lazzie's bids for sidewalks and crosswalks was found to be the lowest, also that J. H Wilson's bid for crushed stone was the lowest, and recommended that they be accepted, which was done.

Mr. Valiant said that the ordinances of the borough had been referred to the Borough Counsel for arrangement. The report was received and filed.

Under the head of miscellaneous business, Mr. Lounsbury offered resolutions that the action of the Council in drawing $100 in favor of D. R. Weaver, overseer of the poor, be ratified; also, that the Freeholder for North Plainfield be instructed to secure the erection of a bridge over Green brook at Giraud avenue. These were adopted.

Mr. Peck offered a resolution that the Mayor and the Clerk be authorized to negotiate a loan of $1,000 and charge the same to road account, which was so ordered.

Mr. Smith moved that the action of the Council in drawing $105 and $149 to meet the pay rolls be ratified, and this was done. He also offered a resolution that the Mayor and Clerk be authorized to draw $111.40 to meet pay rolls for the week ending May 3, which was adopted.

The Mayor then appointed the following as special marshals: Robert Terry, Thomas MacDonald, W. A. Wilson, Peter Doeringer, William Emmons and Peter Hansen. They were confirmed by the Council, and at the close of meeting William Emmons, who was present, was sworn in.

The matter of appropriating $50 for the G. A. R. posts for Memorial Day was brought up, and Mr. Lounsbury repeated what he had held at the previous meeting, that the Council had no right to make the appropriation. Mr. Valiant was of the same opinion.

Mr. Lounsbury then offered a resolution, which was carried, that the Clerk be instructed to write to the Secretary of the Joint-Detail Committee and explain the matter and express the Council's regrets in not being able legally to meet their request.

The ordinance which was drawn to regulate the salaries of the assessor and collector of taxes in the borough was taken from the table, and after a long discussion was adopted on final reading. It provides a salary of $600 for the assessor, and $1,200 for the collector. Some of the councilmen thought the two officers were not overpaid, and expressed themselves in such terms. Since the borough had been separated from the township, it was thought that the salaries might come down. But it was fully agreed that they were not too much considering the amount of work done. The collector's salary was first placed at $1,000, but was afterwards raised to $1,200; and is not, as some suppose, an increase, because that is about the amount paid when the borough and township were together.

Mr. Valiant stated that he had heard the Council criticized for the lavish way in which it was spending money, and he thought the Council should go slow.

Mr. Lounsbury said that he was in the Council to do his duty. He was under obligations to no man, and if the people did not like the way he transacted their business they could put someone in his place.

Mr. Valiant said that he did not value his seat in the Council any more than Mr. Lounsbury did, but he still thought that the people's wishes should be conserved in. The salaries fixed are to prevail three years.

The Mayor stated that hereafter all bills would be paid the Monday following the Council meeting.

Mr. Smith moved that when the Council adjourn it be to meet Friday evening, May 10, which was carried. The Council then adjourned.

ELIZABETH SAYS DON'T.

She Fought the Elm-Tree Pest, and Has Given up in Despair.

The Elizabeth Daily Journal, always an attentive reader of The Daily Press, has gravely considered the crusade advocated by ex-Mayor Randolph in the columns of this paper against the elm-tree pest, and editorially remarks as follows:

"Several of the leading citizens of Plainfield have combined in a crusade against the elm-tree beetle. It will do little good. For a time it may save a few trees, but it is about as useless to try to exterminate the elm-tree beetle as it is to try to exterminate the sparrow. They fly in all directions, at all stages of their existence, and unless everybody, all over the country, should unite to kill the beetles, they propagate in one place and fly to the others. Elizabeth citizens tried all known remedies, but to no avail. Thousands of beautiful trees were killed and the streets despoiled of their foliage and beauty. It is a great pity that there is really no permanent protection against these beetles, but there is none. The elm trees are doomed unless the beetles themselves are annihilated by some natural causes."

Because Elizabeth has failed, is no reason why Plainfield should be faint-hearted in the project. Plainfield often succeeds where Elizabeth does not. And besides, it is popularly supposed in this favored end of the county that the Elizabeth elms were bored to death by the peculiarly virulent mosquitoes that infest the city of the marshes. Thank goodness, Plainfield has nothing of that sort to fight. Elizabeth's advice is not to be regarded without suspicion. She is entirely too eager to have Plainfield's floral beauty ravaged.

This Faust a Master-work.

In his production of "Faust" this season, as given in Music Hall next Monday night, Mr. Morrison makes a feature of the music, and, although the production is a dramatic one, several classical numbers are introduced for which trained voices are employed. A male quartette also renders beautiful music.

While Morrison's portrayal of "Mephisto" is a strong one, the management has not neglected to supply for the other characters competent and intelligent artists.

The part of Marguerite, the sweet young heroine of the story, is essayed by Miss Florence Roberts, who is a charming and capable young actress.

Rode Too Fast in the Dark.

While riding on his bicycle at a fast speed from Rahway, Thursday evening, Herbert Woodland struck an obstruction in the road and was thrown from his wheel with considerable force. His leg was wrenched in a painful manner, so that it will lay him up for a day or two.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds. Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

THE GERMAN.

Graceful Social Event in the Bicycle Clubhouse.

The subscription german given in the Plainfield Bicycle clubhouse last night was attended by about fifty, who made a pretty and brilliant scene in going through the various evolutions and figures of which the affair consisted.

The decorations of the ball room were arranged especially for the occasion, and were very handsome, consisting of flags, bunting and Japanese lanterns. The newspaper, flag and ribbon figures were unique, and executed with a gracefulness that was charming to the onlooker.

The favor table was presided over in an accomplished manner by Mrs. J. W. Reinhart, the articles of which were novel, varied and pretty. The figures were led by L. G. Timpson.

The music was furnished by Elliott of New York, and the refreshments served by Max Wiertz.

Among those present were: Mr and Mrs J F Raymond, Mr and Mrs M S Ackerman, Mr and Mrs Clifton Wharton, Mr and Mrs Lemuel Serrell, Jr., Misses Van-Boskerck, Rhinehart, Walz, Crane, Whiton, Waring, and Cooley, Messrs Van-Boskerck, West, Van Buren, Sykes, Cooley, Murray, and Waring.

Franklin's "Junior" Night.

During the business part of the Franklin Council meeting, Thursday night, five propositions for membership were received, and two were elected.

The Council then went into initiation, eight members being present to be received into the mysteries of the order.

At the conclusion of the work, under the good of the order, National Representative Smith from George H. Adams Council of Newark was called on and commended the initiatory work and team in the highest terms, and said that he had never seen a better exemplification of the work and thought the team was the best in the State.

National Representative J. R. Rollinson who followed with a few remarks, also commended Franklin for their excellent work, and hastily reviewed the past seven years of its history. He said that the Council was the banner one of Union County, having the largest membership of about 175.

National Representative G. W. McFarland of Enterprise Council, No. 6, of Trenton, was then called on and made an address that was very interesting to the members. At times he became very humorous.

Other brothers from Dunellen, Scotch Plains, Bound Brook, and Somerset Council were present and made remarks. Past Councilors Frank VanClief of the East Millstone Council, and J. D. Anderson of Somerset Council were also present. Dr. Bedford of the latter Council made a few excellent remarks.

During the evening a telegram was received from State Councilor P. Hall Packer stating that he was unable to be present.

All then adjourned to the banquet room where an elaborate collation was served, after which all departed highly pleased with what they had experienced.

Reduced Rates to Philadelphia via Pennsylvania Railroad.

On the occasion of the dedication of the Odd Fellows' Temple at Philadelphia, May 21, 1895, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell, May 20 and 21, excursion tickets to Philadelphia and return from all points on its system east of Pittsburg and Erie, north of Quantico and south of Canandaigua, inclusive, at a single fare for the round trip, with minimum rate of fifty cents. Tickets will be good for return passage until May 23 inclusive. This rate is open to the public, and offers an excellent opportunity for a visit to Philadelphia at a very small cost.

Fast and frequent express trains run from Philadelphia to all principal New Jersey seashore resorts.

The Finishing Touch.

The finishing touch to your absent friend's art collection would be the beautiful "Plainfield Illustrated" with its 300 fine photo-engravings and its interesting history from the able pen of Rev. Dr. Lewis. It would bring more vividly to their memory the days made so enjoyable by your genial hospitality. Why not send them a copy? Your address, sent to W. S. Bullock 334 East Sixth street, does the business. Single copies one dollar.

—Whitney gives away a handsome rug to all $10 carpet purchasers. Read his ad.

In Memory of the Cary Sisters.

The fifth grade in the North Plainfield Public School held Alice and Phoebe Cary exercises yesterday morning. The programme was as follows: The Cary Sisters—Nellie Valiant; The Hunchback—Carrie Pangborn; Three Little Bugs—Harry Vetterlein; Work—Frank Bach; The Chicken's Mistake—Kenneth Anderson; Quotations—Six Girls; The Gray Swan—Landon Howard; The Legend of the Northland—Bessie McCallum.

—A great 3-days special sale is announced in Whitney's ad for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

PROBABLY 150 KILLED

Sioux County, Ia., Devastated by a Cyclone.

A Number of Bodies Already Recovered at Sioux Centre—Perkins Almost Entirely Wiped Out—School Houses Wrecked and Teachers and Pupils Killed.

Sioux City, Ia., May 4.—Sioux county was devastated by a terrific cyclone last evening. The storm came from the northwest and struck Sioux Centre, a small town forty-five miles north of this point at 4 o'clock. Telegraphic reports from the scene of the storm are very meagre, the wires being down, but it is known that a considerable number were killed and injured. The first reports were received by the Sioux City & Northern railroad from their agent at Sioux Centre. The dispatch read:

Teacher and Children Killed.

"Cyclone passed three miles northwest of here. School house near town blown down, teacher killed and several children killed and injured. Exact number and names have not yet been learned. Whole country in the track of the storm devastated. Sioux City & Northern tracks between Perkins and Doon washed out for several miles."

Death and Destruction.

A press dispatch from Sioux Centre says that at least twenty residences near that place were swept away. At the school house two teachers and three pupils were killed and many injured. Two women were found dead not far from the point where one of the school buildings stood. One man who arrived in Sioux Centre this morning reported that his house was blown away and his family killed. He alone escaped and says that at least a hundred people must have been killed.

A Number of Bodies Recovered.

Parties were sent out from Hull, Sioux Centre and Orange City, neighboring towns, but their work was carried on in total darkness and in the midst of a tremendous wind and rain storm. A number of bodies have been recovered although the exact number cannot be learned. Everyone is violently excited and detailed accounts cannot be obtained.

Perkins Nearly Wiped Out.

The town of Perkins between Sioux Centre and Doon was directly in the path of the storm and was almost entirely wiped out. The wires leading to it are all down. The tracks are all washed out and the roads cannot be safely traveled over, owing to the manner in which they were gullied by the rain. It is consequently no easy matter to reach it. Physicians were sent from Hull, Orange City and Sioux Centre. They met with every conceivable obstacle in their effort to reach the scene of the storm.

Probably Fifty Killed.

The Sioux City & Northern train brought several passengers who witnessed the storm. They reported that twenty dead had been brought in to Sioux Centre up to midnight. It is estimated that fifty people must have been killed. The Northern train barely escaped a smash-up in a wash-out near Doon, but was stopped by sectionmen before it passed upon the dangerous territory.

The Greatest Sufferers.

As nearly as can be learned the towns which suffered were Perkins, Sibley, Doon, Hull and Sioux Centre. Sioux Centre and Hull were grazed only by the edge of the storm and no fatalities are reported from either of them. The number of killed at Doon is now stated at ten. Four or five will probably cover the deaths at Sibley. At Perkins the loss of life is said to have been very large, probably not less than 30 or 40. This, with the number killed on farms about the country, must bring the number up to nearly 75 or 100. Many of the killed were school children. Many of the children were carried from a quarter to half mile before they were dropped.

Dashed Into a Wire Fence.

Two little daughters of John Coster, a farmer near Sioux Centre, were picked up as they were leaving the school house and dashed into a wire fence and both were killed.

Damage at West Sioux Falls.

Sioux Falls, S. D., May 4.—A cyclone dropped into West Soux Falls last evening and did $50,000 damage to property. A man named Arthur had his nose broken, face cut and was otherwise injured. The carriage works, together with a hundred carriages, were wrecked. The third story of a large brick block was torn off and several people narrowly escaped being badly injured. Probably a hundred houses, barns, windmills and trees and chimneys were scattered over the path of the storm.

An Opera House Demolished.

Redfield, S. D., May 4.—At this writing returns are coming in showing that within ten miles north of Redfield a regular cyclone traversed toward Ashton, where it did much damage. The opera house building, formerly the court house, was blown out of shape. The steeple of the Congregational church was blown down, many houses unroofed and barns destroyed. The main street of the city is strewn with debris of demolished buildings.

Cyclone in Kansas.

Atchison, Kas., May 4.—A violent storm struck Atchinson last night, and rain came down in great torrents. The Missouri Pacific telegraph wires are down in northwestern Kansas and it is believed that there has been a cyclone in that section.

Removed To an Asylum.

New York, May 4.—Supt. Jos. Crawford of the New York division of the Pennsylvania railroad was removed on April 30 to the Morris Plains insane asylum. The officials are reticent regarding the case. He has resigned, it is said.

U. of P. Crew Hard Up.

Philadelphia, May 4.—The University of Pennsylvania crew is badly in need of $1,500 and unless that amount is speedily raised, by subscription from the students of the university, the crew will have to disband.

Umra Khan To Be Given Up.

Calcutta, May 4.—The Afghan authorities have ordered Umra Khan, who was captured in Afghanistan, to be turned over to the authorities of Great Britain.

SLADE'S STORY LAUGHED AT.

No Doubt About the Truthfulness of the Farragut Incident.

Washington, May 4.—While Admiral Farragut, in his report to the navy department on the battle of Mobile bay, did not mention the fact that he was twice lashed to the rigging during that memorable fight, and the official records of the navy department do not appear, from a hasty search, to contain any statement of the incident, navy officials regard with amusement simply the effort of H. L. Slade of Taunton, Mass., who was on the gunboat Mino during the engagement, to correct history regarding the matter and especially his statement that he has waited more than a quarter of a century for some one else to correct it.

Frequently Related the Details.

In that period Admiral Farragut himself frequently related all the details of the occurence and corroborated it to the extent of standing in the pose in which he was first lashed for hour after hour to the Artist Page for the famous historical painting depicting the admiral on the occasion. Captain J. Crittenden Watson, of the navy, was Admiral Farragut's flag-lieutenant on the Hartford, and, therefore, closer to him during the great fight than any man.

Suggested by Captain Drayton.

He says that on the way into Mobile bay, past Fort Morgan, when the Hartford had the Matacomet secured along side the smoke was so dense that Farragut went aloft, and Captain Drayton, fearing that if wounded he would be killed by falling to the deck, ordered the quartermaster, Knowles, to lash him loosely where he stood to sustain him. This was done with Farragut's assistance after the wisdom of the precaution was explained to him.

Lashed Twice to the Rigging.

After Fort Morgan was passed, and the smoke permitted observations from the deck, Farragut was released and descended to the deck. But a little later, when the Hartford rammed the Tennessee, Captain Watson himself tied the admiral to the nizzen rigging near the rail with a light rope. Thus it appears, upon the best authority, that Farragut was not only lashed once to the rigging beyond all possibility of doubt; but twice, and in a quarter of a century no one from the Hartford, from which vessel alone he could have been seen, has been found to deny the fact.

DEATH ENDED HIS SPEECH.

Edward Burrough Falls Dead at the Home of Gen. Grubb.

Bordentown, May 4.—Edward Burrough, of Merchantville, N. J., president of the state board of agriculture, fell dead last evening at the residence of General E. Burd Grubb, at Edgewater Park. Mr. Burrough was attending the annaal reunion of the survivors of the Twenty-third New Jersey regiment at General Grubb's home, and had just addressed the veterans, when he died. Mr. Burrough's concluding words were: "Boys, we have spent many sad as well as happy days together, but, if we should never meet again, I want to say this has been the happiest day of my life." Before the applause had ceased Mr. Burrough put his hand to his head and instantly fell backward dead into the arms of General Grubb.

RESIGNATIONS DEMANDED.

New York's Mayor After the Scalps of Two Police Commissioners.

New York, May 4.—Mayor Strong has at last taken the bull by the horns and demanded the resignations of Police Commissioners Murray and Kerwin. The mayor sent the following letters to the two commissioners:

"Dear Sir: A careful consideration of the present and future needs of the police department leads me to the conclusion that it would be desirable for you to resign your position as police commissioner, to take effect Monday, May 6."

It is believed by some that the commissioners will not comply with the request and will await removal.

FULTON GORDON VERY LOW.

The Mere Mention of the Tragedy Caused Him To Faint.

Louisville, Ky., May 5.—Fulton Gordon is still unable to hear any reference to the tragedy. This morning his attorney, Hector Delaney, made a bare allusion to the affair and Gordon immediately fainted. Dr. Galvin Fulton, who is in attendance on Gordon, stated that he feared that either lunacy or brain fever would be the outcome of the case.

Big Paper Mills Sold.

Philadelphia, May 4.—The extensive paper and pulp works of Alex. Balfour & Sons, at Port Richmond, has been purchased by the firm of Dill & Collins. The consideration was in round numbers $500,000. The paper mill in question is the largest plant in Pennsylvania, covering ten acres of ground and employing 350 hands.

New York Police Commissioners.

New York, May 4.—It is reported that on Monday Mayor Strong will formally announce the appointment of his new police commissioners and that they will be Theodore Roosevelt, Col. Fred D. Grant or Gen. Anson G. McCook, and Andrew D. Parker.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c. per box. For sale by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

"There is Danger in Delay."

Since 1861 I have been a great sufferer from catarrh. I tried Ely's Cream Balm and to all appearances am cured. Terrible headaches from which I long suffered are gone.—W. J. Hitchcock, late Major U. S. Vol., and A. A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ely Cream Balm has completely cured me of catarrh when everything else failed. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Alfred W. Stevens, Caldwell, Ohio.

Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

My Baby

was a living skeleton; the doctor said he was dying of Marasmus and Indigestion. At 13 months he weighed only seven pounds. Nothing strengthened or fattened him. I began using Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites, feeding it to him and rubbing it into his body. He began to fatten and is now a beautiful dimpled boy. The Emulsion seemed to supply the one thing needful.

Mrs. KENYON WILLIAMS,
May 21, 1894. Cave Springs, Ga.

Similar letters from other mothers.

Don't be persuaded to accept a substitute!

Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All Druggists. 50c. and $1.

Garment Cutters' Strike.

Philadelphia, May 4.—During the past twenty-four hours about 2,000 more garment cutters have struck, making the total number out about 4,000. There are about 6,000 garment cutters in this city.

Big Steamer Lost.

New Orleans, May 4.—Advices received here report the loss of the large stern wheel steamer Wheelock, about seventy-five miles above the mouth of Red river. No lives were lost.

Countess of Kimberley Ill.

London, May 4.—The Countess of Kimberley, who has been ill for some time, is sinking rapidly, and the members of her family have been summoned to her bedside

Promises!

are easy made and easy broken, we promised you big bargains in dress goods this week, we intend keeping our word. 75 pieces of dress goods from the receiver's sale of Jaffray & Co., at a sacrifice. 25 pieces all-wool cashmere 38 inch 25c worth 50. 10 pieces fancy mixed worsteds 36 inch 25c worth 40. 15 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 50c worth 75. 8 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 65 worth 90. 5 pieces silk and wool covert cloths 54 inch 95 worth $1 25. 5 pieces all-wool serges light shades 65 worth $1 00 complete the dress; we have just what you need. Double faced silesia 10c plain silesias 9c, the best skirt cambrics 5c, fibre chamois different shades 35c. Hair cloth from 10c to 60.

Linings

Corsets!

For one week we sell the W. B. corset 5 hook for 68c.

Duck Suits

A duck suit made up in the latest style only 99c; surprising, isn't it?

CAMBRICS

Fast color cambrics 7-8 wide 6c a yard.

A CUT

on every article in our housefurnishing goods department; our 87c hall lamp is sold elsewhere for $1 10.

Millinery.

We still lead in fashionable head wear.

BOEHM'S,

113 WEST FRONT STREET

—THE—

Buying Population

in and around Plainfield are awake to the great values we are offering. We never have any trouble selling to those who have visited other stores before calling on us. We not only attract trade—we keep it. We invite comparison.

POINTERS.

Men's clay diagonal suits in Regent frock, at $10.50.

Men's all-wool suits in long sack, single or double breasted, $3.75, $7.50 and $9.50.

Running water is never stale. Our stock is like a river—always moving.

WERNER'S.

Plainfield, N. J.

EDWIN B. MAYNARD

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.
Tonsorial Parlor, 306 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Ladies shampooing and childrens hair cutting a specialty. 12 10 t

Revere House

Park Ave, 7th and 8th St.

GEORGE B. DEREVERE & CO.

Thoroughly renovated and now open for transient or permanent guests.

5 1 tf

MISS CLARIBEL JEFFERY, teacher of Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar. Best references. 322 W. Front street. Call Wednesdays. 4 25 1m

FURNITURE

MOVING

Telephone 121. Office 161 North ave.
HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS.

J. W. VAN SICKLE,

Dealer in all kinds of

Fresh and Salt Meats.

GAME IN SEASON.

Store No. 128, North Ave., Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 148 B. Orders called for and delivered promptly

Neuman Bro's.

Specials tomorrow in

Fresh Vegetables.

Green Peas, Green Beans, Wax Beans, Asparagus, Tomatoes, Lettuce, Cucumbers, Water Cress, Spinach, Radishes, Rhubarb, Bunch Onions, Oyster Plant, Beets, New Carrots, New Potatoes.

STRAWBERRIES.

Wm. Hand & Son,

MOVING VANS,

18 Park avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

THE Bee Hive.

"KIDS."

Ladies' 4 button kid gloves in tans and slates 65c.

Foster hook kid gloves in all the new shades, the 98c quality, 75c.

Children's kid gloves, a good glove, 69c.

Men's kid gloves, every pair warranted, $1.

MEN'S CAMBRIC SHIRTS.

Men's cambric shirts, laundried, collar and cuffs attached, 50c.

Men's laundried shirts, white body and fancy bosom, 48c.

Men's laundried shirts, white body and colored bosom and cuffs 65c.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st.

FOR SALE CHEAP!

A large assortment of Geraniums, Coleus, Salvias, Roses, Casino clematis, Palms and Rubber trees. Also 3000 Privet hedge plants, and a general collection of hardy plants and shrubs, at

DENTON'S
131 Hillside Avenue.

Photo Material.

PLATES AND PAPER,

at

Reduced Prices.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front st.

Writes every letter in sight of operator. Does most of the work, in writing AUTOMATICALLY, and yields in the time thus saved additional work.

It acts as if it studied the convenience of the operator at every turn, and thereby lightens his labor and renders him capable of doing more.

It has a knack of keeping well, and is always ready at critical or other times.

These are some of the reasons why it is different from all other writing machines.

The catalogue tells you more about it. FREE.

Columbia Typewriter Mfg. Co,

307 Broadway, New York.

1 5 6m

MOSLER SAFE CO.,

contractors to the United States Government

Mosler Patent Safes,

(fire and burglar-proof) in general use

All Over the World.

Lowest prices. Drop a postal to

S. W. CLARK,

(General Agent,
118 West 5th st., Plainfield, N. J.
and he will call and give special attention and information.

Large assortment of second-hand safes in first-class condition at low prices.

CONFECTIONS

Fresh, and from

Pure Materials,

TIER'S,

116 Park avenue. 4 11 tf

CHOICE

Lawn Seeds, Garden Seeds, and Fertilizers.

Lawn mowers repaired.
Plumbing, Tinning and Hardware.

A. M. GRIFFIN,

119 East Front St.

GEO. J. TOBIN,

187 North avenue.

Practical Plumber!

Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer

TELEPHONE CALL, 158a. 12 15 tf

Plainfield Machine Works,

Manufacturers of

Steam Engines,

Electric Motors and Dynamos. Shafting and mill work generally. Jobbing in all its branches. Prompt attention given to repairing of steam engines, boilers, bicycles, etc. Piping in all its branches.

GIVE US A CALL.

N. C. MAGUE, Manager.

Works corner Richmond and East 3d street, Plainfield. 4 13 tf

Tel. 29B Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON,

PLUMBING AND HOT WATER HEATING.

Have your plumbing system tested with the smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.

Opp Roberts' Library 122 North Ave

H. Eggerding,

121 PARK AVENUE.

Manufacturer of the celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars. 11 9t

Telephone 58

Ring it up when you want good coal, and talk to

Geo. O. Stevens

SPRING TERM
OF THE
Rockview Home & Day School
Opens April 15.

Kindergarten, Primary and Intermediate Departments. For terms and particulars apply to the Misses Park, 317 East Front street.

FLORIST.

A. E. LINCOLN, 226 Park avenue,

has just received an elegant assortment of rare ferns and other plants. Also will have a fine assortment of flowering plants, azaleas, lilies, etc., for Easter. Large assortment of choice cut flowers daily. Floral design work for all occasions a specialty.

SMALLEY'S CASH MARKET.

(Successor to D. L. Smalley.)

94 Somerset, Corner Race Street.

GEO. EGEL, Manager.

We sell only first-class goods, at low prices, for cash. Orders called for and delivered. 12 10 t

CLEANER COAL.

L. A. Rheaume, Ag't.

80 BROADWAY, cor. 6th ST.

Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.

UPPER LEHIGH AND HONEYBROOK COAL, in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.

ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER.

He would also announce recently increased facilities for TURNING and SCROLL SAWING and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and short notice.

(3-28-'95

WALL PAPER, WALL PAPER!

Wall Paper Bargains.

5c, 6c, 8c, 10c ROLL.

Also all the best papers for the fine trade. Competent men employed to hang our papers.

RUGS, WINDOW SHADES,
MOULDINGS,
PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES,
KALSOMINE.
TINTING COLORS,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS,
CIGARS.

LOVE,

Corner North and Watchung aves.

Fine Dairy Butter.....15c. lb
Best Dairy Butter.....18c. lb
Best Elgin Creamery Butter..20c. lb

V. L. FRAZEE,

151 West Front St.

EDUCATIONAL.

Afternoon Class for Young Ladies

Three times per week. Higher English Branches, French and Music. For terms apply MISS FAWCETT,
25 Washington ave

JAMES E. BAILY,

97 Jackson avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

Trucking of All Kinds Done.

Two and four-horse vans and trucks. Particular attention given to moving furniture and pianos. Satisfaction guaranteed. 3 26 tf

Hotels and Saloons.

Madison Avenue HOTEL,

Madison Avenue and 58th St., NEW YORK.

$3 per day and up. American Plan.

Fireproof and first-class in every particular Two blocks from the Third and Sixth avenue elevated railroads.

The Madison and 4th Avenue and Belt Line cars pass the door.

H. M. CLARK, Prop.

Passenger elevator runs all night.

HOTEL GRENADA,

North Avenue.

Now open for the reception of guests; under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public. 6-12-t

CITY HOTEL.

Plainfield, N. J.

COR. PARK AVENUE AND SECOND STREET.

J. E. BEEBOWER, Proprietor.

With stables attached. 469

A. Lusardi,

No. 130 North Ave.,

Will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c. quart.

Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets

Skilled Workmen

are even more essential in hanging paper than they are in the doing of many other things. We employ the best and most capable men in this department and guarantee the best possible results. Do not spoil the effect of pretty paper by improper hanging.

Marsh, Ayers & Co.,

141 East Front st.

BAMBERGER'S

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE

147 and 149 Market Street,
NEWARK, N. J.

BOYS' CLOTHING.

That boy of yours needs clothing that will stand the romping and jumping and running around that boys always do It's here, made in the right way—wear—resisting, perfect-fitting and sewed strongly.

Four Special lots for this week!

Boys' Knee Pants

Cheviots, worsteds and cassamere's well made with strong waist bands, sizes 3 to 15, usually 89 to 98c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Blouses

Extra quality, white lawn, trimmed with colored insertion. sizes 2 to 8, usually 79c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits

All-wool, fancy trimmed, pants embroidered with bows and buckle, sizes 3 to 7, regular $2.69, at $1.73.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits!

Finished in best manner, sizes 4 to 15, with long cut coats, and pants with taped seams, regular $2.89 at $1.98.

L. BAMBERGER & CO.,

147 and 149 Market st., Newark.

Free delivery everywhere. Prompt attention given to mail orders.

That represents the best that is made. If you want style, wear and comfort, wear the Hanan shoe, all shapes in Russia calf and patent leather.

ALEX. WILLETT & SON.

SHOES MADE TO ORDER 107 PARK AVENUE.

Cleveland Bicycles,

The Great Leaders of 1895.

Design, Improvements, Workmanship, Quality, Speed, Health, Pleasure, Business, Road, Track.

The Fastest. Strongest. Handsomest and Most Rigid Wheel.

The "Swell Specials" are a decided advance in bicycle construction and when quality alone is considered will always sell.

Liberty, Crescent, Waverly, Majestic

We thoroughly believe in the merits of the above wheels, and unhesitatingly recommend them.

F. L. C. Martin Cycle Co.,

333 Park Avenue.

Repairs. Established 1889. Rentals.

Trouserings!

500 choice patterns which we are making to order for $5.00.

Sebring's

Park Avenue, Packer's Block.

Progressive Plainfield's

Progressive Store.

BOYS' SHIRT WAISTS.

Fancy calico plaited front, 6 to 10 years, 19c each.

Striped outing, plaited front, 6 to 10 years, 22c each.

Fancy Cambric, plaited front and back, 6 to 10 years, 25c each.

Fancy duck with pocket, 6 to 10 years, 28c each.

Fancy duck, plaited front and back 6 to 10 years, 35c each.

Fauntelroy sailor collar, ruffle front and back, fancy cheviot, 48c each.

French percale, plaited front and back, 6 to 10 years, 50c each.

Van Emburgh & Son!

E. E. MARSHALL & CO.

167 NORTH AVENUE.

WALL PAPERS, PAINTING,

And Interior Decorating.

☞ Designs submitted for frescoing.

INDIANS RAID A TOWN

Serious Aspect of the Outbreak in Dakota.

They Loot a Hardware Store and Secure Arms and Ammunition Trouble Seems To Be Certain — Red Thunder Receives a Warning from President Cleveland.

St. John, N. D., May 4.—Half-breeds encamped near St. John Thursday night and raided the town. They looted the hardware store of the town trader, securing ten guns, two revolvers, 100 loaded shells and all the other cartridges he had, three kegs of powder and a large quantity of shot. There were sixty in the party.

Sent Their Children Away.

The half-breeds have sent their children across the Manitoba line and their encampment at Langan's place is reported to be in a strong state of defense. There are 400 half-breeds and Indians in camp at Langan, led by the worst element of the breeds.

Serious Trouble Certain.

Little Thunder is as intemperate in his speeches as ever. Several families of settlers at and near St. John went south to Rolla yesterday for protection. The excitement here is intense and serious trouble is now apparently certain. Marshal Cronan with his posse arrrived here at noon, but there was not a half-breed in sight then.

Warning To Red Thunder.

Washington, May 4.—The acting commissioner of Indian affairs has sent the following telegram to Maj. Ralph Hall, United States Indian agent at Rolla, N. D.: "By direction of the president you are advised to confer with Red Thunder and others and to say to them that the marshal is acting under the process of the court, and such process must not be resisted, if the parties against whom the process is issued desire to avoid the interposition of troops and forces of the United States."

ORIENTAL PEACE ASSURED.

So One Side Says and Another Speaks Otherwise.

Paris, May 4.—The Journal De Debats asserts that it has information from an absolutely trustworthy source that the Oriental question has been settled upon terms under which Japan abandons occupation of or claim to all Manchurian territory except Port Arthur, and in exchange therefore receives some equivalent as compensation from China, the nature of which is determinable hereafter.

Cut an Embankment.

London, May 4.—A dispatch from Shanghai to the Globe says that the Chinese, with a view of preventing the Japanese from entering Pekin, have cut the embankment of the Pei-Ho and flooded miles of country. Hundreds of persons were caught by the rushing waters and drowned.

20,000 MAY STRIKE.

Struggle in the Baltimore Coatmakers' Trouble Begun.

Baltimore, May 4.—The real struggle in the coatmakers' strike has begun. The contractors have signed agreements with the coatmakers with the view of uniting their forces to compel the clothing manufacturers of Baltimore to give an increase of about 50 per cent. in prices. If the wholesale clothiers do not yield, the makers of trousers and vests will be called out the first of next week in a sympathy strike. The plan, in a nutshell, is to compel the manufacturers, by bringing their entire business to a standstill, to give the contractors an advance in prices sufficient to enable them to meet the demands of the garment workers. There is no evidence that the manufacturers will yield without a bitter struggle, and 20,000 strikers will probably be out within two or three days.

ROSEBURY AND HARCOURT OUT

China and Nicaraguan Matters Prevent Rosebury from Resigning.

London, May 4.—The Birmingham Post says that Lord Rosebury and Sir William Harcourt are not on speaking terms and that only the complications in China and Nicaragua prevent Lord Rosebury from resigning the premiership immediately. The statement is not taken seriously here. The Sun comments upon Sir William Harcourt's saying in his budget speech yesterday that it was probably the last time he would introduce a budget to the house.

THE INCOME TAX REHEARING.

Judge Jackson Will Be Present on Monday Next.

Washington, May 4.—There is no doubt that the reargument of the income tax cases will begin next Monday. The matter from the first has been contingent upon the arrival of Judge Jackson from Tennessee. Chief Justice Fuller announced from the bench that Judge Jackson was expected to be present Monday.

Fails of Reappointment.

Washington, May 4.—The president has appointed Charles Beard postmaster at Tanaqua, Pa., vice Mary Haueberger. There were strenuous efforts made for Mrs. Hausberger's retention. She succeeded her husband, who died in office. The citizens of Tanaqua sent a numerously signed petition to the postoffice department asking that she be continued in office.

Pope Approves of Agliardi's Course.

Rome, May 4.—The pope has expressed his entire approval of the conduct of Archbishop Agliardi, papal nuncio to Austria, whose attitude upon the Hungarian ecclesiastical bills was denounced by Premier Banffy in the Hungarian parliament.

Nominated for Port Warden.

Albany, May 4.—Governor Morton yesterday nominated William O'Connor of Little Falls, to be port Warden of New York in place of Daniel Leahy.

Troops for Manzanillo.

Santiago de Cuba, May 4.—The steamship Julia left Porto Rico for Manzanillo yesterday with a battalion of Spanish troops.

Italy's Parliamentary Election.

Rome, May 4.—The date of the general parliamentary election has been fixed as May 26.

PETER TURNEY GOVERNOR.

Declared Elected by Thirteen Majority in the Tennessee Legislature.

Nashville, Tenn., May 4.—When the general assembly convened in joint convention last night to continue proceedings in the gubernatorial contest there was a crowd of spectators and excitement was intense. The impression had gained ground that Evans would be seated.

Close of Debate.

Mr. Jarvis, in behalf of Turney, resumed his argument. He was followed by Bates, dem., who was opposed to voing Turney into office. Representative King replied to him. The debate was closed by Senator Caldwell, chairman of the investigating committee, the vote recurred on motion to substitute the minority for the majority, resulting 57 ayes and 71 nays.

Declared Governor by 13 Majority.

Motion to adopt the majority report recommending that Peter Turney be declared elected governor was put and carried, 70 ayes and 57 nays. The chair announced the vote for governor as follows: Turney, 94,794; Evans, 92,440; Mims, 23,088. A resolution declaring Peter Turney the governor was adopted and the joint convention adjourned. There was cheering.

A Joke Caused a Sensation.

Great sensation was caused yesterday afternoon. A card was published in an afternoon paper by a republican member, charging that he had been offered money to vote for Turney and offering to prove the charge. In the joint convention Representative Deakin, who had claimed to have been offerred $1,000 for Turney, said it was all a joke.

POWDER MILLS BLOWN UP.

Five Persons Killed at South Acton, Mass.—A Dangerous Blaze Started.

South Acton, Mass., May 4.—One of the powder mills of the American powder company here blew up yesterday. A few minutes later a second mill situated a hundred yards away exploded Fire caused by the explosion spread to the third mill, and in a few minutes it blew up and was also destroyed. Five persons are known to have been killed. The woods close by the mills were set on fire and burned fiercely, threatening the big storehouse of the company containing 20,000 pounds of powder and preventing the saving of property. Fifty men were employed in the mills, and when the noise of the first explosion was heard those in the corning mill, about forty in number, rushed from the building and escaped before the flames spread to the mill.

NICARAGUA TO HAVE A CHANCE.

British Troops Expected To Leave in a Short Time.

Washington, May 4.—Little significance attaches to the official announcement in London that the British government has not yet given orders to Admiral Stephenson to withdraw from Corinto and that matters remain in statu quo so far as Great Britain is concerned. It is expected they will so remain for a day or two until Nicaragua shall have had time to perfect the arrangements for the payment of the smart money. Cable dispatches have been constantly passing since last night between the Nicaraguan minister in Washington and his government in Managua, and no doubt is entertained that Nicaragua in due time will ratify the agreement.

AMERICAN SAILORS SET FREE.

Cuban Officers Say They Have a Strong Case Against Fuentes.

Santiago de Cuba, May 4.—The American sailors, Belton and Richlieu, who were arrested on suspicion of complicity with the insurgents, and at Consul Hyatt's instance were released on parole, have been set free unconditionally and are now at liberty to leave the island.

In a Serious Predicament.

Fuentes, the Cuban reporter for a New York newspaper, who was arrested in Guantanamo, is in a serious predicament. The Spanish officials are convinced that he has aided the insurgents in various ways, especially by informing them of the movements of government troops. They decline, however, to say what proofs they have of his guilt.

FOREST FIRES RAGING.

Millions of Feet of Logs and Timber Burning in Pennsylvania.

Bradford, Pa., May 4.—The sky is hazy from the numerous forest fires in this vicinity. Between Kettler and Rasselas, along the line of the Erie road, the woods are a mass of flames. In that vicinity millions of feet of hemlock logs and large quantities of timber are in danger. Fire is raging between McAmbleys and Mt. Jewett, and in the vicinity of Hazlewood, on the Bradford, Bordell & Kinzua railroad, the woods are on fire on either side of the track. All springs are dried up, and unless it rains soon work in this field will be seriously interfered with.

To Purchase Land in Africa.

Berlin, May 4.—A contract has been signed to organize an Anglo-German company which will have powerful support. The object is to acquire a million acres of land in southwest Africa with a frontage of 200 miles on Orange river and within navigable distance of the coast.

French Campaign in Madagascar.

London, May 4.—The Pall Mall Gazette states that in consequence of the floods in Madagascar the French campaign against the Hovas has been temporarily suspended.

To Help Earthquake Victims.

Vienna, May 4.—Emperor Franz Joseph will go to Laiback on May 7 to see what steps have been taken to relieve the families left homeless by the recent earthquakes.

Yale-Harvard Boat Race.

New Haven, Conn., May 4.—The managers of the Yale and Harvard crews have settled upon Friday, June 28, as the date of the annual boat race.

Wilde To Be Admitted to Bail.

London, May 4.—Upon application of counsel for Oscar Wilde, the judge decided to admit the prisoner to bail. The amount will be fixed to-day.

To Present His Credentials.

Washington, May 4.—Senor Dupuy De Lome, the new Spaish minister will present his credentials to the president at the white house Monday.

SAVED HIS LIFE.

What Munyon's Remedies Did for a Prominent Ohioan.

He Could Eat But Little and Was In Constant Pain—Cured With One Bottle.

W. T. Loffer, a well-known resident of Kent, Ohio, says that Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure undoubtedly saved his life. In relating his experience, he said: "For a long time I have been afflicted with dyspepsia. I could eat scarcely anything and was in constant pain. The gas on my stomach distended it greatly and my heart became affected. I was troubled with short breathing, fluttering and irregular beating of the heart, and often the pain was so great I thought I was going to die. My friends wanted me to try Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure, but I had tried so many different medicines without being benefited that I thought this would be only one more fruitless effort. Finally I began using it and the result was wonderful. After the first bottle I could eat without discomfort, and am now thoroughly cured."

Munyon's Stomach and Dyspepsia Cure cures all forms of indigestion and stomach troubles such as constipation, rising of food, distress after eating, bloating of the stomach, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath and all affections of the heart caused by indigestion. It soothes, heals and invigorates stomachs that have been weakened by over-eating, or where the lining of the stomach has been impaired by physic and injurious medicines. Price 25 cents.

Munyon's Homoeopathic Home Remedy Co. of Philadelphia put up specifics for nearly every disease, which are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25c. a bottle.

Those who are in doubt as to the nature of their disease should address Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch st., Philadelphia, giving full symptoms of their disease. Professor Munyon will carefully diagnose the case and give you the benefit of his advice absolutely free of all charge. The Remedies will be sent to any address on receipt of retail price.

A full assortment of Stationery!

AT

HARPER'S,

411 Park ave.

L. A. HUMMER. E. D. MULFORD.

Hummer & Mulford,

VARIETY MARKET,

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, Etc.,

220 PARK AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Telephone call, 29 A.

Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge. 9 11

Your valuables will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

LOCK BOXES

From $3.50 to $10.00, a year.

M. Powers & Son,

Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75

in the yard. A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office, 793 South Avenue. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Climax Stopper Co.,

Machine Works.

Corner of Washington and 4th streets, manufacturers of bicycle specialties. Electric and special machinery, experimental work, tools, etc. Contractors for electric light wiring, telephones, burglar alarms, etc. 12 3m

TRY DOBBINS'S CIGARS.

30 PARK AVE.

He Manufactures Them

THOS. MARLEY.

(Nineteen years with M. Quinn)

BLACKSMITH,

845 Richmond st., near Watchung ave 4 25 y

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 2543, Knights of Honor.—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the First and Third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.

John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Court Pride of New Jersey, No. 5026, Ancient Order of Foresters of America, meets in K. of P. Hall, No. 108 West 2d st., first and third Tuesday evenings in each month.

Samuel J. Tynan, Chief Ranger.
Samuel H. Langer, Fin. Sec. 9 25 y

Anchor Lodge, No. 168, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays in the Babcock Building.

S. G. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Secretary.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 69, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Masonic Hall, East Front street.

D. G. Adams, W. M.
Chas. Yeager, Secretary.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum.—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the Second and Fourth Monday evenings of each month in Knight Firemen's Hall, Coward's Building, Park avenue, at 8 P. M.

A. M. Rec, Regent.
E. A. Thorne, Secretary.

H. DeMOTT,

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER,

99 Somerset Street, Plainfield, N. J. 82 y

Short Vacations

For busy people by the beautiful new steamships of the Old Dominion Line.

To Old Point Comfort

[Hygeia Hotel]

Or Virginia Beach, Va.

[Princess Anne Hotel] may be made for

$16 Old Point Comfort, $16 Virginia Beach, $17 $17

INCLUDING EVERY EXPENSE

of meals and berths enroute, and a day and a quarter's board at the hotels.

These trips are ideal, as a considerable portion is made through the quiet waters of the famous Hampton Roads and there is little likelihood of seasickness.

Also tickets on sale, with privilege of going or returning by rail.

Write for particulars of these and other delightful trips to

Old Dominion S. S. Co.,

Pier 26, North River, New York.
W. L. Guillaudeu, Vice Pres. and Traffic Manager. 11 26 6m

L. L. MANNING.

Marble and Granite Works

Cor. Central Ave. and Front st., opp. First Baptist Church.

Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

M. M. DUNHAM,

Real Estate and Insurance.

7 East Front Street.

CUT ROSES, CARNATIONS AND VIOLETS

Flowers furnished for weddings, funerals, etc., in bunches, bouquets or design.

MILES,

Somerset st., Johnston's drive, terminus of electric railroad. 2 17 tf

Prof. A. Wehner,

TEACHER OF THE PIANOFORTE.

ALSO VOICE CULTURE.

Graduate of the Conservatory of Leipsic, Germany, desires a few more pupils in Plainfield.

References given and required.

Address letters to the office of this paper. 1 21 tf-c

E. H. HOLMES.

DEALER IN

COAL and WOOD,

YARD—No. 708 Madison Avenue. Also Office for coal orders with Woolston & Runkle 145 North avenue.

J. C. POPE & CO.,

Insurance Agents,

NO. 6 EAST FRONT STREET

Plainfield, N. J.

You may have Lost many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable Pair of Collier's Glasses.

103 Park ave. Established 1869.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,

Real Estate and Insurance,

197 North ave. 10 1 tf

F. A. DUNHAM,

Civil Engineer and Surveyor, 109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas.

TOWNSEND'S

MARBLE AND GRANITE WORKS,

SOMERSET STREET.

Our Motto—Good work, good material at fair prices. 9 4 y

Jones & Co., Excavators.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

JONES & CO.

Cesspools built. 9 15

Joseph E. Mosher,

Agent for

H. J. Havden & Co.,

WAR CLAIMS ATTORNEYS, WASHINGTON, D. C.

All claims put in our hands will receive prompt attention.

Call at the Crescent Cigar Store for fine cigars

Gold Dollars for Fifty Cents.

NO.

BUT FULL VALUE.

C. E. MORSE, Painting and Paper Hanging, 37 Chatham street.

N. E. KING,

High Grade Portraits

in Crayon, Pastel and Water Colors.

483 Lexington ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Refers by permission to John A. Thickstun, L. B. Woolston, J. L. Blackford, L. W. Randolph, A. L. Force. Further information at the drug store of L. W. Randolph or office of The Daily Press, where specimens of work can be seen. 11 20 tf

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Publisher and Proprietor.
WALTER IRVING CLARKE, Managing Editor.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., May 3, 1895

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. Firman B. Long and daughter are visiting friends in New Brunswick.

John B. Beekman of this city is at Hotel Coronado, Coronado Beach, Cal.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Richards of Church street last evening.

Mrs. E. L. Walz of Lafrande avenue has returned from a visit to Atlantic City.

Miss Emily F. Pound of 109 West Seventh street has joined the Plainfield colony at the Revere House.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Lord of Belvidere avenue, who have been abroad the past five weeks, are expected home today by steamship Columbia.

Mrs. L. A. Rushton and daughters of LaGrande avenue will sail today for Nottingham, England, and will spend the Summer in European climes for their health.

Letters from members of Honeyman's tourist party, dated at Wawona, Yosemite Valley, state that they are now traveling by stage coach through the valley. They will arrive home Tuesday, May 21.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper of Warrenville will celebrate their fifth wedding anniversary next Tuesday evening, when a wooden party will be given. Eugene O'Bleiley will furnish the music for the occasion.

BY THE WAY.

—Peter Sparks, who attempted suicide two weeks ago, was discharged from the Hospital today.

—The rehearsal of the Choral Society Monday evening, May 6, will be held in the Sunday-school room of the First Baptist Church.

—Out for a drive and a dinner near to Nature's heart, be sure to stop at Mizzen Peak Cottage, whose glories are hinted at in the ad today.

—A horse with an ash wagon ran away on West Second street this afternoon and collided with one of Rogers's delivery wagons, which was badly damaged.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Pierson will conduct a series of evangelistic services beginning next Thursday afternoon at 3, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

—Frank Fulton of Leggett's drug store, Boonfield Hulick of Barker's drug store, and Nathan Brownell, have passed the examinations making them registered pharmacists.

—Contractor H. C. N. Johnston has received the contract from Hand & McIntyre for a bluestone flagging and curb in front of their several pieces of property on South avenue.

—At the Friends' meeting, Watchung avenue and Third street, tomorrow at 11 a. m., a deputation from the New York Yearly Meeting's Visiting Committee will be in attendance. All are cordially invited.

—The Turn section of the Saengerbund society will have a farewell meeting in the hall tomorrow, at which a musical and literary programme will be rendered. Hereafter the section will hold their Sunday gatherings in Keller's grove.

—Chas. Ficke, whom The Press can recommend as a most prompt, thorough and reliable workman, has removed from 1 West Third street to 129 West Second street, nearly opposite Trinity Church. He does upholstering and decorating in the latest styles, makes shades and awnings, refits carpets, and makes over bedding, in the best possible manner.

—The Master Plumbers Association held an important meeting last evening in the Elkwood Building. President John H. Carney and D. W. Littell were made the choice of the Association to represent them at the National Plumbers Association to be held in Philadelphia in June, and C. M. Raybert and D.T. Kenney were chosen alternates.

Choice Soda

O, thirsty mortal ever ready today at Randolph's. The ancients knew no such pleasure as a delicious draught of our doubled-refined thirst annihilators. Good for the stomach, beneficial for the brain, light on the pocket, refreshing for young or old. Composed of materials of purity unsurpassed. We may live without poetry, music and art, but to be without soda is not to be tolerated. What more need we say? Drink it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist, 143 West Front st.

THE RELIEF OF GOTHAM

By PARK BENJAMIN

IV.

There they found the Mayor, now joined by other city officials, awaiting them. The police captain removed the nippers, and Julius stood alone in the centre of the room facing the concentrated glare of its occupants.

"I have sent for you," said the Mayor, breaking the silence somewhat abruptly, "to ask whether you have reconsidered your determination."

Before he could speak, the Mayor went on:

"You must see that your position is a most perilous one. Even if you are willing to inflict the frightful consequences which this barbarous act must entail upon hundreds of innocent people who have never harmed you, certainly you must have some regard for your own safety."

"Have you found proof that I sent up that balloon?" asked Julius.

"The circumstantial proof is strong enough," answered the Mayor.

"Ah, then, you have not found direct proof?"

"But you have said that you know who did send it up."

"Pardon me. I have not. Nor have you got enough evidence against me to warrant a police justice in holding me for one moment; and even if you had, how would it help you to meet the emergency? Do you fully realize that the limit of time stated on that placard will be reached now in about twenty minutes?"

Whether his hearers had appreciated the fact before or not, there was not one of them who did not feel a distinct shock when these last words were coolly uttered.

"Therefore," continued Julius, "let me come to a plain and simple business proposition and answer your question by another. Are you ready to accept my terms, or are you not?"

"How long will it take to accomplish what you say you can do?" asked the Mayor.

"About six minutes."

"Can you do it alone?"

"No, I want help—three men."

"But if you fail?"

"I cannot fail."

The Mayor drew his pocketbook from his pocket, opened it, took out the check, signed and certified as before described, and held it for a moment irresolutely.

"Does this man demand that we pay over this money to him before he performs his undertaking?" said the Comptroller sharply, advancing to the Mayor's elbow.

Julius laughed.

"Oh, no," he said, "I have perfect faith in the Mayor. Have I Your Honor's word that this shall be paid me, and a safe conduct on board a steamer for the foreign port I may name, be afforded, immediately after I have done my part?"

The Mayor looked at the set faces around him. None of those tightly compressed lips opened to suggest any means of escape. The Comptroller nodded half voluntarily.

"You have it," said the Chief Magistrate quietly, replacing the draft in his pocket.

Julius drew a long breath. Then, pointing to three policemen, he asked that they be directed to assist him. This granted, he took from his pocket a little instrument like a compass, in which a needle shivered and shook, and then, stepping to the double cable which led into the room, he placed his hand between the two strands so as to separate them slightly, and held his compass over one of them. The needle turned rapidly. Then, as if satisfied, he beckoned his assitants to follow, and led the way to the roof. The sound impressions thence received by the Mayor and his companions, who remained in the attic room, and their interjectory remarks were as below reported.

THE NEEDLE TURNED RAPIDLY.

From the roof.

A promiscuous scuffling of four pairs of feet. The tin sheets of the roof creak and groan and make sharp, metallic, crackling noises. The walking ceases.

One minute gone!

A single voice can be heard evidently explaining something, but the words cannot be followed.

The pairs of feet scatter, the scuffling and creaking noises come from different directions.

Two or three gruff voices talk simultaneously.

* * * * * * *

In the Room.

"What are they arguing about?" asks some one petulantly.

Two minutes gone!

* * * * * * *

From the Roof.—The feet draw together again. Inarticulate noises, which might be regarded as laughter, if that were conceivable in the circumstances. Various hard stamps on the tin.

Then, with startling distinctness, the words:

"Well, begorra, if iver I"——

And then the sentence is clipped off as if it were a suddenly curtailed telephone message.

Four minutes gone!

* * * * * * *

In the Room.—The listeners look at one another in surprise.

"Don't you think, Mr. Mayor," remarks the Superintendent of Police, uneasily, moving toward the door, "that we had better proceed to the"——

* * * * * * *

From the Roof.

"Now, then, all together"—unquestionably the voice of Julius.

The tramp of feet walking in regular cadence, and growing fainter as it becomes more distant.

More scuffling of feet, as if running back.

Then, tramp—tramp—tramp.

The voice again: "Keep it up. Away you go!" The feet run, and the old roof creaks and bangs and snaps.

Six minutes gone!

* * * * * * *

In the Room.—The ceiling shakes and quivers. The plaster begins to fall. The Mayor moves toward the door; so does the company.

* * * * * * *

From the Roof.—Crash!!!

Out of the room tear the people in a wild headlong rush. The Mayor gains the scuttle door first and rapidly ascends the ladder.

Crash!!! like the falling of a chimney, the bricks thundering down on the tin roof.

His Honor's head rises above the hatchway, but only to be buried in a huge, light, silky mass, which settles down over him and fills the opening with its voluminous folds.

Downward he steps, involuntarily, upon the fingers of the man next below, who, in an agonized effort to release himself, sits on the head of the individual immediately beneath. The Mayor slides down the ladder. Stifled howls of anguish and wild objurgations come therefrom in tones half smothered by the fumes of gas reeking from the silk.

A moment later the people on the roof drag the great fabric clear of the opening. Again the Mayor leads the way.

The moon emerges from an obscuring cloud, as if to greet him, as he steps out upon the tin.

And there he perceives:

Lights flashing from the adjacent buildings and people running along the roofs and waving their hats. From the street a confused hum, then a mighty roar of deafening cheers, resounding the avenues of the great city, until it seemed as if all New York were chanting the paean of its deliverance.

"I HAVE SENT FOR YOU," SAID THE MAYOR.

But nearer at hand?

There was the confused shape of the balloon, flat and motionless, a tangle of cordage. The shattered remains of a huge water pitcher. Three policemen hopelessly out of breath in paroxyms of laughter.

And as the central figure, Julius, triumphant.

The peril was averted, and in a way which no one had thought of.

For the three policemen had seized the wire and by it had hauled down the balloon!

In the Churches Tomorrow.

The usual column of Sunday services is unavoidably omitted today, but will be published regularly hereafter. Special fertures of tomorrow's services are as follows: All Souls Church, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe preaches, 10:45 a. m. Warren Chapel—C. E. Tyler will speak afternoon and evening. Grace M. E.—Rev. Dr. Chas. B. Mitchell, 10:30 a. m. Reform Hall—Rev. Mr. Livermore, 4 p m. Monroe Avenue—Pastor O'Donnell begins an evening series, "The Story of Life". It is Communion Sunday in most churches.

That Battery for Plainfield.

Plainfield did not get the battery that was so much talked of last Summer, but now there is an opportunity for Plainfield men, between the ages of 18 and 40, and of good moral character, to get all the battery they want, in the Naval Militia now forming.

There will be a member of the Second Division of the Battalion of the East in The Press office this evening, from 8 to 9, to furnish information in regard to the Naval Reserve, to any who will apply.

His Name Was Omitted.

By an oversight, Edsall's name was omitted from his large ad in last night's Press. Due apology is made for the mistake, but The Press ventures to say that no one could read the ad without knowing whose it was, as Edsall's style of advertising and methods of doing business are so entirely different from any other house in the city. The special attractions offered in the ad for Saturday night's trade are sufficient, and doubtless will draw a big crowd. Go and see what they are.

—Dunlap block stiff hats, lowest prices in town, Plainfield Bargain House, I. Goldstein.

—A meeting of the Royal Additional Benefit Association will be held next Monday evening.

—Go to Rogers's fish market for your Sunday morning breakfast. Bluefish, 8 cents a pound; roe shad, 30 cents each.

—The talk of the town is the full page ad of the Eldridge Cycle Company on Page 8 of The Daily Press. The many riders of the Columbia and Hartford wheels praise them highly, and they can be secured nowhere in Plainfield but of the above firm at their new store, corner of Park avenue and Fourth street. They have also a large number of Crawfords for rental purposes. Give them a call.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—50 per cent. off baby carriages at Harper's, 411 Park avenue.

—It is expected that the elevator in the Babcock Building will be ready to carry passengers by Tuesday evening.

—The Victor Wheelmen will meet again June 6, when officers will be elected for the ensuing year. The club will probably have a run to Newark and return, tomorrow.

—A store full of good, new, desirable goods bought at right prices and sold at right prices is the store that gets the business nowadays. That's the kind of a store White of Plainfield runs, and it will pay you to go there.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

IS THERE a person in this philanthropic town who will assist an American girl, employed in a city office where the confinement is injuring her health, and who is pining for fresh air and sunshine, to leave the city and gain health and strength during the Summer months? Is competent to act as correspondent, secretary, do writing of any kind, or light bookkeeping. Or will act as traveling companion; understands railroad guides, routes, etc., and has had considerable experience in traveling. References given. Address, Hope, care Daily Press office.

WANTED—Two girls, German or Swedes; one as chambermaid and waitress, other as cook and assist in washing. References required. Apply at Dryden's, Seventh street near Arlington avenue.

LOST—May 3, dog, brindle bull terrier pup, red ribbon on neck. Return to 330 Franklin place and receive reward.

SIX ROOM flat to let; all improvements. 200 West 2d st. 3 4 tf

TO LET—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping; no children. Apply 103 Duer street. 3 6 tf

TABLE boarders wanted in private family. Apply 303 West Fourth st. 2 7 tf

FIRST-CLASS dressmaker, using Taylor's system, wishes a few more customers; plain suits, $3. 141 Grove street. 5 4 2

TO LET—Dwelling, 5 rooms, Somerset street, near Johnston drive. 132 North avenue.

FOR SALE—Pony phaeton. Frank Hedden's livery, 118 E. 4th st. 3 28 tf

COW for sale, Jersey and Ayrshire. Milks 18 quarts richest milk. Due May 17. Price $50. Apply 517 East Front street. 5 3 2

TO LET—Blacksmith shop, Somerset street, near Johnston drive. 132 North avenue.

FOR SALE—Beautiful saddle horse, very easy-gaited, safe for ladies to ride or drive. Address Horse, Plainfield, N. J.

WANTED—2 or 3 unfurnished rooms by young couple for light housekeeping, near station preferred; terms moderate. Address L., care Press. 5 3 2

WANTED—By a young girl place at upstairs work, apply at 513 West Sixth street. 5 2 2

$1,000 to $3,500 to loan, first mortgage. Mulford broker. 4 22 tf

YOUNG colored man wants work. Experienced. References. Call 524 West Second street. 5 1 tf

FOR SALE—Nearly new sidebar buggy; bargain. H. A. Weber, corner West Second and Liberty streets. 5 3 6

FOR SALE—Brahmas and Houdons eggs for hatching. Call at 72 Summit avenue. 5 3 2w

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 2 21 tf

BOARDERS wanted at 926 Putnam ave., near LaGrande ave. 4 29 6

STORAGE to let in Stillman block. 4 29 6

CORNER flats to let; all improvements; steam heat. Miller 339 Park avenue. 4 30 5

PAINTERS wanted. Apply E. E. Marshall. North avenue. 5 2 tf

WANTED—Situation as cook or laundress. S., care Press. 5 2 3

DEATHS.

HILLMAN—At DeLand, Florida, April 30, Samuel T. Hillman.
Funeral at First Baptist Church, West Seventy-ninth street and Boulevard, New York, Sunday, May 5, at 3 p. m.

ADAMS—Suddenly in North Plainfield, May 4, 1895, of apoplexy, Jacob T. Adams.
Funeral services from his late residence, 115 Duer street, corner of Linden avenue Tuesday, May 7, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited.

DUNHAM—In this city, Thursday, May 2, 1895, Mrs. Effie Dunham.
Funeral services from Emanuel Baptist Church, colored, on Fillmore street, Sunday, May 5, at 2:30 p. m.

MIZZEN PEAK COTTAGE.

WATCHUNG MOUNTAINS,

Bound Brook, N J

Superior French board at moderate prices. Dinner to order. Table d'Hote 75 cents with ½ bottle of Mizzen Peak claret.

Bowling Alley.

JEUX DE TONNEAU.

Beautiful view, fine shady grounds, sheds stables etc. 5 4 3m

CHAS. FICKE,

Upholsterer,

Has removed from No. 1 West Third street, to 129 West Second street, nearly opposite Trinity Reformed Church.

Mattresses and spring beds made to order. Carpets and mattings made and re-made. Awnings and window shades, to order, a specialty. Slip covers made. Curtains hung.

THE LOVELIEST GOODS YOU EVER SAW.

That is the verdict of the ladies regarding the

WASH GOODS AT PECK'S.

MONDAY, TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY

3 DAYS' SPECIALS 3

Window poles and fixtures complete 13c; window shades 50c grade 39c; window shades 38c grade 25c; window shades 25c grade 15c; silk taffeta gloves 40c grade 29c; silk taffeta gloves 32c grade 19c; silk taffeta gloves 25c grade 15c. 40 per cent off on all sun umbrellas. We have had a large sale of best calico, ginghams and outing cambrics at 3½, and have put more on sale at same price.

REMEMBER $10 cash purchased in our CARPET DEPARTMENT you get a handsome RUG FREE.

WHITNEY'S,

122 East Front Street, Near City Bank.

MUSIC HALL.

Jos. Sohl, Lessee and Manager.
Telephone 49B.

ONE NIGHT ONLY

FRIDAY, MAY 10.

Rice's Surprise Party in the Historical Extravaganza

"1492."

Superb company of 60. Orchestra of soloists. Scenery, calcium, and electric effects.

Prices, Lower floor $1 00. Balcony 50c. Admission 35c. Box office now open.

—THE—

Rev. C. B. Mitchell, D.D.

of Kansas City, (formerly of Plainfield) who has just returned from an extensive trip to Egypt, Palestine and Syria, will deliver a lecture in the

M. E. CHURCH,

Front street, Monday Evening, MAY 6, at 8 p. m. for the benefit of the Women's Home Missionary Society.

Subject—"Was it an Accident?"

Admission Fee, - - - 25 Cents.

DON'T

You find it tiresome to read, day after day, 10c worth 75c, 25c worth 50, and so on. Don't you think it sounds better to say, 25c worth 25? That's our way and we believe in it. It's the fictitious value that some merchants place on their goods that never sell, but it gives them lots of time to run around and see the other fellow do the business. We once knew a man, but that's another story and space costs money. A store full of money savers.

DRESS GOODS.

Such selling with the profits chopped off, but we don't want them and you do. All kinds plain, plaids and fancies, all go the same way. 30 and 40 inch all-wool fancies 39c; 38 inch black figured brilliantine 38c; 45 inch imperial serges 45c; 38 inch all-wool cashmere 25c.

SILKS.

Lucky for us that we did not buy them earlier. We now sell silks for what we would have to pay for them a month ago. Twenty-five pieces, as many patterns of fine swivel silk, just the sort for shirt waists, price 39c the yard.

CAPES.

We could fill our space telling you how low in price they are, but we can't afford it. Selling 'em too cheap, so we tell of a few. Embroidered black broadcloth $1.98; fine black and blue $2.49; fine covert cloth $3.98.

SHIRT WAISTS

Made of percale (not calico) laundried, collars and cuffs, 48c.

SOAP.

The good kind. A thousand boxes, 3 cakes in a box, of as fine a soap as made only the price is poor, 7c box.

UMBRELLAS.

An even hundred of them, made on steel rods, paragon frame. The most tempting lot we ever offered at the price, $1 29.

HOUSE FURNISHINGS.

Our show window and the price on the goods tell the story, how we are selling, not at cost but very near to it. Jap porch screens, sprinkling pots, refrigerators, all at right prices.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

EDWARD C. MULFORD,

(Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.)

Real Estate Broker and Fire Insurance,

Office 119 North ave., (opp. Railroad station.) Money to loan. 19 tf

HALLOCK is showing choice patterns in Percale Shirts, with 2 collars and pair cuffs, and these collars and cuffs are the latest patterns—no old back numbers.

G. A. HALLOCK,

Hats and Furnishing Goods, 109 West Front st.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 North Avenue.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Charles MacDonald, a Prominent Chicago Business Man, Is Restored to Health.

Within a few steps of the intersection of two of the busiest thoroughfares in Chicago, if not in the entire country, is a store through the portal of which more people pass in the course of a day than enter into and depart from any other establishment of its size in the West. Men and women whose faces bear the stamp of intelligence and culture; women who lead in society, art, and letters; men who are prominent in the professions; lawyers, physicians, artists, judges, and journalists. The exterior of the place gives immediate evidence of its character, which is that of a centre of current news and information. It is the news and periodical depot of Charles MacDonald at 55 Washington street, who writes the following letter:

CHICAGO, Feb. 20, 1895 —Messrs. Wells, Richardson & Co, Burlington, Vt.—Gentlemen: It is clearly the duty of every person, to acknowledge a service rendered, no matter what its nature. When, however, the character of the benefit bestowed is such that it lightens the daily burdens of our lives, and changes our nights from dreary watches to periods of tranquil and refreshing repose, the duty resolves into a pleasure. A few months ago, owing to the confining nature of my business, I began to feel at first a sort of languor and listlessness, to disguise which I was compelled to bring into play all the strength of will I could command. The feeling grew upon me, however, and in a short time it took such possession of me that it affected my appetite and caused insomnia. I approached my meals with a feeling amounting almost to nausea, and my bed with horror at the restless night that I was nearly certain was before me. It was only by the strongest efforts that I was enabled to hide the change from people who came into my place of business, but my intimate acquaintances were quicker to notice it. I had arrived at a point where I could no longer keep silent upon the subject, and speaking of it to one of my friends one day he suggested that I try Paine's celery compound. I purchased a bottle, and before I had taken a dozen doses I knew that the suggestion was a good one, for I felt an improvement. I continued to use it, and feel entirely restored. My appetite is good, I sleep well, and, instead of an irksome grind, my business has again become a pleasure to me. You may put me down as a strong advocate of Paine's celery compound.

Yours respectfully,
CHAS. MACDONALD.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. C. P. Coles of New York is visiting Mrs. C. P. Smith of 915 LaGrande avenue.

W. W. Blaker of 230 East Fourth street has moved to 807 North avenue, Netherwood.

The Misses Anthony of Central avenue sail today for Europe, where they will spend the Summer.

Councilman E. N. Erickson and wife left yesterday for a pleasure tour through the southern States.

Mrs. J. B. Milligan of New York city was the guest of Mrs. F. M. Slater of Jackson avenue yesterday.

Wm. G. Brett and family moved yesterday from 149 Crescent avenue to 31 Mercer avenue, in the borough.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hurst Brown and daughter Isabelle, of New York city, are at The Woodside, Netherwood.

L. F. Miller of Rahway was in town yesterday calling on his old-time friend, Nathan Guttmann of West Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lissignolo and family leave town next Wednesday to occupy their Belmar cottage for the Summer.

William J. Ladd and family moved yesterday from 20 Willow avenue, North Plainfield, to 30 Herkemer street, Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Pond of Washington avenue, who have been spending the Winter in Santa Barbara, Cal., are now at Fort Wayne, Ind., where they will remain two weeks with Mrs. Pond's mother before returning home.

—An initiation was made by Somerset Council last night.

—A new timetable will go into effect on the Jersey Central Railroad Sunday, May 12.

—Mr. Stevens of Philadelphia is a new tonsorial artist in Brown & Hill's North avenue shop.

—The Saturday night entertainments of the Boys Club have been abandoned for the Summer.

—Men's Summer suits, from $3 upwards, at Plainfield Bargain House, 126 Park avenue.

—Hugh L. Reid of Quebec has accepted the position of engineer in his brother's brickyard, Netherwood.

—An American girl who is pining for Plainfield air, advertises in this issue for opportunity to make a change. "Hope" is the address, care of Daily Press.

—The Junior Endeavor Society of th Park Avenue Baptist Church had a novel service yesterday, when each member repeated a verse of Scripture commencing with the letter K.

—Work was resumed on the Central avenue sewers this morning, the pipe having arrived. West Front street will be the next thoroughfare laid. Ploughing was begun today on that street, and it was tough work.

—A jury trial will be held before Justice Nash Monday morning to determine the ownership of property in the action of Mary E. Dickinson against William Barnard, and Emma A. Voorhees against William Barnard.

—The following delegates from the Church of the Redeemer will attend the annual State convention of Episcopal churches at Trenton next Tuesday: Charles P. Dupee, J. A. Alexander and Henry R. Philips.e

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

—William Kirk is building a bridge which will be erected over the brook in the rear of L. V. F. Randolph's residence on East Front street.

—At the meeting of the Epworth League of Grace M. E. Church last night at the home of John Valiant a report was received from the committee having charge of the tableaux entertainment recently presented, which showed that the total receipts were $30, of which $19 was net. One new member was elected, which now makes the membership close to 80.

—Best lot of suits, lowest price, at Plainfield Bargain House, 126 Park avenue.

—Woolston & Buckle, the North avenue painters, have the contract to paint the exterior of S. A. Cruikshank's handsome residence "Sanmoor", Belvidere avenue.

—Notice is called to the change of time in the evening services of the Methodist churches. The Epworth prayer meeting will be held at 7 instead of 6:45, and public service at 7:45.

A Wise Way to Economize

THERE is a saying almost as old as bicycling, that "A second-hand Columbia is to be preferred to a new cheap machine." Just as true to-day as it was ten years ago.

Second-Hand Columbia Bicycles

All these machines have been thoroughly overhauled, and they will give the satisfaction Columbias always do.

Columbia, Model 37.

No. 57.	'94 model.	22 lbs.	Gear 56,	A,	$75
" 58.	"	"	" 70,
	blue rims, steel,			B,	60
" 63.	'94 model.	22 lbs.	Gear 56,	B,	70
" 66.	"	"	" 70,	A 1,	75
" 71.	"	"	" 56,
	blue rims,			B,	70
" 302.	'94 model.	22 lbs.	Gear 70,	A,	75

Columbia, Model 33.

No. 303.	'94 pattern.	Racer.	19 lbs. Gear 56,	A,	$80
" 304.	'94 pattern.	Racer.	19 lbs. Gear 70,	A,	80
" 305.	'93 pattern.	Racer,		A,	70
" 306.	'93 pattern.	Racer,		A,	70

Columbia, Model 30.

No. 46.	20 lbs.	Gear 62,		B,	$60
" 39.	"	" 62,		B,	55
" 307.	"	" 62,		A,	60
" 78.	"	" 62,	new,		70

Columbia, Model 34.

No. 48.	20 lbs.	'94 model.	Gear 62,	B,	$60
" 82.	20 lbs.	"	" 62,
	wood rims,			A,	70
" 84.	20 lbs.	'94 model.	Gear 62,	A,	80
	D. T. tires,
" 75.	20 lbs.	'94 model.	Gear 62,	A,	85
	D. T. tires,

Columbia, Model 36.

No. 85.	'94 model.	Gear 62,		A,	$80
" 308.	"	" 62,		B,	65

Columbia, Model 38.

No. 81.	'94 model.	Gear 62,	D. T. tires,	A 1,	$75
" 80.	"	" 62,	low frame,	B,	65
" 310.	"	" 62,		B,	60

Columbia, Model 39.

No. 311.	'94 model.			A,	$75

Columbia, Model 32.

No. 312.	Regular,			A,	$60
" 313.	"			B,	45

Century Columbia.

No. 135.	Gear 56,			C,	$40

Light Roadster, Pneumatic Tires.

No. 17.	'92 model.	Gear 56,		B,	$30
" 20.	"	" 56,		C,	25
" 214.	'91 pattern,			B,	30
" 216.	'90 pattern,			B,	25

Light Roadster, Solid Tires.

No. 5.	'90 pattern.	Gear 56,		C,	$15

Light Roadster, Cushion Tires.

No. 8.	Gear 52,			C,	$25

Hartford, Pattern B.

No. 450.	'94 Improved,				$45
" 452.	"				40

Hartford, Men's.

No. 108.	'94 pattern G.	Gear 62,		A,	$50
" 110.	"	" 62,	high frame,	A,	50
" 111.	'94 pattern G.	Gear 62,	high frame,	B,	45
" 115.	'94 pattern G.	Gear 62,	high frame, wood rims,	A,	50
" 120.	'94 pattern G.	Gear 62,	high frame,	B,	45
" 122.	'94 pattern G.	Gear 62,	high frame,	A,	45

Tandems.

No. 820.	Diamond Frame Special, Hartford Cycle Co., 45 lbs.,		$100
No. 822.	Diamond Frame Special, Hartford Cycle Co., 45 lbs.,		95

Ladies' Bicycles.

No. 12.	Cushion tires.	Columbia, Model 28.	Gear 52,	C,	$20
" 6.	'90 pattern.	Columbia.	Solid tires. Gear 52,	C,	15
" 140.	Hartford, Pattern B.		Cushion tires.	C,	30
" 142.	"	"	"	C,	15
" 103.	'93 pattern D.	Hartford.	Gear 52,	A,	35
" 105.	"	F.	" 52,	A,	40
" 107.	"	F.	" 54,	A,	40
	wood rims,

A, excellent condition; B, very good; C good.

Cash must accompany the order. Freight or express charges are to be paid by purchaser. If shipped C.O.D., $10 must be sent with order, as a guarantee.

POPE MANUFACTURING CO., Hartford, Conn.

Columbias and Hartfords are sold in Plainfield by

The Eldridge Cycle Co 35 and 37 Somerset St

Easy payments; old wheels taken in exchange; wheels to hire, fine repairing

CLOTHING

IS TO MAN WHAT CUTTING IS TO THE DIAMOND.

The man in rags may be as good as one in broadcloth, but somehow the world doesn't think so. He is the rough diamond of humanity, while his less deserving but better dressed neighbor, like a cut diamond, is appreciated and admired. Now there's just as much difference in the cutting of clothing as of diamonds. It takes skill to impart the perfection of fit and finish we give to our clothing, and it costs no more when you know how. See our grand line of Men's Spring Suits, beginning at $9 and running up by easy stages of a dollar or so to $20.

MC GREGOR & CO.,

850-852 Broad St.,

Newark, N. J.

TELEPHONE RATES

IN PLAINFIELD.

$30, $40, $50, according to number of local messages sent and joint use of line; full long distance equipment. Private lines and speaking tube systems installed at reasonable rates. Address The New York & New Jersey Telephone Co., 175 North avenue, Plainfield.

5 3 e o d 1 m

FISH FOR BREAKFAST.

Is Your Cook Up at 5?

That's the hour of our morning delivery. Finest, Freshest Seafood.

ROGERS, 232 West 2d street.

Hats, new shapes, Trunks and Bags cheap

All sizes in Packing Trunks.

E. M. LAING,

105 Park avenue.

MUSIC HALL,

Joseph Sohl, Lessee and Manager.
Telephone call 49B.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT OF

LEWIS MORRISON,

MONDAY, MAY 6,

In his great creation of MEPHISTO. In a dramatic presentation of Goethe's immortal masterpiece

FAUST

Supported by a competent company of artists including MISS FLORENCE ROBERTS as Marguerite. Beautiful scenery, magnificent costumes, wonderful electrical effects. The great Brocken scene.

Prices, 35, 50, 75 and $1.00.

THE GREAT AMERICAN DRINK---Soda Water,

is the best of all drinks when rightly served. We use many syrups—all good—but we must "brag" a little about our orange (fresh from fruit), our chocolate and coffee; none can be finer. As to cream—take your choice: Ice cream, whipped cream, plain cream.

Reynolds's Pharmacy,

Park and North avenues.

It's Their Loss; Your Gain!

There are constantly being offered in the markets Fine Goods through Receivers and Bankrupt Sales, at a Great Sacrifice to the Importer and Manufacturer.

OUR buyers who are constantly on the watch for these good things, and who, by a thorough experience in the markets, know a good bargain when they see it, are doing excellent service in that line, and our many patrons are the gainers thereby.

IF YOU will examine the articles we advertise from time to time, you will find the above statement verified.

We never buy trashy Goods for the sake of quoting a Low Price.

SOMETHING OF ESPECIAL INTEREST.

Special sale of bleached sheetings in 8-4 and 9-4 widths, usually sold at 22 cts and 25 cts a yard. Our price 13 and 15 cts a yard.

Clearance sale of short lengths of bleached muslins, 8-4 and 9-4 widths, all to go at half original prices.

An excellent line of sheer and dainty Percales, in a variety that make choice most difficult; unsurpassable value at 12½ cts. Our price 9 cts.

COUNTERPANES.

Marseilles and crotchet quilts, large size, exquisite designs, sold everywhere at 98 cts, $1.25, $1 39 and 1 65. Our price 65 cts, 99 cts, $1 15 and $1 25.

CAPES.

Ladies' capes, made of silk, velvet and cloth, prettily trimmed with lace, jet and ribbons Sold elsewhere at 4 98, 5 25, $3 50 and $9. Our price $3 75, 3 99, 5.57, and $5 98.

MOREEN SKIRTS.

An excellent Moreen skirt, with full ruffle, usually sold for $4 98. Our price $3 20.

HOUSE WRAPPERS.

Wrappers made up of fine percales in all colors, including indigo, full skirt, cape falling from yoke over large sleeves, trimmed with very pretty contrasting braids, all sizes, at 69 cts, 89 cts, $1 10 and $1 25. Usual asking price fully 25 per cent. more.

TAFFETA SILKS.

Special bargain in black and colored all-silk taffeta, in an excellent assortment of designs, the most sought for silk of the season. Sold everywhere at 89 cts and $1 a yard. Our price 65 cts and 75 cts a yard.

25 ct paper books, by standard authors, good print, full titles. Our price 3 cts each.

FANS

We have just opened up an exquisite line of fans, ranging in price from 10 cts to $2 50 each. The usual asking price is fully 25 per cent. more.

WOMEN'S OXFORDS

74c, 98c, $1.19, $1.48, $2, $3, $3.50, $4—black or tan, pointed, square or common sense toes.

WE USE—nothing but the genuine Nevel stock in our tan goat shoes for misses and children. It will wear as long again as the ordinary. A full assortment of tan goods now ready for your inspection.

Doane & Edsall.

Try a Cup of Hasty Lunch Chocolate,

Warranted strictly pure.

We serve it to all visitors, in our Big Basement.

Housefurnishing Department.

SPECIAL PRICES.

Summer Goods. Summer Goods.

Window screens, hard wood frames, 19c and up.
Screen doors, well made, 70c and up.
Lawn mowers, best make, $2.29.
Ice cream freezers, best make, $1.49.
Baby carriages, large variety, $3.98 and up.
Oil and gas stoves at bottom prices. 1, 2 and 3 burner at 59c, $1.49 and $2.39 each.
Special low prices on refrigerators. Best makes; all sizes in stock.

7c SALE STILL ON.

At EDSALL'S

SPECIAL!

Gent's suits dyed	$2.25
Gent's suits cleaned	$1.50
Overcoat dyed	$1.50
Ladies' dresses cleaned	$1.50
" " dyed	$1.50
Lace curtains cleaned, a pair	50c
Blankets cleaned	$1.00

G. O. KELLER,

317 WEST FRONT ST.

☞Goods called for and delivered.

$1.00

At J. F. MacDonald's Uptown Grocery,

buys $1.00 worth of Groceries every business day in the year. Our goods are sold at a profit so as to enable us to give weight and quality to our customers and have something left for ourselves No fictitious prices. No man is in business for his health.

J. F. MAC DONALD

Decorated 10-piece Toilet Sets $1.60

Dorflinger's Cut Glass,
Gas Fixtures Repaired,
The Welsbach Light.

Gavett's.

129 East Front st.

Grand Opening Every Day

AT A. W. FULPER'S!

1 pound 50c tea, 1 can milk, 3 pounds sugar, 1 loaf bread, half dozen boxes matches

50c All for 50c 50c

Not as an introduction but an every day occurrence. The very best goods, the very lowest prices. Sugar cured ham 10c pound; best Elgin creamery butter 20c, 5 pounds for 95 cts; good creamery butter 15c; 2 pounds extra combination coffee for 25c; 2 pounds extra creamery cheese for 25c; good creamery cheese 10c pound; 3 cakes Babbitt's soap 13c; Babbitt's 1776 per package 3c; best ginger snaps 4c.

LEECH, STILES & CO.,

Eye Specialists,

441 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, formerly with Queen & Co.

H. A. Stiles will be at

No. 107 East Front Street.

Dunham's Real Estate Office

EVERY THURSDAY

From 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Persons who have headache, or whose eyes are causing discomfort, should call upon this specialist and they will receive intelligent and skillful attention. No charge to examine your eyes. Every pair of glasses ordered guaranteed to be satisfactory. 4 13 tf-m t w s

Had You Thought of the Difference?

Special sale usually means a smaller profit than usual but an

Assignee's Sale

means something else—it means a sale below cost for cash to settle up a business. So if you want a suit of clothes come to the Schepflin & Schultz assignee sale.

J. F. MacDonald,

Assignee for Schepflin, Schultz & Co.,

318 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

DEALERS IN

Lumber. Coal. Mason's Material. &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

An agreeable Laxative and Nerve Tonic. Sold by Druggists or sent by mail. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per package. Samples free.

KO NO The Favorite TOOTH POWDER for the Teeth and Breath, 25c.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cts. Sold by Druggists.

SHILOH'S CURE.

This Great Cough Cure promptly cures when all others fail. For Consumption it has no rival; has cured thousands, and will cure you, if taken in time. Price 25 cts., 50 cts., $1.00.

Sold by all druggists.

8 14 y

H. Hand,

LICENSED AUCTIONEER.

15 YEARS EXPERIENCE.

esidence and postoffice address

SCOTCH PLAINS, N. J.

Office in Plainfield at Terrill & Cole's livery, 200 West 2d st. 1 12 tf

W. K. McCLURE.

Counselor-at-Law.

SUPREME COURT COMMISSIONER.

First National Bank Building.

W. R. Codington's

LAW OFFICES.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.
Solicitor and Master in Chancery.
Notary Public.

The sign on the windows reads

Woolston & Buckle,

Paper Hangers.

We have had the door hinges and latch oiled up so that getting in is easy. So also is the getting out.
Prices are so low on Wall Papers that you will buy before you go.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION.

The Civil Service Commission at Washington has ordered that an examination be held in this city on Saturday, June 1, 1895 commencing at 9 o'clock, a. m., for the grades of clerk and carrier in the city postoffice. Only citizens of the United States can be examined. The age limitations are as follows: For carrier, not under 21 nor over 40; for all other positions, not under 18 years. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed with the undersigned in complete form, on the proper blank, before the hour of closing business on May 13, 1895.

The Civil Service Commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens who may desire to enter the postal service, without regard to their political affiliation. All such citizens, whether Democrats or Republicans or neither, are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to their political views, or to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination.

For application blanks, full instructions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, apply at the postoffice to

G. C. GODOWN,
Secretary Board of Examiners.

See What $1.00 Will Do

AT THE

Plainfield Tea and Grocery Co.

106 E. FRONT ST.,

H. S. WILLIAMS, Manager.

All Goods Warranted as Represented.

1 lb. Special Mixed Tea,	50c.
1 lb. Coffee, -	32
Quarter lb. Pepper,	10
One Can Corn, -	10
One Can Tomatoes, -	10
One Can Pease, -	10
One Can Milk -	10
One Paper Corn Starch,	10
One Paper Cocoanut,	10

☞ $1.52

Cut out this Coupon and bring it and $1 to our store and get all the above articles for $1 Cash!

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE IS THE BEST.

FIT FOR A KING.

$5. CORDOVAN, FRENCH & ENAMELLED CALF.

$4. $3.50 FINE CALF & KANGAROO.

$3.50 POLICE, 3 SOLES.

$2.50 $2. WORKINGMEN'S. EXTRA FINE.

$2. $1.75 BOYS' SCHOOL SHOES.

LADIES.

$3. $2.50 $2. $1.75 BEST DONGOLA.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE. W. L. DOUGLAS, BROCKTON, MASS.

Over One Million People wear the

W. L. Douglas $3 & $4 Shoes

All our shoes are equally satisfactory

They give the best value for the money.
They equal custom shoes in style and fit.
Their wearing qualities are unsurpassed.
The prices are uniform,—stamped on sole.
From $1 to $3 saved over other makes.
If your dealer cannot supply you we can. Sold by

A. WILLETT & SON

THE CUBAN REVOLT

Gen. Campos Realizes Its Magnitude at Last.

He Learns That Maceo Is Not Dead and That Gomez Has Escaped Through the Lines—Filthy Habits and Hardships of the Spanish Boy Soldiers.

New York, May 4.—The staff correspondent of the United Press at Santiago de Cuba, under date of April 26, sends the following: Martinez Campos at the conference with his generals outside this port on the 22d gave them some very plain talk. He learned that from the first time that Maceo, whom the authorities had proclaimed dead in the woods near Guantanimo, is now at the head of one or two thousand insurgents near Songo, a small town seven leagues from here. He also learned that Maximo Gomez, whom the Spaniards most dread, had escaped through the line sent to hem him in when he landed ten days ago, and that he is now well on his way toward the province of Puerto Principe, where, it is expected, there will be a general rising of Cubans upon his arrival, thus spreading the revolution outside the eastern district.

In Pursuit of Maceo.

Campos ordered Gen. Salcedo, commander of the First division to go in pursuit of Maceo at once with all the troops he could spare from guard duty in this vicinity and remain out until they captured him. Gen. Campos then decided to go to Puerto Principe himself and endeavor to keep the residents in check and head off Gomez. Campos then proceeds on the Villeverde, stopping to put new energy into his generals at Guantanimo, Baracoa, Gibara and Neuvitas, as he passes those ports.

Spanish Soldiers' Habits Filthy.

Gen. Salcedo gathered up the only troops available, the 1,900 which came from Spain on the Montevideo and who had only one day's rest here after their voyage. They are the best looking lot that has arrived, and are the best uniformed. They camped under the custom house shed on the wharf while here, and for cleanliness they compared favorably with the Italians who load garbage scows in New York. At the barracks here and at other points visited by the United Press correspondent absolutely no sanitary arrangements could be found, and the habis of the men were most filthy.

Will Probably Die Like Cattle.

Under these conditions in this climate there can be no doubt that thousands of these unfortunate lads, pressed into service by the Spanish monarchy, will die like cattle this summer. The men, or boys, for the average age is under twenty, are densely ignorant, are unaccustomed to the climate, and are compelled to march in the heat of the sun through a very rough country, and added to all this the troops practically have no commissary department.

Three Days Without Food.

At Baracoa the United Press correspondent saw two hundred men who had marched there from Santiago through the mountains, and had been three days without food. They had been on the island only two weeks, but they had the appearance of having passed through a Crimean campaign.

At Last Realizes His Task.

Gen. Campos now realizes that he has a serious task before him, and his calls upon Spain for more troops indicate that he has only one plan; that is to spare neither officers nor men but push troops into the country from the north and from the south, capture the chiefs if possible and crush out the rebellion before Cubans in other parts of the island screw up their courage to the fighting point.

Outcome by No Means Certain.

With the material at hand, an empty treasury at his back, and the methods in the Spanish army to follow, the outcome is by no means certain. Campos has been here ten days now and the only government victory that has been scored was the repulse of a mad charge of mounted insurgents by twenty Spanish soldiers in the fort at Dos Caminos. In the other trifling engagements that have taken place and in the fight at Ramon Jaguas the Spanish have been worsted with loss of officers, men and quantities of ammunition.

News of Defeats Suppressed.

News of these encounters is rigorously suppressed by the government. Cable matter to the states now passes through the hands of two censors, one here and one at Havana. Only matter favorable to the government is permitted to be wired or published. Illustrated papers on the island have been suppressed.

They Get the News, Nevertheless.

With all these precautions the Cubans get the news, and late reports from the interior has given new hope to the Cubans, who are in full sympathy, but do not take the field and fight. A few insurgent victories will send many white Cubans out to join the bands now largely composed of blacks.

Lax Where Vigilance Is Needed.

The authorities make no effort to prevent communication between the Cubans in the field and those in the cities and on plantations. Couriers precede every movement of troops. Even the very men who fight one day enter towns and cities the next, leaving their arms behind. They come in for news, provisions and even war material. All of this takes place under the eyes of the Spanish officials, but it does not appear to interest them. In other parts of the island, where all is quiet, the authorities are more strict than at this place, which is the hot-bed of the rebellion.

Custom House Cashier Resigns.

New York, May 4.—W. L. Bostwick, cashier of the New York custom house for many years, has sent in his resignation, to take effect June 1, 1895. It is understood that W. E. Northrop, of Oneida, N. Y., will be his successor. Mr. Bostwick retires on account of ill health.

Pittsburg & Western Earnings.

New York, May 4.—For the month of April the gross earning of the Pittsburg & Western road were $219,146, an increase of $58,195.

Yesterday's Baseball Games.

At Philadelphia—Philadelphia, 8; New York, 5. At Boston—Boston, 27; Washington, 11.

The Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Standard Railway of America

Protected throughout by the Interlocking switch and Block Signal System.

On and after Jan. 20, 1895, trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

FAST LINE leaves Philadelphia 12 25 p m daily with Pullman vestibule parlor and sleeping cars for Pittsburg, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

6.37 P. M. WESTERN EXPRESS, with Pullman Vestibule sleeping cars, dining car daily for Pittsburg, Chicago, Cleveland, daily except Saturday, for Toledo, Williamsport, Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

8.34 p.m—SOUTH WESTERN EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping car, daily, to Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, and Memphis. Dining car Altoona to Richmond.

8 43 p. m.—PACIFIC EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping cars daily, for Pittsburg, Columbus, Chicago, and Toledo, daily, except Saturday for Cleveland.

For Baltimore, Washington and the South—1 00 9.08, 9.36 a. m., 9.20 p. m.

Sundays, 1, 9 08, 9.36 a. m., 9 41 p m.

For Baltimore only 1 37 p. m., week-days.

For Newark and New York—3 00, 5 34, 6 44, 7 17, 8 45, 10 20, 10 30, 10 40, 11 07, 11 48 a. m., 1 15, 1 20, 1 56, 3 04, 3 40, 3 45, 3 57, 4 47, 5 45, 5 55, 6 36, 6 58, 7 27, 8 03, 8 07, 9 25, 9 30, 9 47, 9 10 50, 10 03 11 03 and 11 56 p. m.

Sundays 3 02, 3 38, 7 54, 8 45, 9 20, 9 57, 10 19, 10 36, 10 49 a. m., 12 36, 1 44, 3 33, 7 45, 8 45, 4 32, 5 34, 5 42, 7 06, 7 12, 7 28, 7 58, 8 30 9 18, 10 16, 1 46 and 11 56 p. m.

For New York only, 6 10 a. m. daily.

For Philadelphia—1 00, 4 37, 7 10, 9 03, 9 56, 11 45 a. m.; 1 13, 1 37, 3 33, 5 05, 6 30, 7 46, 9 43, 9 30 p. m. Sundays at 1 00, 3 09, 9 03, 9 56, 10 41 a. m.; 6 30, 8 37, 7 47 and 9 41 p. m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY

(2 25p.m. with through Buffet parlor car) Sundays 8 50 a. m.

Cape May, Sea Isle City and Ocean City 1 37 p. m. weekdays.

For Rahway—7 45 daily ex. Monday, 4 03, 6 44, 7 10, 7 50, 8 54, 9 30, 10 50, 11 43 a. m., 12 45, 1 11, 1 37, 2 45, 3 20, 3 55, 4 30, 4 56, 5 22, 5 53, 6 06, 6 12, 6 17, 6 37, 6 46, 8 03, 7 30, 7 46, 8 14, 8 53, 9 54, 11 03 11 45 p. m. and 12 37 night week-days Sundays, 1, 1 45, 3 09, 5 45, 9 40, 10 25 10 41 and 11 47 a. m., 12 03, 1 30, 2 47, 3 25, 4 50, 5 30, 6 40, 7 22, 7 37, 7 47, 8 24, 8 47, 9 38, 10 14, 11 and 11 55 p. m.

For New Brunswick—1 00, 6 37, 7 10, 7 50, 9 05, 9 56, 9 50, 11 43 a. m., 12 35, 1 37, 2 45, 3 59, 4 26, 5 05, 5 40, 6 03, 6 45, 7 46, 9 39 and 11 03 p. m. Sundays 1 00, 6 03, 9 05, 9 56 9 49, 10 41 a. m., 12 50, 1 50, 5 40, 7 47, 9 12, 9 41 p. m.

For Woodbridge—1 43 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 46, 10 03, 11 30 a.m., 12 30, 3 20, 4 03, 5 44, 6 12, and 7 20 9 03 p.m., 12 37 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 43, 10 03, and 11 47 a. m., 10 14 p. m.

For Perth Amboy—1 43 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 46, 10 03, 12 46 3 20, 4 03, 5 44, 6 12, 7 20 7 36 9 Mand 12 37 night. Sundays, 1 43 10 03, 11 47 a m 10 14 p m.

For East Millstone—7 10 a. m., 12 35, 2 48 and 6 40 p. m., week-days.

For Trenton—1 00, 6 37, 7 10, 7 50, 9 05, 9 56, 11 43 A. M.; 1 05, 1 37, 2 45, 3 59, 4 26, 5 05, 7 46, 8 45, 9 30 P. M. Sundays 1 00, 6 03, 9 05, 9 56, 10 41 A. M.; 6 45, 8 37, 7 47 and 9 41 P. M.

For Lambertville, Phillipsburg and Belvidere via Trenton—7 50 A. m., 2.45 and 6.36 p. m., and 6.40 p. m. Sundays.

For Flemington—7 50 A. M.; 2 45 P. M.

For Freehold—7 50, 11 43 a. m., 4 05, 6 36 p.m., via. Monmouth Junction, week-days.

For Jamesburg, via. Monmouth Junction—7 50 and 11 43 a. m., 4 05 and 6 36 p. m., week days.

For Long Branch, Ocean Grove, and points on New York and Long Branch R. R.—9 45 12 46, 4 13 5 44 p. m., 12 37 night, week-days. Sundays, 10 25 a. m., and 9 41 p. m.; do not stop at Asbury Park on Sundays.

For Sea Side Park, Island Heights and Toms River—12 46, p. m.

For Boston—9 00 p. m., daily.

For Brooklyn, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats to Brooklyn annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton Street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York city.

Leave New York for Elizabeth—1 00 daily except Monday, 2 00, 7 20, 8 10, 8 30, 9, 9 10, 10 10, 11 00 a. m., 12, 12 10, 12 30, 12 40 1 00, 2 10, 2 30, 3 00, 3 20, 4 00, 4 10, 4 30, 4 40, 5 00, 5 10, 5 20, 5 30, 5 40, 6 00, 6 00, 6 10, 6 20, 6 40, 7 00, 7 30, 8 15, 9 10 10 15, 11 00, 11 00 p. m., 12 10 night. Sundays, 1 00, 8 15, 9 00, 9 30, 10 00 11 00 a. m., 12 00 noon, 1 00, 3 00, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 30, 6 45, 7 30, 7 00, 8 00, 8 30, 9 30, 10, 15, 10 30 p. m., and 12 45 night.

E. M. PREVOST, General Manager.
J. R. WOOD, Gen. Pass. Agent.

Carpenters and Builders.

UTZINGER & KLINE.

CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS.

Jobbing promptly attended to.

V. Utzinger, 75 Grandview ave. C. Kline, 94 Jackson ave.

JOHN P. EMMONS

—Mason and Builder.—

Washington avenue and Prospect place,

NORTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Jobbing promptly attended to 11 24 tf

THEODORE GRAY,

MASON AND CONTRACTOR.

Estimates given. Repairing promptly attended to. Residence 111 Leside ave. 3 28 y

PEARSON & GAYLE,

Carpenters and Builders.

RESIDENCE—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine St.

E. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine St.

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO 9-21-tf

GEO. W. STUDER.

CARPENTER AND BUILDER,

925 ARLINGTON AVENUE.

Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given. Charges reasonable. 5 3 6m

McCullough's Steam Mill,

21 Steiner Place, North Plainfield.

E. H. McCullough, Jr. Proprietor.

Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing Turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished. 4-13-6

C. W. LINES & CO.,

Mason and Builders.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Residence 18 Elm Place.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Jobbing promptly attended to 12 6

REMOVAL.

I have removed my watchmaking and jewelry business from Park ave. to

142 North Avenue

Next to Walker's bakery and shall be pleased to have my friends call.

CALEB DICKINSON

Real Estate Insurance
VAN BUREN & TIMPSON,
165 North ave. Plainfield, N. J.

L. PAOLI & CO.,

Fruits, Confectionery, Temperance Drinks, Cigars, Etc.,

128 NORTH AVENUE,

FRESH ROASTED PEANUTS EVERY DAY, 10 CENTS A QUART.

I take this method of informing my friends and the public in general that I am again in business at the old stand. I solicit your patronage. Store will close at sundown on Friday and open at sundown on Saturday.

The Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Standard Railway of America

Protected throughout by the Interlocking switch and Block Signal System.

On and after Jan. 20, 1895, trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

FAST LINE leaves Philadelphia 12 25 p m daily with Pullman vestibule parlor and sleeping cars for Pittsburg, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

6.37 P. M. WESTERN EXPRESS, with Pullman Vestibule sleeping cars, dining car daily for Pittsburg, Chicago, Cleveland, daily except Saturday, for Toledo, Williamsport, Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

8.34 p.m—SOUTH WESTERN EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping car, daily, to Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, and Memphis. Dining car Altoona to Richmond.

8 43 p. m.—PACIFIC EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping cars daily, for Pittsburg, Columbus, Chicago, and Toledo, daily, except Saturday for Cleveland.

For Baltimore, Washington and the South—1 00 9.08, 9.36 a. m., 9.20 p. m.

Sundays, 1, 9 08, 9.36 a. m., 9 41 p m.

For Baltimore only 1 37 p. m., week-days.

For Newark and New York—3 00, 5 34, 6 44, 7 17, 8 45, 10 20, 10 30, 10 40, 11 07, 11 48 a. m., 1 15, 1 20, 1 56, 3 04, 3 40, 3 45, 3 57, 4 47, 5 45, 5 55, 6 36, 6 58, 7 27, 8 03, 8 07, 9 25, 9 30, 9 47, 9 10 50, 10 03 11 03 and 11 56 p. m.

Sundays 3 02, 3 38, 7 54, 8 45, 9 20, 9 57, 10 19, 10 36, 10 49 a. m., 12 36, 1 44, 3 33, 7 45, 8 45, 4 32, 5 34, 5 42, 7 06, 7 12, 7 28, 7 58, 8 30 9 18, 10 16, 1 46 and 11 56 p. m.

For New York only, 6 10 a. m. daily.

For Philadelphia—1 00, 4 37, 7 10, 9 03, 9 56, 11 45 a. m.; 1 13, 1 37, 3 33, 5 05, 6 30, 7 46, 9 43, 9 30 p. m. Sundays at 1 00, 3 09, 9 03, 9 56, 10 41 a. m.; 6 30, 8 37, 7 47 and 9 41 p. m.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY

(2 25p.m. with through Buffet parlor car) Sundays 8 50 a. m.

Cape May, Sea Isle City and Ocean City 1 37 p. m. weekdays.

For Rahway—7 45 daily ex. Monday, 4 03, 6 44, 7 10, 7 50, 8 54, 9 30, 10 50, 11 43 a. m., 12 45, 1 11, 1 37, 2 45, 3 20, 3 55, 4 30, 4 56, 5 22, 5 53, 6 06, 6 12, 6 17, 6 37, 6 46, 8 03, 7 30, 7 46, 8 14, 8 53, 9 54, 11 03 11 45 p. m. and 12 37 night week-days Sundays, 1, 1 45, 3 09, 5 45, 9 40, 10 25 10 41 and 11 47 a. m., 12 03, 1 30, 2 47, 3 25, 4 50, 5 30, 6 40, 7 22, 7 37, 7 47, 8 24, 8 47, 9 38, 10 14, 11 and 11 55 p. m.

For New Brunswick—1 00, 6 37, 7 10, 7 50, 9 05, 9 56, 9 50, 11 43 a. m., 12 35, 1 37, 2 45, 3 59, 4 26, 5 05, 5 40, 6 03, 6 45, 7 46, 9 39 and 11 03 p. m. Sundays 1 00, 6 03, 9 05, 9 56 9 49, 10 41 a. m., 12 50, 1 50, 5 40, 7 47, 9 12, 9 41 p. m.

For Woodbridge—1 43 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 46, 10 03, 11 30 a.m., 12 30, 3 20, 4 03, 5 44, 6 12, and 7 20 9 03 p.m., 12 37 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 43, 10 03, and 11 47 a. m., 10 14 p. m.

For Perth Amboy—1 43 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 46, 10 03, 12 46 3 20, 4 03, 5 44, 6 12, 7 20 7 36 9 Mand 12 37 night. Sundays, 1 43 10 03, 11 47 a m 10 14 p m.

For East Millstone—7 10 a. m., 12 35, 2 48 and 6 40 p. m., week-days.

For Trenton—1 00, 6 37, 7 10, 7 50, 9 05, 9 56, 11 43 A. M.; 1 05, 1 37, 2 45, 3 59, 4 26, 5 05, 7 46, 8 45, 9 30 P. M. Sundays 1 00, 6 03, 9 05, 9 56, 10 41 A. M.; 6 45, 8 37, 7 47 and 9 41 P. M.

For Lambertville, Phillipsburg and Belvidere via Trenton—7 50 A. m., 2.45 and 6.36 p. m., and 6.40 p. m. Sundays.

For Flemington—7 50 A. M.; 2 45 P. M.

For Freehold—7 50, 11 43 a. m., 4 05, 6 36 p.m., via. Monmouth Junction, week-days.

For Jamesburg, via. Monmouth Junction—7 50 and 11 43 a. m., 4 05 and 6 36 p. m., week days.

For Long Branch, Ocean Grove, and points on New York and Long Branch R. R.—9 45 12 46, 4 13 5 44 p. m., 12 37 night, week-days. Sundays, 10 25 a. m., and 9 41 p. m.; do not stop at Asbury Park on Sundays.

For Sea Side Park, Island Heights and Toms River—12 46, p. m.

For Boston—9 00 p. m., daily.

For Brooklyn, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats to Brooklyn annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton Street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York city.

Leave New York for Elizabeth—1 00 daily except Monday, 2 00, 7 20, 8 10, 8 30, 9, 9 10, 10 10, 11 00 a. m., 12, 12 10, 12 30, 12 40 1 00, 2 10, 2 30, 3 00, 3 20, 4 00, 4 10, 4 30, 4 40, 5 00, 5 10, 5 20, 5 30, 5 40, 6 00, 6 00, 6 10, 6 20, 6 40, 7 00, 7 30, 8 15, 9 10 10 15, 11 00, 11 00 p. m., 12 10 night. Sundays, 1 00, 8 15, 9 00, 9 30, 10 00 11 00 a. m., 12 00 noon, 1 00, 3 00, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 30, 6 45, 7 30, 7 00, 8 00, 8 30, 9 30, 10, 15, 10 30 p. m., and 12 45 night.

E. M. PREVOST, General Manager.
J. R. WOOD, Gen. Pass. Agent.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

(Anthracite coal used exclusively insuring cleanliness and comfort.)

Station in New York foot of Liberty street.

Time Table in effect, Nov. 18, 1894.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield, 2 14, 3 37, 5 28, 6 05, 6 29, 6 50 7 28, 7 30, 7 58, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 22, 10 04 10 27, 11 19, a m; 12 08, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51 4 50, 5 54, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 05, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 19, 11 28 a. m.; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 28, 5 36, 7 11, 8 23, 9 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty Street at 4 30 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a. m.; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, (except Saturday) 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p. m., 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 8 30, 9 15 a. m.; 12 00 m.; 1 00, 2 15, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p. m.; 12 15 night 1 00 a. m.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 28, 6 29, 6 50, 7 28, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 22, 10 04, 10 27, a. m.; 12 08, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 6 34, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 28, a. m.; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 11, 8 23, 9 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark, at 5 15, 7 15, 7 55, 8 29, 9 08, 10 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 15, 1 35, 2 20 (Saturdays only) 2 50, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 50, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday 7 20, 8 45, 9 35, 11 35, a. m.; 1 10, 2 35, 4 10, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a.m. 12 46, 2 08, 2 32, 3 48, 4 38, 5 08, 5 14, 5 54, 6 04, 6 15, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 28, 11 23 p. m.; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 54, a. m.; 2 08, 3 28, 5 14, 6 25, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 55, 7 45, 8 20, 9 05, 9 45, 11 40 a. m.; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 5 28, 6 35, 8 07, 9 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 55 a. m.; 12 08, 1 20, 5 05, 6 45, 8 05, 8 05, 9 40 p.m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54, a. m.; 12 46, 2 08, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28 a. m.; 2 08, 6 35, p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53 a. m.; 12 22, 7 00, 7 00 p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 53 a. m.; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

5 45 A. M. for Port Reading, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport and Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m. for stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 A. M. for Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 A. M. for Flemington, High Bridge branch D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Hazleton, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m. way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

3 08 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury and Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton. Buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge branch

5 16 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, Mauch Chunk, Shamokin and Tamaqua, Buffet parlor car to Scranton.

6 19 P. M. for Flemington.

6 58 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading and Harrisburg.

9 21 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

6 45 A. M. Sunday for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton. 8 28 a.m. Sundays for Easton, 3 08 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading and Harrisburg, 5 05 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c. and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

For Atlantic City, 8 00 a. m. 1 18 p. m.

Long Branch, Ocean Grove, &c

Leave Plainfield 9 07, 8, 10 27, a. m. 1 13, 3 51, 5 54, p. m. Sundays—(except Ocean Grove) 8 28, a. m., 9 32 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 9 07, 8 00, 8 10 27 a. m., 1 13, 3 51, 4 50, 6 34, 7 03 p.m. Sunday—8 28, a. m., 9 32 p. m.

For Freehold, 9 07, 8, 10 27 a.m., 1 13, 3 51, 4 50, m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 45, 8 16, 9 54, 12 46, 2 08, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28 a. m.; 2 08, 6 35, p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53 a. m.; 12 22, 7 00, 7 00 p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 53 a. m.; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

For Baltimore and Washington at 9 46, a. m., 2 08, 6 35, 9 54, a. m., 1 13, night. Sundays—9 46 a. m., 2 08, 6 35 p. m. 1 13, night.

For Trenton 5 45, 8 16, 9 54, 12 46, a. m., 12 46, 2 08, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21, 9 07 p.m., 1 13 night, Sunday, 5 45, 8 28, 9 32, 2 08, 6 35 p.m., 1 13 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points west, week days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sundays 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rate may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

H. P. OLHAUSEN, General Sup't.
H. P. BALDWIN, Gen. Pass. Agt.

The Finderne,

FINDERNE, Somerset Co., N. J.

Open all the year as a resort of the highest order. Driving and sleighing parties will receive every attention.

HIGH-CLASS SUNDAY DINNERS.

(Table d' Hote from 1 to 3:30.) Steam heat; inclosed piazzas; everything immaculate. When out driving let us entertain you.

A. E. WHITE, Manager.
Finderne, N. J.

1 9 tf

CODDINGTON'S

FURNITURE AND FREIGHT

EXPRESS.

OFFICES—26 West Front street; 28 Park avenue Post Office Box 289.

PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY. Large covered trucks. Goods sent to any part of the country. Charges reasonable. Satisfaction guaranteed 11 9

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a prompt answer and an honest opinion, write to MUNN & CO., who have had nearly fifty years' experience in the patent business. Communications strictly confidential. A Handbook of Information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and scientific books sent free.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the Scientific American, and thus are brought widely before the public without cost to the inventor. This splendid paper, issued weekly, elegantly illustrated, has by far the largest circulation of any scientific work in the world. $3 a year. Sample copies sent free.

Building Edition, monthly, $2.50 a year. Single copies, 25 cents. Every number contains beautiful plates, in colors, and photographs of new houses, with plans, enabling builders to show the latest designs and secure contracts. Address MUNN & CO., NEW YORK, 361 BROADWAY.

FISCHER PIANOS.

ESTABLISHED 1840.

Nearly 100,000 Now in Use

RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARD, WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO

EASY TERMS. — EXCHANGED.

Catalogue mailed on application.

110 FIFTH AVE., cor. 16th St., N. Y.

Amos H. VanHorn, Limited,

73 Market Street, Near Plane Street.

Note the Name Amos Before Entering the Store.

COME EVERY DAY.

Whenever you come you find fresh features in Furniture and Household Wares to greet you. Just now nothing seems impossible in the line of economy in this store. Whatever you want maybe you can fill it here at a third—often half—the price you'll pay elsewhere. For instance:

PARLOR SUITS.

$30—Whoever thought to see such a splendid suit as this for such a little price? You'll wonder how the material can be bought for so small a figure and not count the making. Not many, only enough to keep the sale going this week, so you'd best be quick. Mahogany finished frame, five pieces.

MATTINGS.

15c. the yard and made in Japan. You know what that means. Quaint patterns, woven carelessly on a bright colored background. Some of the very prettiest patterns of the season. Brand new styles and the kinds that will win your approval.

DINING CHAIRS.

Fragile and delicate, stout and sturdy, and every one of them serviceable as can be. You needn't spend much time; close your eyes and choose, you can't go wrong. They are the most cheerful looking chair you ever saw, and the prices $1.25 to $3.00, with twenty-five cent go-betweens.

CARPETS.

High priced or low priced, the lining and the making and the laying free. That's what brings business to our carpet room. And you pay less here for the carpet than you're likely to pay elsewhere. Scores of fresh rolls added weekly, among them new patterns in the 65c. Tapestry Brussels and Super Ingrains.

An Unequaled Offering. Buy a bedroom suit here. You'll save the cost of spring and mattress. We give a strongly woven wire spring and mixed mattress with each bedroom set sold. A bouncing big offer, but it's away we have for making new acquaintances. Goods delivered free of charge to all parts of the State.

The Portland Range. You who have never heard about it, come to the store; you who have one, aren't you tickled?

The Storage House is making friends daily; such a well-lighted, well-ventilated place as it is, explains why. Satisfactory terms and satisfactory people to deal with. A 'phone call or postal will bring our vans to you door.

"Hello" Number 580

PUTNAM & DeGRAW.

Is there anything below that will interest you?

Gents Neglige shirts	75c. $1.00	Ladies hose seamless fast color black and tan	16c
Gents and Boys sweaters	25c 40c 50c	Ladies black skirts	$1.00 $1 25 $1 99
Gents long bicycle hose	25c	Ladies shirt waists,	29c, 39c, 49c, 55c
Gents medium weight underwear	39c 50c	Children's Hose, fast black, seamless,	10c
Gents half hose	10c 3 pair for 25c	" " double knee, "	15c
Gents half hose	15c 2 pair for 25c	Children's Bicycle Hose, extra heavy	25c

Remember, that we give away money. Don't fail to ask for a money order when you purchase $1 worth.

REAL ESTATE.

F. M. Bacon or Wallace Vail,

Babcock Building, Room 211.

Come and see us. We always keep a good line of houses to rent and for sale. Elegant flats, steam heated, city water and electric lights Private houses with all modern improvements. Vacant lots, farms, speculative property bought, sold and exchanged.

A gem, all improvements, $25 per month, 4 or 5 minutes from station. Farm 6 acres, house, barn, good land, 2 miles from Plainfield, $1,300—a very cheap home; easy payments. House 7 rooms, 5 minutes from station, $2,100. Store and 3 rooms $12 a month Farm 53 acres, 1.000 peach, apple and pear trees, near Flemington, $2,500.

Are You Interested

about the care of your teeth? If so, nothing like a personal trial will convince you that

Leggett's Tooth Wash

is an agreeable, refreshing and delightful dentrifice.

Sprinkler Top Bottles 25c.

Metropolitan Livery and Boarding Stables

Horses boarded by the day, week or month. Especial accommodations for transient trade

OFFICE AND STABLES,

147, 149, 151 North Avenue. Opp. Railroad Depot.

A. C. BLAIR.....Proprietor. FRANK DAY.....Manager
Telephone 152, connected with all circuits of New Jersey, New York and Brooklyn.

1 14 tf

LYNDHURST, KEATING, EAGLE, AND APOLLO BICYCLES

Charles C. Lister, 134 North Ave

Repairing, Renting and Storing.

WE ARE READY!

With large and beautiful line of Spring and Summer sty'es. Hats and Gents furnishings, men's and boys' Derby or Alpine hats, black, brown and tan, $1 00 to $3 00. Fancy neglige shirts, collars attached or detached 35c to $2 00. 1000 scarfs four-in-hand and made up from 10c to 75c, all new fresh goods. Special colored laundried shirts, 2 collars only, 35c worth 75c. No trouble to show our goods. Money refunded if you want it.

U. B. Crane, Hatter and Furnisher,

120 West Front street.

BRIAR PIPE GIVEN AWAY

WITH EVERY ONE POUND bale OF

DUKES MIXTURE for 35 cents

Every pipe stamped DUKES MIXTURE or ATC

2 oz Package 5¢

Ladies' Shirt Waists; laundried waists, many sorts, perfectly made, nicely finished, from the 49c kind to the finest; an assortment that is sure to please the most exacting.

White dresses, splendidly made, handsomely embroidered, the best of material at $1.75; for children', 1 year to 6 years, white dresses as low as 29c.

The careful and economizing buyer can be suited in our carpet display. Everything that is newest in designs and colorings. 125 patterns of oilcloths from 25c sq yd. Mattings from 10 to 45c; window shades from 18c up. Curtain poles all complete, 19c up.

LEDERER'S

MISS E. ROCKFELLOW.

DRESSMAKING PARLORS.

195 North Avenue.

Taylor System. Suits $5 and upward.

5 11 m

A large variety of all the Latest Styles in Hats and Bonnets can be found at the Millinery Establishment of

MRS. L. ADAMS.

111 EAST FRONT STREET.

Under First National Bank.

Flemington Trotting Stud at Auction, together with the farm, fair grounds, race track, buildings, sulkies, harness, etc., the property of

Mr. Andrew Radel,

Flemington, N. J.,

Tuesday and Wednesday, May 7 & 8, commencing each day at 10 o'clock at Flemington Fair Grounds, Flemington, N. J.

About ninety head of horses will be sold, including producing brood mares, such as Kate Berry (dam of Conway 2:18¾ and Alleta 2:26¾), Matilda Temple (dam of Orlando 2:23¾). Jennie S. (dam of Waverly King 2:27¾ p.), brood mares of speed, such as Cyprienne 2:33¾, Bo-Peep 2:32, Rosamond 2:34¾, Indianola 2:39¾, and Creeping Flower 2:30¾ (2); also two half sisters to Belle F. 2:15¾ and Kitty Van 2:24, also daughters of Piedmont, Masterlode, Mambrino Dudley, Thorndale, Ambassador, Kentucky Prince, Bayonne Prince, Florida and other great sires, in foal or with foal at foot, by Cypress 2:18¾, W. H. Vanderbilt, six in list, or Drew Wilkes, son of Guy Wilkes.

Also a large number of fillies, colts and geldings by the three sires last named, and by Alcantara, Eagle Bird, Sidney, etc, out of the aforesaid brood mares, ranging from yearlings to 5-year-olds, splendidly grown and in fine condition. Speed will be shown on track at time of sale. Every horse is pledged to absolute sale, unless sick or injured. Terms of sale of real estate will be made known on day of sale.

OTHER OWNERS—About sixty head of trotting stock belonging to Hon. W. J. Keys, Somerville, N. J.; Mr. Elmer King, Millville, N. J. and other owners will also be sold. Buyers of driving horses, trotters, promising youngsters and breeding stock, donkeys, ponies and vehicles will find this an excellent opportunity to secure the same at public valuation, with the best of facilities for judging of its merit while bidding. For a synopsis of the sale, address

PETER C. KELLOGG & CO., Auctioneers,
4 20 3-27 4 107 John st., New York.

IT'S A FACT

that we sell Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Shirts, Underwear, Ties, etc., cheaper than any house in town. Buying from merchants who are pressed for cash, we buy our goods at our own price and sell them cheap.

Everything sold is fully recommended or money refunded. Boys' School Suits from $1.25; Boys' Long Pants Suits $2 up; Men's Serviceable Suits $3.50 to $6; Men's Suits for dress wear $5 50 and upwards; Derbys, equal to any $3 hat at $1.50.

It is to your benefit to examine our goods before buying elsewhere.

Plainfield Bargain House.

J. Goldstein, 126 Park ave.

OUTLOOK OF BUSINESS

Weekly Review of the State of Trade.

The Present Month Starts Off Better Than at Any Other Time Since the Break-down in 1893—Anxiety the Chief Obstacle to a More Complete Recovery.

New York, May 4.—Dun's review of the state of trade will say to-day; Business begins May in better condition than at any other time since the break-down in May, 1893. Smaller in volume than then, it is not now shrinking, but enlarging. The chief obstacle to a more complete recovery is the anxiety of many to pluck fruit before it is ripe. Holders of some staples have lifted them so far as to prevent their marketing; consumption of materials in some branches is checked by advances which cannot be realized for finished products; workers in some industries are demanding wages that cannot be paid out of any business in sight. In spite of labor troubles and speculative excesses the outlook brightens; money markets continue healthy, and with heavy sales of railway bonds abroad, the deficiency in public revenue, $8,742,840 in April, causes no apprehension.

Labor Troubles.

Demands for full restoration of wages to the level of 1892 have closed many woolen mills, and threaten to close others employing about 9,000 hands at Olneyville and about Providence, and have arrested work at other mills of some importance already. Similar demands are made in the cotton mills of Massachusetts. The strike which closed iron furnaces at New Castle, Pa., has just ended without success, but other strikes have stopped numerous works about Pittsburg. Pocahontas coke workers are on strike, and one is threatened by Alabama coal miners.

Speculative Fever.

The speculative fever grows more fierce, as is natural when business starts up with prices at extreme low points, but by lifting wheat 3 cents to 69 cents Atlantic exports have been checked and, flour included, have been only 1,676,197 bushels against 3,015,485 last year. The close was at 68¾ cents. A sale of 200,000 tons by the Fair estate at San Francisco, loading thirty ships for Europe, will lessen other demands on Atlantic supplies.

The Rise in Leather.

The remarkable rise in leather continues, and yet shipments of boots and shoes from Boston for April were slightly larger than two years ago or ever before, and most of the works have orders for three or four months' production at a material advance in prices. The chief embarrassment is uncertainty as to the future price of leather.

Cotton Goods and Wool.

The rise in prices of cotton goods also continues. The woolen year ends with the lowest prices yet known, 104 quotations by Coates Bros., averaging 13.47 cents, against 15.32 last year, and 22.70 two years ago. Large sales at such prices are natural, and in April 11,999,900 lbs., domestic and 11,886,700 foreign were sold at the three chief markets, against 14,563,558 domestic and 7,775,400 foreign last year. Sales since January 1 have been 92,967,915 lbs., against 88,856,350 in 1892, and less in 1893 and 1894.

Business Failures.

Failures in twenty-five days of April showed liabilities of $9,536,960, of which $3,614,736 were of manufacturing and $5,705,650 of trading concerns. Last year in four weeks ending April 26, liabilities were $8,826,862 of which $3,687,220 were of manufacturing and $4,067,699 of trading concerns. The week's failures are 231 in the United States against 233 last year and 34 in Canada against 35 last year.

STRIKERS ENJOINED.

Norfolk & Western Railroad Officials Said To Be Greatly Alarmed.

Charleston, W. Va., May 4.—Upon application of the Norfolk & Western railroad, United States Judge Jackson has issued an injunction restraining the strikers along the Norfolk & Western railroad from interfering with the United States mails or interstate traffic. Marshal Garden will put a force of peputies in that region at once to enforce the court's order. The latest information is that the railroad company is greatly alarmed, as numerous threats have been made.

Duke of Orleans' Condition.

Seville, May 4.—The condition of the Duc d'Orleans is unchanged. His fever is no worse than it was yesterday, but he is suffering great pain from his fractured leg. His mother has started for his bedside.

To Start on Full Time.

Manchester, N. H., May 4.—The woolen department of the Manchester mills, comprising 2,000 looms, which has been run on two-thirds time since last August, will start up next week on full time.

Earl of Pembroke Dead.

London, May 4.—George Robert Charles Herbert, thirteenth Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery, died at Nauheim, Hesse, yesterday.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spots is dull and unsettled. No. 2 red f. o. b. afloat quoted at 71c.

Corn—Spot scarce and held higher. Steamer mixed, 55¼c. afloat.

Oats—Spot firm with fair trade. No. 2 white, 37¼c.; No. 2 mixed, 33a33¾c.

Pork—Spot steady but trade quiet. Extra prime nominal, $15.25a$15.50; mess $13.50a$14.00.

Lard—Contracts are quiet but firm. May, $7.00; July $7.15.

Butter—Prime grades remain steady. New butter, creamery, western extras, 19c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 17c.

Cheese—Steady with fair inquiry. State, full cream, large colored, fancy, new, 8c.; common to prime, 6a8c.

Eggs—The demand not active, but with continued strong western advices and a further decrease in the receipts, late prices are fully sustained on finest stock. Best northwestern brought 13½c.

Potatoes—Old potatoes slow of sale and values barely sustained. State, white stock, per 180 lbs., $2a2.15; Jersey, prime, in bulk, per 180 lbs., $1.75a$2.00.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

THIRTY years' observation of Castoria with the patronage of millions of persons, permit us to speak of it without guessing. It is unquestionably the best remedy for Infants and Children the world has ever known. It is harmless. Children like it. It gives them health. It will save their lives. In it Mothers have something which is absolutely safe and practically perfect as a child's medicine.

Castoria destroys Worms.
Castoria allays Feverishness.
Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd.
Castoria cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic.
Castoria relieves Teething Troubles.
Castoria cures Constipation and Flatulency.

Castoria neutralizes the effects of carbonic acid gas or poisonous air.
Castoria does not contain morphine, opium, or other narcotic property.
Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep.
Castoria is put up in one-size bottles only. It is not sold in bulk.
Don't allow any one to sell you anything else on the plea or promise that it is "just as good" and "will answer every purpose."
See that you get C-A-S-T-O-R-I-A.

The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is on every wrapper.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

PIANO BARGAINS.

Vanderbeek & Sattels

desire to say that they have just received a fine lot of

New Pianos

of different makes which they will sell at prices never before offered. Among them are those wonderful

Behr Brothers Pianos

Also Behning & Sons.

They represent also the Knabe, Hazelton, Chickering and many others.

They offer an excellent

Steinway Grand, $350.

A great bargain. Call soon at

221 PARK AVENUE.

THE CZAR,

The Handsomest Wheel Ever Produced.

HIGHEST GRADE MADE.

E. FRANK VAIL, Agent,

177 North avenue.

A Spring Gown

is a subject for thought. Haven't you some of last season's dresses that can be made useful? They may need cleaning, or perhaps dyeing—either we do perfectly, and it costs only two dollars or two dollars and a half.

Hillier & Co.

175 North ave.

De Witt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 Watchung Ave.

DEALERS IN

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for walls and ceilings.

COLUMBIAS

AT THE OLD

STAND!

THE ELDRIDGE BICYCLE CO.,

Sole Agents for Columbias and Hartfords

HAVE REMOVED TO CORNER OF

PARK AVENUE AND FOURTH STREET.

HAVE you noticed that the 1895 COLUMBIA will outcoast anything you meet on the road?

This is the MODEL 40 Road Wheel that holds the world's competitive records for one and two miles

This is the MODEL 40 Road Wheel that holds the world's competitive records for one and two miles

14,000--1895

COLUMBIA BICYCLES

ARE NOW ON THE ROAD,

and since our friends "the enemy" commenced circulating that beautiful assortment of stories, of which you have listened to various samples, everybody has been trying to smash a Columbia.

"At present writing, 13,999 Columbias have been returned to the factory; all of the cranks have been unwound, and the damage suits against the Pope Manufacturing Co., as a result of people having been killed and maimed by riding down hill on Columbias, now aggregate $642,978 55."

You people who have been scared off of Columbias by having some disgruntled agent fill you with such rot as the above;

ARE YOU NOT KICKING YOURSELVES,

JUST A LITTLE BIT?

THIS shows the COLUMBIA CRANK SHAFT. The most advanced modern idea in Bicycle construction of the age.

Neatness, Simplicity and Strength.

OF course the other dealers grand-mother's uncle's first cousin by marriage had an intimate friend who once knew of a man who had a Columbia crank come loose, likewise a broken 1895 frame, but did you ever see the man yourself? WE GUESS NOT. To come right down to a plain statement of facts, we wish to say positively and absolutely that NOT ONE 1895 Columbia Bicycle has been returned to the factory on account of any defects or weakness, that nobody has been killed, and that the roads are covered with delighted riders of 1895 Columbias.

We do not wish to hurt any one's feelings, but we can only compare folks who have been foolish enough to take any stock in the "Columbia yarns" which have been circulated, with the man who spent $125 for a 1895 Bicycle, valued by experts at $90 net cash.

There's... Satisfaction

In having a bicycle better than your neighbor's. None at all in having his better than yours. Only one way to be sure of having the better of such a controversy—by....

Riding a Columbia

Get a Catalogue. Free if you call.

Costs but $100

THE STANDARD BICYCLE OF THE WORLD

Best machines of lower price.. are....

Hartfords

$80
$60
$50

The $50 kind for boys and girls.

In other and larger Cities an attempt to spring a "Columbia Crank Bracket" fairy tale, is only met by the ridicule that its author deserves. Riders eslewhere got over the scare two months ago.

----WAKE UP PLAINFIELD!----

REMEMBER THIS!

The price of best Bicycles for 1895 is $100. Why? It is the Columbia Price. And the slickest and speediest combination of improvement, speed qualities, strength and up-to-dateness is the

1895 COLUMBIA,

AND YOU KNOW IT.

EASY PAYMENTS.

BRAND NEW WHEELS TO HIRE.

ROCK * BOTTOM * PRICES

On Lamps, Bells and Sundries. Fine REPAIRING,

And the best place in town to do business.

The Eldridge Bicycle Co.,

341 PARK AVENUE.

We Sell Columbias and Hartfords

At NEWARK, E. ORANGE, PATERSON, PLAINFIELD and Suburbs.

THE DAILY PRESS

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., MONDAY, MAY 6, 1895. TWO CENTS A COPY. $5 A YEAR.

FIGHTING THE BOROUGH.

These Fanwooders Want Equalization Before Anything Else.

The Westfield Standard says: "Nine gentlemen met Tuesday night at the residence of Ernest C. Kleb, and formed a permanent organization under the name of 'The Independent Citizens Club'. The purpose of the club is to oppose the formation of any kind of Borough government in Fanwood while the ownership of the property, the burden of taxation and the weight of influence in the territory are so unequally divided; and also generally to work for good government, without regard to persons or parties. Already both political parties are represented in the club, and all who are in sympathy with its object are invited to join it, and send in their names to the secretary, Frank W. Quereau."

Funeral of John S. Huff.

The funeral of the late John S. Huff of Rahway took place yesterday afternoon at 4 from the Second Methodist Church of that city. Rev. T. C. Mayham preached the funeral service, Mr. Huff having been a member of that church for a number of years. The pall-bearers were F. L. C. Martin and Wm. H. Monfort of this city, Wm. Wright of Jersey City, and Henry S. Terrill of Rahway. The body was laid at rest in the Presbyterian cemetery on St. George's avenue. Among the floral tributes was a large pillow of lilies and white carnations, with the inscription "Our Brother".

Among those who attended from this city were Joseph S. Robinson, Charles S. Steiner, Mrs. Calvin Neighbor, Miss Florence Neighbor, Mrs. Sarah Woodruff, J. B. Bennett, F. L. C. Martin, Wm. B. Stewart, N. T. Pike, George Allen, Harry Allen, Wm. Demarest and Wm. Monfort.

Methodist Social.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. Henry A. McGee, a new feature was added to the social life of the First M. E. Church. A few weeks ago Mrs. McGee opened her home for a tea, receiving the offerings of her friends for the benefit of the Ladies Aid Society treasury.

Tomorrow evening Mrs. J. W. Jackson and other women of the society will receive at her home 113 Crescent avenue from 4 to 6 and from 7 to 10 p. m. Literary and musical entertainment will be furnished, and fancy articles, confectionery and refreshments will be on sale.

Tickets of admission are 25 cents. The Press bespeaks for this entertainment a very liberal patronage.

Wheelmen to be Entertained.

A promenade sociable, in honor of the Eagle Wheelmen of Newark, will be given in the Fillmore Avenue Baptist Church, Thursday evening.

The Victor Wheelmen of this city will act as a reception committee to their Newark brethren. Music and refreshments will be furnished.

The committee having the affair in charge is as follows: Mrs. E. Randolph, Mrs. E. Webster, Mrs. M. Cuff, Mrs. J. Bushrod, Mrs. M. Thomas, and Messrs. R. Randolph, P. Robinson, C. Vandervеer, W. R. Connett, J. Walley, D. Jones, R. Osbourne.

An admission of 25 cents will be charged.

1492.

"1492", with its frivolity and melody, is announced for production by the Rice Surprise Party, for Music Hall, Friday, May 10. It deals with the late Mr. Columbus and his discovery of America after others had discovered it, but in this instance Columbus discovered not only America but something the others overlooked—Madison Square and a few other things. The result is a potpourri of good things. This organization actually carries 60 people, in addition to which they have their own orchestra and complete scenic, mechanical and stage garnishment.

On to the Seashore.

The Methodist Sunday-school will go on its annual excursion to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove Friday, July 12. This is in accordance with its time honored custom of going during the second week in July. Fuller particulars will be given later.

—A meeting of the Official Board of Grace M. E. Church will be held Wednesday evening.

—The Home Mission Society of Grace M. E. Church will pack a barrel of household goods and clothes Thursday to be sent to an industrial school in Oklahoma.

—The quarantine on the house 5 Grove street was removed today, the children of James Patterson having recovered from their attack of diphtheria under the skilful anti-toxine treatment of Dr. J. H. Carman.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

SERMON BY A WOMAN.

Julia Ward Howe Preaches in Plainfield.

THE 11TH HOUR HER SUBJECT.

She Shows the Inequality of the Scales in Which Men Weigh Themselves, and Discusses the Revolution of the End of This Century.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe delivered a sermon before a large congregation in All Souls Church yesterday morning, on the text: "And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour they received every man a penny". The substance of her sermon was as follows:

I am going to plead the cause of the eleventh hour, and to suggest what its value may be in relation to our brief human existence. There are various ways of reading the gracious parable in which Christ leaves the door of hope open. Called into the vineyard of the Master and provided with fitting tasks, those workmen who had toiled but one hour received the same pay as those who had borne the burden and heat of the day. This is generally interpreted to mean that the grace of God will redeem at the last moment of existence those who turn to it from a life of offense and indifference. I do not quarrel with this view. We all need the grace of God too much.

Christ brings in a religion of simple devotion and benevolence. I think that most of us have in our lives a good deal of eleventh-hour experience. I suppose that many of us, after diligent study and qualification for some special branch of service, have stood and seen others pass beyond us as if especially favored and called in the great market of human endeavors, while we have heard no voice summoning us. The great thing, then, is to stand in the way of work with ready muscles, bright tools and alert minds.

What can we learn at the eleventh hour, nay, what must we learn at that hour because we cannot know it before? I should say in the first place, many things about ourselves and other people which are past finding out in any way save that of long experience. Among the automatic actions of the mind there is one of constant weighing ourselves against others. Although we are always doing this, we often-times do it very ill. We throw the whole weight of our passion, of our vanity and conceit, into the scale of our own merit and we scrimp the measure of other people's merit so as to increase the balance in our own favor. And we sometimes do just the contrary. We put the authority, the prestige, the money, of other people into one scale, and our own honest conviction in the other. And we so distort the balance that our reason, the gift of God, appears as nothing, and their mammon everything, and after we have weighed and reweighed all through our lives we learn that the weights and measures have been merely experimental.

We are now in the last decade of a century whose record will ever be memorial in history. Its progress has brought with it great moral development. Looking back to the gracious Gospel paragraphs, I would fain hope that these last years of the 19th century will find good work for some good people who have never worked before. We have now hung up in our schools and common resorts a pattern to work after which the older world had not. This is the wholeness of value of the human race, and Christianity is the perfect balance which at last makes it evident to us.

DUNELLEN.

The winner of the first prize in the bowling tournament which is to end soon, will receive a handsome silver trophy in the shape of a bowling pin, hollowed out with a cigar case in the lower half and a match safe in the upper half.

Elmer Giddis has secured a position with a New Market painter.

Miss Lillie Carmichael of Hoboken spent a few days with Dunellen friends last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Frederick spent yesterday in Somerville.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Swackhamer spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. C. H. Rugg of Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Read returned last week from their wedding tour. They visited Washington and some of the principal western towns. Mr. and Mrs. Read will make their home in Dunellen, Mr. Read having rented a house which has been furnished and is now ready for its new occupants.

—It is expected that a large number of wheelmen will go on the Crescents' first run tomorrow night to Westfield and return.

I recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. There is no better liniment made. I have sold over 100 bottles of it this year and all were pleased who used it. J. F. Pierson, druggist, South Chicago, Ill. It is for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

MRS. CORSA'S LUCK.

Policeman Was Handy, and Her Thief Was Caught.

Mrs. H. C. Corsa, wife of the district superintendent in the New York Street Cleaning Department who was recently Plainfield detective for the Jersey Central Railroad, discovered a man in her apartments at 152 West One Hundred and First street, Saturday afternoon.

He dashed into the hall and held the door behind him until the noise brought Dr. Frank Hauser, who lives on the opposite side of the hall. Then the fellow took the long flight of stairs in two leaps and ran into the street.

The doctor followed, as did also Policeman Edward Fullerton, whose apartments are under those of the doctor.

The thief was caught in the cellar of 127 West One Hundredth street.

He was Morris Luhr, 25 years old, of Seventeenth street, near First avenue. He had stolen nothing.

COUNTY RALLY.

A Big Convention to Be Held in Elizabeth This Week.

The Spring Conference of the Union County Christian Endeavor Union will be held in the First Baptist Church of Elizabeth Friday. There will be a Junior rally at 3:30, addressed by Rev. A. W. Spooner of Camden, and the senior conference will be held in the evening at 7:45, Rev. W. J. Harsha of Harlem will be the speaker. There will also be an open parliament on Good Citizenship, led by Rev. G. H. Payson of Rahway.

At a joint conference of the Elizabeth and County unions officers of both will be elected. The badge banner will be awarded to the society having the largest percentage of its active members present.

THE ELDRIDGE BICYCLE COMPANY.

They Are Doing a Lively Trade in Columbias, the Gem of the Wheeling World.

A large crowd attended the opening of the Eldridge Bicycle Company at their new quarters, Park avenue and Fourth street, proving that Press advertising reaches the public and that the public knows where to go for a good thing.

It was like old times to see the Columbias back at their old stand. That pioneer of wheels still holds its place as favorite, and its Plainfield devotees are glad to find it so courteously and ably represented as by the Eldridge people.

Columbias and Hartfords are the great wheels sold by the Eldridge Company, and they also do a thriving business in supplies and rentals, and can be relied on for high-grade repairing.

Vigorous and Bright as Ever.

Though the Rev. C. B. Mitchell has been visiting and viewing the tombs of inactivity and solemnity in Egypt and Palestine for the past four months, his experiences among aged things have not dulled his abilities, as was evidenced in the bright and vigorous sermon which he delivered in Grace M. E. Church yesterday morning. His subject was: "Sir, we would see Jesus". The central thought of his sermon was in reference to the immortality of the soul, which he forcibly illustrated by relating many of his experiences while on the tour through the Holy Land. He said the entire history of Egypt could be summed up in one word: "Immortality".

Can't Come Too Quck.

The Watchung avenue extension will probably be the most important business which will be considered at the Friday night session of the Borough Council. The petitions in circulation asking the Council to make the extension are being numerously signed by the taxpayers. It is thought that by Friday sufficient signers will have been secured to warrant the Council to take some action on the proposed improvement.

Might Have Been Worse.

A serious conflagration was narrowly averted Saturday evening at the home of John Bushnell, corner East Ninth street and Central avenue, where the light and flimsy material of a lamp shade became ignited. Only by presence of mind and quick action of some of the family was the surrounding furnishings prevented from catching fire and thus endangering the whole dwelling.

—The Y. M. C. A. men's meeting was attended yesterday afternoon by 145, who received much profit from the points made by leader Wm. Hauptman.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds. Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

EMANCIPATING THE SEX.

Plainfield's Part in the Movement for Woman Suffrage.

The agitation in behalf of Woman Suffrage in the State of New York, has had a marked effect on the cause in our own State of New Jersey. In the former Commonwealth, a law has recently been passed by Houses of the Legislature recommending the submission to the people of a constitutional amendment enfranchising women.

There has been such a growth of the suffrage sentiment in New Jersey, that the State Association has decided to organize an auxiliary association in Union County. A meeting for the purpose will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Building, East Front street, Plainfield, Friday, May 10, at 10:30 a. m. Addresses will be made by Rev. Antoinette Brown Blackwell of Elizabeth, Mrs. Florence Howe Hall, and Mrs. Aaron M. Powell of this city, and others. Much interest has been manifested in the approaching meeting, and many well-known women have expressed their intention to be present.

After the speeches, tea and coffee will be served by the Association, and guests are requested to bring "a box lunch". The County Association will then be organized. It is confidently expected that the occasion will be a very interesting one, and that it will add to Plainfield's prestige.

All who are interested in the objects of the meeting, are cordially invited to be present.

Faust in Matchless Style.

In Music Hall tonight Lewis Morrison will be seen as "Mephisto" in Goethe's grand conception of "Faust". While Morrison is a superb actor, and one fully capable of carrying a performance through by his own personality and magnetism, he does not rely alone on his own art in the present production.

Beautiful and appropriate scenery has been supplied in profusion by the most capable of scenic artists, calcium lights innumerable are employed, and gorgeous and startling electrical effects are introduced to enhance the beauty of this masterly production.

Miss Florence Roberts is the "Marguerite". She is a most excellent and painstaking young actress.

Singular Result of a Fall.

Irving Hand, son of David Hand, of Berkley avenue, Netherwood, while riding his bicycle on South avenue on his way to the Bryant School Friday afternoon fell striking on his head. The boy attended school that afternoon but on his arrival home became unconscious and remained so until Saturday noon. Under the careful treatment of Dr. Westcott of of Scotch Plains he is now able to be about.

Take Courage, Kranks.

Fifteen members of the Y. M. C. A. practiced baseball on the Crescent Wheelmen's oval Saturday afternoon, during which it was shown that the association has good material for a team. In fact a team will probably be organized, though not to regularly provide the sport for Plainfielders. Physical Director McPhie is endeavoring to arrange a match with the Westfield team.

—The Hillside Tennis Club courts were opened Saturday.

—Bert Brokaw resigned his position in Edsall's Saturday night.

—Improvements are being made about the Felix Marx property on East Front street.

—A large representation of the boys section of the Y. M. C. A. Bicyle Club enjoyed a run to New Brunswick Saturday afternoon, under the leadership of S. C Clark.

—A benefit for George Jenkins will take place in Somerset hall, Somerville, Thursday evening, May 23. The entertainment will consist of Dore, Farmer and Dore, banjoists.

—An empty coal car jumped from the Jersey Central tracks at Richmond street Saturday night. It was placed on the rails again by a little work of the railroad employes.

—Alfred Egan of Grace Episcopal Church choir was yesterday presented with a silver cross for his meritorous work. Several other medals were also presented.

—The anniversary of the Ladies Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed Church will be celebrated next Sunday evening in the church. Rev. DeWitt Mason of New York will deliver an address.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Cailloutte, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

ISAAC PANGBORN DEAD.

Apoplexy Smites a Leading Plainfield Citizen.

HE DIED IN BED AT HIS HOME.

But There Had Been No Warning That Death Was So Near, and the Sudden Bereavement Was a Great Shock to the Family and Friends.

The community of Plainfield received a severe shock Saturday evening at the news of the sudden death of Isaac W. Pangborn, which occurred about 3 o'clock, at his home, on Rockview avenue, the cause being apoplexy.

During the past Winter, Mr. Pangborn had not been feeling very well, and at one time was confined to his home with a severe illness which seemed to affect his general health, but through it all he attended to business, and was kept much occupied filling the contracts on hand.

Saturday morning he was busy staking out cellars on Stelle avenue, for Messrs. Chapman and Baker, and expected to commence work this morning. He also had two other contracts for dwellings which were to be started in a short time.

About noon he went home to lunch, but did not eat very heartily. He was then about the house, resting. His daughter, Mrs. Charles Lyman, said to him that when he went out she would like to have him take her down town, to which he replied that he would.

Some time afterward he told his wife that he thought he would stay home, as he did not feel very well. He then went to his room, undressed, and went to bed; and inside of a half-hour he passed away. In the meantime Dr. Probasco was sent for, also his brother, Wm. Pangborn, and son-in-law, Charles Lyman; but life had fled before they reached the house. To the family it was a terrible shock, and they are completely prostrated.

Isaac Williamson Pangborn was the eldest of four sons, and was born March 4, 1835, in Washington Valley. He was the son of Stephen and Jane Pangborn.

His father many years ago kept a country store on Chatham street, and was well known in this vicinity. Stephen Pangborn was collector for the township for seven years, when the taxes amounted to $33,000 a year; he died March 7, 1882, and his wife died October 9, 1848.

When about 18 years old, Isaac went with Mahlon Smalley to learn the mason and building trade. He worked faithfully and hard, and in a few years had gained a considerable knowledge of the business. At the age of 25 he married Miss Jenny Chandler, sister of John Chandler, after which he went to Jerseyville, Illinois, and continued the business which he had learned. He did not remain long in the West, however, and returned to Plainfield, where he had been a prominent resident the past 30 years.

As a contractor and builder he stood probably first in the city. He was identified with the erection of most all the best and prominent buildings in Plainfield, and, to use the remark of a friend, "He built half the town" would perhaps give an adequate idea of his work. His first important building was the Stillman High School. He built all the public schools, the parochial school, the First Presbyterian, First Methodist, and Crescent Avenue churches, Monroe Avenue chapel and Grace P. E. Church, Babcock Building, the building at the corner of Park avenue and Second street used by G. Q. Packer and William Sebring, the First National Bank building, the Y. M. C. A. Building, many Front street business buildings, and a large number of the finest dwelling houses in the city.

He was a man who favored a high rate of wages, and he was thoroughly a union man, preferring to employ union men, rather than others. It was largely through his influence that a union was established here.

His death is a sad loss not only in the building business, but also in the Methodist Church, of which he had been a devoted member for many years. He had served for 25 years as president of the Board of Trustees of the church, and recently was re-elected for another term.

He leaves a widow, two daughters, Mrs. Charles Lyman and Miss Louise Pangborn, and two brothers, William and Freeman. Stephen Pangborn, another brother, died in Williamsport, Pa., some time ago. His sisters are Mrs. Amos Allen of Westfield, Mrs. Moses D. Brown of this city, Mrs. David Sheppard of Flemington, Mrs. Cornelius Willett of Illinois, and Mrs. Fred Slater of North Plainfield. Two sisters, Hannah and Matilda Pangborn, died a number of years ago. He also had a son, George, who died at the age of 9.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 from his late home, Rockview avenue.

A number of laboring men were discussing the death of the late Mr. Pangborn on the street Saturday night, and the remark was made that in his death both masons and laborers in this city had sustained a great loss, as he was an employer that always upheld good wages for his workmen. One man stated he had been in his employ nearly twenty years, and never saw any friction between employer and employes in that time; and in these times when reduction in wages were general all over, he never reduced his employes, any, and it was generally agreed that his loss would be deplored by a large number of workmen in this city.

BY THE WAY.

—C. W. Dorland now rides an 1895 Columbia wheel.

—The Bayonne Bicycle Club had a run to this city yesterday.

—The fire companies of both city and borough elect officers this evening.

—The Yorkville Wheelmen of New York will run to Plainfield Sunday, May 26.

—The Williamsburg Wheelmen of New York will run to this city next Sunday.

—James McCabe of Elizabeth this morning took charge of the Hotel Grenada bar.

—The Martin Bicycle Company have put in some of the Welsbach lights sold by Gavett.

—Queen City Lodge, I. O. O. F., will work initiatory degrees at their meeting this evening.

—A deputation of New Yorkers attended the morning service at the Friends meetinghouse yesterday.

—George Kirch is building an addition to his store, corner of Somerset street and Grandview avenue.

—A meeting of the C. Y. M. L. will be held tomorrow evening, and athletic matters will be discussed.

—The probationers class of the First Methodist Church will meet in the church parlor Friday evening at 8.

—The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Grace M. E. Church meet tomorrow afternoon at 3:30.

—The all-around contest between the Park and Country clubs will be held in the Country Clubhouse tomorrow night.

—The heat from a gas jet, set too near the window, broke a plate-glass valued at $25, in Rand's store Saturday evening.

—The Eldridge Bicycle Company have a 17½ pound Columbia racer on exhibition at their Park avenue store. It is a dandy.

—Horace J. Martin goes this evening to Manasquan, where he will sing at Christian Endeavor anniversary exercises.

—The regular meeting of the Official Board of the First Baptist Church will be held after the prayer meeting Wednesday evening.

—A sociable and entertainment will be given by the Christian Endeavor society of the German Reformed Church, Thursday evening.

—The sewer contractors started trenching West Front street this morning, commencing at Central avenue. They will continue through to Watchung avenue.

—Its last sociable of the season will take place in the East Third Street Mission tomorrow evening, when a musical and literary programme will be rendered.

—That's a great story, "Storm Driven". Of course it is—"The Duchess" wrote it. Publication is begun in The Press today, and you'll find it absorbing from the start.

—Patrick Reville is today acting as substitute for Letter-carrier E. T. VanWinkle, who is compelled to remain home on account of the serious illness of his child.

—The Grocers Association meet this evening, when the matter of enrolling all merchants into membership for protection against delinquent debtors will be considered.

—The annual business of the Plainfield Branch Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women will be held in the parlors of All Souls Church tomorrow afternoon at 3.

—Judge Coddington suspended sentence on John Van Nest this morning in City Court, where he was arraigned on the charge of assaulting his wife on West Second street last night.

—E. H. Holmes of Madison avenue is having the trees and underbrush cleared from the two lots which he recently purchased on South avenue near the Netherwood station preparatory to the erection of two dwelling houses.

—The most important meeting which the Crescent Wheelmen have held in some time takes place this evening, when Memorial Day meet matters will be considered. After the club meeting, the Board of Governors will hold a session.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Worth Co., who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Fort Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad that he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he procured a bottle of it and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

IMPORTANT ASSEMBLY

Coming Convention of the Presbyterian Church.

Unusual Preparation Made for the 25th Anniversary of the Old and New School Churches—The Briggs Case and Other Questions of Great Interest Pending.

Pittsburg, May 6.—This week will see the last of the six hundred commissioners elected for the 107th general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America, which will convene in the Third Presbyterian church on Thursday, May 16. Unusual preparations are being made for this event for the reason that this assembly marks the 25th anniversary of the reunion of the old school and new school churches which took place here with such ceremony in the year 1870. President Francis L. Patten of Princeton, is down on the programme for a public address on the subject of the reunion, and there will be other speakers of national reputation to follow him. But the greatest interest is in the probable business of the general assembly the deliberations of which will continue through three weeks.

Business of the Assembly.

The interminable Briggs case is one of the subjects to be passed upon. Then there is the relationship of the theological seminaries to the general assembly, which is a business question. But more important still is the future attitude of the Presbyterian church to the graduates of Union Theological seminary, involving the question of the fitness of men who have come under the influence of Dr. Briggs and his coterie to receive ordination to the Presbyterian ministry. Pittsburg is a conservative centre and on all these questions the crowds which always fill the galleries during sessions of the general assembly will be in sympathy with the anti-Briggs faction. The first business of importance comes up on Thursday after the annual sermon by retiring Moderator Mutchmore of Philadelphia, being the election of a moderator to succeed him.

A Division Expected.

Division between the conservatives and liberals will appear at this time. This year the proportion of liberals is greater than it has been for years. There are many more younger and unknown commissioners than have been chosen in recent years, and it is believed that these new men have liberal affiliations. They will have a candidate of their own for moderator. The plan is to advance Dr. Beecher, of Auburn, N. Y., but it is possible that Dr. Beecher will not attend. In that event the liberals will muster around Dr. George Alexander, of the University Place church, New York. Dr. Alexander has been the head of the Briggs party in New York for five years. Through this leadership he has earned a national reputation in the church and so ranks in the class of available candidates for moderator, although Dr. Alexander is a Princeton man, he is a firm friend of union seminary.

The Conservative Candidate.

The conservatives have settled upon Dr. Robert Russell Booth, of New York city, as their candidate for moderator. Dr. Booth has been foremost among the anti-Briggs fighters ever since the subject was raised five years ago. He is pastor of the ancient Rutgers church, and he is a man of deep study and ready eloquence. With these two candidates the division between liberals and conservatives will be sharp and decisive.

The Briggs Case.

There is a movement manifest among the extreme conservatives to bring up the question of Dr. Briggs' deposition from the ministry. That will depend on the result of the contest for moderator. Dr. Briggs is now under suspension, and the year for which this sentence runs expired shortly after the adjournment of the last general assembly. During that year Dr. Briggs continued to occupy a position in the Union seminary, which can be held only by a regularly ordained Presbyterian minister, and he has repeatedly appeared in pulpits as a lecturer. Moreover, the conservatives are of the opinion that Dr. Briggs intends to turn his back on the Presbyterian church, and it is their intention to make his humiliation complete before this event takes place.

Other Questions of Importance.

The theological seminary question, which has been before the church for three years, will probably be continued in its present condition undisturbed. Union seminary students and their relation to the Presbyteries will come up for discussion under a memorial from the New York presbytery. Such students at present come before the presbyteries asking for their care or for ordination. Although Union seminary is under a formal ban of the church the presbyteries have no rule to guide them when the question of endorsing these students comes up. So the assembly has been asked by overture to determine upon the policy to be pursued by presbyteries in such cases.

Situation at Pocahontas.

Richmond, Va., May 6.—Governor O'Ferrall's advices from Pocahontas this morning are that there has been no outbreak so far among the miners who are holding their assemblies just over the West Virginia line. The Virginia troops are camped at Graham ready to move at a moment's notice.

Dynamite Explosion.

Mount Vernon, N. Y., May 6.—Forty pounds of dynamite stored in a shanty in Wood Park, a new section of the city which is being cut up into building lots, exploded Saturday night with terrific force, causing damages to surrounding property to the extent of between $10,000 and $20,000.

Prominent Auburn Man Dead.

Auburn, N. Y., May 6.—Hon. John W. O'Brien died at the City hospital yesterday from the effects of an operation for appendicitis. Mr. O'Brien was the most prominent young man in Auburn, and the leading member of the bar.

Bomb Explosion in Macerata.

Rome, May 6.—A bomb was exploded yesterday outside the law courts building in Macerata, capital of Macerata province. It caused considerable damage, but no loss of life.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

Not Likely To Adjourn Before the Middle of May.

Albany, May 6.—The earlier prophecies, that the legislature would not adjourn sine die before the middle of May, are more than likely to come true. Lieut.-Gov. Saxton and Speaker Fish both place the date for final adjournment between May 15 and the 18th. There are some who think the legislature could adjourn on Saturday next. The senate will act on the annual supply bill this week and it will then go to a conference committee. The annual appropriation bill and the Raines blanket ballot bill are now being considered in conference committee. The report of the special legislative committee which has been investigating the administration of affairs in the state prisons, will come up in the senate this week for discussion. The contest for the seat of Assemblyman Blake (dem.) of New York city is a special order in the assembly for this evening. Governor Morton has not vetoed a dozen bills so far this session, which presents a remarkable record of the approval of bills passed by the legislature by the chief executive. Many bills were saved from a veto by being recalled by the introducers.

A PEST HOUSE RIOT.

Armed Farmers Stop the Shipping of Contagious Diseases Among Them.

Winchester, Ky., May 6.—A pest house riot broke out yesterday. A colored prisoner in the county jail has smallpox. Lumber was secured and carpenters put to work on a pest house five miles out. The farmers turned out en masse armed with Winchesters. The carpenters had almost completed the pest house before the mob gathered. Armed men were stationed along all roads leading from Winchester to the pest house. The sheriff came out to protect the carpenters with a large posse and was driven back into town by 200 armed men. Last night the pest house was burned and the farmers on all sides of the town are guarding the roads, expecting that the smallpox prisoners may be taken through their neighborhood to some obscure locality. They say that they propose to stop the shipping of contagious cases from the town to the country districts. Meantime the sheriff, whose residence is in the jail, has his smallpox prisoner on his hands and cannot get out of town in any direction.

MATERIAL FOR THE DEFENDER.

Aluminum Bronze To Be Used for the Sides and Floor Beams.

New York, May 6.—The arrival of the carload of aluminum floor beams has given great impetus to the work on Defender, and since their arrival has practically settled the last point of doubt as to the materials to be employed in the general construction of the boat. The use of aluminum bronze for the sides above the water line and for the floor beams will render Defender from four to seven tons lighter than would any other suitable material employed for the same purposes. In just this point of weight alone, therefore, Defender will have an advantage which is of almost incalculable value, and which it is difficult for any one but an expert yacht designer and builder adequately to appreciate. As to the actual cost of Defender, of course not even Mr. Iselin or Nat Herreshoff can yet tell what it will be, but those here who are competent to figure on such matters place the probable cost of the yacht all the way from $150,000 to $200,000.

MRS. PARNELL'S CONDITION.

Shows Some Little Improvement, But Her Mind Still Clouded.

Bordentown, N. J., May 6.—Mrs. Parnell's condition shows some improvement this morning, but her mind is still clouded. While the authorities are running down every clue in an endeavor to establish the identity of Mrs. Parnell's assailant special attention is being paid to the party at first suspected. It is hoped that with a little more improvement in the patient's mind it will be possible to take some definite action in the case. Two more tramps were corralled on the Park road last night, but investigation proved that they had nothing to do with the matter.

Indian Maiden Sold.

Wichita, Kan., May 6.—Rosa Whiteface, a pretty young Indian maiden, now a pupil of the Caddo Indian school, has been sold by her father to her sister's husband for fifteen ponies. The Indian whose wife she is to become is 70 years old and already has other wives. She is but 17. The girl has appealed to Prof. Montgomery, of the Caddo Indian school, to save her from such a fate and he is exerting every energy to assist her.

Killed While Fleeing from Justice.

Dunkirk, N. Y., May 6—Henry Doty, a fisherman, was instantly killed on the Nickel Plate tracks yesterday. He was being pursued by a policeman who wanted him for disorderly conduct and in his flight he ran directly in front of an east-bound passenger train. His body was thrown twenty feet in the air.

June 21 Decided Upon.

Philadelphia, May 6.—The delegates representing the colleges of Cornell, Columbia and the University of Pennsylvania at a meeting here decided upon June 21 as the date for the boat race between the crews of the three institutions.

Acquitted by German Authorities.

Sioux City, Ia., May 6.—Bob Knoebs, who recently had so much trouble over his alleged "ringing" of horses on German tracks, has been notified that he has been acquitted by the German authorities of one of the charges against him.

Golden Jubilee Celebration.

Baltimore, May 6.—Mgr. Stalli pontificated at the grand high mass yesterday at the opening ceremonies of the golden jubilee celebration of St. Alphonsus' church. Cardinal Gibbons assisted the papal legate.

Rabies in Florida.

Gainesville, Fla., May 6.—Near this place James Atkins is dying of hydrophobia. Rabies has occurred in three counties. Legislative aid is asked to stamp out the disease.

Italian Consulate at Montreal.

Rome, May 6.—The recent development of Italy's commercial relations with Canada has caused the government to decide to found a consulate in Montreal.

Minister to Venezuela.

Berlin, May 6.—Count von Rex, first secretary of the German embassy in St. Petersburg, has been appointed minister to Venezuela.

CORINTO EVACUATED

The Port Quietly Restored to the Nicaraguans.

No Scenes of Turbulence in the Central American Capital — The Indemnity To Be Paid Within Two Weeks in London—Zelaya a Wise and Just Ruler.

Washington, May 6.—According to advices received here the evacuation of Corinto by the British fleet was quietly accomplished and the port was restored to Nicaraguan authority. Early yesterday morning Minister Guzman received a cable message stating that all the preliminaries had been satisfactorily arranged with the British admiral, through the intermediation of Senor Fiallos of Honduras.

All Friction Avoided.

In this manner Nicaragua was spared any appearance of humiliation and friction was avoided. Nicaragua will pay the indemnity in London within the two weeks stipulated and the remaining terms of the ultimatum will be satisfactorily arranged. The Nicaraguan people appear to thoroughly understand President Zelaya, who is a man of great pluck and determination and they have approved his course in the matter.

Zelaya a Just Ruler.

Published statements that "howling mobs" were parading the streets of Managua, the capital, shouting "Death to Zelaya" appear to have no foundation in fact. Zelaya is not the man to tolerate demonstrations of that kind. He himself headed a revolution two years ago, which overthrew an obnoxious government in fifteen days. Within that time he fought three battles and captured the capital. He was chosen president by the constitutional convention which was immediately organized and has proved himself to be a wise and just ruler.

UNDER POLICE SURVEILLANCE.

A Chicago Woman Believed To Have Poisoned Her Children.

Chicago, May 6.—Annie O'Neal, of this city, is under police surveillance, and is believed to a have poisoned two of her children during the past week, and a third child out of the four is missing. Her husband, John, separated from her about two years ago because of infidelity. She informed him that she would poison the children and herself if he did not return. Last Monday Eddie, a child of 8 years, was buried, a physician's certificate ascribing heart disease having been issued. Yesterday Laura, a girl of 15, died, and the coroner was notified. Both children were insured in the Hancock company for small amounts. The deaths excited the suspicion of the officials, and after a search of the house a pound and a half of Paris green was discovered. The husband, who had applied for the insurance, is being looked for while the police are searching for the missing baby.

CHOLERA AT CAMARAN.

Forty-nine Cases Reported of Which Twenty-nine Are Fatal.

Washington, May 6.—The Marine hospital service has just received a report relative to the outbreak of cholera at Camaran, the island in the Red sea where pilgrims crossing from India, Persia, Java, etc., to the Hejaz have to undergo ten or more days quarantine. Cholera broke out there March 24, and since then, up to the time this report was dispatched, there had been forty-nine cases, of which thirty-nine were fatal. The fact is commented upon in this report that these pilgrims, among whom cholera broke out, arrived from Bombay where, according to the official bulletins, cholera cases are very rare.

A PECULIAR POSITION.

Complications in the Keeley Gold Cure Case.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 6.—Judge Seaman, of the United States court, has granted a permanent injunction restraining Dr. Leslie E. Keeley from revealing the formula of what is known as the Keeley double chloride of gold remedies. The action was brought by the Wisconsin Keeley Institute company against the Dwight company. Granting the order will place the Keeley company in a peculiar position. Dr. Keeley has been ordered by Judge Myers, of the state court at Leavenworth, Kan., to appear and make known the formula.

Was He Murdered?

New York, May 6.—The dead body of William J. Cleere, the receiving clerk at the New York ferry house of the Erie railroad, who has been missing since March 20 last, was found floating in the North river, just inside the ferry slip, at noon yesterday. Foul play is suspected.

Income Tax Cases To-day.

Washington, May 6.—Associate Justice Howell E. Jackson, of the United States supreme court, arrived here yesterday. Joseph H. Bristow, of New York, also reached the city last night, presumably to take part in the argument on the income tax cases to-day.

Sensational Cowhiding.

Galveston, Tex., May 6.—Ada Hammond, a well-known character of this city, publicly cowhided David A. Weiss, manager of the Grand Opera house here, at the Union depot yesterday before hundreds of persons. The two had quarrelled.

Buckien's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c. per box. For sale by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

TELL-TALE FACES.

PINCHED AND CAREWORN,

As Worn by Many American Women.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

The "tell-tale face" is worn by many American women, and is a symptom of symptoms, a signal of distress.

While women do all in their power to hide their condition, the practised eye soon detects the trouble.

When pains and aches are felt in every part of the body, when faintness, dizziness, and that bearing-down feeling prevail, when loss of sleep and appetite are reducing flesh daily, when the society of friends is irksome, and the hopeless "blues" predominate, then the face is pinched, haggard, and careworn, and prompt relief is necessary, or a beautiful life will be sacrificed.

An American woman, Lydia E. Pinkham, a student of women and their diseases, twenty years ago succeeded in producing an absolute cure for all diseases of women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands to-day as it did then, pre-eminent.

Mrs. H. Wampler, of Barabo, Wis., whose letter we were permitted to publish last year, writes that she hopes Mrs. Pinkham will continue to use her name, as the publication in newspapers of the account of her own wonderful cure and relief from years of misery has been the means of influencing many suffering women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and become well like herself. Mrs. Wampler feels, and rightly, too, that in this way she is doing a great good.

THE Bee Hive.

"KIDS."

Ladies' 4 button kid gloves in tans and slates 65c.

Foster hook kid gloves in all the new shades, the 98c quality, 75c.

Children's kid gloves, a good glove, 69c.

Men's kid gloves, every pair warranted, $1.

MEN'S CAMBRIC SHIRTS.

Men's cambric shirts, laundried, collar and cuffs attached, 50c.

Men's laundried shirts, white body and fancy bosom, 48c.

Men's laundried shirts, white body and colored bosom and cuffs 65c.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st

FOR SALE CHEAP!

A large assortment of Geraniums, Coleus, Salvias, Roses, Casino clematis, Palms and Rubber trees. Also 3000 Privet hedge plants, and a general collection of hardy plants and shrubs, at

DENTON'S
131 Hillside Avenue.

Photo Material.

PLATES AND PAPER,

at

Reduced Prices.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front st.

BAR-LOCK VISIBLE WRITING TYPEWRITER

Writes every letter in sight of operator. Does most of the work, in writing AUTOMATICALLY, and yields in the time thus saved additional work.

It acts as if it studied the convenience of the operator at every turn, and thereby lightens his labor and renders him capable of doing more

It has a knack of keeping well, and is always ready at critical or other times.

These are some of the reasons why it is different from all other writing machines.

The catalogue tells you more about it. FREE.

Columbia Typewriter Mfg. Co,

307 Broadway, New York.

1 5 6m

MOSLER SAFE CO.,

contractors to the United States Government

Mosler Patent Safes,

(fire and burglar-proof) in general use

All Over the World.

Lowest prices. Drop a postal to

S. W. CLARK,

General Agent,
118 West 24th st., Plainfield, N. J.,
and he will call and give special attention and information.

Large assortment of second-hand safes in first-class condition at low prices.

CONFECTIONS

Fresh, and from

Pure Materials,

TIER'S,

116 Park avenue. 4 11 tf

CHOICE

Lawn Seeds, Garden Seeds, and Fertilizers.

Lawn mowers repaired.
Plumbing, Tinning and Hardware.

A. M. GRIFFIN,

119 East Front St.

GEO. J. TOBIN,

187 North avenue.

Practical Plumber!

Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer

TELEPHONE CALL 158a. 12 15 tf

Plainfield Machine Works,

Manufacturers of

Steam Engines,

Electric Motors and Dynamos. Shafting and mill work generally. Jobbing in all its branches. Prompt attention given to repairing of steam engines, boilers, bicycles, etc. Piping in all its branches.

GIVE US A CALL.

N. C. MAGUE, Manager.

Works corner Richmond and East 3d street, Plainfield. 4 13 tf

Tel. 29B Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON,

PLUMBING AND HOT WATER HEATING.

Have your plumbing system tested with the smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.

Opp Roberts' Livery 132 North Ave

H. Eggerding,

121 PARK AVENUE.

Manufacturer of the celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars. 11 9t

Telephone 58

Ring up when you want good coal, and talk to

Geo. O. Stevens

SPRING TERM
..OF THE..
Rockview Home & Day School
Opens April 15.

Kindergarten, Primary and Intermediate Departments. For terms and particulars apply to the Misses Peck, 317 East Front street.

FLORIST.

A. E. LINCOLN, 226 Park avenue, has just received an elegant assortment of rare ferns and other plants. Also will have a fine assortment of flowering plants, azaleas, lilies, etc., for Easter. Large assortment of choice cut flowers daily. Floral design work for all occasions a specialty.

SMALLEY'S CASH MARKET.

(Estate of D. L. Smalley.)

94 Somerset, Corner Race Street.

GEO. EGEL, Manager.

We sell only first-class goods, at low prices, for cash. Orders called for and delivered. 12 10 t

CLEANED COAL.

L. A. Rheaume, Ag't.

80 BROADWAY, cor. 6th ST.

Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for cut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.

UPPER LEHIGH AND HONEYBROOK COAL, in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.

ROUGH AND DRESSED LUMBER.

He would also announce recently increased facilities for TURNING and SCROLL SAWING and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best style at short notice. 6-12-

WALL PAPER, WALL PAPER!

Wall Paper Bargains.

5c, 6c, 8c, 10c ROLL.

Also all the best papers for the fine trade. Competent men employed to hang our papers.

RUGS, WINDOW SHADES,
MOULDINGS,
PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES,
KALSOMINE.
TINTING COLORS,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS,
CIGARS.

LOVE,

Corner North and Watchung aves.

Fine Dairy Butter.....15c. lb
Best Dairy Butter.....18c. lb
Best Elgin Creamery Butter..20c. lb

V. L. FRAZEE,

151 West Front St.

EDUCATIONAL.

Afternoon Class for Young Ladies

Three times per week. Higher English Branches, French and Music. For terms apply MISS FAWCETT,
25 Washington ave

JAMES E. BAILY,

97 Jackson avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

Trucking of All Kinds Done.

Two and four-horse vans and trucks. Particular attention given to moving furniture and pianos. Satisfaction guaranteed. 5 26 tf

Hotels and Saloons.

Madison Avenue HOTEL,

Madison Avenue and 58th St.,
NEW YORK.

$3 per day and up. American Plan.

Fireproof and first-class in every particular Two blocks from the Third and Sixth avenue elevated railroads.

The Madison and 4th Avenue and Belt Line cars pass the door.

H. M. CLARK, Prop.

Passenger elevator runs all night.

HOTEL GRENADA,

North Avenue.

Now open for the reception of guests; under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public. 6-12-t

CITY HOTEL.

Plainfield, N. J.

COR. PARK AVENUE AND SECOND STREET.

J. R. BEERBOWER, Proprietor.

With stables attached. 452

A. Lusardi,

No. 120 North Ave.,

Will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c. quart.

Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets

Skilled Workmen

are even more essential in hanging paper than they are in the doing of many other things. We employ the best and most capable men in this department and guarantee the best possible results. Do not spoil the effect of pretty paper by improper hanging.

Marsh, Ayers & Co.,

[141] East Front st.

A few drops of

Bovinine

taken in milk will sustain a patient's strength while dieting in severe cases of typhoid fever, pneumonia, diphtheria, and all fevers.

It contains the active principles of beef concentrated, and acts as a simple and effective food, acceptable to any stomach.

It will sustain life for weeks unaided, as it did in the cases of General Grant, the late Emperor Frederick, and many other distinguished persons.

Ask any physician.

Sold by all druggists.

THE BOVININE CO., NEW YORK

Wm. Hand & Son,

MOVING VANS,

18 Park avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION.

The Civil Service Commission at Washington has ordered that an examination be held in this city on Saturday, June 1, 1895 commencing at 9 o'clock, a. m., for the grades of clerk and carrier in the city postoffice. Only citizens of the United States can be examined The age limitations are as follows: For carrier, not under 21 nor over 40; for all other positions, not under 18 years. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed with the undersigned in complete form, on the proper blank, before the hour of closing business on May 13, 1895.

The Civil Service Commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens who may desire to enter the postal service, without regard to their political affiliation. All such citizens, whether Democrats or Republicans, or neither, are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to their political views, or to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination.

For application blanks, full instructions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, apply at the postoffice to

G. C. GODOWN,
Secretary Board of Examiners.

See What $1.00 Will Do

AT THE

Plainfield Tea and Grocery Co.

106 E. FRONT ST.,

H. S. WILLIAMS, Manager.

All Goods Warranted as Represented.

1 lb. Special Mixed Tea,	50c.
1 lb. Coffee, -	32
Quarter lb. Pepper,	10
One Can Corn, -	10
One Can Tomatoes, -	10
One Can Pease, -	10
One Can Milk -	10
One Paper Corn Starch,	10
One Paper Cocoanut,	10

$1.52

Cut out this Coupon and bring it and $1 to our store and get all the above articles for $1 Cash!

H. Hand,

LICENSED AUCTIONEER.

15 YEARS EXPERIENCE.

esidence and postoffice address

SCOTCH PLAINS, N. J.

Office in Plainfield at Terrill & Cole's livery, 200 West 2d st. 1 12 tf

W. K. McCLURE,

Counselor-at-Law.

SUPREME COURT COMMISSIONER.

First National Bank Building.

W. R. Codington's

LAW OFFICES.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.
Solicitor and Master in Chancery.
Notary Public.

The sign on the windows reads

Woolston & Buckle,

Paper Hangers.

We have had the door hinges and latch oiled up so that getting in is easy. So also is the getting out.
Prices are so low on Wall Papers that you will buy before you go.

THE DEADLY CYCLONE

Funerals of the Victims of Friday's Awful Storm.

The List of Fatalities Reaches at Least One Hundred Souls—Appeals for Aid from the Many Homeless and Destitute Farmers — Some Thrilling Experiences.

Alton, Ia., May 6.—The funerals of the victims of Friday's cyclone, the list of which reaches one hundred souls, were held here in the midst of a terrific storm. In some parts of the country what remained after the big storm of last week was ruined by yesterday's blow. The valley of death from Ireton to Sioux Center, which nearly parallels the railroad track was crowded all day with vehicles of every description. On all sides there was nothing but debris. Dead horses, cattle, sheep, chickens, articles of wearing apparel, portions of houses and barns, pieces of wagons and farming implements and everything movable was scattered along the route. All the dead were buried in Sioux county, excepting the Marsden brothers and sisters, whose remains were sent to their old home in Wisconsin.

Appeals for Aid.

Around Sioux Center forty farmers are homeless and ruined and appeals for aid have been sent out to many adjoining cities by the authorities. The railroads reaching this part of the country have agreed to carry all donations free of charge.

Two More of the Injured Dead.

Another death, that of Mrs. Herman Heymen, has been reported. The Heymans lived in Welcome township, a few miles from Sioux Center. When the storm struck their homestead Mrs. Heyman was sitting in a chair near the window trying to catch a breath of air. The storm lifted the buildings and carried them fully 100 feet into a forest where they dropped. Mrs. Heyman was picked up fatally injured. She was 50 years of age. In this vicinity sixteen are dead and fifteen injured. A child of Luther McComber died this morning. The wife of John Koster was blown away with the Koster house and found dead one quarter of a mile from where the building stood. Mrs. Postman, who was visiting the Kosters, was also killed.

Experience of the Hagger Family.

John Hagger's experience was terrible. He was away from home, and noticing the approaching storm, was returning with all possible haste. When he had reached a point 500 yards from his dwelling the storm struck. He threw himself to the ground and held to a tree. He was struck at least 100 times by small pieces of debris, and while on the ground was covered with mud several inches in thickness. The storm passed over in five minutes. When he managed to get his feet he could see nothing of his house except a mass of wreckage. He ran forward, and in a short time was greeted by cries for help from the different members of his family. One of his boys was found on the edge of a pile of timbers badly crushed. He cannot recover. His eldest daughter, Lucy, was extricated next, but she, too, was fatally injured. His wife was badly bruised, but her injuries are not dangerous. Hagger's youngest son was attending school one half mile away, and when the storm struck the building, the boy, together with a great many of the pupils, was blown along with the building for half a mile. When the structure struck the ground young Hagger had one leg broken above the knee and was badly bruised.

Three Hundred Families Homeless.

In the district round about the Hagger and Koster homesteads forty families are homeless and ruined and between Perkins and Ashton twenty-five families have nothing left. Altogether 300 families are homeless as the result of the five minutes destructive work of the cyclone. The average of the property to each family is about $7,000. It is thus seen that the financial loss is very large and cannot easily be repaired. In many cases it will never be repaired by the present owners of the land as several of them have already left the country. The injured aggregate 100 people and many of them will be crippled for life.

Blown Fifty Feet in the Air.

Hartford, Conn., May 6.—Eugene McQuirk, 25 years old, a laborer, was instantly killed by an explosion at the works of the Hartford City Gas Light company yesterday. He was standing on top of an iron water tower when "marsh gas" or fire damp in the tower caught fire, it is supposed, from his lantern. He was blown fifty feet into the air and fell on an adjoining roof. His body was badly crushed.

Seeking Bodies with a Search Light.

Hartford, Conn., May 6.—Four months have elapsed since Zezi Storskewjei, a Lithuanian farmer, was accused of killing his wife and child. The search after the bodies has been without success. It is now being continued at night on the ponds in the vicinity. A search light that enables the men to see the bottom of the ponds is being used.

Secretary Gresham Improved.

Washington, May 6.—Secretary Gresham passed a comfortable night and is comparatively free from pain. He changed physicians yesterday, and the treatment for pleurisy, instead of gall stones, resulted in immediate relief. He is still a very sick man.

Representative Hitt Improving.

Washington, May 6.—Information given at Representative Hitt's residence was that a slight improvement was noticeable in his condition. He passed a fairly good night and this morning rested comfortably.

All Quiet at St. John's.

Washington, May 6.—A dispatch received at the interior department reports everything quiet on the reservation, and it is expected that the trouble with the warring Indians will be adjusted at once.

Champion Bareback Rider Dead.

Chicago, May 6.—Charles W. Fish, champion bareback rider of the world, is dead at his boarding house on Wabash avenue, of blood poisoning. He had been ill for some time.

AUSTRIA-HUNGARIAN CRISIS.

Francis Josef Says Rome Cannot Overthrow His Ministers.

London, May 6. — The Standard's Vienna correspondent says that the Austrian and Hungarian cabinet crisis have been settled temporarily. The emperor informed all the ministers who had audience in relation to the matter that he could not allow the impression to exist that Rome was able to overthrow Austrian and Hungarian ministers. Hence, says the correspondent, although Count Kalnoky's resignation was accepted in principle, it will not take effect until autum. Meanwhile he is drafting a communication to take the sting out of the note in which he denounced Baron Banffy, and Banffy will formulate a reply to an interpellation of which Count Apponyi has given notice. Both papers will be submit ed to the emperor. Archbishop Agliardi's recall will be confidentially demanded. Documentary evidence shows that Baron Banffy based his offending statement on a letter from Count Kalnoky; part of which Kalnoky asserts was confidential and not final.

JAIL DELIVERY AT WOODWARD

Three Convicts Escaped and Two Are Shot Down.

Wichita, Kan., May 6.—Information has been received here of a jail delivery and double killing at Woodward, Okla., yesterday afternoon. Three of the prisoners, Waddle, Hill and Heffen—the first two being confined for assisting in a jail delivery last month—obtained possession of a revolver, got the drop on the turnkey and compelled him to unlock the door of the cell. The prisoners then locked the jailor in the cell and hastened to the hills. Their escape was soon discovered and the sheriff and a party of deputies mounted horses and started after the fugitives. The men had gone only a mile when the officers overtook them There was a terrible battle, which ended in the killing of Heffen and Hill, and the capture of Waddle. Officer Prior's horse was shot from under him and Deputy Marshal Wolfert was shot through the left arm, so that amputation was necessary. The verdict at the inquest was that the killing of the convicts was justifiable.

CHOATE MYSTERY CLEARED.

The Body of the Buffalo Student Found in His Father's Barn.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 6.—The body of Rufus Choate, with a bullet hole in the left temple and a revolver lying beside it, was found yesterday in a hay mow of his father's barn in the suburbs of this city. The body was in a bad state of decomposition. Choate, who was a student at the Buffalo high school, disappeared four months ago. He left the house of his father, a wealthy real estate man, to go to school and was never seen alive again. Circulars were sent to the police of all the large cities seeking information about him. The body of young Choate was found by his older brother, who discovered the body concealed behind two barrels. The family is satisfied that Choate killed himself, although they are at a loss for a motive.

DESTRUCTIVE FOREST FIRES.

Glen Hazel, Pa., Suffers a Loss of at Least $125,000.

Ridgeway, Pa., May 6.—Destructive forest fires have been raging throughout Elk county for the past two days. The largest damage so far recorded was from the town of Glen Hazel. The flames rapidly encroached on the outskirts of the village yesterday and help was asked and sent from Bradford. The flames were fought all day, but they reached the village and Delos Dolliver's sawmill with ten million feet of hemlock logs, twelve hundred feet of the Erie railway track, sixteen cars and six dwelling houses were burned. The fire last evening was finally gotten under control in Glen Hazel, but it is still burning in the woods. The estimated loss by the conflagration is $125,000.

CUBAN PATRIOTS WIN.

Maceo Captures Two Forts in Santiago Province.

Tampa, Fla., May 6.—Passengers by the steamer Mascotte bring reports that the fort of San Ramon de las Yaguas, in which were 260 men, and La Colonia Militar, with the same number of inmates, in Santiago province, were both captured last week by 1,750 insurgents under Maceo. Captain Malla, who was in charge of the detachment which was captured while escorting provisions near Bayamo, was taken to Havana Friday to be tried Saturday. It is thought he will be shot, as was Gallego. There is much dissatisfaction among Spanish officers over Gallego's execution.

THIRTEEN INJURED.

A Wild Freight Engine Wrecks a Passenger Train.

Little Rock, May 6.—A passenger train on the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern road was wrecked Saturday near Clarksville by a wild engine. Thirteen passengers were injured. At Clarksville Engineer Wilbank, of a freight train, stepped into the telegraph office to ascertain how late the passenger train was, leaving the engine in charge of his fireman, who a moment later got off to get a drink of water. While unmanned the throttle flew open and the engine being detached from the cars, started at full speed.

Killed Trying To Board a Train.

New Brunswick, N. J., May 6.—William Meyer, 19 years old, an iron moulder, of Philadelphia, slipped while trying to board a freight train at Metuchen yesterday morning and fell under the wheels. The entire train passed over his right leg. He died soon after being taken to the Wells hospital here.

Lillian Schofield Under Arrest.

New York, May 6.—Mrs. Lillian Lansmere, formerly known as Lillian Schofield, was a prisoner in the Jefferson Market Police court fso stealing stealing $77 from John McClosky.

Good News for Buchanan.

Sing Sing, N. Y., May 6.—Warden Sage said last evening that he would not take any further action in the Buchanan matter until the case had been settled by the courts.

Moosehead Lake Clear of Ice.

Bangor, Me., May 6.—Ice has left Moosehead lake and steamers are running. Several fishing parties are going to the lake this week.

Destructive Fire at New Carlisle.

Springfield, O., May 6.—New Carlisle, west of here, was partly destroyed by fire last night. Loss, $50,000.

JAPAN AND THE POWERS

Stated That She Will Concede Russia's Demands.

An Amicable Agreement Promised—Russia Will Be Satisfied with a Large Slice of Manchuria, While Japan Will Be Contented with a Larger Indemnity.

Paris, May 6.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Temps says that Japan, in her reply to the joint protest, consented to abandon Liso Tong, excepting Port Arthur. The protesting powers have not reached an agreement regarding the reply, the correspondent asserts, and the exchanges of opinion continues. The European edition of the Herald learns from its Berlin correspondent that Russia has informed Germany she will declare war in case Japan insists upon the Shimonoseki treaty.

Situation in Formosa.

London, May 6. — Dispatches from Hong Kong say that the situation in Formosa is most serious. British and German marines have been landed at Anping to protect the foreigners, and British sailors and armed launches are patrolling Takau harbor. The black flags cause much anxiety. They seldom have been more threatening in recent years. Considerable apprehension is felt in Hong Kong as regards the differences between Russia and Japan.

Amicable Agreement Promised.

The Standard's Berlin correspondent says: "Although Japan's first reply to the joint protest was unsatisfactory, the present state of the negotiations promises an amicable agreement. The details are secret, but it seems that Russia will be satisfied if she gets a large slice of southeast Manchuria, containing one or more ice-free harbors, while Japan will be content if she gets an island or more besides an increased indemnity. Should the Japanese war party persist in not altering the treaty, Premier Count Ito probably will be sacrified. The powers certainly will insure China's giving Japan an ample guarantee for the indemity granted in lieu of territory.

No Edict Issued.

The Times correspondent in Pekin says: "The fact that the emperor has ratified the treaty is known only to a few persons. No edict has been issued. Prince Kung urged the ratification. Many Chinese would have preferred that the Japanese reach Pekin, as the government then would have been compelled to initiate reforms. Now there is small chance of any change for the better."

Lost Control of Soldiers.

The Times correspondent in Hong Kong confirms the reports of disturbance in Formosa. The governor says the cession of the island to the Japanese would produce rebellion. He has lost control of the soldiers, and the foreigners must take measures to insure their own safety. H. M. S. Spartan is preparing to land a force of bluejackets at Jamsui.

Under Sealed Instructions.

The Times correspondent in Berlin speaks of the report that the Russian war ships formerly stationed at Yokokama were ordered to sea with sealed instructions, adding that the squadrons of the three protesting powers have been commanded to assemble at Chifu.

SOLE LEATHER GOING UP.

If the Trust Wins, Shoes Will Cost Us Forty Per Cent. More.

New York, May 6.—An advance in sole leather to thirty-three cents a pound has been made by the United States Leather company. The price has been raised within a fortnight from twenty cents. The company claims that the scarcity of hides has caused the advance, though there does not appear to have been any corresponding rise in the market price of hides. Dealers and manufacturers are protesting against the advance, which is believed to be an attempt at cornering the market, and it is predicted that the the present price cannot long be maintained. The advances already made, if held, would make $3.40 shoes sell at $4.25, $4 shoes would cost $5.75 and the more expensive grades in proportion.

Houses Damaged in a Texas Tornado

Denison, Tex., May 6.—A tornado passed over this part of this state yesterday morning. Houses were blown down and stock killed. The storm crossed Red river to the Indian territory, making a swath through the forest. At Aubrey, sixteen miles north of here, one house was demolished. Near Carrollton dwellings were removed from their foundations, and at Van Alstyne houses and barns were unroofed.

Double Tragedy at Chattanooga.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 6.—Andy Hames, a farmer, aged 65, shot in cold blood James Swats, a locomotive engineer on the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad, at Stevanson, Ala., and was himself shot down by infuriated citizens. Both will die. The trouble was over business transactions.

Rival for Howard Gould's Niagara.

London, May 6.—The Times says: An English yatchsman has ordered Fife to build him a twenty-rater, after W. Fife's design, to compete with Howard Gould's Niagara. The boat will be framed with nickel steel, and an effort will be made to float her about the middle of June.

Ninety Charges Against Him.

Lebanon, Pa., May 6.—Ninety separate charges have been made against Ira S. Bickel, formerly an agent of the United States Express company here. Sixty are for embezzlement and some are for larceny and forgery. One of the things alleged to have been stolen is a bible worth $5.

Ex-President Seelye Dying.

Amherst, Mass., May 6.—The condition of Dr. Julius A. Seelye, ex-president of Amherst college, is very critical. Dr. Edward Hitchcock says that any improvement in his health would be impossible. His nervous system is completely exhausted, and he is unable to speak.

Leo on Armenian Troubles.

Rome, May 6.—The pope has written a letter to the Armenian patriarch of Constantinople expressing sympathy with the Armenians and endorsing the necessity of reforms in Armenia.

CURE THAT COUGH WITH SHILOH'S CURE

TAKE THE BEST

25cts., 50cts. and $1.00 Bottle. One cent a dose.

THIS GREAT COUGH CURE promptly cures where all others fail. Coughs, Croup, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough and Asthma. For Consumption it has no rival; has cured thousands, and will CURE YOU if taken in time. Sold by Druggists on a guarantee. For a Lame Back or Chest, use SHILOH'S BELLADONNA PLASTER. 25c.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY.

Have you Catarrh? This remedy is guaranteed to cure you. Price, 50 cts. Injector free.

Sold by all druggists. 3 14 y

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE IS THE BEST. FIT FOR A KING.

$5. CORDOVAN, FRENCH & ENAMELLED CALF.
$4. $3.50 FINE CALF & KANGAROO.
$3.50 POLICE, 3 SOLES.
$2.50 $2. WORKINGMEN'S. EXTRA FINE.
$2. $1.75 BOYS' SCHOOL SHOES.
LADIES. $3. $2.50 $2. $1.75
BEST DONGOLA.
SEND FOR CATALOGUE. W. L. DOUGLAS, BROCKTON, MASS.

Over One Million People wear the W. L. Douglas $3 & $4 Shoes

All our shoes are equally satisfactory. They give the best value for the money. They equal custom shoes in style and fit. Their wearing qualities are unsurpassed. The prices are uniform,—stamped on sole. From $1 to $3 saved over other makes. If your dealer cannot supply you we can. Sold by

A. WILLETT & SON

A full assortment of Stationery!

AT

HARPER'S.

411 Park ave.

L. A. HUMMER. L. B. MULFORD.

Hummer & Mulford,

VARIETY MARKET,

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc.
220 PARK AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Telephone call, 20 A.
Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge. 9 11

Your valuables will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

LOCK BOXES

From $2.50 to $10.00 a year.

M. Powers & Son,

Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75

In the yard. No. 1 Kindling, Wood.

Yard and office, 763 South Avenue.
Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Climax Stopper Co.,

Machine Works,

Corner of Ashington and 4th streets, manufacturers of bicycle specialties. Electric and special machinery, experimental work, tools, etc. Contractors for electric light wiring, telephones, burglar alarms, etc. 4 13 3m

TRY DOBBINS'S CIGARS.

30 PARK AVE.

He Manufactures Them

THOS. MARLEY.

(Nineteen years with M. Quinn)

BLACKSMITH,

845 Richmond st., near Watchung ave 6 25 y

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 2543, Knights of Honor.—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the First and Third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 213 West Front street, at 8 p. m.

John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Court Pride of New Jersey, No. 8084, Ancient Order of Foresters of America, meets in K. of P. Hall, No. 108 West 2d st., first and third Tuesday evenings in each month.

Samuel J. Flynn, Chief Ranger.
Samuel H. Langer, Fin. Sec. 6 25 y

Anchor Lodge, No. 148, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays in the Babcock Building.

C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Secretary.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Masonic Hall, East Front street.

D. C. Adams, W. M.
Chas. Yeager, Secretary.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum.—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the Second and Fourth Monday evenings of each month in Prompt Firemen's Hall, Coward's Building, Park avenue, at 8 P. M.

A. M. Rue, Regent.
E. A. Thorne, Secretary.

H. DeMOTT,

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.

69 Somerset Street, Plainfield, N. J. 9 27 y

Short Vacations

For busy people by the beautiful new steamships of the Old Dominion Line.

To Old Point Comfort

[Hygeia Hotel]

Or Virginia Beach, Va.

[Princess Anne Hotel] may be made for

$16 Old Point Comfort, $16
Virginia Beach, $17 $17

INCLUDING EVERY EXPENSE,

of meals and berths enroute, and a day and a quarter's board at the hotels.

These trips are ideal, as a considerable portion is made through the quiet waters of the famous Hampton Roads and there is little likelihood of seasickness.

Also tickets on sale, with privilege of going or returning by rail.

Write for particulars of these and other delightful trips to —

Old Dominion S. S. Co.

Pier 26, North River, New York.
W. L. Guillaudeu, Vice Pres. and Traffic Manager. 11 26 6m

L. L. MANNING.

Marble and Granite Works

Cor. Central Ave. and Front st., opp. First Baptist Church.

Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

M. M. DUNHAM,

Real Estate and Insurance.

7 East Front Street.

CUT ROSES, CARNATIONS AND VIOLETS

Flowers furnished for weddings, funerals, etc., a bunches, bouquets or design.

MILES,

Somerset st., Johnston's drive, Terminus of Asbury railroad. 9 17 tf

Prof. A. Wehner,

TEACHER OF THE PIANOFORTE.

ALSO VOICE CULTURE.

Graduate of the Conservatory of Leipsic, Germany, desires a few more pupils in Plainfield.

References given and required.
Address letters to the office of this paper. 1 21 tf-c

E. H. HOLMES,

DEALER IN

COAL and WOOD,

YARD—No. 708 Madison Avenue. Also Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle 145 North avenue.

J. C. POPE & CO.,

Insurance Agents,

NO. 6 EAST FRONT STREET

Plainfield, N. J.

You may have many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable pair of Collier's

Lost Glasses.

103 Park ave. Established 1869.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,

Real Estate and Insurance,

197 North ave. 10 1 tf

F. A. DUNHAM,

Civil Engineer and Surveyor, 109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas.

TOWNSEND'S

MARBLE AND GRANITE WORKS,

SOMERSET STREET.

Our Motto—Good work, good material at fair prices. 8 4 y

Jones & Co., Excavators.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

JONES & CO.

Cesspools built. 9 18

Joseph E. Mosher,

Agent for

H. J. Hayden & Co.,

WAR CLAIMS ATTORNEYS, WASHINGTON, D. C.

All claims put in our hands will receive prompt attention.

Call at the Crescent Cigar Store for fine cigars

Gold Dollars for Fifty Cents.

NO.

BUT FULL VALUE.

C. E. MORSE, Painting and Paper Hanging, 27 Chatham street.

N. E. KING,

High Grade Portraits

in Crayon, Pastel and Water Colors.

483 Lexington ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Refers by permission to John A. Thickstun, L. B. Woolston, J. L. Blackford, L. W. Randolph, A. L. Force. Further information at the drug store of L. W. Randolph or office of The Daily Press, where specimens of work can be seen. 11 20 tf

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Publisher and Proprietor.

WALTER IRVING CLARKE, Managing Editor.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., May 6, 1895

ON THE TRACK OF THE ROYAL BLUE.

Hair-Bleaching Experience of Mr. and Mrs. Shearer.

A thrilling accident happened to Mr. and Mrs. H. Shearer of Westfield Friday afternoon. They left their home in a buggy to enjoy a drive, and on coming to the Cranford railroad crossing their horse stumbled and fell on the track just when the Royal Blue Line express, bound east, had been signalled clear. Fortunately, the engineer saw the mishap, and pulled the train up ere it reached the prostrated horse, which was got up with some difficulty. The flagman at at the crossing turned pale, expecting to see horse, buggy and occupants ground to pieces; but beyond a terrible scare, which they have not got over yet, they are none the worse of their terrible experience. Mr. Shearer has long been one of the agents connected with the Metropolitan Insurance Company in this city, and was on his usual collection tour in the Cranford district when the accident happened.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

A. Wolff was in Rahway yesterday.

P. Dolan of Matawan was in Plainfield Saturday.

Councilman E. N. Erickson and wife are at Hot Springs, N. C.

Charles Taylor of Princeton spent Sunday with friends in this city.

C. L. Moffett and family Watchung avenue spent Sunday in Sterling.

Miss Mamie Martin of Edsall's is confined to her home with illness.

Laura VanNess has taken charge of Edsall's perfumery department.

Theodore Rutan is out today after a three-weeks siege of rheumatism.

John Lane of Mountain View visited J. VanEps on Park avenue yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. Smalley has returned from a two-weeks visit to Liberty Corners.

Aaron S. Keyser of Watchung avenue is on a business trip to Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fairbairn of Westfield visited Plainfield friends Saturday.

W. W. Smith of New York spent Saturday with C. W. Burton of Watchung avenue.

L. L. Manning and Dudley S. Miller drove to Morristown early this morning, for the day.

John F. Vail and wife of New York are visiting Albert Hedden and family on Park avenue.

Mrs. L. A. Hummer of 159 Somerset street entertained friends at an afternoon tea Saturday.

John Hodgett and wife of West Second street spent yesterday in Brooklyn visiting relatives.

Mrs. Mary A. Tennaberry of Weston is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John H. Higgins of Stone street.

G. L. Douglass, Jr., of Sycamore avenue, presided at the organ last evening in the First M. M. Church.

W. A. Freeman will move from East Fifth street to his new residence on Sandford avenue Wednesday.

George Godown, chief of the letter-carriers in the postoffice, is absent from his duties on account of illness.

John H. Ross of 29 Park place has accepted a position and began work today with the Prudential Insurance Company.

John Horstman and daughter Miss Matilda, of Brooklyn, were guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bovey of Stone street.

Mrs. E. D. McCarthy of Park avenue moved Saturday to Central avenue into the house formerly occupied by J. Parker Mason.

Miss Emma Haines yesterday returned to her home in Brooklyn after a week as the guest of Miss Louella Mills on East Fifth street.

Freeholder Andrew Lutkins received a telegram late Saturday evening that his father was very ill at his home, Oradel, Bergen County.

The marriage of Amos Stites of Grove street and Hattie VanBoskerck of Somerset street took place Saturday evening at the home of the bride.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe returned to Boston this morning after spending several days visiting her daughter, Mrs. David P. Hall, of Central avenue.

S. P. Dunn and family, who have been spending the Winter in New York, have returned to Plainfield for a time, and are stopping at Mrs. Kirk's, West Seventh street.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

as mercury will surely destroy the sence of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists, price 75 cts. per bottle.

IT WILL FILTER AIR.

A NEW RESPIRATOR THAT WILL PURIFY THE AIR FOR FIREMEN.

Deadly Fumes Made Harmless. Air Drawn Through Cotton and Charcoal and Washed in Glycerine Before Being Breathed.

A breathing apparatus has been invented which is especially applicable to firemen who go into burning buildings where the smoke is dense and poisonous fumes are thick.

The apparatus was recently exhibited when the experiment consisted of filling a room with smoke produced from a fire fed with shavings, tar, sulphur, cayenne pepper and other things. When these things had been burned the room was filled with black smoke, which rendered it absolutely untenantable.

The inventor attached the respirator to his back and, taking the end of the breathing tube in his mouth, entered the room with an assistant who was likewise equipped. They remained in the room a quarter of an hour and said on coming out that they could have stayed in longer if they desired.

At the conclusion of this experiment the filtering material inserted in the respirator for the purpose of clearing the air before it is breathed into the lungs was taken out. This material included some cotton wadding, some dry and some moist with glycerine, and between these are layers of bone black or animal charcoal.

The two outside cylinders are filled with these substances, and after the air has been drawn up through them by the breathing force of the lungs it passes through the glycerine for a final washing. By this time it has not only been cleared of smoke and other impurities, but it has also been cooled and is in fit condition to be breathed into the lungs.

PRETTY FAIR PAY.

Mr. Foster Said to Get More Than $100,000 for Two Months' Work.

It is claimed that John W. Foster will receive more than $100,000 for two months' service as a diplomatic adviser, helping to let Li Hung Chang down as easy as possible with the Japanese. Mr. Foster is one of the most experienced, if not one of the ablest commercial diplomats in this country, perhaps in the world; but the importance of his service to the Chinese Government can hardly be overestimated, as is clearly shown by a statement made by a wide awake member of the diplomatic corps.

"Before John W. Foster left this country," said this gentleman, "he had made a contract with the Chinese minister by which he was to receive a very large sum for his services as adviser to the Chinese government in the efforts then being made to secure peace with Japan. The cable some time ago indicated that he had earned every penny of it. When Mr. Foster was first engaged it had not been decided to send Li Hung Chang to treat with Japan. The first thing Mr. Foster did was to insist that he be called to Pekin, restored to his former honors, and sent out with full powers to negotiate a treaty. He knew that the Japanese would receive the veteran statesman with greater courtesy than it would extend to any other living Chinaman, and he shrewdly guessed that Li Hung Chang would command some sympathy for the harsh treatment received by him at the hands of his emperor. The result has fully justified this expectation. Li was received with distinction, and since the unfortunate incident of his attempted assassination, which, however, in view of the happy outcome, can hardly be called unfortunate, the Mikado has done everything in his power to make his task an easy one. The shrewd Foster was constantly at his elbow, and when Japan demanded an indemnity of 300,000,000 taels, it was at Foster's suggestion that Li besought the Japanese minister not to cripple the revenues of China for all time by demanding so high a price for peace. The plea was successful, for the Japanese finally consented to put the amount at 200,000,000 taels. As a tael is worth about 73 cents in gold, the minister's shrewd work has probably saved China more than $70,000,000, so that the emperor can well afford to pay the American's little bill."

Fair Warning for the Court.

The unmarried woman of uncertain age was on the witness stand, and the prosecuting attorney, for some reason, was disposed to nag her.

"I believe," he said, "that you gave your name as Mary Howitly, unmarried?"

"I did," she replied, stubbornly.

"And what is your age?"

"I decline to answer."

"But the court wishes to know."

"It's none of the court's business," snapped the witness.

The judge was thinking of a fitting answer when the prosecutor put in:

"May it please the court," he said, severely, "this is contempt, and should be punished accordingly."

The witness smiled most exasperatingly.

"May it please the court," she said, in close imitation of the prosecutor, "you may fine me for contempt if you wish, but it will not make me answer. Your Honor and the gentleman who asks me the question are elected to the offices you fill by the people, and you are both willing to be elected again. Imprison me, if you wish, I shall not answer; but I will say to both of you now, that when the people know you have punished a woman for refusing to tell her age, you will never be elected to office again in a thousand years. Women have some rights that are bound to be respected, and public sentiment has accorded us this one. So, there."

A Change of Base.

Jay Smith—I thought you were against consolidation.

Clinton Court—I was last year, but since we have lost Talmage and the city hall bell Brooklyn isn't what it used to be.

SAVED BY HIS SWEETHEART.

A Robin Redbreast's Plucky Fight With a Sparrow Hawk.

A large, sprightly robin, with the brilliant red breast of a male, alighted on the swaying top of a tall, ragged hemlock that stands down back of the post office at Seaberry Settlement, N. Y., and began to sing a plaintive, thoughtful song to a duller colored bird across the road on the lower limb of a maple. He sang in praise, as a timid lover might, but gaining courage sang out louder and louder till, in a burst of beautiful melody, he forgot his own surroundings, as lovers often do, and saw only the sweetheart with whom he would mate.

A brown bird with long, keen wings and hateful speed flew along close to the briars along the bank behind the unconscious singer. With a sharp swerve he rose up, and then the sweetheart across the road piped a shrill note of alarm and warning just in time. The lover dived down, turned sharp, and escaped the little sparrow hawk's talons and more cruel bill.

But the hawk was not going to be cheated out of a sweet meal thus. He, too, turned and pressed close after the fleeing robin. It looked as if the robin had sung his last song when the hawk cut off a corner and came in not two feet behind the robin, peeping in eagerness for prey.

The robin is a timid bird and a good natured one. He fears the blackbirds, and hops away from a bullying sparrow; red squirrels are a menace to his life, while cats and hawks drive him wildly away in fear. But there comes a time when a robin, pressed hard for life, or when his home is in great danger, will fight as few straight billed birds can fight, and drives a coward bird before him or kills a brave one. So it was with this one.

Pressed close by a fierce pursuer, with death and nothing beyond, but everything to live for, he suddenly turned on his enemy and struck at him. Struck full in the breast, the surprised hawk tumbled over backward and fell to the ground. Again the robin struck him on the back before the hawk realized what had happened; then he turned and the two faced each other. The robin had lost his appearance of fear and the hawk showed pain and fear. Still he attacked the robin again.

The hawk was a practical fighter. His training had all led that way. No bird, unless surprised and suddenly wounded yields without a fight. Long combats with agile red squirrels, bluejays, kingbirds and lesser ones, had given him the skill which only practice can give. The robin's life had been different. It had been a peaceful search for insects and a life of song, nor had nature fitted him with such weapons as his opponent had on foot and head; still the straight bill was a good weapon.

Three times the two tackled each other. The robin's breast became redder yet with blood. The hawk had lost an eye. The robin's tongue was bleeding and the hawk's breast was scarred deep by the robin's first assault. The robin was the weaker, and the test was longer than he could stand, but he could not escape, for to turn to flee would be only to bring the other onto his back; so he fought on desperately.

The fourth tackle he lost his hold and was sinking back, pressed down by the hawk's greater weight and superior strength. It looked darker then for him. So thought the sweetheart on the maple tree. She saw her lover fight, and hopped along the limb and back again, leaning forward eagerly and chirping encouragement to him.

When the robin began to weaken she sprang from the limb and hovered over the two, chirping fearfully.

As the robin was sinking back exhausted to fall an easy prey to the hawk she dived down straight as ever a hawk dived and struck the victor between the wings in the back.

It was a death blow, and when she and her lover sat on the maple limb side by side blood was on her bill, while the hawk lay dead with a broken back.

UNEASY LIES THE HEAD.

The Sultan of Turkey is Entitled to Some Sympathy as a Ruler.

There is no ruler upon earth who has a harder task in the ruling of his subjects than the Sultan of Turkey. This is because of the character of the population of his empire, the antagonism between the many races and religions there, the characteristics of Mohammedism, the geography of his dominions, the fixed traditions that are yet powerful in them, the social customs that have endured for ages, the precepts of the Koran, his dependency upon Islam, and the essential nature of his government. Nominally absolute in authority so long as he is faithful to the prophet, the sultan is subject to restrictions upon every side, and in every act, so that he is wholly unable to carry out many purposes which there is not any doubt that he entertains.

In criticising the sultan, who is an enlightened and well disposed ruler, the limitations of his power must always be kept in mind.

Those who know Armenia will not hold him personally accountable for the misgovernment of that country, any more than those who know Arabia will hold him responsible for the perpetual ravage of the plague there. The Asiatic choler has broken out again this year on the Arabian side of the Red Sea among the Mecca pilgrims. Recent dispatches from Cairo lead to the belief that the dreadful scenes of past years will be repeated this year.

Universal Pandemonium Patented.

A device has been patented by which, from any given point, all the steam whistles in the United States can be sounded simultaneously. The object is for sounding the whistles on correct time.

"Scientists say that there are microbes in kisses," said Miss Kittish to Mr. Hunker.

"Happy microbes!" exclaimed the young man, ecstatically.—Life.

Good Corn Bread made with Cleveland's Baking Powder is appetizing and wholesome.

Cleveland's, the best that money can buy.

Our cook book, page 49, tells you how to make it. A copy mailed free on receipt of stamp and address. Cleveland Baking Powder Co., 81 Fulton St., New York.

—The Water Supply Company elect directors tomorrow.

—The national meeting of the Master Plumbers Association, to which John Carney and D. W. Littell are delegates, will begin in Philadelphia June 11, and continue for three days.

—Remember the lecture by Dr. C. B. Mitchell tonight in the Methodist Church. Subject, "Was it an Accident?" This is the last opportunity we are likely to have for a long time to hear this eloquent and popular speaker, as he leaves tomorrow for his home in Kansas City.

Choruses. Costumes. Calciums.

"A RUSSIAN HONEYMOON"

Comedy in three acts

—AT—

MUSIC HALL,

Thursday Evening

MAY 9,

In Aid of the Relief Fund.

Tickets $1 and $1 50

On sale at Music Hall.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

LOST—Saturday evening, between Steiner place and Heidelolff's store, $15 in bank bills. Liberal reward to finder at Daily Press office. 5 6 3

WANTED—A good laundress to take home a family washing, apply 352 East Front street.

BILLIARD table for sale, apply 178 South Second street. 5 6 3

COACHMAN and gardener would like position, best references. Address P. care Press. 5 6 6

FOR SALE—One curtain rockaway, in perfect order; one open jump-seat wagon; double and single harness; one tandem bicycle (Humber make), nearly new. Call before 8 a. m or after 6 p. m., on W. H. Hillman 818 Sherman avenue.

WANTED—Girl for general housework in small family, references required. 901 Madison avenue. 5 6 3

FURNISHED room to let at 1209 Watchung avenue. 5 6 3

SIX ROOM flat to let; all improvements. 200 West 2d st. 3 4 tf

TO LET—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping; no children. Apply 103 Duer street. 3 6 tf

FIRST-CLASS dressmaker, using Taylor's system, wishes a few more customers; plain suits, $3. 141 Grove street. 5 4 2

$1,000 to $3,500 to loan, first mortgage. Mulford broker. 4 22 tf

YOUNG colored man wants work. Experienced. References. Call 524 West Second street. 5 1 tf

FOR SALE—Nearly new sidebar buggy; bargain H. A. Weber, corner West Second and Liberty streets. 5 3 6

FOR SALE—Brahmas and Houdons eggs for hatching. Call at 72 Summit avenue. 5 3 2w

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 2 21 tf

BOARDERS wanted at 926 Putnam ave, near LaGrande ave. 4 29 6

STORAGE to let in Stillman block. 4 29 6

CORNER flats to let; all improvements; steam heat. Miller 339 Park avenue. 4 30 5

PAINTERS wanted. Apply E. E. Marshall, North avenue. 5 2 tf

MIZZEN PEAK COTTAGE.

WATCHUNG MOUNTAINS,

Bound Brook, N J

Superior French board at moderate prices. Dinner to order. Table d'Hote 75 cents with ½ bottle of Mizzen Peak claret.

Bowling Alley.

JEUX DE TONNEAU.

Beautiful view, fine shady grounds, sheds stables etc. 5 4 3m

THE LOVELIEST GOODS YOU EVER SAW.

That is the verdict of the ladies regarding the

WASH GOODS

AT PECK'S.

MONDAY, TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY

3 DAYS' SPECIALS 3

Window poles and fixtures complete 13c; window shades 50c grade 39c; window shades 38c grade 25c; window shades 25c grade 15c; silk taffeta gloves 40c grade 29c; silk taffeta gloves 32c grade 19c; silk taffeta gloves 25c grade 15c: 40 per cent off on all sun umbrellas. We have had a large sale of best calico, ginghams and outing cambrics at 3½, and have put more on sale at same price.

REMEMBER $10 cash purchased in our CARPET DEPARTMENT you get a handsome RUG

FREE.

WHITNEY'S,

122 East Front Street, Near City Bank.

DON'T

You find it tiresome to read, day after day, 10c worth 75c, 25c worth 50, and so on. Don't you think it sounds better to say, 25c worth 25? That's our way and we believe in it. It's the fictitious value that some merchants place on their goods that never sell, but it gives them lots of time to run around and see the other fellow do the business. We once knew a man, but that's another story and space costs money. A store full of money savers

DRESS GOODS.

Such selling with the profits chopped off, but we don't want them and you do. All kinds plain, plaids and fancies, all go the same way. 30 and 40 inch all-wool fancies 39c; 38 inch black figured brilliantine 38c; 45 inch imperial serges 45c; 38 inch all wool cashmere 25c.

SILKS.

Lucky for us that we did not buy them earlier. We now sell silks for what we would have to pay for them a month ago. Twenty-five pieces, as many patterns of fine swivel silk, just the sort for shirt waists, price 39c the yard

CAPES.

We could fill our space telling you how low in price they are, but we can't afford it. Selling 'em too cheap, so we tell of a few. Embroidered black broadcloth $1.98; fine black and blue $2.49; fine covert cloth $3.98.

SHIRT WAISTS

Made of percale (not calico) laundried, collars and cuffs, 48c.

SOAP.

The good kind. A thousand boxes, 3 cakes in a box, of as fine a soap as made only the price is poor, 7c box

UMBRELLAS.

An even hundred of them, made on steel rods, paragon frame. The most tempting lot we ever offered at the price, $1.29

HOUSE FURNISHINGS.

Our show window and the price on the goods tell the story, how we are selling, not at cost but very near to it. Jap porch screens, sprinkling pots, refrigerators, all at right prices.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

TROUSERINGS!

500 choice patterns which we are making to order for $5.00.

Sebring's

Park Avenue, Packer's Block.

13-6-7

MUSIC HALL.

Jos. Sohl, Lessee and Manager.

Telephone 49B.

ONE NIGHT ONLY

FRIDAY, MAY 10,

Rice's Surprise Party in the Historical Extravaganza

"1492."

Superb company of 60. Orchestra of soloists. Scenery, calcium, and electric effects.

Prices, Lower floor $1 00. Balcony 50c. Admission 35c. Box office now open.

CHAS. FICKE,

Upholsterer,

Has removed from No. 1 West Third street, to

128 WEST SECOND ST.

Nearly opposite Trinity Reformed Church. Mattresses and spring beds made to order. Carpets and mattings made and re-made. Awnings and window shades, to order, a specialty. Slip covers made. Curtains hung. 5 4 1 m

New York Announcement.

"Our American Homes and How to Furnish Them"

Can readily be ascertained by visiting

HORNER'S

Great Furniture Emporium

where everything is of the best quality, artistic excellence, and moderate in price. No such assortment of reliable goods can be seen in America.

Over two hundred and fifty distinctly different Bedroom Sets in all the various woods, Brass Bedsteads in over seventy patterns, as well as endless lines of Parlor, Drawing-Room, Library and Dining-Room Furniture.

Hundreds of Imported Novelties particularly suitable for presents, or home use and decoration.

All prices in plain figures.

R. J. HORNER & CO.,

Furniture Makers and Importers,

61-65 W. 23d St., New York,

Adjoining Eden Musee.

Horner & Co.'s establishment is one of the sights of New York.—Newspaper Comment.

A BELIEVER OF NOTE.

MRS. HENDRICKS COMMUNICATES WITH THE LATE VICE-PRESIDENT

It is Asserted That Her Earthly Possessions Have Doubled Since Her Husband Died. A Girl of 12 is First to Obtain Messages From the Departed.

Those who are sceptical of spiritual manifestations in Indianapolis knew that Mrs. Hendricks, widow of Vice-President Hendricks, and some leading Democrats who believe in spiritual phenomona professed to have received on the slate of a medium messages from the spirit land and signed by the Vice-President. In certain circles of the faithful there has been no little excitement about it.

Many of the sceptical have expressed a curiosity to know what opinion Mr. Hendricks had expressed on the Cleveland Administration and the present condition of the Democratic party.

Vice-President Thomas A. Hendricks died Thanksgiving eve, 1885. He had no time for the arrangement of his earthly affairs or his political business. He was in an upper chamber of his Indianapolis home preparing for dinner. His wife heard a heavy fall on the floor above, and when she reached his side found her husband dead with a peaceful smile on his features.

MRS. HENDRICKS.

Gradually it became known to a select and chosen few that Mrs. Hendricks was receiving messages from her departed husband—messages mainly on topics concerning themselves alone, but occasionally referring to the political conditions and events most interesting at the time.

Lottie Greenrod, as a girl of twelve knew nothing of Mrs. Hendricks and had no conception of the high place in politics held by her departed husband. Evidently her first slate writing must have been of satisfactory tenor to Mrs. Hendricks, for in ten years she has been a constant visitor to this same medium's house.

Under Mrs. Hendricks's eyes the girl medium has become a wife and mother, with a black eyed baby boy, who sits and crows while the parent holds the slate and receives messages from the spirit land.

Recently a reporter who wanted a message from his spirit friends called upon the medium. There was nothing unusual about Mrs. Herbine's method. The reporter was seated at a small table with the medium and instructed to write the names of dead friends on a slip of paper, with his own name beneath. This done, the slip was folded, Mrs. Herbine taking obvious and extra pains to prevent herself from seeing the list. It was put inside the book slate which was held by Mrs. Herbine under the table.

MRS. HERBINE, THE MEDIUM.

"Keep your mind off the names," she said. "Or if you are sceptical look under the table to see that I am not doing the writing." Then, while waiting for the spirits to come, Mrs. Herbine talked of the weather, of her baby boy who was pushing his little toes against the table and then of the celebrated people who had sat at the same little table.

Many of the faithful in Indianapolis declare that the successful business ventures made by Mrs. Hendricks since her husband's death have been due to his spiritual advice on the Herbine slate. They claim that she has increased her fortune only through the advices and prophetic instruction which could only come from an all seeing soul in the spirit land.

Whatever may be the belief, it is a fact that Mrs. Hendricks has in ten years doubled the property left by her husband and meantime she has dispensed in charity or in aid of relatives nearly $70,000.

Not only has she attended to her own charities, but she has carried on her roll of pensioners all the needy relatives and impoverished political friends that her husband was in the habit of aiding at the time of his death. Vice-President Hendricks was in his life charitable almost to a fault.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

MONTE SCOTT MET THE CRACKS.

And Finished Third Out of 248 Starters in the Linscot Race.

Fully 100,000 people witnessed the Linscot 25-mile handicap road race held in Malden, Mass., Saturday, in which there were 248 starters, including all the crack long distance riders in the country. The time prizes were won by the following: First—"Eddie" McDuffie of Malden, 1:12:08; second—W. G. French of Boston, 1:12:40; third—Monte Scott of Plainfield, 1:12:55.

The feat of Monte Scott finishing third, with his rivals only a few seconds ahead, in this great race fills his Plainfield friends with pride and admiration, as well as displays the fact that he is one of the best "stayers" in the world, thus ensuring for him a successful career in racing circles.

The world's record was not broken, on account of a heavy shower that came up about fifteen minutes before the finish, and which made the roads very heavy, and by the crowds that interfered with the riders by blocking the roads. The finish was very exciting.

BETTER TIMES.

The Old Scale of Hours Restored at the Potter Press Works.

After a long spell of reduced working hours, the workmen of the Potter Press Works resumed their old working hours this morning—6:30 a. m. to 6:30 p. m.—week terminating Friday night. Business is picking up briskly and for considerable time back the lathes and planers have been running nights, and in consequence a large number of the men have been making more than full time, while the minority have been making only five days, so this step has been that all could be on an equality and overtime will only be worked on the floors that the machines are being constructed on, and when necessity calls for it. Business is brisk on newspaper and lithographic presses at present, and the men are glad that business is so that the factory is once more on its old-time basis.

PERILS OF SUNDAY DRIVING.

Policemen Will Get After You, If You Don't Watch Out.

Two young men hired a horse and buggy from one of the liveries in town yesterday, and in returning last night rather late they came through the Boulevard, howling and yelling, and driving the horse very fast. They had a revolver, which was discharged several times.

Policemen Cooney and Flynn, who are stationed in the west end, followed them up, hoping to catch them.

When they reached town they saw a horse and buggy going into the livery stable, and thinking of course it was the rig they were after followed it in.

Policeman Cooney examined it, and said it was the rig, while Flanagan did not think so. They questioned the young man who had been out with it, and found at once it was the wrong one, as the young man was an innocent Press reporter.

Previous to that the guilty parties had return with the rig without the knowledge of the hostler, put the horse out, and thrown the harness into the wagon. When the hostler woke up he found that the shafts were broken, and later a revolver was found in the bottom of the wagon. The young fellows are known by the liverymen, and will find it advisable to call and settle.

Local Transit First!

From the methods pursued by the Plainfield Street Railway Company, it is believed that the company does not mean business in the local-extension project, and is desirous of solely securing the through-line franchise. The Press therefore urges the Common Council not to permit the building of the through-line route till the local extensions so sorely needed are provided.

—An interesting programme was rendered at the farewell meeting of the Turn section in Saengerbund Hall last night.

—Justice Newcorn this morning rendered a judgment of $123.75 in the interest case of George Cole against Frank Covey.

—Rehearsals for "The Russian Honeymoon" will resume tomorrow night, when the finishing touches will be added to the chorus work and the general performance. Wednesday night will be devoted to the full dress rehearsal with all the properties and accessories. The demand for tickets is very brisk, and a very large audience is expected.

A Catskill Hotel Man.

(From Catskill, N. Y. Recorder.)

Mr. Joseph McGiffert, one of our prominent hotel proprietors, has reason to extol the merits of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. In speaking of it to our reporter he said: "I was all run down from kidney and liver trouble, three physicians treated me after the old school methods, but I grew worse. One of our bankers said to me, 'Why don't you take Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy? It cured me.' So I began its use, the result was I gained daily, and in a little while I was sound and well again. I suppose I have recommended it to a hundred or more of my summer boarders, and in every instance it has done them good."

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kenney celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary yesterday.

Alfred Fawcett of Washington avenue is recovering from his attack of rheumatic fever, under Dr. Jenkins's care.

Miss Jeanette A. Mattison of Church street, who has been severely ill, is improving under the care of Dr. T. S. Davis.

The approaching marriage is announced of James Mullen and Miss Katie Storr. They will keep house on West Front street, over Smith's grocery store.

U. T. Hungerford and family who have been occupying the house of Mrs. L. S. Darling at the corner of Prospect avenue and Rahway road for the past year, will move on May 15 to 135th street, New York city.

Street Commissioner Robert A. Meeker will be able to be at his work again in a day or two, after being confined to the house for sometime with a sprained ankle. He has for some days superintended work from a wagon, driven about town.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Warm wave due tomorrow.

—A new locomotive for the Atlantic City Railroad passed over the Jersey Central today.

—Plumber James Harper this morning turned the water on in the Christian Endeavor fountain.

—The Plainfield Branch of the Christial Alliance have arranged for interesting missionary services Tuesday, May 7.

—A. M. Runyon & Son had the remarkable experience of receiving three calls for deaths from apoplexy—Mr. Pangborn, Mr. Adams, and Mrs. Dunham—Saturday.

—B. B. Western, Joseph B. Hall and Rector Murphy will go to Trenton tomorrow to represent the Church of the Holy Cross in the State Episcopal Diocesan Convention, which holds its session in Trenton Tuesday and Wednesday.

—Street Commissioner Robert A. Meeker will be able to be at his work again in a day or two, after being confined to the house for sometime with a sprained ankle. He has for some days superintended work from a wagon, driven about town.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE

—Warm wave due tomorrow.

—A new locomotive for the Atlantic City Railroad passed over the Jersey Central today.

—Plumber James Harper this morning turned the water on in the Christian Endeavor fountain.

—The Plainfield Branch of the Christial Alliance have arranged for interesting missionary services Tuesday, May 7.

—A. M. Runyon & Son had the remarkable experience of receiving three calls for deaths from apoplexy—Mr. Pangborn, Mr. Adams, and Mrs. Dunham—Saturday.

—B. B. Western, Joseph B. Hall and Rector Murphy will go to Trenton tomorrow to represent the Church of the Holy Cross in the State Episcopal Diocesan Convention, which holds its session in Trenton Tuesday and Wednesday.

—Street Commissioner Emmons of the borough is receiving hearty commendation on all sides for the very excellent and practical manner in which he is doing his work. He has scraped the streets, preliminary to putting them in fine shape for the Summer. He is a good man for his office, and has a good adviser in Committeeman Smith.

WHEN EASTER COMES.

"Thirty days hath September,"
Every person can remember;
But to know when Easter's come,
Puzzles even scholars, some.

When March the twenty-first is past,
Just watch the silvery moon,
And when you see it full and round,
Know Easter 'll be here soon.

After the moon has reached its full,
Then Easter will be here,
The very Sunday after,
In each and every year.

And if it hap on Sunday
The moon should reach its height,
The Sunday following this event
Will be the Easter bright.

—Boston Transcript.

Shiloh's cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient consumption; it is the best cough cure, only 1c a dose; 25, 50c, $1. Sold by all druggists.

DEATHS.

PANGBORN—Suddenly, in North Plainfield, Saturday, May 4, 1895, Isaac W. Pangborn. Funeral services from his late residence, 31 Rockview avenue, Wednesday, May 8 at 2:30 p. m. 562

THE GREAT AMERICAN DRINK---Soda Water,

is the best of all drinks when rightly served. We use many syrups—all good—but we must "brag" a little about our orange (fresh from fruit), our chocolate and coffee; none can be finer. As to cream—take your choice: Ice cream, whipped cream, plain cream.

Reynolds's Pharmacy,

Park and North avenues.

GEN. LEE NEVER GAVE UP.

A Firm Believer Until His Death in the Confederacy's Lost Cause.

Rev. J. William Jones, one of the professors of the University of Virginia, who was selected by Gen. Lee to write his biography, makes answer to published statements that the Confederate commander had expressed regret for his part in the war. He says:

"After the close of the war Gen. Lee fully accepted the situation and used his potent influence to induce his old soldiers and others to do the same, but that he ever whimpered or whined at the feet of power or confessed to any one that he was wrong in the course he had pursued, is as utterly at variance with the facts as it would have been with his character. I not only never heard him utter a word indicating a doubt of the justice of the Confederate cause, but I heard him on many occasions express his most emphatic approval of that cause.

"He never spoke of the war as the rebellion, nor of the Confederates as rebels, but invariably, in conversation and in hundreds of private letters which I have read, called it 'our great struggle for constitutional freedom,' or 'the struggle of the South for constitutional government.' In the summer of 1869, when his able lieutenant, Gen. Wade Hampton, was conversing with him about the war, Lee said, with emphasis: 'I did only what my duty demanded. I could have taken no other course without dishonor, and if it were to be done over again I should act in precisely the same manner.'"

BUILT FROM A GREAT BOWLDER.

One Mighty Erratic Stone Furnishes Material for the Building of a Church.

The Presbyterian Church of Waterloo, Ia., can well claim to be one of the unique buildings in the world, so far as the material of its construction goes, for it is built substantially of stone taken from one huge bowlder. The bowlder drift scattered over the earth, and very plentifully through the upper Mississippi Valley, has been put to commercial and architectural uses in all countries; but surely this church is one of the most interesting of all these utilizations.

The stone from which the church is constructed weighed more than five millions of pounds, and was therefore about twice as large as the bowlder from which was hewn the pedestal on which stands the statue of Peter the Great in St. Petersburg, though not so large as the great bowlder called Pierre de Marmettes, at Monthey, in the canton of Valais, on which a chalet was built.

Unnecessary Waste of Gray Matter.

Cholly was waiting for his reedbirds on toast and regarding with a puzzled expression a brisk looking man with pompadour hair who sat at the opposite side of the table.

"Do you know," he said, "I cawnt help thinking that I've seen you before somewhere?"

"Don't try to help it, my good fellow," replied the other, soothingly. "Waiter, bring me some corned beef hash."—Chicago Daily Tribune.

"And now," said the barber, who had inherited a fortune, "and now I can eat onions in the morning whenever I darn want to!"—Indianapolis Journal.

Karl's Clover Root, the great blood purifier, gives freshness and clearness to the complexion and cures constipation; 25c 50c, $1. Sold by all druggists.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "Shiloh's Vitalizer saved my life; I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used. For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels; 75c Sold by all druggists.

Truth Not Always the Best.

"I always used to be told," said Footlit, "that frankness and truthfulness endeared a man to his friends, but the whole thing is a delusion. It is lying that makes a fellow popular.

"Now, take my experiences of to-day. My wife made some wheat cakes for me with her own little hands. They were the worst slabs of putty I ever tried to eat. When she asked my opinion of them, being a truthful man, I told her that I had never put anything so unpalatable in my mouth, and that a ten-year-old girl could have done better. Then she began to cry.

"After that I went down town to my store. A woman came in to get some dress goods. She picked out a material entirely unsuited to her years. Having been taught that truthfulness commends itself to a customer in the long run, I said to her: 'You're much too old for that sort of a dress. It is not suited to a woman over fifty.' I thought she would be obliged to me for my tactful interest in her appearance, but instead of that she flounced out of the store in a rage, and I think she'll never come back.

"I don't believe frankness is the best policy at all, and I'm going to make the acquaintance of some first class liar and get him to give me a few lessons."

—M. Honan & Son have 100 men, divided into two gangs, working on the new sewer contract.

—The following are the men who will bowl at Dunellen this evening: Taylor and Giles against McConnell and Klippel; Mulford and Sweetlake against McConnell and Klippel; Taylor and Giles against Mulford and Sweetlake.

Don't Diet.

If you have dyspepsia, indigestion, habitual constipation or sick headache, don't diet. You need the strength that good food gives. Eat whatever you want, but take one of after meals until cured. If you are constipated get bottle with white label, yellow wrapper. At all druggists, 25 cts. Sample free.

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills

DR. J. A. DEANE CO.
Kingston, New York

Choice Soda

O, thirsty mortal ever ready today at Randolph's. The ancients knew no such pleasure as a delicious draught of our doubled-refined thirst annihilators. Good for the stomach, beneficial for the brain, light on the pocket, refreshing for young or old. Composed of materials of purity unsurpassed. We may live without poetry, music and art, but to be without soda is not to be tolerated. What more need we say? Drink it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist, 143 West Front st.

MUSIC HALL,

Joseph Sohl, Lessee and Manager.
Telephone call 49B.

RETURN ENGAGEMENT OF

LEWIS MORRISON,

MONDAY, MAY 6,

In his great creation of MEPHISTO. In a dramatic presentation of Goethe's immortal masterpiece

FAUST

Supported by a competent company of artists including MISS FLORENCE ROBERTS as Marguerite. Beautiful scenery, magnificent costumes, wonderful electrical effects. The great Brocken scene.

Prices, 35, 50, 75 and $1.00

CLOTHING

IS TO MAN WHAT CUTTING IS TO THE DIAMOND.

The man in rags may be as good as one in broadcloth, but somehow the world doesn't think so. He is the rough diamond of humanity, while his less deserving but better dressed neighbor, like a cut diamond, is appreciated and admired. Now there's just as much difference in the cutting of clothing as of diamonds. It takes skill to impart the perfection of fit and finish we give to our clothing, and it costs no more when you know how. See our grand line of Men's Spring Suits, beginning at $9 and running up by easy stages of a dollar or so to $20.

MC GREGOR & CO.,

850-852 Broad St.,

Newark, N. J.

EDSALL'S Splendid Offerings in Fine Goods. EDSALL'S

SOMETHING OF ESPECIAL INTEREST.

Special sale of bleached sheetings in 8-4 and 9-4 widths, usually sold at 22 cts and 25 cts a yard. Our price 13 and 15 cts a yard.

Clearance sale of short lengths of bleached muslins, 8-4 and 9-4 widths, all to go at half original prices.

An excellent line of sheer and dainty Percales, in a variety that make choice most difficult; unsurpassable value at 12½ cts. Our price 9 cts.

COUNTERPANES.

Marseilles and crotchet quilts, large size, exquisite designs, sold everywhere at 98 cts, $1 25, $1 39 and 1 65. Our price 65 cts, 99 cts, $1 15 and $1 25.

CAPES.

Ladies' capes, made of silk, velvet and cloth, prettily trimmed with lace, jet and ribbons sold elsewhere at 4 98, 5 25, $8 50 and $9. Our price $3 75, 3 99, 5.57, and $5 98.

MOREEN SKIRTS.

An excellent Moreen skirt, with full ruffle, usually sold for $4 98. Our price $3 20

HOUSE WRAPPERS.

Wrappers made up of fine percales in all colors, including indigo, full skirt, cape falling from yoke over large sleeves, trimmed with very pretty contrasting braids, all sizes, at 69 cts, 89 cts, $1 10 and $1 25. Usual asking price fully 25 per cent. more.

TAFFETA SILKS.

Special bargain in black and colored all-silk taffeta, in an excellent assortment of designs, the most sought for silk of the season. Sold everywhere at 89 cts and $1 a yard. Our price 65 cts and 75 cts a yard.

25 ct paper books, by standard authors, good print, full titles. Our price 3 cts each.

FANS

We have just opened up an exquisite line of fans, ranging in price from 10 cts to $2 50 each. The usual asking price is fully 25 per cent. more.

FREE SOUVENIR FREE SOUVENIR

FRIDAY MAY 10.

IN OUR BIG BASEMENT.

To each purchaser throughout the basement on the above date we shall give a fine China Souvenir to introduce our second Spring opening of Summer Goods.

Summer Goods. Summer Goods.

Window screens, hard wood frames, 19c and up.
Screen doors, well made, 79c and up.
Lawn mowers, best make, $2.29.
Ice cream freezers, best make, $1.48.
Baby carriages, large variety, $3.98 and up.
Oil and gas stoves at bottom prices. 1, 2 and 3 burner at 59c, $1.49 and $2.39 each.
Special low prices on refrigerators. Best makes; all sizes in stock.

WOMEN'S OXFORDS

74c, 98c, $1.19, $1.48, $2, $3, $3.50, $4—black or tan, pointed, square or common sense toes.

WE USE—nothing but the genuine Nevel stock in our tan goat shoes for misses and children. It will wear as long again as the ordinary. A full assortment of tan goods now ready for your inspection.

Doane & Edsall.

WE PUT ON OUR ODDS AND ENDS TABLE TODAY

One Haviland Dinner Pattern.
One lot of Fancy Flower Pots.
One lot Glass Dishes.
One lot Fancy Creams.

Gavett's.

129 East Front st

FISH FOR BREAKFAST.

Is Your Cook Up at 5?
That's the hour of our morning delivery. Finest, Freshest Seafood.

ROGERS, 232 West 2d street

Hats, new shapes, Trunks and Bags cheap E. M. LAING,
All sizes in Packing Trunks. 105 Park avenue.

$1.00

At J. F. MacDonald's Uptown Grocery,

buys $1.00 worth of Groceries every business day in the year. Our goods are sold at a profit so as to enable us to give weight and quality to our customers and have something left for ourselves No fictitious prices. No man is in business for his health.

J. F. MAC DONALD

EDWARD C. MULFORD,

(Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.)

Real Estate Broker and Fire Insurance,

Office 119 North ave., (opp. Railroad station.) Money to loan. 19 tf

HALLOCK is showing choice patterns in Percale Shirts, with 2 collars and pair cuffs, and these collars and cuffs are the latest patterns—no old back numbers G. A HALLOCK,
Hats and Furnishing Goods, 109 West Front st.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 North Avenue.

Grand Opening Every Day

AT A. W. FULPER'S!

1 pound 50c tea, 1 can milk, 3 pounds sugar, 1 loaf bread, half dozen boxes matches

50c All for 50c 50c

Not as an introduction but an every day occurrence. The very best goods; the very lowest prices. Sugar cured ham 10c pound; best Elgin creamery butter 20c, 5 pounds for 95 cts; good creamery butter 15c; 2 pounds extra combination coffee for 25c; 2 pounds extra creamery cheese for 25c; good creamery cheese 10c pound; 3 cakes Babbitt's soap 13c; Babbitt's 1776 per package 3c; best ginger snaps 4c.

LEECH, STILES & CO.,

Eye Specialists,

441 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, formerly with Queen & Co.

H. A. Stiles will be at

No. 107 East Front Street.

Dunham's Real Estate Office

EVERY THURSDAY
From 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Persons who have headache, or whose eyes are causing discomfort, should call upon this specialist and they will receive intelligent and skillful attention. No charge to examine your eyes. Every pair of glasses ordered guaranteed to be satisfactory. 4 13 tf-m t w s

Had You Thought of the Difference?

Special sale usually means a smaller profit than usual, but an

Assignee's Sale

means something else—it means a sale below cost for cash to settle up a business. So if you want a suit of clothes come to the Schepflin & Schultz assignee sale.

J. F. MacDonald,

Assignee for Schepflin, Schultz & Co.,

318 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

DEALERS IN

Lumber. Coal. Mason's Material. &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

The Facts about Abraham Lincoln

The Martyred President

The Most Authentic and Interesting Account of

His Life and Personal Character

By William H. Herndon — The Law Partner of Lincoln

For 20 years Lincoln and Herndon were Partners and Confidential Friends. Their relations were intimate and no man living is better qualified than Herndon to give a just, true and intelligent

Study of Lincoln's True Character

As revealed by his Habits and his Daily Life.

NOTHING IS SUPPRESSED

Which may legitimately contribute to a true understanding of this Greatest of Americans.

We Announce With Pride

That we have secured the right to publish striking extracts from Herndon's Lincoln in

A Series of Short Copyrighted Articles

To be printed

Exclusively in This Paper

The Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Standard Railway of America

Protected throughout by the Interlocking Switch and Block Signal System.

On and after Jan 20, 1895, trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

FAST LINE leaves Philadelphia 12 38 p m daily with Pullman Vestibule parlor and sleeping cars for Pittsburg, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania

6.37 P. M. WESTERN EXPRESS, with Pullman Vestibule sleeping cars, dining car daily for Pittsburg, Chicago, Cleveland, daily except Saturday, for Toledo, Williamsport, Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

9.34 p.m—SOUTHWESTERN EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping car, daily, to Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, and Memphis. Dining car Altoona to Richmond.

8 43 p. m.—PACIFIC EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping cars, daily, for Pittsburg, Columbus, Chicago, and Toledo, daily, except Saturday for Cleveland.

For Baltimore, Washington and the South—1 00 9.06, 9.36 p. m. 9.39 p. m.

Sundays, 1 05, 9 36 a. m., 9 41 p m.

For Baltimore only 1 37 p. m., week days.

For Newark and New York—2 00, 4 04, 6 06, 6 17, 6 45, 7 07, 7 20, 7 45, 7 57, 8 06, 8 28, 8 38, 8 47, 9 17, 9 41, 9 48, 10 20, 10 38, 10 46, 11 07, 11 48 a. m., 1 12, 1 20, 1 56, 2 24, 2 40, 3 46, 3 57, 5 47, 6 43, 6 55, 7 56, 8 36, 8 48, 9 06, 9 27, 9 48, 10 58, 7 07, 7 25, 7 39, 8 15, 9 10, 9 50, 10 08 11 03 and 11 53 p. m. Sundays, 2 02, 5 24, 7 56, 8 45, 9 26, 9 47, 10 12, 10 38, 10 50 a. m., 12 38, 1 44, 2 28, 3 25, 3 48, 4 26, 5 24, 6 56, 7 05, 7 12, 7 25, 7 56, 8 30 9 25, 10 15, 1 46 and 11 56 p. m.

For New York only, 6 10 a. m. daily.

For Philadelphia—1 00, 6 37, 7 20, 9 26, 9 36, 11 46 a. m.; 1 06, 1 37, 2 28, 5 06, 6 26, 7 46, 8 42, 9 29 p. m. Sundays at 1 00, 6 45, 9 05, 9 50, 10 41 a. m.; 5 40, 6 37, 7 47 and 9 11 P. M.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY

(2 25p.m. with through Buffet parlor cars) (Sundays 6 50 p. m.

Cape May, Sea Isle City and Ocean City 1 37 p. m. weekdays.

For Rahway—1 43 daily ex. Monday, 4 08, 6 44, 7 10, 7 56, 7 54, 9 06, 9 50, 10 39, 11 48 a. m., 12 46, 1 11, 1 37, 2 08 3 20, 3 30, 3 50, 4 28, 4 53, 5 12, 5 40, 6 06, 6 12, 6 27, 6 45, 6 52, 6 59, 7 20, 7 56, 8 14, 8 55, 9 54, 11 06, 12 45 p. m. and 12 27 night, week-days Sundays, 1 43, 6 50, 8 45, 9 40, 10 28, 10 41 and 11 47 a. m., 12 50, 1 50, 3 47, 5 28, 6 30, 8 30, 8 40, 9 21, 7 47, 8 14, 8 47, 9 16, 10 14, 11 and 11 55 p. m.

For New Brunswick—1 00, 6 37, 7 20, 7 56, 9 05, 9 36, 9 50, 11 48 a. m., 12 38, 1 37, 2 46, 5 06, 4 28, 5 06, 5 40, 6 06, 6 45, 7 46, 9 39 and 11 02 p. m. Sundays, 1 00, 6 50, 9 05, 9 36, 9 50, 10 41 a. m., 12 50, 1 50, 5 40, 7 47, 9 16, 9 41 p. m.

For Woodbridge—1 43 a m daily except Monday, 8 44, 9 46, 10 59 a.m., 12 46, 2 28, 4 28, 5 44, 6 12, and 7 20 9 54 p.m., 12 27 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 43, 10 28, and 11 47 a. m., 10 14 p. m.

For Perth Amboy—1 43 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 46, 10 59, 12 46 2 28, 4 53, 5 44, 6 12, 7 20 7 56 9 54 and 12 27. Sundays, 1 43 10 28, 11 47 a m 10 14 p m.

For East Millstone—7 10 a. m., 12 06, 2 46 and 5 40 p. m., week-days.

For Trenton—1 00, 5 57, 7 10, 7 59 9 05, 9 20, 11 43 A. M., 1 06, 1 37, 2 46, 5 06, 6 26, 7 46, 8 42, 9 39 P. M. Sundays at 1 00, 5 50, 9 05 9 36, 10 41 A. M.; 5 40, 6 37, 7 47 and 9 41 P. M.

For Lambertville, Phillipsburg and Belvidere via Trenton—7 59 A. M., 2 46 and 6 26 p. m., and 8 40 p. m. Sunday.

For Flemington—7 59 A. M.; 2 46 P. M.

For Freehold—7 59, 11 43 a. m., 4 28, 5 06 p.m., via Monmouth Junction, week-days.

For Jamesburg, via Monmouth Junction—7 59 and 11 43 a. m., 4 28 and 5 06 p. m., week days.

For Long Branch, Ocean Grove, and points on New York and Long Branch R. R.—9 46 12 46, 4 13 5 44 p.m., 12 27 night week-days. Sundays, 10 28 a. m., and 5 44 p. m.; do not stop at Asbury Park on Sundays.

For Sea Side Park, Island Heights and Toms River—12 46, p. m.

For Boston—8 46 p. m., daily.

For Brooklyn, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats to Brooklyn annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton Street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York City.

Leave New York for Elizabeth—1 00 daily except Monday 6, 6 30, 7 30, 8 10, 8 50, 9, 9 10, 10 10, 11 00 a. m., 12, 12 30, 12 50, 12 40 1 00, 3 10, 2 20, 3 00, 3 20, 4 00, 4 10, 4 30, 4 40, 5 00, 5 10, 5 20, 5 30, 5 40, 5 50, 6 00, 6 10, 6 20, 6 40, 7 00, 7 30, 8 25, 9 15, 10 15, 11 00, 11 50 p. m., 12 15 night. Sundays, 1 00 5 15, 5, 9 00, 9 45, 10 00 11 00 a. m., 12 00 noon, 1 00, 2 00, 2 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 30, 6 15, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 30, 10, 15, 11 00 p. m., and 12 15 night.

S. M. PREVOST, General Manager.
J. R. WOOD, Gen. Pass. Agent.

Carpenters and Builders.

UTZINGER & KLINE.
CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS.
Jobbing promptly attended to.
V. Utzinger, 75 Grandview ave. L. G. Kline, 54 Jackson ave.

JOHN P. EMMONS
—Mason and Builder.—
Washington avenue and Prospect place.
NORTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to. 11 16 tf

THEODORE GRAY,
MASON AND CONTRACTOR.
Estimates given, repairing promptly attended to. Residence 117 Hillside ave. 3 26 tf

PEARSON & GAYLE,
Carpenters and Builders.
RESIDENCE—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine St.
H. B Gayle, No. 13 Vine St
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO
9-22-tf

GEO. W. STUDER.
CARPENTER AND BUILDER,
985 ARLINGTON AVENUE.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to: Estimates given; charges reasonable. 5 3 6m

McCullough's Steam Mill,
21 Stelner Place, North Plainfield.
R. H. McCullough, Proprietor.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing Turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully Furnished. 6-11-tf

C. W. LINES & CO.,
Mason and Builders.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Residence 18 Elm Place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to 12 28

REMOVAL.
I have removed my watchmaking and jewelry business from Park ave. to
142 North Avenue
Next to Walker's bakery, and shall be pleased to have my friends call.
CALEB DICKINSON

Real Estate Insurance
VAN BUREN & TIMPSON
165 North Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

L. PAOLI & CO.,
Fruits, Confectionery, Temperance Drinks, Cigars, Etc.,
128 NORTH AVENUE,
FRESH ROASTED PEANUTS EVERY DAY,
10 CENTS A QUART.
I take this method of informing my friends and the public in general that I am again in business at the old stand. I solicit your patronage. Store will close at sundown on Friday and open at sundown on Saturday.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

(Anthracite coal used exclusively, insuring cleanliness and comfort.)
Station in New York foot of Liberty street.
Time Table in effect, Nov. 18, 1894.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield, 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 05, 6 29, 6 59 7 26, 7 30, 7 58, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 51, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04 10 27, 11 19, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51 4 50, 5 54, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 05, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 19, 11 28 a. m.; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 28, 5 36, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty Street at 4 30 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11.45, a. m.; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, (except Saturdays) 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p. m., 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 8 30, 9 15 a. m.; 12 00 m.; 1 00, 2 15, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p. m.; 12 15 night 1 00 a. m.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 28, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a. m.; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 6 54, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 28, a. m.; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark, at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 08, 10 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 15, 1 35, 2 20 (Saturdays only) 2 50, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday 7 30, 8 45, 9 35, 11 35, a. m.; 1 10, 2 35, 4 10, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a.m. 12 46, 2 08, 2 32, 3 45, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 54, 6 04, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 29, 11 23 p. m.; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 54, a. m.; 2 08, 5 28, 5 14, 6 38 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 35, 7 48, 8 20, 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m.; 12 50, 1 43, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 5 28, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 55 a. m.; 12 08, 1 20, 5 05, 6 45, 8 05, 8 05, 9 40 p.m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54, a. m.; 12 46, 2 08, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28 a. m.; 2 08, 6 35, p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53 a. m.; 12 22, 7 00, 7 00 p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 52 a. m.; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

5 45 A. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Manch Chunk Williamsport and Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m. for stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 A. M. for Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Manch Chunk.

9 54 A. M. for Flemington, High Bridge branch D L & W R R, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Manch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Hazleton, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m. way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 08 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Manch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury and Williamsport, Wilkes-Barre and Scranton. Buffet parlor car to Manch Chunk.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge branch

5 14 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, Manch Chunk Shamokin and Tamaqua, Buffet parlor car to Scranton.

6 19 P. M. for Flemington.

6 38 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Manch Chunk, Reading and Harrisburg.

8 21 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

8 45 A. M. Sunday for Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Manch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton. 8 28 a.m. Sundays for Easton, 2 08 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Allentown, Manch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading and Harrisburg, 6 35 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Manch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c. and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

For Atlantic City, 9 37 a. m. 1 18 p. m.

Long Branch, Ocean Grove, &c

Leave Plainfield 9 37, 5, 10 27, a. m 1.18, 3 51, 5 54, p. m. Sundays—except Ocean Grove 8 53, a. m., 2 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 9 37, 5 30, 5 10 27 a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 7 03 p.m. Sunday—8 53, a. m., 2 30 p. m.

For Freehold, 9 37, 5, 10 27 a.m., 1 18, 3 51, 4 50, m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 45, 8 16 9 54, 10 45, a. m., 2 08*, 5 14* 6 38 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 12, night. Sundays—5 45, 8 28, a. m., 2 08*, 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 12, night.

For Trenton 5 45, 8 16, 9 54, 10 45, a. m., 12 46, 2 08*, 5 14*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 37* p.m., 1 12 night. Sunday—5 45, 9 54, a. m., 2 08*, 5 14* 6 38 p. m., 1 12 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 9 46, a. m., 12 46, 2 08, 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 12, night. Sundays—9 46 a. m., 2 08, 5 14* 6 45 p. m., 1 12, night.

For Chattanooga, New Orleans and all points south with through vestibule sleeper, via Shenandoah Valley Route at 5 54 p m. Sundays 5 14 p m.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points west, week days at 9 54 a m., 8 21 p. m. Sundays 6 38 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rate may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

A. H. OLHAUSEN, General Sup't.
H. P. BALDWIN. Gen. Pass. Agt.

The Finderne,

FINDERNE, Somerset Co., N. J.

Open all the year as a resort of the highest order. Driving and sleighing parties will receive every attention.

HIGH-CLASS SUNDAY DINNERS.

(Table d' Hote from 1 to 3:30.) Steam heat; inclosed piazzas; everything immaculate. When out driving let us entertain you.

A. E. WHITE, Manager.
1 9 tf Finderne, N. J.

CODDINGTON'S
FURNITURE AND FREIGHT
EXPRESS.
OFFICES—34 West Front street; 38 Park avenue
Post Office Box 220.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY. Large covered trucks. Goods sent to any part of the country. Charges reasonable. Satisfactio guaranteed 11 9

PATENTS
CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS
COPYRIGHTS.
CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a prompt answer and an honest opinion, write to MUNN & CO., who have had nearly fifty years' experience in the patent business. Communications strictly confidential. A Handbook of Information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and scientific books sent free.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the Scientific American, and thus are brought widely before the public without cost to the inventor. This splendid paper, issued weekly, elegantly illustrated, has by far the largest circulation of any scientific work in the world. $3 a year. Sample copies sent free.
Building Edition, monthly, $2.50 a year. Single copies, 25 cents. Every number contains beautiful plates, in colors, and photographs of new houses, with plans, enabling builders to show the latest designs and secure contracts. Address
MUNN & CO., NEW YORK, 361 BROADWAY.

FISCHER PIANOS.
ESTABLISHED 1840.
Nearly 100,000 Now In Use.
RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARD,
WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO.
EASY TERMS, — EXCHANGED.
Catalogue mailed on application.
110 FIFTH AVE., cor. 16th St., N. Y.

DO YOU KNOW

—THAT—

AMOS H. VAN HORN Limited.

73 Market St., Near Plane St.

Is doing better by purchasers in their line than any other house in the trade? If you doubt it, why just call at number 73—Get their prices and see the big inducements they are offering. For instance:

PARLOR SUITS.

We are giving a Moquette Rug, size 27x54, and a Parlor Table with every Parlor Suit sold.

CARPETS CARPETS

We are making and laying all of our carpets with paper without charge, which is a saving of 15 cents per yard.

BEDROOM SUITS

We are the only house in the city that is giving a woven wire bed spring and a mixed mattress with every bedroom suit sold.

MATTINGS

We pride ourselves that we have the largest stock of fancy mattings in the city, and at lowest prices. Good Japanese matting at only 15c per yard.

NOTE THE NAME AND NUMBER BEFORE ENTERING THE STORE.

PORTLAND RANGES

Any one who wants a range should not buy one until they have called and examined the Famous Portland Range. Over 7,000 now in use and everyone warranted. Easy Terms. Goods delivered free to all parts of the State.

STORING FURNITURE—It must be true what everybody says, for those that have seen the rooms in our New Storage Building, put up expressly for storing furniture, at 88, 90 and 92 Bank street, say that it is the finest in the State for cleanliness and low rates.

TELEPHONE 530.

Amos H. VanHorn, Limited,

73 Market Street, Near Plane Street.

PUTNAM & DeGRAW.

Is there anything below that will interest you?

Gents Neglige shirts	75c. $1 00	Ladies hose seamless fast color black and tan	10c
Gents and Boys sweaters	25c 40c 50c	Ladies black skirts	$1.00 $1 25 $1 99
Gents long bicycle hose	25c	Ladies shirt waists	29c, 39c, 49c, 55c
Gents medium weight underwear	39c 50c	Children's Hose, fast black, seamless	10c
Gents half hose	10c 3 pair for 25c	" " double knee, "	18c
Gents half hose	15c 2 pair for 25c	Children's Bicycle Hose, extra heavy	25c

☞ Remember, that we give away money. Don't fail to ask for a money order when you purchase $1 worth.

REAL ESTATE.

F. M. Bacon or Wallace Vail,

Babcock Building, Room 211.

Come and see us. We always keep a good line of houses to rent and for sale. Elegant flats, steam heated, city water and electric lights. Private houses with all modern improvements. Vacant lots, farms, speculative property bought, sold and exchanged.

A gem, all improvements, $25 per month; 4 or 5 minutes from station. Farm 6 acres, house, barn, good land, 2 miles from Plainfield, $1,300—a very cheap home; easy payments. House 7 rooms, 5 minutes from station, $2,100. Store and 3 rooms $12 a month. Farm 53 acres, 1.000 peach, apple and pear trees, near Flemington, $2,500.

Are You Interested

about the care of your teeth? If so, nothing like a personal trial will convince you that.

Leggett's Tooth Wash

is an agreeable, refreshing and delightful dentrifice.

Sprinkler Top Bottles 25c.

Metropolitan Livery and Boarding Stables

Horses boarded by the day, week or month. Especial accommodations for transient trade

OFFICE AND STABLES,

147, 149, 151 North Avenue, Opp. Railroad Depot.

A. C. BLAIR.....Proprietor. FRANK DAY.....Manager

Telephone 152, connected with all circuits, of New Jersey, New York and Brooklyn.

1 14 tf

LYNDHURST, KEATING, EAGLE, AND APOLLO BICYCLES

Charles C. Lister, 134 North Ave.

Repairing, Renting and Storing

WE ARE READY

With large and beautiful line of Spring and Summer styles. Hats and Gents furnishings, men's and boys' Derby or Alpine hats, black, brown and tan, $1 00 to $3 00. Fancy negligé shirts, collars attached or detached 35c to $2 00. 1000 scarfs four-in-hand and made up from 10c to 75c, all new fresh goods. Special colored laundried shirts, 2 collars only, 35c worth 75c. No trouble to show our goods. Money refunded if you want it.

U. B. Crane, Hatter and Furnisher,

120 West Front street.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE.

Disastrous Effects of the Battle of the Nile.

ON SYRIA'S FERTILE PLAINS.

Siege of Jaffa and Massacre of the Garrison—Horrors of the Plague—French Envoy Beheaded—Victory at Aboukir—Received In France With Wild Acclaim.

[Copyright, 1895, by John Clark Ridpath.]

XII.—SYRIAN CAMPAIGN.

A great disaster now suddenly clouded the fortunes of Napoleon. Lord Nelson, beating out with his fleet for a month toward Syria—discovering that the French had landed in Egypt—sailed for Alexandria. The fleet of Brueys was at anchor in the bay of Aboukir. Nelson quickly sighted his antagonist, blockaded him, and on the 1st of August, 1798, began that famous Battle of the Nile, the memory of which is still fresh in history and tradition. The French fleet was virtually destroyed. The Admiral's ship Orient was burned. On the bloody deck, the son of Captain Louis Casabianca stood at his post, giving to the poetry of Hemans a flame-vision and voice to posterity. Only four or five of the French vessels escaped destruction. The rest, with nearly four thousand seamen, went into oblivion.

Napoleon had little genius for the sea. His ability to estimate the contingencies of naval warfare was small. Before his career was half expired, he conceded the dominion of the ocean to his great enemy. Ever after the Egyptian campaign, his endeavor looked more and more to the creation of a Continental power which should countervail British supremacy on the deep. The result to him of the battle of the Nile was in every way disastrous. The effect of it was calculated to inspire distrust in France, encourage the Coalition, and in particular to rekindle the smouldering hatred of the Mamelukes.

NAPOLEON BY CHATAIGNIER.

Complaints broke out in the French army. Though victory came, deprivation came also. The soldiers were scorched on the blistering plains, and had little to eat but watermelons. Nevertheless, Napoleon went steadily on with his scheme. On the 21st of August, he founded in Cairo an institute of arts and sciences. The savants who had come with the expedition laid the foundations of modern Egyptology. Bonaparte had the dyke opened, by which the canal of Cairo receives its supply from the Nile. Then he participated in the annual festival of Mohammed. He made common cause with the Islamite priests; put himself—at least for a day—into Turkish dress; visited the mosques, and attempted in every way to confirm his influence with the people. Volumes could not contain the story of what was said and planned by this extraordinary personage on the sands of Egypt.

On the 22nd of October, at a preconcerted signal, Cairo broke into insurrection. For a while the French occupancy was endangered; but the revolt was suppressed, and a terrible vengeance was wreaked on its authors. Meanwhile, Napoleon conceived the project of making a campaign into Syria, and attacking the English stronghold of Jaffa and St. Jean d'Acre. The situation was this: France and Turkey were nominally at peace. Napoleon had overthrown the Sultan's rebellious beys in Egypt. Therefore he was a friend of the Sultan; and he of him. But the thick brain of the Porte at length cleared sufficiently to see that Murad and Ibrahim Beys were not half so dangerous as the foreign lion that now sat on his haunches at Cairo, licking his mouth for more. The Sultan perceived that the French must be expelled. Napoleon had seen that this conclusion would be reached, and that a Turkish army might be expected to come against him out of Syria. Therefore he would better preoccupy Syria. Moreover, the hated English had got the coast of the Eastern Mediterranean. The Turkish army might not be expected during the winter; but the English were there already. Hence the Syrian expedition.

Napoleon divided his forces. He left about twelve thousand men to occupy Egypt, and with a like number set out, on the 11th of February, 1799, in the direction of Suez and Palestine. The march was accompanied with great hardships. At the wells of Messoudiah the French found water; and soon afterwards the green and fertile plains of Syria arose to view. El-Arish was taken on the 17th of February. On the 1st of March, Napoleon slept at the convent of Ramleh. He passed within a few miles of Jerusalem, and then made his way to Jaffa. A siege was immediately begun, and on the 6th of March the place was taken, with pillage and massacre. About four thousand of the prisoners were, after three days of deliberation, set in lines on the seashore and shot. This was done under the terrible necessity of the French to preserve themselves in the enemy's country.

Next came the horror of the plague. With the fall of Jaffa, the march was begun against St. Jean d'Acre. The Arabs now made common cause with the Turks. Lannes, pursuing the wild men into the passes of Nablous, was ambushed, and lost a considerable number of men. On the 18th of March the French arrived at Acre, and found that the Pasha Djezzar had cut off the head of Napoleon's envoy, and thrown his body into the sea. The English under Sir Sidney Smith, as well as the Turks, held the fortress and town. The civilized enemies had some fruitless negotiations, ending in a challenge of Bonaparte by Sir Sidney to fight a duel, a la Plantagenet! To this Napoleon answered that he had too many affairs on his hands to trouble himself with so small a matter!

Acre was besieged until the 4th of May, when the French ammunition began to fail. General Caffarelli, one of Napoleon's favorite officers, already one-legged from heroism, died from the amputation of an arm. On the 10th of the month the French made an assault, and gained the trenches. During the sixty days of the siege eight storming parties were sent against the defenses, and on one occasion the town was partly occupied; but General Duroc, who led the assault, was wounded, and the two hundred men who had gained an entrance were driven out through the breach.

Twelve sorties were made by the besieged, only to meet repulse. About the middle of May news came that one of the many Mahdis, who have so frequently arisen in Egypt, had appeared in the Nile valley. Intelligence came also that the Porte and the English government were now at one against the French. Napoleon's guns were not heavy enough, and his forces not sufficiently strong, to capture Acre; and on the 20th of May the siege was raised. The losses of the French in the Syrian campaign had reached nearly three thousand men; those of the Turks and the allies, perhaps five times that number.

Napoleon was weak in the matter of retreat. He could not retreat well. His fallings back were likely to degenerate into panic. This fact was exemplified in his withdrawal from Palestine. The march began on the 20th of May. The 22nd found the French at Cæsarea. Two days afterwards they reached Jaffa. There a pest-house had been established for those who had the plague. Napoleon ordered the fortifications of the town to be blown up; but what should be done with the hospital?

Man was never in a sadder dilemma. Bonaparte well knew that those of his sick soldiers who should be left behind would be horribly butchered as soon as the Turks should re-enter Jaffa. To take the infected with him was only to spread the disease. He went with his surgeons and aides into the plague-house, and passed among the dead and dying. He struck his boot-tops with his whip as he went along, saying, "In a few hours the Turks will be here. Let all those who have strength enough rise and come with us." None could arise. Then it was that, in a hurried consultation with his physician Desgenettes, Bonaparte proposed to anticipate with a portion of laudanum and a painless exit the cruel death which he saw to be inevitable. For this proposition he has been condemned by a sentimental world—against all reason and humanity. His project was just such as a humane man would propose for his own brother under the cruel alternative then presented.

The returning expedition reached Cairo on the 14th of June. Affairs in Egypt were already in a distracted condition. El-Mahdi was crying out like a prophet in Bohahireh. The fellahs and Arabs were rallying to his standard. Murad Bey was returning with his forces from Upper Egypt, to form a junction with the Mahdi's rout at the Natron lakes. Meanwhile, a force of about fifteen thousand, commanded by Mustapha Pasha and under conduct of English ships, arrived at Aboukir. A division of French, under General Marmont, held Alexandria; but that officer would be unable to keep the city against the gathering forces of the enemy.

Napoleon hastily marched against the Turks and English at Aboukir. Here, on the 25th of July, 1799, with only five thousand men, he attacked the enemy, three times as strong in numbers, and gained a victory so signal as almost to counterbalance the disaster of the year before, when Brueys's fleet at the same place was annihilated. In the negotiation that followed between Bonaparte and the English Admiral, the former obtained a copy of the French Gazette, of Frankfort, informing him of the condition of affairs in Europe. For ten months he had received virtually no news at all from his own country. The French army had to all intents been blockaded in Egypt and Palestine. "Heavens!" the General cried out; "my presentiment has been verified. The fools have lost Italy! All the fruits of our victories are gone. I must leave Egypt!"

It was necessary that Napoleon should be secret as well as expeditious. He informed the divan of Cairo that he should be absent briefly in the Delta. Afterwards he published a bulletin to the army, saying that he was going to France, but would soon be back again. The command should remain with General Kleber, who was truly said to have the confidence of the General-in-chief. Berthier and Lannes were to accompany the commander to France. Two frigates, the Muiron and the Carrere, were quickly prepared, and, on the 23rd of August, a company of about five hundred men went on board with Napoleon.

By keeping close to the African shore the vessels were enabled to escape detection. After twenty-one days the site of Carthage was passed, and the danger was over. On the 1st of October the ships were driven in at Ajaccio. Bourrienne narrates the comical circumstance that the fretful and impatient Bonaparte was obliged for about a week to stand godfather for one-fourth of the recently born children in Ajaccio; the hero was now popular at the place of his birth!

While detained in his native island Napoleon learned of the disastrous battle of Novi, the death of Joubert, and all the recent misfortunes of France. On leaving Ajaccio, his ship was followed by two English vessels, and well nigh taken; but on the 8th of October, he reached the roadway of Frejus and was safe. The enthusiasm of the people broke out spontaneously. They of Frejus, when warned to keep off on account of the possible infection of the French, said, "All right; we prefer the plague to the Austrians!" Bonaparte left immediately for Paris, by the Bourbonnais road. At Aix and Lyons he was received with wild acclaim. Nobody stopped to inquire whether the Egyptian campaign had been wholly successful or not. The French simply claimed everything, and shouted.

On the 16th of October Napoleon entered Paris. Josephine came to greet him, and the suspicions against her, with which his mind had been poisoned by some recitals of Junot in Egypt, were soon dispelled. An interview with the Directory followed on the next day, and it became evident that the relations between Napoleon and that body were already strained. The General informed himself of everything; and it was not long till he conceived the project of getting himself chosen a Director, with the ulterior design of overthrowing the existing order.

JOHN CLARK RIDPATH.

The Woman Question.

"What do you think of the woman question, major?" asked the judge.

"I think it is asked much more often than is necessary, judge."

"What do you mean?"

"I am speaking of the woman question. I understand that to be the subject of your inquiry."

"But what do you understand to be the woman question?"

"Is my hat on straight?"—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Cleveland Bicycles,

The Great Leaders of 1895.

Design, Improvements, Workmanship, Quality, Speed, Health, Pleasure, Business, Road, Track.

The Fastest. Strongest. Handsomest and Most Rigid Wheel.

The "Swell Specials" are a decided advance in bicycle construction and when quality alone is considered will always sell.

Liberty, Crescent, Waverly, Majestic

We thoroughly believe in the merits of the above wheels, and unhesitatingly recommend them.

F. L. C. Martin Cycle Co.,

333 Park Avenue.

Repairs. Established 1889. Rentals.

That represents the best that is made. If you want style, wear and comfort, wear the Hanan shoe, all shapes in Russia calf and patent leather.

ALEX. WILLETT & SON,

SHOES MADE TO ORDER. 107 PARK AVENUE.

E. E. MARSHALL & CO.

167 NORTH AVENUE.

WALL PAPERS, PAINTING,

And Interior Decorating.

☞ Designs submitted for frescoing.

PIANO BARGAINS.

Vanderbeek & Sattels

desire to say that they have just received a fine lot of

New Pianos

of different makes which they will sell at prices never before offered. Among them are those wonderful

Behr Brothers Pianos

Also Behning & Sons.

They represent also the Knabe, Hazelton, Chickering and many others.

They offer from time to time excellent

BARGAINS IN

Second-Hand Pianos

221 PARK AVENUE.

THE CZAR,

The Handsomest Wheel Ever Produced.

HIGHEST GRADE MADE.

E. FRANK VAIL, Agent,

177 North avenue.

A Spring Gown

is a subject for thought. Haven't you some of last season's dresses that can be made useful? They may need cleaning, or perhaps dyeing—either we do perfectly, and it costs only two dollars or two dollars and a half.

Hillier & Co.

175 North ave.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 Watchung Ave.

DEALERS IN

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement

For walls and ceilings.

STORM DRIVEN.

By "The Duchess," Author of "Molly Bawn," Etc.

Copyright by Bacheller, Johnson & Bacheller.

"Do you know, when I first saw you I thought you were a girl," said he. They were both watching the river down below them as it swirled through the wooden bridge on which they were standing, but now she turned her head slightly, glanced toward him for a moment and laughed.

"And now what do you think me—a boy?"

At this he laughed, too, and, catching her hand, held it fondly between both his own.

"You know what I mean—that I never dreamt of your having been married. You look so young—so tender."

"Like the Boy Billee! Well, if you had dreamt"——

"Oh, no; it would have been just the same." He took his hand from hers only to slip it round her slender shoulders.

"Do you know," said he, "a woman long ago told me that"——

"A woman! What woman?" She shrank a little from him, and this seemed to delight him; jealousy lies in the germs of love. He resisted her attempt at withdrawal from him, brought her closer to him with an actual force that declared the man.

"Nobody I cared for," said he. "It wasn't that sort of person. Clare! You know I never knew what love was till I met you. You do know that." She made the little soft sound of assent that we all know, and that none of us can spell, nodding her lovely head at him the while. "She was a cousin of mine, an elderly person—a widow, by the way, like you." She nodded again, but her smile faded. "Oh!"—breaking off—"it's absurd to think of you as a widow—a little girl like you. You're too young for the part."

"AND NOW, WHAT DO YOU THINK ME, A BOY?"

"Twenty-four is not so very young. One can play many parts before that."

"Still you don't look it, you see? Eighteen would be nearer the mark."

"Even so there have been widows at 18—lucky beings."

"Don't talk like that; I can't bear it. You must have been"——

"Now," with a sudden return of light-heartedness, "don't you talk like that; I can't bear it. My past is past. There let it lie. You know we agreed never to mention it. Now go on and tell me what your cousin, who I hope was elderly, once told you."

"Well, she always said she believed the world was full of separated pairs, and that sometimes they came together in the paths of life, and then were happy; but that too often they did not meet, and so lost all the flavor of living. Well, we," looking at her with passionate tenderness in his eyes, "are two of the happy ones. Eh?"

His young, strong, charming face is looking down into hers, as if seeking an answer that he already knew. Into hers, which was always beautiful, but now glorious with the light of a love she had never dreamt of knowing until—until, having been crushed by fate, and driven past all endurance, she had taken the matter into her own hands—had thrown up the world in which she was stifling, her people, whom many a day she had, in the height of her misery, prayed God to confound—and run away here to this little German village to bury herself forever, if possible. Then it seemed quite possible; it seems so even now.

The only one she could have trusted in her trouble was her brother, Sir Ralph Brooke, but he was in India, and that is a far cry. He might have come home; he would, she thought, but in all probability his coming would have ruined his prospects, and perhaps, after all, he would have recommended peace, where no peace was. She had one other friend, a cousin, who happened to be junior partner in the bank in which her own private fortune was deposited, and who could remit to her from time to time money, as she desired it.

For six months she dwelt on the thought of flight, and then took it. There was a little outcry in her world at first, but no one took any strenuous measures to find her. Her brother in India was written to, and a lawyer consulted. For the rest, her people shrugged their shoulders and said poor Clare was always a little odd, you know, almost impossible, in some ways, and so on. There had been no pursuit, and poor Clare—Mrs. Allingham—had found herself one evening in this little unfrequented German village, and, hailing it as a village of refuge, had folded her tent and stayed there.

And here she had met him. The place was small, out of the way, and only now and then people dropped in to stay a day or so, a week or so at most. Geoffrey Carlton had come for the "day or so," but it was now three weeks since his arrival. He was his own master, and having no regular home anywhere was idling about the Continent, taking his journey to Constantinople—where business matters would require him in a month or six weeks—by slow degrees. Here he and this strange, sweet girl, whom at first it seemed impossible to believe not only a wife but a widow, had met, had looked, and then—had loved.

This little wayside inn was an ideal place for lovers, with its veranda covered with dainty creepers, and its slowly rushing river at the end of it, and its garden, quaint, sweet, natural. Just now, besides Mrs. Allingham and Carlton, there were only three other people—a small, fair girl, with an invalid mother, more of a hypochondriac, perhaps, than anything else, and a young man. These three seemed to be of one party, and that the girl was, in a way, engaged to the man seemed probable. Mrs. Allingham had held herself a little aloof from them, but something in the girl's charm, something of the natural desire for companionship with one's own sex, had made her in a way friendly with her.

* * * * * * *

"What a question," says she, with a little coquettish lifting of her brows, and then all at once her mood changed and her cheek was against his. "Oh, darling! Oh Geoff! If you only knew." Some memory of the past had stirred her—to what?—it seemed like passionate relief and gratitude.

"My dear, dear heart," said he, "you have forbidden me to talk of it. I know, and so I won't, but your past was sad, my darling, wasn't it?"

"But my present!" said she with a tearful laugh, "is not that something; and to-morrow"——

"Ah! to-morrow!" He strained her to him. "To-morrow you will be mine indeed. But will you like Constantinople, my dearest? It will be so different to you. You, who have been accustomed to London and its vagaries. By the way, have you seen the day's paper? That notorious scoundrel, Lord Strangeways, is once more en evidence; you have met him perhaps?"

"YOU LOVE ME, DO YOU NOT?" SAID SHE.

For a moment—only a moment—she caught at the rail of the bridge and looked down. Then, deliberately, she turned her face to his.

"Yes, I have met him."

"You knew him?"

"A little." She trifled with the flower in her hands, letting it fall petal by petal into the river below; such trifling, in clever fingers, hides nervousness.

"Enough, too!" said he with a shrug. "A little of his society would go a far way, I should think. My brother knew him at college; a detestable brute in every way. I see his wife has left him."

"Yes?"

"You know her, too, perhaps?"

"Yes."

"What a cold answer," laughing. "What sort of a woman was she?"

"Oh! I don't know," hurriedly. Her face had paled, but was turned away from him now, and so hidden from him.

"I see," said he. "You did not like her. I can understand that! Fancy your liking a woman who could marry a scoundrel like that."

"She was very young, I heard," said Mrs. Allingham in a strangled tone, her face still averted.

"That's the cry always," returned he, carelessly. "But his wealth must have had something to do with her choice, young as she was. It is only just like you to give her a good word. But it's a bad case all through, I fancy, and I'm not surprised you didn't get on with her. She and you must have been poles apart in every way—in every thought."

A little wind had arisen and was blowing up from the river.

"You are silent, darling. Clare! Have I hurt you?"

"Oh! no, no, no!"

"I have," this with vehement contrition, "I have reminded you of your married life, that, as you say, is past. It is over. Not like that wretched Lady Strangeways. You are free—and to-morrow"——

She turned suddenly.

"Do you know," said she (her voice was faint), "I think I should like to be alone for a little while. Geoffrey, will you"——

"But to leave you like this—you are pale," says he.

"I am quite well for all that. Yes—go." Then suddenly she turned to him, and drawing his face down, looked at him long and earnestly. "You love me—you do," says she.

In a moment she was in his arms, with no one to see them in their silent place save the river and the swaying branches overhead.

"You know it."

"Yes—yes. But," impatiently, "to love is not enough. Any one can love; but to love against—— If," her eyes are always holding his in steadfast glance, "if all the world was against me, would you love me then?"

"I would—I would—my soul," says he.

When she has sent him away, very unwillingly, she still leans against the rails and lets her thoughts run riot. Yes, it is all over! She has quite decided on throwing her past to the winds and giving this new life full play. She is willing to risk everything. One must be hapy some time, if only once in one's life. This is her "once," and she will have it. Be it short or long, a day's joy, or a brief midsummer madness, still she will have it.

And she will be doing him no harm. None! If the worst came to the worst, if he should ever learn the truth, why then, it is she who would suffer, not he. It is she who would go to the wall. He would go free. And, indeed, no one would come to grief, for she would have had her day, and he—a little spasm shakes her—would go, and so end one small episode in his life. But would he?

Oh, no—no. Surely not!

Besides, everything points to the fact that he will never know. To-morrow they will be married, in the little church nestling in the wood below, and after that Constantinople—a good place to hide. And then India; a large field, too. Her spirits rise. No, there is no fear.

(To be continued.)

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at Randolph's drug store.

DEER PARK,

On the Crest of the Alleghenies.

To those contemplating a trip to the mountains in search of health and pleasure, Deer Park, on the crest of the Allegheny mountains, 3,000 feet above the sea level, offers such varied attractions as a delightful atmosphere during both day and night, pure water, smooth, winding roads through the mountains and valleys, and the most picturesque scenery in the Allegheny range The hotel is equipped with all adjuncts conducive to the entertainment, pleasure and comfort of its guests.

The surrounding grounds, as well as the hotel, are lighted with electricity. Six miles distant on the same mountain summit, is Oakland, the twin resort of Deer Park, and equally as well equipped for the entertainment and accommodations of its patrons. Both hotels are upon the main line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, have the advantages of its splendid Vestibuled Limited Express trains between the East and West. Season excursion tickets, good for return passage until October 31, will be placed on sale at greatly reduced rates at all principal ticket offices throughout the country.

One-way tickets, reading from St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Columbus, Chicago and any point on the B. & O. system to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia or New York, or vice versa, are good to stop off at either Deer Park, Mountain Lake Park or Oakland, and the time limit will be extended by agents at either resort upon application, to cover the period of the holder's visit. The season at these popular resorts commences June 22.

For full information as to hotel rates, rooms, etc., address George D. DeShields, Manager, Deer Park, or Oakland, Garrett County, Md. 5-3-4

For Lower Insurance Rates.

The Board of Underwriters Association of this city held a meeting in the Board of Trade Building Friday morning and afternoon, and discussed matters relative to fire insurance in this city. Chief Engineer T. O. Doane, J. C. Pope and other Plainfield citizens went before the board and told some plain facts in reference to Plainfield risks, and why the premiums should be lowered. No action was taken, however, in reference to reducing the rates.

The out-of-town representatives of the companies doing business in the city, who were present at the meeting, were Messrs. Howey, Royal; Howes, London, Liverpool and Globe; Wilson, Hanover; Stephens, Phoenix; Ackerman, Merchants; Hoadley, American; Lisher, Hartford; Salvage, Niagara; Prentiss, Pennsylvania; Carahugh, London and Lancashire; Furnis, Commercial Union; Tallman, Northern.

—S. B. Krom of Madison avenue will deliver a lecture on bacteria, in the Park Avenue Baptist Church Tuesday evening.

Ex-Secretary Longtoft Sued.

Lockport, N. Y., May 6.—Suits have been begun by the Green Blower's association against William Longtoft, its missing financial secretary. The supposed shortage is $3,620.

Death of Lord Selborne.

London, May 6.—Lord Selborne died at his country seat, Blackmoor, Petersfield, yesterday. Although he had long been ill of an internal disease, his death was unexpected.

Union Pacific Negotiations.

St. Paul, May 6.—An attempt was made to settle the Union Pacific receivership trouble out of court, but it is believed that it has failed.

Yesterday's Baseball Games.

At Chicago—Chicago, 3; Louisville, 2. At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 4; St. Louis, 11.

A Lame man is scarcely more than half a man either in comfort or effective work.

Allcock's Porous Plaster cures all sorts of lameness of the back or limbs resulting from strain or taking cold; also congestion of the chest; everything that an external remedy can reach.

Beware of Imitations. Do not be deceived. Insist upon having "ALLCOCK'S."

Allcock's Corn Shields, Allcock's Bunion Shields. Have no equal as a relief and cure for corns and bunions.

Brandreth's Pills remove indigestion, constipation, liver and kidney complaint.

FURNITURE

MOVING

Telephone 121. Office 161 North ave.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS.

J. W. VAN SICKLE, Dealer in all kinds of Fresh and Salt Meats GAME IN SEASON, New No. 122., North Ave., Plainfield. Telephone 148 B. Orders called for and delivered promptly

EDWIN B. MAYNARD Hair Cutting and Shampooing. Tonsorial Parlor, 304 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J. Ladies shampooing and childrens hair cutting a specialty. 10 16 1

BAMBERGER'S "THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE" 147 and 149 Market Street, NEWARK, N. J.

BOYS' CLOTHING.

That boy of yours needs clothing that will stand the romping and jumping and running around that boys always do It's here, made in the right way—wear—resisting, perfect-fitting and sewed strongly.

Four Special lots for this week!

Boys' Knee Pants

Cheviots, worsteds and cassimeres well made with strong waist bands, sizes 3 to 15, usually 89 to 98c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Blouses

Extra quality, white lawn, trimmed with colored insertion, sizes 2 to 8, usually 79c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits

All-wool, fancy trimmed, pants embroidered with bows and buckle, sizes 3 to 7, regular $2.69, at $1.73.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits

Finished in best manner, sizes 4 to 15, with long cut coats, and pants with taped seams, regular $2.89, at $1.98.

L. BAMBERGER & CO., 147 and 149 Market st., Newark. Free delivery everywhere. Prompt attention given to mail orders.

Progressive Plainfield's Progressive Store.

BOYS' SHIRT WAISTS.

Fancy calico plaited front, 6 to 10 years, 19c each.

Striped outing, plaited front, 6 to 10 years, 22c each.

Fancy Cambric, plaited front and back, 6 to 10 years, 25c each.

Fancy duck with pocket, 6 to 10 years, 28c each.

Fancy duck plaited front and back 6 to 10 years, 35c each.

Fauntelroy sailor collar, ruffle front and back, fancy cheviot, 48c each.

French percale, plaited front and back, 6 to 10 years, 50c each.

Van Emburgh & Son!

A LADY'S TOILET Is not complete without an ideal COMPLEXION POWDER.

POZZONI'S

Combines every element of beauty and purity. It is beautifying, soothing, healing, healthful, and harmless, and when rightly used is invisible. A most delicate and desirable protection to the face in this climate.

Insist upon having the genuine.

FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

Neuman Bro's

Specials tomorrow in Fresh Vegetables.

Green Peas, Green Beans, Wax Beans, Asparagus, Tomatoes, Lettuce, Cucumbers, Water Cress, Spinach, Radishes, Rhubarb, Bunch Onions, Oyster Plant, Beets, New Carrots, New Potatoes.

STRAWBERRIES.

MISS E. ROCKFELLOW DRESSMAKING PARLORS, 195 North Avenue. Taylor System. Suits $5 and upward. 5 11 1m

A large variety of all the Latest Styles in Hats and Bonnets can be found at the Millinery Establishment of MRS. L. ADAMS, 111 EAST FRONT STREET. Under First National Bank.

MISS CLARIBEL JEFFERY, teacher of Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar. Best references. 322 W. Front street. Call Wednesdays. 4 25 1m

Ladies' Shirt Waists; laundried waists, many sorts perfectly made, nicely finished, from the 49c kind to the finest; an assortment that is sure to please the most exacting.

White dresses, splendidly made, handsomely embroidered, the best of material at $1 75; for children' 1 year to 6 years, white dresses as low as 29c.

The careful and economizing buyer can be suited in our carpet display. Everything that is newest in designs and colorings. 125 patterns of oilcloths from 45c sq yd Mattings from 10 up 45c; window shades from 18c up. Curtain poles all complete, 19c up.

LEDERER'S

The Kabo High Bust Corset.

Popular with all who desire perfection in shape. Dressmakers prefer them because they secure a perfect fit. Many advantages. Here are a few: Exquisitely long tapering waist. Boned with unbreakable Kabo—no dissatisfaction. Made with soft loop eyelets—no breaking of corset laces or discoloring of undergarments. In all materials. Prices $1.00, $1.25

I. Lederer

There is one DRESS STAY that Won't melt apart, Can't cut through the dress, Don't stay bent. It is BALL'S PEERLESS. All lengths; all colors. Putnam & DeGraw, Seely Edsall, I. Lederer.

Promises!

are easy made and easy broken, we promised you big bargains in dress goods this week. we intend keeping our word 75 pieces of dress goods from the receiver's sale of Jaffray & Co. at a sacrifice 25 pieces all wool cashmere 38 inch 25c worth 50. 10 pieces fancy mixed worsteds 36 inch 25c worth 40 15 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 39c worth 75 8 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 65 worth 90. 5 pieces silk and wool covert cloths 54 inch 95 worth $1 25 5 pieces all-wool serges light shades 65 worth $1 00 complete the dress; we have just what you need. Double faced silesia 10c plain silesias 9c, the best skirt cambrics 5c, fibre chamois different shades 35c. Hair cloth from 10c to 60.

Linings

Corsets

For one week we sell the W. B. corset 5 hook for 68c.

Duck Suits

A duck suit made up in the latest style only 99c; surprising, isn't it?

CAMBRICS

Fast color cambrics 7-8 wide 6c a yard.

A CUT

on every article in our housefurnishing goods department; our 87c hall lamp is sold elsewhere for $1 10.

Millinery.

We still lead in fashionable head wear.

BOEHM'S, 113 WEST FRONT STREET

THE Buying Population in and around Plainfield are awake to the great values we are offering. We never have any trouble selling to those who have visited other stores before calling on us We not only attract trade—we keep it We invite comparison.

POINTERS.

Men's clay diagonal suits in Regent frock, at $10.50.

Men's all-wool suits in long sack, single or double breasted, $3 75, $7 50 and $9.50.

Running water is never stale. Our stock is like a river—always moving.

WERNER'S. Plainfield, N. J.

Revere House

Park Ave, 7th and 8th St.

GEORGE B. DeREVERE & CO.

Thoroughly renovated and now open for transient or permanent guests.

5 1 tf

IT'S A FACT

that we sell Men's and Boys Clothing, Hats, Shirts, Underwear, Ties, etc., cheaper than any house in town. Buying from merchants who are pressed for cash, we buy our goods at our own price and sell them cheap.

Everything sold is fully recommended or money refunded. Boys' School Suits from $1.25; Boys' Long Pants Suits, $2 up; Men's Serviceable Suits $3.50 to $6; Men's Suits for dress wear $5 50 and upwards; Derbys, equal to any $3 hat, at $1.50.

It is to your benefit to examine our goods before buying elsewhere.

Plainfield Bargain House.

J. Goldstein, 126 Park ave.

THE DAILY PRESS

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, MAY 7, 1895. TWO CENTS A COPY. $5 A YEAR.

EX-GOV. GREEN DEAD.

Passed Away in Elizabeth This Morning.

ONE OF JERSEY'S LEADING SONS.

Union County Court Pays a Tribute to the Dead Vice-Chancellor, and Adjourns Out of Respect to His Memory.

Ex-Gov. and Vice-Chancellor Robert S Green of New Jersey died at his home in Elizabeth this morning at 9:30. His death was caused by heart trouble and a complication of other diseases.

The Union County Court expressed grief at the news of his death, appointed a committee to draw resolutions upon his career, and adjourned for the day out of respect to his memory.

Robert Stockton Green was born at Princeton, March 25, 1831, and was in his sixty-fifth year. He was the son of James S. Green, a lawyer and a sturdy Jerseyman, whose father, Rev. Dr. Ashbel Green, was President of Princeton College. Robert's great-grandfather, Rev. Jacob Green of Hanover, Morris County, was chairman of the committee which prepared the first Constitution for the State of New Jersey at the Provincal Congress, held at Burlington in 1776.

Young Robert, after a preliminary training, entered Nassau Hall, from whence he graduated in 1850. He then began to study for the profession of law and was admitted to the bar in 1853 and became a counselor in 1856. While residing in his native place he took a lively interest in its affairs and, in 1852, was elected a member of its Council. He removed to Elizabeth in 1856 and at once became interested in the movement then on foot for the creation of Union County. He was largely instrumental in the passage of the act of 1857, which designated Elizabeth as the county seat.

During 1857 he was appointed Prosecutor of the Borough Courts by Governor Newell, and the following year became City Attorney of Elizabeth, which position he filled with ability for ten years. In 1868 he was elected to the City Council from a strong Republican ward, and so great was his popularity that he continued to hold the office by successive re-elections until 1873, when he retired. He was elected Surrogate of Union County in 1862 and appointed Presiding Judge of the Court of Common Pleas and County Courts in 1868. During the succeeding year he was appointed by Governor Randolph to the Commercial Convention at Louisville as a representative of New Jersey. In 1873 he was appointed by Governor Parker, and confirmed by the Senate, as one of the Commissioners to suggest amendments to the constitution of the State.

In this Convention he was Chairman of the Committees on Bill of Rights, Rights of Suffrage, Limitation of Power of Government, and General and Special Legislation. The amendments suggested by the Commission were adopted by the two succeeding Legislatures and ratified by the people at the general election of 1875.

In 1868 Judge Green was the choice of Union County for Congress, and was only defeated by a few votes in the Convention, two kickers in his own county being the sole cause of his defeat, they voting for John T. Bird of Hunterdon. In 1884 he was nominated for Congress from the Third District, comprising the counties of Union, Middlesex and Monmouth, after a memorable contest. Two Conventions were held, Judge Green being nominated by both. After the first Convention the friends of William McMahon of Rahway, claimed that he had been cheated out of the nomination. Judge Green hearing this, positively refused to accept a nomination that had the slightest cloud of unfairness attached to it. There was nothing left but to reassemble the Convention, when Judge Green was declared its unanimous choice. He defeated Congressman Kean (Rep.) by 1,848 majority.

Judge Green has always been a stanch Jeffersonian Democrat, and was one of the delegates to the Baltimore Convention of 1860, which nominated Stephen A. Douglas for the Presidency, and was a delegate to the National Convention in 1880, which nominated General Hancock. In January, 1874, the Judge became a member of the bar of New York as a partner of the firm of Brown, Hall & Vanderpoel, which afterwards became changed to Vanderpoel, Green & Cuming. Judge Green has been very successful in his profession, and is ranked as one of the ablest constitutional lawyers in the State. He was largely instrumental by his ability and tireless energy in working up the preliminary litigation in the passage of the free railroad bill by the Legislature in 1873, which was the first triumph of popular rights over the oppressive railroad monopoly that then had control of the entire State.

Judge Green had always manifested an active interest in perfecting and keeping up the organization of the Democratic party in his county and State. For several years he served as a member of the Union County Executive Committee from the Seventh ward of Elizabeth, in which he resided. His cool, well-balanced judgment always exercised a powerful influence in the deliberations of this committee, which has to conduct the entire mapping out of the campaign. In personal appearance he was about the middle height, erect and military looking in his bearing, and had a firm, determined expression on his features, indicative of strong will-power. Judge Green married in 1857, and had an interesting family, consisting of one son and three daughters, with whom their father spent most of his time when not engaged in the practice of his profession.

In 1886 he was elected Governor, after a very exciting canvass, by a plurality of 8,020 over ex-Congressman Benjamin F. Howey, Rep., of Warren County. His term expired in 1890, and two years ago he was appointed Vice Chancellor.

READY FOR THE MEET.

Crescent Wheelmen Arranging for the Great Event.

The principal business transacted by the Crescent Wheelmen last night was the selection of the various committees for the Decoration Day meet. After considerable discussion the following were made the members:

Advertising—George Taggart, H. S. Thomas. Reception—F. L. C. Martin, C. H. Dunham, Thomas Cummings. Stages and Transportation—J. A. Haynes, Frank Hand, J. W. VanSickle. Tickets—H. H. Coward, John Petrie, L. G. Timpson. Grand Stand—T. J. Carey, John Crawford, R. C. Williams, George Saunders, Louis Moraller. Police—Patrick Kiely, V. W. Nash, Prizes—A. Saltzman, C. C. Vail, S. P. T. Wilbur.

The matter of securing medals for prizes was also extensively discussed, and left with the prize committee who will endeavor to have local merchants offer prizes for the various events. A subscription paper was started for the purpose of raising the $250 necessary to put the oval in condition, and $100 was immediately subscribed by those present.

The club adjourned to meet Monday, May 20.

AN ADMIRABLE SUGGESTION.

A Day of Field Sports Proposed for Fourth of July.

At the meeting of the Crescent Wheelmen last night John Petrie made the suggestion that field-day reports be arranged to take place on the club oval Fourth of July, to be competed in by local talent. The suggestion was very favorably received by those present, and it is quite probable that a determined effort will be made to consummate the proposition.

Whether or not the city has a celebration Fourth of July, a day of field sports would relieve the usual monotony of the natal occasion so observable in this city in the past, and any such event would be welcomed by many who are compelled to go elsewhere for attractions and recreation, only because it is not provided at home.

Christian Endeavor Sociability.

Last evening was pleasantly spent at the home of Reune Randolph by the members of the C. E. Society of the Seventh-Day Baptist Church and their friends. After games and music, a hearty collation was served, and all declared it a most enjoyable evening and Mr. Randolph the best of hosts.

Among those present were the Misses Burdick, Zelpha Williams, Ramsey, Bessie Randolph, French, Ida Spicer, Mabel Maxson, Bessie Titsworth, Etta Randolph, Evelyn Lewis, Mertie Randolph, Grace Lewis, Lou Clawson, King, Mosher, Ernestine Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Gorton, Mr. Banks, Asa Randolph, Harry Rodgers, Frank French, Stanley Mosher.

The Naval Reserve.

A full attendance was present last night at the meeting of the Second Division of the Battalion of the East. The drill commenced with broadsword exercise and infantry tactics, then the boys were taught several new tricks in knotting, after which there was a business meeting. One Plainfield member was elected.

The men expect to have the ship in a very short time, when the several divisions of the Battalion will meet together in Jersey City.

For Individual Communion Cups.

Stephen A. Krom will lecture on bacteria tonight, in the Park Avenue Baptist Church. The lecture is intended to point out the necessity of having individual communion cups in the churches. Admission is free.

—H. C. McVoy, Chaplain of the New Jersey Division, Sons of Veterans, has issued circulars to all the camps in the division urging them to observe in a proper manner Decoration Day.

I recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. There is no better liniment made. I have sold over 100 bottles of it this year and all were pleased who used it. J. F. Pierson, druggist, South Chicago, Ill. It is for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

TRUST NOT TO CHANCE.

Dr. Mitchell Has No Faith in Accident.

LIFE IS WHAT WE MAKE IT.

If a Man Aims Low, He Gets Low—Singleness of Purpose Achieves Success—The Value of Self-Reliance and Good Manners—Wealth Easy to Attain, But You Can't Be Both a Peacock and a Honey Bee.

The lecture delivered by Rev. Dr Charles Bayard Mitchell in the First M. E. Church last night was mainly a talk to young people, and it is regretted that the younger generation was not more largely represented in the audience. The lecture was full of logical argument and common-sense, convincing to all. In substance Dr. Mitchell said:

"Was it an accident?" No! There is no such thing as accident or chance. In a universe ruled over by a divine providence there is no such thing as happening. No man ever attained anything worthy in life by mere chance. I say to the man who is on the threshold of life, never to think that he is destined to success. Success is a result, which can be caused and discovered. Let us be done with the thought that we will be a success by mere fortune. To succeed there must be four things. First, purpose—There is nothing to be gained except with an aim. It is the man who aims low who gets low. No man ever aimed low and hit high. He who has purpose must have ambition to hold to that thing which he wants to attain.

There are some things we cannot change. We can't change our parentage. Some boys are ashamed of their parents, and think that they could improve on the old man. I feel sorry for such a boy. But I feel still more sorry for the old man. We cannot always decide where we want to be, but we can decide what we want to be. Singleness of aim, oneness of purpose, is what gains success. The men who have accomplished anything in this world are men whose aims have been indisputably connected with the phrase, "This one thing I do". The point I make is the concentration of efforts to one purpose. The great mistake in life with many is their desire to reach out to grasp too many prizes.

There are many young men who aim high in their profession, and yet try to be a butterfly leader of some social function, and then they wonder why they don't succeed. Wealth is one of the easiest things to attain—yes: one of the easiest. I am talking in the face of several Methodist ministers, who have n't two silver dollars to rub together, and they doubtless think, "What is the matter with that fellow, anyway?" But it is a fact. A man can get money if he wants to. But I say ten men can become rich, where only one man can become a second Gladstone.

The second thing is self-reliance. That is, one who does not lean. The young man who succeeds is he who depends not on ancestry but on himself. The only money which is appreciated is that which is gained by our own efforts. He who attains to anything worthy is he who has not been lifted, but he who has climbed. How many young men of wealthy parents ever did anything for their fellow man?

Another element is good manners. Be a gentleman; not a dude. On the other side is where they have the original article. We have only the imitation over here. A dude never does anything, and no tailor can make a gentleman. Good manners, courtesy, and kindly-heartedness are elements that contribute materially to success.

Lastly, true conception of what success is. The world seems to think that he who has greatest wealth or fame is successful. But this is not so. The highest success can be attained by each if one can comprehend and seek it. The truest success is not who we are, but what we are. You will succeed if you aim at the real and highest works.

THE MONDAY CLUB ELECTS.

New Officers Chosen by the Leading Woman's Society of Plainfield.

The annual election and meeting of the Monday Afternoon Club was held in the Casino yesterday afternoon. The following officers were elected: President—Mrs. Isaac L. Miller; vice-presidents—Mrs. Edwin L. Conklin, Mrs. W. H. Sterling, and Mrs. B. J. Shreve; treasurer—Mrs. John Gray Foster; corresponding secretary—Mrs. F. O. Herring; recording secretary—Miss Jessie D. Munger.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at Randolph's drug store.

WHY MONTE SCOTT LOST.

C. E. TEEL SAW THE RACE AND TELLS THE FACTS.

Though the Plainfield Boy Lost First Prize He Captured the Third, and Under the Circumstances Rode the Greatest Race of 247 Riders.

Capt. J. A. Haynes yesterday received a letter from C. E. Teel, who witnessed the Linscot road race at Malden, Mass., and who writes as follows concerning Monte Scott's performance in the race:

"There were 247 starters of which 179 finished. Monte was of course one of the scratch men and rode a grand race, but it was his misfortune to meet with an accident. The course was 12½ miles and return, and seven miles out from the start he punctured his rear wheel and rode on a flat tire to a town called Arlington, where he borrowed an Eagle road wheel, geared at 68, and high handle bars, which gave him no possible position for speed. He then took after the scratch men again and when he turned the stake at the 12½ miles, the checker reports showed him to be 2½ minutes behind the scratch men, but by hard work he overtook them again and passed all but Eddie McDuffie, and they were having it hot, when 2½ miles from the finish, in turning a sharp corner, Monte fell and bent his pedal so badly that it would not clear the crank. Before he could start again, his rival McDuffie got a big lead which Monte could not overcome, but with all his bad luck he was only beaten for time prize by 47 seconds, and succeeded in winning third time prize and finishing number forty-four in the race. The race was finished in hard rain. When the racers came in at the finish you could n't tell whether they were white or black men—they were covered with so much mud and dust. The track, of course, was very slippery and this accounted for Monte's fall at the turn."

The particulars given in the above extract from Mr. Teel's letter plainly show that Monte would have easily beaten every scratch man in the race if he had not encountered the accidents, which he was unable to avoid.

A Borough Ideal Home.

People passing through Washington Park never fail to admire the handsome residence and beautifully kept grounds of C. W. McCutchen. Spring, Summer and Fall, the flowers and plants are chosen to harmonize with nature. Even in Winter, roses, orchids, carnations and violets bloom in profusion in the vast greenhouses. The velvety lawn and carefully-trimmed hedges, give proof of skill and culture. Nothing is lacking to make it one of the finest homes in the borough. Peter Doringer, the gardener, well knows his business. Just now Mr. McCutchen is greatly improving his place by the construction of an elegant stable on his land across the street. He will remove the old stable, and beautify further his grounds.

Councilmanic Discrimination.

The action of the Common Council in refusing without explanation the license application of E. P. Thorn provokes much comment. Mr. Thorn has the reputation of maintaining a remarkably high standard in his line of business, and as long as the Council saw fit to grant license to all the other old-established places, and to saloons of various types through the town, it seems singular that a place which has been kept as law-abiding as Mr. Thorn's should be shut up when the License Committee found his application correct and in accordance with the ordinance requirements. At least, an explanation was due the applicant.

Trolley Transfer.

Owing to the obstruction caused by the work of sewer trenching on West Front street, the trolley cars use the up track between Somerset street and the Grant avenue switch entirely. Cars run in both directions, meeting one another between Madison avenue and New street, where passengers are transferred.

Death of Sherry Fox.

Sherman F. Fox, an insurance expert whose home was in Plainfield, where he was popularly known as "Sherry", died in Chicago yesterday. The body is on its way to Plainfield.

—Contractor Henry Bodenheimer commenced the excavation of the cellar for a new house to be built on Stone street for Charles Hummer.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

THORN LICENSE REFUSED

Council Rejects It by the Vote of 3 to 5.

NO REASON WHATEVER ASSIGNED.

It Was Reported Correct and in Due Form, But Was Effectually Killed—Other Business of the May Session.

The session of the Plainfield Common Council last night was short. Besides the acceptance of minutes and payment of bills the following business was done:

An invitation from the G. A. R. to occupy Music Hall boxes Memorial Day was accepted.

Application for fire hydrants at the west end of West Front street was referred to the Fire Committee.

A communication was received from Albert G. Thorn, and referred to the License Committee, protesting against granting a liquor license to E. P. Thorn, on the ground that his mother's signature had been obtained by cajolery and that she was of unsound mind as stated by Drs. Fritts and Tomlinson, and that said Albert's signature was necessary, he being in control of the property.

Petitions were referred to the Committee on Streets, from the West Seventh Street Protective Association for the improvement of Grant avenue, and from H. A. Weber and others for the improvement of Liberty street.

Chas. Hand, Alonzo Ayres and Peter A. Emmons were exempted on the fire roll.

Edward Willis was made poundkeeper, and Joseph Swick special policeman.

The License Committee reported E. P. Thorn's application correct as to form and conforming to the ordinance. The motion to grant it was lost, without debate. Ayes—Dumont, Frazee, and Westphal—3. Noes—Fisk, Frost, Ginna, Moore, Sec—5.

$4,000 was ordered borrowed for the sewer fund.

Crosswalks were ordered at Plainfield avenue and South Second street and East Sixth street and Franklin place.

The New York and New Jersey Telephone Company was authorized to keep the fire-alarm service in operation at $37.50 a month.

The Fire Committee was authorized to buy 1,200 feet of hose as needed, at 65 cents a foot, and to secure bids for a chemical engine.

Mr. Fisk reported that the street railway matter would be ready at the next meeting.

The Street Committee was instructed to confer with the Board of Health to devise a plan, crematory or otherwise, for sanitary disposal of garbage.

Mr. Fisk moved to reconsider the vote on the Thorn license. The motion was lost, without debate. Ayes—Dumont, Frazee, Westphal, 3. Noes—Fisk, Frost, Ginna, Moore, Sec. 5.

The Council adjourned to May 20.

The Honeymoon.

It is doubtful if a Russian stove would ever have found its way to Plainfield were it not for The Russian Honeymoon, but it will be seen Thursday night with many other articles of Mucovitish character. The samovar, the furs, in fact, a complete Russian peasant's house, with appropriate fittings and furnishings, will be on the stage.

The unavoidable delay in "Faust" last night disappointed many would-be-theatre goers, but everyone will have a chance to get his week's amusement Thursday—that is, everyone who gets to Music Hall in time to obtain seats.

Fire Elections.

The fire companies last night elected officers in accordance with the nominations already published in The Press. The elections were approved by the Board of Engineers and taken to the Council room, but as the polls did not close till 9 the Council had adjourned. The present officers will therefore hold over till the new ones are confirmed by the Council May 20.

To Float the Stars and Stripes.

A 96-foot Michigan pine spar, which has been soaked in salt water for two years, will be erected in the yard of Councilman Charles Fisk on West Seventh street in a few days by Chief T. O. Doane, for a flag pole. It will be surmounted by a three-foot gilded zinc eagle.

From Siam to Plainfield.

Rev. Chalmer Martin of Princeton, for several years missionary in Siam, will speak in the chapel of the Crescent Avenue Church at the service Wednesday evening at 8, on the work in Siam and Laos. All interested are cordially invited.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

DUNELLEN.

Joseph Maire spend Sunday in Cranford.

Oscar Leibe is entertaining his cousin from Newark.

Miss Charlotte Williams spent Sunday with friends in Plainfield.

Miss Louise Zann of New York spent Sunday with Mrs. Elias Milliken.

Miss Mabel VanMiddlesworth of Plainfield spent Sunday very pleasantly with the Misses VanMiddlesworth of High street.

The Misses Staats spent Sunday with the Misses Udhal at Netherwood.

Mrs. Charles Jennings entertained friends from Plainfield Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Dodwell has been entertaining relatives from Manasquan.

Miss Janie Churchhill is entertaining friends friends from out of town.

N. B. Snell called on Plainfield friends yesterday.

Miss Jennie Tingley has returned after a pleasant stay with her cousin Miss Clara Chisiter of Newark.

Miss Josie Trust returned Saturday after having spent several weeks with relatives in New York.

George Taylor was in Plainfield yesterday on business.

Mrs. C. D. Taylor is visiting relatives in Paterson.

Mrs. Charles Carpenter has returned from her visit with Pennington relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sherman Cooley have returned to their home in Flemington after spending several days with Mrs. Geo. Apgar.

Miss Lizzie Reidy has returned from a delightful visit with New York friends.

Miss Louisa Kenluen is visiting friends in Hoboken.

Wm. Waglow spent Sunday with Plainfield friends.

Miss Ruth Fenner returned to her home in Plainfield after a very pleasant visit with Mrs. R. J. Swackhamer.

C. A. Harrison of West Dunellen enjoyed Sunday by a wheeling trip to New Brunswick.

Howard Woolston of Plainfield was in town Sunday.

Charles Apgar of Westfield spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Geo. C. Apgar of High street.

Respect for the Law-Giver.

The Summit Record says: "The apparent cheerfulness with which most of the hotels and saloons in Union County have kept their doors closed since last Tuesday, speaks well for the popular respect for law that the administation of justice in this county has inspired. During the entire period of his service on the bench, now nearly fifteen years, Judge McCormick has dispensed justice with such an even hand, that he has won the admiration of the law abiding classes and the enmity of the foes of good government. That his influence has always been for the good is clearly shown by the readiness with which hotel keepers and saloon keepers have for ten years refrained from even the semblance of a general defiance of the law. It will be many a day before Union County will secure a judge who will command more respect than the present presiding judge of the Union County Court."

Organizing the Somerset Board.

The Somerset County Board of Chosen Freeholders will meet and organize tomorrow at the Court House in Somerville. It is more than probable that the present efficient director, John C. Staats of Franklin, will be re-elected as director. There are several aspirants for the position of clerk, which is now and for several years past has been held by Arthur P. Sutphin of Bridgewater, a pronounced Prohibitionist.

1492.

Rice's Surprise Party in "1492" comes to Plainfield Friday night. Mr. Rice's organization includes an orchestra of soloists, and a mammoth carload of scenic, mechanical, electrical and calcium features. The cast contains a host of European and American specialty artists, including the sensational toe dancer Fleurette, and a mammoth finale chorus.

A Golden Welcome Waiting.

Father O'Connor of Bound Brook, well known in this city, is on a trip through Ireland. Last Sunday his congregation made up a large purse to present to him on his return.

—John H. Spitler, the new proprietor of the Netherwood Hotel, has a force of men now busily engaged in beating the carpets and getting everything in readiness for the opening, June 15.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Worth Co., who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Fort Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad that he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he procured a bottle of it and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

INCOME TAX HEARING

Re-Argument of the Case Before Supreme Court.

Full Bench Present—Large Gathering of Legal Talent Interested in the Arguments—Counsel Attack the Constitutionality of the Law. Say It Should Be Declared Void.

Washington, May 7.—The reargument of the income tax cases began in the supreme court of the United States yesterday in the presence of a large assemblage of law and laity. For the first time since last November there was a full complement of justices on the bench. Justice Jackson took an active interest in the proceedings, and there was apparently nothing to warrant the expectation that he might not be able to undergo the fatigue of the hearing. It was well on toward 1 o'clock when W. D. Guthrie opened the argument for the petitioners, Messrs. Hyde and Pollock, who seek to enjoin the directors of the Farmers' Loan & Trust and Continental Trust companies, of New York, from paying the tax on the dividends declared on the stock of these corporations, and in so doing attack the constitutionality of the law.

Against Direct Taxation.

In submitting the petition for a rehearing, Mr. Guthrie said there was a doubt, not so much as to whether congress had power to tax, but as to its method of taxation. The decision in this case should settle finally and forever the greatest constitutional question ever brought before the court. In the conventions called to ratify the constitution the matter of direct taxes was particularly referred to. Mr. Guthrie then called the attention of the court to the instances where personal property was particularly referred to, in order to show the court that the people understood that taxes on personalty were included in the term "direct taxes." Marshall, in the Virginia convention, explained the term direct taxes when he said: "The objects of direct taxes are well understood, but they are few. Lands, slaves, stock of all kinds, and a few other articles of domestic property."

Tax Laws of the Colonies.

Mr. Guthrie also quoted from debates in the conventions in North Carolina, New York, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, etc., to show that the people did not understand or consider the word "direct" in the constitution applied only to capitation taxes and taxes directly on land. Mr. Guthrie then examined the tax laws of the colonies and states in order to show the familiarity of the delegates with taxes not only upon land and income derived therefrom, but upon personal property or estate and the income and profits thereof. This examination tended to prove that the delegates must have intended to include a tax on personal estate, for otherwise, it must be clear that if they contemplated merely a land tax, they would have used these words.

Land and Personal Property.

No difference in principle between the taxations of land and the taxation of personal property could be suggested which was recognized in jurisprudence. Land had some use, irrespective of its income, but the great body of personal property has no value whatever to its owner, except by reason of the income arising therefrom. Logically, if taxes on rents, issues and profit of real estate are equivalent to taxes on the land itself, and, therefore direct taxes, taxes on the income of personal property as such must be equivalent to taxes on such property and therefore direct taxes.

Invalidates the Whole Act.

Mr. Guthrie then presented the views set forth at some length in the brief upon the contention that as it was clearly the intention of congress to have the law act as a whole upon all incomes, the provisions which are unquestionably void invalidates the whole act. In order to preserve the provisions now remaining the court must strike out words actually used, such as rents, income and product of land.

Court Must Interpret, Not Remodel.

Counsel took the ground that it was impossible for the court to remodel the the act and say that congress would have passed the act without the provisions which it has in terms made an integral part. For the court to do this would be legislating and making a law, not declaring or interpreting it. This contention was enforced by many citations from decisions.

Lack of Uniformity.

The most glaring instance of the lack of uniformity and equality was the exception of selected corporations and institutions under which over $2,000,000,000 of accumulations were relieved from the duty and burden of federal taxation. The real question in the case was whether this act lacks uniformity and creates inequalities, and he said counsel would devote themselves to that question of fact and not to refuting what was so strenuously argued by the government—that the uniformity required by the constitution was merely geographical. Therefore the act of 1864 failed wholly to comply with the constitutional requirement.

Mr. Whitney for the Government.

Mr. Guthrie was followed by assistant attorney general E. B. Whitney in support of the law. Mr. Whitney said the government would suggest nothing further on the subject of tax upon state and municipal bonds than had been set forth in the original argument. It was not necessary, he said, that a law should specify in its terms every exception to which it is subject in order to make it constitutional; otherwise, he submitted, there have been but few valid tax laws passed by the congress. The ruling of the court as to the subject of state and municipal bonds, Mr. Whitney said, did not, in the opinion of the government's counsel, affect the other points involved.

A Student Loses His Eyesight.

Bethlehem, Pa., May 7.—Harry Thatcher, a student in Lehigh university, had his eyesight probably destroyed yesterday afternoon by the explsion of sulphuric and acetic acids while in the labs of the laboratory.

Rich Gold Vein Discovered.

Spokane, Wash., May 7. — News reached here from Trail Creek, B. C., yesterday that a parallel gold vein of great richness has been discovered in the War Eagle mine.

CANNOT DETAIN HER.

Florida Quarantine Officials Try To Hold a Spanish War Ship.

Washington, May 7.—Instructions issued by Secretary Carlisle of the treasury department, make public the interesting fact that state quarantine officers of the state of Florida have been endeavoring to quarantine a Spanish man-of-war specially sent into those waters to keep a lookout for suspected Cuban filibustering expeditions. The official statement of the department is as follows: "Secretary Carlisle has directed the federal authorities at Tampa, Fla., to communicate to the state quarantine authorities his opinion that the United States laws do not warrant the detention of the Spanish cruiser Infanta Isabella on a reported violation of the federal quarantine laws." The cruiser arrived at the entrance to Tampa bay Friday evening. The state authorities fumigated her and it was reported, intended to detain her for five days quarantine under the treasury regulations. The secretary waived this regulation by wire to the collector of customs.

SAYS IT IS BLACKMAIL.

The Widow of the Paul Revere of the Johnstown Flood Accused.

Pittsburg, May 7.—The widow of a man who gained undying fame in the flood at Johnstown, in 1889, is accused of blackmail in an answer to her suit just filed in common pleas court. She is Mrs. Anna Malzi, whose husband was the Paul Revere of that terrific disaster. He rode through the valley of the Conemaugh, warning the people of the coming of the torrent of water and lost his life through his bravery. In her suit Mrs. Malzi claimed she had loaned John Noey, who was a friend of her husband, at various times, about $4,319, and he refused to pay any of the sums back. Noey in his answer relates an entirely different story. He says he received $240 from Mrs. Malzi, which he returned. He says that Mrs. Malzi owes him $3,000, and because he will not give her any more money she has threatened a pretended exposure which he says is an attempt at blackmail.

NEW POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

New York City's Mayor Makes Three Appointments.

New York, May 7.—Mayor Strong yesterday appointed three police commissioners: Andrew D. Parker, O'Brien democrat, to succeed James J. Martin, term expired. Theodore Roosevelt, republican, to succeed Charles H. Murray, removed. Frederick Dent Grant, republican, to succeed Michael Kerwin, removed. The salary of the office is $5,000 a year. If the bi-partisan bill now in the hands of the mayor becomes a law it will fix the terms of the new commissioners, and they will have to be reappointed. Under the present law Parker will get a full term of six years, Grant's term will expire in 1897 and the term of Roosevelt in 1900.

THE TRIPLETS IN LUCK.

Babies Named After the President's Children Receive $500 from Him.

Decatur, Ind., May 7.—Three weeks ago there was born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zerckles, living near this city, three girl babies. The parents named the children Ruth, Esther and Frances. A neighbor of the Zerckles wrote President Cleveland informing him of the facts, and yesterday the father of the children received a draft from the president for $500, to be used for the education of the girls should they live.

TO SUCCEED ROOSEVELT.

The Post of Civil Service Commissioner Offered to Col. Rice.

Washington, May 7. — The rumor which has been for some time in circulation that William G. Rice of Albany will succeed Mr. Roosevelt as civil service commissioner, if he so desires, is confirmed. The president has offered the vacant commissionership to Col. Rice and it is understood that he will accept. Mr. Lyman's successor has not yet been fully determined upon.

DENOUNCES THE SULTAN.

Gladstone Thinks the Armenian Outrages Worse Than the Bulgarian.

London, May 7.—Mr. Gladstone has written a letter to Anglo-Armenian association in which he says: "Apart from local facts, of which I will not speak, the conduct of the sultan and porte in connection with this question has been to my mind worse than their conduct in regard to Bulgaria in 1876."

Strikers Become Riotous.

Haverstraw, N. Y., May 7.—The one hundred men who are on strike in James A. DeGroat's brickyard, at Jones' Point, for more wages, became riotous yesterday. Sheriff Anness, of Rockland county, had to be called out to quell the riot. The strikers refuse to let new men work. The sheriff's posse is now in charge of the yard.

Material for Ship Rope.

Washington, May 7.—Secretary Herbert has advertised for about $20,000 worth of galvanized steel wire and manilla hemp which will be manufactured into rope for ship rigging at the Boston navy yard. Bids will be received until May 21.

Condemn Amusements.

Lancaster, Pa., May 7.—A convention of representatives of the 18th Grand Army posts of Lancaster county, was held here yesterday. Resolutions were adopted condemning the desecration of memorial day by baseball games, picnics and excursions.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spot quite with moderate demand. No. 2 red f. o. b. afloat p. t. quoted at 67¼c.

Corn—Spot quite and a shade weaker. Steamer mixed, 55¼c. afloat.

Oats—Spot weaker leading to a fair trade in white. No. 2 white, 31c.; No. 2 mixed, 32¼a32½c.

Pork—Spot steady but trade quiet. Extra prime nominal, $15.25a$15.50; mess $13.50a$14.00.

Lard—Contracts are dull and irregular. May, $6.85; July $6.92.

Butter—Prime grades remain steady. New butter, creamery, western extras, 19c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 17c.

Cheese—Steady with fair inquiry. State, full cream, large colored, fancy, new, 8c.; common to prime, 6a7½c.

Eggs—Holders of finest marks remain steady on the basis of 13½c, for fancy northwestern.

Potatoes—Old potatoes slow of sale and values barely sustained. State, white stock, per 180 lbs., $2a2.12; Jersey, prime, in bulk, per 180 lbs., $1.75a2.00.

CONCESSIONS BY JAPAN

Not To Hold Liao Tung and Port Arthur.

A Hurried Summons to the Japanese Privy Council—Peace Ratifications May Be Exchanged To-day—Warships of Several Powers Assembling at Chefoo.

Paris, May 7.—The Japanese minister here has informed the minister of foreign affairs, M. Hanotaux, that, deferring to the friendly advice of France, Russia and Germany, Japan has renounced her claim to the permanent possession of the Liao Tung peninsula, including Port Arthur.

Warships Assembling.

Chefoo, May 7.—The warships of several of the powers are assembling here. The situation is regarded as ominous. Already eight Russian warships, including three torpedo boats, are here and more are expected. Another British warship, a French one, an American cruiser, and two German warships have arrived here.

Peace Envoys Off for Chefoo.

Tien-Tsin, May 7.—The Chinese peace envoys have left Taku for Chefoo, where the ratifications of the treaty of peace arranged between China and Japan are to be exchanged to-morrow. It is reported here that Li Hung Chang has been again degraded.

May Ratify To-day.

Yokohama, May 7.—The Japanes privy council and the head officials of the government have been hurriedly summoned to Kioto in order to attend a meeting to-day at headquarters. The exchange of ratifications of the peace treaty is now expected to take place at Chefoo to-day instead of to-morrow as heretofore proposed. Frequent cabinet meetings, which are attended by all the Japanese ministers, have been held at Kioto.

French Cruisers for Chinese Waters.

Toulon, May 7.—The French cruisers Sfax and Cecille will accompany the French cruisers Tage and Suchet to China seas to-day. They are loaded with ammunition and provisions.

Threaten To Mutiny.

London, May 7.—The Central News correspondent in Shanghai says the troops in Liangamo are clamoring for their overdue pay and threaten to mutiny. The commander has appealed to Pekin for money.

British Press Comments.

London, May 7.—The Morning Post will commend Japan for yielding to the demands of the three powers and will condemn Russia, Germany and France for acting in their own interests and ignoring China. "Great Britain," it will say, "was disinterested and equally loyal to both China and Japan." The Daily News will say: "The coalition has made a deplorable mistake in coercing Japan, but it is enough for us to know that we did not share the mistake."

GRESHAM GREATLY IMPROVED

Absolute Quiet and Freedom from Work Prescribed for Him.

Washington, May 7.—The condition of Secretary Gresham has improved greatly. Absolute quiet and freedom from official worry have been prescribed by his physician. It is likely that the secretary will not be able to leave his apartments for some time, but when he is sufficiently convalescent to do so he will be taken west for a long rest.

Morgan Taken to Prison.

Fredericksburg, Va., May 7.—Charles A. Morgan, alias Morganfield the Aquia Creek train robber, escorted by the sheriff and two guards was taken from here to Richmond to the penitentiary yesterday to begin serving his eighteen years term. Morgan spent the greater part of the night cursing and swearing, and once when Searcy, his alleged accomplice, passed his cell, threw a lump of coal at him.

Reduced Output of Copper.

Lake Linden, Mich., May 7.—Furnaces Nos. 4, 5 and 12 of the Calumet and Hecla smelters, at South Lake Linden, closed down this morning for the season. The Calumet and Hecla is mining and sampling less rock and smelting less mineral than for several years, in pursuance of a policy of restriction agreed to by the principal copper producers.

Joint Tariff Debate.

New Haven, May 7.—The Citizen club of Middleton, Conn., has arranged for a joint debate on the tariff question on next Saturday evening between ex-Representatives M. D. Harter of Ohio and R. G. Hoar of Michigan. The Wesleyan University Glee club is to furnish music, and Gov. Coffin will preside.

Turtle Mountain Indian Troubles.

Washington, May 7.—Acting Commissioner Smith received the following dispatch yesterday from Ralph Hall, Indian agent at the Turtle Mountain reservation: "I think the trouble is settled. The Indians have surrendered, and the mob has been disarmed without bloodshed."

Newspaper Changes Hands.

New York, May 7.—The Morning Journal of this city has been bought by John R. McLean proprietor and publisher of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c. per box. For sale by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A VETERAN'S STORY.

Gen. Catlin Praises Munyon for His Great Work.

His Restoration to Health Due to the Wonderful Little Sugar Pellets.

General A. B. Catlin, formerly Deputy Surveyor of the port of New York, is a veteran of the army and a well-known Republican politician.

"I have been troubled with catarrh for many years," said General Catlin, "I doctored for it a great deal, but did not obtain any material relief, and this winter my condition was terrible. I took cold easily, and my nose became stopped up I had severe pains across the front of my head, my eyes became watery. I sneezed a great deal, and my bones and joints ached continually. When I got up in the morning my throat was filled with a nasty slime, which dropped there during the night. I had to hawk a great deal, and this made me gag and often vomit. There was a roaring or buzzing sound in my ears, and my breath was very offensive. I lost my appetite, ran down in weight, and became depressed in spirits.

"I tried thoroughly several of the best physicians, so-called, in New York, took patent nostrums of all descriptions, but grew worse all the time.

"Finally, I began Munyon's Catarrh Remedies. I thought it was no use, and had but little faith, but I began to improve right away. My disease rapidly yielded to the remedy, and I underwent a change that was wonderful. Within a short time I was entirely cured, the last traces of the hideous disease had vanished, and today my friends are marveling at the great change in me. It is a wonderful relief to feel strong and healthy again, and it gives me great pleasure to testify that my restoration to health is due to Munyon's Catarrh Remedy."

Munyon's Homoepathic Remedy Co. put up a cure for nearly every disease.

No matter what your disease or how many doctors have failed to cure you, step into the nearest drug store and get a 25-cent vial of Munyon's Remedies. It will benefit you.

Those who are in doubt as to the nature of their disease should address Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch st., Philadelphia, giving full symptoms of their disease. Professor Munyon will carefully diagnose the case and give you the benefit of his advice absolutely free of all charge. The Remedies will be sent to any address on receipt of retail price.

THE Bee Hive.
"KIDS."

Ladies' 4 button kid gloves in tans and slates 65c.

Foster hook kid gloves in all the new shades, the 98c quality, 75c.

Children's kid gloves, a good glove, 69c.

Men's kid gloves, every pair warranted, $1.

MEN'S CAMBRIC SHIRTS.

Men's cambric shirts, laundried, collar and cuffs attached, 50c.

Men's laundried shirts, white body and fancy bosom, 48c.

Men's laundried shirts, white body and colored bosom and cuffs 65c.

Louis Callman,
222 West Front st.

FOR SALE CHEAP!

A large assortment of Geraniums, Coleus, Salvias, Roses, Casino clematis, Palms and Rubber trees. Also 3000 Privet hedge plants, and a general collection of hardy plants and shrubs, at

DENTON'S
131 Hillside Avenue.

Photo Material.

PLATES AND PAPER,
at
Reduced Prices.
R. C. RAND,
140 West Front st.

Writes every letter in sight of operator. Does most of the work, in writing AUTOMATICALLY, and yields in the time thus saved additional work.

It acts as if it studied the convenience of the operator at every turn, and thereby lightens his labor and renders him capable of doing more.

It has a knack of keeping well, and is always ready at critical or other times.

These are some of the reasons why it is different from all other writing machines.

The catalogue tells you more about it. FREE.

Columbia Typewriter Mfg. Co,
307 Broadway, New York.
1 5 6m

MOSLER SAFE CO.,
contractors to the United States Government
Mosler Patent Safes,
(fire and burglar-proof) in general use
All Over the World.
Lowest prices. Drop a postal to
S. W. CLARK,
General Agent,
118 West 5th st., Plainfield, N. J.
and he will call and give special attention and information.
Large assortment of second-hand safes in first-class condition at low prices.

CONFECTIONS
Fresh, and from Pure Materials,
TIER'S,
116 Park avenue. 4 11 tf

CHOICE
Lawn Seeds, Garden Seeds, and Fertilizers.
Lawn mowers repaired.
Plumbing, Tinning and Hardware.
A. M. GRIFFIN,
129 East Front St.

GEO. J. TOBIN,
187 North avenue.
Practical Plumber!
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer
TELEPHONE CALL 158a. 12 15 tf

Plainfield Machine Works,
Manufacturers of
Steam Engines,
Electric Motors and Dynamos. Shafting and mill work generally. Jobbing in all its branches. Prompt attention given to repairing of steam engines, boilers, bicycles, etc. Piping in all its branches.
GIVE US A CALL.
N. C. MAGUE, Manager.
Works corner Richmond and East 3d street, Plainfield. 4 13 tf

Tel. 29B Established 1878.
ADDIS & SON,
PLUMBING AND HOT WATER HEATING.
Have your plumbing system tested with the smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.
Opp Roberts' Livery 122 North Ave

H. Eggerding,
121 PARK AVENUE.
Manufacturer of the celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars. 11 9t

Telephone 58
Ring it up when you want good coal, and talk to
Geo. D. Stevens

SPRING TERM
..OF THE..
Rockview Home & Day School
Opens April 15.
Kindergarten, Primary and Intermediate Departments. For terms and particulars apply to the Misses Peck, 317 East Front street.

FLORIST.
A. E. LINCOLN, 226 Park avenue,
has just received an elegant assortment of rare ferns and other plants. Also will have a fine assortment of flowering plants, azaleas, lilies, etc., for Easter. Large assortment of choice cut flowers daily. Floral design work for all occasions a specialty.

SMALLEY'S CASH MARKET.
(Estate D. L. Smalley.)
94 Somerset, Corner Race Street.
GEO. EGEL, Manager.
We sell only first-class goods, at low prices, for cash. Orders called for and delivered. 12 19 t

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume, Ag't.
50 BROADWAY, cor. 6th St.
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
OFFICE, 113 AND 115 NORTH AVENUE.
In best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
ROSSER AND DARRELL LUMBER.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for TURNING and SCROLL SAWING and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and shortest notice.

WALL PAPER, WALL PAPER!
Wall Paper Bargains.
5c, 6c, 8c, 10c ROLL.
Also all the best papers for the fine trade. Competent men employed to hang our papers.
RUGS, WINDOW SHADES, MOULDINGS,
PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES, KALSOMINE.
TINTING COLORS, ARTISTS' MATERIALS, CIGARS.
LOVE,
Corner North and Watchung aves.

Fine Dairy Butter.....15c. lb
Best Dairy Butter.....18c. lb
Best Elgin Creamery Butter..20c. lb
V. L. FRAZEE,
151 West Front St.

EDUCATIONAL.
Afternoon Class for Young Ladies
Three times per week. Higher English Branches, French and Music. For terms apply MISS FAWCETT,
25 Washington ave

JAMES E. BAILY,
97 Jackson avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Trucking of All Kinds Done.
Two and four-horse vans and trucks. Particular attention given to moving furniture and pianos. Satisfaction guaranteed. 5 25 tf

Hotels and Saloons.
Madison Avenue HOTEL,
Madison Avenue and 58th St.,
NEW YORK.
$3 per day and up. American Plan.
Fireproof and first-class in every particular. Two blocks from the Third and Sixth avenue elevated railroads.
The Madison and 4th Avenue and Belt Line cars pass the door.
H. M. CLARK, Prop.
Passenger elevator runs all night.

HOTEL GRENADA,
North Avenue.
Now open for the reception of guests; under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public. 5-13-t

CITY HOTEL.
Plainfield, N. J.
COR. PARK AVENUE AND SECOND STREET.
J. H. BERRDOWER, Proprietor.
With stables attached. 457

A. Lusardi,
No. 120 North Ave.,
Will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c. quart.
Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets

Skilled Workmen

are even more essential in hanging paper than they are in the doing of many other things. We employ the best and most capable men in this department and guarantee the best possible results. Do not spoil the effect of pretty paper by improper hanging.
Marsh, Ayers & Co.,
141 East Front st.

BRIAR PIPE GIVEN AWAY

WITH EVERY ONE POUND bale OF

DUKES MIXTURE for 35 cents

Every pipe stamped DUKES MIXTURE or ATC

2 oz. PACKAGE 5¢

DIRECTIONS for using CREAM BALM

Apply a particle of the Balm well up into the nostrils. After a moment draw a strong breath through the nose. Use three times a day, after meals preferred, and before retiring.

CATARRH

COLD IN HEAD

ELY'S CREAM BALM opens and cleanses the nasal passages, allays pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from colds, restores the senses of taste and smell. The Balm is quickly absorbed and gives relief at once. Price 50c. at druggists or by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION

The Civil Service Commission at Washington has ordered that an examination be held in this city on Saturday, June 1, 1895 commencing at 9 o'clock, a. m., for the grades of clerk and carrier in the city postoffice. Only citizens of the United States can be examined. The age limitations are as follows: For carrier, not under 21 nor over 40; for all other positions, not under 18 years. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed with the undersigned in complete form, on the proper blank, before the hour of closing business on May 15, 1895.

The Civil Service Commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens who may desire to enter the postal service, without regard to their political affiliation. All such citizens, whether Democrats or Republicans, or neither, are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to their political views, or to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination.

For application blanks, full instructions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, apply at the postoffice to

G. C. GODOWN,
Secretary Board of Examiners.

See What $1.00 Will Do AT THE

Plainfield Tea and Grocery Co.

106 E. FRONT ST.,

H. S. WILLIAMS, Manager.

All Goods Warranted as Represented.

1 lb. Special Mixed Tea,	50c.
1 lb. Coffee, -	32
Quarter lb. Pepper,	10
One Can Corn, -	10
One Can Tomatoes, -	10
One Can Pease, -	10
One Can Milk -	10
One Paper Corn Starch,	10
One Paper Cocoanut,	10

☞ $1.52

Cut out this Coupon and bring it and $1 to our store and get all the above articles for $1 Cash!

H. Hand,

LICENSED AUCTIONEER.

15 YEARS EXPERIENCE.

residence and postoffice address

SCOTCH PLAINS, N. J.

Office in Plainfield at Terrill & Cole's livery, 200 West 2d st. 1 12 tf

W. K. McCLURE,

Counselor-at-Law.

SUPREME COURT COMMISSIONER.

First National Bank Building.

W. R. Codington's

LAW OFFICES,

Corner Park avenue and Second street.
Solicitor and Master in Chancery.
Notary Public.

The sign on the windows reads

Woolston & Buckle,

Paper Hangers.

We have had the door hinges and latch oiled up so that getting in is easy. So also is the getting out.
Prices are so low on Wall Papers that you will buy before you go.

CUBA'S PROCLAMATION

Its Tone Is Calm and Very Moderate.

Wanton Violence Will Not Be Permitted—The War Not Against Resident Spaniards—No Fear of an Uprising of the Negroes—The Best Friends of the Revolution.

New York, May 7.—The proclamation of Jose Marti and Maximo on behalf of the Cuban revolutionary party, copies of which have been sent throughout Cuba and Spanish America, states that the war is not against the Spaniards resident in Cuba, and asserts that the neutrality of all such shall be respected. It disclaims any fear of an uprising or any disturbance among the negro race, declaring that the negroes will be found among the best friends of the revolution. It states that the war will be conducted in a rational manner and that wanton bloodshed will not be indulged in.

Friendship to Friendship.

"It continues: "In the Spanish inhabitants of Cuba the revolution, which does not flatter or fear, expects to find such affectionate neutrality or material aid that through them the war will be shorter, its disasters less, and more easy and friendly the subsequent peace in which father and son are to live. We Cubans commence the war, the Cubans and the Spaniards together will terminate it. If they do not ill-treat us, we will not ill-treat them. Let them respect and they will be respected. Steel will answer to steel, and friendship to friendship.

Welcome to Spaniards.

"In the bosom of the son of the Antilles there is no hatred; and the Cuban salutes in death the Spaniard whom the cruelty of a conscript army tore from his home and hearth and brought over to assassinate in manly bosoms the freedom to which he himself aspires. But rather than salute him in death, the revolution would like to welcome him in life. The republic will provide with a peaceful home all the honorable and thrifty Spaniards who are able to enjoy a liberty and welfare which they themselves cannot acquire for a long time to come, with the slothful indifference and the political vices of their own country. This is the heart of Cuba, and such will be the war.

An Appeal To Cuban Honor.

"To-day in proclaiming at the portals of our venerated country the spirit and doctrines which produced and encouraged this humanitarian war, in which the people of Cuba, invincible and indivisible, unite themselves still more firmly, be it allowed us to invoke that honor which will prohibit the Cubans from wounding by word or deed those who are going to die for them."

Campos Confident of Victory.

Madrid, May 7.—Gen. Martinez Campos has cabled that he is certain of a speedy triumph over the Cuban insurgents.

LIEUT. GALLEGOS'S EXECUTION.

The Spanish Officer and Four Others Put to Death.

New York, May 7.—Passengers on the Ward line steamer Seneca, from Havana, just arrived, bring the story of the execution at Morro Castle of Lieut. Gallegos, of the Spanish army. Gallegos was in command of a detachment of government troops near Santiago two weeks ago. While he was in a wine house with several inferior officers the rebels swooped down on the party and disarmed them. When the Spanish soldiers, bereft of arms, reached their headquarters they reported that they had lost there arms in battle. Investigation brought out the facts, however, and Lieut. Gallegos and four other officers were sent to Havana and executed.

Spanish Troops Dying by Hundreds.

A passenger said that reports received in Havana before the Seneca sailed were to the effect that the Spanish troops were dying by the hundreds of yellow fever. There were, he said, at least 10,000 well armed and hardy Cubans in the field.

Ward Convicted and Fined.

Watertown, Conn., May 7.—The trial of Dr. C. Art Ward, of Mountaindale farm, was concluded here yesterday, and Ward was found guilty and a fine imposed. An appeal was taken. The case was prosecuted by the Connecticut Humane society, and developed a number of instances of gross neglect of cattle and swine during the winter just passed.

Business Boom in Ohio.

Cleveland, O., May 7.—A dispatch from Youngstown, O., says: All the mills and furnaces were running to-day for the first time in two years, and orders are reported brisk. Not much iron is being reported as stocked, but large shipments are being made to all parts of the United States.

Not Entitled to the Land.

Washington, May 7.—Secretary Hoke Smith has decided that the state of South Dakota was not entitled to take up 50,000 acres of land in the Yankton Sioux reservation in that state, the proclamation for opening which lands is now in the hands of the president for his signature.

Extension of Time Granted.

Washington, May 7.—The secretary of the interior has issued an order granting an extension of time for the payment of the first installment of the purchase money for ceded Indian lands in North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Montana, Idaho and Oklahoma territory.

Election Results at Winsted.

Winsted, Conn., May 7.—The election yesterday resulted in the republicans carrying the town by 225 majority. The battle for chief of police between Stephen Wheeler (rep.) and C. C. Middlebrooks (dem), brothers-in-law, resulted in Wheeler's election by 89 majority.

Gold Reserve.

Washington, May 7.—The treasury gold reserve was increased to $91,644,193 yesterday, a gain of $425,000 for the day. The gain represents gold paid in by the Belmont-Morgan syndicate.

Carl Vogt Dead.

Geneva, May 7.—Carl Vogt, the famous German naturalist, is dead in this city. He was in his 82d year.

TO BE RELEASED TO-DAY.

Probably the End of the Wilde Matter Has Been Heard.

London, May 7.—Oscar Wilde has succeeded in finding the sureties required of him by Justice Pollock, who has signed an order for his release. Wilde, it is announced, will be released from custody to-day. He will probably leave London at once for the seaside. The statement of C. F. Gill, counsel for the prosecution, that Wilde would undoubtedly be retried at the next session, was made without the authority of the public prosecutor. It has not been decided whether the government will take steps to have Wilde again placed on trial. They are willing that he should be again arraigned, but it is understood that the heads of the church and many other eminent persons urge upon the government the fact that much harm would be done to the public morals by the adoption of such a course, referring to the reprinting of all of the pernicious details of the case. In the meantime the police are ordered not to maintain too close a watch upon Wilde's movements and not to prevent him from going to the continent if he wishes to go there.

RETURN OF JABEZ BALFOUR.

Extraordinary Precautions Taken by the British Police.

London, May 7.—Extraordinary precautions were taken upon the arrival at Southampon on board the steamer Tartar Prince from Buenos Ayres, of Jabez Spencer Balfour, the ex-member of parliament, whose extradition from the Argentine Republic was obtained after great dely on the charge of fraud in connection with the collapse of the Liberator Building society and other concerns connected with it. The steamer was met off Calshot castle by a police tug, upon which Balfour was taken ashore. Great pains were taken to prevent the public from discovering where the prisoner was to be landed, as it was feared that an attempt on his life might be made. He was quickly driven to Bow street, where he was remanded until May 9.

DON'T WANT VIRGINIA TROOPS.

Gov. McCorkle Declines the Offer of Assistance in Case of Rioting.

Parkersburg, W. Va., May 7.—Governor McCorkle has reached here en route east. His information from the coal regions indicated that everything passed off quietly yesterday, the great miners' meeting proving a dismal failure, less than 1,000 striking and less than a dozen joining the union. Regarding the action of Governor O'Farrell offering to send Virginia troops into the state, Governor McCorkle said that he had notified that officer that under no circumstances could he allow Virginia troops to exercise military functions upon West Virginia soil. He is prepared with very few hours' notice to have the entire national guard of this state at the scene of the trouble.

THE CASE OF FUENTZ.

The Detained Correspondent Now Seeking Aid from Washington.

Washington, May 7.—The case of Fuentz, the alleged New York newspaper correspondent arrested near Santiago de Cuba for complicity in the Cuban insurrection, was laid before the state department yesterday with the request that steps be taken to secure his release. Fuentz, according to the claim, is a native born citizen of the United States and a resident of New Jersey. The state department asked for additional details on which to base negotiations with the Spanish government.

COUNT KALNOKY'S RESIGNATION

Refusal of the Austrian Emperor To Accept It.

Vienna, May 7.—Emperor Francis Joseph has sent an autograph letter to Count Kalnoky declining to accept the latter's resignation as imperial minister for foreign affairs, tendered on Saturday as a result of the trouble following the utterances of the Papal Nuncio against the ecclesiastical bill and the statement of Baron Banffy, the Hungarian prime minister.

Evacuation of Corinto.

Washington, May 7.—Official confirmation of the evacuation of Corinto by the British has been received at the state department from Minister Baker. The dispatch was filed at Cuesta Mara, Costa Rica, and merely contained the information that the Nicaraguan differences had just been adjusted, and that the British vessels had left.

Yesterday's Baseball Games.

At Pittsburg—Pittsburg, 12; Brooklyn, 1. At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 4; New York, 3. At Louisville—Louisville vs. Philadelphia game postponed. At Cleveland—Cleveland vs. Baltimore game postponed. At Chicago—Chicago, 4; Washington, 0. At St. Louis—St. Louis, 6; Boston, 8.

Against Olympic Club.

New Orleans, May 7.—The Supreme Court has decided against the Olympic club, knocking out the fights before that institution. This is the second opinion in the case the court having on the first hearing remanded the matter.

Morey Gets the Seat.

Albany, May 7.—George E. Morey, republican, was last night declared by the assembly to be entitled to the seat hitherto held by Stephen S. Blake, Tammany, from the 25th New York district. The vote was 78 to 23.

The Price of Spirits Advanced.

Chicago, May 7.—Receiver McNulta of the Distilling & Cattle Feeding company has announced an advance of 2 cents a gallon in the price of spirits, ascribing the change to the increased price of corn.

Alert at San Juan del Sur.

Washington, May 7.—A cablegram has been received at the navy department announcing the arrival of the Alert at San Juan del Sur, Nicaragua. The dispatch says "all well and all quiet."

Land Grabs Decision.

Washington, May 7.—The secretary of the interior has rendered an important decision limiting land grabs in the vicinity of Salmon river in Alaska, under the act of March 3, 1891.

Another Mind Made Easy.

Washington, May 7.—A conscience contribution of $100 from Syracuse, N. Y., has been received at the treasury department.

Buffalo's Population.

Buffalo, May 7.—The police census as reported to the board of aldermen shows a population of 335,709.

SHORTLIDGE RELEASED

Required To File a Peace Bond in $5,000.

Must Not Annoy the Mother or Brother of His Murdered Young Wife—Considered Entirely Sane Now and Safe from a Return of His Former Trouble.

Chester, Pa., May 7.—The case of Prof. Swithin C. Shortlidge, the murderer of his pretty young wife, whose release from the Norristown insane asylum was asked for, was heard by Judge Clayton at the court house yesterday, and after taking the testimony of an expert and others, the court released the defendant, but required him to file bonds in $5,000 to keep the peace toward Mary Jones and her son, the mother and brother of the murdered wife.

Shortlidge Entirely Cured.

W. B. Brochall and Garrett Smiley, appeared as counsel for Prof. Shortlidge. Their client sat by the lawyers looking in good health and apparently as well as at any time for years. The first witness was Dr. Richardson, of the Norristown insane asylum, who was questioned very closely by the court. He stated that Prof. Shortlidge was entirely cured; that he considered him perfectly sound mentally and there was no further need for his retention. There was no danger, in his opinion, of a return of his trouble, as he did not know of a case of that form of melancholia returning or repeating itself.

The Judge Satisfied.

Judge Clayton tested the witness in various ways and his opinion was unchanged. The court said that he had given unusual thought to the matter and was satisfied that as long as the defendant's health was good there would be no trouble, but he would require bondsmen to justify in the sum of $5,000, and any indication of returning trouble would result in the defendant's arrest.

They Fear Him.

Mrs. Mary A. Jones, mother of the murdered woman, said that she was mortally afraid of Shortlidge and that both she and her son, the Rev. Henry Dixon Jones, would be subjected to ill treatment by him. This statement caused the judge to demand the peace bond.

Shortlidge's Crime.

On New Year's morning, 1894, Prof. Shortledge asked his recently wedded wife to go for a walk with him. Prof. Shortledge had recently recovered from the grip and had been acting strangely. His wife went with him, and in a lonely part of the road, Shortledge suddenly shot her dead. As far as has ever been learned the murder was without provocation, and afterward Shortlidge's behavior was that of a maniac. He was tried, adjudged insane and committed to the insane asylum, from which he has just been released.

DR. BUCHANAN'S CASE.

Gov. Morton Not To Interfere Further in the Matter.

Albany, May 7.—Col. Ashley W. Cole says that Gov. Morton would take no further action in the case of Dr. Buchanan, condemned to death for wife murder. It was thought that the governor would grant another respite this week, inasmuch as Attorney General Hancock refused to advise Warden Sage to execute Dr. Buchanan next Wednesday. Col. Cole said that the governor would not do it. "The matter is now in the hands of Warden Sage, District Attorney Fellows and the attorney general," said he. "They must get out of the tangle in any way which they may determine best."

No Execution To-morrow.

Sing Sing, May 7.—Warden Sage said to-day that, acting on the advice of Attorney-General Hancock, he had abandoned the idea of putting Dr. Buchanan to death to-morrow. The second respite by Gov. Morton will expire at that time, but owing to the legal muddle the execution, according to the opinion of the attorney-general, must be delayed till the courts again decide the questions raised by Buchanan's lawyers.

Harry LeGrand Cannon Dead.

New York, May 7.—Harry LeGrand Cannon, the well-known amateur artist, died yesterday at his home, 60 Fifth avenue. His death resulted from an abcess on the brain. He had been ill only a few days and his death was a surprise to his family and friends. He was a member of the Knickerbocker, Calumet, Union League, Metropolitan, Lawyers', Tuxedo, Aldine and republican clubs, and of the Sons of the Revolution.

Frauds in Valuation.

Philadelphia, May 7.—In the reappraisements of decorative chins and cut and decorated glassware shipped to this port by A. B. Daniell & Sons, of London, undervaluations have been discovered. It is believed that they have involved losses of $150,000 per annum, and that the fraud has been going on for at least ten years.

Smalley's Sendoff.

London, May 7.—Harold Frederic, correspondent of the New York Times, presided at the farewell dinner given in the Holborn restaurant to George W. Smalley, the retiring correspondent of the New York Tribune. Among the guests were Ambassador Bayard, Lord Chief Justice Russell, Justice Jeune and Bret Harte.

College Athletes To Meet.

Amherst, Mass., May 7.—The meeting of the managers and captains of the Amherst, Dartmouth and Williams baseball, football and athletic associations will be held in Amherst to-night to consider and take action on the formation of a new triangular league in all the departments of athletics.

O'Donnell Knocks Out Kilrain.

Coney Island, May 7.—The fight last night between Kilrain and Steve O'Donnell resulted in a victory for O'Donnell in the 21st round.

Florida's Anti-Prize Fight Bill.

Tallahassee, Fla., May 7.—The senate has passed the anti-prize fight bill. It now goes to the house, where it will pass without doubt.

KARL'S CLOVER ROOT PURIFIES THE BLOOD

IT GIVES FRESHNESS AND CLEAR SKIN.

CURES CONSTIPATION INDIGESTION DIZZINESS ERUPTIONS ON THE SKIN BEAUTIFIES THE COMPLEXION

$1.50 FOR A CASE IT WILL NOT CURE

An agreeable Laxative and Nerve Tonic. Sold by Druggists or sent by mail. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per package. Samples free.

KO NO The Favorite TOOTH POWDER for the Teeth and Breath, 25c.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cts. Sold by Druggists.

SHILOH'S CURE.

THIS GREAT COUGH CURE promptly cures where all others fail. For Consumption it has no rival; has cured thousands, and will cure you, if taken in time. Price 25 cts., 50 cts., $1.00.

Sold by all druggists. 3 14 y

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE IS THE BEST. FIT FOR A KING.

$5. CORDOVAN, FRENCH & ENAMELLED CALF.

$4 $3.50 FINE CALF & KANGAROO.

$3.50 POLICE, 3 SOLES.

$2.50 $2. WORKINGMEN'S. EXTRA FINE.

$2.50 $1.75 BOYS' SCHOOL SHOES.

LADIES.

$3 $2.50 $2 $1.75 BEST DONGOLA.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE. W. L. DOUGLAS, BROCKTON, MASS.

Over One Million People wear the W. L. Douglas $3 & $4 Shoes

All our shoes are equally satisfactory. They give the best value for the money. They equal custom shoes in style and fit. Their wearing qualities are unsurpassed. The prices are uniform,—stamped on sole. From $1 to $3 saved over other makes. If your dealer cannot supply you we can. Sold by

A. WILLETT & SON

A full assortment of Stationery!

AT

HARPER'S,

411 Park ave.

L. A. HUMMER. L. B. MULFORD.

Hummer & Mulford,

VARIETY MARKET,

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, Etc.

236 PARK AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Telephone call, 29 A.

Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge. 6 13

Your valuables will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

LOCK BOXES

From $3.50 to $10.00 a year.

M. Powers & Son,

[Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75

In the yard. A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office, 163 South Avenue.
Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Climax Stopper Co.,

Machine Works,

Corner of Washington and 4th streets, manufacturers of bicycle specialties. Electric and special machinery, experimental work, tools, etc. Contractors for electric light wiring, telephones, burglar alarms, etc. 4 13 3m

TRY DOBBINS'S CIGARS.

30 PARK AVE.

He Manufactures Them

THOS. MARLEY,

(Nineteen years with M. Quinn)

BLACKSMITH,

845 Richmond st., near Watchung ave 4 25 7

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 2562, Knights of Honor.—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the First and Third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.

John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Court Pride of New Jersey, No. 9096, Ancient Order of Foresters of America, meets in K. of P. Hall, No. 109 West 24 st., first and third Tuesday evenings in each month.

Samuel J. Flynn, Chief Ranger.
Samuel H. Langer, Fin. Sec. 9 28 y

Anchor Lodge, No. 168, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays in the Babcock Building.

C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Secretary.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Masonic Hall, East Front street.

D. C. Adams, W. M.
Chas. Yeager, Secretary.

Plainfield Council, No. 712, Royal Arcanum.—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the Second and Fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward's Building, Park avenue, at 8 P. M.

A. M. Rue, Regent.
E. A. Thorne, Secretary.

H. DeMOTT,

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER,

69 Somerset Street, Plainfield, N. J.

Short Vacations

For busy people by the beautiful new steamships of the Old Dominion Line.

To Old Point Comfort

[Hygeia Hotel]

Or Virginia Beach, Va.

[Princess Anne Hotel] may be made for

$16 Old Point Comfort, $16 Virginia Beach, $17 $17

INCLUDING EVERY EXPENSE,

of meals and berths enroute, and a day and a quarter's board at the hotels.

These trips are ideal, as a considerable portion is made through the quiet waters of the famous Hampton Roads and there is little likelihood of seasickness.

Also tickets on sale, with privilege of going or returning by rail.

Write for particulars of these and other delightful trips to

Old Dominion S. S. Co.,

Pier 26, North River, New York.
W. L. Guillaudeu, Vice Pres. and Traffic Manager. 11 26 6m

L. L. MANNING.

Marble and Granite Works

Cor. Central Ave. and Front st., opp. First Baptist Church.

Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

M. M. DUNHAM,

Real Estate and Insurance.

7 East Front Street.

CUT ROSES, CARNATIONS AND VIOLETS !!

Flowers furnished for weddings, funerals, etc., in bunches, bouquets or design.

MILLS,

Somerset st., Johnston's drive, terminus of electric railroad. 5 17 tf

Prof. A. Wehner,

TEACHER OF THE PIANOFORTE.

ALSO VOICE CULTURE.

Graduate of the Conservatory of Leipsic, Germany, desires a few more pupils in Plainfield.

References given and required.
Address letters to the office of this paper. 1 21 tf-c

E. H. HOLMES,

DEALER IN

COAL and WOOD,

YARD—No. 108 Madison Avenue. Also Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle 146 North avenue.

J. C. POPE & CO.,

Insurance Agents,

NO. 6 EAST FRONT STREET

Plainfield, N. J.

You may have Lost many hours of comfort by not having worn A good reliable Pair of Collier's Glasses.

103 Park ave. Established 1869.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,

Real Estate and Insurance,

197 North ave. 10 1 tf

F. A. DUNHAM,

Civil Engineer and Surveyor, 109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas.

TOWNSEND'S

MARBLE AND GRANITE WORKS,

SOMERSET STREET.

Our Motto—Good work, good material at fair prices. 6 6 y

Jones & Co., Excavators.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

JONES & CO.

Cesspools built. 9 18y

Joseph E. Mosher,

Agent for

H. J. Hayden & Co.,

WAR CLAIMS ATTORNEYS, WASHINGTON, D. C.

All claims put in our hands will receive prompt attention.

Call at the Crescent Cigar Store for fine cigars

Gold Dollars for Fifty Cents.

NO.

BUT FULL VALUE.

C. E. MORSE, Painting and Paper Hanging. 97 Chatham street.

N. E. KING,

High Grade Portraits

In Crayon, Pastel and Water Colors.

483 Lexington ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Refers by permission to John A. Thickstun, L. B. Woolston, J. L. Blackford, L. W. Randolph, A. L. Force. Further information at the drug store of L. W. Randolph or office of The Daily Press, where specimens of work can be seen. 11 20 tf

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Publisher and Proprietor.

WALTER IRVING CLARKE, Managing Editor.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., May 7, 1895

The granting of the certiorari in the Westfield sewerage case shows the wisdom of the Plainfield Common Council in proceeding under a statute which the Court has already declared to be constitutional. No lawyers could be found to attack the Plainfield act, because the Supreme Court is not in the habit of reversing itself.

INJUNCTION AGAINST SEWERAGE

Westfield's Contracts and Farm Purchase Ordered Reviewed by the Supreme Court.

Westfield lawyers who attended at the opening of the County Court in Elizabeth this morning in the expectation of hearing motion for a writ of certiorari of the Westfield sewer contracts were greatly surprised when informed by Craig A. Marsh that Chief Justice Beasley had granted him the writ last Friday. This writ stops all work on the sewers and all other proceedings relative to the matter until the further order of Court.

HOTEL EXPLOSION.

Cranford, May 7.—An attempt was made early this morning to blow up the new hotel at Garwood with dynamite. A portion of the building was wrecked. No one was hurt.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

C. J. Kelderling and family spent Sunday with relatives in Somerville.

Rev. Dr. Heichman of Brooklyn was last night the guest of Rev. Edward Kionka.

George Watson, formerly of Plainfield and now of New York, is spending a few days visiting in town.

Mrs. Harry Taylor of Woodside, a suburb of Newark, is the guest of Miss Force of Duer street.

Mrs. T. Downer Weed, who has been visiting friends in Netherwood, left yesterday for Phoebus, Va.

J. Lusardi of West Front street, who has been ill since Jan. 1, sails for Genoa, his native place, Saturday, May 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Will F. Williams of West Fourth street will entertain the Entre Nous Whist Club Thursday evening.

Clarence L. Murphy and Benjamin R. Western left this morning for Trenton to attend the annual Episcopal convention.

Ferdinand Dorman and sister of Central avenue leave tomorrow on the steamship Teutonic for a two-months European tour.

Miss Isabelle F. Cummings of Brooklyn, who has been visiting relatives on Leland avenue, left yesterday for Brightview, Va.

Mrs. Bernard Brady and daughter of Central avenue have returned to their home after a stay of over two months in Ashville, N. C.

Thomas Dunlap, who is one of the oldest members of Tammany Hall of New York, having been in the organization over 60 years, is visiting his niece, Mrs. F. H. Gardner of North Plainfield.

Mrs. Benjamin Day of Rockview avenue, with her little son Benjamin, her sister, Mrs. Rue of Philadelphia, and niece, Miss Catharine Day of Orange, sailed Saturday for a short visit to Europe.

BY THE WAY.

—S. B. Wheeler of the Netherwood Kennels provides the best of care for dogs, as advertised.

—Entry blanks for all the big bicycle events of the country may be obtained of the Crescent Wheelmen.

—Morgan Bird informs The Press that he was contractor for the High School Building, for $19,999, and sublet the mason work to Isaac Pangborn.

—Owing to the delay in the arrival of baggage and scenery the performance of "Faust" in Music Hall last night was not started till after 10. The large audience displayed remarkable patience in waiting for the curtain to be rung up, but they were well repaid, for it was a finished performance throughout.

—The Ladies Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed Church yesterday heard their annual reports, showing a good balance after a useful year, and elected the following: President, Mrs. C. Schenck; vice-presidents, Mrs. B. A. Meeker, Mrs. G. Q. Dolliver, Mrs. Robert Clark; secretary, Mrs. H. W. Marshall; treasurer, Mrs. Henry Van Name.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

as mercury will surely destroy the sence of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists, price 75 cts. per bottle.

THE AMERICAN GIRL.

AS DESCRIBED BY A DAUGHTER OF BRIGHAM YOUNG.

She Pleads for an Equality of the Sexes and Holds that Boys Should be Taught to Do the Dishes and Girls to Milk Cows.

At the recent session in Washington of the National Council of Women Susa Young Gates, of Utah, a daughter of Brigham Young, read a paper on "What is Modern Education Doing for American Girls." She said, in part:

"Fifty, 100, yea, 1,000 years ago, no thought save that of dependence ever entered into the ideal life of woman. The clinging vine was the accepted standard of womanliness. The ideal of our girl to-day is the exact opposite. From utter dependence she has emerged to a too complete independence. Girl bachelors are as plentiful as the male bachelors. The fin de siecle girl is loath to give up her cozy rooms in her luxurious flat or her tiny cottage home, shared, no doubt, by a companion of her own sex and of similar tastes, to take upon herself the heavy burdens of housework and home management. She is positively determined that she will not allow herself to become the mother of children. The reproach of old maidenhood has so far receded into the past, and the selfish serving of selfish wants has so far spread from masculinity to femininity that the cities are even more crowded with young women from city and country who refuse to marry than they are with young men who share with them these egotistic views.

"What is the effect, physically, of modern education upon our girls? Who that meets the pink-cheeked lassie upon her wheel or visits the popular gymnasium, that shares with our summer girl her climbs and mountain junketings; who gazes upon the sparkling eyes and rosy lips of the country girl, of her prudent city cousin, who has utilized all the modern health promoting methods, will deny that physically our once thin, pale and delicate girl is improving? There is still great need of improvement. The physical status of women to-day is so low that motherhood is almost, if not quite, an impracticability. Witness the flat chested and poorly developed body, be she rich or poor, country born or city bred, who tread the halls of our Eastern schools and colleges. The occasional well developed and round-limbed girl is sure to be only one generation removed from the mother's European home, or she has been reared on a Western farm and has not had higher educational advantages or disadvantages.

"There are always in every condition of life a majority of good women. The girl of to-day is uncertain what she will be—what she wants to be spiritually. She is not at all uncertain about her determination to grasp every opportunity which comes near her for physical and mental independence, nor is she uncertain as to her willingness to accept the council of her senior and avoid all possibility of material worry and care; she is even mildly willing to remain single and free to pursue her own selfish course, for it is the spirit of the age. Nothing but an overpowering impulse of the divine passion can influence her to marry, and even then she will so catechise herself and her lover that it requires all her own peculiar tact to make him or even herself forget that she is giving much to receive little.

"Physically a girl should be guarded between the ages of 10 and 16 from severe mental strain and from the mischievous principle of emulation used to stimulate our school children. The girl's life should be spent principally out of doors, and in midwinter or in large cities she should be much of her time gently exercising in a scientifically conducted gymnasium. Indeed, why should there not be institutes for girls, something after the plan of the Pratt Institute of Brooklyn, the Armour of Chicago and the Drexel of Philadelphia? Why should not such an institute be so arranged that the girls and boys shall attend together? Will not as many boys turn out excellent milliners as there will be girls who can administer medicine or plan a house? Why must we go thinking that it is right for women to do men's work, but it will never do for men to choose the occupations now monopolized by women?

"And if such a revolution is pending, I prophesy that there will be as many mild mannered men who will cling lovingly for support to the future architect or cabinetmaker as there are now depending upon the wife's washing or following women lecturers from pillar to post.

"Some noble hearted women are freely devoting life, time, money and influence to converting other women's sons and husbands to the necessity of equal suffrage and equal privileges for the sexes. I am practically educating my boys to understand and share in the problems and wearisome cares of the household. I am not afraid that in their manhood they will fail to insist upon my sharing with them the responsibilities and honors of town, State and nation.

"Numbers of alert Western mothers, who share with me these views, are so training their children that while the boys are ofttimes happily engaged in washing dishes, their sisters are out in the open air milking the cows, bringing in the coal and chopping up the kindling wood. No matter what the effect of this interchange of work may have upon the boy, it will certainly strengthen the body of our girl and make her more able to bear future mental and physical strain."

SHE KEPT HER WORD.

Miss Wight Promised on the Bible Not to Tell Who the Burglar Was.

Ability to judge character correctly is the strong point of the polite burglar who compelled Miss Tibbie Wight, of Greenwich, Conn., a niece of J. Foster Higgins, to give up her money to him early one morning. He put his trust in Miss Wight's promise, and not in vain, for so well did she keep her word that the burglar's escape, for the time at least, was assured, and the full facts in the case would probably be secret still had the consciences of the others in the Wight household been as keen as that of Miss Wight.

It was just after midnight when the burglar arrived and lighted a match, which awakened Miss Wight. She sat up in bed and then sank back as the visitor brandished a bludgeon above her head and told her that if she moved he would kill her. He also told her he wanted all the money and jewels she had. His voice awakened a dim memory within Miss Wight.

"We haven't any jewels," replied the girl, "but if you won't hurt me I'll get you what little money there is. Go quietly or you will wake my mother."

Again the idea that she had heard the voice came to the girl as she led the way to the bureau and opened a drawer. The burglar struck a match so that he could see, and by its light she took out a few dollars, some small jewelry, a watch and a brooch set with diamonds presented to her by the King's Daughters, of which organization she is treasurer. Here is where she deceived that confiding burglar. She contrived, while handing the other things to him, to lower the brooch noiselessly and put it under the bureau with her foot. As the match flickered up just before it went out, the girl looked straight at the burglar, and as their eyes met she started, a movement which he observed.

"You know me, don't you?" said he, and stood thinking for a moment. The girl murmured indistinctly, and her visitor untied the bandage that was over her mouth, speaking half to himself as he did so.

"I've got to take the risk any way. Look here, you're a good church girl, ain't you?" he added, turning to Miss Wight.

"Yes," she replied, wondering what was coming.

"Have you got a Bible here?"

"Yes, there's one on the stand by the bed."

"Go and get it and don't make any noise."

The girl took the Bible in her hand and stood waiting.

"Now get down on your knees and promise me that you won't tell the police on me or set anybody chasing me."

Miss Wight did as she was bid.

"And that you won't appear against me on trial if I'm caught?"

The promise was given.

"That's all. No; wait a minute. Kiss the book."

The girl kissed the Bible and rose to her feet.

"You wouldn't break that promise, would you, miss, after kissing the book?" asked the robber somewhat wistfully.

"No," said the girl, and then gathering courage from the very strangeness of the whole proceeding, she asked a favor on her own account.

"That watch that you took," she said, "I prize it very much. Won't you give it back, please?"

"Yes, miss," said the man after some hesitation and a sigh over the unreasonableness of human nature. "You've been straight with me and I'll give it to you. You wouldn't go to break your word any way after that."

He handed her the watch, walked to the door, turned, shuffled his feet a bit and said:

"I'm sorry about it, miss, but I had to do something to get money."

Then he was gone. Miss Wight waked up her mother and the servant girl, Amelia, and told them about it. The servant was for going out and giving the alarm, but Miss Wight positively forbade it.

"No," said she; "he kept his promise not to harm me, and he trusted my word and I won't break it."

A CITY OF NEGROES ONLY.

Many Comfortable Houses and No Saloons or Paupers.

Eatonville, Fla., is a place wherein no white persons live; an incorporated city, owned, inhabited and governed exclusively by negroes, with a colored mayor and colored officers throughout.

It is said to be the only incorporated place inhabited and governed wholly by colored persons in this country, and it is as law abiding a place as can be found in Florida.

"We have a lock up here," the colored Postmaster and ex-Mayor, J. E. Clark said to a correspondent the other day, "but it is the idlest building of the place. It is hardly used twice a year, for we have no saloons or low places of any kind; and as nearly every man owns his own home, we all have a personal interest in preserving order."

Rapid Transit to the Sphinx.

The proposed trolley road from Cairo to the pyramids may seem a distressing innovation to certain old fashioned people. But your personally conducted tourist must be expected nowadays to demand rapid transit in his sight seeing; and all that can be done is to insist that the operators of the road be made to pay a handsome percentage of gross receipts for disfiguring the chaste simplicity of the desert with their poles and wires, to provide fenders for the convenient and safe collection of specimens of the natives en route, and to furnish transfer tickets so that passengers may take a side trip to the Sphinx on one fare.—Providence Journal.

If the sun had nothing else to do, but to shine on the righteous it would hardly be worth while for him to rise as early as he does.—Texas Siftings.

—The Woman's Relief Corps, No. 10, Auxiliary to Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., held a donation party at the home of Mrs. Woodruff on Vine street last evening. It was a most pleasant affair.

You will ride a Bicycle

Of course you will ride. All the world will—fashion, pleasure, business—men, women, children. It takes a while sometimes for the world to recognize its privileges; but when it does it adapts itself promptly. Therefore, you who are in the world will ride a bicycle—a bicycle if you desire the best the world produces; a Hartford, the next best, if anything short of a Columbia will content you.

COLUMBIA

Columbias, $100; Hartfords, $80 $60; for boys and girls, $50.

POPE MFG. CO., Hartford, Conn.

Boston, New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Providence, Buffalo.

A Catalogue—comprehensive, beautiful—at any agency free, or by mail for two 2-cent stamps. The book tells of all the new Columbias and Hartfords

Columbias and Hartfords are sold in Plainfield only by

The Eldridge Cycle Company.

Easy payments.
Old wheels taken in trade.
Wheels to hire.
Fine repairing.

$1,000 BUYS HOUSE AND LOT!

$600 BUYS FIVE LOTS.

ADDRESS D. J. C., CARE PRESS.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

LOST—Saturday evening, between Steiner place and Heideloff's store, $15 in bank bills. Liberal reward to finder at Daily Press office. 5 6 3

WANTED—Young girl to assist in general housework. Call at 308 East Fifth st.

FOR SALE—Complet outfit, water motor and five fans; in first-class running order, will be sold at a great sacrifice. E. P. Thorn, Park avenue. 5 7 2

NICE furnished front room to let; also back room. 110 West 2d st. 5 7 2

WANTED—Competent white woman as cook and laundress, references required. Apply 1111 Putnam avenue.

COW for sale, very cheap. Address P, care Press. 5 7 3

WANTED—Young man for kitchen work. Apply at once McVey's Restaurant

WANTED—Girl for general housework, no washing or ironing, references required, wages $14 per month. 12 Rockview avenue.

LOST—On Sunday, either on 10:04 train or in streets of Plainfield, pocketbook containing sum of money and annual pass over Pennsylvania Railroad in name of Mrs. W. I. Tier and family. Liberal reward to finder at Tier's ice cream parlors, Park avenue. 5 7 2

TO LET—Front room, good location, 5 minutes walk from depot, address K. care Press. 5 7 2

STRAYED from Netherwood Farm Kennel, Mountain avenue, large mastiff dog. Suitable reward for his return. 5 7 tf

FARMS for sale or exchange for Plainfield property. R. Coddington, Martinville, N. J. 5 7 6

WANTED—Good man to solicit life insurance, salary and good position. Address C. A. B., P. O. Box F. Newark, N. J.

BILLIARD table for sale, apply 178 South Second street. 5 6 3

COACHMAN and gardener would like position, best references. Address P. care Press. 5 6 6

WANTED—Girl for general housework in small family, references required. 901 Madison avenue. 5 6 3

FURNISHED room to let at 1209 Watchung avenue. 5 6 3

SIX ROOM flat to let; all improvements. 200 West 2d st. 3 4 tf

TO LET—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping; no children. Apply 103 Duer street. 3 6 tf

$1,000 to $3,500 to loan, first mortgage. Mulford broker. 4 22 tf

YOUNG colored man wants work. Experienced. References. Call 524 West Second street. 5 1 tf

FOR SALE—Nearly new sidebar buggy; bargain. H. A. Weber corner West Second and Liberty streets. 5 3 6

FOR SALE—Brahmas and Houdons eggs for hatching. Call at 72 Summit avenue. 5 3 2 w

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 2 21 tf

BOARDERS wanted at 926 Putnam ave., near LaGrande ave. 4 29 6

PAINTERS wanted. Apply E. E. Marshall. North avenue. 5 2 tf

EDWIN B. MAYNARD

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial Parlor, 206 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Ladies shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty. 10 13 1

THE LOVELIEST GOODS YOU EVER SAW.

That is the verdict of the ladies regarding the

WASH GOODS AT PECK'S.

MONDAY, TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY

3 DAYS' SPECIALS 3

Window poles and fixtures complete 13c; window shades 50c grade 39c; window shades 38c grade 25c; window shades 25c grade 15c; silk taffeta gloves 40c grade 29c; silk taffeta gloves 32c grade 19c; silk taffeta gloves 25c grade 15c. 40 per cent off on all sun umbrellas. We have had a large sale of best calico, ginghams and outing cambrics at 3½, and have put more on sale at same price.

REMEMBER $10 cash purchased in our CARPET DEPARTMENT you get a handsome RUG

FREE.

WHITNEY'S,

122 East Front Street, Near City Bank.

DON'T

You find it tiresome to read, day after day, 10c worth 75c, 25c worth 50, and so on. Don't you think it sounds better to say, 25c worth 25? That's our way and we believe in it. It's the fictitious value that some merchants place on their goods that never sell, but it gives them lots of time to run around and see the other fellow do the business. We once knew a man, but that's another story and space costs money. A store full of money savers.

DRESS GOODS.

Such selling with the profits chopped off, but we don't want them and you do. All kinds plain, plaids and fancies, all go the same way. 30 and 40 inch all-wool fancies 39c; 38 inch black figured brilliantine 38c; 45 inch imperial serges 45c; 38 inch all-wool cashmere 25c.

SILKS.

Lucky for us that we did not buy them earlier. We now sell silks for what we would have to pay for them a month ago. Twenty-five pieces, as many patterns of fine swivel silk, just the sort for shirt waists, price 39c the yard

CAPES.

We could fill our space telling you how low in price they are, but we can't afford it. Selling 'em too cheap, so we tell of a few. Embroidered black broadcloth $1.98; fine black and blue $2.49; fine covert cloth $3.98.

SHIRT WAISTS

Made of percale (not calico) laundried, collars and cuffs, 48c.

SOAP.

The good kind. A thousand boxes, 3 cakes in a box, of as fine a soap as made only the price is poor, 7c box

UMBRELLAS.

An even hundred of them, made on steel rods, paragon frame. The most tempting lot we ever offered at the price, $1.29

HOUSE FURNISHINGS.

Our show window and the price on the goods tell the story, how we are selling, not at cost, but very near to it. Jap porch screens, sprinkling pots, refrigerators, all at right prices.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

TROUSERINGS!

500 choice patterns which we are making to order for $5.00.

Sebring's

Park Avenue, Packer's Block.

12-6-7

MUSIC HALL,

Jos. Sohl, Lessee and Manager.

Telephone 49B.

ONE NIGHT ONLY

FRIDAY, MAY 10,

Rice's Surprise Party in the Historical Extravaganza

"1492."

Superb company of 60. Orchestra of soloists. Scenery, calcium, and electric effects.

Prices, Lower floor $1 00. Balcony 50c. Admission 35c. Box office now open.

Choruses. Costumes. Calciums.

"A RUSSIAN HONEYMOON"

Comedy in three acts

—AT—

MUSIC HALL,

Thursday Evening

MAY 9,

In Aid of the Relief Fund.

Tickets $1 and $1.50

On sale at Music Hall.

CHAS. FICKE,

Upholsterer,

Has removed from No. 1 West Third street, to

128 WEST SECOND ST.

Nearly opposite Trinity Reformed Church. Mattresses and spring beds made to order. Carpets and mattings made and re-made. Awnings and window shades, to order, a specialty. Slip covers made. Curtains hung. 5 4 1m

Wm. Hand & Son,

MOVING VANS,

18 Park avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

TOWN WITHOUT VICE

PURITAN VIRTUES PLANTED IN A REMOTE GEORGIA VILLAGE.

Strait-Laced New Englanders Taboo Liquor, Tobacco and Dancing. Named for the Late W. Jennings Demorest, Who Presented the Town With a Bell.

There is one spot where the name of the late W. Jennings Demorest will be perpetuated. In the mountains of Northern Georgia is a genuine, full fledged New England town. It is the pretty village of Demorest, named after the famous New Yorker who died recently, in honor of his zeal for prohibition. Mr. Demorest acknowledged the compliment by presenting the town with a bell, which summons Demorest Christians to worship on Sunday.

Demorest is a community where vice is unknown. It is, of course, a no-license town. Even tobacco is under the social ban.

There are nearly one thousand inhabitants. Of these but one is tainted with negro blood, Mary Jones Tramwell, a young woman in the employ of the only Southern family in the place, and negroes are not wanted there. Nearly all the residents are of New England origin. Their love for the freedman has faded under the Southern sun, and yet the late Mr. Demorest was an abolitionist.

Demorest is a lovely village, built around an artificial lake a mile in length. In its center is a pretty pavilion, and there are suspicions abroad that this pavilion has occasionally been the retreat of guilty parties addicted to the sinful practice of dancing. If discovered, these wicked imitators of Herodias' daughter would probably share the fate of John the Baptist. The water of the lake is clear and running and there are bathing houses on the banks. Its upper edge is crossed by a trestle over which trains convey tourists to the far famed falls of Tallulah, distant some twelve miles. The Blue Ridge mountains loom near in view. The town is only eighty-nine miles from Atlanta, on the Blue Ridge and Atlanta road.

Demorest is a very healthful town. None die and very few seem to eat, except sparingly. The inhabitants live chiefly on bread and Irish potatoes. They bake the bread once a week and cook the potatoes in the jacket—that is, with the skin on. The drummers have avoided the place since the grip of one of them was searched on suspicion that it contained a flask of whisky. Of course the suspicion was unfounded.

Demorest is a woman's rights community. It is fostering the newest ideas in politics and social philosophy and disdains the fads and capers of the world of fashion.

A HOLE NEARLY A MILE DEEP.

The Novelty To Be Prepared For the Next Paris Fair.

The great novelty at the Paris Fair of 1900 will be, it is expected, a dive into the bowels of the earth. M. Grousset's plan, which, it has been announced, has been approved by the management, is to dig a series of eight vertical shafts, each 600 feet in length, one beginning where another leaves off.

Two passenger elevators are to run in each shaft, and there are to be galleries or stations at the end of each journey, where refreshments will be served under the glare of electric lights.

We are told that the excavation will be thoroughly ventilated, by what means has not yet been made known, and that the traveler who descends to the lowest gallery depth will be 4,800 feet below the surface from which he started.

The estimated cost is $2,500,000, which one would think is quite moderate for so large an undertaking. The projector says he hopes to throw new light upon the question of the increase of temperature as greater depths within the earth's core are attained, and upon other subterranean problems.

It does not quite follow that because the Paris tourist will descend nearly a mile into the earth that he will find there almost intolerable heat. But then again he may. As this excavation is to be by no means the deepest on record, and as we have no reason to believe that anything out of the common will be found it will not be surprising if about the only scientific interest attaching to the enterprise will be the revealing of the subterranean conditions underlying Paris.

The work will be quite sure, at least, to tell us how thick is the foundation of chalk which underlies Paris; for we know that the same formation that shows itself in glittering whiteness in the cliffs of Dover is spread far over France and that Paris is built above it.

BELATED CHRISTIAN CHARITY.

Bishop Potter Tells a Pathetic Story of the Late Dr. Washburn.

Bishop Potter recently told the following story: "Several years ago some of us were assembled in Cavalry Chuch to bear our testimony to the life and influence of the late Dr. Edward Washburn. I may venture now to violate the confidence of a domestic incident which transpired then, and which I think you will own to have its significance and appropriateness here. One after another, Phillips Brooks, and others like him, rose in their places in that crowded study to tell what they owed to the genius, to the high spirit, to the unswerving loyalty to duty, to the splendid courage, to the rare scholarship, to the philosophic insight, to the prophetic utterance of Edward Washburn. The testimony was done. At the door all the time there stood a slender woman, who had stood during life nearest to him of whom we spoke. I shall never forget her face, the passion of it and the pathos of it, nor the power, tender but reproachful, with which she spoke, when at length we were still: 'Oh, if you loved Edward so, why didn't you tell him of it while he lived?'"

Bachelor girl sounds better than old maid, but it means the absence of a man just the same.—Atchison Globe.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Three Good Firemen in the Right Place

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY PRESS: At the annual meeting of Alert Hose Company held last evening Edward Anthony was elected foreman, Joseph Hawkins first assistant, and Abner Bartlett second assistant. Mr. Bartlett has only been a member of the company about a year and a half. He came here on transfer from Montclair, where he had resided for years. He organized Excelsior Hose No. 2 of that town. The carriage was run by hand, but before his departure he introduced the first equipped apparatus there. He was foreman of the company and one of the most progressive, efficient men in the department, and highly esteemed. He is a hard and earnest worker for the improvement of the department.

Since he joined the company here, his record and services has been A1. The Alerts have conferred this honor upon him as a token of appreciation and well earned merit. The chiefs of this department also speak highly of him as a most efficient, trustworthy and active fireman. The members of Alert Hose Co. are to be complimented on securing such men as leaders, personally Mr. Bartlett is one of the most popular, generous and courteous of comrades. As an an act of justice to him, it should be stated that his nomination was entirely unsolicited and refused by him as he felt there were older members who should have the office. His numerous friends, however, thought otherwise and wisely promoted him to a responsible position which he will creditably fill in every respect. FAIR PLAY.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Webb returned yesterday from a trip to Florida.

Miss Mamie Smalley of Somerset street has returned from a visit to Brooklyn.

Frank Gleason of New Brunswick is visiting David Kenney and family of Grove street.

Mrs. Horace Huff of West Fifth street, who has been visiting in Hunterdon County, has returned home.

George Vanderhoof, manager of the A. and P. Tea Company, is confined to his home on East Front street with illness.

The Uniformed Rank, K. of P., will initiate two candidates at their meeting tomorrow evening.

—A number from this city will attend a dancing-class reception in Scotch Plains next Monday evening.

THE ARISTOCRACY OF HEAVEN.

A Newspaper's Workday Sermon on the Attainments of Knowledge.

We have never been able to understand that the future state, which most of us are hoping to reach when the experiences of this life shall end, is a level of spiritual or moral attainments, or of personal aspirations; it seems quite improbable that a mind which has luxuriated four-score years in these earthly fields of thought, reaping rich harvests in the way of mental acquirements or spiritual culture, shall be initiated into another sphere no further advanced in either respect than a companion mind which has found its life largely in amusements, with slight regard to mental improvements, merely existing through wasted years, with few thoughts for the welfare of others.

In a transfer to another life—which is a coming fact to us all—it is utterly unreasonable to suppose that minds will be leveled up or leveled down to a common basis; mental and spiritual ambitions of varied strength must characterize the mind there, as here, otherwise it cannot recognize its own identity.

Growth of mind must continue there, as here, in order to secure the ultimatum of happiness; we shall never know all there is to know; for, assuming otherwise, we should sometime arrive beyond the blissful experience of acquiring information, and find no longer an occasion for that activity of emotion or thought which is the most satisfactory type of a higher life.

"As the tree falleth, so it lieth," and the gradations of our graduation acquirements here will determine the classification in our entrance to the upper department.

And as the mind here may, by diligent and faithful service, make attainments, which shall compel it, however modest, to recognize its superiority over others which linger in the primary schools—so it must be there.

By the natural logic of events, a wealth of spiritual and mental accomplishments, which is ever re-kindling ambition and furnishing motives for renewed zeal and study, will constitute an inevitable aristocracy which those who possess as well as those who lack, cannot fail to appreciate; the charm and innocence of this aristocracy will appear in the fact that it is unavoidable—the reward of soul and mind toil—the natural consequent of faith and hope—the inspiration of aspiration.—Clinton, Mass., Item.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "Shiloh's Vitalizer saved my life; I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used. For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels; 75c Sold by all druggists.

Shiloh's cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient consumption; it is the best cough cure, only 1c a dose; 25, 50c, $1. Sold by all druggists.

Plainfield Cases in Court.

The May term of Court opened in Elizabeth this morning. Plainfield cases were called as follows:

SUPREME COURT CAUSES.

Joseph B. Jennings vs. The Evening News Publishing Co. In Tort. Craig A. Marsh. John R. Emery. Filed Jan. 11, 1895. Off.

Waters B. Parrott, Adm'r P. L. of Catharine Craig, deceased, vs. James Craig. On Contract. Craig A. Marsh. R. V. Lindabury. Filed Jan. 11, 1895. Ready.

Frances Simpson, et mar. vs. Adelia H. West. In Tort. Collins & Corbin. Reed & Coddington. Filed April 3, 1895. Not at issue.

William H. Brokaw vs. Charles H. Burnett. On Contract. Reed & Coddington. George W. DeMeza. Filed April 3, 1895. Ready.

The American Radiator Company vs. Robt. J. Mooney. On Contract. Hance & Powers. T. M. Kelly. Filed April 9, 1895. May 21.

Henry L. Kline vs Plainfield Street Railway Co. In Tort. Reed & Coddington. Depue & Parker. Filed April 10, 1895. Ready.

August Blume vs Plainfield Street Railway Co. In Tort. Reed & Coddington. Depue & Parker. Filed April 10, 1895. Ready.

Charles W. Dodd vs John M. Hetfield. Craig A. Marsh. Reed & Coddington. Filed April 13, 1895. Ready.

Jas. Caywood as guardian of the estate of Ellen M. Caywood et al vs John K. VanNess. On Contract. Wm. A. Coddington. C. B. Van-Winkle. Filed May 1, 1895. Ready.

CIRCUIT COURT CAUSES.

Caroline J. Ohl et al vs Joseph W. Reinhart. In Tort. Charles A. Reed. R. V. Lindabury. Issue joined May 26, 1893. Off.

Anna Gwynette vs John M. C. Marsh et als. In Replevin. W. R. Coddington. Reed & Coddington. Issue joined July 8, 1893. Off.

John Williams, surviving partner, etc., vs Harry Gwynette. On Contract. Reed & Coddington. W. R. Codington. Issue joined Dec. 28, 1894. Off.

Charlotte Craig vs Waters B. Parrot, Adm'r pendente lite of Catharine Craig. On Contract. R. V. Lindabury. Craig A. Marsh. Issue joined Jan. 22, 1795. Ready.

Earl Zimmerman vs John Chandler et als. On Contract. Mechanic's Lien. Hance & Powers. Craig A. Marsh. Issue joined Feb. 14, 1895. Off.

Frank M. Hulett vs Jenette Peterson. In Replevin. Reed & Coddington. Hance & Powers. Issue joined March 29, 1895. Ready.

ARGUMENTS.

Hugh Marshall Short vs James L. Anthony. On Contract. Cortlandt and Wayne Parker. Reed & Coddington. Issue joined May 1, 1895. Ready.

JUSTICE JURY APPEAL CAUSES.

Plainfield Street Railway Co., Applt., vs Valentine Swody, Applee. In Tort. Depue & Parker. Reed & Coddington.

More Fact Than Fiction.

Here is a piece of Spring "poetry" which is tacked on a sign in front of a West Front street clothing store, that is particularly appropriate to the occasion just now:

"Come while we are on top,
The sewer dagos will soon have us covered up."

President See Appointed.

W. G. E. See, President of the Plainfield Common Council, was appointed by Chancellor McGill, in Jersey City yesterday, receiver for the Columbia Straw Paper Company of Chicago.

—Evangelistic services will be held by Rev. and Mrs. Henry Pierson in the W. C. T. U. rooms, beginning Thursday.

—The ceaseless coming of shrewd buyers is accounted for at Peck's by the quality of his goods and the value he is giving.

—Supt. Adelman earned the gratitude of Music Hall patrons last night by keeping cars at the Hall till the show was out, 12:40 a. m.

Kari's Clover Root, the great blood purifier, gives freshness and clearness to the complexion and cures constipation; 25c 50c, $1. Sold by all druggists.

THE GREAT AMERICAN DRINK---Soda Water,

is the best of all drinks when rightly served. We use many syrups—all good—but we must "brag" a little about our orange (fresh from fruit), our chocolate and coffee; none can be finer. As to cream—take your choice: Ice cream, whipped cream, plain cream.

Reynolds's Pharmacy,

Park and North avenues.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Walter Gibson spent yesterday in Elizabeth calling on friends.

—Mrs. J. H. Ackerman has purchased a valuable two-seated phaeton for her own use.

—A calico hop will be given in Boehm's Hall this evening by the Bathbone Sisters.

—George Godown resumed his duties in the postoffice this morning after a brief illness.

—The Climax Gun Club have a shoot on their grounds at Fanwood tomorrow afternoon.

—Richard A. Boyce is putting down a flag walk in and around his hotel on Somerset street.

—Policeman Flanagan is off duty attending the funeral of a relative in Connecticut.

—The Sons of Temperance will have a rehearsal of their coming entertainment this evening.

—An important meeting of John Hand Camp, No. 28, Sons of Veterans, will be held this evening.

—Harvey Thorn of Orchard place has adopted the King of Scorchers wheel as his method of traveling.

—An election of deacons and elders of the German Reformed Church will be held Wednesday, May 22.

—The Fourth Ward Athletic Club have arranged to have a dance in T. A. B. Hall the evening of May 29.

—Eugene O'Bielly will furnish the music for a temperance festival to be given in Bound Brook May 27.

—The Camera Club will meet this evening and after their regular business will exhibit the Rockford, Ill., views.

—Justice Newcorn yesterday afternoon adjourned the contract case of Chas. Noel against D. N. Force, for two weeks.

—Wm. J. Conroy is building an addition to his carriage factory on Somerset street, and will use it as a repository.

—A number of Plainfield gunners will participate in a shooting tournament at Newburg the last three days of this week.

—The L. A. W. Bulletin of this week publishes the names of 18 Crescent Wheelmen who have become members of the L. A. W.

—Anthony Lanzi has moved from the Valley road in the township to the house recently vacated by Eugene Hoerster, on Grove street.

—Rev. A. B. Simpson and Stephen Merritt will speak tonight at 8 in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church, on Missions. Miss Sheppard will sing.

—Howard J. Runyon has greatly added to the appearance of his property on the Rahway road by having two large stone gateposts erected at the entrance to the driveway.

"There is Danger in Delay."

Since 1861 I have been a great sufferer from catarrh. I tried Ely's Cream Balm and to all appearances am cured. Terrible headaches from which I long suffered are gone.—W. J. Hitchcock, late Major U. S. Vol., and A. A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ely Cream Balm has completely cured me of catarrh when everything else failed. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Alfred W. Stevens, Caldwell, Ohio.

Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

DOGS

TAKEN TO BOARD,
Netherwood Farm Kennels,
5 7 tf Mountain Avenue.

DEER PARK,

On the Crest of the Alleghenies.

To those contemplating a trip to the mountains in search of health and pleasure, Deer Park, on the crest of the Alleghenies, 2,000 feet above the sea level, offers such varied attractions as a delightful atmosphere during both day and night, pure water, smooth, winding roads through the mountains and valleys, and the most picturesque scenery in the Allegheny range. The hotel is equipped with all adjuncts conducive to the entertainment, pleasure and comfort of its guests.

The surrounding grounds, as well as the hotel, are lighted with electricity. Six miles distant on the same mountain summit, is Oakland, the twin resort of Deer Park, and equally as well equipped for the entertainment and accommodations of its patrons. Both hotels are upon the main line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, have the advantages of its splendid Vestibuled Limited Express trains between the East and West. Season excursion tickets, good for return passage until October 31, will be placed on sale at greatly reduced rates at all principal ticket offices throughout the country.

One-way tickets, reading from St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati, Columbus, Chicago and any point on the B. & O. system to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia or New York, or vice versa, are good to stop off at either Deer Park, Mountain Lake Park or Oakland, and the time limit will be extended by agents at either resort upon application, to cover the period of the holder's visit. The season at these popular resorts commences June 22.

For full information as to hotel rates, rooms, etc., address George D. DeShields, Manager, Deer Park, or Oakland, Garrett County, Md. 5-3-4

—Charles Cox, who attempted to sneak his way into Music Hall last night by the way of the roof and an open window, was arrested by Policeman Robinson, and this morning sent to jail for ten days by Judge Coddington.

Hosiery. No store in this town offers so many sorts, so many good values. We always have some exceptional bargains such as these. The 12½c fast black seamless hose for 9c; the 20c kind for 15c, and 20c for the regular 25c goods; 5c for mens seamless half hose that should be 10c and the 15c fast black half hose for 10c.

25 rolls more of the 10c matting. Other mattings at any price up to 50c. A good ingrain carpet at 25. Brussels made, laid and lined free. Window shades from 18c, oilcloths from 25c, large size Smyrna rugs $2.60 value $3.50; do, at $2.10 value $2.75. Lace curtains from 54c pair, curtain poles complete from 18c.

It takes little money to purchase a good cape from us. A splendid showing of the most taking styles, some as low as 98c; percale shirt waists 48c; silk belts 25c; new parasols.

LEDERER'S

—The Nassau Wheelmen of New York will run to Plainfield Sunday, June 2.

DEATHS.

PANGBORN—Suddenly, in North Plainfield, Saturday, May 4, 1895, Isaac W. Pangborn. Funeral services from his late residence, 31 Rockview avenue, Wednesday, May 8, at 2:30 p. m. 5 6 2

TITSWORTH—At Dunellen, May 6, 1895, Mrs. Hannah Sheppard Titsworth, wife of Mr. Isaac D. Titsworth.

Relatives and friends are very respectfully invited to attend the funeral service at her late residence, on Thursday, May 9, at 3 p. m. 2

CLOTHING

IS TO MAN WHAT CUTTING IS TO THE DIAMOND.

The man in rags may be as good as one in broadcloth, but somehow the world doesn't think so. He is the rough diamond of humanity, while his less deserving but better dressed neighbor, like a cut diamond, is appreciated and admired. Now, there's just as much difference in the cutting of clothing as of diamonds. It takes skill to impart the perfection of fit and finish we give to our clothing, and it costs no more when you know how. See our grand line of Men's Spring Suits, beginning at $9 and running up by easy stages of a dollar or so to $20.

MC GREGOR & CO.,

850-852 Broad St.,

Newark, N. J

EDSALL'S Splendid Offerings in Fine Goods. EDSALL'S

SOMETHING OF ESPECIAL INTEREST.

Special sale of bleached sheetings in 8-4 and 9-4 widths, usually sold at 22 cts and 25 cts a yard. Our price 13 and 15 cts a yard.

Clearance sale of short lengths of bleached muslins, 8-4 and 9-4 widths, all to go at half original prices.

An excellent line of sheer and dainty Percales, in a variety that make choice most difficult; unsurpassable value at 12½ cts. Our price 9 cts.

COUNTERPANES.

Marseilles and crotchet quilts, large size, exquisite designs, sold everywhere at 98 cts, $1 25. $1 39 and 1 65. Our price 65 cts, 99 cts, $1 15 and $1 25.

CAPES.

Ladies' capes, made of silk, velvet and cloth, prettily trimmed with lace, jet and ribbons Sold elsewhere at 4 98, 5 25, $8 50 and $9. Our price $3 75, 3 99, 5.57, and $5 98.

MOREEN SKIRTS.

An excellent Moreen skirt, with full ruffle, usually sold for $4 98. Our price $3 20.

HOUSE WRAPPERS.

Wrappers made up of fine percales in all colors, including indigo, full skirt, cape falling from yoke over large sleeves, trimmed with very pretty contrasting braids, all sizes, at 69 cts, 89 cts, $1 10 and $1 25. Usual asking price fully 25 per cent. more.

TAFFETA SILKS.

Special bargain in black and colored all-silk taffeta, in an excellent assortment of designs, the most sought for silk of the season. Sold everywhere at 89 cts and $1 a yard. Our price 65 cts and 75 cts a yard.

25 ct paper books, by standard authors, good print, full titles. Our price 3 cts. each.

FANS

We have just opened up an exquisite line of fans, ranging in price from 10 cts to $2 50 each. The usual asking price is fully 25 per cent. more.

FREE SOUVENIR FREE SOUVENIR

FRIDAY MAY 10.

IN OUR BIG BASEMENT.

To each purchaser throughout the basement on the above date we shall give a fine China Souvenir to introduce our second Spring opening of Summer Goods.

Summer Goods. Summer Goods.

Window screens, hard wood frames, 19c and up.
Screen doors, well made, 79c and up.
Lawn mowers, best make, $2.29.
Ice cream freezers, best make, $1.48.
Baby carriages, large variety, $3.98 and up.
Oil and gas stoves at bottom prices. 1, 2 and 3 burner at 59c, $1.49 and $2.39 each.
Special low prices on refrigerators. Best makes; all sizes in stock.

WOMEN'S OXFORDS

74c, 99c, $1.19, $1.48, $2, $3, $3.50, $4—black or tan, pointed, square or common sense toes.

WE USE——nothing but the genuine Nevel stock in our tan goat shoes for misses and children. It will wear as long again as the ordinary. A full assortment of tan goods now ready for your inspection.

Doane & Edsall.

WE PUT ON OUR ODDS AND ENDS TABLE TODAY

One Haviland Dinner Pattern.
One lot of Fancy Flower Pots.
One lot Glass Dishes.
One lot Fancy Creams.

Gavett's.

129 East Front st.

FISH FOR BREAKFAST.

Is Your Cook Up at 5?

That's the hour of our morning delivery. Finest, Freshest Seafood.

ROGERS, 232 West 2d street.

Hats, new shapes, Trunks and Bags cheap

E. M. LAING,

All sizes in Packing Trunks. 105 Park avenue.

$1.00

At J. F. MacDonald's Uptown Grocery,

buys $1.co worth of Groceries every business day in the year. Our goods are sold at a profit so as to enable us to give weight and quality to our customers and have something left for ourselves No fictitious prices. No man is in business for his health.

J. F. MAC DONALD

EDWARD C. MULFORD,

(Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.)

Real Estate Broker and Fire Insurance,

Office 1 9 North ave., (opp. Railroad station.) Money to loan. 18 tf

HALLOCK is showing choice patterns in Percale Shirts, with 2 collars and pair cuffs, and these collars and cuffs are the latest patterns—no old back numbers

G. A HALLOCK,

Hats and Furnishing Goods, 109 West Front st.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 North Avenue.

Grand Opening Every Day

AT A. W. FULPER'S!

1 pound 50c tea, 1 can milk, 3 pounds sugar, 1 loaf bread, half dozen boxes matches

50c All for 50c 50c

Not as an introduction but an every day occurrence. The very best goods; the very lowest prices. Sugar cured ham 10c pound; best Elgin creamery butter 20c, 5 pounds for 95 cts; good creamery butter 15c; 2 pounds extra combination coffee for 25c; 2 pounds extra creamery cheese for 25c; good creamery cheese 10c pound; 3 cakes Babbitt's soap 13c; Babbitt's 1776 per package 3c; best ginger snaps 4c.

LEECH, STILES & CO.,

Eye Specialists,

441 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, formerly with Queen & Co.

H. A. Stiles will be at

No. 107 East Front Street,

Dunham's Real Estate Office

EVERY THURSDAY

From 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Persons who have headache, or whose eyes are causing discomfort, should call upon this specialist and they will receive intelligent and skillful attention. No charge to examine your eyes. Every pair of glasses ordered guaranteed to be satisfactory. 4 13 tf—m t w s

Had You Thought of the Difference?

Special sale usually means a smaller profit than usual, but an

Assignee's Sale

means something else—it means a sale below cost for cash to settle up a business. So if you want a suit of clothes come to the Schepflin & Schultz assignee sale.

J. F. MacDonald,

Assignee for Schepflin, Schultz & Co.,

318 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

DEALERS IN

Lumber. Coal. Mason's Material. &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

A NEW ROADSTER.

FOUR MILES FOR A CENT IS THE COST OF LOCOMOTION.

A New Horseless Vehicle With Gasoline as Its Motive Power, Ball Bearings and Rubber Tires Reduce the Friction, and to Go Ahead You Touch a Button.

The latest and apparently most practical self propelling vehicle yet produced in this country has just been perfected at Springfield, Mass., after three years of experimentation. This improved motor carriage is daily traversing the roadways of Western Massachusetts. The total weight is 600 pounds. The wheels are rubber tired and run on ball bearings.

The front wheels turn on their own pivot located in the hub, the axle being firmly held by the side bars. The lever in front wholly controls the carriage. The lateral movement turns the wheels, the vertical motion starts and stops the vehicle, changes its rate of speed and also reverses its movement, driving it backward when desired. The lever connections all have ball joints, which can never become loose and cause lost motion. A brake drum of peculiar construction is placed under the seat and connected with a thumb button located at the front corner of the seat. By pressing the thumb upon this button the carriage, if running twelve miles an hour, can be stopped within a distance of four feet.

The variable speed ranges from three to sixteen miles an hour, the normal rates being three, six and ten miles. To obtain these different rates the motor does not change its speed. The increase is made in the gearing, which is alternately rawhide and iron and runs quite still. To obtain a greater speed than ten miles an hour the pressing of the button at the front of the seat will increase the speed of the motor. The mechanism runs upon ball bearings wherever possible, and otherwise metaline bearings are used, rendering oiling unnecessary.

The motor has a driving capacity of four horse power and is what is usually termed a gasoline motor. It is compactly located in the box of the body, weighs 120 pounds and is of an improved type, double cylinder and self regulating as to work required. Peculiar and ingenious devices are employed in the mixture of gasoline with air to produce the proper quality of gas, only a small drop of gasoline being used at one time. The gas so produced comes in contact with an electric spark, thereby producing an expansion of the air in the cylinder, which is already very much compressed by the action of the piston.

The cost of running this carriage is one-fourth of a cent a mile. A supply can be carried sufficient for 150 miles and can readily be replenished at any town en route.

The motor has proved entirely reliable, having been run several weeks on a test, and shows no variation in power or speed. It is simple, will cost but little to run and is applicable to business as well as pleasure purposes.

CULTIVATING SPONGES.

Profitable Sea Gardens of This Product Along the Florida Coast.

Ever since the sponge fisheries of the Bahamas and the Gulf coast of Florida showed signs of becoming exhausted efforts have been made to cultivate sponges on farms or artificial beds, and more recently science has tried to imitate the genuine article by converting the soft fibre of the cocoanut leaves and shells into sponges of commercial value. Sponge farming is now a successful industry, and hundreds of acres in the Gulf of Mexico along the Florida coast are planted with "sponge cuttings" and seeds. The work is not dissimilar in many respects to oyster culture. The young sponges are planted in water along the coast varying from one to five fathoms in depth.

A few years ago the fish commissioners had their attention called to the sponge fisheries off the Florida coast, and after finding that the beds were being rapidly depleted of the best stock, an examination of the fisheries was made to ascertain some way of preserving them. The specimens of sponge taken to Washington in the autumn of the year were found to be reproductive if the proper conditions were supplied. The sponges in the autumn were found to develop masses of protoplasm or spores, which in the spring of the year were liberated. These spores contained the small reproductive particles from which the sponges developed. Some of the sponges experimented with did not reproduce their kind at all, and it was found that in order to cultivate the sponges it was necessary to plant sponges that produced certain cells that contained the ova or egg, and others that represented spermatozoa.—Philadelphia Times.

Curfew Too Expensive.

A resolution has been introduced in the Salem, Mass., Board of Aldermen to discontinue the ringing of the curfew bell on the ground that this is a meaningless custom entailing unnecessary expense.

Queer Idea of a Holiday.

Lord Randolph Churchill's idea of a holiday was to go to bed in a quiet room—stay there all day reading and dozing, dine in slippers and dressing gown in the evening, and as soon as convenient thereafter go to bed.

A Case of Ability.

"Jennie has married a man who plays poker. Isn't it dreadful?" said a Harlem woman to her husband.

"It isn't half as bad as marrying a man who thinks he can play poker, but cannot," was the reply.—Texas Siftings.

Evidence Enough.

Magistrate—The evidence shows that you threw a rock at a man.

Mrs. McDuff—An' it shows more than that, yer Honor. It shows that I hit him.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Scott's Emulsion

is not a secret remedy. It is simply the purest Norway Cod-liver Oil, the finest Hypophosphites, and chemically pure Glycerine, all combined into a perfect Emulsion so that it will never change or lose its integrity. This is the secret of Scott's Emulsion's great success.

It is the happy combination of these most valuable ingredients, materially increasing their potency; hence the great value of Scott's Emulsion in wasting diseases. We think people should know what they are taking into their stomachs.

Don't be persuaded to accept a substitute!

Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All Druggists. 50c. and $1

TELEPHONE RATES

IN PLAINFIELD.

$30, $40, $50, according to number of local messages sent and joint use of line; full long distance equipment. Private lines and speaking tube systems installed at reasonable rates. Address The New York & New Jersey Telephone Co, 175 North avenue, Plainfield.

5 3 e o d 1 m

NOTICE

Estate of Hiram Hornish deceased.

Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the thirteenth day of April 1895, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

L. WARREN RANDOLPH,
MATTHIAS C. DOBBINS,
Executors.

4 22 10—o a w

NOTICE.

Estate of Hiram Hornish, deceased.

Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the county of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the twenty-first day of March 1895, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

M. C. DOBBINS,
L. W. RANDOLPH,
Executors.

4 6 10-o a w

NOTICE

Estate of Elizabeth B. Vandenbergh, Deceased.

Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned, administratrix of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the fifteenth day of March, 1895, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

GERTRUDE VANDENBERGH, Administratrix.

3 21 10-o a w

NOTICE

Estate of Lewis J. Denton, deceased.

Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made, on the application of the undersigned, executrices of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the tenth day of April 1895, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.

EMELINE B. DENTON,
SARAH P. BLISS,
Executrices.

4 23 10—o a w

Notice of Order to Limit Creditors.

Somerset County Surrogate's Office.

Estate of Daniel Cory deceased.

Notice is hereby given that on the eleventh day of March A. D. 1895, on the application of the undersigned, as administrator of Daniel Cory deceased; an order was made by the Surrogate requiring the creditors of Daniel Cory deceased, to bring in their debts, demands and claims against the said decedent, under oath or affirmation, and present the same to the subscriber within nine months from the date of said order; and in default thereof any such creditor should be forever barred of his or her action therefor against the subscriber

JOHN CORY Administrator.

3 15 9-o a w

AN ORDINANCE

For the assessment of taxes for the year 1895.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That pursuant to the statutes and ordinances in such cases made and provided, there shall be assessed and raised by tax for the year eighteen hundred and ninety-five for the general purposes of said City exclusive of Poor, Library, School, Fire, and State and County taxes the sum of thirty-five thousand dollars, included in which last named sum shall be the sum of fifteen thousand dollars to be raised by general tax for street improvements; that there shall be assessed and raised by tax as aforesaid for the support of the City Poor, the sum of nine thousand dollars; for the maintenance of the Public Library and Reading Room the sum of thirty-four hundred dollars; for the maintenance of a fire department, to be under the control and government of said city, the sum of seventeen thousand dollars, and in addition to the foregoing a license fee of two dollars to be paid by the owner of every dog within the City of Plainfield.

Adopted by the Common Council, April 24, 1895.

Approved by the Mayor April 25, 1895.

A. GILBERT, Mayor.

Attest—J. T. MacMurray, City Clerk.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given, that the account of the subscribers, executors of and trustees under the will of Harriet N. DeKlyn, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate and reported for settlement to the Orphans' Court of the county of Union, on Wednesday, the third day of July next.

Dated April 25, 1895.

ANNA C. DE KLYN.
FRANK S. BROWNE.

4 26 10-o s w

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

To Mary Ann Rutoska and John Louis Rutoska:

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the day of the date hereof, in a certain cause, wherein Henry Mellman is complainant, and you and others are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the bill of said complainant on or before the fourteenth day of June next, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill is filed for the purpose of reforming a deed for a certain lot of land, in the City of Plainfield, County of Union State of New Jersey, bearing date July 12, 1888, made by Emma F. Fox to Wilhelmina Mellman, so as to vest the legal title thereto in the said complainant, and you and others are made defendants because you are heirs-at-law of Wilhelmina Mellman, deceased, the grantee in the above mentioned deed.

S. S. SWACKHAMER,
Solicitor for Complainant.

Dated, April 13, 1895. 4 17 4 o a w

The Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Standard Railway of America

Protected throughout by the Interlocking Switch and Block Signal System.

On and after Jan. 20, 1895, trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

FAST LINE leaves Philadelphia 12 20 p m daily with Pullman Vestibule parlor and sleeping cars for Pittsburg, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

6.37 p. m. WESTERN EXPRESS, with Pullman Vestibule sleeping cars, dining car daily for Pittsburg, Chicago, Cleveland, daily except Saturday, for Toledo, Williamsport, Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

8.24 p.m.—SOUTHWESTERN EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping car, daily, to Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, and Memphis. Dining car Altoona to Richmond.

8 42 p. m.—PACIFIC EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping cars, daily, for Pittsburg, Columbus, Chicago, and Toledo, daily, except Saturday for Cleveland.

For Baltimore, Washington and the South—1 00 6.08, 9.36 a. m., 9 00 p. m.

Sundays, 1, 9 05, 9.36 a. m., 9 41 p m.

For Baltimore only 1 37 p. m., week-days.

For Newark and New York—3 02, 5 24, 6 45, 6 19, 6 45, 7 07, 7 20, 7 58, 7 57, 8 06, 8 28, 8 32, 8 47, 9 17, 9 41, 9 48, 10 20, 10 38, 10 40, 11 07, 11 42 a. m., 1 12, 1 26, 1 56, 2 24, 2 40, 3 46, 3 57, 5 07, 6 42, 6 15, 6 38, 6 38, 6 37, 6 45, 6 58, 7 07, 7 26, 7 39, 9 17, 9 18, 9 50, 10 03 11 03 and 11 56 p. m.

Sundays 3 02, 5 24, 7 56, 8 45, 9 20, 9 47, 10 12, 10 38, 10 49 a. m., 12 30, 1 44, 2 26, 3 45, 4 38, 5 34, 6 48, 7 08, 7 52, 7 38, 7 58, 8 30 9 18, 10 14, 1 46 and 11 56 p. m.

For New York only, 6 10 a. m. daily.

For Philadelphia—1 00, 6 37, 7 10, 9 05, 9 38, 11 42 A. M.; 1 37, 3 32, 5 08, 6 36, 7 45, 9 43, 9 59 P. M. Sundays at 1 00, 3 00, 9 05, 9 38, 10 41 A. M.; 5 30, 6 37, 7 47 and 9 41 P. M.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY

(2 25p.m. with through Buffet parlor car) Sundays 8 50 a. m.

Cape May, Sea Isle City and Ocean City 1 37 p. m. weekdays.

For Rahway—1 42 daily ex. Monday, 4 00, 6 44, 7 10, 7 59, 8 54, 9 44, 9 50, 10 59, 11 42, a. m. 12 45, 1 11, 1 37, 3 48 5 20, 7 10, 7 59, 8 54, 9 44, 10 59 and 11 42 p. m. Sundays, 1 42, 4 00, 5 22, 6 44, 8 00, 9 44, 10 59 and 11 42 p. m.

For Woodbridge—1 42 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 44, 10 59 a.m., 12 45, 5 20, 4 59, 5 44, 6 12, and 7 20 9 44 p.m., 12 37 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 42, 10 59, and 11 47 a. m., 10 14 p m.

For Perth Amboy—1 42 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 44, 10 59, 12 45 5 20, 4 59, 5 44, 6 12, 7 20 7 59 9 44 and 12 37 night. Sundays, 1 42 10 25, 11 47 a m 10 14 p m.;

For East Millstone—7 10 a. m., 12 26, 2 49 and 5 40 p. m., week-days.

For Trenton—1 37, 6 37, 7 10, 7 59, 9 05, 9 38, 11 42 A. M.; 1 05, 1 37, 3 48, 5 08, 6 36, 7 45, 9 43, 9 59 P. M. Sundays at 1 00, 3 00, 9 05, 9 38, 10 41 A. M.; 5 30, 6 37, 7 47 and 9 41 P. M.

For Lambertville, Phillipsburg and Belvidere via Trenton—7 59 A. M., 2.49 and 6.36 p. m., and 5.40 p. m. Sunday.

For Flemington—7 59 A. M.; 2 49 P. M.

For Freehold—1 37, 11 42 a. m., 4 59, 5 08 p.m., via Monmouth Junction, week-days.

For Jamesburg, via Monmouth Junction—7 59 and 11 42 a. m., 4 59 and 5 08 p. m., week days.

For Long Branch, Ocean Grove, and points on New York and Long Branch R. R.—9 42, 12 46, 4 12 5 44 p. m., 12 37 night week-days. Sundays, 10 25 a. m., and 5 44 p. m.; do not stop at Asbury Park on Sundays.

For Sea Side Park, Island Heights and Toms River—12 46, p. m., daily.

For Boston—6 05 p. m., daily.

For Brooklyn, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats to Brooklyn annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton Street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York City.

Leave New York for Elizabeth—1 00, daily except Monday, 5, 6 20, 7 20, 8 10, 9 00, 9, 9 10, 10 10, 11 00 a. m., 12, 12 10, 12 50, 1 40 1 00, 2 10, 2 50, 3 00, 3 50, 4 00, 4 10, 4 40, 5 00, 5 20, 5 30, 5 40, 6 00, 6 10, 6 30, 6 40 7 00, 7 30, 8 15, 9 15, 10 15, 11 00, 11 30 p. m., 12 12 night. Sundays, 1 00, 5 15, 9 00, 9 40, 10 00, 11 00 a. m., 12 00 noon, 1 00, 2 00, 2 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 6 00, 6 40, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 9 00, 10 00, 11 00 p. m., and 12 15 night.

O. M. PREVOST, General Manager.
J. R. WOOD, Gen. Pass. Agent.

Carpenters and Builders.

UTZINGER & KLINE.

CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS.

Jobbing promptly attended to.

V. Utzinger, 75 Grandview ave. L. C. Kline, 54 Jackson ave.

JOHN P. EMMONS

—Mason and Builder.—

Washington avenue and Prospect street

NORTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Jobbing promptly attended to 11 24 tf

THEODORE GRAY,

MASON AND CONTRACTOR.

Estimates given, repairing promptly attended to. Residence 117 Hillside ave. 2 23 tf

PEARSON & GAYLE,

Carpenters and Builders.

RESIDENCE—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine St.

H. B Gayle, No. 18 Vine St.

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO 9 20-tf

GEO. W. STUDER.

CARPENTER AND BUILDER,

985 ARLINGTON AVENUE.

Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable. 5 3 6m

McCullough's Steam Mill,

21 Steiner Place, North Plainfield.

H. H. McCullough, Proprietor.

Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing Turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished. 6-11-1

C. W. LINES & CO.

Mason and Builders.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Residence 18 Elm Place.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Jobbing promptly attended to 12 28

REMOVAL.

I have removed my watchmaking and jewelry business from Park ave. to

142 North Avenue

Next to Walker's bakery, and shall be pleased to have my friends call.

CALEB DICKINSON

Real Estate Insurance

LAURENCE & TIMPSON

163 North Avenue Plainfield, N. J.

L. PAOLI & CO.,

Fruits. Confectionery, Temperance Drinks, Cigars, &c.

128 NORTH AVENUE,

FRESH ROASTED PEANUTS EVERY DAY,

10 CENTS A QUART.

I take this method of informing my friends and the public in general that I am again in business at the old stand. I solicit your patronage. Store will close at sundown on Friday and open at sundown on Saturday.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

(Anthracite coal used exclusively, insuring cleanliness and comfort.)

Station in New York, foot of Liberty street. Time Table in effect, Nov. 18, 1894.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield, 2 14, 3 27, 5 38, 6 05, 6 29, 6 59 7 28, 7 50, 7 58, 8 00, 8 18, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 22, 10 04 10 27, 11 19, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51 4 50, 5 54, 7 03, 8 20, 9 25, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 27, 6 05, 8 03, 8 52, 10 08, 11 19, 11 28 a. m.; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 28, 5 36, 7 11, 8 22, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty Street at 4 30 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a. m.; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, (except Saturdays) 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p. m., 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 8 30, 9 15 a. m.; 12 00 m.; 1 00, 2 15, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p. m.; 12 15 night 1 00 a. m.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 28, 7 50, 8 00, 8 48, 9 22, 10 04, 10 27, a. m.; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 6 54, 7 03, 8 20, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday 6 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 28, a. m.; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 11, 8 22, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark, at 6 15, 7 15, 7 55, 8 39, 9 06, 10 06, 11 35 a. m.; 1 15, 1 35, 2 20 (Saturdays only) 2 50, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 36, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 55, 9 40, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday 7 20, 8 45, 9 55, 11 25, a. m.; 1 10, 2 35, 4 10, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a.m. 12 46, 2 08, 2 32, 3 45, 4 38, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 28, 11 23 p. m.; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 36, a. m.; 2 03, 5 28, 5 14, 6 35, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 20, 7 00, 7 25, 7 38, 7 48, 8 20, 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m.; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 20, 4 25, 5 28, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 55 a. m.; 12 08, 1 20, 5 05, 6 45, 8 02, 8 05, 9 40 p.m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54, a. m.; 12 46, 2 08, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28 a. m.; 2 03, 6 05, p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 08, 7 00, 8 53 a. m.; 12 32, 4 00, 7 00 p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 53 a. m.; 6 40, 7 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

6 45 A. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk Williamsport and Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m. for stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 A. M. for Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 A. M. for Flemington, High Bridge branch D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Hazleton, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 4 p. m. way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

3 09 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury and Williamsport, Wilkes-Barre and Scranton. Buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge branch

6 14 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, Mauch Chunk Shamokin and Tamaqua. Buffet parlor car to Scranton.

6 19 P. M. for Flemington.

6 59 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading and Harrisburg.

8 51 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

6 45 A. M. Sunday for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton. 8 20 a.m. Sundays for Easton, 3 09 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading and Harrisburg, 5 36 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c. and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

For Atlantic City, 8 37 a. m. 1 13 p. m.

Long Branch, Ocean Grove, &c

Leave Plainfield 9 37, 8, 10 37, a. m 1.13, 3 51, 6 54, p. m. Sundays—(except Ocean Grove 8 52 a. m., 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 9 37, 6 32, 8 10 37 a. m., 1 13, 3 51, 4 50, 6 54, 7 08 p.m. Sunday—8 52, a. m., 3 30 p. m.

For Freehold, 9 37, 8, 10 37 a.m., 1 13 3 51, 4 50, m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 45, 8 44 9 43, 10 46, a. m., 2 08*, 5 18* 6 43 9 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 13, night. Sundays—5 45, 8 43, a. m., 2 08*, 6 14*, 6 43 p. m., 1 13, night.

For Trenton 5 45, 8 44, 9 43*, 10 46, a. m., 12 46, 2 08*, 6 04*, 6 32*, 9 21, 9 37* p.m., 1 13 night, Sunday—5 45, 9 04, a. m., 2 08*, 6 14* 6 43 p. m., 1 13 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 9 43, a. m., 2 08, 6 32* 6 43 p. m., 1 13, night. Sundays—9 43 a. m., 2 08, 6 14* 6 43 p.m., 1 13, night.

For Chattanooga, New Orleans and all points south with through vestibule sleeper, via Shenandoah Valley Route at 5 34 p m. Sundays 5 14 p m.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points west, week days at 9 54 a m., 2 23 p. m. Sundays 6 32 p. m

Plainfield passengers by trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rate may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

H. H. OLMSTEAD, General Sup't.
H. P. BALDWIN, Gen. Pass. Agt.

The Finderne,

FINDERNE, Somerset Co., N. J.

Open all the year as a resort of the highest order. Driving and sleighing parties will receive every attention.

HIGH-CLASS SUNDAY DINNERS.

(Table d' Hote from 1 to 3:30.) Steam heat; inclosed piazzas; everything immaculate. When out driving let us entertain you.

A. E. WHITE, Manager,
Finderne, N. J.

1 9 tf

CODDINGTON'S

FURNITURE AND FREIGHT

EXPRESS.

OFFICES—26 West Front street; 28 Park avenue Post Office Box 220.

PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY. Large covered trucks. Goods sent to any part of the country. Charges reasonable. Satisfaction guaranteed 11 9

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a prompt answer and an honest opinion, write to MUNN & CO., who have had nearly fifty years' experience in the patent business. Communications strictly confidential. A Handbook of Information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and scientific books sent free.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the Scientific American, and thus are brought widely before the public without cost to the inventor. This splendid paper, issued weekly, elegantly illustrated, has by far the largest circulation of any scientific work in the world. $3 a year. Sample copies sent free.

Building Edition, monthly, $2.50 a year. Single copies, 25 cents. Every number contains beautiful plates, in colors, and photographs of new houses, with plans, enabling builders to show the latest designs and secure contracts. Address MUNN & CO., NEW YORK, 361 BROADWAY.

FISCHER PIANOS.

ESTABLISHED 1840.

Nearly 100,000 Now in Use.

RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARD, WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO

EASY TERMS.—EXCHANGED.

Catalogue mailed on application.

110 FIFTH AVE., cor. 16th St., N. Y.

DO YOU KNOW

—THAT—

AMOS H. VAN HORN Limited.

73 Market St., Near Plane St.

Is doing better by purchasers in their line than any other house in the trade? If you doubt it, why just call at number 73—Get their prices and see the big inducements they are offering. For instance:

PARLOR SUITS.

We are giving a Moquette Rug, size 27x54, and a Parlor Table with every Parlor Suit sold.

CARPETS CARPETS

We are making and laying all of our carpets with paper without charge, which is a saving of 15 cents per yard.

BEDROOM SUITS

We are the only house in the city that is giving a woven wire bed spring and a mixed mattress with every bedroom suit sold.

MATTINGS

We pride ourselves that we have the largest stock of fancy mattings in the city, and at lowest prices. Good Japanese matting at only 15c per yard.

NOTE THE NAME AND NUMBER BEFORE ENTERING THE STORE.

PORTLAND RANGES

Any one who wants a range should not buy one until they have called and examined the Famous Portland Range. Over 7,000 now in use and everyone warranted. Easy Terms. Goods delivered free to all parts of the State.

STORING FURNITURE—It must be true what everybody says, for those that have seen the rooms in our New Storage Building, put up expressly for storing furniture, at 88, 90 and 92 Bank street, say that it is the finest in the State for cleanliness and low rates.

TELEPHONE 530.

Amos H. VanHorn, Limited,

73 Market Street, Near Plane Street.

PUTNAM & DeGRAW.

Is there anything below that will interest you?

Gents Neglige shirts	75c. $1 00	Ladies hose seamless fast color black and tan	10c
Gents and Boys sweaters	25c 40c 50c	Ladies black skirts	$1.00 $1 25 $1 99
Gents long bicycle hose	25c	Ladies shirt waists,	29c, 39c, 49c, 55c
Gents medium weight underwear	39c 50c	Children's Hose, fast black, seamless,	10c
Gents half hose	10c 3 pair for 25c	" " double knee, "	18c
Gents half hose	15c 2 pair for 25c	Children's Bicycle Hose, extra heavy	15c

Remember, that we give away money. Don't fail to ask for a money order when you purchase $1 worth.

REAL ESTATE.

F. M. Bacon or Wallace Vail,

Babcock Building, Room 211.

Come and see us. We always keep a good line of houses to rent and for sale. Elegant flats, steam heated, city water and electric lights Private houses with all modern improvements. Vacant lots, farms, speculative property bought, sold and exchanged.

A gem, all improvements, $25 per month, 4 or 5 minutes from station. Farm 6 acres, house, barn, good land, 2 miles from Plainfield, $1,300—a very cheap home; easy payments. House 7 rooms, 5 minutes from station, $2,100. Store and 3 rooms $12 a month Farm 53 acres, 1,000 peach, apple and pear trees, near Flemington, $2,500.

Are You Interested

about the care of your teeth? If so, nothing like a personal trial will convince you that

Leggett's Tooth Wash

is an agreeable, refreshing and delightful dentrifice.

Sprinkler Top Bottles 25c.

Metropolitan Livery and Boarding Stables

Horses boarded by the day, week or month. Especial accommodations for transient trade

OFFICE AND STABLES,

147, 149, 151 North Avenue. Opp. Railroad Depot.

A. C. BLAIR.....Proprietor. FRANK DAY.....Manager
Telephone 152, connected with all circuits of New Jersey, New York and Brooklyn.
1 13 tf

LYNDHURST, KEATING, EAGLE, AND APOLLO BICYCLES

Charles C. Lister, 134 North Ave.

Repairing, Renting and Storing.

WE ARE READY

With large and beautiful line of Spring and Summer styles. Hats and Gents furnishings, men's and boys' Derby or Alpine hats, black, brown and tan, $1 00 to $3 00. Fancy neglige shirts, collars attached or detached 35c to $2 00. 1000 scarfs four-in-hand and made up from 10c to 75c, all new fresh goods. Special colored laundried shirts, 2 collars only, 35c worth 75c. No trouble to show our goods. Money refunded if you want it.

U. B. Crane, Hatter and Furnisher,

120 West Front street.

"A FAIRY TALE."

A tennis party was in full swing in the vicarage garden at Axmoor, a party got up for the purpose of returning the kindness of the many who had invited the vicarage people to their festivals during the fortnight preceding the afternoon I write about. Mrs. Lane, the vicar's wife had a young girl staying with her, a Miss Marie Bonner, whom the neighborhood had been doing its best to amuse by arranging a series of picnics by land and water, tennis parties galore and even an impromptu dance in her honor.

Miss Bonner was leaving Axmoor the following day, and Axmoor was unfeignedly sorry; indeed, had the lady been willing to accept all the invitations that were proffered, I venture to say she would still be in the neighborhood. "She's not exactly beautiful, but she's not the kind of person who gives you a headache when you look at her," said Charlie Spencer, who was down from the university, and up in the matter of feminine attributes. Charlie was 20 years and two months old then—an age when the critical faculties are at their best. As to her temperament, the same learned authority gave forth that "she has no corners about her," from which erudite remark his hearers deduced that he wished to convey the impression that Miss Bonner got on well with everybody.

I was at Mrs. Lane's party that afternoon, but I am afraid I did not notice what all the female populace of the place afterward informed me of, that that afternoon Miss Bonner and Gerald Blaine were inseparable; but then I am a tennis enthusiast, and in Charlie's fresh, vigorous language, a common or garden party flirtation could go on under my nose, and the probability would be that I shouldn't notice it. All I knew was that the vicarage lawn played very well, although it was on the soft side, and that Margaret Hamilton played the game properly, not as if tennis were a mere pastime, in which light it is regarded by so many girls who ought to know better.

Now Gerald Blaine was a great friend of mine, although he was an exact opposite to me in many ways; for instance, he looked upon tennis and photography—my hobbies—as very mild entertainments, but he had a profound admiration for A. E. Stoddard, the great batsman, and looked upon Wells, the Rugsby footballer, with awe. At shooting, fishing and all the violent sports he was a veritable pocket Crichton. He could make a snap shot at a bird and bring it down with a degree of certainty that was wonderful, but put a camera in his hands and his snap shots were not worth developing. Still we were the best of friends, and I was not surprised when he informed me the following day that he had something to tell me, as he generally told me everything and asked my advice about most things. When my advice coincided with his own views he took it, but on other occasions he was not so inclined to accept my subtle reasoning.

"Would you advise me to go to Canada or Australia?" he said when I had told him to fire away.

"My dear fellow," I replied, "if you will give me some data respecting your ideas regarding those two dependencies of yours I will be in a position to advise you."

"If you mean why I am going away it is simply because I am sick of this effete old country," he answered, knocking off the heads of thistles as he went along. When a man vents his anger on unoffending thistles it is advisable to approach him with strategy.

"Your liver is out of order," I continued to remark.

"Think so?" he replied, taking a short run and leaping the hedge that stretched along the right side of the path we were pursuing. "Then I will not inflict my company on you any more." Saying which he disappeared into the copse.

There was no hole in the hedge and I was not great at jumping, so I refrained from pursuing him. It was very rude of Gerald to leave me like that, but I knew him well enough to be sure that he would come round to my diggings to apologize before the day was over, so I continued on the even tenor of my way, moralizing on the subtleties of diplomacy and the psychological properties of a sluggish liver.

I had not proceeded very far when I met Mrs. Blaine, Gerald's mother.

"Have you seen Gerald to-day, Mr. Simperton?" she asked.

I replied that I had had that pleasure.

"Did he talk about taking a trip to the Himalayas and the Andes?" she continued. "If he did I implore you to talk seriously to him, and tell him not to do anything rash."

People always talk to me as though I were a hundred; it was not the first time I had been asked to talk seriously to some one older than myself. It is a very difficult thing to lecture your elders, and if I did not wear spectacles I admit the thing would be a hopeless impossibility.

"My dear Mrs. Blaine," I replied, "your son has mentioned neither the Andes nor the Himalayas to me; he certainly did ask my advice about Canada and Australia, but I do not think you need be anxious about him going to either place. I think that he is suffering from a sluggish liver and that he had better——"

"I am sure it is not that," interpolated the lady; "I believe it is all that horrid girl."

"What horrid girl?" I queried.

"That Miss Bonner, of course."

I was surprised. The idea of Miss Bonner being a girl cursed with "corners" was not so startling, but the very suggestion that Charlie Spencer's judgment could possibly be questioned staggered me not a little.

"I believe the poor boy is in love with her, and that she has behaved infamously to him, encouraging him at first and then throwing him over when she was done with him."

Mrs. Blaine was irate.

Could Charlie possibly be wrong? That was a question to ponder over.

Just as I predicted, coffee and Gerald arrived at the same moment. I was sitting enjoying a smoke after dinner when my servant ushered Gerald in. I offered my cigar case instead of the calumet of peace of ancient days, with the same result; and, the servant retiring, Gerald burst forth with a torrent of words.

"I'm awfully sorry about this afternoon, Tommy. It was a beast of a devil inside me."

"A troll, as the Ibsenites would say," said I, interrupting him. I loathe apologies.

"And I hardly know what I am doing or what I'm saying, or anything," he continued. "You must have seen everything——"

Mrs. Blaine must have been right; Gerald was decidedly behaving as if he were "clean gone on a girl," as Charlie Spencer would say.

"My dear fellow, you forget I haven't seen much of you the last few days." I felt for the first time that Gerald had deserted me while Miss Bonner was staying at Axmoor, and as he was "down on his luck"—Charliespencerese for "depressed"—I felt that a reproof would not come inappropriately.

"Then I'll tell you all about it," he continued, "and you shall advise me what I'm to do."

I saw the humor of the latter remark, but refrained from pointing it out to my visitor.

"To tell you the truth, old man, I—love Miss Bonner—"

"Well, if you had only told Miss Bonner the truth, no doubt she—"

"But, you silly idiot, I did tell her the truth."

"And she refused you? Would be a brother to you—I mean sister—same thing. My dear old Gerald, I am really sorry for you; but we must act the part of a man—no more Andes, Himalayas, Canadas and the rest of it."

"If you will only let me have a say I will tell you what happened."

"I know—a kiss-me-on-the-brow-and-part affair."

"How do you know? What do you mean?"

I had evidently hit up the right nail.

"My dear fellow, you were not accepted, so you must have been refused; she's not going to be a sister to you, so there is nothing else left." I felt rather proud of my deductions, which were in true Sherlockian style.

"You are right, Tommy; she does care for me; she said so, and yet she said we must part. She would give no reason, but simply said we must not meet again."

"Poor old chap, perhaps the insuperable objection will be removed and she will come back to Axmoor and then—tum-tum-ti-tum-tum-tumty—the 'Wedding March,' you know."

"'My dear chap,' she said, 'it would always be insurmountable.' Of course she was sorry to have been the cause of giving me any pain, she said, and that it was just as bad for her as for me, and that it could not be helped, as we had drifted into caring for each other—which was true enough," he added, reflectively.

"You have no idea what the objection was?" I asked.

"None whatever," he replied, with something resembling a sigh.

About a month later Gerald and I were staying the night at the capital of one of the smaller German principalities, and having nothing to do we decided to visit the opera. Suddenly I felt Gerald's hand on my arm—we were seated in the stalls.

"Look at the girl in the stage box," he whispered.

I looked and saw at once that the lady in it bore a distinctive likeness to the Miss Bonner who had made such an impression at Axmoor.

"She is wearing the ring I gave her for a keepsake," whispered my companion.

There could be no doubt it was Miss Bonner.

"I wonder who she is with?" said I, leveling the opera glasses at her.

My other neighbor broke into our conversation as Gerald did not reply.

"You are looking at Princess Marie," he said: "she—"

"I am looking at the lady next to the distinguished looking man in the stage box," I replied.

"Ah, yes! At the Princess Marie. She is engaged to the man next to her; he is the Grand Duke of Z—— N——" my German friend answered. "The happy event is to take place next month."

Gerald's hand closed on my arm; it was rather painful. He would not leave before the end of the piece. "I may never see her again," he said, which was true enough.

Once I thought the princess saw him, for she gave a start and twisted the ring—the keepsake ring—until only the gold showed and it resembled a wedding ring. I thought she raised it to her lips, but perhaps I was mistaken. I wear spectacles.

When I got home again I taxed the vicarage people with passing off the Princess Marie of Z—— N—— as Miss Bonner, and they, while admitting it was true, promised not to do so again. It appears that the vicar's wife used to be the princess's English governess, and the princess, having no corners about her, as Charlie said, had come to the vicarage for a fotnight's visit as Miss Bonner, to get rid of the irksome etiquette which surrounds a member of the reigning family of the Grand Duchy of Z—— N——, and to see her dear old friend.

Mrs. Lane is a real good sort, but I have taken the precaution to ascertain from Margaret Hamilton (who is staying there now) that she is not a princess in disguise—I don't want to have poor old Gerald's affair over again.

"She was wearing my ring," was the only remark that Gerald made afterward.—From the Westminster Budget.

Cleveland Bicycles,

The Great Leaders of 1895.

Design, Improvements, Workmanship, Quality, Speed, Health, Pleasure, Business, Road, Track.

The Fastest, Strongest, Handsomest and Most Rigid Wheel.

The "Swell Specials" are a decided advance in bicycle construction and when quality alone is considered will always sell.

Liberty, Crescent, Waverly, Majestic

We thoroughly believe in the merits of the above wheels, and unhesitatingly recommend them.

F. L. C. Martin Cycle Co.,

333 Park Avenue.

Repairs. Established 1889. Rentals.

That represents the best that is made. If you want style, wear and comfort, wear the Hanan shoe, all shapes in Russia calf and patent leather.

ALEX. WILLETT & SON,

SHOES MADE TO ORDER. 107 PARK AVENUE.

E. E. MARSHALL & CO.

167 NORTH AVENUE.

WALL PAPERS, PAINTING, And Interior Decorating.

Designs submitted for frescoing.

PIANO BARGAINS.

Vanderbeek & Sattels

desire to say that they have just received a fine lot of

New Pianos

of different makes which they will sell at prices never before offered. Among them are those wonderful

Behr Brothers Pianos

Also Behning & Sons.

They represent also the Knabe, Hazelton, Chickering and many others.

They offer from time to time excellent

BARGAINS IN Second-Hand Pianos

221 PARK AVENUE.

THE CZAR,

The Handsomest Wheel Ever Produced.

HIGHEST GRADE MADE.

E. FRANK VAIL, Agent,

177 North avenue.

A Spring Gown

is a subject for thought. Haven't you some of last season's dresses that can be made useful? They may need cleaning, or perhaps dyeing—either we do perfectly, and it costs only two dollars or two dollars and a half,

Hillier & Co.

175 North ave.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 Watchung Ave.

DEALERS IN

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement

For walls and ceilings.

STORM DRIVEN.

By "The Duchess," Author of "Molly Bawn," Etc.

CHAPTER II.

(Copyright, 1895, by Bacheller, Johnson & Bacheller.)

As she turns to leave the bridge two figures on the path below attract her attention. They are the young girl with the invalid mother, and the tall, stalwart, honest-looking Englishman. At a point that commands a view of the lovely valley spreading below, they come to a standstill, and Mrs. Allingham, a little fascinated, lingers to watch them. Is this going to be a happy marriage? The man looks very much in earnest, but the girl——

At this moment the girl turns and looks eagerly backward upon the path she has just traveled. All at once her face has brightened and just as suddenly the man at her side seems to sink into insignificance. She has no longer a thought for him. Clare, with a sense of pity for her lover, knows at once that her eyes, her thoughts, all belong to the owner of the footsteps that are now distinctly to be heard coming up the path behind them.

Impelled by a sort of queer curiosity she leans forward to see what the man is like that this young creature can prefer to the handsome boy at her side. The bridge prevents her at first from seeing him, but now the footsteps are nearer—they are evidently hurried—and now——

By a supreme effort she controls the wild cry that rises to her lips! Oh! God!

FALLING ON HER KNEES, SHE CROUCHED BACK AGAINST THE RAILING.

not here—not now. Oh! fool to have made so sure! Falling on her knees she crouches back against the railings behind her. In this position she is entirely hidden from those on the path below. For a moment a sickening faintness almost overpowers her.

Then she compels herself to listen. The voice—his voice—oh, the horror of it!—comes up clear and strong.

"So I have found you again, you see. I told you I should. You"—how bold, how certain, the voice is—"have not quite forgotten me?"

"Oh, no, Mr. Prendergast."

So. He has changed his name (a little notorious at present) lest it should frighten this pretty fly from his web. Mrs. Allingham's lips, even in her deep agitation, curl involuntarily. Then all at once she remembers something. She shrinks as if from herself, and her face grows whiter. What about his and her name?

"I am bound to go on to Darmitz this evening to meet a friend there, and to-morrow claims me, too, but after that—you will be still here?"

The woman above listening can imagine the impassioned glance that accompanies this question. She has been through it.

"Yes—yes," says the girl, in her soft low tone.

"Ah! In the mean time"——

"Good bye."

"No, no. Au revoir!"

Then the little play is over. He has gone back to the carriage waiting for him on the lower road, from whence, no doubt, he had seen her, and the other two have turned the corner and gone on, in ominous silence. Clare gets slowly to her feet. That child and that man! What a devil he is! He has evidently kept her in ignorance of his marriage, and to let her love him, not knowing.

Again she seems to remember, and stops suddenly, as if stabbed to the heart. Oh, God! What is she doing?

Well, well, well! We must all sow, we must all reap, and if that girl chooses to fling away her life, what is it to her?

Something, however, it must be, because all the way back to the hotel, under the scented leaves, and with the growing night wind blowing upon her, the child's pure, lovely face is ever with her. So might her own face once have looked, before they sold her to the highest bidder!

Her heart softens. Yes; she will speak to the girl to-night—will warn her. She will do one good deed before * * * But if the doing of it should betray her! No; no fear of that. He had said he would not be back until the day after to-morrow, and by that time she will be far away. Oh, that it were farther!

* * * * * * * *

The evening has grown late, and all the lights of heaven are resplendent.

"THERE HE IS!" WHISPERS SHE.

Scarce a sound can be heard, save the calm rushing of the river down below, and the sigh of the wind in the trees.

Above, the "Gilded sickle of the new made moon Leading the pale lamp of the evening star," is shining brilliantly.

On the terrace stands Mrs. Allingham, holding the girl's hand closely in her own.

"Give up that man, Amy. He is unworthy. Why, why do you let him make love to you? Oh, how hard it is to explain—to you—who do not know the meaning of the word! But the real thing, real love, is all purity, believe me."

"Yes?" says the girl, looking distressed, puzzled.

"There is Mr. Borthwick," goes on Clare, eagerly. "He is in love with you!"

"Oh, Mrs. Allingham, I," with frightened, pretty eyes, and a rising color like nothing on earth so much as a blush rose, "I don't think any one is in love with me."

"Mr. Borthwick is," says Mrs. Allingham, in her queer, direct way. Then "Where did you meet this—Mr. Prendergast?"

"In Berlin—a month ago."

"And he has followed you here?"

"I—I don't know."

"I do. Amy," tightening her grasp on the girl's arm. "Put him out of your mind. Refuse to see him again. If you encourage him, you will regret it only once, but that will be forever. Give your heart to Mr. Borthwick. He is good, true, honorable. He is a man, Amy. The other is"——

The girl leans forward, breathlessly. "Is?"

"A brute!" says Mrs. Allingham, relentlessly.

"Oh, no, no!" faintly.

Oh, yes, yes!" vehemently. "And you, you little white flower of a child, to dream of accepting the love of a thing like that! Why, he would crush the life out of you, and then—leave you."

"Oh, it is horrible! It isn't true," says the girl.

"It is true! Do you think I don't know?"

"Know! How can you know?"

"Because," Mrs. Allingham's brows contract, "I knew just such a man as he is."

There is such bitterness in her tone that the girl feels awed by it, to the extent of forgetting her own troubles for the moment.

"I—I'm afraid you have not been happy," says she, timidly.

Mrs. Allingham breaks into laughter, low, but mirthless. Then she restrains herself.

"Not very. But that's neither here nor there. The question now is your happiness. You will wonder why I care about it; but I was only a child like you, when—and—well, I would not have you live the life I lived! And yours will be worse, mind you, if you listen to that man; for mine was 'in the world's jargon, honorable misery, whereas yours'"——

"I—I don't think you understand Mr. Prendergast," says the girl, nervously.

"Don't I? Then, almost fiercely: "Are you mad, child? Can't you see the difference between these two men. One would raise you to his own the level, the other would degrade you—oh!" with a touch of pain, "I can't bear to speak more plainly. Can't you take what I say, and believe in it? I tell you I speak from a most melancholy past."

Her eyes are full of tears. How can she save this silly child, without being brutally direct?

"Oh, you have suffered!" cries the girl, in a low tone. The tender mounting moon has cast its rays upon the tears that are trembling to their fall in Mrs. Allingham's beautiful eyes. Amy, with a sudden movement, goes to her, as if to cast her arms around her, but Mrs. Allingham, with a swift gesture, puts her back. Who is she that she should let innocent arms encircle her?

"We must all suffer," says she, coldly. "It is to save you from unnecessary suffering that I now speak. You can heed me or not, as you like. But I felt it my duty to warn you."

"What I think," says the girl, a little thrown back upon herself by that sharp repulse, "is, that you misjudge Mr. Prendergast. To me he is kind—very kind, and," a little defiantly, "mamma thinks him charming."

"It," with a faint sneer, "shows great discrimination on your mother's part."

"He is very kind to her, too. He quite studies her."

Mrs. Allingham makes a little impulsive gesture.

"It is a pity she does not study him," with a touch of indignation. "If your mother sometimes forgot herself and thought more of you, it would be better, both for her soul and body. I tell you, Mr. Prendergast is no fit associate for you."

"Mamma does not think so," says the girl, with a little soft, offended air. "She likes him, and—so do I!"

"Yes?" Mrs. Allingham laughs derisively. The time has come for that denouement she would have avoided. "His wife doesn't," says she.

There is a long silence. Then a little gasping sigh from the girl, breaking on the evening air, brings them both back to the present. Mrs. Allingham's heart is full of remorse. Yet what else could she do. She has tried everything—and—

"I told you he was a brute," says she. She lays her hand on the girl's shoulder and shakes her gently. "There, now, you know! Give him his congé at once—and your heart, if you can, to Mr. Borthwick. He will treasure it."

As she speaks, a shadow falls across the moonlit terrace.

"There he is," whispers she, looking for you—waiting for you. Go to him."

The girl stirs uneasily. Then, seeing herself discovered, moves straight to where the tall Englishman is standing, hesitating as to whether he shall go to her or not. The last Mrs. Allingham sees of them is satisfactory. The girl's head is downcast, indeed, but she has let her hand be imprisoned by Borthwick, who looks as if he would keep it against all odds, to the end of time.

(To be continued.)

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds. Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

SUNDAY HEADACHES.

THE PECULIAR MALADY THAT KEEPS SO MANY MEN FROM CHURCH.

Dr. Collyer Says Stupid Sermons Are Too Common—Dr. Talmage, Dr. Abbott and Others Differ as to the Cause and Means of Cure.

There are a variety of reasons why people don't go to church, and a number of leading divines have constituted a most interesting symposium on this timely and important subject by airing their views upon the question.

The Rev. Dr. Robert Collyer, one of our best known ministers, says: "People don't go to church because we ministers are so stupid. We preach about Noah and the Ark, when we should be talking about topics of burning interest that will attract the attention of the average man and woman. Too many of us think we are called and sent of God to preach the Gospel, when we are really better fitted for most any other profession or avocation in life. It is no longer a matter of opinion that the church has lost her hold on the masses. Fully one-half of our population never enter any church, and there must, of necessity, be many causes of this alienation, yet the cause is the fact that the church has not recognized her social mission; has not taught and exemplified the brotherhood of men, has not looked upon Christ's second great law, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself,' as the practical organic law of society. The church has preached the first law and neglected the second. When she preaches the whole Gospel instead of a half Gospel she will win the masses."

The Rev. Dr. T. De Witt Talmage says: "A preacher who enforces able preaching by excellent and especially benevolent living is sure to win the sympathy of men everywhere to him and fill his church. There are more churches to-day than there ever were before, and, as a rule, they never were so acceptably filled. The church, considered collectively, is growing."

The Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott, pastor of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, says: "The subject is a large one and involves a number of issues. I cannot say that the church is waning, as some men think. In this old church there has been a steady gain during the past year. The outlook is gratifyingly encouraging."

The Rev. Madison C. Peters, pastor of the Bloomingdale Reformed Church, New York, says: "People do not go to church because they are not interested. Short services and shorter sermons are insisted on by the taste of the day. Why this impatience of preaching? A true adage says: 'A sermon, like a pudding, must have something in it.' We have all heard men preach who would have made as good sportsmen as the Irishman who aimed at nothing and hit it every time. Good old Andrew Fuller once exclaimed: 'Oh, the holiness of their living and the painfulness of their preaching!' No amount of moral and spiritual excellence will make a stupid man a good pastor. Fifty pastoral visits a week, sipping tea and nursing babies, will not hold a thinking audience on Sunday. Many ministers have brains enough, but they do not seem to have brains enough to know how practically to use their brains. The Gospel affords the grandest theme for genuine eloquence, and the last place on earth one should expect to find dulness ought to be in the pulpit. Our empty pews are largely due to weakness in power of statement and oratorical inefficiency of the ministry.

"A preacher once asked a famous tragedian, 'Why is it that you are able to produce so much more effect with the recital of your fictions than we do by the delivery of the most important truths?' He said:

"'You speak truths as if they were fictions; we speak fictions as if they were truths.'

"The want of rhetorical culture in the pulpit is one of the greatest and most constant causes of failure to get the people into the pew. Fill the pulpit and the pews will fill themselves."

The Rev. Antoinette Brown Blackwell says: "The majority who stay at home on Sunday are probably those who have so far outgrown the church doctrines, with their related hopes and fears, customarily enforced by the minister, that the continued reiteration of them excites uncomfortable mental protest not conducive to religious edification. It is the steady drop of 'vinegar upon niter' shut into a cast iron bottle too strong to give way, but too narrow to allow of comfortable effervescence. Minds unsettled as to past beliefs, but not resettled as to future ones, instinctively find it good to be left alone.

"Until some new vista into a more assured beyond can afford a wider outlook, respectable waiting seems to be a better attitude than either a silent or an open antagonism and revolt. The minority do not willingly force an issue with the majority unless something is to be gained in the encounter.

"Of course there are all shades and grades of questions and of shaken belief. Very few are willing to renounce a great hope because gathering clouds partially obscure the brightness; yet it is oftener a serener comfort not to be perpetually recalling the uncertain tenure by which it is held insecurely.

The Cheerful Lunatic.

The Medical Press tells a story of a gentleman who went to visit a friend who was an inmate of a lunatic asylum. When he had been there about an hour he looked at the clock and asked if it was right. The lunatic gazed at him with a look of compassion on his face for a minute or so, and then said: "Do you think it would be here if it was right, you lunatic?"

BAMBERGER'S
"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE"
147 and 149 Market Street,
NEWARK, N. J.

BOYS' CLOTHING.

That boy of yours needs clothing that will stand the romping and jumping and running around that boys always do. It's here, made in the right way—wear—resisting, perfect-fitting and sewed strongly.

Four Special lots for this week!

Boys' Knee Pants

Cheviots, worsteds and cassimeres well made with strong waist bands, sizes 3 to 15, usually 89 to 98c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Blouses

Extra quality, white lawn, trimmed with colored insertion, sizes 2 to 8, usually 79c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits

All-wool, fancy trimmed, pants embroidered with rows and buckle, sizes 3 to 7, regular $2.69, at $1.73.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits

Finished in best manner, sizes 4 to 15, with long cut coats, and pants with taped seams, regular $2.89, at $1.98.

L. BAMBERGER & CO.,
147 and 149 Market st., Newark.
Free delivery everywhere. Prompt attention given to mail orders.

Progressive Plainfield's
Progressive Store.
BOYS' SHIRT WAISTS.

Fancy calico plaited front, 6 to 10 years, 19c each.
Striped outing, plaited front, 6 to 10 years, 22c each.
Fancy Cambric, plaited front and back, 6 to 10 years, 25c each.
Fancy duck with pocket, 6 to 10 years, 28c each.
Fancy duck plaited front and back 6 to 10 years, 35c each.
Fauntelroy sailor collar ruffle front and back, fancy cheviot, 48c each.
French percale, plaited front and back, 6 to 10 years, 50c each.

Van Emburgh & Son!

THEY ARE BEAUTIES.

Our Ladies Kid We't Oxford with new plain tip, the latest; Russet Kid 3 button Oxford, something new; Our $2 Oxfords are noted for their wear.

ALEX WILLETT & SON,
107 Park Avenue.
OPEN UNTIL 9 P. M.

Choice Soda

O, thirsty mortal ever ready today at Randolph's. The ancients knew no such pleasure as a delicious draught of our doubled-refined thirst annihilators. Good for the stomach, beneficial for the brain, light on the pocket, refreshing for young or old. Composed of materials of purity unsurpassed. We may live without poetry, music and art, but to be without soda is not to be tolerated. What more need we say? Drink it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist, 143 West Front st.

MIZZEN PEAK COTTAGE,
WATCHUNG MOUNTAINS,
Bound Brook, N J

Superior French board at moderate prices. Dinner to order. Table d'Hote 75 cents with ½ bottle of Mizzen Peak claret.

Bowling Alley.

JEUX DE TONNEAU.

Beautiful view, fine shady grounds, sheds stables, etc.
5 4 3m

FURNITURE
MOVING
Telephone 121. Office 161 North ave.
HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS.

J. W. VAN SICKLE,
Dealer in all kinds of
Fresh and Salt Meats
GAME IN SEASON
New No. 129., North Ave., Plainfield
Telephone 148 B. Orders called for and delivered promptly

Neuman Bro's
Specials tomorrow in
Fresh Vegetables.

Green Peas, Green Beans, Wax Beans, Asparagus, Tomatoes, Lettuce, Cucumbers, Water Cress, Spinach, Radishes, Rhubarb, Bunch Onions, Oyster Plant, Beets, New Carrots, New Potatoes.

STRAWBERRIES.

MISS E. ROCKFELLOW
DRESSMAKING PARLORS,
195 North Avenue.
Taylor System. Suits $5 and upward.
5 1 1m

A large variety of all the Latest Styles in Hats and Bonnets can be found at the Millinery Establishment of
MRS. L. ADAMS,
111 EAST FRONT STREET.
Under First National Bank.

MISS CLARIBEL JEFFERY, teacher of Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar. Best references. 222 W. Front street. Call Wednesdays.
4 25 1m

Promises!

are easy made and easy broken, we promised you big bargains in dress goods this week, we intend keeping our word. 75 pieces of dress goods from the receiver's sale of Jaffray & Co., at a sacrifice. 25 pieces all wool cashmere 38 inch 25c worth 50. 10 pieces fancy mixed worsteds 36 inch 25c worth 40. 15 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 50c worth 75. 8 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 65 worth 90. 5 pieces silk and wool covert cloths 54 inch 95 worth $1 25 5 pieces all-wool serges light shades 65 worth $1 00 complete the dress; we have just what you need. Double faced silesia 10c plain silesias 9c, the best skirt cambrics 5c, fibre chamois different shades 35c. Hair cloth from 10c to 60.

Linings

Corsets

For one week we sell the W. B. corset 5 hook for 68c.

Duck Suits

A duck suit made up in the latest style only 99c; surprising, isn't it?

CAMBRICS

Fast color cambrics 7-8 wide 6c a yard.

A CUT

on every article in our housefurnishing goods department; our 87c hall lamp is sold elsewhere for $1 10.

Millinery.

We still lead in fashionable head wear.

BOEHM'S,
113 WEST FRONT STREET

—THE—
Buying Population

in and around Plainfield are awake to the great values we are offering. We never have any trouble selling to those who have visited other stores before calling on us. We not only attract trade—we keep it. We invite comparison.

POINTERS.

Men's clay diagonal suits in Regent frock, at $10.50.

Men's all-wool suits in long sack, single or double breasted, $3 75, $7 50 and $9 50.

Running water is never stale. Our stock is like a river—always moving.

WERNER'S.
Plainfield, N. J.

Revere House

Park Ave, 7th and 8th St.

GEORGE B. DEREVERE & CO.

Thoroughly renovated and now open for transient or permanent guests.

5 1 tf

IT'S A FACT

that we sell Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Shirts, Underwear, Ties, etc., cheaper than any house in town. Buying from merchants who are pressed for cash, we buy our goods at our own price and sell them cheap.

Everything sold is fully recommended or money refunded. Boys' School Suits from $1.25; Boys' Long Pants Suits $2 up; Men's Serviceable Suits $3.50 to $6; Men's Suits for dress wear $5.50 and upwards; Derbys, equal to any $3 hat, at $1.50.

It is to your benefit to examine our goods before buying elsewhere.

Plainfield Bargain House.

J. Goldstein, 126 Park ave.

THE DAILY PRESS

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 1895. TWO CENTS A COPY. $5 A YEAR.

THE MOUSE RAN UP THE CLOCK,

Chewed Off the Cord that Suspended the Weight, and Great Was the Fall Thereof.

A mouse, so small that its entire carcase would n't furnish more than one bite for a half-grown cat, met a tragic end Monday, and incidentally caused a racket that frightened a domestic employed in a North Plainfield dwelling nearly out of her senses. The episode occurred at 43 Jackson avenue, the residence of Elisha Coriell. In the corner of the sitting room, a tall grandfather's clock has stood in stately grandeur for years. Its machinery was worked by two immense weights attached by cord to the striker and time making apparatus respectively. The timepiece is an eigh-tday clock and it has always been the family's custom to wind it on Sunday night. So, when, on Monday afternoon Mr. Mouse got in his work the weights were almost as high from the floor as it was possible to get them.

There were no eye-witnesses of the tragedy, but a careful examination of the ruins makes the subjoined account of the havoc seem true: The mouse ran up the inside of the clock, and being hungry determined to make a meal on the oil that had recently been rubbed on the cords to make them strong. At any rate, one of them snapped off. A terrific crash followed. Down came one weight, then the other, then the clock work, and finally the whole frame work. The mouse too shared in the destruction, its head being crushed by a big wheel.

The house at the time was unoccupied save by Hulda Anderson, the domestic. She was in the kitchen, and the racket made her think that a burglar upstairs had fallen over a chair. Her fright was almost sublime.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Last Tour of the Season via Pennsylvania Railroad.

A trip to Washington, D. C., under any circumstances, cannot but prove interesting and instructive, but when made under the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's perfect personally-conducted tourist system, the trip is an ideal one in every particular.

The last tour of this season's series leaves New York and Philadelphia May 23.

The rates, including accommodations at Washington's best hotels, are $13 50 from New York and $11.50 from Philadelphia; proportionate rates from other points.

Detailed itinerary will be sent on application to Tourist Agent, 1196 Broadway, New York, or Room 411, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

Death of Mrs. Phebe Terry.

The death of Mrs. Phebe C. Terry which occurred Monday morning at the residence of her son-in-law, Eugene W. Brokaw, 240 East Fourth street, is a severe affliction to her many friends who had known and loved her. She was troubled considerable with her heart, and frequent fainting spells would leave her in a weakened condition. It was during one of these attacks that she died.

Mrs. Terry was in the eighty-fifth year of her age, and was well known in Plainfield. Two sons survive her, Noah Terry, who lives at Netherwood, and Samuel C. Terry, Sr., of East Front street.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2, from the residence of her son-in-law. Interment will be in Westfield.

Rathbone Sisters' Calico Hop.

A pleasant calico hop was given by the Rathbone Sisters last evening in the hall over Hallock's hat store.

After the friends had gathered it was discovered that there would not be room enough, so the large crowd adjourned to Red Men's Hall, West Front street, and continued the festivities.

Considerable amusement was furnished through the excellent use of calico aprons and necktles, though all did not follow out the plan intended.

Supper was served in the first hall used at a late hour, and when the merry dancers left for home it was nearly 3 this morning.

The affair was arranged and planned by Mrs. I. H. Boehm and Mrs. John Haberle.

A Pointer for Council and Counsel.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY PRESS:—For the information of the Borough Council, I can state that a law was passed last Winter allowing township committees and boroughs the privilege of voting money for Memorial Day observances not to exceed $100. LAYMAN.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at Randolph's drug store.

KILLED AND INJURED.

Record of the New Jersey Railroads For 1894.

The slaughter on the railroads of New Jersey during the year of 1894 represents 265 persons killed and 1,192 injured. The returns of the companies include only one of the trolley roads, that of the Jersey City and Bergen Railroad, belonging to the Consolidated Traction system. Why the other trolley roads are omitted from the report does not appear. If the returns were complete for all the surface roads of the State, the total of dead and injured would be greatly enlarged.

The Pennsylvania Railroad is the largest system in the State, and reports a total of 82 killed and 409 wounded. The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western system comes next with 46 killed and 164 wounded. The Central Railroad is a good third with 37 killed and 206 wounded.

Mr. Thorn's Straightforward Course.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY PRESS:—My application for license would have been presented to the Council the same night Mr. Haurand's was; but after I had sent it to the Council room that night, I was told that my brother had taken two doctors to examine in regard to her mental faculty, and that they had certified that she was not of sound mind. I then immediately sent for my petition and drew ink marks through her name, as I did not want her infirmity made public, and as I had already signed the application myself I supposed there would be no trouble, as I have the same right and interest in the property my brother has. I signed last year and there was no objection made then. But I have been told, by one who ought to know, that my license was refused because I did not apply when the rest did. I never knew there was a stated time to apply for a license, if there is, will the Council refuse to license the Netherwoood or Albion should they apply?

I have been in the hotel and saloon business since the close of the war, being forced to quit my trade by physical disability, and I think I have kept as orderly and respectable place as was possible. I think the Council should have stated on what grounds they refused me a license.

EDWARD P. THORN.

Mission Social.

An entertainment and social was given in the East Third Street Mission last evening under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor society. The affair was arranged by Miss Mary Thorn, chairman of that branch of work in the Mission. The entertainment consisted of singing by a chorus of girls from the Sunday-school, and recitations, soprano solos by Miss F. May Grant, violin solos by Robert Barnes, and piano solos by Miss Randolph. The entire programme was finely rendered and appreciated by the large audience. At the close all were served with excellent lemonade and cake.

Foreman Bodine.

The following officers were elected by Warren Engine Company last night: Foreman—D. Bodine; first assistant—B. F. Conover; recording secretary—D. C. Allen; financial secretary—W. T. Newman; treasurer—S. B. Joseph; engineer—P. Kellegher; first assistant—Thomas Melcher; stoker—S. B. Joseph; member to Firemen's Relief Association (3 years)—W. T. Newman; board of visitors—J. J. Stahl, S. B. Joseph, D. Bodine and J. D. Anderson.

Boycotting Plainfield Garbage.

No more refuse of any kind will be permitted to be dumped by ashmen and scavengers from this city within the borough limits. They must find dumping grounds on this side of the brook. The marshals have been notified by the Council to put a stop to it, saying that they have enough tin cans and other rubbish, and to spare, already over there, of their own.

No Reason to Change.

The following were elected yesterday as directors of the Plainfield Water Supply Company for the ensuing year: John Kean, Jr., H. G. Runkle, James Maguire, E. R. Pope, and Frank Bergen.

At the next meeting of the directors, officers will be chosen, which will probably be the same as those now serving.

Fourth-of-July Field Day.

The suggestion of John Petrie that a day of field sports be arranged for Fourth of July was received with much favorable comment by local sportsmen when they read the proposition in The Daily Press last night. Among all the various athletic clubs in the city a big day could be made out of such an event as proposed.

—Tomorrow only Thursday, May 9, table oil cloth 1¼ yard wide 10 cents yard at VanEmburgh & Son's.

I recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. There is no better liniment made. I have sold over 100 bottles of it this year and all were pleased who used it. J. F. Pierson, druggist, South Chicago, Ill. It is for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

PLAINFIELD BRANCH ALLIANCE.

Liberal Christian Women Elect Officers for Another Year.

The annual election of the Plainfield Branch Alliance of Unitarian and Other Liberal Christian Women was held yesterday afternoon, with the following result: President, Mrs. David P. Hall; vice-president, Mrs. E. W. Conklin; recording secretary, Miss Edith R. Leonard; corresponding secretary, Miss Ruth D. Leonard; treasurer, Mrs. S. R. Krom; executive committee, Mrs. Hobart Clark, Mrs. W. F. Adams, Mrs. H. B. Wells, Miss M. B. Browne, Miss E. L. Reynolds; secretary of postoffice mission, Miss E L Reynolds; religious news committee, Mrs. R. C. Leonard, Mrs. Edgar H. Mumford; committee on Needle Work Circle, Mrs. W. F. Adams, Mrs. F. H. Hebard; committee on church decoration, Misses Carrie and Annie Haviland; chairman of lecture committee, Mrs. E. W. Conklin; librarian, Miss M. B. Browne; committee of programme for 1895 96, Mrs. H. B. Wells, Miss Edith R. Leonard.

All the various reports made showed the society to be in a prosperous condition, with 37 members.

PLAINFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY AND READING ROOM.

Librarian's Report for the Month of April, 1895.

Volumes on accession-book, March 31	13,579
" added by purchase	139
Volumes added by gift	47
Volumes now in the library	13,265
Number of card-holders	3,586
Cash rec'd from fines	$ 20.01
" " " non-resident subscriptions	$ 2.00
Home Circulation.
Fiction	1208
Juvenile	498
Biography	115
Travel	181
Philosophy	14
Religion	36
Sociology	34
Philology	1
Natural science	71
Useful arts	19
Fine arts	51
Literature	192
History	129
General works	18
Total	2027
Total for April, '94	2367
Increase	270
Average circulation per day	101
Visitors to building	3,398

Gifts during the month:

April 4, from E. L. Hyde, bas-relief cast of Mr. G. H. Babcock. April 4, from the publisher, Raum's "Tour Around the World". April 12, from Mrs. R. C. Leonard, 21 volumes. April 22, from C. Scribner's Sons, index to App. Annual Cyclopedia. April 23, from Mr. Clark, N. Y. Hist. Soc. Collections, vs. 8, 12, (2 sets). April 23, from a friend, Mrs. Hale's "Record of Distinguished Women". April 27, from Mrs. B. Fosgate, 3 bound volumes of Galaxy. April 29, from Miss A. Shaw, 14 volumes. April 30, from the State of New Jersey, N. J. Law reports, v. 56.

EMMA L. ADAMS, Librarian.

MUST HURRY THOSE SEWERS.

Cook & Co. May Have to Pay Forfeits After June 1.

Civil Engineer Gavett last night notified Cook & Co., the sewer contractors, that they would be obliged to hurry along the trenching on West Front st. faster than is being done. Their time limit for the completion of the contract expires June 1, and Councilman Frost this morning told a Daily Press reporter that the $10 a day forfeiture would be enforced against them for every day they work over that time. It is therefore probable that a larger force of men will be put to work.

COMMENCEMENT HONORS.

Helen Hazen and Thomas Blair to Share Them.

The honors for scholarship in the High School graduating class of '95 will be shared by Helen A. Hazen and Thomas D. Blair. One will be valedictorian, the other salutatorian.

Rev. Dr. A. V. V. Raymond will be the visiting orator.

Individual Bowls.

The following were the bowlers in the two-men tournament at Dunellen last night: Bamberger and Neal against Darling and Hand; Bamberger and Neal against Sanford and Waring; Darling and Hand against Sanford and Hand. The players tomorrow night are: Woolston and Wilson against Shaw and Brown; Woolston and Wilson against McConnell and Clippell; Shaw and Brown against McConnell and Clippell.

Reduced Rates to Philadelphia via C. R. R. of N. J.

On the occasion of the dedication of the Odd Fellows' Temple at Philadelphia May 21, 1895, the Central Railroad of New Jersey will sell to the public, excursion tickets to Philadelphia, good to go on May 20 and 21, and for return until May 23 inclusive. One single fare for the round trip.

Fanwood Borough Election.

Freeholder F. W. Westcott today publishes in The Daily Press call for a special election to be held in the Clubhouse May 18, on the Fanwood borough question.

BREAK EVEN AGAIN.

Park and Country Clubs Win Two Events Apiece.

CONTEST EXCITING BUT FRIENDLY.

The Return All-Around Contest Between the Two Clubs Played Last Night—Country Club Victorious at Pool and Billiards and Park Club at Bowling and Whist.

In the return all-around contest between the Country and Park Clubs, played in the Country clubhouse last night, the contestants again broke even by each winning two of the four games played—the Park Club at bowling and whist and Country Club at billiards and pool. The games were all played with a vim, though with the utmost friendliness between the participants. At the close of the contest a lunch was served. The results were as follows:

BOWLING.

PARK CLUB.		COUNTRY CLUB.
Brooks	131	Brown	153
Leonard	131	VanBoskerck	130
Hegeman	135	Herring	140
Worth	158	Booth	144
Smith	180	Jackson	124
Murray, W.	171	Bogert	145
VanBuren	150	Kimball	149
Waring	147	Wharton	138
Thiers	141	Beebe	148
Matthews	96	Burnett	124
	1440		1395

WHIST.

COUNTRY CLUB.		PARK CLUB.
Coffin and Ladd	3	Reed and Reed	7
Kirchoff and Perkins	10	Rogers and Howell	4
Dumont and Beebe	5	Townsend and McCutchen	9
	18		20

POOL.

DeWitt, Country Club			150
Hinrichs, Park Club			110
Stockton, Country Club			150
Erickson, Park Club			112
Country Club	300	Park Club	229

BILLIARDS.

Murray, Country Club			150
VanDeventer, Park Club			91
Chapman, Country Club			150
Brooks, Park Club			95
Country Club	300	Park Club	186

STALE CHARGES RESURRECTED.

Mr. Reinhart Finds Criticism One of the Results of Greatness.

J. W. Reinhart of Netherwood, ex-president of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad, said to a Press reporter today:

"My attention has been directed to the article in the New York Herald this morning. The matter is a mere repetition of the stale and unfounded charges first made use of last Summer and now apparently republished by persons seeking notoriety. Such flimsy insinuations should not be tried in the public press. An attack like this is evidently one of the penalties to which one is subject who has held a position of responsibility and care with great concerns during a period of severe financial depression."

HIS WARPAINT ON.

Ex-Councilman Spangenberg After the Railway Company with a Sharp Stick.

Ex-Councilman Spangenberg, who has been working so zealously for street-railway extension, heartily commends the stand of The Daily Press in demanding the construction of local routes before the through line, and says that if the company do not show at the Council meeting May 20 that they mean business he will call a public indignation meeting to head off the through-line scheme till after the local extensions are made.

Individual Cups.

In his lecture in the Park Avenue Baptist Church last night Stephen R. Krom talked particularly of the need of individual communion cups in churches to avoid the contagion of diseases by bacteria being transferred from the unhealthy to the healthy person by means of all using the same cup.

—A number of High School cyclists went yesterday on a run to New Brunswick, where they visited Ernest Rapalje, formerly a member of the High School and now a member of the Rutgers "Prep".

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

FLAG FOR THE CAMP.

Women's Relief Corps Does a Generous Thing.

John Hand Camp, No. 58, S. of V., were given a most complete and enjoyable surprise at their meeting last night. While transacting the business of the evening, word was sent to the room that a delegation of the Woman's Relief Corps were in the ante-room, and wished to gain admittance. A recess was declared for a few minutes, the door was opened, and the entire Corps were escorted to the room. A line was formed on each side. The last member to come in was Department President Mrs. Edward C. Morse; she carried a large, handsome American flag, and standing in front of the altar said in part:

"Captain, officers and members of John Hand Camp, No. 58, S. of V. It is appropriate that your first appearance will be on Memorial Day, and then this beautiful flag will be unfurled for the first time; remembering that the Sons of Veterans was organized to perpetuate Friendship, Charity and Loyalty, and in memory of John Hand, I present you with this flag."

It was received with hearty applause and three loud cheers for the women and the flag.

Captain W. C. Dobbins then in a few words on behalf of the Camp accepted the handsome gift, assuring the donors that the appreciation was far more than could be expressed in words.

The women then retired and in a half hour returned with an abundance of refreshments, and the rest of the evening was spent in a very pleasant social way.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Harry Yaeger now has charge of all mail orders in Edsall's.

—Paugh-Caugh-Nough-Sinque Tribe of Red Men meet tonight.

—The Rasores met at the home of Dr. King on Putnam avenue yesterday.

—Central Lodge, A. O. U. W., will initiate one candidate tomorrow night.

—The Hillside Tennis Club will have a contest Decoration Day for open doubles.

—Crescent Division, U. R., K. of P., will initiate two candidates this evening.

—Perseverance Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will work two ranks Friday night.

—The Independent Fife and Drum Corps held a business meeting last night.

—Seven candidates will take the second rank in Unity Lodge, K. of P., this evening.

—The Odd Ladies will give an entertainment in Red Men's Hall Friday evening.

—The Ladies Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian Church will enjoy a sociable Friday evening.

—Policeman McCue is doing uptown duty today, while Sergeant Kiely is in Elizabeth as a witness before the Grand Jury.

—A meeting of the Charities Aid Association Committee will be held tomorrow night. The Council of the Association will meet next Monday evening.

—The May walk of the Saengerbund society takes place next Sunday. The start will be made from their hall at 5:30. The pedestrians will go to the mountains.

—Clifford Brady badly injured his wheel a night or two ago by colliding with another bicyclist at the corner of West Seventh street and Arlington avenue.

—The third track of the Jersey Central is out of use while the Watchung and Park avenue bridges are being repaired, which necessitates fast trains going west to use the switch above the North Avenue station.

—Application for two liquor licenses have been made to the County Court from New Providence. A hearing will be given them Saturday. Ex-Judge W. R. Codington has been employed by the township board to oppose the granting of them.

—A number of witnesses was summoned before the Grand Jury at Elizabeth today to give evidence in the case of Willie Drake and William Connett, who were held on the charge of stealing three bags of oats from a car owned by French Brothers.

—The warm weather makes one wish he were in colder climes. As long as the desire can not be gratified, the next best thing is to buy a glass of Tier's delicious ice-cream soda for five cents a glass. His French ice-cream must be tasted to be appreciated.

—One usually associates the idea of low prices with cheap goods. Exactly the opposite is true of Love's fine wall-papers. He is offering some beautiful papers at very low prices. Take a dollar bill with you, and you can carry away from ten to twenty pieces of fine wall-paper.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY.

PLAINFIELD LISTENS TO THE FOREIGN MISSIONS CALL.

Earnest Workers from the World's Broad Field Reiterate the Finest Command of the Saviour.

The missionary rally of the Christian Alliance held in the Crescent Avenue Church last night was fairly well attended. The first address was by Rev. Mr. Simpson, who confined his talk to foreign missions, and the second by Rev. Stephen Merritt. Both seemed to be filled with enthusiasm, and gave interesting and profitable talks.

Mr. Simpson said in substance: The sectarian lines are practically broken down in missions. We forget the little differences, and unite under the blood-stained banner of Christ to give the Gospel to all nations. We should all believe in foreign missions. We should be missionaries either abroad or at home. All can live lives that will do mission work, and it is our duty to do this. If you read the last words of Christ, you will see that he commissions all Christians to spread the Gospel to the whole world. None can hide from this personal responsibility. We are the last people who should refuse the work of foreign missions, for it is the stream from which we have drunk. It is not doing good which God always demands, but it is doing the particular good in the right place. I believe in foreign missions; it is truest humanity, and it is the only thing that can remedy that feeling coming from a knowledge that our brethren in foreign lands are dying without ever hearing of the Saviour. Another reason I believe in foreign missions is that it is the true impulse of a true heart. It is the greatest blessing that one can have, to be interested in the salvation of humanity. A fourth reason for my belief in foreign missions is that it inspires a mighty hope of the Lord's coming—a time when sin and sorrow will be obliterated. The last point is that Jesus is intensely busy, making the way for all nations, and he is beckoning us to follow on.

At the conclusion of Mr. Simpson's talk Miss Louise Sheppard of New York sang a solo, which was rendered in a beautiful soprano voice of great range and clearness of tone.

Rev. Mr. Merritt spoke particularly of the influence of the Holy Ghost on one's character, and reiterated many points which he made in his lecture delivered in the Y. M. C. A. Hall some time ago. He considered that the work of foreign missions broadened the character of all who came in contact with it.

DIRECTOR HUBBARD HONORED.

Presented by His Colleagues With a Testimonial of Esteem.

The Elizabeth Daily Journal of yesterday says:

"The fiscal year of the county closes today, and the Board of Freeholders held their final session. The annual reports were submitted, and the business of the year was closed up.

"An interesting incident of the meeting was a presentation to Director Hubbard of Plainfield of a testimonial of esteem. The gift was a solid gold-headed umbrella. The presentation speech was made by Freeholder Roll, who paid a high tribute to the Director for his able administration of the affairs of the county, his rare judgment, wise counsel and uniform courtesy.

"Director Hubbard was surprised by the presentation, and made an appropriate response, in which he displayed his kindly feelings and gave his associates credit for their co-operation, which he said had resulted in the accomplishments for the county's welfare, to which allusion had been made."

Firemen Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stahl very pleasantly entertained the members of Warren Engine Company after their meeting last night, in honor of Mr. Stahl's retirement from the foremanship of the company after two-years service. After all had enjoyed themselves socially for some time, refreshments were served.

No Baldheads in This Crowd.

The front row of Music Hall has been engaged by 15 young men for the "1492" performance, who will present a spectacular sight as they file down the aisle, each carrying a cane and each wearing a mammoth bouquet in his coat-lapel.

—The Prospect Wheelmen of Brooklyn will run to Plainfield next Sunday.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Belan, Worth Co., who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Fort Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad that he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he procured a bottle of it and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

A FORTUNE FOR HER

Howell Osborn Left $100,000 to Fay Templeton.

His Will Admitted to Probate. There May Not Be Enough To Pay the Legacies, However—The Actress Says She Is His Widow, and So Signs Her Waiver of Citation.

New York, May 8.—The will of the late Howell Osborn, who died last January, has been admitted to probate in the surrogate's office. By its provision a fortune of $100,000 is left to Fay Templeton, the actress, to whom Osborn paid so much attention, and to whom it has both been affirmed and denied that he was married. There seems to be some doubt as to whether the property left by Osborn will enable the actress to realize all the money he intended to bequeath to her. His executors say that he left no real estate in New York, and that his personal property does not exceed $10,000. He is understood to own some property outside of the state, but the exact amount is very much in doubt.

She Is Osborn's Widow.

There was no opposition to the probate of the will, every one interested having signed waivers of the citation and given consent to its probate. Miss Templeton indirectly answers the queries as to her marriage to Osborn by signing her waiver "Fay Templeton Osborn," formerly Fay Templeton." Her residence is given as No. 103 West Seventy-second street, where Mr. Osborn lived and died. In the statement of the executors it is set forth that Fay Templeton claims an interest in the estate "as his widow and otherwise." So there seems to be no doubt, now that Howell Osborn is dead, that he really was married to Miss Templeton.

Minor Bequests.

The will is dated January 8, 1894. It leaves his favorite cousin, Henrietta Olive Trowbridge, pictures and works of art to the value of $1,000, to be selected by herself. To William B. Oliver and G. H. Worriner, his private secretary, he leaves pictures and works of art to the appraised value of $500. Out of the residue of the estate property not to exceed $100,000 is left to Fay Templeton, which she is to select for herself.

He Was a Gilded Youth.

Howell Osborn was one of the most conspicuous of the gilded youth about town for twenty years, during which his extravagances and dissipations were the envy of his associates. He was a great admirer of stage beauties, and finally centered his devotion upon shapely Fay Templeton, long an ornament of the burlesque and operatic stage. For a few years past his health was not good, and last winter he succumbed to the grip and a general break down of the constitution. He was less than forty years of age. Most of his large fortune was tied up in trust by his parents' wills. Whatever was unincumbered was spent years ago.

DEATH OF CHARLES WAITE.

A Massachusetts Man Passes Away in South Africa.

Boston, May 8.—Advices have just been received from Johannesburg, South Africa, of the death of Charles Waite, formerly a resident of this city, but for the last ten years one of the leading lights in the affairs of the Transvaal. Mr. Waite, at the time of his death, was one of the largest sheep owners in South Africa. He early made the acquaintance of Cecil Rhodes, and for a long time has been one of his right hand men in administering the affairs of the colony. Mr. Waite, a little over two years ago, was a leader of one of the branch expeditions which went into the interior of Africa for the purpose of rescuing two of the Church of England missionaries who were said to be in the hands of the Zambesi. He succeeded in this mission, and for his services received a medal from the British government.

For a Constitutional Convention.

Dover, Del., May 8.—The general assembly has passed a bill providing for a constitutional convention. Each county is to have ten delegates, and they will be chosen in November, 1896. The convention will meet one month later. In 1898 the adoption or rejection of the new constitution will be submitted to the people at the polls.

Rogers Divorce Suit.

London, May 8.—The suspicion in the mind of the court that there had been collusion between John R. Rogers and Sir William Rose in the suit brought by the former against his wife, Minnie Palmer, the actress, in which Sir William was made co-respondent, has caused another adjournment of the present divorce suit.

Wall Paper Strike Off.

New York, May 8.—The strike of the color-mixers and printers employed in the wallpaper factories controlled by the National Wall Paper company has been declared off. The employers agreed to pay the men one-half wages whenever the factories were shut down.

Big Bonanza Arrives at Fort Monroe

Fort Monroe, Va., May 8.—The ship Big Bonanza which sailed from Baltimore last March with coal for San Francisco has arrived here. She reports having lost her fore and main topmast and bowsprit in a a gale on March 29.

Capt. Howgate Released on Bail.

Washington, May 8.—Capt. Howgate, the ex-signal service officer, who has been confined in jail here, awaiting trial on the charge of embezzlement, was released yesterday afternoon on $15,000 bail.

At Queen Victoria's Drawing Room.

London, May 8.—Among the American debutantes at the drawing-room of the queen to-day were Mrs. Walter Winans, Mrs. Hearst, and the Misses Roby, Grace Potter and Bertha Potter.

German Anti-Socialist Bill.

Berlin, May 8.—It is understood that the government has received petitions with 95,000 signatures against the anti-socialist bills.

Seeley's Condition Improved.

Amherst, Mass., May 8.—There is a change for the better in ex-President Seelye's condition.

PEACE IN THE ORIENT

Exchange of Peace Treaty Ratifications To-day.

Reported That Japan Will Receive an Additional Consideration of $50,000,000 for the Abandonment of Liao-Tung — Troops Leave for Formosa.

London, May 8.—The Times says that it is reported that in consideration of Japan's abandonment of the Liao-Tung peninsula she will receive an additional indemnity of £10,000,000 ($50,000,000).

Count Ito at Chefoo.

Chefoo, May 8.—Count Ito, president of the Japanese councils of ministers, arrived here last night in order to be present at the exchange of the ratifications of the treaty of peace to-day.

Troops Start for Formosa.

Hong Kong, May 8.—Five thousand troops have started from Canton for the island of Formosa in order to suppress the anticipated opposition of the Black Flags to the occupation of the island by the Japanese, according to the terms of the peace treaty. Many of the troops are unreliable, and may join the Black Flags.

The Feeling in Russia.

St. Petersburg, May 8.—The following extracts from Russian newspapers will give an idea of the feeling in Russia regarding the latest developments in the far east. Commenting on Japan's acquiescence to the representations of the power, the Journal commends "wise decisions." The Novoe Vremya considers Japan's reply to the powers to be an equivocal one, and says that it leaves the pending questions open. The Novosti admits the pacific effect of Japan's concessions, but insists that the Japanese occupation of a portion of the Chinese mainland must not be unlimited. The Grashdanin warns Russia to consolidate her position in the far east, claiming that Japan will never forgive her for her diplomatic defeat. The Sviet regards Russia's diplomatic triumph as a great defeat for Great Britain. The Bourse Gazette advocates the three powers, Russia, France and Germany, becoming the guarantee for China's paying the indemnity in consideration of Japan's forthwith evacuating Chinese territory.

Satisfied with Japan's Course.

Paris May 8.—The press, generally speaking, is satisfied with the course Japan has adopted in regard to the remonstrances of the powers as to the terms of the treaty of peace with China. There are, however, a few dissenting voices. The Lanterne, for instance, says: "We shall be the dupes of Russia unless the agreement of the three powers also applies to a settlement of the Egyptian question and Russia returns on the banks of the Nile the service she has just received from us."

FRANCIS JOSEPH AT LAIBACH.

The Emperor Finds a Sad State of Affairs as a Result of Earthquakes.

Vienna, May 8.—Emperor Francis Joseph has arrived at Laibach. The object of his journey is to see personally what provisions have been made for the relief of the sufferers by the recent earthquakes. On his arrival he received the report of the governor on the condition of affairs. The report showed that out of a total of 1350 houses only 50 are intact, and 156 were utterly destroyed by the earthquakes. Ten thousand of the inhabitants have fled from the town, and a majority of those remaining are quartered in temporary barracks. The emperor made a tour of the streets, frequently stopping to offer a few words of sympathy to the people on his way. His majesty promised to make another large donation for the sufferers.

THE NICARAGUAN INCIDENT.

Announcement of the Opening of the Port of Corinto.

Colon, May 8.—The steamship lines have been notified on behalf of the Nicaraguan government that the port of Corinto, which was declared closed when the British occupied it, is now open for the arrival and departure of steam and sailing vessels. The Nicaraguan authorities at Bluefields, Mosquito territory, are hastening extentions of the fortifications on the bluff at that place. It is believed that this action is due to the fact that the deposed Chief Clarence, now a British pensioner at Jamaica, has asked Great Britain to take steps looking to restoring him to authority.

Cannot Get the Backing.

Belleville, Ont., May 8.—Jake Gaudaur has notified the regatta committee of the proposed summer carnival here that Rogers, of Saratoga, who challenged him to row for the championship of America, cannot get the necessary backing, and the race will not take place.

Fishermen Missing; Boat Found.

Tarrytown, N. Y., May 8.—John Ryan and Thomas Hickey, who went fishing on the Hudson in a boat Sunday, have not yet been heard from, and they are now believed to have been drowned. The boat in which the two men left here was found adrift.

Will Be a Total Loss.

San Francisco, May 8.—By the steamer Gaelic it is learned that the British ship Earncliffe from Table Bay for Saigon, which was reported wrecked several weeks ago on Princess island, off the coast of China, will be a total loss.

To Probe Philadelphia Affairs.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 8.—The senate judiciary committee decided to report affirmatively the Penrose resolution to investigate the municipal affairs of Philadelphia.

A Dowager Duchess Dead.

London, May 8.—Susanna Stephania, dowager duchess of Roxburghe, lady of the bedchamber of her majesty, died in London yesterday, from bronchitis.

Against Mine Companies' Stores.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 8.—The house has passed the bill to prohibit mine companies from maintaining company stores.

Pension for ex-King Milan.

Belgrade, May 8.—The skupschina unanimously voted an annual pension of £14,400 to ex-King Milan.

MRS. PARNELL'S CONDITION.

Able To Sit Up for a Few Minutes and Her Mind Is Improving.

Bordentown, N. J., May 8.—Dr. W. H. Shipps, Mrs. Parnell's physician, stated this morning that his patient was improving nicely. She sat up for twenty minutes last evening, the second time since the assault. The physician also stated that Mrs. Parnell talks at times with perfect clearness, but, after uttering a few sentences, her speech relapses into indistinctness. The condition of the sufferer's mind is improving daily, and it is thought that shortly she will be able to make a statement of the assault upon her.

Probably Her Assailant.

Camden, N. J., May 8.—James Willets, colored, who was arrested in Stockton yesterday for assaulting his wife, is suspected of being the assailant of Mrs. Parnell. He formerly lived near Bordentown, but left the day following the assault on Mrs. Parnell. He will be taken to Bordentown that it may seen whether Mrs. Parnell can identify him. Willetts is a desperate negro. He cut his wife's eye almost out of its socket with a knife yesterday morning and attempted to shoot the policeman who arrested him.

MADE A BREAK FOR LIBERTY.

Pauper Italians Try To Escape from Ellis Island Pen.

New York, May 8.—Over one hundred Italians, detained on Ellis island as paupers, yesterday made a determined effort to break out of the detention pen and escape. The movement was evidently prearranged, the men rushing against the gates in a body, shouting and waving their arms to scare the guards. In a moment the place was in an uproar, the scared women and children huddling into corners and the attendants running about for extra guards to quell the disturbance, which, it seemed at one time, might result seriously. Finally, Professor Aldini, the Italian representative at the island, mounted a desk and spoke to his angry fellow-countrymen. His remarks had a quieting effect, and, in half an hour, the big pen was once more quiet, save for the whispered grumblings of some of the Italians.

A FINE NEW STEAMSHIP.

Contract for a $600,000 Vessel Said To Have Been Signed.

New York, May 8.—A contract has been signed, it is understood, for the construction of the finest American ocean steamer yet attempted on this side of the Atlantic except the American liners. She will be built by the Newport News Shipbuilding & Dry Dock company for the Plant Steamship & Investment company which maintains lines between Tampa, Fla., and Havana, and between Boston, Halifax and Charlottetown. She will be over 400 feet long and 47 feet beam, and cost between $600,000 and $700,000.

Garment Workers' Strike.

Philadelphia, May 8.—Up to this morning six manufacturers had signed the Knights of Labor agreement, making a total of twenty-six firms that have acceded to the demands of the strikers. It was announced to-day that 2,500 garment workers are now on a strike, the remainder, 3,500, having gained their point and returned to work.

Abandons the Proposed Libel Suits.

London, May 8.—A dispatch from Varna to the Central News says that the Turkish government has abandoned as impracticable the proposed libel suits which were to have been brought against London newspapers for publishing stories of alleged Turkish atrocities from their correspondents in Armenia.

Reform Crusade at New Orleans.

New Orleans, May 8.—The grand jury yesterday returned indictments against thirteen proprietors of music halls and theatres. Selling liquor to miners and employing women as dispensers of beer and other drinks sold in halls are the charges. This is the beginning of a reform crusade.

Messrs. Gresham and Hitt Better.

Washington, May 8.—Secretary Gresham's condition continues to improve. Representative Hitt of Illinois was also reported better this morning.

Memphis Sound Money Convention.

Baltimore, Md., May 8.—The Baltimore board of trade will send three delegates to the Memphis Sound Money convention.

Gold Reserve.

Washington, May 7.—The treasury gold reserve was increased to $91,698,192 yesterday, a gain of $54,000 for the day.

Field Marshal Von Pape Dead.

Berlin, May 8.—Field Marshal Gen. Von Pape, formerly military governor of Berlin, is dead.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c. per box. For sale by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

DIRECTIONS for using CREAM BALM.
Apply a particle of the Balm well up into the nostrils. After a moment draw a strong breath through the nose. Use three times a day, after meals preferred, and before retiring.

ELY'S CREAM BALM opens and cleanses the nasal passages, allays pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from colds, restores the senses of taste and smell. The Balm is quickly absorbed and gives relief at once. Price 50c at druggists or by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren street, New York.

CATARRH

COLD IN HEAD

TAKING CHANCES.

WOMEN ARE CARELESS.

They Over-Estimate Their Physical Strength. Advice to Young Women.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

Women are very apt to over-estimate their strength and overtax it.

When they are feeling particularly well, they sometimes take chances which in the long run cause them much pain and trouble. This is due largely to their not fully realizing how delicate their sensitive organism is.

The girl who has just become a woman can hardly be expected to act wisely, everything is so new to her. She, however, should be told; and every woman should realize that to be well her "monthly periods" should be regular. Wet feet, or a cold from exposure, may suppress or render irregular and fearfully painful the menses, and perhaps sow the seed for future ill health.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will ever be the unfailing remedy in such cases as well as all the peculiar ailments of women. Millions of women live to prove this. Mrs. M. L. Verrill tells plainly what it has done for her:—

"I will write you a few lines to tell you what my troubles were before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It was the same old story,—my back and lower part of my abdomen and painful menstruation. Of course it was female weakness. The doctors (I have tried five different ones) called it chronic inflammation of the womb.

"I had leucorrhœa for over eight years, ulcers on the neck of the womb, terrible headaches and backaches. Your medicine completely cured me." — MRS. M. L. VERRILL, 223 Newell Ave., Pawtucket, R.I.

THE Bee Hive.

"KIDS."

Ladies' 4 button kid gloves in tans and slates 65c.

Foster hook kid gloves in all the new shades, the 98c quality, 75c.

Children's kid gloves, a good glove, 69c.

Men's kid gloves, every pair warranted, $1.

MEN'S CAMBRIC SHIRTS.

Men's cambric shirts, laundried, collar and cuffs attached, 50c.

Men's laundried shirts, white body and fancy bosom, 48c.

Men's laundried shirts, white body and colored bosom and cuffs 65c.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st

FOR SALE CHEAP!

A large assortment of Geraniums, Coleus, Salvias, Roses, Casino clematis, Palms and Rubber trees. Also 3000 Privet hedge plants, and a general collection of hardy plants and shrubs, at

DENTON'S
131 Hillside Avenue.

Photo Material.

PLATES AND PAPER,

at

Reduced Prices.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front st.

BAR-LOCK VISIBLE WRITING TYPEWRITER

Writes every letter in sight of operator. Does most of the work, in writing AUTOMATICALLY, and yields in the time thus saved additional work.

It acts as if it studied the convenience of the operator at every turn, and thereby lightens his labor and renders him capable of doing more.

It has a knack of keeping well, and is always ready at critical or other times.

These are some of the reasons why it is different from all other writing machines.

The catalogue tells you more about it. FREE.

Columbia Typewriter Mfg. Co.,
307 Broadway, New York.
1 5 6m

MOSLER SAFE CO.,
contractors to the United States Government
Mosler Patent Safes,
(fire and burglar-proof) in general use
All Over the World.
Lowest prices. Drop a postal to
S. W. CLARK,
General Agent,
118 West 5th st., Plainfield. N. J.
and he will call and give special attention and information.
Large assortment of second-hand safes in first-class condition at low prices.

CONFECTIONS

Fresh, and from Pure Materials,
TIER'S,
116 Park avenue. 4 11 tf

CHOICE
Lawn Seeds, Garden Seeds, and Fertilizers.
Lawn mowers repaired.
Plumbing, Tinning and Hardware.
A. M. GRIFFIN,
119 East Front St.

GEO. J. TOBIN,
187 North avenue.
Practical Plumber!
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer
TELEPHONE CALL 158a. 12 15 tf

Plainfield Machine Works,
Manufacturers of
Steam Engines,
Electric Motors and Dynamos. Shafting and mill work generally. Jobbing in all its branches. Prompt attention given to repairing of steam engines, boilers, bicycles, etc. Piping in all its branches.
GIVE US A CALL.
N. C. MAGUE, Manager.
Works corner Richmond and East 3d street, Plainfield. 4 13 tf

Tel. 29B Established 1878.
ADDIS & SON,
PLUMBING AND HOT WATER HEATING.
Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.
Opp Roberts' Livery 122 North Ave

H. Eggerding,
121 PARK AVENUE.
Manufacturer of the celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars. 11 98

Telephone 58

Ring it up when you want good coal, and talk to

Geo. O. Stevens

SPRING TERM
OF THE
Rockview Home & Day School
Opens April 15.
Kindergarten, Primary and Intermediate Departments. For terms and particulars apply to the Misses Peck, 317 East Front street.

FLORIST.
A. E. LINCOLN, 226 Park avenue,
has just received an elegant assortment of rare ferns and other plants. Also will have a fine assortment of flowering plants, azaleas, lilies, etc., for Easter. Large assortment of choice cut flowers daily. Floral design work for all occasions a specialty.

SMALLEY'S CASH MARKET.
(Estate D. L. Smalley.)
94 Somerset, Corner Race Street.
GEO. EGEL, Manager.
We sell only first-class goods, at low prices, for cash. Orders called for and delivered. 12 10 t

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume, Ag't.
80 BROADWAY, Cor. 6th St.
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening
APPEARANCE AND HOUSEBROOK COAL
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
BOSSER AND DRESSED LUMBER.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for FURNISHING and BUNDLE SAWING and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and short notice.

WALL PAPER, WALL PAPER!

Wall Paper Bargains.
5c, 6c, 8c, 10c ROLL.

Also all the best papers for the fine trade. Competent men employed to hang our papers.

RUGS, WINDOW SHADES,
MOULDINGS,
PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES,
KALSOMINE,
TINTING COLORS,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS,
CIGARS.

LOVE,
Corner North and Watchung aves.

Fine Dairy Butter.....15c. lb
Best Dairy Butter.....18c. lb
Best Elgin Creamery Butter..20c. lb
V. L. FRAZEE,
151 West Front St.

EDUCATIONAL.

Afternoon Class for Young Ladies
Three times per week. Higher English Branches, French and Music. For terms apply MISS FAWCETT,
25 Washington ave

JAMES E. BAILY,
97 Jackson avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Trucking of All Kinds Done.
Two and four-horse vans and trucks. Particular attention given to moving furniture and pianos. Satisfaction guaranteed. 3 26 tf

Hotels and Saloons.

Madison Avenue HOTEL,
Madison Avenue and 58th St.,
NEW YORK.
$3 per day and up. American Plan.
Fireproof and first-class in every particular
Two blocks from the Third and Sixth ave nue elevated railroads.
The Madison and 4th Avenue and Belt Line cars pass the door.
[H. M. CLARK, Prop.
Passenger elevator runs all night.

HOTEL GRENADA,
North Avenue.
Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.
5-13-t

CITY HOTEL.
Plainfield, N. J.
COR. PARK AVENUE AND SECOND STREET.
J. R. BERRDOWER, Proprietor.
With stables attached. 4 8 y

A. Lusardi,
No. 120 North Ave.,
Will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c. quart.
[Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets

Skilled Workmen

are even more essential in hanging paper than they are in the doing of many other things. We employ the best and most capable men in this department and guarantee the best possible results. Do not spoil the effect of pretty paper by improper hanging.

Marsh, Ayers & Co.,
141 East Front st.

R. MURRAY, M. D.,
Surgeon General (Retired), U. S. A.
Philadelphia.

WRITES ABOUT

Nervous Dyspepsia

"As a dietetic preparation I believe Bovinine of great value. I have used it for more than a year in a very aggravated case of nervous dyspepsia, and found it very much superior to any other meat extract food.

BOVININE
The Original Raw Food

"I also find it keeps in the warmest weather. It is easily prepared for administration, and has been successful in every case where I have tried it."

Sold by all druggists.

THE BOVININE CO., NEW YORK.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION.

The Civil Service Commission at Washington has ordered that an examination be held in this city on Saturday, June 1, 1895 commencing at 9 o'clock, a. m., for the grades of clerk and carrier in the city postoffice. Only citizens of the United States can be examined The age limitations are as follows: For carrier, not under 21 nor over 40; for all other positions, not under 18 years. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed with the undersigned in complete form, on the proper blank, before the hour of closing business on May 13, 1895.

The Civil Service Commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens who may desire to enter the postal service, without regard to their political affiliation. All such citizens, whether Democrats or Republicans, or neither, are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to their political views, or to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination.

For application blanks, full instructions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, apply at the postoffice to

G. C. GODOWN,
Secretary Board of Examiners.

See What $1.00 Will Do

AT THE

Plainfield Tea and Grocery Co.
106 E. FRONT ST.,
H. S. WILLIAMS, Manager.

All Goods Warranted as Represented.

1 lb. Special Mixed Tea,	50c.
1 lb. Coffee, -	32
Quarter lb. Pepper,	10
One Can Corn, -	10
One Can Tomatoes, -	10
One Can Pease, -	10
One Can Milk -	10
One Paper Corn Starch,	10
One Paper Cocoanut,	10

☞ $1.52

Cut out this Coupon and bring it and $1 to our store and get all the above articles for $1 Cash!

H. Hand,
LICENSED AUCTIONEER.
15 YEARS EXPERIENCE.

esidence and postoffice address
SCOTCH PLAINS, N. J.

Office in Plainfield at Terrill & Cole's livery, 200 West 2d st. 1 12 tf

W. K. McCLURE,
Counselor-at-Law.
SUPREME COURT COMMISSIONER.
First National Bank Building.

W. R. Codington's
LAW OFFICES.
Corner Park avenue and Second street.
Solicitor and Master in Chancery.
Notary Public.

The sign on the windows reads

Woolston & Buckle,
Paper Hangers.

We have had the door hinges and latch oiled up so that getting in is easy. So also is the getting out.
Prices are so low on Wall Papers that you will buy before you go.

ECUADOR IN A TUMULT

Cruiser Ranger Dispatched to the Scene of Revolt.

To Protect the Interests of American Citizens—Fact Held Back by the Washington Officials—No Representative of the Little Republic in the United States.

Washington, May 8.—The United States cruiser Ranger, now at Buena Ventura, has been ordered to proceed with all dispatch to Guayaquil for the protection of American citizens and property endangered by the revolution which has commenced in Ecuador. This is known, although the matter is kept a profound secret among the officials here.

State Department Reticent.

The state department, it is said, received advices of this revolution on Saturday last, but the facts were successfully suppressed from the public until to-day and are still not admitted by the state department officers. The republic of Ecuador has no representative in the United States. It is the only country to whom the United States accredits a minister which has never accredited a minister to the United States. Minister Romero of Mexico has, on occasions been empowered to act for Ecuador but has no such commission at the present time. Consequently there is no one within reach authorized to speak for the volcanic little Andean republic.

Likelihood of Trouble.

This morning the state department admitted that there was a likelihood of trouble in Ecuador but did not state whether or not a revolution had broken out. Acting Secretary Uhl gave to the United Press reporter a statement which embodied all he cared to say: "The Ranger was ordered to Ecuador at the request of this department because convinced by representations made by Americans having interests there that it would be wise to do so."

PROTEST FOR FUENTES.

No Military Court for the New York Correspondent at Havana.

Washington, May 8.—Acting Secretary of State Uhl has cabled Acting Consul-General Springer, at Havana, to immediately protest to the Spanish authorities against the trial by military court of Manuel Fuentes, the New York correspondent. The consul-general has been enjoined to act speedily in the matter, as there is apprehension that his life is in danger.

Campos Confident of Success.

Washington, May 8.—The Spanish minister, Dupuy de Lome, is in receipt to-day of advices from General Campos, stating that he is hopeful of soon ending the revolution in Cuba. He believes that the present trouble will be short-lived and that the restoration of order in the island will not be long delayed.

Fuentes Released.

Santiago De Cuba, May 8.—Manuel Fuentes, the Cuban correspondent of a New York paper, who was arrested on the charge of having aided the insurgents, has been released from prison, but has been ordered from the island.

WILL WILDE LEAVE ENGLAND?

Believed That His Case Will Never Be Called.

London, May 8.—Lord Douglas of Hawick, eldest surviving son of the Marquis of Queensberry, and the Rev. Stewart D. Headlam, well known as a staunch supporter of stage dancing, appeared in the Bow Street Police court and became surities for Oscar Wilde. The Rev. Headlam explains his becoming one of the bondsmen of Wilde by saying that he did so because the public mind was prejudiced against him before the trial of his case began, and he wished to enable Wilde to stand his second trial in good health and spirits. It is generally believed that Wilde will leave England for the present, and that he will never be called to trial on the present charge.

Strong Approves the Barber Bill.

Albany, May 8.—Mayor Strong of New York city has returned to the clerk of the state senate, with his approval, the bill of Senator Collins, providing for the closing of barber shops on Sundays except in New York city and Saratoga Springs, where they may remain open until 1 p. m. The bill now goes to the governor.

An Old Odd Fellow Fatally Injured.

Lancaster, Pa., May 8.—E. J. Erisman, grand patriarch of the grand encampment of Pennsylvania, and one of the most prominent Odd Fellows in the state, fell down a flight of stairs at a store last evening, fracturing his skull and receiving fatal injuries. Mr. Erisman is 63 years old.

Funeral of Col. James Young.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 8.—The funeral of the late Col. James Young took place at Middletown yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. Gov. Hastings and ex-Gov. Pattison were among the honorary pallbearers.

Killed by an Emery Wheel.

Pittsburg, May 8.—An emery wheel burst at the Pittsburg locomotive works yesterday killing Thomas E. McCrea, aged 48, a bookkeeper. His chest and face were crushed in and one arm almost torn off.

Big Fire at Red Lion, Pa.

York, Pa., May 8.—An incendiary fire at Red Lion destroyed the station, express office and freight warehouse of the York Southern railroad and the general store of J. A. Stein.

Must Run Trains All Night.

Albany, May 8.—The senate has passed the bill requiring all elevated railroads in New York city to run at intervals all night. The bill now goes to the governor.

Money for the Kiel Celebration.

Berlin, May 8.—The Reichstag has passed the Baltic and North sea canal festivity credit of 1,700,000 marks, the social democrats alone opposing it.

McLaughlin Trial Begun.

New York, May 8—The last juror was secured at a late hour last evening in the McLaughlin case and this morning the trial was formally begun.

RESENTENCE FOR BUCHANAN.

Attorney General Advises Bringing Him Before the Court.

Albany, May 8.—The following answer to the telegram sent by District Attorner Fellows of New York to Gov. Morton in regard to the Buchanan difficulty was given out last night:

"Hon. John R. Fellows, District Attorney, New York.

"Gov. Morton declines to interfere. If Buchanan's attorneys have neglected to perfect the appeal or the case is not appealable, the matter had better be disposed of by bringing him before the court in accordance with section 503 of the code of criminal proceedings.

"T. E. HANCOCK,
"Attorney General."

All Hands at Sea.

Albany, May 8.—The attorney general is of the opinion, unofficially, that the best way to deal with Buchanan under the present circumstance is to resentence him to be electrocuted. None of the officials interested seem willing to take the responsibility of telling Warden Sage to go ahead and electrocute Buchanan, and the attorney general seems to think that Buchanan will not be electrocuted except under a resentence of the court. In fact, all the officials seem to be at sea in the matter.

THE PRESIDENT'S SUMMER.

Preparations Making for His Stay at Buzzard's Bay.

Washington, May 8.—A complete executive office will be established at Gray Gables for the president's use this summer, and, as arrangements have been made for the transaction there of all public business that will necessarily come before him, it is probable that his departure for Buzzard's Bay will be made as soon as the weather becomes oppressive in Washington. Private Secretary Thurber will be near enough so that he can work with the president every day. No news concerning appointments that may be made, or other business transacted by the president, will be furnished to the public at Buzzard's Bay. The facts will be sent to the white house in Washington for announcement. All communications with the departments will be through the clerks in charge of the white house. This method is taken to avoid any necessity for officials to be in attendance at Gray Gables.

THE ARMENIAN OUTRAGES.

A Report That the Survivors of the Massacre Are Being Tortured.

London, May 8.—The Daily News publishes advices received from its correspondent at Kars saying that 800 of the survivors of the recent massacre in Armenia, who returned to their homes under promise of protection from the Turks, are persecuted and tortured daily at the hands of the Turkish officials, supported by gendarmes. For two months, it is said, the officials have tried to force the refugees to sign an address of thanks to the sultan stating that they have met only with kindness at the hands of the troops, that all of the troubles were caused by the Kurdish raiders, and that sultan's troops took no part in the slaughter. Those refusing to sign the address are beaten, placed in chains, and are suspended for hours by their feet. Women were outraged, children were shamefully treated, and the soldiers dragged women and girls forward and forced them to sign the address.

JEFFERSON LETTERS.

The Government After a Big Batch of Historical Communications.

Washington, May 8.—The government is endeavoring to secure possession of some 5,000 letters of great historical interest and public value owned by a member of the Jefferson family residing near Charlottesville, Va., to whom they were handed down by inheritance from Thomas Jefferson. The owner has recently offered the entire collection for sale for the sum of $2,000 and the state department is afraid that it will be taken at that price before the federal government can secure it. The matter of purchase has been discussed by the president and cabinet, but with no result.

SULLIVAN'S BAGGAGE SOLD.

Viola Armstrong's Attorney Bids It in for $100.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 8.—John L. Sullivan's baggage, seized some two months ago by Viola Armstrong of his troupe for salary due, has been sold at sheriff's sale for $100 to R. H. Liggett, attorney for Miss Armstrong.

College Boat Race.

New York, May 8.—At a meeting of the committee appointed to select a course and date for the race between the boat clubs of Columbia, Cornell and University of Pennsylvania, it was decided to hold the race in the Hudson river at Poughkeepsie and the date June 21. The course will be a triangular one.

Yesterday's Baseball Games.

At Pittsburg — Pittsburg, 5; Brooklyn, 5. At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 7; New York, 6. At Louisville—Louisville vs. Philadelphia game postponed. At Cleveland — Cleveland vs. Baltimore game postponed. At Chicago—Chicago, 10; Washington, 9. At St. Louis—St. Louis, 10; Boston, 6.

Teller Tait Insane.

New York, May 8.—John R. Tait, of Mount Kisco, the defaulting paying teller of the Chemical National bank, who was indicted last December for having converted to his own use $15,000 belonging to the bank, has been declared insane.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spot dull and unsettled. No. 2 red f. o. b. afloat quoted at 68¼c.

Corn—Spot quiet and prices easier. Steamer mixed nominally 53¼c.

Oats—Spot easier leading to a fair trade in white. No. 2 white, 37c.; No. 2 mixed, 32½a32¾c.

Pork—Spot steady but trade quiet. Extra prime nominal, $15.25a$15.50; mess $13.00a$13.50.

Lard—Contracts are dull and weaker. May, $6.75; July $6.85.

Butter—Demand slow and prices easy. New butter, creamery, western extras, 18c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 16a16½c.

Cheese — Steady with fair inquiry. State, full cream, large colored, fancy, new, 7¼a7½c.; common to prime, 5¼a6¼c.

Eggs—The arrivals are quiet heavy and with only a slight demand, the tone is weak at 13½c. for best northwestern.

Potatoes—Old domestic slow of sale and the market weak. State, white stock, per 180 lbs., $2a2.12; Jersey, prime, in bulk, per 180 lbs., $1.75a2.00.

THEY STILL DETAIN HER

Florida Refuses To Release the Infanta Isabella.

Insists Upon Enforcing the State Quarantine Laws, Despite Secretary Carlisle's Orders—Nothing Further for the Treasury Officials To Do in the Matter.

Tampa, Fla., May 8.—The detention of the Spanish warship Infanta Isabella for having violated the quarantine regulations by passing the station at Mullet Key the previous night is creating a stir. Yesterday the collector of customs received the following telegram from Washington: "Paragraph D, section 2, article 2, quarantine regulations, domestic ports, is hereby waived in case of Spanish war vessel Infanta Isabella, reported detained at Mullet Key quarantine by authorities United States law and regulations. W. E. CURTIS.
"Acting secretary of the treasury."

Will Enforce State Laws.

The telegram was submitted to the state health officer, who promptly wired the following to Secretary Carlisle: "Spanish war cruiser Infanta Isabella, 175 men, direct from Havana, was ordered in quarantine at Key West May 1 by state quarantine officer, which action was approved of by Surgeon General Wyman, then at Key West. Refusing quarantine, left port for sea, but went into Tampa Bay May 2 about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, running by the quarantine station. Was ordered back next morning by quarantine patrol boat for disinfection and detention in accordance with state and United States quarantine laws, where she is now. Respectfully protest against any relaxation of United States law in this instance. I shall enforce the state quarantine laws.
"JOSEPH Y. PORTER,
"State Health Officer Florida."

Nothing More To Do.

Washington, May 8.—The action of the Florida state board of health officials in refusing to release the Infanta Isabella was communicated to the treasury department. Secretary Carlisle said this morning that in view of this action, there was nothing more for his department to do in the matter.

DEATH OF COL. GOWEN.

An American Honored by the Crowned Heads of Europe.

New York, May 8.—Col. John E. Gowen, who died yesterday in Paris, France, after an illness of only three days, was born in Lynn, Mass., March 6, 1825. He was an engineer of distinguished ability. It was he who raised the Russian fleet sunk in the harbor of Sebastopol by the Russians after the Crimean war. Few American citizens have been more highly honored abroad than Col. Gowen. From Alexander II., emperor of Russia he received the order of commander of St. Stanislaus; the star of the Medjedi came to him from the sultan of Turkey; chevalier of St. Maurice and St. Lazare from Victor Emanuel, king of Italy, and chevalier of the Legion d'Honneur from Emperor Napoleon III. of France, and from Queen Victoria he received a gold snuffbox surrounded and appropriately inscribed. He lost his wife on May 7, 1894, just a year prior to his own death. He leaves a daughter and two sons.

WILL BE ARRESTED TO-DAY.

Gov. Morrill's Accusers Explain the Reason of Delay.

Topeka, Kas., May 8.—Gov. E. N. Morrill was not arrested yesterday as promised by attorneys Joseph Waters and Frank Herald. They say this morning, however, that it will be done today without a doubt and give as a reason for the failure to have a warrant served yesterday that the governor's absence from that city made it impracticable. The governor returned from his home at Hiawatha last evening. He had heard of his threatened arrest but insisted that the vouchers by which it is claimed he drew money from the state treasury without warrant of law are all right. It is reported that Mrs. Lease also drew money for mileage which she did not use for that purpose.

Sugar Famine in St. Louis.

St. Louis, May 8.—Sugar has reached the famine stage here and wholesale grocers are trying in vain to supply the sudden demand. The closing of the trust refineries here for some time and the light buying of the wholesale men on account of the poor demand accounts for the present state of business.

Football at Harvard.

Boston, May 8.—The football question at Harvard is settled at last. The faculty of the college voted at its meeting yesterday not to prohibit any student from playing football. This places the football situation just where it was some months ago. The athletic committee will probably now have full charge of Harvard's athletic interests.

Offer for the Fair Wheat.

San Francisco, May 8.—An evening paper referring to the Fair wheat, says a straight offer of eighty cents per cental was made by four big shipping houses for the entire lot, which means the sum of $2,720,000, but the offer was refused because the price was thought to be too low.

Denver After the Big Fight.

Denver, Col. May 8.—Reddy Gallagher to-day wired Fitzsimmons' manager, Joe Vendig, and Corbett's manager, in New York, offering a purse of $25,000 if the fight is to be broght off in Denver or in the state.

$600,000 Paid for a Newspaper.

New York, May 8.—It is understood that the price paid by John R. McLean, of the Cincinnati Enquirer, for the Morning Journal of this city was in the neighborhood of $600,000.

To Build a Big Print Cloth Mill.

Fall River, Mass., May 8.—It is reported here that the Fall River Iron Works company is to build a 70,000 spindle print cloth mill here this summer.

McCalmont Will Come to New York

London, May 8.—Harry McCalmont will go to New York on board his steam yacht Giralda after the coming week's regatta at Cowes.

CURE THAT COUGH WITH SHILOH'S CURE
TAKE THE BEST
25cts., 50cts. and $1.00 Bottle. One cent a dose.

THIS GREAT COUGH CURE promptly cures where all others fail. Coughs, Croup, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough and Asthma. For Consumption it has no rival, has cured thousands, and will CURE YOU if taken in time. Sold by Druggists on a guarantee. For a Lame Back or Chest, use SHILOH'S BELLADONNA PLASTER. 25c.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY.
Have you Catarrh? This remedy is guaranteed to cure you. Price, 50 cts. Injector free.

Sold by all druggists.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE IS THE BEST. FIT FOR A KING.

$5. CORDOVAN, FRENCH & ENAMELLED CALF.
$4 $3.50 FINE CALF & KANGAROO.
$3.50 POLICE, 3 SOLES.
$2.50 $2. WORKINGMEN'S - EXTRA FINE -
$2 $1.75 BOYS' SCHOOL SHOES.
- LADIES -
$2.50 $2. $1.75 BEST DONGOLA.
SEND FOR CATALOGUE.
W. L. DOUGLAS, BROCKTON, MASS.

Over One Million People wear the
W. L. Douglas $3 & $4 Shoes
All our shoes are equally satisfactory. They give the best value for the money. They equal custom shoes in style and fit. Their wearing qualities are unsurpassed. The prices are uniform,—stamped on sole. From $1 to $3 saved over other makes. If your dealer cannot supply you we can. Sold by

A. WILLETT & SON

A full assortment of

Stationery

AT

HARPER'S,
411 Park ave.

L. A. HUMMER. L. B. MULFORD.
Hummer & Mulford,
VARIETY MARKET,
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, &c.
220 PARK AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Telephone call, 29 A.
Goods delivered to any part of the city, free of charge. 9 11

Your valuables will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault,
LOCK BOXES
From $3.50 to $10.00 a year.

M. Powers & Son,
Superior quality of
LEHIGH COAL.
No. 2 Coal Only $3.75
In the yard. A No. 1 Kindling Wood.
Yard and office, 763 South Avenue. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Climax Stopper Co.,
Machine Works,
Corner of Washington and 4th streets, manufacturers of bicycle specialties. Electric and special machinery, experimental work, tools, etc. Contractors for electric light wiring, telephones, burglar alarms, etc. 4 13 3m

TRY DOBBINS'S CIGARS.
30 PARK AVE.
He Manufactures Them

THOS. MARLEY,
(Nineteen years with M. Quinn)
BLACKSMITH,
845 Richmond st., near Watchung ave
4 26 7

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, No. 43, Knights of Honor. The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the First and Third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 213 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Court Pride of New Jersey, No. 8004, Ancient Order of Foresters of America, meets in K. of P. Hall, No. 108 West 2d st., first and third Tuesday evenings in each month.
Samuel J. Flynn, Chief Ranger.
Samuel H. Lunger, Fin. Sec. 9 28 3

Another Lodge, No. 169, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays in the Babcock Building.
C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Secretary.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Masonic Hall, East Front street.
D. G. Adams, W. M.
Chas. Yeager, Secretary.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum.—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the Second and Fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward's Building, Park avenue, at 8 P. M.
A. M. Rue, Regent.
H. A. Thorne, Secretary.

H. DeMOTT,
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER,
69 Somerset Street, Plainfield, N. J. 8 25

Short Vacations

For busy people by the beautiful new steamships of the Old Dominion Line.

To Old Point Comfort
[Hygeia Hotel]
Or Virginia Beach, Va.
[Princess Anne Hotel] may be made for
$16 Old Point Comfort, $16 Virginia Beach, $17 $17
INCLUDING EVERY EXPENSE,
of meals and berths enroute, and a day and a quarter's board at the hotels.
These trips are ideal, as a considerable portion is made through the quiet waters of the famous Hampton Roads and there is little likelihood of seasickness.
Also tickets on sale, with privilege of going or returning by rail.
Write for particulars of these and other delightful trips to
Old Dominion S. S. Co.,
Pier 26, North River, New York.
W. L. Guillaudeu, Vice Pres. and Traffic Manager. 11 26 6m

L. L. MANNING,
Marble and Granite Works
Cor. Central Ave. and Front st., opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

M. M. DUNHAM,
Real Estate and Insurance.
7 East Front Street.

CUT ROSES, CARNATIONS AND VIOLETS !!
Flowers furnished for weddings, funerals, etc., a bunches, bouquets or design.
MILES,
Somerset st., Johnston's drive, Terminus of Electric railroad. 9 17 6m

Prof. A. Wehner,
TEACHER OF THE PIANOFORTE.
ALSO VOICE CULTURE.
Graduate of the Conservatory of Leipsic, Germany, desires a few more pupils in Plainfield.
References given and required.
Address letters to the office of this paper. 1 21 tf-c

E. H. HOLMES,
DEALER IN
COAL and WOOD,
YARD—No. 208 Madison Avenue. Also Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle 145 North avenue.

J. C. POPE & CO.,
Insurance Agents,
NO. 6 EAST FRONT STREET
Plainfield, N. J.

You may have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn
A
good reliable
Pair of Collier's
Glasses.
103 Park ave. Established 1859.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North ave. 10 1 tf

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor, 109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas.

TOWNSEND'S
MARBLE AND GRANITE WORKS,
SOMERSET STREET.
Our Motto—Good work, good material at fair prices. 9 4 y

Jones & Co., Excavators.
Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced managers.
JONES & CO.
Cesspools built. 9 15 y

Joseph E. Mosher,
Agent for
H. J. Hayden & Co.,
WAR CLAIMS ATTORNEYS, WASHINGTON, D. C.
All claims put in our hands will receive prompt attention.
Call at the Crescent Cigar Store for fine cigars

Gold Dollars for Fifty Cents.
—NO.—
BUT FULL VALUE.
C. B. MORSE, Painting and Paper Hanging, 97 Chatham street.

N. E. KING,
High Grade Portraits
in Crayon, Pastel and Water Colors.
483 Lexington ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.
Refers by permission to John A. Thickstun, L. B. Woolston, J. L. Blackford, E. W. Randolph, A. L. Force. Further information at the drug store of L. W. Randolph or office of The Daily Press, where specimens of work can be seen. 11 20 tf

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Publisher and Proprietor.

WALTER IRVING CLARKE, Managing Editor.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., May 8, 1895

A MAY DAY RECEPTION.

Methodist Women Enjoy a Pleasant Tea and Receptied.

The second reception, tea and sale of the Ladies Aid Society of the First Methodist Church was held yesterday afternoon and evening at the home of Mrs. J. W. Jackson on Crescent avenue. The rooms were decorated with roses. The fancy work table was presided over by Mrs. C. C. Cokefair, Mrs. Henry A. McGee, Mrs. George Evans, Mrs. Joseph Hull and Mrs. George Rogers. Those at the confectionery table were: Mrs. S. W. Clark, Miss Harriet French, Mrs. Clifton Wharton, Miss Smith, Miss Minnie French, and James R. Joy. In the afternoon from 4 to 7 Mrs. Nelson Hull and Mrs. Daniel Davis poured tea, and in the evening from 7 to 10 Mrs. James Hallock performed the same functions.

The assistants in serving were Misses Alice Jenkins, Edna French, Maude French, Bessie Cornwell, Bessie Valiant and Elsie Horne. Misses Susie Jackson and Minnie Sharp had charge of the ice-cream.

During the course of the tea and sale Miss Allen of Hackettstown gave an entertaining recitation, Mrs. Clifton Wharton and Clarence E. Barnes each rendered vocal solos, and Miss Maude French gave a piano solo.

BY THE WAY.

—The A. O. U. W. meet tomorrow evening.

—The Y. M. C. A. Bicycle Club will enjoy a run to Rahway this evening.

—A sociable will be given in the Congregational Church Friday evening.

—John Kelly is building a residence on West Fourth street near Hope Chapel.

—Lawrence Ready is erecting a dwelling-house on the Vail property, near Essex street.

—Dr. Tomlinson delivered a medical lecture to the nurses in Muhlenberg Hospital yesterday.

—Captain Edwards will drill the Sons of Veterans in Martin's Armory on Somerset street this evening.

—Tomorrow only Thursday, May 9, table oil-cloth 1¼ yard wide 10 cents a yard at VanEmburgh & Son's.

—At the meeting of Lucetta Council, No. 28, D. of L., last evening, two new members were initiated.

—Watchung Lodge, International Order of Machinists, held a meeting last night and transacted considerable business.

—A missionary service will be held in Warren Chapel Tuesday evening, May 14, when a returned missionary will deliver an address.

—Civil Engineers VanEmburgh and Hallock were busy yesterday afternoon staking out South Second street for the sewer trenches.

—The Swedish ladies sewing society will have a fair and supper, in Grace Church, Saturday evening at 7:30. Tickets, 25 cents; all welcome.

—Rev. and Mrs. Henry Pearson opened a series of revival meetings in the W. C. T. U. rooms this afternoon, and will continue them through to Sunday.

—The F. L. C. Martin Bicycle Company have received their first sample of a Cleveland Swell Special women's wheel, which is one of the handsomest wheels on the market.

—The lecture season of the Monday Afternoon Club will be closed May 20, when Prof. J. H. Hyslop of Columbia College will deliver an address on "Physical Research and its Limitation".

—Thomas M. Kane, of Middletown, N. Y., was in Plainfield today making arrangements for a sale of the Bacon property on Sycamore avenue, North Plainfield, by public auction Saturday, May 18. Full particulars of the sale of this very desirable property, to close the estate, will be made by posters and advertisement in the Plainfield papers next week.

Letter of Condolence.

The following message was sent yesterday as a personal tribute to the late ex-Gov. Green from one who was a warm friend and companion:

Mrs. Robt. S. Green:—Accept my sincere sympathies in your affliction.

In the death of your husband our State has lost a distinguished son, the Democratic party a grand advocate, and his many friends a loyal brother.

Very respectfully,
J. E. MARTINE.

Plainfield, May 7.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

as mercury will surely destroy the sence of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists, price 75 cts. per bottle.

FASHIONS JUST NOW.

COARSE STRAWS ARE THE PROPER THINGS FOR HATS.

They Should Be Sun-Mounted By a Thoroughly Inartistic Combination of Colors. Tailor Made Linen Suits are Popular and Serviceable.

A graceful costume consists of light, fawn colored wool combined with black lace over straw colored satin. The latter appears in two lengthly V-shaped insertions starting just below the belt, and headed by rosettes of black satin. Two suspender like bands reaching two thirds of the way up the bodice front and likewise headed by rosettes, are also of the illuminated lace, while the broad curving belt is of the same. The corsage fits closely in the back but has a blouse front. Its collar is high and plain, its sleeves are bouffant to the elbow, but smooth fitting below. The skirt's front breadth is slightly draped between the lace panels, and at the sides and back it falls in broad box plaits. The costume is especially commendable as combining the severity demanded for street wear with the grace and finish proper to the house gown, and it is thus suitable for either occasion.

A jaunty gown for girlish figures is of dark blue crepon. Its corsage in cut is the regulation sailor blouse. Instead of having a sailor collar, however, it expands in the front into broad lapels of white cloth which, joined to the loose bodice, droops over the belt. These lapels are edged with a double row of narrow blue braid. Large pearl buttons ornament each side of the lapels. The belt is of the white also, as are the cuffs. Upon the latter the big buttons again appear. The sleeve puffs and the plain choker collar are of the blue. The skirt is unplaited but flares widely about the feet.

Smoth straws for millinery have almost disappeared. All the stylish hats are of rough straw, the most elegant being of a coarse plaited material known as palmetto, which the milliners manipulate into their own shapes. This adds greatly to the expense of the headpiece, but it insures an exclusiveness of design obtainable in no other way.

Nothing is more serviceable or more suitable for a summer street gown than the homespuns and linens that have earned such popularity among women. These gowns are in strictly tailor style, and in general effect are the same as made of serge, covert cloth or cheviot. Their comfort to the wearer during warm weather is, however, immeasurable.

Some striking and novel colors are introduced in this year's linens, their names being particular picturesque. Among these are: "Nankin jar," "plum blue celeste," "sunset glow" and "Eolus." Another superlative attribute of these fabrics is their endurance. They are simply everlasting.

In the Period of Transition.

She—Er—George!

He—W-well, Laura?

She—I—I think we understand each other, George, but—but is it my place or yours to put the question, and ought I to speak to your mamma about it or ought you to go and ask papa?—Chicago Daily Tribune.

Man is made in God's own image, so we are told. When we look about us it is rather hard to believe this, but when we come to ourselves it is easy to see that it must be so.

The lies told during courtship are the stars which stud the matrimonial sky, but the lies that are told after marriage—if any are told—are the clouds which shut out those stars.

WOMEN STUDY POLITICS.

Law and History Incidentally Interests the Women of Warsaw.

In the town of Warsaw, in New York State, is a political study club made up of ambitious and intellectual women.

In a short time it closes its scholastic year, having gone through its self-appointed curriculum with great success. The course of study pursued was of two fold character, being both legal and political.

In the former field they used as text books Kent, Pomeroy and Dwight. In the latter they had lectures by designated members, followed by discussions. Two meetings were held each month. The first half of each meeting was devoted to political study and the second to legal. The programme was as follows:

October, New York colonial history to 1776 and general law notes; November, New York history to date, vocal and physical culture and law of checks, drafts and notes. December, citizenship, duties and privileges, law notes and recitations. January, anti-federalists and democrats, federalists and whigs and laws of deeds, leases and mortgages. February, Republican, abolitionists, prohibitionists and populists and law of contracts and partnerships. March, socialists, woman's council and law of corporations and postal laws. April, emigration, municipal government and woman's progress in 1894-95 and law of taxes and naturalization.

The lectures and discussions excited interest in social circles outside of the club and led to many becoming members and many more to start studying at home on their account. Some of the lectures were so excellent that the lecturers were invited to deliver them on other occasions and even in other towns and cities.

The success of the Warsaw Club has been so great that no less than fifteen towns in the same or neighboring counties will establish similar organizations the coming autumn and pursue similar lines of study. One of the officers writes that one funny effect was to make all the old politicians go back to their books and study up in order not to be left far behind by the women of the place.

The Diamond as a Friend.

"That's my silent partner," said Tody Hamilton, when I called attention to the fact that he always wore his big diamond beneath his vest.

"A good diamond," he explained, "is about the best friend in need a traveling man has. You may think it a case of vanity, but it isn't—at least it isn't with a majority of the men who wear them on the road. A diamond is the most convenient form of portable property, and the least fluctuating in value. You may get out of money in some far away town, be robbed on the road, lose your money or blow it in on a spree; there you are. Your diamond of the value of $150 will stand you in for $100. You couldn't get more than $50 or something like that on a watch worth $250 to $400. So, you'll see most traveling men wearing a good stone. It is a silent or special partner, and stands by a man at the right time. Circus men and theatrical people save their money in diamonds. They see a good many ups and downs, and if they didn't put their surplus cash into gems they'd let it all go and have nothing for a rainy day. An actress can this way both save her money and be using it at the same time in personal adornment. We used to have a man with the Barnum show who went through the entire season dealing in diamonds with our people. He'd sell them diamonds, buy them back or loan money on them when the possessors were hard up, and run a regular diamond broker's trade with us exclusively. I always travel with an extra suit of clothes, a good diamond, a bottle of bromo and cholera mixture. Then I'm prepared for anything."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A Humanitarian's Scheme.

An East side clergyman, well known for his benevolence and charity to the unfortunate, became convinced that in many instances he was imposed upon by shiftless, able bodied men, who, on the ground of not being able to obtain work, asked for food and money, and he has devised a novel method of picking out the deserving from the unworthy. Now, when a strong, lusty fellow applies for assistance he is taken by the clergyman and shown a large pile of stones that is lying on one side of the yard and directed to carry them across the lot and pile them up near the fence on the other side. The next applicant carries them back and piles them where his predecessor found them. In many instances as soon as the clergyman's back is turned the applicant makes a bolt and dives over the back fence and is soon out of sight. Those finishing the work are given the help asked for.—Rochester Union.

A Treasure.

Mrs. Johnson—May Brown has grown up to be a fine girl.

Johnson—Yes, indeed! She's a great comfort to her father.

Mrs. Johnson—Is she?

Johnson—Yes; she and her mother often disagree about what they want him to do, and Brown thoroughly enjoys the deadlock.—Puck.

Easily Explained.

Trivvet—Miss Flop claims to have made one thousand refusals of marriage.

Dicer—That's easily explained. When young Callow asked her to marry him she replied: "No, a thousand times no."—London Telegram.

Distinction.

"In all my career," said the eminent statesman, "I can say that I have never done anything to be ashamed of."

"You mean," sneered the cynic, "that you have never done anything you were ashamed of."—Indianapolis Journal.

Children and umbrellas are always in the way when not wanted; and when they are wanted ten to one they are not to be found.

Always

pure, wholesome,
sure,
full weight,
the same in quality,
reasonable in price,
a favorite where once tried.

Cleveland's Baking Powder

The best that money can buy.

Cleveland Baking Powder Co., 81 Fulton St., New York.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

WANTED—Girl about 15 years old to assist in housework. 61 Sandford avenue.

A competent colored cook would like situation. Apply 306 Plainfield ave. 583

FOR SALE or to rent, a new seven-room house on Stone street two minutes walk from street railway, and fifteen minutes walk from depot. Will sell or rent on easy terms. Call 196 Somerset street. 584

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage Charles J. McNabb, 214 West Front street, Plainfield. 582

WANTED—A German or Swedish girl as cook. Apply 7th st., corner Arlington ave.

FOR SALE—Handsome large upright grand piano; a bargain to the person who gets it. Call at Decker's, 218 W Front st. 584

FOR SALE—Quimby village cart, canopy top; in good order. Apply at 821 Central avenue.

COACHMAN disengaged wants employment; is respectable and obliging: good reference. Apply or address, 343 Watchung ave., feed store. 583-w f m

EXPERIENCED salesladies wanted in dry goods store. Address L, care Press.

FOR SALE—Shetland pony, harness and cart. Apply at 724 Watchung avenue after 4. 583

WANTED—Girl for general housework; white. 410 East 6th st.

WANTED—Neat girl as waitress and chambermaid; must be well recommended. Apply 745 Watchung ave. 582

GIRL wants situation as chambermaid, good references, call at Peterson's 217 Watchung avenue.

LOST—Saturday evening, between Steiner place and Heideloff's store, $15 in bank bills. Liberal reward to finder at Daily Press office. 563

AGENTS make $5 daily; marvelous invention; retails 25c; 2 to 6 sold in a house; sample mailed free. Forshee & McMakin, Cincinnati, O. 12 y-w

FOR SALE—Complet outfit, water motor and five fans; in first-class running order, will be sold at a great sacrifice. E. P. Thorn, Park avenue. 572

NICE furnished front room to let; also back room. 110 West 2d st. 572

COW for sale, very cheap. Address F, care Press. 573

LOST—On Sunday, either on 10:04 train or in streets of Plainfield, pocketbook containing sum of money and annual pass over Pennsylvania Railroad in name of Mrs. W. I. Tier and family. Liberal reward to finder at Tier's ice cream parlors, Park avenue. 572

TO LET—Front room, good location, 5 minutes walk from depot, address K, care Press. 572

FARMS for sale or exchange for Plainfield property. R. Coddington, Martinville, N. J. 576

BILLIARD table for sale, apply 178 South Second street. 563

COACHMAN and gardener would like position, best references. Address P, care Press. 566

WANTED—Girl for general housework in small family, references required. 901 Madison avenue. 563

FURNISHED room to let at 1209 Watchung avenue. 563

SIX ROOM flat to let; all improvements. 200 West 2d st. 34 tf

TO LET—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping; no children. Apply 103 Duer street. 36 tf

$1,000 to $3,500 to loan, first mortgage. Mulford broker. 422 tf

YOUNG colored man wants work. Experienced. References. Call 524 West Second street. 51 tf

FOR SALE—Nearly new sidebar buggy; bargain. H. A. Weber corner West Second and Liberty streets. 536

FOR SALE—Brahmas and Houdons eggs for hatching. Call at 72 Summit avenue. 532w

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 221 tf

BOARDERS wanted at 926 Putnam ave., near LaGrande ave. 429 6

PAINTERS wanted. Apply E. E. Marshall. North avenue. 52 tf

EDWIN B. MAYNARD

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial Parlor, 306 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Ladies shampooing and childrens hair cutting a specialty. 10 19 1

THE LOVELIEST GOODS YOU EVER SAW.

That is the verdict of the ladies regarding the

WASH GOODS AT PECK'S.

MONDAY, TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY

3 DAYS' SPECIALS 3

Window poles and fixtures complete 13c; window shades 50c grade 39c; window shades 38c grade 25c; window shades 25c grade 15c; silk taffeta gloves 40c grade 29c; silk taffeta gloves 32c grade 19c; silk taffeta gloves 25c grade 15c; 40 per cent off on all sun umbrellas. We have had a large sale of best calico, ginghams and outing cambrics at 3½, and have put more on sale at same price.

REMEMBER $10 cash purchased in our CARPET DEPARTMENT you get a handsome RUG

FREE.

WHITNEY'S,

122 East Front Street, Near City Bank.

DON'T

You find it tiresome to read, day after day, 10c worth 75c, 25c worth 50. and so on. Don't you think it sounds better to say, 25c worth 25? That's our way and we believe in it. It's the fictitious value that some merchants place on their goods that never sell, but it gives them lots of time to run around and see the other fellow do the business We once knew a man, but that is another story and space costs money. A store full of money savers.

DRESS GOODS.

Such selling with the profits chopped off, but we don't want them and you do All kinds plain, plaids and fancies, all go the same way. 30 and 40 inch all-wool fancies 39c; 38 inch black figured brilliantine 38c; 45 inch imperial serges 45c; 38 inch all-wool cashmere 25c.

SILKS.

Lucky for us that we did not buy them earlier. We now sell silks for what we would have to pay for them a month ago. Twenty-five pieces, as many patterns of fine swivel silk, just the sort for shirt waists, price 39c the yard

CAPES.

We could use our space telling you how low in price they are, but we can't afford it. Selling 'em too cheap, so we tell of a few. Embroidered black broadcloth $1.98; fine black and blue $2.49; fine covert cloth $3.98.

SHIRT WAISTS

Made of percale (not calico) laundried, collars and cuffs, 48c.

SOAP.

The good kind. A thousand boxes, 3 cakes in a box, of as fine a soap as made only the price is poor, 7c box.

UMBRELLAS.

An even hundred of them, made on steel rods, paragon frame. The most tempting lot we ever offered at the price, $1.29

HOUSE FURNISHINGS.

Our show window and the price on the goods tell the story, how we are selling, not at cost, but very near to it. Jap porch screens, sprinkling pots, refrigerators, all at right prices.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

TROUSERINGS!

500 choice patterns which we are making to order for $5.00.

Sebring's

Park Avenue, Packer's Block.

12-6-1

MUSIC HALL.

Jos. Sohl, Lessee and Manager.

Telephone 49B.

ONE NIGHT ONLY

FRIDAY MAY 10.

Rice's Surprise Party in the Historical Extravaganza

"1492."

Superb company of 60. Orchestra of soloists. Scenery, calcium, and electric effects.

Prices, Lower floor $1 00. Balcony 50c. Admission 35c. Box office now open.

CHAS. FICKE,

Upholsterer,

Has removed from No. 1 West Third street, to

128 WEST SECOND ST.

Nearly opposite Trinity Reformed Church. Mattresses and spring beds made to order. Carpets and mattings made and re-made. Awnings and window shades, to order, a specialty. Slip covers made. Curtains hung. 541 m

Choruses. Costumes. Calciums.

"A RUSSIAN HONEYMOON"

Comedy in three acts

—AT—

MUSIC HALL,

Thursday Evening

MAY 9,

In Aid of the Relief Fund.

Tickets $1 and $1.50

On sale at Music Hall.

Wm. Hand & Son,

MOVING VANS,

18 Park avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

"WHERE ARE WE AT?"

DISCOVERY OF THE NEW ELEMENT IN AIR STAGGERS SCIENTISTS.

Argon May Lead to Undreamed-of Developments. We Are Wise in Our Own Conceit, Yet Have Been Breathing a Part of the Aurora Without Knowing It.

The aurora borealis has now been explained as the work of argon, the new element in the atmosphere revealed to the scientific world only a few months ago, and savants are asking in amazement what further chemical discoveries are impending. Mysteries which for ages have puzzled men of science may, it is pointed out, find their solution in argon, a basic element hitherto unsuspected, which is destroying all the old laws and setting up new ones.

But a few months ago and argon was unknown, and now the aurora, nature's noblest phenomenon, and a never ending puzzle to scientists, is explained by its action. A few months or even weeks hence no one can tell what other mysteries may not also be solved, and from day to day the field is broadening in the pathway of discovery along which the thoughts of the scientific world are now directed. A gas present in stupendous quantity has been found which reveals strange qualities and bears a relationship to light and heat that is yet mysterious. Without it human life would be impossible, and under its influence electricity is curiously affected.

Tested under the spectroscope, argon is found to have light giving qualities. It is also mysteriously affected by heat and cold. At these phenomena the men of science are astonished. Here, it is admitted, may be a discovery greater than that of electricity, more revolutionary in its effects than that of steam itself.

The primal and hitherto undreamed of cause of many of the forces of nature may at last have been unearthed. There is hypnotism for instance, a strange, mysterious force, well recognized, but unexplained by known laws. Argon, it is suggested, may lie at the bottom of this scientific mystery.

In medicine this new gas, which, condensed, looks like cheese, may play a most important part, yielding to the physician drugs and fluids of the greatest potency. It may cure diseases, refresh exhausted natures and be the veritable elixir of life which shall banish death.

Being lighter than air, argon may lift balloons to illimitable heights and cause men to fly. The cause of the aurora, it may dispel the night. It may be the essential principle of electricity, the potential force of energy or that missing link of science, the primal cause of life.

For countless ages men have viewed with wondering awe the brilliant interplay of prismatic colors which at rare intervals have irradiated the northern heavens at night, and returning travelers from the Arctic have told how, to the very zenith, some gigantic brush seemed nightly to have reveled in a many colored painting of the sky as luminous as it was evanescent.

A few tentative explanations of the aurora have been thrown off from time to time, but their very number and variety have only served to illustrate prevailing confusion on the subject. It was, said one learned professor, reflected light from icebergs in the Polar Sea.

Again it was said that the aurora borealis was originally light which the earth itself was throwing off, and even so great a scientist as Humboldt inclined to this belief.

All of these theories, however, began to disappear with the discovery and development of electricity. Electricity is such a mysterious agent, even at the present day, that it is held accountable for almost every phenomenon in nature otherwise unexplainable, not only among amateurs, bnt not infrequently in scientific circles.

"It's electricity," says the farmer who encounters any unusual and mysterious force, and the college professor is at times equally vague in explaining any troublesome question put to him. Of late years the professor has frequently said that the aurora borealis was an "electrical disturbance," adding a few technical terms like "seismic," "waves of light" and "thermal influences," which sufficed to gratify the curiosity if not to enlighten the minds of inquiring students.

But scientists have, all the same, been aware among themselves that the great mystery of the aurora was unexplained. It puzzled them.

Now, however, with the discovery of argon, which, unknown to ourselves, we have been breathing into our lungs from the beginning of time, a light dawns in the northern skies of science. Oxygen and nitrogen had been examined without results. They failed to throw off lights of their own. They appeared to have no connection with the aurora.

But when argon had suddenly been produced from the atmosphere, upsetting old standards and revealing a hitherto unknown series of chemical laws to which alone it conformed, one of the first thoughts of the savant was to see if here was not the solution of the mystery of the aurora borealis.

A Czar on a Wheel.

The objection to the bicycle that it is well enough as a sport but is lacking in dignity seems to be losing its force.

Statesmen, ecclesiastical dignitaries and military authorities are taking to it, realizing its effect on mental work. It has ceased to be a new story for even royalty, and now it is reported that the young Czar of Russia has resorted to it in hopes of improving his health.

Society has put the seal of good form upon it and the professions have indorsed it. Its triumph is certainly a feature of the end of the century. — Baltimore American.

Japan's Point of View.

Having landed the game single handed Japan feels that there is altogether too much willingness to assist at the carving.—Washington Star.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Little Miss Edith VanWinkle is somewhat improved today.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John H. Blimm yesterday.

Miss Mabel Taylor of Elizabeth visited friends in this city yesterday.

Dr. Charles Everett Warren of Boston is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Pond.

Miss Meeney of East Second street is a new assistant at the notion counter in Edsall's.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Raymond will sail today for Europe, where they will spend the Summer.

George Chandler of New York was in town attending the funeral of his uncle, Isaac Pangborn, today.

Miss E. V. Shattuck of this place has been called to Buffalo by the death of her sister; Mrs. M. E. McPherson of that city.

Chas. W. Lines, the mason and builder, is slowly recovering from a very bad attack of ulcerated sore throat, at his home, 18 Elm place.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. VanEmburgh came home last night from their two-weeks stay in Long Island. Mr. Van Emburgh is somewhat improved in health.

Cards are out for a tea to be given by Mrs. John Henry French, and the Misses French, at their home on West Seventh street, Wednesday, May 15, from 4 to 7.

J. F. Hubbard was today re-elected Director, by the new Board of Freeholders; and The Constitutionalist was continued as official county paper.

Mrs. Albert H. Atterbury and Mrs. Jared K. Myers represented Plainfield at the annual dinner of the New Jersey Society of Colonial Dames of America in Trenton yesterday.

DUNELLEN.

D. J. Condon, manager of the telegraph office in the Central Building, New York, is to be married today to a Jersey City belle, and after an extended tour the happy couple will make their future home in Dunellen, where Mr. Condon rented a house May 1.

Mrs. Wilson Frederick spent yesterday in New York.

The Borough Commissioners met last night.

Funeral of Isaac W. Pangborn.

The funeral of Isaac W. Pangborn was largely attended at 2:30 this afternoon at his late home on Rockview avenue. The body reposed in a black casket and was surrounded by a large number of floral tributes. The services were conducted by Rev. C. R. Barnes of the First Methodist Church, and Rev. Dr. Hulbut of New York.

The bearers of the casket were the following members of the official board of the First M. E. Church, of which he was president: Henry A. McGee, James W. Jackson, W. R. Codington, George R. Cornwell, C. H. Rugg, C. C. Cokefair, P. M. French and G. Q. Packer.

The remains were placed in the vault in the Methodist Cemetery which has been built since Mr. Pangborn's death.

Funeral of J. T. Adams.

Rev. Dr. Yerkes preached an affecting sermon at the funeral of Jacob T. Adams yesterday.

He spoke of the excellent qualities of the departed, and said that the way the old ones were dropping out reminded him of the numbering of one's days and that it would ere long be his turn.

The attendance at the funeral was large. Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery. A sickle and sheaf were the appropriate emblems on the casket.

—Fair weather tomorrow.

—Max Wiertz, the favorite caterer, today served a faultless wedding breakfast to 200 people at the home of Mrs. Hickok, Westfield.

—The Daughters of Liberty very kindly offered their rooms in Red Men's Hall last evening to accommodate the Bathbone Sisters.

—The party at the home of Mrs. Woodruff of Vine street, Monday, was incorrectly called a donation; surprise social was the term meant.

—Joseph Arrison, one of the United States Industrial Insurance Company's State agents, has been in Plainfield a few days. Mr. Arrison is an expert insurance accountant, and is a well known authority on matters pertaining to his line of business.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "Shiloh's Vitalizer saved my life; I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used. For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels; 75c Sold by all druggists.

Shiloh's cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient consumption; it is the best cough cure, only 10 a dose; 25, 50c, $1. Sold by all druggists.

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given, that the account of the subscribers, executors of and trustees under the will of Harriet N. DeKlyn, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate and reported for settlement to the Orphans' Court of the county of Union, on Wednesday, the third day of July next.

Dated April 25, 1895.

ANNA C. DE KLYN,
FRANK S. BROWNE.

4 26 10-oaw

Epworth League Sociable.

The Epworth League of the Monroe Avenue Chapel was very enjoyably entertained with an informal programme at the chapel last evening. After an opening hymn and prayer, the reports of the different committees were made, and a committee appointed to select delegates for the coming Epworth League Convention; the programme followed.

The regular programme commenced with a song by Miss Sadie Brower, "I don't want to play in your yard". Miss Grace E. Overton next gave the recitation "How Tom Sawyer whitewashed the fence", in her customary excellent manner.

A banjo solo by Charles Haynes was heartily applauded. After a vocal duet by the Misses Runyon, a number of the children of the Sunday-school gave a drill which was loudly encored.

At the conclusion of the programme, lemonade and cake were served to the members and their friends, while they enjoyed a social chat.

The Free Public Library.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors held last night, the Library Committee, through Mr. Tracy, its president, reported the receipt of a plan and proposition from The Snead & Co. Iron Works of Louieville, Ky., to fit up the library with stacks and shelves to make room for 40,000 volumes at an estimate of $5,800. The Library Committee was requested to obtain other and further estimates, and mature and submit plans for making provision looking to the obtaining of the necessary funds for carrying out such plans as they may recommend.

The gift of E. L. Hyde of a bas-relief cast of the late G. H. Babcock was accepted, and the secretary was directed to express to the donor the appreciation of the Board for the gift.

Woman's Suffrage Convention.

The announcement that the Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, pastor of the Seventh Day Baptist Church, has kindly consented to address the meeting of the Woman Suffrage Association, to be held Friday, May 10, at the Y. M. C. A., Front street, will add much interest to the occasion. The people of Plainfield and the neighboring towns are looking forward with pleasant anticipations to this meeting. A petition for granting the women of the State free school suffrage, (they already have free partial school franchise, with regard to voting for school appropriations, the issuing of bonds, etc.), will form one of the interesting features of the occasion.

Officers Nominated.

At the meeting of the C. Y. M. L. last night the following officers were nominated: Vice-president—John Kenney; corresponding secretary—J. Gallagher; treasurer—Father Murphy; delegates to the Diocesan Union—J. J. Lynch, J. Keenan and P. McDonough. For the nomination of president there was quite a spirited contest among Thomas Carty, William O'Connor and John Lynch—in fact so much so that no selection was made. A special meeting will probably be called to fill this vacancy before the election next month.

—Tomorrow only Thursday, May 9 table oil cloth 1¼ yard wide 10 cents a yard at VanEmburgh & Son's.

—A meeting of the Woman's Temperance Aid Society will be held Thursday afternoon at 3. A full attendance is requested.

—At the fire drill in the High School this morning, all the school passed out in two minutes.

—The Eldridge Bicycle Company report the sale of two bicycles to William Lock of Somerset street.

—Mrs. Jomini and Miss M. Swain, whose music was such a delightful part of the Third Street Mission social last night, were pupils of Miss F. May Grant.

—A meeting of the City Union of King's Daughters will be held Thursday, May 9, at 3, in the Y. M. C. A. Building. All interested are urged to be present as the election of officers will take place.

—District Deputy Grand Master Anthony Schroder of Woodbridge was present at the meeting of Serusalem Lodge, F. and A. M., last night, when the first degree was worked. After the lodge meeting a collation was served.

LIQUIDS can't cure Dyspepsia, neither will drastic griping pills of mercury.

Dr. Deane's

Dyspepsia Pills

will and do. You can get a sample sent you, free for the asking, to prove it. They contain no mercury nor opium. If you have dyspepsia, better send for them.

DR. J. A. DEANE CO.,
Kingston, New York.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION.

To the legal voters, residing in that portion of Fanwood Township, County of Union and State of New Jersey, described as follows, to wit:—

Beginning, at the northerly corner of Terrill road and King street; Thence northwesterly along the northeasterly side of Terrill road to a point one hundred and thirty feet more or less northwesterly of Midway avenue, being the division line between property of W. A. Woodruff and estate of Warren Ackerman; Thence northeasterly in a straight line to a point in Park or Martine avenue, said point being the southeasterly side of a road laid out by the surveyors of the highway, January 7, A. D. 1890; Thence northeasterly along said side of said road as laid out, to the southwesterly side of "Road to Westfield"; Thence southeasterly along the southwesterly side of said "Road to Westfield", to where the same intersects the southeasterly side of North avenue; Thence northeasterly along the southeasterly side of North avenue, to its intersection with the southwesterly side of Summit road or avenue; Thence southeasterly along said side of Summit road or avenue to its intersection with the southerly side of South avenue; Thence southwesterly in a straight line to the intersection of the northwesterly side of King street with the southwesterly side of Martine avenue; Thence southwesterly along said northwesterly side of King street to the point or place of beginning:—

Take Notice, That a special election will be held at the Fanwood Club House, South avenue, Fanwood, N. J., on the eighteenth day of May A. D., 1895, commencing at two o'clock in the afternoon and closing at seven o'clock in the evening of the same day; the object of said election to be to vote for, or against, the incorporation of the said proposed Borough Commission which said Borough Commission will be designated and known as "The Borough Commission of Fanwood", under the provision of an Act entitled "An Act for the formation of Borough Commissions" Approved March 7th, A. D. 1892, with the supplements thereto and the amendments thereof.

Dated, Fanwood, N. J., the seventh day of May A. D. 1895.

FRANK W. WESTCOTT, Chosen Freeholder.

5 8 17

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

SPECIAL REDUCED RATES. to PHILADELPHIA, PA.
for the DEDICATION OF THE ODD FELLOWS' TEMPLE, on
May 21, 1895.

For this occasion the Central Railroad of New Jersey will sell special excursion tickets from Plainfield to Philadelphia good to go on all trains on May 20, and 21, and for return until May 23 inclusive. This rate is open to the public and offers an excellent opportunity for a visit to Philadelphia at a very small cost. Fare for the round trip $1.91.

5 8 14 16 18

THE GREAT AMERICAN DRINK---Soda Water,

is the best of all drinks when rightly served. We use many syrups—all good—but we must "brag" a little about our orange (fresh from fruit), our chocolate and coffee; none can be finer. As to cream—take your choice: Ice cream, whipped cream, plain cream.

Reynolds's Pharmacy,

Park and North avenues.

New York Announcement.

"Our American Homes and How to Furnish Them."

'Horner's Furniture'

The Best in the Market.

All who desire to buy reliable Furniture in moderate priced or more costly grades will find our stock the most advantageous to select from for these reasons: It represents the productions of the best makers only, and is the largest and most varied in America.

The completeness of our assortments can best be understood from the fact that we exhibit more than two hundred and fifty different Bedroom Sets in every variety of wood, over 70 patterns of Brass Bedsteads, as well as endless lines of Parlor, Drawing Room, Library and Dining Room Furniture of the most artistic styles, and ranging from the modest and inexpensive to the most elaborately carved and inlaid.

In a word, every article required for use, comfort and adornment in the household can be had with its plainly marked moderate price at our

GREAT FURNITURE EMPORIUM,
61-65 West 23d St., N. Y.
(Adjoining Eden Musee.)

Horner & Co.'s establishment is one of the sights of New York.—Newspaper Comment.

$1,000 BUYS HOUSE AND LOT!

$600 BUYS FIVE LOTS.

ADDRESS D. J. C., CARE PRESS.

BATHS
HOT and COLD 15c.
Showers included at
Wm. Classen's, Barber,
211 Liberty street.
5 8 1y

25 Cents
Per lesson in music, French or German. Address "Teacher," care Press.

DOGS
TAKEN TO BOARD,
Netherwood Farm Kennels,
5 7 tf Mountain Avenue.

Hosiery. No store in this town offers so many sorts, so many good values. We always have some exceptional bargains such as these. The 12½c fast black seamless hose for 9c; the 20c kind for 15c, and 20c for the regular 25c goods; 5c for mens seamless half hose that should be 10c and the 15c fast black half hose for 10c.

25 rolls more of the 10c matting Other mattings at any price up to 50c. A good ingrain carpet at 25. Brussels made, laid and lined free. Window shades from 18c, oilcloths from 25c, large size Smyrna rugs $2.60 value $3 50; do, at $2.10 value $2 75. Lace curtains from 54c pair, curtain poles complete from 18c.

It takes little money to purchase a good cape from us. A splendid showing of the most taking styles, some as low as 98c; percale shirt waists 48c; silk belts 25c; new parasols.

LEDERER'S

DEATHS.

TITSWORTH—At Dunellen, May 6, 1895, Mrs. Hannah Sheppard Titsworth, wife of Mr. Isaac D. Titsworth.

Relatives and friends are very respectfully invited to attend the funeral service at her late residence, on Thursday, May 9, at 3 p. m. 2

TERRY—In this city, Monday May 6, 1895, Mrs. Phebe C. Terry in her 85th year.

Funeral services from the residence of her son-in-law Eugene W. Brokaw, 240 East Fourth street, Thursday, May 9, at 2 p. m.

Interment in Westfield, N. J.

FOX—Suddenly at Chicago, May 6, 1895 Sheridan F., son of Emma F. and the late Charles J. Fox, of Plainfield, N. J., in the 32nd year of his age. Funeral private.

CLOTHING

IS TO MAN WHAT CUTTING IS TO THE DIAMOND.

The man in rags may be as good as one in broadcloth, but somehow the world doesn't think so. He is the rough diamond of humanity, while his less deserving but better dressed neighbor, like a cut diamond, is appreciated and admired. Now there's just as much difference in the cutting of clothing as of diamonds. It takes skill to impart the perfection of fit and finish we give to our clothing, and it costs no more when you know how. See our grand line of Men's Spring Suits, beginning at $9 and running up by easy stages of a dollar or so to $20.

MC GREGOR & CO.,

850-852 Broad St.,

Newark, N. J.

EDSALL'S Splendid Offerings in Fine Goods. EDSALL'S

SOMETHING OF SPECIAL INTEREST.

Special sale of bleached sheetings in 8-4 and 9-4 widths, usually sold at 22 cts and 25 cts a yard. Our price 13 and 15 cts a yard.

Clearance sale of short lengths of bleached muslins, 8-4 and 9-4 widths, all to go at half original prices.

An excellent line of sheer and dainty Percales, in a variety that make choice most difficult; unsurpassable value at 12½ cts. Our price 9 cts.

COUNTERPANES.

Marseilles and crotchet quilts, large size, exquisite designs, sold everywhere at 98 cts, $1 25. $1 39 and 1 65. Our price 65 cts, 99 cts, $1 15 and $1 25.

CAPES.

Ladies' capes, made of silk velvet and cloth, prettily trimmed with lace, jet and ribbons Sold elsewhere at 4 98, 5 25, $8 50 and $9. Our price $3 75. 3 99. 5.57. and $5 98.

MOREEN SKIRTS.

An excellent Moreen skirt, with full ruffle, usually so'd for $4 98. Our price $3 20.

HOUSE WRAPPERS.

Wrappers made up of fine percales in all colors, including indigo, full skirt, cape falling from yoke over large sleeves, trimmed with very pretty contrasting braids, all sizes, at 69 cts, 89 cts, $1 10 and $1 25. Usual asking price fully 25 per cent. more.

TAFFETA SILKS.

Special bargain in black and colored all-silk taffeta, in an excellent assortment of designs, the most sought for silk of the season. Sold everywhere at 89 cts and $1 a yard. Our price 65 cts and 75 cts a yard.

25 ct paper books, by standard authors, good print, full titles. Our price 3 cts each.

FANS

We have just opened up an exquisite line of fans, ranging in price from 10 cts to $2 50 each. The usual asking price is fully 25 per cent. more.

FREE SOUVENIR FREE SOUVENIR

FRIDAY MAY 10.

IN OUR BIG BASEMENT.

To each purchaser throughout the basement on the above date we shall give a fine China Souvenir to introduce our second Spring opening of Summer Goods.

Summer Goods. Summer Goods.

Window screens, hard wood frames, 19c and up.
Screen doors, well made, 79c and up.
Lawn mowers, best make, $2.29.
Ice cream freezers, best make, $1.48.
Baby carriages, large variety, $3.98 and up.
Oil and gas stoves at bottom prices. 1, 2 and 3 burner at 59c, $1.49 and $2.39 each.
Special low prices on refrigerators. Best makes; all sizes in stock.

WOMEN'S OXFORDS

74c, 98c, $1.19, $1 48, $2, $3, $3.50, $4—black or tan, pointed, square or common sense toes.

WE USE—nothing but the genuine Nevel stock in our tan goat shoes for misses and children. It will wear as long again as the ordinary. A full assortment of tan goods now ready for your inspection.

Doane & Edsall.

WE PUT ON OUR ODDS AND ENDS TABLE TODAY

One Haviland Dinner Pattern.
One lot of Fancy Flower Pots.
One lot Glass Dishes.
One lot Fancy Creams.

Gavett's.

129 East Front st.

FISH FOR BREAKFAST.

Is Your Cook Up at 5?

That's the hour of our morning delivery. Finest, Freshest Seafood.

ROGERS, 232 West 2d street.

Hats, new shapes, Trunks and Bags cheap

E. M. LAING,

All sizes in Packing Trunks. 105 Park avenue.

$1.00

At J. F. MacDonald's Uptown Grocery,

buys $1.co worth of Groceries every business day in the year. Our goods are sold at a profit so as to enable us to give weight and quality to our customers and have something left for ourselves. No fictitious prices. No man is in business for his health.

J. F. MAC DONALD

EDWARD C. MULFORD,

(Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.)

Real Estate Broker and Fire Insurance,

Office 1 9 North ave., (opp. Railroad station.) Money to loan. 19 tf

HALLOCK is showing choice patterns in Percale Shirts, with 2 collars and pair cuffs, and these collars and cuffs are the latest patterns—no old back numbers

G. A HALLOCK,

Hats and Furnishing Goods, 109 West Front st.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 North Avenue.

Grand Opening Every Day

AT A. W. FULPER'S!

1 pound 50c tea, 1 can milk, 3 pounds sugar, 1 loaf bread, half dozen boxes matches

50c All for 50c 50c

Not as an introduction but an every day occurrence. The very best goods; the very lowest prices. Sugar cured ham 10c pound; best Elgin creamery butter 20c, 5 pounds for 95 cts; good creamery butter 15c; 2 pounds extra combination coffee for 25c; 2 pounds extra creamery cheese for 25c; good creamery cheese 10c pound; 3 cakes Babbitt's soap 13c; Babbitt's 1776 per package 3c; best ginger snaps 4c.

LEECH, STILES & CO.,

Eye Specialists,

441 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, formerly with Queen & Co.

H. A. Stiles will be at

No. 107 East Front Street,

Dunham's Real Estate Office

EVERY THURSDAY

From 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Persons who have headache, or whose eyes are causing discomfort, should call upon this specialist and they will receive intelligent and skillful attention. No charge to examine your eyes. Every pair of glasses ordered guaranteed to be satisfactory. 4 13 tf-m t w s

Had You Thought of the Difference?

Special sale usually means a smaller profit than usual but an

Assignee's Sale

means something else—it means a sale below cost for cash to settle up a business. So if you want a suit of clothes come to the Schepflin & Schultz assignee sale.

J. F. MacDonald,

Assignee for Schepflin, Schultz & Co.,

318 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

DEALERS IN

Lumber. Coal. Mason's Material. &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

LION AND GRIZZLY FIGHT.

The Battle Did Not Determine Which Is King of Beasts.

The fight between the lion Parnell and the grizzly bear in Mexico, just across the line from Texas, just about shattered the fortune of Col. Boone, the tall lion tamer, who was a familiar figure out on the Midway during the fair, and it was rumored about town that the colonel, without money and despondent, had committed suicide. But this rumor could not be confirmed.

It cost Boone a whole lot of money to arrange for the fight that he intended should take place between the bear and lion, and then, when everything was in readiness, the police stepped in and would not allow the animals to be placed in the ring.

That bear fight in San Francisco would have been a small mint for the colonel, but not being able to put the two big brutes in some steel cage his greenbacks were "burned up," and after the fair the colonel, with his trained animals, and Parnell, the lion who would not be trained, but who preferred to kill the men who tried to train him, was taken down to the southern part of the State.

From town to town the colonel moved with his menagerie, but luck somehow was never with him. Everybody wished him well because he was a good fellow, as showmen go, and gave a good show. Finally he landed in Laredo, Tex., and in that sport loving community on the border line, where they think less of cruelty to animals than in this city, he once more began the work of carrying out his pet idea—a fight between a lion and a grizzly—just to see which was the king of beasts.

"The bear secured as the lion's antagonist is called 'Ramadam.' He is a California silver tipped grizzly, and one of the largest of his kind. He has the record of having killed two of his keepers in one day, and his fighting qualities are undeniable. Within the ring was erected a large circular steel cage, fifteen feet high and twenty feet in diameter. The crowd was composed largely of officials, soldiers and prominent business men from both sides of the Rio Grande.

"When all was in readiness the canvas covering was withdrawn from the large cage, disclosing the grizzly impatiently encircling the interior of the cage. The smaller portable cage, containing Parnell, was backed up to the large one, and while Ramada retired to the further side of the ring to watch what was going on, the trap door was opened, and with a spring Parnell grappled with his antagonist. After a short struggle in an upright position they fell to the ground. Ramadam had received his antagonist in his favorite upright attitude, and though baffling Parnell's grab at his throat, his slower neck and jaw action were clearly indicated by his allowing the lion for the moment to get him in a position where he could not do effective work, except with his claws.

"The bear, though lacking in the power, size and suppleness of his jaws, was protected by his heavy covering of thick hair, and with the additional advantage of his powerful back was enabled to throw his opponent heavily whenever it came to what might be termed a hand to hand conflict.

"Though in the third fall, as in most of those that followed, Ramadam was on top, the lion was getting in by far the most effective work by a style of infighting that must have been uncomfortable in the extreme. After the first onslaught they fought without snarl, growl or whine.

"Once, enraged by the punishment he was receiving, the bear turned his body completely over, and, rising again to an upright position, hurled Parnell through the air with such force that the beast turned a complete somersault in diving on his back in the center of the ring. Rising again as if made of rubber, Parnell rushed upon his antagonist, who, now fully aroused, received him on equal terms, and, with jaws extended, they clinched. At this point the excitement was intense. The position of the combatants shifted rapidly. Several times they fell to the ground, all the time fighting, only to get up again and continue the struggle. Their heads, necks and jaws were covered with blood.

"For 33 minutes they fought continuously. After an unusually vicious attack made by Parnell from the rear, Ramadam suddenly turned and with terrible ferocity seized the lion between the shoulders, and, shaking him as though he had been a cat, he raised him into the air and hurled the lion to the ground. Parnell's head struck the side of the cage, and he was momentarily stunned and unable to arise for more than a minute. Once the lion was floored, the bear turned and walked to the other side of the cage.

"When Parnell was himself again he arose, and when the bear was not looking again jumped at the bear. After this the fighting was tame. Several times Parnell repeated his cat like rushes, but did not follow them up by any effective work, and Ramadam clearly demonstrated that he would prefer to let the discussion rest for cooler weather."

He Will Be An Innocent Thing.

The sun beat hotly upon the parched earth.

"Oh, I see," he exclaimed, joyously, "That woman who throws the ball is trying to hit the woman with the bat. Oh, dear, why doesn't she run the other way? Are those women out yonder the bases? How stupid in me. You told me that before, didn't you? Is our side going out without a run? Isn't that lovely after the other side had to run so much."

Thus the pretty young man with the blue veil prattled on, seemingly oblivious that the tall lady in the checked suit sat silent and preoccupied beside him.—Detroit Tribune.

Sectional Bitterness.

Texan (at the grocery store)—What do you call them things?

Grocer—Those are olives.

"Are they good to eat?"

"Certainly! Try one of them."

(Bites into one). "Jest as I expected. Got a wooden core. Come from Connecticut, don't they?"—Chicago Daily Tribune.

High Art Gum Parties In Kansas.

Chewing gum parties are the rage at Horton. After the gum has been well chewed it is taken out of the mouth and molded with the hands into the shape of some animal. The best artist receives a prize.—Brown County World.

The Coal Oil Situation.

"In view of the extraordinary high price of coal oil, Laura," said George, "don't you think I'd better, aw—turn the gas a little lower?"—Chicago Daily Tribune.

A Lame man is scarcely more than half a man either in comfort or effective work.

Allcock's Porous Plaster

cures all sorts of lameness of the back or limbs resulting from strain or taking cold; also congestion of the chest; everything that an external remedy can reach.

Beware of Imitations. Do not be deceived. Insist upon having "ALLCOCK'S."

Allcock's Corn Shields,
Allcock's Bunion Shields,

Have no equal as a relief and cure for corns and bunions.

Brandreth's Pills

remove indigestion, constipation, liver and kidney complaint.

THE FREE PASS AS A BRIBE.

Little Else Can Be Made of It, Yet It is Universally Sought by Legislators.

When a railroad sends out free passes to the holders of public office it intends that such passes shall operate as a bribe, and long experience in politics shows that they have the intended effect.

It is a theory of some holders of such passes that they are too high minded to be influenced by favors which they accept from those whose interest it is to secure special privileges or special exemptions at the expense of the public. But that is mere theory. In practice the officeholder is habitually bribed when he makes a habit of deadheading railroads, telegraph companies and other corporations liable to be affected by the way in which he does his duty and leaves it undone.

It is well known to all who know how political conventions and legislatures are manipulated that free railroad passes are among the most powerful means of controlling them. Hence many of the States have constitutional provisions for the impeachment and removal of any officeholder found using a free pass. For the same reason the Interstate Commerce law prohibited the issuance of such passes.

Public Honors to a Veteran Nag.

One of the strangest celebrations ever held took place at Greenville, Pa., recently. It was the thirty-third anniversary of the birth of "Old Daddy," the veteran horse used nineteen years in transporting the mails in this city. The procession formed at the engine house at 1.20. Mr. Hughes, Daddy's owner, accompanied by Postmaster Perry, rode at the head in the mail wagon, which was drawn by Daddy. Then came the band, in regular order, followed by express, delivery and other wagons in great numbers, all of which, with the horses drawing them, were profusely decorated with flags, bunting and banners. The outfit covered eight or nine squares in length and traversed the principal streets, finally disbanding at the starting point. The entire city turned out and many houses were decorated in honor of Old Daddy, who seemed to take a placid enjoyment of the honors paid him.

A LADY'S TOILET

Is not complete without an ideal

COMPLEXION POWDER.

POZZONI'S

Combines every element of beauty and purity. It is beautifying, soothing, healing, healthful, and harmless, and when rightly used is invisible. A most delicate and desirable protection to the face in this climate.

Insist upon having the genuine.

FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

No need of wearing a shabby Corset, because you dislike breaking in a new one. BALL'S CORSETS are comfortable the first time you put them on.

They are flexible, yet rigid, and they won't break. We Guarantee them.

There is one DRESS STAY that
Won't melt apart,
Can't cut through the dress,
Don't stay bent.
It is
BALL'S PEERLESS.
All lengths; all colors.

The Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Standard Railway of America

Protected throughout by the Interlocking Switch and Block Signal System.

On and after Jan 20, 1895, trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

FAST LINE leaves Philadelphia 12 25 a m daily with Pullman Vestibule parlor and sleeping cars for Pittsburg, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

6.37 p. m. WESTERN EXPRESS, with Pullman Vestibule sleeping cars, dining car daily for Pittsburg, Chicago, Cleveland, daily except Saturday, for Toledo, Williamsport, Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

9.24 p.m.—SOUTH WESTERN EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping car, daily, to Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, and Memphis. Dining car Altoona to Richmond.

8 42 p. m.—PACIFIC EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping cars, daily, for Pittsburg, Columbus, Chicago, and Toledo, daily, except Saturday for Cleveland.

For Baltimore, Washington and the South—3 01 9.08, 9.36 a. m., 9.39 p. m.

Sundays, 1, 9 08, 9 36 a. m., 9 41 p m.

For Baltimore only 1 37 p. m., week-days.

For Newark and New York—3 02, 5 24, 7 45, 9 17, 9 41, 9 48, 10 20, 10 38, 10 49, 11 07, 11 38 a. m., 1 12, 1 20, 1 36, 2 24, 2 40, 3 48, 4 27, 5 07, 5 45, 6 15, 6 38, 6 52, 8 27, 8 47, 9 47, 10 50, and 11 38 p. m.

Sundays 3 02, 5 24, 7 54, 9 45, 9 20, 9 47, 10 15, 10 38, 10 49 a. m., 12 38, 1 44, 2 38, 2 45, 3 45, 4 32, 5 24, 5 48, 7 38, 7 12, 7 38, 7 58, 8 20 9 38, 10 15, 1 46 and 11 06 p. m.

For New York only, 6 10 a. m. daily.

For Philadelphia—1 00, 6 37, 7 40, 9 05, 9 38, 11 45 A. M., 1 05, 1 57, 3 32, 5 05, 6 02, 7 25, 9 45, 9 59 P. M. Sundays at 1 00, 5 05, 6 02, 7 25, 10 41 A. M., 9 00, 6 37, 7 47 and 9 41 P. M.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY

(2 25p.m. with through Buffet parlor car) Sundays 6 09 a. m.

Cape May, Sea Isle City and Ocean City 1 37 p. m. Weekdays.

For Rahway—7.1 45 daily ex. Monday 6 08, 6 44, 7 10, 7 39, 8 54, 9 46, 9 50, 10 39, 11 48, a. m., 12 46, 1 11, 1 37, 2 48 3 30, 3 39, 3 50, 4 34, 4 58, 5 22, 6 06, 6 08 6 13, 6 17, 6 27, 6 46, 6 52, 8 39, 7 20, 7 46, 8 14, 8 56, 9 54, 11 02 11 48 p. m. and 12 27 night week-days Sundays, 1, 1 45, 8 39, 9 48, 9 49, 10 25 10 41 and 11 47 a. m., 12 30, 1 00, 2 47, 3 26, 4 00, 5 00, 5 40, 7 21, 7 27, 7 47, 8 14, 9 47, 9 16, 10 14, 11 and 11 55 p. m.

For New Brunswick—1 00, 6 37, 7 10, 7 39, 9 05 9 36, 9 50, 11 48 a. m., 12 36, 1 37, 2 48, 3 39, 4 38, 5 06, 5 40, 6 06, 6 45, 7 46, 9 39 and 11 02 p. m. Sundays, 1 00, 6 46, 9 05, 9 36 9 49, 10 41 a. m., 12 00, 1 00, 5 40, 6 47, 9 16, 9 41 p. m.

For Woodbridge—1 43 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 46, 10 39 a.m., 12 46, 3 20, 4 38, 5 44, 6 12, and 7 39 9 54 p.m., 12 27 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 43, 10 28, and 11 47 a. m., 12 24 p. m.

For Perth Amboy—1 43 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 46, 10 56, 12 46 3 20, 4 58, 5 44, 6 12, 7 20 7 56 9 54 and 12 27. Sundays. 1 43 10 28, 11 47 a m 10 14 p m.

For East Millstone—7 10 a. m., 12 36, 4 48 and 5 40 p. m., week-days.

For Trenton—1 00, 5 07, 7 10, 7 56 9 05, 9 36, 11 45 A. M.; 1 05, 1 37, 3 48, 5 06, 6 02, 7 44, 8 42, 9 39 P. M. Sundays at 1 00, 6 56, 9 05 9 36, 10 41 A. M.; 8 40, 5 37, 7 47 and 9 41 P. M.

For Lambertville, Phillipsburg and Belvidere via Trenton—7 56 A. M., 2.48 and 6.36 P. M., and 8.40 p. m. Sunday.

For Flemington—7 39 A. M.; 2 48 P. M.

For Freehold—7 39, 11 48 a. m., 4 36, 8 39 p.m., via. Monmouth Junction, week-days.

For Jamesburg, via. Monmouth Junction—7 39 and 11 48 a. m., 4 36 and 8 06 p. m., week days.

For Long Branch, Ocean Grove, and points on New York and Long Branch R. R.—9 46 12 46, 4 12 5 44 p. m., 12 27 night week-days. Sundays, 10 25 a. m., and 5 44 p. m., do not stop at Asbury Park on Sundays.

For Sea Side Park, Island Heights and Toms River—12 46, p. m.

For Boston—9 46 p. m., daily.

For Brooklyn, N.Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats to Brooklyn annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton Street, avoiding double ferriage and "cartage" across New York City.

Leave New York for Elizabeth—1 00 daily except Monday 6 00, 6 30, 7 30, 8 10, 8 30, 9, 9 10, 10 10, 11 00 a. m., 12, 12 10, 12 20, 12 40 1 00, 2 10, 2 20, 3 00, 3 30, 4 00, 4 10, 4 30, 4 40, 5 00, 5 10, 5 20, 5 30, 5 40, 5 50, 6 00, 6 10, 6 20, 6 40, 7 00, 7 30, 8 15, 9 15, 10 15, 11 00, 11 30 p. m., 12 15 night. Sundays, 1 00 5 15, 8 00, 8 45, 10 00 11 00 a. m., 12 00 noon, 1 00, 3 00, 3 45, 4 00, 4 20, 5 00, 6 30, 6 45, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 30, 10 15, 10 00 p. m., and 12 15 night.

S. M. PREVOST, General Manager.
J. R. WOOD, Gen. Pass. Agent.

Carpenters and Builders.

UTZINGER & KLINE.

CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS.

Jobbing promptly attended to.

V. Utzinger, 75 Grandview ave. L. G. Kline, 54 Jackson ave.

JOHN P. EMMONS

—Mason and Builder.—

Washington Avenue and Prospect Place,

NORTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Jobbing promptly attended to 11 16 tf

THEODORE GRAY,

MASON AND CONTRACTOR.

Estimates given, repairing promptly attended to. Residence 117 Hillside ave. 8 28 3

PEARSON & GAYLE,

Carpenters and Builders.

Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine St.

E. P. Gayle, No. 18 Vine St.

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO. 4-22-tf

GEO. W. STUDER,

CARPENTER AND BUILDER,

925 ARLINGTON AVENUE.

Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given; charges reasonable. 8 3 6m

McCullough's Steam Mill,

21 Steiner Place, North Plainfield.

E. H. McCullough, Proprietor.

Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll sawing Turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully Furnished. 4-11-tf

C. W. LINES & CO.,

Mason and Builders.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Residence 18 Elm Place.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Jobbing promptly attended to 12 16

REMOVAL.

I have removed my watchmaking and jewelry business from Park ave. to

142 North Avenue

Next to Walker's bakery, and shall e pleased to have my friends call.

CALEB DICKINSON

Real Estate Insurance

VAN BUREN & TIMPSON

105 North ave. Plainfield, N. J.

L. PAOLI & CO.,

Fruits, Confectionery, Temperance Drinks, Cigars, Etc.

120 NORTH AVENUE,

FRESH ROASTED PEANUTS EVERY DAY.

10 CENTS A QUART.

I take this method of informing my friends and the public in general that I am again in business at the old stand. I solicit your patronage. Store will close at sundown on Friday, and open at sundown on Saturday.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

(Anthracite coal used exclusively, insuring cleanliness and comfort.)

Station in New York foot of Liberty street. Time Table in effect, Nov. 18, 1894.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield, 2 14, 2 37, 5 38, 6 05, 6 29, 6 59 7 26, 7 30, 7 56, 8 09, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 22, 10 04 10 27, 11 19, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51 4 50, 5 54, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 23, p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 05, 8 01, 8 55, 10 08, 11 19, 11 28 a. m.; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 28, 5 36, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty Street at 4 30 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a. m.; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, (except Saturdays) 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p. m., 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 8 30, 9 15 a. m.; 12 00 m.; 1 00, 2 15, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p. m.; 12 15 night 1 00 a. m.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 28, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 22, 10 04, 10 27, a. m.; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 6 54, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 23, p.m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 28, a. m.; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 28, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 08, 10 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 15, 1 55, 2 20 (Saturdays only) 2 50, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday 7 30, 8 45, 9 35, 11 35, a. m.; 1 10, 2 35, 4 10, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a.m. 12 46, 3 08, 3 32, 3 45, 4 28, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 28, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 23, 11 23 p. m.; 12 23 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 34, a. m.; 2 08, 5 28, 5 14, 6 36, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 35, 7 48, 8 20, 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m.; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 22, 4 25, 5 22, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 55 a. m.; 12 08, 1 20, 5 05, 6 45, 8 05, 8 05, 9 40 p.m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54, a. m.; 12 46, 2 08, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28 a. m.; 2 08, 6 36, p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 58 a. m.; 12 28, 4 00, 7 00 p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 58 a. m.; 6 40, 7 50 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

5 45 A. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport and Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m. for stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 A. M. for Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 A. M. for Flemington, High Bridge branch D L & W R R, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Hazleton, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 45 p. m. way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

3 08 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury and Williamsport, Wilkes-Barre and Scranton. Buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge branch

5 14 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, Mauch Chunk Shamokin and Tamaqua, Buffet parlor car to Scranton.

6 19 P. M. for Flemington.

6 38 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading and Harrisburg.

8 21 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

6 45 A. M. Sunday for Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton. 8 26 a.m. Sundays for Easton, 3 08 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading and Harrisburg. 6 36 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c. and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

For Atlantic City, 8 37 a. m. 1 18 p. m.

LEAVE BRANCH. Ocean Grove, &c

Leave Plainfield 8 37, 8, 10 27, a. m 1.18, 3 51, 5 54, p. m. Sundays—(except Ocean Grove 8 52, a. m. 3 20 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 8 37, 8 52, 10 27 a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 7 03 p.m. Sunday—8 52, a. m., 3 20 p. m.

For Trenton 5 45, 8 44, 9 40, 10 45, a. m., 12 46, 2 08, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21, 9 37, p.m., 1 12 night. Sunday—5 45, 9 34, a. m., 2 08, 5 14, 6 36 p. m., 1 12 night.

For Boston 5 45, 8 44, 9 40, 10 45, a. m., 12 46, 2 08, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21, 9 37, p.m., 1 12 night. Sunday—5 45, 9 34, a. m., 2 08, 5 14, 6 36 p. m., 1 12 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 45, a. m., 2 08, 5 38, 6 45 p. m., 1 12, night. Sundays—9 45 a. m., 2 08, 5 14, 6 45 p.m. 1 12, night.

For Chattanooga, New Orleans and all points south with through vestibule sleeper, via Shenandoah Valley Route at 5 34 p. m. Sundays 5 14 p m.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points west, week days at 9 54 a m., 8 32 p. m. Sundays 6 38 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rate may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

A. H. OLHAUSEN, General Sup't.
H. P. BALDWIN, Gen. Pass. Agt.

The Finderne,

FINDERNE, Somerset Co., N. J.

Open all the year as a resort of the highest order. Driving and sleighing parties will receive every attention.

HIGH-CLASS SUNDAY DINNERS.

(Table d' Hote from 1 to 3:30.) Steam heat; inclosed piazzas; everything immaculate. When out driving let us entertain you.

A. E. WHITE, Manager, Finderne, N. J.

1 9 tf

CODDINGTON'S

FURNITURE AND FREIGHT

EXPRESS.

OFFICES—36 West Front street; 23 Park avenue Post Office Box 328.

PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY. Large covered trucks. Goods sent to any part of the country. Charges reasonable. Satisfactio guaranteed 11 9

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a prompt answer and an honest opinion, write to MUNN & CO., who have had nearly fifty years' experience in the patent business. Communications strictly confidential. A Handbook of Information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and scientific books sent free.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the Scientific American, and thus are brought widely before the public without cost to the inventor. This splendid paper, issued weekly, elegantly illustrated, has by far the largest circulation of any scientific work in the world. $3 a year. Sample copies sent free.

Building Edition, monthly, $2.50 a year. Single copies, 25 cents. Every number contains beautiful plates, in colors, and photographs of new houses, with plans, enabling builders to show the latest designs and secure contracts. Address MUNN & CO., NEW YORK, 361 BROADWAY.

FISCHER PIANOS.

ESTABLISHED 1840.

Nearly 100,000 Now in Use.

RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARD, WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO

EASY TERMS — EXCHANGED.

Catalogue mailed on application.

110 FIFTH AVE., cor. 16th St., N.Y.

DO YOU KNOW

—THAT—

AMOS H. VAN HORN Limited.

73 Market St., Near Plane St.

Is doing better by purchasers in their line than any other house in the trade? If you doubt it, why just call at number 73—Get their prices and see the big inducements they are offering. For instance:

PARLOR SUITS.

We are giving a Moquette Rug, size 27x54, and a Parlor Table with every Parlor Suit sold.

CARPETS CARPETS

We are making and laying all of our carpets with paper without charge, which is a saving of 15 cents per yard.

BEDROOM SUITS

We are the only house in the city that is giving a woven wire bed spring and a mixed mattress with every bedroom suit sold.

MATTINGS

We pride ourselves that we have the largest stock of fancy mattings in the city, and at lowest prices Good Japanese matting at only 15c per yard.

NOTE THE NAME AND NUMBER BEFORE ENTERING THE STORE.

PORTLAND RANGES

Any one who wants a range should not buy one until they have called and examined the Famous Portland Range. Over 7,000 now in use and everyone warranted. Easy Terms. Goods delivered free to all parts of the State.

STORING FURNITURE—It must be true what everybody says, for those that have seen the rooms in our New Storage Building, put up expressly for storing furniture, at 88, 90 and 92 Bank street, say that it is the finest in the State for cleanliness and low rates.

TELEPHONE 530.

Amos H. VanHorn, Limited,

73 Market Street, Near Plane Street.

PUTNAM & DeGRAW.

Is there anything below that will interest you?

Gents Negligé shirts	75c, $1 00	Ladies hose seamless fast color black and tan	12c
Gents and Boys sweaters	25c 40c 50c	Ladies black skirts	$1.00 $1 25 $1 50
Gents long bicycle hose	25c	Ladies shirt waists,	29c, 39c, 49c, 55c
Gents medium weight underwear	39c 50c	Children's Hose, fast black, seamless,	10c
Gents half hose	10c 3 pair for 25c	" " double knee,	12c
Gents half hose	15c 2 pair for 25c	Children's Bicycle Hose, extra heavy	25c

Remember, that we give away money. Don't fail to ask for a money order when you purchase $1 worth.

REAL ESTATE.

F. M. Bacon or Wallace Vail,

Babcock Building, Room 211.

Come and see us. We always keep a good line of houses to rent and for sale. Elegant flats, steam heated, city water and electric lights Private houses with all modern improvements. Vacant lots, farms, speculative property bought, sold and exchanged.

A gem, all improvements, $25 per month, 4 or 5 minutes from station. Farm 6 acres, house, barn, good land, 2 miles from Plainfield, $1,300—a very cheap home; easy payments. House 7 rooms, 5 minutes from station, $2,100. Store and 3 rooms $12 a month Farm 53 acres, 1.000 peach, apple and pear trees, near Flemington, $2,500.

Are You Interested

about the care of your teeth? If so, nothing like a personal trial will convince you that

Leggett's Tooth Wash

is an agreeable, refreshing and delightful dentrifice.

Sprinkler Top Bottles 25c.

Metropolitan Livery and Boarding Stables

Horses boarded by the day, week or month. Especial accommodations for transient trade

OFFICE AND STABLES,

147, 149, 151 North Avenue, Opp. Railroad Depot.

A. C. BLAIR.....Proprietor. FRANK DAY.....Manager

Telephone 152, connected with all circuits of New Jersey, New York and Brooklyn.

LYNDHURST, KEATING, EAGLE, AND APOLLO BICYCLES

Charles C. Lister, 134 North Ave.

Repairing, Renting and Storing.

WE ARE READY

With large and beautiful line of Spring and Summer styles. Hats and Gents furnishings, men's and boys' Derby or Alpine hats, black, brown and tan, $1 00 to $3 00. Fancy negligé shirts, collars attached or detached 35c to $2 00. 1000 scarfs four-in-hand and made up from 10c to 75c, all new fresh goods. Special colored laundried shirts, 2 collars only, 35c worth 75c. No trouble to show our goods. Money refunded if you want it.

U. B. Crane, Hatter and Furnisher,

[120 West Front street.

THE STROKE OF RUIN.

"But haven't you yet seen her?"

"Seen her—how should I know? Monsieur Harding forgets the conditions." He laughed in his atrociously frivolous French way.

"I beg pardon," said Harding, quickly; I had, indeed, forgotten that I did not know her name, her place of residence, nor yet even the color of her eyes. Yes, I will go to the opera with you. Everybody goes, eh?"

"Not everybody; but everybody of the best. It is the distinction; we draw the line in front of the boxes."

Boyle Harding made no answer. He had come South a fortnight past with letters of introduction to influential people, but he was not seeking society; a quiet sojourn in New Orleans with his eyes and ears open suited him better. He was young, however, brimful of blood and surcharged with a poet's imagination.

What was, perhaps, just the thing he would have most desired, came to him unexpectedly one day. It was the twinkle of romance in the gloom of Royal street.

He suddenly met a beautiful young woman face to face at the door of Garcin's old book store, a dingy hole where you find the contents of French libraries that have been sold at successive sales or picked up at auction. Warm eyes exchanged an involuntary look which seemed to have a glow of inquiry struck out of iris points. Harding was electrified, and impulsively lifted his hat. She passed him with a half smile, leaving a breath of violets and the rustle of a gown quietly elegant in the air round her.

Harding and his young creole friend set out on foot, it was but a short step to the opera house, and as they went along Rapin was prattling on the subject of fencing, always a great vogue with the jennesse doree of New Orleans. He was himself a rich orphan, living upon an almost unlimited income, and had long been a confirmed habitue of the fencing halls. Having seen some rapiers and foils in Harding's rooms he was saying:

"But you must be interested in sword play—in fencing. It is the noblest of all the exercises for gentlemen, and your physique is precisely made up for it. You must be a master, or you could be."

"I have had good masters," Harding replied in an invasive tone, "but I am losing interest in it."

"Your masters were in New York?"

"No; Paris. I had M. Duval for three years."

"M. Duval! You had M. Charles Duval for three years?"

"Yes."

"Ah, what fortune! He, and he only, teaches the 'stroke of ruin,' the pass which pierces across from shoulder to shoulder, disabling the victim for life, yet never killing him!" Rapin spoke enthusiastically, and after a moment's pause added almost breathlessly:

"And you learned his stroke! Oh, but I am overjoyed; and you will teach me to do it? Ah, Monsieur, I shall be your life long debtor. I have dreamed of that incomparable thrust; I have made two journeys to Paris to learn it; but, you must know, M. Duval is an ancient enemy of my father's. I could not go to him, and his pupils are so few and so, so distinguished and exclusive that I could not reach one of them."

Harding laughed at the youth's frankness and told him pleasantly that he should be glad to give him the secret instruction. Thereupon Rapin almost hugged him, and they were just entertering the opera house.

Harding and Rapin were the only persons in their box, which was well to one side of the great curve. On the stage a celebrated ballet favorite was kicking featly through one of her captivating passages.

"We will begin the lessons to-morrow," murmured Rapin; "I shall be an apt scholar, Monsieur."

"Yes," said Harding, absently. He was gazing along the great sweep of beauty and light.

"But excuse me a moment or two," the creole added after a while when the curtain was down. "I am going to call at the box of a friend."

He went and Harding continued his survey, which, now that his eyes had somewhat accustomed themselves to the glamour, became more real and absorbingly interesting.

Presently he saw Rapin in a box, a magnificent one, near the center, talking with a tall young woman—and it was she. There could be no doubt for a moment; the thrill through Harding's heart told as much as the girl's resplendent, yet, in a way, subdued beauty.

Harding's eyes were fixed; the trance of that old time love which men used to acknowledge was upon him. His strong, healthy, boyish nature plunged into the thick of a passion romance as fervid as it was pure and sincere. And at the very central moment she turned from Rapin and looked straight at him. Moreover, he could see a light of quick interest come into her face. They were speaking of him.

The prosy fact was that Rapin, in his enthusiastic way, had been telling Mlle. Marie de Montmartin—that was her name—about his good fortune in finding a master to teach him the "stroke of ruin," and he had directed her attention to the young man in his box. But, for Mlle. Marie de Montmartin, we may as well say that she glanced mechanically, then looked again. Harding was a superbly handsome young athlete, a flower of perfect manhood, with a face never to be forgotten by any woman.

Rapin presently returned to the box, bringing with him, or at least Harding fancied it, a breath of that exquisite violet perfume which had been haunting Harding's memory for days and nights together.

"Who is she—the young lady in the box where you've been?"

The abrupt inquiry and a certain timbre of Harding's voice betrayed his emotion to the quick creole.

"Oh, she—that is Mlle. Marie de Montmartin. Lovely, isn't she? You might envy me, M. Harding. She is my betrothed."

"Ah——," Harding hesitated and a palish change passed over his face, like a fleece cloud over some glorified space of sky. Then he added, "I do envy you. Yes, she is the most beautiful girl that I have ever seen. She is the one I met in the old book store. You are quick to find."

Rapin colored.

"Thank you," he said as the curtain went up and the prima donna strode forth with a superb swing.

The next day Rapin came to Harding's rooms for his initial lesson; but the young man begged a postponement; he was not feeling in good form, he said, and was averse to exercise.

And now Harding's powerful letters of introduction came into play. The only son of Gen. Stanhope Harding had the key to open even the exclusive gate of the mansion wherein the ancient family traditions of Montmartin were kept in an atmosphere of their own. Here the young man found Mlle. Marie even more fascinating than his imagination had pictured her.

We must acquit him; he did not deliberately seek to gain her affections; indeed, there was no need to seek; she claimed him at sight, and the way was love's sweetest path. Rapin was forgotten as a merely conventional lover must always be when the true one comes rushing in all aglow and all powerful.

Marie's parents were delighted. There was no obstacle, religious or other, and an alliance with the Harding family was something to be proud of. So, in due course of time, the engagement was announced and the wedding day approached.

Harding had been sent to New York; he returned late in November, radiant with happy aspirations, and took rooms as before, but now in the St. Charles. He brought some friends with him, and his parents would be coming a little later.

I have said that a lover is a fool. His vanity, moreover, cannot be overestimated, and the selfishness of his passion plays him small yet irresistible tricks. Harding had a desire to go again to the old book store of Garcia, on Royal street, and have his first meeting with Marie over once more in his imagination. He slipped away from the hotel furtively and with a foolish stir in his blood.

When we go to seek an illusion we are pretty sure to find a reality. It is not the scheme of nature to humor us in luxuries. At Garcia's door Harding came abruptly face to face with Francois Rapin, whom he had not seen since the announcement of the coming nuptials. Somehow it was a surprise, but Rapin's face showed a quick smile.

Harding stopped short in his tracks, and would have probably put forth his hand in a friendly offer of salutation; but just then his hat was lightly tapped from his head by Rapin, who immediately picked it up and handed it to him, saying:

"Monsieur Harding will now remember his promise to teach me the mysterious stroke of M. Duval."

He bowed low and was gone, while a card fluttered down at Harding's feet; it bore Rapin's address.

At first Harding's heat of temper was great, but reflection led him to consult his friends, who ridiculed the thought of a duel. He was glad to escape, for, although a born fighter, this was no time to be risking his life or to be killing a man.

He had, however, consulted but one side of that advisory board which always exists in such cases. His Northern friends were unanimously opposed to the duels, but now he must be frank and lay the matter before his fiance's family.

"You must fight him, sir," said Montmartin.

"Of course there is but one way open to a gentleman," sighed Marie, "you must challenge him."

They met at sunrise under the "oaks" so well known to dueling history. Merrily clinked their rapiers for honor's sake, and Marie's. That was but about forty years ago; and yet what a distance!

Yesterday a white haired man whose shoulders drooped strangely and whose two arms dangled half paralyzed beside him walked down Royal street.

"That is Francois Rapin," said a creole to some friends. "He got that wound in the celebrated duel with Harding."

Polyglot Tom Reed.

If by any lucky stroke of fortune Tom Reed should happen to become President of the United States he will probably be the first accomplished linguist to occupy that office. Mr. Reed is passionately fond of the study of languages. Some years ago he took up French, and during the Fifty-first Congress, while acting as czar of the House of Representatives and passing through parliamentary storms of cyclonic severity, found time three days a week to go to a school of languages for his lesson in French. Later he took up Italian, and is now able to converse fluently in that language. At the present time he is studying Spanish, and if the movement to annex Cuba to the United States should succeed during Mr. Reed's hoped for regime he will have in his command of this tongue a convenient accomplishment.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Dyrenforth Outdone.

During the Moody meetings at Fort Worth, Tex., a violent wind and rain storm arose, and suddenly a large section of the east side of the Auditorium roof was blown off, creating a panic. Just prior to the storm Mr. Moody offered a prayer for rain.—Philadelphia Press.

Not Necessarily a Bad Risk.

Insurance Officer—Of what complaint did your father die?

Applicant—The jury found him guilty.—Tid-Bits.

Cleveland Bicycles,

The Great Leaders of 1895.

Design, Improvements, Workmanship, Quality, Speed, Health, Pleasure, Business, Road, Track.

The Fastest, Strongest, Handsomest and Most Rigid Wheel.

The "Swell Specials" are a decided advance in bicycle construction and when quality alone is considered will always sell.

Liberty, Crescent, Waverly, Majestic

We thoroughly believe in the merits of the above wheels, and unhesitatingly recommend them.

F. L. C. Martin Cycle Co.,

333 Park Avenue.

Repairs. Established 1889. Rentals.

That represents the best that is made. If you want style, wear and comfort, wear the Hanan shoe, all shapes in Russia calf and patent leather.

ALEX. WILLETT & SON,

SHOES MADE TO ORDER. 107 PARK AVENUE.

E. E. MARSHALL & CO.

167 NORTH AVENUE.

WALL PAPERS, PAINTING, And Interior Decorating.

Designs submitted for frescoing.

PIANO BARGAINS.

Vanderbeek & Sattels

desire to say that they have just received a fine lot of

New Pianos

of different makes which they will sell at prices never before offered. Among them are those wonderful

Behr Brothers Pianos

Also Behning & Sons.

They represent also the Knabe, Hazelton, Chickering and many others.

They offer from time to time excellent

BARGAINS IN Second-Hand Pianos

221 PARK AVENUE.

THE CZAR,

The Handsomest Wheel Ever Produced.

HIGHEST GRADE MADE.

E. FRANK VAIL, Agent,

177 North avenue.

A Spring Gown

is a subject for thought. Haven't you some of last season's dresses that can be made useful? They may need cleaning, or perhaps dyeing—either we do perfectly, and it costs only two dollars or two dollars and a half.

Hillier & Co.

175 North ave.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 Watchung Ave.

DEALERS IN

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement

For walls and ceilings.

STORM DRIVEN.

By "The Duchess," Author of "Molly Bawn," Etc.

CHAPTER III.

(Copyright, 1895, by Bacheller, Johnson & Bachsller.)

Mrs. Allingham laughs to herself in a strange way. "Well, I have done something," says she: and then the thought, "I can save others, myself I cannot save," comes to her, and if she had had time she would have given way to tears. But out of the darkness now some one is coming to her!

"I saw you," says Carlton, in a low tender voice. "I waited—it was hard—but you looked so like an angel, ministering, that I subdued myself. What were you saying to that little idiot?"

"I was giving her a word of advice. I saw her to-day with—well—names are better suppressed, aren't they?—but with a man that a little girl like her should not even know. I was telling her to have nothing to do with him."

"So bad as that?"

"For one thing, he is married."

"Good heavens! married, and"——

"Yes; he has evidently pursued her here. You can see how pretty she is?"

"I can't. I can see you only."

"Well—from Berlin to here, he has followed her."

"He's no sense of decency, then?"

"He was born, no doubt, without that troublesome sense."

"And his wife?"

"She—left him some time ago."

"A mistake," says he, indifferently. He is really hardly thinking of what he is saying, but his tone coming on her quickened mood, is as a touch upon a wound.

"You think, then, that a woman should cleave—that," bitterly, "is the Scriptural term, isn't it?—to the most contemptible of God's creatures until her heart is utterly broken, and her spirit and body have lost their beauty, just because a clergyman has said a few words over her and him?"

"Not at all. Only until the law has set her free. There is always the divorce court, you know. An admirable institution, if considerably wanting in some ways. This chance acquaintance of yours must be a contemptible fellow. I must say I despise most heartily the man or woman who under false colors makes love or permits it to be made. But let us leave this stupid subject. What has it got to do with us, my dearest?"

"TO-MORROW, YOU SHALL TAKE ME."

"Why, nothing, nothing!" a little wildly.

"Of course not. Then, why waste time over it. You have wasted a good deal over Miss Amy. Do you know," with a fond laugh, "I feel a little jealous of her? You have behaved like an angel of light to her. You have given her your thoughts, your advice—let us hope," with a shrug, "she will profit by it. But now—give something to me!"

"Ah!" The cry is low, but piercing. To him it speaks only of love, and love, indeed, is its dominant note; but in it there is despair, too, and anguish, and memories of the past—the dreadful past that, in spite of all one's mental narcotics, can never be wholly put to sleep. Passionately she turns to him, holding out her arms and sinking into his, that are even more willing than her own. It is quite dark here in this dusky corner, and they two are as much alone as if a whole hemisphere divided them from those in the room inside.

"To-morrow, Clare!" breathes he. She shudders in his embrace. "Why, Clare! What is it? That girl has upset you! You are thinking of your past marriage. But it is past, my darling, my beloved! Nothing of it remains. You have told me something of it, and I have guessed the rest. It"—he pauses, bending over her—"it was a martyrdom."

"It was hell!" says she in a hoarse, stifled whisper. It shocks him; but quite suddenly her mood changes. She lifts herself and quickly, vehemently presses her lips to his. The caress is feverish, and yet when he would have strained her to his heart, she puts him back from her, lightly, laughingly, with both hands, then sinking into a low chair, beckons him to her. Her every movement, if full of grace, is also full of fire and a strange unrest.

"Come, let us sit here and talk—not of the past; that, as you say, is dead; may its soul rest in peace—but of the future. Ah! that is ours. Ours! What good is the past to any one? Who cares for it? It is past, and done with. And to-morrow"—— She throws back her lovely head and laughs aloud. "To-morrow, you will take me away—away—away."

She pauses. A queer sob seems to choke her.

"What is it, darling?" says Carlton anxiously. Her manner seems forced, unreal.

"Oh, nothing," impatiently. "But Constantinople is far away, isn't it?"

"From this? Well, pretty far. But," in a troubled tone, "there is something the matter with you to-night. I can see it in your eyes. Do you think you could ever deceive me?"

Deceive him! A little cold wave seems to sweep over her. She sighs in a broken-hearted way, and two sad tears run down her cheeks.

"Oh, this will never do," says Carlton. "You are overdone. Your conversation with that silly girl has been too much for you. I shan't allow any interviews of that kind again. You are mine, now, my love, mine." There is a ring of true triumph in his voice. It restores her. Once again her spirit flashes out.

"Oh, yours!" says she, laughing tremulously, whilst still the tears are on her face. "One would think I was your slave."

"Well, why not?" with all a happy lover's insolence. "Who now shall deliver you out of my hand?"

"Who, indeed?" cries she, joyously.

The answer is very near to them. There is a slight stir in the room inside, and she turns. Her pretty hands are still clasped in his. Her head is on his heart. His eyes are fixed on here—but her eyes.

One might pray to be delivered from such a light as now shines in hers. There—there, where the light from the open window gleams upon the terrace, they are fixed—staring—wild. He had not gone, then!

A man has stumbled from the window on to the terrace and is coming toward them. His step is not altogether steady. He is sufficiently himself, however, to be able to take in the situation at a glance and there is malevolence and a distinct enjoyment of it on his face as he advances.

"My dear Clare, you!" says he, "I hardly expected to meet you in this remote spot. A friend of yours?" He points deliberately at Carlton. "Pray, introduce me. I am always, my dear sir, delighted to meet any of Lady Strangway's friends."

Carlton rises.

"It is a lie!" says he, vehemently, looking only at Clare. "Deny it!" His voice is stern, commanding.

She, too, has risen.

"It is the truth," says she, in a dying tone. "Leave me now." She looks full at him, and he can see that her eyes are brilliant with pain, her lips—her dear lips, white.

"Later on I will explain. But go now—go!"

The voice dies away.

It is midnight!

Upon the terrace Carlton paces up and down, with but one thought in his mind. To see her, to upbraid her, to leave her. For a moment he rests by the railings, and even as he does so he finds her beside him. She lays her small white hands upon the railings too, very close to his, and looks up at him with clear, open eyes. There is no shame in them—no change—nothing save the old, unalterable love.

"Well?" says she slowly.

He returns her glance with a terrible anger in his.

"Is it your part to question?"

"Let me have my one question," says she quickly. "You can have all the rest."

"And your one?"

She hesitates.

"After all, it can wait," says she. "Ask me anything you like now, and I will answer you." Then, unconsequently, as becomes a woman: "Has it seem too bad for you? Can you find no excuse, knowing all you do? Knowing—of him?"

Timidly she lays her hand on his, but he flings it back.

"What did you mean? What did you hope for?"

"I hoped for love—a thing I had never yet known. I hoped for a happiness I had never so much as dared a dream of before. I hoped"—she flings up her head—"for life with you!"

He is silent, he is thinking of the little hand he has flung from him.

"I hoped, too," says she, quite even, with the evenness of despair, "that once out of the beaten track of the world the fact of my having a live husband alive would never be discovered would, at all events, never reach you. I thought I was sure, he would never find me."

"Oh, fool!" says he passionately. "I know, I know, I know!" Suddenly as it came the wild burst of anguish flies away, and the dull tranquillity that had characterized her before comes back. "Not one can hope against hope and somehow I never doubted. Fool indeed! You have well named me."

"Don't mind what I say to-night," says he in the tone of one physically hurt. Surely their last moments need not be full of bitterness alone.

She turns to him in a troubled sort of way.

"To-night?"

"To-night," sternly. "We part for ever."

"Oh, no."

"To-morrow," doggedly. [illegible] keeps it. "To-morrow I leave this."

"Then so do I." Her meaning is unmistakable.

"Clare!"

"What? What is it? Do you think I shall stay here—anywhere where you are not? I love you—you love me!—

"Do you know what you are saying?" asks he, deeply agitated. "Would you willingly open-eyed destroy yourself?"

"I shall certainly destroy myself if I stay here—if you desert me," says she quite calmly. "I shall live for, love—or die." A little flash of her eyes turns on the restless, flowing river.

Involuntarily he puts out his arms as if to hold her, but she repulses him.

"Oh! Not that way," says she. "That is always vulgar; and think," with a little laugh that makes his heart grow sick and faint, "how horrid one's clothes would look afterward. I shall do it artistically, you may be sure. Well," defiantly, "are you going to leave me?"

A deep groan breaks from him, and at the sound of it all her hardness breaks up, and in a second later her arms are round his neck, and her cheek, warm and soft as velvet, is pressed against his.

"Ah! I knew it!" cries she in little gasps, between her tears and her laughter. "You will take me with you. You cannot live without me?"

"God forgive me, I cannot," says he.

"Oh, my darling—my life—Clare"——

He would have said more, perhaps, but that at this moment a sudden disturbance in the gardens beneath breaks in upon them.

Cries, rough voices, rise upon the air. One voice she knows.

"Stand back—go into the house," says Carlton, hurriedly.

"No!" she presses forward.

Down in the moonlight, that renders the night clear as the day, two men are struggling. Clare at once recognizes Borthwick as one—her husband as the other. Borthwick has a stick in his hand, and is laying it heavily on Strangway's shoulders.

"IT IS A LIE!" SAYS HE.

"Ah! He has found it out! He has heard," says she. Carlton makes no reply. Great as his desire may be to see his enemy defeated, still the thought that Borthwick, in his youth and passion, may prove too much for the other man, creates in him a decent longing to go down and see fair play at all events.

But even as he starts to go he sees Strangway pull a revolver from his breast and fire point blank at his adversary.

Borthwick reels, then recovers himself—a flesh wound only apparently.

"Treachery!" says Carlton, between his teeth. "Brute!"

Even as the word passes his lips the "brute" totters, falls to the ground and lies there prone.

"Oh, my God!" cries Clare wildly. He catches her as she falls forward, and carries her into the drawing-room. Tenderly, reverently, he lays her down on the nearest sofa; and, ringing the bell furiously, summons assistance. Then he runs down to the garden—only to meet the men who are bringing in Lord Strangway's dead body. He—who had no heart—had died of it.

Much Oil Needed.

Cholly—Yes, papa, I fix my hair this way by using lots of oil.

Papa—Yes, an' thet keeps th' wheel a goin', hu?—N. Y. Herald.

The Coming Woman.

—New York World.

Seen and Kerosene.

Hardly a week passes but what we are constantly surrounded by perils seen and kerosene.—Texas Siftings.

FARMERS IN THEORY.

Making Butter at 80 Cents a Pound and Raising Chickens at $2.50 a Head.

It is said an agriculturalist is a man who lives in a city and blows his money in on a farm, and that a farmer lives in the country and spends his earnings in a city. The New York State Farmers' Club is made up of such agriculturalists as William H. Havemeyer, Chauncey M. Depew, Frank K. Sturgis, Cornelius Vanderbilt, George G. Haven, and their sort. It would be great fun to raise butter at 80 cents a pound, milk at 47 cents a quart, eggs at $1.35 a dozen, chickens at $2.50 a head—and live like a gentleman. J. Otto Donner had the record for successful gentleman farming on a big scale. He succeeded in raising butter at 96 cents a pound, which takes the starch out of Depew and Vanderbilt, who failed to get higher than 80 cents. But Donner feeds his cows under the shadow of the Preakness Mountains, where the dew falls late. As to horseshoeing, that's another matter. Depew thinks a steel shoe would be very hard on a man's foot, and has an idea that seven nails weigh more to the pound than six. Dear old Robert Bonner, at a recent annual dinner of the club, had his model shoe and ankle with him, and showed the other farmers the articulation of the joints and the perfect balance and swing of the hoof. Dr. Roberge was the only real horseshoer in the crowd, and Bonner declares he taught Roberge all he knows about shoeing.

Mr. Walker's Question for Information.

Mr. Bryan, in order to introduce a dramatic effect in his speech in Congress on the bond contract, sent to the clerk's desk and had read the terms of the blood bond in "The Merchant of Venice." When the clerk finished reading and Mr. Bryan was about to resume his remarks, Mr. Walker of Massachusetts naively inquired:

"Who wrote that?"

And the House collapsed.

Frankness That Is Appalling.

In a recent copyrighted article by Miss Frances E. Willard upon the bicycle as a moral agent, that estimable lady candidly declares her age in the opening paragraph, which is as follows:

"Among my earliest recollections and up to the ripe age of 53 are those of an active and diligent worker in the world."

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds, Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

BAMBERGER'S

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE

147 and 149 Market Street,

NEWARK, N. J.

BOYS' CLOTHING.

That boy of yours needs clothing that will stand the romping and jumping and running around that boys always do. It's here, made in the right way—wear—resisting, perfect-fitting and sewed strongly.

Four Special lots for this week!

Boys' Knee Pants

Cheviots, worsteds and cassimeres well made with strong waist bands, sizes 3 to 15 usually 89 to 98c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Blouses.

Extra quality, white lawn, trimmed with colored insertion, sizes 2 to 8, usually 79c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits

All-wool fancy trimmed, pants embroidered with bows and buckle, sizes 3 to 7, regular $2.69, at $1.73.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits

Finished in best manner, sizes 4 to 15, with long cut coats, and pants with taped seams, regular $2.89, at $1.98.

L. BAMBERGER & CO.,

147 and 149 Market st., Newark.

Free delivery everywhere. Prompt attention given to mail orders.

Progressive Plainfield's Progressive Store

LACE CURTAINS.

Lot 1	White Nottinghams 2½ yards long	48c pair
Lot 2	White Nottinghams 3 yards long	69c pair
Lot 3	White Nottinghams 3 yards long	89c pair
Lot 4	White Nottinghams 3 yards long	93c pair
Lot 5	White Nottinghams 3 yards long	$1 08 pair
Lot 6	White Nottinghams 3½ yards long	1 43 pair
Lot 7	White Nottinghams 3½ yards long	1 97 pair

BED SPREADS.

Lot 1	White Crochet Counterpanes	54c each
Lot 2	White Crochet Counterpanes	74c each
Lot 3	White Crochet Counterpanes	94c each
Lot 4	White Crochet Counterpanes	$1 18 each
Lot 5	White Crochet Counterpanes	1 27 each
Lot 6	White Marseilles Counterpanes	1 39 each

200 only in the lot assorted colored shirt waists for Ladies, no more to be had, all to be sold at 25 cents each.

One lot Ladies Laundered Shirt waists 43 cents each.

One lot Ladies Ribbed Vests 5 cents each.

Van Emburgh & Son

Corner Store. Babcock Building.

THEY ARE BEAUTIES,

Our Ladies Kid Welt Oxford with new plain tip, the latest; Russet Kid 3 button Oxford, something new; Our $2 Oxfords are noted for their wear.

ALEX WILLETT & SON,

107 Park Avenue.

OPEN UNTIL 9 P. M.

Choice Soda

O, thirsty mortal ever ready today at Randolph's. The ancients knew no such pleasure as a delicious draught of our doubled-refined thirst annihilators. Good for the stomach, beneficial for the brain, light on the pocket, refreshing for young or old. Composed of materials of purity unsurpassed. We may live without poetry, music and art, but to be without soda is not to be tolerated. What more need we say? Drink it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist, 143 West Front st.

MIZZEN PEAK COTTAGE.

WATCHUNG MOUNTAINS,

Bound Brook, N J

Superior French board at moderate prices. Dinner to order. Table d'Hote 75 cents with ½ bottle of Mizzen Peak claret.

Bowling Alley.

JEUX DE TONNEAU.

Beautiful view, fine shady grounds, sheds stables etc. 5 4 3m

FURNITURE

MOVING

Telephone 121. Office 161 North ave.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS.

J. W. VAN SICKLE,

Dealer in all kinds of

Fresh and Salt Meats

GAME IN SEASON

New No. 122., North Ave., Plainfield

Telephone 148 B. Orders called for and delivered promptly

Neuman Bro's

Specials tomorrow in

Fresh Vegetables.

Green Peas, Green Beans, Wax Beans, Asparagus, Tomatoes, Lettuce, Cucumbers, Water Cress, Spinach, Radishes, Rhubarb, Bunch Onions, Oyster Plant, Beets, New Carrots, New Potatoes.

STRAWBERRIES.

MISS F. ROCKFELLOW,

DRESSMAKING PARLORS,

195 North Avenue.

Taylor System. Suits $5 and upward.

5 1 1m

A large variety of all the Latest Styles in Hats and Bonnets can be found at the Millinery Establishment of

MRS. L. ADAMS,

111 EAST FRONT STREET.

Under First National Bank.

MISS CLARIBEL JEFFERY, teacher of Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar. Best references. 322 W. Front street. Call Wednesdays. 4 25 1m are easy made and easy broken, we promised you big bargains in dress goods this week, we intend keeping our word. 75 pieces of dress goods from the receiver's sale of Jaffray & Co., at a sacrifice. 25 pieces all-wool cashmere 38 inch 25c worth 50. 10 pieces fancy mixed worsteds 36 inch 25c worth 40. 15 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 50c worth 75. 8 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 65 worth 90. 5 pieces silk and wool covert cloths 54 inch 95 worth $1 25. 5 pieces all-wool serges light shades 65 worth $1 00.

Promises!

Linings

complete the dress; we have just what you need. Double faced silesia 10c plain silesias 9c, the best skirt cambrics 5c, fibre chamois different shades 35c. Hair cloth from 10c to 60.

Corsets

For one week we sell the W. B. corset 5 hook for 68c.

Duck Suits

A duck suit made up in the latest style only 99c; surprising, isn't it?

CAMBRICS

Fast color cambrics 7-8 wide 6c a yard.

A CUT

on every article in our house-furnishing goods department; our 87c hall lamp is sold elsewhere for $1 10.

Millinery.

We still lead in fashionable head wear.

BOEHM'S,

113 WEST FRONT STREET

THE Buying Population

in and around Plainfield are awake to the great values we are offering. We never have any trouble selling to those who have visited other stores before calling on us. We not only attract trade—we keep it. We invite comparison.

POINTERS.

Men's clay diagonal suits in Regent frock, at $10.50.

Men's all-wool suits in long sack, single or double breasted, $3 75, $7.50 and $9 50.

Running water is never stale. Our stock is like a river—always moving.

WERNER'S.

Plainfield, N. J.

Revere House

Park Ave, 7th and 8th St.

GEORGE B. DEREVERE & CO.

Thoroughly renovated and now open for transient or permanent guests.

5 1 tf

IT'S A FACT

that we sell Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Shirts, Underwear, Ties, etc., cheaper than any house in town. Buying from merchants who are pressed for cash, we buy our goods at our own price and sell them cheap.

Everything sold is fully recommended or money refunded. Boys' School Suits from $1.25; Boys' Long Pants Suits $2 up; Men's Serviceable Suits $3.50 to $6; Men's Suits for dress wear $5 50 and upwards; Derbys, equal to any $3 hat, at $1.50.

It is to your benefit to examine our goods before buying elsewhere.

Plainfield Bargain House.

J. Goldstein, 126 Park ave.

THE DAILY PRESS

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., THURSDAY, MAY 9, 1895. TWO CENTS A COPY. $5 A YEAR

GOOD NEWS FROM SIAM.

A Returned Missionary Tells of What Christianity Has Done.

Prof. Chalmer Martin, who has been laboring in the mission fields of Siam, was present at the prayer meeting in the Sunday-school room of the Crescent Avenue Church last evening, and gave an intensely interesting talk on the manners and customs of the Siamese.

Those who heard Mr. Martin were given such a complete idea of the work in this field that their efforts in aiding the spread of the Gospel there will no doubt be materially increased.

Mr. Martin spoke about the obstacles which retarded the growth of Christianity in Siam, and said that persons coming from this country were not supposed to know anything about them, and especially about the evil spirits which the natives are so well acquainted with.

He said that the Buddhist religion was found to be one of the great obstacles, and yet that religion had accomplished much for the Siamese. It contained a superior code of morals which lifted men from a low station to a higher plane, and then it recognized women, and allowed them to stand side by side with the great progressive movements of the country.

He spoke at length on superstition among the people, and explained in detail the many various forms which kept them from becoming Christians.

On the other hand, Mr. Martin spoke of the advancement made in the work of Christianizing that country, and said that the encouragement received by the missionaries was gratifying.

The attendance at the service was very large, and all were thoroughly interested in the remarks of Mr. Martin.

The service closed with prayer by Rev. Dr. Richards.

The Best of the Season.

"1492" is the great attraction in Music Hall tomorrow night. Its humor is clean and bright; the music, particularly the chorus, is spirited and pretty; the ballet is the finest ever seen, and the scenery and costumes are gorgeous.

Specialties of a high and refined order are introduced by various members of the organization, and the small army of lovely females is seen in marches, tableaux, songs, dances and ballets. "1492" is being constantly brightened and added to, and even the latest craze "Trilby" has not escaped, but one of the strongest scenes in the book will be depicted on the local stage. A delightful feature of this entertainment is the fact that an orchestra of soloists is carried "en route" by the management, also a large working force of carpenters, electricians, calcium men, property masters and costumers, thereby insuring the same smooth performance whenever and wherever presented. The company is accompanied with a 60-foot carload of scenery, and is brought here in a private coach containing its 60 members.

More New Books at the Library.

A copy of "Plainfield, N. J., Illustrated", by Ralph Moreton Hooker and Rev. A. H. Lewis, has been presented to the Free Public Library by Mr. Hooker. The work is that issued with the imprint of the Plainfield Daily Press.

A very valuable addition to the department of travel in the Library has been made by the purchase of the 19 volumes of Reclus's great work, "The Earth and Its Inhabitants". These volumes form practically a cyclopedia of travel.

From the State Geologist, John C. Smock, the Library has received the recently issued "Report on Water Supply", by C. C. Vermeule. This forms volume 3 of the Final Report of the State Geologist, and has already been highly commended by The Daily Press.

Harvard-Princeton Baseball Game.

On account of the Harvard-Princeton baseball game at Princeton, Saturday, May 11, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will run a special train from New York at 1 p. m.; Newark, 1:25; Elizabeth, 1:34; Rahway, 1:42; and New Brunswick, 1:56 p. m. Round trip tickets, good on special train only, from New York, $2; Newark, $1.75; Elizabeth, $1.50; Rahway, $1.25; New Brunswick, 75 cents. Special train will return at close of the game.

The Hunters' Camp.

T. H. Keller has been busy the past week arranging the booth of the Empire Target Company for the Sportsmen's Exposition which will be held in Madison Square Garden next week. The display will be unique, consisting of a fully equipped hunter's shanty, in which a half-dozen noted guides from all the game sections of the country, will add an element of realism.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at Randolph's drug store. 2

STREET RAILWAY SUIT

Writ Secured Against the Plainfield Company.

COUNSELOR REED OBTAINS IT.

He Is Acting for the West Seventh Street Improvement Association in Blocking the Seventh Street Trolley.

Counselor Charles A. Reed, in behalf of the West Seventh Street Protective Association, yesterday obtained from Justice Van Syckel a writ of certiorari removing into the Supreme Court the ordinance of the Plainfield Common Council granting the Plainfield Street Railway Company franchise for a trolley road on Seventh street from Monroe avenue to Plainfield avenue.

The ordinance was passed in 1891, and under it the Company contemplated constructing an extension soon.

The Protective Association claims that the consents whose proper acknowledgment was a condition precedent to the passage of the ordinance were not properly acknowledged; and further claims the ordinance to be defective in not specifying the location of turnouts, switches and poles.

A copy of the writ was served on the City Clerk and on an officer of the Railway Company, today.

"GENTLE WILLIE" MURPHY.

The Oldtime Crescent Player Now a Tramp and Bum.

"Gentle Willie" Murphy, who played ball with the Crescents of Plainfield, is in trouble and in jail, the results of monkeying with Willimantic policemen. Willie abused the officers who arrested his friend. The policemen had their hands full and so Murphy escaped. About noon the next day two officers found Murphy in the rear of the saloon known as the "Bucket of Blood", in company with several other men and a whiskey bottle.

The officer placed his hand on Murphy and murmured some legal phraseology in his ear. At this Murphy started on a run up Main street with the officer in pursuit. The officer yelled to Murphy to stop and told him that he would fire. Murphy did n't stop and the officer fired in the air. The two policemen cornered Murphy and took him to "the Willimantic museum".

He Was Used to Sleeping.

William Sullivan, a graduate from the police force of wicked Elizabeth, fell asleep in the North Avenue station last night, and at 10 was ejected by a railroad employe.

He came back later, and again curled up on one of the seats and was enjoying a sound snooze when Policeman Cooney was called, and arrested him at 1 this morning.

In City Court this morning the sleepy man said he was going out in the country to work, but when he got here it was so late that he thought he would stay in town over night. Therefore he sought a bed in the station.

As he committed nothing more serious than being drunk and sleepy, Judge Coddington suspended sentence.

For Sunday Disorder.

Michael Cox and Michael Day were arraigned in the City Court this morning on the charge of disorderly conduct in singing and fast driving on the Boulevard, Sunday night. These are the young men for whom an innocent Daily Press reporter was mistaken Sunday night by a policeman to be guilty of their acts. Yesterday Cox and Day were found to be the guilty parties and notified to appear in Court this morning.

Before Judge Coddington, it was learned that another young man by the name of Kane was with Cox and Day. Awaiting his appearance the Judge adjourned the case until 8:30 Saturday morning.

Director Hubbard's Happy Family.

On taking the chair after his re-election as Director by the Union County Board of Freeholders yesterday, J. F. Hubbard of this city thanked the members for the renewed expression of their confidence and esteem. He said he felt it an honor to preside over the Board; and a pleasant fact was that there were no changes in the membership of the Board—the second time it had occurred in the history of the county.

W. P. Bergen, ex-collector of taxes of Bridgewater township, Somerset county, is visiting today friends in this city.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillouette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. F. M. Hulett of Mt. Vernon, N.Y., spent yesterday in town.

Mrs. J. C. Bovey of Stone street spent yesterday with relatives in Brooklyn.

Samuel P. Townsend of Philadelphia spent Tuesday night with relatives in this city.

Mrs. W. T. Leachman and daughter of Michigan are now at The Woodside, Netherwood.

Miss Alice Neal of New York city is the guest of the Misses Ellis, 516 Ravine road, Netherwood.

Andrew Geyer, the New York stationer and publisher, is about to join the Summer residents of Plainfield.

Mrs. E. C. Searing and daughter Ethel, of West Fifth street, are spending the day at the home of J. M. C. Marsh, Westfield.

Misses Laura Stout and Georgia Cenas of New Orleans, are visiting their cousin, Miss Etta VanBoskerck, on Somerset street.

—Women should not forget that for anything and everything in fine dress trimmings and linings, Peck's is headquarters.

M. S. Lynch and family, who have been residing the past year on Woodland venue, in the Wilson Fisk house, will move May 15 to New York city.

J. L. Haines, who has been visiting his niece, Mrs. C. P. Ball of Belvidere avenue, returned to his home in Bridgehampton, N. Y., yesterday.

Mrs. M. H. Pike of Rockview avenue, who has been spending the Winter in Baltimore, is now visiting Mrs. Martin I. Cooley in North Plainfield.

A. D. Shepard and family have resumed their residence in The Gables, Scotch Plains, after spending the Winter at the Buckingham Hotel, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. David Bush had the pleasure of having their cousin, Mrs. Gulmutt of Delevan, Ill., spend yesterday with them; also friends from Raritan.

John H. Stryker, who has been a resident of Vine street the past twelve years, moved yesterday to Elizabeth, where he is employed by the Central Railroad Company.

Rev. Wm. Youngson of Pittsburgh, a senior in Drew Theological Seminary, is the guest for a few days of J. Howard Leggett, and Rev. Mr. O'Donnell of West Front street.

Robert E. Connolly of Bound Brook was visiting friends in this city yesterday. Mr. Connolly left this morning for Southport, L. I., where he will remain for the Summer. Mr. Connolly is a brother of ex-Councilman Connolly of North Plainfield.

THE RUSSIAN HONEYMOON.

Plainfield Amateurs in Comedy for the Relief Fund Benefit.

"The Rusian Honeymoon", to be produced in Music Hall tonight for the benefit of the Relief Fund, will have a full house, according to indications. The dress rehearsal last night was admirable. The programme is as follows:

THE CAST:

Gustave, Count Woroffski, (Alexis Petrovitch) Constantine P. Ball
Poleska, his wife.....Miss Grace W. Cooley
Baroness Vladimir, his sister, Maude Chilton-Serrell
Ivan, a master shoemaker.....W. R. Cook
Micheline, his daughter, Miss Caroline Randolph
Koulikoff Demetrovitch.....Fred W. Wait
(Intendant of the Chateau Woroffski.)
Osip, a young peasant....Howard Huntington
Guards, Peasants, Ladies, Retainers, etc.

Time, 1850.....Scene, Russian Poland
Acts I and II, cottage of Ivan, the shoemaker.
Act III...Apartment in the Chateau Woroffski

Musical Conductor.....Eugene Rose
Chorus Master.....W. E. MacClymont

ORCHESTRAL PROGRAMME.

Russian Airs.....Rose
Selections, Fatinitza.....VonSuppe
Grand March, Tannhauser.....Wagner
The choral numbers from the works of Schumann, Wagner, and others.

Meeting and Social.

The Woman's Society of the Seventh Day Baptist Church held their weekly sewing meeting yesterday and gave a supper under the direction of Mrs. Frank Hubbard and Miss Lucy Dumham. After the supper an excellent programme was given.

The first selection on the programme was a recitation by Miss Maud Mosher, entitled The Whistling Regiment. This was followed by a violin solo by Miss Violet Truell, accompanied by Miss Bessie Titsworth. Miss Mosher again favored the audience with a selection, Our Hired Gal, which was heartily applauded. This finished the literary programme, after which a social chat was enjoyed.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

AT REST.

Isaac W. Pangborn.

The clergymen conducting the funeral service over the remains of the late Isaac W. Pangborn yesterday afternoon, were Rev. Dr. Charles E. Barnes of this city, Rev. Dr. J. L. Hurlbut of New York, Rev. Dr. A. H. Tuttle of Newark, and Rev. Dr. J. R. Bryan of Staten Island, all formerly pastors of the First Methodist Church in this city.

The Scripture lesson was read by Rev. Mr. Tuttle and prayer offered by Rev. Mr. Bryan. Mr. Barnes spoke as follows:

Whenever the Infinite speaks or acts, wonder is excited in the mind of the finite. All life is full of mystery, because all life is from God. Whether it is the crystalizing of the snow-flake in Winter, or Summer's distilling of the dew; whether it is the bursting of the bud in Spring or Autumn's ripening fruit, all is mysterious. So is our own life, our thinking, loving, speech and act. So is the impression of ourselves upon our fellows, to please or pain, annoy or assist, depress or elevate, those with whom we associate.

Death is also a mystery. The quiet form, the hushed speech, the unresponsive face, where a little time ago was activity, manifestation of love, interest and purpose, are all mysterious. Death has no revelation, only life can reveal. But Jesus came to bring "Life and Immortality to light in the Gospel". He tried the power of death and the grave, and easily overcame them. He tells us that death is not the finality of life, but only one of life's incidents. The personality continues, manifesting itself no longer, it is true, in the mortal body; but still a personality. Death is not so great a shock to man as to destroy his conscious personality.

The good man's condition after death is one of fuller knowledge of his God, and of greater power for communion and activity.

We gather today to recall the life of a man whom we believe to have been righteous. We have no weeping for him, but for ourselves. He has not lost, nor is he lost, who has departed to be with Christ. The great Shepherd tends His sheep in the valley called "Death" as well as on the plains of life I went about among Brother Pangborn's business acquaintances, and asked them what they had to say of him. "One replied: "He always did more than his contract called for; never less." Another answered "Mr. Pangborn believed in paying his men well. The mechanics of Plainfield will miss a good friend." Another said, "His fault, if such it could be called, was his large heartedness. He never took advantage of another's distress, never put a lien on a building, nor entered a suit against any. If all who took advantage of his kindness, would pay what they owe him, it would greatly increase his estate."

Brother, we mourn because of our loss, we feel poorer because bereft of thee, and yet we may congratulate ourselves while we weep. We congratulate the church because of the example he afforded others, the good he accomplished, the loving memory that is ours. We congratulate the family that they had so good a man to love and trust, so loving a life to cherish in the memory. How often in the coming days of sorrow will his love and kindness prove your sunshine. For all that our brother was to society, to church, to family and friends, we give thanks to the God of all grace. We recognize that the excellencies of our brother came from spiritual communion with Christ the Elder Brother, and pledge ourselves in this sacred hour "For God to live and die."

Rev. Dr. Hurlbut also made a few remarks, speaking of his experience with Mr. Pangborn during his pastorate here, and the admirable opinions he had formed of his character.

Graceful and Deserved.

The Elizabeth Journal of yesterday says: "Captain Hubbard's selection as Director of the Board of Freeholders for another year is simply a renewed acknowledgment of his continued fitness for the position. It was a graceful tribute that was tendered him yesterday by the retiring Board, but it was only a deserved recognition that was tendered him today."

Crack Shooting Contest.

Considerable interest is awakening among Union County gunners over the match shoot between George Squiers of North Plainfield and William Ross of Elizabeth which takes place Saturday afternoon on the Climax Gun Club grounds at Fanwood. The contest will consist of fifty birds, at $100 a side.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison, of Bolan, Worth Co., who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper about how a prominent German citizen of Fort Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad that he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me, he procured a bottle of it and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

COUNTY IN GOOD SHAPE

Treasury Full, and Administration Excellent.

JAIL MANAGEMENT COMMENDED.

Special Features of the Closing Session of the Retiring Board of Freeholders—Plainfield's '61 Veteran Still at the Helm, and Highly Honored.

The Daily Press has already referred to one pleasant feature of the final meeting of the Board of Freeholders, the presentation of a testimonial of esteem to Director J. Frank Hubbard, who for twenty-seven years has faithfully and honorably served the county as a representative from Plainfield.

The whole meeting was pleasant in character, and the annual reports of the officers and committees were exceedingly satisfactory, and reflected great credit on every department of the county.

County Collector E. M. Wood's report showed the county to be in excellent financial condition. The receipts were $441,590.49; disbursements, $419,972.05; balance, $21,618.44. The summary:

LIABILITIES.

War bonds, due '95 to 1900	$ 88,000.00
Freehet bonds of 1882, '95 to 1900	25,000.00
Freehet bonds of 1889, '95, 1901 to 1908	42,000.00
County road bonds	350,000.00
Total	$505,000.00

ASSETS.

County lands and buildings	$200,000.00
Cash in hand	21,618.44

The committee to settle with the Collector reported that on examination of the books, receipts and vouchers, they found the same agreed and were correct. The various committees made their annual reports, and they were ordered published in the county official papers, including The Constitutionalist, weekly issue of The Daily Press.

The Committee on Jail Inspection reported that the entire expenses, including salaries, was $4,480.66. The number of prisoners in the jail at the beginning of the year was 54; committed during the year, 740; remaining in jail at date, 58. The average cost of prisoners per day was 22 cents. Prisoners are made to work about the buildings, keeping things clean, carrying coal, etc. For the limited expenditures and the general good management of the prison, the committee gave high credit to the efficient services of the warden, matron and deputy warden. The State Charities Aid Association and grand jurors had commended the management during the year.

The gift to Director Hubbard was a very beautiful and valuable gold-headed walking-stick. The head was handsomely designed, and the inscription included name, date, etc. The presentation took place immediately following the adoption of resolutions of thanks to Collector Wood and Clerk Ryno.

Freeholder Roll, a veteran member, was chosen to represent his colleagues in the remarks addressed to the Director. He spoke very earnestly, saying that the members felt it a duty to pay a small tribute of friendship and recognition of their appreciation of Mr. Hubbard's courtesy, his counsel, and his able management of the affairs of the county.

Mr. Roll then spoke of the integrity of the Board. He said it stood as a Board high in public estimation. He had been a member for eleven years, and after the organization politics was always put aside, and the good of the county and welfare of the taxpayers was uppermost in the mind of the members. He spoke of the administration of Directors Martine and Sauer, and of the clerks, Crowell and Cook, and the present incumbent, Collectors Sheridan, Moore and Wood, and Wardens Dodd and Moore. In all the departments he said the accounts were ever open to inspection, and the methods of doing business had been commended by visitors from all over the State. Union County challenged a Lexow or Senate Investigating Committee to find a flaw in the administration of its affairs.

Freeholder Clark, who was in the Board in 1861 when Mr. Hubbard first entered it, briefly emphasized what allusions Mr. Roll had made to the honored Director.

Mr. Hubbard, who was greatly surprised, thanked the members sincerely, and expressed regrets that he was unable to say what was in his heart. He thanked them for their co-operation, and said it had been a pleasure to preside over a body constituted of such men. He spoke of the years gone by, related some pleasant reminiscences, and referred to Freeholders Clark and Haliday as the oldest members, having been his associates for many of the years in which he had served.

The cane was a gift from the members of the Board, County Clerk Howard, County Attorney Ward, Clerk Ryno and the other officers of the Board.

I recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, sprains and swellings. There is no better liniment made. I have sold over 100 bottles of it this year and all were pleased who used it. J. F. Pierson, druggist, South Chicago, Ill. It is for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—"The Russian Honeymoon" tonight.

—Franklin Council, No. 41, J. O. U. A. M. meets this evening.

—The Prospect Wheelmen of New York will run to Plainfield, May 19.

—Special services will be held in St. Joseph's R. C. Church this evening.

—The Union County Board of Freeholders will meet again next Thursday.

—John Daly and William H. Miller called on friends in Brooklyn yesterday.

—A fair will take place in the Park Avenue Baptist Church chapel this evening.

—The Robinson boarding-house theft was investigated by the Grand Jury yesterday.

—The Y. M. C. A. Bicycle Club of Orange will have a run to this city next Monday.

—The State Shooting League will have a meet on the grounds of the Climax Club in August.

—The Christian Endeavor fountain on Front street is largely patronized these warm days.

—It is calculated that 1,000 new bicycles will be sold in the city and borough this season.

—Several out-of-town baseball teams are anxious to arrange games with the Y. M. C. A. club.

—The Foresters meet tomorrow night, and will work initiatory degrees on several candidates.

—Pearson & Gayle have the contract for the enlargement of J. W. Reinhart's stables, Netherwood.

—The Endeavor society of the German Reformed Church will hold a sociable in the church this evening.

—A number of entries has already been received by the Crescent Wheelmen for their Decoration Day meet.

—An entertaining literary and musical programme will be given at the meeting in Reform Hall this evening.

—A balky horse caused a little excitement at the corner of Park avenue and Front street last night at 5:30.

—Rev. Mr. Henry, pastor of the Mt. Zion A. M. E. Church, leaves today to attend Conference in Atlantic City.

—John G. Bicknell is improving the appearance of his property on South avenue by laying a stone walk and curb.

—The dwelling-houses which are being built by John French on East Third street are rapidly nearing completion.

—Quaint costumes and colonial manners will be features of the sociable in the Congregational Church tomorrow evening.

—Street Commissioner Meeker was engaged yesterday in repairing the road at the corner of Woodland and Watchung avenues.

—Charles Smith, Neaf Apgar and T. H. Keller left this morning for Newburgh, where they will participate in a shooting tournament.

—Clarence E. Teel returned home yesterday from a three-weeks tour through the eastern States, canvassing the trade for bicycle sundries.

—St. Paul's of Westfield, and the Church of the Redeemer of North Plainfield, were formally admitted to union with the Diocese, in Trenton, Tuesday.

—Chapot & Sons, who are to build the chamois-skin finishing plant near Evons, have already placed a few girls at work in their headquarters in the Babcock Building.

—No date has yet been set for the Park-Fanwood whist club game, which is one of the series to decide the four-men team championship of the New Jersey Whist League tournament.

—A large number of passengers from stations west of Plainfield transfer from the way mail train to the 7:58 express at the North avenue station. In this way they get to New York several minutes earlier.

—J. C. Bovey and Wm. Demarest have had their houses on Stone street connected with the city water. There being no water main on Stone street, they were obliged to have pipes laid from Somerset street.

—The lumber for A. D. Thompson's new house on Belvidere avenue arrived yesterday from Georgia, and work on the building, which had been stopped a few weeks owing to the non-arrival of the lumber, was resumed.

—Mrs. Florence Anson, proprietress of The Woodside, Netherwood, is daily receiving communications from New York and Brooklyn, from parties desirous of retaining rooms in that pleasant Summer resort. By the first of June there will be but few vacancies.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds, Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup and whooping cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North aves. T. S. Armstrong, Manager.

TROUBLE IN COLOMBIA

Only Czarlike Measures Said To Be in Force.

Despite the Assertions That the Revolution Has Been Suppressed the Situation Is One of Terror—Constant Surveillance Under the Regime of Remington Rifles.

Colon, May 9.—Despite the oft-repeated statement that the revolution has been suppressed, such is not the case. The existing situation, caused by the very bold and resolute stand of the revolutionists, causes the keenest anxiety on the isthmus. No man can tell just what the outcome will be. When prominent men are arrested for having opinions and views on the existing situation; when the press is muzzled and telegraph and cable lines are under government control, to announce that the republic is pacified is to announce what no one here for a single instant believes.

Czarlike Measures in Force.

Constant surveilance under a regime of Remington rifles is the order of the day. Decrees have been issued prohibiting the assembling of more than two persons and the discussion in the public prints of any news regarding the present revolution. Any news published here of the revolutionary movement cannot be relied upon. The iron hand of the Caro government grasps Colombia. Czarlike measures are the only ones known. Arrest and deportation of men has frequently occurred because they dare not think and act for themselves.

Rebel Defeat Heralded.

On the 22d ult. an official bulletin stated that the government troops had met the revolutionists, over 2,000 strong, at Encisco and instantly defeated them, thereby securing "the peace of the republic." The Caro government, through its press, issue daily statistics of peace side by side with accounts of government victories.

Peace, Is the Government Cry.

On the 26th of March Gen. Raques, then at Bucaramanga, advised Gen. Velez, at Carthagena—a Colombian city on the Atlantic, "that the rebels of Palmar and Carmen were surrounded by government forces, and that withiu three days they would be destroyed or surrender uncondionally." "Thus," says he in his official dispatch, "will disappear all dangers of an international conflict." Also, "by order of the government I shall return to Bogata after having pacified the department Santander." The government's cry is "peace, peace," and yet there is no peace.

INSURGENTS PUT TO FLIGHT.

Two Government Victories Reported by Spanish Officers in Cuba.

Santiago de Cuba, May 9.—Col. Salamanca reports from Puerto Principe city that he encountered a band of insurgents under Castillo at Jicotea, in the western part of the province, and put them to flight. They were hastening toward Colon when he gave up the pursuit. Spanish troops and a few civil guards came upon a party of insurgents on a farm near Nieves. After a hot fight the insurgents were dispersed and their arms and provisions were captured. One insurgent was killed and several were wounded. The troops pursued the fleeing insurgents about eight miles. Although little could be learned regarding the band, it was supposed to be under the command of the bandit Matagas.

OHIO MINERS STARVING.

An Effort To Relieve Fifty Families in Athens County.

Columbus, O., May 9.—A special to the Post-Press says fifty families are in a starving condition in one township in Athens county. An effort will be made to have an unexpended balance from last winter's relief funds, now in Gov. McKinley's hands, used in their behalf. The sufferers are unemployed miners.

Race Track Officials Resign.

Washington, May 9.—Judge W. L. Powers and Starter C. J. Fitzgerald, who have been officiating at the St. Asaph track, were telegraphed for by the Jockey club and both resigned their positions and left for New York, where they will attend a special meeting of the Jockey club.

Two Men Killed at a Crossing.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 9.—James Delaney and Arthur O'Malia, of Pittston, were instantly killed at Avoca last evening while crossing the Erie railroad tracks. The wagon that they were in was struck by an engine. The horse was also killed.

Wrecked Schooner Passed at Sea.

Lewes, Del., May 9.—The schooner J. Manchester Haynes, from Cienfuegos, passed on May 4 a wrecked schooner showing a broken mast twenty feet above the deck with flag and spar attached, fifteen miles north by west of Fenwick lightship.

Yale Navy's Spring Regatta.

New Haven, Conn., May 9. — The spring regatta of the Yale navy was held yesterday afternoon on Lake Whitney, and the sophomore class eight won the class championship of the university by defeating the freshmen in the final heat.

Mrs. Parnell Still Improving.

Bordentown, N. J., May 9.—Mrs. Parnell continues to improve so rapidly that her attending physician, Dr. Shipps, said to-day that she would recover. She was able to sit up for about half an hour this morning.

To Probe Philadelphia Affairs.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 9.—The senate by a viva voce vote passed the Penrose resolution for the appointment of a committee to investigate the management of municipal affairs of Philadelphia.

Attempt Jury Bribing.

Toronto, May 9.—The Evening Star prints a sensational story of an attempt to bribe the whole jury panel in the Hyams murder case, which should open to-day.

Awarded To a Chicago Firm.

Washington, May 8.—S. I. Pape, of Chicago, has been awarded the contract for heating apparatus for the Worcester, Mass., public building.

FRAUDULENT USE OF MAILS.

A "Loan Association" Secretary Arrested at New Haven.

New Haven, Conn., May 9.—A man who gave his name as Amos Mortimer, and claimed Mt. Vernon, N. Y., as his residence, was arrested by the United States marshal last night, on a charge of using the mails for fraudulent purposes. Mortimer had an office in the Hadley building, and claimed to be the secretary of the "International Savings, Loan and Building association." He came here in January and immediately began sending out circulars soliciting business for the concern, and claimed that its home office was in New Haven. In a short time inquiries came to the mercantile agencies asking information as to the standing of the association. Later on the postoffice officials took a hand in the matter and it was learned that Mortimer had received letters under various names and had receipted for money orders bearing the name of "B. N. Lyons" and "Hon. T. C. Jones." It is learned that most of the business done by this concern was done in the south and west. The investigation just inaugurated prevented a Texas man from placing $1,000 with the association.

GENZ WANTS TO BE HANGED.

Asked Judge Lippincott To Sentence Him at Once.

Jersey City, May 9.—The jury in the case of Paul Genz, on trial for the murder of his sweetheart, Clara Arnheim, took twelve ballots before the verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree was agreed to. The jury did not believe that Genz was insane, and held that he was shamming. When the verdict was announced Genz said: "That suits me." Then the murderer whispered to his counsel, and Lawyer Collins told the court that Genz desired to be sentenced right away, and that he wanted to be hanged. Judge Lippincott would not sentence him, and remanded him to the Hudson county jail until May 20, when sentence will be pronounced. As he was led from the court room Genz said: "Well, I have got my dose at last." He appeared cool and unconcerned. All along since he committed the murder he said he was guilty and wanted to be hanged. Prosecutor Winfield said it was a just verdict.

EUROPEAN INVESTMENTS.

Heavy Purchases of American Railway Securities in Wall Street.

New York, May 9.—The noteworthy movement of the present week in the investment market has been the buying of American railway securities here for European investors. It is estimated in Wall street that nearly 50,000 share of stocks were bought by London agents Tuesday, and upwards of 25,000 more were taken yesterday and to-day the purchasing continues. All these stocks, together with the bonds purchased, will be shipped to Europe. The reason for the specially large buying this week is the occurrence of the "fortnightly settlement" on the London stock exchange this week. Dealers on that exchange may contract to make deliveries of securities at any time, but by the rules of the exchange the actual deliveries must be made, and contracts either settled or postponed by mutual arrangement, once in two weeks.

EX-GOV. WESTON DEAD.

Passes Away at His Home at Manchester, N. H.

Manchester, N. H., May 9.—Ex-Gov. James A. Weston died here yesterday. Mr. Weston was born in Manchester on the 27th of August, 1827; was educated in the public schools and academies of his native place, and eventually entered into business as a civil engineer. He took part in the construction of many railroads and water works in New Hampshire, and was elected mayor of Manchester in 1868, 1870, 1871 and 1873. His administration of that office led to his election as governor of the state in 1871 and 1874.

THE CURRENCY QUESTION.

Great Britain's Adhesion to the Gold Standard.

London, May 9.—The association here for the defense of the gold standard is preparing a memorial to the chancellor of the exchequer praying the government to avoid even entangling proposals which might lead persons abroad or at home to believe that England is prepared to depart from the gold standard.

Got a Verdict for $1,508.

Lewiston, Me., May 9.—In the libel suit of Bearce & Clifford, of Lewiston, vs. J. P. Bass and M. E. Mudgett, proprietors of the Bangor Commercial, on trial in the supreme court at Auburn for several days, the jury returned a verdict for plantiffs for $1,508.00. The jury was out two hours. Defendants will file exceptions and take the case to the law court.

Killed Herself for Love.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 9.—Francisca Rekus, a handsome young woman residing at Plymouth, committed suicide yesterday by jumping into the river. Despondency caused by disappointment in love is said to be the cause. She was to have been married Tuesday night, but the promised groom refused to make her his wife.

Yesterday's Baseball Games.

At Pittsburg — Pittsburg, 9; Brooklyn, 4. At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 3; New York, 10. At Louisville—Louisville, 6; Philadelphia, 9. At Cleveland—Cleveland, 2; Baltimore, 6. At Chicago—Chicago, 8; Washington, 4. At St. Louis—St. Louis, 7; Boston, 10.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spot trade quiet but steady. No. 2 red f. o. b. afloat quoted at 68c.

Corn—Spot firm but prices irregular. Steamer mixed 55¼c. elevator.

Oats—Spot steady with fair demand. No. 2 white, 37c.; No. 2. mixed, 32½.

Pork—Spot trade quiet at old prices. Extra prime nominal, $15.25a$15.50; mess $13.00a$13.50.

Lard—Contracts are dull and steady. May, $6.85; July $6.95.

Butter—Demand slow and prices weak. New butter, creamery, western extras, 18c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 16c.

Cheese—Prices are a shade lower. State, full cream, large colored, fancy, new, 7¼a7½c.; common to prime, 6½a6¾c.

Eggs—The arrivals are smaller but with a fair demand the tone is fairly firm at 13½c. for best northwestern.

Potatoes—Old domestic slow of sale and the market is lax. State, white stock, per 180 lbs., $2a2.12; Jersey, prime, in bulk, per 180 lbs., $1.75a$2.00.

ROSSA NOT SURPRISED

Expected To Be Put Out of the Commons.

Went There, He Says, with the Deliberate Intention of Addressing the House in Reference to a Charge Against Him in a Letter from Labouchere to America.

London, May 9.—O'Donovan Rossa, who was forcibly ejected from the house of commons last evening is in high dungeon over the affair, but declines to discuss the matter. Great excitement was caused in the house at the time. Just as the chief secretary of Ireland, John Morley, had finished his speech discussing the bill of Edmund Knox, anti-Parnellite, to repeal the crimes act, Rossa arose from a seat in the strangers' gallery and excitedly exclaimed:

An Assassin's Blow.

"Mr. Speaker, an assassin's blow has been aimed at me in this house and a stain has been put on my name"——Rossa's remarks were greeted with loud shouts of "order," and the sergeant-at-arms summarily ejected him from the house. At the time of the interruption the members did not know that it was O'Donovan Rossa who interrupted the proceedings, and when his identity became known the sensation increased.

Warned Not To Return.

A previous speaker, it appears, had alluded in uncomplimentary terms to Rossa, and it was this which caused him to enter a protest from the gallery. Rossa, after being ejected from the house by the sergeant-at-arms, was turned over to a policeman on duty with instructions not to allow him again within the precincts of the houses of parliament. Consequently, he was marched off the premises by the bluecoats, who warned him not to show his face there again.

Intended To Address the House.

O'Donovan Rossa said this morning: "It was my deliberate intention to address the house of commons in reference to a letter from Mr. Labouchere to an individual in America repeating the assertion that I received money from the English government. I was not surprised at my expulsion; in fact, I should not have been much surprised if I had been imprisoned.

RUSSIA AND CHINA.

Said To Have an Understanding Regarding the Siberian Railroad.

London, May 9.—The United Press correspondent in St. Petersburg says he learns from a high source that Russia has a separate understanding with China. This understanding does not cede Manchurian territory wholly to Russia, but it places it under Russian control to the extent of allowing Russia, when so disposed, to prolong the Siberian railroad from Nertschinsk, through the valleys of the Nonni and Sungari, in the Kirin province, to Broughton bay, in the Sea of Japan. China has agreed also to let Russia build a branch railroad from Kirin city to New Chwang.

UPHOLD THE SULTAN.

Protest from an M. P. Against Mr. Gladstone's Armenian Course.

London, May 9.—Sir Ellis Ashmead Bartlett, M. P., has communicated to the newspapers a letter sent by him to Mr. Gladstone protesting in the name of common honesty and true humanity against Mr. Gladstone's condemning the sultan and Turkish army unheard. He reiterates his doubts that any deliberate atrocities were committed in Armenia by the troops, and asserts that there is not the slightest evidence that the sultan was answerable in any way whatever for what happened.

THE POUND BILL PASSED.

It Makes It a Misdemeanor to Buy Votes at a Political Caucus.

Albany, May 9.—The assembly has passed Senator Pound's bill making it a misdemeanor to buy votes at a political caucus or convention. This is the same bill that the assembly defeated in April.

Anxious for a New Pacific Cable.

London, May 9.—J. G. Ward, New Zealand's treasurer, has informed Lord Ripon, colonial secretary, that New Zealand is greatly interested in the plans for a new pacific cable and steamship line, and he urges the British government to encourage the enterprises and help the colonies develop them.

Fairchild Succeeds Grace.

New York, May 9.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the New York state democracy, held last night at the headquarters of the organization, the resignation of ex-Mayor W. R. Grace as chairman of the committee was accepted and Charles S. Fairchild was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy.

Whiskey Trust Suit Withdrawn.

Chicago, May 9.—The suit of the whiskey trust receiver in the federal court was secretly withdrawn by consent of court last night and a substitute filed, which is said to have been suppressed for service. The new suit is practically the same as the old one, but varies some in expression.

Hanged Himself To His Wife's Tomb

Hazleton, Pa., May 9.—Christian May, aged 73, escaped from the county home Tuesday night and entering the cemetery at this place, adjusted a rope around his wife's monument and hanged himself. May was at one time quite wealthy.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c. per box. For sale by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR.

Professor Munyon's Great Work Among the Suffering.

His Medicines are Marvels in the Way of Effecting Cures.

Mr. George Lodge, the well-known real eftate dealer, Third and Federal streets, Philadelphia, Pa., is not only one of the most prominent real estate brokers in the city, but is the general manager of the new underground system of electrical propulsion, which is destined to supersede the overhead trolley. Read what he says.

"Ever since 1868 I have been a great sufferer from sciatic rheumatism. There were times when the excruciating pains nearly drove me insane, and I was practically helpless. Upon a friend's advice I was induced to try Munyon's Rheumatism Cure. After taking a few doses the pain left me and I have not had the slightest symptoms of any return of the disease. I have recommended this remedy to several of my friends who had rheumatism. They have also been cured."

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure acts almost instantaneously, curing many obstinate cases in a few hours. It is guaranteed to cure rheumatism in any part of the body. Acute or muscular rheumatism cured in from one to five days. It never fails to cure sharp, shooting pains in the arms, legs, sides, back or breast, or soreness in any part of the body in from one to three hours. It promptly cures lameness, stiff and swollen joints, and all pains in the hips and loins, chronic rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago or pain in the back are speedily cured. It seldom fails to give relief after one or two doses, and almost invariably cures before one bottle has been used.

Munyon's Homoeopathic Home Remedy Company, of Philadelphia, put up specifics for nearly every disease, which are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25 cents a bottle.

Those who are in doubt as to the nature of their disease should address Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch st., Philadelphia, giving full symptoms of their disease. Professor Munyon will carefully diagnose the case and give you the benefit of his advice absolutely free of all charge. The Remedies will be sent to any address on receipt of retail price.

Bee Hive.

"KIDS."

Ladies' 4 button kid gloves in tans and slates 65c.

Foster hook kid gloves in all the new shades, the 98c quality, 75c.

Children's kid gloves, a good glove, 69c.

Men's kid gloves, every pair warranted, $1.

MEN'S CAMBRIC SHIRTS.

Men's cambric shirts, laundried, collar and cuffs attached, 50c.

Men's laundried shirts, white body and fancy bosom, 48c.

Men's laundried shirts, white body and colored bosom and cuffs 65c.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st

FOR SALE CHEAP!

A large assortment of Geraniums, Coleus, Salvias, Roses, Casino-clematis, Palms and Rubber trees. Also 3000 Privet hedge plants, and a general collection of hardy plants and shrubs, at

DENTON'S
131 Hillside Avenue.

BATHS

HOT and COLD 15c.
Showers included at
Wm. Classen's, Barber,
211 Liberty street.
5 8 1y

Photo Material.

PLATES AND PAPER.

at

Reduced Prices.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front st.

BAR-LOCK VISIBLE WRITING TYPEWRITER

Writes every letter in sight of operator. Does most of the work, in writing AUTOMATICALLY, and yields in the time thus saved additional work.

It acts as if it studied the convenience of the operator at every turn, and thereby lightens his labor and renders him capable of doing more.

It has a knack of keeping well, and is always ready at critical or other times.

These are some of the reasons why it is different from all other writing machines.

The catalogue tells you more about it. FREE.

Columbia Typewriter Mfg. Co,
307 Broadway, New York.
1 5 6m

MOSLER SAFE CO.,

contractors to the United States Government
Mosler Patent Safes,
(fire and burglar-proof) in general use
All Over the World.
Lowest prices. Drop a postal to
S. W. CLARK,
General Agent,
118 West 5th st., Plainfield, N. J.
and he will call and give special attention and information.
Large assortment of second-hand safes in first-class condition at low prices.

CONFECTIONS

Fresh, and from Pure Materials,

TIER'S,

116 Park avenue. 4 11 tf

CHOICE
Lawn Seeds, Garden Seeds, and Fertilizers.
Lawn mowers repaired.
Plumbing, Tinning and Hardware.

A. M. GRIFFIN,
119 East Front St.

GEO. J. TOBIN,
187 North avenue.
Practical Plumber
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer
TELEPHONE CALL 158a. 12 15 tf

Plainfield Machine Works,
Manufacturers of
Steam Engines,
Electric Motors and Dynamos. Shafting and mill work generally. Jobbing in all its branches. Prompt attention given to repairing of steam engines, boilers, bicycles, etc. Piping in all its branches.
GIVE US A CALL.
N. C. MAGUE, Manager.
Works corner Richmond and East 3d street, Plainfield. 4 13 tf

Tel. 29B Established 1878.
ADDIS & SON,
PLUMBING AND HOT WATER HEATING.
Have your plumbing system tested with the smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.
Opp Roberts' Livery 132 North Ave

H. Eggerding,
121 PARK AVENUE.
Manufacturer of the celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars. 11 26

Telephone 58

Ring it up when you want good coal, and talk to

Geo. O. Stevens

SPRING TERM
OF THE
Rockview Home & Day School
Opens April 15.
Kindergarten, Primary and Intermediate Departments. For terms and particulars apply to the Misses Peck, 317 East Front street.

FLORIST.
A. E. LINCOLN, 226 Park avenue,
has just received an elegant assortment of rare ferns and other plants. Also will have a fine assortment of flowering plants, azaleas, lilies, etc., for Easter. Large assortment of choice cut flowers daily. Floral design work for all occasions a specialty.

SMALLEY'S CASH MARKET.
(Estate of D. L. Smalley.)
94 Somerset, Corner Race Street.
GEO. EGEL, Manager.
We sell only first-class goods, at low prices, for cash. Orders called for and delivered. 12 10 1

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume, Agt.
80 BROADWAY, cor. 6th St.
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for put coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
UPPER LEHIGH AND HONEYBROOK COAL in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
ROGER AND DRESSED LUMBER.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for TURNING and SCROLL SAWING and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and short notice.

WALL PAPER, WALL PAPER!

Wall Paper Bargains
5c, 6c, 8c, 10c ROLL.

Also all the best papers for the fine trade. Competent men employed to hang our papers.

RUGS, WINDOW SHADES
MOULDINGS,
PAINTS, OILS, VARNISHES,
KALSOMINE.
TINTING COLORS,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS,
CIGARS.

LOVE,

Corner North and Watchung aves.

Fine Dairy Butter.....15c. lb
Best Dairy Butter.....18c. lb
Best Elgin Creamery Butter..20c. lb
V. L. FRAZEE,
151 West Front St.

EDUCATIONAL.

Afternoon Class for Young Ladies
Three times per week. Higher English Branches, French and Music. For terms apply MISS FAWCETT,
25 Washington ave

JAMES E. BAILY,
97 Jackson avenue, Plainfield, N. J.
Trucking of All Kinds Done.
Two and four-horse vans and trucks. Particular attention given to moving furniture and pianos. Satisfaction guaranteed. 5 26 tf

Hotels and Saloons.

Madison Avenue HOTEL,
Madison Avenue and 58th St.,
NEW YORK.
$3 per day and up. American Plan.
Fireproof and first-class in every particular. Two blocks from the Third and Sixth avenue elevated railroads.
The Madison and 4th Avenue and Belt Line cars pass the door.
H. M. CLARK, Prop.
Passenger elevator runs all night.

HOTEL GRENADA,
North Avenue.
Now open for the reception of guests; under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public. 5-13-4

CITY HOTEL.
Plainfield, N. J.
COR. PARK AVENUE AND SECOND STREET.
J. R. BERRIOWER, Proprietor.
With stables attached. 487

A. Lusardi,
No. 120 North Ave.,
Will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c. quart.
Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets.

Skilled Workmen

are even more essential in hanging paper than they are in the doing of many other things. We employ the best and most capable men in this department and guarantee the best possible results. Do not spoil the effect of pretty paper by improper hanging.

Marsh, Ayers & Co.,
141 East Front st.

BRIAR PIPE GIVEN AWAY

WITH EVERY ONE POUND bale OF

DUKES MIXTURE

for 35 cents

Every pipe stamped DUKES MIXTURE or ATC

2oz. PACKAGES 5¢

$1,000 BUYS HOUSE AND LOT!

$600 BUYS FIVE LOTS.

ADDRESS D. J. C., CARE PRESS.

DOGS

TAKEN TO BOARD,

Netherwood Farm Kennels,

5 7 tf Mountain Avenue.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION.

The Civil Service Commission at Washington has ordered that an examination be held in this city on Saturday, June 1, 1895 commencing at 9 o'clock, a. m., for the grades of clerk and carrier in the city postoffice. Only citizens of the United States can be examined. The age limitations are as follows: For carrier, not under 21 nor over 40; for all other positions, not under 18 years. No application will be accepted for this examination unless filed with the undersigned in complete form, on the proper blank, before the hour of closing business on May 13, 1895.

The Civil Service Commission takes this opportunity of stating that the examinations are open to all reputable citizens who may desire to enter the postal service, without regard to their political affiliation. All such citizens, whether Democrats or Republicans or neither, are invited to apply. They shall be examined, graded and certified with entire impartiality, and wholly without regard to their political views, or to any consideration save their efficiency, as shown by the grades they obtain in the examination.

For application blanks, full instructions, and information relative to the duties and salaries of the different positions, apply at the postoffice to

G. C. GODOWN,
Secretary Board of Examiners.

See What $1.00 Will Do

AT THE

Plainfield Tea and Grocery Co.

106 E. FRONT ST.,

H. S. WILLIAMS, Manager.

All Goods Warranted as Represented.

1 lb. Special Mixed Tea,	50c.
1 lb. Coffee, -	32
Quarter lb. Pepper,	10
One Can Corn, -	10
One Can Tomatoes, -	10
One Can Pease, -	10
One Can Milk -	10
One Paper Corn Starch,	10
One Paper Cocoanut,	10

☞ $1.52

Cut out this Coupon and bring it and $1 to our store and get all the above articles for $1 Cash!

H. Hand,

LICENSED AUCTIONEER.

15 YEARS EXPERIENCE.

esidence and postoffice address

SCOTCH PLAINS, N. J.

Office in Plainfield at Terrill & Cole's livery, 200 West 2d st. 1 12 tf

W. K. McCLURE,

Counselor-at-Law.

SUPREME COURT COMMISSIONER.

First National Bank Building.

W. R. Codington's

LAW OFFICES.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.
Solicitor and Master in Chancery.
Notary Public.

The sign on the windows reads

Woolston & Buckle,

Paper Hangers.

We have had the door hinges and latch oiled up so that getting in is easy. So also is the getting out.
Prices are so low on Wall Papers that you will buy before you go.

A BREAK AT DOVER

Election of a Senator Is Not Far Off.

Addicks and Higgins' Followers Desert—H. A. and William Dupont Enter the Struggle—The Contest Now Between W. Dupont and Dr. Burton—Balloting Last Night.

Dover, Del., May 9.—The joint assembly took 42 ballots during yesterday and last evening for United States senator, and then shortly after 9 o'clock a recess was taken until to-day. Yesterday's balloting resulted no more than it has for the past several months in electing a senator, but the sensation of the day was the desertion from their leaders of the followers of Higgins and Addicks.

Massey and Higgins Deserted.

On the first ballot taken yesterday the Massey men went to James Pennewill, of Dover, and the Higgins men went to Henry A. Dupont of Newcastle county. This ballot resulted: Henry A. Dupont (rep.), 6; J. Edward Addicks, (rep.), 6; James Pennewill (rep.), 7; Edward Ridgely (dem.), 9; E. W. Tunnell, (dem.), 1. On the fifth ballot the Pennewill men, except Morgan, went to Dupont, making his vote 12.

First Addicks Desertion.

On the ninth ballot the first desertion from Addicks occurred. Mr. Money cast his vote for Dupont, giving the Newcastle county man 14 votes and Addicks 5. At this point a recess was taken until 2 p. m.

Another Dupont Enters.

After the assembly reconvened and on the 16th ballot all the Addicks men went to William Dupont, brother of Henry A. Dupont, and Money cast his vote for Higgins. This ballot showed as follows: H. A. Dupont, 11; William Dupont, 7; Higgins, 1; Ridgely, 9; Tunnell, 1.

Higgins Men Vote for Burton.

There was little change in this vote up to the 21st ballot when another recess was taken. When the assembly met in the evening and the 33d ballot was taken, the Higgins men cast their votes for Hiram R. Burton, and the ballot resulted as follows: Burton, 8; W. Dupont, 10; H. A. Dupont, 1; Ridge 9, Tunnell, 1. After this nine more ballots were taken, with varying, but small change. The 42d and last ballot taken last night resulted as follows: W. Dupont, 11; Burton, 7; John W. Jolls, 1; Ridgely, 9; Tunnell, 1. Townsend voted for Representative Jolls.

Much Excitement Prevails.

The hall of the house was crowded throughout the day and evening while the balloting was going on, and great excitement prevailed, as it seemed likely that an unexpected choice for senator might be made. It is now believed that the end will be reached to-day. The contest seems to be between W. Dupont and Burton.

FATHER FLAHERTY'S TRIAL.

To Be Held at Geneseo, a Change of Venue Being Denied.

Geneseo, N. Y., May 9.—The case of the People vs. Rev. Charles Flaherty, the priest convicted of criminal assault and which was returned for a new trial, was argued before Judge Adams for a change of venue yesterday afternoon. The judge refused the motion and the case will be retried at Geneseo in the near future. On his former trial Flaherty was sentenced to seven years and six months inprisonment at hard labor in Auburn prison.

SIX PROBABLY LOST.

Fire in a Baltimore Sweat-Shop Last Evening.

Baltimore May 9.—Six persons were probably fatally burned by a fire caused by a gasoline stove explosion in a sweat-shop on Pratt street last night. They were locked in an attic-like room on the third floor and several jumped from the windows, their clothing ablaze. Others were rescued by outsiders, who burst in the door. The injured were Polish Jews.

Death of Rev. Edward Boggs.

Newark, N. J., May 9.—The Rev. Dr. Edward B. Boggs, one of the best known priests in the Episcopal diocese of Newark, died at his home on North Grove street yesterday afternoon. His death resulted from a fall downstairs last Saturday night. He was unconscious when picked up, and continued so to the end.

Ware Hall Sold.

Boston, May 9.—Edward Holbrook, of New York, for the Gorham Manufacturing company, has purchased Ware hall, the palatial dormitory for Harvard students, which Albert Ross, the novelist, erected last year at Cambridge. The building is six stories in height, with elegant suites for ninety-four students.

Armenian Stories Exaggerated.

London, May 9.—The Times correspondent at Erzinghian writes under the date of April 28 that the evidence taken by the commission of inquiry shows the number of victims of the massacres was greatly exaggerated.

To Remove Gen. Hancock's Remains.

Washington, May 9. — The Second Army corps has taken steps for the removal to Arlington, Va., of the remains of General Hancock, now at Germantown, and those of Mrs. Hancock, now at St. Louis.

Culver Inquest at Clyde.

Rochester, N. Y., May 9.—The coroner's inquest in the case of Roy M. Culver, of Newark, was continued at Clyde yesterday, the evidence produced going to strengthen the murder theory.

Against a German Grain Monopoly.

Berlin, May 9.—The Reichstag committee by a vote of 13 to 12, rejected a motion approving the principle of Count von Kanit's motion in favor of a government monopoly for grain, etc.

Gold for America.

London, May 9. — The Cunard line steamship Etruria which sails from Liverpool next Saturday for New York, will take £200,000 in gold to the bond syndicate.

Exchange of Peace Ratifications.

London, May 9.—The Times correspondent at Tokio says that exchange of peace ratifications was made yesterday.

DEFENDED HIS MOTHER.

A Young Newburg Man Probably Fatally Shot by a Family Friend.

Newburg, N. Y., May 9.—Harry O'Neil, 18 years old, son of Mary O'Neil, a widow, was shot in the head last evening by John Levsen, a German, who has been an intimate friend of Mrs. O'Neil for several years. Levson is a private night watchman and is privileged to carry a revolver. Last evening he called on Mrs. O'Neil, previous to his hour for going on duty. A quarrel between Levson and the widow led the former to strike the woman. Harry O'Neil witnessed the blow. He grasped an empty soda water bottle and struck Levson with it. The man, in his rage, drew his revolver. Mrs. O'Neil sprang in front of her son, but Levson fired a shot over her shoulder. The ball entered young O'Neil's head at the top of the left ear, and ploughed inward and downward, inflicting a probably fatal wound. Levson was overpowered and turned over to the police. He acquired local fame while on the police force by capturing "Tony" Sarvis, a desperado, who was subsequently sentenced to Sing Sing.

DISPENSARY LAW ANNULLED.

Decision That It Is in Violation of the Interstate Commerce Law.

Columbia, S. C., May 9.—Judge Simonton read his decision in the dispensary case of Donohue vs. State Constables yesterday, declaring that the court had jurisdiction; that provisions of the dispensary law were in violation of the United States interstate commerce law, and decreeing that the injunction should issue as prayed for.

An Ironclad Injunction.

The injunction is an ironclad one, inasmuch as it restrains all persons under any circumstances from interfering with the transit or importation into the state of liquors of any kind or of searching for them or in any manner carrying out any of the provisiong of the dispensary law.

Gov. Evans Defiant.

Gov. Evans declared this morning that the dispensary will continue its operations as heretofore and push the cases to the United States supreme court as speedily as possible.

COLLEGE ATHLETIC LEAGUE.

Williams, Amherst and Dartmouth Complete Work of Organization.

Amherst, Mass., May 9.—The delegates from Williams, Amherst and Dartmouth have completed the organization of the much-discussed athletic league, which was named "The New England Intercollegiate Triangular league." The old baseball and football leagues were brought together, with a new track athletic league under one constitution, each branch, however, making its own by-laws. The question of eligibility to the league is settled by the rules, which allow all students in good and regular standing to compete.

FLETCHER PRIZE ESSAY.

Rev. Washington Gladden, D. D., of Columbus, O., the Winner.

Hanover, N. H., May 9.—The award for the Fletcher prize essay offered the trustees of Dartmouth college under the will of the Hon. Richard Fletcher has been assigned to the Rev. Washington Gladden, D. D., of Columbus, Ohio. The subject of the essay was "In what ways ought the conception of personal life and duty to be modified?" The competition drew out essays of marked value.

NO SUCH PERSON THERE.

Sale of Indain Maiden Rosa White Denied at the Arapahoe Agency.

Washington, May 9.—Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs Smith has received a telegram from Capt. Woodson, of the Cheyenne and Arapahoe agency, Indian territory stating that the published report about the beautiful Indian maiden Rosa White being sold by her father for fifteen horses to a 70 year old polygamist were without foundation as there were no such persons on the rolls at his agency.

WOMAN LEAPED FROM A TRAIN.

Arrested for Shoplifting, She Made a Break for Liberty.

Providence, R. I., May 9.—Mrs. Pheba Narrow, a French woman, 40 years of age, last evening leaped from a Pawtucket Valley train as she was being taken to jail. The train was speeding at the rate of thirty miles an hour. The woman's skull and jaw were fractured. There is no hope of her recovery.

Close of an Old Theatre.

Savannah, Ga., May 9.—The Savannah theatre, the oldest play-house in this country, was closed last night with a charity performance of living whist. As the curtain was rung down the audience sang "Auld Lang Sine." The demolition of the building will be begun at once to make way for a new theatre.

German Anti-Socialist Bill.

London, May 9.—The Morning Post's Berlin correspondent says the present situation in the reichstag regarding the anti-socialist bill is very serious for the government. The prospects of the bill's escaping total wreck he regards as exceedingly slight.

Gold Reserve Increasing.

Washington, May 9.—The gold reserve increased yesterday $900,000, standing at the close of business in the treasury at $92,291,579. The gained gold was paid in by the syndicate.

Russia To Spend More on Schools.

St. Petersburg, May 9.—The educational budget has been increased 3,000,000 roubles. The increase is to be applied to the support of elementary schools.

New British Battle Ship.

London, May 9.—The battle ship Resown was launched at Pembroke yesterday. She is a 12,000-ton vessel provided for in the naval programme of 1892-93.

Logan Carlisle Going Abroad.

Washington, May 9.—Logan Carlisle, chief clerk of the treasury, will leave the latter part of the month for a short European trip.

All Quiet at Pocahontas.

Roanoke, Va., May 9.—A special from Pocahontas says all is quiet there. The miners are restless, however, but the troops seem to over awe them.

Demady Acquitted.

Denver, May 9.—Richard Demady, the alleged "strangler," was acquitted last night.

ANNIHILATORS TESTED

A Shell Plowed Through Plate and All.

Then Went on a Mile and Is Uninjured—Projectiles Which Only United States' 12-inch Armor Can Resist—Result of the Latest Trials. Shells the Study Now.

Washington, May 9.—Since the famous armor test of May 1, when the 13-inch peacemaker rifle attacked the 18-inch Carnegie Harveyized plate with results that showed the long fight between guns and plates had reached a stage where neither had the mastery, naval ordnance officers have been looking forward to the trial of Carpenter projectiles with intense interest. The results of the three shots fired yesterday demonstrate that it is no longer a contest between guns and armor but future ordnance advancement must be in the improvement of the shell.

Matter of Missiles Now.

With the enormous endurance attained by the steel makers in their 40-ton blocks of Harveyized steel and the terrific energy developed by the 13-inch gun, the problem is reduced approximately to securing a missile that can survive the resultant effect of an almost irresistible force meeting a nearly immovable obstacle.

Shells Broken into Fragments.

When the 1,100-pound Holtzer projectile was fired a week ago from the greatest naval weapon with an initial velocity of 1,810 feet per second and hit the 18-inch plate with the tremendous striking energy of 29,000 foot tons, the shell was totally disintegrated, its particles showering like rain over a surface of several acres. Even the 12-inch projectile, with the increased velocity of 1,926 feet per second, was melted by the suddenness of its stoppage and looked like so much black mud splashed on the surface of the plate.

Yesterday's Tests.

Yesterday the last two lots of Carpenter armor-piercing projectiles for the battleships, one of fifty and the other of seventy-five shells, were submitted for the Ballistic test. These shells are intended for the big guns which constitute the chief offensive power of the new battleships. They were required under the contract to pierce without injury twelve inches of solid steel, but as no common steel of that thickness was available, the target used was 12-inch Harveyized plate, the ordnance experts being prepared to make allowance for the increased resistance offered by the face hardened armor which had not been in existence when the shells were ordered.

Pierced the Plate.

The first shot with an initial velocity of 1,475 feet per second got its point ten inches into the plate and went to pieces, knocking a slice off the plate and driving out a piece behind big enough to flood a compartment of a vessel if it had struck near the water line. This performance was sufficient to pass the shell as it would have easily pierced ordinary metal and besides it warmed up the gun.

Wonderful Achievement.

Another of the big shells was put into place and behind it were stowed away 489 pounds of brown hexagonal powder specially adapted to this calibre of gun. When the electric button was pressed the 1,100-pound shell leaped from the muzzle with a velocity of 1,810 feet per second and less than a third of a second later it went through the plate, oak backing and sand bank behind, and ricochetting high in the air, plunged into the woods a mile away, where it was found an hour later practically unscathed after its remarkable journey.

Fulfil All Conditions.

The department will accept all the shells because the lots completely fulfil the conditions of the contract. They will probably not be fired against any ships they cannot penetrate in the next year or two because no nation except the United States has any vessels armored sufficiently to keep them out.

When They Would Fail.

But such shells as these cannot be relied upon for thicker plates than twelve inches or after other vessels now on the stocks abroad are launched, for the Harvey-face hardening process is getting to be used everywhere, and at least one nation is building ships with the deliberate intention of having them invulnerable to the American 13-inch "Peacemaker."

Relying on American Ingenuity.

The naval ordnance officers are depending upon American ingenuity to come to the rescue as it has so often done in the past. Most of the modern advances in war implements and methods have emanated from the United States, and what is now demanded is a solid projectile that will withstand the crushing effects of a 33,000 foot ton.

To Pay the Church Debt.

Worcester, Mass., May 9.—At a meeting of the members of St. Matthews Episcopal church last night, a letter was read from M. J. Whittall and wife stating that they would assume the payment of Messrs. Norcross Bros.' contract of $30,000 for the new St. Matthews church which has just been completed.

Invitations for the Kiel Fetes.

Berlin, May 9.—Among those invited by the emperor to attend the ceremonies at the opening of the North Sea and Baltic canal are all the ambassadors and ministers and their attaches, Admiral von Stosch, Count von Caprivi and General Lord Wolseley.

Cholera Epidemic on Japanese Ships

London, May 9.—The Times correspondent in Kobe says that cholera is epidemic on the Japanese transports at Trlien-Wan. More than half the vessels of the original Chi-Li expedition are infected.

Brouthers Goes To Louisville.

Baltimore, May 9.—Manager McCloskey of the Louisville club has purchased from President Hanlon the release of Dan Brouthers. The consideration is said to have been $500.

Norwich Municipal Bonds Sold.

Norwich, Conn., May 9.—The city of Norwich sold yesterday $126,000 worth of 4½ per cent. bonds at par to local savings societies.

KARL'S CLOVER ROOT PURIFIES THE BLOOD

IT GIVES FRESHNESS AND CLEAR SKIN.

CURES CONSTIPATION INDIGESTION DIZZINESS ERUPTIONS ON THE SKIN BEAUTIFIES COMPLEXION

1.50. FOR A CASE IT WILL NOT CURE.

An agreeable Laxative and Nerve Tonic. Sold by Druggists or sent by mail. 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per package. Samples free.

KO NO The Favorite TOOTH POWDER for the Teeth and Breath, 25c.

Captain Sweeney, U. S. A., San Diego, Cal., says: "Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy is the first medicine I have ever found that would do me any good." Price 50 cts. Sold by Druggists.

SHILOH'S CURE.

THIS GREAT COUGH CURE promptly saves where all others fail. For Consumption it has no rival; has cured thousands, and will cure you, if taken in time. Price 25 cts., 50 cts., $1.00.

Sold by all druggists.

8 11 7

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE IS THE BEST. FIT FOR A KING.

$5. CORDOVAN, FRENCH & ENAMELLED CALF.

$4 $3.50 FINE CALF & KANGAROO

$3. $2.50 POLICE, 3 SOLES.

$2.50 $2. WORKINGMEN'S. EXTRA FINE.

$2. $1.75 BOYS' SCHOOL SHOES.

LADIES.

$3. $2.50 $2. $1.75

BEST DONGOLA.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE.

W. L. DOUGLAS, BROCKTON, MASS.

Over One Million People wear the W. L. Douglas $3 & $4 Shoes

All our shoes are equally satisfactory

They give the best value for the money.
They equal custom shoes in style and fit.
Their wearing qualities are unsurpassed.
The prices are uniform,—stamped on sole.
From $1 to $3 saved over other makes.
If your dealer cannot supply you we can. Sold by

A. WILLETT & SON

A full assortment of Stationery!

AT

HARPER'S,

411 Park ave.

L. A. HUMMER. L. B. MULFORD.

Hummer & Mulford,

VARIETY MARKET,

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, Etc.

220 PARK AVE., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Telephone call, 29 A.

Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge 9 11

Your valuables will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

LOCK BOXES

From $3.50 to $10.00 a year.

M. Powers & Son,

Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75

in the yard. "A No. 1 Kindling Wood."

Yard and office, 763 South Avenue.
Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

Climax Stopper Co.,

Machine Works,

Corner of Washington and 4th streets, manufacturers of bicycle specialties. Electric and special machinery, experimental work, tools, etc. Contractors for electric light wiring, telephones, burglar alarms, etc. 6 13 3m

TRY DOBBINS'S CIGARS.

30 PARK AVE.

He Manufactures Them

THOS. MARLEY,

(Nineteen years with M. Quinn)

BLACKSMITH,

845 Richmond st., near Watchung ave 4 25 7

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 2545, Knights of Honor.—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the First and Third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 213 West Front street, at 8 p. m.

John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Court Pride of New Jersey, No. 8034, Ancient Order of Foresters of America, meets in K. of P. Hall, No. 108 West 2d st., first and third Tuesday evenings in each month.

Samuel J. Flynn, Chief Ranger.
Samuel H. Lunger, Fin. Sec. 9 25 7

Anchor Lodge, No. 169, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays in the Babcock Building.

C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Secretary.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Masonic Hall, East Front street.

D. C. Adams, W. M.
Chas. Yeager, Secretary.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum.—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the Second and Fourth Monday evenings of each month in Stumpf Firemen's Hall, Coward's Building, Park avenue, at 8 P. M.

A. M. Rue, Regent.
E. A. Thorne, Secretary.

H. DeMOTT,

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER,

69 Somerset Street, Plainfield, N. J. Ent'y

Short Vacations

For busy people by the beautiful new steamships of the Old Dominion Line.

To Old Point Comfort

[Hygeia Hotel]

Or Virginia Beach, Va.

[Princess Anne Hotel] may be made for

$16 Old Point Comfort, $16 Virginia Beach, $17 $17

INCLUDING EVERY EXPENSE

of meals and berths enroute, and a day and a quarter's board at the hotels.

These trips are ideal, as a considerable portion is made through the quiet waters of the famous Hampton Roads and there is little likelihood of seasickness.

Also tickets on sale, with privilege of going or returning by rail.

Write for particulars of these and other delightful trips to

Old Dominion S. S. Co.,

Pier 26, North River, New York.
W. L. Guillaudeu, Vice Pres. and Traffic Manager. 11 26 6m

L. L. MANNING.

Marble and Granite Works

Cor. Central Ave. and Front st., opp. First Baptist Church.

Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

M. M. DUNHAM,

Real Estate and Insurance.

7 East Front Street.

CUT ROSES, CARNATIONS AND VIOLETS

Flowers furnished for weddings, funerals, etc., in bunches, bouquets or design.

MILES,

Somerset st., Johnston's drive, terminus of electric railroad. 2 17 tf

Prof. A. Wehner,

TEACHER OF THE PIANOFORTE.

ALSO VOICECULTURE.

Graduate of the Conservatory of Leipsic, Germany, desires a few more pupils in Plainfield.
References given and required.
Address letters to the office of this paper. 1 21 tf-c

E. H. HOLMES,

DEALER IN

COAL and WOOD,

YARD—No. 720 Madison Avenue. Also Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle 145 North avenue.

J. C. POPE & CO.,

Insurance Agents,

NO. 6 EAST FRONT STREET

Plainfield, N. J.

You may have

Lost

many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable

Pair

of Collier's

Glasses.

103 Park ave. Established 1859.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,

Real Estate and Insurance,

197 North ave. 10 1 tf

F. A. DUNHAM,

Civil Engineer and Surveyor, 109 Park avenue. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas.

TOWNSEND'S

MARBLE AND GRANITE WORKS,

SOMERSET STREET.

Our Motto—Good work, good material at fair prices. 8 4 y

Jones & Co., Excavators.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manages.

JONES & CO.

Cesspools built. 9 15 1

Joseph E. Mosher,

Agent for

H. J. Hayden & Co.,

WAR CLAIMS ATTORNEYS, WASHINGTON, D. C.

All claims put in our hands will receive prompt attention.

Call at the Crescent Cigar Store for fine cigars

Gold Dollars for Fifty Cents.

GO TO

BUY FULL VALUE.

C. B. MORSE, Painting and Paper Hanging, 27 Chatham street.

N. E. KING,

High Grade Portraits

in Crayon, Pastel and Water Colors.

483 Lexington ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Refers by permission to John A. Thickstun, L. B. Woolston, J. L. Blackford, L. W. Randolph, A. L. Force. Further information at the drug store of L. W. Randolph or office of The Daily Press, where specimen of work can be seen. 11 20 tf

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Publisher and Proprietor.

WALTER IRVING CLARKE, Managing Editor.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., May 9, 1895

DUNELLEN.

Phillip Hannon has returned home after spending several weeks with friends in New York.

Mrs. John Hall is able to go out again, after her recent illness.

Mrs. Arthur Vail is reported to be somewhat better.

Thomas Lacey of New York is taking care of the Dickens property for the Summer.

Mrs. Harmon is visiting relatives at Glen Gardner.

Miss Florence Maxwell of Valley Stream has been visiting Mrs. W. H. Slape.

George Jennings of Warrenville has been visiting his brother Charles of Front street.

Miss Alice Messler is visiting friends in Morris County.

A. W. Heyser of Cranford is visiting A. W. Warden.

Mrs. Charles Boice and daughter Miss Edith have been guests of friends at Bayonne.

G. R. Crandall, who left here for Little Genesee, is now at Remington, Ind.

Mrs. John Hunt is able to go out again, after a long and tedious illness.

Charles Boice, Jr., has returned to his home after spending several months at Palm Beach, Fla.

Mrs. S. E Todd is slowly improving from her recent illness.

William S. Birdsall of Brooklyn is visiting at the home of Joseph Benton.

Miss Louise Kuenlin has returned after spending several days with Mrs. Charles Kuenlin in Hoboken.

Mrs. Wilson Fredericks had a pleasant visit with friends in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Swackhamer are entertaining William E. Henry of Joliet.

Robbie Hamilton of Somerville is visiting John Huff.

Mrs. William Batchelor and daughter Miss Helen are spending a few days with friends in New York.

Mrs. W. A. Rogers and Mrs. Rebecca Rogers of Maine are visiting the family of I. D. Titsworth.

Ben. Carpenter is visiting friends in Mount Vernon.

The next business meeting of the Dunellen Gun Club will be held in the clubhouse, Monday evening, May 13, at 8. The shoot for the club members only and the regular day for the "Club Handicap" is Wednesday afternoon, May 22, at 2. The invitation shoot will be held on Memorial Day.

North Plainfield Cadets.

The boys of the North Plainfield Public School will be given a chance to show their ability in military affairs by the formation of a cadet corps. The company will have no real connection with the school, although the weekly drill will be held in the basement of the school building. B. S. Braider will act as military instructor, and will meet the boys, who will organize Monday evening, when the officers will be elected.

A Mean Thief.

Miss Estelle Fulton, of Clinton avenue and Eighth street, called on Miss Smith, who resides at 93 Manning avenue, last night at 10 and left her bicycle—a '94 Liberty—in the yard in front of the house. When she came out a half hour later the wheel had disappeared, and she has since been unable to find it. The theft was reported to both city and borough police.

North Plainfield Bills Paid.

The Somerset County Board of Freeholders unanimously re-elected John C. Staats of Franklin, Director. The North Plainfield election bills were much discussed. The Board had to decide on the legality of the election. The bills were finally ordered paid.

Mr. and Mrs. Seely Eisall left today for Stroudsburg, Pa.

—Boys' straw hats are the thing for this weather. U. B. Crane has just received 75 dozen, all new styles.

Calvin Boice, who recently sold his farm in South Plainfield, has moved into town, occupying the house 45 Prospect place.

—Abram Kunsman has purchased the property, 527 West Third street, and has given Frank Patience the contract to build a new store and remodel the dwelling-house.

—A bicycle who was too venturesome along the open sewer trenches on West Front street this morning took a tumble into the trench, but escaped without more serious injury than a shaking up.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

as mercury will surely destroy the sence of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by druggists, price 75 cts. per bottle.

NEW HANDWRITING.

MANY SCHOOLS ABANDONING THE SLANTING METHOD.

Straight Up-and-Down Penmanship Is the Most Hygienic. The Old Style Induces Spinal Curvature and Defective Eyesight.

Vertical handwriting has at last fought its way into many public schools and where it has been introduced as an experiment it has speedily been declared a complete success.

The doctors began it. Some five or six years ago, while searching for the cause of defective vision in children they discovered that the slanting style of penmanship now practiced was largely to blame. As a preventive they proposed to substitute the ancient vertical writing. They enlisted teachers on their side, and so rapidly has the idea gained favor that unless we adults mind our p's and q's, five years from now we will be ashamed to compare our handwriting with that of any ten year old schoolboy.

Such eminent physicians as Drs. Axel Hertel, of Copenhagen; Gouber, Commissioner of Health in Vienna; Paul Schubert, of Nuremberg and Hermann Cohn, author of "Hygiene of the Eye," were among the first to take up the question.

They ascertained that the false position necessarily assumed by pupils during writing lessons, as usually conducted, induced this and other injuries to health. The scholar sits with one side turned to the desk and his arm resting upon it. The distance from one eye to the paper being greater than that from the other causes unequal strain upon them and consequent weakness. Taking this attitude habitually also effects the muscles of the body, frequently producing spinal curavture. The prevalence of spinal disease among school children is shown by the fact that out of one thousand cases of crooked growth examined by Dr. A. Baginsky, 89 per cent. began between the ages of six and fourteen.

Gradually school boards and superintendents have swung into line. Last fall Chicago adopted the system of vertical writing in her public schools. It has been in use for some time past in Yonkers and in the Workingman's school and other private institutions in this city.

The report of Boston's special committee appointed to examine into the merits of the system says: "The special gain by vertical writing is that the health of the pupil is not impaired; while legibility, rapidity, compactness and ease in teaching and learning are the general advantages."

New York's Board of Education has given the principals their choice between the two methods, and with the new spring term it has been introduced into several public schools.

Like all other reforms this one has had opponents. The claim has been made that there is less room for individuality of style, and that the slanting hand is prettier. An examination of the same exercise written by various scholars in one class instantly upsets the first theory. The second objection was suggested to an advocate of straight script. "Then should mere grace and beauty of handwriting be considered as an offset against clear vision and erect carriage?" she asked.

The old Greek ideal of beauty was harmony, and whatever serves its purpose best is most beautiful in that place. If writing is intended to be read, that writing which is most legible is its own excuse for being.

But we of the present day need not remain old fashioned in this particular unless we desire to. Straight script is easy for even an adult to learn. The attitude assumed in writing vertically is as follows:

Sit closely to the desk with feet planted squarely on the floor, spine erect and both arms resting on the desk. The paper or book is placed directly in front of the writer, its sides parallel with the edges of the desk. The pen is held in an easy position. The characters are composed of vertical and horizontal curves, to the almost absolute exclusion of those oblique lines so difficult to read, and the letters produced are round, clear and legible.

Evangelism Through Cards and Chips.

The Rev. Sharrard Beatty, of Rescue Mission, Cincinnati, has adopted a unique method of placing religious appeals in the hands of gamblers. The Rev. Mr. Beatty was once a devotee of the poker table. He has a lot of cards, the backs of which resemble the regulation playing cards. As a companion to these he carries a pocketful of chips resembling those used in a poker game. On entering a saloon the Rev. Mr. Beatty will pull out a bunch of cards, begin shuffling them in a manner that shows expertness in handling, and when he has the eyes of all those in the saloon upon him, he asks:

"Gentlemen, will you take a hand with me?"

He then begins to deal the cards around, one to each person. When they turn the face of the card toward them, instead of finding spots they behold these words:

"Boycott the devil; he doesn't pay living wages. The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

On the chips which the Rev. Mr. Beatty gives out with these cards is printed:

"Seek ye the Lord. Life is short; death is sure; sin is the cause; Christ's the cure."—Chicago Daily Inter-Ocean.

She Would Smile.

Mrs. Hubbs—Why did the Temperance Club put Miss Winko out of office?

Mrs. Dubbs—Oh, somebody heard a man say she had an intoxicating smile.

It was the devil that originally put it into the head of woman that she had nothing to wear, and she has kept it there ever since by her own exertions.

TRIED TO BUNCO THURBER.

That Part of the Administration Reads the Newspapers and Was Not Taken In.

Mr. Henry Thurber was selected last week as the victim of a scheme that did not work, however, for the good and sufficient reason that the President's private secretary was notably lacking in confidence in the claims preferred by the young man who essayed to deplete his pocketbook.

It was in the afternoon, when Mr. Thurber had left the White House and returned home. While he was enjoying a quiet smoke there was a ring at the door, and word was brought him that a nephew of the Vice-President wished to see him on business of importance.

Without waiting to change his smoking jacket Mr. Thurber hastened down stairs, where he found a very smiling young man, who introduced himself as Mr. Stepenson, nephew of the Vice-President. The query as the nature of the urgent business elicited the reply that the smiling young man found himself in a most embarrassing predicament, from which he wished the immediate aid of the President's private secretary to extricate himself. As a stranger in the city, he had arrived that morning only to find, when he went to pay his bill at the hotel, and purchase his ticket to continue his journey, that he was exactly $7 short of the requisite amount. Of course, had the Vice-President been in town, the difficulty would have been at once obviated, but as it was neither the Vice-President nor any member of his family happened to be in Washington at that time, and, therefore, recourse had to be had to a stranger.

In this strait it had suggested itself to the young man that if he could see the President's private secretary things could be settled at once in the most satisfactory manner. Of course, the nephew went on to explain that in so applying to Mr. Thurber he had recourse to a plan in which personal mortification was mixed to such a degree that he had hesitated for a long time before making up his mind to apply for the sum.

Mr. Thurber responded in the pleasantest fashion that it would give him the most unmitigated pleasure to accommodate the Vice-President's nephew in this or any other matter, provided he could establish his identity. Failing to do so, the President's private secretary failed to see how or in what manner he could accommodate the young man with the desired sum.

Thereupon the young man parted company with his smiles, and after a useless protest that he was being misunderstood and treated with unfairness in being thus laid under suspicion he pulled himself together and made a retreat.

Coincident with his departure Mr. Thurber communicated with police headquarters, but so far the young man has not been located, neither has the Vice-President the slightest knowledge of the existence of any such nephew.—Baltimore American.

EIGHT SAVED BY A DOG.

A Big Newfoundland Swam Out to a Sinking Ship.

Some years ago a vessel was driven on the beach of Lydd, in Kent, England. The sea was rolling furiously. Eight poor fellows were crying for help; but a boat could not be got off, through the storm, to their assistance, and they were in constant peril, for any moment the ship was in danger of sinking. At length a gentleman came along the beach accompanied by his Newfoundland dog.

He directed the animal's attention to the vessel and put a short stick in his mouth. The intelligent and courageous dog at once understood his meaning, sprang into the sea and fought his way through the angry waves toward the vessel. He could not, however, get close enough to deliver that with which he was charged; but the crew understood what was meant, and they made fast a rope to another piece of wood and threw it toward him.

The noble animal at once dropped his own piece of wood and immediately seized that which had been thrown to him, and then, with a degree of strength and determination scarcely credible—for he was again and again lost under the waves—he dragged it through the surf and delivered it to his master. A line of communication was thus formed with the vessel and every man on board was rescued.—Our Dumb Animals.

English Ingenuity Rewarded.

A gentleman who has recently returned from England regales a reporter with these bits of gossip: "There was an Englishman who prided himself upon his ability as an amateur plumber. He decided to put gas connections into his house and do it himself. He went to work with a great flourish; hammered and soldered and fitted away, and at last came the hour of final triumph. He called the family into the parlor, beneath the great chandelier. He turned the taps, with taper in hand—and vigorous showers of water gushed forth over them all. He had made the mistake of connecting with the water pipe instead of the gas pipes."

Confidence.

To her fiance—I was telling papa today of your narrow escape when your dogcart turned over and he said that Providence took care of drunken men and fools, which was very unkind of him. But I assured him that you were perfectly sober. Then he said he believed you were; and wasn't that nice in him?—Life.

Thoughtless Frank.

"I suppose you will be out again tonight," remarked Sportington's wife severely.

"I will," he replied with feeling, "unless I manage to hold better hands than I got last night."—Washington Star.

An Insult.

Harold—The club was dreadfully insulted to-day.

Clarence—Weally?

Harold—Yes, an old lady wished to know if it was an intelligence office.—Truth.

Success has come to Cleveland's baking powder, because It is a pure cream of tartar powder. Only a rounded spoonful is required, not a heaping spoonful. It never fails.

The best that money can buy.

Cleveland's Baking Powder

It is Pure and Sure.

Bread and cake made with it keep their natural freshness and flavor. It is full weight, and full strength until all used.

Cleveland Baking Powder Co., New York, Successor to Cleveland Brothers.

BY THE WAY.

—Unity Lodge, K. of P., worked the second rank on six candidates last night.

—Putnam & DeGraw have received a fine line of sample fans, which are selling very low.

—A carload of 18-inch sewer pipe arrived this morning to be used on West Seventh street.

—Charles Yaeger has removed his upholstery business from Park avenue to 321 West Front street.

—Central Lodge, A. O. U. W., will have speechmaking and a collation after their meeting this evening.

—Crescent Division, Uniformed Rank, K. of P., had an initiation last night, after which the Division was drilled by Captain Flannery.

—Lyman R. Allen, teacher of sciences in the High School, is the possessor of a new 23-lb wheel.

—The school children who are to sing in Music Hall Memorial Day will rehearse tomorrow afternoon under the direction of Horace J. Martin.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

A competent colored cook would like situation. Apply 306 Plainfield ave. 583

FOR SALE or to rent, a new seven-room house on Stone street two minutes walk from street railway, and fifteen minutes walk from depot. Will sell or rent on easy terms. Call 196 Somerset street. 584

FOR SALE—Mr. Coard's fine saddle horse, fearless, sound and kind; bay cob, good in harness. Inquire at Hedden's stable. 593

FIRST-CLASS dressmaker wants work by the day. 247 West Front st. 592

WANTED.—A position as working housekeeper in a small family. Apply at 130 Park ave.

TO LET—The building now occupied by the Board of Trade. Apply to Ulrich & Blatz, 153 West Front street. 59ttstf

TO LET—Three fine offices centrally located. Wm. D. Thickstun, 197 North avenue. 594eod

WANTED—In Plainfield or vicinity, in a private family where there are no other boarders, two large airy rooms on second floor in a house with large grounds and plenty of shade. Dinner at noon. Good table and good beds. Address Comfort, care Press. 593

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage Charles J. McNabb, 204 West Front street, Plainfield. 582

FOR SALE—Handsome large upright grand piano; a bargain to the person who gets it. Call at Dyer's, 218 W Front st. 584

COACHMAN disengaged wants employment; is respectable and obliging: good reference. Apply or address, 343 Watchung ave., feed store. 583-w f m

FOR SALE—Shetland pony, harness and cart. Apply at 724 Watchung avenue after 4. 583

WANTED—Neat girl as waitress and chambermaid; must be well recommended. Apply 745 Watchung ave. 582

COW for sale, very cheap. Address P, care Press. 573

FARMS for sale or exchange for Plainfield property. R. Coddington, Martinville, N. J. 576

COACHMAN and gardener would like position, best references. Address P. care Press. 566

SIX ROOM flat to let; all improvements. 200 West 2d st. 34 tf

TO LET—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping; no children. Apply 103 Duer street. 36 tf

$1,000 to $3,500 to loan, first mortgage. Mulford broker. 422 tf

YOUNG colored man wants work. Experienced. References. Call 524 West Second street. 51 tf

FOR SALE—Brahmas and Houdons eggs for hatching. Call at 72 Summit avenue. 532w

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 221 tf

PAINTERS wanted. Apply E. E. Marshall. North avenue. 52 tf

EDWIN B. MAYNARD

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial Parlor, 206 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Ladies shampooing and childrens hair cutting a specialty. 1919

THE LOVELIEST GOODS YOU EVER SAW.

That is the verdict of the ladies regarding the

WASH GOODS AT PECK'S.

MONDAY, TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY

3 DAYS' SPECIALS 3

Window poles and fixtures complete 13c; window shades 50c grade 39c; window shades 38c grade 25c; window shades 25c grade 15c; silk taffeta gloves 40c grade 29c; silk taffeta gloves 32c grade 19c; silk taffeta gloves 25c grade 15c. 40 per cent off on all sun umbrellas. We have had a large sale of best calico, ginghams and outing cambrics at 3½, and have put more on sale at same price.

REMEMBER $10 cash purchased in our CARPET DEPARTMENT you get a handsome RUG

FREE.

WHITNEY'S,

122 East Front Street, Near City Bank.

DON'T

You find it tiresome to read, day after day, 10c worth 75c, 25c worth 50, and so on. Don't you think it sounds better to say, 25c worth 25? That's our way and we believe in it. It's the fictitious value that some merchants place on their goods that never sell, but it gives them lots of time to run around and see the other fellow do the business We once knew a man, but that's another story and space costs money. A store full of money savers.

DRESS GOODS.

Such selling with the profits chopped off, but we don't want them and you do All kinds plain, plaids and fancies, all go the same way. 30 and 40 inch all-wool fancies 39c; 38 inch black figured brilliantine 38c; 45 inch imperial serges 45c; 38 inch all-wool cashmere 25c.

SILKS.

Lucky for us that we did not buy them earlier. We now sell silks for what we would have to pay for them a month ago. Twenty-five pieces, as many patterns of fine swivel silk, just the sort for shirt waists, price 39c the yard

CAPES.

We could fill our space telling you how low in price they are, but we can't afford it. Selling 'em too cheap, so we tell of a few. Embroidered black broadcloth $1.98; fine black and blue $2.49; fine covert cloth $3.98.

SHIRT WAISTS

Made of percale (not calico) laundried, collars and cuffs, 48c.

SOAP.

The good kind. A thousand boxes, 3 cakes in a box, of as fine a soap as made only the price is poor, 7c box

UMBRELLAS.

An even hundred of them; made on steel rods, paragon frame. The most tempting lot we ever offered at the price, $1.29

HOUSE FURNISHINGS.

Our show window and the price on the goods tell the story, how we are selling, not at cost, but very near to it. Jap porch screens, sprinkling pots, refrigerators, all at right prices.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

TROUSERINGS!

500 choice patterns which we are making to order for $5.00.

Sebring's

Park Avenue, Packer's Block.

MUSIC HALL.

Jos. Sohl, Lessee and Manager.

Telephone 49B.

ONE NIGHT ONLY

FRIDAY, MAY 10.

Rice's Surprise Party in the Historical Extravaganza

"1492."

Superb company of 60. Orchestra of soloists. Scenery, calcium, and electric effects.

Prices, Lower floor $1 00. Balcony 50c. Admission 35c. Box office now open.

CHAS. FICKE,

Upholsterer,

Has removed from No. 1 West Third street to

129 WEST SECOND ST.

Nearly opposite Trinity Reformed Church. Mattresses and spring beds made to order. Carpets and mattings made and re-made. Awnings and window shades, to order, a specialty. Slip covers made. Curtains hung.

Choruses. Costumes. Calciums.

"A RUSSIAN HONEYMOON"

Comedy in three acts

—AT—

MUSIC HALL,

Thursday Evening

MAY 9,

In Aid of the Relief Fund.

Tickets $1 and $1.50

Doors open at 7:30—Performance at 8.

Wm. Hand & Son,

MOVING VANS,

18 Park avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

SMARTEST MAN ON EARTH.

A Few of the Traits and Powers Which Are Rooted in His Brain.

There is a man who can write a song and sing it or play the music of it.

He is a yachtsman and an equestrian.

He can talk rapidly in five modern languages and read both Greek and Latin.

He can play chess and poker.

He can paint pictures and criticise those of other artists.

He understands engineering, and is an experimenter in electricity.

He is a theologian and has composed a prayer.

He can command a ship or a regiment, a fleet or an army.

He can make speeches that strike the world.

He is a horse breeder and keeps a stud.

He can talk about the art of cookery.

He possesses a literary taste, and has read piles of books.

He is a friend of peasants and monarchs.

He is orthodox in religion.

He quaffs both beer and champagne.

He can teach editors how to run their papers, daily or weekly.

He thrums the guitar.

He is rich, and the father of a growing family, and a terror to his foes.

Yet he is only 36 years old.

One would think that he must be a Chicago man or a Bostonian.

Yet he is not.

There may be other interesting people in the world, but they pale their ineffectual fires in his presence or at the mention of his name.

He is a scion of the house of Hohenzollern. He is the German Kaiser, Wilhelm II., who, since he was crowned between six and seven years ago, has kept all his traits, talents and powers on full display before the world and Bismarck.

It would be impossible to indicate more than a few of the accomplishments of this foreign contemporary in small space. A summary of them would fill a book. The book ought to be written by himself.

PATRONO'S ALLEGED MOTOR.

A Company Formed in Newark to Push the Italian's Enterprise.

The Societa Industriale Universale was incorporated in Newark, N. J., to develop a perpetual motion machine.

The machine was invented by Michael Patrono, an Italian, who has succeeded in enlisting the interest of a number of his countrymen in it. The subscribers seem to be entirely satisfied with the development of the machine, which they say is running in Newark every day.

Patrono says the machine will run a year without stopping, and then will require the renewal of certain parts. The motive power is said to be gravitation, but the men who have put money into the new enterprise are exceedingly reticent.

Our Export of Millionaire Girls.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer sums up the quantity of money which American heiresses who have married European or titled husbands have carried out of the United States, and finds it to amount to fully $200,000,000. It cannot be denied that this is an exportation of capital for which it is hard to see that the United States gets any return whatever. There are no European heiresses marrying poor young American scions of noble families for their titles. Here is where our shrewd forefathers were not quite so shrewd as the cousins whom they left behind in the effete monarchies of Europe. The Europeans in their title systems have a magnet which is capable of drawing not only wealth, but beauty, grace, wit, learning, accomplishments of every sort from us, in return for which the only magnets we can offer capable of drawing population in any great degree are our public lands, our high protective tariff and the facilities afforded by our machine politics for people who do not care to work to serve on the police or run for office.

When Irish Dignity Was Insulted.

There used to be an old porter at a certain Irish railway station who was more remarkable for independence of character than attention to his duties.

On one occasion two of the directors were traveling over the line, and noticed that the name of a certain station was not called, the neglect being the more serious as it was a junction. This was made the subject of complaint, and old Charley, who was the delinquent, was promptly brought to book and reprimanded.

He was very wroth that any one should find fault with him and thirsted for revenge. So, keeping a lookout until he saw the directors on their return journey, he stood opposite their carriage and shouted in a stentorian voice:

"Cookstown Junction! Change here for Randalstown, Castledawson, Magherafelt, Moneymore and all stations on the Cookstown line, and don't say, ye blaggards, ye weren't towld!"

Raleigh as a Discoverer.

A pupil in an English board school recently wrote the following composition on Sir Walter Raleigh: "Sir Walter Raleigh was a very great man. He went over and discovered America; and when he had discovered America he discovered Virginia. He discovered the potato. And when he had discovered the potato, he discovered tobacco. And when he had discovered tobacco, he turned to his companions and said, 'My friends, be of good cheer, for we have this day in England lit such a flame as I trust by God's grace shall never be extinguished.'"

Too Long.

He—And why did your friend Edith break off her engagement with Mr. Witherly?

She—Because it got to be too long.—New York Ledger.

The tale of the traveler in savage countries resembles the tail of the cat, in the fact that the more scared he is the bigger his tale becomes.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

THE DODD-HETFIELD SUIT.

The jury in the suit of Charles W. Dodd against J. M. Hetfield for alleged fraud in the sale of coal business, went out at 12:30 this noon and are still out at 3:45. The Judge's charge was against Dodd.

Climax Club Shoot.

Fair weather made the monthly shoot of the Climax Gun Club held yesterday afternoon one of good sport. The club shoot was with Empire targets at unknown angles, which resulted as follows:

Smith, 23; Keller, 19; Apgar, 23; Brantingham, 22; Short, 23; Taylor, 23; Williams, 19; D. Darby, 24; Scott, 15; J. Darby, 21; J. Goodman, 15; D. Terry, 21; Singer, 17; Green, 29; Charles, 21.

Several sweepstakes also were shot in which Apgar, Smith and Short were the principal winners.

R. F. R. Hunteman came home from New York this noon, ill with tonsilitis.

Mrs. J. C. Smalley today returned to her home in Newark from a visit to her son John.

Mrs. Edward Leland has returned from Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. Leland spent the Winter in the South.

Will Cadmus, his wife, two children, and mother, are guests of Mrs. Cadmus's mother, Mrs. L. Cole, 78 Duer street.

Alex. Gilby Spencer, eldest son of Collector H. N. Spencer, who hails from Rahway, is visiting his sire at his Somerset residence.

Henry Hodge, a brother of Peter Hodge of Randolph's pharmacy, and town clerk of Bridgewater township, was visiting in town yesterday.

Dr. Wm. H. Voorhees, ex-Chief of the Plainfield Fire Department, is in town today with a view to enlarging his drug store property occupied by L. W. Randolph.

—Vanderbeek & Sattele have sold an elegant upright grand Behning piano to Pharmacist J. Howard Leggett.

—Jack Force and a friend called on Henry Rogers, the ploughshare poet and mountaineer correspondent of The Press, yesterday. Mr. Force has a blue-blooded thoroughbred steed at pasture on the poet's ideal farm.

—The Epworth League of the First M. E. Church of this city will hold Anniversary Day services Sunday evening at 7:45. Dr. Robert B Doherty, one of the vice-presidents of the General League, will speak.

Breaks in Cabinets.

The withdrawal of Wilson S. Bissell from President Cleveland's Cabinet, thus making the first break in the present administration as it was originally constituted, reminds us of the fact that none of the Presidents since the beginning of the Government, with one exception, has been able to keep his official family together for an entire term. The exception was that of President Pierce.

Professional Jealousy.

Mrs. Hammand—Mrs. Hashcroft was bragging again to-day about keeping her boarders so long.

Mrs. Foraweek—She keeps them so thin that they look longer than they actually are.—Indianapolis Journal.

Churches and Jails.

Over $50,000,000 is spent in maintaining the churches of the United States and $400,000,000 in running the jails.—Independent.

Not in Stock.

Customer (in hardware store)—Do you sell the Golden Rule.

Clerk—We don't even keep it.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

So It Goes.

Just a little sunshine,
Just a little rain,
Ditto, ditto, ditto—
And then repeat again.
—Washington Star.

Man of the Hour.

The statesman now becomes obscure,
His glory has gone hence;
The public's looking for the man
Who bats it o'er the fence.
—Kansas City Journal.

No Secret About It.

Physicians have had the formula of Scott's Emulsion for 20 years and know they can always depend upon it as being exactly the same. It contains the purest Norway Cod-liver Oil, the best Hypophosphites and chemically pure Glycerine, made into a perfect Emulsion that does not separate or grow rancid like other so-called Emulsions. There have been many things presented as substitutes, but there is nothing that can take its place in Consumption and all wasting diseases.

Don't be persuaded to accept a substitute!

Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All Druggists. 50c. and $1.

THE SUFFRAGE CONVENTION.

Equal Rights to Be Defended in Plainfield Tomorrow.

The order of exercises at the meeting of the New Jersey Woman Suffrage Association at Y. M. C. A. tomorrow will be as follows:

10:30 A.M.

Opening address by the president, Mrs. Florence Howe Hall, telling of the history and work of the Association in this State, and of the rights of suffrage enjoyed by women elsewhere, especially in England.

Why women should be enfranchised, Aaron M. Powell.

Women and the School Suffrage, Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, Seventh-Day Baptist Church.

Organization, Dr. Mary D. Hussey, Cor. Sec. of the Association.

Recess and lunch at 1.

2 P. M.

Address, Rev. Antoinette Brown Blackwell of Elizabeth.

Organization of County Association.

Brief addresses by Mrs. Isaac L. Miller, President Monday Afternoon Club and others.

Singing, Mrs. Martin I. Cooley.

A signature will be asked for a petition for School Suffrage.

Three Brothers' Silver Wedding Day.

The Philadelphia Press says: "Scranton, May 3—An event of a most unusual character was celebrated in this city tonight. The festivities were in honor of the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Koch of this city, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Koch and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koch of New York. The three men are brothers, (brothers-in-law of August Trust, Wm. Trust, and Adam Fritz, of Plainfield), and were married in New York May 3, 1870. A large party of New York relatives came here to be present at the celebration. In connection with the wedding anniversaries the sixty-fifth birthday of another brother, John Koch, formerly of New York, was celebrated."

—Edgar C. Schenck has joined the army of Hartford wheel riders.

—David T. Kenney has secured the contract for the plumbing of Hotel Netherwood.

—John Hillier Hart of Hillier & Co. spent yesterday in Plainfield looking after the local interests of his concern.

—The elevator car in the Babcock Building is in position, and will be ready to carry passengers in a day or two.

—Charles Suhr the Watchung avenue barber fell from his bicycle on West Front street yesterday and struck on his forehead, making a painful bruise.

—Wallace V. Miller of the Hotel Grenada celebrates his twenty-ninth birthday today. "Doc" Greenwood also passes into his twenty-sixth year today.

—The Woodruff stock exchange in the Babcock Building finally made arrangements for the use of a Western Union wire, and are now regularly doing business.

—The Official Board of the Methodist Church held a meeting last night, and referred some important business to a committee, who will probably report next week.

—Campbell's racetrack will be opened Saturday afternoon with a number of races among the local horsemen. John Osborne, Nate Robbins, Charles Brower, and Judge Coddington, will enter their steppers.

—The Guild of the Church of the Redeemer will hold a tea and cake sale at the residence of Mrs. B. A. Hegeman, Jr., 21 Myrtle avenue, Saturday afternoon, May 11, from 4:30 to 7. 25 cents will be received at the door. All will be cordially welcomed.

"There is Danger in Delay."

Since 1861 I have been a great sufferer from catarrh. I tried Ely's Cream Balm and to all appearances am cured. Terrible headaches from which I long suffered are gone.—W. J. Hitchcock, late Major U. S. Vol., and A. A. Gen., Buffalo, N. Y.

Ely Cream Balm has completely cured me of catarrh when everything else failed. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Alfred W. Stevens, Caldwell, Ohio.

Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.

THE GREAT AMERICAN DRINK---Soda Water,

is the best of all drinks when rightly served. We use many syrups—all good—but we must "brag" a little about our orange (fresh from fruit), our chocolate and coffee; none can be finer. As to cream—take your choice: Ice cream, whipped cream, plain cream.

Reynolds's Pharmacy,

Park and North avenues.

LAW, YES, BUT—

The Borough of North Plainfield Is Running on the Constitution, and Ignores Legislative Political Strikes.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY PRESS:—In answer to the suggestion of "Layman" that a law was passed last Winter enabling boroughs to give one hundred dollars of the public money to G. A. R. posts, I would say that such laws have frequently been passed. By reference to the Constitution of New Jersey, Article 1, Section 19, it will be seen that no such law is constitutional. The section in question reads as follows:

"No county, city, borough, town, township or village shall hereafter give any money or property, or loan its money or credit, to or in aid of any individual, association or corporation——."

Members of the Legislature find it more politic to vote for such laws, knowing the same to be worthless, than to refuse a request and thus possibly lose votes. The Constitution is of course the supreme law of the land and the Legislature cannot override it. CHAS. A. REED

Firemen's Relief.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year by the Firemen's Relief Association last night: President—T. O. Doane; vice-president—A. Saltzman; secretary—G. Thorn; treasurer—J. A. Hubbard. Joseph Hawkins was elected a member of the Board of Visitors to represent Alert Hose Company.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says: "Shiloh's Vitalizer saved my life; I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used. For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels; 75c Sold by all druggists.

Shiloh's cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient consumption; it is the best cough cure, only 1c a dose; 25, 50c, $1. Sold by all druggists.

You will ride a Bicycle

Of course you will ride. All the world will—fashion, pleasure, business—men, women, children. It takes a while sometimes for the world to recognize its privileges; but when it does it adapts itself promptly. Therefore, you who are in the world will ride a bicycle—a bicycle if you desire the best the world produces; a Hartford, the next best, if anything short of a Columbia will content you.

COLUMBIA

Columbias, $100; Hartfords, $50 $60; for boys and girls, $50.

POPE MFG. CO., Hartford, Conn.

Boston, New York, Chicago, San Francisco, Providence, Buffalo.

A Catalogue—comprehensive, beautiful—at any agency free, or by mail for two 2-cent stamps. The book tells of all the new Columbias and Hartfords.

Columbias and Hartfords are sold in Plainfield only by

The Eldridge Cycle Company.

Easy payments.
Old wheels taken in trade.
Wheels to hire.
Fine repairing.

Engineer Hubbard Kicked.

Frank Hubbard, of the City Engineer's staff, was kicked in the face by a horse owned by Squire Lucky of Dunellen this morning on Grant avenue. Mr. Hubbard was driving a stake in the ground and did not see Mr. Lucky's rig approaching until he was kicked. The injury amounted to nothing more than a bruised face.

Filling Up the Trenches.

The upper end of the West Front street sewers will be leveled off today so that traffic can be resumed on Grove street and Central avenue. It is the intention of the contractors to cover up the trenches as fast as the pipe is laid, and in this way make as little obstruction as possible.

—Ted Clevely has decided to heat his place next Winter with hot water and gave the contract of fitting yesterday to I. L. McVoy, who will do the work at once.

—Cook & Co., the sewer contractors, complied with the suggestion of Engineer Gavett, and this morning put on an increase of men on the West Front street trenches.

—M. Powers and Son have begun the important work of flagging and curbing the walk by the Scott Printing Machine Works, 200 feet on Richmond street, and 1,400 on South avenue. It will be one of the best sidewalks in town. Mr. Powers has also other contracts, so that the flagging will be continuous to the Netherwood station.

DIRECTIONS for using CREAM BALM.

Apply a particle of the Balm well up into the nostrils. After a moment draw a strong breath through the nose. Use three times a day, after meals preferred, and before retiring.

CATARRH

COLD IN HEAD

ELY'S CREAM BALM opens and cleanses the nasal passages, allays pain and inflammation, heals the sores, protects the membrane from colds, restores the senses of taste and smell. The Balm is quickly absorbed and gives relief at once. Price 50c at druggists or by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren street, New York.

Hosiery. No store in this town offers so many sorts, so many good values. We always have some exceptional bargains such as these. The 12½c fast black seamless hose for 9c; the 20c kind for 15c, and 20c for the regular 25c goods; 5c for mens seamless half hose that should be 10c and the 15c fast black half hose for 10c.

25 rolls more of the 10c matting. Other mattings at any price up to 50c. A good ingrain carpet at 25. Brussels made, laid and lined free. Window shades from 18c, oilcloths from 25c, large size Smyrna rugs $2.60 value $3.50; do, at $2.10 value $2.75. Lace curtains from 54c pair, curtain poles complete from 18c.

It takes little money to purchase a good cape from us. A splendid showing of the most taking styles, some as low as 98c; percale shirt waists 48c; silk belts 25c; new parasols.

LEDERER'S

TELEPHONE RATES

IN PLAINFIELD,

$30, $40, $50, according to number of local messages sent and joint use of line; full long distance equipment. Private lines and speaking tube systems installed at reasonable rates. Address The New York & New Jersey Telephone Co., 175 North avenue, Plainfield.

5,3eod1m

CLOTHING

IS TO MAN WHAT CUTTING IS TO THE DIAMOND.

The man in rags may be as good as one in broadcloth, but somehow the world doesn't think so. He is the rough diamond of humanity, while his less deserving but better dressed neighbor, like a cut diamond, is appreciated and admired. Now there's just as much difference in the cutting of clothing as of diamonds. It takes skill to impart the perfection of fit and finish we give to our clothing, and it costs no more when you know how. See our grand line of Men's Spring Suits, beginning at $9 and running up by easy stages of a dollar or so to $20.

MC GREGOR & CO.,

850-852 Broad St.,

Newark, N. J.

EDSALL'S Splendid Offerings in Fine Goods. EDSALL'S

SOMETHING OF ESPECIAL INTEREST.

Special sale of bleached sheetings in 8-4 and 9-4 widths, usually sold at 22 cts and 25 cts a yard. Our price 13 and 15 cts a yard.

Clearance sale of short lengths of bleached muslins, 8-4 and 9-4 widths, all to go at half original prices.

An excellent line of sheer and dainty Percales, in a variety that make choice most difficult; unsurpassable value at 12½ cts. Our price 9 cts.

COUNTERPANES.

Marseilles and crotchet quilts, large size, exquisite designs, sold everywhere at 98 cts, $1.25, $1.39 and 1.65. Our price 65 cts, 99 cts, $1.15 and $1.25.

CAPES.

Ladies' capes, made of silk, velvet and cloth, prettily trimmed with lace, jet and ribbons Sold elsewhere at 4.98, 5.25, $8.50 and $9. Our price $3.75, 3.99, 5.57, and $5.98.

MOREEN SKIRTS.

An excellent Moreen skirt, with full ruffle, usually sold for $4.98. Our price $3.20.

HOUSE WRAPPERS.

Wrappers made up of fine percales in all colors, including indigo, full skirt, cape falling from yoke over large sleeves, trimmed with very pretty contrasting braids, all sizes, at 69 cts, 89 cts, $1.10 and $1.25. Usual asking price fully 25 per cent. more.

TAFFETA SILKS.

Special bargain in black and colored all-silk taffeta, in an excellent assortment of designs, the most sought for silk of the season. Sold everywhere at 89 cts and $1 a yard. Our price 65 cts and 75 cts a yard.

25 ct paper books, by standard authors, good print, full titles. Our price 3 cts. each.

FANS

We have just opened up an exquisite line of fans, ranging in price from 10 cts to $2.50 each. The usual asking price is fully 25 per cent. more.

FREE SOUVENIR FREE SOUVENIR

FRIDAY MAY 10.

IN OUR BIG BASEMENT.

To each purchaser throughout the basement on the above date we shall give a fine China Souvenir to introduce our second Spring opening of Summer Goods.

Summer Goods. Summer Goods.

Window screens, hard wood frames, 19c and up.
Screen doors, well made, 70c and up.
Lawn mowers, best make, $2.29.
Ice cream freezers, best make, $1.48.
Baby carriages, large variety, $3.98 and up.
Oil and gas stoves at bottom prices. 1, 2 and 3 burner at 59c, $1.49 and $2.39 each.
Special low prices on refrigerators. Best makes; all sizes in stock.

WOMEN'S OXFORDS

74c, 98c, $1.19, $1.48, $2, $2.98, $3.50, $4—black or tan, pointed, square or common sense toes.

WE USE——nothing but the genuine Nevel stock in our tan goat shoes for misses and children. It will wear as long again as the ordinary. A full assortment of tan goods now ready for your inspection.

Doane & Edsall.

WE PUT ON OUR ODDS AND ENDS TABLE TODAY

One Haviland Dinner Pattern.
One lot of Fancy Flower Pots.
One lot Glass Dishes.
One lot Fancy Creams.

Gavett's.

129 East Front st.

FISH FOR BREAKFAST.

Is Your Cook Up at 5?

That's the hour of our morning delivery. Finest, Freshest Seafood.

ROGERS, 232 West 2d street.

Hats, new shapes, Trunks and Bags cheap

E. M. LAING,

All sizes in Packing Trunks. 105 Park avenue.

$1.00

At J. F. MacDonald's Uptown Grocery,

buys $1.00 worth of Groceries every business day in the year. Our goods are sold at a profit so as to enable us to give weight and quality to our customers and have something left for ourselves. No fictitious prices. No man is in business for his health.

J. F. MAC DONALD

EDWARD C. MULFORD,

(Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.)

Real Estate Broker and Fire Insurance,

Office 19 North ave., (opp. Railroad station.) Money to loan. 19 tf

HALLOCK is showing choice patterns in Percale Shirts, with 2 collars and pair cuffs, and these collars and cuffs are the latest patterns—no old back numbers

G. A HALLOCK,

Hats and Furnishing Goods, 109 West Front st.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 North Avenue.

Grand Opening Every Day

AT A. W. FULPER'S!

1 pound 50c tea, 1 can milk, 3 pounds sugar, 1 loaf bread, half dozen boxes matches

50c All for 50c 50c

Not as an introduction but an every day occurrence. The very best goods, the very lowest prices. Sugar cured ham 10c pound; best Elgin creamery butter 20c, 5 pounds for 95 cts; good creamery butter 15c; 2 pounds extra combination coffee for 25c; 2 pounds extra creamery cheese for 25c; good creamery cheese 10c pound; 3 cakes Babbitt's soap 13c; Babbitt's 1776 per package 3c; best ginger snaps 4c.

LEECH, STILES & CO.

Eye Specialists,

441 Chestnut st., Philadelphia, formerly with Queen & Co.

H. A. Stiles will be at

No. 107 East Front Street,

Dunham's Real Estate Office

EVERY THURSDAY

From 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Persons who have headache, or whose eyes are causing discomfort, should call upon this specialist and they will receive intelligent and skillful attention. No charge to examine your eyes. Every pair of glasses ordered guaranteed to be satisfactory. 4 13 tf-m t w s

Had You Thought of the Difference?

Special sale usually means a smaller profit than usual, but an

Assignee's Sale

means something else—it means a sale below cost for cash to settle up a business. So if you want a suit of clothes come to the Schepflin & Schultz assignee sale.

J. F. MacDonald,

Assignee for Schepflin, Schultz & Co.,

318 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

DEALERS IN

Lumber. Coal. Mason's Material. &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

ATKINSON'S DINNER.

HE SAYS IT COST $3.75, NOT $1.50 FOR 14 PERSONS.

Three Members of the Cabinet Attended and Brought Their Wives, and Apparently Thought They Had Fared Pretty Well.

An Englishman might wonder at a man of brains, known the country over as an authority on economics, dabbling in the housewives' duty of cooking, but to one who is familiar with the eccentricities of Edward Atkinson, it is easily explained.

As president of the Boston Manufacturers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company, Mr. Atkinson is a busy man; he is a close student and delves deeply into hitherto unexplored realms of thought. Cooking, economic cooking and the theory of applied heat is one of his most absorbing studies. He has experimented on ovens and lamps, lectured on economic living and written articles on living on two dollars a week and such subjects.

The latest thing in the cooking line which has brought him once more before the public is the dinner he gave in Washington to some of the Cabinet members.

"The dinner, to begin, was not at the White House," said Atkinson, "and Mr. Cleveland was not present; it was a private dinner at the house of Assistant Secretary Hamlin of the Treasury.

"Having decided to be in Washington for a few days for other purposes, Mr. Hamlin gave me an opportunity to put products of the Aladdin oven before Secretary Morton of the Department of Agriculture. That was the main purpose of the dinner which has become so public, but which I would have reported myself had I anticipated the wide interest there has been in the matter.

"Secretary Morton has become impressed with the importance of the problem I have attempted to solve and he has published officially two monographs upon the selection and preparation of food which I prepared. I therefore thought it time to demonstrate the facts and that was the object of the dinner.

"My first suggestion to the Secretary was to this effect: It is a grave absurdity for the United States to support an expensive department for the purpose of teaching the nutrition of the soil, the plants and the beasts, to the end that we, as a nation, produce an excessive abundance of the best kind of food and there to stop, leaving a great mass of people to waste food, energy, and health from utter ignorance of the right method of buying and cooking. I therefore suggested that a food laboratory of the highest type should be established at one or two points under the direction and supervision of the department.

"I sent an Aladdin oven, with its full equipment to Washington. It was first set up in the basement of Mr. Hamlin's house. I went there on one day, the day before the dinner, lighted the lamp, which was the common parlor lamp of Bradley & Hubbard type, placed it in the oven and then put in a ham, which was to be roasted eight hours. At the end of eight hours the ham was taken out, the outer skin removed, dusted with bread crumbs and put back to be browned esthetically.

"In that half hour I prepared a crock of beans and pork and I mixed a large pan of New England brown bread and a pan of Indian pudding. The ham was then taken out of the oven, the beans, brown bread and pudding were put to bake all night in the old fashioned way at a low temperature—the only way beans and brown bread can be suitably prepared.

"The ham was served cold at the dinner, the beans, bread and pudding were warmed over on the cooking range, the oven being well filled with other dishes.

"At half past one on the day of the dinner the oven was removed to the dining room and set up at the end of the table. It was then charged with a codfish chowder, a loin of lamb and potatoes, to be roasted, and a covered dish of chicken fricasse. I also prepared a bread and raisin pudding.

"This constituted: First, the soup and fish course in one; second, the roast; third, entree and vegetables; fourth, the pudding. The cost of that part of the ham which was consumed and all the rest of the food, including oil burned in the lamp, I computed at $3.75. I added asparagus, which, being out of season, was a luxury. At the regular price in season of the asparagus the whole dinner would have cost $3.

"I am at liberty to say that there were present Secretary Gresham and Mrs. Gresham, Secretary Carlisle and Mrs. Carlisle, Secretary Morton, Mr. Logan Carlisle, Mr. Kurino, the Japanese Minister; Mrs. Winsor and Miss Lee, of Boston, Mr. Hamlin and his sisters—fourteen in all.

"The papers have erroneously stated that the cost of the dinner was $1.50. I have many times given five courses to twelve persons at $1.50 for food material and fuel.

"Such a dinner would consist of pea soup, cooked all night; shin of beef soup or potato soup, halibut a la creme, made from the nape, which is very cheap and fat, extended with potatoes. The halibut nape properly seasoned makes a better dish than more expensive parts of halibut cooked in the old way.

"The roast would be of fore shoulder of lamb with the bone taken out and stuffed with sweet herbs. The entree would be of cheap cuts of veal cooked all night and made into a curry with hominy previously soaked all night. The pudding might be a bread and raisin or a baked Indian pudding; the whole to be ended with a cup of tea or coffee. At Boston prices at the present time it is a very simple problem to furnish an ample dinner, more than enough for twelve persons, at $1.50 for food and fuel. Many variations could be given."

WHEN MARIA JANE IS MAYOR.

When Maria Jane's elected to the Mayoralty chair
There'll be many wrongs corrected that are now apparent there.
The sidewalks will be carpeted, the streets swept thrice a day,
The alleys be as fragrant as fields of new mown hay.

What with parties and receptions and occasionally a ball,
There will be a transformation around the City Hall.
And each ward in the city will be represented then
By lovely Alderwomen and not horrid Aldermen.

When Maria Jane is Mayor, none but ladies will, of course,
Be appointed members of the city police force;
And in their bloomer uniforms they'll look so very sweet
The gang to be arrested will consider it a treat.

The stores will be compelled to have a bargain sale each day,
And for chewing gum and soda you will not be asked to pay.
Oh, great reforms will be projected, all the wrongs will be corrected,
When Maria Jane's elected to the Mayoralty chair. —William West.

KLEPTOMANIACS IN SOCIETY.

Stories of Thieving in High Life That Are Interesting if True.

"I don't suppose you have any kleptomaniacs in society in Washington," said a New York dowager the other night at dinner, "but we have them in New York. The last great ball I went to with my daughter we wore very handsome sealskin wraps. Arriving at the dressing room, the checks for them were handed out and my daughter put them between her teeth for a moment while she was adjusting a portion of her dress. She had occasion to speak to me and so dropped the checks on the floor, and we were about to hurry off to the ballroom.

"I was determined, however, not to lose our wraps and so sent for a friend who was one of the reception committee, and we went into the cloak room, where I identified the sealskin wraps and got fresh checks for them. At the close of the ball, when we went for them, the man in charge told me that Mrs. Blank, one of the ultra-fashionable women of the Four Hundred, had presented the lost checks and insisted upon my sealskin wraps being delivered to her. When she was informed of what had occurred in the matter of issuing new checks and the visit of the member of the reception committee to the cloak room, she worked herself into a fine frenzy and walked off indignantly.

"Upon another occasion, at one of the great weddings, quite a dramatic scene occurred. The bridal presents were all ostentatiously displayed to excite the envy and gratify the curiosity of the guests. A detective in plain clothes was in the room. He saw a well known, beautifully dressed woman go up to the table and begin admiring and commenting on the beauty of everything with great enthusiasm. She picked up a diamond bracelet and adroitly concealed it. The detective kept his eye on her, and as she was leaving the house to get into her carriage he stepped up to her and said:

"Excuse me, madam, but haven't you forgotten to leave your wedding present?" She was equal to the emergency and pulled herself together with that consummate alacrity which amounts to genius in her sex, and said: 'Oh, yes, so I have. Thank you very much. Very good of you, indeed.' Then she calmly swept back to the table where the presents were displayed and deposited the bracelet with the box which contained it, the detective's eye taking it all in with an amused and quizzical expression."—Washington Post.

Dana to Depew Forty Years Hence.

"I am 61 to-day, and I feel like a two-year-old," said Chauncey M. Depew yesterday, as he leaned back in his easy chair. His office was beautifully decorated with flowers. In a vase on his desk stood a great bunch of American beauty roses. Over on the table stood a bunch of lilies of the valley and maidenhair fern.

This brief paragraph from the New York Tribune well illustrates the truth that men live longer in this end of the century than they used to do in its beginning, and that life is generally better for the people on earth than it was. Besides, when we come to men of genius, like Chauncey M. Depew, they ought to live longer, because they do more to entertain their fellows than ordinary mortals. Thus we may reasonably expect at the end of thirty-nine years more to print a friendly paragraph congratulating him on his happy hundredth birthday, and congratulating the public of the world on the delightful improvements that will doubtless then have added much to the pleasant resources of existence.—N. Y. Sun.

The Shah Wondered.

The Shah of Persia once paid a visit to England where he saw a great many things that astonished him, among others, people doing their own dancing.

He watched the operation seriously, and then demanded to know why people who could afford to have their dancing done should take so much personal trouble about it.

Not Just Now.

Many paused before the hand organ and listened to its rude melody.

"There's no place like home," droned the organ.

Tears sprang to the eyes of the man with the dusty hat.

"There's no place like home."

"I hope not," sighed the man, for his thoughts were with the bare, wet floor and a dinner of cold potato on the top of the sewing machine.

He Knew Its Waters.

A teacher requested her pupils to bring in three items of information about the neighboring river that they could prove to be facts, and one little fellow contributed the following: "I have lived near it; I have sailed over it; I have fallen into it."

The Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Standard Railway of America

Protected throughout by the Interlocking Switch and Block Signal System.

On and after Jan 20, 1895, trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

FAST LINE leaves Philadelphia 12 28 p m daily with Pullman Vestibule parlor and sleeping cars for Pittsburg, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania

6.37 P. M. WESTERN EXPRESS, with Pullman Vestibule sleeping cars, dining car daily for Pittsburg, Chicago, Cleveland, daily except Saturday, for Toledo, Williamsport, Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

8.34 p.m.—SOUTH WESTERN EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping car, daily, to Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, and Memphis. Dining car Altoona to Richmond.

8 42 p. m.—PACIFIC EXPRESS with Pullman vestibule sleeping cars, daily, for Pittsburg, Columbus, Chicago and Toledo, daily, except Saturday for Cleveland.

For Baltimore, Washington and the South—1 0 9.06, 9.36 a. m., 9.39 p. m.

Sundays, 1, 9 36, 9 36 a.m., 9 41 p m.

For Baltimore only 1 37 p. m., week-days.

For Newark and New York—3 02, 5 26, 6 46, 6 17, 6 45, 7 01, 7 20, 7 40, 7 57, 8 06, 8 28, 8 34, 8 47, 9 17, 9 41, 9 48, 10 20, 10 38, 10 49, 11 07, 12 03 a. m., 1 18, 1 20, 1 38, 224, 3 40, 3 45, 3 57, 4 07, 4 47, 5 15, 5 36, 5 48, 6 06, 6 27, 6 48, 6 56, 7 07, 7 26, 7 59, 8 47, 9 20, 9 50, 10 08 11 08 and 12 08 p. m.

Sundays 3 02, 5 24, 7 54, 8 45, 9 20, 9 47, 10 12, 10 38, 10 49 a. m., 12 28, 1 44, 3 28, 3 45, 5 45, 6 36, 8 24, 8 48, 9 06, 9 12, 9 26, 7 06, 8 20 9 26, 10 16, 1 46 and 11 58 p. m.

For New York only, 6 10 a. m. daily.

For Philadelphia—1 00, 6 37, 7 10, 9 06, 9 36, 11 45 A. M., 1 08, 1 37, 3 32, 5 06, 6 20, 7 05, 9 42, 9 59 P. M. Sundays at 1 00, 3 32, 9 06, 9 36, 9 42, 10 41 A. M., 6 40, 6 37, 7 47 and 9 41 P. M.

FOR ATLANTIC CITY

(2 26p.m. with through Buffet parlor car) Sundays 6 50 a. m.

Cape May, Sea Isle City and Ocean City 1 37 p. m. weekdays.

For Rahway—1 45 daily ex. Monday 6 00, 6 44, 7 10, 7 59, 8 54, 9 46, 9 50, 10 59, 11 45, a. m., 12 46, 1 1, 11, 1 37, 3 45 5 00, 5 20, 5 39, 6 00, 6 44, 7 10, 7 59, 8 54, 9 46, 9 50, 10 59, 11 45 p. m. and 12 37 night week-days Sundays, 1, 1 45, 6 00, 8 45, 9 46, 10 26 10 41 and 11 47 a. m., 12 50, 1 50, 2 47, 5 20, 6 50, 8 20, 8 45, 9 21, 9 37, 9 47, 9 14, 9 47, 10 14, 11 and 11 58 p. m.

For New Brunswick—1 00, 6 37, 7 10, 7 59, 9 06, 9 36, 9 50, 11 45 a. m., 12 46, 1 37, 3 45, 5 20, 5 39, 6 00, 6 44, 7 10, 7 59, 9 06, 9 36 9 49, 10 41 a. m., 12 50, 1 50, 6 40, 7 37, 9 16, 9 41 p. m.

For Woodbridge—1 45 a m daily except Monday, 6 44, 9 46, 10 59 a.m., 12 46, 5 20, 6 44, 6 44, 6 12, and 7 20, 9 54 p.m., 12 37 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 45, 10 26, and 11 47 a. m., 10 14 p m.

For East Millstone—7 10 a. m., 12 46, 5 46 and 8 40 p. m., week-days.

For Trenton—1 00, 6 37, 7 10, 7 59, 9 06, 9 36, 11 45 A. M., 1 08, 1 37, 3 45, 5 00, 5 20, 5 39, 6 00, 6 44, 7 10, 7 59, 9 06, 9 36 P. M. Sundays at 1 00, 9 06, 9 36, 9 42, 10 41 A. M., 6 40, 6 37, 7 47 and 9 41 P. M.

For Lambertville, Phillipsburg and Belvidere via Trenton—7 00 A. M., 2.46 and 6.36 p. m., and 5.40 p. m. Sunday.

For Flemington—7 59 A. M., 2 46 P. M.

For Freehold—7 59, 11 45 a. m., 4 50, 6 36 p.m., via. Monmouth Junction, week-days.

For Jamesburg, via. Monmouth Junction—7 59 and 11 45 a. m., 4 36 and 5 06 p. m., week days.

For Long Branch, Ocean Grove, and points on New York and Long Branch R. R.—9 46 12 46, 4 15 5 44 p.m., 12 37 night week-days. Sundays, 10 25 a. m., and 6 44 p. m. do not stop at Asbury Park on Sundays.

For Sea Side Park, Island Heights and Toms River—12 46, p. m.

For Boston—3 46 p. m., daily.

For Brooklyn, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats to Brooklyn annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton Street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York City.

Leave New York for Elizabeth—1 00 daily except Monday 6, 6 30, 7 20, 8 30, 9, 9 10, 10 10, 11 00 a. m., 12, 12 10, 12 30, 12 40 1 00, 2 10, 3 30, 3 00, 3 30, 4 00, 4 10, 4 30, 4 40, 5 00, 5 10, 5 30, 5 50, 6 00, 6 10, 6 30, 6 45, 7 00, 7 30, 8 15, 9 15, 10 15, 11 00, 11 30 p. m., 12 10 night. Sundays, 1 00 6 15, 8, 9 00, 9 45, 10 00, 11 00 a. m., 12 00 noon, 1 00, 3 00, 3 45, 5 00, 6 30, 8 00, 9 45, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 00, 10 15, 12 00 p. m., and 12 15 night.

S. M. PREVOST, General Manager.

J. R. WOOD, Gen. Pass. Agent.

Carpenters and Builders.

UTZINGER & KLINE.

CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS.

Jobbing promptly attended to.

V. Utzinger, 75 Grandview ave. L. C. Kline, 54 Jackson ave.

JOHN P. EMMONS

—Mason and Builder.—

Washington avenue and Prospect place

NORTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Jobbing promptly attended to 11 14 tf

THEODORE GRAY,

MASON AND CONTRACTOR.

Estimates given, repairing promptly attended to. Residence 113 Hillside ave. 5 29 3

PEARSON & GAYLE

Carpenters and Builders.

RESIDENCE—W. S. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st.

H. B Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO 2-23-tf

GEO. W. STUDER,

CARPENTER AND BUILDER,

905 ARLINGTON AVENUE.

Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given; charges reasonable. 5 3 6m

McCullough's Steam Mill,

21 Steiner Place, North Plainfield.

H. H. McCullough, Proprietor.

Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing Turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished. 6-11-tf

C. W. LINES & CO.,

Mason and Builders.

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Residence 18 Elm Place.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Jobbing promptly attended to 12 66

REMOVAL.

I have removed my watchmaking and jewelry business from Park ave. to

142 North Avenue

Next to Walker's bakery, and shall be pleased to have my friends call.

CALEB DICKINSON

Real Estate Insurance

VAN BUREN & TIMPSON

965 North ave. Plainfield, N. J.

L. PAOLI & CO.,

Fruits, Confectionery, Temperance Drinks, Cigars, Etc.,

128 NORTH AVENUE,

FRESH ROASTED PEANUTS EVERY DAY.

10 CENTS A QUART.

I take this method of informing my friends and the public in general that I am again in business at the old stand. I solicit your patronage. Store will close at sundown on Friday and open at sundown on Saturday.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

(Anthracite coal used exclusively, insuring cleanliness and comfort.)

Station in New York foot of Liberty street. Time Table in effect, Nov. 18, 1894.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield, 2 14, 3 37, 5 38, 6 05, 6 29, 6 59 7 28, 7 30, 7 58, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04 10 27, 11 19, a m ; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51 4 50, 5 54, 7 03, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 05, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 19, 11 28 a. m.; 12 32, 1 45, 3 30, 5 28, 5 36, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty Street at 4 30 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a. m.; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, (except Saturdays) 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p. m., 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 8 30, 9 15 a. m.; 12 00 m.; 1 00, 2 15, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p. m.; 12 15 night 1 00 a. m.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a. m.; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 6 54, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p.m. Sunday 8 03, 8 52, 10 08, 11 28, a. m.; 12 32, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 08, 10 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 15, 1 35, 2 20 (Saturdays only) 2 50, 3 25, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 20, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday 1 20, 3 45, 9 35, 11 35, a. m.; 1 10, 2 35, 4 10, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a.m., 12 46, 2 08, 2 32, 3 45, 4 36, 5 08, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 36, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 23 p. m.; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 34, a. m.; 2 08, 5 28, 5 14, 6 36, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 35, 7 48, 8 20, 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m.; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 5 28, 6 36, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 22, 9 45, 10 55 a. m.; 12 08, 1 20, 5 05, 6 45, 8 05, 9 40 p.m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54, a. m.; 12 46, 2 08, 5 05, 5 14, 6 36, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28 a. m.; 2 08, 5 05, p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 58 a. m.; 12 32, 4 00, 7 00 p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 35 a. m.; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

6 45 A. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk Williamsport and Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m. for stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 A. M. for Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 A. M. for Flemington, High Bridge branch D L & W R R, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Nanticoke, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 4 5p. m. way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 05 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury and Williamsport, Wilkes-Barre and Scranton. Buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge branch

9 16 P. M. for Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor Allentown, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, Mauch Chunk Shamokin and Tamaqua. Buffet parlor car to Scranton.

6 19 P. M. for Flemington.

6 59 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading and Harrisburg.

9 31 P. M. for Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

6 45 A. M. Sunday for Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Wilkesbarre and Scranton. 8 26 a.m. Sundays for Easton.

2 05 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading and Harrisburg, 6 05 p. m. Sundays for Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c. and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

For Atlantic City, 8 26 a. m. 1 18 p. m.

Long Branch, Ocean Grove, &c

Leave Plainfield 8 26, 8 10 27, a. m 1.18, 3 51, 4 54, p. m. Sundays—(except Ocean Grove 8 52, a. m.) 3 05 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 8 26, 8 38, 8 10 27 a. m., 1 12, 3 51, 4 50, 8.54, 7 05 p.m. Sunday—8 52, a. m., 3 05 p. m.

For Freehold, 8 26, 10 27 a.m., 1 18, 3 51, 4 50, m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 6 45, 8 46 9 45, 10 45, a. m., 3 05*, 5 34* 8 46 8 21, 9 27* p. m., 1 12, night. Sundays—5 45, 9 45, a. m., 3 05*, 5 14*, 6 36 p. m., 1 12, night.

For Trenton 6 45, 8 46, 9 45*, 10 45, a. m., 12 46, 3 05*, 5 34*, 6 36* p. m., 1 12 night. Sunday—5 45, 8 26, a. m., 3 05*, 5 14* 6 36 p. m., 1 12 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 9 45, a. m., 3 05, 5 34* p. m. 1 12, night. Sundays—9 45 a. m., 3 05, 5 14* 6 45 p.m. 1 12, night.

For Chattanooga, New Orleans and all points south with through vestibule sleeper, via Shenandoah Valley Route at 5 34 p m. Sundays 5 14 p m.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points west, week days at 9 54 a m., 8 38 p. m. Sundays 6 38 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rate may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

A. H. OLMSTED, General Sup't.

H. P. BALDWIN, Gen. Pass. Agt.

The Finderne,

FINDERNE, Somerset Co., N. J.

Open all the year as a resort of the highest order. Driving and sleighing parties will receive every attention.

HIGH-CLASS SUNDAY DINNERS.

(Table d' Hote from 1 to 3:30.) Steam heat; inclosed piazzas; everything immaculate. When out driving let us entertain you.

A. E. WHITE, Manager, Finderne, N. J.

1 9 tf

CODDINGTON'S

FURNITURE AND FREIGHT

EXPRESS.

OFFICES—26 West Front street; 20 Park avenue Post Office Box 220.

PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY. Large covered trucks. Goods sent to any part of the country. Charges reasonable. Satisfaction guaranteed 11 9

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a prompt answer and an honest opinion, write to MUNN & CO., who have had nearly fifty years' experience in the patent business. Communications strictly confidential. A Handbook of Information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and scientific books sent free.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the Scientific American, and thus are brought widely before the public without cost to the inventor. This splendid paper, issued weekly, elegantly illustrated, has by far the largest circulation of any scientific work in the world. $3 a year. Sample copies sent free.

Building Edition, monthly, $2.50 a year. Single copies, 25 cents. Every number contains beautiful plates, in colors, and photographs of new houses, with plans, enabling builders to show the latest designs and secure contracts. Address MUNN & CO., NEW YORK, 361 BROADWAY.

FISCHER PIANOS.

ESTABLISHED 1840.

Nearly 100,000 Now In Use.

RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARD, WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO

EASY TERMS.—EXCHANGED.

Catalogue mailed on application.

110 FIFTH AVE., cor. 16th St., N. Y.

DO YOU KNOW

—THAT—

AMOS H. VAN HORN Limited.

73 Market St., Near Plane St.

Is doing better by purchasers in their line than any other house in the trade? If you doubt it, why just call at number 73—Get their prices and see the big inducements they are offering. For instance:

PARLOR SUITS.

We are giving a Moquette Rug, size 27x54, and a Parlor Table with every Parlor Suit sold.

CARPETS CARPETS

We are making and laying all of our carpets with paper without charge, which is a saving of 15 cents per yard.

BEDROOM SUITS

We are the only house in the city that is giving a woven wire bed spring and a mixed mattress with every bedroom suit sold.

MATTINGS

We pride ourselves that we have the largest stock of fancy mattings in the city, and at lowest prices. Good Japanese matting at only 15c per yard.

NOTE THE NAME AND NUMBER BEFORE ENTERING THE STORE.

PORTLAND RANGES

Any one who wants a range should not buy one until they have called and examined the Famous Portland Range. Over 7,000 now in use and everyone warranted. Easy Terms. Goods delivered free to all parts of the State.

STORING FURNITURE—It must be true what everybody says, for those that have seen the rooms in our New Storage Building, put up expressly for storing furniture, at 88, 90 and 92 Bank street, say that it is the finest in the State for cleanliness and low rates.

TELEPHONE 530.

Amos H. VanHorn, Limited,

73 Market Street, Near Plane Street.

PUTNAM & DeGRAW.

Is there anything below that will interest you?

Gents Negligé shirts	75c. $1 00	Ladies hose seamless fast color black and tan	10c
Gents and Boys sweaters	25c 40c 50c	Ladies black skirts	$1.00 $1 25 $1 98
Gents long bicycle hose	25c	Ladies shirt waists	29c, 39c, 49c, 65c
Gents medium weight underwear	39c 50c	Children's Hose, fast black, seamless,	10c
Gents half hose	10c 3 pair for 25c	" " double knee, "	18c
Gents half hose	15c 2 pair for 25c	Children's Bicycle Hose, extra heavy	25c

Remember, that we give away money. Don't fail to ask for a money order when you purchase $1 worth.

REAL ESTATE.

F. M. Bacon or Wallace Vail,

Babcock Building, Room 211.

Come and see us. We always keep a good line of houses to rent and for sale. Elegant flats, steam heated, city water and electric lights Private houses with all modern improvements. Vacant lots, farms, speculative property bought, sold and exchanged.

A gem, all improvements, $25 per month, 4 or 5 minutes from station. Farm 6 acres, house, barn, good land, 2 miles from Plainfield, $1,300—a very cheap home; easy payments. House 7 rooms, 5 minutes from station, $2,100. Store and 3 rooms $12 a month Farm 53 acres, 1,000 peach, apple and pear trees, near Flemington, $2,500.

Are You Interested

about the care of your teeth? If so, nothing like a personal trial will convince you that

Leggett's Tooth Wash

is an agreeable, refreshing and delightful dentrifice.

Sprinkler Top Bottles 25c.

Metropolitan Livery and Boarding Stables

Horses boarded by the day, week or month. Especial accommodations for transient trade

OFFICE AND STABLES,

147, 149, 151 North Avenue, Opp. Railroad Depot.

A. C. BLAIR.....Proprietor. FRANK DAY.....Manager

Telephone 152, connected with all circuits of New Jersey, New York and Brooklyn.

LYNDHURST, KEATING, EAGLE, AND APOLLO BICYCLES

Charles C. Lister, 134 North Ave.

Repairing, Renting and Storing

WE ARE READY

With large and beautiful line of Spring and Summer styles. Hats and Gents furnishings, men's and boys' Derby or Alpine hats, black, brown and tan, $1 00 to $3 00. Fancy negligé shirts, collars attached or detached 35c to $2 00. 1000 scarfs four-in-hand and made up from 10c to 75c, all new fresh goods. Special colored laundried shirts, 2 collars only, 35c worth 75c. No trouble to show our goods. Money refunded if you want it.

U. B. Crane, Hatter and Furnisher,

120 West Front street.

Chronicles of Martin Hewitt

BY ARTHUR MORRISON.

THE CASE OF LAKER, ABSCONDED.

There were several of the larger London banks and insurance offices from which Hewitt held a sort of general retainer as detective adviser, in fulfillment of which he was regularly consulted as to the measures to be taken in different cases of fraud, forgery, theft and so forth, which it might be the misfortune of the particular firms to encounter. The more important and intricate of these cases were placed in his hands entirely, with separate commissions, in the usual way. One of the most important companies of the sort was the General Guarantee Society, an insurance corporation which, among other risks, took those of the integrity of secretaries, clerks and cashiers. In the case of a cash-box elopement on the part of any person guaranteed by the society, the directors were naturally anxious for a speedy capture of the culprit, and more especially of the booty, before too much of it was spent, in order to lighten the claim upon their funds, and in work of this sort Hewitt was at times engaged, either in general advice and directions, or in the actual pursuit of the plunder and the plunderer.

Arriving at his office a little later than usual one morning, Hewitt found an urgent message awaiting him from the General Guarantee Society, requesting his attention to a robbery which had taken place on the previous day. He had gleaned some hint of the case from the morning paper, wherein appeared a short paragraph which ran thus:

"SERIOUS BANK ROBBERY.

"In the course of yesterday a clerk employed by Messrs. Liddle, Neal & Liddle, the well-known bankers, disappeared, having in his possession a large sum of money, the property of his employers—a sum reported to be rather over £15,000. It would seem that he had been intrusted to collect the money in his capacity of 'walk-clerk' from various other banks and trading concerns, during the morning, but failed to return at the usual time. A large number of the notes which he received had been cashed at the Bank of England before suspicion was aroused. We understand that Detective-Inspector Plummer of Scotland Yard has the case in hand."

HE CARRIED A WALLET FASTENED TO HIS PERSON.

The clerk, whose name was Charles William Laker, had, it appeared from the message, been guaranteed in the usual way by the General Guarantee Society, and Hewitt's presence at the office was at once desired, in order that steps might quickly be taken for the man's apprehension and the recovery of, at any rate, as much of the booty as possible.

A smart hansom brought Hewitt to Threadneedle street in a bare quarter of an hour, and there a few minutes' talk with the manager, Mr. Lyster, put him in possession of the main facts of the case, which appeared to be simple. Charles William Laker was 25 years of age and had been in the employ of Messrs. Liddle, Neal & Liddle for something more than seven years—since he left school, in fact—and until the previous day there had been nothing in his conduct to complain of. His duties as walk-clerk consisted in making a certain round, beginning at about half-past 10 each morning. There were a certain number of the more important banks between which and Messrs. Liddle, Neal & Liddle there were daily transactions, and a few smaller semi-private banks and merchant firms acting as financial agents with whom there was business intercourse of less importance and regularity; and each of these, as necessary, he visited in turn, collecting cash due on bills and other instruments of the like nature. He carried a wallet, fastened securely to his person by a chain, and this wallet contained the bills and the cash. Usually, at the end of his round, when all his bills had been converted into cash, the wallet held very large sums. His work and responsibilities, in fine, were those common to walk-clerks in all banks.

On the day of the robbery he had started out as usual—possibly a little earlier than was customary—and the bills and other securities in his possession represented considerably more than £15,000. It had been ascertained that he had called in the usual way at each establishment on his round and had transacted his business at the last place by about a quarter past 1, being then, without doubt, in possession of cash to the full value of the bills negotiated. After that, Mr. Lyster said, yesterday's report was that nothing more had been heard of him. But this morning there had been a message to the effect that he had been traced out of the country—to Calais, at least, it was thought. The directors of the Society wished Hewitt to take the case in hand personally and at once, with a view of recovering what was possible from the plunder by way of salvage; also, of course, of finding Laker, for it is an important moral gain to guarantee societies as an example if a thief is caught and punished. Therefore Hewitt and Mr. Lyster, as soon as might be, made for Messrs. Liddle, Neal & Liddle's that the investigation might be begun.

The bank premises were quite near—in Leadenhall street—and, arrived there, Hewitt and Mr. Lyster made their way to the firm's private rooms. As they were passing an outer waiting room Hewitt noticed two women. One, the elder in widow's weeds, was sitting with her head bowed on her hand over a small writing table. Her face was not visible, but her whole attitude was that of a person overcome with unbearable grief; and she sobbed quietly. The other was a young woman of twenty-two or twenty-three. Her thick black veil revealed no more than that her features were small and regular and that her face was pale and drawn. She stood with a hand on the elder woman's shoulder, and she quickly turned her head away as the two men entered.

Mr. Neal, one of the partners, received them in his own room. "Good morning, Mr. Hewitt," he said, when Mr. Lyster introduced the detective. "This is a serious business—very. I think I am sorrier for Laker himself than for anybody else, ourselves included—or at any rate, I am sorrier for his mother. She is waiting now to see Mr. Liddle as soon as he arrives—Mr. Liddle has known the family for a long time. Miss Shaw is with her, too, poor girl. She is a governess, or something of that sort, and I believe she and Laker were engaged to be married. It's all very sad."

"Inspector Plummer, I understand," Hewitt remarked, "has the affair in hand on behalf of the police."

"Yes," Mr. Neal replied; "in fact, he's here now, going through the contents of Laker's desk, and so forth; he thinks it possible Laker may have had accomplices. Will you see him?"

"Presently. Inspector Plummer and I are old friends. We met last, I think, in the case of the Stanway cameo some months ago. But first, will you tell me how long Laker has been a walk-clerk?"

"Barely four months, although he has been with us altogether seven years. He was promoted to the walk soon after the beginning of the year."

"Do you know anything of his habits—what he used to do in his spare time, and so forth?"

"Not a great deal. He went in for boating, I believe, though I have heard it whispered he had one or two more expensive tastes—expensive, that is, for a young man in his position," Mr. Neal explained, with a dignified wave of the hand that he peculiarly affected. He was a stout old gentleman, and the gesture suited him.

"You have had no reason to suspect him of dishonesty before I take it?"

"Oh, no. He made a wrong return once, I believe, that went for some time undetected, but it turned out after all to be a clerical error—a mere clerical error."

"Do you know anything of his associates out of the office?"

"No; how should I? I believe Inspector Plummer has been making inquiries as to that, however, of the other clerks. Here he is, by the bye, I expect. Come in."

It was Plummer who had knocked and he came in at Mr. Neal's call. He was a middle-aged, small-eyed, impenetrable looking man, as yet of no great reputation in the force. Some of my readers may remember his connection with that case, so long a public mystery, that I have elsewhere fully set forth and explained under the title of "The Stanway Cameo Mystery." Plummer carried his billycock hat in one hand and a few papers in the other. He gave Hewitt good morning, placed his hat on a chair, and spread the papers on the table.

"There's not a great deal here," he said, "but one thing's plain—Laker has been betting. See here, and here, and here"—he took a few letters from the bundle in his hand—"two letters from a bookmaker about settling (wonder he trusted a clerk), several telegrams from tipsters, and a letter from some friend only signed by initials, asking Laker to put a sovereign on a horse for a friend 'with his own.' I'll keep these, I think. It may be worth while to see that friend, if we can find him. Ah, we often find it's betting, don't we, Mr. Hewitt? Meanwhile, there's no news from France yet."

"You are sure that is where he has gone?" asked Hewitt.

"Well, I'll tell you what we've done as yet: First, of course, I went round to all the banks. There was nothing to be got from that. The cashiers all knew him by sight, and one was a personal friend of his. He had called as usual, said nothing in particular, cashed his bills in the ordinary way and finished up at the Eastern Consolidated Bank at about 1.15. So far there was nothing whatever. But I started two or three men, meanwhile, making inquiries at the railway stations, and so on. I had scarcely left the Eastern Consolidated when one of them came after me with news. He had tried Palmer's tourist office, although that seemed an unlikely place, and there struck the track."

"Had he been there?"

"Not only had he been there, but he had taken a tourist ticket to France

HER FACE WAS NOT VISIBLE.

It was quite a smart move in a way. You see it was the sort of ticket that lets you do pretty well what you like; you have the choice of two or three different routes to begin with, and you can break your journey where you please and make all sorts of variations. So that a man with a ticket like that and a few hours' start could twist about on some remote branch route and strike off in another direction altogether, with a new ticket for some out-of-the-way place, while we were carefully sorting out and inquiring along the different routes he might have taken. Not half a bad move for a new hand, but he made one bad mistake, as new hands always do—old hands do, in fact, very often. He was fool enough to give his own name—C. Laker! Although that didn't matter much, as the description was enough to fix him. There he was, wallet and all, just as he had come from the Eastern Consolidated Bank. He went straight from there to Palmer's, by the bye, and probably in a cab. We judge that by the time. He left the Eastern

Continued on page 8.

Cleveland Bicycles,

The Great Leaders of 1895.

Design, Improvements, Workmanship, Quality, Speed, Health, Pleasure, Business, Road, Track.

The Fastest, Strongest, Handsomest and Most Rigid Wheel.

The "Swell Specials" are a decided advance in bicycle construction and when quality alone is considered will always sell.

Liberty, Crescent, Waverly, Majestic

We thoroughly believe in the merits of the above wheels, and unhesitatingly recommend them.

F. L. C. Martin Cycle Co.,

333 Park Avenue.

Repairs. Established 1889. Rentals.

That represents the best that is made. If you want style, wear and comfort, wear the Hanan shoe, all shapes in Russia calf and patent leather.

ALEX. WILLETT & SON,

SHOES MADE TO ORDER. 107 PARK AVENUE.

E. E. MARSHALL & CO.

167 NORTH AVENUE.

WALL PAPERS, PAINTING,

And Interior Decorating.

Designs submitted for frescoing.

PIANO BARGAINS.

Vanderbeek & Sattels

desire to say that they have just received a fine lot of

New Pianos

of different makes which they will sell at prices never before offered. Among them are those wonderful

Behr Brothers Pianos

Also Behning & Sons.

They represent also the Knabe, Haselton, Chickering and many others.

They offer from time to time excellent

BARGAINS IN Second-Hand Pianos

221 PARK AVENUE.

THE CZAR,

The Handsomest Wheel Ever Produced.

HIGHEST GRADE MADE.

E. FRANK VAIL, Agent,

177 North avenue.

A Spring Gown

is a subject for thought. Haven't you some of last season's dresses that can be made useful? They may need cleaning, or perhaps dyeing—either we do perfectly, and it costs only two dollars or two dollars and a half.

Hillier & Co.

175 North ave.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,

301-311 Watchung Ave.

DEALERS IN

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Materials, &c.

Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement

For walls and ceilings.

Continued from Page 7.

Chronicles of Martin Hewitt.

Consolidated Bank at a quarter past one and was at Palmer's by twenty-five past—ten minutes. The clerk at Palmer's remembered the time, because he was anxious to get out to his lunch and kept looking at the clock, expecting another clerk in to relieve him. Laker didn't take much in the way of luggage, I fancy. We inquired carefully at the stations, and got the porters to remember the passengers for whom they had been carrying luggage, but none appeared to have had any dealings with our man. That, of course, is as one would expect. He'd take as little as possible with him and buy what he wanted on the way, or when he'd reached his hiding place. Of course, I wired to Calais (it was a Dover-to-Calais route ticket), and sent a couple of men off by the 8.15 mail from Charing Cross. I expect we shall hear from them in the course of the day. I am being kept in London in view of something expected at headquarters, or I should have been off myself."

II.

"That is all, then, up to the present? Have you anything else in view?"

"That's all I've absolutely ascertained at present. As for what I'm going to do"—a slight smile curled Plummer's lips—"well, I shall see. I've a thing or two in my mind."

Hewitt smiled slightly himself; he recognized Plummer's touch of professional jealousy. "Very well," he said rising, "I'll make an inquiry or two for myself at once. Perhaps, Mr. Neal you'll allow one of your clerks to show me the banks in their regular order at which Laker called yesterday. I think I'll begin at the beginning."

Mr. Neal offered to place at Hewitt's disposal anything or anybody the bank contained, and the conference broke up. As Hewitt with the clerk, came through the rooms separating Mr Neal's sanctum from the outer office he fancied he saw the two veiled women leaving by a side door.

The first bank was quite close to Liddle, Neal & Liddle. There the cashier who had dealt with Laker the day before remembered nothing in particular about the interview. Many other walk-clerks had called during the morning, as they did every morning, and the only circumstances of the visit that he could say anything definite about were those recorded in figures in the books. He did not know Laker's name till Plummer had mentioned it in making 'norlries on the previous afternoon. As far as he could remember, Laker behaved much as usual, though really he did not notice much; he looked chiefly at the bills. He described Laker in a way that corresponded with the photograph that Hewitt had borrowed from the bank—a young man with a brown mustache and ordinary looking, fairly regular face, dressing much as other clerks dressed—tall hat, black cutaway coat and so on. The numbers of the notes handed over had already been given to Inspector Plummer, and these Hewitt did not trouble about.

The next bank was in Cornhill, and here the cashier was a personal friend of Laker's—at any rate, an acquaintance—and he rememberd a little more

I CAME ACROSS AND TOOK HIS BILLS.

Laker's manner had been quite as usual, he said; certainly he did not seem preoccupied or excited in his manner. He spoke for a moment or two—of being on the river on Sunday, and so on—and left in his usual way.

"Can you remember everything, he said?" Hewitt asked. "If you can tell me, I should like to know exactly what he did and said—to the smallest particular."

"Well, he saw me at a little distance off—I was behind there, at one of the desks—and raised his hand to me and said: 'How d'ye do?' I came across and took his bills and dealt with them in the usual way. He had a new umbrella lying on the counter—rather a handsome umbrella—and I made a remark about the handle. He took it up to show me, and told me it was a present he had just received from a friend. It was a gorse root handle with two silver bands, one with his monogram C. W. L. I said it was a very nice handle, and asked him whether it was fine in his district on Sunday. He said he had been up the river, and it was very fine there. And I think that was all."

"Thank you. Now about this umbrella. Did he carry it rolled? Can you describe it in detail?"

"Well, I've told you about the handle, and the rest was much as usual. I think: it wasn't rolled—just flapping loosely, you know. It was rather an odd-shaped handle, though. I'll try and sketch it if you like, as well as I can remember." He did so, and Hewitt saw in the result rough indications of a gnarled crook, with one silver band near the end, and another, with the monogram, a few inches down the handle. Hewitt put the sketch in his pocket and bade the cashier good day.

At the next bank the story was the same as at the first—there was nothing remembered but the usual routine. Hewitt and the clerk turned down a narrow paved court and turned into Lombard street for the next visit. The bank—that of Buller, Clayton, Ladds & Co.—was just at the corner, at the end of the court, and the imposing stone entrance porch was being made longer and more imposing still, the way being almost blocked by ladders and scaffold poles. Here there was only the usual tale, and so on through the whole walk. The cashiers knew Laker only by sight, and that not always very distinctly. The cells of walk clerks were such matters of routine that little note was taken of the persons of the clerks themselves, who were called by the names of their firms, if they were called by any names at all. Laker had behaved much as usual, so far as the cashiers could remember; and when finally the Eastern Consolidated was left behind, nothing more had been learned than the chat about Laker's new umbrella.

Hewitt had taken leave of Mr. Neal's clerk, and was stepping into a hansom, when he noticed a veiled woman, in widow's weeds, hailing another a little way behind. He recognized the figure again, and said to the driver: "Drive first to Palmer's Tourist Office, but keep your eye on that cab behind, and tell me presently if it is following us."

The cabman drove off, and, after passing one or two turnings, opened the lid above Hewitt's head and said: "'All right—that' what I wanted to know. Palmer's now."

At Palmer's the clerk who had attended to Laker remembered him very well, and described him. He also remembered the wallet, and thought he remembered the umbrella—was practically sure of it, in fact, upon reflection. He had no record of the name given, but remembered it distinctly to be Laker. As a matter of fact, names were never asked in such a transaction, but in this case Laker appeared to be ignorant of the usual procedure, as well as in a great hurry, and asked for the ticket and gave his name all in one breath, probably assuming that the name would be required.

Hewitt got back to his cab, and started for Charing Cross. The cabman once more lifted the lid and informed him that the hansom with the veiled woman in it was again following, having waited while Hewitt visited Palmer's. At Charing Cross Hewitt discharged his cab and walked straight to the lost property office. The man in charge knew him very well, for his business had carried him there frequently before.

"I fancy an umbrella was lost in the station yesterday," Hewitt said. "It was a new umbrella, silk, with a gnarled gorse-root handle and two silver bands, something like this sketch. There was a monogram on the lower band—C. W. L. were the letters. Has it been brought here?"

"There was two or three yesterday," the man said. "Let's see." He took the sketch and retired to the corner of his room. "Oh yes—here it is, I think. Isn't this it? Do you claim it?"

"Well, not exactly that, but I think I'll take a look at it if you'll let me. By the way, I see it's rolled up. Was it found like that?"

"No; the chap rolled it up that found it—porter he was. It's a fad of his, rolling up umbrellas close and neat,

HE SAW THE FACE OF THE WOMAN WHO HAD FOLLOWED HIM.

and he's rather proud of it. He often looks as though he'd like to take a man's umbrella away and roll it up for him when it's a bit clumsy done. Ram fad, eh?"

"Yes—everybody has his little fad, though. Where was this found—close by here?"

"Yes, just there, almost opposite this window, in the little corner."

"About 2 o'clock?"

"Ah, about that time, more or less."

Hewitt took the umbrella up, unfastened the band and shook the silk out loose. Then he opened it, and as he did so a small scrap of paper fell from inside it. Hewitt pounced on it like lightning. Then, after examining the umbrella thoroughly, inside and out, he handed it back to the man, who had observed the incident of the scrap of paper. "That will do, thanks," he said, "I only wanted to take a peep at it—just a small matter connected with a little case of mine. Good morning."

He turned suddenly and saw, gazing at him with a terrified expression from a door behind, the face of the woman who had followed him in the cab. The veil was lifted, and he caught but a mere glance of the face ere it was suddenly withdrawn. He stood for a moment to allow the woman time for retreat, and then left the station and walked toward his office, close by.

Scarcely thirty yards along the Strand he met Plummer. "I'm going to make some more close inquiries all down the line as far as Dover," he said. "They wire from Calais that they have no clue as yet, and I mean to make quite sure, if I can, that Laker hasn't quietly slipped off the line somewhere between here and Dover. There's one very peculiar thing," Plummer added, confidentially. "Did you see the two women who were waiting to see a member of the firm at Liddle, Neal & Liddles?"

"Yes. Laker's mother and his fiancee, I was told."

"That's right. Well, do you know that girl—Shaw, her name is—has been shadowing me ever since I left the bank? Of course, I stopped it from the beginning—these amateurs don't know how to follow anybody—and, as a matter of fact, she's just inside that jeweller's shop door behind me now, pretending to look at the things in the window. But it's odd, isn't it?"

"Well," Hewitt replied, "of course it's not a thing to be neglected. If you'll look very carefully at the corner of Villiers street, without appearing to stare, I think you will possibly observe some signs of Laker's mother. She's shadowing me."

III.

Plummer looked casually in the direction indicated, and then immediately turned his eyes in another direction. "I see her," he said, "she's just taking a look round the corner. That's a thing not to be neglected. Of course, the Lakers' house is being watched—we set a man on it at once yesterday. But I'll put one on now to watch Miss Shaw's place, too. I'll telephone through to Liddles—probably they'll be able to say where it is. And the women themselves must be watched, too. As a matter of fact, I had a notion that Laker wasn't alone in it. And it's just possible, you know, that he has sent an accomplice off with his traveling ticket to lead us a dance while he looks after himself in another direction. Have you done anything?"

"Well," Hewitt replied, with a faint reproduction of the secretive smile with which Plummer had met an inquiry of his earlier in the morning, "I've been to the station here. And I've found Laker's umbrella in the lost property office."

"Oh! Then probably he has gone. I'll bear that in mind, and perhaps have a word with the lost property man."

Plummer made for the station and Hewitt for his office. He mounted the stairs and reached his door just as I myself, who had been disappointed in not finding him in, was leaving. I had called with the idea of taking Hewitt to lunch with me at my club, but he declined lunch. "I have an important case in hand," he said. "Look here, Brett. See this scrap of paper. You know the types of the different papers—which is this?"

He handed me a small piece of paper. It was part of a cutting containing an advertisement, which had been torn in half. "I think," I said, "this is from the Daily Chronicle, judging by the paper. It is plainly from the 'agony column,' but all the papers use pretty much the same type for these advertisements except the Times. If it were not torn I could tell you at once, because the Chronicle columns are rather narrow."

To be continued.

—Wm. J. Conroy of Somerset street has had his house connected with city water.

EARLY OIL SCHEMES.

TIME WAS WHEN EVERYBODY HAD A LITTLE PROSPECTIVE OIL STOCK.

Men Went Wild and the Spirit of Speculation Was Rampant. Fortunes Made in a Day and Lost in a Night. Primitive Pithole and Its Surroundings.

In the midst of this renewed interest in the oil situation the minds of many turn naturally backward to the stirring events of those early days in the sixties and to Pithole and Drake's first well, and to even earlier times, when the Indians laboriously skimmed up and sold the so called Seneca oil. Some three years ago Thomas Mellon, one of Pittsburg's leading millionaires, who was formerly interested in oil and more lately in banking, in speaking of the primitive beginnings of the oil industry, when in the hands of the Indians, said:

"I am unable to give exact dates, but it was shortly before the beginning of the present century, and covering a period of some fifteen years, that excursions of Cornplanter Indians were in the habit of visiting Pittsburg once a year from their homes up the Allegheny. They came down the river a dozen or so canoes at a time, and after disposing of their furs and other specialties, among which was always some petroleum, and going on a drunk for a day or two, they would disappear again. Their petroleum packages were various in shape and quantity. Some of the oil was in gourds or calabashes, some in pieces of hollow logs fashioned into kegs, and after a time it was often brought in small kegs of regular make, which had been taken home by them on former visits containing whisky or molasses. It was called Seneca oil. Certain of the merchants took it in exchange for goods and kept it on sale in quantities to suit purchasers, as it was in much demand, a kind of universal panacea, especially as a salve for burns and scalds and wounds or sores of any sort. It was also taken inwardly for many ailments. The surplus of the oil not disposed of at retail was transported over the mountains by the usual methods of the time, pack horse or wagon, and was shipped from Philadelphia and Baltimore to England."

Coming down to the times of Oil Creek in the sixties, the study of the maddest mania in modern times begins. Those were the days when spring pole drilling and pound freshets were still in vogue. It was before anybody dreamed of piping oil or of hauling it in tank cars. The oleaginous riches of Venango county were then floated down the Allegheny river in light, caulked flatboats, in bulk, from Oil City. The oil was hauled from the wells in good oak barrels that at first cost $2.50, then $2.25 and later $2 each, delivered at the well. One had to become accustomed to the jargon of the oil regions. Eights, twelfths and sixteenth royalties; quarter, eighth, sixteenth, thirty-second and sixty-fourth interests in well; options and bonuses; all, however, were terms pregnant with meaning. Sand pumps, bull wheels, bits, rimmers, jars and sucker rods; soap veins, nigger heads, stuck tools—these and other terms made up a jargon employed with a liberality that was very discouraging to newcomers.

The prospectus writer's art was concentrated upon oil. A forest was needed to supply pegs sufficient to stake out the leases made by companies in Philadelphia. In Pittsburg the oil companies outnumbered her lampposts. Shares in wells were divided and subdivided until housemaids and cooks, barbers and porters boasted of thirty-second, sixty-fourth and one hundred and twenty-eighth interests in wells that never accomplished more than to disturb the woodpeckers for a brief season.

Eighth and quarter interests made men snug fortunes. Interests in wells, considered separate and apart from the remainder of a lease, were sold as readily as interests in leases containing five, ten or fifty acres. A ten acre lease in a favorable location was good for almost any amount in the latter part of 1863, and throughout 1864 and 1865 tens and hundreds of thousands of dollars were paid for leases that could not have returned the purchaser ten cents on the dollar if every acre had yielded a thousand barrels a day for a year.

There were big and valuable wells in those times, too. The Coquette well, of Dr. M. C. Egbert, was one. It was for a time a famous sight. The spectacle presented by a well that poured out riches at the rate of $8,000 a day fascinated the multitude. It was deemed worthy a visit in all kinds of weather and by all sorts and conditions of people. Dr. Egbert finally received for a one-twelfth interest in the Coquette well, without an inch of ground around, $200,000 in cash, which was based upon an estimate of $2,400,000 for the well.

Afterward Dr. Egbert sold one-eighth of the working interest in the Coquette for $150,000 cash. Still later $500,000 was offered for his remaining interest in the farm. Although he was inclined to accept this last offer he permitted his friends to overrule his judgment, thus losing, to employ his language, "$400,000 by acting upon the advice of my friends."

In those early oil days when, through the bad condition of the roads, carriages were practically out of the question, Pithole rose in all its glory. At times the long sweep of hills that walled in either side of the place presented the spectacle of the assembling of an army of cavalry. There were occasions when probably a thousand men on horseback rode into Pithole. The constant splash, splash of the horses' feet echoed over hilltop or down into the valley, as they bore their jovial riders safely along the muddy roads or through the gliding waters of the creek toward the nightly rendezvous. And then, when these oil prospectors reached the resort of the town, the now vanished Petroleum House, there were high old times until well along in the night. It was upon those occasions that oil property in large quantities changed ownership. It frequently occurred that a man would pay $500 one day for a thirty-second interest in a well, and in twenty-four hours sell it for $5,000.

BAMBERGER'S

"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE"

147 and 149 Market Street,

NEWARK, N. J.

BOYS' CLOTHING.

That boy of yours needs clothing that will stand the romping and jumping and running around that boys always do It's here, made in the right way—wear—resisting, perfect-fitting and sewed strongly.

Four Special lots for this week!

Boys' Knee Pants

Cheviots, worsteds and cassimere's well made with strong waist bands, sizes 3 to 15 usually 89 to 98c, at 49c

Boys' Fauntleroy Blouses

Extra quality, white lawn, trimmed with colored insertion. sizes 2 to 8, usually 79c, at 49c.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits

All-wool, fancy trimmed, pants embroidered with bows and buckle, sizes 3 to 7, regular $2.69, at $1.73.

Boys' Fauntleroy Suits

Finished in best manner, sizes 4 to 15, with long cut coats, and pants with taped seams, regular $2.89, at $1.98.

L. BAMBERGER & CO.,

147 and 149 Market st., Newark.

Free delivery everywhere. Prompt attention given to mail orders.

Progressive Plainfield's Progressive Store

LACE CURTAINS.

Lot 1	White Nottinghams 2½ yards long		48c pair
Lot 2	White Nottinghams 3 yards long		69c pair
Lot 3	White Nottinghams 3 yards long		86c pair
Lot 4	White Nottinghams 3 yards long		93c pair
Lot 5	White Nottinghams 3 yards long		$1 08 pair
Lot 6	White Nottinghams 3½ yards long		1 43 pair
Lot 7	White Nottinghams 3½ yards long		1 97 pair

BED SPREADS.

Lot 1	White Crochet	Counterpanes	54c each
Lot 2	White Crochet	Counterpanes	74c each
Lot 3	White Crochet	Counterpanes	94c each
Lot 4	White Crochet	Counterpanes	$1 18 each
Lot 5	White Crochet	Counterpanes	1 27 each
Lot 6	White Marseilles	Counterpanes	1 39 each

200 only in the lot assorted colored shirt waists for Ladies, no more to be had, all to be sold at 25 cents each.

One lot Ladies Laundered Shirt waists 43 cents each.

One lot Ladies Ribbed Vests 5 cents each.

Van Emburgh & Son

Corner Store. Babcock Building.

THEY ARE BEAUTIES.

Our Ladies Kid Welt Oxford with new plain tip, the latest; Russet Kid 3 button Oxford, something new; Our $2 Oxfords are noted for their wear.

ALEX WILLETT & SON,

107 Park Avenue.

OPEN UNTIL 9 P. M.

Choice Soda

O, thirsty mortal ever ready today at Randolph's. The ancients knew no such pleasure as a delicious draught of our doubled-refined thirst annihilators. Good for the stomach, beneficial for the brain, light on the pocket, refreshing for young or old. Composed of materials of purity unsurpassed. We may live without poetry, music and art, but to be without soda is not to be tolerated. What more need we say? Drink it.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist, 143 West Front st

MIZZEN PEAK COTTAGE.

WATCHUNG MOUNTAINS,

Bound Brook, N J

Superior French board at moderate prices. Dinner to order. Table d'Hote 75 cents with ½ bottle of Mizzen Peak claret.

Bowling Alley.

JEUX DE TONNEAU.

Beautiful view, fine shady grounds, sheds stables, etc. 5 4 3m

FURNITURE MOVING

Telephone 121. Office 161 North ave.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS.

J. W. VAN SICKLE,

Dealer in all kinds of

Fresh and Salt Meats

GAME IN SEASON

New No. 128, North Ave., Plainfield

Telephone 148 B. Orders called for and delivered promptly

Neuman Bro's

Specials tomorrow in

Fresh Vegetables.

Green Peas, Green Beans, Wax Beans, Asparagus, Tomatoes, Lettuce, Cucumbers, Water Cress, Spinach, Radishes, Rhubarb, Bunch Onions, Oyster Plant, Beets, New Carrots, New Potatoes

STRAWBERRIES.

MISS E. ROCKFELLOW,

DRESSMAKING PARLORS,

195 North Avenue.

Taylor System. Suits $5 and upward. 5 1 1m

A large variety of all the Latest Styles in Hats and Bonnets can be found at the Millinery Establishment of

MRS. L. ADAMS,

111 EAST FRONT STREET.

Under First National Bank.

FRANK B. CONVERSE.

SOLID ARM BANJO

MISS CLARIBEL JEFFERY, teacher of Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar. Best references. 222 W. Front street. Call Wednesdays 4 25 1m

Promises!

are easy made and easy broken, we promised you big bargains in dress goods this week, we intend keeping our word. 75 pieces of dress goods from the receiver's sale of Jaffray & Co., at a sacrifice 25 pieces all-wool cashmere 38 inch 25c worth 50. 10 pieces fancy mixed worsteds 36 inch 25c worth 40 15 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 50c worth 75. 8 pieces fancy covert cloths 54 inch 65 worth 90. 5 pieces silk and wool covert cloths 54 inch 95 worth $1 25 5 pieces all-wool serges light shades 65 worth $1 00 complete the dress; we have just what you need. Double faced silesia 10c plain silesias 9c, the best skirt cambrics 5c, fibre chamois different shades 35c. Hair cloth from 10c to 60.

Linings

Corsets

For one week we sell the W. B. corset 5 hook for 68c.

Duck Suits

A duck suit made up in the latest style only 99c; surprising, isn't it?

CAMBRICS

Fast color cambrics 7-8 wide 6c a yard.

A CUT

on every article in our house-furnishing goods department; our 87c hall lamp is sold elsewhere for $1 10.

Millinery.

We still lead in fashionable head wear.

BOEHM'S,

113 WEST FRONT STREET

—THE—

Buying Population

in and around Plainfield are awake to the great values we are offering. We never have any trouble selling to those who have visited other stores before calling on us. We not only attract trade—we keep it. We invite comparison.

POINTERS.

Men's clay diagonal suits in Regent frock, at $10.50.

Men's all-wool suits in long sack, single or double breasted, $3 75, $7.50 and $9.50.

Running water is never stale. Our stock is like a river—always moving.

WERNER'S.

Plainfield, N. J.

Revere House

Park Ave. 7th and 8th St.

GEORGE B. DEREVERE & CO.

Thoroughly renovated and now open for transient or permanent guests.

5 1 tf

IT'S A FACT

that we sell Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Shirts, Underwear, Ties, etc., cheaper than any house in town. Buying from merchants who are pressed for cash, we buy our goods at our own price and sell them cheap.

Everything sold is fully recommended or money refunded. Boys' School Suits from $1.25; Boys' Long Pants Suits $2 up; Men's Serviceable Suits $3.50 to $6; Men's Suits for dress wear $5 50 and upwards; Derbys, equal to any $3 hat, at $1.50.

It is to your benefit to examine our goods before buying elsewhere.

Plainfield Bargain House.

J. Goldstein, 126 Park ave.

THE DAILY PRESS

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1895. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

A RUSSIAN HONEYMOON

Successful Attempt at Melodrama by Amateurs.

LOCAL DEBUT OF MISS COOLEY.

Relief Fund Materially Benefits by an Excellent Theatrical Production—Mrs. Serrell and Other Favorites Interpret Difficult Roles.

MELODRAMA was well essayed by Plainfield amateurs last night in the performance of "A Russian Honeymoon" in Music Hall for the benefit of the Relief Fund. It was a departure from the old lines of local theatricals, and the change was refreshing. "A Russian Honeymoon" is listed as a comedy, and there is plenty of laugh in it; but threats of the knout, and shattered love, and divorce, are no joke, and the dramatic force that abounds in the action of the piece makes the title comedy a misnomer. It was gratifying to admirers of the talent of the players to find them bending their energies to something more substantial than weak drawing-room pictures and trifling dialogues. "A Russian Honeymoon" has color and life, and like most good plays is from the French.

MAUD CHILTON-SERRELL.

The part of wisdom was played by the management in the selection of Music Hall as the theatre. The night was hot, and for the 600 ticket-holders to attempt crowding into the Casino would have been somewhat fatiguing. As it was, all were moderately comfortable, and were glad they came. Nobody was sent away and asked to come to the 'next" performance.

Effectively staged and well acted was the play. James Stowell Anthony, under whose painstaking management the enterprise became a success, had neglected no detail; and with the able assistance of George Percy Taggart, to whom he expressed his indebtedness, he presented a smooth and finished performance.

The story of the piece has already been outlined in these columns, and those who saw the tale so vividly pictured last night need no reminder of its plot. It is "The Taming of the Shrew" over again, built on different lines.

In the dual role of Shoemaker Alexis and Count Woroffski, Constantine P. Ralli had need of the brilliancy and polish and adaptability which are his by nature. His ease, his grace, his handsome presence and fine bearing, made him a marked figure; and what woman, though of temper never so ill, could have withstood his ardent wooing, his unfailing good nature and breeding, his gentleness and his manly suffering? The requirements of the character were a highborn bearing, a voice of richness, sympathy and power, a readiness in the arts of love and mastery, and a big heart. Having these, it was easy and natural for Mr. Ralli to develop fully the sentiment and power of his somewhat romantic part.

Mrs. L. W. Serrell, Jr., who as Miss Maude James Chilton was an amateur of note, is at home on the stage; and gave a polished picture of the Baroness Vladimir. Her personal charms, her exquisite toilette, were accentuated by her Parisian manners, her vivacious gaiety, and the infectious charm of her merry laughter. She had far better opportunity for advantageous work than in the immortal "Tea at Five o'Clock", and her performance was genuinely superb.

A master of stagecraft is W. R. Cock. As the shoemaker-philosopher he had scope for his abilities. It was not his proverbs that so much delighted, though they were good; but it was the humor and honest ruggedness of his personality, and his inimitable ability to impersonate strong and peculiar character, that made him a humorous and admirable eccentricity.

One's first appearance before a home audience is a hard test, snd well Miss Grace W. Cooley stood it. Hers was a trying role, that of Poleska, the wife who needed taming, and whose spirit was finally broken by her genuine love for the royal husband who so severely tried her. Whether stately, or imperious, or passionate, or hysterical, or devoted, she threw herself fully into the part, and rendered her lines and action with a vigor and ability that won marked favor. The climaxes were hard, and a task for more experienced hands; but Miss Cooley met them with determination, and yet skilfully avoided straining too much after effect. She proved herself deserving of rank among local amateurs. Fred W. Walz was afforded more scope than in parts hitherto assigned to him, and he did some mighty good acting under a very clever makeup. He has developed strongly since previous appearances.

Miss Caroline F. Randolph has the natural elements that attract, sprightliness, girlishness, and a merry and womanly heart. Her unaffected charm in the role of the shoemaker's daughter won more hearts than that of her pouting peasant-lover, a part which Howard Huntington had the good fortune to play, and to play well.

The cast was augmented by peasants, guards, and other people, impersonated by members of the special chorus drilled by W. E. MacClymont for the occasion, and by the Third Regiment Cadet Corps. The singers were: Soprano — Miss Catherine Glenn, Mrs. W. E. MacClymont, Miss Sadie Keenan, Miss Nora Williams, Miss Elizabeth Bittenbender, Miss Elma Runyon; alto — Miss Lottie Messersmith, Miss Mabel Force, Miss Beatrice Miner, Miss Pansy Herring; tenor—George O. Stevens, Robert Clark, Edward Clark, Charles Angleman, Willard Miner; bass: Harry Williams, Arthur Freeman, John Peck, Fred Pope. And the soldiers: Captain — George F. Edwards; First Sergeant — George E. Bull; Privates—E. L. Bull, V. E. Green, Harold Hart, C. P Lord, H. C Miller, George P. Smith, E I. Serrell, W. W. West.

The orchestral music was excellent, conducted by Eugene Rose. The audience was spontaneous and vigorous with its applause, and repeatedly called the performers before the curtain. Everybody staid seated at the close of the play, and the hand-clapping was such an outburst that the players had again to reappear and bow their acknowledgements. Huge bouquets were passed up to the women of the cast, with such prodigality that they could not carry them all. Two jokes not down in the comedy lines were the princess asking if her crown was on straight, at the finale, and the appearance of George O. Stevens handing the crown in as if it were a ton of coal. These things afforded amusement to many who, from recent Casino remembrances, evidently thought that Minstrel George was up to his old gags.

[An additional criticism of the performance appears on Page 8.]

"HEY, BILL!"

But Bill Refused to Get Up, and This Made the Yeller Mad.

A few evenings ago the residents living in the vicinity of Duer and Emily streets were awakened from sound sleep by some individual, evidently inebriated, standing in front of a house and yelling in vociferous tones "Hey. Bill!" in his endeavor to awaken the occupants and gain admittance to the domicile. But the occupants either slept sounder than their neighbors, or else did not care to admit the man.

The longer he yelled, the madder he got, until his talk finally terminated in profanity, at which several ghost-like apparitions appeared at windows to see what occasioned the rumpus.

The yeller yelled a half hour till he was hoarse, and then went away yelling. Then people in that section went to sleep.

The Most Beautiful Woman, in Town.

Sixty artists are to appear in Music Hall tonight, in "1492", and among them are the most beautiful, young and shapely females that have ever been gathered together in one aggregation. Special notice is drawn to the fact that the greatest living toe dancer, "Fleurette", will positively appear at the performance; also Mark Smith, Will H. Sloane, Rose Snow, George Paxton, W. T. Carleton, Hugo Grueber, Pusey and Readway, Willie Torpey, Miss Yolande Wallace, conceded by competent critics to be the most beautiful woman ornamenting the American stage, Carrie Behr, Gertrude Rutledge, Mae Osborne, Daisy Thompson, and Alma Russell.

Odd Ladies Tonight.

An entertainment and sociable will be given in Red Men's Hall this evening by the Odd Ladies.

CITY NURSE CONTINUED

Practical Charity of Local King's Daughters.

CITY UNION'S ANNUAL SESSION.

Silver Cross Followers Renew Their Work of Administering to the Sick, and Elect Officers for Another Busy Year.

The City Union of King's Daughters held their annual meeting in the Y.M. C. A. Building yesterday afternoon, and besides hearing reports of the work accomplished during the year just closed, elected new officers for the ensuing twelve months. The meeting was presided over by the chairman, Mrs. A. Walter Haviland. Delegates from nearly all the circles were present. After a short religious service, Miss Anna E. Leggett, corresponding secretary, read her annual report, the substance of which was as follows:

The special work of the Union has been the support of the city nurse. The circles have supplied the nurse with articles necessary for those whom she has had to care for. The nurse has made 288 visits during the year. Money has been sent to the Boards of Foreign and Home Missionary meetings. Money has been sent to help the daughter of a western missionary, two Indian girls at Boston and two colored boys. A number of charitable institutions all through the country have been helped. In the city 25 families have been cared for. About 400 garments have been made and distributed by the circles. There are 17 circles in the Union, with 200 members.

Miss A. L. Pollock, recording secretary, reported that after thorough discussion the Board of Managers and executive committee had decided that during the Summer months the services of the nurse be dispensed with, the sickness being mostly confined to children whose parents could take care of them

The treasurer's report showed that $1,215.39 had been raised during the year, of which $443.85 was for the nurse fund Of this fund there was left a balance of $251.60 on hand. The amount expended in charity outside of the nurse fund was $771 54. After the reports had been made, plans for the ensuing year were discussed but nothing definite decided on, except to employ a city nurse again for the coming year. It was suggested that arrangements be made to employ one of the class of trained nurses of Muhlenberg Hospital, but this was left for a later meeting to decide.

Thanks were extended to the Y. M. C. A. for the use of their rooms, and also to the Nurse Committee for their effective work

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Walter Gienney; vice president, Mrs. W. W. Howland; recording secretary, Miss Louise Green; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Walter McGee; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Harder.

SONG AND RECITATION.

Pleasant Event Among the German Reformed Endeavorers.

A large number attended the sociable given by the Christian Endeavor society in the German Reformed Church last night, and enjoyed the rendition of the following programme: Organ solo, "Twilight Shadows", Miss H. N. Krietling; recitation, "Grandma's First Beau", Miss S. Happy; recitation, "Countryman and the lawyer", Miss Lida Pangborn; organ solo, Miss Sadie Blimm; dialogue, "Only a working-girl", in three scenes; recitation, "The Favorite", Frank Splann; song, "Come Home to Father", Misses Anna and Eva Doeringer, and Florence Conroy; recitation, "The Daffodils", Miss L. Zeisz; recitation, "Kitty keeping house", Charles Doeringer; autoharp selection, Miss H. M. Kreitling.

After the programme, refreshments were served, and games enjoyed.

The committee having charge of the affair were: Miss H. M. Krietling, Miss Anna Doeringer, John Utzinger; Social, Miss Mary Mowinkle, Miss Minnie Bechel, Fred G. Bach.

Redeemer Church Guild Tea.

The Guild of the Church of the Redeemer will hold a tea and cake sale at the residence of Mrs. B. A. Hegeman, Jr., 21 Myrtle avenue, tomorrow afternoon from 4:30 to 7. 25 cents will be received at the door. All will be cordially welcome.

Christian Women and Men.

The Y. M. C. A. and the W. C. T. U. will combine in a meeting Sunday afternoon at 4:15, in the Association Hall. Rev. Henry T. Pearson and wife will conduct the services.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE COMING

So Say These Advocates of the Movement.

NOTABLE PLAINFIELD GATHERING.

From All Over the State, and from Other Sections, Thoughtful Men and Women Here Assemble—Talking Over Plans and Prospects.

The State convention of the New Jersey Woman's Suffrage Association was begun in the lecture room of the Y. M. C. A. at 10:30 this morning. About 100 were present, among them being the following from out of town: Mrs. DeWitt of Belleville; Miss M. L. Waters of Newark; Dr. M. D. Hussey of East Orange; Mrs. Collidge of Newark; Mrs. Sexton of Orange; Mrs. Mrs. C. I. Jones, Belleville.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. David P. Hall, who made the address of welcome as president of the State Association. She immediately went into the merits of woman s right to vote. She said that if the remonstrants against Woman Suffrage had lived in the time of our Revolution, and had exerted the eloquence and remarkable powers of logical argument, no doubt Adams, Hancock and Washington would have learned that they were naughty boys, and given up the war and went quietly home. Taxation without representation is all right it seems, and what is more, our remonstrant friends tell us that right doesn't amount to much anyhow.

The New Jersey Woman's Suffrage Association, she said, was organized in Orange in 1 80. For two years it did little except to send delegates to the National conventions, and contribute dues. But since then it has been more active, and has sent out thousands of leaflets and pamphlets to all parts of the State. It has members in eight counties.

Mrs. Hall said that in 22 States in this country woman's suffrage was in vogue. In this State it is hoped, she concluded, that full school suffrage would be extended to the women by June 1

Aaron M. Powell said that he had waited 15 years for this meeting in Plainfield, and therefore was especially pleased to be there. He asked: "Is a woman a party to the laws." Laws have been and are made for women. But they have been and are made by men. Property belonging to women is regularly taxed, but without the consent of the owners. This is the worst kind of taxation without representation.

Mr. Powell concluded by saying that he considered the extension of equal suffrage but a few years distant.

Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis talked on school suffrage for women. He said no man has a right to touch government without being fit to do it. The public schools demand the highest thoughts and efforts, for there is the safeguard of the country. Even in the country few men take but little interest in schools. The school franchise needs to be accepted by women, not given to them—he hated that word "given". Women ought to welcome the responsibility of suffrage, for their own sake and for their children's sake.

Dr. Rodman said that he was under the impression that the suffrage movement was going on to consummation.

Dr. Mary D. Hussey, corresponding secretary of the association, spoke of the work of the State Association. In her labor she had found a great many individuals whose efforts in the cause were wasted because there was no organization.

Mrs. DeWitt, president of the Essex County Association, welcomed the Union County organization.

At 1 recess was taken, and lunch served, and at 2 the convention resumed and listened to an address by Rev. Antoinette Blackwell of Elizabeth. After this the county organization was formed, and several brief addresses were made.

That Dead-and-Alive Board.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of the Board of Trade was called for last night, but was not held on account of the lack of a quorum. The Board is likely to quit its quarters July 1 and quit business. It never did any business for the town.

A Floral Bower.

The tastefully arranged flower beds in the rear of the Park Clubhouse on Washington avenue make a very pretty scene, and display great care on the part of Steward Jones.

Taking Their Time to Choose.

Gazelle Engine Company has not yet recommended any member to represent them on the Board of Visitors of the Firemen's Relief Association.

THE CRAIG WILL CASE.

Three Lines Hastily Written on a Half-Sheet, Declared to Be a Legal Testament—The Most Peculiar Will Case Since That of Job Male.

The Orphans Court yesterday decided the famous Craig will case, by sustaining the will and dismissing the appeal. The peculiar features of the case that have drawn to it so much attention, were that in the three lines hastily written on a half-sheet of note paper, the testatrix did not call it her will; did not in any way declare that it was to take effect after her death, or as a testamentary disposition of her property; there was no attestation clause; the paper was signed when Mrs. Craig was dying.

For days and weeks before the paper was executed, Mrs. Craig suffered so intensely from sciatica that she was kept almost constantly under the influence of morphine, by order of her physician; and she had already made her will giving all her property to her favorite nephew, John Young, who was cut off entirely by the paper in question. Besides this, Mr. Young claimed that he and Mrs. Craighead agreed to make mutual wills, each willing everything to the other, and this contract could not be broken by either. He also produced both wills which he swore had been executed in accordance with the agreement. The day after the paper was executed, and while Mrs. Craighead was still living it was submitted by Mr Turton to a lawyer who advised that he apply to Craig A. Marsh for his legal opinion as to whether it would stand law and could be proved as a will. Upon being informed as to what took place when Mrs. Craig signed the paper and that she was not then under the influence of the morphine to such an extent as to cloud her intellect, Mr. Marsh gave a written opinion that it was a good will and could be proved as such R V. Lindabury, Esq, was retained by Mr. Young; and Mr. Marsh was retained by Mr. and Mrs. Turton. Then ensued just such a legal battle as is always to be expected when these two lawyers are pitted against each other.

Mr. Lindabury personally conducted for his client all the hearings at which testimony was taken, and Mr. Brunson of his office read a brief and made oral arguments. The Court held the paper to be a valid will and to have been properly proved. This gives all the property to Mr. Marsh's clients, Morgan Turton and wife of this city.

Entre Nous Whist Club's Final.

Mr. and Mrs. Will F. Williams of West Fouth street entertained the Entre Nous Whist Club last evening in its closing game for this season.

In its honor, Mother Nature was brought into use, and her blossoms in all their glory, displaying Spring's flowers, were used in the decoration of the card rooms.

The usual three tables were started, and at the close of the playing it was found that among the excellent high scores made, Mrs. W. A. Coddington and Fred S. Cutter had secured first prizes. Among the three of the gentler sex who tied for second prize, Mrs. Waldorf was successful; and secured among the men, as partner, her husband.

After refreshments had been served, sociability was resumed during which Mrs. Waldorf gave one of her delightful recitations, and Miss Mabelle Force rendered piano solos.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Cutter, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong Mulford, Mr. and Mrs. Waldorf, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Clintock, Judge and Mrs. W. A. Coddington, Mrs Scribner of Oil City, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Will F. Williams.

Most Eloquent, to Be Here.

Bishop Newman in speaking of Dr. Robert R. Doherty, who is to make the Epworth League anniversary address in the First Methodist Church Sunday evening, said: "He is the most eloquent layman of the Methodist denomination".

Dr. Doherty is widely known in Methodism as a speaker of unusual charm. His thought is fresh and original, his style vividly picturesque, and his manner remarkably easy and engaging. Few laymen are in such constant demand for platform addresses, and none is more uniformly acceptable. Plainfielders are fortunate in having the opportunity to listen to this speaker.

Died at His Post.

Isaac Miller, engineer of the way freight on the Jersey Central, dropped dead this morning at his throttle one mile this side of Phillipsburg. Mr. Miller was well known among the railroad men of this city, and at the North Avenue station many expressions of regret are heard. He resided at Phillipsburg.

OUR BIRTHDAY GIFT.

The Daily Press Appears in a New Dress.

HANDSOME AND UP TO DATE.

The Suit that Has Done Honorable Service Eight Years, Laid Aside for the Clean-Cut and Elegant Costume Which Now Adorns Its Pages.

A newspaper is like a woman—it gets to a point where it has "nothing to wear", and must have a new dress.

For eight years The Daily Press has been appearing every afternoon on the streets and in the homes of Plainfield, and all that time has worn the same suit. It has been a serviceable and comfortable suit; but today on its birthday anniversary The Press is proud to present itself with a brand-new dress.

Again like a woman, the paper may be pardoned for pausing to admire its own attractiveness.

It is a nice dress: isn't it? Clean-cut, handsome, stylish, and up to date. Every bit of the old metal has been cast aside, and every individual piece of type and rule and border that today prints Plainfield's favorite newspaper, is spick and span from the foundry

Twenty eight years ago, when the office of Force Bros. was first stocked with printing material, the old established and reliable house of James Connor, type founder, supplied the goods; and ever since The Constitutionalist and The Press have dealt with that establishment. James Conner has passed to his reward, but his sons and their partners have succeeded him and today Conner, Fendler & Co. of 16 20 Chambers street New York are leaders among the trade. So great confidence has The Press in this house, that it intrusted them entirely with the important work of supplying the immense amount of type and other material selected by The Press for its new dress. The orders have been quickly and faithfully executed, and today The Press is enabled to appear in a new birthday suit that makes by easily the handsomest paper in New Jersey.

The suit cost a pretty penny, and The Press extends its gratitude to the public for the patronage accorded its worth. Today The Press is better equipped than ever before to present the news of society, town and market, in the most attractive shape.

Great and especial care was exercised in the choice of a type for the local news columns. The body of this type (such as this article is set in) is brevier, the same as before, but the face is larger and clearer. It is the best to be had, suitable for all eyes, easy to read, and bound to wear well. The advertising type also has been chosen at much pains and expense, with a view to enable the progressive and successful merchants of the town, all of whom reach the public through The Press, to present their advertisements in the most showy, substantial and effective way.

The Press aims to continue its service of presenting to the Plainfield public the news of the day in the most attractive and artistic style. It is preeminently a local newspaper for Plainfield people, and The Press carrier service is available for every Plainfield home at the nominal price of ten cents a week.

Now, honestly, is n't The Press a beauty, and worthy of its title of Town and Home Favorite?

$450 FOR DODD.

Verdict Against Postmaster Hetfield—Appeal Taken.

The jury in the suit of Charles W. Dodd against J. M. Hetfield returned to Court at 4:30 yesterday afternoon and gave a verdict for $450 for Mr. Dodd. The fact was immediately bulletined on The Daily Press board in front of the office on North avenue. Notice of appeal has been filed.

Baseball Coming Slow.

The Y. M. C. A. athletes will practice baseball on the Crescent Oval grounds tomorrow afternoon. The South Amboy team are anxious to arrange a game with them.

Plainfield's Purest.

Workmen from the Water Supply Company commenced this morning to trench Craig place, from Grove to Duer streets, for the laying of mains.

Working for the City Fund.

In the last few days Justice Nash has made several arrests of poll tax delinquents, all of whom made arrangements to settle.

An Equine Monopoly.

William Hand & Son used 22 horses in their business today.

Chronicles of Martin Hewitt

BY ARTHUR MORRISON.

THE CASE OF LAKER, ABSCONDED

(Continued from yesterday.)

The torn scrap read as follows:

oast. You 1st. Then to- 3rd L. No: 197 red bl ime.

"Never mind—I'll send for them all." Hewitt rang and sent for a copy of each morning paper of the previous day. Then he took from a large wardrobe cupboard a decent but well-worn and rather roughened tall hat. Also a coat a little worn and shiny on the collar. He exchanged these for his own hat and coat, and then substituted an old necktie for his own clean white one, and incased his legs in mud-spotted leggings. This done, he produced a very large and thick pocketbook, fastened by a broad, elastic band, and said, "Well, what do you think of this? Will it do for Queen's taxes, or Sanitary Inspector or the gas or the water supply?"

"Very well indeed, I should say," I replied. "What's the case?"

"Oh, I'll tell you all about it when it's over. Oh, here you are, Kerrett. By the bye Kerrett, I'm going out presently by the back way. Wait for about ten minutes or a quarter of an hour after I have gone and then just go across the road and speak to that lady in black with the veil, who is waiting in that little foot passage opposite. Say Mr. Martin Hewitt sends his compliments and he advises her not to wait, as he has already left his office by another door, and has been gone some little time. That's all; it would be a pity to keep the poor woman waiting all day for nothing. Now the papers. Daily News, Standard, Telegraph, Chronicle—yes, here it is—in the Chronicle."

The whole advertisement read thus:

YOB—H. R. shop roast. You 1st. Then to-night. O 2. Second top. 3rd L. No. 197 red bl straight mon. One time.

"What's this," I asked, "a cryptogram?"

"I'll see," Hewitt answered. "But I won't tell you anything about it till afterward, so you get your lunch, Kerrett, bring the Directory."

This was all I actually saw of this case myself, and I have written the rest in its proper order from Hewitt's information, as I have written some other cases entirely.

To resume at the point where, for the time, I lost sight of the matter. Hewitt left by the back way, and stopped an empty cab as it passed. "Abney Park Cemetery" was his directions to the driver. In little more than twenty minutes the cab was branching off down the Essex road, on its way to Stoke Newington, and in twenty minutes more Hewitt stopped it in Church street, Stoke Newington. He walked through a street or two, and then down another, the houses of which he scanned carefully as he passed. Opposite one which stood by itself he stopped, and, making a pretense of consulting and arranging his large pocketbook, he took a good look at the house. It was rather larger, neater and more pretentious than the others in the street, and it had a natty little coach house just visible up the side entrance. There were red blinds hung with heavy lace in the front windows, and behind one of these blinds Hewitt was able to catch the glint of a heavy gas chandelier.

"GO ACROSS THE ROAD AND SPEAK TO THAT LADY."

He stepped briskly up the front steps and knocked sharply at the door. "Mr. Merston?" he asked, pocketbook in hand, when a neat parlor maid opened the door.

"Yes."

"Ah"—Hewitt stepped into the hall and pulled off his hat—"It's only the meter. There's been a deal of gas running away somewhere here, and I'm just looking to see if the meters are right. Where is it?"

The girl hesitated. "I'll—I'll ask master," she said.

"Very well. I don't want to take it away, you know—only to give it a tap or two and so on."

Hewitt followed the girl to the basement, apparently looking straight before him, but in reality taking in every detail of the place. The gas meter was in a very large lumber cupboard, under the kitchen stairs. The girl opened the door and lit the candle. The meter stood on the floor, which was littered with hampers and boxes and odd sheets of brown paper. But a thing that at once arrested Hewitt's attention was a garment of some sort of bright blue cloth, with large brass buttons, which was lying in a tumbled heap in a corner, and appeared to be the only thing in the place that was not covered with dust. Nevertheless Hewitt took no apparent notice of it, but stooped down and solemnly tapped the meter three times with his pencil, and listened with great gravity, placing his ear on the top. Then he shook his head and tapped again. At length he said: "It's a bit doubtful. I'll just get you to light the gas in the kitchen a moment. Keep your hand to the burner, and when I call out shut it off at once—see?"

The girl turned and entered the kitchen, and Hewitt immediately seized the blue coat—for a coat it was. It had a dull red piping in the seams and was of the swallow-tail pattern—a livery coat, in fact. He held it a moment before him, examining its pattern and color, and then rolled it up and flung it again into the corner.

"Right!" he called to the servant. "Shut off!"

The girl emerged from the kitchen as he left the cupboard. "Well," she asked, "are you satisfied now?"

"Quite satisfied, thank you," Hewitt replied.

"Is it all right?" she continued, jerking her hand toward the cupboard.

"Well, no, it isn't; there's something wrong there, and I'm glad I came. You can tell Mr. Merston, if you like, that I expect his gas bill will be a good deal less next quarter." And there was a suspicion of chuckle in Hewitt's voice as he crossed the hall to leave. For a gas inspector is pleased when he finds at length what he has been searching for.

Things had fallen out better than Hewitt had dared to expect. He saw the key of the whole mystery in that blue coat; for it was the uniform coat of the hall porters at one of the banks that he had visited in the morning though which one he could not for the moment remember. He entered the nearest postoffice and dispatched a telegram to Plummer; then he hailed the first available cab and hurried toward the city.

At Lombard street he alighted and looked in at the door of each bank till he came to Buller, Clayton, Ladds & Co.'s. This was the bank he wanted. In the other banks the hall porters wore mulberry coats, brick-dust coats, brown coats and what not, but here, behind the ladders and scaffold poles which obscured the entrance, he could see a man in a blue coat with dull red piping and brass buttons. He sprang up the steps, pushed open the inner spring door and finally satisfied himself by a closer view of the coat, to the wearer's astonishment. Then he regained the pavement and walked the whole length of the bank premises in front, afterward turning up the paved passage at the side, deep in thought. The bank had no windows or doors on the side next the court, and the two adjoining houses were old and supported in places by wooden shores. Both were empty, and a great board announced that tenders would be received for the purchase of the old materials of which they were constructed in a month's time; also that some part of the site would be let on a long building lease.

Hewitt looked up at the grimy fronts of the old buildings. The windows were crusted thick with dirt, all except the bottom window of the house nearer the bank, which was fairly clean and seemed to have been quite lately washed. The door, too, of this house was cleaner than that of the other.

HEWITT IMMEDIATELY SEIZED THE BLUE COAT.

though the paint was worn. Hewitt reached and fingered a hook driven into the left-hand door post about six feet from the ground. It was new and not at all rusted; also, a tiny splinter had been displaced when the hook was driven in, and clean wood showed at the spot.

Having observed these things, Hewitt stepped back and read at the bottom of the big board the name "Winsor & Weekes, Surveyors and Auctioneers, Abchurch Lane." Then he stepped into Lombard street.

Two hansoms pulled up near the postoffice, and out of the first stepped Inspector Plummer and another man. This man and the two who alighted from the second hansom were unmistakeably plain-clothes constables—their air, gait and boots proclaimed it. "What's all this?" demanded Plummer as Hewitt approached.

"You'll soon see, I think. But first have you put the watch on No. 197 Hackworth road?"

"Yes. Nobody will get away from there alone."

"Very good. I'm going into Abchurch lane for a few minutes. Leave your men out here, but just go round into the court by Buller, Clayton & Ladd's, and keep your eye on the first door on the left. I think we'll find something soon. Did you get rid of Miss Shaw?"

"No; she's behind now, and Mrs Laker's with her. They met in the Strand, and came after us in another cab. Rare fun, eh? They think we're pretty green. It's quite handy, too. So long as they keep behind me it saves all trouble watching them!" And Inspector Plummer chuckled and winked.

"Very good. You don't mind keeping your eye on that door, do you? I'll be back very soon." And with that Hewitt turned off into Abchurch lane.

(To be continued.)

The Mills of the Gods.

The aged mendicant crept trembling into the office of the successful young lawyer. "Only a few pennies, sir," he said.

The young man gazed at him keenly. "Is not this William Wilwats?" he asked.

The aged mendicant admitted that such was the case.

"Then listen, William Wilwats," said the young man, his voice trembling with suppressed satisfaction. "Twenty years ago, when you were a prosperous merchant, you met a little barefoot boy in the high road and called him 'pub.' That is an insult no boy ever forgives. My time for revenge has come at last. You don't get a cent. Get out."—Indianapolis Journal.

"My task in life," said the pastor of one of our churches, complacently, "consists in saving young men."

Whereupon one of our fair maidens, with a soulful longing, replied:

"Save a good one for me."—Troy Chief.

DOES CRIME PAY?

OLIVER CURTIS PERRY SENTENCED FOR 50 YEARS SAYS "NO."

There is No Glamor or Romance in It, Perry is the Most Notorious Criminal of the Day, and if There is Satisfaction in Vice He Should Know It.

The story of the recapture of the desperate jail breaker, Oliver Curtis Perry, is an intensely moral narrative. That is to say, it presents in most vivid colors the awful risks and the crushing penalties that attend men who set out to defy society. We have so many imaginative stories in which vice wears the glamour of heroism that this plain but harrowing statement of a hunted man may well be put before the youth of the country as the most effective bit of realism, to teach the one important lesson so often left out of tales of romantic crime—namely, that crime does not pay.

Perry is worthy of close observation, for there is no more remarkable criminal in the jails of this wide land. In February, 1894, he captured single handed, an express train on the New York Central Railroad, defended by armed men. He began the attack while suspended from the roof of a car moving at the rate of 50 miles an hour.

For this and a series of other crimes he received sentences of imprisonment amounting to nearly fifty years. He was eventually sent to the Matteawan Lunatic Asylum from which he escaped. After his last capture, he said:

"I have learned that in the present state of society train robbing is not a paying business. I have speculated in crime and found out that it does not pay.

"If I had a new chance at life I would do very different. I meant if I was not captured to make a new man of myself. What freedom I had I used honestly—I did not steal: I did not burglarize. I had no food, no shelter; I was barefoot and almost destitude of clothing; I was racked with rheumatism, which the exposure made worse, and tramping over the stones through the Fishkill mountains my feet were cut and sore, and when I stumbled and fell my body was bruised and my hands scratched.

OLIVER CURTIS PERRY.

"The only thing I tried to steal was a ride on a freight train. But when I tried to reach up to catch on my arm was so cramped with rheumatism I could not lift it high enough. I fell backward and my foot was caught in the truck of the car and pinched. I was so hungry that I ate some raw potatoes I found on my way, and then a few handfuls of corn such as they feed to the chickens. I ate even the potato peelings, and the corn I chewed fine and ate with much relish."

Perry had all the elements of a dime novel hero. He was daring in conceptions, fertile in expedients, patient in execution, desperate in extremity. He used his brains as well as his muscles to escape. But once outside the Matteawan State Asylum the whole world took to hunting him, and there was not a spot where he could lie safely down and get the assured rest that came to him in his cell. He fled hither and thither, footsore and empty, suspicious of all human beings, and was run down at last crushed in spirit and broken in body.

Crime and jail breaking, when told as this narrative tells them, are not apt to stimulate the young imagination to a point of imitation.

The nervy Perry rounds up his career as a hunted dog, almost glad to get back to his cell where he can throw himself down with the safe assurance that he can rest from pursuit.

PRINCE OF WALES CLOTHES.

Cost of the Various Items of His Wearing Apparel.

Some curious details have been published here regarding the wardrobe of the Prince of Wales. It appears that he possesses seventy uniforms, at an average cost of £150 ($750). It is added that he pays 12 guineas ($62.50) for a frock coat; 15 guineas (about $78) for a dress suit; for trousers he pays 4 guineas ($21); his ordinary trousers and coat and vest 8 to 10 guineas, ($42 to $52.50). During the London season the Prince wears two new frock coats a month, and he uses about a dozen dress suits annually. He has an immense number of ordinary suits of clothes, and never wears one more than two or three times. In addition his shooting suits cost 300 guineas ($1,575) a year. The Prince has three silk hats every fortnight, and never wears a pair of gloves twice. In shoes he is the best dressed man in the United Kingdom.

Spring's True Herald.

It isn't the leaf that has burst on the tree
Which tells us of spring and its glory:
It isn't the zephyr which speeds o'er the lea
Which convincingly whispers the story.

Nor yet the new bonnet, nor the sonnet upon it,
Nor song birds whose fresh notes are straying,
But the frolicsome hoot of the merry galoot
Who roots where the ball game is playing.

BAMBERGER'S.

"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE."

147-149 Market Street, Newark,

Ladies' Shirt Waists.
Ladies' Silk Waists.

The waist has come to stay! It's practical and comfortable. More ladies are using them than ever before. Our showing is by far the largest and best in Newark and few houses in America surpass it; as to the values

They are Peerless and Unmatchable!

LADIES' SHIRT WAISTS of cambrics, lawns, percales and chambrays, hundreds of designs, all the best colors with or without laundered collars and cuffs, perfect fit and finish, from ..... 49c TO $2.98.

LADIES' SILK WAISTS China, Japanese, taffeta, faille and other desirable silks, plain and fancy, all colors, full sleeves, newest styles, from ..... $1.98 TO $12.49.

Your order by mail will receive the most careful attention. Free delivery everywhere.

L. BAMBERGER & CO.

147-149 Market Street, Newark.

John Mullins,

218 and 220 Market st., Newark, N. J.

EVERYTHING NECESSARY FOR HOUSEKEEPING.

Cash or Credit. Liberal Terms to Everybody.

Special Offerings in New Parlor Suits.

$20 for this beautiful Parlor Suit, upholstered in Silk Brocatelle, really worth $40. $20

Bargains in New Spring Carpets.

For the next ten days we will offer big bargains in Carpets, Rugs, Linoleum, Oil-Cloth and Matting.

Moquettes $1 per Yard,
Tapestry Brussels 55c per Yard.
Ingrains 30c per Yard.

Cash or credit. Open Monday evenings until 8. Saturdays till 10.

JOHN MULLINS,

218 and 220 Market Street, - Newark, N. J.

BRANCH STORES—121 to 125 Newark ave., Jersey City, N. J.; 136 and 138 Main st., Paterson, N. J.; 78 to 84 Myrtle ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

WE ARE READY

With large and beautiful line of Spring and Summer styles. Hats and Men's furnishings, mens and boys' Derby or Alpine hats, black, brown and tan, $1 00 to $3 00. Fancy negligee shirts, collars attached or detached, 35c. to $2 00. 1,000 scarfs four-in-hand and made up, from 10c. to 75c., all new fresh goods. Special colored laundered shirts, 2 collars, only 35c. worth 75c. No trouble to show our goods. Money refunded if you want it.

U. B. CRANE, Hatter and Furnisher.

120 West Front Street.

A Spring Gown

is a subject for thought. Haven't you some of last season's dresses that can be made useful? They may need cleaning, or perhaps dyeing—either we do perfectly, and it costs only two dollars or two dollars and a half.

Hillier & Co.

175 NORTH AVENUE

Hotels and Saloons.

Mizzen Peak Cottage,

Watchung Mountains,
Bound Brook, N. J.

Superior French board at moderate prices. Dinner to order. Table d'Hote 75c with ½ bottle of Mizzen Peak claret.

BOWLING ALLEY.

JEUX DE TONNEAU.

Beautiful view, fine shady grounds, sheds, stables, etc.

REVERE HOUSE

Park Avenue,
7th and 8th Sts.

GEO. B. DE REVERE & CO.

Thoroughly renovated and now open for transient and permanent guests.

Madison Avenue Hotel,

Madison Ave. and 58th st., New York

$3 PER DAY AND UP.

American Plan.

Fireproof and first-class in every particular. Two blocks from the Third and Sixth avenue elevated railroads. The Madison and Fourth Avenue and Belt Line cars pass the door.

H. M. Clark, Prop.

Passenger elevator runs all night.

HOTEL Grenada,

NORTH AVENUE.

Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.

CITY HOTEL,

Plainfield, N. J.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.

Stables attached. J. E. Beerbower, Prop.

The Finderne

FINDERNE,

Somerset County, N. J.

Open all the year as a resort of the highest order. Driving parties will receive every attention.

High-Class Sunday Dinners.

(Table d'Hote from 1 to 3:30); steam heat; inclosed piazzas; everything immaculate. When out driving let us entertain you.

A. E. WHITE, Manager,
Finderne, N. J.

L. PAOLI & CO.,

Fruits, Confectionery, Temperance Drinks, Cigars, &c.

128 NORTH AVENUE,

Fresh roasted peanuts every day, 10c a qt. I take this method of informing my friends and the public in general that I am again in business at the old stand. I solicit your patronage. Store will close at sundown on Friday and open at sundown on Saturday.

MOSLER SAFE CO.,

contractors to the United States Government.

Mosler Patent Safes

(fire and burglar proof) in general use all over the world. Lowest prices. Drop a postal to

S. W CLARK,

General Agent, 118 West 5th st. Plainfield, N. J., and he will call and give special attention and information. Large assortment of second-hand safes in first-class condition at low prices.

Bar-Lock

Visible Writing

TYPE WRITER.

Writes every letter in sight of operator. Does most of the work, in writing automatically, and yields in the time thus saved additional work.

It acts as if it studied the convenience of the operator at every turn, and thereby lightens his labor and renders him capable of doing more.

It has a knack of keeping well, and is always ready at critical or other times.

These are some of the reasons why it is different from all other writing machines.

The catalogue tells you more about it. Free.

Columbia Typewriter Manufacturing Co.,

307 Broadway, New York.

THE Bee Hive

"KIDS"

Ladies' 4 button kid gloves in tans and slates 65c.
Foster hook kid gloves in all the new shades the 98c quality, 75c.
Children's kid gloves, a good glove 69c.
Men's kid gloves, every pair warranted, $1.

Men's Cambric Shirts.

Men's cambric shirts, laundried, collar and cuffs attached, 50c.
Men's laundered shirts, white body and fancy bosom, 48c.
Men's laundered shirts, white body and colored bosom and cuffs, 65c.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st.

Short Vacations

For busy people by the beautiful new steamships of the

Old Dominion Line,

To Old Point Comfort

[Hygeia Hotel]

Or Virginia Beach, Va.

[Princess Anne Hotel] may be made for

$16 Old Point Comfort, $16 Virginia Beach, $17 $17

Including every expense

of meals and berths en route, and a day and a quarter's board at the hotels.

These trips are ideal, as a considerable portion is made through the quiet waters of the famous Hampton Roads and there is little likelihood of seasickness.

Also tickets on sale with privilege of going or returning by rail.

Write for particulars of these and other delightful trips to

Old Dominion SS. Co.,

Pier 26, North River, New York.
W. L. Guillaudeu, Vice Pres. and Traffic Maaager. 11 26 6m

A. Lusardi,

120 North Ave.,

will be pleasd to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

James E. Baily, 97 Jackson ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Trucking of all Kinds Done.

Two and four-horse vans and trucks. Particular attention given to moving furniture and pianos.
Satisfaction guaranteed.

Carpenters and Builders.

UTZINGER & KLINE,

Carpenters and Builders.

Jobbing promptly attended to.
V. Utzinger, 75 Grandview ave. L. C. Kline, 54 Jackson ave.

JOHN P. EMMONS,

Mason and Builder,

Washington avenue and Prospect place,

North Plainfield, N. J.
Jobbing promptly attended to.

THEODORE GRAY,

Mason and Contractor.

Estimates given, repairing promptly attended to. Residence 117 Hillside avenue.

PEARSON & GAYLE,

Carpenters and Builders.

Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.

All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,

Carpenter and Builder.

985 Arlington avenue.
Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

R. H. McCullough, Prop.
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

C. W. LINES & CO.,

Masons and Builders,

Plainfield, N. J.

Residence, 18 Elm place.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Jobbing promptly attended to

SEE WHAT $1.00 Will do at the

Plainfield Tea and Grocery Co

106 East Front st. H. S. Williams, Man'r.

All Goods Warranted as Represented.

1 pound Special Mixed Tea	50c
1 pound coffee	32c
Quarter pound pepper	10c
1 can corn	10c
1 can tomatoes	10c
1 can pease	10c
1 can milk	10c
1 paper corn starch	10c
1 paper cocoanut	10c
	$1.52

Cut Out This Coupon

and bring it and $1 to our store and get all the above articles for $1 cash!

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of

FRESH AND SALTED MEATS.

Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

L. A. HUMMER. L. B. MULFORD.

Hummer & Mulford,

VARIETY MARKET.

Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.
220 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

Smalley's CASH MARKET.

(Estate D. I. Smalley.)

94 Somerset, Corner Race Street.

George Egel, Manager.

We sell only first-class goods at low prices for cash. Orders called for and delivered.

The Buying Population

in and around Plainfield are awake to the great values we are offering. We never have any trouble selling to those who have visited other stores before calling on us. We not only attract trade—we keep it. We invite comparison.

POINTERS.

Men's Clay Diagonal Suits in Regent frock at $10.50; Men's All-wool Suits in long sack, single or double breasted $3.75, $7.50 and $9.50. Running water is never stale. Our stock is like a river—always moving.

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

M. Powers & Son. Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.
A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

William Hand & Son,

518 Park avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Moving Vans,

CLIMAX STOPPER CO.,

Machine Works,

Corner Washington and 4th sts., manufacturers of bicycle specialties. Electric and special machinery, experimental work, tools etc. Contractors for electric light wiring, telephones, burglar alarms, etc.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE IS THE BEST FIT FOR A KING.

$5. CORDOVAN, FRENCH & ENAMELLED CALF

$4. $3.50 FINE CALF & KANGAROO

$3. $2.50 $2. W. L. DOUGLAS EXTRA FINE

$2. $1.75 BOYS' SCHOOL SHOES

LADIES $3. $2.50 $2. $1.75 BEST DONGOLA.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE. W. L. DOUGLAS BROCKTON, MASS.

Over One Million People wear the W. L. Douglas $3 & $4 Shoe.

All our shoes are equally satisfactory. They give the best value for the money. They equal custom shoes in style and fit. Their wearing qualities are unsurpassed. The prices are uniform—stamped on sole. From $1 to $3 saved over other makes.

A. Willett & Son.

TRUSTING WOMEN.

THEIR CONFIDENCE OFTEN LEADS TO SUFFERING.

An Ohio Woman's Experience, as Here Related, is Interesting to Every American Woman.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

It is a very sad fact that the more a woman trusts to the skill of her physician in treating her female complaints, the longer she is apt to suffer.

Lydia E. Pinkham fully realized this fact when she commenced that exhaustive study that has enabled the women of the world to help themselves. She discovered the source of female complaints, and produced the Vegetable Compound, which is their absolute cure.

When such testimony as the following is given, the woman who thinks should act quickly, and no longer permit herself to trust to incompetent doctors. The Vegetable Compound is sold by all druggists, and every woman should have it.

"The doctors had told me that unless I went to the hospital and had an operation performed I could not live. I had falling, enlargement, and ulceration of the womb.

"I was in constant misery all the time; my back ached; I was always tired. It was impossible for me to walk far or stand long at a time. I was surely a wreck. I decided that I would give your Compound and Sanative Wash a trial.

"I took three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and used two packages of Sanative Wash, and I am now almost well. I am stouter and healthier than I have ever been in my life. My friends and neighbors and the doctors are surprised at my rapid improvement. I have told them all what I have been taking."—MRS. ANNETTA BICKMEIER, Bellaire, Belmont Co., O.

SKILLED WORKMEN

Are even more essential in hanging paper than they are in the doing of many other things. We employ the best and most capable men in this department and guarantee the best possible results. Do not spoil the effect of pretty paper by improper hanging.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,

141 East Front Street.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON.

Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.

Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.
Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

H. Eggerding,

121 Park ave.,
Manufacturer of the Celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

FURNITURE

Moving.

Telephone 121. Office 161 North ave.
HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS.

TOWNSEND'S

Marble and Granite Works,

SOMERSET STREET.

Our motto—Good work, good material at fair prices.

YOUR Valuables will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock Boxes from $3.50 to $10 a Year.

Edwin B. Maynard,

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield.
Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a prompt answer and an honest opinion, write to MUNN & CO., who have had nearly fifty years' experience in the patent business. Communications strictly confidential. A Handbook of Information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and scientific books sent free.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the Scientific American, and thus are brought widely before the public without cost to the inventor. This splendid paper, issued weekly, elegantly illustrated, has by far the largest circulation of any scientific work in the world. $3 a year. Sample copies sent free.

Building Edition, monthly, $2.50 a year. Single copies, 25 cents. Every number contains beautiful plates, in colors, and photographs of new houses, with plans, enabling builders to show the latest designs and secure contracts. Address MUNN & CO., NEW YORK, 361 BROADWAY

A FAMOUS FORGERY.

WONDERFUL CRIMINAL ABILITY OF COL. MONROE EDWARDS.

His Operations So Great as Nearly to Cause a Panic in New York in 1841. The Late Richard Vaux Arrested Him and William M. Evarts Defended Him.

The arrest and trial of Col. Monroe Edwards were as remarkable in their way as the criminal acts which brought them about. The arrest was the result of detective work done by ex-Judge Loundes, a criminal lawyer of high standing in those days, who was employed by several merchants and bankers, while the fact that the forger was being sought was not known even to the police of any city. It is thought that if the police, and through them the public, had become aware of the extent of the forgeries Col. Edwards was successfully perpetrating, a commercial panic would have followed.

The actual arrest was made by the then Recorder, afterward Mayor, Richard Vaux, of Philadelphia. The trial in New York, before Judge William Kent, engaged the talent of a young lawyer named William M. Evarts, and of an already famous lawyer and member of Congress, Thomas Francis Marshall, of Kentucky, who shot and permanently lamed Col. James Watson Webb, editor of the Courier and Enquirer, in a duel growing out of the case.

It was in the fall of 1841 that several merchants and bankers of New York city found that heavy advances they had been making on supposed shipments of cotton from New Orleans were based on forged paper. As these advances required preliminary correspondence of a technical character, vouchers of shipments, bills of lading, insurance and other papers difficult to obtain and as the whole intricate commercial machinery of such transactions was supposed to be known only to the Southern houses engaged in the business, the firms victimized here were astounded nearly as much by the fact of the forgeries as by the vast sums they realized to the criminal. Three names were used in the antecedent business correspondence written by the forger, and as each of the supposed shippers had victimized several New York houses, receiving in one single transaction $50,000, the statement that something near a panic was created can be well understood not to be an exaggeration.

It was in this condition of affairs that the interested parties, determining, for the reason explained, not to call in the aid of the police or any detective agency, invited Judge Loundes to take charge of the affair and run down the forger.

Loundes had not the slightest clew to the identity of the criminal, for those who engaged him had no clew, not even the faintest suspicion. He set about first to learn, if possible, who other than the houses engaged in the cotton trade would have the necessary knowledge of the somewhat involved process whereby the shippers secured advances from banks and consignees on shipments of cotton. For weeks he visited all the places indicated by the post marks on the envelopes enclosing the correspondence preceding the forgeries, and even these were to find trials, in some instances, as was subsequently proved.

He at last learned that a Kentuckian, known as Col. Monroe Edwards, although not engaged in the cotton trade, had made a study of it, but he had no clew to his whereabouts.

After considerable search, Edwards was located at the house of Mrs. Phillips, a Philadelphia boarding house keeper. Recorder Vaux was enlisted in the search, and at once sent a request to Captain Young, the Chief of Police, for three or four officers, and they at once came, Captain Young being himself in charge.

The party went to the address given by the carrier, and, putting the officers around the house, the Recorder rang the bell, leaving Judge Loundes and Mr. Hart a little to one side of the door. A servant girl answered the bell.

"I want to see Col. Monroe Edwards," said the Recorder. "Is he in?"

She replied that he was, and Mr. Vaux immediately walked into the parlor. Between the parlor and back room was a door, and it was evident from the rattle of the knives and forks that those within the other apartment were at a meal. There was no one in the parlor, and the girl went through and said something.

A moment later a fine looking man entered the parlor. He was about 5 feet, 9 inches in height, admirably proportioned, with hair as black as a raven's wing, and dark eyes that shot a piercing glance from under dark eyebrows. He was dressed with scrupulous neatness, and wore a large amount of jewelry. He evidently paid a great deal of attention to his personal appearance. The Recorder approached him and said:

"Good evening, Col. Monroe Edwards. I believe you are Col. Monroe Edwards, if I recollect aright?"

"I am that person," was the reply, "and am very glad to see you."

The identity ascertained, the Recorder gave the preconcerted signal, and Judge Loundes, Mr. Hart, Captain Young and the police entered the room. Mr. Vaux directed Capt. Young to put the handcuffs on Edwards, which was done. The prisoner made no remark of any kind and said not a word.

The Recorder, having completed his duties in the affair, was about leaving the room, when a very agile, slim, light-colored mulatto boy of about 16 years, rushed at the official with a long knife in his hand and made a plunge at him with the weapon. The Recorder knocked his assailant down and took the knife from him. Two or three boarders came rushing into the room at that moment and the mulatto disappeared, and was never afterward seen in Philadelphia. It was afterward learned the mulatto was a woman who traveled with Edwards in male attire.

The Recorder, who had conducted his unusual duties with so much promptness and spirit, wisely determined to search the prisoner's room, but he had to threaten the landlady with arrest before she would even indicate which it was. The wisdom of this prompt action by the Recorder was demonstrated when it was found that the trunks in the room contained evidence upon which the conviction was obtained subsequently, and $500,000 which was returned to the New York victims of the forgeries. At first the searching party found nothing of importance in the room, but in looking closer a closet was discovered. It was not conspicuous and the door was double locked. The door was burst open, and three trunks were found inside. Two of them were tagged with the name of "M. Edwards, Pittsburg."

A police official was placed in the room and Col. Edwards was taken to the Recorders office. The prisoner had made no remark all this time, and had not even asked why he was arrested, what the charge, or what was to be done with him. When the office, which was in Mr. Vaux's private house, was reached, he spoke for the first time.

"Mr. Recorder," he said, coolly, "you unceremoniously interfered with a gentleman's supper, which was only half completed. What do you propose to do about the other half?"

The Recorder told him that he should not be deprived of supper by any act of his, and sat him down to a substantial meal in his dining room. The prisoner finished his supper. He asked for a glass of sherry, which was given to him.

"Will you be kind enough to tell me whether Mr. George M. Dallas is in town?" he asked, while leisurely sipping the wine. "I want him for my counsel."

Mr. Vaux replied that the lawyer, who three years later became Vice-President of the United States, was in town, and by Edwards' request he was sent for.

"I am going to hold you as a fugitive from justice," replied the recorder.

"Well," said Col. Edwards, "I have not fled far. I suppose I am now in the hands of justice, as you call it."

In half an hour Mr. Dallas arrived, and after a private interview with the prisoner he said to Mr. Vaux that Col. Edwards wanted his trunks sent for.

"Do you unite in that wish?" asked the Recorder.

"Certainly," Mr. Dallas replied.

"Will you be kind enough, then," said the Recorder, "to get Col. Edwards to give an order on his landlady to deliver these trunks to me?"

"Certainly."

Mr. Dallas and Mr. Vaux went together into the back room and the lawyer directed his client to give an order for the trunks. Paper, pen and ink were handed him and he wrote:

Pleas deliver to the Recorder my trunks, now in your possession, and this shall be your order and discharge therefor. M. EDWARDS.

As may be readily understood, it was of the utmost importance to have a specimen of Edwards' writing, because had the forgeries been committed by him his conviction would depend on the identification of his handwriting. It is worthy of note that the first word he wrote in the order he spelt "p-l-e-a-s," and in every one of the forged letters over all the signatures, wherever that word appeared, it was always spelt "pleas." When Judge Loundes saw the order and the signature he pronounced the identification of the man complete.

On the following day, Sunday, in the presence of the district attorney and others, Edwards' trunks were searched. In one were found three dozen shirts, a dozen pairs of trousers, coats, vests and other wearing apparel, and between the coats, which were at the bottom of the trunk, were found $500,000 in packages of $1,000, $5,000 and $100 bills, just as they had come from the bank, with little slips of writing paper around them and marked. These notes were taken out one by one, and the date, number, amount and bank noted. There were many little things in the trunk which were supposed to be unimportant, but the Recorder said nothing should be passed over, but that every scrap of paper should be examined, noted and preserved.

When the jury brought in their verdict of guilty after an exhaustive trial and the court was adjourned, the prisoner went up to the Recorder and shook him by the hand.

"You don't remember me, Mr. Vaux," he said, blandly.

"I do not," the Recorder replied.

"Why," said the Kentuckian, "I was in London when you were there as secretary of the American Legation. I was with Gen. Hamilton, who was representing the State of Texas. I saw you there several times."

"I am very sorry I could not recognize you," said the Recorder.

When the prisoner next spoke he was as polite as ever, but he looked Mr. Vaux piercingly in the eyes.

"I am very glad to have this opportunity of speaking to you," he said. "I want to say one thing to you that is important for you to remember. I am going to kill you the moment I come out of Sing Sing. I give you this notice as from one gentleman to another."

"I am very thankful to you, Col. Edwards," replied the Recorder, with the same politeness, "for giving me this timely notice. It is very gentlemanly of you to do so. I will give you the opportunity at any time you desire. I have only done my duty and am prepared to take the consequences. I only ask of you that when you make the attempt you will look me in the face."

"As Mr. Vaux said these words," writes the correspondent of the Philadelphia Times, "he gazed fixedly into the forger's face. The man turned white and trembled, for he read in his captor's countenance the justifiable determination to kill him should he ever dare to face him after his release. Not another word was spoken between them, for at that moment the officers led the prisoner away. He never attempted to carry his threat into effect, as he died in prison in January, 1847."

WILD MEN OF YORK.

FANCIFUL TALE OF A QUEER COLONY IN THE EMPIRE STATE.

Human Degenerates Huddled in Woods Near the Source of the Delaware River in Sullivan County. Supposed to Be the Descendants of an Indian Hunter.

There has been discovered in a secluded part of Delware county, New York, near the headwaters of the Delaware river, a settlement of outcasts numbering about 200 persons, whose habits and mental developments characterize them as being only a small degree above the brute world. They are called "Rushers," and live on a branch of the Delaware river called the Pople, which has its rise in the mountains not far from Delhi. The colony has no communication with the outside world, and so far up the steep and rocky mountains is it intrenched that its existence has been almost forgotten.

In the summer these people pick berries, in the fall chestnuts and in the winter they trap and hunt small game. Their village is about five miles from Delhi, and the only road leading to it is an old Indian trail, in some places not more than a foot wide. It is worn into a deep path through the thin soil.

In a hollow almost on top of the high mountains is a collection of dwellings built of tree trunks and pine boughs. None of them is over six feet high. They have no chimneys or windows and compared with them the wigwams of the Indians are seemly and habitable. There are no indications of husbandry, no domestic animals nor evidences of civilization. Nearly all of these "children of the mist" are afflicted with some deformity caused by intermarriage for many generations and lack of knowledge, of self preservation or care. Their hair is unkempt and their faces are a deep yellow. They possess instinct rather than intelligence, and even the faculty of speech is lacking.

On their being visited a few days ago by a party of inquisitive folk there was a general stampede. Men and women dived into their huts and the children followed. One of the visitors shouted "Matt!" several times, and a man known to him by sight came slowly from his abode. He said "Howdy!" and when asked about his health replied "Pert." Gradually the rest of the colony gathered about. There were the halt, lame, blind, blear eyed and crippled. Hardly one of them did not have some disfigurement, especially of the hands or feet.

One idiot boy, about 10 years old, led by his mother, had a head so large that it was kept in place by constant oscillation. The physician of the party termed it hydrocephalus. One remarkable deformity was a man 30 years old, whose head resembled that of a bear. His lower limbs curved in like a dog's and were covered with short, reddish hair. An attempt was made to examine his hands, but he gave a grunt and hobbled away. It was impossible to learn anything of his birth from any of the colony.—N. Y. Press.

A COOL HEAD SAVED HER.

Maud Whaley's Narrow Escape from Death on the Jersey Central Railroad.

Maud Whaley, the daughter of a well known resident of Elmora, was walking across the tracks of the Central Railroad toward the Elmora station recently when she was intercepted by a west bound passenger train. She stood upon the east bound track waiting for the train to pass when a fast express from Flemington came down from Roselle. The express was running at the rate of fifty miles an hour, and Miss Whaley did not see it until the locomotive was within fifty yards of her.

She stood a moment paralyzed with fear, then she threw herself face downward between the tracks and lay perfectly motionless as the trains rushed past, one on either side of her. The space between the trains was so narrow that Miss Whaley did not escape injury. Persons who saw the escape from the station platform ran to her assistance as soon as the trains passed and helped her home. Her shoulders and body are cut and bruised, but her worst suffering is from shock. Physicians who attended her say she will recover in a few weeks.

How Many Toes Has a Cat?

This question was asked of a certain class during examination week; and simple as the question appears to be, none could answer it. In the emergency, the principal was applied to for a solution, and he also, with a good natured smile, gave it up, when one of the teachers, determined not to be beaten by so simple a question, hit on the idea of sending out a delegation of boys to scour the neighborhood for a cat.

When this idea was announced the whole class wanted to join in the hunt. Several boys went out and soon returned successful. A returning board was at once appointed and the toes counted, when, to the relief of all, it was learned that a cat possesses eighteen toes, ten on the front feet and eight on the hind feet.

How to Make Precious Stones.

Edward Durant, of the American Institute of Electricity, recently lectured in New York upon "The Manufacture by Means of Electric Furnaces of Diamonds, Rubies, Aluminium and Calcium Carbide." In his talk Mr. Durant treated of the success that has attended the efforts of chemists in this line, and gave practical experiments, which were successful. The first stages in the manufacture of diamonds and the complete process in the other cases were successfully shown.

"Excuse me," said the summer girl, languidly, to her fiance, "but may I ask you a question?"

"Certainly," said the devoted lover, tightening his grasp on her slender waist.

"Well," said the beautiful girl, "would you mind telling me your name?"—Chicago Record.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Publisher and Proprietor.
WALTER IRVING CLARKE, Managing Editor.

TOWN AND HOME FAVORITE.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., MAY 10, 1895.

Good for Mayor Hegeman of the Borough! He tells The Daily Press that he won't let the matter rest till Watchung avenue is extended.

Mr. Serrell today speaks through The Press on the street railway matter. He will find in Mr. Spangenberg a vigorous opponent, and one who will not down; and Mr. Spangenberg is just exactly right in endorsing what The Press advocates, the building of the local extensions first.

An established feature of The Daily Press is its copyrighted serials, fresh from the pens of the best living authors. These stories are all confined to six or less issues of The Press, thus guarding against the tiresomeness of being long-drawn-out. The Case of Laker", now running, is excellent, and is to be succeeded by the following gems:

May 15 to 20, "How the King Held the Brigadier", by A. Conan Doyle

May 21 and 22, "The Eye of Beatrice".

May 23 and 24, "A Fraudulent Claim", by Howard Fielding.

May 25, "The Bishop's Ghost', by Frank R. Stockton.

You'll read them in The Press, or nowhere.

Reflecting today on the beginning of its ninth year of continuous prosperity, The Daily Press has no promises to make other than to reaffirm its determination to attend strictly to its business of getting out a newspaper. The future will develop itself. The past is a record, and is clearly and concisely stated by Ralph Moreton Hooker in his fine new work "Plainfield, N. J., Illustrated", as follows:

The printing house of W. L. Force & Bro. was founded in 1867, and has ever since flourished on its original site at the corner of North and Park avenues. The establishment is completely equipped for all classes of the work, and from it two newspapers are issued, The Weekly Constitutionalist and The Daily Press. The weekly has been published continuously from January 2, 1868; and the daily from May 10, 1887. The Constitutionalist, always conducted as a stanch Democratic journal, has a large local and rural constituency; and The Press is the popular leader in town and society. Independent in politics, and devoted to Plainfield's progress, The Press has acquired prominence throughout the State. It is enterprising, cleanly edited, and proud of its distinction of being "a newspaper, not an organ". Besides covering fully the local and general news, it has departments in literature and art which add to its popularity as Plainfield's favorite home journal. In July, 1893, occurred the death of W. L. Force, senior member of the publishing firm; and in the succeeding month Albert L. Force, the junior brother and partner, acquired sole ownership, and is today the sole proprietor of both papers. The early success of the daily was due largely to the ability and energy of James A. Demarest, managing editor from its start to August, 1893, when he left to become American Consul in Brockville, Ont. He was succeeded as managing editor by Walter Irving Clarke, for two years previous his assistant. In the Fall of 1894 The Press was changed from a four-page to an eight-page paper, and the New York Journalist remarked: "The success of the Plainfield, N. J., Daily Press, under the managing editorship of Walter Irving Clarke, has led to its enlargement from a four to an eight-page form, and it has been otherwise improved. The Daily Press is now regarded as the handsomest daily in Union County, and is a lively leader in local affairs. Its venerable parent, The Weekly Constitutionalist, has followed its example in changing from blanket sheet to modern form."

Handsome and Unique.

Great improvements are in contemplation at the old established Plainfield Pharmacy of H. P. Reynolds, and the plans now under consideration are likely to be consummated in the Fall.

The changes are such as are likely to make this one of the handsomest and certainly the most unique of drugstores in the State, and include extension of the store to the rear, the establishment of a cozy reception room with elegant mantels and blazing firelogs where the prescription department now stands, and the removal of the prescription department to the side of the store, more room to be made by the removal of a side partition and the utilization of the room under the main stairway of the building.

Lively Seller in the Cellar.

Louis Vroom, a hustling newsboy of The Daily Press, had a severe fall down the cellar hatchway of Woolston & Buckle yesterday afternoon. "I won't sue 'em"—he said.—" 'Twas my fault."

Hibernians Growing.

At the meeting of the Hibernians last night four candidates were initiated and two propositions for membership received. The rest of the transactions were principally routine.

Look Cooler.

The mail-carriers and policemen donned their Summer helmets this morning.

—Whitney's four-days specials are a great thing.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Horace Huff is entertaining his father from Hunterdon County.

J. E. Martine is in attendance at the funeral of the late ex-Governor Green today.

City Clerk MacMurray left town yesterday afternoon on a business trip to Albany.

Sinclair Stuart of Park avenue has been granted two patents on ship construction.

Mrs. C. W. Mills of East Fifth street left yesterday for a visit with friends in Brooklyn.

James Penney of West Fourth street will spend his Summer vacation in Worcester, Mass.

Leo, a young son of Jeremiah Moore, of West Fourth street, is ill with pneumonia.

Manager Charles W. Runyon of the N. Y. and N. J. Telephone Company is severely ill with neuralgia.

Mrs. E. M. Runyon left this morning for Ocean Grove, where she has rented a cottage for the Summer.

Miss Bertha Dreier returns today from Brooklyn, where she has been visiting her brother, Garrett Dreier.

William Brett, who has been spending the Winter in New York, has returned to Plainfield for the Summer.

Mrs. Russell C. Johnson of 511 West 20th street, New York, is visiting her brother-in law, Andrew Johnson of 1.2 Duer street.

Mrs Walter C. Walker returned to her home on Chatham street yesterday, after a short stay with friends in Bound Brook.

Mrs. Sarah Walker, who has been visiting her sister Miss Matilda Alexander of East Fifth street, returned yesterday to her home in Sayre, Pa.

President W. D. Murray and Secretary J. H. Manning of the Y. M. C. A. are in attendance at the international convention of associations which is being held in Springfield, Mass.

Mrs. Albert Hedden of Park avenue, and her daaughter, Mrs. John F. Neal of Boston, spent yesterday at Haverstraw, visiting relatives. On their return Mrs. Neal will remain two weeks with her mother.

Mrs. E. C. Pease of Park place, North Plainfield, who has since Tuesday been critically ill with pneumonia at the home of her parents, Thirty-Eighth street, near Park avenue, New York, is slightly improved today.

J. B. Dumont was elected a trustee of the missionary fund and church property, and Rev. Dr. E. M. Rodman was re-elected a member of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, at the Diocesan Convention in Trenton.

Opposing Candidates for a Seat in the Italian Parliament.

Rome, May 10.—Premier Crispi has accepted the parliamentary nomination in the fourth electoral college of Rome. His opponent is ex-Deputy de Felice, the socialist who was imprisoned for inciting the Sicilians to revolution.

Retirement of Gen. Casey.

Washington, May 10.—The retirement from active service of Brigadier General Thomas L. Casey, chief of engineers, which office he has held since 1888, possesses more than passing interest to the general public because of the great public works that have been completed under his direction.

Better Wages for 1,500 Men.

Sharon, Pa., May 10.—The furnacemen's strike at the Sharon and Sharpsville furnaces has been settled, the operators granting the demands of their striking employes. Work was resumed at once. The increase in wages makes glad the hearts of about 1,500 men.

University Press To Resume.

Boston, May 10.—The University Press, the extensive publishing house of Cambridge which failed recently for $150,000, will resume business. A settlement at 25 cents on the dollar was accepted. This will be paid in cash, although the court allows six months.

Don't Ride on Sunday, Girls.

Babylon, L. I., May 10.—Rev. George Adams, of the Methodist Episcopal church, has warned the girls of the Sunday school not to ride bicycles on Sunday, or watch others who do ride, thereby "countenancing Sabbath breaking."

Millions of Dollars in Debt.

Lima, O., May 10.—President George W. Saul has been appointed receiver of the Ohio Southern railway. In addition to eight millions of bonds, the road has $400,000 of floating debts and is in default of taxes and interest.

Effort To Break a Cell Window.

Albany, May 10.—An attempt to break a window from outside the cell of Bank Robber Brown was made by two men just before midnight. The watchman fired three shots but the men escaped.

Murderer Kohl Must Hang.

Trenton, N. J., May 8.—The state board of pardons yesterday refused to interfere in the case of Henry Kohl, the murderer of Joe Prienel, at Newark. Kohl is to be executed on May 16.

Large Pottery Burned.

Zanesville, O., May 10.—Fire which started at 1 o'clock this morning in S. A. Weller's pottery, one of the largest in the state, completely destroyed it.

Insurgent Losses at El Cristo.

Santiago De Cuba, May 10.—It was made known to-day that the insurgents lost ten killed and more than 100 wounded in the attack on El Cristo last Tuesday.

Zekki Pasha Recalled.

Constantinople, May 10.—Zekki Pasha, commander of the troops in the Erzingan district at the time of the Armenian massacres, has been recalled.

CONSTRUCTOR SERRELL REPLIES.

Says the Street Railway Company Means Business in the Matter of the Plainfield Local Extensions.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—

In last evening's edition of your paper there appeared an article criticising the Plainfield street railway, stating that "all they desired to secure was the franchise for their through route".

Permit me to say, the Plainfield Street Railway Company have had the consents necessary for the franchise of their so-called "through route" for many weeks, but have had a man in Plainfield devoting his whole time and attention to securing consents for the local routes, and it is the refusal on the part of the people to give their consents for the local routes that has delayed the company up to the present time.

I think your writer's suggestion of an "indignation meeting" is very amusing, as it would probably result in a mass-meeting of citizens indignant with each other for favoring the building of the road in front of their neighbor's house on an adjacent street.

I do not think your writer's utterances help the railroad company in any way, are interesting to the public, or calculated to benefit his own political aspirations. L. W. Serrell, Jr.

New York, May 9, '95.

HELD BY THE KING.

Conan Doyle's Latest and Best Story to Be Published in The Daily Press.

On May 15 The Daily Press will begin publication of another tale of adventure from the pen of A. Conan Doyle. It tells how the Brigadier Gerard escaped from the old English prison at Dartmoor, and of many remarkable adventures which follow his escape, and which lead to a climax as pleasing as it is unexpected.

Dr. Doyle considers these adventures of Brigadier Gerard the best work of his life so far, and we hope that our readers will agree with him. We shall continue to publish the adventures of the dashing Brigadier through the Summer.

"How the King Held the Brigadier" will be published in daily instalments and will continue five days.

THE DOG NUISANCE.

Another Afflicted Resident Enters Emphatic Protest.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—

I presume that you do not approve of profanity by man or woman; neither do I. But, sir, there are some things said to be enough even to make a minister swear. If that is so, men and women outside the church, or even in it, might be tempted in that direction. Possibly it might be easier to remove the temptation, than to attempt a cure. Now, sir, when a man attempts to make a garden for the good of his family's living, he goes to work, spades up his ground, makes it mellow and nice, plants his bed of onions, parsnips, beets, and other commodities or products that add to good living. Then a lot of children with baby cart and three or four dogs come along. The large dog leaves the street, crosses the woman's flower-beds, takes a smell around through the garden, paws and scratches on every bed that he comes to, despoils every green thing, all the other dogs following his example, and the next dog of a farmer that comes into town, or the next dog that passes that way, follows suit. Is it anything wonderful if both man and woman should get a little on the line of speaking the devil's doxology? Why, sir, since the late rains have subsided, I have found the tracks of a big dog, from four to six inches deep, on my vegetable and flower-beds. It seems to me an awful shame. I wonder if there is any law to protect against such nuisances. If there is not, or cannot be, then we shall have to fence up our yards again, or get out our shotguns. Possibly the Common Council or the Mayor might suggest or enforce some remedy. It seems to me that something should be done to prevent profanity in our city, for certainly this is a great temptation. Good Morals.

Memorial Day Dance.

P. J. Reville, M. J. Mack and D. J. Kieffe are the committee having charge of the dance of the Fourth Ward Athletic Association which will be held in T. A. B. Hall, Thursday evening, May 30.

—Miantonomoh Tribe of Red Men will have two adoptions at their meeting this evening.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., sends this: "I have used for indigestion and stubborn constipation, and found them to work like a charm when all other remedies failed to benefit me. I cheerfully recommend them to all suffering with above troubles." WM. J. MOORE, Contractor and Builder, Atlantic City, N. J.

Dr. Deane's

Dyspepsia Pills

At all druggists', 25 cents. Send name for a free sample.

DR. J. A. DEANE CO.,
Kingston, New York.

Good Things for Breakfast.

Cleveland's Baking Powder

Makes delicious Muffins, Griddle Cakes, Wafnes, Corn Bread, &c.

Cleveland's, the best that money can buy

There are 80 different recipes for breakfast bread in our cook book. A copy sailed free on receipt of stamp and address.

Cleveland Baking Powder Company, 81 Fulton St., New York.

An Idea

Has struck us. it hurt nothing but our prices, tilted them over just about ¼ their original value. Our idea is to sell plenty. We must pay expenses, can't do business for pleasure, but we are satisfied with a very small profit. We want quick sales and small profits.

Summer Dress Goods.

We are showing the largest variety of Wash Goods ever shown in the city.

Swivel silks	39c and 42c
Wash silks	39c
Dress ginghams	8c
All-wool challies	14c
New crepe cloths	13c and 15c
Fast colored cambrics	6c
The latest dotted swiss	17c
For one week the best Merrimack Prints only	4c

Silk Waists.

50 wash silk waists $2 98 worth $3 50.

Capes.

Still the evenings are cool. A cape feels comfortable. Our prices cannot be duplicated.

Duck Suits.

50 more duck suits all sizes at 99c

Housefurnishing Goods.

7c. SALE IN BASEMENT 7c.

We bought them very cheap, you buy them likewise. They are Toilet Sets 10 pieces richly decorated only $1 95 worth $2 75.
Ice Cream Freezers from $1 75 to $1 98
The Best Refrigerators made are the ones we carry in stock. We will be pleased to show you their merits at any time.

Millinery.

Half of Plainfield's population know we are the leaders in stylish millinery. We wish the other half to call and be convinced also. Just received a large assortment of Baby Carriages from $5 00 to $15 00.

BOEHM'S,

113 WEST FRONT ST.

Photo Material.

PLATES AND PAPER

At Reduced Prices.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front st.

Cut Roses, Carnations AND VIOLETS.

Flowers furnished for weddings, funerals, etc., in bunches, bouquets or design.

MILES, Somerset st., Johnston's drive. (Terminus Electric Railroad)

New York Announcement.

"Our American Brains and How to Furnish Them"

Horner's Furniture.

Reasons why you should buy it in preference to any other.

(1). Because this firm have long enjoyed the reputation of keeping only the best Furniture that can be produced, both in medium and finest grades; (2). Because their assortments are unequalled; (3). Because their prices are the lowest at which goods of standard quality can be sold.

Latest productions in Dining Room, Bedroom, Parlor, Drawing Room, Library and Hall Furniture—Veneered Furniture—Novelties in Imported Furniture—White and Gold Enameled Furniture—Enameled and Brass Bedsteads—English Brass Bedsteads (3 patterns), Maple and Bamboo Furniture—Restful Easy Chairs and Settees—Smoking and Billiard Room Furniture—Everything for city or country homes—Eight spacious floors—All prices in plain figures.

R. J. HORNER & CO.,
Furniture Makers and Importers,
61-65 West 23d St., N. Y.
(Adjoining Eden Musee.)

Horner & Co.'s establishment is one of the sights of New York.—Newspaper Comment.

Where Quality and Economy Join Hands

There You Will Find a True Value that is Worthy of Peck's.

Saturday, Monday
Tuesday, Wednesday

4 DAYS SPECIALS. 4

Fine white trimming laces 3c per yard, reduced from 6, 8 and 10c.
White lace plaid goods, fine quality, 6½, 10, 12½ and 18c; former price 12, 16, 20 and 25c.
Men's balbriggan and gauze shirts 25c each; reduced from 40c.
Ladies' ribbed vests 7c each; good quality.
Window poles and fixtures complete 13c.
Window shades 15c each and upward.
Ladies' Lisle and Taffeta gloves 15c per pair.
40 per cent. off on all sun umbrellas.
Best calicoes, ginghams and lining cambric at 3½c per yard.
Just received a new lot of carpets which will be sold at special low prices.

Remember, for $10 cash purchased in our CARPET DEPARTMENT You get a handsome Rug free.

WHITNEY'S,

122 East Front Street - Near City Bank.

Trouserings!

500 Choice Patterns, Which We Are Making to Order for $5.00.

SEBRING'S,

Park Avenue, Packer's Block.

EDSALL'S.

Here is What You Want!

We say this with confidence because we have such a large variety to choose from that the smallest need as well as the most exacting demand can be filled at our Commercial Palace, and prices are always the lowest.

Specials Saturday, 2 p. m. till Closing

Ladies' laundered shirt waists in a variety of choice patterns all sizes, 65c grade; Saturday 48c.
50c white lawn hemstitched aprons large size; Saturday 25c.
45c boys' white and colored blouses all sizes; Saturday 29c.
50c boys' shirt waists all sizes fast colors. Saturday 25c.
75c ladies' calico wrapper in a large variety of designs; Saturday 48c.
75c men's neglige shirts fast colors, all sizes; Saturday 50c.
39c men's summer merino shirts and drawers, all sizes; Saturday 25c.
12½c men's 4-ply linen faced collars, newest styles; Saturday 7c.
25c Windsor ties in all leading colors Saturday 12½c.
75c box of Lettuce Cream soap Saturday 10c.
25c bottle Bouquet Cologne with sprinkler top; Saturday 10c.
$1 25 and $1 49 ladies' cloth capes, prettily trimmed; Saturday 89c and $1 10.

Housefurnishing Department in the Basement.

25 lawn mowers 12 inch. While they last at $1 98 each.
50 English decorated toilet sets all perfect 6 pieces; at $1 39 set.
207 only sample porch chairs and rockers must be sold quick to make room. They won't last long at the prices marked. Prices range from 59c to $2 98 each.

SOMETHING OF SPECIAL INTEREST. Special sale of bleached sheetings in 8 4 and 9 4 widths usually sold at 22 cts and 25 cts a yard. Our price 13 and 15 cts a yard.

Clearance sale of short lengths of bleached muslins 8 4 and 9 4 widths, all to go at half original prices.

An excellent line of sheer and dainty Percales in a variety that makes choice most difficult; unsurpassable value at 12½ cts. Our price 9 cts.

Counterpanes. Marseilles and crochet quilts, large size, exquisite designs, sold everywhere at 98 cts, $1 25, $1 39 and $1 65. Our price 65 cts, 89 cts, $1 15 and $1 25.

Capes. Ladies' capes made of silk, velvet and cloth, prettily trimmed with lace, jet and ribbons. Sold elsewhere at $4 98, $5 25, $8 50 and $9. Our price $3 75, $3 99, $3 57 and $5 98.

Moreen Skirts. An excellent Moreen skirt, with full ruffle, usually sold for $4 98. Our price $3 20.

House Wrappers. Wrappers made up of fine percales in all colors, including indigo, full skirt, cape falling from yoke over large sleeves, trimmed with very pretty contrasting braids, all sizes, at 69 cts, 89 cts, $1 10 and $1 25. Usual asking price fully 25 per cent. more.

Taffeta Silks. Special bargain in black and colored all silk taffeta, in an excellent assortment of designs, the most sought for silk of the season. Sold everywhere at 89 cts and $1 a yard. Our price 65 cts and 75 cts a yard.

25 ct paper books, by standard authors, good print, full titles. Our price 3 cts each.

Fans. We have just opened up an exquisite line of fans, ranging in price from 10 cts to $2 50 each. The usual asking price is fully 25 per cent. more.

SODA. When you have finished shopping and are tired and thirsty, then remember SODA. that our soda is equal to the best in town. Don't fail to try it.

Women's Oxfords.

74c, 98c, $1 19, $1 48, $2, $3, $3 50, $4—black or tan, pointed, square or common sense toes.

WE USE—nothing but the genuine Novel stock in our tan goat shoes for misses and children. It will wear as long again as the ordinary. A full assortment of tan goods now ready for your inspection.

Doane & Edsall.

THE DAILY PRESS BUILDING.

HEATH & DRAKE'S GOOD FORTUNE.

The Newark Dry-Goods House Has Two Perrys, Both Hustlers.

The fact that ex-Mayor Perry of Bound Brook took charge May 1 of the big Newark dry-goods house of Heath & Drake, is regarded by his friends in this part of New Jersey as a fortunate circumstance for that firm as well as for Mr. Perry himself. For many years Heath & Drake's new superintendent was highly connected with the 14th street, New York, firm of LeBoutillier Bros The fact that he was with the New York house so many years attests his value as a business adviser; and although his new acquisition may now appear smaller in comparison, he will doubtless soon cause it to be foremost among New Jersey dry-goods stores. There is another Mr. Perry who will in the future—as he has in the past—have much to do with the business success of the firm.

William P. Perry has for some time had control of the advertising department, in addition to other important duties, and it has been made quite evident during his reign that "advertising pays" when properly done. The advertisements of this house, while never sensational, contain the element of exciting interest which never fails to attract buyers when inserted in the proper mediums. "Brains", a journal for advertisers, frequently reproduces Mr. Perry's advertisements as models for the dry-goods men of the country to copy. It will be hard to say which of the two Perrys ought to be the first lieutenant.

All Free.

Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who have not have now the opportunity to try it free. Call on the advertised druggist and get a trial bottle free Send your name and address to H. E. Bucklen & Co. Chicago; and get a sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills free, as well as a copy of Guide to Health and Household Instructor free. All of which is guaranteed to do you good and cost you nothing at L. W. Randolph's Drugstore.

The Leisurelys and the Swifts.

The Y. M. C. A. Bicycle Club enjoyed a pleasant run last evening to Rahway, where they were entertained by the Y. M. C. A. of that place. Light refreshments were served.

The slow division, numbering about 15, started from Plainfield at 7:0 under the command of Physical Instructor D. A. MacPhie, with Webster Littell as bugler; and ten of the faster riders left at 7:15, with Captain T. A. Cuming in command

The return was made in two divisions.

Free Pills.

Send your address to Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of constipation and sick headache. For malaria and liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c. per box. Sold by L. W. Randolph druggist.

John Mullin's Handsome Display of Furniture and Carpets.

This well-known furniture house of 218 and 220 Market street, Newark, make special offers this week in parlor furniture and carpet. They claim to be the only furniture house in the State offering special bargains, including liberal terms of credit. Their big announcement appears in this issue.

Work for the Health Board.

The Netherwood Hotel cesspool, which caved in a week ago has not yet been repaired, and the residents of that vicinity are complaining bitterly of the nuisance.

Good Music Then.

The Rutgers College Glee Club have rented the Y. M. C. A. Hall for a concert, Tuesday, May 21.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c per box. For sale by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

VIEW IN EDITORIAL ROOMS, PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS.

EXTERIOR VIEW OF DAILY PRESS OFFICE, WITH GROUP OF STAFF.

JUVENILE FAIR.

Baptist Young People Determined to Have a Good Library.

The juvenile members of the primary department of the Park Avenue Baptist Sunday-school were full of activity yesterday afternoon and evening, during the progress of their fair, the proceeds of which are to be used in replenishing their library.

The various tables were presided over by the following whose persuasive smiles and talk, and charming manners, compelled all who visited the fair to patronize liberally their efforts:

Fancy table Lottie Odam, Lulu Stryker, Nina Jones.

Candy—Violette VanWinkle, Retta Nash, Marion Dickinson.

Silverware—Viola Hillyer, Florence Cuming.

Cake—Sara Todd.

Lizzie VanWinkle had charge of the ice-cream, assisted by Marion Shotwell, Viola Odam, Anna Conant, Lizzie Grandin.

The tickets and doors were looked after by Willie Remsen, Wilbur Outdyke and Harry Thompson.

Youngsters to Play.

The Boys Club baseball nine and Carman Sutphen's nine will play a game tomorrow afternoon on the Harned Academy grounds

—Plainfield Council, Royal Arcanum, meet next Monday evening

—Robert Gorton is making extensive alterations about his residence, corner of West Fifth and Liberty streets

News from a Plainfield Spinner.

Ernest T. Hand of this city, who left with the Spalding team three weeks ago for Birmingham, Ala., has sent word to friends in this city that the team is doing excellent work, considering the track and the excessive heat. They left yesterday for Louisville, Ky., where they will have an excellent concrete oval, similar to the Crescent Oval of this city. During their stay in that city their headquarters will be at the Fountain Ferry Hotel

Counselors Who Win.

Of the five Plainfield cases so far tried or settled at the present term of court, Craig A. Marsh was the successful counsel in four, and Reed & Coddington in the other.

To Eat and Elect.

The annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. was to be held last night, but was adjourned to Thursday evening, May 16, at 8. Previous to the meeting the members will be treated to a New England supper by the Ladies Nine.

MUSIC HALL.

Jos. Sohl, Lessee and Manager. Tel. 49b

TONIGHT.

Rice's Surprise Party in the Historical Extravaganza.

"1492."

Superb company of 60. Orchestra of soloists, scenery calcium and electric effects.

Prices, Lower Floor $1; Balcony 50c. Admission, 35c.

Box office now open.

POPULAR POWDER at POPULAR PRICES.

BORATED TALCUM

At 10 Cents a Box.

LEGGETT'S PHARMACY.

CLEVELAND BICYCLES. The Great Leaders of 1895.

Design, Improvement, Workmanship, Quality, Speed, Health, Pleasure, Business, Road, Track.

The Fastest, Strongest, Handsomest and Most Rigid Wheel.

The "Swell Specials" are a decided advance in bicycle construction and when quality alone is considered will always sell.

Liberty, Crescent, Waverly, Majestic.

We thoroughly believe in the merits of the above wheels, and unhesitatingly recommend them.

Frank L. C. Martin Cycle Company,

333 PARK AVENUE.

REPAIRS. Established 1889. RENTALS.

THE GREAT AMERICAN DRINK— SODA WATER

is the best of all drinks when rightly served. We use many syrups—all good—but we must "brag" a little about our orange (fresh from fruit), our chocolate and coffee; none can be finer. As to cream—take your choice: Ice cream, whipped cream, plain cream.

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North avenues.

Hosiery. No store in this town offers so many sorts, so many values. We always have some exceptional bargains such as these: The 12 1-2c. fast black seamless hose for 9c; the 20c. kind for 15c, and 20c. for the regular 25c. goods; 5c. for mens seamless hose that should be 10c. and the 15c. fast black half hose for 10c.

25 rolls more of the 10c. matting. Other mattings at any price up to 50c. A good ingrain carpet at 25c. Brussels made, laid and lined free. Window shades from 18c, oilcloths from 25c, large size Smyrna rugs $2.60, value $3.50; do, at $2.10, value $2.75. Lace curtains from 54c pair, curtain poles complete from 18c.

It takes little money to purchase a good cape from us. A splendid showing of the most taking styles, some as low as 98c; percale shirt waists 48c; silk belts 25c; new parasols.

LEDERER'S

CLOTHING

Is to Man What Cutting is to the Diamond.

The man in rags may be as good as one in broadcloth, but somehow the world does n't think so. He is the rough diamond of humanity, while his less deserving but better dressed neighbor, like a cut diamond, is appreciated and admired. Now there's just as much difference in the cutting of clothing as of diamonds. It takes skill to impart the perfection of fit and finish we give to our clothing, and it costs no more when you know how. See our grand line of Men's Spring Suits, beginning at $9 and running up by easy stages of a dollar or so to $20.

McGregor & Co.,

850-852 Broad Street,

NEWARK, N. J.

Educational.

AFTERNOON CLASS

For Young Ladies.

Three times per week. Higher English branches, French and music. For terms, apply MISS FAWCETT, 25 Washington ave.

Spring Term of the Rockview Home and Day School

Opened April 15.

Kindergarten, primary and intermediate departments. For terms and particulars apply to the Misses Peck, 317 East Front street.

CODDINGTON'S Furniture and Freight EXPRESS.

Offices 24 West Front. st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed.

THE DIFFERENCE.

Right up-to-date when it comes to selling goods and having just what you want, but we run our store in the old way of having you go where you please, doing as you please, and having who you want to wait on you.

IT'S OUR WAY.

SNAP SHOTS

Taken at random throughout the store, all at interesting prices:

Ladies' percale shirt waists	48c
Men's outing shirts	48c
New dress ginghams	6c
New dress percales	6c
Fine figured mulls	8c
Ladies' seamless hose	13c
Men's seamless hose	12c
Boys' bicycle hose	15c
Boys sweaters	19c
Boys Windsor ties	12c
Ladies' lisle gloves	10c
Extra huck towels	10c
Large dinner napkins	$1 19 doz
Swivel dress silk	39c
Fine toilet soap	8c box
Jap rugs 18x36	39c
Jap matting, roll of 20 yards	$2 48

COOL UNDERWEAR.

Always offering good values but this lot is the best of all. Men's fine balbriggan shirts and drawers 33c each. Ladies' fine ribbed vests 13c. Children's fine gauze vests 12c up.

SUMMER.

HOUSE FIXINGS. Widow screens, hard wood 25c. All sizes Jap porch screens. Sprinkling pots. Oil stoves. Gas stoves. Refrigerators.

MEN,

That lot of outing shirts on the centre-table will interest you. If we bought them in the regular way the price would be $1.50, but that doesn't count. You buy them for 69c.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW. Our Own Sale.

We are selling goods in every department at greatly reduced prices. It will pay you to call and investigate before buying elsewhere.

12 and 16c plain Silesia for	10 and 12c yard	25 and 50c Sweaters for	21 and 42c
20 and 25c fancy Satteens for	16 and 20c yard	50 and 75c laundered shirts, colored	39 and 67c.
12 and 16c plain Percalines for	10 and 13c yard	A good laundered shirt, colored for	50c
Best French hair cloth	59c yard	50c neckwear for	42c
50 and 60c black Damask for	42 and 52c yard	15c half hose for	11c
85 and $1 black Damask for	69 and 89c yard

210 WEST FRONT STREET.

E. E. MARSHALL & CO.,

167 North Avenue.

Wall Papers, Painting and Interior Decorating.

DESIGNS SUBMITTED FOR FRESCOING.

Progressive Plainfield's Progressive Store.

LACE CURTAINS.

Lot 1, White Nottingham 2 1-2 yards long	48c pair
Lot 2, White Nottingham 3 yards long	69c pair
Lot 3, White Nottingham 3 yards long	86c pair
Lot 4, White Nottingham 3 yards long	93c pair
Lot 5, White Nottingham 3 yards long	$1.08 pair
Lot 6, White Nottingham 3 1-2 yards long	$1.43 pair
Lot 7, White Nottingham 3 1-2 yards long	$1.97 pair

BED SPREADS.

Lot 1, White Crochet Counterpanes	54c each
Lot 2, White Crochet Counterpanes	74c each
Lot 3, White Crochet Counterpanes	94c each
Lot 4, White Crochet Counterpanes	$1.18 each
Lot 5, White Crochet Counterpanes	$1.27 each
Lot 6, White Marseilles Counterpanes	$1.39 each

200 only in the lot, assorted colored Shirt Waists for ladies; no more to be had; all to be sold at 25c. Each

One lot Ladies' Laundered Shirt Waists	43c each
One lot Ladies' Ribbed Vests	5c each

Van Emburgh & Son,

CORNER STORE, BABCOCK BUILDING.

GRAND OPENING
Every Day at
FULPER'S.

1 pound 50c Tea, 1 can Milk, 3 pounds Sugar, 1 loaf Bread, ½ doz. boxes matches

50c All for 50c 50c

Not as an introduction but an every day occurrence. The very best goods; the very lowest prices. Sugar cured ham 10c pound; best Elgin creamery butter 20c; 5 pounds for 95cts; good creamery butter 15c; 2 pounds extra combination coffee for 25c; 2 pounds extra creamery cheese for 25c; good creamery cheese 10c pound; 3 cakes Babbitt's soap 13c; Babbitt's 1776 per package 3c; best ginger snaps 4c.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
—Dealers in—
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

Hats, New Shapes, Trunks and Bags Cheap. All sizes in Packing Trunks.
E. M. Laing,
105 Park Avenue.

Metropolitan Livery and Boarding Stables.
Horses boarded by the day, week or month. Especial accommodations for transient trade. Office and stables,
147, 149, 151 North Avenue, Opposite Railroad Station.
A. C. BLAIR, Proprietor. FRANK DAY, Manager.
Telephone 152, connected with all circuits of New Jersey, New York and Brooklyn.

LYNDHURST, KEATING EAGLE, And Apollo Bicycles.
Charles C. Lister, 134 North Avenue.
Repairing, Renting and Storing.

THEY ARE BEAUTIES
Our Ladies' Kid Welt Oxford with new plain tip, the latest; Russet Kid 3-Button Oxford, something new; our $2 Oxfords are noted for their wear.
ALEX WILLETT & SON, 107 Park Ave.
Open until 9 p. m.

WE PUT ON OUR
ODDS AND ENDS TABLE TODAY
One Haviland Dinner Pattern
One Lot of Fancy Flower Pots
One Lot Glass Dishes
One Lot Fancy Creams
129 East Front street. GAVETT'S.

HALLOCK is showing choice patterns in Percale Shirts, with two collars and pair cuffs—and these collars and cuffs are the latest patterns—no old back numbers. Hats and Furnishing Goods.
G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front Street.

The Czar,
The Handsomest Wheel Ever Produced.
HIGHEST GRADE MADE.
E. Frank Vail, Agent,
177 NORTH AVE.

$1.00 AT J. F. MacDonald's
UPTOWN GROCERY
Buys $1.00 Worth of Groceries Every Business Day in the Year
Our goods are sold at a profit so as to enable us to give weight and quality to our customers and have something left for ourselves. No fictitious prices. No man is in business for his health.
J. F. MAC DONALD.

Edward C. Mulford,
(Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.)
Real Estate Broker and Fire Insurance.
Office 119 North avenue opp. railroad station. Money to loan.

Is Your Cook Up at 5?
That's the hour of our morning delivery.
FINEST, FRESHEST SEAFOOD.
ROGERS, 232 West Second street.

CONSTANT, LIKE HIM.

Every one said it was an absurd engagement. Every one pointed with the air of having made the discovery himself that Laura Clayton and John Baxter were totally unsuited to each other. Old Mrs. Baxter spoke of it to her son with conviction, and Mrs. Clayton suggested it to her daughter delicately, as her manner was.

"What on earth would your father have said, John?" demanded his mother, fiercely. "Is she intended for a country minister's wife? Look at the way she dresses! Look at her hair, done in the very latest knots! Look at her hands! I don't want to say anything against your happiness, John, but she is a butterfly! She has no stability of character! I'm even afraid that when the first glamour ——"

Then John interposed with a few remarks that sent his mother from his study more than ever inclined to find fault with Laura Clayton.

What Mrs. Clayton said, was:

"Darling, I don't wonder you are in love with John. He is the dearest boy and the best—so stanch, so true—I shall never worry about you. At least not so far as John is concerned."

"I see," laughed Laura. "You're afraid that I'll long for the flesh pots of Egypt, aren't you? And that I'll be the one to grow tired? When I'm the most constant person on earth, too, mamma!"

"Solid as ocean foam," quoted Mrs. Clayton, smiling and sighing a little. "Laura, dearest child, I don't want to croak, but are you sure you know your own heart? The Claytons—well—" she sighed again—"the Claytons are not cut out of granite. And you're a thorough Clayton, dear."

So it was that even their own households had doubts about the engagement of the young people. Every one knew that John Baxter stood for Puritan high-mindedness and singleness of aim and heart.

Every one knew that Laura Clayton, with all her charm, was a dancing sunbeam—never long still. That is, every one except John. Laura knew it. She felt her own unworthiness keenly enough without being told of it, as frequently as she was. She humbled herself in her praying, and asked daily to be made steadfast and good, "like him," her petitions ran.

Meanwhile there were those who were willing to wager on the breaking of the engagement before the end of the year. For John was to go to his first parish in a small town in another State, and the sceptical smiled at the thought of Laura Clayton's remaining of the same mind for a year.

At first the young woman behaved admirably. She eschewed gayety, and almost her only dissipations were afternoon musicales and teas. She wrote to John every day, and slept with his latest letter beneath her pillow every night. She continued to pray for steadfastness and goodness "like his." Then at the end of two months Laura suddenly plunged into gayety again.

"My dearest mother," she said to her remonstrating parent, "I am not a Hindoo widow. I am not even married. When I am I shall do exactly as John wishes. Meantime, I shall not drive myself to suicide by never having any fun. You know I never see a man!"

"No," said Mrs. Clayton, sweetly, "Arthur Hoolbrooke is rather a boy."

"I've known him since I was a baby."

"With the exception of the last four years during which he has been away."

"Do you mean to say you think I'm flirting? Doesn't Arthur know of my engagement? Doesn't John know every time I see Arthur? You are horrid to me, mamma."

"My dear," sighed poor Mrs. Clayton, "I beg your pardon for seeming to interfere. I only wanted you to do nothing that you'll regret."

Whereupon Laura flounced out of the room and wept over John's fortunately glass incased photograph for awhile. Then she went to walk with Arthur Holbrooke and told him her theories concerning friendship between men and women.

Meantime Mrs. Baxter wrote letters.

The more Laura found companionship of one sort and another essential to her happiness, the more she despised the light nature she had always been credited with and the more ardently she desired those severe, Spartan virtues that her lover possessed. She grew morbid in her desire to be like him. She distrusted her most fleeting interests, her most cursory fancies. She strove with all the force of her undisciplined nature to make herself a person of one idea, and failing signally, she condemned herself. Her letters to John were strange, self-accusatory affairs, which, added to his mother's epistles, destroyed the young man's peace of mind most effectually.

Relying on his own strength of character, never doubting for an instant the unshakable nature of his regard for Laura, he began going, for temporary comfort to one Miss Dorothea Granby, a member of his Altar Guild, and a girl rather given to wearing silver crosses and other ecclesiastical jewelry.

* * * * * *

"Why doesn't Arthur Holbrooke come here any longer?" demanded Mrs. Clayton of her daughter, one day.

Laura looked up, strangely white and weary.

"I sent him away," she said indifferently.

"My dear! Then it came to that?"

"Yes."

"Are you regretting it, Laura, dear?" asked her mother, gently.

"No."

"You didn't care for him?"

"No."

"I am so glad. Poor boy!" remarked Mrs. Clayton. "But, darling, you must not send him away out of a mistaken sense of loyalty. It would be a wrong to John, you know——"

"Don't," cried Laura, burying her face in her hands. And then she handed her mother a letter.

John released her from the engagement which all reports, her own included, agreed to be an irksome one to her. John begged her not to blame herself. It had been a mistake on both sides. He was more to blame than she. And Dorothea Granby had helped him to discover his fault.

That night when she prayed unconsciously the old prayer rose to her lips: "Make me steadfast and good like him," she whispered, and then remembering, buried her face in the coverlid and cried.

ANIMALS TRIED FOR CRIMES.

Curious Law of Olden Times by Which the Lower Animals Were Punished.

In these days of enlightened equity it is hard to realize that there was a time when the lower animals were prosecuted by law. As late as the sixteenth century hogs, rats, flies, bees and insects of various kinds were solemnly tried for depredations of which it was said they were guilty. It is recorded that a lot of rats tried to eat up the barley of the south of France. In the trial the rats were defended by Chasseneux, a great lawyer of the day, who actually won the case for the animals. In Sardinia the ass was the only animal exempt from capital punishment. Why it should have been exempt more than other animals is a mystery. Sometimes an animal would be executed. Again it would be anathematized.

Mules have had their ears lopped off for wrongdoing. If the mule was very bad he ran the chance of being declared forfeit to the king, wherefrom it can be suspected that there was just a trifle of method in the governmental madness. It is stated that a horde of small flies which had become a pest in Mayence escaped punishment because of their extreme youth and small size. Once in France a number of hogs were tried for devouring an infant. The verdict was that they should be hanged, drawn and quartered. The sentence was carried out.

Procedures of this nature were common as late as the time of Shakespeare. Toward the latter end of the sixteenth century the authorities awoke to a sense of the utter silliness of the whole affair, and by the year 1700 the practice had become very uncommon.

Crocodiles Get the Soldiers.

The most disastrous conflict so far recorded for the rebels of Cuba happened on the night of April 2 between the forces commanded on the rebel side by Gen. Miro and a detachment of 1,000 men from the army of Gen. Lachambre.

The forces came together late in the afternoon at the edge of a dense swamp near Jiguani. At this season of the year in that vicinity the atmosphere becomes so dense in the afternoons, after the sun has passed the meridian, that it is almost impossible to distinguish objects at a distance of a hundred yards. Each side was hunting for the other, and they came together rather unexpectedly. The Spaniards succeeded in repulsing the rebels in short order. Eight on the latter side fell, three killed outright, and many others badly wounded. Finding that they were outnumbered and outclassed the rebels took to the swamp, the Spaniards right behind them, firing as fast as their guns and shells would permit.

Seeing that they were about to be overtaken the rebels waded in a shallow lake, attempting to gain the opposite shore, about half a mile distant. No sooner had they jumped into the water than the crocodiles made their appearance. The next thing Miro knew he had a foe more formidable than the royalist soldiers. He lost twelve of his men in the lake, they being eaten by the crocodiles before they could be rescued.

Booth a Poor Imitator.

The following story about Edwin Booth is told in the Toledo Blade: "On the occasion of his brother's benefit he was standing behind the scenes when a character actor, who had been giving imitations of noted actors, was about to respond to an encore. 'Whom do you imitate next?' inquired Booth. 'Well,' was the reply, 'I was going to represent you in Hamlet's soliloquy, but if you look on I'm afraid I shall make a mess of it.' 'Suppose I imitate myself?' remarked the tragedian, and hastily putting on the other actor's wig and buttoning up his coat he went on and delivered the well known lines. Next morning the newspapers stated that the imitations ruined the performance, the personation of Edwin Booth being simply vile enough to make that actor shudder had he seen it.'"

A Natural Inquiry.

A number of persons were gathered at a small railroad station to see the train go by. One man in the crowd had a miserable cur dog, and the interest of the dog was as deep as that of any other spectator. As the train again got under way, and was sailing down the track at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour, the dog took after it, barking and yelping furiously. After a long chase he came back to the platform out of breath and lame.

"Do you reckon that durn fool dog actually thought he could catch that train?" Vance asked of the owner.

"Wal, I don't know 'bout that," gravely responded the countryman; "the thought that was agitatin' my mind was what he'd a done with it if he had caught it."

Live in Hopes.

Fashionable Philantrophy — Englishman—Why is it you Hamericans copy the Henglish?

American—We are in hopes you Englishmen will see how it looks and get disgusted with yourselves. — Atlanta Constitution.

Artistic Feeling.

"Do you think that an artist puts his own feelings into his work?" asked the young woman.

"To be sure," came the reply.

"I suppose," she went on thoughtfully, "that's why some of the poor hungry fellows make their sales look like scrambled eggs."

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
The Standard Railroad of America.

Protected throughout by the Interlocking Switch and Block Signal System.

On and after January 20, 1895

Trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

Fast Line leaves Philadelphia 12:25 p. m., daily, with Pullman Vestibule Parlor and Dining Cars, for Pittsburg, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

6:36 p. m.—Western Express, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Cars and Dining Car, daily, for Pittsburg, Chicago and Cleveland, daily except Saturday, for Toledo, Williamsport, Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

8:24 p. m.—Southwestern Express, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Car, daily, for Columbus, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, and Memphis. Dining car Altoona to Richmond.

3:42 p. m.—Pacific Express, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Cars, daily, for Pittsburg, Columbus, Chicago and Toledo, daily except Saturday, for Cleveland.

For Baltimore, Washington and the South—1:00, 9:05, 9:36 a. m., 9:30 p. m. On Sunday, at 1:00, 9:05, 9:36 a. m., and 9:41 p. m.

For Baltimore only, 1:37 p. m., week-days.

For Newark and New York—3:32, 5:34, 5:46, 6:17, 6:45, 7:01, 7:20, 7:49, 7:57, 8:06, 8:28, 8:33, 8:47, 9:17, 9:41, 9:48, 10:20, 10:38, 10:49, 11:05, 11:48 a. m., 1:13, 1:20, 1:50, 2:24, 2:40, 2:45, 3:37, 3:47, 4:43, 5:15, 5:36, 5:48, 6:08, 6:27, 6:48, 6:58, 7:07, 7:25, 7:59, 8:17, 9:10, 9:50, 10:06, 11:03, and 11:56 p. m. Sundays, 3:02, 5:34, 7:54, 8:45, 9:26, 9:47, 10:12, 10:38, 10:49 a. m., 12:35, 1:44, 2:32, 2:45, 3:45, 4:38, 5:34, 5:48, 7:05, 7:12, 7:25, 7:58, 8:36, 9:35, 10:16, 11:46, and 11:56 p. m.

For New York only, 6:10 a. m., daily.

For Philadelphia—1:00, 6:57, 7:20, 9:05, 9:36, 11:43 a. m., 12:35, 1:37, 3:33, 5:08, 6:36, 7:46, 8:42, 9:39 p. m., Sunday, 1:00, 6:59, 9:05, 9:36, 10:41 a. m., 5:40, 6:37, 7:47, and 9:41 p. m.

For Atlantic City—2:25, p. m., week-days, with through buffet parlor car. Sunday 6:59 a. m.

For Cape May—1:37 p. m. week-days.

For Rahway—1:00, (1:43 daily except Monday) 6:44, 7:10, 7:59, 8:54, 9:48, 9:50, 10:59, 11:43 a. m., 12:46, 1:11, 1:37, 2:48, 3:20, 3:39, 3:58, 4:38, 4:53, 5:22, 5:40, 6:00, 6:06, 6:12, 6:17, 6:29, 6:45, 6:52, 6:59, 7:20, 7:46, 8:14, 8:55, 9:54, 11:02, 11:45 p. m., and 12:27, night, week-day. Sundays, 1:00, 1:43, 6:50, 8:43, 9:49, 10:25, 10:41, and 11:47 a. m., 12:50, 1:50, 2:47, 3:28, 4:50, 5:20, 5:46, 7:21, 7:27, 7:47, 8:14, 8:47, 9:16, 10:14, 11:00, and 11:55 p. m.

For New Brunswick—1:00, 6:57, 7:10, 7:59, 9:05, 9:36, 9:50, 11:43 a. m., 12:35, 1:37, 2:48, 5:08, 6:36, 7:46, 8:42, 9:39, and 11:02 p. m. Sundays, 1:00, 6:59, 9:05, 9:49, 10:41, a. m., 12:50, 1:50, 5:40, 7:47, 9:16, and 9:41 p. m.

For Woodbridge—(1:43 a. m., daily except Monday) 6:44, 9:46, 10:59, a. m., 12:46, 3:20, 4:53, 5:44, 6:12, 7:20, 9:54, p. m., and 12:27, night, week-days. Sundays, 1:43, 10:25, 11:47, a. m., and 10:14 p. m.

For Perth Amboy—(1:43, a. m., daily except Monday,) 6:44, 9:46, 10:59, a. m., 12:46, 3:20, 4:53, 5:44, 6:12, 7:20, 9:54, and 12:27 night, week-days. Sundays, 1:43, 10:25, and 11:47 a. m., and 10:14 p. m.

For East Millstone—7:10 a. m., 12:46, 2:48, 5:40 p. m. week-days.

For Trenton—1:00, 6:57, 7:10, 7:59, 9:05, 9:36, 11:43 a. m., 12:35, 1:37, 2:48, 5:08, 6:36, 7:46, 8:42, 9:39 p. m. Sundays, 1:00, 6:59, 9:05, 9:36, 10:41 a. m., 5:40, 6:37, 7:47, and 9:41 p. m.

For Lambertville, Philipsburg, and Belvidere, via Trenton—7:59 a. m., 2:48 and 6:36 p. m. and 5:40 p. m., Sunday.

For Flemington—7:59 a. m., and 2:48 p. m.

For Freehold—7:59 a. m., Monmouth Junction—7:59, 11:43 a. m., 4:38, 5:08 p. m. week-day.

For Jamesburg, via Monmouth Junction—7:59, 11:43 a. m., 4:38, 5:08 p. m. week-days.

For Long Branch, Asbury Park, Ocean Grove, and points on New York and Long Branch R. R.—9:46 a. m., 12:46, 4:12, 5:34 p. m., and 12:27 night, week-days. Sundays 10:25 a. m., and 5:44 p. m., do not stop at Asbury Park and Ocean Grove on Sundays.

For Seaside Park, Island Heights, and Toms River—12:46 p. m., week-days.

For Boston—8:00 p. m., daily.

For Brooklyn, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats to Brooklyn, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York city.

Leave New York for Elizabeth—(1:00 daily except Monday) 6:00, 6:30, 7:20, 8:10, 8:30, 9:00, 9:10, 10:10, 11:00 a. m., 12:00 noon, 12:10, 12:30, 1:00, 2:10, 2:20, 3:00, 3:20, 4:00, 4:10, 4:30, 4:40, 5:00, 5:10, 5:20, 5:30, 5:40, 5:50, 6:00, 6:30, 6:20, 6:40, 7:00, 7:30, 8:15, 9:15, 10:15, 11:00, 11:50 p. m., 12:15 night. Sundays, 1:00, 6:15, 8:00, 9:00, 9:45, 10:00, 11:00 a. m., 12:00 noon, 1:00, 2:00, 2:45, 4:00, 4:30, 5:00, 5:30, 6:45, 7:00, 7:30, 8:00, 8:30, 9:30, 10:15, 11:00 p. m., and 12:15 night.

S. M PREVOST,
General Manager.
J. R. WOOD,
General Passenger Agent.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.
New York Mails.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11 a. m., 2:30, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 and 9:20 a. m., 1:45, 5 and 7:00 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:30 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 5:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

List of Advertised Letters
Plainfield postoffice, May 7, 1895.
(Officially furnished weekly for publication in The Daily Press.)

Appisea Acostino
Balzarino Terafino
Brumby Maude
Chase Charles
Connelly John
Cohen Rev M
Croy F W
Cecere Tabeta
Edwards Kate (2)
Ellis Mrs Mary
Ewing Mrs Wm
Haddon Patrick
Hoffman Mrs
Hagle Fred
Ingraham Walter
Jackson Henry
Kenin David
Kocher R J
Kimball Miss M
Kuhbert Mr
Katrick Miss
Kranzer Robert
Larid (2nd) Mr
Martone Sig Angelo
Migliore Clemente
Mulligan Eliet
Manry Mamie
Mijhnan Mrs
Moore Mrs Rhoda
"Nanna"
Parillo Sig Guiseppi
Peccorell Guiseppi
Parry Preston
Ruskine Robt
Runyon J H
Ryno Joel
Ryen John
Smith David L
Stein T W
Schaffer J
Steward Hiram
Surphen Prime (2)
Tevis E L
Vernon Mrs G E
Vitelli Domenico
Vetromilo Leonardo
Vernon Mrs B R
Woodruff S V

Removal.
I have removed my watchmaking and jewelry business from Park avenue to 142 North avenue, next to Walker's bakery, and shall be pleased to have my friends call.
CALEB DICKINSON.

E. H. Holmes,
Dealer in
COAL AND WOOD.
Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue. Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Jones & Co., EXCAVATORS.
Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary conditions. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.
Cesspools Built.

Joseph E. Mosher, agent for H. J. Hayden Co.,
War claims Att'ys., Washington, D. C.
All claims put in our hands will receive prompt attention. Call at the Crescent Cigar Store for fine cigars.

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 20c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
Finest Dairy Butter 15c.
V. L. FRAZEE,
151 West Front st.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.
Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.
Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.
Time Table in Effect Nov. 18, 1894.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK

Leave Plainfield 2:14, 3:37, 5:38, 6:05, 6:29, 6:59, 7:26, 7:30, 7:58, 8:00, 8:15, 8:27, 8:31, 8:48, 9:32, 10:04, 10:27, 11:19, a. m; 12:06, 1:18, 2:07, 2:30, 3:12, 3:51, 4:50, 5:54, 7:01, 8:30, 9:23, 10:17, 11:28, p. m. Sundays, 2:14, 3:37, 6:05, 8:01, 8:52, 10:08, 11:19, 11:28, a. m; 12:33, 1:45, 3:30, 5:28, 5:36, 7:11, 8:23, 8:32, 10:17, p. m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4:30, 6:00, 7:15, 8:00, 8:30, 9:10, 10:00, 11:45, a. m; 1:10, 1:30, 2:30, 3:30, 3:45, 4:30, 4:30, 5:00, 5:15, (except Saturdays) 5:30, 5:45, 6:00, 6:15, 6:30, 7:00, 7:30, 8:00, 8:30, 9:15, 10:15, 11:30, p. m; 12:15, 1:00, night. Sunday 4:30, 7:15, 8:30, 9:15, a. m; 2:00 m; 1:00, 2:15, 4:00, 5:30, 7:00, 9:00, 10:00, p. m; 12:15 night, 1:00 a. m.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5:38, 6:29, 6:59, 7:26, 7:30, 8:00, 8:48, 9:32, 10:04, 10:27, a. m; 12:06, 1:18, 2:07, 2:30, 3:12, 3:51, 4:50, 5:54, 6:54, 7:03, 8:30, 10:17, 11:28, p. m. Sunday 8:01, 8:52, 10:08, 11:28 a. m; 12:33, 1:45, 3:30, 5:36, 7:11, 8:23, 8:32, 10:17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6:15, 7:18, 7:55, 8:39, 9:08, 10:05, 11:25 a. m; 1:15, 1:35, 2:20 (Saturdays only) 2:50, 3:35, 4:05, 4:40, 5:04, 5:34, 5:50, 6:20, 7:15, 7:35, 8:40, 10:05, 11:25, p. m. Sunday 7:30, 8:45, 9:35, 11:35 a. m; 1:10, 2:35, 4:10, 5:40, 7:20, 9:25, 10:20 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5:45, 7:10, 8:16, 9:54, 11:00 a. m; 12:46, 2:08, 2:52, 3:45, 4:56, 5:05, 5:14, 5:34, 6:04, 6:19, 6:38, 7:12, 7:34, 8:21, 10:26, 11:23, p. m; 12:38 night. Sunday 5:45, 8:28, 9:34, a. m; 2:05, 3:28, 5:14, 6:35, 10:15, 11:14 p. m.

Leave Somerville at 6:00, 6:30, 7:00, 7:25, 7:35, 7:48, 8:20, 9:05, 9:48, 11:40 a. m; 12:50, 1:48, 2:05, 3:25, 4:25, 5:28, 6:35, 8:07, 8:45, 11:05 p. m. Sunday at 8:25, 9:45, 10:55 a. m; 12:08, 1:20, 5:05, 6:45, 8:05, 8:05, 9:40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5:45, 8:16, 9:54 a. m., 12:46, 2:08, 5:05, 5:14, 6:38, 8:21 p. m. Sunday at 5:45, 8:28, a. m; 2:05, 6:35 p. m.

Leave Easton at 6:05, 7:00, 8:53, a. m; 12:32, 4:00, 7:00, p. m. Sunday at 7:15, 10:52 a. m; 6:40, 7:30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9:54 a. m.; 5:05 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5:45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7:10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8:16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9:54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. Through coach to Williamsport.

12:46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2:08 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5:05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5:14 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin, (buffet parlor car to Scranton)

6:19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6:38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8:21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

9:45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

8:28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2:05 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

6:35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3:37, 8:00, 10:27, a. m., 1:18, 3:51, 5:54, p. m., Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8:52 a. m.; 3:30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3:37, 5:38, 8:00, 10:27, a. m., 1:18, 3:51, 4:50, 5:54, 7:03, p. m., Sundays 8:52 a. m.; 3:30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3:37 a. m.; 1:18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3:37, 8:00, 10:27 a. m.; 1:18, 3:51, 4:50 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5:45, 8:46, 9:48, 10:45 a. m., 2:08*, 5:34*, 6:45, 8:21, 9:37* p. m. 1:12 night. Sundays—5:45, 9:48 a. m., 2:05*, 4:14*, 6:45 p. m. 1:12 night.

For Trenton, 5:45, 8:46, 9:40*, 10:45 a. m., 12:46, 2:08*, 5:34*, 6:28*, 8:21, 9:37* p. m. 1:12 night. Sundays—5:45, 9:34 a. m., 2:05*, 5:14*, 6:35*, p. m. 1:12 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 9:48 a. m., 2:08, 5:34*, 6:45 p. m., 1:12 night. Sundays, 9:48 a. m., 2:05, 5:14*, 6:45 p. m., 1:12 night.

For Chattanooga, New Orleans and all points South, with through vestibuled sleeping cars via Shenandoah Valley Line, at 5:34 p. m. Sunday 5:14 p. m.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9:54 a. m., 8:22 p. m. Sunday 6:35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

A Full Assortment of Stationery
AT HARPER'S,
411 Park avenue.

Fred Endress,
Dealer in
All Kinds of Choice Meats.
Jersey Pork and Poultry a Specialty.
203 Liberty street.

H. HAND,
Licensed Auctioneer.
15 Years Experience
Residence and postoffice address Scotch Plains, N. J.
Office in Plainfield at Terrill & Cole's livery 200 West 2d st.

Prof. A. Wehner,
TEACHER OF
The Pianoforte.
Also Voice Culture.
Graduate of the Conservatory of Leipzic, Germany, desires a few more pupils in Plainfield. References required and given. Address letters to the office of this paper.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday eveningsof each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Court Pride of New Jersey, No. 8024, Ancient Order of Foresters of America, meets in K. of P. Hall, No. 108 West 2d street, first and third Tuesday evenings in each month.
Samuel J. Flynn, Chief Ranger.
Samuel H. Lunger, Fin. Sec.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays in the Babcock Building.
C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Masonic Hall, East Front street.
D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. M. Rea, Regent.
H. A. Thorne, Secretary.

Lawyers.

W. K. McClure,
COUNSELOR AT LAW.
Supreme Court Commissioner.
First National Bank Building.

W. R. Codington's
LAW OFFICES,
Corner Park ave. and 2d st.
Solicitor and Master in Chancery.
Notary Public.

The Sign on the Window Reads

Woolston & Buckle,
Paper Hangers.

We have had the door hinges and latch oiled up so that getting in is easy. So also is the getting out. Prices are so low on Wall Papers that you will buy before you go.

It's a Fact that we sell

Men's and Boys' Clothing,

Hats, Shirts, Underwear, Ties, etc., cheaper than any house in town. Buying from merchants who are pressed for cash we buy our goods at our own price and sell them cheap.

Everything sold is fully recommended or money refunded. Boys' School Suits from $1.25; Boys' Long Pants Suits $2 up; Men's Serviceable Suits $3.50 to $6; Men's Suits for dress wear $5.50 and upwards; Derbys, equal to any $3 hat at $1.50.

It is to your benefit to examine our goods before buying elsewhere.

Plainfield Bargain House.

J. Goldstein, 126 Park Avenue.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.

Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.

Telephone Call 158a.

TELEPHONE 58.

Ring it up when you want good coal, and talk to

Geo. O. Stevens.

N. E. King,
High-Class
PORTRAITS
In Crayon, Pastel and Water Colors.
483 Lexington ave.,
Brooklyn, N. Y.
Refers by permission to John A. Thickstun, L. B. Woolston, J. L. Blackford, L. W. Randolph, A. L. Force. Further information at the drug store of L. W. Randolph or office of The Daily Press, where specimen of work can be seen.

CONFECTIONS,
Fresh, and from
Pure Materials.
TIER'S,
116 Park Avenue.

R. MURRAY, M. D.,
Surgeon General (Retired), U. S. A.
Philadelphia.

WRITES ABOUT

Nervous Dyspepsia

"As a dietetic preparation I believe Bovinine of great value. I have used it for more than a year in a very aggravated case of nervous dyspepsia, and found it very much superior to any other meat extract food.

BOVININE
The Original Raw Food

"I also find it keeps in the warmest weather. It is easily prepared for administration, and has been successful in every case where I have tried it."

Sold by all druggists.
THE BOVININE CO., NEW YORK.

PLAINFIELD Machine Works,
Manufacturers of
Steam Engines,

Electric motors and dynamos. Shafting and mill work generally. Jobbing in all its branches. Prompt attention given to repairing of steam engines, boilers, bicycles, etc. Piping in all its branches. Give us a call.
N. C. Mague, Manager. Works cor. Richmond and E. 3d st., Plainfield.

Wall Paper,
Wall Paper.

Wall Paper Bargains
5, 6, 8, 10c Roll.

Also all the best papers for the fine trade. Competent men employed to hang our papers.

Rugs, Window Shades, Mouldings, Varnishes, Paints, Kalsomine, Tinting Colors, Oils, Artists' Materials, Cigars.

LOVE,
Cor. North and Watchung ave.

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent,
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,

Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.

Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.

Rough and Dressed Lumber.

He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

CHOICE
Lawn Seeds, Garden Seeds & Fertilizers.

Lawn Mowers Repaired, Plumbing, Tinning and Hardware.

A. M. GRIFFEN
119 East Front St.

Try Dobbins's Cigars.
206 PARK AVE.
HE MANUFACTURES THEM.

Real Estate, Insurance.
VanBuren & Timpson,
163 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

SKETCHES OF LINCOLN.

"Short and Simple Annals of the Poor."

DATE AND PLACE OF HIS BIRTH.

Interview With a Newspaper Man—Lincoln's Reference to His Mother—The Family Record—A Tragic Death—The Roving Father of the President.

[From "The Life of Lincoln" by William H. Herndon and Jesse W. Weik. Copyright, 1888, by Jesse W. Weik. Copyright, 1892, by D. Appleton & Co.]

I.

Beyond the fact that he was born on the 12th day of February, 1809, in Hardin county, Ky., Mr. Lincoln usually had but little to say of himself, the lives of his parents or the history of the family before their removal to Indiana. If he mentioned the subject at all, it was with great reluctance and significant reserve. There was something about his origin he never cared to dwell upon. His nomination for the presidency in 1860, however, made the publication of his life a necessity and attracted to Springfield an army of campaign biographers and newspaper men. They met him in his office, stopped him in his walks and followed him to his house. Artists came to paint his picture and sculptors to make his bust. His autographs were in demand, and people came long distances to shake him by the hand. This sudden elevation to national prominence found Mr. Lincoln unprepared in a great measure for the unaccustomed demonstration that awaited him. While he was easy of approach and equally courteous to all, yet, as he said to me one evening after a long day of handshaking, he could not understand why people should make so much over him.

Among the earliest newspaper men to arrive in Springfield after the Chicago convention was the late J. L. Scripps of the Chicago Tribune, who proposed to prepare a history of his life. Mr. Lincoln deprecated the idea of writing even a campaign biography. "Why, Scripps," said he, "it is a great piece of folly to attempt to make anything out of me or my early life. It can all be condensed into a single sentence, and that sentence you will find in Gray's 'Elegy:'

"The short and simple annals of the poor.

"That's my life, and that's all you or any one else can make out of it."

He did, however, communicate some facts and meager incidents of his early days, and with the matter thus obtained Mr. Scripps prepared his book. Soon after the death of Lincoln I received a letter from Scripps, in which, among other things, he recalled the meeting with Lincoln and the view he took of the biography matter.

"Lincoln seemed to be painfully impressed," he wrote, "with the extreme poverty of his early surroundings and the utter absence of all romantic and heroic elements. He communicated some facts to me concerning his ancestry, which he did not wish to have published then, and which I have never spoken of or alluded to before."

What the facts referred to by Mr. Scripps were we do not know, for he died several years ago without, so far as is known, revealing them to any one.

Lincoln and His Mother.

On the subject of his ancestry and origin I only remember one time when Mr. Lincoln ever referred to it. It was about 1850, when he and I were driving in his one horse buggy to the court in Menard county, Ills. The suit we were going to try was one in which we were likely, either directly or collaterally, to touch upon the subject of hereditary traits. During the ride he spoke for the first time in my hearing of his mother, dwelling on her characteristics and mentioning or enumerating what qualities he inherited from her. He said, among other things, that she was the daughter of Lucy Hanks and a well bred but obscure Virginia farmer or planter, and he argued that from this last source came his power of analysis, his logic, his mental activity, his ambition and all the qualities that distinguished him from the other members and descendants of the Hanks family.

Abraham Lincoln, the grandfather of the president, emigrated to Jefferson county, Ky., from Virginia, about 1780, and from that time forward the former state became an important one in the history of the family, for in it was destined to be born its most illustrious member. About five years before this a handful of Virginians had started across the mountains for Kentucky, and in the company, besides their historian, William Calk, whose diary recently came to light, was one Abraham Hanks. They were evidently a crowd of jolly young men bent on adventure and fun, but their sport was attended with frequent disasters. Their journey began at "Mr. Prige's tavern on the Rapidan." When only a few days out, "Hanks' dog's leg got broke." Later in the course of the journey Hanks and another companion became separated from the rest of the party and were lost in the mountains for two days. In crossing a stream "Abraham's saddle turned over and his load all fell in Indian creek." Finally they meet their brethren from whom they have been separated and then pursue their way without further interruption. Returning emigrants whom they meet, according to the journal of Calk, "tell such news of the Indians" that certain members of the company are "afrade to go aney further." The following day more or less demoralization takes place among the members of this pioneer party when the announcement is made, as their chronicler so faithfully records it, that "Philip Drake bakes bread without washing his hands." This was an unpardonable sin, and at it they revolted. A day later the record shows that "Abram turns back." Beyond this we shall never know what became of Abraham Hanks, for no further mention of him is made in this or any other history. He may have returned to Virginia and become, for aught we know, one of the president's ancestors on the maternal side of the house; but, if so, his illustrious descendant was never able to establish the fact or trace his lineage satisfactorily beyond the first generation which preceded him. He never mentioned who his maternal grandfather was, if indeed he knew.

An Indian Tragedy.

His paternal grandfather, Abraham Lincoln, the pioneer from Virginia, met his death within two years after his settlement in Kentucky at the hands of the Indians, "not in battle," as his distinguished grandson tells us, "but by stealth, when he was laboring to open a farm in the forest." The story of his death in sight of his youngest son, Thomas, then only 6 years old, is by no means a new one to the world. In fact, I have often heard the president describe the tragedy as he had inherited the story from his father. The dead pioneer had three sons, Mordecai, Josiah and Thomas, in the order named. When the father fell, Mordecai, having hastily sent Josiah to the neighboring fort after assistance, ran into the cabin, and pointing his rifle through a crack between the logs prepared for defense. Presently an Indian came stealing up to the dead father's body. Beside the latter sat the little boy Thomas. Mordecai took deliberate aim at a silver crescent which hung suspended from the Indian's breast and brought him to the ground. Josiah returned from the fort with the desired relief, and the savages were easily dispersed, leaving behind one dead and one wounded.

The tragic death of his father filled Mordecai with an intense hatred of the Indians, a feeling from which he never recovered. It was ever with him like an avenging spirit. From Jefferson county he removed to Grayson, where he spent the remainder of his days.

Lincoln's Father.

In Thomas, roving and shiftless, to whom was "reserved the honor of an illustrious paternity," are we alone interested. He was, we are told, 5 feet 10 inches high, weighed 195 pounds, had a well rounded face, dark hazel eyes, coarse black hair and was slightly stoop shouldered. His build was so compact that Dennis Hanks used to say he could not find the point of separation between his ribs. He was proverbially slow of movement, mentally and physically, was careless, inert and dull, was sinewy and gifted with great strength, was inoffensively quiet and peaceable, but when roused to resistance a dangerous antagonist. He had a liking for jokes and stories, which was one of the few traits he transmitted to his illustrious son, was fond of the chase and had no marked aversion for the bottle, though in the latter case he indulged no more freely than the average Kentuckian of his day.

At the time of his marriage to Nancy Hanks he could neither read nor write, but his wife, who was gifted with more education and was otherwise his mental superior, taught him, it is said, to write his name and to read—at least he was able in later years to spell his way slow through the Bible. In his religious belief he first affiliated with the Free Will Baptists. After his removal to Indiana he changed his adherence to the Presbyterians—or Predestinarians, as they were then called—and later united with the Christian—vulgarly called Campbellite—church, in which latter faith he is supposed to have died. He was a carpenter by trade and essayed farming, too, but in this, as in almost every other undertaking, he was singularly unsuccessful. He was placed in possession of several tracts of land at different times in his life, but was never able to pay for a single one of them. The farm on which he died was one his son purchased, providing a life estate therein for him and his wife. He never fell in with the routine of labor; was what some people would call unfortunate or unlucky in all his business ventures—if in reality he ever made one—and died near the village of Farmington in Coles county, Ills., on the 17th day of January, 1851. His son, on account of sickness in his own family, was unable to be present at his father's bedside or witness his death. To those who notified him of his probable demise he wrote: "I sincerely hope that father may yet recover his health, but at all events tell him to remember to call upon and confide in our great and good and merciful Maker, who will not turn away from him in any extremity. He notes the fall of a sparrow and numbers the hairs of our heads, and he will not forget the dying man who puts his trust in him. Say to him that if we could meet now it is doubtful whether it would not be more painful than pleasant, but that if it be his lot to go now he will soon have a joyous meeting with the many loved ones gone before, and where the rest of us, through the help of God, hope ere long to join them."

The Hanks Family.

Nancy Hanks, the mother of the president, at a very early age was taken from her mother Lucy, afterward married to Henry Sparrow, and sent to live with her aunt and uncle, Thomas and Betsy Sparrow. Under this same roof the irrepressible and cheerful waif, Dennis Hanks, also found a shelter. At the time of her marriage to Thomas Lincoln, Nancy was in her twenty-third year. She was above the ordinary height in stature, weighed about 130 pounds, was slenderly built, and had much the appearance of one inclined to consumption. Her skin was dark, hair dark brown, eyes gray and small, forehead prominent, face sharp and angular, with a marked expression of melancholy, which fixed itself in the memory of every one who ever saw or knew her. Though her life was seemingly beclouded by a spirit of sadness, she was in disposition amiable and generally cheerful. Mr. Lincoln himself said to me in 1851, on receiving the news of his father's death, that whatever might be said of his parents, and however unpromising the early surroundings of his mother may have been, she was highly intellectual by nature, had a strong memory, acute judgment and was cool and heroic. From a mental standpoint she no doubt rose above her surroundings, and had she lived the stimulus of her nature would have accelerated her son's success, and she would have been a much more ambitious prompter than his father ever was.

As a School Boy.

He always appeared to be very quiet during playtime; never was rude; seemed to have a liking for solitude; was the one chosen in almost every case to adjust difficulties between boys of his age and size, and when appealed to his decision was an end of the trouble. He was rather noted for keeping his clothes clean longer than any of the others, and although considered a boy of courage had few, if any, difficulties.—E. H. Burba, Letter, March 31, 1866.

DO YOU KNOW THAT

Amos H. VanHorn, L't'd,

73 Market st., Near Plane st., Newark,

Are doing better by purchasers in their line than any other house in the trade? If you doubt it, why just call at number 73
—Get their prices and see the big inducements they are offering. For instance:

PARLOR SUITS. We are giving a Moquette Rug, size 27x54, and a Parlor Table with every Parlor Suit sold.

CARPETS. We are making and laying all of our carpets with paper without charge, which is a saving of 15 cents per yard.

BEDROOM SUITS. We are the only house in the city that is giving a Woven Wire Bed Spring and a Mixed Mattress with every bedroom suit sold.

MATTINGS. We pride ourselves that we have the largest stock of fancy mattings in the city, and at lowest prices. Good Japanese matting at only 15 cents per yard.

NOTE THE NAME AND NUMBER BEFORE ENTERING THE STORE.

PORTLAND RANGES. Any one who wants a range should not buy one until they have called and examined the Famous Portland Range. Over 7,000 now in use and every one warranted. Easy terms. Goods delivered free to all parts of the State.

Storing furniture—It must be true what everybody says, for those who have seen the rooms in our New Storage Building, put up expressly for storing furniture, at 88, 90 and 92 Bank street, say that it is the finest in the State for cleanliness and low rates.

TELEPHONE 530.

AMOS H. VAN HORN, Limited,
73 Market st., Near Plane st., Newark, N. J.

Real Estate.

F. M. BACON
OR
WALLACE VAIL,
Babcock Building, Room 211.

Come and see us. We always keep a good line of houses to rent and for sale. Elegant flats, steam heated, city water and electric lights. Private houses with all modern improvements. Vacant lots, farms, speculative property bought, sold and exchanged. A gem, all improvements, $25 per month, 4 or 5 minutes from station. Farm 6 acres, house, barn, good land, 2 miles from Plainfield, $1,300, a very cheap home; easy payments. House 7 rooms, 5 minutes from station, $2,100. Store and 3 rooms $12 a month. Farm 53 acres, 1,000 peach, apple and pear trees, near Flemington, $2,500.

Piano Bargains!

VANDERBEEK & SATTELS

desire to say that they have just received a fine lot of
NEW PIANOS
of different makes which they will sell at prices never before offered. Among them are those wonderful
Behr Brothers' Pianos, also Behning & Sons'.

They represent also the Knabe, Hazleton, Chickering and many others. They offer from time to time excellent

Bargains in Second-Hand Pianos.

221 PARK AVENUE.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,
301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,
—DEALERS IN—
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Materials, &c.
Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.

Had You Thought of the Difference?

Special sale usually means a smaller profit than usual, but an

ASSIGNEE'S SALE

means something else—it means a sale below cost for cash to settle up a business. So if you want a SUIT OF CLOTHES come to the Schepflin & Schultz assignee sale.

J. F. MacDonald, Assignee
For Schepflin, Schultz & Co.,
318 West Front street, - - Plainfield, N. J.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,
177 NORTH AVENUE.

DUNELLEN.

A. Giddus has accepted a position as painter in Bound Brook.

Mrs. John Peters and daughter, Miss Elsie, are spending the week in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Neilor of Brooklyn are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Silas Neilor.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blank of New York are visiting Mrs. Katherine Blank.

Mrs. A. S. Whitney is visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Adams in Newton.

P. V. Huff is visiting relatives in East Orange.

Joshua P. Thompson of St. Paul is a guest at the home of Mrs. W. H. Slape.

J. R. Losey and family have moved to Plainfield.

The new Board of Freeholders organized with Henry S. Garretson as director, and William S. Carman as clerk.

The store of Paul Reusch has been much improved by the arch made between the store and ice-cream parlor. A soda-water fountain will soon be added.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—The North Plainfield Borough Council meets tonight.

—You will be specially interested in The Daily Press tomorrow.

—Boehm's big bazar is always busy. It is full of bargains. That's why.

—A special sale of strawberries and fresh vegetables, at Neuman Bros' tomorrow.

—Don't forget the great display of fresh vegetables at Neuman Bros' tomorrow.

—To keep posted on Plainfield's progress you need The Daily Press every day.

—Miss Mamie Morton has resigned her position in the notion department at Edsall's.

—Go to Tier's for the largest assortment and purest quality of ice-cream and candies.

—Hallock received today his first instalment of straw hats; and how good and cheap they are!

—An invaluable series of papers on Lincoln, telling facts as never before published, is begun in this issue.

—The Bee Hive will show a full line of Summer underwear, and a full line of children's and misses' dresses, tomorrow.

—300 bunches of choice asparagus at Neuman Bros' tomorrow. Come early and have your order delivered for lunch.

—The new departure at Edsall's is meeting with great success. Those who have tried his soda-water speak highly in its praise.

—The management of "A Russian Honeymoon" extends thanks to Geo. P. Taggart and Gifford Cooley, for valued aid behind the scenes.

—Fulper says he is no savings bank, but he is banked on saving money for his customers. Call on him tomorrow and price his fresh stock of groceries and fresh vegetables.

The Brooklyn Style.

While John Emmons was endeavoring to cross the trolley car tracks with a horse and buggy on Somerset street, near Grandview avenue, yesterday afternoon at 4, the rear end of the conveyance was struck by a car and raised into the air. Mr. Emmons pluckily held on to the reins, and thus avoided a runaway.

Salvation Work.

Capt. Merritt and Lieut. Guy, faithful women workers of the Salvation Army, will say farewell Sunday night and go on a furlough to New York State. They have made the local corps well organized, and have done efficient work. Capt. Haviland and a lieutenant, both women, of Brooklyn 7, will probably succeed them here.

Man and Wife Evangelists.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierson have begun their evangelistic services in the W. C. T. U. rooms. The subject of yesterday afternoon was prayer; in the evening, the fulness of the Holy Spirit Many staid to the after-meeting. The music was in charge of the young people.

Lots of Business.

Special business will be transacted at the meeting of Perseverance Lodge, Knights of Pythias, this evening, when the first and second ranks will be worked, and the entertainment committee will make a report.

Initiated and Ate.

One candidate was initiated by Central Lodge, A. O. U. W., last night, and after the lodge meeting a collation was served and speech-making indulged in.

Always Extending Their Usefulness.

The local corps of the Salvation Army will go to Garwood Sunday afternoon and conduct services in the chapel

Another Train.

An additional Philadelphia and Baltimore express will be put on the Central, Sunday.

AN ADMIRER'S VIEW.

Exhilarated by His Enjoyment of The Honeymoon, a Theatrical Authority Passes His Judgment into Print.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—

The performance of "A Russian Honeymoon" at Music Hall last evening was a noteworthy event, and should be seriously considered in connection with the development in Plainfield of this most interesting form of amateur cast. Great credit is due the management for its careful and persistent training, and the effect of its fine hand was seen last evening in a production that moved through without a jar and with a finish more suggestive of the professional stage than of amateurs.

The book is by Eugene Scribe, done into English and adapted by Mrs. Burton Harrison. So subtle and elusive is the humor of our French playwrights, that it is no disparagement to our people to say that without an entire adaptation the play could hardly have been successfully produced.

There are in this country scarcely half a dozen players by profession capable of rendering the mercurial and evanescent effects of the Theatre Francais, to say nothing of amateurs.

The one part in the play that retains most of the Parisian temperament of M. Scribe, is that of the Baroness Vladimir. It was a stroke of genius that gave this part last night to Mrs. Serrell. The part demands the keenest wit, the most playful fancy, and an absolute mastery of the stage while one is on the scene, and in all these the brilliant work of Mrs. Serrell was a touch of constant delight. The art, or perhaps the knack of charming prattle, is not rare, even among amateurs, but it is rather out of the common to find such a complete mastery of all the details, the tone of the voice, the prance of the eye, the atmosphere, in a word. Mrs. Serrell was French, or cosmopolitan, rather, and that was just what the author intended the Baroness to be. She was arranging things all the time, and no one in the audience had any doubt that the Baroness was going to succeed. They manage these things better in France, as Sterne said years ago; a brilliant woman of the world, managing things, and ready to die of mortification if she does not succeed—this was the delightful role filled by Mrs. Serrell.

Clearly up at the top, and not in the class of amateurs at all, was the marvelous work of W. R. Cock, as Ivan. This was pure comedy, neither French nor English, nor yet Russian—the universal spirit of human comedy. It is difficult to see how Mr. Cock's personation could have been improved. He never forgot himself, as nearly everyone else did once in awhile, to come out from his part into something more familiar. He was the Russian workman, beaten, yet jolly, afraid of the intendant, always ready to strike a bargain, yet overflowing with good nature all the while. The scene wherein he learns, or thinks he learns, that Poleska is no countess, but a serf, his own servant's wife, was one of the most delightful in the play, completely overshadowing some of the passages of greater dramatic moment. Thus does the player's skill often play fast and loose with the helpless but willing author.

The author's conception of Koulikoff, the intendant, must have been pretty completely realized in the skilful portrayal of Fred Walz. He has thoroughly mastered the use of manner, and with an excellent voice he carried the part through with a fine alternation of tyranny and cringing, according to the shifting of the plot, that evoked repeated applause.

Miss Cooley's personation of Poleska evinced earnestness and painstaking; the part is an ambitious one, fitted to call forth Miss Behan's or Mlle. Hading's talent; it was taken a number of years ago by Agnes Booth, so that Miss Cooley's part was not an easy one. Constantine P. Ralli, as the Count Woroffski showed a thorough familiarity with the stage, his principal fault being a little 'staginess', and the fact that he occasionally forgot that he was assuming the part of a Russian serf, demanding roughness and uncouthness, even. Howard Huntington acted Osip with finish and the reserve that a minor part demands. The part of Micheline was taken by Miss Randolph, and this was on the whole artistically the most interesting personation of the evening. I think it may be safely said that Miss Randolph's conception of the part was a little different from that of stage tradition. The part is a minor one, and ordinarily hardly amounts to anything, being completely overshadowed by Poleska. But Micheline after all was not simply the coquettish young girl as ordinarily played by the soubrette in this part. The coquettishness was quite secondary in her nature, being subordinate to her love for her father and her general willingness and expectation to be useful, things not half so interesting on the stage as the indiscriminate flirting usually falling to parts of this kind. The fact that Miss Randolph played this in the spirit of the dutiful daughter first and the coquette afterwards, and yet threw about it such a continuing charm that every moment of the part was delightful, justifies us in saying a moment ago that artistically this part, though a minor one, was the most interesting personation of the evening. The scene in the second act when Micheline has been told that the Countess is no countess, was excellently well done, and when Micheline offers to come to her assistance in the way of dress—she being the only one to sympathize with the Countess—the temptation to straining a point is so great that most actresses succumb to it. But the Micheline of last evening was sympathetic with a fine sympathy that was so well played that we pitied the Countess ourselves. Micheline moved on the stage with her eye ever fixed with regard on her father—she was quiet, reserved; and, with a fine sense of artistic fitness, would not be brilliant—a little disappointing for a moment, until we remembered that a Russian shoemaker's daughter was not expected to be brilliant; this in short was the Russian with the atmosphere of the original work reproduced in perfection, just as the Countess had brought the atmosphere of another kind of world.

On the whole last night's production argues well for a first-class comedy club in Plainfield. Another encouraging feature was noticeable; none of the women tried to imitate Ada Rehan—a fact that made the performance quite unique among amateur plays Clicquot.

A Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

From the Groton Connecticut Review.—"David Lewis, who has been afflicted all winter by rheumatism, is out again and all due to one of the medicines advertised in our columns. After trying everything possible, he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which has relieved him of all pain, from which he was a constant sufferer and promises to make him fit for duty soon. We know David has been a great sufferer and are glad to see him around again." For sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

An Unfortunate Tumble.

A five-year-old son of Theodore J. Pruden, of East Second street, fell from an apple tree in the yard of Seaman Williams, opposite his home, last night at 6, and fractured his arm above the elbow. Dr. Jenkins was called and reduced the fracture.

It Did the Business.

Mr. J. H. Cobb, publisher of the Mirror, at Brockton, N. Y., says: "For nearly two years the Mirror has been publishing the advertisements of Chamberlain's Remedies. A few days ago the writer was suffering from a bowel trouble and resorted to an old remedy which did not prove efficacious; finally he tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy and two doses did the business, checking it completely. For sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

All Crack Shooters Will Attend.

The return match at 50 live birds each, for $100 a side, between Wm. Ross of Elizabeth and Geo. W. Squier of this city, will be shot tomorrow afternoon at 3, at the Climax Gun Club grounds in Fanwood.

Talked Cold Water.

A meeting of the Ministers Association was held in the Y. M. C. A. parlors yesterday afternoon, and temperance matters were discussed.

Agreeably Surprised.

"I had a very severe cold on my lungs that caused much soreness and gave me considerable uneasiness in regard to the result," says Mr. T. E. Smith, of Billerica, Mass. "A local druggist called my attention to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and on his recommendation I gave the remedy a careful trial. The result surprised me: I recovered entirely in three days." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

Scared by a Trolley Car.

A horse attached to a feed wagon belonging to W. J. Tunison became frightened at a trolley car on Watchung avenue at 6 last night, and in his attempt to get away fell at the corner of East Second street. After some difficulty things were righted, and the rig proceeded on its way.

Looks Like Hot Walking.

Krausse's farm will be the destination to which the participants in the May Walk of the Sangerbund society will go. They leave their hall at 5:30 a. m, Sunday, and will spend the day in the country.

—The Victor Wheelmen will probably run to Newark next Sunday.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Brook, N. C., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicine and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

Citizens Organized Aid.

The regular meeting of the Citizens Organized Aid Association was held last evening, and the usual business was transacted. In addition some interesting and difficult questions were submitted by the Ladies Aid for advice to the committee, which were discussed and considered. The possibility of assistance in certain cases by the W. C. T. U. and Ladies T. A. A., were considered, and steps taken to ascertain what assistance could be hoped for.

How's This!

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.
F. J. CHENEY & Co., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

WEST & TRUAX, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
WALDING, KINNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given that the account of the subscriber, administrator with the will annexed of Thomas Blackwell, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphans' Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the seventeenth day of July next.
Dated May 9, 1895.
5 10 10-oaw ALVAH A. CLARK.

ASSIGNEE'S SETTLEMENT. Notice is hereby given, that the account of the subscriber, assignee of Sidney E. Flower, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphans' Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the seventeenth day of July next.
Dated May 9, 1895.
5 10 10-oaw VINCENT L. FRAZEE.

F. A. DUNHAM,
Civil Engineer and Surveyor
109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas.

Choice Soda

O thirsty mortal, ever ready today at Randolph's. The ancients knew no such pleasure as a delicious draught of our double-refined thirst annihilators. Good for the stomach, beneficial for the brain, light on the pocket, refreshing for young and old. Composed of materials of purity unsurpassed. We may live without poetry, music and art, but to be without soda is not to be tolerated. What more need we say? Drink it.

L. W. Randolph,
Prescription Druggist,
143 WEST FRONT ST.

Gold Dollars for Fifty Cts
No, but full value. C. E. MORSE, Painting and Paper Hanging, 37 Chatham st.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,
Real Estate and Insurance,
197 North avenue.

H. DE MOTT,
Undertaker and Embalmer,
59 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.
Livery attached.

A Large Variety of All the Latest Styles in HATS AND BONNETS
Can be found at the Millinery establishment of
MRS. L. ADAMS,
111 East Front st., Under First National Bank.

MISS CLARIBEL JEFFRY,
Teacher of
Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar.
Best references. 322 West Front st. Call Wednesdays.

For Sale, Cheap.
A large assortment of Geraniums, Coleus, Salvias, Roses, Casino-clematis, Palms and Rubber trees. Also 3,000 Privet hedge plants, and a general collection of hardy plants and shrubs, at
DENTON'S,
131 Hillside Avenue.

BATHS, Hot and Cold 15 Cents
Showers included, at
WILLIAM CLAASSEN'S,
Barber, 211 Liberty Street.

DOGS TAKEN TO BOARD.
NETHERWOOD FARM KENNELS,
Mountain avenue.

THOS. MARLEY,
19 years with M. Quinn.
Blacksmith.
845 Richmond st.

FLORIST.
A. E. LINCOLN,
220 PARK AVE.,
Large assortment of ferns and other plants. Choice cut flowers daily. Floral design work for all occasions a specialty.

Insomnia
is often the result of some wearing pain, slight in itself, yet sufficient to prevent sleep! Instead of using an opiate apply an Allcock's
Porous Plaster
to the aching spot; relief will come, and with relief, sweet, refreshing sleep.
Beware of Nostrums. See that you get "ALLCOCK'S." Do not accept any other.
Allcock's Corn Shields,
Allcock's Bunion Shields,
Have no equal as a relief and cure for corns and bunions.

Brandreth's Pills
first purify, then invigorate the system, facilitating healthy growth.

Neuman Bros.
Specials in
Fresh Vegetables.
Green peas, green beans, wax beans, asparagus, tomatoes lettuce, cucumbers, watercress, spinach, radishes, rhubarb, bunch onions, oyster plant, beets, new carrots, new potatoes.
STRAWBERRIES.

You May Have Lost
many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable
Pair of Collier's Glasses.
103 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

M. M. Dunham,
REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE
109 East Front street.

Miss E. Rockfellow
DRESSMAKING PARLORS,
195 NORTH AVENUE.
Taylor system. Suits $5 and upward.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

Chas. Ficke,
UPHOLSTERER,
Has removed from 1 West Third street, to
128 West Second st.,
Nearly opposite Trinity Reformed Church.
Mattresses and Spring Beds
made to order. Carpets and mattings made and re-made. Awnings and window shades to order, a specialty. Slip covers made. Curtains hung.

FISCHER PIANOS.
Established 1840.
Nearly 100,000 Now in Use
Received highest award at World's Fair, Chicago.
EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.
Catalogue mailed on application.
110 Fifth ave., corner 16th st., N. Y.

ASK FOR KABO No. 350
Price $1.00
Equal in fit and quality to any imported Corset, costing twice the money.
I. LEDERER.

There is one DRESS STAY that
Won't melt apart,
Can't cut through the dress,
Don't stay bent.
It is
BALL'S PEERLESS.
All lengths; all colors.
Seely Edsall, Putnam & DeGraw, I. Lederer.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

A COMPETENT colored cook would like situation. Apply 306 Plainfield avenue. 5 8 3

AGENTS make $5 daily; marvelous invention: retails 25c; 2 to 6 sold in a house; sample mailed free. Forshee & McMakin, Cincinnati, O. 1 2 y-w

COACHMAN and gardener would like position, best references. Address P. care Press. 5 6 6

COLORED boy of about 15 years wanted. Apply in barber shop, Ross's Building, East 5th st., corner Watchung. 5 10 tf

FARMS for sale or exchange for Plainfield property. R. Coddington, Martinsville, N. J. 5 7 6

FIRST-Class dressmaker wants work by the day. 247 West Front st. 5 9 2

FOR SALE or to rent, a new seven-room house on Stone street, two minutes walk from street railway, and fifteen minutes walk from depot. Will sell or rent on easy terms. Call 196 Somerset street. 5 8 4

FOR SALE—Handsome large upright grand piano; a bargain to the person who gets it. Call at Dyer's, 218 West Front street. 5 8 4

FOR SALE—Shetland pony, harness and cart. Apply at 724 Watchung avenue after 4. 5 8 3

FOR SALE—Mr. Coard's fine saddle horse, fearless, sound and kind; bay colt, good in harness. Inquire at Holden's stable. 5 9 3

FOR SALE—Nearly new sidebar buggy; bargain. H. A. Weber, corner West Second and Liberty streets. 5 3 6

FOR SALE—Brahmas and Houdons eggs for hatching. Call at 72 Summit avenue. 5 3 2w

IF you want to purchase a building lot or a house and lot cheap do not forget I am selling out all of my real estate at about cost. Charles H. Hand, 317 Watchung ave. 5 10 2

IS there a person in this philanthropic town who will assist an American girl, employed in a city office where the confinement is injuring her health, and who is pining for fresh air and sunshine, to leave the city and gain health and strength during the Summer months? Is competent to act as correspondent, secretary, do writing of any kind, or light bookkeeping; or will act as traveling companion; understands railroad guides, routes, etc., and has had considerable experience in traveling; references given. Address Hope, care Daily Press office. 5 10 2

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 2 21 tf

PAINTERS WANTED. Apply E. E. Marshall, North avenue. 5 2 tf

SIX ROOM flat to let: all improvements. 200 West Second st. 3 4 tf

TO LET—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping; no children. Apply 10 Duer street. 3 6 tf

TO LET—The building now occupied by the Board of Trade. Apply to Ulrich & Blatz, 153 West Front street. 5 9 t t s tf

TO LET—Three fine offices centrally located. Wm. D. Thickstun, 197 North avenue. 5 9 4 e o d WANTED—An experienced cook. Apply Mrs. F. A. Barnaby, corner Plainfield and Sherman avenues.

WANTED—Boy to learn machinist trade. Climax Stopper Factory, 4th and Washington streets

WANTED—In Plainfield or vicinity, in a private family where there are no other boarders, two large airy rooms on second floor in a house with large grounds and plenty of shade. Dinner at noon. Good table and good beds. Address Comfort, care Press. 5 9 3

YOUNG colored man wants work. Experienced. References. Call 24 West Second street. 5 1 tf

$1,000 TO $3,500 to loan on first mortgage. Mulford, broker. 4 22 tf

SIX ROOM houses for sale or to let: 10 minutes walk from depot. Charles H. Hand. 5 10 2

5 ROOM flat to let; city water; new building; Watchung avenue. Chas. H. Hand. Brick stable to let; three horses and three wagons. 5 10 2

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

A LADY'S TOILET
Is not complete without an ideal
COMPLEXION POWDER.
POZZONI'S
Combines every element of beauty and purity. It is beautifying, soothing, healing, healthful, and harmless, and when rightly used is invisible. A most delicate and desirable protection to the face in this climate.
Insist upon having the genuine.
IT IS FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

THE DAILY PRESS

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., SATURDAY, MAY 11, 1895. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

MADE BELIEVE SUICIDE.

Peculiar Tactics of a Plainfield Youth in Seeking to Win a Girl's Love.

William H. Hall is a rash young man. That is, he wanted Letitia Parkinson to think that way. Hall called on Miss Parkinson last night at one of the houses in the rear of French's mill. He wanted to make love to her, but Letitia repulsed his cooing way. This made the young man mad. He had been imbibing too much amber-colored fluid, and under its seductive influence he thought he would scare Letitia into loving him by threatening to commit suicide. But she refused to be coerced by any such tactics. Then Willie went out to the side of the house, and shot a revolver off into the air, then yelled and fell down, as though he was stabbed to the heart. Of course all this frightened the fair Letitia. She hurriedly sought out Policeman Cooney. However, as soon as Letitia left the house, the essayed suicide got up and went into the house and went to bed. By the time Policeman Cooney arrived he was sound asleep, and expressed much indignation at being awakened by the officer. He was conveyed to a place in the rookery station-house, where he spent the remainder of the night. After much unsavory testimony in court this morning, Judge Coddington fined him $3 for being drunk and disorderly.

THE HUSBAND OBJECTS.

After His Wife Has Been Two Years Away, He Arrests Her and Her Star Boarder.

John McGowan and Julia Sneider of South Second street were arrested yesterday afternoon by Chief Grant on a warrant issued by Justice Nash, on the complaint of Mrs. Sneider's husband, who doesn't like the way his wife bestows favors on McGowan.

Sneider lives at Scotch Plains and alleges that his spouse left him nearly two years ago and has since lived with McGowan as his wife.

The woman claimed that McGowan was only a boarder at her house. The evidence presented, however, was sufficient to warrant the justice in committing the prisoners to the county jail, in default of $250 bail, to await the action of the grand jury.

Happily Surprised.

A very pleasant surprise party was given Miss Edith Robinson of West Third street by her friend, Miss Bertha Mitchell, Wednesday afternoon, May 8, from 4 until 7.

The time was passed in playing games, etc., after which the company repaired to the lawn, where a most delicious repast was served; more games were indulged in, and a most delightful afternoon was brought to a close by a dance around the May pole and the crowning of the young hostess Queen of May.

Among those present were: Ettie Randolph, Ada VanDoren, Emma Foster, Katie Bodine, Jessie Burke, Flora Rosberry, Minnie Hardtfelder, Bertha Mitchell, Annie Mettler, Lillie Hardtfelder, Edith Robinson, Willie Hardtfelder, Clarence VanDoren, Edward Grannatte, Joseph Robinson, Robert Mettler, Arthur Robinson, Walter Foster, Robbie Mitchell.

Hazel Kirke.

"Hazel Kirke", the famous Madison Square Theatre success, where it was played 500 consecutive times, will be presented by special arrangements with Effie Ellsler, in Music Hall, Plainfield, on Wednesday evening, May 15, by a strong selected company of artists who promise to give a perfect production of this the most popular play ever produced. "Hazel Kirke" is an exquisite drama of human interest, that appeals to both young and old. It is full of pathos and smiles, sunshine and shadows. Patrons of this house should secure their seats in advance for this special attraction.

Epworth Anniversary.

The Epworth League connected with the First Methodist Episcopal Church of this city will have charge of the service in that church tomorrow evening. The occasion is the anniversary of the organization of the General League, and appropriate exercises will be held. Dr. Robert R. Doherty of Jersey City, who has been secured as the speaker of the evening, was for several years assistant editor of the Christian Advocate, and is now associated with Dr. Hurlbut in Sunday-school work. He is a most eloquent speaker.

Has Made Us All Laugh.

Ed. Marble, formerly interlocutor for George Thatcher's minstrel company, was in town yesterday calling on friends. He now claims Baltimore as his home.

WATCHUNG AVE. AGAIN.

North Plainfield Wakes to Its Need.

PETITION FOR THE EXTENSION.

Borough Council Hears the Plea and Sets June 7 as the Date for Advocates and Objectors to Be Heard.

An adjourned session of the North Plainfield Borough Council was held last evening. Mayor Hegeman called the meeting to order, and all the members responded to the roll call except Mr. Lounsbury. The pay roll for the week ending May 10, amounting to $155, was presented, and later in the evening ordered paid.

Warren Engine Company submitted for confirmation the list of officers recently elected, as published in The Daily Press at the time. It was referred to the Committee on Fire, Water and Lamps.

Mr. Valiant stated that he had received a letter from Borough Counsel Reed in regard to the claim of H. R. Munger for damages, and his opinion was that the owner of the dogs should pay for the killing of the chickens. The report was received and filed.

Mrs. Smith of the Committee on Streets and Public Health reported that the amount of money solicited among residents of Harrison street was not sufficient, and the petition had been sent back to them. He also reported that work had been started on Mountain avenue, but that the condition of the thoroughfare was so bad that he preferred to ask the consent of the Council before finishing it, which would cost about $250. The request was granted on motion of Mr. Schutt, and the report was received and filed.

A petition was read by Clerk Arnold from residents in the borough, owning one fourth lineal feet frontage on the land for the proposed extension of Watchung avenue, asking that the proposed extension be laid out, and graded in proper form, from Jackson avenue to Green brook. It was signed by the following petitioners: Ferdinand Strauss, Mary McGlone, Mary Elizabeth Mayer, Thomas C. Bird, Elias H. Bird, Fanny Anderson, Francis Conshea, Scyrinthia McDonald, legatees of Werner Heidloff, namely: John J. Heidloff, Nicholas H. Heidloff, Anna E. Crum, Dency C. Horton, Nathaniel Taynor, Patrick Daley, George Taynor, Lewis Bird, Fred Becker, Harriet Richardson, Thomas Rutledge, George White, William E. Johnson, St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Mary E. Schenck, and Emil Messerschmidt.

Mr. Schutt offered a resolution, that due notice be given by the Clerk, by posters, to those wishing to object to the proposed extension, and that June 7 be set as the time for public hearing of the case. This was adopted.

The Council then adjourned.

How to Make Money.

There is no surer way of making money than to avoid the necessity of spending it: one of the best ways to insure this is to have your eyes examined at the first intimation of waning sight. Such an examination at Collier's, 103 Park avenue, will cost you nothing, and will insure you such advice as will exempt you from unnecessary expense, and save you from much suffering and perhaps loss of sight.

Plenty There.

The store of Doane & Edsall is full to the ceiling of seasonable goods. It won't be full very long if they keep going out as they have for the past week. This store is open until 10 tonight with plenty of help and plenty of goods, so that you can be quickly suited and be cool and comfortable while you wait.

Meeting and Supper.

The adjourned annual meeting of The Young Men's Christian Association will be held in the Association Building, Thursday evening, May 16, at 8. A New England supper will be served to active members from 6:30 to 8.

Knights to Have a Smoker.

Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, Knights of Pythias, worked the first and second ranks last night. A report from the entertainment committee was made, though the programme for the smoker of Friday evening, May 24, has not been fully decided on.

Annual Church Meeting.

The annual meeting of the First Church of Christ will take place the evening of Wednesday, June 12, when a good financial showing will be presented.

Plainfield Women Know How Already.

Mrs. Rorer commences a series of practical cooking lessons in the Olympia, next Monday.

BANKRUPTED AUDIENCE.

Jolly Good Times Enjoying Congregational Hard Times.

The hard times are over, judging from the costumes worn at the Hard Times Social in the Congregational Church last evening. There were some who followed out the spirit of the occasion, but the rest delighted the fine-collectors with their silk dresses, jewelry, white shirts, and blacked boots. The invitations were printed on brown paper, and announced fines for all sorts of costumes.

The congregation turned out in good numbers, and in a variety of dress. Silks and calicoes were alternated, and merry chatter and bright laughter animated a picturesque scene. Among those whose costumes were especially "in ye spirit of ye hard times" were Miss Harriet E. Delano, Mrs. Charles L. Goodrich, Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Harold Tomlinson, Mrs. F. F. Clark, Joseph Robinson, George Rose, Robert Suffren, Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, Harold Tomlinson, and Wyatt Barnes.

Most of the men wore either flannel shirts or sweaters, while eye glasses and spectacles could be seen everywhere.

After all had admired their neighbors' costumes, and laughed over the numerous patches, "ye church quire" rendered the selection "Striking the Cymbal". The choir was composed of Miss Eda Beekman, Miss M. G. Morse, Miss Julia Belknap, Miss Capitola Conover, Horace J. Martin, John Burnett, Charles Belknap and Stacy R. Raynolds. Ode to Science" was the next selection, after which Miss Nellie Winckler played a piano solo. "Old Folks at Home", as a solo and chorus, was sung by Miss M. G. Morse assisted by the rest of the choir. The programme concluded with "Auld Lang Syne", and the 'vittles' were served according to the following menu: Kows milke solid, kakes sanwiches, kophe, lemunaid: all of wich may be bort fur 25 sents; any of ye vittles omitted on ye order, will be 5 sents extry.

During the pauses in the entertainment and at the close, the fine-collectors scurried around and collected from all.

Rev. C. L. Goodrich was superintendent of collecting, and was ably assisted in bankrupting the audience by Mrs. Geo. S. Raynolds, Miss Adelade Parsons, Miss Mary Robinson, John Burnett and Joseph Robinson. The door was in charge of Charles Belknap.

The refreshments formed a field of much enjoyment, and the waiters were kept busy attending to the wants of all. The waiters were: Miss Edna Howell, Miss Winckler, Miss Nellie Winckler, Miss Capitola Conover, George Fuller, Charles B. Morse, and Stacy R. Raynolds.

The eatables were arranged and dealt out by the following committee: Mrs. B. T. Barnes, chairman, Mrs. Lloyd Fuller, Mrs. William Van Alstyne, Mrs. L. H. Morgan, Mrs. C. E. Boss, Mrs. Eugene Laing, Mrs. E. L. Suffren, and Mrs. Henry Nomer.

The committee in charge of the decorations consisted of Mrs. C. L. Goodrich, chairman, Mrs. John Burnett, and Miss Eda Beekman. Charles Steiner acted as cashier in the refreshment department. Miss Mary Chase presided over the lemonade table where lemonade was for sale during the evening.

Mrs. M. E. Dwight was the chairman of the committee to provide the entertainment, and succeeded admirably.

The sociable was given by the Ladies Aid Society to aid the carpet fund, and during the evening over $25 was cleared.

Mrs. B. T. Barnes was chairman of the Social Committee, and great credit is due to her and her corps of willing assistants for the delightful evening that was enjoyed and the smooth manner in which everything proceeded.

Soon after 11, the gathering disbanded, and all declared it a most delightful evening.

Not Used to the Cars.

A horse attached to a wagon owned and driven by Peter Bowers, a Washingtonville farmer, became frightened at a trolley car on Somerset street, near Regent street, yesterday afternoon, and made a desperate attempt to get away. Mr. Bowers held fast to the reins, however, and the only damage done by the fractious steed was a broken shaft.

Adjourned for a Week.

In City Court this morning the examination of Michael Day and Michael Cox, charged with fast driving and disorderly conduct on the Boulevard Sunday night, was adjourned for one week.

SPRING CONFERENCE.

E. E. Anthony of Plainfield Elected Union County President—Roselle Gets the Banner.

The Spring Conference of the Union County Christian Endeavor Union held in Elizabeth yesterday was the most successful the Union ever had. The meetings were in the First Baptist Church. In the afternoon the Junior rally was held, and fully 500 children participated. They marched into the church singing "We Are Juniors". John M. Dudley of Elizabeth led the army of little singers. The procession moving through the aisles made a brilliant and inspiring spectacle. Rev. W. E. Staub, pastor of the church, made an address of welcome, and Rev. A. W. Spooner of Camden, the State Junior Superintendent, spoke on "The Children in the Church at Work".

Led by Mrs. L. D. Williams of Elizabeth, the children rendered the committee exercise illustrating the methods of junior work. At the roll call each society responded by singing two verses of a hymn.

Mrs. W. S. Lowry of Plainfield, County Superintendent, was present.

In the evening the Senior societies crowded the church and an enthusiastic meeting, with the theme "Christian Citizenship", was the result. Rev. W. Justin Harsha of Harlem made the address, and Rev. Geo. H. Payson of Rahway conducted a parliament.

Secretary Wilson reported 82 societies in the County, 34 being juniors, and the total membership 3,912. The department plan of work was reported as having been very successful. High credit was given to Mrs. W. S. Lowry of Plainfield for her work in the junior department.

The badge banner for the society having the largest percent of members was presented to the Roselle Baptist Church Society.

Both the Union County and the Elizabeth unions elected officers as follows:

Union County—President, E. E. Anthony of Plainfield; vice-presidents, H. D. Wilson, Elizabeth; William Milliken, Dunellen; R. H. Tice, Roselle; secretary, A. B. Wilson, Rahway; treasurer, J. Warren Brown, Westfield.

Elizabeth — President, E. W. T. Faint, East Baptist society; vice presidents, Miss Clara Walferz, German Moravian society, and Miss Grace Candee, Madison Avenue Presbyterian society; secretary, W. Clifford Willis, Second Presbyterian Church; treasurer, James W. Long, Connecticut Farms Presbyterian Church.

MR. RALLI GIVES CREDIT.

Public Acknowledgment of the Superlative Services of His "Honeymoon" Stage Manager.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—

Will you kindly grant me a little space in your valuable paper to make a public acknowledgment in my capacity as business manager of the "Russian Honeymoon" of the superlative services rendered to the enterprise by James Stowell Anthony, to whose high intelligence, and unflagging industry and zeal, the company owe the success of last night's performance.

Few people outside of those who have had some experience in amateur theatricals have the faintest idea of the amount of patience, labor and thought required in these productions, and that a man can bring such excellent results out of efforts involving the exercise of all these qualities is the best praise that can be accorded Mr. Anthony.

I only regret that I did not have a suitable opportunity last night of making an earlier and more graceful acknowledgment of his services than is contained in the present letter.

Constantine P. Ralli.

New York, May 10, 1895.

Hot Work in Store.

The following are the teams that will bowl on Taylor's alleys at Dunellen Monday evening: Reynolds and Price against Mulford and Stonelake; Reynolds and Price against Bamberger and Neal; Thiers and Matthews against Bamberger and Neal; Sauer Brothers against Mulford and Stonelake.

Red Men Growing and Profiting.

Miantonomoh Tribe of Red Men worked the Hunters' degree on two candidates last night. A report from the entertainment committee was presented, which showed that the lodge had received a gratifying sum of money from their recently presented "Up-to-Date Hotel".

—T. H. Keller and Charles Smith captured several first moneys at the shooting tournament in Newburgh yesterday.

MRS. POWELL PRESIDENT

She Heads the Union County Suffragists.

WOMEN ORGANIZE IN PLAINFIELD.

Most of the Offices Are Held Locally, and This City Promises to Be the Centre of a Great Equal-Rights Movement.

After luncheon and a time of social chat yesterday afternoon, the State Woman Suffrage Association resumed their annual meeting, the morning session of which was recorded exclusively in The Daily Press of yesterday.

The first speaker of the afternoon was Rev. Antoinette Brown Blackwell of Elizabeth, who was an intimate friend of Lucy Stone, remembered as the woman whose personal property was seized by the tax officials because she refused to pay taxes on the ground that it was taxation without representation, the right of voting being denied her.

Mrs. Blackwell made a vigorous address and argument for the extension of the ballot to her sex. She said that years ago there was an organic law in New Jersey, which gave women the right to vote. Afterwards a Legislature took away this right, and then formulated a new constitution, which she characterized as a fraud, and, she added, the women of New Jersey repudiated it. She considered that there was no boundary nor limit to woman's suffrage—that if she had the right to vote at school elections and to hold school offices she should be privileged to the other rights. The law giving the mother the same right over the child as the father, and that granting her the qualification of property-holding, were acts that had only been procured by the ceaseless agitation and effort of women. Equality was all that women asked for.

Mrs. David P. Hall of Plainfield was in favor of making a direct argument for the fullest privileges of suffrage. She did not want to see the real object obscured for the sake of gaining a point on some opponent.

Mrs. Isaac L. Miller of this city argued for equal rights because she believed under the present state of affairs it was taxation without representation.

Rev. Hobart Clark was called on, and addressed the fair audience, at first as "would-be fellow-citizens", and then changed it "to-be fellow-citizens", which of course displayed his position on the question. He thought that if a few hundred thousand women could be exchanged for a few hundred thousand men, and reverse their conditions, leaving the rest of the people as they are, a great deal of good could be gained for reform.

At the conclusion of Mr. Clark's remarks the Union County Woman's Suffrage Association was formed, with the following officers:

President, Mrs. Anna Rice Powell of Plainfield; vice-president, Mrs. Antoinette Brown Blackwell of Elizabeth; corresponding secretary, Miss Eaton of Plainfield; recording secretary, Mrs. D. W. Pond of Plainfield; treasurer, Mrs. Samuel Huntington of Plainfield; auditing committee, Mrs. Child of Elizabeth and Mrs. L. V. F. Randolph of Plainfield.

BETTER TRAIN SERVICE.

Plainfield to Be Benefited by the Change of the Central Schedule.

A new time schedule for the running of trains on the Jersey Central goes into effect at midnight tonight, and by it this city will have better train service by the addition of two Philadelphia trains which will leave the North Avenue station at 2:17 and 10:53 p. m. A new Sunday train to New York leaves at 11:16. The other changes in time of trains to New York are that the 11:19 a. m. will leave at 10:59 and the 5:54 p. m. at 5:29. No changes are made in the week day time of trains from New York, except that the 10:45 p. m. has been taken off. The 3:30 Sunday train will leave 3:43. The Sunday Philadelphia express will leave at 4:55 p. m.

No Time to Dilly-Dally.

The Board of Governors and all the special committees of the Crescent Wheelmen will have a joint meeting Monday evening in the Board of Trade rooms. At that time it is expected arrangements will be made as to prizes, etc., for the Memorial Day meet. With only three weeks before the event a great deal of hard work must be accomplished.

A Good Selection.

Charles Giese is acting as special officer at Music Hall, since the retirement of William Robinson from the police force. Mr. Giese was once a regular officer, but was compelled to retire on account of ill-health.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Samuel Garretson of Middlebush spent yesterday with his brother, J. S. Garretson, in this city.

Andrew Lutkins of Somerset street was this afternoon called West by the serious illness of his father.

Hon. Joseph W. Yates, a personal friend of the late ex-Governor Green, attended the funeral yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Case of 215 Church street returned after a dry and dusty six-days journey from Los Angeles, Cal.

The Progressive Home Circle will be entertained next Thursday evening by Isaac Schwed of Watchung avenue and Fifth street.

Col. James Mulligan and Mrs. Mulligan, of New York city, will spend Sunday at the home of ex-Councilman F. M. Slater, Jackson avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. A. Craighead of 820 Third place have gone for a week in Washington, D. C. Mr. Craighead will be engaged on matters pertaining to his father's estate.

Mrs. Frederick Knowland leaves her Seventh street home Monday, and will spend the Summer at her country home, Logan's Ferry, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hyde will join her there.

The engagement is announced of Miss Byrdee Randolph and George Randolph of Memphis. Miss Randolph is a graduate of Mrs. Reed's school, and has spent much time in Europe. The groom is eldest son and partner of William M. Randolph, one of the most prominent members of the Tenessee bar. The wedding will take place June 5.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Cooler weather tomorrow.

—The Plainfield Bicycle Club meets Monday evening.

—Tier's famous lake house opens for the season tonight.

—J. H. Frisbie killed a "mad" dog at Dr. Berg's house today.

—The Choral Society rehearses in Vincent Chapel tonight at 7:45.

—The Council of the Charities Aid Society is to meet Monday night.

—A ball game takes place on Maltby's driving park this afternoon.

—Ice-cold lemonade, made while you wait, is sumptuously served at Leggett's.

—Looking for a real-estate bargain? Read the auction sale ad, Page 8, column 3.

—The probationers class of the First Methodist Church held a profitable meeting last night in Vincent Chapel.

—Life's best joys consist in peace and ease. You have these comforts when you (the ladies) wear the corsets sold at Peck's.

—One of V. L. Frazee's horses ran away on Somerset street this morning. It was caught by Walter Conover. Damage slight.

—Ephriam Carman, the colored man who had for a number of years charge of the fire department rooms, is very sick at Bound Brook.

—Nathan Guttman and Whitney Frazee attended the anniversary of their fellow-blowers of the Rahway Band Thursday evening.

Ice-Cream Sociable.

That ice-cream and lemonade are very refreshing on a hot night, was experienced by those who attended the sociable in the First Presbyterian Church last evening. The sociable was given under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary, and was arranged by the following committee: Mrs. J. M. Bettman, chairman; Mrs. H. A. Pope, Mrs. S. P. T. Wilbur, Mrs. Wm. Shotwell, Mrs. F. H. Martin, Mrs. J. M. Dayton, Mrs. Hand.

The committee was assisted by Miss Eva Dayton and Thomas D. Blair.

A Child's Misfortune.

A four-year-old child of A. Barre of 746 East Second street fell from the piazza yesterday afternoon at 4, and fractured one of its arms above the elbow. Dr. Fritts attended the injured child.

Danced with Too Much Vim.

During the time that the "Six Daily Hints from Paris" were doing their performance of "1492" in Music Hall last night, one of the chorus girls fell and sprained her ankle.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Brook, N. C., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicine and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

KILLED AND BURNED

Chicago Lodging House Blown Up.

People Jump from Windows to Their Death While Others Perish in the Flames — One Man Believed To Have Been Blown to Atoms The Explosion Caused by Natural Gas.

Chicago, May 11.—A terrific explosion in the big building at No. 10 Sherman street roused the people in that vicinity, and shook the big board of trade at 1.15 this morning. When the firemen arrived in less than five minutes they found the whole front of the building blown out and the flames bursting from the sides and alley windows. The building was occupied as a lodging house which was run by August Mitchell.

Jumped To Their Death.

Just as the police arrived they saw a man leap from a third story window and come to the ally below. He was picked up and found to be August Mitchell. He was disposed of in an ambulance and the firemen, aided by the police, rescued his wife and child from the rear of the third floor, but the daughter, Mary, jumped and was fatally injured. Mitchell was fatally hurt.

Searching for Bodies.

The firemen in groping around the building, found the dead body of a man on the second floor near the rear of the building, and in five minutes found two other men who were fatally burned. Wild rumors of fifteen killed were soon afloat. The search for bodies continues.

Natural Gas Explosion.

It is known that natural gas was used on the second floor of the building, and as the explosion has every appearance of one from that source, it is believed that was the cause.

Nine Fatally Burned.

Nine people, all badly burned, were taken out. It was stated at the hospital that they cannot recover. They are: Edward G. Winn, Miss Mitchell, August Mitchell, Mary Mitchell, John Dennier, Charles Pallew, Pierre Rouge, Ed Girrard. The bartender, name unknown, who always slept in the barroom cannot be found and it is supposed he was blown to pieces.

Worked in a Terrific Storm.

Mrs. Mitchell said she did not know how many people were in the house, and the register has been burned. A terrific storm, accompanied by thunder and lightning, greatly retarded the work of rescue. The board of trade building, which stands directly across the street, was not greatly injured, although glass was broken in all buildings adjacent. The financial loss will hardly exceed $30,000.

50 MILES IN 2 H., 15 M.

Wahl Makes a New World's Road Bicycle Record.

Colorado Springs, Col., May 11.—L. C. Wahl, a former Washington bicyclist, and a member of the Century Road club, broke the world's record for 50 mile road bicycle yesterday. His time was 2 hours, 15 minutes. The starting point was two miles north of this place, where he left at 9:15 and reached Pueblo at 11:30. The wind was favorable, but the rider was compelled to ford the Fountain river, a stream over 100 feet wide. Wahl traveled the first four miles at a two-minute clip. No pacemaker accompanied him. The previous American record for 50 miles was held by Kembler, of Asbury Park; 2 hours, 30 minutes and 40 seconds, and the previous world's record was held by Linton, of Hearne, England; time, 2 hours, 27 1-2 minutes.

STAMFORD'S TYPHOID EPIDEMIC

There Are Now 202 Cases and Seven Deaths Have Occurred.

Stamford, Conn., May 11.—The typhoid fever epidemic has spread until this morning there are 202 cases. There have been seven deaths. The hospital is full and an additional building has been utilized for hospital uses. Forty-two nurses have been imported from New York and New Haven hospitals, these being paid for by the popular subscriptions, which now amounts to $2,000.

GOULD WANTS TO BE SENATOR.

A Report That He Will Endeavor To Succeed Smith, of New Jersey.

Washington, May 11.—A rumor current here to-day says that George J. Gould wishes to become a United States senator, and will endeavor to secure the seat now occupied by Senator Smith at the expiration of his term.

Demand for Columbia Half Dollars.

Washington, May 11.—The demand for Columbian half dollars, which are exchanged at par for gold, continues and about $500 per day is being received at the treasury in gold from that source. So far $779,569 of the souvenir coin has been disposed of and the stock on hand of this coin is now running low.

Death of Joseph Dorsey.

Baltimore, May 11.—Joseph Dorsey, one of the best known restaurateurs in the south, is dead of a complication of diseases. He was 57 years old. He succeeded his father, Col. Daniel Dorsey, as proprietor of Barnums hotel, for years Baltimore's famous hostlery.

To Be Towed to Connecticut.

Washington, May 11.—The cruiser Cincinnati has been ordered to tow the single turret monitor Wyandette from the Norfolk navy yard to New London, Conn., for the use of the naval militia of Connecticut. The Wyandette is in excellent condition.

Jumped Overboard at Sea.

Queenstown, May 11.—The White Star line steamer Adriatic, Capt. Haddock, from New York May 1 for Liverpool, reports that a steerage passenger named Stapel committed suicide by jumping overboard on May 3.

Gentry Pleads Not Guilty.

Philadelphia, May 11.—James B. Gentry charged with murdering Margaret W. Drysdale, known as Madge York, on Feb. 17 last, pleaded not guilty in the court of oyer and terminer yesterday.

Smith Defeats Pritchard.

London, May 11.—Jem Smith boxed Ted Pritchard at the Central Music hall last night for a purse and defeated him in the second round.

CHIEF ENGINEER OF THE ARMY.

Colonel Craighill Appointed To Succeed General Casey.

Washington, May 11.—Colonel William Price Craighill has been appointed to succeed Brigadier Casey, chief of engineers, United Seates army, who retired yesterday. William Price Craighill was born in Charlestown, Jefferson county, W. Va., on July 1, 1833, and was graduated at West Point, second in a class of fifty-two, in 1853. He was assigned to the engineer corps and superintended the building of Fort Delaware. For some years he was an instructor at the military academy, but in 1863 he was engaged in the construction of defenses at Pittsburg, which was threatened by Morgan and other raiders. In March, 1865, he was brevetted lieutenant-colonel for his services in the defense of Cumberland Gap, and a little later he served on the board appointed to superintend the defenses at New York. After this he was engaged in similar work at Baltimore. Since then he has been employed in many important works.

VON DER AHE FRIGHTENED.

Offered Pitcher Baldwin $900 To Stop His Damage Suit.

Pittsburg, May 11.—The famous conspiracy baseball suit of pitcher Mark Baldwin against Chris Von der Ahe, president of the St. Louis club, has been postponed until May 20. The famous president is evidently afraid of the damages a jury in this section may make him pay. After the postponement Chris offered to compromise with Baldwin for $900 and pay all incidental expenses if Mark would leave the case drop. This Baldwin flatly refused to do. He said the case would have to go to the jury for decision even if he did not get a cent.

LARGE REAL ESTATE DEAL.

An Important Transfer of Property at Providence.

Providence, R. I., May 11.—The largest and most important real estate deal ever made in this city was finished late yesterday afternoon, when the Gresvenor estate, bounded by Waybosset and Dyer streets, Dunwells Gangway and Postoffice court, comprising nearly 22,000 square feet of land, was sold by W. H. Herricks to E. H. Rollins & Co., and E. M. Morse, Bros. & Co., brokers of Boston, who will remove the old wooden rookeries now on the land and erect a modern business block of nine stories, at a cost of over $1,000,000.

CHEAPER THAN FIGHTING.

Campos Believed To Favor Bribing Cuban Rebel Leaders.

London, May 10.—The Central News correspondent in Madrid says: "Private advices from Havana are to the effect that for ten days Gen. Martinez de Campos has been in secret cable communication with his government almost constantly. It is believed that he proposes to bribe the insurgent leaders—a method which he regards as cheaper than fighting. It is alleged that he has communicated with the leaders on this subject."

INDIANS STARVED TO DEATH.

Two-thirds of the Entire Tribe of Montagnais Swept Away.

Quebec, May 11.—In the vicinity of Fort Chimo, a Hudson Bay company's trading post on Unga bay, two-thirds of the entire tribe of Montagnais Indians trading at the post have perished from starvation in one season, over 160 in number. As usual among the Indians the men died off first, so that a number of women and helpless orphans were left behind.

An Aged War Veteran Murdered.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 11.—John Ballantine, an aged veteran of the civil war, was murdered Thursday night. He was a widower and lived alone, and his body was found yesterday at the foot of the stairs in his home at Plymouth. The skull was crushed by a blow from a sandbag. Ballantine drew his pension Thursday. The family who lived next to Ballantine heard loud voices late Thursday night and the sound of a fall.

Wants Quigg Indicted.

Albany, May 11.—Senator John Raines says in connection with the fire department investigation that the papers in the libel suit are being made out that the case will not be called in New York and that, besides asking damages from the Press, indictments against Editor Quigg will be applied for.

Fear a Water Famine.

Norwalk, Conn., May 11.—Considerable alarm has been caused over the prospect of another water famine here. The water reservoir has been falling rapidly during the present week. The water authorities have issued an order to consumers regarding the waste of water.

American Horse Arrested.

Washington, May 11.—Special Agent Dickson, of the Pine Ridge, S. D., Indian agency, has reported to the Indian bureau that American Horse, the noted Sioux cacique, had been arrested by United States marshals on the charge of bigamy.

Forest Fires Near Danielsonville.

Danielsonville, Conn., May 11.—Large forest fires have been raging here for three days, and several hundred acres have already been burned over. The fire is now within an eighth of a mile of dwelling houses in the borough.

Wages To Be Restored.

Newburyport, Mass., May 11.—On May 27 the 10 per cent. reduction made in wages at the Peabody mills on January 19, 1895, will be restored.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spot prices weaker; moderate trade. No. 2 red f. o. b. afloat at 2 over May 64¼.

Corn—Spot remains dull and unsettled. Steamer mixed 56¾c. elevator.

Oats—Spot easier with fair demand. No. 2 white 37c.; No 2. mixed, 32.

Pork—Spot firm with fair business. Extra prime nominal, $15.25a$15.50; mess $13.25a$13.75.

Lard—Contracts are steady but quiet. May, $7.05.

Butter—Demand about equal to supply. New butter, creamery, western extras, 15c.; state dairy, half-firkin tubs, fancy, 16c.

Cheese—Values fair; demand slow. State, full cream, large colored, fancy, new, 6¼a7c.; common to prime, 5a6c.

Eggs—Fancy eggs show very little loss, are small in supply and hold steadily at 13½c. for best northwestern.

Potatoes—Old are dull and heavy and values tending downward. State, white stock, per 180 lbs., $2a$2.12; Jersey, prime, in bulk, per 180 lbs., $1.75a$2.00.

MAY CAUSE TROUBLE

Admiral Meade Liable To Courtmartial.

His Criticism of the Administration Creates Considerable Excitement in Naval Circles—He Has Many Friends and the Difficulty May Be To Find One To Prefer Charges.

Washington, May 11. — Admiral Meade's interview criticizing the administration, as widely published yesterday, created considerable excitement and comment at the navy department. All the higher officials of the department said that the admiral was impetuous and had rendered himself liable to courtmartial under article 235 of the regulations which expressly prohibits an officer to communicate by interview or otherwise any comments or criticism of any department of the government. It is under this same article that Medical Inspector Kershner is to be tried at New York next week upon charges preferred by Admiral Meade.

He Has Many Friends.

Under these circumstances it only remains for some one to make the complaint against the retiring admiral when the president must consistently order a courtmartial or order the officer before an examination to enquire as to his mental responsibility. The difficulty may be to find an officer willing to make the complaint as Admiral Meade is exceedingly popular and his numerous friends in the service are to-day deploring his conceded impulsiveness in the matter.

ABELL'S FIREARMS BILL.

Approved by Gov. Morton—It Authorizes an Outlay of $300,000.

Albany, May 11 —Gov. Morton has approved Assemblyman Abell's bill, providing for a board of examiners of improved firearms for the use of the military forces of the state and making an appropriation therefor. The bill authorizes an expenditure of over $300,000 for this purpose. The bill provides that the governor shall appoint three citizens of the state as a board of examiners, whose duty shall be to test, examine and recommend arms of modern pattern, consisting of magazine breech-loading rifles and other implements necessary to supply the National Guard of the state, securing the utmost efficiency by the adoption of such arms as are adapted to the requirements the new tactical manoeuvres contemplate.

AMERICAN WHEAT IN CANADA.

Initial Importation Made—To Be Consumed by Ontario Millers.

Montreal, May 11.—The initial importation of American wheat into Canada has been made. James Carruthers is the importer, and the amount brought in is ten cars. It is from Detroit and, of course, red winter. Mr. Carruthers says that the wheat will be consumed by Ontario millers. Now that it has been pretty well demonstrated that American wheat can pay the duty of fifteen cents a bushel and sell in the same market with the Ontario product, dealers are inclined to believe that prices for the latter have reached the top unless the American market shows very material advances.

BELL STILL MISSING.

Emily Hall's Parents Disappointed at the Action of the Detroit Police.

London, May 11.—Nothing has been learned regarding the whereabouts of the Rev. Jonathan Bell, of Blackmeath, who is accused of betraying and sending to America Miss Emily Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Hall were greatly disappointed upon learning that the police officials of Detroit, where their daughter died, have given up the case. Mr. Hall expects to start soon for Detroit to ascertain the details of her death.

Portsmouth's Police Trouble Settled.

Portsmouth, N. H., May 11.—An agreement was reached yesterday afternoon by counsel representing the police commissioners and those representing the city of Portsmouth, and in consequence the old police force was discharged last night by order of the mayor and the keys and city building ordered turned over to the commissioners at noon to-day.

Threaten To Strike.

Bellair, O., May 11.—The employes of the Riverside Iron works and the Wheeling Iron & Steel works, Benwood, W. Va., will not accept the ten cents advance granted by the company, but want a 30 cents advance. Unless it is granted by Monday they will strike. Over 3,000 hands will be idle if the strike occurs.

Baptists at the White House.

Washington, May 11.—At 4 o'clock the delegates to the Southern Baptist convention and to the American Baptist Educational society were received at the white house by President Cleveland and later were entertained at the Ebbitt house by the Baptist ladies of the District of Columbia.

South Scituate Woods Burning.

Providence, R. I., May 11.—Fire in South Scituate woods, which residents there have been fighting for three days and nights, is not yet under control, and unless heavy rains fall, it is estimated that a week will not see the last of the conflagration.

The Yale Alumni Fund.

New Haven, Conn., May 11.—The Yale News prints figures showing that the total receipts of the Yale alumni fund up to April 10, 1895, were $44,230, given by about ninety out of 9,000 living graduates of Yale.

Signed by the Baltimores.

Pittsburg, May 11.—Ed Hanlon, president of the Baltimore ball club, has signed James H. Allen, late of the Amherst college club, as a catcher for the Baltimores.

Government Job for G. V. Chapin.

Washington, May 11.—Postmaster General Wilson has appointed George V. Chapin, of Ontario county, N. Y., chief clerk to the fourth assistant postmaster general.

Death of an Ex-Judge.

Fonda, N. Y., May 11.—Ex-Judge Richard H. Cushney, a prominent member of the Montgomery county bar, died last evening. He was 85 years old.

BAMBERGER'S.

"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE."

147-149 Market Street, Newark.

Ladies' Shirt Waists.
Ladies' Silk Waists.

The waist has come to stay! It's practical and comfortable. More ladies are using them than ever before. Our showing is by far the largest and best in Newark and few houses in America surpass it; as to the values

They are Peerless and Unmatchable!

LADIES' SHIRT WAISTS of cambrics, lawns, percales and chambrays, hundreds of designs, all the best colors with or without laundered collars and cuffs, perfect fit and finish, from ..... 49c TO $2.08.

LADIES' SILK WAISTS China, Japanese, taffeta, faille and other desirable silks, plain and fancy, all colors, full sleeves, newest styles, from ..... $1.98 TO $12.49.

Your order by mail will receive the most careful attention. Free delivery everywhere.

L. BAMBERGER & CO.

147-149 Market Street, Newark.

Piano Bargains!

VANDERBEEK & SATTELS

desire to say that they have just received a fine lot of

NEW PIANOS

of different makes which they will sell at prices never before offered. Among them are those wonderful

Behr Brothers' Pianos, also Behning & Sons'.

They represent also the Knabe, Hazleton, Chickering and many others. They offer from time to time excellent

Bargains in Second-Hand Pianos.

221 PARK AVENUE.

Real Estate.

F. M. BACON

OR

WALLACE VAIL,

Babcock Building, Room 211.

Come and see us. We always keep a good line of houses to rent and for sale. Elegant flats, steam heated, city water and electric lights. Private houses with all modern improvements. Vacant lots, farms, speculative property bought, sold and exchanged. A gent, all improvements, $25 per month, 4 or 5 minutes from station. Farm 6 acres, house, barn, good land, 2 miles from Plainfield, $1,300, a very cheap home; easy payments. House 7 rooms, 5 minutes from station, $2,100. Store and 3 rooms $12 a month. Farm 53 acres, 1,000 peach, apple and pear trees, near Flemington, $2,500.

WE ARE READY

With large and beautiful line of Spring and Summer styles. Hats and Men's furnishings, mens and boys' Derby or Alpine hats, black, brown and tan, $1 00 to $3 00. Fancy negligee shirts, collars attached or detached, 35c. to $2 00. 1,000 scarfs four-in-hand and made up, from 15c. to 75c., all new fresh goods. Special colored laundered shirts, 2 collars, only 35c. worth 75c. No trouble to show our goods. Money refunded if you want it.

U. B. CRANE, Hatter and Furnisher,

120 West Front Street.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 NORTH AVENUE.

A Spring Gown

is a subject for thought. Haven't you some of last season's dresses that can be made useful? They may need cleaning, or perhaps dyeing—either we do perfectly, and it costs only two dollars or two dollars and a half.

Hillier & Co.

175 NORTH AVENUE

Hotels and Saloons.

Mizzen Peak Cottage,

Watchung Mountains,
Bound Brook, N. J.

Superior French board at moderate prices. Dinner to order. Table d'Hote 75c with ½ bottle of Mizzen Peak claret.

BOWLING ALLEY.

JEUX DE TONNEAU.

Beautiful view, fine shady grounds, sheds, stables, etc.

REVERE HOUSE

Park Avenue,
7th and 8th Sts.

GEO. B. DE REVERE & CO.

Thoroughly renovated and now open for transient and permanent guests.

Madison Avenue Hotel,

Madison Ave. and 58th st., New York

$3 PER DAY AND UP.

American Plan.

Fireproof and first-class in every particular. Two blocks from the Third and Sixth avenue elevated railroads.
The Madison and Fourth Avenue and Belt Line cars pass the door.

H. M. Clark, Prop.

Passenger elevator runs all night.

HOTEL Grenada,

NORTH AVENUE.

Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.

CITY HOTEL,

Plainfield, N. J.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.

J. E. Beerbower, Prop.

Stables attached.

The Finderne

FINDERNE,

Somerset County, N. J.

Open all the year as a resort of the highest order. Driving parties will receive every attention.

High-Class Sunday Dinners.

(Table d'Hote from 1 to 3:30); steam heat; inclosed piazzas; everything immaculate. When out driving let us entertain you.

A. E. WHITE, Manager,
Finderne, N. J.

L. PAOLI & CO.,

Fruits, Confectionery, Temperance Drinks, Cigars, &c.

128 NORTH AVENUE.

Fresh roasted peanuts every day, 10c a qt. I take this method of informing my friends and the public in general that I am again in business at the old stand. I solicit your patronage. Store will close at sundown on Friday and open at sundown on Saturday.

MOSLER SAFE CO.,

contractors to the United States Government.

Mosler Patent Safes

(fire and burglar proof) in general use all over the world. Lowest prices. Drop a postal to

S. W CLARK,

General Agent, 118 West 5th st., Plainfield, N. J., and he will call and give special attention and information. Large assortment of second-hand safes in first-class condition at low prices.

Bar-Lock

Visible Writing

TYPE WRITER.

Writes every letter in sight of operator. Does most of the work, in writing automatically, and yields in the time thus saved additional work.

It acts as if it studied the convenience of the operator at every turn, and thereby lightens his labor and renders him capable of doing more.

It has a knack of keeping well, and is always ready at critical or other times.

These are some of the reasons why it is different from all other writing machines.

The catalogue tells you more about it. Free.

Columbia Typewriter Manufacturing Co.,

307 Broadway, New York.

Choice Soda

O thirsty mortal, ever ready today at Randolph's. The ancients knew no such pleasure as a delicious draught of our double-refined thirst annihilators. Good for the stomach, beneficial for the brain light on the pocket, refreshing for young and old. Composed of materials of purity unsurpassed. We may live without poetry, music and art, but to be without soda is not to be tolerated. What more need we say? Drink it.

L. W. Randolph,

Prescription Druggist,

143 WEST FRONT ST.

FISCHER PIANOS.

Established 1840.

Nearly 100,000 Now in Use

Received highest award at World's Fair, Chicago.

EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.

Catalogue mailed on application.

110 Fifth ave., corner 16th st., N. Y.

Chas. Ficke,

UPHOLSTERER,

Has removed from 1 West Third street, to

128 West Second st.,

Nearly opposite Trinity Reformed Church.

Mattresses and Spring Beds

made to order. Carpets and mattings made and re-made. Awnings and window shades to order, a specialty. Slip covers made. Curtains hung.

Neuman Bros.

Specials in

Fresh Vegetables.

Green pease, green beans, wax beans, asparagus, tomatoes, lettuce, cucumbers, watercress, spinach, radishes, rhubarb, bunch onions, oyster plant, beets, new carrots, new potatoes.

STRAWBERRIES.

M. M. Dunham,

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE

109 East Front street.

A Large Variety of All the Latest Styles in

HATS AND BONNETS

Can be found at the Millinery establishment of

MRS. L. ADAMS,

111 East Front st., Under First National Bank.

You May Have Lost

many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable

Pair of Collier's Glasses.

103 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

For Sale, Cheap.

A large assortment of Geraniums, Coleus, Salvias, Roses, Casino-clematis, Palms and Rubber trees. Also 3,000 Privet hedge plants, and a general collection of hardy plants and shrubs, at

DENTON'S,

131 Hillside Avenue.

L. A. HUMMER. L. B. MULFORD.

Hummer & Mulford,

VARIETY MARKET.

Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.

220 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

Smalley's CASH MARKET.

(Estate D. I. Smalley.)

94 Somerset, Corner Race Street.

George Egel, Manager.

We sell only first-class goods, at low prices for cash. Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON,

Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.

Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.

Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

H. Eggerding,

121 Park ave.,

Manufacturer of the Celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

A. Lusardi,

120 North Ave.,

will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

SEE WHAT

$1.00

Will do at the

Plainfield Tea and Grocery Co

106 East Front st.

H. S. Williams, Man'r.

All Goods Warranted as Represented.

1 pound Special Mixed Tea	50c
1 pound coffee	30c
Quarter pound pepper	15c
1 can corn	10c
1 can tomatoes	10c
1 can pease	10c
1 can milk	10c
1 paper corn starch	10c
1 paper cocoanut	10c
	$1.52

Cut Out This Coupon

and bring it and $1 to our store and get all the above articles for $1 cash!

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of

FRESH AND SALTED MEATS

Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters and Builders.

UTZINGER & KLINE,

Carpenters and Builders.

Jobbing promptly attended to.

V. Utzinger, 75 Grandview ave. L. C. Kline, 54 Jackson ave.

JOHN P. EMMONS,

Mason and Builder,

Washington avenue and Prospect place,

North Plainfield, N. J.

Jobbing promptly attended to.

THEODORE GRAY,

Mason and Contractor.

Estimates given, repairing promptly attended to. Residence 117 Hillside avenue.

PEARSON & GAYLE,

Carpenters and Builders.

Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.

All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,

Carpenter and Builder.

985 Arlington avenue.

Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable.

McCullough's

STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

R. H. McCullough, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

C. W. LINES & CO.,

Masons and Builders,

Plainfield, N. J.

Residence, 18 Elm place.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Jobbing promptly attended to

James E. Baily, 97 Jackson ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Trucking of all Kinds Done.

Two and four-horse vans and trucks. Particular attention given to moving furniture and pianos.

Satisfaction guaranteed.

M. Powers & Son. Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.

A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

William Hand & Son,

518 Park avenue. Plainfield, N. J. Moving Vans,

CLIMAX STOPPER CO.

Machine Works,

Corner Washington and 4th sts., manufacturers of bicycle specialties. Electric and special machinery, experimental work, tools etc. Contractors for electric light wiring, telephones, burglar alarms, etc.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE IS THE BEST.

FIT FOR A KING.

$5. CORDOVAN, FRENCH & ENAMELLED CALF

$4. $3.50 FINE CALF & KANGAROO

$3.50 POLICE, 3 SOLES.

$2.50 $2. WORKINGMEN'S EXTRA FINE.

$2. $1.75 BOYS' SCHOOL SHOES.

LADIES. $3. $2.50 $2. $1.75 BEST DONGOLA.

SEND FOR CATALOGUE. W. L. DOUGLAS, BROCKTON, MASS.

Over One Million People wear the

W. L. Douglas $3 & $4 Shoes

All our shoes are equally satisfactory

They give the best value for the money.

They equal custom shoes in style and fit.

Their wearing qualities are unsurpassed.

The prices are uniform,—stamped on sole.

From $1 to $3 saved over other makes.

If your dealer cannot supply you we can. Sold by

A. Willett & Son.

BRIAR PIPE GIVEN AWAY

WITH EVERY ONE POUND bale OF

DUKES MIXTURE

for 35 cents

Every pipe stamped DUKES MIXTURE or ATC

2 oz. PACKAGES 5¢

SKILLED WORKMEN

Are even more essential in hanging paper than they are in the doing of many other things. We employ the best and most capable men in this department and guarantee the best possible results. Do not spoil the effect of pretty paper by improper hanging.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,

141 East Front Street.

Short Vacations

For busy people by the beautiful new steamships of the

Old Dominion Line,

To Old Point Comfort

[Hygeia Hotel]

Or Virginia Beach, Va.

[Princess Anne Hotel] may be made for

$16 Old Point Comfort, $16 Virginia Beach, $17 $17

Including every expense

of meals and berths en route, and a day and a quarter's board at the hotels.

These trips are ideal, as a considerable portion is made through the quiet waters of the famous Hampton Roads and there is little likelihood of seasickness.

Also tickets on sale, with privilege of going or returning by rail.

Write for particulars of these and other delightful trips to

Old Dominion SS. Co.,

Pier 26, North River, New York.

W. L. Guillaudeu, Vice Pres. and Traffic Manager. 11 26 6m

FURNITURE

Moving.

Telephone 121. Office 161 North ave.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS.

Try Dobbins's Cigars.

206 PARK AVE.

HE MANUFACTURES THEM.

TOWNSEND'S

Marble and Granite Works,

SOMERSET STREET.

Our motto—Good work, good material at fair prices.

YOUR Valuables will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock Boxes from $3.50 to $10 a Year.

Edwin B. Maynard,

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS, COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a prompt answer and an honest opinion, write to MUNN & CO., who have had nearly fifty years' experience in the patent business. Communications strictly confidential. A Handbook of Information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and scientific books sent free.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the Scientific American, and thus are brought widely before the public without cost to the inventor. This splendid paper, issued weekly, elegantly illustrated, has by far the largest circulation of any scientific work in the world. $3 a year. Sample copies sent free.

Building Edition, monthly, $2.50 a year. Single copies, 25 cents. Every number contains beautiful plates, in colors, and photographs of new houses, with plans, enabling builders to show the latest designs and secure contracts. Address MUNN & CO., NEW YORK, 361 BROADWAY

TRADE STILL IMPROVES

Review of the Business Situation for the Week.

Increase in the Wave of Industrial Discontent the One Dark Feature. Bank Clearings for the Present Week Not Exceeded Since the Week of June 10, 1893.

New York, May 11.—The present week brings distinct and, in some instances, even more pronounced evidences of improvement in business, notwithstanding the increase of the wave of industrial discontent and strikes for higher wages, always the accompaniment of an upward tendency to prices, says Bradstreet. Totals of bank clearings in preceding weeks had suggested further improvement, and, as now seen, were true indices. The current week's clearings total has not been exceeded since the week ending June 10, 1893. Other than this one finds the movement of prices of staples based on broadened demand and a more buoyant feeling. Sole leather is up another 2c., and the prices of shoes are following. Large receipts of hogs have put prices down 5c., and lard and pork have followed. Oats are also lower than a week ago. Railroad gross earnings for April show decided improvement over preceding months. The best showing is made by the coal roads, the grangers still having a decrease, though at a smaller rate.

Gains in the West Hold On.

At the west previous gains are maintained, and confidence in an enlarged volume of business increases. At such centres as Cleveland, Cincinnati, Louisville, Detroit and Milwaukee there are no marked changes. But at Chicago and St. Louis wholesale dealers report a volume of business larger than last week and than in the week a year ago. The cities named, together with Kansas City, Des Moines and Omaha, report that excellent crop prospects have had a welcome influence on trade with wholesale dealers in staples, and St. Paul, Minneapolis and Sioux Falls tell a similar story.

Situation in the East.

Among large eastern centres New York, Boston and Providence report relatively the most strength in merchandise and manufacturing lines, with the outlook for a continuation of the same. Buffalo, Pittsburg and Philadelphia announce no material changes, the business community waiting the anticipated larger volume of trade. At Baltimore the volume of trade is smaller, owing to spring trade having ended. Travelers will now be sent out for fall orders. Slow collections remain conspicuous.

Business Failures.

Business failures in the United States this week number 195, against 206 last week, 198 in the week a year ago, 219 two years ago, and 184 in 1892. General trade reports from the Canadian Dominion are exceptionally favorable. Toronto reports that advances in cotton, sugar, leather and wheat have increased demand, helped collections and created a buoyant feeling. The opening of navigation at Montreal and advances in sugar and whiskey, due to tariff changes, are additional factors.

SIGNS OF BUSINESS REVIVAL.

Gold Exchanged for Small Silver in the Northwest.

Washington, May 11.—Gold in considerable quantities is being exchanged for silver certificates of small denominations in the northwest. In Chicago yesterday the United States sub-treasury received $65,000 in gold in exchange for such paper money and the same demand, only less pronounced, is felt at other points in that region. The demand for small money is taken as an evidence of a revival of business with the opening of spring.

SKILLMAN ARRESTED.

Believed To Have Been Connected with the Assault on Mrs. Parnell.

Bordentown, N. J., May 11.—Officers last night arrested Grantley Skillman on suspicion of being connected with the assault on Mrs. Parnell. He has been under suspicion since he caused the arrest of John Miller, at Newhope, a week ago. Miller was discharged, the authorities being unable to prove anything against him.

Yesterday's Baseball Games.

At Cincinnati—Cincinnati vs. Brooklyn game was postponed on account of rain. At Louisville—Louisville, 8; New York, 4. At Chicago—Chicago, 14; Boston, 1. At St. Louis—St. Louis, 4; Philadelphia, 14. At Pittsburg—Pittsburg, 6; Baltimore, 5. At Cleveland—Cleveland, 3; Washington, 6.

All Aliens To Be Removed.

Washington, May 11.—As a result of the action of the immigration authorities here General Manager Carter of the Detroit & Cleveland Steam Navigation company has directed that all aliens in the employ of that company be removed and none but citizens be hereafter employed.

Examined Howard's Plant.

London, May 11.—The officials of the United States embassy went to Scotland Yard yesterday and looked over the plant taken with the counterfeiter Howard, who, when arrested, was prepared to utter counterfeit United States bills and postage stamps.

Marine Postal Service for Detroit.

Washington, May 11.—The postmaster general has decided to establish a marine postal service at Detroit, Mich., for the free delivery and collection of mail matter of the vessels that pass up and down the Detroit river without touching at Detroit.

Scarlet Fever in Bridgeport.

Bridgeport, Conn., May 11.—Two more cases of scarlet fever were reported from the East End yesterday. Forty victims of the disease are now under the care of the health authorities.

To Complete Brooklyn Drydock.

Washington, May 11.—Secretary Herbert has signed the contract with the Walsh Bros., of Brookiyn, N. Y., for completing the Brooklyn drydock.

Oscar Wilde at Babbacombe.

London, May 11.—Since his release on bail Oscar Wilde has been staying at Babbacombe, near Torquay.

BOOKMAKERS ARRESTED.

Raid by Deputy Sheriffs at the Hawthorne Track.

Chicago, May 11.—Chief Deputy Sheriff Peters with 150 deputies raided the foreign book at Hawthorne yesterday afternoon just as the results of the second race at Louisville were called off the wire. Deputy Morgan, in charge of the foreign book squad took the nine sheet writers, including Joe Ulman and brought them to the city. The horses at the local track were just going to the post in the second race when the raid was made. The word passed rapidly to the ring and the twenty-eight bookies buried their slates and got out of harm's way. Spectators rushed out of the betting ring and across the in-field to escape what they knew not. Persons in the grand stand sat still, waiting. After the raid on the foreign book had been made several of the local books started to post odds, puting up their slate. It was a sorry move for twenty of the bookies and their assistants were quickly arrested and taken to town. Just eight of the bookmakers escaped.

STRIKERS DEFEATED.

Trouble at Illinois Steel Works Believed To Be Over.

Chicago, May 11.—It looks this morning as if the strike at the works of the Illinois Steel company was over, and that the company had won unconditional victory over the strikers. The men who started the rioting, seventy in number, were sent notices at their homes in South Chicago that they were dismissed from the service of the company. They were sent what wages were coming to them, and those who owned tools of any sort had them restored. At the same time the skilled workmen, whose places would be hardest to fill and some of whom make as much as $300 a month, were notified that if they wished to return they could do so. These men were driven out by the malcontents and promptly responded to the invitation to return. More will be taken in from time to time until by the end of next week it is expected the works will be in full operation.

ADDRESSED HIS LAST JURY.

Gen. Harrison Closes His Career as a Jurist at Richmond, Ind.

Richmond, Ind., May 11.—The last speech in the Morrison will case was made yesterday in behalf of the plaintiffs by ex-President Harrison. The court house was packed with people during the entire day, and hundreds who would have been glad to gain admission were denied that privilege. General Harrison was in splendid condition and his speech is pronounced one of the best efforts of his life. At the close of it Judge Black read the charge to the jury. This was the last speech that General Harrison ever expects to make to a jury. At all events he will never again become so actively engaged upon any matter of like nature as to address a court or jury.

WILL CONSULT HIS FRIENDS.

Dupont Has Not Yet Decided on His Course in the Senatorial Matter.

Wilmington, Del., May 11. — Col. Henry A. Dupont was seen to-day at his home, five miles north of this city, and authorizes the publication of the following statement: "I was out of the city during the voting at Dover and was compelled to go away again yesterday. I, therefore, do not know much about the case aside from what I have seen in the newspapers. I consider it entirely a legal question about which I will consult with my friends, and after this consultation I shall take such action as I may consider will be justified under the circumstances."

DETECTIVE FORCE INCREASED.

O'Donovan Rossa's Outbreak in the Commons Causes a Scare.

London, May 11.—It is rumored in the lobbies of the house of commons that the force of detectives at the approaches to the house has been doubled. It is suggested that this step was taken on account of O'Donovan Rossa's outbreak in the strangers' gallery on Wednesday. There is also a noticeable increase of the number of loiterers in the central lobby and palace yard. The reporters' inquiries elicited only indefinite answers purporting to be denials.

FELL DEAD IN HIS CAB.

A Jersey Central Engineer Expires with His Hand on the Throttle.

Easton, Pa., May 11.—While his train was running rapidly on the Central Railroad of New Jersey yesterday, engineer Isaac Miller was attacked with paralysis with his hand on the engine throttle. He dropped to his knees beside the boiler and was dead in an instant. The fireman ran the train to Bloomsbury, and the remains were left there. Miller was one of the oldest engineers in the employ of the company. He resided at Phillipsburg, N. J.

JUDGE COOL FOUND.

He Was Wandering in the Woods, Having Lost His Way.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 11.—Judge W. H. Cool, of West Pittston, who left home to go fishing a few days ago and had not since been heard of, was found in the woods last evening by a searching party. He lost his way, which accounted for his absence. Judge Cool is 88 years of age.

To Withdraw Troops Gradually.

London, May 11.—The Standard is informed from Yokohama that it is believed to be Japan's intention to withdraw her troops gradually from the Liao Tung peninsula as the war indemnity shall be paid.

Consul Hazeltine Home.

Quarantine, S. I., May 11.—Among the passengers arriving on steamer Augusta Victoria, from Hamburg are Noah Brooks, Hon. Chas. S. Hazeltine, United States consul, and family.

Mr. Gresham Has a Slight Relapse.

Washington, May 11.—Secretary Gresham is not so well to-day. He passed a restless night, and the hot weather has brought back a touch of his old enemy, malaria.

An Iceburg Sighted.

Queenstown, May 11.—The Cunard line steamer Campania, Capt. Walker, from New York, reports having sighted a large iceburg on May 6 in latitude 41, longitude 49.

$100,000 Fire at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, May 11.—The Langdell gingham mills on Franklin street were totally destroyed by fire last night. The loss is $100,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

FACTS OF LI'S ORDEAL

Loss of His Peacock Plume and Yellow Jacket.

An Interesting Communication Made Public by the State Department. The Chinese Viceroy Was Subjected to Many Indignities by the Emperor and Former Friends.

Washington, May 11.—The cold facts relating to the depriving of Li Hung Chang of several valuable articles of wearing apparel have been made public by the state department in its appendix to the volume of "foreign relations" for 1894. Charles Denby, jr., charge d'affaires of the United States legation at Pekin, gave the state department the first information of Li's disgrace in a letter dated September 18, 1894, to which he appended a copy of the decree about which the American newspapers have found so many interesting things to say. The decree follows:

Decree by the Emperor.

A decree issued by his majesty the emperor, published in the Manuscript Gazette of September 17, 1894. The Japanese revoked the treaty existing between the two countries and commenced hostilities and forced their way into Korea. Entertaining a kindly feeling toward our vassal state, we, therefore, dispatched our forces to Korea to punish our foe.

Li Hung Blamed.

Li Hung Chang, minister superintendent of northern trade, was appointed general director in the management of our military affairs, and he should have given thought consideration of the general interests at stake, made the best possible arrangements and satisfied all necessary requirements. He alone was responsible for the trust imposed upon him. But he has not been prompt in the dispatch of troops at opportune times, and a long period has elapsed without successful achievements. He has failed to properly discharge the duties of his office.

Lost His Decorations.

Let him, therefore, be deprived of the "three-eyed peacock feather" and the "yellow riding jacket" as a light form of punishment. He must however, make an effort and earnestly awake to action and give orders urging the officers in command of our forces in the various places in Korea to exert themselves, pursue and join battle with the enemy as an atonement for the errors committed.

Marks of Utmost Favor.

In his letter on the subject Mr. Denby says: "These decorations, strange as their designations sound to us, are only bestowed as marks of the utmost favor of the emperor. They are conferred in recognition of exemplary services. The "three-eyed peacock feather" is granted only to princes of the blood and in compensation for military achievements. It is the highest decoration that a military career can obtain. The withdrawal of these decorations involves disgrace in proportion to the honor conferred in bestowing them.

Suffered Many Indignities.

"This is the last of a long series of indignities put upon Li Hung Chang by his imperial master. His enemies have bitterly attacked him and, unfortunately for China, these attacks have received a favorable hearing. The viceroy has received peremptory and insulting messages from the throne. He has been accused of nepotism. His son-in-law, Chang Pei Lun, of the armory department, has been dismissed from office and is reported to have committed suicide. The fact that his son, Li Ching Fang, was minister to Japan some time ago also urged against him.

Friends Turned Upon Him.

"Many friends, whose careers the viceroy has made, have turned upon him. Attacking him they hope to save themselves. He remains, however, defiant, spiritedly defending himself. He explains the charge of nepotism by asserting that the appointments in war are not governed by the same principle as those made in peace, that in confidential positions he must have men upon whom he can rely. This conflict between the throne and the foremost statesman of China may be fraught with the gravest consequences. Should the emperor allow him to be crushed it would be impossible to fill his place. To him is due that China has even the semblance of a modern army and navy."

A SOUTH AMERICAN ALLIANCE.

A Treaty Concluded Between Chili and Bolivia.

Buenos Ayres, May 11.—A dispatch received here from Valparaiso says that a treaty of peace and friendship has been concluded between Chili and Bolivia by which the former cedes to Bolivia a small strip of territory and a port on the Pacific midway between Iquique and Pisagua, Chili, in return, receives commercial advantages.

NATALIE RETURNS.

Enthusiastically Received at Belgrade by Her Son and the People.

Belgrade, May 11.—Ex-Queen Natalie entered the city in triumph yesterday after four years' banishment. King Alexander and his ministers and high officials welcomed her at the station. The crowds received her enthusiastically.

THREE BANDITS SHOT.

Gen. Campos Arrives at Santiago de Cuba.

Santiago, de Cuba, May 11.—Gen. Martinez de Campos arrived here at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Three bandits were shot yesterday at Guantanamo.

Reforms for Cuba.

Madrid, May 11.—In answering a deputy's question Senor Castellanes, minister of colonies, said Captain General Campos had been authorized to introduce certain reforms in Cuba as soon as he should find a good opportunity to do so.

Would-be Suicide Fined.

New York, May 11.—John Zengin, a German laborer, who attempted to commit suicide some time ago, was fined by Recorder Goff yesterday $100, in default of which he will serve 100 days in jail.

One Million Dollars Stolen.

Chicago, May 11.—The new commissioner of public works has discovered a shortage of $1,000,000.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Publisher and Proprietor.
WALTER IRVING CLARKE, Managing Editor.

TOWN AND HOME FAVORITE.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., MAY 11, 1895.

The ordinance relating to persons riding bicycles on the sidewalks of North Plainfield is to be strictly enforced. This is as it should be. There is no reason why the safety of pedestrians should be endangered by this unlawful practice, and the authorities are right in determining to stop it.

An established feature of The Daily Press is its copyrighted serials, fresh from the pens of the best living authors. These stories are all confined to six or less issues of The Press, thus guarding against the tiresomeness of being long-drawn-out. "The Case of Laker", now running, is excellent, and is to be succeeded by the following gems:

May 15 to 20, "How the King Held the Brigadier", by A. Conan Doyle.

May 21 and 22, "The Eye of Beatrice".

May 23 and 24, "A Fraudulent Claim", by Howard Fielding.

May 25, "The Bishop's Ghost", by Frank R. Stockton.

You'll read them in The Press, or nowhere.

An opportunity for an expression of opinion favoring the extension of the city's street railway is now offered by the petitions in circulation for signatures, addressed to the Plainfield Common Council, and urging that immediate action be taken by that body to grant a franchise for such new routes as the citizens urgently need. These petitions do not designate the particular routes, nor offer to direct the Common Council in any way, but earnestly represent that Plainfielders want this accommodation, and that real-estate values would be immensely benefited by increased surface railway facilities, trusting to the Council all details of the franchise for properly controlling the streets and safeguarding the rights of the citizens.

The question of street railways in Plainfield has been up so often and discussed so many years that it would seem not only ridiculous to pretend to offer anything new on the matter, but an offence to the patience of our people to thresh over anew the old weary subject. Yet it is not a settled conviction in the minds of a majority of Plainfield citizens that we do not want any more street railways, or that we should have had them years ago when other places around us built theirs. We did not get them then because there was a violent, selfish opposition on the part of a few favored residents whose position and circumstances made street railways unnecessary for their use and opposed to their comfort. That time, and that feeling against the roads, have passed away, and now there is on the part of these same opposers a spirit of advancement in all that appeals to progress and adds to the convenience of the majority of our inhabitants. They have seen a new light, and today are ready to foster and encourage every improvement that shall benefit Plainfield, making it easily first in facilities, as it certainly is in health, beauty and financial reputation, among the towns of New Jersey.

This spirit of enterprise and desire for change is going to make itself felt in every way through public measures, and those who stand in the way will be thrust aside.

It is believed that the present Council are awake to the needs of the hour and will heartily respond to the appeal of the people made through these petitions, finding means to extend the local street railway to meet all local wants, even if the existing company proves itself unwilling or incompetent to carry out the obligations of the proposed new franchise.

First must come the local extensions, and not till after that the through line. Plainfield's needs must be fulfilled.

SWEET AGAINST SOUR.

A Characteristic Illustration of the Difference of Personality of the Plainfield Papers.

From The Daily Press, Feb. 11.]

Just what a new dress is to a woman a new dress of type is to a newspaper; and The Daily Press congratulates the embellished Courier-News on its improved good looks.

[From The Courier-News, May 10.]

Following the example of the Courier-News the Daily Press is to make its appearance in a new dress of type. It will be noticed that the North avenue paper always attempts to follow the lead of the Courier-News. The Courier-News put in the first newspaper folder ever used in Plainfield. The Press followed suit a long time afterwards. The Courier-News changed to an eight page paper. The Press followed suit. All of which goes to prove what we have so often said—that the Courier-News leads and all others follow—at a distance.

MORMON SOCIAL CONDITION.

Advantages of Town Life Blended With the Charms of Rural Existence.

Social changes of a material character will be wrought by the occupation of the arid region. In this matter also Mormon experience is luminous. Brigham Young sought to found his prosperity not only on industrial ethics, but also upon the happiness of the people. He would not tolerate idleness, and the walls of cobble ones still standing in the older portions of Salt Lake City were invented that the church might pay for the labor of men who would otherwise have been temporarily supported by charity.

As a means of furnishing entertainment, various diversions were planned, including the Saturday night dance, led by the bishops of the wards.

The leader's wisdom is almost as clearly exhibited in his social scheme as in his plan of industry. The central idea in it was the farm village. A village site, generally a half mile square, is selected in the midst of a tract of five or six thousand acres to be colonized. In Utah there are many small valleys between the towering mountains, and the village site is generally located near the center of the valley, and near the river from which the water is diverted into canals on each side at a sufficient elevation to command the irrigable lands. The half a square mile is then laid out into blocks of four acres, with broad avenues between and the blocks are divided into lots of an acre each. On these acre lots the farmers have their homes. Here also are their commodious barns. Here they have their poultry and swine, while considerable space is devoted to a market garden. The farmer then has his farm on the outlying lands, which are divided into lots ranging from two acres up to twenty acres.

From the public park in the center to the farthest outlying farm is only two and a half miles. Most farmers traverse a much shorter distance to reach the farm from their homes. On the other hand, the women and children enjoy the important advantage of having near neighbors, while the church, schoolhouse, stores and postoffice are near at hand.

Under this system the advantages of town life are blended to a very considerable degree with the charms of rural existence. It is a system full of delightful possibilities. The Mormons have realized its substantial advantages in neighboring association; but their model will be much improved upon by many colonies of more recent establishment. Farm life under the old conditions has involved isolation.

The hunger for human sympathy and company has driven thousands from the country to cities already overcrowded. This factor is responsible for many a social tragedy as well as for the problems which have arisen in congested city populations.

There is no reason why farm villages patented after those in Utah should not have a social life and an outward beauty quite as pleasing as, for instance, the suburbs of Boston. There the architecture seems almost uniformly pleasing. Attractive lawns, with trees, vines and flowers are everywhere.

People of small means will be able to surround themselves with similar advantages in the farm villages of the arid region, while realizing all the benefits of independence and equality insparable from the industrial scheme of irrigation. —Century.

What Five $1 Bills Accomplished.

This money was invested in five bottles of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. "I suffered for nearly ten years with constipation, jaundice and biliousness," writes Mr. D. Probert, of New Hampton, N. Y., "and the best medical treatment I could procure, did me no good. A friend of mine spoke about Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy which I bought, and when I had taken three bottles I was what most people call a well man, and two bottles more cured me. What the doctors cost hundreds of dollars in trying to do, Favorite Remedy did for for five dollars." If you are inclined to constipation don't neglect yourself. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy permanently cures it.

Report of the Condition

OF

The City National Bank,

At Plainfield, in the State of New Jersey, at the close of business,

MAY 7, 1895.

RESOURCES.

Loans and discounts		$363,434 58
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured		361 89
U. S. bonds to secure circulation		40,000 00
Stocks, securities, etc.		71,245 00
Furniture and fixtures		2,500 00
Due from National banks (not reserve agents)		7,442 22
Due from State banks and bankers		17,712 44
Due from approved reserve agents		97,742 45
Checks and other cash items		2,919 35
Fractional paper currency, nickels and cents		249 47
Lawful money reserve in bank, viz:
Specie	$21 785
Legal-tender notes	7 673	29 458
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer (5 per cent of circulation)		1,800 00
Total		$634,965 40

LIABILITIES.

Capital stock paid in	$150,000 00
Surplus fund	30,000 00
Undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid	26,096 91
National Bank notes outstanding	33,970 00
Due to other National Banks	14,545 43
Due to State Banks and bankers	15,280 26
Dividends unpaid	492 00
Individual deposits subject to check	355,972 67
Demand certificates of deposit	4,109 84
Certified checks	4,221 22
Cashier's check outstanding	387 97
Total	$634,965 40

State of New Jersey, County of Union, ss:

I, William F. Arnold, cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

W. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of May, 1895.

J. C. Pope, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest: CHARLES HYDE, J. F. HUBBARD, JAS. T. CLOSSON, Directors.

Miss Gurney Will Address.

A few weeks ago there was organized a Plainfield Branch of the Young Ladies Christian League of which Mrs. Cortlandt De Peyster Field of New York is president.

The meetings are undenominational and held weekly, Wednesday afternoons at 3:45.

Miss Gurney of the New York League will address the meeting next Wednesday, at the residence of Miss Thompson, corner of Central avenue and Sixth street. All are invited to attend.

Chancellor Donath Coming.

Grand Chancellor Ralph Donath of Jersey City will be present at the meeting of Unity Lodge, Knights of Pythias, next Wednesday evening, when the Uniformed Rank officers will work the third rank on several candidates for their sister lodge.

Tie th' Dog.

Mayor Hegeman wishes The Press to state that a dog catcher will be appointed in a few days, and that the dog ordinance in North Plainfield willl be strictly enforced.

MUSIC HALL.

Jos. Sohl, Lessee and Manager. Tel. 49b

ONE NIGHT ONLY,
WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 15,

Special production by arrangements with Miss Effie Ellsler, of the exquisite Comedy Drama,

"HAZEL KIRKE,"

As played at Madison Square Theatre 900 consecutive performances. Longest run on record. A great play. Strong selected company.

Presented with same attention to details as at the remarkable run in New York City.

Secure your seats in advance for this Special Attraction. Prices, 35, 50, 75c., $1.00.

TELEPHONE RATES

IN PLAINFIELD:

$30, $40, $50,

according to number of local messages sent and joint use of line; full long distance equipment. Private lines and speaking tube systems installed at reasonable rates. Address

THE NEW YORK and NEW JERSEY TELEPHONE CO.,

175 North avenue, Plainfield.

5 3 eod 1m

THE Bee Hive

Summer Underwear.

Ladies' ribbed vests 7, 10, 12, 15 and 25c.
Children's ribbed vests 8 and 10c.
Children's gauze vests and pants to match 10, 12, 15 and 18c.
Boys' short jean drawers 25, 44c.
Boys' short gauze drawers 25c.
Men's summer Merino shirts and drawers 35 and 50c.
Men's Balbriggan shirts in short and long sleeves, and drawers, 25, 35 and 50c.
Men's jean drawers, 25 and 50c.
Also a full line of children's white lawn and cambric dresses.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st.

There's But One Way

to get a correct idea of the completeness of our stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods, and of the dollar-saving economies we offer you, and that is by inspecting the goods.

Our talk won't give you an idea, nor will anyone else's.

Come and See

those $8 and $10 men's suits now

$5.00.

Men's fine all wool suits in cheviots, Vicunas, etc., worth $12 to $16, now

$9.50.

Men's dress suits in fancy worsteds and clay diagonals, worth $18 to $20, now $12.50.

These are bargains you read of but never see outside of

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

One Swallow

"don't make a spring." Neither will one bottle of Scott's Emulsion cure a well established case of Consumption, but it will ease the Cough, relieve the irritation and arrest the progress of the disease, and if persistently used, with the observance of the laws of health, will surely restore the patient in the early stages and give great comfort and prolong life in the latter stages.

It is simply Cod-liver Oil properly emulsified, combined with Hypophosphites and Glycerine. It is a tissue-builder.

Don't be persuaded to accept a substitute!

Scott & Bowne, N. Y. All Druggists. 50c. and $1.

An Idea

Has struck us, it hurt nothing but our prices, tilted them over just about ¼ their original value. Our idea is to sell plenty. We must pay expenses, can't do business for pleasure, but we are satisfied with a very small profit. We want quick sales and small profits.

Summer Dress Goods.

We are showing the largest variety of Wash Goods ever shown in the city.

Swivel silks	39c and 42c
Wash silks	39c
Dress ginghams	8c
All-wool challies	14c
New crepe cloths	13c and 15c
Fast colored cambrics	6c
The latest dotted swiss	17c
For one week the best Merrimack Prints only	4c

Silk Waists.

50 wash silk waists $2 98 worth $3 50.

Capes.

Still the evenings are cool. A cape feels comfortable. Our prices cannot be duplicated.

Duck Suits.

50 more duck suits all sizes at 99c.

Housefurnishing Goods.

7c. SALE IN BASEMENT 7c.

We bought them very cheap, you buy them likewise. They are Toilet Sets 10 pieces, richly decorated only $1 95 worth $2 75.

Ice Cream Freezers from $1 75 to $1 98.

The Best Refrigerators made are the ones we carry in stock. We will be pleased to show you their merits at any time.

Millinery.

Half of Plainfield's population know we are the leaders in stylish millinery. We wish the other half to call and be convinced also. Just received a large assortment of Baby Carriages from $5 00 to $15 00.

BOEHM'S,

113 WEST FRONT ST.

Miss E. Rockfellow,

DRESSMAKING PARLORS,

195 NORTH AVENUE.

Taylor system. Suits $5 and upward.

J. C. Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS,

110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

F. A. DUNHAM,

Civil Engineer and Surveyor

109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas.

Gold Dollars for Fifty Cts

No, but full value. C. E. MORSE, Painting and Paper Hanging, 35 Chatham st.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,

Real Estate and Insurance,

197 North avenue.

BATHS, Hot and Cold 15 Cents

Showers included, at

WILLIAM CLAASSEN'S,

Barber, 211 Liberty Street.

Photo Material.

PLATES AND PAPER

At Reduced Prices.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front st.

Cut Roses, Carnations AND VIOLETS.

Flowers furnished for weddings, funerals, etc, in bunches, bouquets or design.

MILES, Somerset st., Johnston's drive.

(Terminus Electric Railroad)

Where Quality and Economy Join Hands

There You Will Find a True Value that is Worthy of Peck's.

Saturday, Monday
Tuesday, Wednesday

4 DAYS SPECIALS. 4

Fine white trimming laces 3c per yard, reduced from 6, 8 and 10c.
White lace plaid goods, fine quality, 6½, 10, 12½ and 18c; former price 12, 16, 20 and 25c.
Men's balbriggan and gauze shirts 25c each; reduced from 40c.
Ladies' ribbed vests 7c each; good quality.
Window poles and fixtures complete 13c.
Window shades 15c each and upward.
Ladies' Lisle and Taffeta gloves 15c per pair.
40 per cent. off on all sun umbrellas.
Best calicoes, ginghams and lining cambric at 3½c per yard.
Just received a new lot of carpets which will be sold at special low prices.

Remember, for $10 cash purchased in our CARPET DEPARTMENT You get a handsome Rug free.

WHITNEY'S,

122 East Front Street. - Near City Bank.

Trouserings!

500 Choice Patterns, Which We Are Making to Order for $5.00.

SEBRINGS,

Park Avenue, Packer's Block.

EDSALL'S.

Here is What You Want!

We say this with confidence because we have such a large variety to choose from that the smallest need as well as the most exacting demand can be filled at our Commercial Palace, and prices are always the lowest.

Specials Saturday, 2 p. m. till Closing

Ladies' laundered shirt waists in a variety of choice patterns all sizes, 65c grade; Saturday 48c.
50c white lawn hemstitched aprons large size; Saturday 25c.
45c boys' white and colored blouses all sizes; Saturday 29c.
50c boys' shirt waists all sizes, fast colors; Saturday 25c.
75c ladies' calico wrapper in a large variety of designs; Saturday 48c.
75c men's neglige shirts fast colors all sizes; Saturday 50c.
39c men's summer merino shirts and drawers, all sizes; Saturday 25c.
12½c men's 4-ply linen faced collars, newest styles; Saturday 7c.
25c Windsor ties, in all leading colors; Saturday 12½c.
75c box of Lettuce Cream soap; Saturday 10c.
25c bottle Bouquet Cologne with sprinkler top; Saturday 10c.
$1 25 and $1 49 ladies' cloth capes, prettily trimmed; Saturday 89c and $1 10.

Housefurnishing Department in the Basement.

25 lawn mowers 12 inch. While they last at $1 98 each.
50 English decorated toilet sets, all perfect, 6 pieces; at $1 39 set.
207 only sample porch chairs and rockers, must be sold quick to make room. They won't last long at the prices marked. Prices range from 59c to $2 98 each.

SOMETHING OF SPECIAL INTEREST. Special sale of bleached sheetings in 8-4 and 9-4 widths, usually sold at 22 cts and 25 cts a yard. Our price 13 and 15 cts a yard.

Clearance sale of short lengths of bleached muslins, 8-4 and 9-4 widths, all to go at half original prices.

An excellent line of sheer and dainty Percales, in a variety that makes choice most difficult, unsurpassable value at 12½ cts. Our price 9 cts.

Counterpanes. Marseilles and crochet quilts, large size, exquisite designs, sold everywhere at 98 cts, $1 25, $1 39 and $1 65. Our price 65 cts, 79 cts, $1 15 and $1 25.

Capes. Ladies' capes, made of silk, velvet and cloth, prettily trimmed with lace, jet and ribbons. Sold elsewhere at $4 98, $5 25, $8 50 and $9. Our price $3 75, $3 99, $5 57 and $5 98.

Moreen Skirts. An excellent Moreen skirt, with full ruffle, usually sold for $4 98. Our price $3 20.

House Wrappers. Wrappers made up of fine percales in all colors, including indigo, full skirt, cape falling from yoke over large sleeves, trimmed with very pretty contrasting braids, all sizes, at 69 cts, 89 cts, $1 10 and $1 25. Usual asking price fully 25 per cent. more.

Taffeta Silks. Special bargain in black and colored all silk taffeta, in an excellent assortment of designs, the most sought for silk of the season. Sold everywhere at 89 cts and $1 a yard. Our price 65 cts and 75 cts a yard.

25 ct paper books, by standard authors, good print, full titles. Our price 3 cts each.

Fans. We have just opened up an exquisite line of fans, ranging in price from 10 cts to $2 50 each. The usual asking price is fully 25 per cent. more.

SODA. When you have finished shopping and are tired and thirsty, then remember SODA. that our soda is equal to the best in town. Don't fail to try it.

Of Rare Worth and Exceeding Beauty

In all of our stock there are no shoes that reveal more clearly the advance in shoe making than do our ladies' oxfords. We have them in all sizes and qualities. A few hundred pairs left of those 74c ties; that is 25 per cent. less than first cost. We sell trunks and bags for less than manufacturer's retail prices.

Doane & Edsall.

A WIZARD AT THE BAT.

Aladdin's Genie Takes a Hand in a Village Ball Game.

Mr. Albert Stearns' serial, "Chris and the Wonderful Lamp," reaches an exciting stage in the May St. Nicholas. The hero of the tale has become possessed of Aladdin's lamp, and he summons the genie to win a game of baseball that he himself had almost lost as pitcher. The following is an account of the genie's appearance on the diamond:

He unlocked his valise and took out the lamp and rubbed it; instantly Pulsifer Jukes stood before him, a broad grin on his face.

"I've been expecting you to call me for the last hour," he said. "Really, I don't know when I've laughed so much."

"You've seen the game, have you?" asked Chris, trying to assume a careless air.

"Yes," giggled the genie. "I had the curiosity to be on hand. Such playing! He! he! he! Say, did you ever see a game of baseball before? Honest, now!"

"Between you and Bob and the rest of them," returned the boy hotly, "I was so rattled that I couldn't play at all."

"That's right, blame me!" shrieked the genie. "Why don't you say it was all my fault? See here, what do you want this time?"

"I want you to change yourself into my double and play the game for me."

"Enough said!" And the genie rushed from the room.

From his window Chris saw his representative take his place to strike. The three men preceding him had all made base hits and the bases were full. The genie's appearance was greeted by a despairing groan from the Lincolnvilles, and one boy said:

"If we only had a batter like Phil Burns he would bring in these three men; but there's no show now."

The first ball was an easy one, but the genie missed it by at least a foot, at which a Dusenbury boy called out, "He has holes in his bat!" and every one laughed, though the manifestations of mirth on the part of the Lincolnvilles were by no means as boisterous as those in which the Dusenburys saw fit to indulge.

When the genie failed to hit the second ball, Chris murmured despairingly:

"He can build palaces, but he can't play ball for sour apples. I might have known—By jingo!"

The genie had struck the third pitched ball such a terrific blow that the bat broke in two. Toward the barn, then over it, went the ball, every boy in the field staring at it in amazement. Phil Burns' hit was as nothing compared with it.

Down near third the Lincolnville coacher was shrieking frantically:

"Sprint, you snails, sprint! Gre-ea-t Scott! wasn't that a dandy crack!"

The attention of the spectators was almost diverted from the three men already on bases, who were running for home, by the amazing swiftness of the genie as he scudded down to first. Having arrived there, he stopped and stared about him, an expression of perplexity upon his face, as if looking for the ball.

In his excitement at this singular conduct on the part of his representative, Chris entirely forgot himself, and yelled, "What's the matter with you? Run!" But luckily the tumult on the diamond was so great that no one heard him.

"What on earth ails you, Wagstaff?" shouted the captain. "Have you gone to sleep there?"

By this time the boy who had been on first when the strike was made reached third and started for the home plate, the other two having already scored.

The genie now apparently roused himself and resumed his run at the same rate of speed that had so astonished the boys when he was on his way to first. He crossed second base like an express train, whizzed down to the third like a flash; and in another second, after nearly running over the man ahead of him, landed on home plate, having first turned a complete double somersault.

He did not appear to be in the least out of breath as he cried:

"Score Wagstaff!"

A scene of frenzied enthusiasm in the ranks of the Lincolnvilles followed; the Dusenburys seemed paralyzed with astonishment and dismay.

THAT HELPING HAND.

A Duty Performed is Not Deserving of Thanks.

"There are many ways of lending a helping hand besides holding out one with money in it. A kind word often saves a man or woman who is in trouble. I once knew a rich man who lost everything. He was perfectly honest, but simply could not meet his debts. He had a large family, and, instead of getting up and doing something in this emergency, he sat in his room and moped. One day a woman, a friend of his wife, called. She asked him what the trouble was, and after hesitating he confided in her. She put her hand on his shoulder and said: 'I'll pay your debts and give you another start if you promise to stop sitting around and thinking of suicide. You are taking a selfish view of it, considering only yourself. Remember others who are dependent on you.' To-day that man is a prosperous man, but where would he have been if the helping hand had been withheld? In a suicide's or a drunkard's grave most likely. If any one comes to us in need and we are able to help him and refuse, we fail in our duty. Especially should we pity those who have had money and lost it. Nine times out of ten they do not know how to work, and when they try to do something everybody is ready to cry, 'All wrong.' Instead of doing that, help them by word or act. Many people say, 'Oh, I've helped so many and got no thanks for it.' We don't deserve any thanks for doing these things. It is merely doing our duty."

Sweet are the uses of adversity; but it generally happens that while one person gets the adversity, some other person corrals the sweetness.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

ELUSIVE PROMISES.

A Correspondent Says Mr. Spangenberg Knows Whereof He Speaks.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:

I have noted the two letters in The Daily Press relating to street railway extensions, and having had some experience on the point in question I think that Mr. Spangenberg is the best qualified person in this city to judge how the matter should be handled in order to get what is wanted, for it was through his personal energies that the present holders of the franchise were brought to Plainfield; and many, many promises were made to him as well as to others, but never went through. Mr. Spangenberg evidently believes as a good fisherman does when he pulls up an eel and wishes to save him—that it is best to secure it in some way before he takes the hook out.

S. G. S.

Plainfield, May 10, 1895.

Free Pills.

Send your address to Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of constipation and sick headache. For malaria and liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c. per box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

HELD BY THE KING.

Conan Doyle's Latest and Best Story to Be Published in The Daily Press.

On May 15 The Daily Press will begin publication of another tale of adventure from the pen of A. Conan Doyle. It tells how the Brigadier Gerard escaped from the old English prison at Dartmoor, and of many remarkable adventures which follow his escape, and which lead to a climax as pleasing as it is unexpected.

Dr. Doyle considers these adventures of Brigadier Gerard the best work of his life so far, and we hope that our readers will agree with him. We shall continue to publish the adventures of the dashing Brigadier through the Summer.

"How the King Held the Brigadier" will be published in daily instalments and will continue five days.

—An amateur performance for the benefit of the C.Y. M. L. will be given May 15 in their hall.

All Free.

Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who have not, have now the opportunity to try it free. Call on the advertised druggist and get a trial bottle, free. Send your name and address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago; and get a sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills free, as well as a copy of Guide to Health and Household Instructor, free. All of which is guaranteed to do you good and cost you nothing at L. W. Randolph's Drugstore.

Does the Question of Proper Bicycling Dress Bother You?

WE desire to help every American woman to ride a bicycle. Therefore COLUMBIA BICYCLES are $100 this year, and are lighter and better adapted to women's needs than ever. There are also light and attractive patterns for women's use in Hartford Bicycles at $80 and $60.

Here's an Idea

Bicycle Costume Dolls

To help solve the problem of proper cycling costume, we have had prepared a set of six handsomely lithographed paper dolls, showing designs by some of the world's most noted makers of women's gowns. The set is beautiful and instructive.

Mailed to any address, with a dainty little book on BICYCLING FOR WOMEN, for five 2-cent stamps. Address Publishing Department.

Pope Mfg. Co., Hartford, Conn.

The Eldridge Cycle Co. Park ave. and 4th st

Easy payments; old wheels taken in exchange; wheels to hire; fine repairing.

ASSIGNMENT.

I have finished the manufacture of

CLOTHING,

and my stock is now complete, and my time for disposing of the stock is drawing near. Our bargains are unheard of before in Plainfield. If you have intended buying for yourself or children come now while the stock is complete.

J. F. MacDonald, Assignee

For Schepflin, Schultz & Co.,

318 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.

THE GREAT AMERICAN DRINK— SODA WATER

is the best of all drinks when rightly served. We use many syrups—all good—but we must "brag" a little about our orange (fresh from fruit), our chocolate and coffee; none can be finer. As to cream—take your choice: Ice cream, whipped cream, plain cream.

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North avenues.

Hosiery. No store in this town offers so many sorts, so many values. We always have some exceptional bargains such as these: The 12 1-2c. fast black seamless hose for 9c; the 20c. kind for 15c, and 20c. for the regular 25c. goods; 5c. for mens seamless hose that should be 10c. and the 15c. fast black half hose for 10c.

25 rolls more of the 10c. matting. Other mattings at any price up to 50c. A good ingrain carpet at 25c. Brussels made, laid and lined free. Window shades from 18c, oilcloths from 25c, large size Smyrna rugs $2.60, value $3.50; do, at $2.10, value $2.75. Lace curtains from 54c pair, curtain poles complete from 18c.

It takes little money to purchase a good cape from us. A splendid showing of the most taking styles, some as low as 98c; percale shirt waists 48c; silk belts 25c; new parasols.

LEDERER'S

CLOTHING

Is to Man What Cutting is to the Diamond.

The man in rags may be as good as one in broadcloth, but somehow the world does n't think so. He is the rough diamond of humanity, while his less deserving but better dressed neighbor, like a cut diamond, is appreciated and admired. Now there's just as much difference in the cutting of clothing as of diamonds. It takes skill to impart the perfection of fit and finish we give to our clothing, and it costs no more when you know how. See our grand line of Men's Spring Suits, beginning at $9 and running up by easy stages of a dollar or so to $20.

McGregor & Co.,

850-852 Broad Street,

NEWARK, N. J.

Educational.

AFTERNOON CLASS

For Young Ladies.

Three times per week. Higher English branches, French and music. For terms, apply MISS FAWCETT, 25 Washington ave.

Spring Term of the Rockview Home and Day School

Opened April 15.

Kindergarten, primary and intermediate departments. For terms and particulars apply to the Misses Peck, 317 East Front street.

CODDINGTON'S Furniture and Freight EXPRESS.

Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed.

THE DIFFERENCE.

Right up-to-date when it comes to selling goods and having just what you want, but we run our store in the old way of having you go where you please, doing as you please, and having who you want to wait on you.

IT'S OUR WAY.

SNAP SHOTS

Taken at random throughout the store, all at interesting prices:

Ladies' percale shirt waists	48c
Men's outing shirts	48c
New dress ginghams	6c
New dress percales	6c
Fine figured mulls	8c
Ladies' seamless hose	13c
Men's seamless hose	12c
Boys' bicycle hose	15c
Boys sweaters	19c
Boys Windsor ties	12c
Ladies' lisle gloves	10c
Extra huck towels	10c
Large dinner napkins	$1 19 doz
Swivel dress silk	39c
Fine toilet soap	8c box
Jap rugs 18x36	39c
Jap matting, roll of 20 yards	$2 48

COOL UNDERWEAR.

Always offering good values but this lot is the best of all. Men's fine balbriggan shirts and drawers 33c each. Ladies' fine ribbed vests 13c. Children's fine gauze vests 12c up.

SUMMER.

HOUSE FIXINGS. Widow screens, hard wood 25c. All sizes Jap porch screens. Sprinkling pots. Oil stoves. Gas stoves. Refrigerators.

MEN.

That lot of outing shirts on the centre-table will interest you. If we bought them in the regular way the price would be $1.50, but that doesn't count. You buy them for 69c.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW. Our Own Sale.

We are selling goods in every department at greatly reduced prices. It will pay you to call and investigate before buying elsewhere.

12 and 16c plain Silesia for	10 and 12c yard	25 and 50c Sweaters for	21 and 42c
20 and 25c fancy Satteens for	16 and 20c yard	$1. and 75c laundered shirts, colored,	89 and 67c.
12 and 16c plain Percalines for	10 and 13c yard	A good laundered shirt, colored, for	50c
Best French hair cloth	59c yard	50c neckwear for	42c
50 and 60c black Damask for	42 and 52c yard	15c half hose for	11c
85 and $1 black Damask for	69 and 89c yard

210 WEST FRONT STREET.

E. E. MARSHALL & CO.,

167 North Avenue.

Wall Papers, Painting and Interior Decorating.

DESIGNS SUBMITTED FOR FRESCOING.

Progressive Plainfield's Progressive Store.

LACE CURTAINS.

Lot 1, White Nottingham 2 1-2 yards long	48c pair
Lot 2, White Nottingham 3 yards long	69c pair
Lot 3, White Nottingham 3 yards long	86c pair
Lot 4, White Nottingham 3 yards long	93c pair
Lot 5, White Nottingham 3 yards long	$1.08 pair
Lot 6, White Nottingham 3 1-2 yards long	$1.43 pair
Lot 7, White Nottingham 3 1-2 yards long	$1.97 pair

BED SPREADS.

Lot 1, White Crochet Counterpanes	54c each
Lot 2, White Crochet Counterpanes	74c each
Lot 3, White Crochet Counterpanes	94c each
Lot 4, White Crochet Counterpanes	$1.18 each
Lot 5, White Crochet Counterpanes	$1.27 each
Lot 6, White Marseilles Counterpanes	$1.39 each

200 only in the lot, assorted colored Shirt Waists for ladies; no more to be had; all to be sold at 25c. Each

One lot Ladies' Laundered Shirt Waists	43c each
One lot Ladies' Ribbed Vests	5c each

Van Emburgh & Son,

CORNER STORE, BABCOCK BUILDING.

GRAND OPENING
Every Day at
FULPER'S.

1 pound 50c Tea, 1 can Milk, 3 pounds Sugar, 1 loaf Bread, ½ doz. boxes matches

50c All for 50c 50c

Not as an introduction but an every day occurrence. The very best goods; the very lowest prices. Sugar cured ham 10c pound; best Elgin creamery butter 20c; 5 pounds for 95cts; good creamery butter 15c; 2 pounds extra combination coffee for 25c; 2 pounds extra creamery cheese for 25c; good creamery cheese 10c pound; 3 cakes Babbitt's soap 13c; Babbitt's 1776 per package 3c; best ginger snaps 4c.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
—Dealers in—
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock.
Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

Hats, New Shapes, Trunks and Bags Cheap.
E. M. Laing,
All sizes in Packing Trunks. 105 Park Avenue.

Metropolitan Livery and Boarding Stables.
Horses boarded by the day, week or month. Especial accommodations for transient trade. Office and stables,
147, 149, 151 North Avenue, Opposite Railroad Station.
A. C. BLAIR, Proprietor. FRANK DAY, Manager.
Telephone 152, connected with all circuits of New Jersey, New York and Brooklyn.

LYNDHURST, KEATING EAGLE, And Apollo Bicycles.
Charles C. Lister, 134 North Avenue.
Repairing, Renting and Storing.

THEY ARE BEAUTIES
Our Ladies' Kid Welt Oxford with new plain tip, the latest; Russet Kid 3-Button Oxford, something new; our $2 Oxfords are noted for their wear.
ALEX WILLETT & SON, 107 Park Ave.
Open until 9 p. m.

WE PUT ON OUR
ODDS AND ENDS TABLE TODAY
One Haviland Dinner Pattern
One Lot of Fancy Flower Pots
One Lot Glass Dishes
One Lot Fancy Creams
129 East Front street. GAVETT'S.

HALLOCK is showing choice patterns in Percale Shirts, with two collars and pair cuffs—and these collars and cuffs are the latest patterns—no old back numbers. Hats and Furnishing Goods.
G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front Street.

The Czar,
The Handsomest Wheel Ever Produced.
HIGHEST GRADE MADE.
E. Frank Vail, Agent,
177 NORTH AVE.

$1.00 AT J. F. MacDonald's
UPTOWN GROCERY
Buys $1.00 Worth of Groceries Every Business Day in the Year
Our goods are sold at a profit so as to enable us to give weight and quality to our customers and have something left for ourselves. No fictitious prices. No man is in business for his health.
J. F. MAC DONALD.

Edward C. Mulford,
(Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.)
Real Estate Broker and Fire Insurance.
Office 119 North avenue (opp. railroad station). Money to loan.

Is Your Cook Up at 5?
That's the hour of our morning delivery.
FINEST, FRESHEST SEAFOOD.
ROGERS, 232 West Second street.

Chronicles of Martin Hewitt
BY ARTHUR MORRISON.
THE CASE OF LAKER, ABSCONDED.

At Winsor & Weekes' information was not difficult to obtain. The houses were destined to come down very shortly, but a week or so ago an office and a cellar in one of them was let temporarily to a Mr. Westley. He brought no references—indeed, as he paid a fortnight's rent in advance, he was not asked for any, considering the circumstances of the case. He was about opening a London branch for a large firm of cider merchants, he said, and just wanted a rough office and a cool cellar to store samples in for a few weeks, till the permanent premises were ready. There was another key, and no doubt the premises might be entered, if there were any special reason for such a course. Martin Hewitt gave such excellent reasons that Winsor & Weekes' managing clerk immediately produced the key and accompanied Hewitt to the spot.

HEWITT CONTINUED TO PASS IT AROUND THE BOLT.

"I think you'd better have your men handy," Hewitt remarked to Plummer, when they reached the door, and a whistle quickly brought the men over.

The key was inserted in the lock and turned, but the door would not open the bolt was fastened at the bottom Hewitt stooped and looked under the door. "Its a drop bolt," he said. "Probably the man who left last let it fall loose and then banged the door, so that it fell into its place. I must try my best with a wire or a piece of string."

A wire was brought, and with some manoeuvring Hewitt contrived to pass it round the bolt and lift it, little by little, steadying it with the blade of a pocket knife. When at length the bolt was raised out of the hole, the knife blade was slipped under it, and the door swung open.

They entered. The door of the little office near the door stood open, but in the office there was nothing except a board a couple of feet long in a corner. Hewitt stepped across and lifted this, turning its downward face toward Plummer. On it, in fresh white paint on a black ground, were painted the words:

BULLER, CLAYTON, LADDS & CO.,
TEMPORARY ENTRANCE.

Hewitt turned to Winsor & Weekes' clerk and asked: "The man who took this room called himself, Westley, didn't he?"

"Yes."

"Youngish man, clean shaven and well dressed?"

"Yes, he was."

"I fancy," Hewitt said, turning to Plummer, "I fancy an old friend of yours is in this—Mr. Sam Gunter."

"What! the 'Hoxton Yob?'"

"I think it's possible he's been Mr. Westley for a bit, and somebody else for another bit. But let's come to the cellar."

Winsor & Weekes' clerk led the way down a steep flight of steps into a dark underground corridor wherein they lighted their way with many successive matches. Soon the corridor made a turn to the right, and as the party passed the turn there came from the end of the passage before them a fearful yell, "Help! help! Open the door! I'm going mad—mad! Oh, my God!" And there was a sound of desperate beating from the inside of the cellar door at the extreme end. The men stopped startled.

"Come," said Hewitt, "more matches!" and he rushed to the door. It was fastened with a bar and padlock.

"Let me out, for God's sake," came the voice, sick and hoarse, from inside. "Let me out!"

"All right!" Hewitt shouted. "We have come for you: wait a moment."

The voice sank into a sort of a sobbing croon, and Hewitt tried several keys from his own bunch on the padlock. None fitted. He drew from his pocketbook the wire he had used for the bolt of the front door, straightened it out, and made a sharp bend at the end. "Hold a match close," he ordered shortly, and one of the men obeyed. Three or four attempts were necessary, and several different bendings of the wire were effected, but in the end Hewitt picked the lock and flung open the door.

From within a ghastly figure fell forward among them, fainting, and knocked out the matches. "Hullo!" cried Plummer, "hold up. Who are you?"

"Let's get him into the open," said Hewitt. "He can't tell you who he is for a bit, but I believe he's Laker."

"Laker! What, here?"

"I think so. Steady up the steps—dont bump him. He's pretty sore already, I expect."

Truly the man was a pitiable sight. His hair and face were caked in dust and blood, and his finger nails were torn and bleeding. Water was sent for at once and brandy.

"Well," said Plummer hazily, looking first at the unconscious prisoner and then at Hewitt, "but what about the swag?"

"You'll have to find that yourself," Hewitt replied. "I think my share of the case is about finished. I only act for the Guarantee Society, you know, and if Laker's proved innocent"—

"Innocent? How?"

"Well, this is what took place, as near as I can figure it. You'd better undo his collar, I think"—this to the men. "What I believe has happened is this: There has been a very clever and Laker has not been the criminal, and carefully prepared conspiracy here, but the victim."

"Robbed himself, you mean? But how? Where?"

"Yesterday morning, before he had been to more than three banks—here, in fact."

"But, then, how? You're all wrong. We know he made the whole round and did all the collection. And then Palmer's office and all, and the umbrella; why"—

The man lay still unconscious. "Don't raise his head," Hewitt said.

FROM WITHIN A FIGURE FELL FORWARD.

"And one of you had best fetch a doctor. He's had a terrible shock." Then turning to Plummer he went on: "As to how they managed the job, I'll tell you what I think. First, it struck some very clever person that a deal of money might be got by robbing a walk clerk from a bank. This clever person was one of a clever gang of thieves—perhaps the Hoxton row gang—as I think I hinted. Now, you know quite as well as I do that such a gang will spend any amount of time over a job that promises a big haul, and that for such a job they can always command the necessary capital—there are many most respectable persons living in good style in the suburbs whose chief business lies in favoring such ventures and taking the chief share of the proceeds. Well, this is their plan, carefully and intelligently carried out. They watch Laker, observe the round he takes, and his habits. They find that there is only one of the clerks with whom he does business that he is much acquainted with, and that this clerk is in a bank which is commonly second in Laker's round. The sharpest man among them—and I don't think there's a man in London could do this as well as young Sam Gunter—studies Laker's dress and habits just as an actor studies a character. They take this office and cellar as we have seen, because it is next door to a bank whose front entrance is being altered—a fact which Laker must know from his daily visits. The smart man, Gunter, let us say, and I have other reasons for believing it to be he—makes up precisely like Laker, false mustache, dress and everything, and waits here with the rest of the gang. One of the gang is dressed in a blue coat with brass buttons like a hall porter in Buller's bank. Do you see?"

"Yes, I think so. It's pretty clear now."

"A confederate watches at the top of the court, and the moment Laker turns in from Cornhill—having already been, mind, at the only bank where he was so well known that the disguised thief would not have passed muster—as soon as he turns in from Cornhill, I say, a signal is given, and that board"—pointing to that with the white letters—"is hung on the hook in the doorpost. The sham porter stands beside it, and as Laker approaches, says: 'This way in, sir, this morning. The front way's shut for the alterations.' Laker, suspecting nothing, and supposing that the firm have made a temporary entrance through the empty house, enters. He is seized when well along the corridor, the board is taken down and the door shut. Probably he is stunned by a blow on the head—see the blood now. They take his wallet and all the cash he has already collected. Gunter takes the wallet and also the umbrella, since it has Laker's initials, and is therefore distinctive. He simply completes the walk in the character of Laker, beginning with Buller, Clayton & Ladd's, just around the corner. It is nothing but routine work, which is quickly done, nobody notices him particularly—it is the bills they examine. Meanwhile, this unfortunate fellow is locked up in the cellar here, right at the end of the underground corridor, where he can never make himself heard in the street, and where next him are only the empty cellars of the deserted house next door. The thieves shut the front door and vanish. The rest is plain. Gunter, having completed the round, and bagged some £15,000 or more, spends a few pounds in a tourist ticket at Palmer's as a blind, being careful to give Laker's name. He leaves the umbrella at Charing Cross in a conspicuous place, right opposite the lost property office, where it is sure to be seen, and so completes his false trail."

"Then who are the people at 197 Hackworth road?"

"The capitalist lives there—the financier, and, probably, the directing spirit of the whole thing. Meeston's the name he goes by there, and I've no doubt he cuts a very imposing figure in chapel every Sunday. He'll be worth picking up—this isn't the first thing he's been in, I'll warrant."

"But—but what about Laker's mother and Miss Shaw?"

"Well, what? The poor women are nearly out of their minds with terror and shame, that's all, but, though they may think Laker a criminal, they'll never desert him. They've been following us about with a feeble, vague sort of hope of being able to baffle us in some way or help him if we caught him, or something, poor things. Did you ever hear of a real woman who'd desert a son or lover merely because he was a criminal? But here's the doctor. When he's attended to him will you let your men take Laker home? I must hurry and report to the Guarantee Society, I think."

"But," said the perplexed Plummer, "where did you get your clue? You must have had a tip from some one, you know. You can't have done it by clairvoyance. What gave you the tip?"

"The Daily Chronicle."

"The what?"

"The Daily Chronicle. Just take a look at the agony column in yesterday morning's issue and read the message to 'Yob'—to Gunter, in fact. That's all."

(To be continued.)

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
The Standard Railroad of America.
Protected throughout by the Interlocking Switch and Block Signal System.

On and after January 20, 1895.

Trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

Fast Line leaves Philadelphia 12 25 p. m. daily, with Pullman Vestibule Parlor and Dining Cars, for Pittsburg, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

6 36 p. m.—Western Express, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Cars and Dining Car, daily, for Pittsburg, Chicago and Cleveland, daily except Saturday, for Toledo, Williamsport, Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

8 24 p. m.—Southwestern Express, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Car, daily, for Columbus, Cincinnati Indianapolis, St. Louis, and Memphis. Dining car Altoona to Richmond.

8 42 p. m.—Pacific Express, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Cars, daily, for Pittsburg, Columbus, Chicago and Toledo, daily except Saturday, for Cleveland.

For Baltimore, Washington, and the South—1 00, 9 05, 9 36 a. m., 9 39 p. m. On Sunday, at 1 00, 9 05, 9 36 a. m., and 9 41 p. m.

For Baltimore only, 1 37 p. m., week-days.

For Newark and New York—3 02, 5 34, 5 55, 6 17, 6 45, 7 01, 7 20, 7 49, 7 57, 8 06, 8 28, 8 33, 8 45, 9 17, 9 41, 9 48, 10 20, 10 38, 10 49, 11 07, 11 48 a. m., 1 13, 1 20, 1 56, 2 24, 2 40, 2 45, 3 27, 3 47, 4 43, 5 15, 5 36, 5 48, 6 08, 6 27, 6 48, 6 58, 7 07, 7 35, 7 50, 8 17, 9 10, 9 50, 10 03, 11 03, and 11 56 p. m. Sundays, 3 02, 5 34, 7 54, 8 45, 9 20, 9 47, 10 25, 10 38, 10 49 a. m., 12 35, 1 44, 2 33, 2 45, 3 45, 4 33, 5 34, 5 48, 7 05, 7 12, 7 25, 7 58, 8 30, 9 15, 10 30, 11 46, and 11 56 p. m.

For New York only, 6 10 a. m. daily.

For Philadelphia—1 00, 6 57, 7 50, 9 05, 9 36, 11 43 a. m., 12 35, 1 37, 3 33, 5 08, 6 36, 7 46, 8 47, 9 39 p. m., Sunday, 1 00, 6 50, 9 05, 9 36, 10 41 a. m., 5 40, 6 37, 7 47, and 9 41 p. m.

For Atlantic City—2 25, p. m., week-days, with through buffet parlor car, Sunday 8 40 a. m.

For Cape May—1 37 p. m. week-days

For Rahway—1 00, (1 43 daily except Monday) 6 44, 7 10, 7 50, 8 54, 9 46, 9 50, 10 59, 11 43 a. m., 12 46, 1 11, 1 37, 2 48, 3 20, 3 39, 3 59, 4 28, 4 59, 5 22, 5 40, 6 00, 6 06, 6 12, 6 17, 6 27, 6 45, 6 52, 6 59, 7 20, 7 46, 8 14, 8 55, 9 54, 11 02, 11 45 p. m., and 12 27, night, week-day. Sundays, 1 00, 1 43, 6 59, 8 43, 9 49, 10 25, 10 41, and 11 47 a. m., 12 50, 1 50, 2 47, 3 28, 4 50, 5 20, 5 40, 7 21, 7 27, 7 47, 8 14, 8 47, 9 16, 10 14, 11 00, and 11 55 p. m.

For New Brunswick—1 00, 6 57, 7 10, 7 50, 9 05, 9 36, 9 50, 11 43 a. m., 12 35, 1 37, 2 48, 3 39, 4 38, 5 08, 5 40, 6 06, 6 45, 7 46, 9 39, and 11 39 p. m. Sundays, 1 00, 6 50, 9 05, 9 49, 10 41, a. m., 12 50, 1 50, 5 40, 7 47, 9 16, and 9 41 p. m.

For Woodbridge—(1 43 a. m., daily except Monday) 6 44, 9 46, 10 59, a. m., 12 46, 3 20, 4 33, 4 44, 6 12, 7 20, 9 54, p. m., and 12 27, night, week-days. Sundays, 1 43, 10 25, 11 47, a. m., and 10 14 p. m.

For Perth Amboy—(1 43, a. m., daily except Monday,) 6 44, 9 46, 10 59, a. m., 12 46, 3 20, 4 33, 5 44, 6 12, 7 20, 7 36, 9 54, and 12 27 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 43, 10 25, and 11 47 a. m., and 10 14 p. m.

For East Millstone—7 10 a. m., 12 35, 2 48, 5 40 p. m. week-days

For Trenton—1 00, 6 57, 7 10, 7 50, 9 05, 9 36, 11 43 a. m., 12 35, 1 37, 2 48, 5 08, 6 36, 7 46, 8 47, 9 39 p. m. Sundays, 1 00, 6 50, 9 05, 9 36, 10 41 a. m., 5 40, 6 37, 7 47, and 9 41 p. m.

For Lambertville, Phillipsburg, and Belvidere, via Trenton—7 30 a. m., 2 48 and 6 36 p. m. and 5 40 p. m., Sunday.

For Flemington—7 50 a. m., and 2 48 p. m.

For Freehold via Monmouth Junction—7 50, 11 43 a. m., 4 38, 5 08 p. m. week-day.

For Jamesburg via Monmouth Junction—7 50, 11 43 a. m., 4 38, 5 08 p. m. week-days

For Long Branch, Asbury Park, Ocean Grove, and points on New York and Long Branch R. R.—9 46 a. m., 12 46, 4 12, 5 44 p. m. and 12 27 night, week-days. Sundays 10 28 a. m., and 5 44 p. m., do not stop at Asbury Park and Ocean Grove on Sundays.

For Seaside Park, Island Heights, and Toms River—12 46 p. m., week-days.

For Boston—8 46 p. m., daily.

For Brooklyn, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats to Brooklyn annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York city.

Leave New York for Elizabeth—(1 00 daily except Monday) 6 00, 6 30, 7 20, 8 10, 8 30, 9 00, 9 10, 10 10, 11 00 a. m., 12 00 noon, 12 10, 12 30, 1 00, 2 10, 2 30, 3 00, 3 20, 4 00, 4 10, 4 30, 4 40, 5 00, 5 10, 5 20, 5 30, 5 40, 5 50, 6 00, 6 10, 6 20, 6 40, 7 00, 7 30, 8 15, 9 15, 10 15, 11 00, 11 30 p. m., 12 15 night. Sundays, 1 00, 6 15, 8 00, 9 00, 9 45, 10 00, 11 00 a. m., 12 00 noon, 1 00, 2 00, 2 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 6 30, 6 45, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 30, 10 15, 11 00 p. m., and 12 15 night.

S. M. PREVOST,
General Manager.
J. R. WOOD,
General Passenger Agent.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

New York Mails.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11 a. m., 2:30, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 and 9:20 a. m., 1:45, 5 and 7:30 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:30 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

List of Advertised Letters.

Plainfield postoffice, May 7, 1895.

(Officially furnished weekly for publication in The Daily Press.)

Appissa Accottino	Migliore Clemente
Balzarino Terafino	Mulligan Ellen
Brumby Maude	Manry Mamie
Chase Charles	Mijhnan Mrs
Connelly John	Moore Mrs Rhoda
Cohen Rev M	"Nanna"
Croy F W	Parillo Sig Guiseppi
Cicere Tabeta	Peccorell Guiseppi
Edwards Kate (2)	Parry Preston
Ellis Mrs Mary	Ruskine Robt
Ewing Mrs Wm	Runyon J H
Haddon Patrick	Ryno Joel
Hoffman Mrs	Ryen John
Hagle Fred	Smith David L
Ingraham Walter	Stein T W
Jackson Henry	Schaffer J
Kenin David	Steward Hiram
Kocher H J	Surphen Prime (2)
Kimball Miss M	Tevis E L
Kuzbert Mr	Vernon Mrs G E
Katrick Miss	Vitelli Domenico
Kranter Robert	Vetromilo Leonardo
Larid (agt) Mr	Vernon Mrs R R
Martone Sig Angelo	Woodruff S V

Removal.
I have removed my watchmaking and jewelry business from Park avenue to 142 North avenue, next to Walker's bakery, and shall be pleased to have my friends call.
CALEB DICKINSON.

E. H. Holmes,
Dealer in
COAL AND WOOD.
Yard—No. 203 Madison avenue.
Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Jones & Co.,
EXCAVATORS.
Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.
—Cesspools Built.

Joseph E. Mosher,
agent for
War claims Att'ys., Washington, D. C. H. J. Hayden Co.,
All claims put in our hands will receive prompt attention. Call at the Crescent Cigar Store for fine cigars.

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 20c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
Finest Dairy Butter 15c.
V. L. FRAZEE,
151 West Front st.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.
Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.
Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.
Time Table in Effect Nov. 18, 1894.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 57, 5 38, 6 05, 6 29, 6 59, 7 29, 7 50, 7 58, 8 00, 8 15, 8 27, 8 31, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 11 19, a. m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 7 07, 8 30, 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 57, 6 05, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 19, 11 28, a. m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 28, 5 39, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17, p. m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a. m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 5 15, (except Saturdays) 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 15, 11 30, p. m; 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday 4 30, 7 15, 8 30, 9 15, a. m; 12 00 m; 1 00, 2 15, 4 00, 5 30; 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p. m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a. m.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 26, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, a. m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p. m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 28 a. m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 08, 10 05, 11 25 a. m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 20 (saturdays only) 2 50, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 59, 6 30, 7 15, 7 35, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p. m. Sunday 7 30, 8 45, 9 05, 11 35 a. m; 1 10, 2 35, 4 10, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 18, 9 54, 11 00 a. m; 12 46, 2 08, 2 32, 3 45, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 23, p. m; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 34, a. m; 2 03, 3 28, 5 14, 6 35, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 35, 7 48, 8 20, 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 5 28, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 55 a. m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 05, 6 45, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a. m., 12 46, 2 08, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a. m; 2 03, 6 35 p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53, a. m; 12 22, 4 00, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 52 a. m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua.

7 10 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p. m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 08 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin, (buffet parlor car to Scranton.)

6 10 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

9 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

9 28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 54, p. m. Sundays, (except Ocean Grove) 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 4 50, 5 54, 7 03, p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 18 p. m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a. m.; 1 18, 3 51, 4 50 p. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 45, 8 44, 9 48, 10 45 a. m.; 2 08*, 5 34*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37* p. m. 1 12 night. Sundays, 5 45, 9 48 a. m., 2 03*, 4 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 12 night.

For Trenton, 5 45, 8 44, 9 40*, 10 45 a. m. 12 46, 2 08*, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 37* p. m., 1 12 night. Sundays—5 45, 9 34 a. m., 2 03*, 5 14*, 6 35*, p. m. 1 12 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 9 48 a. m., 2 08, 5 34*, 6 45 p. m., 1 12 night. Sundays, 9 48 a. m., 2 03, 5 14*, 6 45 p. m., 1 12 night.

For Chattanooga, New Orleans and all points South, with through vestibuled sleeping cars via Shenandoah Valley Line, at 5 34 p. m. Sunday 5 14 p. m.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 22 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked (*) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
R. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

A Full Assortment of Stationery
AT HARPER'S,
411 Park avenue.

Fred Endress,
Dealer in
All Kinds of Choice Meats.
Jersey Pork and Poultry a Specialty.
203 Liberty street.

H. HAND,
Licensed Auctioneer.
15 Years Experience
Residence and postoffice address Scotch Plains, N. J.
Office in Plainfield at Terrill & Cole's livery 200 West 2d st.

Prof. A. Wehner,
TEACHER OF
The Pianoforte.
Also Voice Culture.
Graduate of the Conservatory of Leipzic, Germany, desires a few more pupils in Plainfield. References required and given. Address letters to the office of this paper.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday evenings of each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Court Pride of New Jersey, No. 8024, Ancient Order of Foresters of America, meets in K. of P. Hall, No. 108 West 2d street, first and third Tuesday evenings in each month.
Samuel J. Flynn, Chief Ranger.
Samuel H. Lunger, Fin. Sec.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays in the Babcock Building.
C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Masonic Hall, East Front street.
D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. M. Bea, Regent.
H. A. Thorne, Secretary.

Lawyers.

W. K. McClure,
COUNSELOR AT LAW.
Supreme Court Commissioner.
First National Bank Building.

W. R. Codington's
LAW OFFICES,
Corner Park ave. and 2d st.
Solicitor and Master in Chancery.
Notary Public.

The Sign on the Window Reads
Woolston & Buckle,
Paper Hangers.
We have had the door hinges and latch oiled up so that getting in is easy. So also is the getting out. Prices are so low on Wall Papers that you will buy before you go.

It's a Fact that we sell
Men's and Boys' Clothing,
Hats, Shirts, Underwear, Ties, etc., cheaper than any house in town. Buying from merchants who are pressed for cash, we buy our goods at our own price and sell them cheap.
Everything sold is fully recommended or money refunded. Boys' School Suits from $1.25; Boys' Long Pants Suits $2 up; Men's Serviceable Suits $3.50 to $6; Men's Suits for dress wear $5.50 and upwards; Derbys, equal to any $3 hat, at $1.50.
It is to your benefit to examine our goods before buying elsewhere.
Plainfield Bargain House.
J. Goldstein, 126 Park Avenue.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines, under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 158a.

TELEPHONE 58.
Ring it up when you want good coal, and talk to
Geo. O. Stevens.

N. E. King,
High-Class
PORTRAITS
In Crayon, Pastel and Water Colors.
483 Lexington ave.,
Brooklyn, N. Y.
Refers by permission to John A. Thickstun, L. B. Woolston, J. L. Blackford, L. W. Randolph, A. L. Force. Further information at the drug store of L. W. Randolph or office of The Daily Press, where specimen of work can be seen.

CONFECTIONS,
Fresh, and from
Pure Materials.
TIER'S,
116 Park Avenue.

MUNYON'S TRIUMPH

The Fight Against Disease, Poisonous Drugs and Old Fogyism Declared in his Favor.

Mr. J. Baumer Tells the Story of His Suffering and Cure.

Mrs. J. Baumer, 42 E. Twenty-first first st., Bayonne, N. J., says: "Eighteen months ago I was so crippled with rheumatism that I could not dress myself. I tried all the doctors in Bayonne, but they gave me up as hopeless. I also tried numerous preparations, but failed to find any relief. At last I heard of Munyon's Rheumatism Cure and began using it. The effect was marvelous. I improved at once, and found that less than two bottles were sufficient to cure me completely, as I have not had a twinge of rheumatism since."

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure rheumatism in any part of the body. Acute or muscular rheumatism cured in from one to five days. It never fails to cure sharp, shooting pains in the arms, legs, sides, back or breast, or soreness in any part of the body in from one to three hours. It is guaranteed to cure lameness, stiff and swollen joints, stiff back, and all pains in the hips and loins. Chronic rheumatism, sciatica, lumbago or pain in the back speedily cured.

Munyon's Homœopathic Home Remedy Company, of Philadelphia, put up specifics for nearly every disease, which are sold by all druggists, mostly for 25 cents a bottle.

Those who are in doubt as to the nature of their disease should address Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch street, Philadelphia, giving full symptoms of their disease. Professor Munyon will carefully dignose the case and give you the benefit of his advice absolutely free of all charge. The Remedies will be sent to any address on receipt of retail price.

PLAINFIELD Machine Works,
Manufacturers of
Steam Engines,
Electric motors and dynamos. Shafting and mill work generally. Jobbing in all its branches Prompt attention given to repairing of steam engines, boilers, bicycles, etc. Piping in all its branches. Give us a call.
N. C. Magee, Manager. Works cor. Richmond and E. 3d st., Plainfield.

Wall Paper,
Wall Paper.
Wall Paper Bargains
5, 6, 8, 10c Roll.
Also all the best papers for the fine trade. Competent men employed to hang our papers.
Rugs, Window Shades, Mouldings, Varnishes, Paints, Kalsomine, Tinting Colors, Oils, Artists' Materials, Cigars.
LOVE,
Cor. North and Watchung aves.

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent,
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

CHOICE
Lawn Seeds, Garden Seeds & Fertilizers.
Lawn Mowers Repaired, Plumbing, Tinning and Hardware.
A. M. GRIFFEN,
119 East Front St.

Real Estate, Insurance.
VanBuren & Timpson,
163 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE.

Most Striking Example of Personal Power Since Cæsar.

MADE FIRST CONSUL OF FRANCE.

Causes Which Led to His Rapid Ascendency—Coup of Brumaire—Passage of the Alps and Battle of Marengo—Moreau Victorious on the Field of Hohenlinden.

[Copyright, 1895, by John Clark Ridpath.]

XIII.—BRUMAIRE AND THE RECOVERY OF ITALY.

For four years and four days the administration of the government of France was in the hands of the Directory. That body was a plural executive. The sanguinary Republic of 1793 had sought to transform itself, under the guillotine, into a Republic of moderation; and the administrative power was assigned to a Council of Five. The vice of the new system was the want of executive unity; for how could five men think and act as one?

Many members of this quintuple presidency had been of the Jacobin order. Of this kind was Barras. Others were patriots and men of character. Such were Rewbell, La Revellière-Lepeaux, Le Tourneur, Carnot, Barthelemy, Roger-Ducos, and in particular the Abbe Sieyes—greatest of them all. In such a body contrarious counsels were always uppermost; and there was a consequent want of decision and force in the government.

This condition led to the deplorable reverses which overtook the French armies during the absence of Bonaparte in Egypt. Thiers says that the Directorial Republic exhibited at this time a scene of distressing confusion. He adds: "The Directory gave up guillotining; it only transported. It ceased to force people to take assignats upon pain of death; but it paid nobody. Our soldiers, without arms and without bread, were beaten instead of being victorious."

NAPOLEON CROSSING THE ALPS.

The ambition of Napoleon found in this situation a fitting opportunity. The Directors were Sieyes, Barras, Ducos, Moulins and Gohier. The legislative branch of the government consisted of a Senate, or Council of Ancients, and a Council of Five Hundred. The latter constituted the popular branch. Of this body Lucien Bonaparte, brother of the General, was president. Hardly had Napoleon arrived in the capital when a conspiracy was formed by him with Sieyes, Lucien, and others of revolutionary disposition, to do away by a coup with the too democratic system, and to replace it with a stronger and more centralized order. The Council of Ancients was to be brought around by the influence of Sieyes. To Lucien Bonaparte the more difficult task was assigned of controlling and revolutionizing the Assembly. As for Napoleon, Sieyes procured for him the command of the military forces of Paris; and by another decree the sittings of the two legislative councils were transferred to St. Cloud.

The 18th Brumaire of the Year VIII., corresponding to the 9th of November, 1799, was fixed as the day for the revolution. To Napoleon the crisis was an epoch of fate. The conspiracy embraced the resignation of Sieyes, Barras and Ducos, which—coming suddenly on the appointed morning—broke up the Directory. Bonaparte then put out his hand as commander of the troops. Too late the Republicans of the Council of Five Hundred felt the earthquake swelling under their feet. Napoleon appeared at the bar of the Assembly and attempted a rambling and incoherent justification for what was going on. A motion was made to outlaw him; but the soldiers rushed in; and the refractory members were seized or expelled. A few who were in with the revolution remained, and to the number of fifty voted a decree making Sieyes, Bonaparte and Ducos provisional Consuls, thus conferring on them the supreme executive power of the State. By nightfall the business was accomplished, and the man of Ajaccio slept in the Palace of the Tuileries. He had said to Bourrienne, on that morning, "We shall sleep to-night in the Tuileries—or in prison."

The new order was immediately made organic. There could be no question when Three Consuls were appointed and Bonaparte one of the number, which of the three would be First Consul. He would be that himself; the other two might be the ciphers which should make his unit 100. The new system was defined as the Provisionary Consulate; but this form was only transitional. The managers of the coup went rapidly forward to make it permanent. The Constitution of the Year III. gave place quickly to the Constitution of the Year VIII., which provided for an executive government, under the name of the CONSULATE. Nominally the Consulate was to be an executive committee of three, but really an executive of one—with two associates. The three men chosen were Napoleon Bonaparte, Jean Jacques Cambaceres and Charles Francois Lebrun. On Christmas day, 1799, Napoleon was made FIRST CONSUL; and that signified the beginning of a new order, destined to endure for sixteen and a-half years, and to end at Waterloo.

This era in Bonaparte's life marks the beginning of the union in him of great military and great political power. Henceforth he was destined, to the end of his career, to be the State of France. To his will all things now became rapidly subservient. His ascendency was henceforth the most striking example of merely personal power that the world has witnessed since the days of Julius Cæsar. Of a certainty, History, begotten by Reason in the womb of Eternity, is not made—never was made—by any man. But the lines of historical causation were more deflected and determined in their course and connections by the will of Napoleon than by any other one man for the last eighteen centuries.

The rapid ascendency of this extraordinary personage was strongly aided by the recent calamities which had befallen France. Following in the wake of these had come discouragement and the disposition to fall back on him who had shown himself capable of rescue and victory. While Napoleon was in Syria, the Austrians and Russians in coalition had returned to the battle in Italy, and had driven the French out of the country. On the 18th and 20th of June, General Macdonald had been defeated at Cassano and on the Trebbia by Field-Marshal Alexander Suwaroff. On the 15th of August, Joubert lost the battle of Novi and was killed on the very spot where Napoleon had assumed command in 1796. Suwaroff next encountered Massena at Zurich, where, on the 25th and 26th of September, he was worsted by the French. Nevertheless, the Russian forced his way over the Alps, and France was immediately threatened with a counter invasion. At this juncture, however, there was a quarrel in the allied armies, and Suwaroff, disgusted with the Austrians, withdrew from the country, bearing his well-earned title of Italuski.

Napoleon spent the first months of the year 1800 at Paris. The revolution was received with general approbation by the French. The leading features of the new government were a Senate, a Tribunate and a Council of State. These forms were not wholly acceptable to the First Consul; but in the organization of the system, his will and purpose were everywhere predominant. Meanwhile, he appointed General Moreau to the command of the Army of the Rhine, and on the 25th of April that general began his advance into Germany. The first result of the movement was the forcing back of the Austrians on Ulm.

As for Italy, the First Consul reserved for himself the reconquest of that country. With the opening of spring, he projected the Second Italian campaign. On the 14th of May, 1800, he began his famous passage of the Great St. Bernard. We might mark this event as the first of the spectacular aspects of the Napoleonic career. There, in his gray overcoat, under his three-cornered hat, mounted on a rearing steed, goes the conqueror up inaccessible heights against a background of ice-peaks and glittering Alpine sky! The gaze of mankind follows him, and shoutings are heard in half the valleys of the world! The French army surmounted the seemingly impassable Alp in six days, and suddenly debouched into Italy. On the 2nd of June, Bonaparte entered Milan. It was high time that some one should come to the rescue; for two days afterwards Massena surrendered Genoa.

That, however, was the end of the successes of the allies south of the Alps. On the 9th of June ocurred the battle of Montebello, in which the Austrians, under Ott were overwhelmingly defeated by a division of the French army under Lannes. Five days later was fought the great battle of Marengo, which gave its name to the campaign—and ended it. The French were 28,000 strong, and the Austrians numbered about 33,000. Napoleon commanded in person; but under him were Desaix, Lannes and Kellermann. In the beginning of the engagement, General Melas, commander of the Austrians, gained a threatening advantage over the French. For several hours Napoleon was in peril of defeat; but the arrival of reinforcements, under the great Desaix turned the tide; Lannes fought like a lion, and Kellermann with the cavalry completed the overthrow. The Austrians were swept from the field with a loss of more than ten thousand men, while the French loss of fully seven thousand attested the violence and desperation of the conflict. Marengo may be reckoned the first great battle of the Napoleonic wars. It had all the features of those extraordinary conflicts which were subsequently directed by the genius and audacity of Bonaparte. The battle ended the war in Italy. On the next day Genoa and the other fortresses of Upper Italy were resurrendered to the French.

Meanwhile, Moreau had been successful in Germany. He pressed forward to the heart of Bavaria, and on the 15th of July concluded an armistice with the enemy. This agreement was maintained for four months, only to be broken by the Austrians. Hostilities were at once resumed; Moreau advanced, and on the 3d of December, on the field of Hohenlinden, gained a complete victory over the German army. The triumph of the French in this summer was marred by the loss of several of their ablest generals. Beside Joubert at Novi, Desaix, the conqueror of Upper Egypt, who saved the day at Marengo, was killed on that bloody field, and about the same hour the gallant Kleber, walking in his garden at Cairo, was assassinated by the fanatic Solyman.

Victorious in Italy and returning to Paris with unexampled fame, Napoleon might now follow his inclinations for peace. His ascendency over the French began to be recognized abroad, and conditions appeared favorable for a general pacification. The popularity of the First Consul was extreme, and this was intensified by the ill-disguised efforts of his enemies to cast him down. Conspiracies were made against his life. On Christmas eve of the year 1800 the most serious of these attempts was made—and failed. Napoleon was going to the opera. Three conspirators—Carbon, St. Rejant and Limoelan—drove a powder cart, with a fuse, into the Rue St. Nicaise, a narrow street by which the First Consul must pass.

When the cavalcade came by, the fuse was lighted, and a shocking explosion followed. Houses round about were knocked down, and the place was strewn with the dead and dying. The First Consul was unhurt, though his carriage was shattered in the havoc. He went on to the opera, and sat unmoved through the play. The rage of the Parisians on account of this dastardly act against their hero knew no bounds, and the thing attempted was turned to good advantage by the friends of Napoleon.—The eighteenth century came in with Marlborough, and went out with an infernal machine!

The allies now chose to accept a peace. Ambassadors gathered at Luneville, near Nancy, and on the 9th of February, 1801, Napoleon concluded with his enemies his first great definitive treaty. The convention made with Austria at Campo-Formio more than three years previously was confirmed. The secret article of that compact by which France was to have the left bank of the Rhine was openly agreed to. Tuscany was given to Parma. The Cisalpine, Ligurian, Helvetic and Batavian republics which Napoleon had created were recognized. The general effect of the treaty was to undermine that Holy Roman Empire which beginning with the crowning of Charlemagne was destined, after six years, to receive the final dispatch at the hands of Napoleon.

JOHN CLARK RIDPATH.

Sensitive Nerves.

When the points of a hairpin are passed along the cheek from a point near the eye to the edge of the upper lip, they seem to separate. The reason is found in the fact that the nerves of the upper lip are more sensitive than those of the cheek, and consequently differentiate the two points. Portions of the back are so little sensitive to the touch that two points three inches apart will create the impression of but one.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.
"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY, Boston, Mass.
ALLEN C. SMITH, Pres.,

The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

DO YOU KNOW THAT
Amos H. VanHorn, L't'd,
73 Market st., Near Plane st., Newark,
Are doing better by purchasers in their line than any other house in the trade? If you doubt it, why just call at number 73
—Get their prices and see the big inducements they are offering. For instance:
PARLOR SUITS. We are giving a Moquette Rug, size 27x54, and a Parlor Table with every Parlor Suit sold.
CARPETS. We are making and laying all of our carpets with paper without charge, which is a saving of 15 cents per yard.
BEDROOM SUITS. We are the only house in the city that is giving a Woven Wire Bed Spring and a Mixed Mattress with every bedroom suit sold.
MATTINGS. We pride ourselves that we have the largest stock of fancy mattings in the city, and at lowest prices. Good Japanese matting at only 15 cents per yard.
NOTE THE NAME AND NUMBER BEFORE ENTERING THE STORE.
PORTLAND RANGES. Any one who wants a range should not buy one until they have called and examined the Famous Portland Range. Over 7,000 now in use and every one warranted. Easy terms. Goods delivered free to all parts of the State.
Storing furniture—It must be true what everybody says, for those who have seen the rooms in our New Storage Building, put up expressly for storing furniture, at 88, 90 and 92 Bank street, say that it is the finest in the State for cleanliness and low rates.
TELEPHONE 530.
AMOS H. VAN HORN, Limited,
73 Market st., Near Plane st., Newark, N. J.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,
301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,
—DEALERS IN—
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Materials, &c.
Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.

POPULAR POWDER at POPULAR PRICES.
BORATED TALCUM
At 10 Cents a Box.
LEGGETT'S PHARMACY.

CLEVELAND BICYCLES, The Great Leaders of 1895.
Design, Improvements, Workmanship, Quality, Speed, Health, Pleasure, Business, Road, Track.
The Fastest, Strongest, Handsomest and Most Rigid Wheel.
The "Swell Specials" are a decided advance in bicycle construction and when quality alone is considered will always sell.
Liberty, Crescent, Waverly, Majestic.
We thoroughly believe in the merits of the above wheels, and unhesitatingly recommend them.
Frank L. C. Martin Cycle Company,
333 PARK AVENUE.
Established 1889.
REPAIRS. RENTALS.

HEBER NEWTON'S NEW HERESY.

His Recent Utterance About the Resurrection Stirs the Church.

While clergymen in general, as well as laymen, have been discussing the sermon delivered by the Rev. Dr. R. Heber Newton, at the All Souls' Protestant Episcopal Church, New York, in which he discarded the prevalent belief of the Church in the actual resurrection of the body of Jesus Christ, the words of the clergyman in question have been quietly weighed by a commission appointed to ascertain whether there was sufficient evidence of uncanonical practices on his part to warrant placing him on trial for heresy. These last utterances of Dr. Newton which have caused so much comment have proved to be valuable data for the commission in its labors, and now there is no doubt that Dr. Newton will be speedily called to account for alleged heresy.

The commission which is investigating Dr. Newton's case dates back to 1891. The following part of Dr. Newton's sermon is the basis on which the evidence swings, and that expressing, as it does in brief, the whole creed voiced by Dr. Newton, it will be relied on for a decision. The portion is as follows:

"What are we to understand by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead? What the Church understands is plain. Without doubt the general belief is that there was a physical resurrection—a rising from the tomb of the very body of flesh and bones which was laid away there after the crucifixion. I have held to its belief as long as possible, but no superstructure can forget its foundation, and my reasons for rejecting this belief I propose to tell you. We know now from our fuller knowledge of the times of Jesus Christ that the people and His disciples themselves believed not only in immortality, but in an actual physical resurrection. I cannot accept the testimony of the disciples. And there is the fact that no one saw Him in the act of rising from the tomb and passing forth in the same identical form of His earthly body * * *

"I am frank to say that for one I do not believe the resurrection of Jesus Christ means the rising again from the tomb of the actual body laid away there. The Church undoubtedly believes it, and its authority is no higher than the authority of the disciples."

PULLMAN NOT A MODEL TOWN.

Clergymen Report that the Poor Live in Brick Sheds at $8 Per Month.

The Chicago committee of clergymen, as a result of their investigation at Pullman, recommend a monster entertainment as the means of securing funds to colonize 150 families who must leave the town.

Rev. Mr. Mitchell said: "The company absolutely refused to contribute one cent. Not only that, but our investigation revealed the fact that the money raised by the Hussars some time ago to help deport Pullman people fell into the hands of the company."

"Pullman is not the model town one is asked to believe it is," said Dr. Rusk. "It is a whitened sepulcher filled with dead men's bones. Without it is fair to look at, but after you pass the imposing front there is much to be condemned. We went through the alleged model flats, and found that a ramshackle affair on the top floor rented for $23. Why, in the sheds at the brick yards, which the company denies are used as habitations, the squalid creatures who inhabit them showed us rent receipts for $8 a month, signed by the Pullman Company."

HOMELESS HETTY GREEN.

She Disputes the Personal Tax Levied on Her in New York.

Hetty Green, accompanied by two lawyers, Wheeler H. Peckham and Smith E. Lane, and by two stenographers, went before the tax commissioners to contest her assessment for 1895 on $1,540,000 of personal property. One of the stenographers, she said, was to be a check upon the other, so that she might be sure of an accurate report.

Mrs. Green's contention was that she did not live in New York. If she had any home, she said, it was at Bellows Falls, Vt., although she did not live there, and when there put up at a hotel. She enumerated the places in this city where she had lived during the last year, and declared that in all but one she had been a visitor, and had paid no board. She had boarded for sixteen days at 16 East Forty-seventh street.

"Where did you stay last night?" asked Mr. Dean.

"At the Hotel St. George, in Brooklyn," she answered. "I have paid my bill there, and I don't know where I shall go to-night. Couldn't you find me a place, Mr. Dean?"

The amount of the tax which Mrs. Green is trying to avoid is something under $30,000. The commissioners reached no decision on her application.

A Long Time Dead.

At Dashour, twenty miles south of Cairo, the graves of two princesses of the twelfth Dynasty, more than 4,000 years ago, were discovered intact a little while ago. The coffins had decayed and the mummies crumbled to dust as soon as an attempt was made to remove them, but on the head of each was a golden coronet looking as fresh as the day it was made.

One was a wreath of forget me nots with Maltese crosses at intervals made of precious stones; the other coronet contained a socket in which was inserted a spray of flowers made of jewelry, with leaves and stems of gold. Besides these there were necklaces, bracelets, armlet anklets, daggers and charms.—American.

A Just Rebuke.

Young Tutter (drawing closer)—I hope, Miss Clara, that your father in the next room can't hear what I am saying.

Miss Pinkerly (with dignity)—I hope, Mr. Tutter, that you will say nothing to me that you would not be willing, if necessary, to say to papa.—Life.

HORSES ARE DAINTY AT DINNER

Instinctively Discard All Foreign Substances in Their Oats or Hay.

Did you ever watch a horse grazing? If you never did you have missed one of the prettiest sights nature affords her lovers. It is something to watch the animal enjoying a good meal of hay, shutting its eyes and burying its head to the ears in the fragrant grasses in the manger, or to note the unerring accuracy with which it picks up a mouthful of grain from the box and rejects, without ever seeming to see, the bit of stone or dirt that has got mixed in with it.

I have known a horse to eat a measure of oats "slick and clean," and leave in the manger the medicated powder that had been mixed with it. Even an elephant's proboscis is not more keenly alive to the presence of a foreign substance in the creature's food than is the long, flexible, sensitive upper lip of the horse, which serves him as unerringly, as faithfully, almost as universally, as a finger does the human being. His cousin, the rhinoceros, and his brother, the tapir, have this prehensile upper lip even more markedly than he, changes in the manner in which he obtains his food having somewhat modified his use of this organ, but not sufficiently but that we may trace some very interesting reminiscences of his origin therein.

The long, tapering upper lip is a characteristic mark of a well-bred horse. A blunt, square nose is an indication of coarse blood, even when it accompanies an otherwise well formed head.

I have said that a horse grazing is on of the prettiest sights in nature, and think those who have watched the process will agree with me. Just outside my window, as I write, a pretty mare is feeding upon the short, thick alfalfa. The ground is strewn with eucalyptus leaves and twigs and all the wind blown debris of the recent storm. In with the alfalfa burr clover is growing, which horses never eat in its green state, and a few weeds, but not a stray leaf or twig, not a sprig of clover nor a stalk of any weed finds its way into madam's mouth.

She has just eaten every spear of a tuft of alfalfa, in the midst of which a meadow mushroom is growing—and left the mushroom intact. Weeds are bent back, leaves turned over, clover brushed aside and twigs tossed away in the most unconscious manner by the busy upper lip, while all the while the even white teeth are nipping off leaf after leaf of just the pasturage sought for, never by any chance getting a bite of anything else. It is quite wonderful to watch her.—San Francisco Call.

Baldness and Hat Ventilation.

The reason men go bald is because they wear hats that are not porous. If they would wear hats through which the air could circulate freely I do not think we should see any bald men, or at least very few. Let a man wear a felt hat over his whiskers as much as he does on his head and then note the result. How many bald women do we see? Women usually wear hats or bonnets through which the air has free circulation, and many times those which are entirely open, and very few women keep their heads covered for any length of time any way. The best preventive of baldness would seem to be to keep the head uncovered as much as possible, though, of course, if one were not in good physical condition, he might become bald even with this precaution. But if one will take good care of himself physically, and see that his head is always ventilated, he can rest assured he will never become bald if he has a fairly good crop of hair with which to commence this hair retaining business.

A Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

From the Groton Connecticut Review.—"David Lewis, who has been afflicted all winter by rheumatism, is out again and all due to one of the medicines advertised in our columns. After trying everything possible, he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which has relieved him of all pain, from which he was a constant sufferer and promises to make him fit for duty soon. We know David has been a great sufferer and are glad to see him around again." For sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

It Did the Business.

Mr. J. H. Cobb, publisher of the Mirror, at Brockton, N. Y., says: "For nearly two years the Mirror has been publishing the advertisements of Chamberlain's Remedies. A few days ago the writer was suffering from a bowel trouble and resorted to an old remedy which did not prove efficacious; finally he tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy and two doses did the business, checking it completely. For sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

Agreeably Surprised.

"I had a very severe cold on my lungs that caused much soreness and gave me considerable uneasiness in regard to the result," says Mr. T. E. Smith, of Billerica, Mass. "A local druggist called my attention to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and on his recommendation I gave the remedy a careful trial. The result surprised me; I recovered entirely in three days." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c per box. For sale by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

[Notices under this head are published by The Daily Press free of charge, when supplied fresh each week by authority. Copy must be in hand by 10 a.m. Saturday to insure insertion, and should be supplied Friday when possible.]

Reform Hall—Hallelujah meeting, 4 p. m.

Y. M. C. A. Rev. and Mrs. Pierson will speak at 4:15 p. m.

First Presbyterian Church—10:30, Romeyn's "Thoughts on Religion". 7:45, Rome.

Washingtonville Memorial Chapel. The service will be in charge of ex-Mayor Randolph.

Mission Church of the Heavenly Rest—Prayer and sermon, 11 a. m. Sunday-school, 9:45.

Congregational Church. Services 10:30 a. m. Sunday-school, 2:45. Christian Endeavor service, 7:30.

All Souls Church. Rev. Hobart Clark, pastor, will preach. Service, 10:45 a.m. Sunday-school, 11:45 a. m.

German Lutheran St. Peter's Church. Services 10 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. Sunday-school, 9 a. m. Rev. E. Kionka, pastor.

Swedish services—Grace Church, 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Rev. A. P. Nelson of Orange, and other ministers, will preach.

Church of the Redeemer, Rev. Dr. Jocelyn Johnstone rector—Early celebration, 7:30 a. m. Morning service and sermon, 11:15. Sunday-school, 3 p. m. Afternoon service at 4:30.

Grace Church, Rev. E. M. Rodman, rector. Early celebration of Holy Communion, 7:30 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon, 11 a. m. Sunday-school, 3 p. m.; evening service, 4:30 p. m.

Monroe Avenue Chapel, Rev. M. C. O'Donnell, pastor. Morning service, 11. Sunday-school, 3. Epworth League consecration service, 7:30. Special Epworth League service, 8; address by the pastor.

Grace M. E. Church—Rev. Herbert F. Randolph. Epworth League Sunday. 10:30, Sermon to League, subject "Devotion". 7:45, subject, "The shadows we cast". Sunday-school at 2:30. Epworth League at 7.

St. Stephen's Church. Rev. S. P. Simpson, rector. Holy Communion, 7:30 a. m. Sunday-school, 9:45 a. m. Morning prayer, litany and sermon, 11. Evening prayer, 4:30. Free stage leaves railroad station at 10:30 a. m.

First Church of Christ, Liberty street. Experience meeting at 10:45 a. m. Lord's Supper at 11:45 a. m. Sunday-school, 2:45 p. m. Christian Endeavor, 7 p. m. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. B. W. Hand, at 8 p. m.

Trinity Reformed Church, Rev. Cornelius Schenck, pastor—Preaching 10:30 a. m. Sunday-school, 2:30 p. m. Fourteenth anniversary of Ladies Christian Work society, 7:30 p. m. Address by Rev. A. DeWitt Mason of New York.

Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. C. R. Barnes, pastor—10:30 a. m., preaching by the pastor. 2:30 p. m., Sunday-school. 7 p. m., Epworth prayer meeting. 7:45 p. m., annual meeting of the Epworth League, to be addressed by Dr. R. R. Doherty.

Park Avenue Baptist Church. Rev. J. W. Richardson's themes will be: morning 10:30, "Moses, early life and mistake"; first sermon in a series. Evening at 7:30, "The impulsive man"; an ancient character in modern dress. Sunday-school, 2:30 p. m.

—Contractors Cook & Company are rushing the sewer trenches on Front street with a large force of men.

How's This!

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.
F. J. CHENEY & Co., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

WEST & TRUAX, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

WALDING, KINNAN & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

AUCTION SALE.

SATURDAY, MAY 18, 1895,

at 4 p. m. on the premises most valuable houses and lots ever offered in the borough of North Plainfield, known as the Bacon property, situated at 16 Sycamore avenue, size of lot about 75x200. Three-story brick house, contains 15 rooms and bath, all modern improvements, gas engine for pumping water, artesian well, 2 hot-air furnaces, shade and fruit trees on property. This is an A1 chance to procure one of the finest houses in Washington Park. Only cause for selling is to close an estate. The house will be open for inspection Friday and Saturday the 17th and 18th inst from 9 a. m. to 5 p.m. For further particulars Address THOMAS McKANE,
Middletown, Orange County, New York

Terms of sale—$1000.00 can remain on bond and mortgage, balance in cash. 5 11 6

WORSE THAN POVERTY.

Poor Blood and Nerves Out of Order---Take Paine's Celery Compound.

Among all the structures that make up the human body, the nerves have been until recently the least understood.

The role of the nerves in the digestion and assimilation of food is a highly important one. The question whether the food shall nourish or become a mere load upon the system is a question of nerve force.

Neglect to satisfy the demands made by the nervous system carries heavy penalties. When this nervous force is exhausted the digestive processes are obstructed, the body is weakened and pains of neuralgia, indigestion, rheumatism, invade its parts. During repose the nerves and great nerve centres feed upon the nutritive material that is stored in the blood and tissues. It is when this supply of nourishment is prompt and abundant that the nervous system is able to recuperate, but when the system has become too tired to appropriate sufficient nourishment and the nerves too shaky to ge the rest they need, that best of all blood purifiers, nerve foods, and nerve regulators, Paine's celery compound, should be given at once.

Paine's celery compound has brought health, strength, and freedom from nervous weakness to thousands of tired women, "run down" men, and sickly children. It makes them able to sleep soundly, to digest their food perfectly, and to win back health and strength. The tired brain and nerves are rebuilt and their wasted parts repaired during sleep, and where nervousness, irritability, and inadequate nutrition of the nerve centres do not permit sufficient sleep, nervous prostration, lassitude and despondency are sure to follow. Paine's celery compound guards against all this by promptly feeding the exhausted nerves and making the blood pure, abundant and nourishing. It cures neuralgia, rheumatism, dyspepsia, all forms of nervous weakness, despondency, skin diseases, and affections of the heart, liver and kidneys. It sends pure, vitalized blood to every organ, and thus makes people well. Paine's celery compound has found its way originally through prescriptions by physicians, into every city and smallest village in the country.

It would be very difficult to find a man or woman of mature age who has not either been helped by this remarkable remedy or has heard of its marvelous properties at first-hand from some enthusiastic friend or relative.

Paine's celery compound is the only great popular remedy that physicians of every prescribe for disorders of the blood and nerves.

Says Mrs. Kate Manuel, 216½ 3d ave., Minneapolis, whose picture is above:

"I have been greatly benefited by Paine's celery compound. I have taken six bottles of the wonderful remedy, and recommend it to all who are afflicted as I was. For years I have suffered from indigestion, and know not how to give due thanks for the relief that I have received while taking Paine's celery compound. My son-in-law has taken two bottles for a similar trouble and it has made him well."

EVERYBODY KNOWS

That Fulper Sells the Best Goods at LOWEST PRICES.

Granulated sugar	4½c	4 lbs French prunes extra	25c
2 cans Columbia river salmon flat	25c.	Butter finest creamery	20c
4 lbs rice	17c	Butter choice table	16c
5 boxes sardines in oil	23c	Cheese finest creamery	10c
5 lbs best hominy	12c	Coffee best Java and Mocha special	31c
5 lbs jelly (all flavors)	17c	Tea all kinds	19c

FULPER'S, 207 WEST FRONT ST

Special!

Men's Suits Dyed $2 25
Men's Suits Cleaned $1 50
Overcoat Dyed $1 50
Ladies' Dresses Dyed $1 50
" " Cleaned $1 50
Lace Curtains cleaned, a pair 50c
Blankets cleaned $1

G. O. KELLER,

317 WEST FRONT STREET.

Goods Called for and Delivered.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

A fine buggy for sale cheap. Apply 305 Orange street.

A LADY would like a furnished bedroom in a private family near town. A. B. care Press.

COACHMAN and gardener would like position, best references. Address P. care Press. 5 6 6

COLORED boy of about 15 years wanted. Apply in barber shop, Ross's Building, East 5th st., corner Watchung. 5 10 tf

DOG LOST—Fox terrier pup, 4 months old, white with ring over tail. Answers to name of "Tutti." Wickham Corwin, 202 East Ninth st.

FARMS for sale or exchange for Plainfield property. R. Coddington, Martinsville, N. J. 5 7 6

FOR SALE or to rent, a new seven-room house on Stone street, two minutes walk from street railway, and fifteen minutes walk from depot. Will sell or rent on easy terms. Call 196 Somerset street. 5 8 4

FOR SALE—Handsome large upright grand piano; a bargain to the person who gets it. Call at Dyer's, 218 West Front street. 5 8 4

FOR SALE—Refrigerator with mirror, finest in Plainfield, nearly new, also shelving. Van Nest, 108 Park avenue.

FOR SALE—Mr. Coard's fine saddle horse, fearless, sound and kind; bay colt, good in harness. Inquire at Hedden's stable. 5 9 3

FOR SALE—Brahmas and Houdons eggs for hatching. Call at 72 Summit avenue. 5 3 2w

IF you want to purchase a building lot or a house and lot cheap, do not forget I am selling out all of my real estate at about cost. Charles H. Hand, 317 Watchung ave. 5 10 2

IS there a person in this philanthropic town who will assist an American girl, employed in a city office where the confinement is injuring her health, and who is pining for fresh air and sunshine, to leave the city and gain health and strength during the Summer months? Is competent to act as correspondent, secretary, do writing of any kind, or light bookkeeping; or will act as traveling companion; understands railroad guides, routes, etc., and has had considerable experience in traveling; references given. Address Hope, care Daily Press office. 5 10 2

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 2 21 tf

PAINTERS WANTED. Apply E. E. Marshall, North avenue. 5 2 tf

ROOM to let, furnished or unfurnished for lady or gentleman. 316 Park avenue.

SIX ROOM flat to let; all improvements. 200 West Second st. 3 4 tf

TO LET—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping; no children. Apply 103 Duer street. 3 6 tf

TO LET—The building now occupied by the Board of Trade. Apply to Ulrich & Blatz, 153 West Front street. 5 9 t t s tf

WANTED—White girl as cook. Apply 120 West Seventh st. 5 11 2

WANTED—Girl for general housework, family of two. 503 West Front street. 5 11 3

WANTED—A girl's second-hand safety, address stating price, Safety, care Press

WANTED—In Plainfield or vicinity, in a private family where there are no other boarders, two large airy rooms on second floor in a house with large grounds and plenty of shade. Dinner at noon. Good table and good beds. Address Comfort, care Press. 5 9 3

YOUNG colored man wants work. Experienced. References. Call 524 West Second street. 5 1 tf

$1,000 TO $3,500 to loan, on first mortgage. Mulford, broker. 4 22 tf

SIX-ROOM houses for sale or to let; 10 minutes walk from depot. Charles H. Hand. 5 10 2

ROOM flat to let; city water; new building; Watchung avenue. Chas. H. Hand. Brick stable to let; three horses and three wagons. 5 10 2

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

DOGS TAKEN TO BOARD.
NETHERWOOD FARM KENNELS,
Mountain avenue.

THOS. MARLEY,
19 years with M. Quinn.
Blacksmith.
845 Richmond st.

FLORIST.
A. E. LINCOLN,
226 PARK AVE.,
Large assortment of ferns and other plants. Choice cut flowers daily. Floral design work for all occasions a specialty.

H. DE MOTT,
Undertaker and Embalmer,
59 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.
Livery attached.

MISS CLARIBEL JEFFRY,
Teacher of
Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar.
Best references. 322 West Front st. Call Wednesdays.

THE DAILY PRESS

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., MONDAY, MAY 13, 1895. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

JUST LIKE OLD TIMES.

Mt. Ararat Again Defeated at Baseball by the Valiant Plainfielders.

The Y. M. C. A. members from Westfield are a nice lot of young men—they are all so down that way—but they are not in it, for a minute, with the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. athletes when it comes to playing the greatest of all games—baseball. The Westfielders came up Saturday afternoon with the intention of carrying away the honor of winning the first victory from the Plainfield boys, but at the end of the game—an eight-inning one—they needed to have just ten of their men touch the home plate to tie their opponents, the score being 16 to 6 in favor of Plainfield.

However, the playing was not brilliant on either side. This was the first game which the local team has played, and of course they did not do as well as they will be able to after a few more such contests. The members in the various positions, nevertheless, gave evidence that they are of the right kind of material to put up some stiff playing before the close of the season.

The players and their positions were as follows:

Plainfield.	Position.	Westfield.
Eagan	Catcher	Randolph
Bogert	Pitcher	Smith
McLaughlin	First base	Whitney
Miller	Second base	Bussing
Steiner	Third base	Clothority
Schoonmaker	Shortstop	O. Richerson
Schuyler	Centre field	Randolph
Sprowl	Right field	C. Richerson
Davis	Left field	Grenwold

Next Saturday a game will be played on the Crescent Oval grounds with the South Amboy team.

SQUIER DEFEATS ROSS AGAIN.

Though the Winner Met With an Accident, He Furnished One Point Ahead.

The return match shoot between George W. Squier of North Plainfield and William Ross of Elizabeth, which took place on the Climax Gun Club grounds at Fanwood Saturday, resulted in a victory for the Plainfield shooter by one point, the score being 36 to 35. The wind was strong and the birds very lively. On the thirty-first bird both barrels of Squier's gun were accidentally discharged, the shock of which unnerved him to some extent, and came near losing the match for him. The match was 50 birds at $50 a side. The score by halve was:

First Half.

Squier.2220100111120222122220122—20
Ross...1001210222000121122021101—17

Second Half.

Squier.1111210010111020010210210—16
Ross...0221111200111211220010210—18

Totals.

Squier.....36
Ross.....35

Referee—Al Heritage, Jersey City; scorer—William M. Parker, Elizabeth; puller—N. H. Asphalt, Elizabeth.

At the close of the match arrangements were made between the winner and Jack Benner to shoot 50 birds at $50 a side on the same grounds, Memorial Day.

A PROGRESSIVE CHURCH.

News Items of the First M. E.—Miss Utter Chosen Organist.

A special meeting of the Board of Stewards will be held after the prayer meeting Wednesday evening.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3:30, and the Young Ladies Mission Circle will hold its meeting Thursday afternoon at 3:45.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society will hold a supper and sale in Vincent Chapel Friday evening; supper will be served from 6 to 8:30 at 25 cents.

The annual meeting of the Epworth League will be held Friday evening at 8, when officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

The Methodist Church is to be congratulated on having secured the services of Miss Jessie Utter as organist, who will preside at the organ on and after next Sunday.

Serious Fire Narrowly Averted.

The oil inside of a hanging lamp in the house of E. J. Richards, corner of West Fourth and Liberty streets, became ignited Saturday night and in the attempt to throw it out doors the fluid spread over and set fire to the piazza. By quick action the flames were extinguished and a serious conflagration averted.

Fined by the Marshal.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—

A fine of $1 was imposed by Chief Van Horn for my horse trespassing upon the public streets. Will the Mayor and Council please inform me to what fund said money belongs?

John C. Bremmer,
76 Greenbrook road.

EPWORTH LEAGUE DAY.

Methodists Rejoice Over Their Great Society.

PLAINFIELD HAS CHAPTER NO. .

The Home Church and Its Two Grown Children Churches Appropriately Celebrate the Anniversary of Dr. Hurlbut's Organization—Addresses and Special Exercises.

The service in the First Methodist Church last night was given over to the celebration of the anniversary of the Epworth League. The meeting was presided over by James R. Joy, president of the League. Rev. Dr. R. R. Doherty of New York, made the address. Though he has a slow and deliberate manner of speech, there is a degree of sympathy about it that carries the interest of the audience. "Where there is no vision the people perish", was a proverb which he thought was appropriate and applicable to the occasion, and expressed the thought of God. He considered the League one of the most masterly organizations in the religious field, and which could accomplish great results, because there was something deeper about it than mere method.

The anniversary of the Epworth League was commemorated in the Monroe Avenue M. E. Chapel, last evening by special exercises. After the gloria by the congregation, and invocation, the pastor, Rev. M. C. O'Donnell, read several verses of Scripture, which were repeated by the congregation. Prayer, led by James A. McGee, followed, after which John J. Praed gave a short historical sketch of the Epworth League of the chapel, of which he is the efficient president, and concluded by speaking of its present flourishing condition, no debts, and a balance of over $10 in the treasury, 72 members, with an average attendance of about 0 at the regular meetings. A hymn followed, and Miss Lottie Beekman read an editorial from the Epworth Herald referring to the growth of the society. "In the Secret of His Presence" was sung by Walter McGee, and the pastor made his address. He took for the basis of his talk, "Whence came we, what are we here for, and where are we going?"

He traced the spirit of the Epworth League through the Cleveland convention, the Young People's Lyceum in Philadelphia, back to John Wesley, and finally back to Christ and then God, and said Christ and his disciples were, in the truest and best sense, an Epworth League. He gave as the work of the Epworth League, the holding of the young people in the church, the inspiring of a feeling of reverence among the young people, and the inspiring and developing of activity among the Christian young people. He next spoke of the future of the society and said: "We have the power to say, in part at least, what our future is going to be and what the Epworth League will be."

After the singing of another hymn, James A. McGee closed the services with the benediction.

The local anniversary of the Epworth League was very appropriately observed in Grace M. E. Church yesterday morning, when the pastor, Rev. Herbert Randolph, preached a sermon before the League, on "Devotion". His text was "Whose I am, and whom I serve". He spoke in part as follows: My central thought is the demand of the hour for devotion on the part of Christ's followers. Such devotion as was symbolized in the vow of the chivalrous knight of medieval times. The sacrifice of Christ for human sin was no mere matter of sentiment, but an awful reality. Such a sacrifice has placed us under eternal obligation to Him. Personal obligation due to His having paid the penalty for personal sin. Also we owe Him personal service; not service by proxy.

The service is not according to joy rendered, but inspired by an undying devotion. Such is the service needed in our nation today and in our churches. Loyalty to God's great church, let that be your watchword. Such devotion as inspired Louis Kossuth, the Hungarian patriot; Garabaldi, in Italy and the great Count Cavaho. We want whole armies of such helmeted knights to go forth "conquering and to conquer". Such devotion means self forgetfulness. It means absolution in a great object loyalty to a great leader, devotion to a lofty ideal. Such devotion is sacrificial. Great devotees have always had to make great sacrifices, as did Paul and our Lord. We are all bowing before some altar, but what altar? We are all devotees of something; but what is it? Devote yourself and all your best energies to the cause of truth and the advancement of the Redeemer's cause.

LADIES CHRISTIAN WORK.

Interesting and Profitable Celebration of the Fourteenth Anniversary.

The pulpit platform of Trinity Reformed Church was graced with flowers last evening in honor of the fourteenth anniversary of the Ladies Christian Work Society, and a good-sized audience enjoyed the celebration.

The annual reports of the society, showing a gratifying record of work and progress, were read by Rev. Cornelius Schenck, pastor, as follows:

SECRETARY'S ANNUAL REPORT.

The Ladies Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed Church has the honor to present its fourteenth annual report. We feel that the Lord has prospered us in our undertakings, and thank Him most heartily for the strength He has given us to carry out His work.

The meetings of this society have been held once a month, and have been well attended. Immediately after the election of officers last May the following committees were appointed: Missionary, poor, visiting, sewing, temperance, flower, and sinking fund.

The Missionary Committee collected during the year $76.40, which was equally divided between the foreign and domestic boards. A special collection of $17.65 was given to the Thiampo and Kanipet mission in China. In November, a box containing new and partially worn clothing, bedding, canned fruit, etc., valued at $130, of which the King's Daughters contributed $16, was sent to Rev. Mr. Heysenger and family at Rock Valley, Iowa, and a letter of very grateful thanks received from Mrs. Heysinger gave the society cause to think it was more blessed to give than to receive. The Visiting Committee have been engaged in visiting the sick, also in welcoming the new members to our church, and we feel that they have worked most faithfully.

The Poor Committee reported one family taken care of during the Winter, and seven Thanksgiving dinners given to very thankful receivers.

Sewing meetings have been well attended, and aside from being social gatherings, have proved both good and profitable.

The Flower Committee have been extended a vote of thanks for the Sunday decorations during the past year.

The sinking fund committee have realized $153.45 from the different home teas given during the Winter.

At the last anniversary of this society Mrs. E. B. Horton of Cranford gave a stereopticon lecture in the church. The amount of the collection was $20.01. In March Miss M. A. Durvee of Newark, secretary of misson work in China, gave a talk on mission work which proved very beneficial to the society. The collection amounting to $6.25 was donated to foreign missions.

The membership of this society is 55, the average attendance 27. Seven new members have joined in the past year, and one has withdrawn.

The angel of death has been among us, and taken away three of our honored members: Mrs. Garretson, who after months of suffering fell asleep; Miss Vandenburgh, who, while in active service, was suddenly called to her heavenly home; and Mrs. Fine, who after much suffering also was called away.

While we feel our loss most deeply, we would not forget to bow in humble submission to the will of the Most High, for He doeth all things well. MRS. A. L. MARSHALL, Secretary.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

General Fund—Receipts, $60.66; disbursements, $47.09; balance, $13.57.

Poor Fund—Receipts, $25.27; disbursements, $18.03; balance, $7.24.

Sewing Fund—Receipts, $28.88; disbursements, $20.85; balance, $8.03.

Temperance Fund—Receipts; disbursements; balance (from last year) 39 cents.

Sinking Fund—Receipts, $279.30; disbursements, $255.50; balance, $23.80.

Missionary Fund—Receipts, $107.65; disbursements; foreign, $38.80; domestic, $38.80; special to foreign, $24.15; $101.75; balance, $5.90.

Total receipts during year, $502.15.

Total balance from all accounts, $58.93.

MRS. HENRY VANNAME, Treasurer.

The address of the evening was by Rev. A. DeWitt Mason of New York. He commended the earnestness and zeal of the society as evidenced by the reports read, and called them a band of earnest and consecrated women. Their constitution, he saw, planned their work as social, evangelistic and missionary; and he recommended that they adapt themselves to the work they represented, by being guided by God at all times and under all circumstances.

The element of sociability he held to be woman's sphere; it was in their power to direct and purify the social life as no one could do. God had given into their hands the power to uplift. Each woman should go to her own home first, and christianize it, and then go out into the world and spread the work.

Hearty greeting of the stranger who comes into the church, was advised; greet him cordially—said the preacher—and show that you want him there; make him feel perfectly at home.

In the department of evangelism and missions he urged the seeking out of the unconverted and the bringing of them into the church. Visit the sick,—he said—assist them with your prayers, and show them your desire to help them physically and spiritually. The great work that women do in the slums, he highly commended, and said "God bless the women for the work they do for God!"

Two thoughts came to him in connection with the society—adaptability and reward. Adaptability implies responsibility. You are responsible for anything you can do, and God holds you responsible for all you are adapted for. Reward, he illustrated by the parable of the talents, and held the salvation of souls to be the only thing worth working for. It was a sublime thing to be continually doing the will of God.

Glowingly he depicted the last review at Washington, after the war, when horses and men were gay with the garlands of victory. How little the joy of that day—he said—compared to yours at the gates of the great celestial city, when you win your reward as a result of having discharged your duties aright.

Pastor Schenck warmly thanked Mr. Mason for his address.

A MIXED-UP ROW.

James Lynch of Brooklyn Falls into the Hands of North Plainfield Philistines.

James Lynch of Brooklyn came to Plainfield Saturday night to visit his brother, but as it was very late he thought he would not go to his brother's house till Sunday morning. He walked down Somerset street and was stopped by Jas. Burke, Frank Doran of Bound Brook, and Theo. Wilson, who inquired if he was a stranger, and learning that he was, asked him to accompany them. They told him that they were going to "crack" a jewelry store, and would like his assistance. Lynch refused to help or to have anything to do with the matter.

They then walked to the orchard near Tier's pond and while there Doran and Wilson attacked Lynch, who was kicked in the face and received several bruises. The two assailants then made their escape, leaving Lynch in the orchard.

About 7 Sunday morning Lynch came over to Plainfield and sought Sergeant Kiely. To him he told his story, and how he had been robbed of $4 all he had. He described the men; and the sergeant, together with Chief Grant, made a search.

Burke was found in a restaurant on Somerset street. Wilson was out of town and when he returned he was arrested by Policeman Frederickson and Doran was found in the borough.

They were all turned over to the borough authorities. Lynch was held as a witness. His brother, hearing of the affair, went over to the lockup and secured his release, giving his word that his brother would appear this morning for a hearing.

Last night as Lynch and his brother were going to the brother's home, the Brooklynite made his escape, and left town.

No hearing was held this morning, but it is thought there will be one before the day is over.

In connection with the affair Special Marshal Goodwin met Joseph Green and James Burke yesterday afternoon in front of Haberle's cigar store on Somerset street. The marshal told Green that he had a warrant for his arrest. Green said he was willing to go if the warrant was all right.

During this conversation, Burke, who stood near by, and who was wanted by the authorities, walked away and made his escape. Green then asked to see the warrant, when Goodwin replied he had no warrant, but that he was going to arrest him on suspicion.

The two then had a lively time of it and the marshal was given a bad nose. Green was locked for three hours, and was then released without a hearing. The borough authorities will probably call Green for a hearing also, for his resisting arrest; though it is claimed that he was on this side of the brook at the time, and that the marshal had no right to molest him.

To Play With Somerville.

Robert and John McLaughlin, the crack ball players of this city, will form the battery for the Somerville baseball team this season, and will play for the first time Saturday afternoon, when they will meet the City of New York College team. John McLaughlin will also play with the local Y. M. C. A. team when opportunity affords.

In Honor of Capt. Hand.

An effort will be made to secure Rev. Mr. Braker of Scoth Plains, by John Hand Camp, No. 28, S. of V., to make a short address at the services to be held Memorial Day morning, at that place, over John Hand's grave.

Talented Speaker Coming.

The Christian Alliance will have a meeting at 317 East Front street tomorrow evening. Dr. Henry Wilson, assistant pastor of the Gospel Tabernacle in New York will speak under the auspices of the Alliance on the evening of May 28.

The Whist Tourney.

The whist game between the Park Club and Fanwood Club in the series to decide the championship four-men team of the New Jersey Whist League will probably be played in Elizabeth Wednesday evening.

WALKED TO HIS DEATH.

Aaron Clark Took the Track for Home and Was Killed.

JOHN BARLEYCORN WAS TO BLAME.

The Young Man Came to See Plainfield By Gas Light, the Result of Which Was That His Own Life Light Was Snuffed Out By a Jersey Central Locomotive.

The lifeless body of Aaron Clark, a mason employed by Charles Burnett, and living on Terrill road, was found between two beams on the Richmond street bridge of the Jersey Central at 4:30 yesterday morning. The discovery was made by one of the train hands employed with the Wyoming Wild West Show, which had just pulled into the freight yard. Policeman Mattox was but a short distance away when the ghastly discovery was made, and hurrying to the scene had the body removed to the side of the track.

Station Agent J. A. Haynes of the Central Railroad was notified at the North avenue station and a telephone message was sent to Chief of Police Grant. Mr. Haynes was first to arrive to where the body was, and he immediately summoned P. Casey, who removed it to his morgue on West Third street, after which the young man's parents were notified of his death.

Clark, who was 26 years of age, received his week's pay last night, and after supper came to the city to indulge in a little sport. He found amiable companions in James Fitzgerald of Somerset place, John Scudder of Cottage place and William Somerset, the two latter colored, who took it upon themselves to show the man Plainfield by gas light. Up to 11 they spent their time in drinking in the various saloons about town, during which Clark accumulated a good sized jag.

At about 12 the party dispersed and Clark walked with Scudder to Cottage place, intent on calling on some dusky hued damsels. The damsels, however, he did not find, and at 12:15, so Scudder says, Clark remarked that he was going home. Scudder saw him started and then went into his own house. As far as can be learned this is the last seen of him by any one until found dead on the Richmond street bridge, lying on track three. It is thought that in his maudlin condition he walked along the track and was struck and killed by a passing train on or very near the bridge where he was found. At what time the fatality occurred no one knows.

The body was not mangled to any great extent, the principal gashes being on the head, and from which the blood had flowed in a little pool into the roadway beneath the bridge.

Clark had been boarding at Boyce's Hotel on Somerset street for four days previous to the accident.

By some it is thought that Clark had boarded a coal train and had fallen off instead of being struck by a loco motive. One of his shoes was missing when found, and when Policeman Mattox was going home he found it this side of Netherwood alongside of the track. The only way this can be accounted for is under the supposition that he was riding on a car and had taken his shoe off to remove a pebble or something that made walking uncomfortable, and a sudden jar of the car had thrown him off and carried the shoe on to where it was found.

Undertaker Casey took the body this afternoon to the home of his parents on Terrill road this afternoon, where the funeral will be held tomorrow.

County Physician O'Rielly was summoned from Elizabeth and, after acquainting himself with the circumstances of the accident, issued a burial permit.

Wants a Job.

A Westfield man who must have a case of sour grapes writes as follows to the New York Evening World:

Would any of your kind readers tell me why Col. Waring is so fond of Jerseymen for the Street Cleaning Department? There is Corsa, from Plainfield; Moore, from Fanwood; Hawkins, from Westfield; and heaven only knows how many more. Being a Jerseyman I am thinking about applying myself.

So He Can Wire Trains.

Sheriff Kyte is having a private telephone line put in between his residence and the Fanwood station. The work is being done by the theatrical electrical expert, Joseph Sohl, assisted by Walter Gibson.

Dodd-Hetfield Case.

The argument for a new trial in the Dodd-Hetfield case will be made at Elizabeth tomorrow by Judge Coddington.

REDEEMER GUILD TEA.

Charming Affair at the Home of Mrs. B. A. Hegeman, Jr.

The parlors of the handsome home of Mayor B. A. Hegeman, Jr., on Myrtle avenue in North Plainfield were the scene Saturday afternoon and evening of a cheerful and pretty scene, the occasion being the reception and tea given by the Ladies Guild of the Church of the Redeemer.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with apple blossoms, lilacs, lilies of the valley and potted plants, whose varied hues and sweet fragance, combined with the fashionable gowns, radiant faces and charming manners of the fair attendants, made the event one of sociability and pleasure.

Those who assisted Mrs. Hegeman in receiving the guests were: Mrs. Frank Brown, Miss Kate Embury, Mrs. Charles Matthews, Mrs. Samuel Townsend, Mrs. Emil Woltmann, and Rev. Jocelyn Johnstone. Tea was poured by Miss Della Storm and Miss Grace Barlow. The cake and candy table was presided over by Miss Woltmann and Miss Grace Brown, the flower table by Miss Hasbrouck, and the lemonade table by Miss Emily Thompson.

During the course of the reception a great many called, a number of them being from denominations other than of the church for whose benefit it was given.

The profits, which were a handsome sum, will be contributed to the building fund which has recently been established by the society to acquire a church of their own.

LIGHTNING STRIKES.

Considerable Alarm Caused in North Plainfield by Saturday's Electric Bolts.

Lightning played pranks in North Plainfield Saturday afternoon. The heavy clap heard all over Plainfield was deafening in Washington Park and vicinity, and residents were greatly frightened. The bolt struck a 40-foot tulip tree in the yard owned by Mrs. B. A. Hegeman, Sr., and adjoining her home on Sycamore avenue. It tore off a limb, loosened the bark all around the tree, and made four distinct holes in the earth at the base. The tree was nearly ready to bloom in its usual splendor, and was the pride of its owner's heart.

Lightning struck a tree back of the house of C. W. McCutchen, causing much fright, and shocking John Case and John Bodine, carpenters, who were at work in the barn, but doing no damage. Mr. McCutchen's house was struck by lightning some years ago.

The lightning rang the indicator in Warren engine-house, and also so affected a portion of the borough street lights that darkness prevailed all Saturday night.

Baby's Narrow Escape.

The colored servant girl of Mrs. J. H. Leggett of West Front street was wheeling Mrs. Leggett's infant boy, Howard Raymond, on the veranda Saturday afternoon. She left the baby carriage alone for a moment, and the wind caused it to roll off the veranda sidewise, throwing the little one out on the stone pavement, with the baby carriage on top of it. The baby's forehead and nose were cut, and its head and body bruised; but no bones were broken. When it is considered that the little one fell the height of five steps, it is miraculous that it escaped serious injury. Drs Davis and Probasco responded to telephone calls, and did all they could for the little fellow, who screamed and cried for nearly three hours. This experience should be a warning to other nurses.

Will Visit the County Jail.

David Thompson, colored, was arraigned in City Court this morning on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct on Front street early Sunday morning. The arrest was made by Policeman Frederickson. Thompson went to jail for 10 days. After he was sentenced, Justice Nash came into the rookery looking for him, armed with a delinquent poll tax bill.

Had to Use the Central Tracks.

A Lehigh Valley train was run through from Jersey City to Phillipsburg on the Jersey Central yesterday morning, owing to a wreck which blocked the Lehigh road on the Newark meadows.

Helping the Commander.

Capt. March of East Second street assisted in conducting a meeting at Stamford, Conn., yesterday, which addressed by Commander Ballington Booth.

Might as Well Let Him Go.

Frank Muncton was this morning sentenced in borough police court to one day of imprisonment in the lockup, for drunkenness.

GOSSIP FROM BERLIN

Rejoicing Over Defeat of Anti-Revolution Bill.

The Ministry Will Not Resign and Dissolution of the Reichstag Is Not Expected—Programme of the Kiel Fetes—The German Derby—An American Arrested.

Berlin, May 13.—Reports from the various provinces, especially those in south Germany, show the natinal joy of the rejection by the reichstag of the anti-revolution bill. Inquiries made by the representative of the United Press show that the government does not intend to retire from office because of the rejection of the measure. The ministry considers that it has done its duty in showing the emperor what the representatives of the people think of his invitation to unite in defense of religion, order and the monarchy against revolution. Dissolution of the reichstag is not likely, owing to the known hostile feeling of the electors.

American Lard in Germany.

Dr. Miquel, Prussian minister of finance, has ordered the customs authorities to fine all importers of American lard who falsely declare that their imports are intended to be used in the manufacture of sausages, thus attempting to save duty, the duty on lard for this purpose being lower than on that intended for other uses

Bismarck Still Receiving.

On May 18 Prince Bismarck will receive at Friedrichsruhe a deputation of 2,000 Rhinelanders. On the 23d he will receive 1,200 persons from Leipzig, and on the 28th a large deputation from Schleswig-Holstein.

Ships Expected at Kiel.

Ex-Chancellor Count von Caprivi has arrived at Skyren, near Krousen, where he will reside until autumn. He has been invited to attend the ceremonies attendant upon the opening of the North Sea canal, but it is not likely that he will attend. The arrangements for the opening of the canal are now virtually complete. The official Reichsanzeigar has published a list of the foreign vessels that will attend, showing a total of fifty-three. Great Britain will send ten, Italy nine, Denmark six, Norway and Sweden five, the United States and Austria four each, France, Russia and Spain three each, Roumania and Holland two each and Turkey and Portugal one each.

Programme of the Fetes.

It is stated that the emperor and his guests will pass through the canal on June 21, and on arriving at Haltenau, on the Baltic, the emperor will lay the last stone of the work, as his grandfather, Emperor William I., laid the first one on June 3, 1887, and declare the great undertaking to be effectually completed. After this there will be a grand review by his majesty of all the assembled warships, the parade of which is expected to form one of the most brilliant functions of the whole proceedings. At night there will be a banquet at Kiel. On the 22d there will be a meeting of the Forddeutscher Regatta Verein, and the whole of the following week will constitute the "Kaiserwoche" of the Royal Yacht squadron. On June 29 and 30 there are to be special attractions in the international rowing matches of the Erstor Kieler Buder club. It is understood that the emperor will remain at Kiel to witness these competitions.

The German Derby.

The first German trotting derby, which will take place at West End on May 23 and the three following days, promises to be a big social event. The racing committee expects that there will be an enormous attendance, and is having the stands on the ground extended so that there will be accommodation for all. The emperor has awarded as a prize of honor a silver shield, which the winner will retain for one year, each winner receiving a replica when he restores the original to the committee. James Gordon Bennett's trotters, which are entered for the races, were first visible yesterday at the course, where they are being trained under the direction of Howard Phipps for the meeting. Helen Leyburn is pronounced to be the finest of the string, but it is predicted that Austrain, though not handsome in appearance, is most likely to prove a winner.

An American Arrested.

Milton Seller, a native of San Francisco, the son of a German millionaire, has been sentenced to two months' imprisonment in Berlin for gambling at the bourse while bankrupt and for breach of the bankrupt law. He squandered his patrimony in four years on women and in gambling.

Death of a Prominent Surgeon.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 13.—Dr. J. G. Porteous, one of the most prominent physicians and surgeons of this city, died suddenly at midnight of valvular disease of the heart. He was surgeon of the 118th New York volunteers in the late war, and on account of his courageous service in his line of duty was mentioned in general orders by General Butler.

Wm. B. Stein Commits Suicide.

Albany, May 13.—William B. Stein, 42 years old, committed suicide yesterday by taking an over-dose of morphine. He had been a cripple for a number of years and recently lost his sight, since which time he has been despondent. He was a brother of Abe Stein, who is known to the theatrical profession as Sol Aiken.

Self-Government for Formosa.

London, May 13.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Vienna, which will be published to-day, states that a cablegram from Shanghai has been received there saying that Japan will make the island of Formosa an autonomous colony, which will have no representation in the Japanese parliament.

Prince Francis Joseph Coming East.

San Francisco, May 13.—Prince Francis Joseph of Battenberg started east last night over the Central & Union Pacific. He goes straight to Chicago and from there to Niagara.

Big Saw Mill Burned.

Charleston, W. Va., May 13.—Beatty's large saw mill at Crow, Raleigh county, was destroyed by fire yesterday. About 130 men are thrown out of employment. Loss $25,000.

EXTORTION AT BARCELONA.

American Ship Masters Swindled and Imposed Upon.

Washington, May 13.—United States Consul Herbert W. Bowen, at Barcelona, Spain, reports to the state department that masters of the few American ships which enter the port of Barcelona, are, as a rule, surprised at the bills that are presented to them. The last ship entering the port was laden with 2,004 tons of coal. The bill presented to the master was an average one and amounted to 13,088 pesatas (the value of the pesata is about 18 cents). The ship was also detained in quarantine two days because a man had been lost overboard while at sea. In no port in Europe, says Mr. Bowen, are shipping masters or agents so perverse. They get the men to desert, and they charge about $25 for each man they bring from Marseilles to fill the deserter's place. The result is that the masters are always in trouble at Barcelona, and not infrequently are delayed three or four days after they are ready to clear because they are short handed.

GENERAL HANCOCK'S ASHES.

Norristown, Pa., Objects to Their Removal to Arlington.

Norristown, May 13.—Dr. J. W. Read, surgeon general of the national guard, who a week ago ordered the rebuilding at his own expense of the front of Gen. W. S. Hancock's mausoleum in Montgomery cemetery, which was crumbling away, has received the following letter: "I am asked by Col. John Hancock, who is ill at present, to request you to take no action in regard to any expenditure of money on the grave of General Hancock, as the second army corps association have permission to remove the remains to Arlington." The letter was signed by H. W. Spofford, private secretary to the quartermaster general, war department. A number of persons who were shown the request of Colonel Hancock expressed indignation that the remains of the general were to be removed. General Hancock had the mausoleum built some years ago, and expressed the wish that his body be entombed here.

MR. GRESHAM MUCH BETTER.

Hitt, Almy and Coggswell Also Improving.

Washington, May 13.—The condition of Secretary Gresham showed a marked improvement this morning and a material increase of appetite, although the secretary is not yet able to sit up. Representative Hitt is also much improved, and his physician and family feel much gratified at the decided change for the better. Admiral Almy is much better and General Coggswell is well on the road to complete recovery. General Coggswell is not yet out of the house, but will leave for his home in Salem, Mass., as soon as he is strong enough to stand the journey.

HILL JURY DISAGREE.

Seven Votes To Acquit Nebraska's Ex-State Treasurer.

Lincoln, Neb., May 13.—After being out twenty nine hours the jury in the case of the state against ex-State Treasurer Hill reported a disagreement, the vote standing seven for acquittal to five for conviction. This will necessitate a new trial of the case, which will begin at the next session of the supreme court, beginning May 21. The case related to the liability of the treasurer for state funds to the extent of $300,000, which he had deposited in the Capital National bank, and which was lost by the failure of that bank in January, 1893.

NO NEWS OF MRS. HAMMOND.

Her Daughter's Counsel Will Offer a Reward for Her.

Mystic, Conn., May 13.—Nothing has yet been heard of Mrs. Hammond, the missing manager of the Whipple school. The story that she has committed suicide is not credited here. Her daughter's counsel has caused an advertisement to be printed in the newspapers offering a reward for information concerning her whereabouts. The school is in active operation and, by the advice of Gov. Coffin, will be continued until the end of the term in June.

Bicycle Thieves Arrested.

Toledo, O., May 13.—The police have just made an important arrest here in the persons of F. M. Bredell and Charles F. Bryden, two traveling men from Chicago. Evidence is at hand to indicate they are bicycle thieves on a large scale. It is charged that they have been operating in Cleveland, Detroit, Akron and Toledo extensively, and only by accident were detected.

Cleared Away the Landslide.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 13. The wrecking crews from all points along the middle division and an army of railroad men succeeded in clearing the tracks of the main line division of the Pennsylvania railroad which were buried by a great landslide in Jacks Narrows, near Mount Union, Saturday afternoon.

Sermon to Yale Seniors.

New Haven, Conn., May 13.—The sermon before the seniors of the Yale Theological school was delivered last night by President Tucker, of Dartmouth. He took no text, but spoke on the position of the church on questions of humanity, of charity and sympathy for mankind.

Frost in the West.

Omaha, Neb., May 13.—There was a heavier fall of frost in Nebraska, Western Iowa, Kansas and Minnesota last night than the night before. Gardens were damaged to some extent, and fruit also in some sections. Corn and other cereals were not injured.

Decided To Keep Out of Politics.

Victoria, B. C., May 13.—The British Columbia Methodist conference at their session Saturday declined to consider a resolution which was offered on the Manitoba school question, holding that it was unwise thus to interfere in politics.

Death of an Old Grocer.

Trenton, N. J., May 13.—William Delton, of the firm of Delton company, wholesale grocers, died yesterday, aged 63 years. He leaves a wife and two children and an estate valued at $300,000.

Russia and Japan.

London, May 13.—The Post will to-day publish a dispatch from St. Petersburg stating that the final negotiations between Russia and Japan are proceeding in the most friendly manner.

Mrs. Herbert S. Underwood Dead.

Winchester, Mass., May 13.—The wife of Herbert S. Underwood, editor of the Boston Advertiser and Record, died suddenly yesterday

AN INTERESTING EVENT

Close of the Y. M. C. A. Convention at Springfield.

Representatives of Eleven Different Countries Address an Audience of 2,000—Each Speaker Closed by Repeating in His Own Tongue the Words "Jesus Christ."

Springfield, Mass., May 13.—The Young Men's Christian association convention closed last evening with a remarkable parliament of nations at which representatives from eleven different countries addressed an audience of 2,000 people. The international committee could hardly have devised a more effective method of exhibiting the scope of their work.

England, Ireland and Germany.

W. H. Roberts spoke for the work in England and showed the great growth that the Y. M. C. A. has had in the western part of the country in the last few years. He was followed by W. A. Boyd of Ireland, who also had an encouraging report to make. Germany the Fatherland, was represented by J. C. Kessler, now of St. Louis, and Mr. Michel, secretary of the French branch of the New York Y. M. C. A., spoke for France.

The Work in Italy.

Mr. Pirazzini, now a student at the Springfield training school, gave an account of the work in Italy, which was closely followed in spite of the speaker's somewhat imperfect English. Then the Aryan branches were dropped, and W. A. Hunton, Secretary of colored work for the international committee, spoke for his race, and a strong and polished address he gave, too.

The Original Americans.

Charles A. Eastman, the Indian secretary, responded as the representative of the true, the original Americans, and gave greeting to those present as foreigners. Burt Ihrug Jung, of China, was not very expert in the English language, but made a neat little speech, and Rev. K. Tsunishma, a Japanese minister, who followed him, extolled the prowess of the Japanese, and then apologized to his Chinese brother for having mentioned such a theme. Japan, he said, is the leader of Asia, and to win China and Korea, missionaries should be sent to the land of the Rising Sun.

An Interesting Feature.

Rutnas, of Ceylon, spoke for the Indian empire, of which he said Ceylon was the key. An interesting feature of the addresses was the fact that each speaker closed by repeating in his own language the words, "Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, to-day and forever." The rest of the evening was taken up by Mr. Moody, who presented the cause of work among the prisoners in county jails. The greater part of the delegates and other visitors are leaving the city to-day.

BUSINESS IS BOOMING.

Encouraging Reports from Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Pittsburg, May 13.—The Times to-day will print dispatches from all points in western Pennsylvania, eastern Ohio and West Virginia on the business situation. These dispatches show that business is booming at every point heard from and that confidence in the future seems fully restored. Not since the spring of 1893 has such activity been noticed.

The Boom Is General.

The revival is not confined to any one line of industry, but all classes of manufacture and trade feel the good effects. Old works that have been idle for two years or more are resuming, plants that have been operating on part time have increased working forces, and numerous mills have advanced the price of labor. In the vicinity of Pittsburg alone over ten thousand workmen received an advance in wages during the past week.

Victims of the Lehigh Wreck.

Newark, N. J., May 13.—Louis Bartholomew, the brakeman injured in Saturday night's accident on the Lehigh Valley railroad near this city, died at the city hospital. It was not until four hours after the accident occurred that Engineer Loutzenberger was extricated from beneath his engine. He was taken from his long and painful imprisonment, and died a few hours later at the hospital.

An Elevator Collapses.

Oshkosh, Wis., May 13.—A three-story elevator, the property of Joseph Stringham and situated at the south approach of Main street bridge, collapsed last evening without warning. It is a total wreck. It contained 20,000 bushels of oats. The settling of piles and a high wind caused the disaster.

Killed by Her Former Husband.

Rockville, Ind., May 13.—Mrs. Jessie Davis was fatally shot by her divorced husband yesterday. The tragedy occured while Mrs. Davis was on her way to church. Davis then went home, took morphine and shot himself under the left eye. He will recover.

Italy and Canada.

Rome, May 13.—The government has appointed Signor Salimbergo, an ex-member of the chamber of deputies, to visit Montreal on a special mission having for its object the development of commercial relations between Italy and Canada.

Mother Dead; Child Fatally Burned

Toledo, O., May 13.—The residence of Thaddeus Brown, a farmer residing half a mile from the village of Bryan, O., was destroyed by fire yesterday. Brown's wife perished in the flames and his five-year-old son is fatally burned.

Harvard's Lawn Tennis Tournament.

Cambridge, Mass., May 13.—The spring tournament of the Harvard lawn tennis association begins to day on the Jarvis field tennis courts. The number of entries is small, but some of the best players are entered.

Slavin Challenges Corbett.

London, May 13.—A sporting paper today publishes a challenge from Frank Slavin to Jim Corbett for a fight for £2,000 or £5,000 a side, to take place in England between March and May, 1896.

Baseball Yesterday.

At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 8; Baltimore, 6.

John Mullins,

218 and 220 Market st., Newark, N. J.

EVERYTHING NECESSARY FOR HOUSEKEEPING.

Cash or Credit. Liberal Terms to Everybody.

BIG BARGAINS THIS WEEK IN

Parlor Furniture & Chamber Suits

Handsome new Parlor Suits upholstered in Silk Brocatelle or Rug regular value $50,

THIS WEEK $35.

We are now offering Solid Oak Chamber Suits, 3 pieces, beveled plate mirror, regular value $20,

THIS WEEK $12.

WILTON RUG COUCHES.

$8.00 For this handsome Wilton Rug or Corduroy Couch, really worth $15 $8.00

Special Offerings in New Spring Carpets.

Moquettes $1 per Yard.
Tapestry Brussels 55c per Yard.
Ingrains 30c per Yard.

Rugs, Linoleum, Oil-Cloths, Matting, Refrigerators, Baby Carriages, etc.

Cash or credit. Open Monday evenings until 8. Saturdays till 10.

JOHN MULLINS,

218 and 220 Market Street, - Newark, N. J.

BRANCH STORES—121 to 125 Newark ave., Jersey City, N. J.; 136 and 138 Main st., Paterson, N. J.; 78 to 84 Myrtle ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Real Estate.

F. M. BACON

OR

WALLACE VAIL,

Babcock Building, Room 211.

Come and see us. We always keep a good line of houses to rent and for sale. Elegant flats, steam heated, city water and electric lights. Private houses with all modern improvements. Vacant lots, farms, speculative property bought, sold and exchanged. A gem, all improvements, $25 per month, 4 or 5 minutes from station. Farm 6 acres, house, barn, good land, 2 miles from Plainfield, $1,300, a very cheap home; easy payments. House 7 rooms, 5 minutes from station, $2,100. Store and 3 rooms $12 a month. Farm 53 acres, 1,000 peach, apple and pear trees, near Flemington, $2,500.

WE ARE READY

With large and beautiful line of Spring and Summer styles. Hats and Men's furnishings, mens and boys' Derby or Alpine hats, black, brown and tan, $1.00 to $3.00. Fancy negligee shirts, collars attached or detached, 35c. to $2.00. 1,000 scarfs four-in-hand and made up, from 10c. to 75c., all new fresh goods. Special colored laundered shirts, 2 collars, only 35c. worth 75c. No trouble to show our goods. Money refunded if you want it.

U. B. CRANE, Hatter and Furnisher,

120 West Front Street.

A Spring Gown

is a subject for thought. Haven't you some of last season's dresses that can be made useful? They may need cleaning, or perhaps dyeing—either we do perfectly, and it costs only two dollars or two dollars and a half.

Hillier & Co.

175 NORTH AVENUE

Hotels and Saloons.

Mizzen Peak Cottage,

Watchung Mountains,
Bound Brook, N. J.

Superior French board at moderate prices. Dinner to order. Table d'Hote 75c with ½ bottle of Mizzen Peak claret.

BOWLING ALLEY.

JEUX DE TONNEAU.

Beautiful view, fine shady grounds, sheds, stables, etc.

REVERE HOUSE

Park Avenue,
7th and 8th Sts.

GEO. B. DE REVERE & CO.

Thoroughly renovated and now open for transient and permanent guests.

Madison Avenue Hotel,

Madison Ave. and 58th st., New York

$3 PER DAY AND UP.

American Plan.

Fireproof and first-class in every particular. Two blocks from the Third and Sixth avenue elevated railroads.
The Madison and Fourth Avenue and Belt Line cars pass the door.

H. M. Clark, Prop.

Passenger elevator runs all night.

HOTEL Grenada,

NORTH AVENUE.

Now open for the reception of guests, under the management of George and Wallace V. Miller. House has been thoroughly renovated and re-furnished throughout, and contains all improvements. First-class accommodations for families and the traveling public.

CITY HOTEL,

Plainfield, N. J.

Corner Park avenue and Second street.

Stables attached. J. E. Beerbower, Prop.

The Finderne

FINDERNE,

Somerset County, N. J.

Open all the year as a resort of the highest order. Driving parties will receive every attention.

High-Class Sunday Dinners.

(Table d'Hote from 1 to 3:30); steam heat; inclosed piazzas; everything immaculate. When out driving let us entertain you.

A. E. WHITE, Manager,
Finderne, N. J.

L. PAOLI & CO.,

Fruits, Confectionery, Temperance Drinks, Cigars, &c.

128 NORTH AVENUE.

Fresh roasted peanuts every day, 10c a qt. I take this method of informing my friends and the public in general that I am again in business at the old stand. I solicit your patronage. Store will close at sundown on Friday and open at sundown on Saturday.

MOSLER SAFE CO.,

contractors to the United States Government.

Mosler Patent Safes

(fire and burglar proof) in general use all over the world. Lowest prices. Drop a postal to

S. W. CLARK,

General Agent, 118 West 5th st., Plainfield, N. J., and he will call and give special attention and information. Large assortment of second-hand safes in first-class condition at low prices.

Bar-Lock

Visible Writing

TYPE WRITER.

Writes every letter in sight of operator. Does most of the work, in writing automatically, and yields in the time thus saved additional work.

It acts as if it studied the convenience of the operator at every turn, and thereby lightens his labor and renders him capable of doing more.

It has a knack of keeping well, and is always ready at critical or other times.

These are some of the reasons why it is different from all other writing machines.

The catalogue tells you more about it. Free.

Columbia Typewriter Manufacturing Co.,

307 Broadway, New York.

Choice Soda

O thirsty mortal ever ready today at Randolph's. The ancients knew no such pleasure as a delicious draught of our double-refined thirst annihilators. Good for the stomach, beneficial for the brain light on the pocket, refreshing for young and old. Composed of materials of purity unsurpassed. We may live without poetry, music and art, but to be without soda is not to be tolerated. What more need we say? Drink it.

L. W. Randolph,

Prescription Druggist,

143 WEST FRONT ST.

FISCHER PIANOS.

Established 1840.

Nearly 100,000 Now in Use

Received highest award at World's Fair, Chicago.

EASY TERMS. EXCHANGED.

Catalogue mailed on application.

110 Fifth ave., corner 16th st., N. Y.

Chas. Ficke,

UPHOLSTERER,

Has removed from 1 West Third street, to

128 West Second st.,

Nearly opposite Trinity Reformed Church.

Mattresses and Spring Beds

made to order. Carpets and mattings made and re-made. Awnings and window shades to order, a specialty. Slip covers made. Curtains hung.

Neuman Bros.

Specials in

Fresh Vegetables.

Green pease, green beans, wax beans, asparagus, tomatoes, lettuce, cucumbers, watercress, spinach, radishes, rhubarb, bunch onions, oyster plant, beets, new carrots, new potatoes.

STRAWBERRIES.

M. M. Dunham,

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE

109 East Front street.

A Large Variety of All the Latest Styles in

HATS AND BONNETS

Can be found at the Millinery establishment of

MRS. L. ADAMS,

111 East Front st., Under First National Bank.

You May Have Lost

many hours of comfort by not having worn a good reliable

Pair of Collier's Glasses.

103 Park ave., Plainfield, N. J.

For Sale, Cheap.

A large assortment of Geraniums, Coleus, Salvias, Roses, Casino-clematis, Palms and Rubber trees. Also 3,000 Privet hedge plants, and a general collection of hardy plants and shrubs, at

DENTON'S,

131 Hillside Avenue.

L. A. HUMMER. L. B. MULFORD.

Hummer & Mulford,

VARIETY MARKET.

Meats, fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, etc. Goods delivered to any part of the city free of charge.

220 Park avenue. Telephone call 29-A

Smalley's CASH MARKET.

(Estate D. I. Smalley.)

94 Somerset, Corner Race Street.

George Egel, Manager.

We sell only first-class goods at low prices for cash. Orders called for and delivered.

Telephone 29b. Established 1878.

ADDIS & SON,

Plumbing and Hot Water Heating.

Have your plumbing system tested with the Smoke process under pressure, preparatory for the sewerage system.

Opposite Roberts's Livery. 132 North ave.

H. Eggerding,

121 Park ave.

Manufacturer of the Celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

A. Lusardi,

120 North Ave.,

will be pleased to serve his friends and the public generally with first-class fruits and confectioneries, cigars, etc. Fresh roasted peanuts every day 10c a qt. Branch store, corner Front and Somerset streets.

SEE WHAT

$1.00

Will do at the

Plainfield Tea and Grocery Co

106 East Front st. H. S. Williams, Man't.

All Goods Warranted as Represented.

1 pound Special Mixed Tea	50c
1 pound coffee	32c
Quarter pound pepper	10c
1 can corn	10c
1 can tomatoes	10c
1 can pease	10c
1 can milk	10c
1 paper corn starch	10c
1 paper cocoanut	10c
	$1.52

Cut Out This Coupon

and bring it and $1 to our store and get all the above articles for $1 cash!

J. W. VanSickle, Dealer in all kinds of

FRESH AND SALTED MEATS,

Game in season. No. 122 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 148b. Orders called for and delivered promptly.

Carpenters and Builders.

UTZINGER & KLINE,

Carpenters and Builders.

Jobbing promptly attended to.

V. Utzinger, 75 Grandview ave. L. C. Kline, 54 Jackson ave.

JOHN P. EMMONS,

Mason and Builder,

Washington avenue and Prospect place,

North Plainfield, N. J.

Jobbing promptly attended to.

THEODORE GRAY,

Mason and Contractor.

Estimates given, repairing promptly attended to. Residence 117 Hillside avenue.

PEARSON & GAYLE,

Carpenters and Builders.

Residence—W. J. Pearson, No. 15 Vine st. H. E. Gayle, No. 18 Vine st.

All work promptly attended to.

GEO. W. STUDER,

Carpenter and Builder.

985 Arlington avenue.

Jobbing of any kind promptly attended to. Estimates given, charges reasonable.

McCullough's STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place, North Plainfield.

R. H. McCullough, Prop.

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

C. W. LINES & CO.,

Masons and Builders,

Plainfield, N. J.

Residence, 18 Elm place.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Jobbing promptly attended to

James E. Baily, 97 Jackson ave., Plainfield, N. J.

Trucking of all Kinds Done.

Two and four-horse vans and trucks. Particular attention given to moving furniture and pianos.

Satisfaction guaranteed.

M. Powers & Son. Superior quality of

LEHIGH COAL.

No. 2 Coal Only $3.75 in the Yard.

A No. 1 Kindling Wood.

Yard and office 763 South ave. Down-town office with Lyman & Petrie, 171 North ave., opp. railroad station.

William Hand & Son,

518 Park avenue. Plainfield, N. J. Moving Vans,

CLIMAX STOPPER CO.,

Machine Works,

Corner Washington and 4th sts., manufacturers of bicycle specialties. Electric and special machinery, experimental work, tools etc. Contractors for electric light wiring, telephones, burglar alarms, etc.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE IS THE BEST.

Over One Million People wear the

W. L. Douglas $3 & $4 Shoes

All our shoes are equally satisfactory

They give the best value for the money.

They equal custom shoes in style and fit.

Their wearing qualities are unsurpassed.

The prices are uniform,—stamped on sole.

From $1 to $3 saved over other makes.

If your dealer cannot supply you we can. Sold.

A. Willett & Son.

ALONE!

No Child to Call Her "Mother."

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

How desolate is the marriage state without children!

How unnatural!

The law of nature is the perpetuation of life by reproduction, and applies to both animal and vegetable life. Nature makes but few mistakes; and where her great law is not carried out, the cause is not a natural, but an unnatural, one.

Two loving beings have joined hands,—a loving wife and husband. Years pass by, and still there are but two. The sound of little footsteps never patters in their ears, and no child's voice calls that loving woman "Mother." They have wealth, position, all that heart could wish for, but the greatest of all blessings is denied them,—a child.

Sterility is curable in nine out of ten cases. Every mail received by Mrs. Pinkham brings letters from women on this subject; and success follows her advice. Write her at Lynn, Mass., and bring happiness to your home.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restores the latent organs to a normal action, and also removes all weaknesses, aches, pains, and irregularities.

SKILLED WORKMEN

Are even more essential in hanging paper than they are in the doing of many other things. We employ the best and most capable men in this department and guarantee the best possible results. Do not spoil the effect of pretty paper by improper hanging

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,

141 East Front Street.

Short Vacations

For busy people by the beautiful new steamships of the

Old Dominion Line,

To Old Point Comfort

[Hygeia Hotel]

Or Virginia Beach, Va.

[Princess Anne Hotel] may be made for

$16 Old Point Comfort $16 Virginia Beach, $17 $17

Including every expense

of meals and berths en route, and a day and a quarter's board at the hotels.

These trips are ideal as a considerable portion is made through the quiet waters of the famous Hampton Roads and there is little likelihood of seasickness.

Also tickets on sale with privilege of going or returning by rail.

Write for particulars of these and other delightful trips to

Old Dominion SS. Co.,

Pier 26, North River, New York.

W. L. Guillaudeu, Vice Pres. and Traffic Maaager. 11 26 6m

FURNITURE

Moving.

Telephone 121. Office 161 North ave.

HOAGLAND'S EXPRESS.

YOUR Valuables will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock Boxes from $3.50 to $10 a Year.

Edwin B. Maynard,

Hair Cutting and Shampooing.

Tonsorial parlor, 204 Park ave., Plainfield. Ladies' shampooing and children's hair cutting a specialty.

PATENTS

CAVEATS, TRADE MARKS COPYRIGHTS.

CAN I OBTAIN A PATENT? For a prompt answer and an honest opinion, write to MUNN & CO., who have had nearly fifty years' experience in the patent business. Communications strictly confidential. A Handbook of Information concerning Patents and how to obtain them sent free. Also a catalogue of mechanical and scientific books sent free.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice in the Scientific American, and thus are brought widely before the public without cost to the inventor. This splendid paper, issued weekly, elegantly illustrated, has by far the largest circulation of any scientific work in the world. $3 a year. Sample copies sent free.

Building Edition, monthly, $2.50 a year. Single copies, 25 cents. Every number contains beautiful plates, in colors, and photographs of new houses, with plans, enabling builders to show the latest designs and secure contracts. Address MUNN & CO., NEW YORK, 361 BROADWAY

TIED ON THE TRACKS

A Blindfolded Man Rescued Just in Time.

Says He Was Sandbagged and Drugged and Held a Captive Since April 23—Tortured, Scantily Fed and Blindfolded All That Time—Accuses His Wife's Lover.

Chicago, May 13.—What appears to be a dastardly crime was discovered last evening. Shortly after 6 o'clock William Henry Musch, a mechanic, 40 years old, was discovered lying across the tracks of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad at North Leavitt street with his hands and feet securely tied and a sack drawn over his head.

Rescued Just in Time.

Musch was rescued just in time to prevent being killed by an outgoing train. He was taken to St. Elizabeth hospital, where he went into convulsions. As soon as he was able to account for his condition he told a very strange story. He claims that since April 23 he has been held a captive.

Sandbagged and Held Captive.

On that date, he says, he was going home when he was sandbagged and dragged into a cellar at some place unknown to him. Since that time he has been tortured and scantily fed. Musch says that all the time he was blindfolded. He saw light for the first time when he was rescued from the track last evening.

His Story Believed.

The police were at first disinclined to credit this story, but the statements of Musch are so connected and well defined that they are now convinced that he is telling the truth, and have arrested a man by the name of J. Von Rhembow, whom they believe is at the bottom of the conspiracy to murder Musch.

His Wife's Lover His Assailant.

Musch claims to be able to identify Rhembow by his voice. He says that Rhembow has given him trouble for several years, that the man is in love with his wife, and that he has threatened more than once to remove him. Rhembow, the arrested man, is very reticent and has nothing to say.

JULIUS H. SEELYE DEAD.

He Was President of Amherst College Until June, 1891.

Amherst, Mass., May 13.—Ex-President Julius H. Seelye of Amherst college is dead. In the winter of 1885 President Seelye suffered from a severe attack of erysipelas and from that time until his death his health was by no means good. A disease of the nervous system, due in a measure to overwork, gradually fixed itself upon him, and despite the best medical care that could be provided, forced him to resign the presidency of Amherst in June, 1891. The sad death of his oldest daughter, Mrs. J. W. Bixler of New London, Conn., in April, 1894, was a severe blow to him and probably hastened his own death.

WON BY AN AMATEUR.

Many Contestants in the Bicycle Race from Bordeaux to Paris.

Paris, May 13.—The international road race from Bordeaux to Paris, a distance of 592 kilometres, was won by Gerger, an Austrian amateur, who covered the distance in 24 hours and 12 minutes, beating the record made by Lesna in 1894 by 58 minutes, 57 seconds. Meyer, a professional rider, was second, his time being 25 hours and 30 minutes. Corre was third. There were 84 contestants, twenty of them being foreigners. Lucas, an English rider, was the favorite in the betting.

ILL, FROM OVERWORK ONLY.

Denied That Miss Mary A. Dodge Suffered a Stroke of Paralysis.

Washington, May 13.—Miss Mary A. Dodge (Gail Hamilton), cousin of the late Hon. James G. Blaine, who was reported to have suffered a stroke of paralysis, is not seriously ill. Mrs. Truxton Beale said this morning that Miss Dodge was sick, but that her illness was only the result of overwork. This statement was confirmed by the physician who had been called to attend her.

May Close 1,200 Saloons.

New York, May 13.—The recent opinion by Lawyer Page, counsel to the excise board in regard to the law which prohibits saloons within 200 feet of churches or schools, has already affected fifteen places, and unless the courts decide contrary to Counsel Page, from 1,000 to 1,200 saloon keepers will eventually lose their licenses.

National Convention of Machinists.

Cincinnati, May 13.—The national convention of machinists elected the following members of the executive committee: Robert Ashe, Somerset, Mass.; Hugh Doran, Chicago; P. J. Conlan, Kansas City, Mo.; E. R. Garrett, Atlanta, Ga.; H. A. Wiltze, Philadelphia. Chicago was selected as national headquarters.

Troops Leave for Pocahontas.

Richmond, Va., May 13.—The Richmond Blues battalion and another detachment of the Howitzers left last night for Pocahontas. It is understood that they go merely to relieve the troops now there and that the order is not significant of increased danger. All is reported quiet at the mines to-day.

Mr. Cleveland Lands 28 Trout.

Washington, May 13.—Mr. Cleveland was much refreshed by his day's outing Saturday, when with Secretary Morton and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller he spent the day fishing in the vicinity of Leesburg, Va. The president landed twenty-eight of the seventy-five fish caught.

A Good Temperance Argument.

Portland, Conn., May 13.—William Sargeant or Sutherland, an employe in Pickering's machine shop, was run over and killed last evening by the New England express. The man was stupidly intoxicated and asleep on the track.

A Scheme To Relieve Armenians.

Constantinople, May 13.—Three of the embassies here yesterday presented to the sultan a scheme for the reform of the condition of affairs at present existing in Armenia.

GANG OF ROBBERS ARRESTED.

Desperate Fight Between Officers and Safe Blowers in Indiana.

Portland, Ind., May 13.—The police at Dunkirk at a late hour last night had a fight with a gang of robbers and fatally wounded one and arrested four others. Early yesterday morning John Rhines' safe at Camden was blown open, but the safe crackers fled, and late last evening a gang supposed to be the safe blowers boarded a pick-up train at Dunkirk, drew revolvers on the crew and ordered the conductor to pull out with them. The station agent, Engle, summoned the police, and when the gang saw the officers coming they made a break to escape. One was captured on the spot and the others ran to the cold storage building of the Hoster Brewing company. The robbers and policemen drew their revolvers, and in the interchange of bullets one of the men was shot and the three others surrendered. The man who was shot would not give up until after he had been struck by three bullets. It is believed he is fatally wounded. He finally gave his name as John Haley, but would say nothing more. He had a complete kit of burglar tools and a number of fine saws. The other members of the gang refused to give their names.

DEAD WHEN ROBBED.

Authorities Do Not Believe Policeman Williamson Was Murdered.

New York, May 13.—Deputy Coroner Dolan performed an autopsy on the body of Policeman Frederick A. Williamson, who, it was thought, had been murdered and robbed by three footpads on Allen street, Saturday. The autopsy proved conclusively that death had resulted from the rupture of a clot of blood which had formed in the large passage to the heart. The neck was not broken, as was first reported, and there was no fracture of the skull. The police are inclined to the theory that the blood clot burst while Williamson was walking through Allen street, that he fell to the sidewalk unconscious, and that while lying there he was robbed, the thieves believing that he was drunk. Consequently the authorities have abandoned the theory of murder and are heading all their energies to arrest the thieves, who may clear up the mystery.

DEFENDING THE GOVERNOR.

Warrant Charging Fraud Is Refused by an Official.

Topeka, Kas., May 13.—County Attorney Safford has announced that he would not cause a warrant to be issued on the complaint of G. W. Powers, charging Gov. Morrill with having obtained money out of the state treasury by false pretenses. He says the vouchers which Powers refers to are evidence of what they were given for, for the auditor of the state had full knowledge of the facts when he approved the accounts, and that there was no concealment by the governor and no attempt at deception. Such a complaint, he says, states no cause of action, and he will not be a party to such a proceeding or permit the state of Kansas or the county to be a party to it.

GIBBONS GOING TO ROME.

He Will Sail from New York After a Visit to Boston.

Baltimore, May 13.—Cardinal Gibbons will leave Baltimore to-day and will not return to the archiepiscopal residence for several months. He will go to Boston to attend the celebration of the golden jubilee of Archbishop Williams, and it is expected will preach the sermon. From Boston his eminence will go to New York and take a steamer for Havre, France, on May 18 and go thence directly to Rome. His eminence will be accompanied abroad by Bishop Foley, of Detroit; Rev. C. F. Thomas, rector of the Baltimore cathedral, and Rev. J. R. Slattery, of St. Joseph's seminary.

Last Week of New York Legislature.

Albany, May 13.—This will be the last and busiest week of the legislature. The Greater New York bill will come up in both houses, it being a special order in the assembly for to-morrow. It will not pass unless the referendum clause is inserted, in the opinion of its opponents. The bill providing for the capitol building by contract will, it is expected, pass the legislature this week. No delay to final adjournment on Thursday is expected.

Naval Ambulances Ordered.

Washington, May 13.—Surgeon General Tryon has contracted for three ambulances to cost $1,800 which will be attached to the naval hospitals at Brooklyn, N. Y., Chelsea, Mass., and Norfolk, Va. They have been designed after several years investigation into methods for transporting the sick by naval surgeons. They are said to be more like those in use at St. John's hospital, London, than any others.

No News of Glad Tidings.

Victoria, B. C., May 13.—No news has been received of the missing steamer Glad Tidings which left Port Thompson two weeks ago with ten delegates aboard to the Methodist conference now in session here. The fears generally expressed that the missing steamer had been disabled and blown out to sea with the probable loss of all on board.

China May Borrow Money Here.

San Francisco, May 13.—The Japan Mail, just received says: "It is said that half the indemnity to be paid by China will be borrowed from wealthy America through efforts of Mr. Foster, and the remaining half from two countries of Europe.

Pork Packers Assign.

Jacksonville, Ill., May 13.—C. H. Widemayer & Son, butchers and packers, have assigned in favor of their creditors. Their liabilities are placed at $38,000 and assets at nearly $50,000. Judge Owen P. Thompson was made assignee.

Baptists at Washington.

Washington, May 13.—The Southern Baptist convention held no session yesterday. Many of the delegates preached from the pulpits of the churches in Washington, Baltimore and Richmond.

Magnificent Present from the Pope.

Boston, May 13.—A special from Rome says: "The pope has sent a magnificent gold medal to Archbishop Williams of Boston with a letter of congratulation on his ecclesiastical jubilee.

Snow Storm at Dunkirk.

Dunkirk, N. Y., May 13.—A severe snow storm visited this section last night. The air is very cold and fears of a frost are general.

TO BUY OFF THE REBELS

Believed Now To Be Gen. Campo's Plan.

Doubtful if the Leaders Can Stop the Insurrection Cubans in the Fight This Time for Freedom and Not for Mild Reforms—Spain's Position May Become Critical.

Havana, Cuba, May 12, via Key West, Fla., May 13.—The statement by General Campos that no more troops will be needed to quell the insurrection is regarded as indicating that he has been feeling the rebel leaders with a view to buying them off, and that he has received some assurances from them. The reform which it is supposed Spain would grant would not satisfy the Cubans, and even though some of the present leaders were bought off it is probable that they could not deliver the goods as they did in 1878, and that other leaders would soon take their places. The Cubans are in this fight for freedom this time, and nothing less will satisfy them.

Her Position May Become Desperate.

Maceo received $30,000 from Campos in 1878 to lay down his arms, and last week Campos was approached by members of Maceo's family, it is rumored, who are said to have made promises of capitulation under certain conditions. At least, this is the story that reaches Havana from Santiago. It is evident that Campos will play every card before attempting to buy off the leaders. As a final resort he will attempt the latter method. If this fails, Spain's position will be desperate, indeed. The sugar plantations have generally closed down and the men are hurrying to join the insurgent forces.

The Rebels Are Strong.

Santiago de Cuba, May 4, via Key West, Fla., May 13.—Spain is throwing troops into the province of Santiago at the rate of two or three thousand a week, but the insurrection is growing apace. For six weeks following the rising of February 24, little progress was made by the dare-devil patriots who took to the woods in squads of from a dozen to a score, and who lacked arms, ammunition and intelligent leadership. Few of the whites who went out remained when they found themselves associated with bandits and shiftless blacks with mulatto leaders. The government troops and civil guards suppressed incipient risings in Matanzas, Puerto Principe and near Havana, and the better class of Cubans all over the island besitted the movement and said the time was not ripe for another war.

Great Change in the Situation.

In the eastern district alone did the men remain in the field and defy the mother country, but their numbers grew less instead of greater, and even their strongest supporters shook their heads and said that Cuba would never be free. Within ten days the situation has completely changed, and in Cuban circles where there was no hope, is now absolute confidence of ultimate success. The two Maceos, Antonio and Jose, after terrible hardships in the mountains and many narrow escapes from Spanish bullets, have reached the place from which insurgent operations are to be conducted and have been joined by Maximo Gomez and Jose Marti, who eluded men-of-war on the sea and troops on the land.

Prominent Men Entering.

With these leaders at the front, there has been a rapid growth in all the insurgents bands in this province, and the concentration of forces in the vicinity of Jarahueca this week shows that Maceo now has 8,000 men with him, and there are nearly 2,000 others under arms in other parts of the province. Jose Maceo, with 800 men, is near Guantanamo, and Maceo has 500 in the Manzanillo district; and there are half a dozen small bands scattered about on the north side and near Puerto Principe line. From this city 80 men left to join Maceo last Wednesday, and more are preparing to leave. Thirty of those who went were white and belonged to the best families here. One of them is a well known physician. Another is the owner of two plantations and a son of one of the wealthiest men on the island. Others are professional and business men.

All Well Armed.

All are now armed with rifles and revolvers. Francisco Valientes, Colonel in the last war, led them. Maceo sent a squad of mounted men to meet the recruits just outside of the city, and they are now with him. After the conference with his chiefs at Jarahueca, in the mountains twenty miles northeast of Songo, Maceo moved westward, camping one night at Triompe plantation, and passing on toward Santa Ana, where he now is with a force variously estimated at from 2,000 to 4,000 men. Gomez's band of 1,000 men is with him. Maceo's movements have been in the direction of San Luis, the terminus of the railroad which runs from here. As Santa Ana is only ten miles away the government moved all available troops to San Luis, evidently expecting an attack upon the town.

Will Strike a Strong Blow.

Four strong triangular forts have been built of planks filled in with earth in positions which command the approaches to the town. A rough breastwork of logs has been thrown up in front of the barracks. Nearly 1,000 Spanish troops are now at San Luis. Songo, the terminal point of the branch of the railroad, is another dangerous spot, but the troops have been withdrawn from there to strengthen the garrison at San Luis, and it would not be surprising if Maceo swooped down upon Songo first. Cubans here say that Maceo will strike a strong blow within a few days in order to let Cubans in other parts of the island know that he is here and means business.

Telegraph Wires Cut.

Governor Garrich sent for the brothers of some of the young Cubans who went away yesterday and asked them if they knew of the matter in advance. One of them replied that he not only knew of it, but knew also that half the Cubans on the islands talk of going to join Maceo before many days. The cutting of telegraph wires inland leaves all of the north coast cities outside of communication, and the government is now talking about laying a cable around the island. The forces on the north and south sides of this province are compelled to act independently of each other, and a part of the government plan is to have the forces act jointly.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, • Publisher and Proprietor.
WALTER IRVING CLARKE, Managing Editor.

TOWN AND HOME FAVORITE.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., MAY 11, 1895.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Maynard are in Newark today.

A. Q. Fine has moved from Watchung avenue to South Second street.

The engagement is announced of Miss Reinhart and E. M. Van Buren.

The wedding of Miss Katheryn Yates to Harry Borden is set for June 5.

Wm. D. Thickstun of North avenue is in Asbury Park for a few days, on business.

A. A. Marsh of Marsh, Ayers & Co., has been detained at home by illness since Friday.

Little Edith Van Winkle is considerably improved, and her father has returned to work.

Miss Clara Appoldt of Union Hill has been visiting Mrs. M. Gottheil on Arlington avenue.

Andrew Wilson and family moved Saturday from Arlington avenue to West Fourth street.

Russell Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Miller of Orchard place, is a sufferer from croup.

Miss Margaret Kirch returned home Saturday after spending two weeks with friends in New Brunswick.

Mr. Fenner of Washington Valley spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Charles L. Force of Pearl street.

Mrs. William G. Wright of West Eighth street has issued "at home" cards for Friday, May 17, from 4 to 7.

Mrs. C. S. Meyers, accompanied by her little daughter Helen, has gone to visit relatives in Elizabeth for a week.

Misses Annetta and Amanda Risburgh, who have been residing here for some time, will sail for their home in Sweden June 16.

Among the large number of passengers the La Normandie took out Saturday, was Mrs. C. F. Howland of Rockview avenue.

H. P. Reynolds and wife are at Fishkill-on-Hudson, guests of Mrs. Julia Hall, mother of Charles Hall of Reynolds's Pharmacy.

The engagement is announced of George Hoffman and Miss Freda Sutterlein of East Fourth street. The marriage will take place early in June.

City Clerk MacMurray returned Saturday evening from Troy, where he has been several days in the interest of the Pond Machine Tool Company, on a business trip.

Rev. A. DeWitt Mason, who made the address before the Ladies Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed Chuch last evening, was the guest during his stay in Plainfield of his brother-in-law, P. Swain of Craig place.

Rev. T. Logan Murphy, who preached ysterday to the students of St. Stephens College, Annandale, N. Y., on the invitation of the faculty of the college, will remain at St. Stephens several days, and will return next Saturday.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Peter Scott, a returned missionary, will speak in Warren Chapel tomorrow evening.

A sociable will be given by the Epworth League of Grace M. E. Church Friday evening.

The King's Daughters of Hope Chapel will give an entertainment in the chapel Thursday evening.

At the young people's meeting in Trinity Reformed Church tonight, visitors will be heartily welcome.

The total receipts from the Hard-times Social at the Congregational Church last Friday evening amounted to over $50.

The Children of Mary of St. Joseph's R. C. Church are preparing for a reception to be given in the church the last Sunday evening in May.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of Grace M. E. Church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 in the church, to advance the interests of missions.

Rev. A. DeWitt Mason of New York delivered a well-written sermon in the Trinity Reformed Church yesterday morning, from the text, "This is the finger of God"—Ex. 9:19.

The Ladies Sewing Circle of the Swedish Church held a profitable tea and fair in Grace P. E. Church Saturday afternoon for the benefit of the pastor, Rev. M. Ahlberg. Those who had charge of the event were: Mrs. A. Broudt, Miss Anna Pierson, Miss Bergstedt, and Miss Anna Broudt.

Rev. T. Logan Murphy preached yesterday in Annandale, N. Y., and because of his absence, Rev. Dr. Joseph Beers, rector emeritus of Holy Innocents Church, Dunellen, officiated yesterday morning in Holy Cross Church, assisted by the Rev. Thomas Atkins of Roselle, who also conducted the vesper service.

Rev. and Mrs. Pierson, evangelists, conducted a large and exceedingly interesting meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Hall yesterday afternoon. In the musical part of the service, Miss C. R. Yates, pianist, Robert Barnes, violinist, and Whitfield Frazee, cornetist, assisted. The meeting was under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., and was very gratifying.

By the election of E. E. Anthony of this city as President of the Union County Christian Endeavor Union, the Trinity Reformed Church society will have the honor of keeping the beautiful county silk banner during Mr. Anthony's term of office, and the banner will be accorded a prominent position in the meeting room of the Trinity Reformed Church society.

TOMATOES AND MORAL SAUCE.

If Girls Were Trained There Wouldn't Be So Many Divorces.

At the cooking lectures of Mrs. Lemcke, that lady usually treats a variety of subjects. In illustrating a talk upon stuffed tomatoes in New York recently, she selected six large, ripe ones and cut a thin slice from the blossom side. She next scooped out the inner part of each and seasoned all inside with one teaspoonful of seasoning salt, which is one tablespoonful of pepper to four of salt; she then melted one ounce of butter in a small saucepan, adding to it two tablespoonfuls of fine chopped onion, which was cooked three minutes. Here the instructor told her pupils never to allow onions to brown, as the fine flavor was lost in this way. Two ounces of fine chopped, fresh pork, seasoned with salt and pepper, were stirred in and cooked five minutes, and then the parts of the tomatoes which were scooped out, four tablespoonfuls of bread crumbs and two of fine chopped mushrooms were stirred in, and all were cooked in a few minutes.

The tomatoes were filled with this preparation, set in a buttered pan, with the stuffed sides toward the pan, covered with a buttered paper, and baked in a hot oven for 20 minutes.

While this was baking Mrs. Lemcke said:

"I will give you a talk on 'Women's Mission in Life' before I teach you to make the pâte a'chaud. Women were really born to suffer, and they have to do it no matter how hard they try and keep from it, and no matter how hard she tries she can't become a man. She will always be a woman; therefore, if she takes the position that rightfully belongs to man, then she must give up all thoughts of marriage, for she can't be bothered with a man. Neither can she be bothered with any children. Woman's real mission is home. God never intended us to rough it as men do or he would have made us that way. A man's brain is bigger than a woman's."

At this a man who was wedged in among a crowd of women gave a great guffaw and looked glad that he was there.

"The fault is in the training of girls," continued the speaker. "If every woman had given to her a domestic education as well as a collegiate, there wouldn't be so much unhappiness and drunkenness or so many divorces, neither would there be so many fashionable women. All they care for is dress.

"What we want is women that know how to make home bright and happy, who knows how to make their husband's forget their business worries, who know how to train up the children to be useful, practical men and women, with some aim in life. All of you that want to, go ahead and fight for your rights, but you will be women still."

The women were much amused over Mrs. Lemcke's remarks, and even a baby in a long dress in its mother's arms chuckled very understandingly as she concluded.

A WISE INSURANCE COMPANY.

It Made a Fortune from the New York Fire of 1835.

The fire insurance companies that did much New York business were all ruined after the big fire of 1835, when one-fifth of the city went up in smoke, and therefore many merchants who had their stores and goods underwritten obtained nothing. One insurance company, with headquarters in Hartford, which had more policies at risk than its entire capital and surplus would satisfy, had a very energetic president. He called together his stockholders and told them the probable situation of affairs. He suggested that an assessment be laid upon the stockholders sufficient to meet all the losses which had been incurred and that everything be put into money as soon as possible. The reasoning by which he sustained this argument appeared sound to the directors, and he took the stage the next day, his valise stuffed with bank notes and bank checks. Arrived in New York, he sought a temporary office, and then went to a couple of morning newspapers, in which he inserted an advertisement. The next day, tall stakes, upon each of which was an announcement, were to be found all through the burnt district. These announcements read: "The Stromboli Fire Insurance Company of Hartford pays loss on presentation of proof. No waiting."

The moment that the first applicant came in the president shook him by the hand, sympathized with him in his misfortune, looked at his policy and told him to come in the next day, when he counted out the amount that was due in good New York city notes. If his policy was burned, he made a memorandum of its number, sent that to Hartford and had it verified, when it also was paid. The other companies had little present cash and were disposed to procrastinate. The merchant did not know that he was going to get his money at all. In the meantime three or four of the energetic clerks of the Hartford company were scouring the lower part of the city for more insurance, of course at good rates. They obtained it in such quantities that the president was not obliged to call on Hartford for much of his guarantee fund, and for twenty years after 1835 that company had the pick of all good business that there was in New York city. It had paid its losses when others had not, and there had been no quibbling and no formality. The stroke was a highly successful one.

No Bargain, but Possibly a Remnant.

The count came near and whispered softly.

"I am ready," he said, "to make a sacrifice for you."

She gestured deprecatingly.

"Sacrifice!" she repeated. "No, Reginald. I am able to pay the regular price."

She smiled, as in consciousness of power.—Detroit Tribune.

To Cure

weak stomach, loss of appetite, flatulence, waterbrash, rising of food, heartburn, nightmare, coated tongue, offensive breath, jaundice, bad complexion, liver-spots, yellow eyes, constipation, palpitation of the heart, and short breath after meals, dyspepsia, and all its symptoms, take

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills.

Eat plenty of good nourishing food. A pill after each meal. 25 cents at druggists'.

Send to us for free sample.

DR. J. A. DEANE CO., Kingston New York

Shiloh's cure is sold on a guarantee. It cures incipient consumption; it is the best cough cure, only 1c a dose; 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by all druggists.

Karl's Clover Root, the great blood purifier, gives freshness and clearness to the complexion and cures constipation; 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by all druggists.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga Tenn., says: "Shiloh's Vitalizer saved my life; I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For dyspepsia, liver or kidney trouble it excels; 75c. Sold by all druggists.

MUSIC HALL.

Jos. Sohl, Lessee and Manager. Tel. 49b

ONE NIGHT ONLY,

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 15,

Special production by arrangements with Miss Effie Ellsler, of the exquisite Comedy Drama,

"HAZEL KIRKE,"

As played at Madison Square Theatre 900 consecutive performances. Longest run on record. A great play. Strong selected company.

Presented with same attention to details as at the remarkable run in New York City.

Secure your seats in advance for this Special Attraction. Prices, 35, 50, 75c, $1.00.

Report of the Condition

OF

The City National Bank,

At Plainfield, in the State of New Jersey, at the close of business,

MAY 7, 1895.

RESOURCES.

Loans and discounts	$253,434 58
Overdraft, secured and unsecured	351 89
U. S. bonds to secure circulation	50,000 00
Stocks, securities, etc	51,245 00
Furniture and fixtures	2,500 00
Due from National banks (not reserve agents)	7,412 22
Due from State banks and bankers	37,712 44
Due from approved reserve agents	97,742 45
Checks and other cash items	2,919 35
Fractional paper currency, nickels and cents	249 47
Lawful money reserve in bank, viz. Specie $21 785 00
Legal-tender notes 7 673 00	29,458 00
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer (5 per cent of circulation)	1,800 00
Total	$534,865 40

LIABILITIES.

Capital stock paid in	$150,000 00
Surplus fund	30,000 00
Undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid	26,086 07
National Bank notes outstanding	33,970 00
Due to other National Banks	24,545 43
Due to State Banks and bankers	15,290 25
Dividends unpaid	492 00
Individual deposits subject to check	255,972 67
Demand certificates of deposit	3,109 84
Certified checks	9,221 22
Cashier's check outstanding	187 97
Total	$534,865 40

State of New Jersey, County of Union, ss:

I, William F. Arnold, cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

W. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10th day of May, 1895.

J. C. Pope, Notary Public.

Correct—Attest: CHARLES HYDE, J. F. HUBBARD, JAS. T. CLOSSON, Directors.

New York Announcement.

Our American Homes and How to Furnish Them

Horner's Furniture.

Reasons why you should buy it in preference to any other.

(1). Because this firm have long enjoyed the reputation of keeping only the best Furniture that can be produced, both in medium and finest grades; (2). Because their assortments are unequalled; (3). Because their prices are the lowest at which goods of standard quality can be sold.

Latest productions in Dining Room, Bedroom, Parlor, Drawing Room, Library and Hall Furniture—Venetian Carved Furniture—Novelties in Imported Furniture—White and Gold Enameled Furniture—Enameled and Brass Bedsteads—English Brass Bedsteads (75 patterns); Maple and Bamboo Furniture—Restful Easy Chairs and Settees—Smoking and Billiard Room Furniture—Everything for city or country homes—Eight spacious floors—All prices in plain figures.

R. J. HORNER & CO.,
Furniture Makers and Importers,
61-65 West 23d St., N. Y.
(Adjoining Eden Musee.)

Horner & Co.'s establishment is one of the sights of New York.—Newspaper Comment.

Insomnia

is often the result of some wearing pain, slight in itself, yet sufficient to prevent sleep. Instead of using an opiate apply an

Allcock's Porous Plaster

to the aching spot; relief will come, and with relief, sweet, refreshing sleep.

Beware of Nostrums. See that you get "ALLCOCK'S." Do not accept any other.

Allcock's Corn Shields,
Allcock's Bunion Shields,
Have no equal as a relief and cure for corns and bunions.

Brandreth's Pills

first purify, then invigorate the system, facilitating healthy growth.

Rutgers College Glee Club CONCERT

At Y. M. C. A. Hall,

Tuesday Evening, May 21,

AT 8 O'CLOCK.

ADMISSION 25 CENTS.

Reserved seats 35c.

Tickets at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

5 13 15 18 20 21

An Idea

Has struck us, it hurt nothing but our prices, tilted them over just about ¼ their original value. Our idea is to sell plenty. We must pay expenses, can't do business for pleasure, but we are satisfied with a very small profit. We want quick sales and small profits.

Summer Dress Goods.

We are showing the largest variety of Wash Goods ever shown in the city.

Swivel silks	39c and 42c
Wash silks	39c
Dress ginghams	8c
All-wool challies	14c
New crepe cloths	13c and 15c
Fast colored cambrics	6c
The latest dotted swiss	17c
For one week the best Merrimack Prints only	4c

Silk Waists.

50 wash silk waists $2 98 worth $3 50

Capes.

Still the evenings are cool. A cape feels comfortable. Our prices cannot be duplicated.

Duck Suits.

50 more duck suits all sizes at 99c

Housefurnishing Goods.

7c. SALE IN BASEMENT 7c.

We bought them very cheap, you buy them likewise. They are Toilet Sets 10 pieces, richly decorated only $1 95 worth $2 75.

Ice Cream Freezers from $1 75 to $1 98.

The Best Refrigerators made are the ones we carry in stock. We will be pleased to show you their merits at any time.

Millinery.

Half of Plainfield's population know we are the leaders in stylish millinery. We wish the other half to call and be convinced also. Just received a large assortment of Baby Carriages from $5 00 to $15 00.

BOEHM'S,

113 WEST FRONT ST.

Miss E. Rockfellow,

DRESSMAKING PARLORS,

195 NORTH AVENUE.

Taylor system. Suits $5 and upward.

J. C. Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS,

110 East Front st.,
Plainfield, N. J.

F. A. DUNHAM,

Civil Engineer and Surveyor

109 Park ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas.

Gold Dollars for Fifty Cts

No, but full value. C. E. MOISE, Painting and Paper Hanging, 37 Chatham st.

BATHS, Hot and Cold 15 Cents

Showers included, at

WILLIAM CLAASSEN'S,

Barber, 211 Liberty Street.

Cut Roses, Carnations AND VIOLETS.

Flowers furnished for weddings, funerals, etc, in bunches, bouquets or design.

MILES, Somerset st., Johnston's drive. (Terminus Electric Railroad)

Where Quality and Economy Join Hands

There You Will Find a True Value that is Worthy of Peck's.

Saturday, Monday Tuesday, Wednesday

4 DAYS SPECIALS. 4

Fine white trimming laces 3c per yard, reduced from 6, 8 and 10c.
White lace plaid goods, fine quality, 6¼, 10, 12½ and 18c; former price 12, 16, 20 and 25c.
Men's balbriggan and gauze shirts 25c each; reduced from 40c.
Ladies' ribbed vests 7c each; good quality.
Window poles and fixtures complete 13c.
Window shades 15c each and upward.
Ladies' Lisle and Taffeta gloves 15c per pair.
40 per cent. off on all sun umbrellas.
Best calicoes, ginghams and lining cambric at 3½c per yard.
Just received a new lot of carpets which will be sold at special low prices.

Remember, for $10 cash purchased in our CARPET DEPARTMENT you get a handsome Rug free.

WHITNEY'S,

122 East Front Street. - Near City Bank.

Common Flower Pots, Fancy Flower Pots,

WHITE CHINA FOR DECORATION.
CHINA FIRED.

The Welchbach Light.

GAVETT'S.

EDSALL'S.

Here is What You Want!

We say this with confidence because we have such a large variety to choose from that the smallest need as well as the most exacting demand can be filled at our Commercial Palace, and prices are always the lowest.

GOOD VALUES FOR THE WEEK.

Ladies' Gingham Underskirts, fast colors, positively worth 75c; our price 48c.
Ladies' Navy and Black Serge Suits, newest style, usually sold at $6.98; our price $4.75 suit.
Standard Japanese Wash Silks, sold everywhere at 40c; our price 25c.
Colored Taffeta Silk in leading colors, regular 75c goods; our price 59c.
Children's Reefers, all sizes, prettily trimmed with braid, $2.50 goods; our price $1.69.

Millinery. Dainty in style, novel in effect, thoroughly up to date, surpassing in workmanship and prices right are the attributes which have gone to make our Millinery Department such a grand success this season.

Carpet Dept. A few more of those five frame Body Brussels at 99c; special line best Tapestry carpets at 5 1c; all-wool art rugs at $4.98 and up; Crescent rugs 3ftx6ft. at 98c; shades and window trimmings at 19c complete and up.

Housefurnishing Department in the Basement.

25 lawn mowers 12 inch. While they last at $1 98 each.
50 English decorated toilet sets, all perfect, 6 pieces; at $1 39 set.
207 only sample porch chairs and rockers, must be sold quick to make room. They won't last long at the prices marked. Prices range from 59c to $2 98 each.

SOMETHING OF SPECIAL INTEREST. Special sale of bleached sheetings in 8-4 and 9-4 widths, usually sold at 22 cts and 25 cts a yard. Our price 13 and 15 cts a yard.

Clearance sale of short lengths of bleached muslins, 8-4 and 9-4 widths, all to go at half original prices.

An excellent line of sheer and dainty Percales, in a variety that makes choice most difficult; unsurpassable value at 12½ cts. Our price 9 cts.

Counterpanes. Marseilles and crochet quilts, large size, exquisite designs, sold everywhere at 98 cts, $1 25, $1 39 and $1 65. Our price 65 cts, 99 cts, $1 15 and $1 25.

Capes. Ladies' capes, made of silk, velvet and cloth, prettily trimmed with lace, jet and ribbons. Sold elsewhere at $4 98, $5 25, $8 50 and $9. Our price $3 75, $3 99, $5 57 and $5 98.

Moreen Skirts. An excellent Moreen skirt, with full ruffle, usually sold for $4 98. Our price $3 20.

House Wrappers. Wrappers made up of fine percales in all colors, including indigo, full skirt, cape falling from yoke over large sleeves, trimmed with very pretty contrasting braids, all sizes, at 69 cts, 89 cts, $1 10 and $1 25. Usual asking price fully 25 per cent. more.

Taffeta Silks. Special bargain in black and colored all-silk taffeta, in an excellent assortment of designs, the most sought for silk of the season. Sold everywhere at 89 cts and $1 a yard. Our price 65 cts and 75 cts a yard.

25 ct paper books, by standard authors, good print, full titles. Our price 3 cts each.

Fans. We have just opened up an exquisite line of fans, ranging in price from 10 cts to $2 50 each. The usual asking price is fully 25 per cent. more.

SODA. When you have finished shopping and are tired and thirsty, then remember that our soda is equal to the best in town. Don't fail to try it. SODA.

Of Rare Worth and Exceeding Beauty

In all of our stock there are no shoes that reveal more clearly the advance in shoe making than do our ladies' oxfords. We have them in all sizes and qualities. A few hundred pairs left of those 74c ties; that is 25 per cent. less than first cost. We sell trunks and bags for less than manufacturer's retail prices.

Doane & Edsall.

CAREY TOLD THE STORY.

Humor Takes the Place of Evidence in the Congressional Seat Contest.

The Mitchell-Walsh contest for the Eight District, New York, seat in Congress called together some citizens of the Bowery. Lawyer Ralston examined several, and if he learned any facts pertinent to the contest other persons present did not recognize them. There was one witness who entertained them, though. He was Andrew Carey. Lawyer Ralston asked:

"Where do you usually drink—at Mickey Flynn's, your political boss's?"

"I wouldn't drink his whisky if you were to give me all of New York."

"You like good whisky?"

"I do; don't you, sir?"

"Yet whisky got you arrested?"

"No, sir; paralysis did."

"How so?"

"If you leave me alone I'll tell you. A year ago I got paralysis in my knees and I couldn't take a long step or go down a few stairs without falling. One night I was stepping off a curbstone when down I went on my knees, and I couldn't get up. A copper come along and says, 'What you doing there; are you praying?' 'If I am, sir,' said I, 'it's much against my will. I've a weakness in my knees,' I told him by way of explanation. 'Are you sure it isn't in your head?' said he, and with that he took me to the station."

"Did he have to carry you"

"Not a bit of it. When he straightened me up I went off like a two-year-old."

"What sentence did you get?"

"A month, but I got out in a day and a half."

"Have you ever changed your name, Mr. Carey?" was the lawyer's next question.

"No!" thundered the witness, rising. "I never disgraced Carey and Carey never disgraced me."

A Small Boy's Experiment.

Early in the afternoon one Sunday recently, the big carp which occupies the pond with the pelican in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, had a most sickening experience.

It seems that a boy of an inquiring mind tossed a small chunk of shaving soap to the fish to see if the carp would eat it. He did and has been sorry ever since. After taking the morsel the carp sank quietly to the bottom of the pond and apparently engaged in deep thought. Then his eyeballs suddenly dilated and his fins wriggled convulsively. A second later a large bubble, with rainbows in it, rose to the surface and floated slowly around in a circle.

The carp gasped and a perfect flood of suds and bubbles gushed from his mouth and gills. He dashed wildly along the bottom of the pond, coughing up lather enough to run half the barber shops in town.

Great rifts of suds, foam and bubbles formed on the surface, but still the fish seemed to have a good supply of soap remaining. At times he jumped clear of the water, evidently looking for something to take the taste out of his mouth, but, not finding it, the unhappy carp went below again.

In the course of twenty minutes he had his system comparatively clear of soap, but for the rest of the day the fish took little or no interest in what was going on.

A Specimen of Bad Writing.

More than a century ago a Massachusetts clergyman had occasion to address a letter to the General Court of Massachusettes upon some subject of general interest at the time.

When the letter was received the Court ordered the clerk to read it, and were filled with wrath at what appeared to be these words in opening:

"I address you not as magistrates, but as Indian devils."

"What!" they cried. "Read that over again. How does he address us?"

"Not as magistrates, but as Indian devils," repeated the clerk. "That's what he says."

The letter was passed around, and the judges were by no means pleased to see that the clerk had apparently made no mistake.

Very angry at what they believed to be an insult, the judges passed a vote of censure upon the clergyman, and wrote to him demanding an apology.

He came before them in person, when it turned out that where the judges had read Indian devils he had written individuals—which, of course, made an apology unnecessary; but the reverened gentleman was admonished to improve his handwriting if he wished to keep out of trouble.—Harper's Young People.

A Troublesome Creditor.

The Poet Clement Marot, being in very straitened circumstances, went to the king and said:

"I have come to lay before Your Majesty a complaint against one of my creditors, whose claims I have satisfied over and over again, and yet he persists in dunning and harrassing me at every opportunity."

"Who is the scoundrel?" the king inquired.

"My stomach, sire. Though I have satisfied its wants time without number, it never ceases to torment, and I am utterly incapable of meeting its demands."

The king was pleased with the joke, and allowed the poet a pension on the spot.—Chamfort.

Square Dealing or No Play.

It ought not to insult a business man or any other, if he owes a just debt, to be asked for the sum in a gentlemanly way; the man ought not to feel it necessary to bluff the man he owes in an ungentlemanly manner, either. Business transactions are not entirely one sided; neither was the world built for the bristle race exclusively.—Coudport Standard.

In Doubt.

Figg—My! but isn't that a picture?

Fogg—Quite stylish. But what is it: Looks rather large for a piano lamp and rather too small for a woman.—Boston Transcript.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

CYCLING COMMENT.

Men are constantly at work getting the Crescent Oval in condition for the Memorial Day meet.

The New Jersey Division of the L. A. W. will hold their annual meet in Trenton in June.

George Cobb of the Harlem Wheelmen has signified his intention of entering the Memorial Day meet on the Crescent Oval.

Several out-of-town bicycle clubs had runs scheduled for Plainfield yesterday, but none put in an appearance on account of the early morning rain.

The Elizabeth Daily Journal says: "The National Circuit this year will open at Plainfield on Memorial Day. All the crack Class B men will ride on that day."

The Elizabeth Daily Journal says that a number of Elizabeth bicycle riders have expressed their intention of entering the events of the Crescents' Memorial Day meet.

It is probable that a large proportion of the wheelmen who attend the Irvington-Millburn road race Memorial Day morning will attend the meet of the Crescent Wheelmen in the afternoon.

The condition of Park avenue, between North avenue and Fourth street, is a constant menace to the safety of wheelmen passing over it, because of the numerous small and jagged stones which cover the roadbed.

Wm. Nicholson, machinist of the Eldridge Bicycle Company, who has ridden a pneumatic-tire wheel since 1892, had his first puncture yesterday. When riding near Bound Brook he punctured his tire in four places at once.

A. H. Barnett of Westfield, a Class B rider, fell in the Linscot road race and severely bruised his hip so that he will be unable to race for some time. It is probable, however, that he will be able to enter the Crescents Memorial Day meet.

An Afternoon Accident.

A horse attached to the carriage of Alven Beveridge, residing at the corner of West Seventh street and Spooner avenue, was frightened by the United States mail cart in front of Ulrich & Blatz's meat market on West Front street at 2:30 this afternoon, and lurching to one side ran the buggy into a water hydrant and dished one of the front wheels. The coachman and Mrs. Beveridge were in the wagon but were not injured. The horse was caught before doing further damage.

Seeing the Sights.

The Honeyman tourist party left Salt Lake City this morning for Colorado Springs, where they will arrive tomorrow evening. On Wednesday they visit Manitou and the Garden of Gods, where those of the party that desire can ascend to Pike's Peak. Thursday they will be in Denver, Friday in Kansas City, and Saturday will leave for Chicago. Stopping there over Sunday they leave for home and will arrive here Tuesday evening of next week.

Baseball.

Leal's third nine and the Stars of North Plainfield played a game of baseball Saturday on Willow avenue, which resulted in favor of Leal's by the score of 20 to 8. Battery for Leals: Pitchers—W. Wadsworth, A. Murphy; catcher—R. Tilney. Star's battery: Pitcher—R. Brewster; catcher—H. Roome.

The score:

Leals	3	0	3	0	3	4	2	4	1—20
Stars	4	0	1	2	1	0	0	0	0—8

A Good Meeting.

The afternoon meeting in Reform Hall Sunday was most interesting, every moment being taken up with prayers, testimonies and singing. The meeting was led by Mr. Cronce of the Salvation Army.

May Walk Postponed.

The May walk of the Saengerbund was postponed yesterday, owing to the inclemency of the weather, to next Sunday.

Free Pills.

Send your address to Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of constipation and sick headache. For malaria and liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c. per box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Fair, cool weather tomorrow.

—Chas. K. Moore has resigned from Col. Waring's staff, to take effect June 1.

—The Central brakemen donned their white Summer caps this morning.

—Policeman McCue now does the North avenue station duty from 4 to 7 p. m.

—John Bunworth was held in City Court this morning for an examination of his sanity tomorrow.

—The "Hickory Farm" will be presented Wednesday and Thursday evenings in the C. Y. M. L. Hall.

—Five newly elected members will be initiated in Franklin Council, No. 41, J. O. U. A. M., Thursday evening.

—Frank Linke, the wholesale liquor dealer of West Front street, has put out a beautiful new delivery wagon.

—The elevator in the Babcock Building commenced carrying passengers this morning. Reuben Ray is the conductor.

—Important matters will be considered at the meeting of the Board of Governors of the Crescent Wheelmen this evening.

—The members of John Hand Camp, No. 28, S. of V., will be drilled this evening by Capt. Geo. Edwards. A full attendance is desired.

—It will be hot again in a day or two, and then you will want a cooling beverage. Tier's ice-cream soda at 5 cents a glass strikes the right spot.

—The census enumerators are requested to report at Assessor Hubbard's office, 109 Park avenue, Tuesday, May 14, at 5 p. m., to receive their instructions.

—The Young Ladies Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church will hold their regular meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2, in one of the Bible class rooms.

—Fanwood Township has appropriated $10 towards the observance of Memorial Day, and the school children will gather flowers to be used in decorating the graves.

Whose Bicycle Is This?

Policeman Hartpence found a Century Columbia bicycle in front of the ink building on Watchung avenue early Saturday morning and took it to the police station, where the owner can have the wheel by identifying it.

Poachers at Work.

Legitimate fishermen are complaining of the violation of game laws at New Market pond, where poachers scoop out immense quantities of fish from shallow water with nets in the night time.

All Free.

Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who have not, have now the opportunity to try it free. Call on the advertised druggist and get a trial bottle, free. Send your name and address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago; and get a sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills free, as well as a copy of Guide to Health and Household Instructor, free. All of which is guaranteed to do you good and cost you nothing at L. W. Randolph's Drugstore.

Report of the Condition

OF

The First National Bank,

at Plainfield, in the State of New Jersey, at the close of business,

MAY 7, 1895.

RESOURCES.

Loans and discounts	$602,27[illegible] 61
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured	49[illegible] 99
U. S. bonds to secure circulation	50,000 00
Stocks, securities, etc	1,8[illegible] 00
Banking house, furniture and fixtures	10,3[illegible] 20
Other real estate and mortgages owned	50,6[illegible] 21
Due from National Banks (not reserve agents)	6,6[illegible] 91
Bills receivable	5,6[illegible] 89
Due from approved reserve agents	131,1[illegible] 53
Checks and other cash items	9,2[illegible] 10
Notes of other National Banks	5,7[illegible] 00
Fractional paper currency, nickels and cents	1,1[illegible] 24
Lawful money reserve in bank, viz: Specie 27,234 35
Legal tender notes 42,095 00	69,3[illegible] 35
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer, 5 per cent. of circulation	2,2[illegible] 00
Total	$946,6[illegible] 03

LIABILITIES.

Capital stock paid in	200,000 00
Surplus fund	50,0[illegible] 00
Undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid	39,2[illegible] 36
National bank notes outstanding	44,3[illegible] 50
Due to other National Banks	22,0[illegible] 14
Dividends unpaid	4[illegible] 00
Individual deposits subject to check	555,3[illegible] 27
Demand certificates of deposit	33,7[illegible] 99
Certified checks	8[illegible] 77
Total	$946,6[illegible] 03

State of New Jersey, County of Union, ss:

I, F. S. Runyon, cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 9th day of May, 1895.

HARRY C. RUNYON, Notary Public of N. J.

Correct attest:— J. W. JOHNSON,
P. M. FRENCH,
WM. M. STILLMAN,
Directors.

THE GREAT AMERICAN DRINK— SODA WATER

is the best of all drinks when rightly served. We use many syrups—all good—but we must "brag" a little about our orange (fresh from fruit), our chocolate and coffee; none can be finer. As to cream—take your choice: Ice cream, whipped cream, plain cream.

Reynolds's Pharmacy, Park and North avenues.

Hosiery. No store in this town offers so many sorts, so many values. We always have some exceptional bargains such as these: The 12 1-2c. fast black seamless hose for 9c; the 20c. kind for 15c, and 20c. for the regular 25c. goods; 5c. for mens seamless hose that should be 10c. and the 15c. fast black half hose for 10c.

25 rolls more of the 10c. matting. Other mattings at any price up to 50c. A good ingrain carpet at 25c. Brussels made, laid and lined free. Window shades from 18c, oilcloths from 25c, large size Smyrna rugs $2.60, value $3.50; do, at $2.10, value $2.75. Lace curtains from 54c pair, curtain poles complete from 18c.

It takes little money to purchase a good cape from us. A splendid showing of the most taking styles, some as low as 98c; percale shirt waists 48c; silk belts 25c; new parasols.

LEDERER'S

You Don't Care

whether you buy that new suit from a clothing store that has 10,000 clerks and four miles of plate glass frontage, or whether you get it from some merchant who has built or is about to build a commercial palace,

Half as Much as you do about getting a perfect fitting suit and a good, serviceable article. You want to be in style and to have your money go as far as possible. Good clothing and good value is your need. This should bring you to

McGregor & Co.

Our clothing will match anything offered anywhere. In make, fit and finish it has no superior and few equals.

Our PRICES Are a POSITIVE PROTECTION against your paying more than you ought to. Never such values in good clothing as at the present time. See our matchless values in Men's suits at $10 & $12.

McGregor & Co.,

850-852 Broad Street,

NEWARK, N. J.

Educational.

Miss Fawcett's School

25 Washington ave.

Dep't for boys to the age of 12; dep't for girls and kindergarten. Girls prepared for college.

Spring Term of the Rockview Home and Day School

Opened April 15.

Kindergarten, primary and intermediate departments. For terms and particulars apply to the Misses Peck, 317 East Front street.

CODDINGTON'S

Furniture and Freight

EXPRESS.

Offices 24 West Front st; 33 Park ave. Post-office box 329. Piano moving a specialty. Large covered trucks; goods sent to any part of the country; charges reasonable; satisfaction guaranteed.

THE DIFFERENCE.

Right up-to-date when it comes to selling goods and having just what you want, but we run our store in the old way of having you go where you please, doing as you please, and having who you want to wait on you.

IT'S OUR WAY.

SNAP SHOTS

Taken at random throughout the store, all at interesting prices:

Ladies' percale shirt waists	48c
Men's outing shirts	48c
New dress ginghams	6c
New dress percales	6c
Fine figured mulls	8c
Ladies' seamless hose	13c
Men's seamless hose	12c
Boys' bicycle hose	15c
Boys sweaters	19c
Boys Windsor ties	12c
Ladies' lisle gloves	10c
Extra huck towels	10c
Large dinner napkins	$1 19 doz
Swivel dress silk	39c
Fine toilet soap	8c box
Jap rugs 18x36	39c
Jap matting, roll of 20 yards	$2 48

COOL UNDERWEAR.

Always offering good values but this lot is the best of all. Men's fine balbriggan shirts and drawers 33c each. Ladies' fine ribbed vests 13c. Children's fine gauze vests 12c up.

SUMMER.

HOUSE FIXINGS. Widow screens, hard wood 25c. All sizes Jap porch screens. Sprinkling pots. Oil stoves. Gas stoves. Refrigerators.

MEN.

That lot of outing shirts on the centre-table will interest you. If we bought them in the regular way the price would be $1.50, but that doesn't count. You buy them for 69c.

WHITE OF PLAINFIELD.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW. Our Own Sale.

We are selling goods in every department at greatly reduced prices. It will pay you to call and investigate before buying elsewhere.

12 and 16c plain Silesia for	10 and 12c yard
20 and 25c fancy Satteens for	16 and 20c yard
12 and 16c plain Percalines for	10 and 13c yard
Best French hair cloth	59c yard
50 and 60c black Damask for	42 and 52c yard
85 and $1 black Damask for	69 and 89c yard
25 and 50c Sweaters for	21 and 42c
$1, and 75c laundered shirts, colored,	89 and 67c.
A good laundered shirt, colored, for	50c
50c neckwear for	43c
15c hair hose for	11c

210 WEST FRONT STREET.

E. E. MARSHALL & CO.,

167 North Avenue.

Wall Papers, Painting and Interior Decorating.

DESIGNS SUBMITTED FOR FRESCOING.

Progressive Plainfield's Progressive Store.

LACE CURTAINS.

Lot 1, White Nottingham 2 1-2 yards long	48c pair
Lot 2, White Nottingham 3 yards long	69c pair
Lot 3, White Nottingham 3 yards long	86c pair
Lot 4, White Nottingham 3 yards long	93c pair
Lot 5, White Nottingham 3 yards long	$1.08 pair
Lot 6, White Nottingham 3 1-2 yards long	$1.43 pair
Lot 7, White Nottingham 3 1-2 yards long	$1.97 pair

BED SPREADS.

Lot 1, White Crochet Counterpanes	54c each
Lot 2, White Crochet Counterpanes	74c each
Lot 3, White Crochet Counterpanes	94c each
Lot 4, White Crochet Counterpanes	$1.18 each
Lot 5, White Crochet Counterpanes	$1.27 each
Lot 6, White Marseilles Counterpanes	$1.39 each

200 only in the lot, assorted colored Shirt Waists for ladies; no more to be had; all to be sold at 25c. Each

One lot Ladies' Laundered Shirt Waists	43c each
One lot Ladies' Ribbed Vests	5c each

Van Emburgh & Son,

CORNER STORE, BABCOCK BUILDING.

ASSIGNMENT.

I have finished the manufacture of

CLOTHING,

and my stock is now complete, and my time for disposing of the stock is drawing near. Our bargains are unheard of before in Plainfield. If you have intended buying for yourself or children come now while the stock is complete.

J. F. MacDonald, Assignee

For Schepflin, Schultz & Co.,

318 West Front street, - Plainfield, N. J.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

—Dealers in—

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material, &c.

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

Metropolitan Livery and Boarding Stables.

Horses boarded by the day, week or month. Especial accommodations for transient trade. Office and stables,

147, 149, 151 North Avenue, Opposite Railroad Station.

A. C. Blair, Proprietor. Frank Day, Manager.
Telephone 152, connected with all circuits of New Jersey, New York and Brooklyn.

LYNDHURST, KEATING EAGLE, And Apollo Bicycles.

Charles C. Lister, 134 North Avenue.

Repairing, Renting and Storing.

THEY ARE BEAUTIES

Our Ladies' Kid Welt Oxford with new plain tip, the latest; Russet Kid 3-Button Oxford, something new; our $2 Oxfords are noted for their wear.

ALEX WILLETT & SON, 107 Park Ave.

Open until 9 p. m.

WE PUT ON OUR

ODDS AND ENDS TABLE TODAY

One Haviland Dinner Pattern
One Lot of Fancy Flower Pots
One Lot Glass Dishes
One Lot Fancy Creams

129 East Front street. GAVETT'S.

HALLOCK is showing choice patterns in Percale Shirts with two collars and pair cuffs—and these collars and cuffs are the latest patterns—no old back numbers. Hats and Furnishing Goods.

G. A. HALLOCK,
109 West Front Street.

The Czar,

The Handsomest Wheel Ever Produced.

HIGHEST GRADE MADE.

E. Frank Vail, Agent,
177 NORTH AVE.

$1.00 AT J. F. MacDonald's

UPTOWN GROCERY

Buys $1.00 Worth of Groceries Every Business Day in the Year.

Our goods are sold at a profit so as to enable us to give weight and quality to our customers and have something left for ourselves. No fictitious prices. No man is in business for his health.

J. F. MAC DONALD

Edward C. Mulford,

(Armstrong Mulford, Assistant.)

Real Estate Broker and Fire Insurance.

Office 119 North avenue (opp. railroad station). Money to loan.

Is Your Cook Up at 5?

That's the hour of our morning delivery.

FINEST, FRESHEST SEAFOOD.

ROGERS, 232 West Second street.

Chronicles of Martin Hewitt

BY ARTHUR MORRISON.

THE CASE OF LAKER, ABSCONDED.

(Copyright, 1895, by Bacheller, Johnson & Bacheller.)

V.

By this time a cab was waiting in Lombard street, and two of Plummer's men, under the doctor's directions, carried Laker to it. No sooner, however, were they in the court than the two watching women threw themselves hysterically upon Laker, and it was long before they could be persuaded that he was not being taken to jail. The mother shrieked aloud: "My boy, my boy! Don't take him! Oh, don't take him! They've killed my boy! Look at his head! Oh, his head!" and wrestled desperately with the men, while Hewitt attempted to soothe her, and promised to allow her to go in the cab with her son if she would only be quiet. The younger woman made no noise, but she held one of Laker's limp hands in both hers.

Hewitt and I dined together that evening, and he gave me a full account of the occurrences which I have here set down. Still, when he was finished, I was not able to see clearly by what process of reasoning he had arrived at the conclusions that gave him the key to the mystery, or did I understand the "agony column" message, and I said so.

"In the beginning," Hewitt explained, "the thing that struck me as curious was the fact that Laker was said to have given his own name at Palmer's in buying his ticket. Now, the first thing the greenest and newest criminal thinks of is changing his name, so that the giving of his own name seemed unlikely to begin with. Still, he might have made such a mistake, as Plummer suggested, when he said that criminals usually made a mistake somewhere—as they do, in fact. Still, it was the least likely mistake I could think of, especially as he actually didn't wait to be asked for his name, but blurted it out when it wasn't really wanted. And it was conjoined with another rather curious mistake, or what would have been a mistake, if the thief were Laker. Why should he conspicuously display his wallet—such a distinctive article—for the clerk to see and note? Why, rather had he not got rid of it before showing himself? Suppose it should be somebody personating Laker? In any case, I determined not to be prejudiced by what I had heard of Laker's betting. A man may bet without being a thief.

"But again, supposing it were Laker. Might he not have given his name and displayed his wallet and so on while buying a ticket for France, in order to draw pursuit after himself in that direction, while he made off in another, in another name, and disguised? Each supposition was plausible. And in either case it might happen that, whoever was laying this trail would probably lay it a little further. Charing Cross was the next point, and there I went. I already had it from Plummer that Laker had not been recognized there. Perhaps the trail had been laid in some other manner. Something left behind with Laker's name on it, perhaps? I at once thought of the umbrella with his monogram, and, making a long shot, asked for it at the lost property office, as you know. The guess was lucky. In the umbrella, as you know, I found that scrap of paper. That, I judged, had fallen in from the hand of the man carrying the umbrella. He had torn the paper in half in order to fling it away, and one piece had fallen into the loosely flapping umbrella. It is a thing that will often happen with an omnibus ticket, as you may have noticed. Also, it was proved that the umbrella was unrolled when found, and rolled immediately it was found. There was a piece of paper dropped by the person who had brought the umbrella to Charing Cross and left it.

"THEY'VE KILLED MY BOY."

I got the whole advertisement, as you remember and I studied it. 'Yob' is back-slang for 'boy,' and it is often used in nicknames to denote a young, smooth-faced thief. Gunter, the man I suspect, as a matter of fact, is known as the 'Hoxton Yob.' The message then was addressed to some one known by such a nickname. Next, 'H. R. shop roast.' Now, in thieves' slang, to 'roast' a thing or a person is to watch it or him. They call any place a shop—notably a thieves' den. So that this meant that some resort—perhaps the 'Hoxton Row shop'—was watched. 'You 1st there to-night' would be clearer, perhaps, when the rest was understood. I thought a little over the rest, and it struck me that it must be a direction to some other house, since one was warned of as watched. Besides there was the number 197, and 'red bl.,' which would be extremely likely to mean 'red blinds,' by way of clearly distinguishing the house. And then the plan of the thing was plain. You have noticed, probably, that the map of London, which accompanies the Postoffice directory, is divided for convenience of reference, into numbered squares?"

"Yes. The squares are denoted by letters along the top margin and figures down the side. So that if you consult the directory and find a place marked as being in D5, for instance, you find vertical division D, and run your finger down it till it intersects horizontal division 5, and there you are."

"Precisely. I got my postoffice directory and looked for 'O 2.' It was in North London, and took in parts of Abney Park Cemetery and Clissold Park. 'Second top' was the next sign. Very well. I counted the second street intersecting the top of the square, counting in the usual way, from the left. That was Lordship road. Then '3rd L.' From the point where Lordship road crossed the top of the square I ran my finger down the road till it came to '3rd L.' or, in other words, the third turning on the left. Hackworth road. So there we were, unless my guesses were altogether wrong. 'Straight mon. probably meant 'straight moniker'—that is to say the proper name, a thief's real name, in contradistinction to that he may assume. I turned over the directory till I found Hackworth road, and found that No. 197 was inhabited by a Mr. Merston. From the whole thing I judged this. There was to have been a meeting at the 'H. R. shop,' but that was found at the last moment to be watched by the police for some purpose. So that another appointment was made for this house in the suburbs. 'You 1st. Then to-night'—the person addressed was to come first, and the others in the evening. They were to ask for the housekeeper's 'straight moniker'—Mr. Merston. And they were to come one at a time.

"Now, then what was this?" What theory would fit it? Suppose this were a robbery, directed from afar by the advertiser. Suppose on the day of the robbery it was found that the place fixed for division of spoils were watched. Suppose that the principal thereupon advertised (as had already been agreed in case of emergency) in these terms? The principal in the actual robbery, the 'Yob' addressed, was to go first, with the booty. The others were to come after, one at a time. Anyway, I determined to try No. 197 Hackworth road. I have told you what I found there, and how it opened my eyes. I went, of course, merely on chance, to see what I might chance to see. But luck favored, and I happened on that coat—brought back rolled up, doubtless by the thief who had used it, and flung carelessly into the handiest cupboard. That was this gang's mistake."

MERSTON WAS IN THE ACT OF PACKING UP.

"Well, I congratulate you," I said. "I hope they'll catch the rascals."

"I rather think they will, now they know where to look. They can scarcely miss Merston, anyway. There has been very little to go upon in this case, but I stuck to the thread, however slight, and it brought me through. The rest of the case, of course, is Plummer's. It was a peculiarity of my commission that I could equally well fulfill it by catching the man with all the plunder, or by proving him innocent. Having done the latter my work was at an end, but I left it where Plummer will be able to finish the job handsomely."

Plummer did. Sam Gunter, Merston and one accomplice was taken—the first and last were well known to the police—and were identified by Laker. Merston, as Hewitt had suspected, had kept the lion's share for himself, so that altogether, with what was recovered from him and the other two, nearly £11,000 was saved for Messrs. Liddle, Neal & Liddle. Merston, when taken, was in the act of packing up to take a holiday abroad and then cash his notes, which were found, neatly packed in separate thousands, in his portmanteau. As Hewitt had predicted, his gas bill was considerably less next quarter, for the latter two months of it he spent in gaol.

As for Laker, he was reinstated, of course, with an increase of salary by way of compensation for his broken head. He had passed a terrible twenty-six hours in the cellar, unfed and unheard. Several times he had become insensible, and again and again he had thrown himself madly against the door, shouting and [illegible] until he fell back exhausted, with broken nails and bleeding fingers. For some hours before the arrival of his rescuers he had been sitting in a sort of stupor, from which he was suddenly aroused by the sound of voices and footsteps. He was in bed for a week, and required a rest of a month in addition before he could resume his duties. Then he was quietly lectured by Mr. Neal as to betting, and, I believe, dropped that practice in consequence. I am told that he is "at the counter" now, a considerable promotion.

Something Wrong.

There are people in Detroit whose tempers are not the gentlest, and one of these has an office boy who is rather more observant than most office boys. The other morning about 10 o'clock a visitor came in and asked to see the "old man."

"I guess you can't see him," replied the boy.

"Why not? Isn't he in?"

"Yes, and he has been all morning."

"Then why can't I see him?"

"Something the matter with him, I guess."

"Is he sick?"

"Dunno; but something is, 'cause he ain't swore at me but three times so far to-day."—Detroit Free Press.

How's This!

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.
F. J. Cheney & Co., Props., Toledo, O.

We the undersigned have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

West & Truax, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
Walding, Kinnan & Marvin, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c. per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free.

WM. D. THICKSTUN,

Real Estate and Insurance,

197 North avenue.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

The Standard Railroad of America.

Protected throughout by the Interlocking Switch and Block Signal System.

On and after January 20, 1895

Trains will leave Elizabeth as follows:

Fast Line leaves Philadelphia 12 25 p. m. daily, with Pullman Vestibule Parlor and Dining Cars, for Pittsburg, Northern and Eastern Pennsylvania.

6 35 p. m.—Western Express, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Cars and Dining Car, daily for Pittsburg, Chicago and Cleveland, daily except Saturday, for Toledo, Williamsport, Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls

8 23 p. m.—Southwestern Express, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Car, daily, to Columbus, Cincinnati Indianapolis, St. Louis and Memphis. Dining car Altoona to Richmond.

8 42 p. m.—Pacific Express, with Pullman Vestibule Sleeping Cars, daily, for Pittsburg, Columbus, Chicago and Toledo, daily except Saturday, for Cleveland.

For Baltimore, Washington, and the South—1 00, 9 05, 9 36 a. m., 9 39 p. m. On Sunday, at 1 00, 9 05, 9 36 a. m., and 9 41 p. m.

For Baltimore only, 1 37 p. m., week-days.

For Newark and New York—3 02, 5 34, 5 46 6 17, 6 45, 7 01, 7 29, 7 49 7 57, 8 06, 8 28, 8 33, 8 47 9 17 9 41, 9 48, 10 20, 10 28, 10 49, 11 07, 11 48 a. m 1 13, 1 29, 1 56, 2 24, 2 40, 2 45, 3 27, 3 47, 4 43 5 15, 5 36, 5 48, 6 08, 6 27, 6 48, 6 58, 7 07, 7 22 7 59, 8 17, 9 10, 9 50, 10 03, 11 03, and 11 56 p. m. Sundays, 3 02, 5 34, 7 54, 8 45, 9 20, 9 47, 10 12 10 38, 10 49 a. m., 12 35, 1 44, 2 33, 2 45, 3 45, 4 38 5 34, 5 48, 7 05, 7 12, 7 25, 7 58, 8 30, 9 15, 10 16, 11 46, and 11 56 p. m.

For New York only, 6 10 a. m. daily.

For Philadelphia—1 00, 6 57, 7 59, 9 05, 9 36 11 43 a. m., 12 35, 1 37, 3 33, 5 08, 6 36, 7 46, 8 42 9 39 p. m., Sunday, 1 00, 6 59, 9 05, 9 36, 10 41 a. m., 5 40, 6 37, 7 47, and 9 41 p. m.

For Atlantic City—2 25, p. m., week-days, with through buffet parlor car, Sunday 6 59 a. m.

For Cape May—1 37 p. m. week-days.

For Rahway—1 00, (1 43 daily except Monday) 6 44, 7 10, 7 59, 8 54, 9 46, 9 50, 10 59, 11 43 a. m., 12 46, 1 11, 1 37, 2 48, 3 20, 3 39, 3 59, 4 38, 4 53 5 22, 5 40, 6 00, 6 06, 6 12, 6 17, 6 27, 6 45, 6 55 6 59, 7 20, 7 46, 8 14, 8 55, 9 54, 11 02, 11 45 p. m., and 12 27, night, week-day. Sundays, 1 00 1 43, 6 59, 8 43, 9 49, 10 25, 10 41, and 11 47 a. m 12 50, 1 50, 2 47, 3 28, 4 50, 5 20, 5 40, 7 21, 7 27 7 47, 8 14, 8 47, 9 16, 10 14, 11 00, and 11 55 p. m.

For New Brunswick—1 00, 6 57, 7 10, 7 59 9 05, 9 36, 9 50, 11 43 a. m., 12 35, 1 37, 2 48, 3 59 4 38, 5 08, 5 40, 6 06, 6 45, 7 46, 9 39, and 11 09 p. m. Sundays, 1 00 6 59, 9 05, 9 49, 10 41 a. m. 12 50, 1 50, 5 40, 7 47 9 16, and 9 41 p. m.

For Woodbridge—(1 43 a. m., daily except Monday) 6 44, 9 46, 10 59, a. m., 12 46, 3 20, 4 53 4 44, 6 12, 7 20, 9 54, p. m., and 12 27, night, week-days. Sundays, 1 43, 10 25, 11 47, a. m. and 10 14 p. m.

For Perth Amboy—(1 43, a. m., daily except Monday,) 6 44, 9 46, 10 59, a. m., 12 46, 3 20, 4 53 5 44, 6 12, 7 20, 7 36, 9 54, and 12 27 night, week-days. Sundays, 1 43, 10 25, and 11 47 a. m., and 10 14 p. m.

For East Millstone—7 10 a. m., 12 35, 2 48, 5 42 p. m. week-days

For Trenton—1 00, 6 57, 7 10, 7 59, 9 05, 9 36 11 43 a. m., 12 35, 1 37, 2 48, 5 08, 6 36, 7 46, 8 42 9 39 p. m. Sundays, 1 00, 6 59, 9 05, 9 36, 10 41 a. m., 5 40, 6 37, 7 47, and 9 41 p. m.

For Lambertville, Phillipsburg, and Belvidere, via Trenton—7 59 a. m., 2 48 and 6 36 p. m. and 5 40 p. m., Sunday.

For Flemington—7 59 a. m., and 2 48 p. m.

For Freehold via Monmouth Junction—7 59, 11 43 a. m., 4 38, 5 08 p. m. week-day.

For Jamesburg via Monmouth Junction—7 59, 11 43 a. m., 4 38 5 08 p. m. week-days.

For Long Branch, Asbury Park, Ocean Grove, and points on New York and Long Branch R. R.—9 46 a. m., 12 46, 4 12, 5 44 p. m. and 12 27 night, week-days. Sundays 10 2 a. m., and 5 44 p. m., do not stop at Asbury Park and Ocean Grove on Sundays.

For Seaside Park, Island Heights, and Toms River—12 46 p. m., week-days.

For Boston—3 46 p. m., daily.

For Brooklyn, N. Y.—All through trains connect at Jersey City with boats to Brooklyn annex, affording direct transfer to and from Fulton street, avoiding double ferriage and journey across New York city.

Leave New York for Elizabeth—(1 00 daily except Monday) 6 00, 6 30, 7 20, 8 10, 8 30, 9 00, 9 10 10 10, 11 00 a. m., 12 00 noon, 12 10, 12 20, 1 00, 2 10 2 30, 3 00, 3 20, 4 00, 4 10 4 30, 4 40, 5 00 5 10 5 20, 5 30 5 40 5 50, 6 00 6 10, 6 20 6 40, 7 00, 7 30, 8 15, 9 15 10 15, 11 00, 11 50 p. m., 12 15 night. Sundays 1 00, 6 15, 8 10, 9 00, 9 45, 10 00, 11 00 a. m., 12 00 noon, 1 00, 2 00, 2 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 6 30, 6 45 7 00, 7 30 8 00, 8 30, 9 30, 10 15, 11 00 p. m., and 12 15 night.

S. M PREVOST,
General Manager.
J. R. WOOD,
General Passenger Agent

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

New York Mails.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11 a. m., 2:30, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7 and 9:20 a. m., 1:45, 5 and 7:30 p. m.

Somerville and Easton Mails.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:40, 6:30 p. m.
Close—7:15 a. m., 4:30 p. m.
Warrenville mail arr. 12 m; closes 9:30 a. m.

Sunday Mails.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

List of Advertised Letters

Plainfield postoffice, May 7, 1895.

(Officially furnished weekly for publication in The Daily Press.)

Appissa Acostino	Mighore Clemente
Balzarino Teresino	Mulligan Ellen
Brumby Maude	Manry Mamie
Chase Charles	Mijbnan Mrs
Connelly John	Moore Mrs Rhoda
Cohen Rev M	"Nanna"
Croy P W	Partilo Sig Guiseppi
Cecere Tabeta	Peccorell Guiseppi
Edwards Kate (2)	Parry Preston
Ellis Mrs Mary	Ruskine Robt
Ewing Mrs Wm	Runyon J H
Haddon Patrick	Ryno Joel
Hoffman Mrs	Ryen John
Hagie Fred	Smith David L
Ingraham Walter	Stein T W
Jackson Henry	Schaffer J
Kenin David	Steward Hiram
Kocher H J	Surphen Prime (2)
Kimball Miss M	Tevis E L
Kuzbert Mr	Vernon Mrs G E
Katrick Miss	Vitelli Domenico
Kranter Robert	Vetromilo Leonardo
Larid (agt) Mr	Vernon Mrs R R
Martone Sig Angelo	Woodruff S V

Removal.

I have removed my watchmaking and jewelry business from Park avenue to 142 North avenue, next to Walker's bakery, and shall be pleased to have my friends call.

CALEB DICKINSON.

E. H. Holmes,

Dealer in

COAL AND WOOD.

Yard—No. 208 Madison avenue.
Office for coal orders with Woolston & Buckle, 145 North ave.

Jones & Co.,

EXCAVATORS.

Cesspools and sinks thoroughly cleaned. Attention given to sanitary condition. Buildings, cellars, etc., disinfected. All work done under experienced manager.

Cesspools Built.

Joseph E. Mosher,

agent for

War claims Att'ys., Washington, D. C. H. J. Hayden Co.,

All claims put in our hands will receive prompt attention. Call at the Crescent Cigar Store for fine cigars.

Finest Elgin Creamery Butter, 20c.
Best Dairy Butter 18c.
Finest Dairy Butter 15c.

V. L. FRAZEE,

151 West Front st.

Central Railroad of New Jersey.

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Station in New York foot of Liberty Street.

Time Table in Effect May 12, 1895.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 38 6 05, 6 29, 6 59, 7 25, 7 30, 7 58, 8 00, 8 15 8 27, 8 31 8 48 9 32, 10 04, 10 27, 10 59 a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 29, 6 49, 7 01, 8 30 9 23, 10 17, 11 28, p.m Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 05, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 10 59, 11 16, a m; 12 33, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17, p m.

Leave New York, Foot Liberty St., at 4 30, 6 00 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00, 11 45, a m; 1 10, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 30, 5 00 5 15, (ex pt saturdays) 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 00, 10 15, 11 30, p m; 12 15, 1 00, night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 15, 9 00, 9 15, a m; 12 10 m; 1 00, 2 30, 4 00 5 30, 7 00, 9 00, 10 00, p m; 12 15 night, 1 00 a m

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 38, 6 29, 6 59, 7 28, 7 30, 8 00, 8 48, 9 22, 10 04 10 27, a m; 12 06, 1 18, 2 07, 2 30, 3 12, 3 51, 4 48, 5 29, 6 40, 7 03, 8 30, 10 17, 11 28, p m. Sunday 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16 a m; 12 35, 1 45, 3 30, 5 36, 7 11, 8 23, 8 32, 10 17 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 18, 7 55, 8 39, 9 03, 10 05, 11 25, a m; 1 15, 1 35, 2 20, (Saturdays only) 2 50, 3 35, 4 05, 4 40, 5 04, 5 34, 5 50, 6 29, 7 15 7 55, 8 40, 10 05, 11 25, p m Sunday 7 30, 9 05, 9 35, 11 35 a m; 1 10, 2 35, 4 05, 5 40, 7 20, 9 25, 10 20 p m.

Passengers for Newark please change cars at Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 45, 7 10, 8 16, 9 54, 11 00 a m; 12 46, 2 11, 2 32, 3 45, 4 36, 5 05, 5 14, 5 34, 6 04, 6 19, 6 58, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 26, 11 23, p m; 12 38 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 28, 9 55, a m; 2 05, 3 43, 5 14, 6 35, 10 15, 11 14 p m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7 00, 7 25, 7 35, 7 48, 8 20, 9 05, 9 48, 11 40 a. m; 12 50, 1 48, 2 05, 3 25, 4 25, 5 03, 6 35, 8 07, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 35 a m; 12 08, 1 20, 5 10, 6 45, 8 05, 8 05, 9 40 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 45, 8 16, 9 54 a m., 12 46, 2 11, 5 05, 5 14, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 28, a m; 2 03, 6 35 p m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 00, 8 53 a m; 12 32, 3 42, 7 00, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 10 52 a m; 6 40, 7 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield at 9 54 a. m.; 5 05 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 45 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua

7 10 a m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 16 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a m.—For Flemington, High Bridge Branch D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke, and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c. Through coach to Williamsport.

12 46 p m., way for Easton, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R

2 11 p m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 05 p. m., way for Easton, connecting with High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

5 14 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Scranton, Wilkesbarre, Tamaqua, Shamokin, (buffet parlor car to Scranton)

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington,

6 38 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg

8 21 p. m.—For Easton, Bethlehem and Allentown.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

8 28 a. m. Sundays—For Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Reading, and Harrisburg.

6 35 p. m Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, &c., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, 8 00, 10 27, a. m., 1 18, 3 51, 5 29, p. m. Sunday, (except Ocean Grove) 8 52 a. m; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 38, 8 00, 10 27, a m., 1 18, 3 51, 4 48, 5 29, 7 03, p m; Sundays 8 52 a. m; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a m; 1 18 p m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 00, 10 27 a m; 1 18, 3 51, 5 29 p m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a m; 2 17*, 5 34*, 6 45, 8 21, 9 37*, 10 53, p m 1 17 night. Sundays 5 45, 9 55 10 44 a m; 4 55*, 6 45 p m 1 17 night

For Trenton, 5 45, 8 44, 9 46*, a m. 12 46, 2 17*, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, 9 37*, 10 53, p m, 1 17 night. Sundays 5 45, 9 55 a. m., 4 55, 5 34*, 6 35*, p. m, 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 8 44, 10 44 a m, 5 34*, 6 45 p m, 1 17 night. Sundays, 10 44 a. m., 5 14*, 6 45 p m, 1 17 night

For Chattanooga, New Orleans and all points South, with through vestibuled sleeping cars via Shenandoah Valley Line, at 5 34* p. m Sunday 5 14* p. m.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m., 8 21 p. m. Sunday 6 35 p. m

Plainfield passengers by trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent.

A Full Assortment of

Stationery

AT

HARPER'S,

411 Park avenue.

Fred Endress,

Dealer in

All Kinds of Choice Meats.

Jersey Pork and Poultry a Specialty.

203 Liberty street.

H. HAND,

Licensed Auctioneer.

15 Years Experience

Residence and postoffice address
Scotch Plains, N. J.

Office in Plainfield at Terrill & Cole's livery 200 West 2d st.

Prof. A. Wehner,

TEACHER OF

The Pianoforte.

Also Voice Culture.

Graduate of the Conservatory of Leipzic, Germany, desires a few more pupils in Plainfield. References required and given. Address letters to the office of this paper.

Lodge and Society Meetings.

Senate Lodge, 3543, Knights of Honor—The regular meetings of this Lodge are held on the first and third Thursday eveningsof each month in Stillman Building, No. 212 West Front street, at 8 p. m.
John Fellows, Dictator.
R. A. Frey, Reporter.

Court Pride of New Jersey, No. 8024, Ancient Order of Foresters of America, meets in K. of P. Hall, No. 108 West 2d street, first and third Tuesday evenings in each month.
Samuel J. Flynn, Chief Ranger.
Samuel H. Lunger, Fin. Sec.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays in the Babcock Building.
C. C. Howard, W. M.
T. A. Rogers, Sec.

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M.—Meets first and third Tuesdays at Masonic Hall, East Front street.
D. C. Adams, W. M.
Charles Yeager, Sec.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum—The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. M. Rea, Regent.
H. A. Thorne, Secretary.

Lawyers.

W. K. McClure,
COUNSELOR AT LAW.
Supreme Court Commissioner.
First National Bank Building.

W. R. Codington's
LAW OFFICES,
Corner Park ave. and 2d st.
Solicitor and Master in Chancery.
Notary Public.

The Sign on the Window Reads
Woolston & Buckle,
Paper Hangers.
We have had the door hinges and latch oiled up so that getting in is easy. So also is the getting out. Prices are so low on Wall Papers that you will buy before you go.

It's a Fact that we sell
Men's and Boys' Clothing,
Hats, Shirts, Underwear, Ties, etc., cheaper than any house in town. Buying from merchants who are pressed for cash we buy our goods at our own price and sell them cheap.
Everything sold is fully recommended or money refunded. Boys' School Suits from $1.25. Boys' Long Pants Suits $2 up. Men's Serviceable Suits $3.50 to $6; Men's Suits for dress wear $5.50 and upwards; Derbys equal to any $3 hat at $1.50.
It is to your benefit to examine our goods before buying elsewhere.
Plainfield Bargain House.
J. Goldstein, 126 Park Avenue.

GEO J. TOBIN,
187 North Avenue.
Practical Plumber.
Contractor for plumbing, steam and hot water heating, drainage, sewerage, ventilation and water supply; testing ventilation and sewer lines under hydraulic and air pressure. This should be done before connecting with new sewer.
Telephone Call 158a.

TELEPHONE 58.
Ring it up when you want good coal, and talk to
Geo. O. Stevens.

N. E. King,
High-Class
PORTRAITS
In Crayon, Pastel and Water Colors.
483 Lexington ave.,
Brooklyn, N. Y.
Refers by permission to John A. Thiekstun, L. B. Woolston, J. L. Blackford, L. W. Randolph, A. L. Force. Further information at the drug store of L. W. Randolph or office of The Daily Press, where specimen of work can be seen.

CONFECTIONS,
Fresh, and from
Pure Materials.
TIER'S,
116 Park Avenue.

IS IT THE END?

A Time of Great Mortality.

Especially Noticeable in Children. — Will Man Cease to Exist? — Can the "Omega" be Averted?

Why is it, with our improved sanitary appliances, our care to obtain fresh air, pure food, and plenty of exercise, the observance, in fact, of every hygienic law, that in spite of every care each succeeding generation seems to become weaker and shorter lived? Is it that we are now suffering for indiscretions of our ancestors, or is that terrible, unknown end of man at hand?

Whatever the cause, the existing condition of things is too apparent. Especially is this noticeable with he babies. Instead of the mother's life-giving milk, they are compelled to begin a struggle for existence with the bottle. The result in many cases is disastrous. The little one, failing to obtain necessary nourishment, grows weaker daily, until death ends the struggle. The end in these cases is Simply Starvation.

With this termination so often the case, the best physicians of the day have resorted to the use of Bovinine, that great and original raw food product, as a means to save the babies.

In this connection Dr. A. B. Robinson, 61 Dudley St., Boston, after commending Bovinine most highly for various complications where the waste of disease must be checked, and new blood, flesh, and strength created to effect a cure, says ncerning this life-creating preparation, With feeble, bottle-fed babies, a small mount added to the milk has in my ractice saved many children."

Bovinine is not a medicine, but a life-maintaining, flesh, bone, and blood-making preparation that contains the greatest amount of nourishment in the least possible bulk.

Give it to the little ones while there is still hope. Your physician, if you ask him, will recommend it, and you will bless the results obtained forever.

PLAINFIELD Machine Works,
Manufacturers of Steam Engin s
Electric motors and dynamos. Shafting and mill work generally. Jobbing in all its branches Prompt attention given to repairing of steam engines, boilers, bicycles, etc. Piping in all its branches. Give us a call.
N. C. Magee, Manager. Works cor. Richmond and E. 3d st., Plainfield.

Wall Paper,
Wall Paper.
Wall Paper Bargains
5, 6, 8, 10c Roll.
Also all the best papers for the fine trade. Competent men employed to hang our papers.
Rugs, Window Shades, Mouldings, Varnishes, Paints, Kalsomine, Tinting Colors, Oils, Artists' Materials, Cigars.
LOVE,
Cor. North and Watchung aves.

H. DE MOTT,
Undertaker and Embalmer,
59 Somerset street, Plainfield, N. J.
Livery attached.

CLEANER COAL.
L. A. Rheaume
Agent.
Watchung Ave., Corner 4th St.,
Invites the public to inspect the operation of his newly added steam vibrating mechanical screen for nut coal, which he confidently believes enables him to deliver cleaner coal than is possible by any other method of screening.
Upper Lehigh and Honeybrook Coal
in best qualities and various sizes carried in stock.
Rough and Dressed Lumber.
He would also announce recently increased facilities for turning and scroll sawing, and is prepared to execute orders for the same in the best manner and at short notice.

CHOICE
Lawn Seeds, Garden Seeds & Fertilizers.
Lawn Mowers Repaired, Plumbing, Tinning and Hardware.
A. M. GRIFFEN,
119 East Front St.

Real Estate, Insurance.
VanBuren & Timpson,
163 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

SKETCHES OF LINCOLN.

The Hanks Girls at a Camp Meeting.

THOMAS LINCOLN AS A FARMER.

Abraham's First School Days — Dennis Hanks' Remembrance of the Olden Days. The Lincoln Family Cabin—An Unsightly Frontier Structure.

[From "The Life of Lincoln" by William H. Herndon and Jesse W. Weik. Copyright, 1888, by Jesse W. Weik. Copyright, 1892, by D. Appleton & Co.]

II.

As a family the Hankses were peculiar to the civilization of early Kentucky. Illiterate and superstitious, they correspond to that nomadic class still to be met with throughout the south and known as "poor whites." They are happily and vividly depicted in the description of a camp meeting held at Elizabethtown, Ky., in 1806, which was furnished me in August, 1865, by an eyewitness. "The Hanks girls," narrates the latter, "were great at camp meetings. I remember one in 1806. I will give you a scene, and if you will then read the books written on the subject you may find some apology for the superstition that was said to be in Abe Lincoln's character. It was at a camp meeting, as before said, when a general shout was about to commence. Preparations were being made. A young lady invited me to stand on a bench by her side where we could see all over the altar. To the right a strong, athletic young man, about 25 years old, was being put in trim for the occasion, which was done by divesting him of all apparel except shirt and pants. On the left a young lady was being put in trim in much the same manner, so that her clothes would not lie in the way and so that when her combs flew out her hair would go into graceful braids. She, too, was young, not more than 20 perhaps. The performance commenced about the same time by the young man on the right and the young lady on the left. Slowly and gracefully they worked their way toward the center, singing, shouting, hugging and kissing, generally their own sex, until at last nearer and nearer they came. The center of the altar was reached, and the two closed, with their arms around each other, the man singing and shouting at the top of his voice:

"I have Jesus in my arms,
Sweet as honey, strong as bacon ham,

"Just at this moment the young lady holding to my arm whispered, 'They are to be married next week. Her name is Hanks.' There were very few who did not believe this true religion, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and the man who could not believe it did well to keep it to himself. The Hankses were the finest singers and shouters in our country."

Here my informant stops, and on account of his death several years ago I failed to learn whether the young lady shouter who figured in the foregoing scene was the president's mother or not. The fact that Nancy Hanks did marry that year gives color to the belief that it was she. As to the probability of the young man being Thomas Lincoln it is difficult to say. Such a performance as the one described must have required a little more emotion and enthusiasm than the sandy and inert carpenter was in the habit of manifesting.

Sarah, the sister of Abraham Lincoln, though in some respects like her brother, lacked his stature. She was thickset, had dark brown hair, deep gray eyes and an even disposition. She was married to Aaron Grigsby, in Spencer county, Ind., in the month of August, 1826, and died Jan. 20, 1828. Her brother accompanied her to school while they lived in Kentucky, but as he was only 7, and as she had not yet finished her ninth year when their father removed with them to Indiana, it is to be presumed that neither made much progress in the matter of school education. Still it is authoritatively stated that they attended two schools during this short period. One of these was kept by Zachariah Riney, the other by Caleb Hazel. It is difficult at this late day to learn much of the boy Abraham's life during those seven years of residence in Kentucky. One man, who was a clerk in the principal store in the village where the Lincolns purchased their family supplies, remembers him as a "small boy who came sometimes to the store with his mother. He would take his seat on a keg of nails, and I would give him a lump of sugar. He would sit there and eat it like any other boy, but these little acts of kindness," observes my informant in an enthusiastic statement made in 1865, "so impressed his mind that I made a steadfast friend in a man whose power and influence have since been felt throughout the world."

A schoolmate of Lincoln at Hazel's school, speaking of the master, says: "He perhaps could teach spelling and reading and indifferent writing and possibly could cipher to the rule of three, but he had no other qualification of a teacher, unless we accept large size and bodily strength. Abe was a mere spindle of a boy, had his due proportion of harmless mischief, but as we lived in a country abounding in hazel switches, in the virtue of which the master had great faith, Abe of course received his due allowance."

This part of the boy's history is painfully vague and dim, and even after arriving at man's estate Mr. Lincoln was significantly reserved when reference was made to it. It is rarely mentioned in the autobiography furnished to Fell in 1859. John Duncan, afterward a preacher of some prominence in Kentucky, relates how he and Abe on one occasion ran a ground hog into a crevice between two rocks, and after working vainly almost two hours to get him out "Abe ran off about a quarter of a mile to a blacksmith shop and returned with an iron hook fastened to the end of a pole," and with this rude contrivance they virtually "hooked" the animal out of his retreat. Austin Gollaher of Hodgensville claims to have saved Lincoln from drowning one day as they were trying to "coon it" across Knob creek on a log. The boys were in pursuit of birds when young Lincoln fell into the water, and his vigilant companion, who still survives to narrate the thrilling story, fished him out with a sycamore branch.

Meanwhile Thomas Lincoln was becoming daily more dissatisfied with his situation and surroundings. He had purchased since his marriage, on the easy terms then prevalent, two farms or tracts of land in succession. No terms were easy enough for him, and the land, when the time for the payment of the purchase money rolled around, reverted to its former owner.

Starting Life Anew.

Having determined on emigrating to Indiana, he began preparations for removal in the fall of 1816 by building for his use a flatboat. Loading it with his tools and other personal effects, including in the invoice, as we are told, 400 gallons of whisky, he launched his "crazy craft" on a tributary of Salt creek known as the Rolling Fork. Along with the current he floated down to the Ohio river, but his rudely made vessel, either from the want of experience in its navigator or because of its ill adaptation to withstand the force and caprices of the currents in the great river, capsized one day, and boat and cargo went to the bottom. The luckless boatman set to work, however, and by dint of great patience and labor succeeded in recovering the tools and the bulk of the whisky. Righting his boat, he continued down the river, landing at a point called Thompson's Ferry, in Perry county, on the Indiana side.

The head of the household now set resolutely to work to build a shelter for his family.

The structure, when completed, was 14 feet square and was built of small hewed logs. In the language of the day it was called a "half faced camp," being inclosed on all sides but one. It had neither floor, door nor windows. In this forbidding hovel these doughty emigrants braved the exposure of the varying seasons for an entire year. At the end of that time Thomas and Betsy Sparrow followed, bringing with them Dennis Hanks, and to them Thomas Lincoln surrendered the "half faced camp," while he moved into a more pretentious structure—a cabin inclosed on all sides.

HOUSE IN WHICH THOMAS LINCOLN DIED

Thomas Lincoln, with the aid of the Hankses and Sparrows, was for a time an attentive farmer. The implements of agriculture then in use were as rude as they were rare, and yet there is nothing to show that in spite of the slow methods then in vogue he did not make commendable speed. "We raised corn mostly," relates Dennis, "and some wheat—enough for a cake Sunday morning. Hog and venison hams were a legal tender and coon skins also. We raised sheep and cattle, but they did not bring much. Cows and calves were only worth $6 to $8, corn 10 cents and wheat 25 cents a bushel."

So with all his application and frugality the head of this ill assorted household made but little headway in the accumulation of the world's goods. We are told that he was indeed a poor man, and that during his entire stay in Indiana his land barely yielded him sufficient return to keep his larder supplied with the commonest necessaries of life. His skill as a hunter—though never brought into play unless at the angered demand of a stomach hungry for meat—in no slight degree made up for the lack of good management in the cultivation of his land. His son Abraham never evinced the same fondness for hunting, although his cousin Dennis with much pride tells us how he could kill a wild turkey on the wing. "At that time," relates one of the latter's playmates, descanting on the abundance of wild game, "there were a great many deer licks, and Abe and myself would go to these licks sometimes and watch of nights to kill deer, though Abe was not so fond of a gun or the sport as I was."

The cabin to which the Lincoln family removed after leaving the little half faced camp to the Sparrows was in some respects a pretentious structure. It was of hewed logs and was 18 feet square. It was high enough to admit of a loft, where Abe slept and to which he ascended each night by means of pegs driven in the wall. The rude furniture was in keeping with the surroundings. Three legged stools answered for chairs. The bedstead, made of poles fastened in the cracks of the logs on one side and supported by a crotched stick driven in the ground floor on the other, was covered with skins, leaves and old clothes. A table of the same finish as the stools, a few pewter dishes, a Dutch oven and a skillet completed the household outfit. In this uninviting frontier structure the future president was destined to pass the greater part of his boyhood. Withal his spirits were light, and it cannot be denied that he must have enjoyed unrestrained pleasure in his surroundings. It is related that one day the only thing that graced the dinner table was a dish of roasted potatoes. The elder Lincoln, true to the custom of the day, returned thanks for the blessing. The boy, realizing the scant proportions of the meal, looked up into his father's face and irreverently observed, "Dad, I call these"—meaning the potatoes—"mighty poor blessings."

Abrupt Nature.

In his eleventh year he began that marvelous and rapid growth in stature for which he was so widely noted in the Pigeon creek settlement. "As he shot up," says Turnham, "he seemed to change in appearance and action. Although quick witted and ready with an answer, he began to exhibit deep thoughtfulness and was so often lost in studied reflection we could not help noticing the strange turn in his actions. He disclosed rare timidity and sensitiveness, especially in the presence of men and women, and although cheerful enough in the presence of the boys he did not appear to seek our company as earnestly as before." It was only the development we find in the history of every boy. Nature was a little abrupt in the case of Abraham Lincoln. She tossed him from the nimbleness of boyhood to the gravity of manhood in a single night.

A Realized Premonition.

Describing Mr. Lincoln's last visit to her in February, 1861, she (his stepmother) broke into tears and wept bitterly. "I did not want Abe to run for president," she sobbed, "and did not want to see him elected. I was afraid that something would happen to him, and when he came down to see me, after he was elected president, I still felt, and my heart told me, that something would befall him, and that I should never see him again. Abe and his father are in heaven now, I am sure, and I expect soon to go there and meet them."

A Striking Figure.

Lincoln used to come to our office—Stuart's and mine—in Springfield from New Salem and borrow lawbooks. Sometimes he walked, but generally rode. He was the most uncouth looking young man I ever saw. He seemed to have but little to say; seemed to feel timid, with a tinge of sadness visible in the countenance, but when he did talk all this disappeared for the time, and he demonstrated that he was both strong and acute. He surprised us more and more at every visit.—Henry B. Dummer, Statement, Sept. 16, 1865.

Piano Bargains!

VANDERBEEK & SATTELS

desire to say that they have just received a fine lot of
NEW PIANOS
of different makes which they will sell at prices never before offered. Among them are those wonderful
Behr Brothers' Pianos, also Behning & Sons'.
They represent also the Knabe, Hazleton, Chickering and many others. They offer from time to time excellent
Bargains in Second-Hand Pianos.
221 PARK AVENUE.

EVERYBODY KNOWS
That Fulper Sells the Best Goods at LOWEST PRICES.

Granulated sugar	4½c	4 lbs French prunes extra	25c
2 cans Columbia riversalmon flat	25c.	Butter finest creamery	20c
4 lbs rice	17c	Butter choice table	16c
5 boxes sardines in oil	23c	Cheese finest creamery	10c
5 lbs best hominy	12c	Coffee best Java and Mocha special	31c
5 lbs jelly (all flavors)	17c	Tea all kinds	19c

FULPER'S, 207 WEST FRONT ST

DO YOU KNOW THAT
Amos H. VanHorn, L't'd,
73 Market st., Near Plane st., Newark,
Are doing better by purchasers in their line than any other house in the trade? If you doubt it, why just call at number 73
—Get their prices and see the big inducements they are offering. For instance:
PARLOR SUITS. We are giving a Moquette Rug, size 27x54, and a Parlor Table with every Parlor Suit sold.
CARPETS. We are making and laying all of our carpets with paper without charge, which is a saving of 15 cents per yard.
BEDROOM SUITS. We are the only house in the city that is giving a Woven Wire Bed Spring and a Mixed Mattress with every bedroom suit sold.
MATTINGS. We pride ourselves that we have the largest stock of fancy mattings in the city, and at lowest prices. Good Japanese matting at only 15 cents per yard.
NOTE THE NAME AND NUMBER BEFORE ENTERING THE STORE.
PORTLAND RANGES. Any one who wants a range should not buy one until they have called and examined the Famous Portland Range. Over 7,000 now in use and every one warranted. Easy terms. Goods delivered free to all parts of the State.
Storing furniture—It must be true what everybody says, for those who have seen the rooms in our New Storage Building, put up expressly for storing furniture, at 88, 90 and 92 Bank street, say that it is the finest in the State for cleanliness and low rates.
TELEPHONE 330.
AMOS H. VAN HORN, Limited,
73 Market st., Near Plane st., Newark, N. J.

DeWitt C. Ivins & Co.,
301-311 WATCHUNG AVE.,
—DEALERS IN—
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Materials, &c.
Agents for King's Windsor Asbestos Cement for Walls and Ceilings.

POPULAR POWDER at POPULAR PRICES.
BORATED TALCUM
At 10 Cents a Box.
LEGGETT'S PHARMACY.

CLEVELAND BICYCLES
The Great Leaders of 1895.
Design, Improvements, Workmanship, Quality, Speed, Health, Pleasure, Business, Road, Track.
The Fastest, Strongest, Handsomest and Most Rigid Wheel.
The "Swell Specials" are a decided advance in bicycle construction and when quality alone is considered will always sell.
Liberty, Crescent, Waverly, Majestic.
We thoroughly believe in the merits of the above wheels, and unhesitatingly recommend them.
Frank L. C. Martin Cycle Company,
333 PARK AVENUE.
REPAIRS. Established 1889. RENTALS.

SO WAGS THE WORLD.

Those who knew him best would never have suspected it. He, Charley Brown, actually in the meshes of love, frightfully, sentimentally, desperately in love. And with whom? A girl he confessed who did not care a snap for him—Mary Chisholm, rich, cultured, traveled, cynical and proud. Isn't that the way the world wags? He could have had the best girl in his set. He could have married wealth, family, beauty, talent, anything. But no, he must fall in love with Miss Chisholm. Why? Doubtless, because she did not care for him.

"Look here, Brown," said Van Tweet, one day, in Brown's room, throwing one leg over the other and looking his friend straight in the eye; "something very serious is the matter. Don't try to flim-flam me, for you know you can't. I have quietly studied you for some time, and diagnosed your case very carefully. You are in love. Come now, who is she? Out with it?

It was that same old hypnotic power which he exercised over all men and all women, too, that made Charlie Brown relinquish all resistance to Van Tweet's appeal.

"All right," said Brown, after a moment's reflection, "I'll trust you with my secret on your promise of silence."

Leaning his elbows on the side of the chair and folding his hands loosely before him, he began:

"I have been like Tantalus, the possessor of a ravished heart, ever since I met Miss Chisholm at the beach last season."

"Oh, it's Chisholm, is it?" said Van Tweet, interrupting him.

"I don't know what possessed me to fall in love with her," continued Brown, "but she provoked me."

"That's right, the woman is always to blame," put in Van Tweet.

"She provoked me by her infernal indifference. There she was, the conscious center of a lot of fellows, all trying to make themselves agreeable, offering to do all sorts of nonsensical things, and chattering the veriest buncombe; and she only laughing at them, laughing at them like a queen might at a roomfull of gibbering parrots. Ye gods, I could see it! She thought she was too good for the lot."

"And most likely she was right in her conclusion," said Van Tweet. "What did that concern you? Did you try to make a parrot of yourself as well?"

"Try?" echoed Brown, "try? Great Scott, I was the worst of them all."

"And so things went on, until one day we were all in the surf together, and it fell to my happy lot to rescue Miss Chisholm from drowning. I don't know why I didn't let her drown; but it seemed a pity to be a good swimmer and see a fellow creature carried off her feet by a big wave, turned upside down in the most ungraceful pose imaginable, and not stretch out a hand. Before I could give way to my first sinister impulse I was swimming out and diving after her. It was a more serious matter than I had reasoned. Expert swimmer as she is, she completely lost her senses and folded her arms around my neck as impulsively as if we had been old acquaintances. All this occurred under water, or I shouldn't have minded it half as much. Anyhow, I rescued her, together with about a ton of salt water, which made me sick for a week, and after that we were worse enemies than ever.

"I say we," continued Brown, "but that is a little too sweeping. By what process I know not; but from the moment I held her in my arms and dragged her limp and dripping to where her mother and brother could lay hands on her, I felt—I felt—"

"Your heart giving way—unconditional surrender," said Van Tweet in his matter-of-fact tone.

"By Jove, I must be crazy!" exclaimed Brown, "to care a whiff for a girl that hates me."

"You're sure she hates you?"

"Oh, I have no doubt of it," said Brown. "The first time we met after that little incident she blushed—that was a tribute to the remembrance of her discomfiture; she thanked me very formally; she almost dropped her eyes so as to avoid mine. I told her it was a happiness I should never forget to have been of some slight service to her, and then we parted in our usual formal way; but somebody told me that she was crying with vexation after we separated. Her mother had the decency to invite me to call at the house, and her brother assured me that his sister would take it as a personal pleasure if I would do so. I promised, but mentally resolved never to keep my word. A few days afterward the season closed and the bathers left the resort and went back to the city."

Van Tweet found that he was dealing with a case of mental perversity that nothing less than an ax, or, as Brown himself had said, trepanning, could be expected to remedy. And so, half in anger, half in jest, they parted.

The next morning Miss Chisholm received the following letter by mail:

"MY DEAR MISS CHISHOLM—Will you pardon me if I avail myself so late of a long standing invitation to call, and may I hope to find you at home this evening? Cordially yours,

"P. R. VAN TWEET."

And this was Miss Chisholm's answer:

"MY DEAR MR. VAN TWEET—I shall be very happy to see you. Very cordially, MARY L. CHISHOLM."

Van Tweet found Miss Chisholm both cordial and radiant. They talked about the latest book of short stories, and finally fell into one of those delightful processes of analyzing people they both knew, which passes under the charitable designation of the "small talk of society." And then Van Tweet brought Brown on the tapis.

"You know Charlie Brown, of course?" he began. Miss Chisholm smiled in a way that did not commit her to any sentiment on the subject of Charlie Brown. "Oh, very well. He favors me occasionally with a formal call," she said.

"Well, you ought to know him better," said Van Tweet in his peculiar, matter of fact way; "he is really a remarkable character. Of course you read in to-day's Beagle how he acquitted himself in that row last night?"

"A row—Mr. Brown?" asked Miss Chisholm with a manifestation of mild surprise; "is Mr. Brown in the habit of engaging in rows?"

"Oh, you haven't read it then?"

Miss Chisholm admitted that the general news of the day had no attraction for her, and that she was not a careful reader of the Beagle, much to her regret, since Mr. Van Tweet happened to be one of its shining lights. Van Tweet produced a copy of the Beagle and read:

"Shortly past 11 o'clock last night, as Mr. Charles W. Brown, the well-known club man, was going home, he heard a woman's voice calling for help near the corner of Waldon street and Verona avenue, which is rather dark at that hour. Running in the direction of the cries he saw three ruffians bending over the prostrate body of an old man, and a young lady a short distance away screaming for assistance.

"Pausing only long enough to take in the situation, Mr. Brown, under cover of the deep shadows cast by the houses, ran to the assistance of the prostrate man, dealing the first ruffian a blow that sent him sprawling into the gutter, and giving the second a love tap on the angle of the jaw that made him forget the day of the week. The third man clinched, but in a trice Mr. Brown had thrown the fellow over his head and was complete master of the situation. As soon as the assailants could gather themselves together they fled, leaving Mr. Brown in undisputed possession of the field.

"It seems that Mr. Brown, in the struggle with the last of the three men, was wounded by a knife thrust. He was able to walk home, but bled profusely, and is under the care of a surgeon. At the time of going to press no interview could be obtained with Mr. Brown, and the physician declines to state whether his injuries are serious."

Miss Chisholm had listened to the account with a pale face and trembling lips, and when Van Tweet folded up the paper and tossed it carelessly on the table he saw her eyes filled with tears and her hands clasped.

"Oh, the poor fellow!" she exclaimed in a burst of sudden sympathy. "I hope he will not die!"

After all, thought Van Tweet, she feels only a broad sympathy that would be extended to any other man no matter how obscure. She doesn't love him. But Miss Chisholm's face wore a deathly pallor as she bade him good night, that left Van Tweet in a quandary after all.

That night Brown was much improved, and Van Tweet was admitted to his room. Mingling with the odor of iodoform and carbolic acid, Van Tweet's olfactories were able to distinguish the scent of roses that came from an enormous bouquet on a small table near the invalid's bedside. Brown himself was in bright spirits. He held out his hand with a happy smile.

"Are you sufficiently alive to talk?" asked Van Tweet.

"Talk away, old fellow, and I'll answer you. After all, it didn't amount to much, though the doctor says it came mighty near penetrating my pericardium."

"Phlebotomy seems to have done you some good. I haven't seen you in such a lively state of mind since you fell in love with Miss Chisholm," said Van Tweet, slyly.

"Yes," said Brown with a smile; "the operation on my heart has done me much good in that connection."

He pointed to the flowers. "Aren't they refreshing?" he asked.

"Very beautiful," said Van Tweet, hardly noticing them. "From your landlady, I suppose?"

"No!" said Brown in a sonorous tone; "from Miss Chisholm."

Van Tweet tipped his chair back so far that he nearly lost his balance.

"Get out!" he exclaimed. "The age of miracles is over."

Brown sat up in bed using his two hands as a prop to support himself, and writhing with pain. "Van," said he, after a pause, "if this infernal wound doesn't put me hors de combat I'll marry Miss Chisholm in six months."

Brown smiled as he had not smiled in months. "I had left her house but a few moments before that scrimmage occurred in Waldon street," he began. "I called to be very formal. I was going to continue in the rigid course of deportment I had laid out for myself. Somehow your words kept ding-donging through my head. I felt that after all a woman like that had rights which we common mortals are bound to respect, and I said to myself to be a moral coward and tremble because a woman may turn you down is almost as bad as to run when your manhood is assaulted. It was a hard fight, but I made it. And—"

"She accepted you?" asked Van Tweet.

"No; she was not to be had so cheaply; but after we had been talking fifteen minutes I saw that I had been mistaken and was not altogether indifferent to her, as you put it. In fifteen minutes more her pride had melted like wax, and I left her with a strong impression that I had won a victory. How long the case would have remained in statu quo is a matter of conjecture, had it not been for that lucky misfortune of my encounter in Waldon street, which the Beagle so beautifully elaborated into heroic proportions. I left her with her decision in abeyance. This morning my physician received a visit from her brother, who made inquiries about me. That was the first good news.

"Evidently the information she received gave her some assurance of my recovery. This morning she drove up in a coupe and left these flowers and a letter. Van Tweet, it's like a mediæval romance."

Van Tweet congratulated Brown, but there was a cloud on his brow as he took his departure. "I thought I knew something about human nature," he muttered, "but when it comes to telling what a woman means, I'm still in my swaddling clothes."

Isn't that the way the world wags?—Washington Post.

HELD BY THE KING.

Conan Doyle's Latest and Best Story to Be Published in The Daily Press.

On May 15 The Daily Press will begin publication of another tale of adventure from the pen of A. Conan Doyle. It tells how the Brigadier Gerard escaped from the old English prison at Dartmoor, and of many remarkable adventures which follow his escape, and which lead to a climax as pleasing as it is unexpected.

Dr. Doyle considers these adventures of Brigadier Gerard the best work of his life so far, and we hope that our readers will agree with him. We shall continue to publish the adventures of the dashing Brigadier through the Summer.

"How the King Held the Brigadier" will be published in daily instalments and will continue five days.

Mr. D. Wiley, ex-postmaster, Black Breek, N. C., was so badly afflicted with rheumatism that he was only able to hobble around with canes, and even then it caused him great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was so much improved that he threw away his canes. He says this liniment did him more good than all other medicine and treatment put together. For sale at 50 cents per bottle at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

Death of an Infant Daughter.

Emma Shapland, aged 13 months, only daughter of Rupert W. and the late Emma S. Chillas Anderson, died suddenly Saturday at the home of her parents in Washington Valley, of heart failure. Funeral services were held Sunday, and the remains interred in Hillside Cemetery.

A Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.

From the Groton Connecticut Review.—"David Lewis, who has been afflicted all winter by rheumatism, is out again and all due to one of the medicines advertised in our columns. After trying everything possible, he used Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which has relieved him of all pain, from which he was a constant sufferer and promises to make him fit for duty soon. We know David has been a great sufferer and are glad to see him around again." For sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

A Yard-Wide Ministry.

The Westfield Leader says: "Rev. Edward Kionka will hold the usual services in Etta Hall May 19. Now that man is off the St. Paul piece, yard wide."

It Did the Business.

Mr. J. H. Cobb, publisher of the Mirror, at Brockton, N. Y., says: "For nearly two years the Mirror has been publishing the advertisements of Chamberlain's Remedies. A few days ago the writer was suffering from a bowel trouble and resorted to an old remedy which did not prove efficacious; finally he tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy and two doses did the business, checking it completely. For sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

An established feature of The Daily Press is its copyrighted serials, fresh from the pens of the best living authors. These stories are all confined to six or less issues of The Press, thus guarding against the tiresomeness of being long-drawn-out. The Case of Laker", now running, is excellent, and is to be succeeded by the following gems:

May 15 to 20, "How the King Held the Brigadier", by A. Conan Doyle.

May 21 and 22, "The Eye of Beatrice".

May 23 and 24, "A Fraudulent Claim", by Howard Fielding.

May 25, "The Bishop's Ghost", by Frank R. Stockton.

You'll read them in The Press, or nowhere.

Agreeably Surprised.

"I had a very severe cold on my lungs that caused much soreness and gave me considerable uneasiness in regard to the result," says Mr. T. E. Smith, of Billerica, Mass. "A local druggist called my attention to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and on his recommendation I gave the remedy a careful trial. The result surprised me; I recovered entirely in three days." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

Know How to Sing and Play.

The Rutgers College Glee Club concert is announced for Tuesday evening, May 21, in Y. M. C. A. Hall. Tickets are now on sale at Reynolds's Pharmacy.

No Light, the Cause.

Arthur Huff, a newsboy, was knocked down Saturday night at 8 by a lanternless bicycle rider at the corner of Somerset and Front streets.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c per box. For sale by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

BAMBERGER'S.

"THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE."

147-149 Market Street, Newark,

Ladies' Shirt Waists.
Ladies' Silk Waists.

The waist has come to stay! It's practical and comfortable. More ladies are using them than ever before. Our showing is by far the largest and best in Newark and few houses in America surpass it; as to the values

They are Peerless and Unmatchable!

LADIES' SHIRT WAISTS of cambrics, lawns, percales and chambrays, hundreds of designs, all the best colors with or without laundered collars and cuffs, perfect fit and finish, from ..... 49c TO $2.98.

LADIES' SILK WAISTS China, Japanese, taffeta, faille and other desirable silks, plain and fancy, all colors, full sleeves, newest styles, from ..... $1.98 TO $12.49.

Your order by mail will receive the most careful attention. Free delivery everywhere.

L. BAMBERGER & CO.

147-149 Market Street, Newark.

J. T. VAIL, Real Estate and Insurance,

177 NORTH AVENUE.

Hats, New Shapes, Trunks and Bags Cheap.

All sizes in Packing Trunks.

E. M. Laing,

105 Park Avenue.

Pictures Framed TO ORDER.

HANDSOMELY AND REASONABLY.

R. C. RAND,

140 West Front st.

TOWNSEND'S

Marble and Granite Works,

SOMERSET STREET.

Our motto—Good work, good material at fair prices.

Try Dobbins's Cigars.

206 PARK AVE.

HE MANUFACTURES THEM.

There's But One Way

to get a correct idea of the completeness of our stock of Clothing and Furnishing Goods, and of the dollar-saving economies we offer you, and that is by inspecting the goods.

Our talk won't give you an idea, nor will anyone else's.

Come and See

those $8 and $10 men's suits now

$5.00.

Men's fine all wool suits in cheviots, Vicunas, etc., worth $12 to $16, now

$9.50.

Men's dress suits in fancy worsteds and clay diagonals, worth $18 to $20, now $12.50.

These are bargains you read of but never see outside of

WERNER'S,

206 West Front st.

A LADY'S TOILET

Is not complete without an ideal

COMPLEXION POWDER.

POZZONI'S

Combines every element of beauty and purity. It is beautifying, soothing, healing, healthful, and harmless, and when rightly used is invisible. A most delicate and desirable protection to the face in this climate.

Insist upon having the genuine.

FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

THE Bee Hive

Summer Underwear.

Ladies' ribbed vests 7, 10, 12, 15 and 25c.
Children's ribbed vests 8 and 10c.
Children's gauze vests and pants to match 10, 12, 15 and 18c.
Boys' short jean drawers 25, 44c.
Boys' short gauze drawers 25c.
Men's summer Merino shirts and drawers 35 and 50c.
Men's Balbriggan shirts in short and long sleeves, and drawers, 25, 35 and 50c.
Men's jean drawers 25 and 50c.
Also a full line of children's white lawn and cambric dresses.

Louis Callman,

222 West Front st.

L. L. MANNING, Marble AND Granite Works,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

THOS. MARLEY,

19 years with M. Quinn.

Blacksmith.

845 Richmond st.

You can stoop without effort and without fear if you wear a BALL'S CORSET. It won't stay bent and it can't break.

IT IS GUARANTEED.

I. LEDERER.

There is one DRESS STAY that Won't melt apart, Can't cut through the dress, Don't stay bent. It is BALL'S PEERLESS. All lengths; all colors.

Seely Edsall, Putnam & DeGraw, I. Lederer.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

Advertisements under this heading, 1 cent a word each insertion. Less than 10 words 10 cents. Cash must accompany adv.

COLORED boy of about 15 years wanted. Apply in barber shop, Ross's Building, East 5th st., corner Watchung. 5 10 tf

COTTAGE for sale or to rent; five fine rooms; water in kitchen; 3 minutes from depot. Apply 208 West 4th st. 5 13 3- m w s

FARMS for sale or exchange for Plainfield property. R. Coddington, Martinsville, N. J. 5 7 6

FOR SALE—Brahmas and Houdons eggs for hatching. Call at 72 Summit avenue. 5 3 2w

FURNISHED room to let in central location; references exchanged. Address Central, care Press. 5 13 2

GIRL wanted to assist in general housework at 215 Church street.

IS there a person in this philanthropic town who will assist an American girl, employed in a city office where the confinement is injuring her health, and who is pining for fresh air and sunshine, to leave the city and gain health and strength during the Summer months? Is competent to act as correspondent, secretary, do writing of any kind, or light bookkeeping; or will act as traveling companion; understands railroad guides, routes, etc., and has had considerable experience in traveling; references given. Address Hope, care Daily Press office. 5 10 2

LOANS NEGOTIATED. J. T. Vail, broker. 2 21 tf

MAN or girl wanted to do tailor work. Apply 319 Watchung ave. 5 13 2

MILK route for sale. F., care Press. 5 13 2

PAINTERS WANTED. Apply E. E. Marshall, North avenue. 5 2 tf

SIX ROOM flat to let; all improvements. 200 West Second st. 3 4 tf

TO LET—3 or 4 rooms for light housekeeping; no children. Apply 103 Duer street. 3 6 tf

WANTED—Milk route; give particulars. Address D. L. W., care Press. 5 13 2

WANTED.—Competent man for garden work, two or three days a week. Call in the evening at 42 Washington ave.

WANTED—Woman for general housework; family of 3; references required. Apply 60 Willow ave. 5 13 2

WANTED—One large or two small unfurnished rooms. Address G., care Press, 5 13 2

WANTED—White girl as cook. Apply 120 West Seventh st. 5 11 2

YOUNG colored man wants work. Experienced. References. Call 524 West Second street. 5 1 tf

$10 buys a good second-hand bicycle. Call 8 6 East Front st.

$1,000 TO $3,500 to loan, on first mortgage. Mulford, broker. 4 22 tf

DIED.

ANDERSON—May 11, 1895, suddenly, Emma Shapland, only daughter of Rupert W. and the late Emma S. Chillas Anderson, aged 13 months.

AUCTION SALE.

SATURDAY, MAY 18, 1895,

at 4 p. m. on the premises, one of the most valuable houses and lots ever offered in the borough of North Plainfield, known as the Bacon property, situated at 16 Sycamore avenue, size of lot about 75x200. Three-story brick house, contains 15 rooms and bath, all modern improvements, gas engine for pumping water, artesian well, 2 hot-air furnaces, shade and fruit trees on property. This is an A1 chance to procure one of the finest homes in Washington Park. Only cause for selling is to close an estate. The house will be open for inspection Friday and Saturday the 17th and 18th inst from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. For further particulars Address THOMAS M. KANE,

Middletown, Orange County, New York

Terms of sale—$3,000 00 can remain on bond and mortgage, balance in cash. 5 11 6

HELP THE CENSUS TAKERS!

This year is the year for the State census and on the enumerators for the different wards will begin the work of enumeration. It is important that an accurate count of the inhabitants be made to this end. Each household and each individual can assist by seeing that the names of all inhabitants living in their household are enrolled. The persons appointed to this work are: D. S. Pope, First Ward—Peter N. Kline, Second Ward—O. E. Chamberlin, Third Ward—Charles W. VanWinkle, Fourth Ward. 5 13 2

WEDNESDAY, MAY 15,

DOGS TAKEN TO BOARD.

NETHERWOOD FARM KENNELS,

Mountain avenue.

FLORIST.

A. E. LINCOLN,

226 PARK AVE.,

Large assortment of ferns and other plants. Choice cut flowers daily. Floral design work for all occasions a specialty.

MISS CLARIBEL JEFFRY,

Teacher of Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar.

Best references. 322 West Front st. Call Wednesdays.

THE DAILY PRESS

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, MAY 14, 1895. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

LOST THROUGH GREED.

Plainfield Pension Case Fully Investigated.

LUDLOW HIMSELF WAS TO BLAME.

The United States Government Fully Repudiates the Attack Made on Its Pension Department, and Shows the Complainant to Be Unworthy of Government Assistance.

To the Editor of The Daily Press :—

In an article published in another paper of May 8 a great injustice was alleged to an old soldier, W. H. Ludlow. This article has been submitted to the Commissioner of Pensions, and herewith you have his report on the case. Please be good enough to publish it. Nemo.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, BUREAU OF PENSIONS,
DESK OF THE FIRST DEPUTY COMMISSIONER.
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 4, 1895.

E. T. Matthews, Esq., 1743 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

DEAR SIR:—Referring to the claim of William H. Ludlow, Co. I, 35th N. J., Ctf. No. 494,312, I have to state that I have made a careful examination of all the papers. I find that Mr. Ludlow filed an application Feb. 5, 1889, in which he alleged pneumonia and resulting disease of lungs. This claim was allowed and certificate issued at the rate of $17 from Feb. 5, 1889. The claimant filed an application for increase Dec. 8, 1890, and under that application he was examined June 10, 1891, the Board of Surgeons reporting that he was not disabled by disease of lungs, but on the contrary was sound and healthy in all his organs. Not being satisfied with this report, he was ordered again for examination and was examined Jan. 14, 1894, with the same result.

Accordingly, notice was sent him January 9, 1895, that he would be given thirty days in which to show cause why his name should not be dropped from the rolls, agreeably to the Act of Dec. 21, 1893. In response to this notice he filed his own affidavit and the affidavits of two laymen, neither of whom described a disability from disease of lungs. Notwithstanding this fact, and in order that no injustice be done, he was again ordered for examination, the result of which was the same as the two previous ones. It will be noticed that since the allowance of the claim he has been examined by NINE surgeons of this Bureau, none of whom could find a disability from the pensioned cause. On the 24th of April last the Pension Agent was notified to drop his name from the rolls. There was nothing left for this Bureau to do but to take such action, in face of the showing of the medical boards.

Mr. Ludlow himself admits that the surgeon who made the record in his case in the hospital made a mistake, and that the disability he was suffering from was not "pneumonia", as recorded by the surgeon, but "rheumatism", FOR WHICH HE HAS NEVER FILED AN APPLICATION.

I will state further that the rate (seventeen dollars per month) allowed in this case was far in excess of that justified by the finding of the board of examining surgeons, (on which the claim was originally allowed)—that examination showing but a very slight disability, if any, from the alleged disease of lungs.

I wish to call your attention to the fact that Mr. Ludlow, in his article submitted, FAILS TO STATE THE NATURE OF THE DISABILITY FOR WHICH HE WAS PENSIONED.

I am, sir,
Yours truly,
D. I. MURPHY,
First Deputy Commissioner.

WHY NOT IN PLAINFIELD, TOO?

Elizabeth Coal Dealers Are Selling at Lower Rates Than in 16 Years.

Many of the coal dealers in Elizabeth have lowered the price per ton of the best grades of coal to $4.15, a drop of 35 cents. In quoting this rate the dealers are giving the public the advantage of the reduction on the wholesale prices, and also cutting off some of their own margin. A reduction is customary in the Spring, but coal has not been so cheap in 16 years before.

Flying the Borough Kyte.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—

After a long courtship, with its proverbial vicissitudes, the village of Fanwood will decide May 18 whether she will remain with her sister village of Scotch Plains in the family of the township, or become the "common-law wife" of the Central New Jersey Land and Improvement Company and the morganatic wife of the Philadelphia and New York Traction Company; and in exchange for her independence and property, receive the empty title of "Borough Commission".

"Then Earth the signal gives, with laboring cries
Great Juno speeds the nuptial mysteries,
The blushing lightning tells the conscious sky,
And wood nymphs shriek from craggy summits high,
O sad event of unavailing woe!
Oh deed! thou dark abode of mischief, oh!"

A FANWOODER.

All Free.

Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value, and those who have not, have now the opportunity to try it free. Call on the advertised druggist and get a trial bottle, free. Send your name and address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago; and get a sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills free, as well as a copy of Guide to Health and Household Instructor, free. All of which is guaranteed to do you good and cost you nothing at L. W. Randolph's Drugstore.

SEWER BEDS AND THE POOR

Suggestion that the City Establish Both Its Farms in the Same Locality.

Finances is what concerns the Citizens Organized Aid just now, and a good portion of the monthly meeting of the council in the Crescent Avenue Church last night was devoted to that problem.

The committee on employment reported that they had been quite successful in providing employment in domestic service for those who showed a disposition to work.

The special committee appointed to confer with the alms committee of the Common Council with reference to the establishment of an almshouse reported that matters had progressed so far that the Common Council had set aside enough money to purchase the necessary property. Chairman Mason Tyler added, however, that the proposition was being held in abeyance by the Councilmen, awaiting a decision in reference to the location and purchase of a sewer farm by the city.

It had been suggested that when such a property had been acquired, it would make a good and practical place for the erection of a poorhouse, for then those that were able could be employed by the city on the farm, and thus to a certain extent pay for their keeping.

The committee of co-operation recommended that the description of habitual beggars, who were frauds in their pretensions, be published in the newspapers. After much discussion, pro and con, it was adopted.

NOT ON A RAID.

Rutgers Students Were Only Looking for Plainfield Ozone and Pretty Girls.

"Rah, rah, rah! bow-wow-wow! Rutgers!" was the screeching vociferation of a dozen and two vociferous lungs that rung the ears of all humanity within a half dozen blocks of North avenue last night at 6:30. Those who were not within the vision of the yellers feared that the Indians of the Wild West Show had gone on the warpath, but those who saw the yellers saw nothing more startling than a stage full of Rutgers College students, who had driven overland from New Brunswick and were on their way to Rahway.

Many who had read the story concerning the manner in which the Rutgers students had precipitated a riot in the Wild West Show when it appeared in New Brunswick last week, thought that the crowd had come to Plainfield to have some more fun with the show.

But when a Daily Press reporter interrogated one of the young men with football hair it was learned that the party were out for a pleasure drive and were on their way to Rahway. The party was as follows: F. K. Grant, Warren Slyke, John C. Lovel, C. W. Byram, Chas. Pool, A. VanNess, Ede Mott Stryker, Frank L. Manning, Herbert Wycoff, Clark Jones, D. K. Hoffman, G. C. Woodruff, W. E. McMahon. They took supper at Hotel Grenada.

Boys Club Ball Team Reorganized.

The Boys Club baseball nine have been reorganized as follows: Tennus Hewitt, short-stop; Lawrence Doyle, first base; H. Thomas, second base; Henry Angerbauer, right field; H. Killoran, left field and catcher; Frank Connors, centre field and catcher; Mallison, catcher; Lawrence Doyle, pitcher; Andrew Benford, pitcher.

The club expects to play a juvenile team at Scotch Plains Saturday afternoon of this week.

This Should Be Remedied.

Much complaint is being heard about the city concerning the manner in which the streets are daily littered up by the ash wagons, the boxes of which are better fitted for sifting ashes rather than carrying them to the dump.

Comrades Together.

Buck Taylor was the guest of Constable Robert Mattox yesterday. Years ago they were members of the same circus, and many a passing and interesting incident in their tent life was related during their visit.

A Good Supper.

Do not forget that Ladies Committee of the Y. M. C. A. are making preparations for an A1 New England supper to be given to all the active members of the Y. M. C. A., Thursday evening, May 16, from 6:30 to 8.

To Organize Baseball.

A meeting of all the Y. M. C. A. boys interested in baseball will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Building tonight at 8:30.

HE PLAYED DETECTIVE.

Smart Princeton Student Foiled Again in Plainfield.

WAS AFTER WILD-WEST GAMBLERS.

Disguised in Ed Martin's Old Clothes, and Armed with Two Warrants and a Revolver, He Arrests His Man, and Then Has the Law Laid Down by Counselor Marsh.

In Princeton last week, one of the janitors attached to the college was fleeced out of a sum of money by the shell game at the Wild West Show which appeared in Plainfield yesterday. The students took it on themselves to ferret out the guilty man and bring him to justice. A fund was raised for the purpose, and a student by name James McGuire, was delegated to do the detective work. A Princeton justice issued a warrant for the arrest of a "man unknown" on the charge of keeping a gambling house, and deputized the student as an officer to serve the warrant.

The detective-student started out on his mission, and followed the show into several towns. But he had no accurate description of the man who worked the college janitor, and his efforts were proving something like a wildgoose chase. However, he kept diligently at work, and finally made the acquaintance of two of the tent men who had just quit the show. By degrees he took them into his confidence, and finally approached them to tell him who the sharpers were that had worked the man in Princeton. This they said they would do, claiming to possess the required information. To that end he made arrangements to meet them, and came to this city yesterday.

At 6:30 yesterday morning Edward Martin, the usher of the North avenue station, noticed two tough-looking tramps in the waiting room. He ordered them out of the station. A short time after that, one of the party came back to the station and told Martin that they were looking for a Princeton College student, and why.

He thought nothing more of it until 4:15 in the afternoon, when a well dressed young man entered the station and asked if he had seen two men around during the day, describing the tramps. Martin said that he had, and asked him if he was n't the man looking for the sharpers. He admitted that he was, and then took Martin into his confidence. He asked Martin if he did n't have an old suit of clothes that he could lend him so that he could hide his identity. Martin agreed to the loan, and McGuire left, saying that he was going up to the the circus grounds and that he would be back later and put on his disguise.

About 7:30 McGuire and Martin took the old clothes, which consisted of a black cheviot suit, striped shirt, and a slouch hat, armed himself with Martin's revolver, and went to Reynolds's drug store, where permission was secured to make the change. When McGuire was made up he resembled a workingman, whose face was covered with smut.

Previous to this, however, he had been before Justice Newcorn, who endorsed the warrants which he possessed, one being from Princeton, and another from Perth Amboy.

As soon as he completed his disguise he started for the circus grounds, and on arriving there sought out Sergeant Kiely, explaining his mission and identity to him. He asked the Sergeant to take the warrants and arrest the man whom he should identify. This Kiely agreed to do, the warrants appearing to be legal. The two then went over to the main entrance where a cluster of men were standing and McGuire selected a thick set man as the guilty one and he was placed under arrest.

The man set up a great claim of innocence, and his friends were interposing for him that it must be a case of mistaken identity and various other arguments, when Chief Grant came along and told the Sergeant to take him to the station house.

The two officers, McGuire and the arrested man, who gave his name as Morris W. Martin, came on down to the police station, where Justice Newcorn was sent for and the man arraigned on the warrant charging him with keeping a disorderly house.

Before this could be accomplished Martin's friends called on Craig A. Marsh at his home and employed him to defend the man.

Before the Justice, Lawyer Marsh made the claim that the warrant under which he was arrested was defective in the fact that no name was specified and no description whatsoever was given of the guilty one. On these grounds Justice Newcorn released Martin, who immediately left town.

McGuire also quickly changed from his disguise back to his own garb, and left town on the 9:55 train, much crestfallen that all his efforts should have been fruitless after such hard work—much of which would have been a credit to the metropolitan detectives.

As soon as Martin was placed in the police station, Sergeant Kiely hurried back to the circus grounds. He had been there but a few moments when Eugene Sullivan, of Hampton Junction, reported to Special Officer Carney that he had been buncoed out of $40 in the sideshow by the shell game, and he wanted the sharper arrested.

The two officers hurried through the side of the tent. Here they learned that the sharper had slid out of the tent as soon as he had procured the money. Bystanders all said that a colored man assisted the sharper and a search was made for him He was found and arrested. When arraigned before Justice Newcorn nothing could be proved against him, and he also was discharged. He gave his name as Walter Johnson

MOST ACCOMPLISHED OF ALL.

What The Penny Press of Indianapolis Says About its Scott Presses.

The Penny Press, May 11, 1895:

The Walter Scott perfecting presses which have just been put in operation in the press room of The Penny Press are not only superior in their general conception and mechanism to any perfecting press yet constructed, but they contain all the latest improvements which Walter Scott has invented and he is acknowledged today to be the most accomplished perfecting press inventor in the world.

Therefore when we say that The Penny Press has the most modern and complete printing establishment to be found in any daily newspaper in the West, we do not exaggerate. Other papers may have a larger number of machines and presses, but when it comes to quality and modern improvement, those in The Penny Press are the latest, the best and vastly superior, so far as the printing presses are concerned, to any other yet manufactured.

QUICK RUN TO A SMALL FIRE.

The Deadly Hanging Lamp Starts Another Blaze.

By a hook giving away a hanging lamp in the clothing and notion store of B. Forthgang, next to the Pond Machine Tool Works on South Second street, fell to the floor and set fire to the woodwork at 7:30 last night.

The proprietor was away at the time, though his wife was in the dwelling rooms in the rear of the store. Harry Moncton, who was passing along the street, saw the flames and smoke and shouted an alarm. This called out the neighbors, and they turned out and endeavored to extinguish the blaze. Box 47 in front of the Tool Works was pulled, and the department quickly responded, making the long run in short time. Shortly after their arrival all the fire was put out, but not until nearly all the stock had been damaged by the water, smoke and fire.

The County Fair.

"The County Fair" is carried in two special cars, and the production of the play in Music Hall Friday night will be embellished in the same complete manner as in New York. Two great sentimental and sensational features are announced: An old-fashioned husking bee, in which a score or more people are used, a running horse race in which five thoroughbreds are seen running full tilt, in all the enthusiasm of a close finish. In this scene over 10,000 pounds of machinery are used. Of the play itself it is generally described as superior to "The Old Homestead" in its portrayal of New England character. The conservative critic of the New York Herald says: "The play is sweet as the odor of fresh hay and the laughter of village maids in mid-Summer".

A Uniformed Ball Team.

The Crescent baseball team have reorganized as follows:

Dennis Kane, first base; Kelly Lyons, short-stop; Michael Heffron, catcher; Steven Carney, second base; O. Lederer, left field; W. Curtis, right field; W. VanHorn, pitcher; Peter Winn, third base; W. Shannon, centre field.

The players will be uniformed this week, and the club would like to hear from the Westfield Y. M. C. A. team and the Somerville team. W. VanHorn is captain.

Miss Peck to Speak in Elizabeth.

Miss Cara Peck of this city will deliver an address on temperance at a parlor meeting in Elizabeth tomorrow afternoon.

MUST HAVE FIRESCAPES

Counselor Marsh Tells the Board the Law.

BRYANT SCHOOL'S NEED EMPHASIZED

No Hall Yet Secured for Commencement, Because the June Controller of Music Hall Has Not Been Found—Committees on Prizes Appointed—Truant Law to Be Enforced.

A special meeting of the Plainfield Board of Education was held last evening, all the members except Dr. Jenkins being present, and also the clerk, Mr. Clark, who has been ill a long time.

Mr. Finch stated the meeting to be for the appointment of teachers and to make arrangements for the Commencement exercises in June.

The Committee on Teachers were not ready to report, and the matter was laid over until another meeting

Mr. Lovell then offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

"Resolved, That in the future the teachers in the employ of this Board be paid their annual salary in ten equal payments, on the first of each month, beginning with October of each year. In case of absence on days when the schools are in session, one two-hundredth part of the annual salary shall be deducted for each day's absence in making up the pay roll for ensuing month, but no reduction shall be made for legal holidays or days in which the schools are closed by order of the Board."

President Probasco appointed Rev. C. E. Herring, Eugene Hatch and F. W. Runyon a committee to award the prizes for English composition; and for penmanship, W. F. Arnold, Fred. MacDonald and O. B. Leonard were appointed.

The Committee on Music stated that the Seventh Regiment orchestra had been secured for Commencement, at the same price as last year.

Dr. Probasco, as chairman of the Committee on Hall, reported that he had been to see William Stillman about Music Hall and was told that he had nothing to do with the hall till Sept. 1. He then went to see Joseph Sohl, and he informed him that on June 1 his contract expired. The doctor thought there would be no trouble in securing the hall, though as yet he had been unable to find the owner.

The matter of securing police for Commencement was left with Dr. Jenkins.

Dr. Probasco read a letter from Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh giving his opinion in regard to placing firescapes on the Bryant School, which he claimed the Board would have to do as required by law. The matter was referred to the Building Committee.

Superintendent Maxson stated that a pupil named Willie Kiss had been more or less truant, and had been expelled twice during the year. His mother had promised that he would behave, and he thought he would give him another trial, but it proved to be futile. He thought the boy was incorrigble, and an inveterate truant. He recommended that the truant officer enforce the truant law in regard to him. Mr. Lounsbury moved that Mr. Maxson's recommendation be concurred in, and Mr. Finch seconded it. The motion was adopted.

The Board adjourned subject to the call of the chair.

Abandoned Well.

While Contractor Homan's men were trenching on Sixth street yesterday they ran into an old fire well, on the corner of Liberty street, the crumbling walls of which occasioned them considerable trouble. It was necessary to excavate a hole 20x8 before the work could proceed.

Change of Mails.

Owing to a change of time in the arrival and departure of trains, which took effect Sunday, some changes are necessary in the arrival and departure of mails, from the Plainfield postoffice. The corrected table, taking effect at once, is published in The Press today.

Free Pills.

Send your address to Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of constipation and sick headache. For malaria and liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c. per box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist.

COL. MOORE MADE FRIENDS.

But He Objects to Being Made Subordinate to a Woman Typewriter.

When interviewed yesterday concerning his resignation from the office of Deputy Commissioner of Street Cleaning, New York, as announced in The Daily Press yesterday, Col. Charles K. Moore would not say what cause or causes led to his desire to leave the ranks of street cleaning reformers. He said that they were set forth in the letter which he had written to the Commissioner, and that Col. Waring might make that public if he wished. Col. Waring refused to discuss the matter. To a friend Mr. Moore said that Col. Waring had been "pushing" him so that he had to resign or lose his self-respect.

It was said yesterday by one of the clerks in the Commissioner's office that one of the causes of Mr. Moore's resignation was a clash of authority between him and Col. Waring's private secretary, Mme. Ottilie S. Carre. She and her husband are old friends of the Warings, and when the new Commissioner took office he asked her to act as secretary. She is an energetic and masterful business woman. When Col Waring is not in his office she is in virtual command and transacts the routine business of the department. Mr. Moore, it is said, felt that the cares of office should devolve upon him in the Commissioner's absence, especially as he is officially Deputy Commissioner and holds a $4,000 place, while Mrs Carre receives only $1,500.

The Brookfield Republican leaders will regret the retirement of Corporal Moore, for he was one of the importations from other States put in office by the present municipal administration who found favor in the eyes of the politicians. They could ask Mr. Moore for favors and be pretty sure of getting what they asked for if it was in his power to grant it.

"Moore has made more friends than Waring"—said one of these leaders yesterday—"and I'm mighty sorry he's going. I suppose the Colonel will push his friend, Capt. Gibson, along into the Deputy Commissionership. Gibson's a Democrat."

A Stage Celebrity.

Miss Maude Miller, who will appear in the title role, at the special production of "Hazel Kirke", in Music Hall tomorrow evening, inherits much of the genius of her illustrious father, writing verse of unusual merit, and her sketches appear frequently in the leading Magazines. Miss Maude Miller is none other than the daughter of Joaquin Miller, the famous "poet of the Sierras", and whose name is known far and wide as the favorite author of mountain verse.

Miss Miller was educated in the Covent of Jesus-Marie, near Quebec. She is tall and stately, graceful in all she does, and prefers rather to adopt the quieter and more modest stage methods than those which frequently inspire ridicule by reason of being overdone. She has a pleasant face, a winning face, a musical voice that lends a peculiar charm to all her utterances, and she has steadily climbed the ladder in the dramatic profession until today she is one of the strongest leading ladies of the country.

Local Talent in Effective Effort.

In the entertainment under the auspices of Howell Division, S. of T., to be held in Reform Hall, on a date to be announced hereafter, the following characters will be impersonated:

Explanatory lecture by J. H. Sayers; Judge Countername, W. R. Mattox; Policeman Killemall, S. B. Scribner; The two orphans, Betsy Baker and Dorothy Mayflower, Bertha Clum and Try Mattox; Pat Flannagan, L. S. Mattox; Lawyer Youngone, A. Drake; Lawyer Dumeasy, G. Schafer; Parthenia, A. B. Scribner; Music teacher, (out of a job) M. Schultz.

The song, "I don't want to play in your yard", will be sung by two children, four and six years old. The performance will conclude with the third act of "Uncle Tom's Cabin", depicting the death of Eva, the characters to be taken by members selected from Howell Division.

A Home in Washington Park.

On Saturday, May 18, at 4, on the premises, 16 Sycamore avenue, North Plainfield, Thomas M. Kane, representing the estate, will sell at public auction, to close the estate, the elegant property known as the Bacon property. This is a choice piece of real estate, and must be sold. The advertisement appears in The Press, and posters on the billboards.

Elizabeth Talent.

Miss Pauline Newburger of Elizabeth will take part in the production of "The Hickory Farm" for the benefit of the Y. M. C. L., Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

IN HASLETON'S BEHALF

Bradley B. Smalley Will See the President.

Mr. Hasleton Has No Hope of the Interview Benefiting His Case, However—Says His Resignation Was Demanded Solely on Admiral Meade's Report.

Washington, May 14.—Hon. Bradley B. Smalley, of Vermont, member of the National Democratic committee from that state and recognized as an intimate friend of President Cleveland, will visit the state department to-day, in company with Seneca W. Hasleton, of Burlington, Vt., United States minister to Venezuela, for purpose of inquiring into the nature of certain charges made against Minister Hasleton by Admiral Meade, which led Secretary Gresham, on April 12, to ask Mr. Hasleton's resignation by cablegram.

Objected to the Summary Action.

In response to the message the minister asked and obtained leave to come to the United States for a personal interview, and leaving La Guayra on the 2d inst., arrived in Washington last Thursday. Since then he has had several interviews with Assistant Secretary Uhl at the department, and at two of these he was requested to place his resignation at the disposal of the department. Mr. Hasleton demurred to this summary form of procedure, especially in view of the fact that he had not been furnished with a copy of the charges preferred by Admiral Meade, and could only speculate upon their nature and scope, and expressed a desire to see the president before acting upon Mr. Uhl's request.

Has Little Hope.

To this, it is said, Mr. Uhl responded that it was not probable President Cleveland would consent to receive the minister. Then Mr. Hasleton decided to await Mr. Smalley's arrival in Washington, which occurred last night, before proceeding further. Mr. Hasleton appears to have very little expectation that the visit of Mr. Smalley will be effectual in changing the present determination of the officials to remove him, and Mr. Hasleton understands that the action already taken in the matter will not be reversed.

The Case Almost Inexplicable.

Minister Hasleton believes that the charges against him grew out of Admiral Meade's visit to Venezuela in March last and that they were based upon differences which occurred between the admiral and himself as to the admiral's failure to observe the customary etiquette governing such visits. So far as the facts are known the case is almost inexplicable. A glance at the records fails to disclose another instance in which a minister to a foreign country has been asked for his resignation.

Says He Was Not Indiscreet.

It was suggested that the real cause of the request from Secretary Gresham might be that in his intercourse with the Venezuelans the minister had given utterance to indiscreet expressions regarding the attitude of the United States in the pending boundary dispute with Great Britain. Mr. Hazleton replied that there was nothing in that suggestion; that he had been particularly careful to say nothing either in private or official communications that could give rise to any misapprehension regarding the views of this government on the subject. He received no intimation from the department that his course in that respect was not entirely satisfactory. On the 15th of January, this year, he forwarded a note from Ministere Rojas calling attention to the danger which threatened from Great Britain's asserting control of the Orinoco river, urging the United States "to exercise its efficient and direct intervention," as had frequently been done in the past.

Blames Admiral Meade.

Minister Hasleton further said that if any complaint was to be made on that score it lay against Admiral Meade, who, he asserted, sought to impress the Venezuelan government and the public that the visit of his squadron was something more than mere courtesy; that it implied assurances that the United States government would lend the strength of its navy to maintain the integrity of Venezuela's territory against the aggressions of Great Britain. This effort on the part of the admiral, he said, created some surprise among the Venezuelan officials, who were aware of the pacific nature of his visit, and did not appreciate the attempt to thus impose on their credulity. The result, said Mr. Hasleton, was that Admiral Meade was much piqued and out of this condition Mr. Hasleton thinks, grew the determination of the admiral to make the charge against him of drunkenness, etc.

G. A. R. at Saratoga.

Saratoga, N. Y., May 14.—The twenty-ninth annual encampment of the state G. A. R. was formally opened this morning. Delegates are here from all parts of the state, and nearly every man one meets wears the Grand Army button. The town is a mass of flags and bunting and presents a truly military air.

New Men at Pocahontas.

Roanoke, Va., May 14.—One hundred new men went to work at the Pocahontas mines yesterday, which enabled the company to get out about one half of its product. The Richmond Blues arrived to relieve some of the soldiers who have been on duty ten days. Gov. O'Ferrall is still at Pocahontas.

Amphitrite Ordered To Savannah.

Washington, May 14.—Secretary Herbert has ordered the monitor Amphitrite to Savannah, Ga., in accordance with a request of citizens of that city that the navy might be represented by one of its vessels at the flower carnival about to be held there.

Two Drowned in Lake Erie.

Conneaut, O., May 14.—During a squall on the lake here yesterday afternoon a small boat containing four young men was upset and two of the occupants were drowned.

Looking to France for a Loan.

Tokio, May 14.—It is stated here that China hopes to easily procure in France funds to enable her to promptly pay the indemnity to Japan.

HOTTEST AND COLDEST.

This Month a Record Breaker at Both Ends—Coldest Since 1871.

New York, May 14.—May, 1895, will go on record in the weather statistics of New York as having had the warmest and the coldest May days for very many years. May 10, last week, was the hottest May day since 1875. The temperature early yesterday morning was lower than it had been before in May since 1871. The cold wave, it is reported, has caused havoc among the fruit crops. It carried a fall in the temperature in this city of 20 degrees. At 3 a. m. the mercury registered 38 degrees. Mr. Dunn said it was the coldest spell throughout the country for the same season that he remembered.

Sixteen Inches of Snow.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 14.—Western and northern Michigan was visited by a heavy snow storm yesterday and grave fears are felt for fruit as the storm is the heaviest throughout the fruit belt. Snow plows were sent from this city to clear the tracks. At Mancelona snow to the depth of sixteen inches is reported. Many of the cottages at resorts along [illegible] had been occupied for the season, the weather having been unusually mild up to Sunday.

Frost in the Wyoming Valley.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 14.—A raging frost prevailed throughout the Wyoming valley for the past twenty-four hours, followed by a cold wave, during which the thermometer dropped forty degrees. There was heavy frost last night and fruit growers and gardeners will lose heavily.

Little Damage in Maryland.

Baltimore, May 14.—Dispatches from western Maryland and the peninsula are to the effect that little or no damage was done the spring crops by the cold weather of yesterday and last night. The recent heavy rains will probably increase the "June drop" of immature fruit.

Schooner Ashore in a Snowstorm.

Alpena, Mich., May 14.—The schooner J. B. Kitchen went ashore yesterday in the blinding snowstorm on Middle island. She is loaded with limestone for Chicago. A heavy southeast gale prevails and unless it moderates soon it will pound her to pieces.

At the Freezing Point.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., May 14.—The thermometer reached the freezing point here last night, a drop of 58 degrees in two days. There was a slight fall of snow last night. The surrounding mountains are covered with snow.

39 Degrees at Charleston, W. Va.

Charleston, W. Va., May 14.—There was a heavy frost throughout this section this morning, but owing to dry weather no damage of any importance was done. The thermometer last night fell to 39, with a cold rain.

Last Night's Blizzard in Indiana.

La Porte, Ind., May 14.—Northern Indiana was visited by a storm yesterday which raged for several hours. The cold has increased greatly. A blizzard set in about midnight last night.

Ice Formed in Virginia.

Lexington, Va., May 14.—This section was visited by a heavy frost Sunday night and in one locality there was ice. Damage to the fruit and gardens was very slight.

Fears for Crops in Ohio.

Cincinnati, May 14.—At many points in southern Ohio and Indiana ice formed last night. There was a heavy frost and it is feared crops are greatly damaged.

Fearful Sea on Lake Michigan.

Sheboygan, Wis., May 14.—A fearful sea is running here as the result of the northerly gale which set in shortly after midnight.

STARVING HERSELF TO DEATH.

Mysterious Conduct of an Unknown Woman at Harrisburg.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 14.—A woman registered at the Columbus hotel two weeks ago as Mary A. Smith, New Haven. The first week she ate very little and since Tuesday last has not allowed a morsel of food to pass her lips. She refuses medicine prescribed for her, or to tell anything about her friends. The proprietor of the hotel has offered the woman all the aid possible, but she positively refuses, and is starving herself to death. She is between 30 and 40 years of age, tall, thin, dark hair and dresses very plainly.

To Accept Honors from Sweden.

Washington, May 14.—Dorsey Mohun, United States commercial agent at Boma, Congo Free State, resigned that position yesterday in order to accept a decoration from the Belgian government in recognition of his services in suppressing the slave trade in the Congo country. Mr. Mohun was chief of artillery in an expedition against Arab slave traders and distinguished himself during the campaign.

Wages Voluntarily Advanced.

Pittsburg, May 14.—The managers of the Moorhead Bros. Vesuvius Iron works, located at Sharpsburg, have voluntarily advanced the wages of their 350 employes an average of fifteen per cent. Every employe receives an increase in pay.

Ice an Inch Thick.

Maysville, Ky., May 14.—Ice an inch thick formed here last night. Heavy frost. Crops considerably damaged.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

Wheat—Spot has advanced with prices held firm. No. 2 red f. o. b. afloat 62½c.

Corn—Spot trade firm. Steamer mixed 55½c. elevator.

Oats—Spot dull No. 2 white 28½c.; No 2, mixed, 28c.

Pork—Spot firm with fair business. Extra prime nominal, $15.25a$15.50; mess $13.25a$13.75.

Lard—Contracts are steady but quiet. July, $5.89.

Butter—Steady, old prices sustained. New butter, creamery, western extras, 15c.; state dairy, half firkin tubs, fancy, 16c.

Cheese—Values fair; demand slow. State, full cream, large colored, fancy, new, 6½a7c.; common to prime, 6a6½c.

Eggs—Prices show a slight advance with moderate supply and light demand. Best northwestern quoted at 10½c.

Potatoes—Old are dull and heavy and values tending downward. State, white stock, per 180 lbs., $2a$2.25; Jersey, prime, in bulk, per 180 lbs., $2.75a$3.00.

THE MIKADO'S DECREE

Final Act of Restoring Peace in the Orient.

Admiral Ito Appointed Chief of the Navy—He Will Go to Formosa and Formally Annex the Island. Sukenori To Become Viceroy—Why Liao Tung Was Abandoned.

London, May 14.—A dispatch to the Central News from Tokio says that an imperial decree has been issued, setting forth that the envoys of Japan and China have completed the task entrusted to them of negotiating a treaty of peace between the two countries. The decree, after stating the conditions of peace agreed upon, says that Russia, Germany and France advised Japan that the permanent retention by her of the Liao-Tung peninsula would not conduce to lasting peace in the Orient, and urged the retrocession of that territory to China. The decree then continues:

Concession for Peace.

"We have always been anxious to establish and maintain peace. Our object in the recent war was to found an enduring peace. We believe that Russia, France and Germany are imbued with the same feeling. Therefore, we will not insist upon the retention of the Liao-Tung peninsula.

Will Arrange Terms Themselves.

"We do not desire to raise fresh trouble, increasing the calamities of our people or to obstruct the expansion of our country by deterring a restoration of the blessings of peace. China has shown regret for her breach of friendship, thus justifying before the world Japan's action. Japan will comply with the desires of Russia, France and Germany. The manner in which the Liao-Tung peninsula will be restored to China will be arranged by China and Japan.

